

CHAPTER 120.

(H. B. No. 336)

FORECLOSURE OF ASSESSMENTS FOR LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS IN CERTAIN CITIES.

AN ACT relating to foreclosures of assessments for local improvements in cities of the third and fourth classes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. In proceedings brought for the foreclosure of delinquent assessments for street and local improvements in cities of the third and fourth classes, it shall not be necessary to bring a separate suit for each separate piece or parcel of property delinquent, but all or any part of the property delinquent in any single local improvement district may be proceeded against in the same action and all or any of the owners or persons interested in any of the property delinquent in any single local improvement district may be joined as parties defendant in the action to foreclose: Provided, That in entering judgment, the judgment of the court shall specify separately the amount chargeable to each separate piece or parcel of land within such improvement district for its share of the assessment, interest, penalty and costs, and the complaint likewise, shall separately state the amount chargeable to each piece or parcel of land. Where several owners of distinct parcels of land in the same local improvement district are joined in the same action to foreclose and judgment be given against the defendants and the property, the court shall apportion the costs in a just and equitable manner against the several owners of the several parcels of land. In any such action where the owners of any particular parcel or parcels of property included in such suit, shall suffer a default, the court may enter judgment of foreclosure and sale as to the owners and property so in default and order execution thereon, and the action may proceed as to the remaining defendants and property. Judgment may be pronounced by the court as to any distinct parcel of land under separate ownership, and the court may retain jurisdiction of the case as to the balance.

Separate suits not necessary.

Apportionment of costs.

Judgment.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing, changing or modifying any existing act, charter or ordinance relating to the enforcement of assessments for local improvements, but this act shall be construed as an additional and concurrent remedy.

Passed the House February 27, 1905.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1905.

Approved by the Governor March 9, 1905.
