

CHAPTER 123.

(H. B. No. 161)

REAPPRAISEMENT OF TIDE LANDS AT SOUTH BEND.

AN ACT providing for the reappraisalment of the tide lands in front of and adjacent to the city of South Bend, in the County of Pacific, State of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That the Board of State Land Commissioners shall on or before the first day of September, 1905, make or cause to be made a reappraisalment of all of the tide lands of the first class, at, in front of, and adjacent to the City of South Bend, in the County of Pacific in the State of Washington, not heretofore conveyed by deed from the State, the original appraisalment of which is disproportionate to or the value of such tide lands; and such appraisalment, when made, shall be in lieu of the original appraisalment. In lieu of original appraisalment.

SEC. 2. Report of the appraisalment of the tide lands herein authorized shall be made in duplicate, and one of each shall be filed with the State Commissioner of Public Lands, and one with the Auditor of Pacific County. Filing of report.

SEC. 3. The owner or owners of land abutting or fronting upon any of the tide lands herein authorized to be appraised shall have the preferential right for sixty days following the filing of the final appraisalment with the State Commissioner of Public Lands and County Auditor to apply for the purchase of all or any portion of the tide lands in front of the lands so owned. Preference right to purchase.

SEC. 4. The general laws of this State in reference to the appraisalment and sale of tide lands, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be applicable hereto. General laws applicable.

Passed the House February 28, 1905.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1905.

Approved by the Governor March 9, 1905.
