CHAPTER 246

[Substitute House Bill No. 907]

PEOPLE'S LODGE—OWNERSHIP

AN ACT Relating to a regional Indian facility; and amending section 1, chapter 128, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 37.14.010.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 128, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 37.14.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Solely for the purpose of providing a matching grant for the planning, design, acquisition, construction, furnishing, equipping, remodeling, and landscaping of a regional Indian cultural ((~~and~~), educational, tourist, and economic development facility designated as the "people's lodge," ((~~and located at Discovery Park, Seattle~~)) the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one million dollars or so much thereof as shall be required to finance that portion of the grant by the state for said project as is set forth by appropriation from the Indian cultural center construction account in the general fund ((~~by chapter __, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. (SHB 1626) the supplemental appropriation act~~)) for such purposes, to be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

If two million seven hundred thousand dollars or more in additional federal and/or private funding is not secured within five years of the effective date of this 1979 act and applied toward the completion of the "people's lodge," ownership of the property and/or facility developed with the proceeds of the bonds issued under this section shall be transferred to the state. Expenditure of these bond proceeds shall be conditioned on prior approval by the director of general administration of any real estate acquisitions and of construction plans for any building and/or grounds projects. The director's approval shall be based on a finding that any real estate to be acquired is appraised at or above the purchase price, that any construction plans for building and/or grounds projects provide for completion of any facilities contemplated therein, and that there are funds in an amount sufficient to finish the project so that it is fully operation for its intended uses.

The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form of such bonds, the time of sale of all or any portion or portions of such bonds, and the conditions of sale and issuance thereof.

Each such bond and bond anticipation note shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due. The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the due date thereof under such terms and conditions as it may determine. The state finance committee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of the bonds.

Passed the House May 31, 1979.

Passed the Senate June 1, 1979.

Approved by the Governor June 15, 1979.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 15, 1979.

CHAPTER 247

[Substitute House Bill No. 1064]

STATE EMPLOYEES—SICK LEAVE PAYMENT—APPROPRIATIONS

AN ACT Relating to appropriations; and creating new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. On January 1, 1980, the state treasurer shall transfer the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars from the general fund to the sick leave account in the general fund to be used as a working capital balance for payments on account of sickness made to state employees and excludable from federal old age and survivor's insurance contributions. If the office of financial management determines, after consultation with the social security administration, that it is not necessary to establish the general fund – sick leave account to carry out the provisions of chapter 152, Laws of 1979, (Senate Bill No. 2030), then the transfers authorized by this section shall not be made.
