Walsh, Wilcox, Wylie, and Young

WHEREAS, The people of the state of Washington celebrate children for the happiness they bring to our lives and the hopes and dreams they represent for our nation; and

WHEREAS, Children are the leaders of tomorrow; and it is our solemn obligation to instill in them the values, convictions, goodwill, and fortitude they need to continue the wonderful legacy of freedom, peace, and prosperity we have inherited from those who came before us; and

WHEREAS, There can be no better measure of our governance than the way we treat our children; and

WHEREAS, The children of the state of Washington should be cherished and are deserving of a nurturing and protective environment where they may flourish and realize their full potential; and

WHEREAS, The children of the state of Washington should always know that they are valued members of our society; and

WHEREAS, The children of the state of Washington should have access to quality education, wholesome recreation, and safe communities; and

WHEREAS, Children should be loved and treasured by their families, and all people of the state of Washington should help them by setting examples of what it means to be an ethical, hardworking, healthy, and productive community member; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives welcomes children into the House Chamber so they may witness the legislative process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives encourage all residents of Washington to celebrate children on Children's Day and throughout the year by spending more quality time with children, and reminding children of their special place in our lives.

Walsh, Wilcox, Wylie, and Young

WHEREAS, Washington State is the only state named for a president, and along with the nation has set aside the third Monday of every February to celebrate Presidents' Day; and

WHEREAS, Presidents' Day remembers the birthdays of President Washington and President Lincoln, and also extends to embrace and commend other former occupants of the White House; and

WHEREAS, George Washington, the first president of the United States of America, leader of the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War, and signer of the Constitution of the United States of America is celebrated on Presidents' Day for his birthday on February 22nd; and

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln, the sixteenth president of the United States of America, leader of the Union in the Civil War, signer of the Emancipation Proclamation, and writer of the momentous Gettysburg Address is celebrated on Presidents' Day for his birthday on February 12th; and

WHEREAS, George Washington sought to forge a country that was welcoming to those escaping persecution; and

WHEREAS, Our presidents have demonstrated strong leadership qualities, determination to create an independent and united republic, a commitment to democratic ideals; and, to this day, our presidents remain among the finest examples of honor and dignity, not only for political leaders, but for people everywhere; and

WHEREAS, No Presidents' Day celebration would be complete without appropriate recognition for the invaluable service of the first ladies who have aided our presidents to serve in the past; each one exemplifying what it means to be an American, providing a voice for the people, and being a model of courage, grace, and excellence; and

WHEREAS, It is recognized that this exceptional nation is filled with proud, diverse Americans who honor these leaders; and

WHEREAS, The forbearers of this nation worked tirelessly to ensure that we would live in a free nation, away from the tyranny of evil, presented with the freedom of choice, and ruled by those elected; a government of the people, by the people, and for the people;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this twentieth day of February 2017, the House of Representatives honor these heroes and former presidents of our great union, and reflect upon the solemn duty, responsibility, and honor of serving the public.
