Dear Sir and Madam,

Please support an ongoing COLA for the inflation ravaged PER'S 1 plan: presently I have maintained part-time work up until age 74, and, as I just reach the age of 75 it has become necessary to diminish my daily activity due to lower leg nerve damage and worn-out knees...my entire life has been high activity, "get the job done," and motivated to work hard just because it felt right. That "ship has sailed." If it is fiscally possible to fund future COLA increases that would be very much appreciated, if it is not doable I will continue to remain as productive as possible while convinced you are doing what you can with limited resources...and, of course...we are still the best state in the Union, and I will still keep the over-wintering humming birds fed.

Ser bendecido siempre,
Jerry C. Jacobson
