YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Ackley:

"Representative Gorton, from a discussion with you some days ago, it was my impression that you were in favor of this amendment. Maybe I was incorrect. Will you tell us what your position is?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Ackley, I am neither particularly in favor nor particularly against it. I also understood that with this amendment Mr. Klein was in favor of the bill, which I find he is not. I will say this for Mr. Klein's amendment. All it does is carry this back from the fall general election to the same fall primary. I don't think many people vote only in the primary partisan elections. The amendment makes no difference to me at all."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Wintler and Perry speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Klein and Burtch speaking in its favor.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 1, strike all of section 2 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ackley, Litchman, and Campbell speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Moos speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question.

Mr. Olsen demanded an electric roll call and, the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the demand for the previous question, and the demand was not sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 44; absent or not voting, 4.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Conner, Johnston, Lybecker—4.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Litchman:

"I believe the Speaker misunderstood the request for roll call. The request was for a roll call on Mr. Ackley's amendment to delete the new section 2."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Kink had demanded the previous question and that was the question before us. Would you care to demand an electric roll call on adoption of the amendment, Mr. Litchman?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes."

The Speaker:

"Do seventeen members sustain the demand?"

The demand for an electric roll call on adoption of Mr. Ackley's amendment deleting section 2 was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Burtch, Mundy, and Moos speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Those voting nay were: Representative Morphis—1.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Canfield, Lybecker—3.

Mr. Ackley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 9, beginning on line 16, strike all of section 9, which is renumbered section 8.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ackley and Moos speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. Comfort:

"As I recall, the emergency clause dealt only with section 1 taking effect immediately. I am concerned because the first section, I believe, refers to the date of April 1. If we strike the emergency clause, would this in effect be delaying this for one full year?"

Mr. Moos:

"Sir, you are my counsel."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Ackley yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"I will."

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Ackley, if we strike the emergency clause, are we not in effect delaying the effectiveness of section 1 of this act one full year?"

Mr. Ackley:

"I don't think so, Representative Comfort. This is not my intention. It says 'the first day of April of each odd-numbered year, or as soon thereafter as is practicable.' This has been in the law for a long time. If the act goes into effect three months after it is signed by the governor, the county auditor can then act upon it."

Further debate ensued, Representative Comfort speaking against adoption of the amendment.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Litchman, the House deferred further consideration of House Bill No. 479 on second reading, and the bill was ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

House Joint Resolution No. 16, by Representatives Evans, Perry, and Gorton:

Amending Constitution to provide home rule for cities and towns.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Moos, Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 was substituted for House Joint Resolution No. 16, and the substitute resolution was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Mr. Litchman moved that Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 be indefinitely postponed.

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Evans speaking against it.

Mr. Olsen demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Evans yield to question, please?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Evans, will you yield to question, sir?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Evans, looking at page 2, would this leave local option as far as gambling is concerned?"

Mr. Evans:

"The specific things that are excluded as local affairs are enumerated. Gambling may not be excluded, and Mr. Gorton, I think, is considering the possibility of an amendment if it is necessary."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Evans, calling your attention to page 1, in the underlined material at the bottom of the page it recites that the cities and towns covered by this resolution will have such other powers as may be permitted by the Constitution or by general law. Now, under the present law, as I understand it, the first class charter cities do have general powers such as are not prohibited by the Constitution or by the general laws that this legislature passes. Therefore the legislature does have some control of certain of the regulations and government of the city. Would this still be the case if this resolution were adopted? Are we changing that principle at all?"

Mr. Evans:

"Well, you are talking about a legal problem that as a non-lawyer I am not completely prepared to answer. This does extend not just to charter cities of the first class but to all cities and towns. Perhaps Mr. Gorton could better answer your question."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Ackley, we are giving the cities and towns power over their local affairs, the type of things we discussed eloquently earlier in connection with such things as dog licenses. We are also saying that if the state wishes to give them some power over matters that are not strictly of a local concern, there will be that further extension. Now, we are extending this to cities below twenty thousand people, which are presently first class cities, but we do reserve the powers enumerated on page 2. We do, however, have the two different things—giving exclusive control over local affairs and permitting the legislature to give such other authority as it desires."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Ackley and O'Brien speaking in favor of the motion to indefinitely postpone, and Representatives Jolly, Perry, and Haussler speaking against the motion.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Haussler:

"I wonder if Mr. Gorton would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Haussler:

"There is one thing that bothers me. On page 2, line 8 there is a reference to add valorem tax limits. I realize that that means the forty-mill limit, which is fine, but what is to prevent the raising of property valuations. I realize this is subject to referendum, but not all of the people own property. Could you answer that, please?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Haussler, it would seem to me, in quick answer to you, that this is obviously not a local function. With the exception of one city in Walla Walla county which was granted this right many years ago, it is a county function under the county assessors."

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to indefinitely postpone Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 71; absent or not voting, 7.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Bergh, Bigley, Burtch, Chatalas, Gallagher, Grant, Henry, Herr, Johnston, Kink, Klein, Litchman, McCormick, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Savage, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—21.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earle, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jolly, Jueling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Uhlman, Wang, Wintler, Young—71.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Bozarth, Garrett, King, Lybecker, Smith, Taylor—7.

Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 was read the second time in full.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 11, strike all the material after "public officials" down to and including "utilities" on line 12.

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Gorton and Evans speaking against its adoption.

The Speaker called on Mr. Kink to preside.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes."

Mr. Mundy:

"Is it true most classes of cities in our state by regulation or council action or by franchise grant certain rights to utilities within the incorporated cities?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Mundy, this is exactly correct. They are authorized to do this by state law. Our state laws are so set up that the cities have so little power that we can override the charters of charter cities, which in almost every other state the legislature can't do. Right now the cities have exactly the powers of which you speak because they have been granted to them by the legislature. This would leave that situation identical to the way it is now."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Burtch and Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Gorton and Comfort speaking against it.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. May:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question, please?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. May:

"On page 2, there is a provision 'except that no city or town shall deprive any individual of any right vested in him under any existing compulsory civil service, pension, or retirement system heretofore established.' They can't touch the ones in existence now, but could they conceivably adopt another one that was a watered down version of what the men have now, and in a matter of a few years dilute their program to the extent where it wouldn't be very good?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. May, the first portion of your statement certainly is correct. We are doing what the Constitution, I think, already requires, stating that nothing by reason of this amendment can affect anyone's rights which came into existence before the amendment was passed. We are also stating from here on out, those matters will be matters of local control. I think this is a matter of general philosophy. Are we the repositories of all wisdom in the legislature or will we let local problems be handled by local people? This is the whole reason for the amendment. We are giving them full power to solve their problems in any manner they see fit, higher or lower or sideways."

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained by a rising vote.

Mr. Ackley demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Ackley to Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 57; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Bigley, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Kink, Klein, Litchman, May, McCormick, Moon, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—37.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jueling, King, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young—57.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Conner, Johnston, Lind, Lybecker—5.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of personal privilege involves the right of us as members to attend dinners if we wish to. I object to the ill-concealed threat of Mr. Comfort that if we insist on our right to speak on these issues that perhaps we would not be able to go and hear the Senator tonight. I don't think it is proper to have that kind of threat brought before us on the floor. I think all the Republican members know our Senator is going to speak to us. This is not the first time they have threatened that if we do insist on our right to speak on these issues, perhaps we would not be able to attend this dinner. I would like to bring to their attention that even if we have to miss the dinner, we still insist on our right to debate these issues, because this is our privilege under a democracy."

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of the following amendment to Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16:

On page 2, line 11, after "officials;" and before "the" strike "and (6)" and insert "(6) laws relating to the control of liquor and gambling; and (7)"

Debate ensued, Representatives Gorton, Litchman, and Perry speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Gorton, I notice on line 6: 'Local or municipal affairs shall not include matters relating to . . .' and then skipping down to your amendment, which as I recall deals with gambling and liquor, would the present tolerance policy or the provisions of Senate Bill 360 be unconstitutional under the provisions of your amendment if this were a portion of our state Constitution, because the cities would then have local authority over gambling and tolerance policies?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Uhlman, you are exactly reversed, I am afraid. What I am doing is adding to the list of things which are not local and over which the cities would not have exclusive jurisdiction."

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried, and Mr. Gorton's amendment to Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 was adopted.

Mr. Haussler moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 8, after "tax limits" and before the comma insert "or assessment levels"

Debate ensued, Representatives Haussler and Evans speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Evans, haven't some of the cities been complaining about the assessment level put on by the county assessors and wishing they could establish it?"

Mr. Evans:

"Not that I am aware of, Mr. Ackley."

The motion was carried, and the amendment by Mr. Haussler was adopted. Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

The House resumed consideration of House Bill No. 437 on second reading.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the consideration of the following amendment by Mr. Klein:

In section 1, line 16, after "activity" and before the period insert ", except in nonpartisan elections"

The motion to adopt the amendment was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 437 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

House Bill No. 53, by Representatives Henry, Morrissey, and McCormick: Providing a means of determining "selling price" for the taxation of vending machines sales and the sales made through similar devices.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—93.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Dootson, Hadley, Metcalf—3.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Grant kindly yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Grant?"

Mr. Grant:

"Yes."

Mr. Dootson:

"Could you please inform us of abuses that have taken place in the past in regard to this?"

Mr. Grant:

"I am not personally acquainted with them, Mr. Dootson, but I have been informed by the director of the aeronautics commission that there have been abuses. It is a relatively minor item. I think six or seven people have used this apparent loophole in the tax law, and this will eliminate the possibility of their continuing to do so."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Dootson and Bergh speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Backstrom and Henry speaking for its passage.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 425, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 38; absent or not voting, 7.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Andersen (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Campbell, Chatalas, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Grant, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Lewis, Litchman, Mahaffey, May, McCormick, McDougall, McFadden, Moon, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Rogers, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee—54.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Moos would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Moos, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Representative Moos, if this is solely for the purpose of borrowing a little money to repair a bulldozer or something like that, that is very fine, but in reading the wording here and understanding the background of the water and soil conservation districts and what they can do, how far can they go in the development of drainage problems or conservation problems? They have very broad powers by law."

Mr. Moos:

"Representative Ahlquist, the purpose of the additional language is certainly in the area of borrowing money for capital equipment, not for dams or other large projects. Many of the smaller soil conservation districts find themselves in need of graders, earth movers, tractors, or things of that sort. That is what is meant. I think if it were extended beyond that, it would be an abuse of the intent of the legislature."

Further debate ensued, Representative Siler speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 403, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—91.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mrs. Henry:

"The candy box placed on your desk just recently is in gratitude and deep appreciation for the final passage of House Bill No. 53, and I can assure you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, that they paid the tax on this."

House Bill No. 166, by Representatives Litchman, Kirk, and Mahaffey, (by Joint Committee on Governmental Cooperation request):

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. King:

"Mr. Speaker, I request a point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. King:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I feel that what just happened here on the floor, which is the traditional practice on a man's first bill of switching on the red and then changing back to give him a little scare, has been misinterpreted by people in the gallery of this House. There have been published items in the newspapers and in the school news and other places that the legislators down here don't know what they are doing and are switching their lights back and forth, waiting for somebody to lead them on—that they don't know their own minds. I think in the future it would be to our best interest not to switch the lights back and forth because it is a member's first bill."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to sustain the position Mr. King has just taken, and also comment on the unwritten law, or whatever you might want to call it, of passing out cigars and candy. I don't know whether it was the last session or the session before that this became so prevalent and somewhat obnoxious that we stopped it in its entirety, because of the bad impression it was giving to the visitors of this House. The members didn't like it, and many of them came to me and talked to me about it, and I know the visitors were misinterpreting it. It might be well if this ruling were again enforced."

House Bill No. 76, by Representatives Gleason, Hurley, and Hawley (by Legislative Council request):

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that the House defer consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56, and that it be made a special order of business at the end of today's third reading calendar.

The motion was lost.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I object."

The Speaker:

"What are you objecting to, the reading of the amendment?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"No, Mr. Speaker, you stated that if there were no objections the last line only would be read, and I stated that I did object."

The Speaker:

"The Speaker didn't hear you, sir."

Mr. Uhlman:

"I am objecting now then, Mr. Speaker."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"You had already passed the point of any consideration regarding the reading of the bill and had reached the point of asking the clerk to read the amendments. In view of that I think the only prerogative of Mr. Uhlman is to have the amendment read in full."

The Speaker:

"I believe your point is well taken. The Clerk will read the amendment."

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), the committee amendments to page 1 were adopted.

MOTION

Mr. Beck moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56 be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Perry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Beck speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Brachtenbach speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beck:

"Would the gentlemen from Yakima yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Brachtenbach?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, does not Public Law 280 of the 83rd Congress say that before we shall assume jurisdiction over those Indians, we shall repeal all constitutional provisions and statutes pertaining thereto?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I believe it does not. There was some reference in a committee hearing to that question. However, that exact question has been before the supreme court of the state of Washington and the supreme court has ruled that consent is properly exercisable by this legislature."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. King:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Brachtenbach a question, if I may."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brachtenbach, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. King:

"If this bill were to pass here, how much is it going to cost the state of Washington to enforce the act?"

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"I think there are various estimates as to whether there will be additional costs or not. I have, for example, a letter from the sheriff of Yakima county that there will be no substantial increase because he has the problem now of investigating to determine whether an Indian is involved in a particular situation or not. There are estimates that it will cost a considerable sum of money. It is my belief there will be little or no additional cost except on a county basis. I understand most of the counties involved are in favor of this, including the commissioners of Yakima county."

Further debate ensued, Representatives King, Savage, and Uhlman speaking in favor of the motion to indefinitely postpone Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56, and Representative Campbell speaking against its postponement.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, may I have a few short words to close debate?"

The Speaker:

"The House by its own action has stopped debate. I'm sorry."

Mr. Beck:

"Could I use a point of personal privilege to speak?"

The Speaker:

"No."

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to indefinitely postpone Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 70; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Braun, Brouillet, Conner, DeJarnatt, Earley, Gallagher, Garrett, Hawley, King, Klein, May, McCormick, McElroy, McFadden, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Smith, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—26.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young—70.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Lybecker, Taylor—3.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"No, I will not."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. O'Brien:

"This is in regard to an agreement we had with the Republican leadership the other day that we would adjourn at 4:30 because of the fact that we have an appreciation dinner with visitors from all over the state, plus a United States Senator who has come out from Washington, D. C. to address us. On Lincoln's Birthday, the Governor originally, inadvertently, scheduled a reception at the mansion, but because the Republicans had other engagements, he acquiesced and changed the date to accommodate you. You in the Republican leadership should keep your commitment to us. We are now in a similar situation. We have guests from all over the state. It is extremely embarrassing for us to be here when this event of ours was scheduled so far in advance. You knew this appreciation dinner was scheduled. In all fairness, you should acquiesce and adjourn the House now, and come back tomorrow at 1:00 and finish this calendar. This is only fair play. We plead with you to adjourn the House until tomorrow afternoon and let us keep our commitments, because it is extremely embarrassing to a great many of us to be here, sort of penalized for something that is no fault of ours."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Garrett:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Garrett:

"I thought that my hearing was reasonably good and that my understanding was fair, but apparently I am getting forgetful or something. I distinctly heard Mr. Evans assure us that at 4:30 today, we would recess or adjourn for this dinner that Mr. O'Brien is referring to. I had bothered to say nothing to him until the appointed hour. I have told many people about this. I addressed a woman's organization today at lunch and quoted to them Mr. Evans' commitment to us. A short time ago, I informed Mr. Evans that I would take this as a personal breach of his word to me if he didn't adjourn at least by 5:00 o'clock, as he had assured me he would, and I can't understand why he has not carried out the agreement he made to us."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, my commitment is to myself, to my state, and to my own caucus. We have been trying to work hard. We have some more bills to go through. This is the forty-eighth day of the session and I think we have only two more days to consider House Bills. This to me is more important than anything else you might like to do. We can go on for a little while and go rapidly through what we have to do rather than having to come back tonight. I told you, Mr. Garrett, that if we didn't get through the calendar, we would have to come back later tonight. I don't want to do that. I don't think anybody wants to do that, because nobody wants to come back after a dinner. I think if we all tend to business and get through what we have to do—I think there are only a few committee amendments on this bill—we can go pretty rapidly through these things, and everybody can leave and not have to come back. We are wasting time right now when we could be spending a little time on the calendar. This is the thing we came down to do. This is the most important thing we have in front of us, this legislation. I say let's have at it and it all will be done very shortly."

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), the committee amendment to page 2, section 3, line 24 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56 was adopted.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brachtenbach yield to question? Mr. Brachtenbach, I have something I want to read to you and have you interpret it. A while ago I read to you Article 26 of our Constitution."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beck, you are out of order. The question before us at the present time is the committee amendment."

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), the committee amendments to page 2, section 3, line 29 and to page 3 were adopted.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56 as amended by the House was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, I understood Mr. Ackley was going to withdraw his amendment."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Ackley.

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I agreed earlier to withdraw the amendment, but in light of subsequent events where members of the other side have failed to comply with their agreement, I insist that the amendment be put to the body."

Those voting nay were: Representatives Backstrom, McFadden—2.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Beierlein, Conner, Johnston, Lybecker—4.

Senate Bill No. 291, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

House Bill No. 43, by Representatives Ahlquist and McCormick:

Accepting the provisions of the Columbia Basin Compact and providing for participation therein.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Bill No. 43 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ahlquist and McCormick speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Representative McCormick requested permission of the House to read a portion of a letter into the record.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Savage, the House granted permission to Mr. McCormick to read a letter into the record.

Mr. McCormick:

"This is a letter sent to Mr. John B. Sweat, Executive Secretary, Columbia Interstate Compact Commission, from D. Elwood Caples, chairman of the Washington delegation this time. I am not going to read the letter in full, just a quotation from it.

"Following revision of the compact in accordance with Mr. Norwood's suggestions, I forwarded a copy of the revised draft to him for comment, and quote from his reply dated April 4, 1962:

"On behalf of the Board of Trustees and membership of the Northwest Public Power Association I wish to express both our congratulations and our appreciation for the compromise solution worked out by the Washington State Compact Commission as set forth in the attachment to your April 2, 1962 letter. This solution removes, as far as I know, the big objections which our electric systems have had. Since 1952 the resolutions adopted by our membership have opposed any proposed compact which would "control or allocate" electric power. . . ."

Further debate ensued, Representative Savage speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ahlquist or Mr. McCormick yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ahlquist, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Yes, I do."

Mr. Moon:

"The thing that is bothering me is that I am wondering why the states of Nevada, Utah, and Wyoming have approximately six percent of the voting power in this compact and yet pay only two percent of the budget; while the states of Oregon and Washington have approximately eighteen percent each of the voting power but we and Oregon each pay twenty-three and one-half percent of the budget. What is the reason for setting up the budget in this manner?"

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Representative Moon, in answer to your questions, the waters of the Columbia River rise in the upstream states and the value of the downstream water is very closely tied to the upstream developments. The state of Washington generates eight and one-half percent of the water as it flows past Bonneville; the upstream states and Canada develop the rest. In negotiating with the committee, it came out that the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana paid twenty-three and one-half percent each, being the major states having the greatest use of the water. Likewise, they were given three votes each. This allows the four states to control the situation. Now the division was made as fairly and honestly in the negotiating committee as we could make it. There was no effort to be picayune about it. This is the best answer I can make. They agreed to it; we agreed to it."

Further debate ensued, Representatives McCormick and Bergh speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Ackley speaking against its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. McCormick:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Ackley yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. McCormick:

"Mr. Ackley, if a person or an organization or a group gives you their word on something would you trust them? Would you trust them at their word?"

Mr. Ackley:

"We had the word of some people here today that we would adjourn at 4:30, and we found out we couldn't trust that, Mr. McCormick."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ahlquist speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Jolly speaking against its passage.

Mr. Brouillet demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"The House has sustained the demand for the previous question. I am sorry. I didn't recognize Mr. Brouillet because I knew he was going to demand the previous question. I recognized him because he hadn't been on his feet before. The House sustained his demand for the previous question. I think the only alternative I have is to call the previous question."

Mr. Savage:

"I asked for a point of personal privilege. My reputation is at stake because of some statements that were made here. Do I not have that privilege?"

The Speaker:

"If you will limit your personal privilege to one minute, I will let you speak."

Mr. Savage:

"I think this is a real point of personal privilege. I know it has been abused in the past. It was said that it wasn't private power; that I made misstatements, but the first signature on this is Pat Perry, who is the general counsel for the Idaho Power Company. I know him very well. He is the leader of the compact negotiators in Idaho. Also James Murphy, power attorney for Montana. My statements that this is negotiated by private power interests are true. If you don't believe me, just look at the names. I am not making wild statements about this compact."

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 43, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 55; nays, 41; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bergh, Brachtenbach, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—55.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Folsom, Garrett, Grant, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Jolly, King, Litchman, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—41.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. O'Brien, having given notice on the preceding day, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 345 passed the House.

Mr. Witherbee demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll. Representatives Bergh, Lybecker, and O'Donnell were absent.

On motion of Mr. Kink, the absent members were excused and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

Miss O'Donnell appeared at the bar of the House.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"I have two questions, Mr. Evans. It is my understanding from your statement today that the expenditures advisory council did not recommend the approach you have here. They recommended consolidation but not through the highway commission."

Mr. Evans:

"I think the effective implementation of the expenditures advisory council's recommendation would be a transportation committee. They were changing the name. Whether you call it highway commission or transportation commission, basically, this is a recommendation to combine the two functions."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Did they go into the makeup of the transportation commission?"

Mr. Evans:

"No, I don't know that they did. Who you put on these things I think is another subject, whether you have elected officials or appointed commissioners."

Mr. Schaefer:

"My other question is this. In the highway committee, as I recall the testimony, I didn't hear the AAA or the highway commission or toll bridge authority or anyone endorsing this bill. Is this right?"

Mr. Evans:

"No, I talked to individuals on some of these commissions. It is true the highway commission in a very brief statement said they were on record against it. Naturally, I think they would be. You have a case of two agencies in the position where if they endorsed it openly they would be saying they want to take over the functions of the other agency. I don't think this is the thing we should consider. What we should consider is what we think is right."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Schaefer and Beck speaking in favor of the motion to reconsider, and Representative Hadley speaking against the motion.

Mr. Witherbee demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, will you explain the meaning of the vote?"

The Speaker:

"A vote 'aye' will mean the House will reconsider the vote by which House Bill 345 passed the House. A vote 'nay' is a vote not to reconsider the vote."

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 345 passed the House, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 55; absent or not voting, 2.

The Speaker:

"If we vote to reconsider, it will take a suspension of the rules to put the bill back to second reading in order to amend it."

"Mr. Moon, would you mind telling the House what your amendments are so we could intelligently reconsider this?"

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bergh, Lybecker—2.

MOTION

Mr. Moon moved that the rules be suspended and Senate Bill No. 449 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. Perry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

SECOND READING OF BILL

Mr. Moon moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 26, before "annual" strike "the" and insert " : (a) [the] The"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask a question of Dr. Moon?"

The Speaker:

"Dr. Moon, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Moon:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"Dr. Moon, I wonder why you or anyone else is attempting to tie the hands of the state printer? Who is in favor of this, the typographical union, the state printer, or who?"

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Litchman, I, for one, am in favor of this. It does not tie the printer's hands. It is a measure whereby we will save considerable money and it allows the chief clerk and the clerk of the senate to print the journal by the offset method if they so desire."

Mr. Litchman:

"I am not a printer, Mr. Moon, so I don't know about these things. Are Mr. Bowden, for instance, on the Senate side and the chief clerk on this side in favor of this amendment?"

Mr. Moon:

"Yes, I think both Mr. Holcomb and Mr. Bowden are in favor of this amendment."

Debate ensued, Representative Moon speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Rogers speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Backstrom:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Rogers yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Representative Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes, indeed."

Mr. Backstrom:

"Is the state printer aware of these amendments? Will they do something to this bill that will help it comply with his wishes and desires?"

Mr. Rogers:

"I talked to the state printer about these amendments. He said he is not desirous of having the bill revived, amended, or passed. He is opposed to the legislation."

Mr. Backstrom:

"Does this standardize the manner in which the printing is done, so that it would be desirable from that standpoint?"

Mr. Rogers:

"No. The law presently prescribes exactly how the journal shall be printed. The page size, size of type, and all of the printing specifications are set forth in the law, and this bill would delete some of the requirements for the printing of the journal."

Further debate ensued, Representative Eldridge speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Rogers yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes, indeed."

Mr. Leland:

"It has been a few years since I have been in city government, but at that time the mayor or city manager had to, in effect, approve the issuance or renewal of any licenses. Later on some officials were so late in answering their mail that it was changed so that if the mayor didn't make known his wishes within a certain time, the license was considered automatically renewable. Would this practice still be in effect so that any local person applying for this special Class I license would, in effect, first have to receive the approval of the mayor or county commissioner?"

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Leland, in answer to your question, I am sure the liquor board would notify the city or county officials. Then if they didn't receive an answer within ten days, they would automatically issue the license. The city officials would have time to notify the liquor board whether or not they wanted the license issued, and the same would be true of the county."

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred House Bill No. 63, establishing a public pension review commission, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments by the Committee on Social Security and Public Assistance:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 24, strike all of the matter down to and including "retirement system." in line 26, and insert the following:

"The members appointed by the governor shall have the following qualifications:

(1) At least one of the members shall be experienced in actuarial principles;

(2) One member shall be a trustee or official of a retirement system; and (3)

Three members shall have had general experience and knowledge in fields pertinent to retirement system operating, but shall not at the time of appointment or during their terms of office be trustees or officials in any retirement system."

On page 3, section 4, following subsection (9), add a new subsection as follows:

"(10) To prepare an explanatory note for each pension bill introduced in the legislature, which note shall briefly explain the financial impact and policies of the bill, indicate the impact on the relative position of the system affected with the other public pension systems, and which shall be attached to or printed upon the printed bill."

Committee on Ways and Means

CHET KING, Chairman,

DAMON R. CANFIELD, Vice Chairman.

Subcommittee on Appropriations

DICK J. KINK, Chairman,

ROBERT F. GOLDSWORTHY, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: H. Maurice Ahlquist, Henry Backstrom, C. W. "Red" Beck, John Bigley, Frank Buster Brouillet, William "Bill" Chatalas, Cecil C. Clark, Arlie U. DeJarnatt, Don Eldridge, S. E. (Sid) Flanagan, Slade Gorton, Gary Grant, H. D. "Herb" Hadley, Joe D. Haussler, Gordon Herr, Helmut L. Juelling, Mrs. Douglas (Gladys) Kirk, Harry B. Lewis, Audley F. Mahaffey, Jack Metcalf, Charles Moon, Richard W. Morphis, Charles E. Newschwander, Mike E. Odell, Ann T. O'Connell, Ray Olsen, Walt Reese, Charles R. Savage, Samuel J. Smith, (Miss) Ella Wintler.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Moon, the committee amendment to page 1 was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the committee amendment to page 3 was adopted.

House Bill No. 63 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 63 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Campbell and Canfield speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 63 and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 93; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 6.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lynch, Mahaffey, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—93.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bergh, Bigley, Johnston, Lybecker, Mast, May—6.

Engrossed House Bill No. 63, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

House Bill No. 312, by Representatives Eldridge, Haussler, and Evans:
Designating scenic highways.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Moos, Substitute House Bill No. 312 was substituted for House Bill No. 312, and the substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

Substitute House Bill No. 312 was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Uhlman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 2, line 12, after "include areas" and before "where as" insert "within the corporate limits of cities"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have Mr. Evans yield to question. In the event the answer is satisfactory, I will withdraw the amendment."

The Speaker:

"Representative Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"I will try to answer your question."

Mr. Uhlman:

"I am wondering whether this is already included in the basic act. Mr. Ackley and I have been very hastily conferring and have not resolved the problem."

Mr. Evans:

"I think Mr. Gorton can tell you that immediately, but I don't believe it is. I think the new section here, regarding scenic highways, tries to bring it into conformity with the interstate highway system."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I will, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Uhlman, the present act, insofar as it applies to scenic highways, stops at the city limits. In other words, there is nothing within a city limit that is a scenic highway in the present act. That would continue here. The effect of your amendment would be to totally strike this section."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Uhlman withdrew his amendment.

On motion of Mr. Ackley, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 2, line 19, after "the state" and before "as commercial" insert "or subdivision thereof"

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 2, beginning on line 18, strike all of subsection (2).

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Moos:

"We have already amended that particular subsection. I understand that once you amend something, you adopt it forever unless the Senate takes it out."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, in answer to the point of order that an amendment was placed on this, my amendment strikes the whole subsection and it is completely in order. I believe Mr. Moos's point of order is exactly in reverse. If my amendment to strike it all had been considered first, then it would be clearly out of order to consider any amendment to that particular section, The reverse has been in effect here. Am I not correct, Mr. Speaker?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Uhlman, it would seem that the only way you could change subsection (2) of section 2 would be by reconsidering Mr. Ackley's amendment, because we have changed the meaning of the section and the House has passed on it. Therefore, your amendment would be out of order. You could reconsider the vote by which Mr. Ackley's amendment was adopted."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe you are in error on this, because the purpose of my amendment would not be to change the prior amendment. The prior amendment is not clearly in controversion to mine. My amendment would have to come second after Mr. Ackley's in order for his to be considered."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, Reed's 136 on page 83 states:

"If the amendment is decided in the affirmative, then the words inserted can not any of them be stricken out."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I would refer the Speaker to Reed's 147 which states:

"Whenever a motion to strike out a paragraph is pending, it is in order for the assembly to amend the paragraph"

The Speaker:

"The Speaker is aware of that."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, you are undoubtedly aware of the rest of Rule 136. I think Mr. Perry stopped too soon.

"If the amendment is decided in the affirmative, then the words inserted can not any of them be stricken out, except with other words, and then only when, with other words, they constitute a new proposition."

I maintain that the amendment is in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to make another point. Mr. Rosenberg is correct, but Mr. Uhlman is not adding any words, just deleting words already added. He is deleting a section the body previously decided upon. Otherwise nothing would stand up."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I rule the amendment by Mr. Uhlman is not in order in as much as once an amendment is decided in the affirmative, the words inserted cannot be stricken out except with other words, and then only when they are such as to constitute a new proposition. You are striking the subject matter, including the amendment that was adopted."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to say some words on this, because if Mr. Uhlman's amendment is ruled out of order, it is my fault. I arranged my amendment on top of his to come first, because it seemed to me that was proper. It seemed to me that if Mr. Uhlman's amendment was adopted striking the whole section, then I wouldn't have an opportunity to submit my amendment merely inserting three new words. Therefore, I put them in that order. I still think that is the correct order and that my amendment shouldn't prohibit him from making an amendment to strike the entire paragraph.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley, I think I can clarify that. If your amendment had not been adopted by the body, then Mr. Uhlman's amendment would have been in order, but the body has seen fit to perfect this particular section by adoption of your amendment. Consequently, his amendment is out of order."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Ackley:

"Does this mean, Mr. Speaker, that any time a member amends any paragraph by adding words, it can no longer be amended?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"That would be correct if the substance or the meaning is changed. If you recall the fight on House Bill No. 197 in the 1961 session, you will remember the same thing happened, precluding any further amendments. This is the same thing. Now, Mr. Uhlman may move to reconsider the vote by which your amendment was adopted and then his amendment may be put in, if he sees fit to do so."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr., Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Comfort:

"Would not the discussion of the issue presently at hand be identical to the situation on House Bill No. 23, where the Speaker ruled the section could be modified or perfected by its friends before being stricken by Dr. Adams? Would that not be a precedent under Reed's 147?"

The Speaker:

"That is true, but if the body sees fit to perfect the section and passes on the section, then it would be precluded, because the body has, in fact, adopted the section."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Perry:

"The point I would like to make relative to the amendment by Mr. Uhlman is that he is not offering any further proposition, just deleting completely what we have already accepted."

The Speaker:

"That is correct. If the amendment has been decided affirmatively, then the words cannot any of them be stricken out except with other words, and then only with words that constitute a new proposition. I believe that covers it explicitly."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't want to belabor this. I will accept the ruling of the Chair, but I would again call the Speaker's attention to Rule 147, which seems to me directly in point and very clear. Would the Speaker read that?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, I have read Rule 147 a number of times. It says, in effect, that if an amendment were placed on this desk first to strike a section completely, and there were a subsequent amendment placed there that the body wished to consider ahead of the amendment striking the section—in other words, the friends of the section wanted to perfect this particular section by adopting an amendment—they have a right to do so before the amendment to strike the section is placed. Rule 147 says, in effect, that if they perfect the section, they would not wish to strike it. That is what has been done here. This section has been perfected by Mr. Ackley's amendment, and your amendment, therefore, would be out of order. You could move to reconsider Mr. Ackley's amendment and then move to strike."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, what happened was exactly what Reed's 147 describes. Mr. Uhlman's amendment was on the table before mine. It was a motion to strike the entire paragraph, but recognizing the problem imposed by Rule 147, I took the liberty of putting my amendment first, because if the entire paragraph were stricken, then I wouldn't have been permitted to try to perfect the paragraph before the body considered the entirely different proposition of whether or not the entire paragraph should be stricken. It seems to me that if we follow this ruling, we have a situation where we will be in a dilemma as to which amendment should come first. One would defeat the other."

The Speaker:

"It is very obvious that if the amendment which you presented, Mr. Ackley, had not been adopted, then Mr. Uhlman's amendment would have been in order. The last paragraph of Rule 147 explains:

"For a similar reason the assembly may modify a paragraph proposed to be inserted pending the motion to insert, because when the motion to insert has prevailed the paragraph inserted becomes the decision of the assembly. Hence it must be modified before the insertion, as it can not be amended after."

The assembly made a decision on this. I am sure my ruling is sound."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, may I speak on your ruling? I think this is logical. Let's take a look at it and see what we are doing, and I think you will see the Speaker's ruling is quite correct. Obviously after this day's work is over, people from the bill room will come out and put in our books an adopted amendment by Mr. Ackley. They are not going to put another amendment on there that says we have stricken Mr. Ackley's amendment. This is logical. Now, if that is what Mr. Uhlman wants to do, he should move that we reconsider Mr. Ackley's amendment. That is just pure logic and simply an orderly fashion of handling amendments. The Speaker's ruling is quite clear."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Burtch:

"There is one thing I would like to call to your attention. If Mr. Uhlman's amendment came before Mr. Ackley's amendment and we voted against Mr. Uhlman's amendment, which I hope you will do, in effect, you would not be able to offer any more amendments to that paragraph. I don't think this is the proper way for you to rule."

The Speaker:

"Maybe it is my fault, but the thing you are not understanding is that if Mr. Ackley's amendment had failed, then you would not have perfected the paragraph to the satisfaction of this body and then Mr. Uhlman's amendment would have been in order. In other words, the body has a chance to perfect this section first, which they did by accepting Mr. Ackley's amendment."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I think you are probably correct and I will accept your ruling. May I ask one more question? That is, what is the procedure for placing amendments before this body? My amendment was on the desk first. My amendment should have been considered, according to your ruling."

The Speaker:

"No. According to my ruling, the friends of the section have the right to perfect the section first, before the amendment to strike can be entertained."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Do you mean that once a particular section has been amended, it can never be stricken?"

The Speaker:

"If it has changed the meaning of the section, then, in effect, the body has passed on it."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, it just occurs to me that the nub of the matter is whether or not the motion to strike an entire section or subsection after it has been amended constitutes a new proposition. It occurs to me that that certainly is a new proposition, and, therefore, I couldn't accept the Speaker's ruling."

The Speaker:

"I have ruled, in general, that if the amendment is decided in the affirmative, then the words inserted cannot be stricken out except with other words. These are not other words. You are striking the section. The ruling will stand."

APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burtch.

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I respectfully appeal the decision of the Chair. I think it is very important this should not stand as precedent under which we decide other amendments."

Mr. Perry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, may I speak on this?"

The Speaker:

"It is not debatable."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will you explain the vote?"

The Speaker:

"The question before the House is: Shall the ruling of the Speaker be the decision of the House? A vote 'aye' will uphold the ruling of the Speaker."

The Clerk called the roll on the question of whether the ruling of the Speaker should be the decision of the House, and the ruling of the Speaker was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 70; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 20.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rosenberg, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wintler, Witherbee, Young—70.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Brouillet, Burtch, Comfort, DeJarnatt, Grant, Klein, Savage, Uhlman—9.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Bergh, Bigley, Campbell, Chatalas, Dootson, Gallagher, Haussler, Johnston, Jolly, Litchman, Lybecker, May, Morphis, O'Brien, Rogers, Sawyer, Smith, Wedekind, Mr. Speaker—20.

Mr. Campbell moved adoption of the following amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 312:

On page 3, section 3, line 32, after "insure that" and before "information" insert "tourist"

Debate ensued, Representative Campbell speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Schaefer speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 4, line 33, after "use" and before the semicolon, insert ", other than the erection or maintenance of signs"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I have this amendment and another amendment on the desk which would do the same thing to the next subsection of section 4. However, Mr. Klein has an amendment which would strike all of section 4. Now, my point of parliamentary inquiry is: Which should come first, my amendment or Mr. Klein's amendment?"

The Speaker:

"Your amendment should come first, and if it is adopted and changes, in effect, the meaning of the section, it will preclude Mr. Klein's amendment."

Mr. Ackley:

"The entire section 4 is comprised of many subsections. I am simply seeking to amend a minor subsection of section 4."

The Speaker:

"That is correct. If the body perfects this particular section and in any way changes the meaning of the section, then it would preclude striking the section."

Mr. Ackley:

"I might inquire, Mr. Speaker, suppose there were a misspelled word in this particular section and I desired to correct that and put in an amendment that carried, would that, then, preclude further amendments for striking the section?"

The Speaker:

"It would not, because it would not change the substance of the section. If we changed and perfected the meaning of the section, that is entirely different from correcting the spelling of a word, Mr. Ackley."

Mr. Ackley:

"Changing any subsection at all is a change in the entire section?"

The Speaker:

"It would depend. An amendment to strike the rest of the section would be in order, but not the subsection that has been perfected, because the body, after perfecting that particular subsection, couldn't vote to do one thing one minute and then turn around and say, 'No, we don't want to do it,' the next."

Mr. Ackley:

"It occurs to me this situation would be similar to a proposition that might be before us where, for example, we would have a law which would apply a certain tax to class A, first class, second class, and third class counties, and the members desired to amend that by adding fifth class counties and that was carried, and then another member wished to strike the entire section. There would be absolutely no reason why he couldn't do so, because it would be two entirely different propositions that would be put before the body. That is the situation we have here."

The Speaker:

"It would be ridiculous for the body to include fifth class counties if they don't want the section at all and in one motion say, 'Yes, we want fifth class counties,' and then in the other say, 'No, we don't.' It would be the same as reconsideration. The point is very clear to me."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, what if we had a bill saying we could sell liquor until two o'clock on Sunday morning, and somebody amended the bill to say that we could sell liquor only until one o'clock Sunday morning, and those who are against extending it to two o'clock voted for the amendment to one o'clock, because they felt that possibly this bill might pass and that the one o'clock closing would be better than two o'clock. Does that mean they could not then vote against the bill?"

The Speaker:

"No sir, it would mean you could not eliminate that section."

Mr. Burtch:

"Isn't that the same thing we have here?"

The Speaker:

"No, sir, it is not."

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of his amendment to page 4, section 4, and Representative Witherbee speaking against its adoption.

At the request of Mr. Leland, the Speaker instructed the reading clerk to reread the amendment.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Leland and Huntley speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment by Mr. Ackley was not adopted.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 4, line 4, after "industrial use" and before the period, insert ", other than the erection or maintenance of signs"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Evans a question."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Evans, is it your understanding that the intent of this subsection we are now considering would be to permit strips of industrial use property along highways where the only industrial use is the erection or maintenance of signs?"

Mr. Evans:

"No, certainly that was not the intent. The intent is to exclude land adjacent to the interstate highway system which was specifically zoned for commercial and industrial use and actually in use as such. The second section of course applies to sections along the interstate system that are not zoned. You have many counties that don't have zoning laws. I am sure that when we say 'clearly established' or 'actually devoted to commercial and industrial use,' that is what we mean, and not just for the erection of signs."

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking for adoption of the amendment, and Representative Evans speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Schaefer yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Schaefer, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"Yes."

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Schaefer, I know you served on the committee that brought together the two groups involved. As I read this, it would preclude any signs within this area. Would you comment on your interpretation?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"I think the interpretation we had in our group was that signs in the area would not in itself create a commercial or industrial area. I think it would have to be either designated or used for commercial or industrial purposes. I don't want to vary the language in this particular section because the parties involved have agreed to this language and have explained their interpretation to the bill drafters. If there is something wrong that we find out today, I would like to go through this afterwards, and if the parties involved agree to any amendments which have been offered but may have been turned down, I would be very happy to return the bill to second reading for amendment. As far as I am concerned, the interpretation of the attorneys who have looked this over, and of the bill drafters, is that it should be construed as Mr. Evans has construed it here. I don't want to change the language without checking with all the parties involved. That is my feeling."

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and Mr. Ackley's amendment to page 5, section 4 was not adopted.

Mr. Klein moved adoption of the following amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 312:

On page 4, section 4, line 2, strike all of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued, Representative Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Klein demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was not sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Hood moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 4, line 3, correct the spelling of "commercial"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

"I don't think the amendment is in order. Mr. Klein already moved to strike the entire section."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken, Mr. Ackley. The amendment is out of order."

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, section 9, line 8, after "size and" and before "the spacing" strike "content and"

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Huntley speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, add a new section following section 13 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act shall be held to invalidate any portion of chapter 36, Laws of 1961, by reason of the creation of any invalid distinction with that act, the provision of this act shall be of no force and effect to the extent of the invalid distinction."

Debate ensued, Representatives Gorton and Schaefer speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Gorton, as one attorney to another, may I ask why you use the term 'invalid distinction' instead of 'inconsistency'?"

Mr. Gorton:

"There may be inconsistencies which are perfectly valid, Mr. Uhlman."

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Substitute House Bill No. 312 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House deferred further consideration of the second and third reading calendars, and the bills were ordered held for Monday's second and third reading calendars.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Beck.

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't want to adjourn. I think we have some important bills. The next one is a very important bill. I don't think we should stop because somebody wants to go out on Sunday night. Let's get it done."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beck, your information is rather erroneous. The Ways and Means committee has an important meeting. I don't think that is 'somebody wanting to go out on Sunday night.'"

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House adjourned until 10:00 a. m., Monday, March 4, 1963.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Herr:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Miles yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Miles, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Miles:

"Yes."

Mr. Herr:

"Representative Miles, what are the size of the awards we are giving these state employees? They might want to eliminate the House of Representatives."

Mr. Miles:

"I think your last remark was perhaps facetious, but this is a very good question. The thought was that with the employees' committee being limited in funds, they would establish limitations within their own structure. Our feeling in not proposing a specific limit was to provide them the opportunity to weigh these suggestions from the standpoint of how much they would accomplish, and we had sufficient confidence in the committee to use this wisely within the limited appropriation for at least the first two-year period."

Mr. Herr:

"Are there funds set up for this yet?"

Mr. Miles:

"The bill provides for five thousand dollars a year, a maximum of ten thousand dollars over the entire biennium."

Further debate ensued, Representative Mast speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

"Mr. Speaker, would the honorable Mr. Goldsworthy kindly yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Goldsworthy, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Goldsworthy, I notice on the first page that you have deleted the provision that aircraft registered after June 30 should be required to pay for only a half year. Some of these aircraft are very valuable and we have a principle that taxes should be levied according to benefits received. In this case, a person who purchases an aircraft in the latter half of the year still has to pay the fee for the entire year. Would you please explain why you wish to have that deleted?"

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"Mr. Dootson, I would have to refer you to the director of aeronautics of this state. This was an attempt to get away from the staggered licensing which has come up here several times on automobiles and in other areas. There is a two dollar fee here and the airplane would be licensed for the whole year."

Mr. Dootson:

"If there is only a two dollar fee, I would have absolutely no objection. Is that all it includes, or does it include fifty percent of the excise tax on the value of aircraft?"

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"This does not refer to the excise tax, Mr. Dootson."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker:

"Mr. Uhlman, will you yield to question, sir?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I do."

Mr. Comfort:

"I wonder if you could advise this body who these individuals are, what they are presently making, and what increase this would entail?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"The adjutant general is presently earning twelve thousand five hundred dollars. He is at the top of these three individuals. He would be earning approximately sixteen thousand two hundred dollars. There are individuals below him in rank and responsibility earning seventeen thousand two hundred fifteen dollars, so even with the proposed change the adjutant general would still be earning less."

Mr. Comfort:

"How about the assistant adjutant general?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"The two assistants now earn ten thousand seven hundred four dollars and nine thousand three hundred seventy-two dollars. They would earn fourteen thousand one hundred dollars and ten thousand eighty dollars. The entire budgetary impact would be less than fifteen thousand dollars."

Mr. Comfort:

"I wonder if you could tell this body what these individuals do?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Frankly I couldn't tell you in detail. They oversee the spending of millions of dollars. They have a tremendous amount of equipment. They have some eighty thousand men in the state. They, of course, are the senior officers of the national guard and national militia of our state."

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"What happens if we don't have a Legislative Council? Have you taken care of that alternative by your amendment?"

Mr. Evans:

"I don't think there is any question about having a Legislative Council. That is a body set up by continuing statute."

Mr. Litchman:

"It is my understanding there might not be a Legislative Council. If that does occur, in effect what we are doing is whitewashing this whole thing by not setting up any committee to investigate the World's Fair Corporation."

Mr. Evans:

"I don't think that is a problem. The liquidating officers will submit their report to the Legislative Budget Committee, if that were to be the only committee available, and they can within sixty days reject the financial report and it would come back

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 4, 1963.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to advise that Governor Rosellini has approved the following House Bills, entitled:

House Bill No. 61:

"An Act relating to the Washington state teachers' retirement system; and repealing section 21, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 and RCW 41.32.210."

House Bill No. 65:

"An Act relating to the domestic relations; and adding a new section to chapter 28, Laws of 1913, and to chapter 26.20 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

House Bill No. 188:

"An Act relating to arson, amending section 40, page 82, Laws of 1854, as last amended by section 320, chapter 249, Laws of 1909 and RCW 9.09.010, and amending section 40, page 82, Laws of 1854, as last amended by section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1927 and RCW 9.09.020, and declaring an emergency."

to the next session of the legislature. There is plenty of opportunity to avoid a so-called whitewash.

Further debate ensued, Representative Johnston speaking against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Delighted."

Mrs. Henry:

"In the passage of Senate Bill No. 361 and this particular house concurrent resolution, would there not, in a sense, be a duplication of the same work being done by the Legislative Council and the budget committee?"

Mr. Evans:

"I don't believe so. The specific responsibility of the budget committee is to receive the report of the liquidating trustees. This resolution as originated in the Senate and carrying the same basic provisions under our amendment is, I think, an entirely different thing."

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Evans, it states here that the Legislative Council is directed to study and evaluate financial reports of the World's Fair Commission. Isn't that what under the other bill will be done by the budget committee and, therefore, a duplication?"

Mr. Evans:

"Well, I don't believe so. Actually they have already submitted one financial report to the legislature which could be studied and evaluated. I think the specific responsibility that Senate Bill 361 relates to is somebody to be available to receive the report of the liquidating trustees. As for investigation of any of the transactions, I think that is an entirely different matter and properly should be handled by the council."

Mr. Moos demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Johnston will yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Johnston?"

Mr. Johnston:

"I will try to."

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Johnston, you have been here a number of years. In the past has it ever been a part of the activities of the Legislative Budget Committee to conduct an investigation, sir?"

Mr. Johnston:

"I don't believe so."

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Sawyer to the amendment by Representatives Evans, Perry, and Johnston. The motion was lost,

House Bill No. 242:

"An Act relating to licensing of log patrol activities; and amending section 3, chapter 116, Laws of 1947, as last amended by section 3, chapter 182, Laws of 1957 and RCW 76.40.030."

Very truly yours,

BURTON R. JOHNSON, Legal Administrative Assistant.

Mr. Ackley:

Mr. Andersen, will you yield to question, sir?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes, indeed."

Mr. Dootson:

"I am certain you can answer this adequately. There is a little question in my mind with regard to this bill which I wish you would clear up for me and the rest. I do not wish to do anything which might bring an illegitimate child into the world. Would you kindly inform the body of the effect of the bill in that regard?"

Mr. Andersen:

"I think this would have just the opposite effect. As I believe I indicated on second reading, where necessity was involved and the proper case was made out by the people appearing that the young lady was pregnant, I think any superior court judge in the state would go ahead and authorize the marriage, but it would be left up to the individual judge to decide the individual case. That is why the exception was put in. If it is going to work like the three-day waiver, where the judge automatically signs the waiver, I suspect in the future we could delete the necessity portion."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Ackley and Clark speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Litchman, Andersen (James A.), and Swayze speaking for its passage.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, quite a few of the ladies from the Seattle group were sitting in the committee the day this compromise bill came back, and they told the committee that while it isn't exactly what they wanted, they are willing to go along with it. Several of them told me afterwards they were pleased to have it because they thought they had lost Substitute House Bill No. 312 entirely after the show put on at the public hearing. Now, I don't think they were able to speak for all the little garden clubs all over the state, but those who were down here agreed this was what they wanted and urged we pass it."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Evans, would you have any objection to accomplishing what you propose to do by passage of a mere statute rather than locking it into the Constitution?"

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Klein, I am not a lawyer, but I am certain that the reason a change in our Constitution is necessary, and this resolution is basically the same resolution with same wording that has been the result of Legislative Council study for at least two bienniums, is that, basically, our courts have ruled strictly on the question of city home rule. I think this is the basis for the need of a change in our Constitution. In ruling on the provisions in our present Constitution, they have restricted the cities in their powers and have caused some of this problem of cities coming to the state for these minor laws and for the ability to govern their own affairs. I think this is extremely important and apparently necessary in our Constitution."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Evans, do you know of any specific constitutional language that has resulted in the interpretation you are speaking of? I, offhand, know of none myself. I know of no reason you can't use the broad language to accomplish what you are seeking to accomplish. Frankly, I am a friend of this legislation, but I see no reason for locking it into the Constitution, particularly if there is no reason for doing so."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Klein, I think I will yield to my legal counsel, Mr. Gorton."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"I am very much in sympathy with the position adopted by Mr. Klein. If we could do it by statute, it would be so much easier to go ahead and do it. I strongly suspect it would have been done long ago, but the problem is that what you can do by statute, you can undo by statute. If we pass a statute today in exactly the same form as this joint resolution, we would still have every single area of local concern before us. We could pass another law tomorrow reversing ourselves. This is the real nature of the problem. Even charter cities in this state can have elements in their charters overruled by action of the legislature. This is really the basic problem. If we could do it by statute, we certainly would, but unfortunately we can't."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Klein, O'Brien, Beierlein, and Kink speaking against passage of the resolution, and Representatives Perry and Gorton speaking in favor of its passage.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16, and the resolution failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 38; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Beck, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Siler, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wintler, Young—56.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Conner, Evans, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Henry Herr, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, May, McCormick, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—38.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Braun, Harris, Lind, Lybecker, McFadden—5.

Engrossed Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 16 having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority was declared lost.

The Speaker:

"Representative Leland, will you yield to question, sir?"

Mr. Leland:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Johnston:

"Representative Leland, as a member of this committee, would you tell us your interpretation of what this amendment will do?"

Mr. Leland:

"Well, I think everyone on the floor knows that the licenses committee called in what we consider to be three expert witnesses, Frank Ramon, Chief of the Seattle police, Mr. Sprinkle, sheriff of King county, and Mr. Brock Adams, United States attorney. They appeared before our committee for something over two hours, and I might state that the committee was very grateful for the very frank and candid testimony they gave. I mention this by way of preface because in this particular section relative to pinballs, both Chief Ramon and Sheriff Sprinkle specifically asked that this be spelled out by the legislature so local officials would not be forced to make an interpretation of something that was highly ambiguous. This was written to completely rule out any cash payoffs. That is the intent of the committee and the intent of this amendment."

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Morrissey, the committee amendments to page 2, sections 3, 4 and 5, were adopted.

Mr. Morrissey moved adoption of the committee amendment adding new sections 6 and 7 to Senate Bill No. 360.

On motion of Mr. Leland, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

Amend the amendment by Committee on Licenses which adds a new section 6. On page 2 of the amendment on line 7, after "facts" and before the comma following "authority" strike "deemed appropriate to such local authority" and insert ", including a full financial disclosure, which may be deemed appropriate by such local authority"

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

The motion was carried, and the committee amendment adding new sections 6 and 7, as amended, was adopted.

Mr. Pritchard moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 8, strike all of section 1 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Campus School at Western Washington State College undertake controlled research in improved methods and techniques in the teaching of reading and that the State Superintendent of Public Instruction give high priority to this project in the research allotment in his department, and

Be It Further Resolved, That the State College report progress to the Education Interim Committee at the end of the first school year in 1964, and give a full report to the 1965 session of the legislature, and

I think if we are running experimental research, we ought to get youngsters from all levels of society."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

We, the undersigned, are and have been supporters of civil rights legislation and particularly of anti-discrimination legislation in the area of housing. It is because of our strong and sincere interest in this field that we were shocked by the blatant attempt made Tuesday morning, March 5, to play a shoddy brand of politics with Engrossed House Bill No. 20, the anti-discrimination bill for housing.

Orderly procedures are essential if any legislative body is to operate properly. The motion to take Engrossed House Bill No. 20 from the Rules Committee, if it had been successful, would have contravened any responsible legislative approach to this very difficult problem. It would have been a clear indication that the concern of the House was for the votes rather than for the rights of minority groups.

This was a phony approach to the problem—at best a grandstand play—at worst a cynical disregard for any real solution to the real problem of civil rights. Actions of this type do not advance the cause of civil rights. On the contrary, they alienate new friends and solidify the position of those who oppose any civil rights legislation.

We want civil rights legislation this year. We believe Engrossed House Bill No. 20 should clear the Rules Committee, and pledge to do everything we can toward this end. However, we believe that the orderly democratic processes go beyond any issue. Therefore, we refuse and will continue to refuse to support any action which would depart from these procedures and the result of which is to injure rather than to promote the cause of civil rights.

The reason I am asking you is because this bill is tied up to a certain extent to certain games of chance which are a mild form of sin in some ninety-odd fairs throughout the state. I wonder, if a referendum were put on this, would it block the operation of the fairs of the state this year?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Now you are getting into a legal area that I usually refer to one of the lawyers over here. It is possible if we don't put on an emergency clause for the people to have an opportunity to make a judgment on what we have done here. If the people in their wisdom did make their judgment, I imagine it would affect your fair. I have a lot of faith in the people's judgment, of course."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

House Bill No. 570 is well motivated but poorly drafted. By the terms of this bill women cannot be "excluded from any premises" on account of sex. This phraseology would of course prohibit women from being excluded from men's lounges, clubs, etc.

which is a right neither requested nor desired by any woman known to this legislator. Accordingly, I voted against this legislation in its present sloppily drawn form.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Burtch:

"I have an amendment that will strike most of the language. I wonder, if this amendment is adopted, will I, then, not be allowed to move for adoption of my amendment?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"No, your amendment will still be in order. The amendment by Dr. Adams doesn't change the body. It merely changes two words. Your amendment includes the words he is adopting, so it is in order."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Dr. Adams would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Dr. Adams?"

Mr. Adams:

"Yes, I would."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Dr. Adams, as an attorney I represent an ambulance company. Now if your amendment were adopted, could I advise by client not to bill for thirty days after transporting each individual in order to have time to ascertain whether or not there were any malpractice involved in the way the ambulance attendant handled the patient; and if there were some malpractice involved or some negligence on the part of the driver—let's say the driver got into a wreck and injured the patient and the patient brought a $100,000 law suit—could my client then simply not send a bill and be free from liability? Could you answer that, Dr. Adams?"

Mr. Adams:

"That did not come up in the discussion before the committee. I think the attorneys ought to answer this. We had in mind a fee for professional services on the part of members of the profession. Your interpretation as to the ambulance might give you one reason for not wanting to vote for this amendment."

Mr. Uhlman moved that House Bill No. 453 be rereferred to the Committee on Judiciary.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

"Can a member make a motion after having first been talking about the bill or the amendment?"

The Speaker:

"He asked a question."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Canfield:

"Did he rise and ask for permission to ask a question? Is he now making a motion relevant to asking a question?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I am going to rule the motion by Mr. Uhlman is out of order."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Beck a question, if I may."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beck, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Beck:

"Yes."

Mr. Copeland:

"There appears in this bill to be some fiscal impact. I have been talking to Mr. King and I think this bill should rightfully go to Ways and Means."

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, I see no need to send it there. When these sheltered workshops were created as the result of the 1959 act, they were established to last for thirty-six months. If they proved successful, they were going to expand and continue them. All this bill does is to erase the thirty-six month provision. In the budget on page 11, line 33, there is an item of $6,499,726, which includes $569,000 for these sheltered workshops."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Beck yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beck, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Beck:

"I will yield."

Mr. Canfield:

"Will you tell us the significance of the stricken words, which I understand remove the limitation on the commitment of funds. If you can clear that up, maybe we can clear it with Ways and Means."

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Canfield, this is the item I have been trying for the last month to get you and Mr. King to talk to me about. This is a highly complex subject pertaining to sheltered workshops. The federal government makes federal aid available to the sheltered workshop program. We engaged in the program in an attempt to rehabilitate mentally and physically retarded people. There are three of them started now as pilot projects in the state."

Mr. Canfield:

"I just wanted an answer to my question. Is it going to change the financial commitment of the state?"

Mr. Beck:

"No, it does not. The revenue is in the budget bill."

MOTION

Mr. Canfield moved that House Bill No. 539 be rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued, Representatives Beck and Mundy speaking in opposition to the motion, and Representative Canfield speaking in its favor.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Beck yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Beck?"

Mr. Beck:

"Yes."

Mr. Comfort:

"Representative Beck, I want you to advise me what the effect of the stricken language is. Does the language which you are striking merely mean that programs cannot be scheduled for more than thirty-six months at a time?"

Mr. Beck:

"There are three projects in the state today which started out as pilot projects in 1959. The thirty-six months expires on March 1. After March 1, we can receive no more state funds for the three original projects, but if you strike that one little sentence covering those thirty-six months, then you can continue to supply aid for those projects. There is matching money from the federal government. Otherwise, you can start up new projects over the state but you cannot continue these three."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Comfort and Litchman speaking against the motion to refer the bill to the Committee on Ways and Means.

With the permission of the House, Representative Canfield withdrew his motion.

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Hood yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Hood, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Hood:

"Yes."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Hood, I tried to follow your explanation and I thought you said this doesn't have a financial impact because the tax commission is not presently collecting the sales tax on poultry, and this act exempts sales of poultry which are used in the production of other poultry or poultry products. Then you said this is desperately needed because the industry is in dire circumstances. I don't understand. If the tax commission is not collecting this tax now, why is this bill needed at all?"

Mr. Hood:

"You have raised a good point. I think in my excitement, Mr. Ackley, and not being a lawyer, I sometimes do not turn a good phrase. What has happened in the poultry business today is that a venture has to get so large to support one family that we have had specialties in the poultry business, and now we find that there has been developed in the last few years the business of raising started pullets to sell to the egg producers, and the tax commission has not charged sales tax on the sale of these started pullets, but they feel if this language isn't cleared up they might have to do so. They feel this would be an unfair tax, and that is why we are changing it. I am sorry I was not lucid enough in my language."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Uhlman withdrew his motion.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I voted "aye" on Senate Bill No. 56 only for the purpose of reconsideration. The Speaker refused to recognize me for that purpose. I wish the record to show that I am opposed to this bad piece of legislation.

WES C. UHLMAN
32nd District

I voted "nay" on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 56 because I believe it to be in strict violation of Article 26 of our state Constitution, which states, and I quote "the people inhabiting this state do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries of this state, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribe; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States".

Public Law 52-280, Section 6, authorizes the states to assume jurisdiction after certain requirements have been made, and I quote "Section 6. Removal of legal impediment. Notwithstanding the provisions of any enabling act for the admission of a State, the consent of the United States is hereby given to the people of any state to amend, where necessary, their State Constitution or existing statutes, as the case may be, to remove any legal impediment to the assumption of civil and criminal jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of this Act: Provided, That the provisions of this Act shall not become effective with respect to such assumption of jurisdiction by any such state until the people thereof have appropriately amended their State Constitution or statutes, as the case may be."

I favor the state having both civil and criminal jurisdiction over all citizens in this state, including Indians.

C. W. "RED" BECK

Mr. Comfort:

"Representative Johnston, in your considered opinion, if a reading is between 0.05 and 0.10, is this an evidentiary reading?"

Mr. Johnston:

"Yes, I think it is. I think it indicates the extent of alcohol in the blood. It is a question of fact as to how much alcoholic content is in the blood of the driver and that is one of the means by which you can determine that fact."

Mr. Comfort:

"What would this indicate to the layman, to a jury?"

Mr. Johnston:

"I think the question of alcoholic content in the blood would be a fact to be determined by a jury considering the matter as to whether a man was or was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Metcalf might yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Representative Metcalf?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Certainly, Representative Ackley."

Mr. Ackley:

"As prime sponsor of this bill, I assume you had it drafted in accordance with your belief as to what the law should be. I notice in your draft that you specified the law should contain the words 'that I actually reside and maintain my abode within such precinct'. I am wondering, with this committee amendment on there which strikes your language, if you feel you can vote in favor of this bill and why."

Mr. Metcalf:

"Your basic assumption is incorrect. I didn't draw up the bill. This bill is the result of the fact that when I first came down to file in Olympia, Ken Gilbert told me the form upon which I was to file was sort of confusing. He said it was a bad form that should be revised. I went ahead and filed and there was no problem. Then last election several people were removed from the ballot and there were a couple of cases where they may have misunderstood or been misinformed when they filed. I reminded Ken Gilbert one day about the discussion we had had about the form and asked him to draw up a form which he considered to be correct, and I said we would put it in and make a change. He did and we put it in. As soon as we began discussing it in committee, somebody said, 'Wait a minute; this will eliminate the Governor and the Congressmen from filing. Governor Rosellini votes in Seattle, but he doesn't maintain an abode there.' Some of the Congressmen would have the same problem. So the only thing to do was to strike that particular language. Well, let me say, it wouldn't eliminate them from filing, but it would eliminate their filing on this form. We would have to have a different form upon which all these other people would file, so by striking that language we now have a form upon which everyone can file."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Metcalf would yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Representative Metcalf?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Certainly, Representative Rogers."

Mr. Rogers:

"Representative Metcalf, do you feel that if this law were not passed and we used the old declaration of candidacy that has been used for many years that you would be able to make a legal filing on the old form?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Why, certainly. Since you mention my specific filing, I would like to tell what happened to me. When I came to Olympia in 1958, I asked where I should file because I had mailing addresses at Route 5, Everett, and at Box 192, Mukilteo. Mr. Ken Gilbert asked where I was known, and I said I was known in Mukilteo, so he advised me to use Box 192, Mukilteo. Technically that is illegal. The next time, if this law doesn't pass, I will file at Route 5, Everett. The state election officials gave me, and perhaps others, the wrong advice technically and there is the possibility I could have been removed. The reason I put this in is that some well-meaning person coming down here the first time is liable to be confused because of this, and be taken off the ballot. I don't think it is right. If you don't want to pass the bill, vote against it, but let's quit talking about it."

Further debate ensued, Representative Canfield speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative O'Donnell speaking against its passage.

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Gorton, I notice lines 14 to 16 state: 'This shall be the exclusive procedure for such determination and no other person or organization shall be allowed to engage in such activity.' I would like to ask you two questions. What about the school people when they have a levy which is a part of a general election? Would they be precluded under this last section? As I would read this, the school people would not be able to check on school voting."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Uhlman, I am sure that with the amendment exempting nonpartisan elections your interpretation is not correct. It would still be a nonpartisan election as far as the schools were concerned no matter how you conducted it."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Secondly, how about you and me? Would we be precluded from checking?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, we would. In King county we are now."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Gorton and Garrett speaking in favor of its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 437, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 90; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 2.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Lybecker, Savage—2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 437, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

House Bill No. 438, by Representatives Gorton, Garrett, and Pritchard: Implementing the law relating to absentee voting at elections.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and House Bill No. 438 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Gorton, on page 6 there is a penalty provision. I interpret this to mean that even if a person were a qualified voter in a certain precinct but he resided in a nursing home in another precinct and his registration had not been changed, he would be subject to five years in prison or $5,000 fine or both. Now, I say this is directly contrary to the bill we just passed that would allow a candidate to reside in one precinct and file in another; but the average voter, if we would swear on this affidavit about where he was filing and, in fact, filed in the wrong precinct, would be guilty of a felony."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mrs. Henry, you made a speech. You didn't ask a question."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Miss O'Donnell:

"In my district I have about twenty-five nursing homes, and included among the residents of those nursing homes are a number of blind persons. I wonder how these blind people will be able to vote under this bill. Can you answer that, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Miss O'Donnell. They would apply for their ballots exactly the same way they do now. Their ballots would be mailed to them and they would request assistance in actually casting their votes from any person. If they wished to do so, they could request assistance from the person who had taken their application in the first place. This doesn't interfere with the way a person marks his ballot, but only in how it is delivered to him."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Smith:

"Did I understand you to say that whereas under the present method the political parties assign somebody to pick up the ballots and bring them back to the person, this would preclude the runner from taking them back to the person?"

Mr. Gorton:

"The present system permits that. This bill would not permit this. That is what the bill is aimed at."

Mr. Smith:

"What is the evil of this present system?"

Mr. Gorton:

"When the runner takes them back, particularly when you are dealing with elderly people with various problems, he may or may not take them back; he may or may not guide their hands in marking the ballot. I hasten to say I don't have firsthand knowledge of these evils, but Mr. Gilbert was worried, because of the high percentage of absentee ballots in this state, that it might become a problem. I gave you the example earlier of the person who boasted that he was marking twenty ballots on his kitchen table."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Smith and Klein speaking against passage of the bill.

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 438, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 76; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 2.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Moos, what is the population of the new district?"

Mr. Moos:

"The new district will have roughly twenty-five thousand. Let's see—the last time I counted it was twenty-five thousand nine hundred eighty three. Now that my wife and I are over here, it is twenty-five thousand nine hundred eighty-one."

Mr. O'Brien:

"How many Democrats?"

Mr. Moos:

"The last time I counted them? Let's see. My wife is over here . . ."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am not going to object any longer to the reading of the last line of these amendments, and if the House wishes to read the last line of the entire amendment, I am going to agree; but in this way I have shown my objection to this bill. I don't think you can sit here with a bill as important to the state of Washington and the two-party system as this bill is and idly allow it to go through this House under the circumstances that it is going through tonight without registering a protest. This may seem to many of you a somewhat ridiculous way to protest, but I have shown my protest because I think this thing has been done in a very unfair and undemocratic manner. And to the people who have put this bill together behind closed doors and in secrecy, that is real fine, because you people had the hammer on the other side of the aisle. So, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of this House, you go ahead and pass the bill, because you have the votes, but it's going to be a long road that has no turning, and redistricting doesn't have to be done ever ten years because the Constitution says you shall redistrict after every census. You do it your way, Mr. Gorton and members of your committee. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want the journal to show I have registered my protest in a way that many people are unwilling, on both sides of this aisle, to do.

"There is real unfairness displayed in this bill. House Bill No. 436 was introduced with the very same wording and language that was in the initiative which the ladies of the League of Women Voters attempted to pass in this state. That initiative was turned down by the voters of this state, and whether the people on this side of the aisle or the other side of the aisle agree or disagree, I ran my campaign open and above board opposing the initiative. And now, behind closed doors in this session and in this House in this capitol building, this bill was put together, and I am protesting. I am protesting long and loud, but go ahead and push it out. Push out your gerrymander. You do it any way you want to, but I will be back and a lot of the rest of us will be back anyway."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"Of course a lot of you will be back, Mr. Witherbee, because the bill as it is drawn will have a proportion of people coming back from each party which is equal to the proportion of the people who vote for the candidates of that party."

"In the fifty-one days we have been here, and in the approximately forty-five days I have been chairman of the committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment, Mr. Witherbee has not so much as asked me one time about the boundaries of his district. Mr. Witherbee has, I understand, succeeded in getting Senator Greive to cut the city of Normandy Park in two pieces, so he can be in a district that is preferable to the one he finds himself in under this redistricting plan.

"The Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment was divided at the time of its first meeting into subcommittees, all but one of which included members of both parties, and all of which had the opportunity of meeting and did meet. The one which had no members of one party was so constituted only because no members of the committee from that particular part of the state came from the other party, and one member in this House who comes from that Congressional district was given a district which remained the property of the same party which it is now.

"I don't have any objection to Mr. Witherbee's voting against this bill. This is a very sensitive bill in a very sensitive area. This is the first time, other than just an amendment to an initiative, that this legislature has seriously proposed to redistrict itself since the year 1901. Maybe the legislature isn't a good place to get redistricting bills through, but in no meaningful term of the word, from the point of view of division according to population or from the point of view of division along party lines, is this bill a gerrymander."

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"I have allowed Mr. Witherbee to explain his position under a point of personal privilege and Mr. Gorton has answered. The subject properly before us is not a debate on this bill; that will properly take place when this bill is on third reading. There is an amendment before us to section 8 at the moment."

MOTION

Mr. Campbell moved that House Bill No. 436 be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Olsen demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representatives Campbell, Uhlman, and Henry speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Gorton and Evans speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if Mr. Uhlman would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Uhlman, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Uhlman, I would like to know if your district is gerrymandered as bad as the proposed plan of Senator Greive, wherein he tries to take Bainbridge Island, which is the north end of Kitsap county, and put it with Vashon Island in the south end, so we are going to have to take a ferry for nearly two hours to get to the other part of the district?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Wang, in answer to your question, I am afraid I'll have to take a ferry across the canal; and frankly, in regard to Senator Greive's plan, it isn't drafted yet to my knowledge. It is still in a fluid stage, according to what I have heard. I don't know what is happening to Bainbridge Island. Maybe we'll have to get hold of a couple of those ferries for those of us who have to keep going back and forth across the canal to campaign."

Further debate ensued, Representative Bozarth speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Perry speaking against it.

Mr. Hood demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives McElroy, Haussler, and Savage speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative McDougall speaking against it.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question.

Mr. Campbell requested permission to close the debate.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Harris:

"I should like to call the attention of the Speaker to the rule which states: 'When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the house he shall rise from his seat, respectfully address himself to Mr. Speaker, pause until recognized . . .' This man did not ask for the floor. He just stood."

The Speaker:

"You may continue, Mr. Campbell."

Further debate ensued, Representative Campbell speaking in favor of the motion to indefinitely postpone House Bill No. 436.

Mr. Kink's demand for the previous question was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of the motion.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. O'Brien yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. O'Brien, do you have any remarks to make about this particular bill?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Thank you, Mr. Litchman, for giving me the floor. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen, the remarks I have to make pertain more or less to Mr. Evans' comments relative to Senator Greive and what happened in 1957 in this august body. I can assure you, Mr. Evans, that the plan of 1957 had strong bipartisan support, because it couldn't have passed both houses without this type of support from both political parties, and of course we have lived with it fairly well. You apparently feel that you won this last election. Your statistics on the percentages don't agree with our percentages at all, because, as has been pointed out, several of your legislative districts are predominantly Republican and the Democrats didn't file any candidates. I don't think your percentages are figured on a fair basis. But certainly we should do all in our power to do something relative to redistricting on a strong bipartisan level. It appears from the information given to me about this so-called pious method of subcommittee work that there wasn't a great deal of subcommittee work within this committee, and certainly many of our members feel very strongly against this proposed plan. Many of our legislative districts are being transferred over to other areas where we are not going to be represented at all, or where you have strong legislative districts of long standing, and things of that nature which are utterly unfair. So in our opinion, we feel that the job that was done in 1957 was a good one, and we would certainly like to have it followed again with strong bipartisan support from both political parties in order to resolve this very complex problem between ourselves and not have it submitted to the federal court for their determination."

Further debate ensued, Representative Rosenberg speaking in favor of the motion to indefinitely postpone House Bill No. 436.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Are we following Rule 35 which says that no member shall speak more than once?"

The Speaker:

"That is correct."

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I have been very carefully timing Representative Pritchard's statement and he is five seconds over three minutes."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken, Mr. Uhlman. You have five seconds in which to conclude, Mr. Pritchard."

Mr. Smith yielded his time to Mr. Pritchard.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, there are no provisions in our rules for the yielding of time."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken."

Representative Pritchard concluded his remarks. Further debate ensued, Representatives Witherbee and Garrett speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Moos speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Pritchard yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Pritchard, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I certainly will."

Mr. Andersen:

"My question is this. I have been hearing a great deal from Representative Garrett, who just spoke, about not knowing anything that was going on, and this has been represented by other members of this body. Is this true or not, and please explain your answer?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"First of all, when the subcommittee was called for King county, Mr. Gorton personally told Mr. Garrett about this meeting. Secondly, I went to Mr. Garrett. I asked if he would come to the hearing two days ago. I said I would show him the entire King county map. 'Oh,' he said, 'does it make any difference?' I said, 'Wouldn't you like to see what is happening to King county?' Not only was he invited to see it all, but the great Senator Greive two nights ago saw the entire bill and had an opportunity to have it all explained. This hasn't been such a great secret. I resent the fact that Mr. Garrett did not come when I invited him. I told him any time he wanted to come, we would show him not only the King county map but the whole state map. I believe Mr. Garrett would bear me out."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. McFadden:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Moos a question."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. McFadden:

"Did you not talk with me just before the session and tell me that Clallam, Jefferson, and Mason would have three Representatives? I see on this chart we have two. You talked to me and assured me we would have three."

Mr. Moos:

"One of the confusions which has entered into this is the fact that we had this constitutional amendment. In our discussion, Dr. McFadden, we were working in the area of the constitutional amendment under which there would be one hundred seven members, and in that case Mason county would have one and Jefferson and Clallam, jointly, would have two. I was speaking in the area of the one hundred seven members, which was the original constitutional amendment that we had up there."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Olsen, Bigley, Sawyer, and Jolly speaking in favor of the motion to indefinitely postpone House Bill No. 436, and Representatives Lind and Canfield speaking against its postponement.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Garrett would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Garrett?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Garrett, I wonder if you would comment on this alleged invitation by Mr. Pritchard to go upstairs to the secret room and see this nefarious plan?"

Mr. Garrett:

"I would be happy to. Ladies and gentlemen of this House, I want to make these comments: I thought at first I would state just what Joel did, but then I thought, no, Joel will bring it up and then you will get a chance to make a statement on exactly what happened. Now, two days ago is when this invitation was extended by Mr. Gorton to come up and look over the plan. Not give advice on it—look it over. This was to happen at lunchtime and I frankly forgot it. Mr. Pritchard and I did meet in the aisle and Mr. Pritchard said, 'Come up and look over the plan.' But never was any meeting held to bring up the plan. It was to look it over. I had an invitation to look it over two days ago."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. O'Brien would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, will you yield to the lady?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. O'Brien, I wonder if in the years you have been here in the legislature, has it ever been necessary for a committee member to have a special invitation extended to him to go up and participate in something that the committee was supposed to be working on?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"No, never in my experience have I heard of such a thing as extending a special invitation to members to attend committee meetings."

Further debate ensued, Representatives O'Brien and Mundy speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Huntley speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the charming lady, Mrs. Henry, would answer a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mrs. Henry, would you answer a question?"

Mrs. Henry:

"Yes."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mrs. Henry, Mr. Canfield stated that perhaps Klickitat county should be in Yakima. Is this not why you went to see Mr. Gorton in the first place?"

Mrs. Henry:

"Yes, Mr. Chatalas, it is exactly why I went. I was quite concerned. I fought hard and strenuously for my district. I maintained Klickitat and Skamania, along with Clark, are united in thought and should be united in district. They are very much the same. I have fought on one principle. I believe that the area, by adding a few precincts, is entitled to two legislators. I did not ask for a personal district, Mr. Moos, and I will take my chances running in the entire district. I think this is not more than right for everyone sitting here. I say that the new redistricting plan smacks of personal interest. It also smacks of political individuality, and therefore I am against it."

Further debate ensued, Representative Anderson (Eric O.) speaking in favor of the motion.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to indefinitely postpone House Bill No. 436, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 56; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McCormick, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—42.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—56.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Conner—1.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

"Has Representative Conner been excused?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, he was. He was absent when we called the roll and we excused the absent members."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be adoption of section 8 of the committee amendment to House Bill No. 436.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Mr. Beck moved that the House defer further consideration of House Bill No. 436 on second reading, and that the bill be ordered placed on the next day's second reading calendar.

The motion was lost.

The reading clerk proceeded to read section 9 of the committee amendment. Mr. Moos suggested that if there be no objection, the last line only be read. Mr. Witherbee objected to the reading of the last line only. The reading clerk was instructed to read section 9 in full.

MOTION

Mr. Witherbee moved that the rules be suspended and that the last line only of the committee amendment be read.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Evans:

"I think Mr. Witherbee wants to read the last line of the entire amendment. I assume that would mean we would no longer read each section of the amendment. Will this prevent us from going through and adopting each section, even though we didn't read it?"

The Speaker:

"The bill will still be subject to amendments that are on the desk by section."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, I think my point of objection has been well made and I know this bill is going to go. I would like just to read the last line of the entire amendment to the bill and then we can debate the amendment as such. What sort of motion do I make?"

The Speaker:

"The only thing you have to do is stop objecting and we can take it section by section."

Mr. Witherbee:

"I don't wish to object on that basis. I wish to be able to read the last line of the entire amendment."

The Speaker:

"We still have to adopt the amendment by sections. It has been passed on by the body to do so."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Witherbee withdrew his motion.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, section 13 of the committee amendment was adopted.

The reading clerk proceeded to read section 14 of the committee amendment. On suggestion of Mr. Moos, there being no objection, the last line only was read.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, section 14 of the committee amendment was adopted.

The reading clerk proceeded to read section 15 of the committee amendment. On suggestion of Mr. Moos, there being no objection, the last line only was read.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, section 15 of the committee amendment was adopted.

The reading clerk proceeded to read section 16 of the committee amendment. On suggestion of Mr. Moos, there being no objection, the last line only was read.

The reading clerk proceeded to read section 21 of the committee amendment. On suggestion of Mr. Moos, there being no objection, the last line only was read.

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of section 21 of the committee amendment.

Mr. DeJarnatt moved adoption of the following amendment to section 21 of the committee amendment:

Amend the amendment by the Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment. One page 8, section 21, line 18 of the mimeographed amendment, after "The" strike "county of Cowlitz" and insert "counties of Cowlitz and Wahkiakum"

Debate ensued, Representative DeJarnatt speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption.

Mrs. Henry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. DeJarnatt yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. DeJarnatt, will you yield to question?"

Mr. DeJarnatt:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Isn't it true many of your county services apply to both counties?"

Mr. DeJarnatt:

"That is very true. It is particularly true since the office of county superintendent has been abolished in Wahkiakum county. Cowlitz county now provides the services. Wahkiakum is joined with Cowlitz in the public health district, which provides a lot of services in that area. It is only logical they be one district. I might further add that Mr. Gorton made quite an assumption when he said everybody would be happy with this. I was never consulted on this. I served on this Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment, and the first time we worked on this bill was between 9:00 and 10:00 this morning. In fifteen minutes it was all tied up."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. DeJarnatt yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. DeJarnatt?"

Mr. DeJarnatt:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Did you have an opportunity to amend this bill in committee this morning?"

Mr. DeJarnatt:

"No, I did not."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Klein and Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Klein yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Klein?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Moos:

"Which judicial district does Wahkiakum fall in?"

Mr. Klein:

"They currently fall in Pacific. That is where this puts it. This has been recognized as a completely impossible situation for a long period of time by all the people in southwestern Washington. We have talked about that several times on the floor here, that that should not be. It is part of the economic district which includes Longview and Kelso, and it is a long distance clear around the horn for someone to come to Pacific county."

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. DeJarnatt to section 21 of the committee amendment. The motion was lost, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 55; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Hadley, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—43.

Mr. Savage:

"Just what does this amendment do, and have you discussed this amendment with the sponsor of the bill?"

Mr. Burtch:

"All my amendment does is to allow all the Representatives to run at large within the district. It doesn't change the district a bit from what the bill has done to our county and the rest of the contiguous area. I would further like to state that I discussed my amendment, or at least what I wanted to do in our district, with Mr. Gorton; and because of my discussion with Mr. Gorton prior to this bill coming out on the floor, I have to say that the reasons he gave for asking you to vote against my amendment are both false and insincere, because he told me at that time that they were thinking very strongly about deliberately protecting one of the members of the coalition. This was a statement he made to me when I discussed my district with him. I hope that the rest of you can be a little more fair."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Ackley?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Certainly."

Mr. Brachtenbach:

"Could you tell us what financial impact this would have on the cities if they were forced to create such a district and, I presume, operate it?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Seattle has an ordinance that has been quite effective. They have one man and one secretary in the division. He makes recommendations to the city council and makes inspections, and their costs are very nominal. I think the same would be true throughout the state. I further suggest that unless we get some teeth in our air pollution control law, it is going to be very costly to the people of this state, and pretty soon we are going to have smog conditions like they have in Los Angeles. It is coming, and it is coming sooner than you think, and we should do something about it."

Mr. McDougall demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ahlquist yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Ahlquist?"

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Ahlquist, I have read over this bill and I fail to see any way it tightens up our present very loose laws on air pollution. I would appreciate it if you would explain how it does this."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Representative Ackley, if you as an attorney can't see it, there is no reason for me to try to explain. All I can say is that all the agencies have studied this since the last legislature and have asked for this act. It would allow for the formation in communities of air pollution control districts after receiving advice of the state pollution control board and after full, public hearings. This puts it up to the communities to do this in their own interest and for their own control. If, after a period of time, we learn that there are such things taking place all over the state as you have mentioned, then I think we could probably get into the area of mandatory action, but not now."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Klein and Clark speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Ackley speaking against its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 149, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 7; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—88.

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes, I would be pleased to."

Mr. Dootson:

"In view of Mr. Litchman's remarks, would you kindly answer for the body some of the arguments he put forth?"

Mr. Andersen:

"I can answer his arguments very simply and I appreciate the opportunity. Representative Litchman talks about those opposing this bill as wanting hot rodders and unlicensed drivers running around the state. Fine. Everybody in favor of hot rodders, stand up. No one is in favor of that. The hot rodder or unlicensed driver if he is arrested must stand up in juvenile court and his license can be removed the first time he is brought in. You don't have to wait three times. Secondly, in regard to this talk about drug addicts and drunk drivers driving around, you can't find anything in the present law that says drug addicts or drunks can drive under the provisions of the law. These people are subject to our adult laws at the present time. This is sheer emotionalism, this kind of argument. It is grossly discriminatory, I feel—and this may be the unpopular position—to pick out the sixteen- and seventeen-year-olds who can't vote. Ninety-five percent of them are good kids. There is no reason to penalize sixteen- and seventeen-year-olds when the persons we should be aiming at are the eighteen- and nineteen-year-olds, whose offenses are twice as great. Let's apply it to everyone, and not pick out the sixteen- and seventeen-year-old kids."

Further debate ensued, Representative Hurley speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Hood speaking in its favor.

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.) demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Juelling or Mr. Hood might yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Juelling, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Juelling:

"Yes, I will yield, Mr. Ackley."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Juelling, if this bill were passed, would it then be lawful for the officers of a bank or trust company to read the obituaries in the paper every day and call the widow or widower and personally solicit the business of administration of the estate?"

Mr. Juelling:

"Mr. Ackley, in response to that question, I suppose these people in the banking business have a code of ethics similar to yours in the legal profession, and if it is allowed in your profession perhaps it should be allowed in their profession, but I don't think that is the case."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Ackley, Uhlman, Miles, and Harris speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Hood and Hadley speaking for its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Beierlein.

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask one of the attorneys, if this bill were passed, would it affect their fees and their practice? Would it in any way cut down their business? It has been all lawyers who have been getting up and speaking against this bill."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Harris.

Mr. Harris:

"I will attempt to answer, at least in a limited way, Mr. Beierlein. Under the rules in Spokane, our minimum fee schedule, if the attorney should act both as lawyer and executor, he shall only take one-half of the fee for his job as executor, but if there is an attorney on the case, which there always must be, and also an executor such as a bank, the bank takes the full fee."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Dootson:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Juelsing kindly yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Juelsing, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Juelsing:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Dootson:

"What I would like to get at, Mr. Juelsing, is whether in the past, before this 1955 act, there had been abuses? The reason I ask is that if there had not been abuses, it might seem this act might have been passed for the benefit of a certain group, in this case the attorneys."

Mr. Juelsing:

"In answer to your question, Mr. Dootson, I would say that there were no abuses."

Further debate ensued, Representative Juelsing speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to get something cleared up. I have a great admiration for Representative Ackley and I would like to ask him a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Ackley?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Let's assume for the sake of argument that an individual gets along in years and a bank with which he has been doing business for a long time has knowledge that he has a nice savings account and many bonds and stocks. Now if they find he has no will or trust agreement, would it constitute soliciting business for them to suggest he talk to their trust officer, and would this mean that the bank can't act as a trustee and executor and administrator of that estate, even though an attorney of that bank draws up the proper documents? Now, I am thoroughly confused, because I just did that and I want to know if my arrangement is legal?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Ahlquist, if you had read over this act as I have done, I think you would see the answer to your question is no, certainly not. As a matter of fact, this act permits banks and trust companies not only to solicit business in the field, but to give advice and prepare wills and do other legal work. Under the language that is being stricken, it would prohibit them only from soliciting that they be appointed as the executor or administrator. They should leave that question to you. If this present bill is passed, they could personally request that you appoint them as administrator and, not only that, but they could call up the recently bereaved widows after they have read the obituary column and solicit appointment as the executor or administrator."

Further debate ensued, Representative Perry speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss Wintler:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Pritchard yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Pritchard?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Miss Wintler:

"I should like to know whether the second amendment on this bill where it says no intoxicating liquors, with or without license, shall be sold on lands of the University of Washington devoted to academic purposes, would permit a class H license to go to the Faculty Club, which is situated across a most narrow street from the Student Union building, because no one ever thinks of the Faculty Club as an academic building."

Mr. Pritchard:

"Miss Wintler, I believe this was inserted in here because the University of Washington owns a considerable amount of property in downtown Seattle. If they hadn't inserted that, the Olympic Hotel and a number of very fine restaurants would have been in deep trouble. It just eliminates the campus itself."

Further debate ensued, Representative Mundy speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 164, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 41; absent or not voting, 4.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House recessed until 8:00 p. m.

SECOND EVENING SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 8:00 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present.

MOTION

Mrs. Hurley moved that for the remainder of the thirty-eighth session of the legislature all votes on the final passage of measures be taken by oral roll call.

Debate ensued, Representative Hurley speaking in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"I call the Speaker's attention to Rule 49. Mrs. Hurley's motion as she has made it would clearly require a suspension of the rules and her motion is, therefore, out of order because it did not include a suspension of the rules. Furthermore, she would have to request an oral roll call on each individual roll call at which time one-sixth of the members would have to stand up with her. She is out of order for a number of different reasons."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken. It would require a suspension of the rules and is not debatable. The motion is out of order for the reasons you have mentioned."

SECOND READING OF BILLS

Senate Bill No. 99, by Senators Hallauer, Riley, and Woodall:

Including liquor board in administrative act.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Bill No. 436, by Representative McCaffree:

Reapportioning legislative districts.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 436 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Gorton and Pritchard speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Anderson (Eric O), Uhlman, Henry, and Klein speaking against its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Pritchard yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Pritchard, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I certainly will."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Pritchard, you were saying that in 1931 all of the state of Washington was broken up into separate Representative districts."

Mr. Pritchard:

"No, but there were quite a number that were."

Mr. Schaefer:

"How many were broken up?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I don't know."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"There were somewhere between ninety and ninety-nine Representatives at that time divided among either sixty-nine or seventy-two single-Representative districts, or the great bulk of which were single-Representative districts."

Further debate ensued, Representative Schaefer speaking against passage of the bill.

Mr. Litchman demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 436, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 55; nays, 44; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—55.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McCormick, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Moos, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—44.

Engrossed House Bill No. 436, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 9, by Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment:

Proposing amendment to Constitution on apportionment and redistricting.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 9 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Moos and Henry speaking in favor of passage of the resolution, and Representative Ackley speaking in opposition to its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Representative Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Andersen:

"Representative Moos, would you please explain the reason for the make-up of the commission as set out in this joint resolution?"

Mr. Moos:

"I think Representative Ackley raised a very valid question and a very practical one. I think most of the people in this body are familiar with how the state central committee is made up. There are twenty eastern Washington counties and nineteen western Washington counties. I have yet to go to a state central committee meeting where there has been complete block voting on an issue of this nature. There may be block voting on other issues, such as daylight savings, but not this. We used this because of the situation we find ourselves in in this most peculiar 1963 session of the legislature. I racked my brain for many hours and many days to figure out how we could find a person who would be acceptable as the leader of the Republican side and the leader of the Democratic side if this session came on one of those years when we had to pick up this committee, and I realized right then I was going to run into a real snag. Then I felt that probably reapportionment should go a little bit further than possibly the halls of the legislature. It should go into the areas that are affected. The state central committee is a committee that is made up and set forth in the statutes of the state of Washington. The laws define how they shall be elected and apportioned and that it should be the political party's obligation and privilege to have some voice in who would represent them. That is why I selected that particular way of doing it."

Further debate ensued, Representative Haussler speaking in favor of passage of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. May:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"I will, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. May:

"Mr. Moos, I have read your plan and I think you have a good one. I think the county lines are the answer to this problem. Could you tell me why this wasn't used in Engrossed House Bill No. 436, so we could have got away from a big hassle last night?"

Mr. Moos:

"One of the things we attempted to do—and I will admit in some cases we did not do it because it was almost an impossibility—but in as many cases as possible, we attempted to blend the districts of the bill just passed to coincide with the proposition that would be before us if this constitutional change were to pass in two years. In a number of the districts we were not able to do this, such as in Mrs. Henry's district, because we had to move boundaries far enough to stay out of court. But we tried to keep as close as possible so that if this proposition is accepted, our next apportionment by this body at the next session will carry out this constitutional change without as much of a change as we would normally have after each census."

Further debate ensued, Representative McCaffree speaking in favor of passage of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. May:

"Mr. Speaker, I have another question for Mr. Moos."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. May:

"The people voted down Initiative 211 for one reason or another. Why couldn't this resolution be the proposition that would be submitted to the people for the next election and just wait and see what the court will do about it? In my opinion the court has no right to reapportion. This is a function of this body."

Mr. Moos:

"Representative May, the question you pose has crossed our minds many times. As a farm boy, I do not know what goes on in the mind of a judge, but the directive they set forth, with the deadline of April 8, I don't believe meant a constitutional change as much as it did an actual apportionment. However, if the redistricting bill should go down the drain, it is possible the courts would consider this as an apportionment bill."

Mr. Huntley demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 9, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 84; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—84.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Beierlein, Bergh, Conner, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gorton, Grant, Klein, McElroy, O'Donnell, Olsen, Sawyer, Uhlman, Wedekind—15.

Substitute House Joint Resolution No. 9, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

Senate Bill No. 360, by Senators Gallagher, Cooney, and Woodall:

Relating to possession and operation of certain games of skill and card-rooms.

On motion of Mr. Moos, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 360 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Chatalas demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Morrissey speaking in favor of passage of the bill and Representative Miles speaking against its passage.

Mr. Wedekind demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 360 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 62; nays, 36; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beierlein, Bergh, Brachtenbach, Braun, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Evans, Flanagan, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Leland, Litchman, Lynch, Mast, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Smith, Taylor, Wang, Wedekind, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—62.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Andersen (James A.), Beck, Berentson, Bigley, Brouillet, Comfort, DeJarnatt, Eberle, Eldridge, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Huntley, Kirk, Klein, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McCaffree, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Odell, Pritchard, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Uhlman, Wintler—36.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Bozarth—1.

Senate Bill No. 360 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 252, by Representatives King and Kink (by executive request):

Budget bill for 1963-1965 biennium.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Moos, Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 was substituted for House Bill No. 252, and the second substitute bill was placed on the calendar for second reading.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"My point of order relates to the question of whether Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 can be substituted for House Bill No. 252. Originally House Bill No. 252 came out on second reading and Substitute House Bill No. 252 was before us, but the motion wasn't made to substitute it. The bill was rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means. Now a second version has come out. It appears to me your decision should be most carefully made in this instance, because it might challenge the constitutionality of the whole omnibus appropriation of this session of the legislature."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, in answer to your point of order, whether we can substitute Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 for House Bill No. 252, this body has just done so. A motion was never made to substitute the First Substitute House Bill No. 252 for House Bill No. 252."

MOTION

Mr. Backstrom moved that Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 be rereferred to Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued, Representative Backstrom speaking in favor of the motion.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Canfield yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Canfield?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Canfield, can you tell us whether, in your opinion, we will have sufficient revenues under our present taxing policies so this bill that is before us will not create an unbalanced budget?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes, I think so."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Do you base this opinion on our anticipated revenues for the next two years?"

Mr. Canfield:

"I think this will come out during discussion of the bill and would not be particularly relevant at this time."

Further debate ensued, Representatives O'Brien, Grant, and Klein speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Lewis, Eldridge, and Clark speaking against the motion.

The Speaker called on Mrs. Hurley to preside.

Further debate ensued, Representative Reese speaking against the motion, and Representative Brouillet speaking in its favor.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against the motion, and Representative Campbell speaking for it.

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.) demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"The Speaker would like to remind the House that we are past the fiftieth day and the three-minute rule is in effect. The motion before the House is the motion to rerefer Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 to the Committee on Ways and Means and remarks should be held to that subject."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Andersen (James A.) and Morphis speaking against the motion, and Representative Rogers speaking in its favor.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Thurston, Mr. Lewis, yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Lewis, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Lewis, did you or the Republican leadership consult with any economists or financial experts in arriving at this figure under estimated revenue that you propose?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes, I would like to tell you just exactly what we did."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like a yes or no. I don't want him using up my three minutes."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Lewis has been asked a question and Mr. Lewis has a right to answer the question."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Will my three minutes be utilized by Mr. Lewis's answer?"

The Speaker:

"It was your option to ask the question. I will give you an opportunity to speak, Mr. Uhlman."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to say that the Republican party as a responsible party would not under any condition come up with a hypothetical increase on the basis of one or two men's opinion. We have been working and studying this budget ever since it first slithered into the House. We have been looking at this reptilian thing with suspicion and we have checked it out carefully throughout the state of Washington. In fact, Mr. Uhlman, this morning we called Washington, D.C. to verify some of our figures.

"Now, I would like to give you an illustration of some of the things we have done. We have gone into details such as a careful analysis of the construction industry in the state of Washington in the next biennium. We have looked at the forest products industry and the aircraft industry. We have discussed this with economists in Tacoma and in Seattle. In fact, we have discussed this with everyone that we felt would provide us with answers to verify, or show us to be incorrect, so that the figures that we suggested might be more accurate. As a result of these discussions and these comparisons, we found that the figures that we Republicans used in this budget for your approval are conservative in themselves. In many cases, we found that economists suggested that a ten percent increase would be justified and, on the whole, we found that between an 8.5% and a 9.5% increase in revenue could be expected; so on that basis, we felt that an 8.8% increase would be justified.

"I would like to further state briefly that this increase in the Governor's budget accomplishes two things. It has partially filled the holes and, secondly, it has attempted to fulfill what we think is a responsible budget. Now, Mr. Brouillet, along with most of the Democratic members in the Ways and Means Committee, supported our suggestion to increase this and plug these loopholes. In fact, Mr. Brouillet many times stood up and recognized publicly in our committee—as I am sure he will verify—that the Governor did not provide adequate funds for various phases of education.

"I hope you can see, Mr. Uhlman, that we have very carefully studied this budget and have consulted with many people in business areas throughout the state of Washington and have even gone back to Washington, D.C."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman and O'Donnell speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Hadley and Leland speaking against the motion.

Mr. Burtch demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to rerefer Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 to the Committee on Ways and Means, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 51; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Kink, Klein, Litchman, Lybecker, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—44.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—51.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Conner, Hood, King, May—4.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 on second reading.

The second substitute bill was read the second time by sections.

Mrs. Henry demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present.

On motion of Mr. Kink, the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 on second reading.

Mr. Sawyer moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 1, line 7, after "$30,000" add the following items:

"General Fund Appropriation for research into effective means of treating and preventing delinquency....."	$ 100,000
"General Fund Appropriation for the construction and equipping of four group homes"	294,000
"General Fund Appropriation for operation of group homes....."	200,000"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Sawyer yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Sawyer?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"Yes."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Sawyer, for the past two hours, you people have been berating us for our budget and for our revenue estimates and expenditure estimates. We think they are in balance. Now you are asking us to spend even more money. What kind of tax package do you have to meet this budget?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Evans, I am glad you asked that question. If you will be so kind as to go ahead with us and vote for these items, we will give you a tax package. If anyone wants to ask questions about our tax package, Mr. Brouillet has it here and I am sure he can explain it in detail."

Debate ensued, Representative Canfield speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Witherbee demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"I think we should ask Representative Brouillet at this time what is in this tax package that you people have decided on, or are proposing, to pay for these added exoenses in this amendment and other amendments."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brouillet, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Mr. Speaker, I will yield. One loophole that I think we are all aware of is the bowling tax, which would pick up one and two-tenths million dollars. That is a loophole that would support something like this."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Brouillet will yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"No."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Brouillet yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Brouillet?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes."

Mr. Pritchard:

"As long as we have gone this far, can you assure me the amendments you people are putting up can be covered by the bowling tax, or are there additional taxes you are proposing?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"As soon as you accept our amendments, we will certainly be happy to provide our plan to provide additional revenue."

Further debate ensued, Representative Grant speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment by Mr. Sawyer to Second Substitute House Bill No. 252.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Brouillet yield to further question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to further question concerning the amendment, Mr. Brouillet?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"If it is on the subject of the amendment."

Mr. Gorton:

"You will have to judge whether it is on the subject of the amendment. It seems to me before we vote on this amendment and the other amendments on the desk, we should know what we are in for. Now, I have counted the present amendments on the desk and they amount to about a twelve million dollar increase. I would like to know both where the twelve million dollars are coming from and the names of members on your side who will vote for your proposal. Then I can vote intelligently on Mr. Sawyer's amendment."

Mr. Brouillet:

"As I said, if you approve the amendments, we will provide the revenue necessary for their implementation."

Further debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking against adoption of the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Sawyer to Second Substitute House Bill No. 252. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 58; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—41.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—58.

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 1, line 7, strike "$30,000" and insert "$90,000"

Debate ensued, Representatives Hurley, Burtch, and Beck speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Perry demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment by himself and Mr. Sawyer:

On page 11, section 1, line 7, after "$4,847,071" add the following item:

"General Fund Appropriation—for research into the causes of retardation. . $ 200,000"

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Representative Uhlman one question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Can you tell me what the Governor has in his present budget for research on retardation?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"Dr. Adams, I couldn't tell you right now. If you would allow me a few moments to look at the budget, I would be happy to check for you."

Mr. Adams:

"What was cut for retardation?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"From the Governor's figure, $153,000 was cut by the Republicans in the Ways and Means Committee."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Adams, King, and Hadley speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Smith demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker called on Mr. Kink to preside.

The Speaker:

"Representative Hood, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Hood:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Olsen:

"Representative Hood, what do you know about this proviso? How was it framed and what do you think of it?"

Mr. Hood:

"Thank you, Mr. Olsen. There has been considerable criticism from my district concerning my stand last week against the lien clause. If you recall, I was against the lien clause and, as I said, I have campaigned against it in my political career. But I was for a decent recovery clause. My position has not changed. I think this clause does not place a cloud on any title of real estate, that it will be a deterrent, in effect, rather than hurting recipients. It will keep people who do not deserve to be on the rolls, off the rolls. I am sure none of you on the other side can doubt my sincerity in my concern for old people or minority classes of any type, but I feel that this will keep the undeserving off and that it is just."

Further debate ensued, Representative Hood speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative O'Brien speaking for its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pritchard:

"I would like to ask Representative Newschwander if he has the figures on this very small amount, hardly anything at all, that Mr. O'Brien is talking about."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Newschwander?"

Mr. Newschwander:

"Yes. I do have the figures. I am the one who slithered this in and I kind of resent being called a snake, but I am willing to take it to get this clause into this appropriation bill. These are the figures given by the department. The deterrent factor of this recovery clause will save $1,828,008, of which $455,905 is the state's share and $1,372,103 is the federal share. As far as the collection part of this recovery clause is concerned, it is estimated there will be recovered $687,326, which is broken down to $186,550 as the state's share and $500,776 as the federal share. Mr. O'Brien was talking about a few hundred thousand dollars, but here we have quite a bit over a million dollars in savings."

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Beierlein. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 59; absent or not voting, 0.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. O'Brien a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. O'Brien, is it true that by federal regulation we are prohibited from passing a recovery clause? In other words, we will be denied federal money in that area?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Apparently that is the question. If you don't provide this you are going to limit your federal assistance."

Mr. Johnston:

"If we pass a recovery clause here in the state of Washington we will be specifically denied certain federal money in a relief program?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"According to the information we have received, the more you cut off by enactment of this clause in the omnibus bill, the more you lose, in about a three to one ratio."

On page 18, section 1, line 17, after the colon following "fund)" strike everything down to and including the colon following "biennium" on line 19

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Newschwander, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the House adopted his amendment to page 14, section 1, line 1 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 252.

The motion was carried.

RECONSIDERATION

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Newschwander to page 14, section 1, line 1 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 252.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Smith:

"Do we have the amendment before us again? Mr. Newschwander did not move its adoption."

The Speaker:

"It has already been moved. We are reconsidering it right now. It has been moved to reconsider the vote and that is what we are going to do. The Speaker will start the electric roll call."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information."

The Speaker:

"State your point of information."

Mr. Burtch:

"What are we voting on at the present time?"

The Speaker:

"We have voted on the motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Newschwander's amendment was adopted. Now we are voting on the adoption of the amendment."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe it is out of order to have an electric roll call unless it has been demanded, and it was not demanded on this amendment."

The Speaker:

"It was originally demanded on this amendment."

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Newschwander to page 14, section 1, line 1. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 0; nays, 99; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Anderson (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—99.

Mr. Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 14, section 1, line 1, strike "$251,013,798" and insert "$249,873,116"

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Litchman:

"Didn't Mr. Newschwander previously amend this particular provision in section 1, or am I in error?"

The Speaker:

"It was reconsidered and defeated, so there has been no amendment to this provision."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Burtch:

"We just voted the original figures when we turned down Mr. Newschwander's amendment. These figures cannot be changed."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"We are voting for a lower figure now. The amendment is in order."

Debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Leland speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Schaefer demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Newschwander would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Newschwander, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Newschwander:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Newschwander, from what I gather here, you people tacked on this lien clause, or its equivalent, and you arrived at a figure of $251,013,798. Now you are attempting to reduce that. I wonder if you can explain why you are attempting to reduce your original figure?"

Mr. Newschwander:

"That is quite easy, Mr. Litchman. First of all, a recovery clause is not a lien clause. Let's get that straight. In the second place, the original figure was $251 million and there was a clerical error made in the subtraction. This amendment is for the purpose of correcting that clerical mistake."

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking against adoption of the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Newschwander. The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 38; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—61.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bigley, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—38.

On motion of Mr. Newschwander, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 13, section 1, line 5, strike "$27,685,049" and insert "$27,711,583"; on line 7, strike "$50,426,869" and insert "$49,437,829"; on line 31, strike "$11,937,911" and insert "$11,901,303"

Mr. Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 19, section 1, line 3, after "be" strike "$2,852.57 for 1963-1965 and 1964-1965" and insert "determined by the superintendent of public instruction for 1963-1964 and 1964-1965 in accordance with RCW 28.41.060 and shall not exceed $2,900.00 each year"

Debate ensued, Representative Metcalf speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Beck.

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question to ask Mr. Metcalf."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Metcalf, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Yes."

Mr. Beck:

"When you start talking about this apportionment fund and changing it from $2,852.57 to $2,900, aren't you in effect increasing the per teacher unit to the district? I don't know whether I am naive enough to think this is going to allow any more to the equalization formula, but aren't you in effect cutting down on those districts which have junior colleges?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"One of the problems is that there have been school districts which have been taking identical units earned by community colleges and using them in the school districts. That is one of the problems. The community colleges have not as a general rule been using the education allotments that have been earned by them."

Mr. Beck:

"Can you give me facts? I have a junior college in my district, the Olympic junior college, and we get two teacher units for every forty-five pupils. Are you, in effect, saying that we do not use that, and aren't you depriving my district of equalization funds?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"If your school district has been using money that was given to them for junior colleges, yes, but by putting a line item in for junior colleges, we are segregating these funds and keeping this separate and honest and accurate. I believe it was the recommendation of the education interim committee that the funds that were commingled between the school districts and junior colleges be desegregated."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Brouillet yield to question on this?"

The Speaker:

"Do you yield to question, Mr. Brouillet?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes."

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Brouillet, what was the interim committee recommendation on this? Did they recommend taking that fund away from the junior colleges?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"The interim committee recommendation was to segregate the funds, but not to reduce the allotment to junior colleges. What is being done here is making a ten percent cut in junior college funds. That is the whole effect of this, plus reducing the public school support as the result of Mr. Metcalf's amendment."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Metcalf yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Representative Metcalf?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Metcalf, is not this proposed increase an anti-Seattle school district measure or approach to this?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"I don't consider it an 'anti-' any school district budget. This is about eighteen million dollars better than the Governor's budget. His budget was really tough on Seattle school districts and many of the other federally impacted districts throughout the state. This budget merely attempts to lessen the impact on those federally impacted districts and to make the Governor honest. That is what we are trying to do here. It's a tough job."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman and Conner speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Comfort and Mahaffey speaking for its adoption.

Mrs. Henry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Metcalf to page 19, section 1, line 3. The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 41; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—58.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Henry, Herr, Hurley, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—41.

Mr. Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 19, section 1, line 15, after the colon following "classes" strike all of the material down to and including the colon on line 19.

Debate ensued, Representatives Metcalf and Canfield speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Brouillet and Beck speaking against its adoption.

Th Speaker called on Mr. Canfield to preside.

MOTION

Mrs. Henry moved that Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 be rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"This motion has already been made at this particular position of the bill. Therefore, this motion is out of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"The Speaker regretfully rules your motion out of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

"My point of order on the Speaker's ruling is that other business has intervened since the motion. In fact, a great deal of other business has intervened. There has been an attempt to rewrite the whole school apportionment and equalization formula here on the floor of the House. Certainly that is intervening business. It is entirely in order for Mrs. Henry to make a motion to rerefer this back to committee for further consideration. A number of these proposals are drastic changes that the committee didn't even consider."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding) recognized Mr. Huntley.

Mr. Huntley:

"I believe the Speaker has ruled on that. If you want to change the ruling, you should appeal the decision of the chair."

APPEAL FROM DECISION OF CHAIR

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, I appeal the decision of the Chair."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding) declared the question before the House to be whether the ruling of the Speaker would be the decision of the House.

Mr. Smith demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, may I speak on my motion?"

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"The motion is not debatable."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"State your point of order."

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, I understood you to say that the appeal from the decision of the Chair was not debatable. Certainly the question of appealing the decision of the Chair is debatable in every instance. Our rules even provide that the Speaker can go down from the rostrum and speak in his own behalf. This certainly is a debatable question and one which should be given every opportunity to debate."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"Will you then proceed with any remarks you have?"

Mr. Rogers:

"I don't care to make any remarks. I simply feel that the body should not be told that the motion is not debatable when it is clearly debatable and of the highest order."

The Speaker (Mr. Canfield presiding):

"The Speaker misunderstood the Clerk."

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Debate ensued, Representative Henry speaking in favor of reversing the decision of the Chair, and Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking in favor of upholding the decisions of the Chair.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Burtch:

"What we are considering is the appeal from the decision of the Chair. It has nothing to do with what Mr. Andersen is speaking about."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Andersen:

"I don't believe the debate on this particular point has to confine itself to this point. I am referring to remarks on the other side in debating the merits of the bill. They have stated the bill should be returned to Ways and Means. We have been debating for hours trying to answer allegations made on the other side on this same issue."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The question before the House is the appeal of the ruling of the Chair. Actually, both sides of the aisle have been out of order in this particular debate."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, I refer you to Reed's 119, motion to commit, which states rather explicitly that this motion can be made to commit. It was ruled out of order because the motion previously had been made. Now Reed's in part states as follows:

"This motion can be made at once upon the stating of the question, or later, after discussion and efforts to amend have shown the need of more careful investigation than the assembly itself can give it."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Rule 119 says nothing about the motion being made more than one time."

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mrs. Henry:

"The rule says the motion can be made at once, or later after 'efforts to amend have shown the need of more careful investigation than the assembly itself can give it.' I maintain it should have more careful investigation. It is now some hours later since the first motion was made, and we have amended this bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In order to grant the lady some latitude in this, I am going to rule that the motion to recommit is again in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Metcalf:

"Mr. Speaker, if this amendmnt is adopted, would my amendment to strike the section and insert other words still be in order?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley's amendment just changes the amount, so the wording would not be changed and your amendment would still be in order."

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Metcalf and Canfield speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Taylor:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Canfield yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Canfield?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes."

Mr. Taylor:

"Like many others on the floor of this House, I am vague about the school formula. Do you think this is the place to amend it, on the floor of the House, like we are doing in this particular series of amendments, rather than in committee?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes, I do."

Debate ensued, Representative Mundy speaking for adoption of the amendment, and Representative Flanagan speaking against its adoption.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Ackley. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 56; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—43.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Beierlein, Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—56.

"You may conclude your comments, Mr. Mahaffey."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Metcalf yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Metcalf, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Rosenberg:

"I am far from being an expert in the educational field, and especially in the junior college area, but I understand there are three types which you are referring to in this area: the extended secondary academic, which is type 1, the extended secondary vocational, which is type 2, and the junior college, which is type 3. Now, how much money is provided for the type 1 program?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"The type 1, extended secondary, has been eliminated from this budget. This is a declining program which is phasing out. This is a good program and I would like to leave it alone, but I think as we get a good community college program, this program would phase itself out. It has been decreasing each year, and this year we have had to eliminate it altogether."

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Well, Mr. Metcalf, would you yield to another question? Would you explain to me what we are to do in some of the rural areas where we have this type 1 program and still have strong interest in it, even though it is not large?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"This is a real problem and I am very sympathetic to this problem. But you have to cut somewhere, and where do you want to cut? This is the thing, as far as I can see, that will least hurt the overall program. Certainly, the Governor's budget hurt the program immensely. This budget helps some but it certainly hasn't solved all the problems. I am with you on that."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Metcalf to page 20, line 5 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 252. The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 41; absent or not voting, 0.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"Mr. Smith, for what purpose do you rise?"

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Smith:

"For the good of the House and for the good of the members, I think it would be wise if we would at least extend to the maker of a motion the courtesy of permitting him to state the reason for making it before someone jumps up and lays it on the table. This is a matter of common decency. We are supposed to be ladies and gentlemen representing our constituents. This is a denial of the right to speak."

On motion of Mr. King, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 24, section 8, line 5, after "pursuant to" strike "RCW 43.09.120" and insert "RCW 43.09.210"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Campbell, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Campbell:

"Yes."

Mr. Morphis:

"Mr. Campbell, do you feel we have underestimated the revenue sufficiently to permit this increase or would you propose taxes? What is your proposal?"

Mr. Campbell:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, in answer to the question, I am not proposing taxes and I am not saying we have over or underestimated revenues. That is not my field. All I am saying is that the Legislative Council was directed to make a study of all our pension systems the last two years. We made that study and, among all the things we studied, one of the basic conclusions we came to is that the teachers' retirement program is totally inadequate. What I am saying is that I consider this to be one of the priorities, and if necessary I will vote to cut the budget elsewhere."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Mr. Campbell. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 52; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—47.

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Gorton would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Gorton, I think you have been making book on the increases that have been proposed in the budget bill. Would you comment on how those figures are running?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes. Thus far, including Mr. Rogers' amendment, the people on the other side of the House have proposed amendments totaling an increase in the budget of $11,748,000. In addition, they have remaining amendments on the desk totaling $17,400,000."

Further debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking in opposition to adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Rogers would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Perry:

"You made yourself known to the Governor on the seriousness of this public law money. What was his answer?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Well, the budget message that came from the Governor indicated they had a firm budget and they wished to proceed with it as it was. I feel much as was expressed by the Republican members of the House this morning that it is the prerogative of this body and the Senate to write the budget and that we have the power of making the appropriation, and I am not necessarily completely guided by the Governor's recommendations."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Beck:

"I have an amendment on the desk pertaining to the wording of this proviso. What is the status of my amendment if this motion is voted down?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"If Mr. Rogers' amendment is adopted, your amendment will be out of order. If the amendment is not adopted, your amendment will be in order, sir."

Further debate ensued, Representative Brouillet speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. O'Brien yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. O'Brien, I really have two questions. Would you tell me the bill number of this tax package which Mr. Brouillet proposes on the fifty-fourth day, and exactly how many of your forty-four Democrats intend to vote for it?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Gorton this is merely something that has been discussed. We don't have a bill, as such, but in answer to your question, it is rather interesting for us on this side to know how you intend to balance this budget which is thirteen million dollars out of balance. You present your side, and we present our side."

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Rogers to Second Substitute House Bill No. 252.

The Speaker:

"Would you yield to a short and concise question, Mr. Mundy?"

Mr. Mundy:

"Yes."

Mr. Ackley:

"I wonder, Mr. Mundy, if you know how much, if any, of this additional seventeen million dollars that your amendment would bring into the general fund, would be applied to the public school fund?"

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Ackley, in answer to your question, it is my understanding—possibly some other member here could correct me—that inasmuch as these lands and timber are in truth on public school ground, it would go to the educational fund and to the permanent school fund of our state."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Morphis:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Metcalf yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Metcalf, would you yield to question?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Yes."

Mr. Morphis:

"How much of an increase would this be?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Twenty percent. That the increase that this amendment provides is going to be seventeen million dollars, as Mr. Ackley said, is totally false."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hood:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Hood:

"Doesn't the three-minute rule apply now?"

Mr. Speaker:

"Yes, sir, it certainly does."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Uhlman yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Uhlman?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I do yield."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Uhlman, as my running total of the amendments proposed by your side of the aisle since we started on this budget with your comments that it was too high are now over sixteen million dollars, I wonder if you will answer directly the question Mr. Brouillet and Mr. O'Brien have dodged, and tell me what your proposal is to get this sixteen million dollars of new taxes and the names of the members on your side of the aisle who are going to vote for the tax?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"I would gladly yield to that question, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I find myself in accord again, as the Democratic party always is, with the League of Women Voters from Seattle. I received a letter addressed to me which states—and I am paraphrasing it—that on the behalf of the League of Women Voters of Seattle, I urge you to give serious consideration to legislation which would equalize and strengthen the property tax. Perhaps we are idealistic, but we believe very strongly in the principle of equity—that everyone shall pay a fair share. The injustice of present assessment practices is magnified when the productivity of the property tax is used as a factor in formulas for distribution of state money. In addition to making the property tax more equitable through uniform assessed valuations, the property tax should be strengthened. That is as far as I will go. It is a long letter. Let me say that the Democratic party and the League of Women Voters are joined together in a program to place before the people of the state of Washington a program of progressivity. I think we must move together to be responsible, as the Democrats have always been in prior years, in providing for adequate revenues to take care of the needs of the state. We on this side of the aisle are not interested in plucking figures out of the air. We are interested in fulfilling the needs and responsibilities of the people of the state of Washington."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Gorton:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The gentleman is not answering my question. I would like to repeat it. I asked Mr. Uhlman what tax you were proposing, what the bill number is, who sponsored it, and how many of you are going to vote for it."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Yes. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that, the bill is drawn up. When the time comes, if our program is adopted, we plan to scalp a bill and take the title. We have the bill all drawn up and it is sitting over on Representative Brouillet's desk. This is the Ryder plan. We have given a good deal of thought to this, because we have a program. We aren't allowed to present this program because the Republicans have taken over with this negative deficit spending program. If we are given an opportunity, we will present for the state of Washington a program based on uniform property assessments and uniform property taxation, one we can be proud of."

Further debate ensued, Representative Canfield speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Witherbee demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

This is the second substitute bill and a number of changes have been made on the floor. EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

My reason for a "no" vote on Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 was to make myself eligible to be named to the conference committee on this bill if such be named. I support the bill.

DAMON R. CANFIELD,
15th District.

I voted against Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 for many reasons. One of the prime reasons for my vote was simply that this bill did not provide adequate funds for community colleges, teachers' retirement, kindergarten support, extended secondary programs, federally impacted area funds, or salary increments.

In addition, this bill, because of its undetermined amount in the educational unit and its "closed end" feature, makes possible severe ratable reductions in the educational budget and program.

While serving in previous sessions, we in the Democratic party increased the common school budget considerably. In 1957, the increase was 30.6%, in 1959 a 23.8% increase, and in 1961 a 22.8% increase. In 1961, the Republican minority floor leader and his associates voted against the budget bill because the increase (22.8%) to the common schools was not sufficient.

The 1963 budget bill which calls for less than one-half the increase of the previous biennium is now found to be sufficient by these same individuals.

FRANK BUSTER BROUILLET,
25th District.

We, the Democratic members of the House of Representatives from Seattle, have voted against the omnibus appropriation bill, Second Substitute House Bill No. 252, for the following reasons:

1. The allocation of state funds for education of the Seattle School District reduces Seattle's proportion of state financial aid given to all public schools. At the same time, it increases funds for schools and school districts where property is assessed at lower levels than in King county. It simply aggravates a basic problem that has long existed in the matter of allocation of state funds favoring counties where property is assessed on a lower basis.

2. The University of Washington has not received an adequate share of the funds for higher education. The Republicans, in a surprise move on the Ways and Means Committee, moved a five hundred thousand dollar cut in the University's appropriation from the original first substitute house bill, plus an additional two hundred thousand dollars. This blow strikes at the very heart of a quality approach to academic excellence at our great University.

3. This budget is thirteen millions of dollars out of balance. The Republicans have not had the courage to equalize property assessments in accordance with their statements from prior years. We simply cannot involve ourselves in a deficit financing approach to state government.

4. This budget is predicated on a strange system of priorities and values. At the same time a forty thousand dollar addition was made to this budget for fish food, the Republicans cut Fircrest School in Seattle by one hundred and fifty-three thousand, thus compounding the already large waiting list for our state mental institutions.

We Democratic members of the House of Representatives have voted against the omnibus appropriation bill (Second Substitute House Bill No. 252) for the following reasons:

1. This bill is pure political propaganda and a misrepresentation of the Republican Party's true intent to the people of the State of Washington. The Republican-controlled coalition did not have the integrity to forthrightly cut the state expenditures across the board as it desired. Instead, it picked a fictitious revenue figure that would be politically popular and then insisted on a closed-end budget clause which would provide a ratable reduction of the entire appropriation. In this way, the Republicans made the arbitrary cuts they desired under guise of being beneficent. This was pure political and fiscal irresponsibility at its worst!

2. This bill, passed by the Republican coalition (consisting of all House Republicans and seven dissident Democrats), adopted a budget that was out of balance by at least thirteen million dollars. During the study and consideration of the budget bill in the Ways and Means Committee, it was the position of the Democratic membership that available revenue experts should be invited to testify before the committee as to the estimated anticipated revenues for the 1963-65 biennium. The coalition leadership rejected this request and completely ignored the administration's revenue estimates for the coming biennium. The administration's revenue estimates in the past have shown a remarkable record of accuracy, and during the present 1961-63 biennium, their revenue forecasts will be off only one-half of one percent, or less than one million dollars. These estimates were prepared under the direction of Mr. Donald Burrows, State Supervisor of Research and Statistics for the Tax Commission, and President of the American Association of Tax Estimators. He prepared them in conjunction with many leading economic experts of the State of Washington representing all segments of the State's economy.

In addition, in complete disregard of the needs of the people, the Republicans refused to consider, both in committee and on the floor, amendments to provide for adequate schools, junior colleges, teachers' salaries, care for the mentally retarded, treatment for the mentally ill, delinquent children treatment, youth conservation camp facilities, and many other vital services for the people of our state. Even for those needs that they do recognize, they still refuse to provide adequate revenues. Their preference of money over people has been made very clear!

The voters of this State have placed the Republican Party in control of this House only twice in the last thirty years. This session they seized control of the House contrary to the mandate of the people and now have failed to assume any fiscal responsibility or to provide for the needs of our growing state.

I am now wearing a neck brace and have several bruised discs in my back. However, I was very fortunate not to be more seriously injured. I enjoyed so much speaking to such an active and enthusiastic group of legislators as we are fortunate to have in Washington. Your encouragement is inspiring. Again many thanks for your well wishes.

Sincerely,

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I would like to take one minute to explain to you that you have received on your desks this day something from the wheat farmers of the state. It is a new wheat product developed by a man in Montana and is some kind of a candy. The wheat farmers have been very appreciative of the cooperation of this legislature, and they wanted to convey some indication that in their research they are attempting to sell their products in many other areas. You know, a wheat farmer is a man outstanding in his own field. We were talking this morning at breakfast, a couple of farmer friends, Representative Litchman and Representative DeJarnatt, and myself, about how you get farms and what they are worth. You have probably heard that in our area the farms cost so much, you either have to inherit one or marry one, and I told them it was my philosophy that it was better to marry a wheat farm than to inherit one, because when you marry one, you have a better chance of selecting the land you want. They thought that was a good idea. I do want to thank you on behalf of the wheat industry for your wonderful consideration in the past many years on things that have developed the marketing program for Washington wheat. This is a one hundred thirty million dollar crop and it has an impact of three hundred million in this state. It is our number one cash crop. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McDougall:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. McDougall:

"I would like to say that the apples that are being passed around are what you might call controlled atmosphere apples. We passed a bill here in the last session which protected this new division for storing apples. Now, normally, these apples aren't even packed until about the first of April, but I prevailed upon a fine gentleman from Wenatchee to go into storage and bring out a couple of boxes of these. I would like to say if these Wheanuts that have been passed around don't taste very good, I would encourage you to eat that apple and get a good taste in your mouth."

Pertaining to discharge or demotion of assistant attorneys general.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, I want to ask Representative Garrett a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Garrett?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker, I will yield to the question. After I hear it, I will decide whether to answer it."

Mr. Rogers:

"My question, Mr. Speaker, is this. Would you say this is a civil service act for assistant attorneys general?"

Mr. Garrett:

"No, I don't think it is a civil service act as such, but it is a tenure bill which would enable the people that wanted to stay on in the attorney general's office, and who were capable and had the experience, to do so and you wouldn't have a wholesale turnover at each election."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Gorton moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 352 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Mrs. Swayze:

"In reading this bill, I don't see the word 'firemen' mentioned, although it says any kind of civil service."

"You are correct. The short title is not correct. It deletes the one-year residence requirement for any civil service position."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard and Litchman speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Comfort yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Comfort, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Comfort:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Comfort, this joint tenancy law was on the ballot two years ago and there was quite a bit of opposition to it in the legal profession. The people overwhelmingly adopted it. How does this change the joint tenancy law?"

Mr. Comfort:

"At the present time, if I own a piece of property I cannot deed it to you and myself as joint tenants. I have to deed it to Mr. Rogers and have Mr. Rogers deed it back to you and me, so that we receive title at the same time and can hold it as joint tenants. "Mr. Andersen, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"How will this apply to community property between a husband and wife?"

Mr. Andersen:

"Is this the situation you are asking about? If you and your wife have a community property agreement and each of you signs this agreement, so that when one of you passes away, the other gets the property without cost of probate, does this affect that agreement? Is that what you mean?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Andersen:

"The answer is no, it does not."

Mr. Odell:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I will."

Mr. Odell:

"Representative Gorton, are there appropriations already in these agencies to allow them to take care of this?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, there are. They will not be asking for any additional appropriations to carry on this work."

Mr. Odell:

"Do you feel they will have enough extra time and money in these departments to take care of this?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I do, Mr. Odell."

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Lewis yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding):

"Mr. Lewis, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Lewis, as I read this, it directs that funds for the study be provided by the budgets of the department of natural resources, the commerce department, the attorney general, and state parks. Now, as I recall from Second Substitute House Bill 252 which was passed by this body yesterday, it reduced the budget of the department of natural resources and that of the department of commerce and economic development, and also to some extent that of the attorney general. I wonder if you can tell us whether, with those reductions which have already been put into effect by this House, there will be enough left in the budget of this department to complete this study and how much it will cost to complete it."

Mr. Lewis:

"Mr. Ackley, in this bill we are exercising our legislative prerogative to establish priorities. We have had a number of bills in this session from both the Senate and House asking for eminent domain proceedings to establish parks and green strip areas around towns and communities, and it has been the feeling of many of us that we should have a study of some kind before adopting these bills. I feel there are sufficient funds, particularly if the legislature directs that this receive a priority, and I feel this is a priority item for the people of this state, and that the people of this state are very much interested in these parks and green strip areas. As to how much of their budget this will require, I think that will be pretty well determined by the committee consisting of the directors of the various departments, and that they will exercise their judgment in utilizing the proper amount of funds to complete the study."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Jueling yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding):

"Mr. Jueling, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Jueling:

"Yes, I yield."

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Jueling, would this permit the county to show where the public access roads are to Gravelly Lake?"

Mr. Jueling:

"I imagine it would."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Lewis yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding):

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Lewis, have you made a check with the department to find out how much this study will cost?"

Mr. Lewis:

"I can tell you this, Mr. Schaefer. It is going to cost less to do it in this manner than it will to go ahead and take properties by eminent domain which should not rightfully be taken."

Mr. Schaefer:

"In other words, you haven't made an estimate?"

Mr. Lewis:

"That is correct. It is our legislative prerogative to instruct this department. This is what we are trying to do with this bill, Mr. Schaefer."

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 558, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 35; absent or not voting, 11.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Backstrom, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eldridge, Evans, Folsom, Garrett, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lynch, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Savage, Siler, Swayze, Young, Mr. Speaker—53.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Ahlquist, Anderson (Eric O.), Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Conner, DeJarnatt, Eberle, Flanagan, Gallagher, Grant, Henry, Hurley, Lybecker, May, McElroy, Moon, Mundy, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rosenberg, Sawyer, Schaefer, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee—35.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Adams, Andersen (James A.), Canfield, Gleason, Haussler, Herr, Johnston, Jolly, Mahaffey, Morphis, Smith—11.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

House Bill No. 560, by Representative Evans:

Relating to city streets.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 5, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred House Bill No. 560, relating to city streets, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On line 3, strike all of Section 1 and add seven new sections to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Records of city street expenditures are generally inadequate to meet the needs of cities for planning and administration of their street programs and the needs of the legislature in providing for city street financing. It is the intent of the legislature that each city and town shall budget and thereafter maintain records and accounts for all expenditures by functional categories in a manner consistent with its size, administrative capabilities, and the amounts of money expended by it for street purposes.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The state auditor, through the division of municipal corporations, shall formulate, prescribe and install a system of cost accounting and reporting for each city having a population of more than eight thousand, according to the last official census, which will correctly show all street expenditures by functional categories. The system shall also provide for reporting all revenues available for street purposes from whatever source including local improvement district assessments and state and federal aid.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Consistent with the intent of this act as stated in section 1, the state auditor, from and after July 1, 1965, through the division of municipal corporations, is authorized and directed to prescribe accounting and reporting procedures for street expenditures for cities and towns having a population of eight thousand or less, according to the last official census.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state auditor, after consultation with the Association of Washington Cities and the planning division of the state highway commission shall prepare and distribute to the cities and towns a manual of instructions governing accounting and reporting procedures for all street expenditures.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The division of municipal corporations shall annually make a cost-audit examination of street records for each city and town and make a written report thereon to the legislative body of each city and town. The expense of such examination shall be paid out of that portion of the motor vehicle fund allocated to the cities and towns and withheld for use by the state highway commission under the terms of RCW 46.68.120(1).

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Expenditures for city and town streets shall be budgeted by each city and town according to the same functional categories prescribed by the state auditor for purposes of accounting and reporting as provided in sections 2 and 3 of this act.

"In the preparation of city and town budgets, including the preparation and filing of budget estimates, adoption of preliminary budgets and adoption of final budgets, all expenditures for street purposes shall be designated by such functional categories only.

"Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1953 and RCW 35.21.088 are each amended to read as follows:

"Any city or town may create, by ordinance, an 'equipment rental fund,' hereinafter referred to as 'the fund,' in any department of the city or town to be used as a revolving fund to be expended for salaries, wages, and operations required for the repair, replacement, purchase, and operation of equipment, and for the purchase of equipment, materials, and supplies to be used in the administration and operation of the fund.

"The legislative authority of a city or town may transfer any equipment, materials or supplies of any office or department to the equipment rental fund either without charge, or may grant a credit to such office or department equivalent to the value of the equipment, materials or supplies transferred. An office or department receiving such a credit may use it any time thereafter for renting or purchasing equipment, materials, supplies or services from the equipment rental fund.

"Money may be placed in the fund from time to time by the legislative authority of the city or town. Cities and towns may purchase and sell equipment, materials and supplies by use of such fund, subject to any laws governing the purchase and sale of property. Such equipment, materials and supplies may be rented for the use of various offices and departments of any city or towns or may be rented by any such city or town to governmental agencies. The proceeds received by any city or town from the sale or rental of such property shall be placed in the fund, and the purchase price of any such property or rental payments made by a city or town shall be made from moneys available in the fund. The ordinance creating the fund shall designate the official or body that is to administer the fund and the terms and charges for the rental for the use of any such property which has not been purchased for its own use out of its own funds and may from time to time amend such ordinance.

"There shall be paid monthly into the fund out of the moneys available to the department using any equipment, materials, and/or supplies, which have not been purchased by that department for its own use and out of its own funds, reasonable rental charges fixed by the legislative authority of the city or town, and moneys in the fund shall be retained there from year to year so long as the legislative authority of the city or town desires to do so. [Any moneys in the fund not needed therein may, from time to time, be transferred by action of the legislative authority of a city or town to the general fund of a city or town.]

"Every city having a population of more than eight thousand, according to the last official census, shall establish such an equipment rental fund in its street department or any other department of city government. Such fund shall acquire the equipment necessary to serve the needs of the city street department. Such fund may, in addition, be created to service any other departments of city government or other governmental agencies as authorized hereinabove."

On line 1 of the title, before the period following "city streets" insert "; and amending section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1953 and RCW 35.21.088 and providing an effective date"

Gallagher, Avery Garrett, Dwight S. Hawley, Mildred E. Henry, Charles E. Lind, Bob McDougall, Don Miles, Edward M. Morrissey, Roy Mundy, Jack H. Rogers, Arnold S. Wang, Max Wedekind.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Evans yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Representative Evans, this is all new to me and I haven't had time to read the amendment. Does this mean the entire bookkeeping system of each and every city has to be changed in its entirety, or just as it relates to the use of state money on their city streets?"

Mr. Evans:

"Representative Ahlquist, this relates to uniform accounting for city street purposes. In the past it has been difficult to separate the money actually used for city street purposes from some of the other funds. The intent here is for the division of municipal audits of the state auditor's office to sit down with the Association of Washington Cities and develop some uniform accounting system. Apparently there is going to be no difficulty in setting up such a system. The cities all seem to be in favor of this."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"There is a time limit for them to comply?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Evans yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Evans, if we had passed House Joint Resolution No. 16, which would have given cities home rule and provided a constitutional provision which the legislature couldn't change, then the legislature wouldn't be able to pass this bill and exert these regulations over the cities, would it?"

Mr. Evans:

"I don't think you are right, Mr. Ackley. If you remember the constitutional amendment, certain things are set aside as city responsibilities; that is, things that relate to local affairs. This uniform accounting system is established for one major purpose; that is, for the state to determine, better than they can now, the use the cities are making of the state's money. We have quite a bit of gas tax money that is distributed from the state level to the cities. I think the state would still have the power to ask for certain information from the cities in order to better distribute state funds."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to address a question to Mr. Canfield."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Canfield?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"If the school board on its own decides to go ahead and build one of these buildings, then they obligate themselves to pay the rental on that building as you have explained. Now, in most of our school districts in this state, we are on a special levy basis which must be approved by the voters. If additional special levies are necessary to pay this rent, and the voters vote it down, where will this leave the school board?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Well, Mr. Ahlquist, I think they would be in trouble, but at the same time I don't believe that any financing plans would reach that stage under the provisions of this act. After all, these plans have to go through a pretty rigid screen, first in regard to financing, and then the construction; and when those have been funneled through the state department and been approved, that would certainly give a lot of protection in that area."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Canfield yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Canfield, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes."

Mrs. Henry:

"The thing I have a question about is the constitutionality of this as far as one board binding the next board to assume an obligation they themselves have taken on. I know we cannot bind the next legislature."

Mr. Canfield:

"I think we are doing that right along. For instance, in the matter of pensions and other obligations, we bind the future legislatures. We can't renege on certain obligations we commit ourselves to. I think the school boards in making these contracts do obligate themselves, and I think it is entirely right they should. If we accept your statement as I understand it, no school board could commit themselves to anything beyond the term of their own office and I think that would lead to utter chaos in the financing of buildings."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. O'Brien a question."

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, will you yield to question?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. O'Brien, I would like to know how much some of these buildings cost, and who gets the buildings at the end of the twenty or twenty-five years. Do the school boards get them free and clear or what?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"According to the act, the school board would get the buildings, and of course they have a serious fiscal problem. School buildings cost one and one-half million or two million dollars. It would be one hundred thousand dollars a year rental. Nobody gets anything for nothing."

Further debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Canfield yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Canfield, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Canfield:

"Yes."

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Canfield, the districts in my area have found it practically impossible to enter into any real construction without state aid in matching funds. Is this bill going to help the districts on the equalization level?"

Mr. Canfield:

"I will try to answer in this way: I have been on the Education Committee in this body for a number of years and heard some of the people who are well qualified speak very eloquently about responsibility of local school boards to the effect that they are good, responsible people, elected by the people, and I think this is entirely in line with the responsibility of school boards. It would seem to me if we allow this alternative, Mr. Rosenberg, that it might be feasible in some districts and maybe not in others. I think that would be the responsibility and the duty of the local school boards to ascertain for themselves."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Rosenberg and Brouillet speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 512, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 67; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Henry, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—67.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ahlquist, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bigley, Burtch, Comfort, Conner, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Jolly, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Savage, Sawyer, Smith, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—27.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Comfort yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Harris presiding):

"Will Representative Comfort yield to question?"

Mr. Comfort:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Comfort, what would happen to your poor wife after you passed away if Mr. Smith went running over to the corporation to have his stock transferred, and your wife had one-half community property interest?"

Mr. Comfort:

"Unfortunately I cannot provide you a clear answer. The interrelationship between community property holdings and joint tenancy is very complex. It will take many years before our courts will lay down sufficient guide lines to give you a precise answer to that question. I would point out, however, that I do not believe this problem is compounded by the passage of this act. I think it is inherent in the nature of the two property holdings."

Further debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Adams speaking in its favor.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Representative Comfort a question."

The Speaker (Mr. Harris presiding):

"Mr. Comfort, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Comfort:

"I will yield."

Mr. Adams:

"This would not relieve Mr. Smith of all his responsibility, would it? He would still be liable for action, would he not? This simply takes that responsibility away from the transferring agent so that they aren't put to the expense of determining whether or not Mr. Smith is actually the owner under a joint tenancy arrangement. Is that correct?"

Mr. Comfort:

"Dr. Adams, your question was very well worded. That is precisely correct. This in no way affects the liability of the parties involved in the agreement. All it does is protect the transferring agent so that he does not have to go through an extensive investigation in order to put this system into operation."

Further debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Litchman speaking for its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 352, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 4.

MR. SPEAKER:

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 4, subsection (7), line 4, after "dollar amount" strike "or rate of the service charge" and insert "and rate of service charge reduced to simple interest per annum"

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ackley yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Harris presiding):

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Ackley, is this amendment you have proposed to this bill the same as we discussed on House Bill No. 221 in Judiciary committee?"

Mr. Ackley:

"No, it is not. House Bill No. 221 not only required that the interest rate be set forth, but had a maximum interest rate that could be charged of fifteen percent. Also there was no definition in the House bill of what the service charge was, so there was some question in the minds of a number of people that that might include some of these other charges that were mentioned in the definition here as being specifically excluded."

Mr. Johnston:

"My question to you is whether this amendment you now propose is the same type of simple interest amendment that was contained in that House bill, and would it create any hardship in these installment sales of automobiles and other things in accurately computing the amount?"

Mr. Ackley:

"It is not the same amendment as was included in the bill for the reason that the service charge is specifically defined as excluding those other factors. Those were the ones that the automobile dealers were afraid might be interpreted to be included within the service charge that would make it impossible for them to know what they should compute. Under this amendment I can see no problem of converting the service charge to simple interest. This can be done by standard tables that can be secured at any bank."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Johnston, Young, and Backstrom speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Uhlman and Smith speaking for its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hadley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ackley yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Harris presiding):

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. Hadley:

"Mr. Ackley, I like this simple interest thing somewhat, but I don't understand it. Do you intend that they show an insurance charge, and then perhaps a filing charge, and then the simple interest, or are you intending they group all these together and then show what it would be equivalent to in simple interest?"

Mr. Ackley:

"I refer you to page 2, subsection (8), which reads as follows: 'Service charge' however denominated or expressed, means the amount which is paid or payable for the privilege of purchasing goods or services to be paid for by the buyer in installments over a period of time. It does not include the amount, if any, charged for insurance premiums, delinquency charges, attorneys' fees, court costs or official fees'."

Further debate ensued, Representative Hadley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Litchman speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost on a rising vote, and the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 415 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Hood and Johnston speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Johnston yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Johnston?"

Mr. Johnston:

"I will yield."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Johnston, this bill has a lot of legal facets about it. Has this bill been considered by the House Judiciary Committee?"

Mr. Johnston:

"It was sent to another committee because it came out of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and apparently the management of the House didn't want to load it down too much with judicial men."

Mr. Smith:

"Then it has not been to the House Judiciary Committee?"

Mr. Johnston:

"The House Judiciary Committee has not considered it, I don't believe."

Mr. Backstrom demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 415, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 89; nays, 6; absent or not voting, 4.

Resolution by Representatives Schaefer and Henry:

WHEREAS, Competition is keen between a number of cities of the nation for selection as the site of the 1968 Olympic Games; and

WHEREAS, The location of the world's most outstanding athletic event in the Pacific Northwest would bring great attention and have a beneficial economic impact on the region and the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Our sister state of Oregon and the city of Portland are bidding for the 1968 Olympic Games;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of the state of Washington, that we, the members of the House of Representatives of the state of Washington, offer our wholehearted support and encouragement to the citizens of our neighboring state of Oregon in their efforts to obtain the 1968 Olympic Games for Portland; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Governor of Oregon, the President of the Oregon Senate, the Speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives and the chairman of the Olympic Games Site Selection Committee, New York City.

Resolution by Representatives Flanagan, Mundy, Rogers, Ahlquist, Reese, Comfort, Perry, Clark, Wang, Mast, and Jueling:

WHEREAS, There are many areas throughout the State of Washington where a large part of the population consists of people employed on federal enterprises which persons and their children must be provided with schools and other services at the local level of government which must be paid for by the local school district, towns, cities or counties; and

WHEREAS, The properties and installations where these people are employed are not on the tax rolls and therefore are not subjected to local taxes; and

WHEREAS, The federal government partially compensates for this deficiency by paying an amount in lieu of tax known as Public Law 874 funds, which funds do not reflect the potential taxes available were these federal properties and installations to appear upon the tax rolls; and

WHEREAS, Those funds derived from Public Law 874 are in the nature of and were intended for money in lieu of local taxes and were not intended as any type of reimbursement to the State and are not paid in lieu of any state tax; and

WHEREAS, The Honorable Governor of this State has recommended a procedure in the distribution of Public Law 874 funds which would deprive local governing units of moneys due them in lieu of local taxes with a consequent detriment to local school districts, cities, towns and counties; and

WHEREAS, It would appear that continued attempts to deprive local governing bodies of Public Law 874 funds are at hand, whether such attempts be in the guise of construing such funds as state funds, or otherwise;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That this body address itself to the Honorable Governor of the State and request that Public Law 874 funds be directed to and reserved for their intended use, as moneys in lieu of local taxes, and that such moneys and every part thereof go to such local units of government; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this body call to the attention of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States the present inadequacy in the Public Law 874 "in lieu" funds with respect to that money which could be obtained by local governing units on a taxable basis; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this body express its legislative intent that any public body of whatever nature using local services and exempt from taxation on its properties should pay "in lieu" funds equal to the property taxes lost, to insure that continued development of our local units of government so necessary for an economically sound and progressive State.

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Governor of the State of Washington and to each member of the Washington delegation in the United States Congress and to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and the President of the Senate of the United States Congress.

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I hope you noticed that this bill has thirty-two new sections in it. I haven't read it. It came over from the Senate very, very late. We are considering it on the last day for consideration of Senate bills and I don't know what is in the bill, and I'll bet there aren't twenty-five people here who do. We are making a lot of new laws that we are not sure of. It is supposed to be relating to motor vehicle lighting and equipment. Motor vehicles affect all of us. We all drive cars. Maybe it's very good. Maybe I should trust everybody in the Highway Committee that considered this, but I think we ought to take a real good look at all of these bills with twenty-five, thirty-five, or fifty-six new sections of law. We have done a very good job so far. Let's not, on the last day, just because we want to pass a lot of bills, spoil our record. I think it is a bad thing. One is coming up with fifty-six new sections. I think we ought to call a halt to passing this kind of legislation this fast. I don't think it shows good judgment. I don't think it shows responsibility. We want to be known as a good, responsible legislature. This has been a good session. Let's not go hog wild now."

"Well, he can on his own property if he is not remodeling. I think I know what you are talking about. You want to extend an existing pole line within the property, not remodel the house. I don't believe this act has any provisions for inspection in that situation."

Mr. Clark:

"If I am remodeling my whole house, even though I add only one little room on a sizable house, I have to have the whole thing brought up to code, don't I? If I hired a licensed man to do it, he would have to bring that whole house up to code?"

Mr. Perry:

"Just the one room. The whole house is never reexamined."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ahlquist speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Moos:

"Today we had some problems Mrs. Henry was interested in. I want to explain to you that this problem wasn't her fault. We had a committee meeting one noon and she didn't know her bill was up for consideration. It was just one of a series of bad situations. She was very interested in Newtown apples, and I certainly apologize, Mrs. Henry, for the misunderstanding. When Engrossed Senate Bill No. 235 was on second reading I meant to explain that the reason she had to bring these amendments up was because she didn't get a fair hearing in my committee, but I was called away just at that time. I do apologize, Mrs. Henry."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Senate Chamber,
 Olympia, Wash., March 11, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Engrossed House Bill No. 13 with the following amendments:

In line 3 of the title of the engrossed bill, same being line 2 of the House Committee amendment, strike the period following "87.03.075" and add "; amending section 15, page 679, Laws of 1890, as last amended by section 9, chapter 138, Laws of 1923 and RCW 87.03.200; and amending section 49, page 695, Laws of 1890, as last amended by section 33, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.565.

On page 2, add two new sections following section 1 as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 15, page 679, Laws of 1890, as last amended by section 9, chapter 138, Laws of 1923 and RCW 87.03.200 are each amended to read as follows:

"At such election shall be submitted to the electors of said district possessing the qualifications prescribed by law the question of whether or not the bonds of said district in the amount and of the maturities determined by the board of directors shall be issued. Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be serial bonds payable in gold coin of the United States in such series and amounts as shall be determined and declared by the board of directors in the resolution calling the election: Provided, That the first series shall mature not later than ten years and the last series not later than forty years from the date thereof: Provided further, That bonds, authorized by a special election held in the district under the provisions of a former statute, which has subsequent to said authorization been amended, but not issued prior to the amendment of said former statute, may be issued in the form provided in said former statute, and any such bonds heretofore or hereafter so issued and sold are hereby confirmed and validated.

"Notice of such bond election must be given [by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also] by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least two weeks (three times). Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, and the amount and maturities of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the results thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of law governing the election of the district officers: Provided, That no informality in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words 'Bonds Yes' and 'Bonds No,' or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are cast 'Bonds Yes,' the board of directors shall thereupon have authority to cause bonds in said amount and maturities to be issued. If the majority of the votes cast at any bond election are 'Bonds No,' the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record; but if contract is made or is to be made with the United States as in RCW 87.03.140 provided, and bonds are not to be deposited with the United States in connection with such contract, the question submitted at such special election shall be whether contract shall be entered into with the United States. The notice of election shall state under the terms of what act or acts of congress contract is proposed to be made, and the maximum amount of money payable to the United States for construction purposes exclusive of penalties and interest. The ballots for such election shall contain the words 'Contract with the United States Yes' and 'Contract with the United States No,' or words equivalent thereto. And whenever thereafter said board, in its judgment, deems it for the best interest of the district that the question of issuance of bonds for said amount, or any amount, or the question of entering into a contract with the United States, shall be submitted to said electors, it shall so declare, by resolution recorded in its minutes, and may thereupon submit such question to said electors in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election. All bonds issued under this act shall bear interest at such rate not exceeding six percent per annum as the board of directors may determine, payable semiannually on the first day of January and July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated, or if the board of directors shall so determine at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York City, said place of payment to be designated in the bond. Said bonds shall be each of the denomination of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; shall be negotiable in form, signed by the president and secretary, and the seal of the district shall be affixed thereto. The county treasurer shall register said bonds before the issuance thereof in a book kept for that purpose, and shall certify on each thereof under his seal that it has been so registered, and that the signatures thereon are the genuine signatures of the president and secretary respectively and that the seal attached is the seal of the district. Whenever the electors shall vote to authorize the issuance of bonds of the district such authorization shall nullify and cancel all unsold bonds previously authorized, and if the question is submitted to and carried by the electors at the bond election, any bond issue may be exchanged in whole or in part, at par, for any or all of a valid outstanding bond issue of the district when mutually agreeable to the owner or owners thereof and the district, and the amount of said last bond issue in excess, if any, of that required for exchange purposes, may be sold as in the case of an original issue. The bonds of any issue authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds shall state on their face the amount of such issue so exchanged, and shall contain a certificate of the treasurer of the district as to the amount of the bonds exchanged, and that said outstanding bonds have been surrendered and canceled: Provided further, That where bonds have been authorized and unsold, the board of directors may submit to the qualified voters of the district the question of canceling said previous authorization, which question shall be submitted upon the same notice and under the same regulations as govern the submission of the original question of authorizing a bond issue. At such election the ballots shall contain the words 'Cancellation Yes,' and 'Cancellation No,' or words equivalent thereto. If at such election a majority of the votes shall be 'Cancellation Yes,' the said issue shall be thereby canceled and no bonds may be issued thereunder. If the majority of said ballots shall be 'Cancellation No,' said original authorization shall continue in force with like effect as though said cancellation election had not been held: Provided, That bonds deposited with the United States in payment or in pledge may call for the payment of such interest not exceeding six percent per annum, may be of such denominations, and call for the repayment of the principal at such times as may be agreed upon between the board and the secretary of the interior.

"Each issue shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively and bear date at the time of their issue. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the president of the board and the secretary. The signatures of the president and secretary may, however, appear by lithographic facsimile. Said bonds shall express upon their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also state the number of issue of which such bonds are a part. The secretary shall keep a record of bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received and the name of the purchaser. In case the money received by the sale of all bonds issued be insufficient for the completion of plans of the canals and works adopted, and additional bonds be not voted, or a contract calling for additional payment to the United States be not authorized and made, as the case may be, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for the completion of said plans by levy of assessments therefor. It shall be lawful for any irrigation districts which have heretofore issued and sold bonds under the law then in force, to issue in place thereof an amount of bonds not in excess of such previous issue, and to sell the same, or any part thereof, as hereinafter provided, or exchange the same, or any part thereof, with the holders of such previously issued bonds which may be outstanding, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the board of directors of the district and the holders of such outstanding bonds: Provided, That the question of such reissue of bonds shall have been previously voted upon favorably by the legally qualified electors of such district, in the same manner as required for the issue of original bonds, and the said board shall not exchange any such bonds for a less amount in par value of the bonds received; all of such old issue in place of which new bonds are issued shall be destroyed whenever lawfully in possession of said board. Bonds issued under the provisions of this section may, when so authorized by the electors, include a sum sufficient to pay the interest thereon for a period not exceeding the first four years. Whenever an issue of bonds shall have been authorized pursuant to law, and any of the earlier series shall have been sold, and the later series, or a portion thereof, remain unsold, the directors may sell such later series pursuant to law, or such portion thereof as shall be necessary to pay the earlier series, or said directors may exchange said later series for the earlier series at not less than the par value thereof, said sale or exchange to be made not more than six months before the maturity of said earlier series and upon said exchange being made the maturing bonds shall be disposed of as hereinbefore provided in the case of bonds authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds.

"Sec. 3. Section 49, page 695, Laws of 1890, as last amended by section 33, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.565 are each amended to read as follows:

"The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be [posted and] published in the same manner and for the same time that notice of special elections for the issue of bonds are required by this chapter to be given. The notice shall state the filing of such petition and the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition, and it shall notify all persons interested in or that may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district to appear at the office of said board at a time named in said notice, and show cause in writing, if any they have, why the change in the boundaries of said district, as proposed in said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice. The petitioners shall advance to the secretary sufficient money to pay the estimated costs of all proceedings under this chapter.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

The Senate has passed: Substitute House Bill No. 110 with the following amendments:

In line 3 of the title after "RCW 35.01.040" insert "and amending sections 1, 2, 3 and 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1951 and RCW 35.03.010, 35.03.020, 35.03.030, 35.03.040 and 35.03.050"

"Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 153, Laws of 1951, and RCW 35.03.010 are each amended to read as follows:

"Any portion of a county, which portion contains not less than twenty thousand inhabitants [, living within an area of not more than ten square miles,] and which is not incorporated as a municipal corporation, may become incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, and when so incorporated, shall have the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon cities of the first class.

"Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 153, Laws of 1951 (heretofore divided and codified as RCW 35.03.020 and 35.03.030) is divided and amended as set forth in sections 3 and 4 of this act.

"Sec. 5. (RCW 35.03.020) A petition shall first be presented under the provisions of this chapter to the board of county commissioners of such county, signed by at least [one] five hundred qualified electors of the county, residents within the limits of such proposed corporation, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such corporation, and state the number of inhabitants therein as nearly as may be, and shall pray that the same may be incorporated under the provisions of this chapter. Upon presentation of said petition, the board of county commissioners shall ascertain the number of inhabitants residing within said proposed boundaries. If, in the opinion of the board of county commissioners, the population within such proposed boundaries can be ascertained from the figures compiled from the last federal census for said county, such population figures shall be used, otherwise said board of county commissioners shall make an enumeration of all persons residing within said proposed boundaries. If the board of county commissioners shall ascertain that there are twenty thousand or more inhabitants within said proposed boundaries, they shall set a date for hearing on said petition, the same to be published for a period of at least two weeks prior to such hearing in some newspaper published in said county, together with a notice stating the time and place of the meeting at which said petition will be heard. Such hearing may be adjourned from time to time, not to exceed one month in all, and, on the final hearing, the board of county commissioners shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as they may find to be proper, but may not enlarge the same, nor reduce the same so that the population therein would be less than twenty thousand inhabitants.

"Sec. 6. (RCW 35.03.030) The board of county commissioners shall by resolution establish and define the boundaries of such corporation, establish and find the number of inhabitants residing therein [and state the name of the proposed corporation]. Within ninety days after the passage of said resolution the board of county commissioners shall cause an election to be called and held within the boundaries so established, said election to be conducted in the manner required for the calling of a special election in class A and first class counties, for the purpose of determining whether such boundaries so established shall be incorporated into a city of the first class [and the election] and of electing fifteen freeholders, who shall have been residents within said boundaries for a period of at least two years preceding their election and qualified electors of the county, for the purpose of framing a charter and selecting one or more names for said city. Any qualified person may, not earlier than sixty days nor later than thirty days prior to such election, file with the county auditor of said county his declaration of candidacy in writing. The form of ballot at such election shall be 'for incorporation,' 'against incorporation'; and shall contain the names of the [freeholders] candidates for the office of freeholder to be voted upon to frame said charter. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of said county and shall have resided within the limits of such proposed corporation for at least thirty days next preceding such election.

"Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1951 and RCW 35.03.040 are each amended to read as follows:

"[If at such election a majority of those voting thereat vote in favor of incorporation, the board of county commissioners shall, by resolution entered upon its minutes, declare such territory duly incorporated as a city of the first class under the name of (naming it). Thereafter said city shall have no authority to function as a municipal corporation until a charter has been adopted in accordance with the provisions of this section, except for all purposes necessary for the adoption of such charter.] The fifteen freeholders receiving the highest number of votes at such election shall be certified by the county auditor as elected as freeholders to form a charter for said city provided a majority of those voting at the election referred to in RCW 35.03.030 vote in favor of incorporation. It shall be the duty of the persons so elected to convene within ten days after their election and frame a charter and select one or more names for said city, and within sixty days thereafter they, or a majority of their number, shall submit such charter and name or names to the board of county commissioners which shall within ninety days thereafter cause another election to be called and held in said city and to be conducted in the manner required for the calling of a special election in class A and first class counties and in conformity with article 11, section 10 of the Constitution, for the purpose of submitting said charter and name or names of the city to the qualified electors of said city and for the election of the various elective officials to the respective offices named in said charter. The form of ballot at such election shall be 'for proposed charter,' 'against proposed charter,' 'for the name (proposed name set out),' 'against the name (proposed name set out).' If the freeholders select more than one name the ballot shall set out each name selected with instruction to vote for one of the proposed names. The name receiving a plurality shall be the name of the new city. The ballot shall also set out [and] the names of the candidates for the respective offices named in said proposed charter. At the first election of officials for said city any qualified elector of said city may become a candidate for any of the elective offices set forth in said proposed charter without nomination by filing with the proper election officials of the county a declaration in writing that he desires to be a candidate for a particular office (naming it), such declaration to be filed not earlier than sixty nor later than thirty days prior to such election. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices shall be declared elected to such office and the county auditor shall issue a certificate of such election. After the first election the nomination and election of officials for said city shall be as prescribed in the charter adopted by the people and the laws of the state. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of said city and shall have resided within the limits of said city for at least thirty days preceding such election. If a majority of all the votes cast on the proposed charter are not in favor of the proposed charter, the freeholders shall reconvene within ten days after said election and frame a new charter for said city and within thirty days thereafter they or a majority of their number, shall submit such redrafted charter to the board of county commissioners which shall within sixty days thereafter cause another election to be called for the purpose of submitting the redrafted charter to the qualified electors of said city. Any failure to incorporate shall not bar any new proceedings for such purpose.

"Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1951, and RCW 35.03.050 are each amended to read as follows:

"If a majority of the votes cast [at] on such [election] charter are cast in favor of ratification of such charter, the same shall become the organic law of said city, and shall supersede all special laws inconsistent therewith, when authenticated, recorded and attested as hereinafter provided:

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 110.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ackley, Morphis, and Rogers speaking in opposition to concurrence with the Senate amendments.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Odell:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Rogers would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Rogers?"

Mr. Rogers:

"Yes."

Mr. Odell:

"If we do not concur in this amendment, this does not stop us from changing and adopting this at a later date, does it?"

Mr. Rogers:

"The conference committee could agree among themselves on the type of legislation they wish to bring in and we would have a vote on the passage or rejection of what they bring in."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Savage.

Mr. Savage:

"If we want to keep this alive, I think the motion should be that we do not concur with the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede therefrom. Then they can ask for a conference."

The Speaker:

"The motion was that we do concur with the Senate amendments."

With the consent of the House Mr. Hawley withdrew his motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 110.

MOTION

Mr. Adams moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 110, and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"That motion is in order."

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of the motion not to concur in the Senate amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, point of inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of inquiry."

Mr. Burtch:

"Would you explain please our vote on this motion?"

The Speaker:

"A vote 'aye' would mean we were voting not to concur with the Senate amendments and asking the Senate to recede therefrom. A vote 'no' would put us right back where we started from a few moments ago."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask just what the status of the joint rules is? The whole conference procedure is covered in the joint rules. Have we adopted joint rules?"

The Speaker:

"We are operating under the rules from the last session. I don't believe we have adopted any joint rules in this session."

Mr. Rogers:

"Will the rules from last session prevail for conferences?"

The Speaker:

"They will."

The motion that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 110 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom was carried.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Rogers asked the question concerning whether or not the rules from last session would apply as the joint rules now. Is this correct? We would still have a conference?"

The Speaker:

"If the Senate asks for one, yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Even though there are no joint rules?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, the previous joint rules are still in operation."

Mr. Schaefer:

"In other words, we have adopted the joint rules from the last session?"

The Speaker:

"We are operating under them."

"Mr. Rosenberg, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Rosenberg:

"I will yield."

Mr. Miles:

"Mr. Rosenberg, many of us are involved in little, cooperative water systems. It is possible in the future they will be large enough to have sixty customers or more. Will these cooperatives under this act for the first time be subject to regulation by the public utilities and transportation commission?"

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Miles, will you point out the specific line wherein it brings cooperatives under the act?"

Mr. Miles:

"It appears to me in the definition of water company there is no exclusion, and for that reason I am concerned. That is on page 3, line 22."

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Miles, this is the language of the present law. The only thing new is the proviso that it shall not include any water system serving less than sixty customers. I would answer this way. If you are not now under the regulation of the commission, you would not be put under by any provision of this act."

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House recessed until 4:15 p. m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 4:15 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 93, by Senators Dore, Talley, and Ryder:
Changing urban renewal procedure.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

"I haven't a calendar. I am not informed about what we are doing."

The Speaker:

"We only have one bill on third reading. We are still on that order of business. A second reading calendar is being prepared now."

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 93 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Miles speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Mundy speaking for its passage.

Mr. Mahaffey demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll. Representatives Bergh, Bigley, Huntley, O'Brien, O'Connell, Perry, Savage, and Sawyer were absent.

Mr. Kink moved that the absent members be excused and the House proceed with business under the call of the House.

The motion was lost.

The Speaker called on Mr. Kink to preside.

Representatives Bergh, Savage, Huntley, O'Brien, and O'Connell appeared at the bar of the House.

Mr. Moos moved that the absent members be excused and the House proceed with business under the call of the House.

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding) recognized Mr. Rosenberg.

Mr. Rosenberg:

"How many members are still absent?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Bigley, Mr. Perry, and Mr. Sawyer."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would the motion be properly before this body when the body has just acted on precisely the same motion without there being any change?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"Yes, it would be, Representative Uhlman, because some of the members have returned since the previous motion was made to excuse the absent members and proceed under the call of the House."

The motion by Mr. Moos that the absent members be excused and the House proceed with business under the call of the House was carried.

Mr. Sawyer appeared at the bar of the House.

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding) declared the question before the House to be consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 93 as amended by the House on third reading.

Mr. Morphis demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Pritchard yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"Mr. Pritchard, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I will attempt to. I may have to refer to one of the attorneys here."

Mr. Copeland:

"I understand this is going to help the University of Washington. Is the area around the University of Washington a blighted area?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"You have to remember, Mr. Copeland, that a blighted area is a matter of interpretation."

Mr. Copeland:

"Under your interpretation, is this a blighted area?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"I am not sure exactly what a blighted area would mean. I would say this. This area is going downhill continually. Possibly under your interpretation, it would be blighted. I think there are safeguards so if people don't feel it is blighted, they could go to court and contest it."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Copeland and Young speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Smith a question, if I may."

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"Mr. Smith, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Smith, you are from Seattle. Could you tell me if you feel there are any areas around the University campus which might be improved by this bill?"

Mr. Smith:

"I certainly consider the garbage dump, which is adjacent to the campus, a blighted area. If you don't believe me, drive by."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Mahaffey:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Representative Comfort his legal opinion as to whether or not it is necessary to have this bill for the University of Washington to acquire this land. I am interested in the University of Washington expanding if they need the land, but there is a technical question in my mind. I think they can now do it."

The Speaker (Mr. Kink presiding):

"Representative Comfort, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Comfort:

"I will yield to question. I am afraid I won't be able to give any more than an opinion which certainly could be subject to a dispute by other members of the body, but I would call the body's attention to the fact that Senate Bill No. 93 appears to allow sale of certain property on noncompetitive bidding. It is my understanding of the urban renewal law that it allows sale of property on competitive bidding. In other words, unless there is something which prohibits the municipality from selling to the prospective purchasers, there would be no bar to selling to this purchaser under competitive bidding. I would suggest that what we really should be talking about is whether this procedure should be allowed as to sale to certain bodies on noncompetitive bidding."

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Mahaffey and Uhlman speaking against its passage.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Gorton:

"Under House Rule 36, it seems to me this amendment is out of order. Not only is the subject different from that under consideration, but Rule 36 also provides that no bill or resolution shall at any time be annexed to or incorporated in any other bill or resolution pending before the House. The Speaker ruled specifically on this point in 1959, stating that such a bill is still before the House even though it is past the day for considering House Bills, and Mr. Uhlman has admitted this is the same as House Bill No. 92."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken. I am sorry, Mr. Uhlman. The amendment is out of order."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Schaefer.

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, I don't believe this amendment is exactly the same as the bill. Dr. Adams raised this point earlier in the session and the Speaker ruled at that time that the amendment could be heard. I feel, based upon your ruling at that time, that this amendment would be germane."

The Speaker:

"I think if you will check back, you will find that that was an entirely different situation, Mr. Schaefer."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, in House Rule 36, the last line of the rule refers to bills or resolutions pending before the House. Now, we have passed the point of consideration of House bills, so it would appear to me that this matter is no longer pending before the House."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Evans:

"I believe that in the past it has been ruled that until bills are indefinitely postponed on the sixtieth day of the session, they are still pending before the House, even though we have passed the day to consider them."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Perry:

"I would like to state also that under the existing rules, we can consider matters relating to reapportionment, Constitution and elections until the sixtieth day."

The Speaker:

"I have ruled that the amendment is out of order."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House deferred further consideration of Senate Bill No. 143 on second reading, and the bill was ordered placed at the end of tonight's second reading calendar.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Connell to preside.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 356, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Legislative Processes:

Changing city, town, and certain district elections to the first Monday in November of odd-numbered years.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 356 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 582, by Senators Foley, Hallauer, and Neill (by departmental request):

Providing for payment of liquor board administrative expenses.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Witherbee moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, add a new section following section 3 added by the amendment by Senator Thompson as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 extraordinary session and to chapter 66.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"Retail licensees of the board may sell beer, wine and spirituous liquor as authorized under their respective licenses for an additional two hours on Saturday nights, namely, from 12:00 midnight until 2:00 a. m. of the following day: Provided, That the legislative body of any city, town, or county may at any time establish an earlier Saturday night closing hour.

"Retail licensees of the board desiring to sell beer, wine and spirituous liquor during the additional hours authorized by this section shall first apply to the board and the board shall issue a special permit therefor, the annual fee for which shall be one hundred and fifty dollars.

"All permit fees received by the board under this section shall be deposited in the liquor revolving fund for distribution to the general fund of the state, and to cities, towns and counties."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Lewis:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Lewis:

"Under House Rule 36 I don't believe this amendment is germane to the bill. This is a different subject than that which is under consideration."

The Speaker:

"Are you reading the same title I am? It begins 'AN ACT Relating to intoxicating liquor and the control and regulation thereof.'"

Mr. Lewis:

"Mr. Speaker, this bill relates to administrative expenses, and the amendment has nothing to do with administrative expenses. I believe it is not germane. According to House Rule 36, no motion different from that under consideration can be admitted under color of amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I think this title is so broad that it could include just about anything covered under that chapter. I am going to rule this amendment is in order."

MOTION

Mr. Braun moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 582 be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Wedekind demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mahaffey:

Mr. Mahaffey:

"Mr. Speaker, under a point of personal privilege, I would just like to say that I hope Mr. Morrissey now has his answer and that this will not be brought up again this session."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak to a point of personal privilege, if I may, in the same direction as Mr. Mahaffey spoke.

"I just cast my vote for the first time in what is called a 'wet' vote. That is, I am voting against Mr. Herb Hill and his Alcoholic Problems Association. I am one of the eleven people who just did that. The reason that this is the first time in my three sessions that I have done this, and that goes for the last time this bill was up for consideration also, is because I resent, intensely, the intimidation of this group, or any group comprised of self-appointed censors of the morals of this group or the state, or be it by the tavern group or the Class H license group.

"I would like to point out something which I think is clearly demonstrated here on this issue, which is two o'clock closing, and which has nothing whatsoever to do with Sunday liquor which I am opposed to, or the gambling bill which I am also opposed to: That is the intimidation of this legislature by the spending of money in an attempt to convince and intimidate this legislature.

"We have eleven people who voted for this bill. We also have here a group which in the Argus of January 18, 1963, is cited as spending $150,000 to elect legislators and influence legislation. These people brag in public print that they can push a button to turn on punch card machines and get letters out to two thousand churches and, so, inundate the legislature with thousands of letters. I do not believe that it is proper that this legislative body permit itself to be intimidated by anyone or anything, because by intimidating the legislature, by pushing the legislature, by pressuring the legislature, you can't help but create bad laws.

"Take something like two o'clock closing. Two o'clock closing is not an issue of great import to many people. It has been made an issue by a number of people to build themselves up in their own empire. I think the gentleman I refer to is a nice man personally, but I think he has built up a $150,000 per year empire devoted to his working as the fourth member of the Liquor Board and pressuring the legislature. I cast my vote in favor of this bill to demonstrate my objection to this type of tactics.

"This is getting to be a well-established precedent in the state of Washington that any group that can muster enough people and money and pressure can turn this legislature around. I think it is wrong. I think we have got to stand up and vote and be counted on issues that we believe in, on principles that we believe in, and I don't believe we should be intimidated because we might be said to be voting 'wet' when the issue has nothing to do with 'wet.' I don't think we should be pressured because the television cameras happen to be on this evening. I don't think we should be afraid of that. I cite to your attention—and this is a matter of personal conscience with each of us—that when this bill was up before us earlier, there were forty-six votes cast in favor of two o'clock closing. Just before the television camera was turned on the board, it slipped down to thirty votes. Now Mr. Hill and his people with their $150,000 per year budget have turned us around to only eleven votes in favor of this measure. I don't think the measure means a thing, but I do resent and object to this type of tactic against us as representatives of the people of this state. We have got to stand up here and fight for what we believe in—and believe in what we believe in—enough to stand by it all the way through.

"On your point of personal privilege, Mr. Mahaffey, I know you are sincere, but I'm sick of people down here who are voting 'dry' and making big fat hero type 'dry' speeches, and drinking 'wet.' That is not right. It doesn't help the people of the state; it doesn't help you or me; it doesn't help the state of Washington in the direction that we are trying to take the state of Washington.

"Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mahaffey.

Mr. Mahaffey:

"I am glad for that last statement, Mr. Andersen. I assure you Mr. Hill is not controlling my vote on this. It is my inner conviction. I want to apologize to Mr. Morrissey. I misunderstood. I thought he was for this amendment and I understand he was not."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Witherbee.

Mr. Witherbee:

"On a point of personal privilege, I would like to note that there was brought up on the floor the question of who sponsored this amendment. I am solely responsible for its coming before this legislature. I campaigned on this issue and I am not afraid of 'wets' or 'drys' or anyone else."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield.

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, I just want to say on behalf of Mr. Andersen that I think that is one of the most forthright and honest statements I ever heard on the floor of this House. I, too, am opposed to backdoor approaches. I want to commend Mr. Andersen sincerely and publicly for this honest and forthright statement."

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 582 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Leland speaking for passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss Wintler:

"Mr. Speaker, is there someone who can give me some information as to whether or not this experiment of having the revolving fund within the jurisdiction of our state treasurer has worked out well or poorly in the last two years?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Leland, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Leland:

"Miss Wintler, it has not worked out satisfactorily and that is why this came as a departmental request asking that it be put back under the liquor board."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Wintler and Uhlman speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives O'Donnell and Olsen speaking for its passage.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 582, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 66; nays, 33; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Bergh, Bigley, Braun,

Brouillet, Burtch, Clark, Comfort, DeJarnatt, Eberle, Gorton, Hadley, Hawley, Hurley, Kirk, Klein, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McDougall, Metcalf, Morphis, Odell, Reese, Sawyer, Smith, Swayze, Uhlman, Wang, Wintler, Witherbee—33.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 582, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Copeland yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Copeland?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Copeland, the thing I am worried about is that we have a lot of other vendors other than liquor vendors. People rent concessions on the ferry boats, and there are other people who work in other areas of state government as vendors. Doesn't this open the door to eliminate everyone?"

Mr. Copeland:

"No. They currently are not covered and they shouldn't be. For all intents and purposes, they are private owners in their own businesses. Such is the case of the liquor vendor. We are providing in this act that future people will not be covered. We don't feel that is the proper place for the state to assume a full retirement program."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Copeland yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Copeland, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Yes."

Mr. Savage:

"Are those people who have been covered up until now going to be left under this coverage?"

Mr. Copeland:

"That is correct. They will retain their present coverage until the time they retire, just like any state employee. This only has to do with future vendors appointed by the liquor board."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Copeland yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. Copeland?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Yes."

Mr. Beck:

"In my home town the liquor stores start out in combination with grocery stores, and after they do a certain volume of business they automatically become a state liquor store. What is the status of these people working in stores which in a few years will probably become state liquor stores? In Port Orchard we have a man who has been on the system since 1936."

Mr. Copeland:

"His status would probably be to continue with state retirement. All the people who work in state liquor stores are presently covered by the retirement act."

Mr. Beck:

"Suppose this fellow in my home town retires tomorrow and someone else comes in? What happens to him?"

Mr. Copeland:

"If he is a liquor vendor, he would not be under the state retirement act. He is a prime entrepreneur and not a state employee as such."

Further debate ensued, Representative O'Brien speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

WHEREAS, This program reflected fine editing, objective reporting and a well balanced appreciation of the tax problem and the need for funds facing the agencies of state government;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved By the House of Representatives that this body respectfully pay its compliments to King-TV for its splendid job of reporting and state its appreciation for exposing to the public an enlightening view of the problems facing the members of this body in its deliberations,

Be It Further Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, that the King Broadcasting Company be urged to reschedule and to rebroadcast their documentary over television stations KING and KREM as a part of their public service as a benefit to those members of this House who may have missed the same and to further inform the public of some of the many problems confronting the Thirty-eighth Regular Session of the Washington State Legislature in the field of revenue and taxation; and

Be It Further Resolved, That King-TV be requested to arrange such further showings throughout the state in the interest of the public.

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House have copies of this Resolution suitably scrolled and presented to the officers and management of King-TV.

Mr. Chatalas moved adoption of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Chatalas yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Chatalas?"

Mr. Chatalas:

"Yes."

"Will you yield to question, Dr. Adams?"

Mr. Adams:

"If it pertains to this 'four cents' one."

Mr. Schaefer:

"I am not sure what other program you mean. Are you talking about the program Mr. Schulman had on revenue last night?"

Mr. Adams:

"It was another program earlier in the session which had to do with the Governor presenting his budget to us. That is the one I am referring to."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Mast, Miles, and Moos speaking against adoption of the resolution, and Representative Chatalas speaking in favor of its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Chatalas yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Chatalas?"

Mr. Chatalas:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Can you assure us there has been no taxpayers' money paid to this channel for the production and showing of this film?"

Mr. Chatalas:

"Dr. Adams, I can't assure you of anything. I don't know. This was supposed to be a public service by the KING television network. I am further going to state this:

Regardless of whether we pass this or not, it is going to be shown again because a resolution such as this one was passed by the Senate."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Adams and Odell speaking against adoption of the resolution.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Litchman:

"Regarding Senate Bill No. 618 and several other bills on which I haven't raised a point of order, it seems to me that a few days ago we passed House Concurrent Resolution No. 8 pertaining to the passage of House and Senate bills by the respective houses, and as I recall we were to consider bills other than appropriation and revenue bills up to the fifty-eighth day and tax and revenue bills beyond the fifty-eighth day. I have looked at Senate Bill No. 618 and I do not see that there is any revenue involved, nor is there any appropriation at this particular time, and I do raise a question of consideration, inasmuch as it is in opposition to the principles established by House Concurrent Resolution No. 8. Furthermore, I wish to point out to the Speaker it is in violation of Article 2, section 28, subsection 17 of our Constitution which specifically prohibits the legislature from extending the limitation of civil or criminal actions. This man, whoever he is, perhaps should have relief somewhere but certainly not at this time from the legislature or from the legislative body at all. I wonder if you would rule whether this is in violation of House Concurrent Resolution No. 8 and Article 2, section 28, subsection 17 of the Constitution?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Rules Committee in its judgment felt that these bills complied with the resolution and I rule they are in order."

MOTION

Mr. Uhlman moved that Senate Bill No. 618 be rereferred to the Committee on Highways.

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Perry, Canfield, Witherbee, and Savage speaking against it.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Uhlman withdrew his motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Ackley:

"My point of parliamentary inquiry concerns the Speaker's ruling on Mr. Litchman's point of order. I refer the Speaker to House Concurrent Resolution No. 8, which states that after the fifty-eighth day the only bills that the Senate and the House will consider are appropriation bills, revenue, revenue and general obligation bond bills, reapportionment, and election bills, as well as messages pertaining to matters of difference between the Senate and House, and so forth. It is my understanding that the Speaker ruled that regardless of this concurrent resolution, the Rules Committee can bring out any bill it wants to. Is that the purport of the Speaker's ruling? Senate Bill No. 618 clearly does not fall within those categories."

The Speaker:

"Senate Bill No. 618 clearly has a revenue impact. It is obvious it has an appropriation impact."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, when the bill was presented to the Ways and Means Committee, it was carefully explained by the proponents that it had no appropriation or revenue impact but simply was changing the statute of limitations for filing suit against the state for this particular individual."

The Speaker:

"I think it is obvious that if the man is allowed to petition for redress that it will have an impact on state funds. That is the reason I am ruling this bill is in order."

Senate Bill No. 618 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 211, by Senators Moriarty, Jr. and Durkan:

Decreasing business and occupation tax on independent general insurance managers.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 160, by Senators Sandison, Riley, and Greive (by Legislative Council request):

Amending generally the reforestation act.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 349, by Senators Sandison, Rickdall, Durkan, Freise, Guess, McMillan, Charette, Knoblauch, Connor, Kupka, Williams, Thompson, Jr., Ryder, Moriarty, Jr., Cowen, Riley, Chytil, Talley, and Stender:

Establishing standards for taxation of timberlands.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Schaefer moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 5, strike section 1 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representatives Schaefer, Sawyer, and Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Gorton, Backstrom, and Wintler speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Gorton, you and I served on the Statute Law Committee two years ago, and I am wondering if on the basis of that service and studying with the code reviser you think there might be some problem for the code reviser in determining how to put this material in section 1 into the code, and also, can you explain to me how it would add anything to the act to have this language there?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Ackley, you and I did indeed work together on the Statute Law Committee in the 1959 to 1961 interim. I think we decided with the code reviser that it would be a lot better if people didn't write forwards for the various statutes. We came back in 1961 and probably both of us voted for dozens and dozens of such forwards. The code reviser hasn't had too much trouble getting them into the law, and I don't think he will have too much trouble getting this one into the law either."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative King speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Schaefer moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 28, after "fair" strike everything down to and including "ascertained" on line 30, and insert "market value"

Debate ensued, Representative Schaefer speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Burtch and Gorton speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 349 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 511, by Senators Kupka, Stender, and Dore (by departmental request):

Setting boiler and unfired pressure vessels inspection fees.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 555, by Senators Hess, Bailey, Freise, and Gallagher (by departmental request):

Authorizing agreements for on-the-job training.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

House Bill No. 3, by Representatives Johnston, Backstrom, and Garrett:

Providing for allocation and distribution of liquor revenue funds.

Olympia, Wash., March 8, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

On page 3, strike all of old sections 3, 4 and 5, being renumbered sections 2, 3 and 4, and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. On and after July 1, 1963 upon receipt of such moneys, the state treasurer shall deposit eighty percent thereof in the state general fund and the remaining twenty percent shall be divided among and distributed to the cities and towns of the state ratably on the basis of population as last determined by the state liquor board: Provided, That no city or town in which the sale of liquor is forbidden as the result of an election shall be entitled to any share in such distribution."

On line 3 of the title, after "of liquor;" and before "amending section" in line 4 strike "amending section 6, chapter 175, Laws of 1957 and RCW 66.08.190;"

Beginning on line 6 of the title, insert a period following "RCW 82.08.150" and strike the remainder of the title.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution by Representatives Uhlman and Day:

WHEREAS, This body has not seen fit to pass House Bill No. 477 designating an official state fish and state animal; and

WHEREAS, There is general disagreement in the House of Representatives as to what animal is worthy of being designated the official animal of this great and sovereign state;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That instead of the "white tail deer" (odocoileus virginianus) the Moos (Edwal Washingtoneous) be designated the official state animal (without an "E").

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the resolution.

On motion of Mr. Morphis, the resolution was laid on the table.

Resolution by Representatives Metcalf and Andersen (James A.):

WHEREAS, Orderly procedures in the House of Representatives make it important that the vote of each representative reflect his true sentiments; and

WHEREAS, The visible indication of voting on the roll call machine prior to the recording of the final vote is not in the best interests of orderly procedure;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be directed to have the International Roll Call System (the manufacturer of the present House electric roll call board) install a switch to enable the cutting off of the display of the yea and nay votes on the said board as well as on the Speaker's table when and if it is desired to do so by the majority of the House members present; and

It Is Further Resolved, That the Rules Committee of the 39th Legislature be and it hereby is requested to amend the Rules of the House of Representatives to blanket the yea and nay display of votes on the electric roll call board and on the Speaker's table on all votes at the said 39th Legislative Session until after the vote is taken.

Mr. Metcalf moved adoption of the resolution.

Debate ensued, Representatives Metcalf, Andersen (James A.), Pritchard, Dootson, Perry, and Comfort speaking in favor of adoption of the resolution, and Representatives Witherbee, May, and Henry speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to have Mr. Andersen answer a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Andersen?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Andersen, if we pass this resolution, will that prohibit us from changing our vote after once it is cast in any way?"

Mr. Andersen:

"I would think that would be up to the Rules Committee of the next legislative session to determine. I don't know what the answer would be right now, but I would think that some appropriate change might be written into this rule."

Mr. Grant demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Smith speaking against adoption of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Lind:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if one of the sponsors would yield to two questions?"

The Speaker:

"Will one of the sponsors yield to two questions?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"I will yield."

Mr. Lind:

"I wonder if you could tell us whether this type of procedure is being followed in other states and, secondly, whether it is normally used on every vote or just on votes that the House determines?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"I believe other states do follow this procedure. I wouldn't be able to say how many. On your second question, that is a determination that would have to be made by the next legislative session upon recommendation of the Rules Committee. We don't want to bind future legislatures."

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

MOTION

Mr. Garrett moved that the resolution be referred to the Rules and Order Committee.

Debate ensued, Representatives Garrett, Moos, Canfield, Burtch, and Sawyer speaking for the motion, and Representative Andersen (James A.) speaking against the motion.

"Mr. Andersen, have you contacted the International Roll Call Machine Company on the advisability of installing this switch?"

Mr. Andersen:

"No."

Further debate ensued, Representatives O'Brien and Henry speaking in favor of the motion by Mr. Garrett, and Representative Morphis speaking against the motion.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Andersen:

"If I may state it this way, I have faith in the Rules Committee and believe the matter will be considered during the special session. I think many of Mr. O'Brien's suggestions bear fruit, and if we are going into a special session, as it now appears we are, I would have no objection—I speak for both Mr. Metcalf and myself—to this matter going into the Rules Committee for consideration during the special session. Therefore I withdraw my objections to referring this to Rules Committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mrs. Hurley:

"I believe there is a resolution which we adopt at the end of the session that provides that all bills, resolutions, and memorials are indefinitely postponed. I think if you expect the Rules Committee to consider this during the special session, something would have to be done to require this."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken. It would have to be reintroduced."

Mr. Garrett demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion to refer the resolution to the Committee on Rules and Order was carried.

Resolution by Representatives Jolly, Lynch, and Henry:

WHEREAS, A serious need exists for increasing water flows on the lower Yakima River; and

WHEREAS, Additional water storage for the Yakima River can be obtained by construction of a storage dam at the Bumping Lake Reservoir; and

WHEREAS, Such a project would provide great benefit to the Yakima River Valley, particularly in the areas of fisheries, flood control, reclamation and recreation; and

WHEREAS, The U. S. Department of the Interior has completed a study of this project; and

WHEREAS, Senators Warren G. Magnuson and Henry M. Jackson have introduced legislation authorizing this project;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington respectfully petition that the President and the Congress of the United States enact legislation authorizing the Bumping Lake Reservoir Project with full consideration regarding the rights of all water users; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution immediately be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate of the United States and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each member in the Congress of the United States from the state of Washington.

On motion of Mr. Jolly, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives O'Donnell, Campbell, Henry, Leland, Lewis, and Moos:

WHEREAS, The chamber of this House of Representatives in its interior decoration is noticeably lacking in anything appertaining to the great scenic panoramas embodying the areas the members hereof represent;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the State Arts Commission receive proposals from northwest artists throughout the ensuing biennium for murals or paintings on the walls of this chamber depicting the scenic wonders of this beautiful State of Washington and submit a report to this House within ten days after the convening of the thirty-ninth legislative session on such proposals as the Arts Commission shall construe as appropriate and in keeping with the dignity of this chamber, and for such further action thereon as the members of this House may desire;

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send a copy of this resolution to the chairman or presiding officer of the State Arts Commission.

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Olsen:

"I have just received some information from some of the attorneys on this bill. The bill the way it is drafted and amended is now going to draw about six million dollars out of the liquor fund. I am going to endorse the bill now, and we should send it to the Senate and let them redraft a new substitute bill to come over in the proper manner. I am going on record as endorsing the bill, but they will have to take care of it on the other side."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Andersen:

"My point of order is that this matter has gone too far afield and should be cut off unless the members of the House can speak toward the bill being considered by the House. I think this is taking up everybody's time unnecessarily. There is a bill to be debated, and speaking about other bills and other days has nothing whatsoever to do with this bill."

The Speaker:

"Your point if well taken. The members will please confine their remarks to the bill being debated."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ahlquist speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ahlquist yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ahlquist, will you yield to question?"

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Ahlquist, did I understand you right when you talked the first time? Did you say this was a reduction in revenue by twelve thousand dollars and there were two hundred seventy-five people employed in the industry that this would affect? Is this a biennium or per year?"

Mr. Ahlquist:

"The figures I have here state that the B. and O. tax paid in 1962 by these general agents is twelve thousand seven hundred thirty-six dollars. That is on the basis of one percent. Now, if this was reduced to one-quarter percent, that would not be an entire reduction. They have at the present time, at the close of business in 1962, one hundred seventy-two employees."

Don't you think you might plead for the Governor of this state and bring out his important bills on this last remaining calendar?"

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. Huntley?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of personal privilege is this: Yesterday I asked permission of the House to respond on a point of personal privilege today to some comments regarding a resolution Mr. Chatalas and I introduced. May I proceed?"

The Speaker:

"You may proceed."

Miss O'Donnell:

"The comment was made with reference to a resolution relating to a documentary program on KING-TV regarding the budget. Dr. Adams wondered whether or not state funds were used in the production of this program. Although I stated yesterday I knew no state funds were used, I can now say definitely this is true. I have checked with both KING television and central budget and they have confirmed that this was done as a documentary. Usually it is done at great expense to the station. While I am on my feet, I would like to make these comments. While I did not agree completely with the conclusions or, as a matter of fact even with the title, 'Four Cents For the Governor'—which, by the way, the Governor didn't like either—I do think there is a deeper principle involved here. That is the right of news media to make known their views and report on what we do here. I think we, as legislators, should be appreciative of the many free public service programs that are donated by these stations in the interest of informing the people. I think we in the state of Washington are fortunate that we have news media that do devote considerable time and effort in explaining the governmental process to the people. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Young:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Young:

"Last week the members of this body and the Senate acted favorably on Senate Bill No. 360, as appreciably amended by the House License Committee. Since that time there has been considerable controversy over this subject and I think there will continue to be some. This is to be expected with a measure of such controversial nature, particularly one where legislators' morality is passed on. I would like to recommend to the attention of the members of this body the Look magazine of March 14. There is a series of photographs and articles on this subject of gambling. I think these would be of interest to you whichever way you voted and whatever way you are going to discuss this. I would like to call your attention to the article on page 30 in which Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy contends that illegal gambling finances further activities of racketeering, prostitution, narcotics and all the rest, and too often leads to the corruption of the police and other public officials. I would like to underline the word 'illegal'."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Johnston:

"In view of the very fine statements of Mr. Young, I would just like to explain to the body my comments on voting for this bill. I want to tell the members of this House that our gambling laws are still on the books as they have been for many years, and that this bill we passed, called the tolerance bill, has absolutely nothing to do with the gambling statutes on our books. Now, the next thing is that all over the state people—retired people, old people and others with nothing to do—are amusing themselves with a simple, harmless game called Bingo. Under a recent supreme court decision, that Bingo game would have to be stopped. The only thing the tolerance bill does is to allow local authorities to license and tax these operations and regulate them or prohibit them. It is time we called a spade a spade and say either we are going to have these things go on in our communities for the amusement of our people or we are not going to have them. That is all this bill does. As far as gambling is concerned, that is another issue. You are always going to have to deal with gambling. You are always going to have to fight the gamblers every day in the week. That has nothing to do with what we are talking about."

Add a new section following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2, Section 75.40.040, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and RCW 75.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

"In the event the compact set forth in RCW 75.40.030 becomes effective, the director of fisheries, ex officio, and two appointees of the governor representing the fishing industry or an industry allied therewith, shall act as the representatives of this state on the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission, in accordance with the provisions of, and with the powers and duties provided in the compact. The appointees of the governor shall be subject to confirmation by the state senate."

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. King yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. King, will you yield to question?"

Mr. King:

"I would be glad to, Mr. Comfort."

Mr. Comfort:

"Didn't a former House amendment provide that the chairman of the legislative interim committee on fisheries and an appointee of the Governor representing the fishing industry or an allied industry would be on this committee, as opposed to the recommendation of the Free Conference Committee that two appointees of the Governor be on the committee?"

Mr. King:

"Mr. Comfort, that is true. The chairman of the interim committee might be in for only a two-year period, but most of the terms under the compact are for a four-year period. In that event, the chairman, if he were from the House, would be in for four years and could serve that four years although he is no longer a member of the House."

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker Copeland, ladies and gentlemen of the House, our honored guest Mr. Speaker, it is my delightful honor and privilege to perform a traditional duty this evening on the last night of our 1963 regular session. It is to present to our friend and our presiding officer, Speaker Day, the gift that the members of the House want to offer to you. I think that a great many people thought that this couldn't be done. They thought that a coalition could not be brought about which would end as this has with a great deal of friendliness and good will on the part of everybody, but each member in the House, Mr. Speaker, has recognized your kindness and consideration. I think everybody will agree with me you have been fair. You have called on somebody from here, and somebody from there, until everybody has talked themselves out, I hope, and so in recognition of your being a very good Speaker, and in recognition of your being a good friend to all of us, we want to present to you our gift and a card that has been signed by the House members. Mr. Mast had a great deal to do with this, as have Mrs. Swayze and Mr. McCormick, and all of us offer our best wishes and our thanks."

The Speaker:

"I am overwhelmed by this magnificent set of silver inscribed on the top 'In grateful appreciation from the members of the House to William S. Day, Speaker'. You have added to the great kindness that you have already bestowed upon me. I want you to know that this has undoubtedly been the outstanding honor of my life, being Speaker of the House, and I am humbled beyond words. Thank you very much."

Mr. Copeland requested that the special committee conduct Speaker Day to the rear of the Chamber.

Mr. Copeland appointed Representatives Henry, O'Donnell, Hurley, McCaffree, Lynch, Kirk, and Swayze to conduct Miss Wintler to a position in front of the rostrum.

Mrs. Hurley:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House and our Speaker Pro Tem, Miss Wintler, it is the privilege and honor of all of us here to acknowledge your position of seniority and the respect and honor of your position of Speaker Pro Tempore of the House, and we want to offer our little gift to you in recognition of the many, many, many years you have served as a member of this House and of the wonderful advice that you have given many of us, including me. We think you are one of the nicest Speaker Pro Tems that this House has ever had. We want you to accept this gift from all of us."

Miss Wintler:

"My friends, I am overwhelmed. I know personally I do not deserve the many kindnesses and honors that you have bestowed upon me not only this session but in all my previous sessions. I don't know how anybody could enjoy the days in the House of Representatives more than I have this session, and you don't know how many generous memories I have of all of you. I will consider all the rest of the days of my life nothing more to be treasured than the friendships I hope I have won here. Thank you."

They have all done a tremendous job, worked long hours, and have been very efficient. I think we owe them a debt of gratitude. I would like further to say a word of commendation to the pages. GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON HOUSE BILLS VETOED,
PARTIALLY VETOED, OR NOT SIGNED

March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to Section 3, House Bill No. 33 entitled:

"AN ACT relating to the preservation of essential public documents of the state of Washington; and imposing a fee upon the filing of certain documents with the secretary of state."

House Bill No. 33 requires elected and appointed state officers to designate those public documents which are essential records and requires these officials to transmit such documents to the State Archivist for reproduction by microfilm or other miniature photographic process.

Section 3 requires the Secretary of State to collect in advance an additional fee of ten cents on all documents for which a filing fee is required in his office. The Secretary of State has pointed out to me that the requirement of the payment of the additional fee will create widespread confusion and force the return of thousands of filings at great inconvenience and expense. I believe the point of view of the Secretary of State is well taken and for this reason, Section 3 of House Bill No. 33 is vetoed and the remainder is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 34 entitled:

"AN ACT relating to the preservation of essential public documents of the political subdivisions of the state of Washington; and imposing a fee on the filing of certain documents."

The purpose of this bill is most laudatory. It provides that all elected and appointed officials of the various political subdivisions and municipal corporations of the state shall designate public documents as essential to be reproduced, stored and safeguarded.

Unfortunately, this bill was so poorly drafted that numerous elected county officials have protested its enactment. These officials point out that in the larger counties, such documents are already being microfilmed and copies of the microfilm are being deposited in a safe place. To make the bill applicable to them would cause unnecessary work and a useless expenditure of funds.

The bill also permits political subdivisions and municipal corporations at their discretion to determine which documents are to be microfilmed. This provision will result in chaos and confusion because different officials may determine that different documents should be microfilmed. Therefore, there might be a complete lack of uniformity.

The bill also provides that the county auditor and clerk shall charge an additional fee of ten cents as a preservation of document fee, in addition to their usual fees. This amount is insufficient to take care of the cost of the project and will disturb the filing fee schedules at great additional administrative expense.

I recommend that during the coming two years, the Association of County Commissioners, the Association of County Elective Officials, the Association of Washington Cities and the Department of Civil Defense get together and work out a measure, determining which documents are essential and which should be reproduced, as well as an adequate fee schedule to accomplish the microfilming.

For the reasons indicated, I reluctantly veto House Bill No. 34.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item of section 3, House Bill No. 35 entitled:

"AN ACT relating to the militia and enacting a uniform code of military justice; amending sections 12, 82, 81, 84, 52 and 94, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.04.010, 38.32.010, 38.32.020, 38.32.070, 38.32.120, and 38.32.130; repealing sections 83, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 63, 64, 85, 67, 68, 79, 88, 94, 65, 66, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76 and 77, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.04.050, 38.28.010, 38.28.020, 38.28.030, 38.28.040, 38.28.050, 38.28.060, 38.28.070, 38.28.080, 38.32.040, 38.32.050, 38.32.060, 38.32.110, 38.32.130, 38.36.010, 38.36.020, 38.36.030, 38.36.040, 38.36.050, 38.36.060, 38.36.070, 38.36.080, 38.36.090, 38.36.100 and 38.36.110; repealing section 62, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1953 and RCW 38.32.150; providing penalties; and making an effective date."

This bill enacts a uniform code of military justice for the Washington State National Guard. The provisions of this bill were prepared for the most part by the Judge Advocate section of the Department of Defense, and the provisions contained in this bill have been cleared by the Uniform Law Commissioners.

Section 3, subsection (1), contains a provision whereby a person who has been discharged from the state military forces and has been returned to civilian status would be subjected to trial by court martial, if he be subsequently charged under this code with having obtained his original discharge fraudulently. Such person, furthermore, upon conviction on the charge of having obtained his discharge fraudulently, would be liable to be subjected to trial by court martial for all offenses committed previously to his fraudulent discharge.

It is my considered judgment that once having been returned to civilian status, a man should be entitled to be tried for any offenses he may have committed by civilian courts. For this reason, I have vetoed the foregoing item. The remainder of House Bill No. 35 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to Section 9, Subsection (16) of House Bill 89 entitled:

"AN ACT providing for the registration of contractors; and prescribing penalties."

House Bill 89 provides for the registration of contractors doing business in the state of Washington. As originally introduced, the bill was a comprehensive act requiring that, with certain reasonable exceptions, all persons doing any work as a contractor must first be licensed by the Department of Licenses. Information supplied on the license application will be available for public inspection.

An amendment to the bill, however, exempted from the operation of the act, all contractors on highway projects who had prequalified as required by laws relating to highway construction contracts. By removing a substantial group of contractors from the operation of the act, much of the intended protection is lost.

While the present act provides minimum protection to the people of our state, by making available a centralized listing of all contractors meeting the standards indicated, prequalification for highway contracts serves only to provide information concerning bidders on highway projects and is not readily available to the general public. I find nothing inconsistent in requiring all contractors to be licensed, and in addition requiring that contractors on costly highway projects submit to further prequalification with the Highway Commission.

With the exception of the foregoing item, which is vetoed, the remainder of House Bill 89 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature without my approval as to a certain item in section 2, House Bill No. 109 entitled:

“AN ACT relating to highways; and amending section 47.16.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.16.060; and adding a new section to chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and chapter 47.56 RCW.”

Section 2 of this bill provides that the Washington Toll Bridge Authority and the Washington State Highway Commission jointly may permit public sport fishing from the Hood Canal Bridge. While I agree that it is most desirable to use every available facility for recreational purposes if possible, I doubt that the decision to authorize fishing is of sufficient magnitude to require permission of two distinct administrative units. This requirement violates sound administrative practices, and reduces governmental efficiency.

For the foregoing reasons, an item in Section 2 requiring permission from the Highway Commission is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 114, entitled:

“AN ACT relating to midwifery; and repealing Sections 1 through 12, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 and RCW 18.50.010 through 18.50.130 and 18.50.900.”

This bill attempted to repeal Chapter 18.50, Revised Code of Washington, which establishes procedures for licensing midwives. It did not prohibit the practice of midwifery, but only repealed all provisions relating to licenses. While the first portion of the bill repealed all of Chapter 18.50 RCW, a proviso added that any person now licensed could continue to practice, and the department of licenses would retain powers and duties under the original act. If an act is repealed, it is a contradiction to say that powers under the same act are retained.

For the foregoing reason, House Bill No. 114 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, House Bill No. 303 entitled:

“AN ACT relating to physical education; and amending section 5, chapter 89, Laws of 1919, section 2, chapter 89, Laws of 1919, as amended by section 1, chapter 78, Laws of 1923 and RCW 28.05.040.”

This bill makes mandatory at all high schools of the state and all institutions of higher learning, including community colleges, physical education for a minimum of ninety minutes during each school week. I am in full accord with the requirement that all of our youngsters should benefit from an adequate physical education program, such as is demanded by this bill.

Originally, the bill contained the following item: “Provided further, That individual high school students shall be excused therefrom upon the written request of parents or guardians." This item was stricken by the Legislature. While I strongly believe that high school students should receive adequate physical education, I am equally convinced that parents of students are in a better position than the school authorities to determine whether good reasons exist why their children should be excused from such a program.

For this reason the item quoted is vetoed, thereby restoring the language quoted in the preceding paragraph, and the remainder of House Bill No. 303 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

March 26, 1963.

The Honorable Victor A. Meyers,
Secretary of State,
Olympia, Washington.

Dear Sir:

I am transmitting herewith, without my signature, House Bill No. 361 entitled:

"AN ACT relating to the world fair commission; and declaring an emergency."

I regard it as a serious mistake to permit and authorize newly appointed liquidators to determine the disposition of the remaining assets of Century 21 Exposition, Inc. Mr. Edward E. Carlson, Senator Michael J. Gallagher and Representative Ray Olsen have performed invaluable services to Century 21 Exposition, Inc. and have the requisite knowledge and background to terminate the existence of said Corporation and the remaining assets of the World's Fair.

The newly appointed liquidators of Century 21 Exposition, Inc. in the short time available to them are not likely to acquire the necessary background and knowledge requisite to a proper liquidation of the affairs of Century 21 Exposition, Inc.

However, since the Legislature, by almost unanimous vote of its two Houses, has seen fit to approve a measure appointing new liquidating trustees, constituting a new World's Fair Commission, I reluctantly allow House Bill No. 361 to become law without my signature.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State.)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 590 entitled:

“AN ACT relating to the collection and disposition of hotel inspection fees; and amending section 2, chapter 105, Laws of 1953, and RCW 43.22.110.”

This bill amended the law relating to the disposition of hotel inspection fees. It provided that such fees shall be paid into the accident fund created by RCW 51.44 rather than the state treasury. By so doing, revenue otherwise available for the general support of government would be unnecessarily diverted to a special treasury fund.

For this reason, House Bill No. 590 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor
