S. R. Holcomb
Chief Clerk

On motion of Mrs. Hurley, and following remarks of commendation by Representatives Hurley, Schaefer, Savage, Henry, Evans, Mast, Smith, Beierlein, Clark, and Campbell, the resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Lynch and Schaefer to escort Miss Wintler to the rostrum to receive a signed copy of the resolution.

The Speaker:

"We certainly congratulate you. We all love you, Ella. Do you have a few words you would like to say?"

Miss Wintler:

"Thank you so much. I am really overwhelmed. I don't know how to express appreciation to each one of you who have paid such a marvelous tribute to me. If I hadn't been reared by seven older brothers, I might shed a tear, but if any of you know what that meant, being put in my place by seven older brothers, you know I had to maintain composure on all occasions.

"I thank you for all the gracious thoughts that I trust each one of you might have been thinking when you arose in that unusual expression of tribute which no one really deserves wholly. I want to thank Representative Hurley for the second time within a week when she has been most gracious. As I said last Thursday evening, I shall treasure all my life the kind associations here and the friendships in this most exclusive club—excluding the Senate, of course—in the state of Washington.

"I trust that in a small measure I deserve all your kindness and friendship. But I am just a little apprehensive that by this gesture, you are retiring me."

The Speaker instructed the special committee to escort Miss Wintler from the rostrum.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Uhlman, authorization was given for the purchase of an additional roll of five-cent stamps for each member of the House.

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House recessed until 11:30 a. m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 11:30 a. m.

The Clerk called the roll. Representative Harris, who was excused, and Representative O'Donnell were absent.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

The House resumed consideration of House Bill No. 4 on second reading.

House Bill No. 4, by Representatives Huntley, Rosenberg, and Leland:

Implementing law relating to highways and the travel of vehicles thereon.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the following amendment by Mr. Morphis:

On page 9, section 11, beginning on line 10, after "bridge]" strike all of the material down to and including "Country Homes" on line 18.

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mrs. Hurley:

"I have an amendment that amends the same section. If Mr. Morphis' amendment is considered first and this whole section is stricken, will my amendment be considered or not?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In that event, your amendment would be out of order. We should consider your amendment first."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Campbell:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Campbell:

"Mr. Speaker, we were discussing the Morphis amendment yesterday. We just suspended discussion of it for a day. Now to interrupt with some other amendment seems to me would be completely out of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Chief Clerk informs me that Mrs. Hurley's amendment was on the desk at the same time as Mr. Morphis' amendment. Under Reed's rules it specifically states, as I ruled before, that the body has an opportunity to perfect the section before it shall strike the section, so we must consider this amendment first because it was on the desk."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Adams:

"If Mrs. Hurley's amendment is adopted, can we still strike the section?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Yes, because it contains other material. Although Mrs. Hurley's amendment improves the section, there is other material which would be stricken if the entire section were stricken."

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, section 11, line 13, after "Country Homes" and before the colon insert " , which route may be restricted as to types of vehicles by the state highway commission"

Debate ensued, Representative Hurley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Morphis:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mrs. Hurley yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mrs. Hurley."

Mrs. Hurley:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Morphis:

"Did your amendment state that the highway commission may, or shall, restrict the traffic?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"This is 'may restrict'. If we say they 'shall restrict', it would leave them no leeway at all. I think with 'may' in there, they could send the heavy trucks and equipment down Division street. That way it doesn't mean your delivery trucks and all the other type of small service trucks would have to go down Division street. They could use the road. I am sure they do now, and they could then also."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Morphis, Campbell, May, and Rosenberg speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Huntley, Johnston, and Adams speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Mundy demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained. The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Morphis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, section 11, beginning on line 10, after "bridge]" strike all of the material down to and including "Country Homes" on line 18.

Debate ensued, Representatives Morphis and Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the amendment was adopted.

The Speaker called on Mr. Evans to preside.

Mr. Young moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 19, section 32, beginning on line 6, strike all of section 32 and renumber the subsequent sections accordingly.

Debate ensued, Representatives Young and Gorton speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Leland, Garrett, Olsen, and Huntley speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Smith demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Mast demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Young.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 78; absent or not voting, 9.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Burtch, Comfort, Dootson, Eberle, Evans, Flanagan, Gorton, Lewis, Odell, Reese, Savage, Young—12.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Grant, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Rogers, Rosenberg, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee—78.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Ahlquist, Earley, Harris, Henry, Mahaffey, May, Metcalf, O'Donnell, Mr. Speaker—9.

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of the following amendment by himself and Mr. Garrett:

On page 34, add a new section following section 52 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. There is added to chapter 213, Laws of 1957 and to chapter 35.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

"The metropolitan council of a metropolitan municipal corporation upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of such council may make planning, engineering, legal, financial and feasibility studies preliminary to or incident to the preparation of a recommended comprehensive plan for the function of metropolitan transportation, and may prepare such a recommended comprehensive plan before the metropolitan municipal corporation has been authorized to perform such function. The studies and plan may cover territory within and without the metropolitan municipal corporation. For the purpose of paying part or all of the cost of making such studies or preparing such plan the metropolitan municipal corporation may contract with any governmental agency to receive gifts or grants or secure loans or advances. A recommended comprehensive plan prepared pursuant to this section for the function of metropolitan transportation may not be adopted by the metropolitan municipal council unless the metropolitan municipal corporation shall have been authorized to perform such function."

Number the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representatives Gorton, Garrett, and Huntley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, may we have the amendment read again, please?"

The Speaker (Mr. Evans presiding):

"Will the reading clerk reread the amendment?"

Further debate ensued, Representatives Beierlein and Olsen speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Uhlman, Leland, Gorton, and Schaefer speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Gorton moved adoption of the following amendment to the title by himself and Mr. Garrett:

On page 2, line 10 of the title, after "46.52 RCW;" and before "providing effective" insert "adding a new section to chapter 213, Laws of 1957 and chapter 35.58 RCW;"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Evans presiding):

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Gorton, it just occurs to me that perhaps the title should be broadened in the first part to include a reference to these feasibility studies by Metro in order to avoid having the amendment you adopted not embraced within the subject matter of the title."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Ackley, this amendment was prepared in cooperation with the attorney for the highway department. I can't express any particular views on it. It might be that it should. They thought this was sufficient."

The motion was carried, and the amendment to the title was adopted.

House Bill No. 4 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 4 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Huntley and Lind speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Huntley yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Evans presiding):

"Mr. Huntley, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Huntley:

"Yes, if it pertains to the bill."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Huntley, in new section 39 there are new fees imposed, apparently for feasibility studies and for defrayal of joint committee expenses. Is this something new or has this source been used before for the highway committee costs and also for these feasibility studies?"

Mr. Huntley:

"This source has been financing the interim committee on highways as long as there has been an interim committee on highways."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 4, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, Olsen, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young—92.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Perry, Rosenberg, Uhlman—3.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Earley, Harris, O'Donnell, Mr. Speaker—4.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker:

"Mr. Mahaffey, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Mahaffey:

"Yes, I will yield, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Mahaffey, when we discussed these amendments in the Ways and Means Committee, I asked you how much Seattle would benefit. I believe you told me one hundred thousand dollars. Now I understand, according to the newspapers and other information, that the Seattle district is going to get eight hundred thousand more. Which is correct, please?"

Mr. Mahaffey:

"Mr. Chatalas, under the formula we are presenting now, Seattle ceases to be an equalization district and, therefore, will receive Public Law 874 moneys they were not getting under the previous formula, so in total moneys that puts us back to where we get that eight hundred thousand dollars and break even. However, in figuring it per unit, the school district has figured we get only seven hundred sixty dollars per unit and we won't get much more than the status quo, but we are getting back those moneys we would have lost if Seattle were an equalization district."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Metcalf yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Metcalf, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Metcalf, in this formula are we considering the growth of our school districts in these next two years?"

Mr. Metcalf:

"In considering the money that is available, yes, to my knowledge, we are. This is part of the increase over last year to take care of the growth; or do you mean the excess growth factor, the thing the Governor forgot in his budget?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"I am talking about excess growth. In Clark county in the Thirty-seventh District, we anticipate a growth of about one thousand students in the next two years."

Mr. Metcalf:

"The excess growth was one thing forgotten in the Governor's budget. We included that in this, as far as the growth of the number of students, certainly."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I made an error in voting on the amendment by Mr. Smith which would have removed the recovery clause provision from the bill. I intended to vote against this amendment, but inadvertently pushed the button the wrong way. A check of my previous voting record will show that I have consistently supported a recovery clause in our public assistance laws.

S. E. (Sid) Flanagan,
13th District.

Mr. Brouillet moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 18, section 1, line 27, following the semicolon after "biennium" strike all the material down to and including the semicolon after "year" on page 19, line 14, and insert "Provided, That the state superintendent of public instruction shall fix the equalization payment to school districts in such a manner as to preserve the fiscal balance between equalization and nonequalization districts which prevailed in the 1962-1963 school year, computed on the basis of the estimate of attendance provided for in RCW 28.41.060 and on the basis of the factors prescribed in RCW 28.41.070 and adjusted, if necessary, to provide a minimum of forty-five hundred days of attendance credit for each educational unit to be maintained by the district during the school years 1963-1964 and 1964-1965: Provided, That apportionment on the attendance credit basis shall be likewise determined by the state superintendent of public instruction: Provided, That the apportionment on the education unit basis shall be determined by the superintendent of public instruction for 1963-1964 and 1964-1965 in accordance with RCW 28.41.060:"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Odell yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Odell, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Odell:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"What tests are you referring to, psychological, arithmetic, gym tests?"

Mr. Odell:

"You know I am referring to psychological testing."

Mr. Litchman:

"No, I didn't know. I wonder if you would explain to the House just what your specific reasons are for creating a censorship board?"

Mr. Odell:

"It is not a censorship board. It doesn't stop the tests at all. The state compels the children to go to school. I believe we should give the children some protection. I think parents should be given some protection and be able to see what is being done to the children, if anything is being done. I know in our area we have these tests. All we want to know is what questions were being asked. Now, if they can't come out and explain or show the questions that are being asked, maybe something is wrong. Maybe there is nothing wrong. This doesn't stop psychological testing, but simply gives us a little peace of mind. This isn't part of the curriculum. Is there anything else you would like to know, Mr. Litchman?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes. I wonder if you know of any specific abuses of psychological testing. Perhaps there are in Spokane. I don't know of any in Seattle."

Mr. Odell:

"I will yield to Mr. Eberle on that."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Eberle.

Mr. Eberle:

"At the public hearing held in conjunction with the Senate committee when two of these bills were up, there were several Representatives present and a number of interested people, including some psychologists from the state universities. It was publicly admitted that there had been Blacky tests given in the Bellevue school system, and one other test—I don't recall the name—was given in one of the Tacoma schools. There was no question about the fact that there had been abuses."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Eberle and Hurley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Litchman speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Wedekind demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the amendment by Mr. Odell to House Bill No. 1. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 2.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Harris, O'Donnell—2.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I voted "No" on the amendment to House Bill No. 1 requiring that psychological tests not be given without parental consent, because, although I believe that tests of a psychological nature should not be given to children in our schools without obtaining parental consent, I do not think the amendment was germane to the budget bill, and I believe the school boards of the state have received the message.

Audley F. Mahaffey,
46th District.

We firmly believe that psychological tests should not be given to our children in our schools without prior parental consent. We also believe that most school boards have "received the message" on this.

We voted against this amendment, however, for the following reasons:

First, it constitutes state interference with a problem that is best dealt with by local school boards and which is being dealt with by local school boards.

Second, by the terms of this particular amendment as submitted, prior parental consent might well be required in the case of other completely proper tests given by schools.

Third, this amendment was neither germane nor appropriate to an appropriation bill such as House Bill No. 1.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bozarth, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—42.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Harris, O'Donnell—2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 1, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I wish to be recorded as voting "nay" on House Bill No. 1 on final passage. I voted "yea" in error.

John Bigley,
30th District.

My comments entered in the Journal concerning Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 252 are equally applicable to House Bill No. 1.

One additional comment is necessary however, in explaining my vote against this measure. The Republicans were embarrassed about their treatment of the Seattle School District so they engaged in some fancy formula fixing by setting the equalization formula level at .53 cents and the attendance level at .46 cents. They claim to have "taken care of Seattle." This they did. Out of the eighteen million dollars in additional funds, Seattle still received zero. Seattle has long been the target of the rural and Eastern Washington legislators. I am deeply disappointed in the Seattle Republican legislators who have joined hands with these persons to again discriminate against the Seattle school system.

Wes C. Uhlman,
32nd District.

I'm no attention seeker,
But please may I have the ear of the House,
So that I may re-coup
For a minority group . . .
The two ladies at the rear of the House.

"Back of every good man
A woman must stand;
Fellow Legislators, I'd remind you
If your measure was passed,
At the first or the last,
Mary Ellen and I were behind you.

"We've heard the reader report
That we've had your support,
And we think we've passed one bill or two.
Though our motives have been pure,
Still we really can't be sure . . .
Mary Ellen, I will yield to you."

Mrs. McCaffree:

"If it seems a little late,
For us to celebrate,
Blame it on the tote-board
We cannot see that vote-board
With that cigar smoke getting our eyes!

"And the candies that we taste,
Have surely gone to our waist,
And these inches won't vanish by wishin'.
So when you go to lunch today,
You'll see we found a different way
To treat you in the House's tradition.

"You'll see by the decoration
Our deep appreciation
For giving freshman ladies a break.
So in more ways than one,
If you'll pardon the pun,
Fellow members you take the cake!"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Lewis, I am familiar with your interest in youth and forest camps. Are you satisfied with the provisions in this bill in connection with the dangerous road conditions into some of these camps?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Mr. Andersen, I am quite interested in the Cedar Creek and Capitol Forest youth camps. I am most enthusiastic about the cooperation I have personally had with the department of natural resources. The chief forester, Mike Webster, drove me up one morning and we surveyed the roads. While the capital budget did not include a specific line item for repair of the roads, they have assured me that they felt that during the biennium the department would cooperate in an attempt to improve the fills and widen the road to the best of their ability. They believe they will have a caterpillar tractor moving through this area during the biennium and will take the opportunity to do this work and correct to some extent the hazardous road conditions that lead to these camps."

"For a man of your stature, I will be glad to, Mr. Mundy."

Mr. Mundy:

"Thank you, Mr. Canfield. I have a serious question for the benefit of the many members of the House here who are not members of the Ways and Means Committee. Would you be so kind as to state, if you have the figures, what amount is being appropriated in this bill out of the general fund. I think it would be most informative if the members here had a general idea, sir."

Mr. Canfield:

"In the hearing before Ways and Means, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Ryan from the central budget office appeared before us, and this question was specifically asked of them by me. They both replied that there were no appropriations out of the general fund except those which are completely reimbursable. You will find some which are so marked. We were assured these were either reappropriations or account funds."

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Joint Resolution No. 2, by Representative Dootson:

Limiting the state bonded indebtedness.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be consideration of House Joint Resolution No. 2, which had been advanced to third reading and final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Witherbee and Schaefer speaking against passage of the bill, and Representatives Gorton and Andersen (James A.) speaking for passage of the bill.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained on a rising vote.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 2, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Siler, Swayze, Uhlman, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—69.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Gorton, House Joint Resolution No. 2 was ordered immediately transmitted to the Senate.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

We voted "yea" to be on the prevailing side on House Joint Resolution No. 2 in order to be able to move for reconsideration. The Speaker refused to recognize either of us for that purpose, although we were on our feet seeking recognition.

WES C. UHLMAN,
32nd District.
CHARLES MOON,
39th District.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I don't think my eyesight is bad, nor is my hearing. I think everyone of us including myself heard the Speaker ask me to wait until after the vote was announced."

The Speaker:

"That is correct. You can't interrupt a roll call."

Mr. Uhlman:

"The inference was that you would recognize me afterwards. I think, frankly, this is very, very poor practice. I think it reflects directly on the Speaker. I think it is indicative of what some persons have accused the Speaker of doing this session, of breaking the traditions and rules of the House. I have attempted to maintain an open mind. I haven't been over-critical of the Speaker. However, at this point I am afraid I am going to have to protest. I think that was a very, very poor move, the poorest I have seen in three sessions, when an individual is on his feet as a member of the House and is told to wait and he will then be recognized, and then the Speaker breaks his word."

House Joint Resolution No. 4, by Representatives Moos, Garrett, Flanagan, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Haussler, Hawley, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Savage, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, and Witherbee:

Proposing constitutional amendment relating to apportionment and districting of legislative districts.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, Article II, Section 2, subsection (6), line 1, strike "subsection (2)" and insert "subsections (2), (3), and (4)"

House Joint Resolution No. 4 was ordered engrossed.

Mr. Moos moved that the rules be suspended, Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution be placed on final passage.

Mr. Witherbee demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to advance Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 to third reading and final passage, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 63; nays, 32; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rosenberg, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—63.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTION

Mr. Uhlman moved that House Bill No. 56 be rereferred to the Committee on State Government, Military and Veterans Affairs, and Civil Defense.

Miss O'Donnell demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll. Representatives Bozarth, Campbell, Gallagher, Harris, Johnston, and Rogers were absent.

On motion of Mr. Kink, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

Mr. Gallagher appeared at the bar of the House.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Uhlman that House Bill No. 56 be rereferred to the Committee on State Government, Military and Veterans Affairs, and Civil Defense.

Debate ensued, Representative Gorton speaking against the motion, and Representatives Uhlman and O'Brien speaking in its favor.

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Senator Greive isn't a member of this House."

Mr. Pritchard:

"Are you sure? He has been here almost more than you in the last week."

Mr. O'Brien:

"He can't protect himself. You are condemning someone who isn't a member of the House, Mr. Pritchard, and I don't think your remarks are fair or in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"I wonder if the gentleman from King is speaking on the motion to rerefer the bill. I think he is talking more about a Senator who is not even here."

The Speaker:

"You may continue, Mr. Pritchard, speaking on the motion."

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard concluding his remarks. Mr. Chatalas demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Gorton would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Moon:

"In the southwestern part of this map where we have districts 57 and 19, there is one of the areas that previously was listed as an 'A' and 'B' area. I see the 57th district has one Representative and one Senator, and the 19th district has one Representative. Is this Senator to represent both the 57th and 19th districts?"

Mr. Gorton:

"If you would read the bill, you would see that the 19th and 57th Representative districts are combined in one Senatorial District. You will notice that the Senatorial districts are bounded by a heavy line. Where there are Representative districts in between, there are light, dotted lines."

Mr. Moon:

"You stated that these 'A' and 'B' districts had been changed, but actually, in principle, has it been changed? Only the numbering is different."

Mr. Gorton:

"In this particular case, the principle is the same; the numbers are changed. The northern boundaries are changed because there was so much criticism, and perhaps valid criticism, of the fact that it was a little crooked. We smoothed the lines out and made them straight. Previously we followed the precinct lines, and many precincts went a great distance north and south up in the woods. I don't imagine there is a difference in population of twenty people, but on the map it looks more satisfactory."

Mr. Moon:

"Why, then, is it not one district with two Representatives and one Senator, as in my case in the 39th district?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Because your district is all within one county and this district includes three counties."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Sawyer:

"In regard to these two districts, I was wondering what the principal was. Was it cronyism?"

Mr. Gorton:

"That wasn't a question, Mr. Sawyer. That was part of a speech. Why not go ahead and make the rest of it?"

Further debate ensued, Representatives Henry, Klein, May, and Savage speaking in favor of the motion.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to rerefer House Bill No. 56 to the Committee on State Government, Military and Veterans Affairs, and Civil Defense, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 55; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—39.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—55.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bozarth, Campbell, Harris, Johnston, Rogers—5.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Rogers appeared at the bar of the House.

Mrs. Henry moved adoption of the following amendment by herself, Mr. Klein, and Mr. Schaefer:

On page 5, section 18, line 33, after "Skye" and before the period, insert ", Alpine, Battle Ground North, Battle Ground South, Brush Prairie, Camas 101 through 114, Cedar Creek, Charter Oak, Chelatchie, Columbia West, Daybreak, English, Enterprise, Fern Prairie West, Fishers, Glenwood Heights, Greeley, Haagen, Hall, Hayes, Heisson, LaCenter, Lackamas North, Lackamas South, Lewisville, Lockwood Creek, Manor, Meadow Glade, Mountain View, Paradise Point, Pioneer Proebstal, Ridgefield North, Ridgefield South, Twin Falls, Woodburn, Yacolt"

Debate ensued, Representatives Henry and Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Gorton and Metcalf speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Gorton would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Moon:

"This question deals with Mrs. Henry's district where we have double representation. Just a minute ago you said you wanted to be consistent on this type of thing. When you answered my previous question, you said my district was not divided because we were contained within a single county. Since then I have had an opportunity to look at this map, and I see that district No. 13 comprises Kittitas county and part of Grant county, yet they have one Senator and two Representatives. I wonder why they do not have two separate districts as does Mrs. Henry's district?"

Mr. Gorton:

"I am very happy, Mr. Moon, that apparently for the first time this session, you read the bill before you asked a question."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Representative Gorton is impugning another member of this body. He doesn't need to be so supercilious in his approach."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"I will go ahead and answer the question. There is a profound difference between the amendment offered and the 13th district. In the 13th district, both of the Representatives, one from each party incidentally, live in the same county. We could not divide the district simply on the basis of Kittitas and Grant, because the population difference was too great. My hope is that sometime in the future Grant will have two Representatives and Kittitas one."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Henry, O'Donnell, Klein, and O'Brien speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Moos and Perry speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Witherbee moved adoption of the following amendment by himself and Mr. Ackley:

On page 10, section 32, line 8, strike "160th Street, south on Eighth Avenue S.W." and insert "168th Street"

Debate ensued, Representatives Witherbee and Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. DeJarnatt moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 6, section 19, line 2, strike "county of Cowlitz" and insert "counties of Cowlitz and Wahkiakum"

Mr. Brouillet demanded an electric roll call, and the remand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representatives DeJarnatt, Klein, and Burtch speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Gorton and Lind speaking against its adoption.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 52; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Grant, Hadley, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—43.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—52.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bozarth, Campbell, Harris, Johnston—4.

Mr. Uhlman moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, section 33, line 11, before "legislative district" strike "Thirty-second" and insert "Thirty-fifth"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, before I make my remarks, I wonder if Representative Gorton will yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"He says no, he will not."

Mr. Olsen demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Uhlman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 53; absent or not voting, 4.

WHEREAS, Article II, section 24 of the Washington State Constitution forbids the legislature from authorizing any lottery; and Implementing law relating to community colleges.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Lewis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, section 13, line 19, before "miles" strike "twenty-five" and insert "twenty"

Debate ensued, Representative Lewis speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Lewis, would you yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Would this also preclude other counties from having more than one or have you figured the mileage in other counties?"

Mr. Lewis:

"I haven't to that extent. I was primarily concerned with what this does to Thurston county."

Further debate ensued, Representative Miles speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Eldridge, Brouillet, and Bigley speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Hood demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Lewis and Savage speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Burtch speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 75; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Brachtenbach, Braun, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Evans, Gorton, Hadley, Hood, Klein, Lewis, Mast, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Savage—19.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask a question of Mr. Eldridge or Mr. Metcalf."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Eldridge, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Eldridge:

"Yes."

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Eldridge, in view of your last remarks about section 4, will we have to make some kind of adjustment for this in the appropriation bill that is being considered by the Senate? I don't say this critically because, after all, we hadn't considered this prior to the time House Bill No. 1 was passed."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Klein, in talking with members of the Senate committee Friday afternoon after we adjourned, I understood that testimony before their committee indicated that multiplying by two was probably high and that 1.5 was nearer the amount that could support the junior colleges. In effect, we have more money in that junior college allocation than was absolutely necessary to run the program. This will allow for two additional colleges during this coming biennium."

Mr. Klein:

"This would not necessitate any other change in the bill?"

Mr. Eldridge:

"It is a line item in the House bill and there is more than enough money allocated to support the existing program plus the two additional colleges."

Further debate ensued, Representative Morphis speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, I didn't quite understand about the location of new junior colleges, and I would like to ask Mr. Brouillet if he will answer a question."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brouillet, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"Yes."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Brouillet, is it true that future legislatures will determine new junior college locations?"

Mr. Brouillet:

"No, not really. Section 1 says the state board shall make recommendations. Actually, they will recommend the locations. It will be up to the state legislature to determine whether they want to spend the money. We will approve the locations by providing the money. We aren't putting the legislature on the spot to select Yakima or Sunnyside or some other area as a site. We will only have to say whether we want to spend the money on these projects."

Mr. Pritchard demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 19, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—95.

WHEREAS, Previous bond issues for farm-to-market roads in irrigation blocks within the county have been exhausted; and

WHEREAS, Franklin County is without financial resources or bonding capacity to meet new farm-to-market road costs in these new areas;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That the Bureau of Reclamation, Department of Interior, be requested to consider the construction of farm-to-market roads as an integral part of the reclamation project for the balance of the Columbia Basin development program, and to accept the financial responsibility therefor; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Honorable John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, to the President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, to the Secretary of the Interior, Honorable Stewart L. Udall, and to each member of Congress from the State of Washington.

On motion of Mr. Jolly, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives O'Brien, Grant, Leland, and Garrett:

WHEREAS, There have been seven serious traffic accidents on the Sunset Highway in the general vicinity of the Mercer Island floating bridge and the East Channel bridge during the past five months, and twenty-two serious traffic accidents in the past year; and

WHEREAS, The bulge in the Mercer Island floating bridge has been labeled with the ignominious title of a hazardous "death trap"; and

WHEREAS, The reversible-lane signal-control system now in use in this general area of the Sunset Highway has caused a continuous and appalling number of deaths and serious injuries since its installation three years ago;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives that the state Highway Commission be requested to conduct an immediate investigation into the traffic hazards presently existing in the floating bridge and East Channel bridge areas of the Sunset Highway and take positive action to correct any such hazards found to exist, including the abolition of the reversible-lane system if necessary to prevent serious accidents.

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the resolution was adopted.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed in the south gallery a group of students from the eighth grade of the Holy Family Catholic School in Kirkland, with their teachers and advisers, Mrs. Morris Durand, Mr. Joe Martineau, Mr. Nap Martineau, Sister Michael, Mr. James Burns, Mr. Joe Grange, and Mrs. Arnold Campbell, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Huntley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Huntley:

"I would like to draw your attention, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to the little leaflet that is just being left on your desks. It is a summary of bills that went through the Highway Committees and passed both the Senate and the House, and have gone to the Governor during the regular session. We thought it would be helpful to you when you get home and are out on the roast beef and brown gravy circuit. It will give you a good idea of what we have done here as far as highway legislation is concerned."

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized within the bar of the House the three statewide winners of the Voice of Democracy Contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars: Bill Lindberg from Olympia, first place winner; Mary Ann Herness from Yelm, second place winner; and Susan Tomchick from Tenino, third place winner, and appointed Representatives Lewis, Miles, Evans, Hood, May, and Herr to escort them to places of honor on the rostrum.

Representative Lewis introduced the contest winners and called on Mr. Lindberg to make his presentation to the House of Representatives, following which, on motion of Mr. Johnston, the House unanimously requested that the speech be included in the House journal.

WHAT FREEDOM MEANS TO ME

by
Bill Lindberg

I believe that foremost among transcendental values is the individual's use of his God-given free will, whence derives his right to be free from restrictions from arbitrary force.

These physical freedoms I hold supreme above all other values. The very first meaning of freedom is my right to my own view of life: my philosophy, my particular religion, degree of religion or lack of religion. Every time I read about something philosophical, discuss religion, or go to a church, I recall the millions of persons who have died fighting for even a small degree of religious freedom, and here we have it in near totality. I find myself in constant argument with atheism on one hand and extreme evangelists on the other and I know I'm right and their extremist position is wrong. But wait, if I were to enforce my ideas of religion, our society would be no better than that of pagan Rome or Russia. This principle, then, is the crux of the issue of freedom of thought—I can't enforce my ideas on any other individual but I can use all the persuasion possible to the limit of my personal powers to spread the influence of my ideas.

But I use a different type of freedom, too. I have freedom in politics. I have the right to assemble, the right to free speech and free press, and I will have the right to free elections and a personal secret ballot. I can stand on a soapbox and shout ideas contrary to the policies of our government. I can't vote yet, but I make a lot of noise about our government. I campaign and influence others' votes. I have argued with lawmakers and was not clapped into jail or shot for this difference of opinion. I publish my views in the press and am not persecuted; political freedom means a great part of liberty to me.

An important part of freedom is justice. When my rights are infringed upon, I have the right to the service of my government as a protector and referee. When a crime is committed against me, my government serves as my protector and a referee between the parties involved, and this allows me freedom. This power is not abused by my government because I have four basic rights to secure justice: the right of habeas corpus, no excessive bail, right to trial by jury, and the principle "innocent until proven guilty."

But freedom means something more basic to me than freedom of religion, politics, and justice. It means economic freedom. We recognize that the free enterprise system, allocating resources by the free play of supply and demand, is the single economic system compatible with the requirements of personal freedom, and that it is at the same time the most productive supplier of human needs. My freedom to compete in the system individually or working for another has many corollaries: I have freedom to own private property, something to call my own. I have freedom of movement; I can work in a calling or location of my own choice. I can bargain with my employees or my employer. I have gone into my own business, competed, and made a profit. I have the freedom to bargain for goods and services, and the freedom from arbitrary government regulation and control. All of these freedoms result from the right to earn my own bread.

But with all my freedoms, there is a dark cloud overhead. History shows periods of freedom are rare and can exist only when free citizens concertedly defend their rights. I use my political freedoms to express myself whenever my freedom from arbitrary government control, whenever my freedom to own private property, whenever my freedom of religion, whenever justice is infringed upon. Freedom bears responsibility; eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House recessed until 11:00 a. m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 11:00 a. m.

The Clerk called the roll. Representative Ackley, who was excused, was absent.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

House Bill No. 34, by Representatives Mast, Wedekind, and Kink:
Creating the interim fisheries committee.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House deferred further consideration of House Bill No. 34 on second reading, and the bill was ordered placed at the end of today's third reading calendar.

THIRD READING OF BILLS

Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4, by Representatives Moos, Garrett, Flanagan, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Haussler, Hawley, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Savage, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, and Witherbee:

Proposing constitutional amendment relating to apportionment and districting of legislative districts.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative O'Brien speaking against its passage.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Andersen:

"I do believe, in respect to all members present, that the Speaker should confine his remarks to the bill at hand."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken."

Further debate ensued, Representative O'Brien continuing his remarks.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Andersen:

"Mr. Speaker, my point of order is simply that it is not up to Mr. O'Brien to argue with me or for me to argue with Mr. O'Brien. I believe we should address our points of order to the Chair as I am addressing mine. Mr. O'Brien is not speaking about the measure that is before this body for consideration."

The Speaker:

"You may continue on the subject, Mr. O'Brien."

Further debate ensued, Representative O'Brien completing his remarks.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Will Mr. O'Brien yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. O'Brien, I have never been called a do-gooder. Since I was one of those in that picture, I wonder if you would come up to the Fortieth district and make that charge. I am sure it would be good for about five-thousand votes for me."

Mr. O'Brien:

"I will tell you this much about my position relative to legislators. I have, on many occasions, been invited to go into areas to criticize certain House members. I don't ask for invitations. I can assure you I have always been very reluctant to use such tactics. I don't think it is right, or that it behooves anyone to make personal attacks on a fellow member. I might fight you hard on an issue, go all the way down the line, but I am very reluctant to call you something that is going to injure your reputation and character, and I wouldn't go into your district and attack you personally."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Bozarth and Flanagan speaking in favor of passage of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Moos, when you brought this bill around to me and asked me to be one of the co-sponsors, I said I would. I assumed this was the same bill that was passed in the regular session. However, I understand some changes have been made in it. Could you elaborate on that, please?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes, Representative Witherbee. Actually the content is identical. We did this one thing, Representative Witherbee. After we talked to Mr. Ken Gilbert and several other people in determining how to interpret the procedure outlined in this bill, we found it was necessary to interchange subsections (a) and (d) on page 2. This permits better procedure for election officials to follow, and we believe it is correct in determining the number of representatives that would be offered to various parts of the state at this time. That is the only change in this particular bill. On page 3 there was a section that had to do with Senators and we brought that over to page 1 so all the senatorial considerations would be together. That was the other change. Then there was one word changed on the bottom of page 1. I think in the original bill it said something about 'in the following manner.' We changed this to 'with the following exceptions.' This bill says that the way the House of Representatives and Senate shall be apportioned will be according to population 'with the following exceptions.' The exceptions are that no more than two counties will ever be put together for a House member, and then there is the one-half of one percent provision. But the intent, Representative Witherbee, is identical. We just thought it improved the bill as far as procedure was concerned."

Further debate ensued, Representative Witherbee speaking against passage of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Gorton, in the regular session you passed slightly different versions of this House Joint Resolution No. 4 and House Bill No. 56 as a package. Is it your intention to bring both these bills up as a package and pass them as you did in the regular session?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Schaefer, this isn't a question to ask me. They are both on the calendar on third reading and I assume they both will be voted on. I don't intend to make any change in that. But I am not a member of the Rules Committee. I didn't put them on."

Mr. Schaefer:

"I wondered if this is your package as it was in the regular session."

Mr. Gorton:

"Do you mean am I in favor of them? I certainly am."

Further debate ensued, Representative Klein speaking against passage of the resolution.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 66; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—66.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Gorton, Grant, Henry, Herr, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—31.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Ackley, Rosenberg—2.

Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rosenberg.

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to change my vote. I would like to be recorded as voting 'no.'"

The Speaker:

"The votes have already been recorded, Mr. Rosenberg."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In attempting to change my vote on House Joint Resolution No. 4, the roll call switch on my desk failed to operate and my vote was not recorded. It should have been recorded as a "no" vote.

K. O. ROSENBERG,
2nd District.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 was ordered immediately transmitted to the Senate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, I notice in the status of House bills put out by the Washington research council that reference is made to House Joint Memorial No. 4, celebrating the emancipation of the Negroes, and Negro is spelled with a small 'n'. I can't imagine anyone talking about the celebration of the Irish with a small 'i'. I think this impugns one-tenth of the American population and I wish they would correct it. I wished to call it to the attention of the House."

Engrossed House Bill No. 56, by Representative McCaffree:

Providing for reapportionment and redistricting of the legislature.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 56 was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives McCaffree, Goldsworthy, Perry, Canfield, and Gorton speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Uhlman, McElroy, and Anderson (Eric O.) speaking against its passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Gorton submit to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Mundy:

"Thank you, Mr. Gorton. I have a serious question. Directing your attention to the Thirteenth legislative district, I observe that you have moved the line north in Grant county approximately six miles more than it was in the original bill passed in the regular session. Could you advise me the number of additional people that would be embraced in this additional area?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Mundy, you are correct that the line of the Thirteenth district in Grant county has been changed. There are about three thousand people involved in the change. When we drafted the original bill, it was obvious to us that the Grant and Kittitas county district was one which was heavily overpopulated and deserved increased representation and, therefore, because it seemed to be the most logical thing to do, we put the northern part of Grant county into a different district. I was informed by Mr. Flanagan that some of the communities which have been transferred to the other district, particularly Soap Lake and Wilson Creek, felt such a great community interest with the rest of Grant county that they would be better off with the rest of Grant county, even though it meant effectively reducing their representation, so I moved that back north to put those people back in with the rest of Grant county. That means the Thirteenth district as it exists is at the upward edge of permissible population and is more like a district of King or Snohomish county than like the rest of the districts in eastern Washington."

Mr. Huntley demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 56, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 41; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist Andersen (James A.), Berentson, Brachtenbach, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, Metcalf, Miles, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—57.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Haussler, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Klein, Litchman, May, McElroy, McFadden, Moon, Moos, Mundy, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—41.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Ackley—1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 56, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, Engrossed House Bill No. 56 was ordered immediately transmitted to the Senate.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Garrett:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Evans would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Garrett:

"Mr. Evans, I would like to have asked you this question before we voted on House Bill 56. However, I think you can probably give me a sufficient answer at this time. Now that it has been clearly indicated that neither of the caucuses are bound in any way in voting on redistricting, I wonder if you think in your own mind that it would be fair for the forty-two associates of Mr. Braun, to whom you referred in your speech in Wenatchee, if this bill should go to conference, to be represented on that conference committee?"

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Garrett, I think I might refer you to the joint rules of the two houses which relate to the make-up of a conference committee. Rule 5 states:

"The presiding officer of each house shall appoint on such conference committee three members, selecting them so as to represent, in each case, the attitude of the majority and minority upon the subject of the legislation referred to the conference committee.' It is not my decision to make. It is the decision of the presiding officer. I am sure he will be guided by what is proper and both sides will be represented on the issues. This is not a partisan issue. This is a question of how an individual believes on a particular issue as represented by the votes for and against the issue."

Mr. Garrett:

"Mr. Evans, would you yield to a further question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Certainly, if it will do any good."

Mr. Garrett:

"I ask you now to go along with me to prevail upon the presiding officer to see if he will make such an appointment at the proper time."

Mr. Evans:

"I am not sure the two of us put together could prevail on the presiding officer. He is bigger than both of us."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Moos will yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes, Representative Burtch."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Moos, are you really against this redistricting bill? I noticed that you voted against it."

Mr. Moos:

"You know, I tried to get the floor right after Representative McElroy made his remarks about Moos-mandering in connection with what happened in his district in Pend Oreille. I wanted to make known that what was good for the moose was good for the mander. You convinced me, Representative McElroy, and I just slid over with you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Odell:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Odell:

"I wish to concur with some remarks made by Representative O'Brien. I wished to wait until after these bills were finished. The other day I too was deeply shocked when I looked at a home town newspaper and there on the front page I found that the governor of the state before a meeting of school directors stated that anyone who didn't agree with his ideas on schools or the budget was Communist and was using Communist tactics and were lunatics. I too think that is a horrible way to do things."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I hold here a copy of a Walla Walla Union Bulletin article of March 21 which I thought extremely interesting. I had it copied and sent to you. I trust you will read it as representing some of the thinking in southeastern Washington and in non-Moosmandered Walla Walla."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Kink, the House recessed until 1:45 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. King yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. King?"

Mr. King:

"I will."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Does this make the interim committee even as to Republicans and Democrats?"

Mr. King:

"This makes it even so far as the political parties are concerned."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Witherbee, Canfield, Harris, and O'Brien speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Ackley demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Schaefer:

Those voting yea were: Representative Dootson—1.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—95.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized within the bar of the House thirteen princesses from the Daffodil Festival of the Puyallup valley with their queen mother and chaperones, and instructed the Representatives from Pierce County, assisted by the freshmen Representatives, to conduct the guests of honor to a position on the rostrum. Representative Brouillet introduced Queen Sharon Silvernail of the 1962 Daffodil Festival, who briefly addressed the House. The Queen Mother, Mrs. Ruby Templeman, introduced the 1963 Daffodil royalty and the chaperones, after which the Speaker instructed the special committee to escort the guests from the House chamber.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be House Bill No. 34 on second reading.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee amendments to page 3 were adopted.

House Bill No. 34 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 34 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. King yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. King, will you yield to question?"

Mr. King:

"Yes."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. King, I am rather curious about the fact that you have a bill of this kind, rather than a resolution as you have always had in the past, for this interim committee on fisheries. Was there a particular purpose in having a bill enacted into law?"

Mr. King:

"Not necessarily."

Debate ensued, Representative Mast speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 34, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 89; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 7.

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Campbell:

"The candy and cigars which are being passed out are the gift of two county commissioners from the Spokane area, Commissioner Umbreit and Commissioner Ball, in recognition of your fine support in taking the portion of highway in Spokane off the highway system and leaving it in the hands of north Spokane and the county commissioners. They wish to thank you and so do I. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask the permission of the Speaker that several members be excused to have their pictures taken in the Governor's office?"

The Speaker:

"They may be excused. Our business is completed."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. O'Brien, the House reverted to the eighth order of business for the purpose of introducing a resolution.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives O'Brien, Henry, and O'Donnell:

WHEREAS, Legislative interim committees, including the Legislative Council, have proved to be invaluable tools for the effective and educated study of important areas of state government and legislation affecting them, and;

WHEREAS, The number of interim committees is limited, thereby making only a limited number of appointments to committee membership possible; and

WHEREAS, There are 148 members of the Legislature, including 49 state senators and 99 members of the House of Representatives, many of whom would and could serve on such interim committees with distinction; and

WHEREAS, The membership on the limited number of interim committees created by the 38th session of the Washington State Legislature should be apportioned fairly among all of the members of the House to the greatest extent possible;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives does hereby direct and request that the Speaker adopt an appointment policy with regard to interim committees created by the Legislature that will assure the maximum utilization of the membership of this assembly; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Speaker be requested and directed to refrain from appointing any member of the House of Representatives to more than one interim committee, including membership on the Legislative Council.

Mr. O'Brien moved adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Perry moved that the resolution be laid on the table.

The motion to table the resolution was carried on a rising vote.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mrs. Henry:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am very happy at this time to see some of the words spoken in wisdom just a few minutes ago carried through so wonderfully on the floor of this House. You just voted down a very meritorius resolution."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Harris:

.... "Mr. Speaker, before I get into trouble, I would like to say a few words on personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Harris:

"A few days ago I was in the throes of a mild case of pneumonia. I want to thank you for your kind remembrances, the telephone calls, and get well cards. Mrs. Lynch, your tulips are still blooming; they have not yet dropped a petal. Mr. Folsom, I want to thank you for the very lovely plant you sent. I just want you folks to know we appreciate such things when we are under the weather.

"Now speaking to the point before us, and particularly to Mrs. Henry, I feel this way: I always trust a man until he indicates that his trust is not warranted. Since the Speaker made his promise that he would do such a thing, I saw no need to pass a resolution to confirm it, and until such time as he makes a statement and doesn't keep it, I am willing to accept him on his word."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Miss O'Donnell:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Miss O'Donnell:

"My point of information is that I wonder if the Speaker's promise was recorded in the journal."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield.

Mr. Canfield:

"I think maybe Mrs. Henry was making a statement which had some merit, but I think a resolution like this, Mrs. Henry, ought to be exposed a little bit to the public gaze and its implications ought to be considered. The way it came in was perhaps a little sudden. If we had a chance to look this over, perhaps a different appraisal could be made."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Canfield, then at some date in the future, could we perhaps take the resolution off the table?"

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

To the Honorable Olympia, Wash., March 25, 1963.
The Speaker of the House of Representatives,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the House of Representatives, a certified copy of Enrolled House Bill No. 89 (now identified as Chapter 77, Laws of 1963, Regular Session), passed by the House of Representatives and the State Senate at the Regular Session 1963, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,
VICTOR A. MEYERS,
Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 22, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to Section 9, Subsection (16) of House Bill 89 entitled:

"An Act providing for the registration of contractors; and prescribing penalties."

House Bill 89 provides for the registration of contractors doing business in the State of Washington. As originally introduced, the bill was a comprehensive act requiring that, with certain reasonable exceptions, all persons doing any work as a contractor must first be licensed by the Department of Licenses. Information supplied on the license application will be available for public inspection.

An amendment to the bill, however, exempted from the operation of the act, all contractors on highway projects who had prequalified as required by laws relating to highway construction contracts. By removing a substantial group of contractors from the operation of the act, much of the intended protection is lost.

While the present act provides minimum protection to the people of our state, by making available a centralized listing of all contractors meeting the standards indicated, prequalification for highway contracts serves only to provide information concerning bidders on highway projects and is not readily available to the general public. I find nothing inconsistent in requiring all contractors to be licensed, and in addition requiring that contractors on costly highway projects submit to further prequalification with the Highway Commission.

With the exception of the foregoing item, which is vetoed, the remainder of House Bill 89 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, House Bill No. 89, partially vetoed by the Governor, together with the Governor's veto message, was referred to the Committee on Rules and Order.

Very truly yours,

BURTON R. JOHNSON,

Legal Administrative Assistant.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am approving House Bill No. 53 changing the tax status of certain vending machine income in those cases where sales are made below 14 cents, in which case the seller cannot collect tax but must pay the state.

This bill passed both houses of the Legislature with a large majority, indicating they are convinced that a discount is justified on this type of merchandising.

Because of our urgent need for revenue to keep our budget balanced, I would have preferred to have the discount phased out over two bienniums rather than applied with full effect at this time. This procedure is being followed in Senate Bill No. 88, reducing insurance premium taxes on certain insurance trust accounts.

If the Legislature now in session should elect to do this before adjourning, I would approve such an amendment.

Respectfully submitted,
ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

Resolution by Representatives Henry and O'Donnell:

WHEREAS, We, the members of the House of Representatives, have had present with us as co-laborers during the Thirty-eighth Session and the First Extraordinary Session, not only the members of the Senate, but also representatives of the Press, Radio, and Television; and

WHEREAS, The visiting newspaper correspondents of the various public journals of the state and representatives of the various television channels and radio stations have, by their frequent courtesies, their close attention to business, and their careful account of the proceedings, worked, as we have striven to do, for the best interests of the people of the state of Washington, always with a kindly fellow feeling and with loyalty to the papers, the television channels, and radio stations they represent; and

WHEREAS, The Allied Daily Newspapers of Washington, during the said sessions, has supplied each representative with daily complimentary copies of two Washington dailies of the representative's choice;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend its thanks for these courtesies and good will, its praise for good work well done, and the hope that in the Thirty-ninth Legislature all may meet again and renew old friendships.

On motion of Mrs. Henry, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives Brouillet, Jolly, and Mahaffey:

WHEREAS, President Dwight D. Eisenhower in his state-of-the-Union message January 7, 1954, called for a White House Conference on Education; and

WHEREAS, This unprecedented citizen study of elementary and secondary school needs, involving more than a half million American people in local, county, regional and state conferences and two thousand participants in the White House Conference, held November 28-December 1, 1955, demonstrated a desire and capacity to meet the major problems facing American education; and

WHEREAS, The traditional decennial White House Conferences on Children and Youth having played an extraordinary role in mobilizing public and professional opinion for more effective work with children and youth, there is a parallel need for a continuing process for the solving of problems in and improvement of education; and

WHEREAS, During these intervening years since the first White House Conference on Education in 1955, the problems of education have been multiplying with our expanding technology, the impact of automation upon employment and the intensity of the cold war; and

WHEREAS, There is immediate need for focus on such problems as identification of potential high school dropouts and preventative programs, noncollege-bound and nonvocational youth, community colleges, the gifted, the handicapped, the impact of instructional technology such as instructional television and programmed learning, increased research for improvement in education, and the relation of education to the achievement of national goals; and

WHEREAS, Education is a priority concern in the minds of the public who recognize that the future of our Nation depends upon how well we provide an education for all children and youth;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That this body respectfully requests that the President of the United States consider the need for another White House Conference on Education and that he consider requesting that the Congress enact legislation providing for such a Conference on Education for 1965, the Decennial Anniversary of the first such conference; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this body respectfully request Congress to enact the necessary legislation for such a conference.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Honorable John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to each Senator and Representative from the State of Washington.

On motion of Mr. Brouillet, the resolution was adopted.

Be It Further Resolved, That the contemplated program shall cover all persons, other than those employed during a probationary period or in temporary employment, having tenure of employment under the state civil service law as provided in chapter 41.06 RCW. The proposed program shall be accompanied by an itemized cost sheet as to the state and each affected state department, agency or institution, costs and benefits to be determined on the basis of the benefit year beginning July 1, 1965;

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Clerk of this House send a copy of this Resolution to the Legislative Auditor of the Legislative Budget Committee.

Mr. Lewis moved adoption of the resolution.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Lewis a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"I was just wondering, Mr. Lewis, why the resolution assigns this to the budget committee rather than to the Council?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Well, Mr. Canfield, I have no objection to assigning it to the Council, if you so prefer. It was our feeling that the legislative budget committee is responsible to the legislature and they would provide the answer for us in the next session. I don't think it makes a great deal of difference."

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the following amendment was adopted:

Beginning on line 5, after "Legislative" strike "Budget Committee" and insert "Council"; and beginning on line 20, after "Legislative" strike "Auditor of the Legislative Budget Committee" and insert "Council"

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the resolution as amended.

Further debate ensued, Representative Witherbee speaking against adoption of the resolution.

The motion was carried on a rising vote, and the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representative Savage:

Be It Resolved, That House Rule 3 be amended as follows:

Strike all of subsection (f) and substitute the following:

"(f) The speaker shall appoint the ceremonial committees; conference committees; interim committee members and special committees, with the exception of special committees on patronage and seating. The speaker shall be chairman of the committee on rules and order."

And Be It Further Resolved, That House Rule 59 be amended as follows:

The present Rule 59 shall be designated subsection (c), and two new subsections, designated (a) and (b) shall be inserted, to read as follows:

"(a) The standing committees of the house shall be established by the respective caucuses of the two major political parties on the nearest possible ratio to the membership of the house. The exact ratio shall be worked out by the chief clerk, and the respective caucuses shall be notified as soon as possible after each general election, but not less than twenty days prior to the convening of the next regular legislative session, as to the number of members each caucus is entitled to elect to each standing committee of the house: Provided, That the majority party of the house shall have a majority of at least one member on all standing committees.

"Each party caucus shall, by secret ballot, elect a seven-man committee on committees to consult with house members and work out committee assignments for consideration by the caucus. It shall be the duty of each caucus to submit to the chief clerk as soon as possible, but not later than the opening day of the session, its complete list of members assigned to the house standing committees.

"The majority party caucus shall, with the exception of chairman of rules and order, select all standing committee chairman. Past service and experience shall be considered when selecting committee chairmen.

"(b) The respective party caucuses shall each elect three members to constitute their patronage committees. The majority party shall designate the proportion of patronage to be allowed the minority. Both party caucuses shall also name three members to constitute their seating committees."

Mr. Savage moved adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Witherbee demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

House Bill No. 9, by Representative Garrett (by executive request):

Creating the division of motor transport in the department of general administration.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 26, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred House Bill No. 9, creating the division of motor transport in the department of general administration, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, line 8, after "motor vehicles" strike ", trailers and motor vehicle equipment" and insert "and trailers"

On page 2, section 4, line 29, after "motor vehicles" strike ", trailers and motor vehicle equipment" and insert "and trailers"

ELMER C. HUNTLEY, Chairman,
ALFRED E. LELAND, Vice Chairman,
K. O. ROSENBERG, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: W. J. (Joe) Beierlein, Duane L. Berentson, Arnie Bergh, Horace W. Bozarth, Jack L. Burtch, Pat Comfort, Paul H. Conner, Robert G. Earley, Robert D. Eberle, Daniel J. Evans, Morrill F. Folsom, P. J. Gallagher, Avery Garrett, Mildred E. Henry, Charles E. Lind, W. L. "Bill" McCormick, Bob McDougall, Don Miles, Donald W. Moos, Roy Mundy, Jack H. Rogers, Robert M. Schaefer, Richard "Dick" Taylor, Arnold S. Wang, Max Wedekind.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Huntley, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Miles moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 25, after the period following "administration" insert "Any person presently employed with said automobile pool may, at his option, transfer from the jurisdiction of the highway department personnel board to the jurisdiction of the state personnel board, and upon such transfer shall be entitled to the same employment rights and benefits, including but not limited to back pay, sick leave, vacation, retirement and OASDI credits as he previously enjoyed under the jurisdiction of the highway department personnel board."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Miles yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Miles?"

Mr. Miles:

"Yes."

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Miles, I think I am in sympathy with your amendment, but are you absolutely sure in the draftmanship of this amendment you will accomplish your purpose without fouling up either one of the departments?"

Mr. Miles:

"In answer to your question, Mr. Rosenberg, I had drafted it a little differently myself. I took it to bill drafting to be sure that I wasn't imposing a burden or creating a problem. I have their assurance it is now in proper form."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. May:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Miles yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Miles:

"I will."

Mr. May:

"If these people transferred over and had longer seniority, they could conceivably bump people who had been in the other department for many, many years. Could they move over and take their rights from them, according to your amendment?"

Mr. Miles:

"That would be so if the department of general administration had such a function now. They have no people involved in this function at the present time so it couldn't happen. When these people are asked to transfer, the only question is whether, when they transfer to the department of general administration, they will take with them the same rights and privileges they have under the highway personnel board to the state personnel board. It is just an exchange of systems. There are no people in the department of general administration now doing this work."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, can I ask Representative Miles a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Representative Miles?"

Mr. Miles:

"I will."

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Miles, did you take this amendment up before the Highway Committee?"

Mr. Miles:

"I did. We were in a little rush and never got a chance to discuss it. They asked that I do it on the floor."

Mr. Johnston:

"It occurred to me it might be advisable to pass this bill over to the Senate and let the Senate put the amendment on there if, after considering it more carefully, it is advisable to do so. Would you object to that?"

Mr. Miles:

"I would object, because I have discussed this with Warren Bishop, the Governor's representative on this matter, and with Mr. Snyder, to whom he referred me, and they have no objection. If our people who are involved in this area are concerned, they have no objection to the amendment."

Debate ensued, Representative Johnston speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Smith speaking for its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Huntley:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Garrett would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Garrett, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Huntley:

"Mr. Garrett, this is your bill by executive request. Have you discussed this particular phase of it with the Governor or Mr. Bishop?"

Mr. Garrett:

"I was not aware of the exact nature, Mr. Huntley, of this amendment. At least Mr. Miles didn't contact me, and neither Mr. Bishop nor anyone from the Governor's office has discussed this particular problem with me. I am not aware that they want the amendment or whether they think it is necessary. They haven't made their wishes known to me."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Huntley and Garrett speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Miles speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.) demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 6, line 24, strike all of subsection (2) and renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representative Hurley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Schaefer speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Schaefer yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Schaefer?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"Certainly, Dr. Adams."

Mr. Adams:

"Since you are an attorney, I would like to ask you whether, if this section is not taken out, it doesn't put the state in a rather embarrassing position from the standpoint of liability in the event these people are driving this car on their own personal business and have an accident. Doesn't that place the state in the position where they would then have the authority to be on that mission and the state would carry that liability?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"I think that is correct."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Adams and Hurley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives O'Brien, Garrett, Schaefer, Wedekind, Johnston, Comfort, and Miles speaking against its adoption.

Mr. Beck demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

House Bill No. 9 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 9 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Garrett, Leland, and Huntley speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 9, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—97.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Clark, Smith—2.

Engrossed House Bill No. 9, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

House Bill No. 15, by Representatives Canfield, Evans, and Hadley:
Authorizing general obligation bonds for school construction.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 22, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred House Bill No. 15, authorizing general obligation bonds for school construction, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 1, beginning on line 9, after "may provide." strike the remainder of the section.

On page 3, section 6, beginning on line 21, after "Sec. 6." strike all of the matter down to and including "be allotted" on line 28 and insert the following: "For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act funds appropriated to the state board of education from the public school building construction account of the general fund shall be allotted by the state board of education in accordance with the provisions of sections 7 through 15, chapter 3, Laws of 1961, extraordinary session: Provided, That no allotment shall be made"

On line 6 of the title, strike "making an appropriation;"

Committee on Ways and Means,

We concur in this report: Norman B. Ackley, H. Maurice Ahlquist, Henry Backstrom, Frank Buster Brouillet, Keith H. Campbell, William "Bill" Chatalas, Arlie U. DeJarnatt, S. E. (Sid) Flanagan, Gary Grant, H. D. "Herb" Hadley, Joe D. Haussler, Debate ensued, Representatives Dootson and Morphis speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mrs. Henry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Canfield, Grant, and Leland speaking against adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative Evans would yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Representative Evans, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Evans, as one of the sponsors of this measure, could you tell us, if Mr. Dootson's amendment was not adopted and this bill passed unamended, what the total bonded indebtedness would be for the state and, secondly, would this place us ahead per capita of New York which is No. 1 in the country?"

Mr. Evans:

"Obviously, I don't have the figures in front of me. If you give me a few minutes, I think I could find out the total bonded indebtedness; I have the figures in a book here. I don't know how the state of New York ranks, however."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman and King speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Miles speaking in favor of its adoption.

Mr. Smith demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Dootson to House Bill No. 15. The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 72; absent or not voting 3.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 15 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Canfield and O'Brien speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Lind:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to get an informal opinion from one of the attorneys in the House as to whether, in their judgment, the court will find this legal. In other words, are we in fact going to have these funds available or not? Perhaps, Mr. Dootson, you can answer that."

Mr. Dootson:

"Thank you very kindly, Mr. Lind. I will try to give you the best opinion I have, which is only my opinion as to what the court will hold. It is very problematical, as you know. The Constitution provides that we can go into debt without a vote of the people to the extent of four hundred thousand dollars. We held to that for a long time until the soldiers wanted their bonus. At that time the court, by a five to four decision, held that where a specific source is pledged, you are not contracting away the total tax resources of the state. Now last December in State Toll Bridge Authority v. Yelle, the court held by a split decision that where the gas tax was pledged, it could be upheld, but it was a doubtful decision and there was a reference in the majority opinion as to the doubtfulness of the earlier case. Bond holders will not buy these bonds, because they do not know yet whether the supreme court will hold that they are valid. In addition to this fifty-nine million dollars, there is another twenty-five million dollars which is in doubt, and the decision will not be out on that until after we have adjourned sine die, although there will probably be a declaratory judgment on this sometime in the spring. We do not know, and I do not think there is any lawyer who would venture to guess one way or the other. You would have to go to a gambler or a speculator for that."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Morphis and Metcalf speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Mundy demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 15, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 88; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Huntley, Johnston, Jolly, Jueling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Pritchard, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—88.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Earley, Eberle, Goldsworthy, Hurley, Miles, Odell, Reese, Siler—8.

Mr. Brouillet:

"My point of order is that Mr. Savage's amendment struck this section. Would not the House by its previous action have already decided this issue?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Uhlman demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was not sustained.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 27, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Substitute Senate Bill No. 8; also Engrossed Senate Bill No. 9, and the same are herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Olympia, Wash., March 28, 1963.

To the Honorable, The Speaker of the House of Representatives,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the House of Representatives, the following bills passed by the House of Representatives and the State Senate at the Regular Legislative Session of 1963, and vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto:

They are Enrolled House Bills Nos. 34, 114, and 590.

Respectfully,

VICTOR A. MEYERS, Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 34 entitled:

"An Act relating to the preservation of essential public documents of the political subdivisions of the state of Washington; and imposing a fee on the filing of certain documents."

The purpose of this bill is most laudatory. It provides that all elected and appointed officials of the various political subdivisions and municipal corporations of the state shall designate public documents as essential to be reproduced, stored and safeguarded.

Unfortunately, this bill was so poorly drafted that numerous elected county officials have protested its enactment. These officials point out that in the larger counties, such documents are already being microfilmed and copies of the microfilm are being deposited in a safe place. To make the bill applicable to them would cause unnecessary work and a useless expenditure of funds.

The bill also permits political subdivisions and municipal corporations at their discretion to determine which documents are to be microfilmed. This provision will result in chaos and confusion because different officials may determine that different documents should be microfilmed. Therefore, there might be a complete lack of uniformity.

The bill also provides that the county auditor and clerk shall charge an additional fee of ten cents as a preservation of document fee, in addition to their usual fees. This amount is insufficient to take care of the cost of the project and will disturb the filing fee schedules at great additional administrative expense.

I recommend that during the coming two years, the Association of County Commissioners, the Association of County Elective Officials, the Association of Washington Cities and the Department of Civil Defense get together and work out a measure, determining which documents are essential and which should be reproduced, as well as an adequate fee schedule to accomplish the microfilming.

For the reasons indicated, I reluctantly veto House Bill No. 34.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 114 entitled:

"An Act relating to midwifery; and repealing Sections 1 through 12, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 and RCW 18.50.010 through 18.50.130 and 18.50.900."

This bill attempted to repeal Chapter 18.50, Revised Code of Washington, which establishes procedures for licensing midwives. It did not prohibit the practice of midwifery, but only repealed all provisions relating to licenses. While the first portion of the bill repealed all of Chapter 18.50 RCW, a proviso added that any person now licensed could continue to practice, and the department of licenses would retain powers and duties under the original act. If an act is repealed, it is a contradiction to say that powers under the same are retained.

For the foregoing reason, House Bill No. 114 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the legislature, without my approval, House Bill No. 590 entitled:

"An Act relating to the collection and disposition of hotel inspection fees; and amending section 2, chapter 105, Laws of 1953, and RCW 43.22.110."

This bill amended the law relating to the disposition of hotel inspection fees. It provided that such fees shall be paid into the accident fund created by RCW 51.44 rather than the state treasury. By so doing, revenue otherwise available for the general support of government would be unnecessarily diverted to a special treasury fund.

For this reason, House Bill No. 590 is vetoed.

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Olympia, Wash., March 28, 1963.

*To the Honorable, The Speaker of the House of Representatives,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.*

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the House of Representatives, the following bills passed by the House of Representatives and the State Senate at the Regular Legislative Session of 1963, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

They are Enrolled House Bills Nos. 33, 35, 109, and 303.

Respectfully,

VICTOR A. MEYERS, Secretary of State.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to Section 3, House Bill No. 33 entitled:

"An Act relating to the preservation of essential public documents of the state of Washington; and imposing a fee upon the filing of certain documents with the secretary of state."

House Bill No. 33 requires elected and appointed state officers to designate those public documents which are essential records and requires these officials to transmit such documents to the State Archivist for reproduction by microfilm or other miniature photographic process.

Section 3 requires the Secretary of State to collect in advance an additional fee of ten cents on all documents for which a filing fee is required in his office. The Secretary of State has pointed out to me that the requirement of the payment of the additional fee will create widespread confusion and force the return of thousands of filings at great inconvenience and expense. I believe the point of view of the Secretary of State is well taken and for this reason, Section 3 of House Bill No. 33 is vetoed and the remainder is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item of section 3, House Bill No. 35 entitled:

"An Act relating to the militia and enacting a uniform code of military justice; amending sections 12, 82, 81, 84, 52 and 94, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.04.010, 38.32.010, 38.32.020, 38.32.070, 38.32.120, and 38.32.130; repealing sections 83, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 63, 64, 85, 67, 68, 79, 88, 94, 65, 66, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76 and 77, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 and RCW 38.04.050, 38.28.010, 38.28.020, 38.28.030, 38.28.040, 38.28.050, 38.28.060, 38.28.070, 38.28.080, 38.32.040, 38.32.050, 38.32.060, 38.32.110, 38.32.130, 38.36.010, 38.36.020, 38.36.030, 38.36.040, 38.36.050, 38.36.060, 38.36.070, 38.36.080, 38.36.090, 38.36.100 and 38.36.110; repealing section 62, chapter 130, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1953 and RCW 38.32.150; providing penalties; and making an effective date."

This bill enacts a uniform code of military justice for the Washington State National Guard. The provisions of this bill were prepared for the most part by the Judge Advocate section of the Department of Defense, and the provisions contained in this bill have been cleared by the Uniform Law Commissioners.

Section 3, subsection (1), contains a provision whereby a person who has been discharged from the state military forces and has been returned to civilian status would be subjected to trial by court martial, if he be subsequently charged under this code with having obtained his original discharge fraudulently. Such person, furthermore, upon conviction on the charge of having obtained his discharge fraudulently, would be liable to be subjected to trial by court martial for all offenses committed previous to his fraudulent discharge.

It is my considered judgment that once having been returned to civilian status, a man should be entitled to be tried for any offenses he may have committed by civilian courts. For this reason, I have vetoed the foregoing item. The remainder of House Bill No. 35 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature without my approval as to a certain item in Section 2, House Bill No. 109 entitled:

"An Act relating to highways; and amending section 47.16.060, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.16.060; and adding a new section to chapter 13, Laws of 1961 and chapter 47.56 RCW."

Section 2 of this bill provides that the Washington Toll Bridge Authority and the Washington State Highway Commission jointly may permit public sport fishing from the Hood Canal bridge. While I agree that it is most desirable to use every available facility for recreational purposes if possible, I doubt that the decision to authorize fishing is of sufficient magnitude to require the permission of two distinct administrative units. This requirement violates sound administrative practices, and reduces governmental efficiency.

For the foregoing reasons, an item in Section 2 requiring permission from the Highway Commission is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 26, 1963.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one item, House Bill No. 303 entitled:

"An Act relating to physical education; and amending section 5, chapter 89, Laws of 1919, section 2, chapter 89, Laws of 1919, as amended by section 1, chapter 78, Laws of 1923 and RCW 28.05.040."

This bill makes mandatory at all high schools of the state and all institutions of higher learning, including community colleges, physical education for a minimum of ninety minutes during each school week. I am in full accord with the requirement that all of our youngsters should benefit from an adequate physical education program, such as is demanded by this bill.

Originally, the bill contained the following item: "Provided Further, That individual high school students shall be excused therefrom upon the written request of parents or guardians." This item was stricken by the Legislature. While I strongly believe that high school students should receive adequate physical education, I am equally convinced that parents of students are in a better position than the school authorities to determine whether good reasons exist why their children should be excused from such a program.

For this reason the item quoted is vetoed, thereby restoring the language quoted in the preceding paragraph, and the remainder of House Bill No. 303 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, House Bills Nos. 34, 114, 590, 33, 35, 109, and 303, together with the Governor's vetoes and partial vetoes thereof, were referred to the Committee on Rules and Order.

WHEREAS, There has been in the past and is an increasing attempt by certain organizations and individuals to use the college campuses, whether public or private, in this state, to expound the cause of the International Communist Movement; and

WHEREAS, Attempts at the University of Washington to present as speakers such admitted members of the Communist Party as Gus Hall and Benjamin Davis, have been effectively stymied by an informed and responsible administration; and

WHEREAS, President Odegaard and the University's board of regents have expounded with clarity those principles which should not be deviated from in allowing the privilege of a public platform on a college campus, stating denial should be forthcoming to "organizations and individuals not conforming to Washington state and federal laws and regulations concerning political parties" and to "those representatives of, or spokesman for, the Communist Party"; and

WHEREAS, The University of Washington clearly recognizes a right and duty in an institutional sense to make a judgment concerning the use of its platforms by speakers, not to permit itself to be bullied and pressured into standing for partisan opinions of a majority or a minority or for indiscriminate sponsorship of everything, but rather, to provide as a fundamental requirement before participation a respect of the speaker for the academic virtues of responsibility and judgment, of analytical discrimination, and of respect for evidence in the search for truth;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this House of Representatives commend President Odegaard and the University of Washington's board of regents, together with the president and board of regents of those other institutions of higher learning throughout the state, whether public or private, who have accepted their administrative responsibility and refused to allow avowed members of the Communist Party to use their facilities as a public forum thus maintaining that stature essential to an institution symbolizing a search for truth through analytical investigation;

And Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution suitably scrolled be transmitted by the Clerk of this House to President Odegaard and the University of Washington Board of Regents and to all public and private institutions of higher learning throughout the state.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Clark:

"On your desks you will find an envelope from me which contains proposals for some prelegislative activity which might help improve our sixty-day procedure. It is not intended as a definite program, but as something that might be given some thought along this line. I would appreciate it if each one of you would look it over, and maybe some of the suggestions could help in our short session. Particularly, I think our Ways and Means Committee should meet in advance of the opening of the legislature. I talked with Mr. Bishop about it, and he says he could have the budget ready two weeks ahead if he knows six months in advance so he can plan. The Ways and Means Committee does not have time to become familiar with the budget, nor do the subcommittees have time to familiarize themselves with their various activities. I think something along this line could be done without a constitutional amendment."

"I will try."

Mr. Canfield:

"Since there is no appropriation for this but expenses are called for, what is your estimate as to the cost of this committee?"

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Canfield, we have discussed this. We feel we are going to ask for somewhere in the neighborhood of fifty thousand dollars in the supplemental budget. Of course, as you know, the all-powerful Ways and Means committees of both houses will have to take a look at this."

Further debate ensued, Representatives May and Campbell speaking against passage of the resolution, and Representatives Mundy, Copeland, and Adams speaking for its passage.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Senate Chamber,
 Olympia, Wash., March 30, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Engrossed House Bill No. 56 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause on line 8 of the bill and insert the following:

"PART I

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. We, the legislature, responding to the mandate of Article II, section 3 of the Constitution directing us to redistrict and to reapportion legislative districts subsequent to each census, have conducted a thorough investigation of all relevant factors essential to the preparation of appropriate revisions which are set forth in sections 2 through 191 of this act.

"We have consulted the 1960 federal census reports, examined the registration and voting records available at both state and local levels, considered the geographic, economic and sociological factors essential to the preservation of reasonable geographic and socio-economic groupings, consulted the authoritative sources for the most reliable estimates concerning population growth patterns and trends within the state as well as evaluating the published statistics reciting population growth patterns and trends already established as a matter of fact, reviewed the existing political boundaries, both those possible of being subject to change by legislative action and those beyond legislative control, and conducted special population counts from time to time to determine better and to evaluate formulas necessary to prepare a proper redistricting and reapportionment measure. Based upon our investigation and studies, we, the legislature, have determined that legislative redistricting and reapportionment, as set forth in this act, represents an allocation of legislators within the districts established so as to provide as near equality of representation to the inhabitants of the state of Washington as is possible under the circumstances, as required by the state and federal Constitutions.

"We, the legislature, in determining the actual district boundaries and the allocation of legislators to each, have resorted to factors and formulas found to be most reliable for each of the districts concerned, and the formulas and factors used for any specific area were applied only after careful confirmation of their validity by testing against the findings of facts resulting from our investigation.

"Now that the House has decided on Mr. O'Brien's motion in the negative, has the House now determined that we do not concur in the Senate amendments?"

The Speaker:

"That is correct."

Mr. Copeland:

"Would it be necessary to place another motion to ask the Senate to recede therefrom?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton's motion, which was placed before Mr. O'Brien's motion, is now before the House. We will now act on Mr. Gorton's motion."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The word 'agency' used herein shall mean and include every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

"The phrase 'agencies headed by elective officials' used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above named elected officials serve.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the budget director, with the approval of the governor, may:

"(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated, or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment; Provided, That the budget director shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials; University of Washington; Washington State University; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington State College; Western Washington State College; Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative interim committee; or the judicial branch of state government: Provided, however, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959 shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

"(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

"(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

"(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1963, for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies or services for delivery after July 1, 1963: Provided, That no expenditures may be made from these appropriations until after July 1, 1963.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any receipts from federal or other sources or from gifts or grants in excess of those estimated in the budget may be received and allotted by the governor but in the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source the appropriation shall be limited to the amount actually received and allotments made as provided in section 3. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or the legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using appropriated funds.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the budget director may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution and bond retirement and interest, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the budget director which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the Governor's budget, maximum inter-agency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The regents, trustees or board of directors of any of the state educational institutions or school districts are authorized to use funds appropriated by this act to provide and pay for tax deferred annuities for their respective employees in lieu of a portion of salary or wages as authorized under the provisions of 26 U.S.C. section 403(b) as amended by Public Law 87-370, 75 Stat. 796, as now or hereafter amended.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10 This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Strike all of the title and insert the following:

"An Act adopting the budget and making appropriations for the operation of state agencies for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1963, and ending June 30, 1965 and declaring an emergency.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. King moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

Debate ensued, Representatives King, Brouillet, and Canfield speaking in favor of the motion.

Mr. Perry demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Sawyer speaking for the motion, and Representative O'Brien speaking against the motion.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Representative O'Brien would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"Yes."

Mr. Andersen:

"Representative O'Brien, you gave your usually astute and impassioned plea telling what a fine job the Senate has done in working on this budget. You didn't, however, say how you were going to vote. I wonder if you might answer my question as to whether you are going to vote for the Senate budget which whacked eleven million dollars out of schools?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"All I can tell you is that I am going to vote against Mr. King's motion."

Mr. Conner appeared at the bar of the House.

Further debate ensued, Representative Lewis speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Schaefer speaking against it.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Speaker, I haven't seen a tax bill that any of these people propose, and I wonder if I could ask Mr. Sawyer to enumerate their tax program?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Sawyer?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker. I will yield."

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Sawyer, do you have a tax program and what is it?"

Mr. Sawyer:

"Thank you very much for this fine opportunity, Mr. Pritchard. You sat across the aisle from Representative Brouillet when he fully explained the tax package which was prepared and worked out. Further, Dr. Adams felt we were kidding and waving a blank piece of paper and he came over and read it too. As far as a tax package is concerned, I think it is silly to contemplate that after you folks voted down every one of our amendments which we thought would do the job you were claiming should be done. If you people would take the responsibility of going forward and putting into this budget what should be put in to keep this state moving ahead, you will find lots of support over here to find the necessary revenue if we must have it. In the past we have taken the responsibility of providing revenue for those things we proposed. We didn't bring in a little closed end budget and run our ratable reductions."

Further debate ensued, Representative Morphis speaking in favor of the motion.

Mr. Kink demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 17; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Sawyer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Uhlman, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—81.

Providing procedure for determining which voters have cast ballots at any primary or election.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 29, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 46, providing procedure for determining which voters have cast ballots at any primary or election, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

In section 1, line 6, after "at any" and before "election," strike "primary or" and insert "general"

SLADE GORTON, Chairman,

MARY ELLEN MCCAFFREE, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Damon R. Canfield, Thomas L. Copeland, Daniel J. Evans, Avery Garrett, Elmer C. Huntley, Mrs. Joseph E. Hurley, Chet King, Bob McDougall, Jack Metcalf, Donald W. Moos, W. J. O'Connell, Joel M. Pritchard, Arnold S. Wang.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Would Representative Gorton yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Gorton, I notice that a proviso on line 9 states that such lists shall be furnished by the major political parties concerned. In your opinion, would this affect in any manner the practice of some of the individual party organizations in requesting the precinct committeeman to copy the names while they are watching at the polls?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, it would do exactly that. It was designed to do that by the sponsors and by the county auditors. The reason is this: The county auditor says these people working in the polling places are my officials, working for me, and they are not supposed to be spending their time on extraneous matters. What they want them to do, and in King county what they permitted them to do in the last election, is to prepare a list in advance of all the registered voters and simply check them off as each one went in. Then the precinct committeeman or someone working for the precinct committeeman could pick up the list later on."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Gorton yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to another question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Gorton, this is somewhat off the subject, but taking this amendment and the second amendment, striking line 12 and the balance of this section, which says: 'This shall be the exclusive procedure for such determination and no other person or organization shall be allowed to engage in such activity,' what is the necessity for this piece of legislation? I don't necessarily agree with that short paragraph, but what is its purpose if by inference and legislative intent we allow the county auditor to set up some other procedure?"

Mr. Gorton:

"That is a very good question, Mr. Witherbee. I think the necessity for it is just that many county auditors in many elections have said there is no provision for letting anyone do this and so they have allowed no one either to supply the election officer with these check lists or to pick them up. That is what happened last year in King county. What this does do in the general election is to give the party the right to do it, and it leaves up to the judge or county auditor how he wants to handle any other requests to do this or requests in primary elections."

The motion was carried, and the committee amendment to section 1, line 6 was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the committee amendment to section 1, beginning on line 12, was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Gorton, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 46 as amended by the House was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Mundy demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Gorton, would the words 'promised by him or anyone for him,' mean that if somebody promised to make a contribution to me and then didn't make it, I would still have to list it?"

Mr. Gorton:

"No, Mr. Ackley. This particular section deals with your expenditures. If somebody has promised to pay for your printing, you are going to have to report the cost of the printing. This is language parallel to the present act, which requires you to report only expenditures. If somebody promises to make payment to you for printing and you get the printing, this is a thing of value that you have had in your campaign. This does not have anything to do with reporting contributions, this particular section."

The Speaker called on Mr. Copeland to preside.

The motion was lost, and the amendment by Mr. Witherbee was not adopted.

Mr. Ackley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 24, before "dollars" strike "twenty-five" and insert "one hundred"

On page 2, strike all of section 2 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption. The Speaker resumed the Chair.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Gorton, under this section of the act, supposing Mr. X gave me $100.00 as a contribution to my campaign and I reported it, but he failed to report it, and then someone came into court and challenged my eligibility to hold office. Even if it weren't proved but were just held over so I was unable to run for the general election, wouldn't this be a real hardship on a candidate?"

Mr. Gorton:

"It certainly would, but it wouldn't come about under the purview of this act. The act only causes you to lose the nomination or election if you violated the act. If you reported Mr. X's contribution, you met the provisions. If Mr. X failed to report, he would commit a misdemeanor and be subject to a penalty. It would not affect your nomination and election in any way."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Gorton a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Gorton?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Gorton, if the executive secretary of the Committee on Good Government made a report, would the names of the members of the committee also be listed, or are you only going to list the one man's name?"

Mr. Gorton:

"He would have to list in the report everyone who had given that committee $100.00 or more."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Gorton speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Gorton yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Gorton, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Burtch:

"Does this section require that the person, or partnership, or so forth, who contributes the money, name the one to whom they contribute the money? I am not sure in reading it that it does."

Mr. Gorton:

"I would think that it probably did, but this is less important since the individual has already been required to report that in the source of his contributions."

Mr. Burtch:

"What if a corporation falsely reported these contributions? What penalty other than a fine would be imposed?"

Mr. Gorton:

"Well, the penalty provision is section 4. In the case of the jail sentence, I suppose it would apply to the person who filed the report on behalf of the corporation."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., April 2, 1963.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate insists upon its position regarding its amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 56 and asks the House for a conference thereon, and the said bill together with the Senate amendments thereto is herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

MOTIONS

Mr. Copeland moved that the House grant the request of the Senate for a conference on Engrossed House Bill No. 56.

Mr. O'Brien moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 56.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. O'Brien's motion is not in order. The Senate requested a conference. Our only prerogative here is to grant a conference."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, your motion is out of order. Reed's 245 states: 'A bill passed by one House is amended by the other and returned. The originating House disagrees to the amendment, and notifies the amending House by a message, returning the papers. Thereupon the amending body either recedes and concurs or insists and asks for a conference. The conference may report agreement with amendments, but may not change any item already agreed to by both Houses.' Your motion is clearly out of order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, if I may I would like to refer you to Reed's section 252. 'If, however, the originating House in the case above described desires to continue its rejection of the amendments, a motion to insist is the proper motion.'"

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, we are the originating House."

Mr. O'Brien:

"The originating House is the Senate on these amendments. They left the question open. 'The motion to insist may be coupled with a motion to ask for a conference, and always leaves open the question of future action between the two bodies.' They just moved to insist on their amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 56 and asked for a conference. We should have the right now to open the question again as to whether or not the House would desire to concur in the amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 56. The House should have one more opportunity to concur in the amendments to the bill. That is all we are asking."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I believe you are misinterpreting Rule 252, Mr. O'Brien. It is obvious we are at a stage where we are trying to get this bill into conference. The purpose will be accomplished by Mr. Copeland's motion. Mr. Copeland's motion is in order and is before this body."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"Reed's 247 sets forth motions relating to disagreement between the two houses. It shows priority of motions. My motion to concur would have priority."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"It wouldn't have any priority. It is totally out of order."

The motion to grant the request of the Senate for a conference on Engrossed House Bill No. 56 was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 56, Representatives Rosenberg, Gorton, and Perry.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. O'Brien:

"I question whether or not we can consider House Bill No. 74 at all. It appears it was presented to us in violation of Rule 73, which requires as follows: 'Any member desiring to introduce a bill, memorial or resolution, except resolutions having to do with business of the house, shall file the same with the chief clerk not later than 6:00 p.m. on the evening before the next convening session; and which bill, memorial or resolution shall be numbered and read on the next convening day, in the order filed; . . . ' I state, Mr. Speaker, that House Bill No. 74 was not filed in accordance with Rule 73. If this rule had been followed, this bill would have been filed today before 6:00 p.m. for consideration tomorrow on first reading of bills. Today you just read it in the first time and the rules were then suspended and it was advanced to second reading. I hold this is a complete violation of Rule 73."

"Inasmuch as the rules mean nothing to the dictatorial Speaker, I am going home."

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. King yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. King, will you yield to question?"

Mr. King:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. King, in what way are these people disenfranchised any more than the owner of any other annuity?"

"Since you held that the bill could not have been read in until tomorrow—"

The Speaker:

"That wasn't the ruling. The rule is that it has to be read on two consecutive days. It has been read once, and the rules were suspended and it was advanced to second reading where it will be read tomorrow."

Mr. Smith:

"I think the objection was that it could not have been read in on first reading since it didn't come in before 6:00 o'clock yesterday."

"(6) Should the legislature fail to act as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section within ninety days after the convening of the first regular legislative session after the complete and final census results are available, the chief justice of the supreme court, the chairmen of the state committee of each of the two major state political parties and one senator and one representative from each of the two major state political parties selected by their respective state central committee shall automatically become a districting and apportionment commission, with the chief justice as the chairman. Five members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

"(7) Prior to the first of the year following any session in which the legislature fails to act under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall complete and file with the secretary of state a full reapportionment and redistricting of the legislative districts in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, signed by not less than five members of the commission, which shall then have such force and effect as if an act of the legislature.

"(8) Legislative reapportionment and redistricting may be done by legislative action, by the initiative to the people or by the commission as in this section provided for, but not by initiative to the legislature. Action by the legislature or by the commission shall be subject to referendum.

"(9) The state supreme court shall have original jurisdiction (to be exercised on application of any citizen and taxpayer) to compel (by mandamus or otherwise) the commission to perform their duties, and to determine the validity of any legislative reapportionment and redistricting accomplished either by the legislature or by the commission.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Schaefer.

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, could the House recess for a short period of time to try to work this out?"

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

MOTION

Miss O'Donnell moved that the members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 56 be excused from the call of the House.

Debate ensued, Representative O'Donnell speaking in favor of the motion, and Representative Gorton speaking against the motion.

The motion was lost.

On page 1, beginning on line 13 of the mimeographed amendment, after "composed of" and before "one hundred" on line 14, strike "not more than"

Mr. Smith demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representatives Olsen, Witherbee, and Smith speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, if we had one hundred four members and there were fifty-two votes on each side for Speaker, how would the Speaker be elected?"

The Speaker:

"There would probably have to be a coalition Speaker."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"I wonder, Mr. Moos, how you would take care of that situation? May I ask that question, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. You were asking how you would organize the House under such a circumstance? The Senate had to deal with that problem for many years when they had forty-six members. I don't think it is a particularly good situation, but I don't think it is something that is bad either."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Do you have any objection to having it set at one hundred seven?"

Mr. Moos:

"Personally I would rather have it permissive, but that would be entirely up to the will of the body. I am not bleeding one way or the other."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Under population forecasts, where would the next three representatives go if we had one hundred seven representatives?"

Mr. Moos:

"That is rather difficult to say. I think that King county would get the next one. The other three counties which would be on the priority list would be Benton-Franklin, Clark, and Pierce counties, but if we move on the floor to set it at one hundred seven members, I think we should take some time to refigure our calculations."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Moos yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Certainly."

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Moos, I was quite impressed with the Grange proposal which they were circulating just before and after the election. That had one representative for each county. As I look hurriedly down this, I can see eighteen different counties are joined. There will be nine districts with two counties to a district. Why couldn't we adopt the Grange plan, which had one hundred seven members, with one county having one representative, to assure the cow counties more representation in the future?"

Mr. Moos:

"I certainly would like to support that. One reason is that I wrote it. Secondly, I believe in it, and thirdly, I campaigned on it. But I found that what is right and correct is sometimes not as easy to pass as you might want. This is the problem, Mrs. Henry. When you work out a formula for thirty-nine counties, you do it this way: You apportion to each county one House member. That takes thirty-nine. You subtract thirty-nine from one hundred seven, and that gives you a factor which you divide into the population and you find out some amazing things. You find out Representative Goldsworthy or Representative Huntley will not be back. You find out Representative Ahlquist or Representative Copeland will not be back. Representative Braun or Representative McDougall will not be back. You can go all the way through many of these counties that now have two and run into the same road block. Right now it is a religion not to have anyone out of the legislature on reapportionment. That is because the factor is too large to allocate the second representative to those counties. But the real reason you can't do it is the fact that the federal courts have said that you cannot have a disparity between the districts of more than two to one. Now, in the case of Representative Lybecker, Garfield county in which he lives has two thousand nine hundred people, and there are two million nine hundred thousand people in the state, so the ratio right there would be ten to one. So those are the basic reasons. Philosophically, I believe the Grange plan is the best one, but you know I haven't had any trouble from the people from the cow counties over there even though we have combined them. It is strange. I have my trouble with the drugstore cowboys, who are gaining under this program and gaining rapidly."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of Mr. Olsen's amendment to the amendment by Mr. Moos to House Joint Resolution No. 7.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted against the amendment by Mrs. Henry to the amendment to House Joint Resolution No. 7 because, like the Grange plan, this would eliminate one of Chelan County's representatives in the House.

BOB McDOUGALL,
12th District.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Moos to House Joint Resolution No. 7.

Debate ensued, Representative Beck, speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Moos speaking for its adoption.

Providing for a joint interim committee on governmental cooperation. The resolution was read the second time in full.

Mr. Harris moved adoption of the following amendment:

Beginning on page 1, line 1, strike the remainder of the resolution and insert the following:

"Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring, of the State of Washington in Legislative Session Assembled:

"WHEREAS, There exists in the State at the present time areas of interrelated action as between the state, counties and cities which should lend themselves to greater cooperative effort; and

"Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That there is hereby created the Joint Committee on Governmental Cooperation of the Legislature of the State of Washington, hereinafter referred to as 'the committee', which shall meet, act, and conduct its business at any place during the interim period prior to the 1965 session of the Legislature; and for confirmation. Upon confirmation the Representatives shall be deemed installed as members; and

"Be It Further Resolved, That not more than two members confirmed by the Senate, and not more than two members confirmed by the House of Representatives shall be affiliated with any one political party; and

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Harris yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Harris?"

Mr. Harris:

"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Mr. Harris, how would the amendment differ from the original concurrent resolution that was introduced?"

Mr. Harris:

"It doesn't differ a great deal. I have been checking it over here. I notice here they talk about public assistance and nonsupport by errant fathers. We have already studied this. I don't know whether Mr. Litchman, when he drew this bill, meant to pursue this matter still further. I also notice it does not cover the grand jury procedure. The original one also calls for twenty dollars a day per diem, whereas the new one, like all other interim committees, calls for twenty-five dollars per day."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Harris yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to another question, Mr. Harris?"

Mr. Harris:

"I will."

Mr. Moon:

"Mr. Harris, I see on page 2 there is mentioned the committee expenses, but I find nowhere in the amendment where there is any provision for an appropriation."

Mr. Harris:

"Well, Representative Moon, all our interim committees are awaiting an appropriation and if you will notice, this states that vouchers may be drawn on any appropriation which may be provided for the expenses of the committee."

On motion of Mr. Olsen, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 15 of the mimeographed amendment by Representative Harris, after "at any place" and before "during" insert "in the state of Washington"

The motion was lost, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of the amendment by Mr. Harris as amended.

The motion was carried, and the amendment as amended was adopted.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 6 was ordered engrossed.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House deferred consideration of the remainder of the second reading calendar, and the bills were ordered held for Friday's second reading calendar.

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House adjourned until 11:00 a. m., Friday, April 5, 1963.

WILLIAM S. DAY, Speaker.

S. R. HOLCOMB, Chief Clerk.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Friday, April 5, 1963.

The Speaker called the House to order at 11:00 a. m.

The Clerk called the roll. Representatives Chatalas, Lewis, McCormick, McElroy, Newschwander, and Taylor, who were excused, were absent.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Walter MacArthur of the First Methodist Church of Olympia.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Moos, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker, are we on the sixth order of business?"

The Speaker:

"Yes. Do you have a bill you want read in?"

Mr. O'Brien:

"I have. House Bill No. 74 should be read in."

The Speaker:

"It has already been read in and it is on second reading. The rules were suspended and it was placed on second reading. That was my ruling last night and I have not changed that ruling."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien:

"Mr. Speaker I rise to a point of order on this bill and also on Rule No. 73."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Perry.

Mr. Perry:

"I know we are all getting tired of this. I think this is a superfluous discussion in that we have tentatively reached a possible accord on this matter."

Mr. O'Brien:

"I am rising to a point of order."

The Speaker:

"The bill is not before us."

Mr. O'Brien:

"I feel, according to Rule 73, that the bill should be read in this morning on first reading, not yesterday. If it were to be read in yesterday on first reading, it would require a suspension of the rules. All this rule states, and it states it rather clearly, is that the bill could only be filed yesterday, not acted on in any way, shape, or form."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. O'Brien, in an attempt to be extremely fair to you last night, I ruled that the bill would stay on second reading and we would wait another day. However, technically, you were not correct in that you should have raised your point of order on Rule 73 when the bill was on first reading and before it was advanced to second reading. Since you did not, you are now out of order. The bill is not before us, and there is nothing before us on first reading. Your point is not well taken."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Copeland, the House recessed until 1:00 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 1:00 p. m.

Mr. Evans:

"We had a very interesting caucus on the Republican side this afternoon called by the freshmen from the back row. Some of us up here in the front got a little plaque. Mine happens to say 'Take me to your leader,' so we in the front row, thinking this was perhaps a wise thing after eighty-some odd days of regular and special session, have decided that for this afternoon, we will take ourselves to our leaders."

Freshman representatives on the Republican side were conducted to desks in the front row.

AUGUST P. MARDESICH

House Members

ELMER C. HUNTLEY

PAT COMFORT

K. O. ROSENBERG

MOTION

Mr. Huntley moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on House Bill No. 2.

Debate ensued, Representative Huntley speaking in favor of adoption of the report, and Representative Leland speaking against its adoption.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Taylor:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Taylor:

"I think we have strayed far afield. There is a time limit in this special session. I think we should get away from personalities and get down to the facts here."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Leland, I wish you would confine your remarks to the Free Conference report."

Further debate ensued, Representative Leland continuing his argument.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Leland, I would like to point out you have spoken ten minutes. You may conclude your remarks."

Further debate ensued, Representative Leland concluding his remarks, and Representatives Perry, Rosenberg, and Pritchard speaking in favor of adoption of the committee report.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for a point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"You may have a point of personal privilege."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, if I didn't get up and say something in defense of Mr. Bugge, I think I would be derelict in my duty. Mr. Bugge is a fine servant of the people and has been one of the finest and most able administrators in the country.

"I was completely shaken by the rough treatment given Mr. Bugge and members of his staff who were with him in the Highway Committee room. I know some of you thought Representative Leland was exaggerating in some of the remarks he made, but I don't think he completely told the story. I felt the treatment that Mr. Bugge and his staff received that afternoon was entirely uncalled for—the way the Senators attacked Mr. Bugge personally. Now, I believe that their purpose had merit. As someone pointed out, this highway project needs to be expedited as much as possible. It is an urgent problem in our area. But Mr. Bugge, after all, is the engineer and administrator. If the remarks had been directed to the highway commission, I could have understood some of their complaints, but I think it was entirely uncalled for to direct such remarks to an administrator of Mr. Bugge's character and ability.

"Mr. Bugge is nationally recognized as one of the outstanding men in the highway field today. With your permission, I will read a short paragraph here that indicates one or two of the things I have been talking about in regard to his ability and the recognition and citations he has received. Mr. Bugge ' . . . has on several occasions been cited by his professional associates for his contributions and activities in the fields of highway engineering and public administration. He is one of only two men who has received all three of the top recognitions awarded in this field of engineering. In 1960 he received the Charles S. Bartlett Award for outstanding contributions to highway progress. In October of 1961 he was named highway 'Man of the Year' by the American Public Works Association . . . ' and on down the list. There are many others.

"I feel sincerely that the legislature owes Mr. Bugge an apology. No one, except those who were in that Highways Committee room, could possibly realize the abuse that was heaped upon Mr. Bugge. They actually accused the man of lying. The state of Washington owes Mr. Bugge a debt of gratitude for his fine performance. He has a staff of employees numbering three thousand two hundred people, and there hasn't been even one whisper of maladministration or fraud in the department. Ladies and gentlemen, I can tell you that several other states can't say that. You have read the newspapers over the last years, and you know that since the federal money has come into the various areas there have been investigations in several states. In Mr. Bugge's administration none of that has existed. I say we owe him an apology."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I feel I would be very remiss if I didn't stand up and defend my Senator, Senator Mardesich, who, as you know, served outstandingly in this House for twelve years in a position of trust. I take deep exception to Mr. Leland's remarks, and, Joe, I also take exception to your remarks. They weren't talking down the commission. They complimented the commission and complimented Mr. Bugge, and they emphasized the fine job they had done. They told them the job they have done in the past fifteen years proved, however, that they could do even more. I would like to have that be a matter of record."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beck:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Huntley yield to question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Huntley?"

Mr. Huntley:

"I will attempt to."

Mr. Beck:

"First of all, I am going to concur with you and I think I am going to vote for this amendment. There are just a couple of questions I would like to ask. I notice the wording is changed in section 12. Does the reference to C Street to the Puyallup river in the city of Tacoma put any additional mileage on the program for this present biennium?"

Mr. Huntley:

"No, this is a part of the Tacoma-Seattle-Everett freeway."

Mr. Beck:

"I know that. I wanted that clarified. Down in section (b), this section of highway No. 9 from Elma to the Wynoochee river bridge, that is a change from the other which went to Montesano. It originally amounted to four additional miles. Is that four additional miles still in there?"

Mr. Huntley:

"No. It is on the system, Mr. Beck. The people down in that area were asking for a speed-up of construction on this particular section of road. I might point out that section (b), as it is presently written, schedules the work in a way the highway department feels they can carry out."

Mr. Beck:

"Does this bill provide for that, or will the 1967 legislature have to provide for that? Mr. Rosenberg, could you answer that question?"

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rosenberg.

Mr. Rosenberg:

"I think what you are asking is whether we are binding the future legislature by this act. I think if you consider that in the light of subsection (2), which permits extension of the dates if there are factors over which the highway commission has no control, then this could very well cover the action of future legislatures. The commission could not control the action of future legislators."

Mr. Anderson (Eric O.) demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on House Bill No. 2 was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 2 as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 2 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Berentson, Bergh, Bigley, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Chatalas, Clark, Comfort, Conner, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Grant, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Henry, Herr, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kirk, Klein, Lewis, Lind, Litchman, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, May, McCaffrey, McCormick, McDougall, McFadden, Metcalf, Miles, Moon, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Brien, O'Connell, Odell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Smith, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Young, Mr. Speaker—94.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Flanagan, Kink, Leland—3.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives McElroy, Perry—2.

House Bill No. 2 as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Leland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Leland:

"I respectfully request permission to insert a remark in the journal to indicate the reason for my vote."

The Speaker:

"Permission granted."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted "no" on adoption of the free conference report and the bill on final passage as a means of expressing a protest and, at the same time, as a means of alerting the House of Representatives and interested road groups throughout the state relative to the actions of the Washington State Senate and the amendment which they placed on House Bill No. 2 in the Senate.

If we are to continue the same high quality highway program for the State of Washington, we must keep politics and the pork-barrel approach out of highway matters. The action of the Senate was a blatant pork-barrel amendment where they put together enough road projects for enough Senators from different parts of the state to secure enough votes to hang this amendment on the House bill, and then refused to recede even after testimony indicated how untenable and erroneous their amendment was. If we are going to have politicians making engineering decisions and setting completion dates on projects without any consultation whatsoever with the assistance of qualified engineering help, then our entire highway program will degenerate into a pork-barrel mess and, furthermore, it will be impossible to keep highly qualified help and nationally recognized engineers such as Mr. Bugge.

For these reasons, and the fact that the members of the House of Representatives need to be alerted to this threat, I have voted "no" on these measures as a means of alerting and sounding a warning signal as to the dangers of the course the Senate has embarked upon.

Alfred E. Leland, 48th District

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and gentlemen of the House, I rise to a point of personal privilege. I would like to report to the House the happenings of the last few days and weeks since I introduced to you a young man from Thurston county who was the state winner in the Voice of Democracy contest. This young man just got back to Thurston county from Washington, D.C. where he competed on the national level, and I am happy and privileged to announce that out of two hundred fifty thousand entries in this contest, Bill Lindberg placed fourth—fourth in the nation. He represented the state of Washington well back there, and I am very proud and privileged to announce this to you."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, could you please explain the reason for the delay?"

"We are waiting on the Senate to agree to the conference report, which they have tentatively done. Now we are running into mechanical difficulties which will take about five hours for the drafting of this highly technical redistricting bill. This has to be checked and rechecked in order to avoid errors. In addition to that, there is the constitutional amendment, which is here, and an implementing bill. It took some time to get the implementing bill and it will take time to get the mechanics of drafting done. The Senate convenes at 9:30 in the morning, at which time they tell us these bills will be ready for our action. So we are going to come in at 10:00 o'clock. This will give the Senate an opportunity to take action on one of the conference reports so we can proceed."

Strike everything after the resolving clause on lines 1 and 2 of the resolution and insert the following:

"That, subject to the condition expressed below, there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state at the next general election for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article II, of the Constitution of the State of Washington, by striking from said Article II all of sections 2, 3 and 6 and inserting in lieu thereof the following, to be known as section 2:

"(3) Senatorial districts shall be apportioned according to the number of inhabitants, excluding members of the United States military forces in active service.

"(c) After counties have been combined as provided in subsection (4) (b) hereof, any remaining counties having less than one-half of one percent of the state's population shall be joined with such adjoining county as may be determined by the legislature subject to the provisions of subsection (4) (a) hereof.

"(d) Each county which has one-half of one percent of the population of the state and which has not been combined with any other county for apportionment purposes, shall have at least one representative district.

Such division shall remain in effect until 1971 at which time, and thereafter from time to time, it may be superseded by general law enacted in accordance with the provisions of this constitutional amendment.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That, inasmuch as House Bill No. 56 of the 1963 first extraordinary session implements the constitutional amendment proposed in this joint resolution, this joint resolution is expressly conditioned upon the passage by both houses of the legislature of House Bill No. 56 of the 1963 first extraordinary session and that if such condition does not occur this joint resolution shall be null and void;

"And Be It Further Resolved, That all provisions embodied in this joint resolution are expressly declared to be nonseverable and that if any one provision, whether it be in the enabling text or in the amendatory text, is held invalid, this joint resolution shall be null and void;

"And Be It Further Resolved, That, subject to the conditions expressed above, the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

Mr. Moos moved that the House concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4.

Debate ensued, Representative Moos speaking in favor of concurrence with the Senate amendment, and Representative O'Brien speaking against concurrence.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland.

Mr. Copeland:

"So that nobody is confused, Mr. O'Brien, I did consult with the caucus chairman of your party and we have agreed that any time you want the opportunity you certainly may caucus on this. If you people would now like to have a caucus, I think that is appropriate. Please understand we are under the press of time on this. I hope you aren't trying to cast disparaging remarks on Mr. Moos by indicating you weren't going to be given this opportunity."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Moos a question on this bill that concerns me and I hope I can ask it without criticizing the bill."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Moos, will you yield to question?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes."

Mr. Harris:

"Now, Mr. Moos, I know this amendment was not put on by the House. On page 3 of the Senate amendment it states, 'That, inasmuch as House Bill No. 56 of the 1963 first extraordinary session implements the constitutional amendment . . . this joint resolution is expressly conditioned upon passage . . . of House Bill No. 56 . . . ' Have you checked to determine if such language could be written into the state Constitution? In other words, could this amendment be declared unconstitutional because it refers to a House bill? I have never heard of such language going into the state Constitution."

Mr. Moos:

"I consulted with the attorney general and with many of the attorneys on both sides of the political fence over in the Senate. All of them admit it is a most unusual situation, but it has been used, I think, once before a good many years ago and it has never been challenged. The attorney general's office, although they did not write an opinion for me, said they had never seen anything like it, but they couldn't find anything against it so it would have to be tested in court."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question I would like to ask before we go into our caucuses that has occurred to me in reading this amendment."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Moos?"

Mr. Moos:

"Yes, I will, Representative Ackley."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Moos, on page 3 near the middle it says: 'Such division shall remain in effect until 1971 at which time, and thereafter from time to time, it may be superseded by general law enacted in accordance with the provisions of this constitutional amendment.' and then going back to page 1, it says that it may be changed by the legislature but doesn't make any reference to changing it by initiative, wouldn't we be preventing any change in redistricting by initiative?"

Mr. Moos:

"No, because your redistricting is taken care of by general statutes and initiatives can affect regular statutes. Initiatives cannot change the Constitution, so that would have no bearing on it at all."

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4.

Debate ensued, Representative Bozarth speaking in favor of concurrence in the Senate amendment.

The motion was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY THE SENATE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ackley, Schaefer, and Rogers speaking against passage of the resolution, and Representative Moos speaking for its passage.

Mr. Perry demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained on a rising vote.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Campbell and O'Brien speaking against passage of the resolution, and Representatives Moos and Copeland speaking in favor of passage.

Mr. Garrett demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Burtch speaking in favor of passage of the resolution, and Representatives Klein and Moon speaking against its passage.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 as amended by the Senate, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 69; nays, 30; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Backstrom, Berentson, Bozarth, Brachtenbach, Braun, Burtch, Campbell, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Dootson, Earley, Eberle, Eldridge, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Hadley, Harris, Haussler, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jolly, Juelling, King, Kink, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lind, Lybecker, Lynch, Mahaffey, Mast, McCaffree, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Miles, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Mundy, Newschwander, O'Connell, Odell, Perry, Pritchard, Reese, Rogers, Rosenberg, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—69.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bigley, Brouillet, Chatalas, Conner, DeJarnatt, Gallagher, Garrett, Grant, Henry, Herr, Klein, Litchman, May, McFadden, Moon, O'Brien, O'Donnell, Olsen, Savage, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—30.

Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 4 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I voted against House Joint Resolution No. 4 because it denies forever the right of the people to redistrict the state. House Joint Resolution No. 4 denies the right of initiative which is the most important right the people have.

MARK LITCHMAN,
45th District.

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Comfort:

"Ladies and gentlemen, you have on your desks some pencils with printing on them which I have passed out with my best wishes. EVENING SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 7:00 p. m.

The Clerk called the roll. Representatives Grant, Henry, McElroy, O'Donnell, and Sawyer were absent.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Olsen.

Mr. Olsen:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"A subject of considerable discussion during recent months here in the House, and all across our state, for that matter, has been the 1962 Seattle World's Fair. It provided not only a wonderful summer, but a new measure of national and international prestige for our state. Even now, interest is still high in many areas of our country, as planners and elected officials watch with a keen eye the development of our permanent cultural and entertainment center that is the legacy of the World's Fair. These people are no less interested in the amazing story of how the World's Fair came about. From the germ of an idea in Seattle, to the firm and positive action of this House, to the halls of Congress, and on around the world, the World's Fair came to pass because the people of our state simply decided the impossible should be theirs.

"We who served on your State World's Fair Commission decided long ago that this story should be preserved, and we appointed a historical subcommittee. Last summer, while the Fair was still very much alive, we further decided that a detailed history should be written before the Fair ended. A history not so much of what happened at the Fair, but a history of how it came to pass. In cooperation with the Century 21 Corporation, we encouraged Acme Press of Seattle to publish such a history, to be written by the noted author and historian, Murray Morgan, and with pictures by the outstanding photographer, Steven C. Wilson. While we did not actually publish the history, we did agree to purchase certain copies so that our libraries and schools would have access to this important historical material. Our state library will supervise distribution for this purpose. The reason for bringing this subject up today is that the first copies have just now come off the presses. The members of the state commission wanted you to have some of these first copies. Further, our state printer has kindly consented to emboss these especially-bound copies with your names. As soon as the printer completes this work, the Chief Clerk will mail your copy to you. We sincerely hope you will find many years of enjoyment in this book called 'Century 21, The Story of the Seattle World's Fair'."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The word 'agency' used herein shall mean and include every state government office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional, or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this act.

"The phrase 'agencies headed by elective officials' used herein shall mean those executive offices or departments of the state which are directly supervised, administered, or controlled by the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of public lands, or insurance commissioner, but it shall not include those boards, commissions, or committees on which one or more of the above named elected officials serve.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In order to carry out the provisions of these appropriations and the state budget, the budget director, with the approval of the governor, may:

"(1) Allot all or any portion of the funds herein appropriated, or included in the state budget, to the various agencies by such periods as he shall determine and may place any funds not so allotted in reserve available for subsequent allotment: Provided, That the budget director shall not alter allotment requests filed with him, nor shall he place in reserve any funds, for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials; University of Washington; Washington State University; Central Washington State College; Eastern Washington State College; Western Washington State College; Washington State Apple Advertising Commission; Washington State Fruit Commission; Washington Dairy Products Commission or any agricultural commodity commission created under the provisions of chapter 15.66 RCW; the legislative branch of state government including the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, the statute law committee, and any legislative interim committee; or the judicial branch of state government: Provided, however, That the aggregate of allotments for any agency shall not exceed the total of applicable appropriations and local funds available to the agency concerned. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee to incur obligations in excess of approved allotments or to incur a deficiency and any obligation so made shall be deemed invalid. Nothing in this section or in chapter 328, Laws of 1959 shall prevent revision of any allotment when necessary to prevent the making of expenditures under appropriations in this act in excess of available revenues.

"(2) Issue rules and regulations to establish uniform standards and business practices throughout the state service, including regulation of travel by officers and employees and the conditions under which per diem shall be paid, so as to improve efficiency and conserve funds.

"(3) Prescribe procedures and forms to carry out the above.

"(4) Allot funds from appropriations in this act in advance of July 1, 1963, for the sole purpose of authorizing agencies to order goods, supplies or services for delivery after July 1, 1963: Provided, That no expenditures may be made from the appropriations contained in section 1 until after July 1, 1963.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any receipts from federal or other sources or from gifts or grants in excess of those estimated in the budget may be received and allotted by the governor but in the event that receipts shall be less than those estimated in the budget from any source the appropriation shall be limited to the amount actually received and allotments made as provided in section 4. Whenever possible, the receipt of federal or other funds which are not anticipated by the governor's budget or the legislature shall be used to support regular programs instead of using appropriated funds.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Agencies are authorized to make refunds of erroneous or excessive payments and in the case of other refunds, which may be provided by law, without express appropriation therefor.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency appropriation to an agency which is financed by other than general fund moneys, the budget director may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance such agency. No appropriations shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution and bond retirement and interest, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 43.09.210 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the budget director which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum inter-agency usage of data processing equipment and services and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The regents, trustees or board of directors of any of the state educational institutions or school districts are authorized to use funds appropriated by this act to provide and pay for tax deferred annuities for their respective employees in lieu of a portion of salary or wages as authorized under the provisions of 26 U.S.C. section 403(b) as amended by Public Law 87-370, 75 Stat. 796, as now or hereafter amended.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The balance of the appropriation to the Liquor Control Board from the General Fund in chapter 26, Laws of 1961 Extraordinary Session, remaining unexpended as of April 1, 1963, is hereby transferred to and authorized to be expended from the Liquor Revolving Fund.

"The balance of the appropriation to the Department of Employment Security from the General Fund in chapter 26, Laws of 1961 Extraordinary Session, remaining unexpended as of April 1, 1963, is hereby transferred to and authorized to be expended from the Unemployment Compensation Administration Fund, which fund is hereby declared to be a fund in the state treasury.

"The budget director shall certify such amounts available to the Liquor Control Board and the Department of Employment Security.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Mast:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of personal privilege."

The Speaker:

"State your point of personal privilege."

Mr. Mast:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it looks like I will soon be a legislator without a district and this could well be my swan song, so I would like to say a few words that come from my heart. Although there have been many torrid expressions and various political philosophies during the past eighty-three days, I do not believe there exists today any bitterness or wrathful indignation toward each other. I believe that each of you has followed the convictions of his own conscience and that you have been the absolute master of your own opinion and vote. In short, I believe that all of you have been outstanding legislators and I am proud to be one of you.

"Now, Mr. Speaker, I would like to say something to you. Mr. Speaker, I believe you have demonstrated a cool and analytical mind with ability to quickly accept the facts, that you have demonstrated an exceptional knowledge of parliamentary procedure, that you have demonstrated ability to settle differences without sacrifice of principle, that you have never commanded but have got things done in the proper manner, that you have given enlightened leadership and able guidance, that you have never wavered from your constructive policies and have demonstrated an unswerving sense of honor and fairness, that you have proven yourself a man of energy, resolution, and rare personal charm. In short, Mr. Speaker, I think you have turned in a masterful job as Speaker of the House. Now, from all I have heard and read I think this is the consensus of the opinion of the majority of the House and the people of the state of Washington.

"Now, to each and every one of you, I pray that God may keep you and those most dear to you on the path of good health and contentment. I thank you. It has been nice to be one of you." (Applause.)

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the Free Conference Report on Engrossed House Bill No. 1.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

With the exception of certain items which are vetoed, I have signed House Bill No. 4. I specifically note, with respect to Section 24, that the feasibility and cost study for a proposed new highway on the north side of the Mossyrock Reservoir is to be conducted without prejudice to existing agreements between the City of Tacoma and the State Highway Commission. This understanding has been specifically expressed to me by all parties concerned.

If there was any possibility that this legislation would result in additional expense or delay to the City of Tacoma, I would veto this section. I am, however, on this understanding, approving this section.

Sincerely,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON HOUSE BILLS
PARTIALLY VETOED*Extraordinary Session—1963

April 18, 1963.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to certain items described below, House Bill No. 1 (Extraordinary Session) entitled:

“An Act adopting the budget; making appropriations and re-appropriations for the operation of state agencies and for miscellaneous purposes; and declaring an emergency.”

Two years ago the Legislature appropriated six million dollars more than was available to be spent by the state. This was a situation that I could not allow to exist. Accordingly, I put into effect stringent economies in the agencies under my control that corrected the situation.

This year, once again, the Legislature has pressed upon me a critical fiscal problem. I find myself faced with a legislative budget proposal that asks the state to spend three million dollars more than it will have available during the next two years. This, despite the fact that such a budget would be directly contrary to state law, which stipulates that spending may not exceed income.

As Governor, I am obligated to assure that this law is fully carried out. Therefore, I must choose one of two alternatives.

I can veto the entire budget proposal and call the Legislature back into a costly special session to correct this over-appropriation of funds. Or, I can follow a responsible course of action, as I did two years ago—that is, to veto certain items and require further stringent economies in departments under my control in order to achieve a balanced budget.

I choose the latter method.

My decision will result in a reduction of more than three million dollars in proposed spending, and bring the state budget into balance.

Through veto action I have assured savings of $565,000. The remaining imbalance through over-appropriated funds shall be absorbed by the state agencies over which I have direct control. I have instructed that State Budget Director plan for economies in the next two years to assure a reduction in spending by those agencies to a figure of two and a half million dollars below the totals appropriated to them by the Legislature. Only by instituting such sacrifices was I able to return the budget to a balanced condition.

Since the Legislature was instrumental in creating this situation, I decided that it must share the burden of the overall financial sacrifices that were necessary. Accordingly, the most substantial of the vetoed items relates to appropriations approved by the Legislature for its own interim committees.

In Section 2, under the heading of “State Legislature” there is a General Fund appropriation for all legislative interim committees in the amount of $547,741. This appropriation, together with other allowances for legislative salaries and expenses of $422,058 appropriated elsewhere in this bill; plus individual appropriations for the Commission on Game and Game Fish, the Joint Committee on Highways, the Public Pension Committee, amount to a total appropriation for legislative expenses of over one million dollars during a period when the Legislature is not in session. It seems curiously inconsistent that the Legislature does not exercise the same frugality necessary in every other agency of government when they appropriate for their own use.

In terms of interim committee membership, there are 131 committee positions available during the interim period for the 148 members of the House and Senate. I believe it is time to curb this practice which can only result in needless expense to the taxpayers. Although essential expenditures must be maintained, less desirable expenses must be eliminated. By combining the appropriation for numerous committees in one sum, the Legislature purposely insulated unnecessary committees from executive veto.

While some of the committees included within this appropriation serve useful purposes, and many members of the Legislature serve commendably without selfish interest, other committees need serious re-evaluation. When the Legislative Council was first authorized in 1947, the express purpose was to stop the trend toward proliferation of interim committees which were used only as publicity and political tools. The Council was constituted with a balanced political representation to secure non-partisan interim study of important legislative problems. Yet the present Legislature has continued the coalition government by making the appointments strictly for political gain. There is even a serious question as to whether the Council is legally constituted because political considerations delayed the appointment of members. The original moral intent and legal directive has been violated.

It is patently clear that coalition government, which has resulted only in controversy, bitterness and rancor, should not be promoted during the interim period at an expense to the taxpayers of over a half million dollars.

During the past years, numerous committee staff studies having merit have been conducted, but the results have not been thoroughly analyzed by the Legislature. The elimination of the appropriation does not necessarily make the committees inoperative. This may be a good time for the members to catch up on the deluge of studies made in the past.

For the foregoing reasons, the appropriation of $547,741 to the legislative interim committees is vetoed. Interim committee appropriations from non-General Fund sources are not included in this appropriation and therefore substantial interim committee expenditures still remain.

In Section 1, under the general heading "Department of Institutions—Soldiers' and Veterans' Home and Colony" three provisos were attached to the appropriation as follows:

"Provided, that no part of this appropriation shall be used for the care and maintenance of members in the home having a yearly income of over $900 or with assets of over $900 unless all income and assets in excess of these amounts are paid into the general fund: Provided, that the director of the Department of Institutions may make rules and regulations for waiver of the foregoing proviso, for all, or such portion of income over $900, as in his discretion may be reasonably necessary for medical care not furnished by the Department of Institutions, support of dependents, and the payment of premiums on existing insurance, and such other situations as may be reasonably necessary to the welfare of such member: Provided, that nothing in this proviso shall be construed to modify or change the requirements for admission as provided by law and as prescribed in the rules and regulations of the Department of Institutions."

These provisos place a $900 per year income limitation on those persons otherwise eligible to receive the veterans' benefits made available by this appropriation. Income and assets in excess of this amount must be paid to the General Fund. While the intent of the Legislature in setting such a limitation is desirable, the $900 amount is both undesirable and unnecessary.

It is undesirable because the limitation is so low as to place a severe hardship on veterans and because of its doubtful legality, as indicated by an adverse Superior Court decision on a similar proviso in the 1961 Appropriations Act. It is unnecessary because the department can administratively set a more equitable limitation and because the total appropriation will effectively set the limits on membership.

For the foregoing reason, I am vetoing the above section.

In Section 1 under the heading of "INTERSTATE COMPACT COMMISSION" there is a General Fund appropriation of $17,000.

I am vetoing this item because I believe continuation of the staff work on the Columbia River Compact will in no way inure to the benefit of the people of the State of Washington. A proposed compact has been presented to the Legislature on several occasions and in each instance, the State of Washington has been asked to surrender much more than can be gained by entry into the compact. Washington State has by far the largest stake in the northwest river system and would have been relegated to a minority position if proposed Columbia River Compacts had been adopted.

Vetoing this appropriation does not dissolve the Commission. Should further work on the compact be indicated, present state and local agencies charged with the administration and control of our natural resources are available to provide the necessary staff review.

In Section 1, under the heading of "DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE," within the proviso earmarking $100,000 for a study of federally-matched programs, there appears a limitation on the Governor's authority to select committee members in the following words:

" . . . from the various areas of the state representing institutions of higher learning, governmental agencies, and statewide private social agencies."

While representation of these groups may be desirable, and will receive proper recognition in my appointments, any limitation on my authority to select the advisory committee for a study for which I will be held responsible is unwise.

Accordingly, I am vetoing this item.

Under this same general holding of the Department of Public Assistance, I note that the Legislature has added the $1,000,000 that I requested for restoration of medical care. But I also note that the Legislature reduced my request for aid to dependent children, general assistance, and disability assistance by $1,500,000, a cut that will force a ratable reduction in the grants to these needy persons.

In Section 1 under the heading of "JUDICIAL COUNCIL," a General Fund appropriation of $30,000 is made. This appropriation represents an increase of over 200% from that appropriated in the previous biennium. The work of the Judicial Council is most commendable, but this increase is difficult to justify in light of policies establishing present program levels.

Most of the work of the Council has traditionally been donated. I am confident that with the assistance of the outstanding law schools in our state, the work can continue.

For the foregoing reasons, I am vetoing the item appropriation to the Judicial Council.

In the area of education, I am gratified by the fact that the Legislature, on the basis of my request, has appropriated $450,575,964 for the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, an increase of $36.9 million, or 8.9 per cent. The appropriations for higher education likewise have moved forward to a total of $120,767,741, an increase of $17.3 million.

With the exception of the foregoing items which are vetoed, the remainder of House Bill No. 1 (Extraordinary Session) is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

April 6, 1963.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the legislature, without my approval as to Section 43 and Section 44, House Bill No. 4, entitled:

Implementing law relating to highways and the travel of vehicles thereon.

Section 43 directed the Washington State Highway Commission to make a study of the toll rates of the State Ferry System and recommended rate readjustments to the Washington Toll Bridge Authority. It further provided that the Toll Bridge Authority shall adopt recommendations which will reduce the amount of subsidy required. While I do not disagree with the legislative intention to reduce ferry subsidies, Section 43 created a hopeless tangle of rate setting responsibility and failed to consider the needs of ferry users.

Matter relating to ferry operations is primarily a responsibility of the Toll Bridge Authority. By directing the Highway Commission to make a rate study, the legislature has unnecessarily duplicated a responsibility now vested in another branch of government. Existing law directs the Toll Bridge

Authority to review tariffs and specifically states that such review shall consider “. . . expressions from local community groups . . .” as well as existing financing programs. This section would neither contribute to an efficient ferry system nor benefit ferry users.

Section 44 provides that the Director of Licenses shall neither record nor give effect to a report of a conviction of a resident of this state when such conviction occurred in another state and was based upon violation of an administrative rule or forfeiture of bail.

During the regular session, the legislature passed House Bill No. 144, which enacted the Driver License Compact into law. This Compact was prepared pursuant to resolutions of the Western Governors' Conference and the Western Interstate Committee on Highway Policy Problems of the Council of State Governments.

Under this Compact, convictions to be reported and given effect in this state include forfeiture of bail and violations of administrative rules. This bill would, by implication, amend the operative effectiveness of the Driver's License Compact and weaken the Compact, which I feel can help reduce our tragic traffic fatalities.

For the reasons indicated, Sections 43 and 44 of House Bill No. 4 are vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

April 6, 1963.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

With the exception of certain items which are vetoed, I have signed House Bill No. 4. I specifically note, with respect to Section 24, that the feasibility and cost study for a proposed new highway on the north side of the Mossyrock Reservoir is to be conducted without prejudice to existing agreements between the City of Tacoma and the State Highway Commission. This understanding has been specifically expressed to me by all parties concerned.

If there was any possibility that this legislation would result in additional expense or delay to the City of Tacoma, I would veto this section. I am, however, on this understanding, approving this section.

Sincerely,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.
