(20) 'Alcohol' means alcohol that is produced from renewable resources and is produced in this state or in a state that extends a tax exemption or credit for the sale of alcohol produced in this state for use in motor vehicle fuel that is at least equal to a tax exemption or credit for the sale of alcohol produced in the other state for use in motor vehicle fuel;

(21) 'Electronic funds transfer' means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, which is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account.

Sec. 19. Section 82.36.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 82.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall on or before the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month file, on forms furnished by the director, a statement signed by the distributor or his authorized agent showing the total number of gallons of motor vehicle fuel sold, distributed, or used by such distributor within this state during the preceding calendar month.

If any distributor fails to file such report, the director shall proceed forthwith to determine from the best available sources, the amount of motor vehicle fuel sold, distributed, or used by such distributor for the unreported period, and said determination shall be presumed to be correct for that period until proved by competent evidence to be otherwise. The director shall immediately assess the excise tax in the amount so determined, adding thereto a penalty of ten percent for failure to report. Such penalty shall be cumulative of other penalties herein provided. All statements filed with the director, as required in this section, shall be public records.

If any distributor establishes by a fair preponderance of evidence that his or her failure to file a report by the due date was attributable to reasonable cause and was not intentional or wilful, the department may waive the penalty imposed by this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 82.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the tax due on motor vehicle fuel that is sold, distributed, or used during a month shall be paid on or before the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(2) If payment of the tax due on motor vehicle fuel that is sold, distributed, or used during a month is made by electronic funds transfer, it shall be made on or before the state business day immediately preceding the last state business day of the following month.

(3) The tax shall be paid by electronic funds transfer whenever the amount due is fifty thousand dollars or more.

Sec. 21. Section 82.36.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1977 and RCW 82.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The amount of excise tax for each month shall be paid to the director on or before the twenty-fifth day of the next month thereafter, and if not paid prior thereto, shall become delinquent at the close of business on that day, and a penalty of one percent of such excise tax must be added thereto for delinquency. PROVIDED, That in no case shall the penalty be more than five hundred dollars. If such tax and penalty is not received on or before the close of business on the last day of the month in which the payment is due an additional penalty of ten percent must be added thereto in addition to penalty above provided for.))~~ If payment of any tax due is not received by the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of two percent of the amount of the tax. If any distributor establishes by a fair preponderance of evidence that his or her failure to pay the amount of tax due by the due date was attributable to reasonable cause and was not intentional or wilful, the department may waive the penalty imposed by this section.

Any motor vehicle fuel tax, penalties, and interest payable under the provisions of this chapter shall bear interest at the rate of ~~((one-half of))~~ one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the first day of the calendar month after the close of the monthly period for which the amount or any portion thereof should have been paid until the date of payment~~((PROVIDED, That the interest charge on the unpaid excise tax shall be waived when such interest is less than five dollars. AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~. The department may waive the interest ~~((on the unpaid excise tax))~~ when ~~((the interest exceeds five dollars and))~~ the department determines that the cost of processing the collection of the interest exceeds the amount of interest due.

In any suit brought to enforce the rights of the state ~~((hereunder))~~ under this chapter, the certificate of the director showing the amount of taxes, penalties, interest and cost unpaid by any distributor and that the same are due and unpaid to the state shall be prima facie evidence of the facts as shown.

Sec. 22. Section 17, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 40, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.38.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax imposed by this chapter shall be computed as follows: ~~((+))~~ (a) With respect to special fuel upon which the tax has been collected by the seller thereof as a special fuel dealer, by multiplying the tax rate per gallon provided in this chapter by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered subject to the special fuel tax; ~~((+))~~ (b) with respect to special fuel on which the tax has not been paid to a special fuel dealer in this state and which has been consumed by the purchaser thereof as a special fuel user, by multiplying the tax rate per gallon provided in this chapter by the number of gallons of special fuel consumed by him in the propulsion of a motor vehicle on the highways of this state.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the tax return shall be accompanied by a remittance payable to the state treasurer covering the tax moneys collected by the special fuel dealer or the amount determined to be due hereunder by licensed users of special fuels during the preceding reporting period.

(3) If the tax is paid by electronic funds transfer and the reporting period ends on the last day of a calendar month, the tax shall be paid on or before the state business day immediately preceding the last state business day of the month following the end of the reporting period. If the tax is paid by electronic funds transfer and the reporting period ends on a day other than the last day of a calendar month as provided in RCW 82.38.150, the tax shall be paid on or before the state business day immediately preceding the last state business day of the thirty-day period following the end of the reporting period.

(4) The tax shall be paid by electronic funds transfer whenever the amount due is fifty thousand dollars or more.

Sec. 23. Section 18, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 242, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.38.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user fails to pay any taxes collected or due the state of Washington by said dealer or user within the time prescribed by RCW 82.38.150 and 82.38.160, said dealer or user shall pay in addition to such tax a penalty of ten percent of the amount thereof.

(2) If it be determined by the department that the tax reported by any special fuel dealer or special fuel user is deficient it shall proceed to assess the deficiency on the basis of information available to it and there shall be added to this deficiency a penalty of two percent of the amount of the deficiency.

(3) If any special fuel dealer or special fuel user, whether or not he is licensed as such, fails, neglects, or refuses to file a special fuel tax report, the department shall, on the basis of information available to it, determine the tax liability of the special fuel dealer or the special fuel user for the period during which no report was filed, and to the tax as thus determined, the department shall add the penalty and interest provided in subsection (2) of this section. An assessment made by the department pursuant to this subsection or to subsection (2) of this section shall be presumed to be correct, and in any case where the validity of the assessment is drawn in question, the burden shall be on the person who challenges the assessment to establish by a fair preponderance of the evidence that it is erroneous or excessive as the case may be.

(7) Except in the case of a fraudulent report or of neglect or refusal to make a report, every deficiency shall be assessed under subsection (2) of this section within three years from the twenty-fifth day of the next succeeding calendar month following the reporting period for which the amount is proposed to be determined or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires the later.

(8) Any special fuel dealer or special fuel user against whom an assessment is made under the provisions of subsections (2) or (3) of this section may petition for a reassessment thereof within thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof. If such petition is not filed within such thirty day period, the amount of the assessment becomes final at the expiration thereof.

If a petition for reassessment is filed within the thirty day period, the department shall reconsider the assessment and, if the special fuel dealer or special fuel user has so requested in his petition, shall grant such special fuel dealer or special fuel user an oral hearing and give the special fuel dealer or special fuel user ten days' notice of the time and place thereof. The department may continue the hearing from time to time. The decision of the department upon a petition for reassessment shall become final thirty days after service upon the special fuel dealer or special fuel user of notice thereof.

Every assessment made by the department shall become due and payable at the time it becomes final and if not paid to the department when due and payable, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax.

(9) Any notice of assessment required by this section shall be served personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made by depositing such notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid addressed to the special fuel dealer or special fuel user at his address as the same appears in the records of the department.

(10) Any licensee who has had their special fuel user license, special fuel dealer license, special fuel supplier license, or combination thereof revoked shall pay a one hundred dollar penalty prior to the issuance of a new license.

(11) Any person who, upon audit or investigation by the department, is found to have not paid special fuel taxes as required by this chapter shall be subject to cancellation of all vehicle registrations for vehicles utilizing special fuel as a means of propulsion. Any unexpired Washington tonnage on the vehicles in question may be transferred to a purchaser of the vehicles upon application to the department who shall hold such tonnage in its custody until a sale of the vehicle is made or the tonnage has expired."

Renumber the section following consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a ruling on scope and object of this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined the amendment and the bill, Representative Padden. Substitute Senate Bill No. 4905 deals with the budgeting of the transportation budget appropriations. The amendment speaks of electronic transfers and other matters having to do with revenues, the electronic transfer of revenues. The Speaker, after examining both, finds that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken."

The committee amendment was adopted.

Revising provisions relating to civil actions.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 47th Day, February 28, 1986.)

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred. (~~PROVIDED. That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4-16-190~~).

(4)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190.

(b) An action based on alleged professional negligence in the treatment of a person during that person's birth or the prenatal treatment relating to the birth shall be commenced within eight years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition.

On page 27 of the amendment after line 19, strike all the material down to and including "negligence." on line 34

Remember the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

(Per a motion made later in the day, all debate made on this bill has been inserted in the Journal.)

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Ms. K. Wilson: "Mr. Speaker, if we adopt this amendment, can we adopt another amendment regarding the same thing?"

Mr. Speaker: "Representative Wilson, it's a hypothetical situation and I'm sure we're going to have a lot of these before this evening is out. I will deal with that when I see that or if I see that."

Mr. Bristow: "This amendment is inconsistent with provisions later in a striking amendment which will follow. I urge you to vote 'no' on the amendment."

Mr. Baillard: "I would also urge a 'no' vote on the amendment."

Mr. Appelwick: "Over the past year, and going into this session, one of the real problems where the documented evidence is real clear that the insurance industry, or at least the premiums they set, are way out of line in the area of obstetrics and gynecology. Before you, you have an amendment that deals in a rifle-shot fashion with a very specific documented problem and is not overly broad; it does not interfere with the rest of the tort system. This is much better than the proposal that is in the striking amendment to follow. I urge your adoption of it."

Mr. J. King: "What we have here is a test. There's been no explanation offered, the original amendment put forward, argument goes, and you've heard it before on the floor of this House--'It's a bad amendment. Vote 'no'.' We talked here last year about a big ugly bear is chomping around. We're going to find out right now with this amendment if the people are willing to listen to reason and vote on this, or whether they are going to clap their hands over their eyes, poke their fingers in their ears and vote blindly on a subject they don't know a lot about. Please support this amendment."

Mr. G. Nelson: "There should have been some additional explanation of this amendment. If one looks to the bottom of this page, you will see that it's also beginning on page 27 of the original amendment, striking all of section 907 of the amendment to the Judiciary Committee amendment. That particular striking action now removes the protection of members of boards of directors or other governing bodies of public or private hospitals. I'm not so sure that was the intention of the mover of this amendment, but it really does it to all of those board of director folks that are trustees and trying to administer the hospitals in the state of Washington. We ought to vote this amendment down. I think that for as far as it went with what the maker of the amendment had in mind, he accurately portrayed what his version of what action perhaps should be given in the way of protecting some of the OBs in the state, but it went far beyond what I think the intent is. It deserves a 'no' vote."

Mr. McMullen: "I've not been here that long, but I certainly understand the old idea of 'trust me and follow me,' and I think the Representative from the 7th District has been acting in good faith these many weeks and still is acting in good faith, but my concern is the document that we are going to totally adopt down the road, hit the bar an hour ago. It hit the bar an hour ago because, it was explained in caucus, when the OPR staff gave their version of these particular items to some high-powered, high-priced attorneys outside this body to work on, they came back and it left a grievous hole in it and it had to be amended. Up to that point, we were all listening, we were all assuming that this document said certain things and all of a sudden, it had a hole in it and had to be corrected. It's been sitting up there for an hour. How many people have read it?"

"This amendment is not inconsistent with the other amendment because the other amendment has an eight-year statute of limitations for all doctors. All doctors, not just baby doctors, all doctors. You and I have a twenty-one year statute of limitations if we go out here and negligently run a stop sign and hit a car with a child in it. We have a twenty-one year statute of limitations. We are going to take doctors in their economic status and the way the rest of the world treats them, and I hold them in very high esteem, and give them an eight-year statute of limitations, lower than anybody else. That's what the amendment down the road does. You know what else it does? You might want to take a look at it before you turn around and say we're just going to adopt something else down the road. We don't know what all the changes have been yet. This is just an effort by poor country lawyer from Sedro Woolley to try and find an effort, a way into the middle ground of this. We've heard the people talk on both sides and there was no solution. This is one of a series of amendments which I hope will come up with a solution..."

The Speaker advised Representative McMullen that his time had expired.

With the consent of the House, Mr. McMullen was allowed more time.

Mr. McMullen: "The point I was trying to make is that when we came into the session, there was a 'coalition package.' If you recall that coalition package, it never mentioned relief for doctors in this arena. Not at all. Then in discussions, we came up with the fact that the baby doctors are having a severe problem now, so this amendment tries to address that problem. What you have been asked to accept blindly down the road is an amendment for all doctors. It wasn't even requested and we're going to give the coalition all doctors. I feel strongly that when people cannot agree and you are forced to choose one side or the other, then it's fine and dandy to make a commitment, but I would also suggest that if legitimate compromise is being offered, a legitimate effort is being made to resolve the situation, that people who say they are going to be bound by their words, regardless of what the amendment may be, and not read the future amendment, I think you are doing a disservice to your constituents. I hope you would take the time to individually search your conscience and see if this particular amendment is indeed a fair amendment and adopt it."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 57; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Gallagher, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D. Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 40.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barrett, Basich, Betrozoff, Bond, Bristol, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zöllinsky - 57.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage in which a verdict or award for future economic damages of at least one hundred thousand dollars is made, the court or arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment which provides for the periodic payment in whole or in part of the future economic damages. With respect to the judgment, the court or arbitrator shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments intended to compensate the judgment creditor for the future economic damages.

(2) Prior to entry of judgment, the court shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of future economic damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include provisions for: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal which in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice best provides for the future needs of the claimant and enter judgment according to the proposal selected.

(3) If the court enters a judgment for periodic payments and any security required by the judgment is not posted within thirty days, the court shall enter a judgment for the payment of future damages in a lump sum.

(4) If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic payments, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor converted to present value. The court may also require payment of interest on the outstanding judgment.

(5) Upon the death of the judgment creditor, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages. Money damages awarded for loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor.

(6) Upon satisfaction of a periodic payment judgment, any obligation of the judgment debtor to make further payments shall cease and any security posted pursuant to this section shall revert to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56-.240 are each repealed."

Mr. McMullen: "This amendment -- I might remind the body that the first thing we are supposed to do is perfect any amendment before we strike it and that's the purpose of these amendments, to perfect the existing amendment, the committee amendment. This amendment is word-for-word from the proposal by the Representative from the 7th District. Word-for-word. I believe it is a better form than the committee amendment and therefore, I am asking you to adopt this amendment."

Mr. Bristow: "I guess I need to say that I disagree with my colleague from the 40th District. I think this is inappropriate and I ask you to vote 'no' on the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. McMullen yielded to question by Mr. G. Nelson.

Mr. G. Nelson: "Representative McMullen, we still have another action within this amendment beyond what you have described thus far. I would like to have you describe to the body on amendment 622, toward the bottom of the page where you are striking Section 202 from the Judiciary Committee amendment to the bill. I would be pleased to hear exactly what it is in the way of intent as to why you are striking that section."

Mr. McMullen: "As I mentioned, my intention is to try to perfect the committee amendment. The committee amendment, among other things, contains offers of settlement which the language from the soon-to-be propounded amendment as we understand does not contain. Therefore, it is entirely consistent with the following amendment from the Representative from the 7th District. Therefore, both the additional language and the ensuing language are identical with the Bristow amendment."

Mr. Ballard: "Urging you to vote no; it is not the same as the amendment that is following. It does not give discretion to the court to alter proposals. Vote 'no.'"

The amendments to the amendment were not adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a member of the board of directors or an officer of any nonprofit corporation is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders."

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.22 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall by regulation require insurers authorized to write casualty insurance in this state to form a market assistance plan to assist persons and other entities unable to purchase casualty insurance in an adequate amount from either the admitted market or non-admitted market.

For the purpose of this section, a market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing casualty insurance in this state in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide casualty insurance for a class of insurance designated in writing to the plan by the commissioner.

The bylaws and method of operation of any market assistance plan shall be approved by the commissioner prior to its operation.

A market assistance plan shall have a minimum of twenty-five insurers willing to insure risks within the class designated by the commissioner. If twenty-five insurers do not voluntarily agree to participate, the commissioner may require casualty insurers to participate in a market assistance plan as a condition of continuing to do business in this state. The commissioner shall make such a requirement to fulfill the quota of at least twenty-five insurers. The commissioner shall make his or her designation on the basis of the insurer's premium volume of casualty insurance in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, in reviewing a casualty rate filing, determine in accordance with sound and reliable actuarial principles whether this act requires an insurer to grant its policyholders a credit in such casualty rate filing. Upon determining that data in support of such a credit is actuarially credible, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove such casualty rate filing in accordance therewith. The commissioner shall not approve any casualty rate that is inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The commissioner shall, as chairman of the tort reform study commission, require the task force to study the effectiveness of joint underwriting authorities throughout the United States to specifically determine:

- (1) The price as it relates to a filed Insurance Services Organization rate;
- (2) The solvency of such mechanisms;
- (3) The effect it has on the admitted market;
- (4) The effect it has on the nonadmitted market;
- (5) The effect or availability on the voluntary market; and
- (6) What effect it has on lines or classes of insurance not designated."

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) 'Economic damages' means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) 'Noneconomic damages' means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) 'Bodily injury' means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) 'Average annual wage' means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) In any action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage, the claimant is entitled to recover noneconomic losses.

(3) No defendant shall be liable to any claimant in an action for personal injury or property damage for noneconomic losses exceeding the average annual wage multiplied by sixty percent of the life expectancy of the claimant as calculated under subsection (b) of this section. In applying the limits of this subsection, claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, and destruction of the parent-child relationship which are asserted by one who did not actually sustain bodily injury shall be added to any claims for noneconomic damages sustained by a claimant who did incur bodily injury.

(a) For purposes of determining noneconomic losses, no calculation for persons age sixty years or older shall be based on a life expectancy of less than fifteen years.

(b) The office of the administrator of the courts shall develop and publish annually, the schedule for noneconomic damages utilizing the life expectancy tables adopted by the Washington state insurance commissioner."

On page 10 of the amendment beginning on line 2 strike all the material down to and including "IV" on page 11, line 27

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 30 of the amendment, line 2, after "209" strike ", 303."

On page 30 of the amendment, line 9, after "210," strike "304."

With the consent of the House, Mr. McMullen withdrew the amendments.

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to the committee amendment:

On page 1, after line 4 insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several, except that a person whose percentage of fault is less than allocated to the claimant is liable to the claimant for no more than three times that person's own percentage of the damages, not to exceed the total amount of damages awarded by the trier of fact."

On page 11 of the amendment after line 27 strike everything down to and including "V" on page 12, line 8.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Mr. McMullen: "This is the attempt to find a resolution to the 'joint and several' problem which was the last hold-up in trying to resolve this entire tort reform problem. If I could use the analysis from where the state of Washington is coming, in my opinion, on 'joint and several' is retained from an old, old system where if the plaintiff was one percent at fault, that plaintiff could not even get in the courtroom doors. We've gone clear to the present state of affairs in 'joint and several'. I feel that the state of Washington has gone by a pendulum swing from a one, clear to a ten. I sincerely feel that we ought to bring that pendulum back. This obviously is not the position of the trial lawyers; none of my amendments are the position of the trial lawyers. They are not at all in accord with what I am offering today. This is a good faith effort to resolve this. This amendment I submit brings that pendulum back to about a six. The amendment which will be offered later on by Representative Bristow, in my opinion, takes us back to about a two, back to the dark ages where the entire trial will be by the defense trying to find the plaintiff wrong, even one percent, rather than to fully evaluate the damages. This amendment is addressing those concerns of the counties and municipalities, where for a five percent negligent standard, they happen to have been brought in for a deep pocket. This says if the plaintiff is more negligent than those counties and municipalities, then his or her recovery is limited to three times the percentage allotted to the county or municipality. I feel this is a fair appraisal and I would hope you will adopt this amendment."

Mr. Bristow: "This is an inconsistent and inappropriate amendment and I urge you to vote no.

Mr. Ballard: "Urging a 'no' vote on the amendment; a 'no' vote.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives McMullen and Niemi to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 62; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, Padden, Peery, Rayburn, Sayan, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 35.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Betrozoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, O'Brien, Patrick, Prince, Rust, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luvén, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 62.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. P. King moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives P. King and Wang to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

Rates shall be used, subject to the other provisions of this chapter, only if made in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) In the case of insurances under standard fire policies and that part of marine and transportation insurances not exempted under RCW 48.19.010, manual, minimum, class or classification rates, rating schedules or rating plans, shall be made and adopted; except as to specific rates on inland marine risks individually rated, which risks are not reasonably susceptible to manual or schedule rating, and which risks by general custom of the business are not written according to manual rates or rating plans.

(2) In the case of casualty and surety insurances:

(a) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the requirements of the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance, or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof for which subdivision or combination separate expense provisions are applicable.

(b) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any differences among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses.

(3) Due consideration in making rates for all insurances shall be given to:

(a) Past and prospective loss experience within and outside this state(~~(-and)~~); PROVIDED, That, in the case of rates for fire insurance, due consideration shall be given to the loss experience of insurers as to insurance against fire during a period of not less than the most recent five-year period for which such experience is available. In addition, casualty rates and rating schedules shall be supported, whenever possible, by loss experience for this state. If such information is not available or is not statistically credible, an insurer may use loss experience from the state of Idaho, Montana, and Oregon in support of a rate filing or rating schedule. Loss experience from states other than Washington, Idaho, Montana, and Oregon may be used in support of a rate filing or rating schedule only after it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the loss experience from those states is either not available or is not statistically credible.

- (b) Conflagration and catastrophe hazards, where present.
- (c) A reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies.
- (d) Dividends, savings and unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers.
- (e) All other relevant factors within and outside this state.
- (4) In addition to other factors required by this section, rates filed by an insurer on its own behalf may also be related to the insurer's plan of operation and plan of risk classification.
- (5) Except to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 48.19.020 uniformity among insurers in any matter within the scope of this section is neither required nor prohibited.

 Re-number the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. P. King: "This amendment, if you look at it, isn't going to be in the Bristow striking amendment, so I ask you to pay attention. This is something you can take back home to your voters and say that you did something about insurance rate increases. This puts back up in the language before the Bristow striking amendment, the limitation of fifteen percent and also puts the experience rating for Washington insurers. As you know, and many have been told over and over again, our rates are based on national rates; they are not based on Washington experience. Many other states have punitive damages. This would just make that playing field level for Washington, so we would get the benefits of our experience here in the state. I urge the adoption. There will be not another chance to vote on this because the Bristow striking amendment will probably go through. I urge you to take this back home to your voters."

Mr. Bristow: "I think this insurance issue will be more appropriately covered in subsequent amendments as we perfect the committee amendment, so I will urge you to vote 'no' on this amendment."

Mr. Ballard: "Vote 'no' on the amendment. Vote 'no.'"

Mr. P. King: "Don't listen to that. The fact of the matter is that it is not going to be brought up. This is your last chance to do something for the ratepayers in your district. Vote 'yes' on this."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendments by Representatives P. King and Wang to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 59; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nuttley, O'Brien, Patrick, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsöld, Valle, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 38.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doly, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 59.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. P. King moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives P. King and Wang to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 26, Laws of 1975 as amended by section 2, chapter 147, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.56.115 are each amended to read as follows:

Judgments founded on the tortious conduct of the state of Washington or of the political subdivisions, municipal corporations, and quasi municipal corporations of the state, whether acting in their governmental or proprietary capacities, shall bear interest from the date of ((entry)) filing of the action upon which the judgment is based at the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020 on the date of ((entry thereof: PROVIDED, That in any case where a court is directed on review to enter judgment on a verdict or in any case where a judgment entered on a verdict is wholly or partly affirmed on review, interest on the judgment or on that portion of the judgment affirmed shall date back to and shall accrue from the date the verdict was rendered)) filing."

Mr. P. King: "This is another one that isn't going to be in the Bristow striking amendment and I urge you to consider it. This is really a business amendment. What it says is that you get interest from the time you file your lawsuit. So if you are in a business lawsuit and you have to wait around for four years to get your judgment, you don't get that money that you would have incurred on the judgment between the four years and if it goes for appeal it might go three or four years beyond that, so seven years without interest on a business judgment that you could have had. This is just a matter of fairness. This is making the playing field a little level, getting it back where it should have been a long time ago. I urge your support and don't listen to this..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "For the second time, the speaker has made reference to other arguments, which have been made or will be made, in a very derogatory manner."

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, you perhaps anticipated what he was going to say and I did not hear him say--he did not complete the sentence. He didn't get an opportunity. Perhaps he'd like to complete the sentence and maybe you will have a point."

Mr. P. King: "I think the other argument was a little bit felonious and I was worried about their comments."

Mr. Bristow: "I would like to assure my colleague from the 44th District that we mean him no harm and would ask you to vote against this inappropriate amendment."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives P. King and Wang to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 51; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Basich, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisher, Gallagher, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Long, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Peery, Sayan, Schmidt, Smith L, Sutherland, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Wang, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 46.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Barrett, Baugher, Betrozoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Fisch, Fuhrman, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Patrick, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 51.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. P. King moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1 of the amendment, after line 4, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Limitations on noneconomic damages shall not be applicable under any provisions of this act when the following actions seeking damages for personal injury or death are involved:

- (1) Limitations do not apply to actions for the loss of both parents by a minor claimant.
- (2) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries have resulted in the loss of both arms.

(3) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries have resulted in the complete loss of sight in both eyes.

(4) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries have rendered the claimant paraplegic.

(5) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries have rendered the claimant quadriplegic.

(6) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from the escape of a convict.

(7) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries have resulted in permanent sexual dysfunction.

(8) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from the negligent failure of a law enforcement agency to respond to a call.

(9) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from rape.

(10) Limitations do not apply to actions for the loss of a mother by a child under five years of age.

(11) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from asbestosis.

(12) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from toxic poisoning.

(13) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant has no children and, as a result of the injuries, is physically unable to procreate or bear children.

(14) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant's injuries resulted from the actions of a person driving or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

(15) Limitations do not apply to actions in which the claimant is a victim of AIDS incurred from causes other than homosexual acts."

Mr. P. King: "This amendment is really in response to a lot of correspondence that we've had here from organizations like MADD and SADD and all those other groups and women's groups and so on. Really, you can go through the list here and there are quite a few. I don't think anybody here wants to be on record as voting to have these people limited in their rights. Really, it is a sad situation to limit somebody when a drunk driver smashes into somebody, and here we are limiting their recovery; or a certain woman is raped and many of you read that letter that we received from the psychologists the other day about a woman who was raped and where they had her rights limited. I urge you strongly to support this. Take these poor people out. Listen to your constituents and vote the right way."

Mr. Bristow: "I think this body, as we move to truly perfect this bill, will show that our hearts are in the right place. I think this is an attempt to do damage to this bill and I would urge you to vote against this amendment."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative P. King to page 1 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 63; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Chandler, Cole, Dellwo, Fisch, Fisher, Hine, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Thomas, Todd, Unselo, Wang, West, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 34.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Crane, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 63.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Niemi and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 5, beginning on line 8 strike all of Part II, sections 201 through 210.

Mr. Wang: "This amendment is the same as the Padden amendment which was withdrawn. This is the first of a series of several amendments which have been prepared which adopts coalition language and attempts to perfect the committee amendment which is before us. The coalition has not opposed, as I understand it--I talked to the gentleman from the 7th District--the coalition is not opposed to this language. I would hope this will be the first amendment to be adopted here in an attempt to perfect the bill before us. The issue of what this amendment would do would be to strike the provisions currently in the bill which deal with offers of settlement. When we first started to respond to this problem last fall, this was one of the alternatives that I was considering in terms of introducing--proposing--some provisions dealing with offers of settlement in which attorney fees could be paid by the losing party under certain circumstances. This would be, however, a major shift in the whole philosophy of jurisprudence of going from one party paying to the other party paying for attorney fees. The problems are that it really leads to an inequity in many situations. For example, if you've got one defendant who is insured and, on the other hand, the person is a very poor person who is a plaintiff, the incentive is all there; the plaintiff has nothing to lose and the incentive is there for the plaintiff not to settle. On the other hand, going the other way, if you've got a middle class plaintiff, the plaintiff has a lot to lose and an attorney would almost have to advise the person to accept whatever settlement there was even if it's not a fair settlement, because the person can't afford to hold out. The offers of settlement provision that were in the committee proposal are well-intentioned, but they are not going to work and they are going to leave some inequities. I would hope that you would join me in supporting this amendment which simply strikes that, consistent with the coalition proposal and consistent with making the language conform with the coalition proposal without attempting to insert language in the gap at page 1, line 6. This puts the language in the text of the bill. I would urge your support.

Mr. Padden: "Also urging your support of the amendment, this was offered in the Judiciary Committee and lost on a tie vote, but I think, as far as I know, there is no real support among either defense of plaintiff bar for this. It is not in the striking amendment that is coming because it is recognized as being unworkable. The offers of settlement that we have now in current law, pertain to offers under $7500.00 and are meant to keep the smaller cases out of the courts. I think there is widespread opposition to abandoning that and I would simply urge that you vote 'yes.'"

Mr. Bristow: "I certainly don't object to this truly perfecting amendment and I urge you to vote your conscience."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Locke and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

Beginning on page 10, line 3 strike everything through page 11, line 26 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

The court shall, upon petition by a named party in any tort action, except those provided for in RCW 7.70.070, determine the reasonableness of that party's attorneys' fees. The court shall take into consideration the following:

- (1) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
- (3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) The amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
- (7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services;
- (8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (9) Whether the fixed or contingent fee agreement was in writing and whether the client was aware of his or her right to petition the court under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 202. Section 201 of this act applies to agreements for attorney's fees entered into after the effective date of this section."

Mr. Wang: "This also would give the coalition version in dealing with attorney fees. It places it in the committee amendment language. The concept here is to require a court to review what reasonable attorney fees would be in a court situation upon the request of the party to the case. There is not the thirty-day limitation that's in the committee language and this allows for a petition by the party as opposed to the party's attorney. It's perfecting language identical to the coalition language and I would urge your support of it."

Mr. Bristow: "Here, again, is another perfecting amendment which I can't object to and I urge you to vote your conscience."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Locke, Wang and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 11 of the committee amendment, after line 26, insert the following:

"PART IV

LIMITATION ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) 'Economic damages' means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) 'Noneconomic damages' means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) 'Bodily injury' means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) 'Average annual wage' means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355.

(2) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or death may a claimant recover a judgment for noneconomic damages exceeding an amount determined by multiplying 0.43 by the average annual wage and by the life expectancy of the person incurring noneconomic damages. For purposes of determining the maximum amount allowable for noneconomic damages, a claimant's life expectancy shall not be less than fifteen years. The limitation contained in this subsection applies to all claims for noneconomic damages made by a claimant who incurred bodily injury. Claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, destruction of the parent-child relationship, and all other derivative claims asserted by persons who did not sustain bodily injury are to be included within the limitation on claims for noneconomic damages arising from the same bodily injury.

(3) If a case is tried to a jury, the jury shall not be informed of the limitation contained in subsection (2) of this section."

Remember the parts and sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Locke: "This is again an attempt to perfect the committee amendment to make it as close as possible to the coalition version. This language was taken verbatim from the coalition package. I urge your adoption."

Mr. Bristow: "There is certainly no way that we can object to this amendment."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Sayan moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 12, line 2 after "several" strike everything through line 7 and insert "Subject to the limits established in this section a defendant whose percentage of fault is determined to be less than the fault attributable to the claimant shall not be required to pay an amount greater than twice the damages attributable to the defendant. A defendant whose percentage of fault is greater than that attributable to the claimant shall not be required to pay an amount greater than three times the damage attributable to the defendant."

Mr. Sayan: "This is a good-faith effort to perfect the amendment and simply provide for a more equitable distribution on the basis of percentage of claim, and it puts a cap on the deep pocket and also provides that the plaintiff has some relief. Unfortunately in 1973 when this legislation was passed originally, this kind of idea was overlooked and this brings it back toward equity in the litigation. I urge its adoption."

Mr. Bristow: "We have no position on this amendment. It would be stricken by the striking amendment and language along this subject would be reinserted."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Locke, Wang and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 11 of the committee amendment, beginning on line 29, strike all of section 401 and insert the following:

*Sec. 401. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) of this section, if more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, a person whose percentage of fault is less than that allocated to the claimant is liable to the claimant only for the person's own percentage of the damages.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to:

(a) A cause of action involving a violation of any state or local law relating to solid wastes, hazardous wastes or substances, air, water, or high or low level radioactive wastes or substances;

(b) A cause of action involving the manufacture or marketing of a product causing injury to the claimant that cannot be attributed to the conduct of a particular defendant and in which the conduct of all defendants is simultaneous in time or poses substantially the same risk of harm to the claimant. The fault of each defendant in such a cause of action shall be determined on a market-share basis; or

(c) A cause of action arising under Title 51 RCW.

(4) The state or a county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, special district, or other governmental entity that is liable on a claim is liable only for the entity's own percentage of fault.

(5) In an action in which a right of contribution exists under RCW 4.22.040, the court shall determine, upon a motion made not later than one year after judgment is entered, whether all or part of a liable party's share of the judgment is uncollectible. If the court so finds, it shall reallocate the uncollectible amount among all other parties who were allocated a percentage of fault, including a claimant at fault, according to the ratios of their respective percentages of fault. In determining whether a share is uncollectible, the court shall consider the current and future availability and extent of resources from which collection might be made, the current and future ability of the party seeking reallocation to collect the share, and the reasonableness of the efforts made by the party seeking reallocation to collect the share. The party whose share is reallocated is nonetheless subject to contribution and to any continuing liability to the claimant on the judgment."

Mr. Appelwick: "The joint/several proposal has been much debated and there seems to be the core of what everybody is being so protective of. The proposal that the coalition has put forth is defective in several regards. The amendment before you put the combination of the Oregon approach, which says you have joint and several liability unless the plaintiff is more negligent than the defendant. It further adds what was previously the Locke amendment which, in case one of those jointly and severally liable defendants is negligent and is insolvent, that insolvent party's loss is apportioned between the plaintiff and the defendant in relative proportion to where they are. The criticism of the existing tort law is that it's unfair because when someone is insolvent, the other defendant bears the whole risk of loss from that insolvency. If that's true, then the joint and several proposal that is being advanced in the striking amendment by the gentlemen from the 7th and 12th, is equally unfair and is equally ridiculous because it shifts the total risk of loss to the plaintiff whenever the plaintiff has even one percent of negligence involved in the case. What we are proposing is that this be apportioned between the defendant and the plaintiff who is not insolvent in relative proportion to their fault. In addition, the amendment says that municipal governments are always only severally liable. I mentioned the baby doctor problem before, where the obstetricians and gynecologists had a real problem, for all those people who are driven to support this amendment to take care of local government, this does it much better; much more straightforward without any exception than does the striking amendment you are talking about. There is a further concern in the amendment, and that is you require in the the striking amendment, the defense of the empty chair. It totally undercuts settlement and that fact and that problem do not exist in this amendment. This is a much better approach and I urge your support for it."

Mr. Padden: "I also urge support. I guess I have some concerns on this. I basically favor the language that currently is in the House Judiciary Committee amendment which is the Oregon language, pure and simple. This provides additional protection to some municipalities that I think goes beyond the committee amendment, but I think it is far, far more preferable than what is in the striking amendment to come, which does away with joint and several, and I think will produce some really harsh results in the real world. This approach will take care of those extreme examples of somebody who is five percent at fault, and yet is paying one hundred percent of the damages. It is especially protective of the municipalities in the state, so I would urge it and ask you to consider it as a worthy alternative to the proposal that is in coalition."

Mr. Bristow: "In the proposal that, I guess, has become affectionately known as the coalition provision, in the case of an innocent injured party involved with a suit involving municipalities, that innocent injured party could recover in full, so the flaw to me in this amendment is that an injured innocent party involved in a lawsuit with a municipality could not recover in full if the defendant were insolvent. I just hope that you will seriously consider that implication as you vote on this measure."

Mr. McMullen: "On a scale of one to ten, as I mentioned before, this comes back to about a five. It's a further swing even yet. What I would ask you to do is compare this to the coming coalition proposal. The coming coalition proposal, if you read it carefully, says to the defense attorney, 'Your job is to go into court and do nothing but find the plaintiff one percent liable.' That's to get out of joint and several. That's all they have to do. Therefore, the defense, rather than talking about how the accident happened or talking about damages or anything else, their first charge is to find the plaintiff one percent negligent. Also, if you take a look at the coming proposal, it talks about releasing entities immune from action. Remember that proposal also sets an eight-year statute of limitations for all doctors, unlike anybody else; so, if a doctor and somebody else is involved in a lawsuit and the lawsuit is brought in the ninth year, the doctor is immune. The doctor can then come into court and say it was all his fault and take one hundred percent of the blame and the other wrongful party gets ten percent. How do you go after a doctor who admits total liability in a lawsuit in order to protect some other body? I don't think people have sat down and thought of the ramifications of what that coalition proposal means. It will handicap the juries. It will handicap the injured parties and it will be a field day for defense lawyers. I think this is a fair and just allocation and I urge you to adopt this amendment."

Mr. Wang: "I would also urge your support for this proposal. I think that the discussion by the gentleman from the 7th District also points to some of the fairness that can be found in this proposal. The example would be what happens if the plaintiff is not at all at fault. Under the coalition proposal you still have the deep pocket. Municipal government would still be entirely liable and you still would have the inequities and the criticisms of the current system of joint and several liability. Under this proposal, it would solve that problem. This proposal would say that the local government or state government, whatever governmental entity it is, would be liable only for the portion of fault they have. It would solve that deep pocket problem. More importantly though, this proposal deals with the problem of trial tactics that otherwise you would get into, which the gentleman from the 40th District referred to. The situation in which it is easy to try to find even one percent fault on the part of the plaintiff and, indeed, defense attorneys would naturally, of course, try to find one percent fault because once they did that, then you've got a problem with eliminating joint and several liability just by finding one percent fault. You can find one percent fault so easily comparatively. You can do it in the form of a taillight that is out. We're talking about a whole range of thing. We're talking about your basic car crash, your simple little fender-bender, everything; we're not talking about just million dollar medical malpractice cases. We're talking about the little fender-benders also. This is going to cause all kinds of problems and all kinds of difficulties with trial tactics. I would urge you to consider and support this proposal."

Mr. Appelwick: "Just briefly, you know in the negotiations that went on, the coalition rejected the version that didn't have the municipal liability. I think that argument's a red herring. You need to understand that the number of current lawsuits in which the plaintiff has some liability and whom you will cut off from having access to joint several liability far exceeds the number where you will have--there will be immunity for municipal plaintiff by the governmental immunity. You are clearly cutting off people who have bodily injury or property damage from recovering that loss under this proposal. If you reject this amendment and adopt the coalition striking amendment, there is no doubt in my mind, and there shouldn't be in yours, that that's the harm you will inflict."

Mr. Ballard: "Urging you to vote against the amendment, the red herring is, quite frankly, that we are talking about one percent all the time, in the real world that just simply doesn't happen in the court. Prior to 1973, we talked about bringing it back to equal, prior to 1973 this simply didn't exist. I would urge you to reject this amendment and support the coalition amendment."

Mr. Padden: "Just to point out that we are not dealing here with the coalition amendment. We're dealing with the Judiciary Committee amendment and we're trying to perfect that amendment to make it a worthy amendment. You still will have an opportunity to vote for or against the coalition striking amendment later on. This certainly is closer to the coalition amendment than what is in the bill right now. With that supposition, I think we should vote for the amendment."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Locke, Wang and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 12, line 13 after "a" insert "complete"

On page 12, after line 23 insert the following:

"Sec. 502. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care, which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred((-PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190))."

Mr. Locke: "This is another attempt to perfect the committee amendment to bring it closer in line with the so-called coalition version. This adopts the coalition proposal of the statute of limitations, saying that the knowledge of the parents is attributed to the child so that the lawsuit would have to be brought within the statute of limitations regardless of the age of the child, that a parent would have to bring it. It would effectively cut down the number of lawsuits and would force parents to exercise their parental responsibilities in doing what is best for the child. I urge your adoption of this amendment."

Mr. McMullen: "I think I can predict the outcome of some of these amendments, but I would just like to remind you of what you are doing here. This, in essence, is a three-year statute of limitations on a birth case. Three years, when the parents for reasons of religion, for reasons of lack of knowledge, for reasons for living up-river in the state of Washington, for reasons that they trust their doctors, don't file a lawsuit within three years, they come into court and they face their own doctor saying, 'I told them that there was a problem during delivery and they just didn't hear me.' Now that makes a three-year statute of limitations. At the most, we're going to go eight. I offered eight for baby doctors earlier, but this is down to three years. We're taking away the rights of minors and we're saying that the parents know about that. The doctors said they knew about it, and they have a three-year statute of limitations. Three years--they don't even have time to start talking and walking and go through tests to see if there is something wrong with them, and we're going to just say 'tough.' Now, if you want to go ahead and vote for it, I suppose you are going to, but I want you to know what you are voting for. I urge you to oppose this amendment."

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 16 of the amendment beginning on line 16 strike everything through "year." on page 17, line 31 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 801. (1) In an action for personal injuries, wrongful death, or property damage in which a verdict or award of future damages is in excess of the amount established under subsection (4) of this section, the court shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment for periodic installments of such future damages as provided in this chapter.

(2) The court shall enter judgment in lump sum for past damages, noneconomic damages, attorney fees, if any, costs, and litigation expenses of the plaintiff.

(3) If a judgment for periodic installments is to be entered under subsection (1) of this section, the court prior to entry of judgment shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of such future damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include the following provisions:

(a) The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments;

(b) The intervals between payments;

(c) The number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made;

(d) Modification for hardship;

(e) Posting of adequate security;

(f) Payment of interest; and

(g) Any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances.

After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select, modify, or develop a payment plan which, in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice, best provides for the future needs of the claimant. Any proposal for periodic installments of ten years or more approved by the court must guarantee payments for a minimum of ten years.

(4) On the effective date of this section, the minimum amount referenced in subsection (1) of this section shall be one hundred thousand dollars. On July 1, 1987, and on July 1 of each year thereafter, the office of the administrator for the courts shall adjust the minimum amount in accordance with the change in the federal consumer price index during the previous year."

On page 19 of the amendment, beginning on line 5, strike everything through "creditor." on line 32, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 804. In cases in which future damages are payable in periodic installments under this chapter:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, payment of future medical damages shall continue to be paid to the estate of the judgment creditor only for as long as necessary to enable the estate to satisfy medical expenses of the judgment creditor that were due and owing at the time of death, which resulted from the injury for which damages were awarded, and do not exceed the dollar amount of the total payments for such future medical damages outstanding at the time of death: PROVIDED, That the balance of the ten-year guarantee provided for in section 401 of this act shall not be reduced or terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor, but shall be considered part of the estate of the judgment creditor; and

(2) The portion of any periodic payment allocatable to loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor, but shall be considered part of the estate of the judgment creditor. In such cases, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, convert those portions of such periodic payments allocatable to the loss of future earnings to a lump sum by calculating the present value of such payments in order to assist in the settlement of the estate of the judgment creditor."

On page 19 of the amendment, beginning on line 33, strike everything through "accordingly," on page 20, line 33, and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 805. (1) If, at any time after entry of judgment, a judgment creditor or successor in interest can establish that the continued payment of the judgment in periodic installments will impose a hardship, due to a substantial change of circumstances not provided for in the payment plan under section 401 of this act, the court may, in its discretion, order that the remaining payments or a portion thereof shall be made to the judgment creditor in a lump sum. The court shall, before entering such an order, consider the following: (a) Whether unanticipated and substantial medical or other needs have arisen that warrant the payment of the remaining payments, or a portion thereof, in a lump sum; (b) whether ordering such a lump sum payment would impose an unreasonable financial burden on the judgment debtor or debtors; (c) whether ordering such a lump sum payment will accommodate the future medical and other needs of the judgment creditor; and (d) whether ordering such a lump sum payment would further the interests of justice.

(2) If a lump sum payment is ordered by the court, such lump sum shall be calculated on the basis of the present value of remaining periodic payments, or portions thereof, that are converted into a lump sum payment. The remaining future periodic payments, if any, shall be reduced accordingly."

Mr. Appelwick: "These three amendments together are the proposal on periodic payments and this is the language as it was perfected in negotiations between the coalition representative and others who have met over the past week and a half. The approach in this, of course, is to get people together to see if we could avoid this lengthy process today. We talked about if this were a piece of the proposal, what language could we agree on to be perfecting. All of the amendments I am offering today came through that process. They don't come from any place else; from all the parties at the table, this was good language. For the periodic here provides for a lump sum up front for noneconomic damages, they have a guarantee of payments of ten years or more in the installment plan, they have a threshold of $100,000 that's in the coalition version. They have the federal CPI inflator for subsequent years and they have something that's missing in the other one, and that is the statutory right of modification if it gets changed for some unforeseen circumstances. That is, if something happens down the road and the plan that has been entered won't work, you have the right under statute to go to the court and ask to have that modified. The coalition didn't adopt that language and I don't frankly know why. It says that the plan itself may provide some modifications, but frankly, just think of all the mistakes that we found in this bill that is being drafted today by competent attorneys downstairs. There are glitches all over the place and if your plan comes through and the other side is drafting it and the court fixes it, and doesn't put in the modification provision or forgets to even reference it, you are out in the cold. This is a cleanup that is important to protect people who have very large losses, obviously, because they are way above the threshold, who are put on installments or periodic payment, and it's important statutory protection to give these people who have been harmed. I urge your support."

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. Sayan moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 21, after line 7 insert:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 807. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Sayan: "I think the interesting thing here for the body is that if we realize as lay persons and not as those who are members of the bar, when you figure doctors and out-of-pocket expense, when you pay a special witness to a court, it's an out-of-pocket expense. I do not understand why we consider paying an attorney to be not an out-of-pocket expense. In fact, it is an out-of-pocket expense. Why should then, an individual who wins an award be required to subtract from that award to pay an out-of-pocket expense? How does it, somehow in the mystical world of law, become a noneconomic damage when everything else you pay out-of-pocket is an economic damage? My amendment simply seeks to provide protection for the plaintiff. There are plaintiffs who have won an award, who end up having to pay expenses out of pocket. They didn't win anything; they won an award and that left them holding an empty sack. This protects the defendant by separating reasonable attorney fees from pain and suffering and allows the jury to recognize the difference. Finally, it protects the attorneys by providing reasonable attorney fees. There are attorneys who have anticipated a return from their efforts, only to find that they have an adverse result in court. This would insure that reasonable attorney fees, as economic expenses, are provided. It's unfortunate that we couldn't come together with all the parties to discuss these issues. Unfortunately the process didn't lend itself to that and, I'm sure, you are going to hear those speeches later on today. I urge your adoption of this amendment."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Locke moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Locke, Wang and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 21, beginning on line 21 strike everything through page 22, line 27 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

A breach of a duty imposed by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule shall not be considered negligence per se, but may be considered by the trier of fact as evidence of negligence; however, any breach of duty as provided by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule relating to electrical fire safety, the use of smoke alarms, or driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, shall be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to an action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug and that such condition contributed more than fifty percent to his or her injuries or death. If the amount of alcohol in a person's blood is shown by chemical analysis of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily substance to have been 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the blood, it is conclusive proof that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the board of directors or a superintendent of any school district is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Locke: "Again, this is a perfecting amendment to the committee amendment to bring it in line with the various elements of the coalition package, merely saying that mere violation of an ordinance or statute is not negligence automatically, that if the plaintiff was a drunk and that person contributed to more than fifty percent of his or her own injuries and it immunizes school board members and school superintendents unless they were grossly negligent."

Mr. Padden: "This also eliminates the mandatory arbitration provision from the committee amendment which is not part of the striking amendment to come. The committee amendment as it is now raises the limits of mandatory arbitration from $25,000 to $100,000. It just recently has been raised from $15,000 to $25,000, and we don't feel that is necessary. I would urge your support of the amendment."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Wang, Locke and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 25 of the committee amendment, line 28 after "filing" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That upon a finding that this limitation would operate to require actuarially unsound insurance practices, the commissioner may waive the limitation"

Mr. Wang: "This provides some flexibility in the insurance provisions of the existing committee amendment which is before us. This provides, where the fifteen percent lid on premium rates of insurance applies, this would allow for some changes to that lid where it would otherwise be actuarially unsound. It would give some needed cushion while still providing protection to the consumer to avoid excessive rate changes in insurance."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 27 of the amendment beginning on line 35, strike everything through "jury," on page 28, line 14 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 908. A new section is added to chapter 4.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action for damages for personal injury, wrongful death, or damage to property, the court shall instruct the jury that if the jury finds a verdict awarding damages, it shall in its verdict specify the damages that have been incurred prior to the verdict and amounts intended to compensate for damages to be incurred in the future. Specification of damages shall include each category of damages considered by the jury.

(2) A party entering into a release, covenant not to sue, or similar agreement entered into by a claimant and a person liable for damages for personal injury, wrongful death, or damage to property, shall include in the agreement a specification of damages for the amount to be paid under the agreement. The agreement shall include specification of damages that have been incurred prior to the agreement and amounts intended to compensate for damages to be incurred in the future, and shall include each category of damages considered by the parties to the agreement. The agreement shall be filed with the clerk of the court."

Mr. Appelwick: "The committee amendment has a very good provision which requires itemized verdicts. Part of the problems in the debate that has ensued over the past week is that all of the rhetoric about how high the pain and suffering awards have been as compared to economic damages. One of the problems in actual practice is that the insurance industry does not like to break down their awards and tell you how much they are giving in terms of pain and suffering, because of the preferential value. I think if we could have this debate based on fact of what is filed in litigation and in what my amendment adds, what is filed in those out of court settlements, then we could have true data on this issue. I urge you to adopt this amendment which will require itemized verdicts and itemized settle agreements to be made a public record, so that you could base, in the future, on not simply supposition, but based in truly fact on what is going on in real practice."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Padden and Hargrove to the committee amendment:

On page 29 of the amendment, after line 36, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 911. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

No person may maintain a cause of action or receive an award of damages based on the claim that but for the negligent conduct of another, he or she would have been aborted. This section, however, does not affect rights or duties of parents or health care providers regarding the receiving or giving of information necessary for an informed consent to an abortion procedure."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Padden: "One of the big complaints, and I think this is a justifiable complaint regarding our system, is the effect it has had on the medical community, especially the OB/GYN area. One of the things that causes medical malpractice insurance premium rates to go up is new causes of action. In this state, as a result of the Harbeson v. Parke-Davis case, there was a new cause of action that came about in 1983. It was an action for wrongful birth and wrongful life. I would just like quote briefly from the court decision there. At that time, the Washington State Supreme Court stated, 'Are these developments the first step toward a facist-Orwellian societal attitude of genetic purity or Huxley's Brave New World, or do they provide positive benefits to individual families and all society by avoiding the vast emotional and economic costs of defective children?' The court then indicated that we hold that parents have the right to prevent the birth of a defective child, and the health care provider, a duty relative to that right. The court then went on to indicate that the injury is, in fact, the birth itself. Other states have restricted this cause of action on wrongful life and wrongful birth. I believe the state of Idaho has, and along with their statute of limitations, an eight-year statute of limitations. The information that I have is that the malpractice insurance premiums there for OB/GYNs are about $12,000 a year less than in our state. This bill passed out of the House Judiciary Committee on a 15 to 2 vote in 1983. I would strongly urge you to support this amendment and I feel that without it, and under current law, that as a result of the Harbeson case, a physician can be liable on three different separate series of liability: Failure to diagnose and inform; the performance of an abortion if the mother did not wish to have an abortion, doing such a procedure to be sure the child's right not to be born are protected; and failure to abort and be subject to the child's right to sue for wrongful life. Clearly, this is something that has been supported by the Washington State Medical Association, by their delegates. I would urge your support. I feel very badly that, despite requests, this was not included in the coalition striking amendment, because it would go a long way to help insure our society that they are going to have adequate obstetrical care. I urge your support."

Mr. Armstrong: "I rise in opposition to this amendment and to say that the coalition was correct not to include this amendment in the coalition proposal. No one says by saving this right of action, that a child should not live or should not have been born. The only thing that denial of this amendment says, is that when parents have the incredible expense of a Downs syndrome child or a child otherwise born with less than it should have, that the parents will be assisted in paying for the hundreds of thousands of dollars that it costs to raise the child who does turn out to have a birth defect. I urge that you defeat this amendment."

Mr. Hargrove: "The flip side of the argument that was just made is that the doctors, in order to avoid sharing in the expense of this Down's syndrome or retarded child, will be required to suggest or require that the parents have an abortion instead of putting themselves in the liability in that situation. I think we all recognize that medicine is an art and not a science. It is extremely difficult, even with the current state of the art and all the science we have available, to predict all of the birth defects before birth and to insure against this liability. I hope we don't have a situation in the future where doctors feel compelled, in order to avoid the chance of liability in this area, to recommend abortion for their patients even when they only have the slightest suspicion that there might be something wrong with that unborn child. I would urge your support for this amendment."

Mr. Wang: "I would urge your opposition to this amendment. The Harbeson case, which has been referred to, is a case which has generated a lot of misunderstanding and a lot of emotional furor. The facts of the case were that a doctor was--the patient came up and asked the doctor if the medicine was okay to use. 'I'm pregnant, is this medicine okay to use?' The doctor failed to check. The doctor gave the wrong information and prescribed the medicine which led to birth defects. It's a very simple case from that standpoint and it does not require abortion or anything of that sort. It simply says that under those kinds of fact situations, of course, the doctor should be liable for not checking, for ignoring the literature, ignoring the warnings of prescribing medicine. This amendment would preclude that kind of liability, which I believe is a very reasonable liability to attach. The amendment is intended to get at that one case and I think it is a very reasonable case. I would not adopt this amendment."

Mr. Bond: "Very briefly, I think it is necessary to straighten the situation out here a little bit. We are not talking about malpractice on somebody, the problem is that the injury is the birth itself. That's what we are talking about, so I don't think anybody should be confused about that."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Padden and Hargrove to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 50; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Bond, Bristow, Chandler, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hargrove, Hastings, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Long, Lundquist, McMullen, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Rayburn, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sutherland, Taylor, Tilly, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley - 47.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Betzoff, Braddock, Brekke, Brooks, Brough, Cole, Crane, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Grimm, Hankins, Haugen, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Lux, Madsen, May, Miller, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Prince, Rust, Schmidt, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Thomas, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vander Stoep, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 50.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 29 of the amendment, after line 36, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 911. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) 'Economic damages' means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) 'Noneconomic damages' means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) 'Bodily injury' means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(2) In any action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage, the claimant is entitled to recover noneconomic losses.

(3) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or property damage may a claimant recover damages for noneconomic losses exceeding four hundred thousand dollars except in extraordinary circumstances in which application of that limit would constitute an inequitable and unreasonably severe hardship on the claimant. In applying the limits of this subsection, claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, and destruction of the parent-child relationship which are asserted by one who did not actually sustain bodily injury shall be added to any claims for noneconomic damages sustained by a claimant who did incur bodily injury."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Locke: "Mr. Speaker, I believe we adopted House floor amendment 610 which would conflict with this amendment. I would ask for your ruling on the situation where you have two inconsistent amendments to a bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Locke, the Speaker would note Reed's Rule 161. 'An amendment may be inconsistent or incompatible with the words left in the bill, or with other amendments already adopted, but that is for the assembly to decide, and not for the presiding officer. For him to pass upon such a question would be very embarrassing to the assembly...' and it certainly would be in this case. '...So, also, the question of constitutionality is not for him to decide. Incompatibility, inconsistency, and unconstitutionality are matters of argument.' I find your point of order not well taken."

Mr. Padden: "I know you are all anxiously awaiting to see what this amendment is. It's another approach to dealing with the cap. It's an approach that, I think, is a more viable approach and a more constitutionally sound approach although, of course, that's always open to argument. What this does is put a cap on the non-economic damages of $400,000 across the board, so this is simply not an age discrimination type of approach. Also, what it does, it allows some discretion. I think it is generally accepted, the more discretion that is maintained with the trier of fact-- be it the judge or the jury--the more likely we are going to have a sound constitutional bill. In that regard, it has an escape clause and I'd like to read from that portion of the amendment. It says, "...except in extraordinary circumstances in which application of that limit would constitute an inequitable and unreasonably severe hardship on the claimant." So, as much as we have adopted an emergency escape hatch on the cap on the insurance premiums, this would allow that here also, but would have a flat $400,000 cap on noneconomic damages across the board. I strongly urge your support for this approach."

Mr. Bristow: "This body has already adopted a much more appropriate and thoughtful amendment dealing with this subject. I would strongly urge you to defeat this amendment."

The amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Bristow moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bristow and Ballard to the committee amendment:

On page 2 of the amendment, after line 33, strike all material down through "affected." on page 30, line 15 and insert the following:

*PART I

ACCELERATED PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE

Sec. 101. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1982 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

(4) A (~~regular~~) physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient, (~~but this exception shall not apply in any judicial proceeding regarding a child's injuries; neglect or sexual abuse, or the cause thereof~~) except as follows:

(a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

(b) Within ninety days of filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall elect whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. If the claimant does not waive the physician-patient privilege, the claimant may not put his or her mental or physical condition or that of his or her decedent or beneficiaries in issue and may not waive the privilege later in the proceedings. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court may impose pursuant to court rules.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

PART II

ATTORNEYS' FEES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

The court shall, upon petition by a named party in any tort action, except those provided for in RCW 7.70.070, determine the reasonableness of that party's attorneys' fees. The court shall take into consideration the following:

(1) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;

(2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;

- (3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) The amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
- (7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services;
- (8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (9) Whether the fixed or contingent fee agreement was in writing and whether the client was aware of his or her right to petition the court under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 202. Section 201 of this act applies to agreements for attorney's fees entered into after the effective date of this section.

PART III

LIMITATION ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) 'Economic damages' means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) 'Noneconomic damages' means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) 'Bodily injury' means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) 'Average annual wage' means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355.

(2) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or death may a claimant recover a judgment for noneconomic damages exceeding an amount determined by multiplying 0.43 by the average annual wage and by the life expectancy of the person incurring noneconomic damages, as the life expectancy is determined by the life expectancy tables adopted by the insurance commissioner. For purposes of determining the maximum amount allowable for noneconomic damages, a claimant's life expectancy shall not be less than fifteen years. The limitation contained in this subsection applies to all claims for noneconomic damages made by a claimant who incurred bodily injury. Claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, destruction of the parent-child relationship, and all other derivative claims asserted by persons who did not sustain bodily injury are to be included within the limitation on claims for noneconomic damages arising from the same bodily injury.

(3) If a case is tried to a jury, the jury shall not be informed of the limitation contained in subsection (2) of this section.

PART IV

APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 401. A new section is added to chapter 4.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In all actions involving fault of more than one entity, the trier of fact shall determine the percentage of the total fault which is attributable to every entity which caused the claimant's damages, including the claimant or person suffering personal injury or incurring property damage, defendants, third-party defendants, entities released by the claimant, entities immune from liability to the claimant and entities with any other individual defense against the claimant. Judgment shall be entered against each defendant except those who have been released by the claimant or are immune from liability to the claimant or have prevailed on any other individual defense against the claimant in an amount which represents that party's proportionate share of the claimant's total damages. The liability of each defendant shall be several only and shall not be joint except:

(a) A party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the proportionate share of another party where both were acting in concert or when a person was acting as an agent or servant of the party.

(b) If the trier of fact determines that the claimant or party suffering bodily injury or incurring property damages was not at fault, the defendants against whom judgment is entered shall be jointly and severally liable for the sum of their proportionate shares of the claimant's total damages.

(2) If a defendant is jointly and severally liable under one of the exceptions listed in subsections (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section, such defendant's rights to contribution against another jointly and severally liable defendant, and the effect of settlement by either such defendant, shall be determined under RCW 4.22.040, 4.22.050, and 4.22.060.

(3)(a) Nothing in this section affects any cause of action relating to hazardous wastes or substances or solid waste disposal sites.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect a cause of action arising from the tortious interference with contracts or business relations.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect any cause of action arising from the manufacture or marketing of a fungible product in a generic form which contains no clearly identifiable shape, color, or marking.

Sec. 402. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 401 of this 1986 act, if more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several.

Sec. 403. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1984 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer:

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(f) If the employer or a co-employee are determined under section 401 of this 1986 act to be at fault, (c) and (e) of this subsection do not apply and benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW to which the wage earner may be entitled.

PART V

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was engaged in the commission of a felony, if the felony was causally related to the injury or death in time, place, or activity. However, nothing in this section shall affect a right of action under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

Sec. 502. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred (~~;- PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190~~).

PART VI INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

Sec. 601. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property;

(1) Caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable;

PART VII BUILDER LIMITATION

Sec. 701. Section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1955 and RCW 4.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasimunicipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

Sec. 702. Section 2, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase "substantial completion of construction" shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 section.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

PART VIII PERIODIC PAYMENTS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage in which a verdict or award for future economic damages of at least one hundred thousand dollars is made, the court or arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment which provides for the periodic payment in whole or in part of the future economic damages. With respect to the judgment, the court or arbitrator shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments intended to compensate the judgment creditor for the future economic damages.

(2) Prior to entry of judgment, the court shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of future economic damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include provisions for: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal, with any changes the court deems proper, which in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice best provides for the future needs of the claimant and enter judgment accordingly.

(3) If the court enters a judgment for periodic payments and any security required by the judgment is not posted within thirty days, the court shall enter a judgment for the payment of future damages in a lump sum.

(4) If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic payments, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor converted to present value. The court may also require payment of interest on the outstanding judgment.

(5) Upon the death of the judgment creditor, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages. Money damages awarded for loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor.

(6) Upon satisfaction of a periodic payment judgment, any obligation of the judgment debtor to make further payments shall cease and any security posted pursuant to this section shall revert to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 802. Section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56.240 are each repealed.

PART IX MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

A breach of a duty imposed by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule shall not be considered negligence per se, but may be considered by the trier of fact as evidence of negligence; however, any breach of duty as provided by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule relating to electrical fire safety, the use of smoke alarms, or driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, shall be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to an action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug and that such condition contributed more than fifty percent to his or her injuries or death. If the amount of alcohol in a person's blood is shown by chemical analysis of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily substance to have been 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the blood, it is conclusive proof that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a member of the board of directors or an officer of any nonprofit corporation is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the board of directors or a superintendent of any school district is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 7.70 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the board of directors or other governing body of a public or private hospital are not individually liable for injuries resulting from health care administered by a health care provider granted privileges to provide health care at the hospital unless the decision to grant the privilege to provide health care at the hospital constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 48.22 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall by regulation require insurers authorized to write casualty insurance in this state to form a market assistance plan to assist persons and other entities unable to purchase casualty insurance in an adequate amount from either the admitted market or non-admitted market.

For the purpose of this section, a market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing casualty insurance in this state in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide casualty insurance for a class of insurance designated in writing to the plan by the commissioner.

The bylaws and method of operation of any market assistance plan shall be approved by the commissioner prior to its operation.

A market assistance plan shall have a minimum of twenty-five insurers willing to insure risks within the class designated by the commissioner. If twenty-five insurers do not voluntarily agree to participate, the commissioner may require casualty insurers to participate in a market assistance plan as a condition of continuing to do business in this state. The commissioner shall make such a requirement to fulfill the quota of at least twenty-five insurers. The commissioner shall make his or her designation on the basis of the insurer's premium volume of casualty insurance in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 907. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, in reviewing a casualty rate filing, determine in accordance with sound and reliable actuarial principles whether this act requires an insurer to grant its policyholders a credit in such casualty rate filing. Upon determining that data in support of such a credit is actuarially credible, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove such casualty rate filing in accordance therewith. The commissioner shall not approve any casualty rate that is inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 908. The commissioner shall, as chairman of the tort reform study commission, require the task force to study the effectiveness of joint underwriting authorities throughout the United States to specifically determine:

- (1) The price as it relates to a filed Insurance Services Organization rate;
- (2) The solvency of such mechanisms;
- (3) The effect it has on the admitted market;
- (4) The effect it has on the nonadmitted market;
- (5) The effect or availability on the voluntary market; and
- (6) What effect it has on lines or classes of insurance not designated.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 909. The insurance commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, on the effects of this act on insurance rates and the availability of insurance coverage and the impact on the civil justice system.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 910. Except as provided in sections 202 and 601 of this act and except for section 904 of this act, this act applies to all actions filed on or after August 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 911. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 912. Section 904 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. P. King: "Mr. Speaker, according to our rules here that we have adopted, the Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives, Rule 25 (D)(6) says that if the amendment would be adopted, the bill should be referred to the Ways and Means Committee or the Transportation Committee as appropriate. Could I have a ruling on that?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative King, the Speaker has ruled previously on issues and will do so later, on bills on the calendar. The Speaker has ruled previously that when we are going through second reading, our rules reads, Rule 25 (D)(6), 'All bills having a direct negative revenue impact or a direct appropriation of fifty thousand dollars or more shall be referred to the ways and means committee or transportation committee as appropriate before their final passage.' There are two issues before us, Representative King, at this time is that the Speaker is not going to rule on this until later, but note that it says a direct appropriation, or a direct negative revenue impact. Secondly, and most directly to the question now before us, is that the Speaker has ruled previously and rules also today, that when the issue is on second reading, it is not appropriate because it reads 'before final passage.' When we get to third reading and final passage, the Speaker will entertain your point of order. Your point is not well taken."

Mr. Bristow: "This is the direction that we have been heading, as we have worked long and hard for the past months to truly deal with our liability insurance crisis. I think that there has been a great deal of work done, a lot of thought and interest and concern shared over this issue. You are going to hear a lot of speeches on what might be considered negative aspects of this, but I think as we ponder and review this amendment, you will come to the same conclusion that I have, that this is a fair, just and appropriate proposal. I think now, as we have spent some time looking at perfecting amendments, that you will join me in voting for this amendment."

Mr. Armstrong: "I speak to oppose this amendment. Joint and several liability is the largest difference between the coalition proposal and this amendment and the alternative reform proposal which is before you. Joint and several liability is the question whether a victim of injury gets his or her whole award when there are multiple defendants and one goes broke. The alternative reform proposal which I think you should prefer to the coalition amendment, the victim would collect only the defendant percentage share from the defendant less liable or from a public defendant. In the coalition proposal, in contrast, the injured victim collects his whole award only if that victim was zero percent at fault. There are not many zero percentage fault cases on behalf of plaintiffs now. The first offense and the defense will set out to prove if there is some percentage fault on the injured claimant. It's going to be like rape has been, you're the victim and then the process makes you the victim of the process as well. The attack is going to be on the injured claimant rather than a rational inquiry into who was responsible and to what percentage. Take the asbestosis victim; it is a true example, because Johns-Manville has gone broke and is leaving people where there are multiple defendants in situations where they cannot collect from the person, company in this case, primarily liable. In every case, the defense presents the argument that the injured asbestosis victim somehow is negligent--they smoke, they didn't wear the mask, they knew there was asbestos there and that it was dangerous. In those cases, those injured victims of asbestosis will only receive ten to fifteen percent of the whole award necessary for his medical and living expenses for his life and that will be from the installment contract. That's only ten to fifteen percent of even the economic damages. The average working person, under the coalition proposal, will not get his necessary medical and living expenses. Then, where will he go?"

Mr. Wang: "Urging your opposition to the amendment before us. We have gone through a process, perhaps a bit laboriously, but we have gone through a process which has given us a choice. We have a meaningful choice before us. What I would like to do is just take a minute to walk through what is identical in the committee amendment and the Bristow amendment. There are provisions for waivers in both. The provisions for offers of settlement, attorney fees, caps, felonies, indemnification, builder immunities, periodic payments, mandatory arbitration of negligence per se, school board, other directors--all those things are identical in the two bills that are before us in the Bristow amendment and in the committee amendment. There are two major differences. The gentleman from the 36th District referred to one them, the joint and several provision. The other provisions are in the insurance area. There are a number of things which are in the committee bill which are not in the Bristow bill and I think those items will offer real relief on the insurance side of the equation, the insurance side of the problem. There are provisions for considering instate experience and the effects of instate experience on insurance premiums in the committee amendment and not in the Bristow amendment. We do not have punitive damages in this state. Let's take advantage of that for insurance premiums. There are provisions for limiting the rise of insurance premiums. It's limited to fifteen percent in the committee amendment, but not in the Bristow amendment. There are also provisions for settlement conferences, for itemized verdicts, for prejudgment interest, provisions which will help expedite and make a real difference in the settlement process and in the process of trying to avoid some of these excessive litigations and additional costs. I really think we do have a meaningful choice to make here. It has been painful for me to propose some of the things that are currently before us in the committee amendment, nevertheless I've done it on the basis of good faith that we can come up with a choice and offer a meaningful choice to this body, so that we do not have to have the Bristow amendment as the only choice before us. The major differences, again, are insurance and joint and several liability. I would urge you to consider dealing with the problem of insurance by rejecting the Bristow amendment and keeping the language before us."

Mr. Brooks: "I think this is a really giant step forward to meet the problem. Not the whole way, but a good measure in the right direction. We're not going to solve all the insurance problems tonight, that's another part of this process; however, if we have done nothing else tonight, we have made--if we pass the Bristow amendment--we will have made obstetrical care in this state affordable again. With the long tail that you have heard about so often in this discussion, for twenty-six years cut back to eight years and with the resulting premium drop that will come from that one stroke alone, it will allow many of the obstetricians who have already had to leave their practices, come back in. The ladies in the northern part of this state will no longer have to go to Canada to have their babies, and those who were less fortunate will get good prenatal care now rather than having to show up on the doorsteps of the ER with no prenatal care at all and the unwanted, very expensive babies for the state to take care of. I strongly urge you to help us take this step forward and vote for the amendment."

Ms. Niemi: "By voting for this amendment you are, as many people have said, making major changes in the law. You are also saying that you doubt the fairness of the jury system. For whatever reason you are voting for a conglomeration of laws in one amendment, that I believe will be difficult--if not impossible--to apply in the court process. I firmly believe that no malpractice rates will decrease. I also firmly believe that you will be cutting off the rights of injured parties. Lastly, as you may notice, no one spoke of any of the content of the Bristow amendment. Among other things, you are going to be voting for a change in the labor and industry laws which will add approximately one million dollars to our labor and industry costs every year. It will raise rates; it will add to attorney fees, which I'm sure you didn't really intend, but it will. It will dramatically change the labor and industry system. All of this in a law that will also take away peoples' rights. I realize that everyone has made up their minds, but I hope you will think long and hard over what you are doing to the tort system in this state."

Ms. Leonard: "I don't have any answers, but I do have a couple of things I want to say. First of all, through the perfecting of amendments, we have taken care of--in the original amendment--we have taken care of the people in medicine; we've taken care of the people in the cities, the administration of the cities; we've taken care of all those people we want to take care of. My major concern is, if this amendment that we are voting on right now passes, the only people we are not taking care of are the people in our communities. I talked to the mayor of my larger city in my district yesterday, and I had talked to her last week, and she indicated to me that my city council tried seven times to make a motion to support the coalition provision, and she said all seven motions died for lack of a second. When she asked the council, 'Are you telling me that you really don't want to support the coalition position?' and she said it doesn't show in the record, but they all nodded. So, I said to her that one of the major problems is that we are getting all this pressure from people who really don't know what's in any of the things we are being told to support--this position or that position--and I have a lot of concern about this. I'm not an attorney. I'm doing my best to find out from attorneys, including my own daughter who is an attorney, what these various proposals say and I'm getting some good answers and I'm getting some not-so-good answers. I guess at this point what I am trying to do is make the best decision for all the people concerned. It's my understanding that if we vote 'no' on this amendment, we will get almost all the same language, but we will also be protecting the people in our communities by the joint and several language in the perfected amendment from the committee. I urge you to vote 'no' on this amendment and then vote 'yes' on the perfected amendment from the committee."

Mr. Ballard: "I'm supporting the amendment. There are two issues we need to talk about, that's the availability of insurance and the affordability. There's probably not an issue that we are going to talk about this session that affects so many people in the state of Washington in such a dramatic manner--in goods, in costs of services, having doctors available, all kinds of issues. We have worked very hard on bringing together a package that does protect the rights of the people, not only in making sure they are taken care of, but making sure they have insurance, making sure they are covered. Most of you, if not all of you, have received summaries and explanations and comparisons. We have been very careful to try to get those out. Two issues I would like to talk about that I think are important: Joint and several. We're talking about an issue here in which someone who is not at fault, an injured party, does not change anything. The other part of the issue is where the injured party has contributed to their own problem. We always say the city or the county or the insurance company has the deep pocket and it really doesn't cost anybody anything and it's really free money and nobody pays for it. If it's your home and it's worth $100,000, and you don't have any insurance and you are only liable for a $10,000 loss and the other pocket which is liable for $90,000 doesn't have anything, that means that you lose everything you own. That affects people. I think we should be keenly aware of that. The other issue we have talked about is noneconomics. The top of noneconomic is $573,000. People say that may not be enough. We've talked about the minimum. The minimum is $117,000. Now what does that mean in the real world? That's happened in the state of Washington in the last two years. The average settlement on noneconomic is $350,000. In the last two years there has been under a dozen cases--and I think the number is about half that--in which there has been settlements of over $250,000. A handful in two years, so I don't see the major problem here. We're taking care of people. In fact, the lid is high over. We have talked with a lot of people who are involved in this. It would have been very simple to draft a lot of areas that make sure the rights of people are protected. We think we have a good workable document and we would urge your support."

Mr. Wineberry: "I rise to ask your rejection of the amendment; basically, because of one fundamental reason. Insurance premiums have no direct correlation with joint and several liability. Not one study that has been issued, by any other state for that matter or any entity within this state, has proved otherwise. Washington is certainly not the first state to grapple with this very important issue of joint and several liability that also includes such doctrines as contributory negligence and comparative negligence. As a matter of fact, one of the more recent studies that just came about in North Carolina that grappled with the same issue a few years ago, they appointed a legislative research commission which prepared a comprehensive report on the subject of comparative negligence. This study included a section on the findings of the commission concerning the effects of comparative negligence, for example, on liability insurance costs. Questions were sent to insurance companies. Questionnaires were sent to insurance companies in thirty-five states that had adopted the doctrine and twenty-four states responded. The overwhelming response from the insurance commissioners nationwide to the committee's questionnaire indicated that, in their opinion, comparative negligence had no effect whatsoever on insurance premiums in their states. Commissioners in several other states indicated that they did not have any data upon which to base an estimate or opinion. Thus, the committee was unable to find any strong evidence to support the contention that insurance rates would increase substantially as a result of the adoption of a comparative negligence system. The case that the study concluded with was that there was no correlation, of course, no hard evidence to support the widely held belief that is espoused by supporters of this amendment that the introduction and application of comparative negligence would produce an increase in liability insurance costs. I submit to you that the study conducted by North Carolina and many other states has arrived at the same conclusion that we, too, have in our study and close analysis of this very important issue--there is no correlation. I urge your rejection of this amendment."

Mr. Armstrong: "The average working person in the asbestosis victim case, under the coalition proposal, who does not get his necessary medical and living expenses because of the joint and several provision, which provides that the Johns-Manville asbestos manufacturer will not have to pay anything, has to get that money from somewhere and you know where the average working person goes when they can't find help or money; they go to medicaid, they go to medicare, they go to public assistance. This is not taking costs off insurers; this is a cost shift, ladies and gentlemen, to the public sector. For the benefit of whom? For the benefit of negligent people. For the benefit of the installer of that asbestos. For the benefit of engineers, for the benefit of lawyers, for the benefit of doctors and those people are well-to-do people. So it is a cost shift from people who don't have much money to people who have quite a bit and can afford to insure. The additional beneficiary is insurance company shareholders and they have the money to take care of themselves. I would urge you to vote against this coalition proposal."

Mr. Padden: "I just want to talk on one issue. We've already heard enough about joint and several and I won't mention my views on that, but with regard to the caps that are on there, I certainly hope that we will see insurance premiums come down if something is passed through here; but I'm not convinced that the caps are really going to result in lessening of insurance premiums. Certainly, there are going to be some big awards that are going to be cut off in noneconomic damages. On the other hand, you are going to have a lot more, numerous, smaller awards that are going to rise up toward that cap level and a major P.O. of an insurance company told me he didn't think it would make any change. Certainly juries, if they feel something has been done, will have a certain amount of discretion to decide what is a noneconomic damage and what is an economic damage, so there, too, there is obviously a chance that the caps won't do quite what they said. While we hope they are beneficial, I don't think there is evidence to substantiate that. For that and other reasons, I am going to have to urge a 'no' vote on this amendment."

Mr. Dellwo: "I, too, urge your opposition of this amendment. I'm sure you recognize, or at least hope you do, that we--in our amendment--tried truly to perfect this document. There is no conspiracy or effort to undercut or effort to eliminate it. We recognized that something was going to be passed. In looking at the document, we found some problems with it, but we tried to correct them, tried to add some other amendments that would, in fact, go somewhere toward the purpose and that was to lower the premiums as well as protect the innocent. You've already heard some of the flaws, the terrible flaws in the insurance section. You can't correct that. If this passes that is how it is going; it is not going to be corrected in the Senate. It will be concurred in; you know that. You also see the other defects that were spoken about in the joint and several as well as in the other changes that we have made. It is a flawed document. We have tried, and I believe succeeded in, perfecting the committee amendment and I would encourage you to support that. The ones that will succeed, the ones that will benefit if we pass this amendment, the one that is before us now, will be the negligent, not the injured."

Mr. McMullen: "Today is the 150th anniversary of the Alamo, and I think I hear the Santa Ana bugle. It only hurts when I laugh because I don't think people have looked at this thing enough to realize what they are going to vote for. We've heard a lot of philosophicals. Look at some of the small things. Don't try to kid yourselves that this is a fair compromise. Ours tried to be fair; we would have worked with anybody to be fair, but this is not fair. One example: We're going to put a cap on damages, but we aren't going to tell the jury about it. We can't tell the jury about it in this version. Why? Do you know why insurance companies want this provision in here? Right now, when three economists testify for the plaintiff and for the defendant, one says economic damages are $100,000 and one says economic damages are a quarter of a million dollars. The jury can't decide which it will be, the escape is to the nonspecified damages, general damages, they agree on that, they don't have to agree on it, but we are going to pull the wool over their eyes; we're aren't going to tell them that when they do that, tough, the judge is going to cut that out. The second thing in this bill, and I guess this is what hurts as much as any of it, I've heard an awful lot of remarks about trial lawyers the last couple of weeks. I've never had a case that would be affected by this and I never will, but I've heard all the remarks and then we go in here and add a new cause of action. Look at page

3, line 7. It says that the injured party must make an election within ninety days whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. Do you know what happens if the plaintiff's attorney forgets to make that election on the ninetieth day? On the ninety-first day they are out of court because it may never be waived again. They are out of court on that action. The only action now is to sue their lawyer, so you are taking a cause of action against trial lawyers. Take another look at this on page 7. You are going to tell the small businessmen that they can't be sued under Title 51--the state industrial--or protected, but under this section they are going to be hauled into court; they are going to be required to testify and going to be assigned a percentage of fault by a judge and jury for all the public to see. They are immune, they can't be sued, but they can be right there in the papers and talked about--their percentage of liability. You know, in the amending process, I talked about the statute of limitations on doctors. This is really a Christmas present. This wasn't part of the coalition package to begin with and then we started talking about the problem with OB/GYNs and to work on it, and all of a sudden all doctors are protected and all the OB/GYNs have an effective three-year statute of limitations. You go home and tell your OB/GYN doctors what a great job you have done for them, more than they ever imagined or hoped for or asked for, and then tell all those people who are pregnant or have just had children--"

The Speaker informed Representative McMullen that his time had expired.

Mr. Appelwick: "Let me highlight some of the defects in here. The committee amendment as it has been perfected and is before you, doesn't have two defects as the Bristow amendment has. Two that are very important. The Bristow amendment provides more protection for me, as a business owner, if somebody interferes with my business relations than it does for me or my wife or my children if they are injured, maimed, crippled in a car accident where I, as the driver, have been one percent, two percent negligent, but less negligent than the other people who caused that accident and that injury. Less protection! That's a fact. That's no exaggeration; that's no story; that's no stringing-out amendment; that's the fact. The other fact is this bill was written very craftily by the drafters. I commend them. What they have done is write a situation so that where you have multiple defendants, no plaintiff in his right mind is ever going to enter a settlement with one of those defendants, because no defendant in his right mind is ever going to enter a settlement. The stakes are too high. If you settle with one party, that defendant won't want to settle because under this bill he is still going to have to be in court to defend himself and be represented by counsel. The plaintiff won't settle because he's still got to be in there and defend not only his own position and make his case and carry the burden of proof against all of the defendants that are in court, but he has also got to bring in the person he settled with and represent that person's interest in court to be sure that he doesn't get double-hit by the way the court assesses the liability. The current system doesn't have those inequities. The committee amendment that is before you does not. You are building in new ways in which you put immense burdens on an injured party to recover. It is a fact and if you are doing that knowingly, I'm embarrassed for you. If you are doing that unknowingly, now is the time to stop, read the bill, think about it and reconsider whether or not you support this amendment. It earnestly will hurt plaintiffs that are injured and will have to rely on this law in the future."

Mr. Barnes: "I think I am, and perhaps a lot of you are, sitting here being somewhat intimidated by the great knowledge from the lawyers on this, but maybe it takes a layman to kind of stand back and look and see just what is fair in this court system. I got involved about eight years ago when I started working on this problem, in that case, on the product liability system, and I learned about joint and several liability. I've been impressed ever since then, but one of our problems is getting worse and worse, and we're going to have to do something about it, and that is the joint and several liability concept, because in that concept it allows one person to be held liable for another person's fault to some extent, and to a great extent if that person has some fault. This is what is going to make insurance difficult to obtain. A person who, perhaps, runs a wholesale shop and accepts things from a manufacturer and sells them to a retailer, maybe will have a little bit of fault because he is in that fault chain, but he could be very careful and safe, but he is exposed to the liability which could be caused by anyone else in that chain, therefore, an insurance company is going to look at him and say, 'Yes, you are very safe; you're not very much at fault, but I can't insure you because you're standing the risk of the liability from someone else.' It might be quite gray. This, the Bristow/Ballard amendment, does take a sort of compromise step toward starting to correct that joint and several liability problem. The bill as it is written is a compromise on that compromise. I think we had better stick with the Ballard/Bristow amendment."

Representative McMullen was extended additional time.

Mr. McMullen: "In lay terms, if you adopt this amendment, you are going to have to go home and tell all the people that finally get to school and finally tested and find out that there may be something wrong with them, that you have enacted a three-year statute of limitations for wrongful birth. If you are prepared to do that and tell your businessmen they can be hauled into court and have their liability spread in the public record, then I urge you to adopt this. For me, I'm going to vote no."

Mr. Locke: "I think that the committee amendment as perfected this evening is the superior document and I want to thank the proponents of the striking amendment or the Ballard/Bristow amendment for accompanying us and allowing us an opportunity to perfect it, allowing us an opportunity to oppose your particular amendment. Nevertheless, to put up a viable option and also to give us an opportunity to be on record as supporting some of those elements which are in the so-called coalition package that we can, in good conscience, support. It was interesting this evening that one of the coalition amendments that we offered to try and make the committee amendment much more closer to the coalition package, was defeated by this body and that dealt with the statute of limitations as relates to children. What you have done and what is now in the coalition package, is that all lawsuits must be brought within three years after the act occurred or one year after the act was discovered whichever is later, but in no case after eight years. That is really a fundamental change, and what you are asking or what you are saying is that children must give up their rights to a lawsuit later on, and you are saying to the parents that if you didn't exercise your right as a parent within three years or within one year after you discovered the defect, you are forever barred from filing a lawsuit. If that child should later grow up and realize what his or her parents did, she or he is out the window and cannot sue. That's one major difference. The other major difference deals with the waiver of the doctor/patient privilege. Under the committee amendment, it is waived only with respect to the conditions that relate to the lawsuit. However, under the coalition package, once a lawsuit is filed, the doctor/patient privilege is forever waived and as to all conditions, even if they do not relate to the condition being sued. There are a host of differences within--between the committee amendment as perfected and the coalition package, but I don't think anyone really understands these differences, and I really object to the way that this coalition amendment has been put together. I really think it needs more time and study; we do need tort reform, but this is not the way to do it. I urge rejection of the proposed amendment."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representatives Bristow and Ballard to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 32; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 65.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson

D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Wang, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 32.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

MOTION

Mr. Appelwick moved that all House debate on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 be spread on the Journal.

Mr. Barrett spoke against the motion.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to spread debate on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 on the Journal, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 44; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Miller, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 53.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 44.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 30 of the amendment, after line 15 insert the following:

"Sec. 913, Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred (~~PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190~~).

(4)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190.

(b) An action based on alleged professional negligence in the treatment of a person during that person's birth or the prenatal treatment relating to the birth shall be commenced within eight years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition."

Mr. Appelwick: "Earlier there was an amendment by the gentleman from the 40th District which dealt with the eight-year statute of limitations on birth injuries, and the gentleman from the 21st District pointed out that it also did some other things that confused people. I want there to be no doubt in light of the adoption of the Bristow/Ballard amendment, that we have addressed the obstetric-gynecology problem. I don't read the amendment that has been adopted the way some others do. I don't think it assures that the eight-year statute is taken care of, and the reason I offer this amendment, nothing else but statute, no other purpose, is to be sure that we have done the rifle shot that takes care of that problem. After all, it was that problem and municipal liability, that brought all of this to us in the first place and I think it's only fair that we address it. To the extent that some of the language is inconsistent, the fact that this comes later will only add to--it will not repeal the more elaborate section that is set out in the bill. I urge your support."

Mr. Bristow: "I ask that you vote no on this amendment. I believe it is inappropriate and unnecessary."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Appelwick to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 63; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Miller, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 34.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 63.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Grimm, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representatives P. King and Wang to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 was not adopted.

Mr. P. King: "Perhaps this one went by us just a little bit fast. I think some people have been taking a look at it and what this amendment will do is it will fit in before the Bristow amendment and it provides that you receive interest from the date of filing. Oftentimes people have to go into lawsuits and other types of action, arbitration, because of the other person delaying and paying or other dilatory action. This would prevent that delay. I urge you to take another look at it and reconsider this, and let's put it on the calendar for consideration."

Ms. Sommers: "Speaking against reconsideration, if you will take up the amendment and look at it, you will see that it is what I would call a flawed amendment. It deals only with government, the state and its political subdivisions, so the interest would be charged only in government suits, against government, against the taxpayer and not in private suits. We think the earlier vote to defeat this amendment was correct and we urge you to vote against reconsideration."

Mr. Locke: "I urge the members to vote for reconsideration because I think the reasons outlined by the previous speaker for voting against it are the very reasons why you should vote for it. If, by this tort reform legislation, we are now saving local governments beaucoup bucks, tons and tons of money, and they ought to have the money to pay prejudgment interest and to try and encourage early settlement so we don't even have to go to court. I think this is a grand idea. I urge your adoption of the motion for reconsideration."

Mr. Tilly: "I'm going to be voting against reconsideration. I thought I was going to be voting for it, but when we have half a package and it's tilted the wrong way, I have to vote no."

Mr. Bond: "This kind of rings a bell with me. I thought I was going to vote no and maybe I will, and yet I just kind of like this. I'm going to give it serious thought."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick: "Mr. Speaker, it is possible, if this motion passes and we reconsider Representative King's amendment, that we could suspend the rules and amend this amendment in order to have it be even-handed and apply to both government and the private sector?"

The Speaker: "Representative Appelwick, if the motion to reconsider carries, then the body could suspend the rules by a two-thirds vote to consider the amendment that you suggested."

Mr. Lux: "I heard the good representative from the 36th District say that this amendment is flawed. I think that's compatible with the rest of the bill that we just adopted. Let me point out, on page 17 it says, '...the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.' A foreign body where? Is this the sanctuary movement that we are talking about? Would there be a foreign body in the operating room...."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bond: "Mr. Speaker, I wish you would advise the speaker to speak closely on the line with the motion for reconsideration."

The Speaker: "The motion is to reconsider the amendment, Representative Lux. Would you speak to that motion please?"

Mr. Lux: "Apparently, we are speaking about flawed amendments and I'm speaking about a flawed amendment and I think the two match and I think they ought to be put together; and so I'm supporting this motion for reconsideration and I think that's justified. I would hope that the rest of you would follow me."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Representatives P. King and Wang to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 was not adopted, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 59; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Grimm, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Sayan, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 38.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 59.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 30 of the amendment, after line 15, insert the following:

If injury results to a worker from the deliberate intention of his or her employer to produce such injury or from the act or omission of an employer who, with wilful disregard of the safety of a worker or in knowing disregard of written recommendations by the product supplier or in reckless disregard of an administrative agency's written notice of a violation of an administratively approved safety regulation, recklessly (1) removes, authorizes the removal of, or fails to install safety features or devices, or (2) misuses the product, the worker or beneficiary of the worker shall have the privilege to take under this title and also have cause of action against the employer as if this title had not been enacted, for any damages in excess of compensation and benefits paid or payable under this title."

Mr. Appelwick: "This amendment is a safety in the work place amendment. It truly can be added to the bill as it currently stands without any interference or problem. This says that if an employer removes or, with wilful disregard, doesn't follow the recommendations on the equipment or products that are used there, disregards a notice from OSHA or WISHA and doesn't deal with safety for employees in the work-place, doesn't install, or after installing, removes or fails to use safety equipment or misuses the product and that results in injury to an employee, that there is the opportunity for the employee to receive workers' comp benefits and also file a first party action. This amendment is projected to have a fiscal impact that is positive for the state. It means that more employees who are injured on the job as a result of the negligence and the safety violations, will have an opportunity to be made whole. This is a good amendment. It has a positive impact. It will offset some of the negative fiscal impact that is in the other workers' comp—that was in the Bristow/Ballard amendment—and I urge you to toughen up on the safety standards and protect workers in the workplace."

Mr. Bristow: "This amendment would pierce our worker's compensation shield and I strongly urge your defeat."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Appelwick to page 30, line 15 of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 62; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Grimm, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 35.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 62.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 30 of the amendment, after line 15, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 913. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) 'Economic damages' means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) 'Noneconomic damages' means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) 'Bodily injury' means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) 'Average annual wage' means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) In any action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage, the claimant is entitled to recover noneconomic losses.

(3) No defendant shall be liable to any claimant in an action for personal injury or property damage for noneconomic losses exceeding the average annual wage multiplied by forty percent of the life expectancy of the claimant as calculated under subsection (b) of this section. This limitation on liability for noneconomic losses applies to each defendant in an action individually and limits each defendant's joint or several liability for those losses. In applying the limitation of this subsection, claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, and destruction of the parent-child relationship which are asserted by one who did not actually sustain bodily injury shall be added to any claims for noneconomic damages sustained by a claimant who did incur bodily injury.

(a) For purposes of determining noneconomic losses, no calculation for persons age sixty years or older shall be based on a life expectancy of less than ten years.

(b) The office of the administrator of the courts shall develop and publish annually, the schedule for noneconomic damages utilizing the life expectancy tables adopted by the Washington state insurance commissioner.

(4) The limitation on liability contained in subsection (3) of this section does not apply to a defendant whose intentional act caused the claimant's injury or damage."

Mr. Appelwick: "This amendment approaches the cap on pain and suffering from a different perspective than the Bristow/Ballard amendment did. It says that the limits on recovery using that formula, and there are just minor differences in the percentage factor to multiply these or less, says that instead the plaintiff's pain and suffering is capped at whatever that formula is, it says no defendant shall be liable for more than that. So what this does, in a lawsuit for an injury where the plaintiff has sustained incredible injuries--incredible pain and suffering at the hands of multiple defendants--it says that the cap is equal to that amount for each of the defendants. It really ameliorates one of the hardships that's in the Ballard/Bristow amendment. I'm sure the argument against it will be that it's inconsistent with the other provision, but this was adopted later and the Code Reviser can reconcile the two and it will not be a technical question that will be of any substance to the bill. It is important that you adopt this if you really--in a serious, most serious of accidents--want the plaintiff to have an opportunity to be made whole. I urge your support."

Mr. Bristow: "This amendment, if we look at it, is going to cause people to look for more and more and more and more contingents. I think it inappropriate and I urge that you defeat the amendment."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Appelwick to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 63; excused, 1.

Voteing yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Grimm, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Wang, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 34.

Voteing nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luvén, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 63.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 30 of the amendment, after line 15, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 913. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Applicant' includes an individual, corporation, government, or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any legal or commercial entity.

(2) 'Property and casualty insurance' means property insurance as defined in RCW 48.11.040 and casualty insurance as defined in RCW 48.11.070.

(3) 'Association' means the joint underwriting association established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(4) 'Plan' means the market assistance plan established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 914. Upon a finding by the commissioner that an availability problem exists for the types of property and casualty insurance listed in this section, then the commissioner shall approve a reasonable market assistance plan for the placement of property and casualty insurance coverages for applicants who have difficulty in obtaining the type of insurance desired. The plan shall assist in obtaining property and casualty insurance for municipal liability, day care liability, liquor liability, trucking liability and professional liability. In addition, the commissioner shall determine whether availability problems exist for other types of property and casualty insurance and shall require the plan to assist applicants in obtaining such insurance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 915. All insurers possessing a certificate of authority to write property or casualty insurance within this state shall participate in the plan approved by the commissioner as a condition of its authority to continue to transact business in this state. However, the commissioner may exclude an insurer from membership if the commissioner determines membership would result in a hardship or inequity or would not be of benefit to the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 916. The commissioner may adopt any rules necessary to ensure the effective operation of the plan, including but not limited to, setting limits on the fees the plan may charge to process an applicant's request for assistance. The commissioner shall not require that the plan provide insurance to applicants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 917. The commissioner shall approve a reasonable design for the establishment of a nonprofit, joint underwriting association for property and casualty insurance, subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 918. The association shall be comprised of all insurers possessing a certificate of authority to write property and casualty insurance within this state on a direct basis. Every such insurer shall be a member of the association and shall remain a member as a condition of its authority to transact business in this state, unless the commissioner excludes an insurer from membership because membership would result in a hardship or inequity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 919. An applicant may seek property and casualty insurance from the association whenever the commissioner determines that the type of insurance the applicant desires is difficult to obtain in the usual market for such insurance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 920. The commissioner may adopt all rules necessary to ensure the efficient, equitable operation of the association.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 921. Sections 913 through 920 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 922. Sections 913 through 916 of this act shall take effect on June 1, 1986. Sections 917 through 920 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 923. (1) If the commissioner finds that the imposition and operation of a market assistance plan under chapter RCW (sections 913 through 920 of this act) has not resulted in the availability of a type of property or casualty insurance, then the commissioner may by rule adopt a reasonable plan or plans for the equitable apportionment, among insurers licensed to write property or casualty insurance in this state, of property or casualty insurance or risks or losses thereunder for applicants for such insurance who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to procure insurance through ordinary methods. When such plan has been adopted, all such insurers shall subscribe thereto and shall participate therein. Any applicant for such insurance and any insurer affected may appeal to the commissioner from any ruling or decision of the manager or committee designated to operate such plan relative to acceptance or eligibility under the plan.

(2) The commissioner may by rule adopt a plan under subsection (1) of this section regarding property and casualty insurance for day-care liability without first imposing a market assistance plan under chapter RCW (sections 913 through 920 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 924. Section 923 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW."

Mr. Appelwick: "One of the things that concerns me about the approach is that we have an insurance problem and all of the concentration on this effort is to cause amelioration of the tort system. This amendment deals with market assistance programs and joint underwriting authority. It does it in an integrated fashion to make some sense. In the course of the negotiation, one of the members of the third house who was sitting with us as an adviser said that if we were going to do it, if we are going to have MAPs or JUAs the way it ought to be done, is to have the Insurance Commissioner make a specific finding that the market is not meeting the needs, after public hearing makes that finding, and then begin the market assistance program. If the market assistance program is not working having public hearings, have a specific finding and then take in the joint underwriting authority. That is precisely what this amendment does and it is better than the bill that has been wavering back and forth here. In fact, which has all been diluted and which has some serious problems. If we are going to step up to the total problem, and this also creates an immediate JUA for day care which we have already passed and affirmed that policy, if we are really going to step up to the breadth of the problem and all the speeches that this bill is intended to be a sincere approach to deal with the problem, I think you can't vote against this amendment either. It is integrated, comprehensive and from somebody who knows this is the way to do it if we are going to do it--we've all voted for those bills that would do an MAP and we've considered a JUA--this is the opportunity to do it right. It certainly does no violence to what else is in the bill. It's a good amendment and I recommend it to you."

Mr. Bristow: "We have addressed the insurance issue in the amendment that recently passed and we have addressed the insurance issue in bills before us now, and I would urge you to defeat this amendment."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative Appelwick to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 56; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisher, Grimm, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Thomas, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker - 41.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Betzoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Zellinsky - 56.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of the committee amendment as amended.

Mr. West: "After a long grueling night of dealing with this issue, I would recommend that we pass the committee amendment as amended by the Ballard/Bristow amendment and conclude the business on that."

Mr. Appelwick: "If you vote no on this amendment you will be left with the bill as it came from the Senate, and that bill, frankly, is in much better shape than this bill is with these amendments. I urge you to oppose the committee amendment as amended."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the committee amendment as amended to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 32; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 65.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Dellwo, Fisher, Grimm, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Sayan, Schmidt, Sutherland, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich, Wang, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 32.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Mr. Armstrong moved adoption of the committee amendment to the title of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Bristow, the following amendment to the title amendment was adopted:

On page 30, line 21 of the title amendment, beginning with "amending" strike all material down through "date," on page 31, line 6 and insert "amending RCW 5.60.060, 4.22.030, 51.24-.060, 4.16.350, 4.24.115, 4.16.160, 4.16.310, and 4.16.300; adding a new section to chapter 4.22 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.56 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 5.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 7.70 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.19 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.22 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 4.56.240; and declaring an emergency."

The committee amendment as amended to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. J. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Sommers: "I want to try to put this bill in a little bit different context. We have been talking about the details of the bill; we've been talking a lot about joint and several and many other aspects, detailed aspects, of this bill. I look at it a little bit differently. I think that there is a clear trend in this country away from so much litigation. I think our people are beginning to say in this country, 'We have too much litigation; we have too many suits and it is costing us a great deal.' The tort system and the adversarial system is not a good safety net. Not a good safety net all all. It is very expensive and very wasteful and a lot of people slip through the cracks. I look at this as just part of a major trend here in this state and in the country as a whole. Our legislature has taken other steps along this way. We have attempted to expand and have expanded arbitration potential; we worked on mediation and we have begun to discuss and approve other kinds of dispute resolution measures. I look at this as just one step along the way. I am sure we will continue to work on this issue and perhaps, as in most general trends in this country, a couple of steps forward, maybe one step backward for a zig-zag course, but I would ask you to think about the long term trend and place this action in that context."

Mr. D. Nelson: "There is another trend in this society, too, that ought to be mentioned in the context of this bill and that is that we live increasingly in a high-risk society. One that day-after-day sees more new chemicals, more new medicines, more new medical techniques, gene splicing, bio-technology--you name it--it's coming down on us. Recent history would suggest that when those things occur in society, those new procedures or new techniques, chemicals, they bring problems, problems that overwhelmed regulators and have caused damages to people and ultimately have caused withdrawal of many products in our society. The tort system, in my opinion and I have thought about this, if anything is an early warning system, it's a system that says that when we unleash things in society that do damage, we need an early message to the regulators, to the legislators, that there is a problem. The tort system provides that and has provided that very well. We don't do very well to regulate until we are finally forced to react to big problems that we are doing today. Sometimes we overreact. I guess I'd rather--and this is my fear about this bill--I'd rather continue under a system that has served us well especially if we are going to see more and more change, technological change, in this society. That system depends on our peers, juries of individual human beings who make the decisions and send the messages to us and to the regulators that there is something wrong. I think that system ought to be continued and that's why I will not vote for this bill."

Mr. Brooks: "I want to thank everybody for tonight's real struggle. Both sides have put a lot of effort into this and I think you have earnestly tried to come to a solution, and to quote Dr. Derek Bok II, from Harvard University, who is now the president of that organization, we are as what's known to him in his very well-known article, 'The Faulted System.' This is the first attempt in the House to start setting that right. We have made a small step. We may have made some errors on the way, but I think we've made a good positive step in particular for those patients who have been deprived. I think this is one great victory for those people. I want to thank everybody for their assistance."

Ms. Leonard: "I wasn't going to say anything further because I did speak on the other bill, but I did want to let people here know that while I did sign on the original bill for tort reform, I did support and do support--we need some reform in our tort system. We are having problems. I think the amendments that were offered tonight would have met those problems. We would have protected the doctors; we would have protected the cities, the counties. We would have done as much with the bill as it was amended as this bill will do, but we would not have hurt people and like my city, I'm really reluctant to move to support this bill. I think the mayor said, my city said to me, we know it will be good for the cities to support this, but we don't think it will be good for the people. And they didn't tell me to support it and I feel like they do, that maybe it's good for the cities, but I don't think it's good for the people and I do wish I could support this, but I can't. I do think it's going to hurt the people in the long run. I'm afraid I'm going to have to vote no on something I really wanted to support and would have supported if we had had the amended version from the committee. I urge you to vote no on this."

Ms. Miller: "I spent quite a bit of time reading letters from attorneys in my district and in neighboring districts. I spent a lot of time reading letters and talking to the medical people in my district. In my district we sort of have an Eastside Hill now. We not only have a major hospital, which is a tax-supported hospital, but we also have Mason Clinic East. We have a very large complex of doctors and dentists, therapists and we are going to have further facilities for people with drug problems. I've talked to many, many people in my community. I've gone to special meetings. I've talked to lobbyists on both sides and I don't have any relatives who are lawyers; I don't have any relatives who are insurance people; I don't have any relatives who are doctors, but I have a lot of people in my district who are in trouble on this issue. They can't get insurance or they can't afford to pay the price for insurance. I have people I have talked to who have been victims. They are either bedridden or they are in wheelchairs and much to my surprise, when I talk to them about this issue and try to bring both points of view, they were very clear that they felt that if they could be retributed for their damages, that they also felt that noneconomic damages, pain and suffering, ought to be capped; that is was unrealistic; that we did have some very large awards being given in what we might say is from somebody wanting to have a risk-free-system society. We don't have a risk-free society; we never will have. They also, interestingly enough, felt as if they were not only victimized by the system, but definitely victimized by all of the legal people that they had to work with. One of the things that is not in this bill, but I hope the Supreme Court is going to deal with, is the attorney's fees. It's very interesting to talk to somebody who has been lying flat on their back in a bed for five years, who is trying to work their way through the court system, and find out that one of their largest frustrations is the way the legal fees multiply on them and how much of their award is going to be taken at the end of the whole long struggle by the legal system. I hope the Supreme Court will look at that very seriously. I feel that I have to support this bill. There are a lot of people, just folks, in my district who need to have us move in this direction or we are going to find the victims in a worse situation because there will be no insurance, no coverage, nothing for them to recover when they are injured. I urge a yes vote."

Mr. Lux: "The previous speaker mentioned that her concern was the availability and the affordability of insurance for the folks in her district and that she had read a lot of letters from attorneys and a lot of memos from her constituents. I'd like to ask her if you've read the bill? Do you understand the bill? Let me point out that there's nothing in this bill that's going to make insurance more available. The insurance portion at the back of the bill talks about an MAP. It talks in one point about a voluntary and then it says 'shall' and then it says 'twenty-five companies.' Let me tell you, there's a printout of all the insurance companies that are admitted to the State of Washington--1,350 companies--and you're going to use twenty-five companies? That's all? What kind of an MAP is that? What kind of assurance is that? You know, I see a lot of things in here that restrict the client in regard to his attorney because of caps and various things, and I don't understand all that, but I don't see very much in here about the defense attorney. How are you going to curtail the delays and the appeals and the procrastination of the defense attorneys and the insurance companies? You've taken out the prejudgment interest and there's a section in here you ought to read. It says something about -- on page 4 -- I don't quite understand it, but it says if you can challenge the defense attorney fees--now this is the insurance company's attorney that's defending you in court--who among you is going to challenge your insurance company's attorney and his fees? What kind of sense does that make? How many people will even know they have the ability to do that? Who is going to inform them? You know, I wish I understood more about this, but I feel very insecure about it. All people who have talked said this isn't going to have a darn thing to do with making insurance more available. This didn't come from the folks that wander the gulch out there and represent the insurance companies; this comes from the vice presidents of insurance companies who the commissioner summoned down here for a hearing. None of it guarantees that insurance will be more available or more affordable if we had tort reform."

Mr. Schoon: "In the four years that I've been down here, this is the second time on the second major issue that I've voted with the majority. It's not a very happy evening because it's not been an easy subject. One of the trial attorneys with whom I spoke came into my office and showed me some photographs. One photograph of a young man, 35 years old, who had a three-inch stub of bone sticking out of the flesh of his left arm. His right arm was horribly burned from an electrical fire. Subsequently, both legs were amputated just above the knees. Not only were his hands amputated, but his arms and shoulders and his clavicle. The attorney showed me that bright colored picture that was used in the jury trial that they had and she asked me, 'How do you feel this man can get by with only $250,000 for pain and suffering? Don't you think he deserves more?' I don't know how you answer a question like that, but I haven't heard anybody say that this bill is perfect and I know that we will all work next year to try and make it a little bit better. I feel that it is a bill that has taken the first step. We did not like taking a no vote on the Christmas tree amendments that were offered. We know what the intent of the amendments is. We know that the amendments would have benefited a small segment, each and every one of them, but we also know that from the spirit of cooperation we need to get a bill passed and that was our effort. I'm going to vote yes for the bill because I think it is the first step and I think I will vote on the bill next year also and amendments to it of some sort. If the gentleman from the 11th District really feels that there are some things that need to be worked on, I know that we will all be glad to listen to them in Judiciary (Committee) and see if we can accommodate some of his complaints. It is a start and I think that is what we need. I recommend a yes vote on this bill."

Mr. Locke: "I really think this is one shameful way to make such sweeping changes in our legal system which has evolved so carefully over the last several hundred years. We saw this document basically for the first time last night. This morning at about 11 o'clock it was discovered that this document had major flaws and really did away completely with joint and several liability despite the intent of the authors. Then it had to be redrafted and we didn't see it again until about 4 o'clock this afternoon. What other defects does this major legislation have? What other rights are we extinguishing? What are we doing to the people of this state? I agree with Representative Sommers, that changes in the legal system have to be made, that we sue too often and that we are too quick to go to court, but does that justify the wholesale changes in the law that we are making this evening? I am not a defender of the trial lawyers. I am sometimes criticized as being too critical of the legal profession, but I have a very passionate love of the law—jurisprudence—which is the science and philosophy of law. I cannot, given that love, support what we are doing tonight. I oppose the current system of joint and several liability, no secret, and just as we said over ten years ago, that a person who was contributorily negligent should not be completely barred from bringing a lawsuit, so it is unfair that a person who is partially responsible and defendant should have to bear the full burden of the injuries caused by other defendants. But we do go to such an automatic and arbitrary standard, saying that if you are even one percent at fault, as a plaintiff there is no joint and several liability. I think that before such sweeping changes in the law can be made or should be made, we need careful and deliberate study. Not a delaying study, but a study and a commission composed of the consumers, both the injured consumers and the consumers who pay the insurance rates who have to bear the burden and the consequences of our legal system. But also the academician people in labor and business and the attorneys and the doctors. We have not had this tonight and because of this, this is flawed, because there has never ever really been a public hearing on this latest document and because we have seen it such a short time, I really think we all should vote no. I urge you to do so."

Mr. Ballard: "Urging you to support the bill, I won't respond to some of the previous comments made as to why there wasn't public hearing. A lot of us have wondered about that particular issue and we don't need to address that. I would like to say that I think there has been an incredible amount of work put into this bill and I would like to say even the people who are going to vote against it, who opposed it, who worked long hours on it, that there were major changes made and surprising to the good representative across the aisle, there are actually people in this body who know what is in this bill. We have actually read it and actually studied it. Interesting enough, the people at home certainly know what is in the bill. They know the concepts, they know about joint and several, and they know the problems. Yes, it is a major step that we are addressing, some of these issues. I think it's good that we have enough people who are willing to step up and spend the time and address this major problem. People going out of business simply can no longer employ people, councilmen who can no longer stay on city councils and county commissioners because they can't have any insurance. By doing this we are going to make, I think, significant moves in making insurance, number one, available. I think that is a major move. Yes, I think it is going to be more affordable and so I strongly recommend that we vote yes on this bill."

Mr. Appelwick: "First, I want to commend all fellow members for the very civil way this volatile issue has been handled. It makes it more respectable to the public that it has been brought through and worked out. The lady from the 36th District talked about a safety net and how we are really trying to deal with a safety net for the public out there, and, of course, find a place for that. You know, I happen to agree with her; we need to help people. A tremendous amount of the fabric of the law we pass is trying to keep people out of the courts, to let them enjoy their rights; to be made whole when a wrong has been done to them without having to go through the trauma and expense of the courtroom. So how does this bill help them? It helps them afford insurance. Why do they buy insurance? So they can be made whole when they are injured. What does it do? It puts a lid on whether or not they are made whole. We put a lid on pain and suffering. No factual data whatever that pain and suffering awards are out of hand--none at all. None. No where. We rejected an amendment for itemized verdicts, itemized settlements that would help you gather that data to find out if you are really dealing with the problem or if you are artificially taking money out of the hands of the people who have been injured and hurt. We help them by taking away joint liability, which is the way to insure that when they are honest-to-god hurt by somebody else's negligence that they are made whole--it's stripped away--gone. We help them by undercutting the ability to get settlements from people so that they don't have to stand the full expense of the litigation, the full trauma of testifying, the long, long delay. That's gone, that's undercut and that was the nub of the problem in the joint and several section. We've put a stitch in the fabric of law here and what will the people do, as the Representative from the 30th District has described? What will they do while we wait for another bill to fix this? They are cut off; their change is one--when they are in that courtroom that is their chance. They don't get to come back and amend it after we amend the law later. We tried in good faith, and I think those that I worked with did also, to find a better middle ground that didn't take the excesses that this bill does in its present form. The pendulum has swung too far with this bill and it will swing back and it will validate that I and others have been right on this, but frankly, that will be a very small consolation. I work in the system. I know it. It's kind of like that metaphor on that paper handed out by the gentleman from the 36th about the elephant. I know it, I know where the parts are, you are trying to administer medicine to a sick elephant, but you are putting the medicine in the wrong end. This is a bad bill. You ought to vote it down."

Mr. Tanner: "I'm proud tonight to be a member of this institution, and I want to thank all the members here, every person on the floor. The reason I'm proud is not because I like to deal with this issue, because frankly, no matter what you do on this issue, there's winners and there's losers. I'm proud because we did our job and our job is to take the proposal from wherever it might come, whether that might be the original coalition proposal or a bill from the Senate, and to make it the best bill that we possibly can consistent with getting support from the majority of the people on this floor. I'd like to talk for just a minute about what we did with that original proposal that was filed a long time ago, over there in the Senate, and over here as well. It was done, and particularly needing congratulations here, are all the opponents of this bill, because many, many changes were made. The onerous attorney fees limitations that were in the original bill was stricken. The limits on noneconomic damages which originally were $250,000 were replaced with a sliding scale that now goes to $573,000. In the periodic payment section the threshold was raised up to $100,000 in terms of future damages above that, subject to periodic payment. All noneconomic damages are to be paid up front in a lump sum. That wasn't in the original bill. Very significantly, all future earnings are economic damages other than medicals that would be paid to the plaintiff, now will continue to the wife, the children, the estate and will not be cut off by that other plaintiff. Actions involving hazardous waste, business torts and market share liability were exempted from this bill and they were certainly included in the original bill that was filed. And the existence of the immunity of the employers in workers' comp suits that was in the Senate bill that came over here was eliminated. There is an insurance provision in this bill, and maybe it doesn't go as far as we would all like, but it goes as far as we can go and get fifty votes. There's immunity in here for the board of directors of nonprofit corporations, hospitals and school directors and superintendents, and that wasn't in any proposal. It certainly wasn't in the proposal that was originally filed and that's a major improvement in this bill that was made by the members on this floor. There are many other changes and they are almost all improvements. I don't know whether any of us like everything in the bill. I certainly don't like everything in the bill, but I'm proud because the members of this body and almost everybody participated in their own way and went through that agonizing procedure."

Mr. Wang: "There are a number of things that we know and don't know about this bill. We know that in effect we--we don't know really whether it be a desired effect on the insurance problem--we know we have an insurance problem. We know we have an insurance problem in availability and affordability. We have a problem with the way in which insurance premiums are calculated because they don't reflect our state experience; they don't reflect the lack of punitive damages here. We don't know what the effects are going to be and maybe it will help. I would like to believe that it will help. We don't know that yet. We do know what the effects are going to be on a number of areas though. We do know that it will restrict the ability of victims of accidents, victims of negligence to receive compensation, whether it's through the caps on damages, whether it's through the joint and several liability provisions, whether it's through the periodic payment provision, it clearly will restrict the ability of victims to be compensated. We know that the document is really expressing a policy statement and the policy statement is that we don't trust juries. We don't trust the juries who consist of the voters. In fact, we don't trust the juries in their ability to decide to award or compensate damages appropriately. We don't trust the court system, we are saying here. I recognize that the court system is a lousy way of compensating people; it is an inefficient system, but that's only one of the functions of the court system.

"The tort system is also designed to provide preventative approaches and protection for people. What we are doing here is we know that we are causing a rush to the courthouse because of the way the bill is structured in terms of implementation dates, requiring filing, in effect, by August. We know that we have created a problem in workers' compensation. I've spent a lot of time this session working on workers' compensation, trying to restrict some of the payments and costs. This just generated an $8 million more problem for workers' compensation. I'm kind of curious, but despite all the jokes and comments and whatever about attorneys, and I understand that the comments about attorneys and the difficulties with attorneys in the legal system--there are ten people in this body who practice as attorneys--and I'm not going to claim that attorneys know all they are doing whatever, they certainly don't, but the ten attorneys who practice in the system, all voted no on the Bristow amendment. Just take that into consideration."

Ms. Hine: "Often when we have these major issues here before us, it's very clear between the white hats and the black hats, but this evening we are all wearing gray hats. We all want to do something about a problem brought to us with the tort laws and the insurance costs in our state, not just in our state, but in our nation. We all have been attempting to deal with that. Unfortunately, the solution that has come before us is not a beginning, my friends, this is it. A solution that does not do either--help with the high insurance rates nor does it take care of the reasonable kind of a tort system. All of the people--I frankly resent a little bit in referring to this as a coalition bill. The coalition is not a coalition of legislators. If it had been a coalition of legislators, and we had duked it out here on the floor, I would have felt a lot better about that what we had was truly in the public's best interest. We did make a lot of progress. I appreciate the very calm good way everyone has behaved this session, and this is the first time I've shot off my mouth about it. Some people didn't even know which side I was on. I'm for local governments. I come from local government. I'm for the hospitals and the doctors and I'm for all those people, but when we do something that gives a break to someone who someone else pays, clearly in this the victim of a potential court action is going to get less because these people are going to have to pay more. We have talked at great length to begin doing something in a sixty-day session in major tort reform instead of one hundred five days. Just think what we could do with our good will, and it is here, on both sides of the aisle, if we had another thirty days or another forty-five days that we could have been percolating this idea and not have the final document dropped here at 4 o'clock. I think we could have made a very good document. There are times you win and there are times you lose and you have to take your chances. I don't know that I have ever been in a situation--and this is true of a lot of us--where losing was not a matter of 'Darn it, I didn't win.' I have never felt so sad and yet so angry."

Mr. Sutherland: "As I sat listening to the debate tonight, I put myself in the shoes of those people who were watching the television last night around the state of Washington. I placed myself in probably the shoes of those people who are sitting in the gallery this evening and I thought what they might be saying about what went on this evening. The case that was being discussed, the proceedings of the evening. So I thought very carefully as we considered all those amendments, I prepared myself as many of you have for months now, trying to build up a good basic understanding of the issue, not committing myself on any side of this issue, but wishing to come here this evening and make a good decision as we went through the amendatory process. What I saw instead of a good case or a good discussion here was the proponents of the bill claiming the right to remain silent, the right to remain silent on all the discussion on the amendments that were going on. Instead I heard the proponents stand up and say that the gentleman from the 7th District and the lady from the 35th District, referred a number of times as 'we.' As I was sitting as perhaps a juror would sit or somebody in the gallery or somebody back home watching TV, I thought to myself, 'Who is we?' As the legislator who just spoke mentioned, I think 'we' refers to a coalition and it didn't refer to the members of this body. The case that's being discussed tonight, the coalition versus the 4.3 million people in the state of Washington, and I don't believe there was adequate discussion. I do believe that all of us are interested in tort reform, but I think this decision was made in some arm-wrestling contest that went on hours before we ever hit this floor. I don't think it's appropriate on this kind of an issue. I don't believe the proponents of the bill in their silence proved, as they should have, the burden of proof that this bill is going to do anything in the state of Washington to reduced insurance costs and make more available insurance. I thought to myself as I was going to stand up, 'Sutherland, your discussions likely won't make any difference.' But it will sure make me feel a lot better to know that I had the opportunity to vent a little steam and say that, although, Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the process we went through. As far as the institution goes this evening, I think the case that's being tried this evening has been very, very poorly handled."

Mr. Prince: "We went through an exercise here that leaves everybody a little drained and we're all talking about our inability to amend. We went through a budget and we talked about our inability to amend. We went through water quality and we talked about our inability to amend. I, for a short time, would like to talk to you about the tampering that we have done with our Free Conference system. If we would put our Free Conference system back in shape, we would have a vehicle to compromise our differences, the things that a democracy requires to stay free."

Mr. Bristow: "I certainly appreciate the tremendous amount of work that has been done today by the members and the staff in this body. So often we deal with issues and caseloads and dollars, but this issue was particularly personalized for me when a friend of our family was burned in a tragic accident in a restaurant where they were patrons about four weeks ago. This friend has become a touchstone, if you will, for reference points to consider against the proposed changes and has given me a very different perspective on the issue. Those changes have been reflected in the major changes that this bill has experienced since it was introduced. I truly believe that this is a fair, just and equitable proposal which is in the best interest of the people of the state of Washington."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 66; nays, 31; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Day, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, McMullen, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Waik, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Winsley, Zellinsky - 66.

On page 1, after line 22 insert the following:

(1) A person found to have committed a traffic infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No penalty may exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense unless authorized by this chapter or title.

(2) The supreme court ((may)) shall prescribe by rule a schedule of monetary penalties for designated traffic infractions. This rule shall also specify the conditions under which local courts may exercise discretion in assessing fines and penalties for traffic infractions. The legislature respectfully requests the supreme court to adjust this schedule every two years for inflation.

(3) There shall be a penalty of twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction except where the infraction relates to parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution or failure to pay a monetary penalty imposed pursuant to this chapter. A local legislative body may set a monetary penalty not to exceed twenty-five dollars for failure to respond to a notice of traffic infraction relating to parking as defined by local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution. The local court, whether a municipal, police, or district court, shall impose the monetary penalty set by the local legislative body.

(4) Monetary penalties provided for in chapter 46.70 RCW which are civil in nature and penalties which may be assessed for violations of chapter 46.44 RCW relating to size, weight, and load of motor vehicles are not subject to the limitation on the amount of monetary penalties which may be imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may, in its discretion, grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment the court shall notify the department of the failure to pay the penalty, and the department may not renew the person's driver's license until the penalty has been paid and the penalty provided in subsection (3) of this section has been paid.*

Representatives Schmidt and Walk spoke in favor of the amendment and it was adopted.

On motion of Ms. Schmidt, the following amendment to the title of the bill was adopted:

In line 2 of the title, after "46.64.020" and before the period insert "and 46.63.110"

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Senate Bill No. 4537 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4544, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Senators Moore, Talmadge, Granlund, Newhouse, Wojahn, Conner and Lee)

Requiring specified person to report abuse of vulnerable adults.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 17 strike "the person" and insert "((the person))"

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Day, the following amendment by Representatives Day, Sayan, Tilly, Barrett, Rayburn, Van Luven, Brooks, Thomas, Scott, Tanner and R. King was adopted:

On page 2, after line 24, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that vulnerable adults, who are physically or emotionally abused or financially exploited may need the protection of the courts. The legislature further finds that many of these elderly persons may be homebound or otherwise may be unable to represent themselves in court or to retain legal counsel in order to obtain the relief available to them under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An action known as a petition for an order for protection of a vulnerable adult in cases of abuse or exploitation is created.

(1) A vulnerable adult may seek relief from abuse or exploitation, or the threat thereof, by filing a petition for an order for protection in superior court.

(2) A petition shall allege that the petitioner is a vulnerable adult and that the petitioner has been abused or exploited or is threatened with abuse or exploitation by respondent.

(3) A petition shall be accompanied by affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances which demonstrate the need for the relief sought.

(4) A petition for an order may be made whether or not there is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or other action between the parties.

(5) A petitioner is not required to post bond to obtain relief in any proceeding under this section.

(6) An action under this section shall be filed in the county where the petitioner resides; except that if the petitioner has left the residence as a result of abuse or exploitation, or in order to avoid abuse or exploitation, the petitioner may bring an action in the county of either the previous or new residence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The court shall order a hearing on a petition under section 5 of this act not later than fourteen days from the date of filing the petition. Personal service shall be made upon the respondent not less than five court days before the hearing. If timely service cannot be made, the court may set a new hearing date. A petitioner may move for temporary relief under chapter 7.40 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The court may order relief as it deems necessary for the protection of the petitioner, including, but not limited to the following:

(1) Restraining respondent from committing acts of abuse or exploitation;

(2) Excluding the respondent from petitioner's residence for a specified period or until further order of the court;

(3) Prohibiting contact by respondent for a specified period or until further order of the court;

(4) Requiring an accounting by respondent of the disposition of petitioner's income or other resources;

(5) Restraining the transfer of property for a specified period not exceeding ninety days;

(6) Requiring the respondent to pay the filing fee and court costs, including service fees, and to reimburse the petitioner for costs incurred in bringing the action, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any relief granted by an order for protection, other than a judgment for costs, shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. When an order for protection under section 7 of this act is issued upon request of the petitioner, the court may order a peace officer to assist in the execution of the order of protection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of social and health services, in its discretion, may seek relief under sections 5 through 8 of this act on behalf of and with the consent of any vulnerable adult. Neither the department of social and health services nor the state of Washington shall be liable for failure to seek relief on behalf of any persons under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The provision of services under RCW 74.34.030, 74.34.040, 74.34.050, and sections 4 through 11 of this act are discretionary and the department shall not be required to expend additional funds beyond those appropriated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any proceeding under sections 5 through 9 of this act is in addition to any other civil or criminal remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 4 through 11 of this act are added to chapter 74.34 RCW.*

On motion of Mr. Day, the following amendments to the title were adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "74.34.050" insert "; and adding new sections to chapter 74.34 RCW"

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Armstrong and Sayan spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Braddock opposed it.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed:

HOUSE BILL NO. 1518,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1519,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1540,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1802,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1868,

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

The House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 86-93, by Representative Fisch

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr., a long-time political leader in Clallam County, passed away on Wednesday, June fifth, nineteen hundred eighty-five at the age of seventy-four; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. served as president of the Clallam County Democratic Club and was a Democratic Precinct Committeeman; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. was elected Mayor of Port Angeles in nineteen hundred forty-six, served a two-year term and was elected County Assessor in nineteen hundred fifty-five, serving in that office until nineteen hundred seventy-two when he was elected County Commissioner; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. left public office in nineteen hundred seventy-seven, but continued to be a source of advice and knowledge as a Democratic leader in the community; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. was a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge and a member of several other organizations, including the Nile Temple of the Shrine, Moose, Elks, Eagles, Society of Real Estate Appraisers and the American Right of Way Association; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. was born October fourth, nineteen hundred ten, in Bowdle, South Dakota and moved to Port Angeles with his parents at the age of seventeen. After studying engineering at the University of Washington, he worked for several mills during the nineteen thirties and for the Internal Revenue Service from nineteen hundred forty-two through nineteen hundred forty-six; and

WHEREAS, Frank Feeley, Sr. is survived by his wife Ruth Ann, two sons, two daughters, a brother, a cousin and twelve grandchildren;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of this Forty-Ninth Legislature honors the life and public service of Frank Feeley, Sr. and his dedication to the citizens of Clallam County and the State of Washington.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED. That copies of this Resolution be prepared by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives and be transmitted to Mrs. Ruth Ann Feeley.

On motion of Mr. Fisch, the resolution was adopted.

The House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3636, by Senator Moore

Relating to insurance.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, 51st Day, March 4, 1986.)

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Representatives Hargrove, P. King and Sanders to page 11, line 5.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Hargrove withdrew the amendment.

On motion of Mr. J. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. J. King, further consideration of the bill was deferred, and it was ordered placed on the third reading calendar.

SENATE BILL NO. 4708, by Senators Talmadge, Bluechel, Garrett, Gaspard, Bender, Peterson and Granlund

Revising provisions relating to competence of witnesses.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. J. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Armstrong and Padden spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Isaacson.

Mr. Isaacson: "Representative Armstrong, we have a case in the tri-cities where a children's home or a nursery school had some problems and one of the people there was charged with child molestation. We're talking about preschoolers, and the question is whether or not their testimony could be taken. I was wondering how this might affect a case such as that where you could have some very young children that might have some emotional problems in responding to questions in a court of law."

Mr. Armstrong: "The court will examine the child and determine whether the child tells the truth, and if the child tells the truth, the child will be accepted as a witness."

Mr. Isaacson: "I think that is my point. How do we know whether or not a child is telling the truth?"

Mr. Armstrong: "The court measures on a case-by-case basis."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4708, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; absent, 5; excused, 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4738, by Senators Talmadge and Halsan

Revising provisions relating to juvenile offenders.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 3, after line 31, insert the following:

*Sec. 3. Section 61, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.

(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.

(3) If the requirements of subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor neither files nor diverts the case, he shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.

(4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

(5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:

(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) (b) or (c); or

(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of at least one class A or class B felony, or two class C felonies, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors and one additional misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least one class C felony and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor; or

(c) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion; or

(d) An alleged offender is accused of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor and has previously entered into a total of three diversion agreements for separate offenses, not in the same course of conduct.

(6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense(s) in combination with the alleged offender's criminal history do not exceed three offenses or violations and do not include any felonies: PROVIDED, That if the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections (5) and (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an alleged misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor shall be filed pursuant to subsection (5)(d) of this section.

(7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection (5) nor (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

(8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

(9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

Sec. 4, Section 70, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. A disposition outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

~~(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender, the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision. If the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition. A disposition other than a community supervision may be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.~~

~~Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended;~~

(a) The court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision; and

(b) If the minor or first offender has a criminal history of two or more offenses, the court may impose a term of confinement not to exceed seven days in addition to a term of community supervision. If confinement has been imposed, the court shall state aggravating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection would cause a manifest injustice, the court may impose a disposition other than community supervision and/or up to seven days' confinement. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the range shall be determined under RCW 13.40.030(5). The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition under (c) of this subsection is appealable under RCW 13.40.230. A disposition under (a) or (b) of this subsection is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230.

(3) Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 13.40.080(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(4) If a respondent is found to be a middle offender:

(a) The court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range(s) for such offense: PROVIDED, That if the standard range includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement; or

(b) The court shall impose a determinate disposition of community supervision and/or up to thirty days confinement in which case, if confinement has been imposed, the court shall state either aggravating or mitigating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition as provided in subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) A disposition pursuant to subsection (4)(c) of this section is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition pursuant to subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time served.

(6) In its dispositional order, the court shall not suspend or defer the imposition or the execution of the disposition.

(7) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the same offense.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The legislature finds that children who are dependent or in conflict with their families and who violate court-ordered placements or other terms of a court order which may detrimentally affect their emotional or physical well-being should face the consequences of their actions. The legislature further finds that use of the power of contempt of court can accomplish this while maintaining the distinction between these children and juveniles who have violated the criminal laws. It is the intent of the legislature to broaden the court's contempt powers and emphasize that contempt is the appropriate tool for punishing violations of court orders.

Sec. 6, Section 14, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by a fine of up to one hundred dollars and imprisonment for up to ~~((seven))~~ fourteen days, or both.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be imprisoned only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding held under this section is governed by RCW 7.20.040 through 7.20.080, as now law or hereafter amended.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, a child, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 7, Section 1, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.34.165 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by confinement for up to ~~((seven))~~ fourteen days.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be confined only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding under this section is governed by RCW 7.20-.040 through 7.20.080.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order entered pursuant to this chapter."

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "juveniles;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending 13.40.200, 13.40.300, 13.40.070, 13.40.160, 13.32A.250 and 13.34.165; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties".

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. J. King moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Braddock spoke against the motion, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Braddock moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Braddock and B. Williams:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Advertisement' means any written or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communication media published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise.

(2) 'Affiliate' means any person, firm, or corporation who controls or is controlled by any motor fuel refiner-supplier, and includes any subsidiary or affiliated corporation in which the motor fuel refiner-supplier or its shareholders, officers, agents, or employees hold or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares.

(3) 'Community interest' means a continuing financial interest between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer in the operation of the franchise business.

(4) 'Marketing area' means an area five miles or less in any direction from a motor fuel retailer selling products of any trademark of the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(5) 'Motor fuel' means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use in self-propelled motor vehicles and includes gasohol.

(6) 'Motor fuel franchise' means any oral or written contract, either expressed or implied, between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the motor fuel retailer is supplied motor fuel for resale to the public under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier or for sale on commission or for a fee to the public, or any agreements between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the retailer is permitted to occupy premises owned, leased, or controlled by the refiner-supplier for the purpose of engaging in the retail sale of motor fuel under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier supplied by the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(7) 'Motor fuel refiner-supplier' means any person, firm, or corporation, including any affiliate of the person, firm, or corporation, engaged in the refining of crude oil into petroleum who supplies motor fuel for sale, consignment, or distribution through retail outlets and has an operable refinery capacity of three hundred twenty-five thousand barrels a day or more as reported to the federal department of energy.

(8) 'Motor fuel retailer' means a person, firm, or corporation that resells motor fuel entirely at one or more retail motor fuel outlets pursuant to a motor fuel franchise entered into with a refiner-supplier.

(9) 'Offer or offer to sell' includes every attempt or offer to dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy a franchise or an interest in a franchise.

(10) 'Person' means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(11) 'Price' means the net purchase price, after adjustment for commission, brokerage, rebate, discount, services or facilities furnished, or other such adjustment.

(12) 'Publish' means publicly to issue or circulate by newspaper, mail, radio, or television or otherwise to disseminate to the public.

(13) 'Retail motor fuel outlet' means any location where motor fuel is distributed for purposes other than resale.

(14) 'Sale or sell' includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of a franchise.

(15) 'Trademark' means any trademark, trade name, service mark, or other identifying symbol or name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is unlawful for any motor fuel refiner-supplier to discriminate in price between motor fuel retailers in the same marketing area for purchases of motor fuel of like grade and quality, where the effect of the discrimination may be substantially to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any motor fuel retailer who receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with the customers of either motor fuel retailer. Nothing in this section prevents differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the fuel is sold to motor fuel retailers. Upon proof being made of discrimination under this section, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the refiner-supplier. A refiner-supplier may show justification by establishing that a differential price was only made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor if the price was also offered to all other motor fuel retailers under any trademark of the refiner-supplier within the same marketing area as the motor fuel retailer receiving the lower price.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, a motor fuel refiner-supplier shall not absolutely prohibit or unreasonably withhold its consent to any sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise by a motor fuel retailer to a third party without fairly compensating the motor fuel retailer for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the motor fuel retailer's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. A motor fuel refiner-supplier may offset against amounts owed to a motor fuel retailer under this section any amounts owed by the motor fuel retailer to the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may prohibit or prevent the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise to a corporation in which the motor fuel retailer has and maintains a controlling interest if the motor fuel retailer offers in writing personally to guarantee the performance of the obligations under the motor fuel franchise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the interest of a motor fuel retailer under such an agreement shall be considered personal property and shall devolve on the death of the motor fuel retailer to a designated successor in interest of the retailer, limited to the retailer's spouse, adult child, or adult stepchild or, if no successor in interest is designated, to the retailer's spouse, if any. The designation shall be made, witnessed in writing by at least two persons, and delivered to the motor fuel refiner-supplier during the term of the franchise. The designation may be revised at any time by the motor fuel retailer and shall be substantially in the following form:

I (motor fuel retailer name) at the service station located at in the City of Washington, designate as my successor in interest under section 4 of this act and as my alternate successor if the originally designated successor is unable or unwilling so to act.

I so specify this day of, 19.....

The motor fuel refiner-supplier shall assist the designated successor in interest temporarily in the day-to-day operation of the service station to insure continued operation of the service station.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the motor fuel retailer shall be given the right of first refusal to purchase the real estate and/or improvements owned by the refiner-supplier at the franchise location, and at least thirty days' advance notice within which to exercise this right, prior to any sale thereof to any other buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may:

(1) Require any motor fuel retailer to meet mandatory minimum sales volume requirements for fuel or other products unless the refiner-supplier proves that its price to the motor fuel retailer has been sufficiently low to enable the motor fuel retailer reasonably to meet the mandatory minimum;

(2) Alter, or require the motor fuel retailer to consent to the alteration of, any provision of the motor fuel franchise during its effective term without mutual consent of the motor fuel retailer;

(3) Interfere with any motor fuel retailer's right to assistance of counsel on any matter or to join or be active in any trade association; and

(4) Set or compel, directly or indirectly, the retail price at which the motor fuel retailer sells motor fuel or other products to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any motor fuel franchise directly or indirectly:

(1) To sell or offer to sell a motor fuel franchise in this state by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

(2) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.

(3) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person..

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and the motor fuel retailers:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Require a motor fuel retailer to purchase or lease goods or services of the motor fuel refiner-supplier or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the motor fuel franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(b) Discriminate between motor fuel retailers in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that any classification of or discrimination between motor fuel retailers is reasonable, is based on motor fuel franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(c) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a motor fuel retailer any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(d) Require motor fuel retailer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any person who sells or offers to sell a motor fuel franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the motor fuel retailer or motor fuel refiner-supplier who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of section 8 of this act rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(2) The suit authorized under subsection (1) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff: PROVIDED, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(3) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(4) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such persons in any action brought by any party against such person under subsection (1) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: PROVIDED, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any motor fuel retailer who is injured in his or her business by the commission of any act prohibited by this chapter, or any motor fuel retailer injured because of his or her refusal to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or her, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(2) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime by statute or at common law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a motor fuel franchise at the time of entering into a motor fuel franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter apply to any motor fuel franchise or contract entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and a motor fuel retailer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be interpreted consistent with chapter 19.100 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its beneficial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter shall be known as the 'Gasoline Dealer Bill of Rights Act.'

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The Washington state attorney general shall conduct a study to determine whether motor fuel refiner-suppliers are injuring competition from motor fuel retailers, by charging retailers that sell products under their trademark, prices for motor fuel which equal or exceed the prices charged for motor fuel in the same geographic market to retail customers at retail motor fuel outlets operated by company personnel, a subsidiary company, or commissioned or contract agents. The attorney general shall report his findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986. Periodic reports shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. For the purposes of this study, the attorney general is authorized to use all of the civil investigative demand powers enumerated in RCW 19.86.110, subject to the procedures and requirements specified in RCW 19.86.110: PROVIDED, That disclosure of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or the contents thereof, to members of the legislature and legislative staff shall not require a court order unless the documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony are identified at the time they are furnished as containing trade secrets. When seeking a court order allowing disclosure of material containing trade secrets, the attorney general shall give reasonable notice of such proceeding to the party furnishing the material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. To carry out this act, the sum of forty-nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the office of attorney general from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) Sections 20 and 21 are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 1 through 19, 22 and 23 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1986.*

*Sec. 4. Section 22, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 302, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 3.34.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each district court shall designate one or more persons as judge pro tempore who shall serve during the temporary absence, disqualification, or incapacity of a district judge. The qualifications of a judge pro tempore shall be the same as for a district judge, except that with respect to RCW 3.34.060(1), the person appointed need only be a registered voter of the state. A judge pro tempore may sit in any district of the county for which he or she is appointed. A judge pro tempore shall be paid ~~((for each day he or she holds a session one-two hundred fiftieth of the annual salary of a full time district judge))~~ the salary authorized by the county legislative authority. For each day that a judge pro tempore serves in excess of thirty days during any calendar year, the annual salary of the judge in whose place he or she serves shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-two hundred fiftieth of such salary; PROVIDED, That each full time district judge shall have up to fifteen days annual leave without reduction for service on judicial commissions established by the legislature or the chief justice of the supreme court. No reduction in salary shall occur when a judge pro tempore serves while a district judge is using sick leave granted in accordance with RCW 3.34.100.

(2) The legislature may appropriate money for the purpose of reimbursing counties for the salaries of judges pro tempore for certain days in excess of thirty worked per year that the judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. No later than September 1 of each year, each county treasurer shall certify to the administrator for the courts for the year ending the preceding June 30, the number of days in excess of thirty that any judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. Upon receipt of the certification, the administrator for the courts shall reimburse the county from money appropriated for that purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.04 RCW to read as follows:

"Travel trailer" means a vehicle designed for human habitation and without motive power that does not require an oversized permit when being drawn by a motor vehicle upon the public highways.

Sec. 6. Section 73, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.625 are each amended to read as follows:

No person or persons shall occupy ~~((any))~~ a trailer while it is being moved upon a public highway, except ~~((a))~~ when the person is:

(1) Occupying a proper position for steering a trailer designed to be steered from a rear-end position,

(2) Riding in a travel trailer that is connected to a towing unit with a fifth-wheel coupling device if the trailer is equipped with:

(a) Safety glazing materials as defined in RCW 46.37.430, in all window and door glass;

(b) An auditory signaling device for communication between the fifth-wheel connected trailer and the towing unit; and

(c) At least one unobstructed exit capable of being opened from both the interior and exterior of the vehicle.

It is unlawful for any person to tow a fifth-wheel travel trailer in which (i) a child under the age of five is riding unless the child is secured in a child restraint system in compliance with RCW 46.61.687, and (ii) a child under the age of twelve is riding unless the child is accompanied by a person sixteen years of age or older.

A fifth-wheel for a travel trailer is a coupling device that is secured to the frame of a towing unit and mounted in such a manner to ensure proper distribution of the gross weight of the towed trailer on the front and rear axles of the towing unit. The king pin on the trailer shall be permanently attached. The fifth-wheel locking device shall apply automatically upon coupling of the king pin with the fifth-wheel. Every fifth-wheel assembly shall be equipped with a locking mechanism that prevents separation of the lower half and king pin unless a positive manual release is activated.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Walk: "Mr. Speaker, would you rule on the scope and object of this amendment?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined ESSB 4503 and the committee amendment. I have also examined the amendment by Representative Doty. The bill is an act relating to the taxation of mobile homes, travel trailers and campers. The amendment deals with the motor vehicle code. It amends the Rules of the Road provisions on riding in trailers. Having examined both, the Speaker finds that the amendment expands the scope and object of the committee amendment and the bill. Therefore, your point is well taken, Representative Walk, the amendment is ruled out of order."

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4503 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Miller, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Waik, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4503 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 86-150, by Representatives McMullen, Lundquist, Vekich and Basich

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Legislature to recognize outstanding accomplishments in the performing arts; and

WHEREAS, The Vela Luka Croatian Dancers of Anacortes is an especially talented group of people whose cultural exhibitions are symbolic of the Croatian area of Yugoslavia and help forge a cross-cultural link between citizens of that country and of Washington State; and

WHEREAS, Nearly all sixty-five members of the Vela Luka Dancers have a heritage of Croatian ancestry and came to settle in Skagit County, sharing the toils of labor and fruits of freedom and adding significantly to the great cultural melting pot of America; and

WHEREAS, This remarkable folk dance troupe has performed for years to the pleasure and delight of thousands across the state; and

WHEREAS, The Vela Luka Croatian Dancers have been invited to exhibit their talents at the rededication celebration of the Statue of Liberty on July 4, 5 and 6 in New York City, thus representing all of Washington State in the ceremony to mark the 100th anniversary of the statue; and

WHEREAS, The newly renovated Statue of Liberty will continue to stand as a beacon of freedom and democracy for the entire world;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize and honor the Vela Luka Croatian Folklore Ensemble as an official emissary of this state to the forthcoming centennial rededication of the Statue of Liberty and commend the continued educational, cultural and artistic endeavors in bringing entertainment and heritage to the people of the State of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Maria Petrish, founder and director of the Vela Luka Dance Company.

Mr. McMullen moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives McMullen, Basich, Lundquist and Vekich spoke in favor of the resolution and it was adopted.

The House reverted to the sixth order of business.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3498 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 136, by Senators Talmadge and Metcalf

Revising the membership of the judicial qualifications commission.

The resolution was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 47th Day, February 28, 1986.)

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Padden moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives B. Williams, Walker, Thomas and Brough:

On page 1, after line 29 insert the following paragraphs:

"Whenever the commission receives a complaint against a judge or justice, it shall first conduct proceedings for the purpose of determining whether sufficient reason exists for conducting a hearing or hearings to deal with the accusations. These initial proceedings shall be confidential, unless confidentiality is waived by the judge or justice, but all subsequent hearings conducted by the commission shall be open to members of the public.

Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court."

Mr. Padden spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Padden yielded to question by Mr. Armstrong.

Mr. Armstrong: "Representative Padden, how does this procedure that you recommend differ from the current procedure?"

Mr. Padden: "Representative Armstrong, as I understand it, right now we are waiting on the disciplinary action with a certain judge. We are waiting for the Supreme Court to act and it's my understanding that judge is still hearing cases. There's some question of public confidence here. Secondly, with regard to the area of opening up the commission hearings, the commission is only open to hearings when they do it on their own motion and they have only done it, I believe, on one occasion. This was a matter that was discussed in the Judicial Administration Commission gatherings and it's something I think will be supported by the public."

Representatives Armstrong and Niemi opposed the amendment, and Representatives Lewis, B. Williams and Tilly spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of the amendment by Representative B. Williams and others to page 1, line 29 of Senate Joint Resolution No. 136, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 76; nays, 21; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Baugher, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisher, Fuhrman, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, King P, Kremen, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, Madsen, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walk, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 76.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Basich, Brekke, Crane, Fisch, Gallagher, Jacobsen, King J, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, Rust, Scott, Todd, Unsoeld, Vekich - 21.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of passage of the resolution.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 136 as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Miller, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 136 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4725, by Senators Warnke, Hayner and Bottiger; by request of Board of Accountancy Revising provisions of the accountancy act.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Commerce & Labor recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 45th Day, February 26, 1986.)

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Ms. Belcher, the following amendment by Representatives Belcher and Wang to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 6, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following:

'Sec. 1, Section 3, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Board' means the board of accountancy created by RCW 18.04.035.

(2) 'Certified public accountant' or 'CPA' means a person holding a certified public accountant certificate issued under this chapter or the accountancy act of any state.

(3) 'Department' means the department of licensing.

(4) 'Director' means the director of the department of licensing or the director's designee.

(5) 'State' includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the United States Virgin Islands.

((4)) (6) 'Opinions on financial statements' are any reports prepared by certified public accountants, based on examinations in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as to whether the presentation of information used for guidance in financial transactions or for accounting for or assessing the status or performance of commercial and noncommercial enterprises, whether public, private, or governmental, conforms with generally accepted accounting principles or other comprehensive bases of accounting.

((5)) (7) The 'practice of public accounting' means performing services as one skilled in the knowledge and practice of public accounting and preparing reports designated as 'audit reports,' 'review reports,' and 'compilation reports.'

(8) 'Firm' means a sole proprietorship, a corporation, or a partnership.

(9) 'CPE' means continuing professional education.

(10) 'Certificate' means a certificate as a certified public accountant issued under this chapter, or a corresponding certificate issued by another state.

(11) 'Licensee' means the holder of a certificate who also holds a valid license issued under this chapter.

(12) 'License' means a biennial license issued to an individual or firm under this chapter.

(13) 'Quality assurance review' means a study, appraisal, or review of one or more aspects of the professional work of a person or firm in the practice of public accountancy, by a person or persons who hold certificates and who are not affiliated with the person or firm being reviewed.

Sec. 2, Section 4, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created a board of accountancy for the state of Washington to be known as the Washington board of accountancy. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor. Members of the board shall include four persons who hold certified public accountant certificates and have been in public practice as certified public accountants in this state continuously for the previous ten years. The fifth member shall be the public member and shall be a person who is qualified to judge whether the qualifications, activities, and professional practice of those regulated under this chapter conform with standards to protect the public interest.

(2) The members of the board of accountancy (~~existing immediately prior to July 1, 1983, shall serve out their existing terms as members of the board created under this act. Thereafter, each member of the board~~) shall be appointed by the governor to a term of three years. (~~Their successors shall be appointed for terms of three years.~~) Vacancies occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Upon the expiration of a member's term of office, the member shall continue to serve until a successor has been appointed and has assumed office. The governor shall remove from the board any member whose certificate or (~~permit~~) license to practice has been revoked or suspended and may, after hearing, remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or other just cause. No person who has served two successive complete terms is eligible for reappointment. Appointment to fill an unexpired term is not considered a complete term.

Sec. 3, Section 5, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall annually elect a chairman, a vice chairman, and a secretary from its members.

(2) The board may adopt and amend rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the orderly conduct of its affairs ~~((and for the administration of this chapter)).~~

(3) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(4) The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed.

(5) The board shall keep records of its proceedings, and of any proceeding in court arising from or founded upon this chapter. Copies of these records certified as correct under the seal of the board are admissible in evidence as tending to prove the content of the records.

~~((The board may employ personnel and arrange for assistance as it requires to perform its duties.~~

~~((2))~~ (6) Each member of the board shall receive compensation as provided under RCW 18.04.080.

~~((3))~~ (7) The board shall file an annual report of its activities with the governor. ~~((The report shall include but not be limited to a statement of all receipts and disbursements and a listing of all certified public accountants who are registered, or who have offices registered, or permits to practice issued under this chapter.))~~ Upon request, the ~~((board))~~ department shall mail a copy of each annual report ~~((to any person, office, partnership, or corporation listed, or))~~ to any member of the public.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall prescribe rules consistent with this chapter as necessary to implement this chapter. Included may be:

(1) Rules of procedure to govern the conduct of matters before the board;

(2) Rules of professional conduct to establish and maintain high standards of competence and integrity in the profession;

(3) Educational requirements to set for an examination or for the issuance of the certificate or license of certified public accountant;

(4) Rules designed to ensure that certified public accountants' 'opinions on financial statements' meet the definitional requirements for that term as specified in RCW 18.04.025;

(5) Requirements for continuing professional education to maintain or improve the professional competence of ~~((permit))~~ certificate and license holders ~~((to practice under RCW 18.04.215))~~ as a condition to maintaining their ~~((continuing in the practice of public accounting))~~ certificate or license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(6) Regulations governing sole proprietors, partnerships, and corporations practicing public accounting including, but not limited to, rules concerning their style, name, title, and affiliation with any other organization, and establishing reasonable practice standards to protect the public interest;~~((and))~~

(7) The board may by rule implement a quality assurance review program as a means to monitor licensees' quality of practice and compliance with professional standards. The board may exempt from such program, licensees who undergo periodic peer reviews in programs of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, or other programs recognized and approved by the board by rule.

(8) The board may by rule require firms to obtain professional liability insurance if in the board's discretion such insurance provides additional and necessary protection for the public; and

(9) Any other rule which the board finds necessary or appropriate to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.04 RCW to read as follows:

The director may employ persons to administer this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 18.04 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall establish fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.04.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The certificate of 'certified public accountant' shall be ~~((granted))~~ issued by the ~~((board))~~ department to any person:

(a) Who is of good character. Good character, for purposes of this section, means lack of a history of dishonest or felonious acts. The department may refuse to grant a certificate on the ground of failure to satisfy this requirement only if there is a substantial connection between the lack of good character of the applicant and the professional responsibilities of a licensee and if the finding by the department of lack of good character is supported by a preponderance of evidence. When an applicant is found to be unqualified for a certificate because of a lack of good character, the department shall furnish the applicant a statement containing the findings of the department and a notice of the applicant's right of appeal:

(b) Who has ~~((a baccalaureate degree conferred by a college or university recognized by the board, and whose educational program included an accounting concentration or its equivalent, and related subjects))~~ met such educational standards established by rule as the board determines to be appropriate; and

(c) Who has passed a written examination in accounting, auditing, and related subjects the board determines to be appropriate.

~~(6) The ((board)) department shall charge each applicant an examination fee for the initial examination under subsection (1) of this section, or for reexamination under subsection ~~((5)) (4)~~ of this section for each subject in which the applicant is reexamined~~((or for evaluation of a person's educational qualifications under subsection (2) of this section))~~. The application fee shall be paid by the person at the time he or she applies for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications. Fees for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications shall be determined by the ((board)) director under ~~((chapter 18.04))~~ RCW 43.24.086. There is established in the state treasury an account to be known as the certified public accountants' ~~((examination))~~ account. All fees received from candidates to take any or all sections of the certified public accountant examination ~~((shall be deposited by the board into this account, and funds appropriated from the account))~~ shall be used only for costs ~~((directly))~~ related to the examination. All earnings of investments of balances in the certified public accountants' ~~((examination))~~ account shall be credited to the general fund.~~

~~(7) Persons who on ((July 1, 1983)) June 30, 1986, held certified public accountant certificates previously issued under the laws of this state shall not be required to obtain additional certificates under this chapter, but shall otherwise be subject to this chapter. Certificates previously issued shall, for all purposes, be considered certificates issued under this chapter and subject to its provisions.~~

~~(8)((a) Persons who on July 1, 1983, hold registrations as licensed public accountants and annual permits to practice previously issued under the laws of this state shall be entitled to practice public accounting and be known as certified public accountants and to use the designation "CPA" provided that these persons continue to hold permits to practice under this chapter.~~

~~((b)) Persons who held qualifications as licensed public accountants but who do not hold annual permits to practice on July 1, 1983, are not entitled to engage in the practice of public accounting under this chapter ((unless they meet the requirements imposed by this chapter for certified public accountants)). ((These)) No person((s)) shall ((not)) use the term 'licensed public accountant((s))' or the designation 'LPA.'~~

~~(9) A certificate of a 'certified public accountant' under this chapter is issued on a biennial basis with renewal subject to requirements of continuing professional education and payment of fees, prescribed by the board.~~

(10) The board shall adopt rules providing for continuing professional education for certified public accountants. The rules shall:

(a) Provide that a certified public accountant holding a certificate on the effective date of this act shall verify to the board that he or she has completed at least ten days or an accumulation of eighty hours of continuing professional education during the last two-year period to maintain the certificate;

(b) Establish continuing professional education requirements;

(c) Establish when newly certificated public accountants shall verify that they have completed the required continuing professional education; and

(d) Establish proceedings for revocation, suspension, and reinstatement of certificates for failure to meet the continuing professional education requirement.

(11) Failure to furnish verification of the completion of the continuing professional education requirement constitutes grounds for revocation, suspension, or failure to renew the certificate, unless the board determines that the failure was due to reasonable cause or excusable neglect.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.185 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Application for a biennial ~~((permit))~~ license to practice public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant or CPA firm who holds a license or permit to practice issued by another state constitutes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for service of process in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising from any transaction or operation connected with or incidental to the practice of public accounting in this state by the holder of the biennial ~~((permit))~~ license to practice.

Sec. 9. Section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.195 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sole proprietorship engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall license biennially with the department as a firm.

(a) The principal purpose and business of the firm shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board.

(b) The person shall be a certified public accountant holding a license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

(c) Each resident licensee in charge of an office of the sole proprietorship engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant holding a license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

(2) A partnership engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall ~~((register))~~ license biennially with the ~~((board))~~ department as a partnership of certified public accountants, and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the partnership shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board;

(b) At least one general partner of the partnership shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(c) Each resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee in charge of an office of the partnership in this state and each resident partner personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting ~~((as a member in the office))~~ shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

~~((#))~~ (3) A corporation organized for the practice of public accounting and engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall ~~((register))~~ license biennially with the ~~((board))~~ department as a corporation of certified public accountants and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the corporation shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board; and

(b) Each shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice and shall be principally employed by the corporation or actively engaged in its business. No other person may have any interest in the stock of the corporation. The principal officer of the corporation and any officer or director having authority over the practice of public accounting by the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice;

(c) At least one shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(d) Each resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee in charge of an office of the corporation in this state and each shareholder or director personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(e) A written agreement shall bind the corporation or its shareholders to purchase any shares offered for sale by, or not under the ownership or effective control of, a qualified shareholder, and bind any holder not a qualified shareholder to sell the shares to the corporation or its qualified shareholders. The agreement shall be noted on each certificate of corporate stock. The corporation may purchase any amount of its stock for this purpose, notwithstanding any impairment of capital, as long as one share remains outstanding; and

(f) The corporation shall comply with any other rules pertaining to corporations practicing public accounting in this state as the board may prescribe.

~~((4))~~ (5) Fees for the ~~((registration of partnerships or corporations))~~ license as a firm and for notification of the ~~((board))~~ department of the admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder shall be determined by the ~~((board))~~ director under RCW 43.24.086. Fees shall be paid by the ~~((applicant))~~ firm at the time the ~~((registration))~~ license application form or notice of admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder is filed with the ~~((board))~~ department.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.205 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each office established or maintained in this state for the practice of public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant, or a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants, shall register with the ~~((board))~~ department under this chapter biennially.

(2) Each office shall be under the direct supervision of a resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 who may be ~~((either))~~ a sole proprietor, partner, principal shareholder, or a staff employee.

~~((2))~~ (3) The board shall by rule prescribe the procedure to be followed to register and maintain offices established in this state for the practice of public accounting.

~~((3))~~ (4) Fees for the registration of offices shall be determined by the ~~((board))~~ director under RCW 43.24.086. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the registration form is filed with the ~~((board))~~ department.

Sec. 11. Section 11, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Biennial ~~((permits))~~ licenses to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be issued by the ~~((board))~~ department:

(a) To holders of certificates as certified public accountants who have demonstrated, in accordance with rules issued by the board, one year of public accounting experience, or such other experience or employment which the board in its discretion regards as substantially equivalent;

(b) To ~~((partnerships and corporations registered))~~ firms under RCW 18.04.195, if all offices of the ~~((partnerships and corporations))~~ firm in this state are maintained and registered as required under RCW 18.04.205.

(2) All ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice ~~((for))~~ issued to persons born in an even-numbered year expire on the last day of June ~~((1984 shall be for one year and may be renewed for a period of two years))~~ of each even-numbered year. All ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice ~~((for))~~ issued to persons born in an odd-numbered year expire on the last day of June ~~((1985 shall be for two years and may be renewed for a period of two years))~~ of each odd-numbered year. Renewals of ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice issued to individuals under subsection (1) (a) ~~((or b))~~ of this section shall be issued in accordance with subsection ~~((3))~~ (4) of this section. Applicants for issuance or renewal of ~~((permits))~~ licenses shall, at the time of filing their applications, list with the ~~((board))~~ department all states in which they hold or have applied for permits or licenses to practice.

~~((3))~~ (4) As a prerequisite to renewal of a ~~((permit))~~ license, a person practicing public accounting shall submit to the ~~((Washington state board of accountancy))~~ department satisfactory proof of having completed ten days or an accumulation of eighty hours of continuing education recognized and approved by the board during the preceding two years. Failure to furnish this evidence as required constitutes grounds for revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the ~~((permit))~~ license in a proceeding under RCW 18.04.295, unless the board determines the failure to have been due to reasonable cause or excusable neglect.

The board~~((:))~~ in its discretion~~((:))~~ may renew a biennial ~~((permit))~~ license to practice despite failure to furnish evidence of compliance with requirements of continuing professional education upon condition that the applicant follow a particular program of continuing professional education. In issuing rules and individual orders with respect to continuing professional education requirements, the board, among other considerations, may rely upon guidelines and pronouncements of recognized educational and professional associations, may prescribe course content, duration, and organization, and ~~((shall))~~ may take into account the accessibility of continuing education to applicants and instances of individual hardship.

~~((4))~~ (5) Fees for biennial ((permits)) licenses to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be determined by the ((board)) director under ((chapter 18.04)) RCW 43.24.086. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the ((registration)) application form is filed with the ((board)) department. The department, by rule, may provide for proration of fees for licenses issued between normal renewal dates.

Sec. 12. Section 12, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.295 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend any certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105, or may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew any permit to practice, or may censure the holder of a permit for one or a combination))~~ The board of accountancy shall have the power to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license of any certified public accountant for any of the following causes:

(1) Fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate as a certified public accountant, ~~((or in obtaining registration under this act,))~~ or in obtaining a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice public accounting under RCW 18.04.215;

(2) Dishonesty, fraud, or ~~((gross))~~ negligence in the practice of public accounting;

(3) A violation of any provision of this ~~((act))~~ chapter;

(4) A violation of a rule of professional conduct promulgated by the board under the authority granted by this ~~((act))~~ chapter;

(5) Conviction of a crime or an act constituting a crime under:

(a) The laws of this state;

(b) The laws of another state, and which, if committed within this state, would have constituted a crime under the laws of this state; or

(c) Federal law;

(6) Cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority to practice as a certified public accountant by any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing education in the other state;

(7) Suspension or revocation of the right to practice before any state or federal agency~~((or))~~.

Sec. 13. Section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.305 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((After notice and hearing under RCW 18.04.320, the board shall revoke the registration issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.195 and permit to practice issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.215 if at any time the partnership or corporation does not have all the qualifications prescribed under this chapter for registration. After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend the registration of a partnership or corporation, may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew its permit to practice))~~ The board of accountancy may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license issued to a firm if at any time the firm does not meet the requirements of this chapter for licensing, or for any of the causes enumerated in RCW 18.04.295, or for any of the following additional causes:

(1) The revocation or suspension of the certificate as a certified public accountant or the revocation or suspension or refusal to renew the ~~((permit))~~ license of any partner or shareholder; or

(2) The ~~((cancellation,))~~ revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the ~~((authority))~~ license or permit of the ~~((partnership or corporation))~~ firm, or any partner or shareholder thereof, to practice public accounting in any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing professional education in the other state.

Sec. 14. Section 31, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 14, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) Proceedings for) In the case of the refusal, revocation, or suspension of ((the certificate, permit, or registration of any person, partnership, or corporation may be initiated)) a certificate or a license by the board ((on its own motion, on the complaint of any person, or on receiving notification from another state board of accountancy of its decision to:~~

(a) Revoke or suspend practice privileges granted in that state to a holder of a certified public accountant certificate or a public accountant registrant of that state; or

(b) Revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice in that state who holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(3) If after having been so served with a notice of hearing, the accused fails to appear at the hearing, the board may proceed to hear evidence against him and may enter such order as may be justified by the evidence, which shall be final unless the accused petitions for a review thereof. Within thirty days from the date of any such order upon a showing of good cause for failing to appear, the board may reopen the proceedings and may permit the accused to submit evidence in his or her behalf;

(4) At any hearing the accused may appear in person and by counsel, may produce evidence and witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may cross-examine such witnesses as may appear against him. A partnership may be represented before the board by counsel or by a partner. A corporation may be represented before the board by counsel or by a shareholder. The accused shall be entitled on application to the board to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence on his or her behalf;

(5) The board, or any member thereof, may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and may administer oaths, take testimony, hear proofs, and receive exhibits in evidence in connection with or upon hearing under this chapter. To compel obedience to a subpoena the board may invoke the aid of any court of this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence;

(6) The board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence;

(9) The decision of the board shall be by majority vote;

(10) Any person adversely affected by any action of the board may obtain a review thereof by filing a written petition for review in the superior court of the county in which he resides within thirty days after the entry of such order. A copy of the petition shall be served upon any member of the board and thereupon the board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record upon which the order complained of was entered. The court will hear the matter de novo, and may sustain, modify, or set aside the board's order in whole or in part, or may remand the matter to the board for further action, and may, in its discretion, stay the effect of the board's order pending its determination of the case. The court's decision has the force and effect of a decree in equity; and

(11) On rendering a decision to: (a) Revoke or suspend a certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105; (b) revoke or suspend a registration issued under RCW 18.04.195; or (c) revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or ensure the holder of a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, the board shall examine its records to determine whether the accused holds a certificate, a registration, or a permit or annual limited permit to practice in any other state. If the board determines that the accused holds a certificate, or a registration in any other state, the board shall notify the board of accountancy of the other state of its decision by mail within thirty days of rendering the decision)) under the provisions of this chapter, such proceedings and any appeal therefrom shall be taken in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 15. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.335 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon application in writing and after hearing pursuant to notice, the board may, if adequate justification is provided by the applicant, direct the department to:

(1) Reissue a certificate to a certified public accountant whose certificate has been revoked or suspended; or

(2) Modify the suspension of or reissue any ((permit)) license to practice which has been revoked, suspended, or which the board has refused to renew.

Sec. 16. Section 16, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.345 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may hold himself or herself out to the public, or assume or use the designation 'certified public accountant' or 'CPA' or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant or CPA unless the person has received a certificate as a certified public accountant, holds a valid ((permit)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all of the person's offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(2) No ((partnership or corporation)) firm may hold itself out to the public, or assume or use the designation 'certified public accountant' or 'CPA' or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the ((partnership or corporation)) firm is composed of certified public accountants or CPAs, unless the ((partnership or corporation)) firm is ((registered as a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants)) licensed under RCW 18.04.195, holds a valid ((permit)) license to practice under RCW

18.04.215, and all offices of the (~~(partnership or corporation)~~) firm in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(5) No person may sign, affix, or associate a (~~(partnership or corporate)~~) firm name to any report designated as an 'audit,' 'review,' or 'compilation,' unless the (~~(partnership or corporation)~~) firm is (~~(registered)~~) licensed under RCW 18.04.195(~~(-holds a permit to practice under RCW)~~) and 18.04.215, and all of its offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(6) No person, partnership, or corporation not holding a (~~(permit)~~) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public as an 'auditor' with or without any other description or designation by use of such word on any sign, card, letterhead, or in any advertisement or directory.

(7) Nothing contained in this chapter prohibits any person who is the holder of a valid certified public accountant certificate from assuming or using the designation 'certified public accountant' or 'CPA' or any other title, designation, words, letters, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant.

(8) No person may assume or use the designation 'certified public accountant' or 'CPA' in conjunction with names indicating or implying that there is a partnership or corporation, (~~(or in conjunction with the designation "and Company" or "and Co." or a similar designation,))~~ if there is in fact no bona fide partnership or corporation registered under RCW 18.04.195.

(9) No person, partnership, or corporation holding a (~~(permit)~~) license under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public in conjunction with the designation 'and Associates' or 'and Assoc.' unless he or she has in fact a partner or employee who holds a (~~(permit)~~) license under RCW 18.04.215.

(10) No person, partnership, or corporation may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public for the practice of public accounting unless the person, partnership, or corporation holds a (~~(permit)~~) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 and all of his or its offices in this state are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

Sec. 17. Section 34, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 17, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person not a certified public accountant from serving as an employee of, or as assistant to, a certified public accountant or partnership composed of certified public accountants or corporation of certified public accountants holding a valid (~~(permit)~~) license under RCW 18.04.215. However, the employee or assistant shall not issue any accounting or financial statement over his or her name.

(2) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant registered in another state, or any accountant of a foreign country holding a certificate, degree or license which permits him to practice therein from temporarily practicing in this state on professional business incident to his regular practice.

(3) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to other certified public accountants, peer review teams, partnerships, or corporations of public accountants engaged in conducting peer reviews, or any one of their employees in connection with peer reviews of that accountant's accounting and auditing practice conducted under the auspices of recognized professional associations.

(4) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to any employee, representative, officer, or committee member of a recognized professional association, or to the board of accountancy, or (~~(any of its employees or committees)~~) the department in connection with a professional (~~(ethics)~~) investigation held under the auspices of recognized professional associations or the board of accountancy.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any officer, employee, partner, or principal of any organization:

(a) From affixing his or her signature to any statement or report in reference to the affairs of the organization with any wording designating the position, title, or office which he or she holds in the organization; or

(b) From describing himself or herself by the position, title, or office he or she holds in such organization.

(6) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person, or partnership or corporation composed of persons not holding a ((permit)) license under RCW 18.04.215 from offering or rendering to the public bookkeeping, accounting, and tax services, including devising and installing systems, financial information or data, or preparing financial statements, written statements describing how such financial statements were prepared, or similar services, provided that persons, partnerships, or corporations not holding a ((permit)) license under RCW 18.04.215 who offer or render these services do not designate any written statement as an 'audit report,' 'review report,' or 'compilation report,' do not issue any written statement which purports to express or disclaim an opinion on financial statements which have been audited, and do not issue any written statement which expresses assurance on financial statements which have been reviewed.

(7) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any act of or the use of any words by a public official or a public employee in the performance of his or her duties.

Sec. 18. Section 37, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 20, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.380 are each amended to read as follows:

The display or presentation by a person of a card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved or written instrument or device, bearing a person's name in conjunction with the words 'certified public accountant' or any abbreviation thereof, or 'licensed public accountant' or any abbreviation thereof, or 'public accountant' or any abbreviation thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in any action brought under this chapter that the person whose name is so displayed, caused or procured the display or presentation of the card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved, or written instrument or device, and that the person is holding himself or herself out to be a certified public accountant or a public accountant holding a ((permit)) license to practice under this chapter. In any such action, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this chapter is sufficient to justify an injunction or a conviction without evidence of a general course of conduct.

Sec. 19. Section 38, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 21, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) No statement, record, schedule, working paper, or memorandum may be sold, transferred, or bequeathed without the consent of the client or his or her personal representative or assignee, to anyone other than one or more surviving partners, shareholders, or new partners or new shareholders of the accountant or corporation, or any combined or merged partnership or corporation, or successor in interest ((~~to the partnership or corporation~~)).

(3) A licensee shall furnish to his or her client or former client, upon request and reasonable notice:

(a) A copy of the licensee's working papers, to the extent that such working papers include records that would ordinarily constitute part of the client's records and are not otherwise available to the client; and

(b) Any accounting or other records belonging to, or obtained from or on behalf of, the client that the licensee removed from the client's premises or received for the client's account; the licensee may make and retain copies of such documents of the client when they form the basis for work done by him or her.

Sec. 20. Section 23, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.405 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) This section shall not be construed as limiting the authority of this state or of the United States or an agency of this state or of the United States to subpoena and use such information in connection with any investigation, public hearing, or other proceeding, nor shall this section be construed as prohibiting a certified public accountant whose professional competence has been challenged in a court of law or before an administrative agency from disclosing confidential information as a part of a defense to the court action or administrative proceeding.

Sec. 21. Section 34, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.901 are each amended to read as follows:

If any provision of this ~~((act))~~ chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the ~~((act))~~ chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 30, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.311;
- (2) Section 31, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.312; and
- (3) Section 24, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.065.

Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.920 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter may be cited as the public accountancy act ~~((of 1983))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. RCW 18.04.930, 18.04.931, 18.04.932, 18.04.933, and 18.04.934 are each decodified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. All administrative powers, administrative duties, and administrative functions of the board of accountancy pertaining to (1) the examination of applicants for, (2) the issuance of certificates, permits, and registrations relating to, and (3) the discipline of persons engaged in the practice of accountancy under chapter 18.04 RCW are transferred to the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the board of accountancy and pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act shall be delivered to the custody of the department of licensing. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the board of accountancy in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act shall be made available to the department of licensing. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act shall be assigned to the department of licensing.

Any appropriations made to the board of accountancy for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act shall, on the effective date of this act, be transferred and credited to the department of licensing.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. All employees of the board of accountancy engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department of licensing. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the department of licensing to perform duties within their classifications without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. All rules and all pending business before the board of accountancy pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 25 of this act shall be continued and acted upon by the department of licensing. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the department of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the board of accountancy shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 26 through 29 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. Nothing contained in sections 25 through 30 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. For the purposes of RCW 1.12.025(2), sections 1 through 24 of this act are intended to reflect and be consistent with the amendments to chapter 18.04 RCW by chapter ... (ESHB 1758), Laws of 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1986."

The Speaker (Ms. Hine presiding) stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment as amended.

Representatives Wang and Patrick spoke in favor of the amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

Mr. Wang moved adoption of the committee amendment to the title of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Wang, the following amendment to the title amendment was adopted:

On page 41 of the amendment, beginning on line 5 strike the title amendment and insert the following:

"On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "accountancy," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.04.025, 18.04.035, 18.04.045, 18.04.055, 18.04.105, 18.04.185, 18.04.195, 18.04.205, 18.04.215, 18.04.295, 18.04.305, 18.04.320, 18.04.335, 18.04.345, 18.04.350, 18.04.380, 18.04.390, 18.04.405, 18.04.901, and 18.04.920; adding new sections to chapter 18.04 RCW; decodifying RCW 18.04.930, 18.04.931, 18.04.932, 18.04.933, and 18.04.934; repealing RCW 43.131.311, 43.131.312, and 18.04.065; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date."

The committee amendment to the title as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and O'Brien spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Taylor and Patrick opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4725 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 37; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Krømen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Silver, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker - 60.

Voting nay: Representatives Bailard, Barnes, Betzoff, Bond, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Dobbs, Fuhrman, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Smith C, Smith L, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Zellinsky - 37.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4725 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

SENATE BILL NO. 4452, by Senators McDermott, Zimmerman, Gaspard, Barr, Rasmussen and Conner; by request of Legislative Budget Committee

Modifying LBC oversight assignments.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Vekich moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Vekich, Schmidt, Zellinsky, Van Luven, Fisher, Walk, Thomas, Sutherland, Baugher, Tanner, Jacobsen and S. Wilson:

On page 15, following line 34 insert the following:

"Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 197, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 44.28.086 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative budget committee authority for management surveys contained in RCW 44.28.085 shall include reviews of program goals and objectives of public bodies, officers or employees to determine conformity with legislative intent and shall include comprehensive performance audits to ensure that legislative programs are being conducted in accordance with legislative intent and program goals and objectives. Surveys and performance audits involving agencies or programs under the jurisdiction of another statutory legislative committee shall be conducted only with the express approval of that committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I would like you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment. I notice that when the Clerk read the title it seems to be a reasonably precise and tight title."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Sommers, the Speaker has examined the floor amendment and the bill. The Speaker would like to note that the title is 'An Act Relating to deleting of statutory duties of the Legislative Budget Committee....' In fact, the Speaker would like to note that the bill itself deals with the reduction of duties, and in addition, it eliminates a report of the Secretary of State by responsibility of submitting a report to the Legislative Budget Committee, while the amendment only reduces or diminishes the responsibilities or duties of the Legislative Budget Committee. The Speaker, after examining both, finds that it is within the scope and object of the bill and your point is not well taken."

Mr. Vekich spoke in favor of the amendment, and Ms. Belcher spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Vekich: "Mr. Speaker, I think my motives are being impugned. This amendment has nothing to do with salary surveys."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Belcher, I was distracted talking about a technical matter so I wasn't able to hear your remarks, so I cannot judge as to whether or not you were straying from the issue and impugning the remarks. I'm sure you would not, now or in the future do so, so please continue on the issue before us."

Ms. Belcher continued her remarks in opposition to the amendment. Representatives Vander Stoep, Holland, Tilly, J. King, R. King, Sommers and Prince spoke against the amendment, and Representatives Sutherland, Schmidt and Walk spoke in favor of it.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Vekich withdrew the amendment.

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Belcher spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 4452, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 85; nays, 12; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Miller, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 85.

Voting nay: Representatives Berozoff, Bond, Chandler, Dobbs, Fuhrman, Lundquist, Nealey, Patrick, Prince, Schmidt, Van Loven, Williams J - 12.

Excused: Representative van Dyke - 1.

Senate Bill No. 4452, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4814, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators McDermott and Bailey)

Providing education for children on abuse and neglect and creating a pilot project on educating and training young mothers.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Ways & Means recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended by Committee on Ways & Means and without Committee on Education amendments. (For amendments, see Journal 50th Day, March 3, 1986.)

Mr. Braddock moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. Schoon, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 21 after "Any" strike "assault" and insert "use of force"

((3)) (4) As used in this section, 'minor' means a person under ~~((sixteen))~~ eighteen years of age."

With the consent of the House, Mr. West withdrew the amendment.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives West and Scott to the committee amendment:

On page 2, following line 9 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new chapter is added to Title 9A RCW to read as follows: As used in this chapter:

- (1) 'Basic necessities of life' means food, shelter, clothing, and health care.
- (2)(a) 'Bodily injury,' 'physical injury,' or 'bodily harm' means physical pain or injury, illness, or an impairment of physical condition;
- (b) 'Substantial bodily harm' means bodily injury which involves a temporary but substantial disfigurement, or which causes a temporary but substantial loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ, or which causes a fracture of any bodily part;
- (c) 'Great bodily harm' means bodily injury which creates a probability of death, or which causes serious permanent disfigurement, or which causes a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ.
- (3) 'Child' means a person under eighteen years of age.
- (4) 'Dependent person' means a person who, because of physical or mental disability, is dependent upon another person to provide the basic necessities of life.
- (5) 'Parent' has its ordinary meaning and also includes a guardian and the authorized agent of a parent or guardian.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the first degree if he or she recklessly causes substantial bodily harm to a child or dependent person by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the second degree if he or she recklessly either (a) creates an imminent and substantial risk of death or substantial bodily harm, or (b) causes bodily harm by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act do not apply to a decision to withdraw life support systems made in accordance with law by a health care professional and family members or others with a legal duty to care for the patient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In any prosecution for criminal mistreatment because of a parent's failure to provide medical treatment for his or her child, it is a defense that the parent relied on treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer for healing in accordance with religious beliefs which were genuinely held by such parent, unless the parent had reasonable cause to believe that the life of the child was substantially and seriously threatened or that permanent physical damage could result to such child for failure to provide medical treatment."

With the consent of the House, Mr. West withdrew the amendment to the committee amendment.

Ms. Cole moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Cole, Rust, Belcher, Leonard, Ebersole and D. Nelson to the committee amendment:

On page 4, after line 12 insert the following new section:

- (2) Annually, the superintendent of each school district shall compile the reports from all schools within the school district and report the number of incidents of the use of corporal punishment for the year within the school district including the age, sex and race of children who received corporal punishment to the superintendent of public instruction by August 1 of each year.
- (3) The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the house and senate education committee on the statewide use of corporal punishment by December 31 of each year.

For the purpose of this section, corporal punishment includes hitting, spanking, slapping or striking a student."

Ms. Cole spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

With the consent of the House, Ms. Cole withdrew the amendment to the amendment.

Mr. G. Nelson moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives G. Nelson and Ebersole to the committee amendment:

On page 4, following line 12 insert:

*Sec. 3. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

(4) Accredite, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

(5) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

(6) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

(7) Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations.

(8) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

(9) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

(10) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the state fire marshal, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

(11) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

The state board of education is given the authority to promulgate information and rules dealing with the prevention of child abuse for purposes of curriculum use in the common schools.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.05.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 71, Laws of 1969 and RCW 28A.05.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All common schools shall give instruction in reading, penmanship, orthography, written and mental arithmetic, geography, English grammar, physiology and hygiene with special reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics on the human system, the history of the United States, and such other studies as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the state board of education. All teachers shall stress the importance of the cultivation of manners, the fundamental principles of honesty, honor, industry and economy, the minimum requisites for good health including the beneficial effect of physical exercise, and the worth of kindness to all living creatures. The prevention of child abuse may be offered as part of the curriculum in the common schools.

(1) Any person who shall ~~((insult or abuse))~~ use language which inflicts injury or tends to incite an immediate breach of peace against a teacher anywhere on the school premises while such teacher is carrying out his official duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor(;;).

(2) The penalty for ~~((which))~~ violating this section shall be a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Locke: "Mr. Speaker, I would challenge this amendment as being beyond the scope and object of the committee amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker, after looking at the amendment, and the underlying bill and the committee amendment, finds that the amendment goes beyond the subject of child abuse education programs. Therefore, your point is well taken."

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Hargrove, Sutherland and L. Smith to the committee amendment:

On page 4, following line 12 insert:

"Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of and as used in this chapter:

(1) 'Court' means the superior court of the state of Washington, juvenile department.

(2) 'Law enforcement agency' means the police department, the prosecuting attorney, the state patrol, the director of public safety, or the office of the sheriff.

(3) 'Practitioner of the healing arts' or 'practitioner' means a person licensed by this state to practice podiatry, optometry, chiropractic, nursing, dentistry, osteopathy and surgery, or medicine and surgery. The term 'practitioner' shall include a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a person who is being furnished Christian Science treatment by a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner shall not be considered, for that reason alone, a neglected person for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) 'Institution' means a private or public hospital or any other facility providing medical diagnosis, treatment or care.

(5) 'Department' means the state department of social and health services.

(6) 'Child' or 'children' means any person under the age of eighteen years of age and from conception.

(7) 'Professional school personnel' shall include, but not be limited to, teachers, counselors, administrators, child care facility personnel, and school nurses.

(8) 'Social worker' shall mean anyone engaged in a professional capacity during the regular course of employment in encouraging or promoting the health, welfare, support or education of children, or providing social services to adults or families, whether in an individual capacity, or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(9) 'Psychologist' shall mean any person licensed to practice psychology under chapter 18.83 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(10) 'Pharmacist' shall mean any registered pharmacist under the provisions of chapter 18.64 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(11) 'Clergy' shall mean any regularly licensed or ordained minister, priest or rabbi of any church or religious denomination, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(12) 'Child abuse or neglect' shall mean the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, or negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child by any person under circumstances which indicate that the child's life, health, welfare, and safety is harmed thereby. An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined herein: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline with a device, instrument or article commonly or traditionally used to correct or restrain a child, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety.

(13) 'Child protective services section' shall mean the child protective services section of the department.

(14) 'Adult dependent persons not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system' shall be defined as those persons over the age of eighteen years who have been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW or found disabled to such a degree pursuant to said chapter, that such protection is indicated: PROVIDED, That no persons reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person as defined herein shall suffer negative consequences if such a judicial determination of incompetency or disability has not taken place and the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW.

(15) 'Sexual exploitation' includes: (a) Allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution by any person; or (b) allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the obscene or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child for commercial purposes as those acts are defined by state law by any person.

(16) 'Negligent treatment or maltreatment' means an act or omission which evidences a serious disregard of consequences of such magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the child's life, health, welfare, and safety."

Mr. Holland moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Holland, Long, Schoon, Betrozoff, L. Smith, Walker, Patrick, Nealey, Taylor, J. Williams, Chandler and Haugen:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 28A.04.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 179, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education shall be comprised of ~~((two))~~ one member~~(s))~~ from each congressional district of the state, not including any congressional district at large, elected by the members of the boards of directors of school districts thereof, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, ~~((and))~~ one nonvoting member elected at large, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, by the members of the boards of directors of all private schools in the state meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201, as now or hereafter amended, the governor or the governor's designee as a voting member, one appointed voting member from western Washington, and one appointed voting member from eastern Washington.

The appointed members shall be appointed by the governor upon consultation with the superintendent of public instruction and with the advice and consent of the senate of the state of Washington.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.04.030, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The terms of the initial members appointed by the governor shall be for six years commencing with the second Monday in January, 1987.

(2) Whenever any new and additional congressional district is created, except a congressional district at large, the superintendent of public instruction shall call an election in such district at the time of making the call provided for in RCW 28A.04.020. Such election shall be conducted as other elections provided for in this chapter. At the first such election two members of the state board of education shall be elected, one for a term of three years and one for a term of six years. At the expiration of the term of each, a member shall be elected for a term of six years.

((2)) (3) The terms of office of members of the state board of education who are elected from the various congressional districts shall not be affected by the creation of either new or new and additional districts. In such an event, each board member may continue to serve in office for the balance of the term for which he or she was elected or appointed: PROVIDED, That the board member continues to reside within the boundaries of the congressional district as they existed at the time of his or her election or appointment. Vacancies which occur in a board member position during the balance of any such term shall be filled pursuant to RCW 28A.04.080, as now or hereafter amended, by a successor who resides within the boundaries of the congressional district from which the member whose office was vacated was elected as they existed at the time of his or her election. At the election immediately preceding expiration of the term of office of each board member provided for in this subsection following the creation of either new or new and additional congressional districts, and thereafter, a successor shall be elected from the congressional district which corresponds in number with the congressional district from which the incumbent was appointed or elected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The term of the first elected member from each congressional district which expires after January 1, 1987, shall not be filled and the position shall be dissolved. The remaining member's seat shall become the one elected member from each congressional district as required by section 1 of this act.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.04.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Candidates for membership on the state board of education shall file declarations of candidacy with the superintendent of public instruction on forms prepared by the superintendent. Declarations of candidacy may be filed by person or by mail not earlier than the first day of September, or later than the sixteenth day of September. The superintendent of public instruction may not accept any declaration of candidacy that is not on file in his office or is not postmarked before the seventeenth day of September, or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the twenty-first day of September. No person employed in any school, college, university, or other educational institution or any educational service district superintendent's office or in the office of superintendent of public instruction shall be eligible for membership on the state board of education and each member (~~electd who is not representative of the private schools in this state and thus not running at large~~) must be a resident of the congressional district from which he or she was elected or appointed, except the person elected to represent private schools meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201, the governor as his or her designee, and the members from eastern and western Washington appointed by the governor. No member of a board of directors of a local school district or private school shall continue to serve in that capacity after having been elected or appointed to the state board.

(2) The prohibitions against membership upon the board of directors of a school district or school and against employment, as well as the residence requirement, established by this section, are conditions to the eligibility of state board members to serve as such which apply throughout the terms for which they have been elected or appointed. Any state board member who hereafter fails to meet one or more of the conditions to eligibility shall be deemed to have immediately forfeited his or her membership upon the board for the balance of his or her term: PROVIDED, That such a forfeiture of office shall not affect the validity of board actions taken prior to the date of notification to the board during an open public meeting of the violation.

Sec. 5. Section 28A.04.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The term of office of each member of the state board of education shall begin on the second Monday in January next following the election or time at which he or she was elected or appointed, and he or she shall hold office for the term for which he or she was elected or appointed and until his or her successor is elected and qualified or is appointed. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 28A.04.030, each member of the state board of education shall be elected or appointed for a term of six years.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.04.080, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall be a vacancy upon the state board of education for an elected member, from any cause whatever, it shall be the duty of the remaining members of the board to fill such vacancy by appointment, and the person so appointed shall continue in office until his successor has been specially elected, as hereinafter in this section provided, and has qualified. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the superintendent of public instruction shall call, in the month of August next following the date of the occurrence of such vacancy, a special election to be held in the same manner as other elections provided for in this chapter, at which election a successor shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of the member whose office was vacated. For vacancies for appointed members, the governor shall appoint an individual who shall fill the vacant position for the duration of the term of the position vacated at which time he or she is reappointed or a successor is appointed.

Sec. 7. Section 28A.04.090, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall ~~((annually))~~ elect ~~annually~~ a ~~((president and))~~ vice president. The superintendent of public instruction shall be an ex officio member and the ~~((chief executive officer))~~ ~~president~~ of the board. As such ex officio member the superintendent shall have the right to vote only when there is a question before the board upon which no majority opinion has been reached among the board members present ~~((and voting thereon and the superintendent's vote is essential for action thereon))~~. The superintendent, as ~~((chief executive officer))~~ ~~president~~ of the board, shall furnish all necessary record books ~~((and))~~, forms, and support staff for its use, and shall represent the board in directing the work of school inspection.

(2) All members elected to the state board of education to represent the congressional districts of the state, the members appointed to represent eastern and western Washington, and the governor or his or her designee shall have full voting privileges on all matters that come before the board.

Sec. 8. Section 28A.04.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education ~~((shall appoint))~~ may employ some person to be ~~((ex officio secretary))~~ executive director of said board ~~((who shall not be entitled to a vote in its proceedings))~~. The ~~((secretary))~~ executive director shall keep a correct record of board proceedings, which shall be kept in the office of the superintendent of public instruction. He or she shall also, upon request, furnish to interested school officials a copy of such proceedings. The board may employ such clerical staff as it may determine to be necessary.

Sec. 9. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

(4) Accredit, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

(5) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

(6) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

~~((7))~~ (7) ((Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations:

~~((8))~~ Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

~~((9))~~ (8) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

~~((10))~~ (9) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the state fire marshal, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

((++)) (10) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 28A.24 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to other powers and duties, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules and regulations governing the training and qualifications of school bus drivers. Such rules and regulations shall be designed to ensure that persons will not be employed to operate school buses unless they possess such physical health and driving skills as are necessary to operate school buses safely: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations shall ensure that school bus drivers are provided a due process hearing before any certification required by such rules and regulations is cancelled: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such rules and regulations shall not conflict with the authority of the department of licensing to license school bus drivers in accordance with RCW 46.20.440 through 46.20.470.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 89, chapter 158, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.04.131 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Representatives Holland, Betzoff and Long spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representative Ebersole opposed it.

A division was called.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 27, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 136 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 448, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.105.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, is directed to prepare a local hazardous waste plan which shall be based on state guidelines and include the following elements:

(a) A plan or program to manage moderate-risk wastes that are generated or otherwise present within the jurisdiction. This element shall include an assessment of the quantities, types, generators, and fate of moderate-risk wastes in the jurisdiction. The purpose of this element is to develop a system of managing moderate-risk waste, appropriate to each local area, to ensure protection of the environment and public health;

(b) A plan or program to provide for ongoing public involvement and public education in regard to the management of moderate-risk waste. This element shall provide information regarding:

(i) The potential hazards to human health and the environment resulting from improper use and disposal of the waste; and

(ii) Proper methods of handling, reducing, recycling, and disposing of the waste;

(c) An inventory of all existing generators of hazardous waste and facilities managing hazardous waste within the jurisdiction. This inventory shall be based on data provided by the department;

(d) A description of the public involvement process used in developing the plan;

(e) A description of the eligible zones designated in accordance with RCW 70.105.225. However, the requirement to designate eligible zones shall not be considered part of the local hazardous waste planning requirements; and

(f) Other elements as deemed appropriate by local government.

(2) To the maximum extent practicable, the local hazardous waste plan shall be coordinated with other hazardous materials-related plans and policies in the jurisdiction.

(3) In recognition of the role of the private sector in providing hazardous and moderate-risk waste management facilities and transportation services, and in addition to other public involvement activities that may be required, local governments shall coordinate with those persons involved in providing such facilities and services.

(4) (a) The department shall prepare guidelines for the development of local hazardous waste plans. The guidelines shall be prepared in consultation with local governments and shall be completed by December 31, 1986. The guidelines shall include a list of substances identified as hazardous household substances.

(b) In preparing the guidelines under (a) of this subsection, the department shall review and assess information on pilot projects that have been conducted for moderate-risk waste management. The department shall encourage additional pilot projects as needed to provide information to improve and update the guidelines.

(5) The department shall consult with retailers, trade associations, public interest groups, and appropriate units of local government to encourage the development of voluntary public education programs on the proper handling of hazardous household substances.

(6) Local hazardous waste plans shall be completed and submitted to the department no later than June 30, 1990. Local governments may from time to time amend the local plan.

((f6)) (7) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, shall submit its local hazardous waste plan or amendments thereto to the department. The department shall approve or disapprove local hazardous waste plans or amendments by December 31, 1990, or within ninety days of submission, whichever is later. The department shall approve a local hazardous waste plan if it determines that the plan is consistent with this chapter and the guidelines under subsection (4) of this section. If approval is denied, the department shall submit its objections to the local government within ninety days of submission. However, for plans submitted between January 1, 1990, and June 30, 1990, the department shall have one hundred eighty days to submit its objections. No local government is eligible for grants under RCW 70.105.235 for implementing a local hazardous waste plan unless the plan for that jurisdiction has been approved by the department.

((f7)) (8) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, shall implement the local hazardous waste plan for its jurisdiction by December 31, 1991.

((f8)) (9) The department may waive the specific requirements of this section for any local government if such local government demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that the objectives of the planning requirements ~~(has have))~~ have been met.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 448, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.105.235 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to legislative appropriations, the department may make and administer grants to local governments for (a) preparing and updating local hazardous waste plans, (b) implementing approved local hazardous waste plans, and (c) designating eligible zones for designated zone facilities as required under this chapter.

(2) Local governments shall match the funds provided by the department for planning or designating zones with an amount not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated cost of the work to be performed. Local governments may meet their share of costs with cash or contributed services. Local governments, or combination of contiguous local governments, conducting pilot projects pursuant to RCW 70.105.220(4) may subtract the cost of those pilot projects conducted for hazardous household substances from their share of the cost. If a pilot project has been conducted for all moderate-risk wastes, only the portion of the cost that applies to hazardous household substances shall be subtracted. The matching funds requirement under this subsection shall be waived for local governments, or combination of contiguous local governments, that complete and submit their local hazardous waste plans under RCW 70.105.220(6) prior to June 30, 1988.

(3) Recipients of grants shall meet such qualifications and follow such procedures in applying for and using grants as may be established by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes the need for new, modified, or expanded facilities to treat, incinerate, or otherwise process or dispose of hazardous substances safely. In order to encourage the development of such facilities, the department shall adopt rules as necessary regarding the permitting of such facilities to ensure the most expeditious permit processing possible consistent with the substantive requirements of applicable law. If owners and operators are not the same entity, the operator shall be the permit applicant and responsible for the development of the permit application and all accompanying materials, as long as the owner also signs the application and certifies its ownership of the real property described in the application, and acknowledges its awareness of the contents of the application and receipt of a copy thereof.*

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 614 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28B.15.044 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that students will propose (~~(initial)~~) budgetary recommendations for consideration by the college or university administration and governing board to the extent that such budget recommendations are intended to be funded by services and activities fees. It is also the intent of the legislature that services and activities fee expenditures for programs devoted to political or economic philosophies shall result in the presentation of a spectrum of ideas.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28B.15.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees and the boards of regents of the respective institutions of higher education shall adopt guidelines governing the establishment and funding of programs supported by services and activities fees. Such guidelines shall spell out procedures for budgeting and expending services and activities fee revenue. Any such guidelines shall be consistent with the following provisions:

(1) (~~(initial)~~) Responsibility for proposing program priorities and budget levels for that portion of program budgets that derive from services and activities fees shall reside with a services and activities fee committee, on which students shall hold at least a majority of the voting memberships, such student members to be recommended by the student government association or its equivalent. The chairperson of the services and activities fee committee shall be selected by the members of that committee. The governing board shall insure that the services and activities fee committee provides an opportunity for all viewpoints to be heard during its consideration of the funding of student programs and activities.

(2) The services and activities fee committee shall evaluate existing and proposed programs and submit budget recommendations for the expenditure of those services and activities fees with supporting documents to the college or university administration, and shall submit informational copies of such to the governing board.

(3) The college or university administration shall review and publish a written response to the services and activities fee committee recommendations. This response shall outline areas of difference between the committee recommendations and the administration's proposed budget recommendations. This response, with supporting documentation, shall be submitted to the services and activities fee committee and the governing board.

(4) (~~(The college or university administration, at the time it submits its proposed budget recommendations for the expenditure of services and activities fees to the governing board, shall also transmit a copy of the services and activities fee committee recommendations along with any supporting documentation originally provided by the committee and a copy of the administration's response to the committee recommendations.))~~ In the event of a dispute or disputes involving the services and activities fee committee recommendations, the college or university administration shall meet with the services and activities fee committee in a good faith effort to resolve such dispute or disputes prior to submittal of final recommendations to the governing board.

(5) Before adoption of the final budget the governing board shall address areas of difference between (~~(the))~~ any committee recommendations and the administration's budget recommendations presented for adoption by the board. A student representative of the services and activities fee committee shall be given the opportunity to reasonably address the governing board concerning any such differences.

(~~(5))~~ (6) Services and activities fees and revenues generated by programs and activities funded by such fees shall be deposited and expended through the office of the chief fiscal officer of the institution.

(~~(6))~~ (7) Services and activities fees and revenues generated by programs and activities funded by such fees shall be subject to the applicable policies, regulations, and procedures of the institution and the budget and accounting act, chapter 43.88 RCW.

(~~(7))~~ (8) All information pertaining to services and activities fees budgets shall be made available to interested parties.

(9) With the exception of any funds needed for bond covenant obligations, once the budget for expending service and activities fees is approved by the governing board, funds shall not be shifted from funds budgeted for associated students or departmentally related categories until the administration provides written justification to the committee and the governing board, or the governing board gives its express approval, or the recognized student governing organization gives its express approval.

(10) Any service and activities fees collected which exceed initially budgeted amounts are subject to subsections (1), (2), (3), and (9) of this section.
and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1355 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 29, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 82.08 RCW to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to sales of feed consumed by livestock at a public livestock market.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 82.12 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply with respect to the use of feed consumed by livestock at a public livestock market.

Sec. 5. Section 33, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 104, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.08.0293 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to sales of food products for human consumption.

'Food products' include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products including livestock sold for personal consumption, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products.

'Food products' include milk and milk products, milk shakes, malted milks, and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation.

'Food products' include all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquid or frozen.

'Food products' do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts.

The exemption of 'food products' provided for in this subsection shall not apply: (a) When the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, except for food products furnished as meals (i) under a state administered nutrition program for the aged as provided for in the Older Americans Act (P.L. 95-478 Title III) and RCW 74.38.040(6) or (ii) which are provided to senior citizens, disabled persons, or low-income persons by a not-for-profit organization organized under chapter 24.03 or 24.12 RCW, or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are sold on a 'takeout' or 'to go' order and are actually packaged or wrapped and taken from the premises of the retailer, or (c) when the food products are sold for consumption within a place, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge, except for national and state parks and monuments.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the retail sale of food products is subject to sales tax under RCW 82.08.020 if the food products are sold through a vending machine, and in this case the selling price for purposes of RCW 82.08.020 is fifty-seven percent of the gross receipts.

This subsection does not apply to hot prepared food products, other than food products which are heated after they have been dispensed from the vending machine.

For tax collected under this subsection, the requirements that the tax be collected from the buyer and that the amount of tax be stated as a separate item are waived.

Sec. 6. Section 34, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 104, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.12.0293 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of food products for human consumption.

'Food products' include cereals and cereal products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products including livestock sold for personal consumption, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products.

'Food products' include milk and milk products, milk shakes, malted milks, and any other similar type beverages which are composed at least in part of milk or a milk product and which require the use of milk or a milk product in their preparation.

'Food products' include all fruit juices, vegetable juices, and other beverages except bottled water, spirituous, malt or vinous liquors or carbonated beverages, whether liquid or frozen.

'Food products' do not include medicines and preparations in liquid, powdered, granular, tablet, capsule, lozenge, and pill form sold as dietary supplements or adjuncts.

The exemption of 'food products' provided for in this paragraph shall not apply: (a) When the food products are furnished, prepared, or served for consumption at tables, chairs, or counters or from trays, glasses, dishes, or other tableware whether provided by the retailer or by a person with whom the retailer contracts to furnish, prepare, or serve food products to others, except for food products furnished as meals (i) under a state administered nutrition program for the aged as provided for in the Older Americans Act (P.L. 95-478 Title III) and RCW 74.38.040(6) or (ii) which are provided to senior citizens, disabled persons, or low-income persons by a not-for-profit organization organized under chapter 24.03 or 24.12 RCW, or (b) when the food products are ordinarily sold for immediate consumption on or near a location at which parking facilities are provided primarily for the use of patrons in consuming the products purchased at the location, even though such products are sold on a 'takeout' or 'to go' order and are actually packaged or wrapped and taken from the premises of the retailer, or (c) when the food products are sold for consumption within a place, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge, except for national and state parks and monuments.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "43.23.035" insert ", 82.08.0293, and 82.12.0293; adding a new section to chapter 82.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.12 RCW; creating a new section;"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1388 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

- Upon the consolidation of two or more cities or code cities, any employee of the fire department of the former city or cities who (1) was at the time of consolidation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire department of the consolidated city or code city, as the case may be, (2) will, as a direct consequence of consolidation, be separated from the employ of the former city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the fire department of the consolidated city, as provided in this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment has been terminated because of a consolidation of two or more cities, code cities or towns.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the consolidated city or code city by filing a written request with the civil service commission of the consolidated city. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city or code city civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the consolidated city fire department from the beginning of his or her employment with the former city or code city fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the consolidated city or code city, only the time of service accrued with the consolidated city or code city shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the consolidating fire agencies and consolidated agencies and the consolidating and consolidated fire agencies. A record of the employee's service with the former city or code city fire department shall be transmitted to the applicable civil service commission and shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the consolidated city fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the consolidated city or code city fire department as the department determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of greatest seniority from any of the seniority lists of the consolidating city or code city and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 1 and 3 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the consolidating fire agencies and consolidated fire agency and the consolidating and consolidated fire agencies.

(3) The consolidated city or code city shall retain the right to select the fire chief and assistant fire chiefs regardless of seniority.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of consolidation of two or more cities, or code cities, any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city fire department pursuant to this section and sections 1 and 2 of this act, the city fire department shall notify the employee of the right to so transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the consolidating city, or code city fire department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the annexation of two or more cities or code cities, any employee of the fire department of the former city or cities who (1) was at the time of annexation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire department of the annexed city or code city, as the case may be, (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation, be separated from the employ of the former city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the fire department of the annexing city, as provided in this section and sections 5 and 6 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 5 and 6 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment has been terminated because of annexation by a city, code city or town.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the annexing city, code city or town by filing a written request with the city, code city or town civil service commission. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city, code city or town civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the annexed city, code city or town fire department from the beginning of his or her employment with the former city or code city fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing city or code city, only the time of service accrued with the annexing city or code city shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. A record of the employee's service with the former city or code city fire department shall be transmitted to the applicable civil service commission which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the annexed city, code city or town fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

shall be the first to be reemployed in the city, code city or town fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of annexation of two or more cities, or code cities any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city, code city or town fire department under this section and sections 4 and 5 of this act the fire department shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the annexing city or code city fire department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

If any portion of a fire protection district is annexed to or incorporated into a city, code city or town, any employee of the fire protection district who (1) was at the time of such annexation or incorporation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the city, code city or town fire department (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation or incorporation, be separated from the employ of the fire protection district, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the civil service system of the city, code city or town fire department as provided for in this section and sections 8 and 9 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 8 and 9 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a fire protection district has been terminated because the fire protection district was annexed by a city, code city or town for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the city, code city or town fire department by filing a written request with the city, code city or town civil service commission and by giving written notice thereof to the board of commissioners of the fire protection district. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the city, code city or town fire department in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the city, code city or town fire department in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city, code city or town civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the city, code city or town fire department from the beginning of employment with the fire protection district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the annexing agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. The board of commissioners of the fire protection district shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to any applicable civil service commission a record of the employee's service with the fire protection district which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the city, code city or town fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the city, code city or town fire department as the department determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 7 and 9 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the city, code city or town fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

If any portion of a fire protection district is annexed to or incorporated into a city, code city or town, and as a result any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city, code city or town fire department under this section and sections 7 and 8 of this act the fire protection district shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the city, code city or town fire department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

When any city, code city or town is annexed to a fire protection district under RCW 52.04-.061 and 52.04.071, any employee of the fire department of such city, code city or town who (1) was at the time of annexation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire protection district (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation, be separated from the employ of the city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer his employment to the fire protection district as provided in this section and sections 11 and 12 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 11 and 12 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a city, code city or town has been terminated because the city, code city or town was annexed by a fire protection district for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the fire protection district civil service system, if any, or if none, then may request transfer of employment under this section by filing a written request with the board of fire commissioners of the fire protection district and by giving written notice to the legislative authority of the city, code city or town. Upon receipt of such request by the board of fire commissioners the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the fire protection district in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the fire protection district in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, vacation, and sick leave, have all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as an employee of the fire protection district from the beginning of employment with the city, code city or town fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the annexing agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. The city, code city or town shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to the board of fire commissioners a record of the employee's service with the city, code city or town which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the fire protection district. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the fire protection district as the district determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 10 and 12 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the fire protection district when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the fire protection district shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

When a city, code city or town is annexed to a fire protection district and as a result any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the fire protection district pursuant to this section and sections 10 and 11 of this act, the city, code city or town shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the fire protection district.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

When any portion of a fire protection district merges with another fire protection district, any employee of the merging district who (1) was at the time of merger employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the merger district (2) will, as a direct consequence of the merger, be separated from the employ of the merging district, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the merger district as provided in this section and sections 14 and 15 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 14 and 15 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a fire protection district has been terminated because the fire protection district merged with another fire protection district for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the merger district by filing a written request with the board of fire commissioners of the merger district and by giving written notice to the board of fire commissioners of the merging district. Upon receipt of such request by the board of the merger district the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the merger district in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the merger district in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, vacation, and sick leave, have, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled to as an employee of the merger district from the beginning of employment with the merging district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the merger fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the merger agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the merging and merger fire agencies and the merging and merger fire agencies. The board of the merging district shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to the board of the merger district a record of the employee's service with the merging district which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the merger district. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the merger district as the merger district determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 13 and 15 of this act shall head the list for employment in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the merger district when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the fire protection district shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the merging and merged fire agencies and the merging and merged fire agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of merging of districts any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the merger district under this section and sections 13 and 14 of this act, the merging district shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the merger district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987. The appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives shall conduct a study of the transfer rights of employees during the consolidation of cities and code cities and make recommendations to the legislature at the start of the 1987 legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 4 through 15 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 4 of the title after "RCW:" insert "providing an effective date;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 28, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1486 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 7, insert the following:

The (~~board of county commissioners~~) legislative authority of any (~~class A~~) county owning property in or outside the limits of any city or town, or anywhere within the county, which is suitable for agricultural fair purposes may by negotiation lease such property for such purposes for a term not to exceed seventy-five years to any nonprofit organization that has demonstrated its qualification to conduct agricultural fairs. Such agricultural fair leases shall not be subject to any requirement of periodic rental adjustments, as provided in RCW 36.34.180, but shall provide for such fixed annual rental as shall appear reasonable, considering the benefit to be derived by the county in the promotion of the fair and in the improvement of the property. The lessee may utilize or rent out such property at times other than during the fair season for nonfair purposes in order to obtain income for fair purposes, and during the fair season may sublease portions of the property for purposes and activities associated with such fair. No sublease shall be valid unless the same shall be approved in writing by the (~~board of county commissioners~~) county legislative authority: PROVIDED, That failure of such lessee, except by act of God, war or other emergency beyond its control, to conduct an annual agricultural fair or exhibition, shall cause said lease to be subject to cancellation by the (~~board of county commissioners~~) county legislative authority. A county legislative authority entering into an agreement with a nonprofit association to lease property for agricultural fair purposes shall, when requested to do so, file a copy of the lease agreement with the department of agriculture or the state fair commission in order to assure compliance with the provisions of RCW 15.76.165.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commission," insert "amending RCW 36.34.145;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Baugher, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1486.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 1486 as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1486 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Long, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Miller, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Sloep, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1495 with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 11 after "RCW" strike all material down to and including "(c)" on line 13 and insert "; or"

Reletter the remaining subsection accordingly, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Brekke moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1495.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Brekke yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Brekke, if we concur with the Senate amendment, will this statute in any way interfere with a clinical laboratory's ability to certify health care assistants who withdraw blood and perform other health services in the laboratory?"

Ms. Brekke: "No. Language in the bill on page 2, lines 12-13 goes beyond simply providing a mechanism for certifying health care assistants working in clinical laboratories. It also recognizes the existing practice for withdrawing blood in clinical labs for diagnostic purposes. RCW 18.135.050 very clearly authorizes the health care facility itself to certify assistants. This authorization is now provided to federally certified clinical laboratories in the language on page 2, lines 27-28. This language will put these laboratories in full compliance with state and federal law and give them the authority needed to certify their health care assistants."

Mr. Brooks spoke in favor of the motion and the motion was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1495 as amended by the Senate.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 3, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1652 with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 7, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

A member who became temporarily disabled before March 27, 1984, under the circumstances specified in RCW 72.09.240 (1) and (2) may receive service credit for such period of disability subject to all the limitations and conditions contained in section 2 of this act. In order to qualify for the service credit provided by this section the member must make application to the department no later than December 31, 1986, and must agree to allow the employer to withhold from the member's wages the employee contributions, with interest, as required under section 2 of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 7, after line 24, insert the following:

"Sec. 6. Section 17, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 23, chapter 294, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event of the death of any member who is in active service, or who has vested under the provisions of RCW 41.26.090 with twenty or more years of service, or who is on disability leave or retired, whether for disability or service, his surviving spouse shall become entitled to receive a monthly allowance equal to fifty percent of his final average salary at the date of death if active, or the amount of retirement allowance the vested member would have received at age fifty, or the amount of the retirement allowance such retired member was receiving at the time of his death if retired for service or disability. The amount of this allowance will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, That if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian or, in the absence of a legal guardian and if the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the trust.

(2) If at the time of the death of a vested member with twenty or more years service as provided above or a member retired for service or disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to his retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be eligible to receive the benefits under this section: PROVIDED, That if a member dies as a result of a disability incurred in the line of duty, then if he was married at the time he was disabled, his surviving spouse shall be eligible to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of such member's death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. When there cease to be any eligible children as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of said member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of said member at the time of his death over all payments made to his survivors on his behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, That payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one. If the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, the payment shall be made to the trust.

(4) In the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of said member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies and there are children as defined in RCW 41.26.030(7), as now or hereafter amended, payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) above.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "adding" strike everything through "section" on line 3 and insert "new sections"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "41.26.125" and before the semicolon insert ", and 41.26.160"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1899 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The director of general administration, by rule, shall provide for the establishment, incorporation, operation, and regulation of a borrower-owned corporate entity to be known as the Washington land bank. The Washington land bank shall be patterned after the federal land banks organized under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, within state constitutional limits. The Washington land bank shall be organized by eligible borrowers and shall be designed to accomplish the objective of furnishing sound, adequate, and constructive long-term credit to farmer and rancher borrowers in the state of Washington. For purposes of this chapter, 'farmer and rancher' includes producers of privately cultured aquatic products.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The Washington land bank shall be a body corporate and, subject to regulation as provided by rules promulgated by the director of general administration, shall have the power to:

- (1) Adopt and use a corporate seal.
- (2) Have succession until dissolved under this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act.
- (3) Make contracts.
- (4) Sue and be sued.
- (5) Acquire, hold, dispose, and otherwise exercise all the usual incidents of ownership of real and personal property necessary or convenient to its business.
- (6) Make and participate in loans, make commitments for credit, accept advance payments, and provide services and other assistance as authorized in this chapter, and charge fees therefor.
- (7) Operate under the direction of its board of directors.
- (8) Elect by its board of directors a president, any vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and provide for such other officers, employees, and agents as may be necessary, define their duties, and require surety bonds or make other provision against losses occasioned by employees.
- (9) Prescribe by its board of directors its bylaws not inconsistent with law providing for the classes of its stock and the manner in which its stock shall be issued, transferred, and retired; its officers, employees, and agents are elected or provided for; its property acquired, held, and transferred; its loans and appraisals made; its general business conducted; and the privileges granted it by law exercised and enjoyed.
- (10) Borrow money and issue notes, bonds, debentures, or other obligations of such character, terms, conditions, and rates of interest as may be determined.

(11) Participate with one or more other lenders, including federal land banks existing under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, in loans that the corporation is authorized to make under this chapter.

(12) Deposit its securities and its current funds with any member bank of the federal reserve system or any insured state nonmember bank as defined in section 2 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and pay fees therefor and receive interest thereon as may be agreed.

(13) Buy and sell obligations of or insured by the United States or of any agency thereof, and, as may be authorized by its board of directors and by rule promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act, (a) sell to other lenders interests in loans, (b) buy from other lenders interests in loans which the corporation could make directly under this chapter, and (c) make other investments.

(14) Conduct studies and make and adopt standards for lending.

(15) Amend and modify loan contracts, documents, and payment schedules, and release, subordinate, or substitute security for any of them.

(16) Exercise by its board of directors or authorized officers, employees, or agents all such incidental powers as may be necessary or expedient to carry on the business of the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The voting stock of the Washington land bank shall be held only by borrowers who are farmers or ranchers, which stock shall not be transferred, pledged, or hypothecated except to other eligible borrowers. The rules promulgated by the director pursuant to section 1 of this act shall provide for the amount, par value, classes, voting, dividends, and other attributes of the stock of the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The Washington land bank is authorized to make or participate with other lenders in long-term real estate mortgage loans in rural areas to eligible borrowers, and to make continuing commitments to make such loans under specified circumstances, for a term of not less than five nor more than forty years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Loans made by the Washington land bank shall bear interest at a rate or rates, and on such terms and conditions, as may be determined by the board of directors of the bank from time to time, in accordance with rules promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act. In setting rates and charges, it shall be the objective to provide the credit needed by eligible borrowers at the lowest reasonable cost on a sound business basis, taking into account the cost of money to the corporation, necessary reserves and expenses of the corporation, and providing services to stockholders and members. The loan documents may provide for the interest rate or rates to vary from time to time during the repayment period of the loan, in accordance with the rate or rates currently being charged by the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The services authorized in this chapter may be made available to persons who are or become stockholders or members in the Washington land bank and are bona fide farmers or ranchers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Loans originated by the Washington land bank or in which it participates with another lender, including principal and all accrued interest the payment of which has been deferred pursuant to section 8 of this act, shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the appraised value of the real estate security, and shall be secured by first liens on interests in real estate of such classes as may be provided by rule promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act. The value of security shall be determined by appraisal under appraisal standards prescribed by such rules. Additional security may be required to supplement real estate security.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A borrower may elect, during the first five years of a loan originated by the Washington land bank or in which it participates with another lender, to defer payment of all or any portion of the principal or interest due from the borrower to the corporation, unless the deferral of such payment would cause the principal and accrued interest on such loan to exceed sixty-five percent of the original appraised value or the current appraised value, whichever is less. Upon such election, the payment schedule related to such loan shall be recomputed and modified to provide for repayment of the principal amount of the loan plus accrued but unpaid interest and all interest which shall accrue during the period of deferral and thereafter over a term equal to the original term of the loan, commencing as of the date of such deferral.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Loans made by the Washington land bank shall be made on the basis of long-term profitability rather than short-term cash flow.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The Washington land bank may, in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to section 1 of this act, cause loans to be originated or serviced by other entities, including cooperative associations organized specifically for the purposes of this chapter, and may pay or charge a fee therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Loans made by the Washington land bank to farmers and ranchers may be for any agricultural need of the borrower. The bank may own and lease, or lease with option to purchase, to persons eligible for assistance under this chapter, facilities needed in the operations of such persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The provisions of the general corporation laws of this state, and all powers and rights thereunder, shall apply to the corporation organized under this chapter.

except where such provisions are in conflict with or inconsistent with the express provisions of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to section 1 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be obligations of the state of Washington and shall be obligations only of the Washington land bank established pursuant to this chapter. Funds of the Washington land bank shall not be or constitute public moneys or funds of the state of Washington but shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby created the land bank advisory committee to advise the department of general administration in the development of rules and procedures under section 1 of this act which apply to the establishment of the Washington land bank. The committee shall be composed of nine members: One member from each caucus appointed by the president of the senate; one member from each caucus appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; the director of agriculture or his or her designee; one member knowledgeable in agricultural financing appointed by the director of general administration; two members representing agricultural producers appointed by the director of agriculture; and the director of general administration, or his or her designee.

The advisory committee shall meet at the call of the chair elected by the committee, but shall not meet less than four times. The advisory committee shall provide a report on the status of implementation of the Washington land bank to the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 15. Section 30.04.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 2, chapter 42, Laws of 1983 and RCW 30.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The name of every bank shall contain the word 'bank' and the name of every trust company shall contain the word 'trust,' or the word 'bank.' Except as provided in RCW 33.08.030, no person except:

- (1) A national bank;
- (2) A bank or trust company authorized by the laws of this state;
- (3) A corporation established under section 1 of this 1986 act;
- (4) A foreign corporation authorized by this title so to do, shall.

(a) Use as a part of his or its name or other business designation or in any manner as if connected with his or its business or place of business any of the following words or the plural thereof, to wit: 'bank,' 'banking,' 'banker,' 'trust.'

(b) Use any sign at or about his or its place of business or use or circulate any advertisement, letterhead, billhead, note, receipt, certificate, blank form, or any written or printed or part written and part printed paper, instrument or article whatsoever, directly or indirectly indicating that the business of such person is that of a bank or trust company.

This section shall not prevent a lender approved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for participation in any mortgage insurance program under the National Housing Act from using the words 'mortgage banker' or 'mortgage banking' in the conduct of its business, but only if both words are used together in either of the forms which appear in quotations in this sentence.

Every person who, and every director and officer of every corporation which, to the knowledge of such director or officer violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 31 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "bank;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 30.04.020; adding a new chapter to Title 31 RCW; and creating a new section." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1986 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.01 RCW to read as follows:

A child of an insured, subscriber, or enrollee shall be considered a dependent child for insurance purposes under this title: (1) Upon being physically placed with the insured, subscriber, or enrollee for the purposes of adoption under the laws of the state in which the insured, subscriber, or enrollee resides; and (2) upon assumption by the insured, subscriber, or enrollee of the financial responsibility for the medical expenses of the child.

Eligibility for coverage of an adopted child is governed by applicable contract, policy, or agreement provisions with respect to dependent children, including any established underwriting guidelines.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any disability insurance contract providing hospital and medical expenses and health care services, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, which provides coverage for dependent children, as defined in the contract of the insured, shall cover adoptive children placed with the insured on the same basis as other dependents, as provided in section 1 of this act.

(2) If payment of an additional premium is required to provide coverage for a child, the contract may require that notification of placement of a child for adoption and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the insurer. The notification period shall be no less than sixty days from the date of placement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 48.21 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any group disability insurance contract, except a blanket disability insurance contract, providing hospital and medical expenses and health care services, delivered or issued for delivery in this state, which provides coverage for dependent children, as defined in the contract of the insured, shall cover adoptive children placed with the insured on the same basis as other dependents, as provided in section 1 of this act.

(2) If payment of an additional premium is required to provide coverage for a child, the contract may require that notification of placement of a child for adoption and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the insurer. The notification period shall be no less than sixty days from the date of placement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 48.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any health care service contract under this chapter delivered or issued for delivery in this state, which provides coverage for dependent children, as defined in the contract of the subscriber, shall cover adoptive children placed with the subscriber on the same basis as other dependents, as provided in section 1 of this act.

(2) If payment of an additional premium is required to provide coverage for a child, the contract may require that notification of placement of a child for adoption and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the health care services contractor. The notification period shall be no less than sixty days from the date of placement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 48.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any health maintenance agreement under this chapter which provides coverage for dependent children, as defined in the agreement of the enrolled participant, shall cover adoptive children placed with the enrolled participant on the same basis as other dependents, as provided in section 1 of this act.

(2) If payment of an additional premium is required to provide coverage for a child, the agreement may require that notification of placement of a child for adoption and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the health maintenance organization. The notification period shall be no less than sixty days from the date of placement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act shall take effect January 1, 1987, and shall apply to all contracts or agreements issued, renewed, or delivered on or after January 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 28, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 378 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.88 RCW to read as follows:

The omnibus biennial operating appropriations act shall include an appropriation for the full amount that will be paid out during the biennium under any postretirement cost-of-living adjustment adopted after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is appropriated five million three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the general fund for the purposes of paying the cost-of-living adjustments provided in sections 2 and 3 of this 1986 act. Of this amount, two million dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund and three million three hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1986."

In line 1 of the title, after "adjustments;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.32.485 and 41.40.198; adding a new section to chapter 43.88 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Braddock the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 378 and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1829 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The superintendent of public instruction shall study methods to provide improved instruction to students needing categorical educational services and shall develop recommendations that enhance these students' opportunities for success. The study and recommendations shall include at least the following topics:

(1) Future service demand in light of changing student demographics, longitudinal trends, eligibility standards for special needs students, and declining federal resources;

(2) The adequacy of the state's data and information systems as they relate to class size and students requiring categorical educational services;

(3) The relationship between the current system for the delivery of categorical educational services and the ability of the regular classroom to meet student diversity;

(4) The relationship between the ratio of certificated staff to students in the classroom and the number of students referred and the type of categorical assistance for which referrals are made;

(5) The relationship between the ratio of adults to students in the classroom and the number of students referred and the type of categorical assistance for which referrals are made;

(6) The interrelationship between various state and federal programs designed to serve students requiring categorical educational services, and the effect of targeting under existing state and federal statutes and regulations;

(7) The relationship between the methods of delivering categorical educational services and research results about educational success;

(8) The impact of delivering categorical educational services in the regular classroom setting to include: (a) Class size considerations, (b) teaching methods, and (c) coordination of categorical program services;

(9) The interaction between and effects upon educators, support staff, and parents of students needing categorical educational services in various delivery models;

(10) The superintendent of public instruction and the office of financial management are directed to conduct jointly a study that reviews state-wide testing instruments, analyzes trends and changes in student achievement, and such matters as they may agree to pursue; and

(11) Other topics designated by the advisory committee described in this section.

In conducting this study, the superintendent of public instruction shall include data regarding the categorical education services and students engaged in at least the following programs: Federal chapter 1 disadvantaged and chapter 1 migrant, bilingual, the state remediation assistance program, and the federal and state special education programs.

An advisory committee of legislators and citizens representative of education organizations concerned with the delivery of categorical instructional services and regular classroom instruction shall be appointed by the superintendent of public instruction to advise the superintendent of public instruction on the conduct of the study and the approval of resulting recommendations.

This section shall expire January 30, 1987.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The study shall be completed and results and recommendations for investigation of systems refining categorical education services through data-based pilot projects shall be reported to the legislature no later than January 5, 1987."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "needs," strike the remainder of the title and insert "and creating new sections."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1829 and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 1, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 134 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the use of both automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation: (1) Deprives consumers of the opportunity to immediately question a seller about the veracity of their claims; (2) subjects consumers to unwarranted invasions of their privacy; and (3) encourages inefficient and potentially harmful use of the telephone network. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to prohibit the use of both automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation.

The legislature finds that information delivery services, which are also known as information-access telephone services and more commonly known as '976' services, are in widespread use in the state. These services operate on a charge-per-call basis and provide revenue for both the service provider and the telecommunications companies. The marketing practices for these toll telephone services have at times been misleading to consumers and at other times specifically directed toward children. The result has been the placement of calls by individuals, particularly by children, uninformed about the charges that might apply. Therefore, the legislature finds that residential telephone users in the state are entitled to reasonable protection from telephone services they have no desire to use due to confusion or misinformation about these services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) As used in sections 1 through 7 of this act:

(a) An automatic dialing device is a device which automatically dials telephone numbers. An automatic announcing device is a device that plays a recorded message once a connection is made. An automatic announcing device includes recorded messages known as information delivery services.

(b) Commercial solicitation means the unsolicited initiation of a telephone conversation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property, goods, or services.

(c) 'Information delivery services' means telephone recorded messages, interactive programs, or other information services which are provided for a charge to a caller. These services are usually provided through a '976' telephone number.

(d) 'Information providers' means the persons or corporations that provide the information, prerecorded message, or interactive program to the telecommunications company for the information delivery service. The information provider generally receives a portion of the revenue from the calls.

(e) 'Interactive program' means a program which allows an information delivery service caller, once connected to the information provider's announcement machine, to use the caller's telephone device to access more specific information.

(f) 'Currently equipped' means an existing switch and software that has the current capability of blocking access to information delivery services on an individual customer basis.

(2) No person may use both an automatic dialing and announcing device for purposes of commercial solicitation. This section applies to all commercial solicitation intended to be received by telephone customers within the state.

(3) A violation of this section is a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. It shall be presumed that damages to the recipient of commercial solicitations made using an automatic dialing and announcing device are five hundred dollars.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Washington utilities and transportation commission from adopting additional rules regulating automatic dialing and announcing devices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule require telecommunications companies to offer each residential telephone subscriber the opportunity to have the subscriber's telephone blocked or deleted from access to all information delivery services. This means that the residential telephone subscriber's telephone would not complete a call to any 976 or information delivery service number. Under this rule, any telecommunications company that makes available information delivery services must also make available to its subscribers the blocking service described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule mandate that information providers who make information available that constitutes lewd matter under RCW 7.48A.010 also provide at their expense for access to their services only through a personal identification number in conjunction with 976.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The telecommunications company shall inform subscribers of the rules adopted under sections 3 and 4 of this act, including the availability of the blocking service, through a bill insert or by publication in the telephone directory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The costs of complying with the rules adopted under sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be borne by the information providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The rules under sections 3 through 6 of this act shall take effect on or before December 1, 1986. The commission may also order a phase-in period for the rules if a telecommunications company is not currently equipped to block the services. If a telecommunications company is not so equipped, then the commission shall examine the economic feasibility of installing the blocking system if the newly installed system would be only for the purpose of blocking access to information delivery services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 80.36 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. D. Nelson, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 134 and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 1, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1587 with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 3, after "market," strike everything through "market." on line 5

On page 2, after line 5, insert the following:

"It is the intent of this chapter to enhance export trade and not to create outside competition for existing Washington state businesses. The primary intent of a port sponsored export trading company is to increase exports of Washington state products."

On page 2, line 32, after "companies" strike everything through "consortiums" on line 34 and insert "and a company so formed may contract"

On page 4, line 9, after "(3)" strike everything through "chapter." on line 14 and insert "(a) Proceedings to form a public corporation designated as an export trading company shall be initiated by a resolution of the board of commissioners of a port district adopting a charter for the corporation. The charter shall contain such provisions as are authorized by law and include provisions for a board of directors which shall conduct the affairs of the export trading company. The board of directors shall include no fewer than three nor more than five members, all appointed by the port district board of commissioners. Commissioners of the port shall be eligible to serve as members of the board and shall constitute a majority of the board of directors at all times. Unless a later date is specified, the resolution shall take effect on the thirtieth day after adoption. The corporation shall be deemed formed for all purposes upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a certified copy of the effective resolution and the charter adopted by the resolution.

(b) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the corporation, the corporation is conclusively presumed to be established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers under this chapter upon proof of the adoption of the resolution creating the corporation by the governing body. A copy of the resolution duly certified by the secretary of the port district commission shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(c) A corporation created by a port district pursuant to this chapter may be dissolved by the district if the corporation (i) has no property to administer, other than funds or property, if any, to be paid or transferred to the district by which it was established; and (ii) all its outstanding obligations have been satisfied. Such a dissolution shall be accomplished by the governing body of the port district adopting a resolution providing for the dissolution.

(d) The creating port district may, at its discretion and at any time, alter or change the structure, organizational programs, or activities of the corporation, including termination of the corporation if contracts entered into by the corporation are not impaired. Subject to any contractual obligations, any net earnings of the corporation shall inure only to the benefit of the creating port district. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all assets and title to all property owned by the corporation shall vest in the creating port district."

On page 4, line 33, after "(7)" strike everything through "state." on page 5, line 1 and insert "An export trading company shall not import any goods or products grown, produced, or mined outside the state of Washington without concurrence of the director of the department of agriculture or the director of the department of trade and economic development, or both, nor shall it import timber without concurrence of the Washington department of trade and economic development. Concurrence as required in this section shall not be unreasonably withheld. The departments shall, by rule, provide a means whereby such concurrence may be sought. An export trading company shall not import goods or products for in-state sale in competition with products grown, mined, or produced in Washington state. The Washington public ports association shall, upon request, report to the legislative committee on economic development established in chapter 44.52 RCW with details of the impact of export trading companies on the state's economy."

On page 9, line 11, after "1991" insert ", and shall be subject to review under chapter 43.131 RCW"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The department of ecology shall establish a study team consisting of representatives of local air authorities, environmental organizations, and business organizations. The department, with the assistance of the study team, shall:

(1) Conduct a comprehensive study on the need for better management systems for controlling air pollution sources and, if determined necessary, methods to improve management;

(2) Thoroughly assess the existing stationary air pollution source regulatory system, its deficiencies, and ways to remedy them;

(3) Define the objectives of an air pollution source operating permit system;

(4) Assess programs in other states using permits or otherwise and compare their progress with the accomplishments achieved in Washington state;

(5) Evaluate the need for an air pollution source operating permit program, including: (a) A comparison with the accomplishments of the existing regulatory system, (b) the sources and emissions included and excluded, (c) government and private resources needed, (d) fees anticipated, (e) schedule for implementation, (f) time involved to establish and maintain the program, (g) its effect on air quality, (h) its impact on sources covered, and (i) its overall cost-effectiveness; and

(6) Identify alternatives to an air pollution source permit program and analyze the advantages and disadvantages of each.

By December 15, 1986, the department of ecology shall report the conclusions of the study to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1870 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that advertising, sales, and business practices of certain travel charter or tour operators have worked financial hardship upon the people of this state; that the travel business has a significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its people; that problems have arisen regarding certain segments of the travel charter or tour operator business; and that the public welfare requires regulation of travel charter or tour operators in order to eliminate unfair advertising, sales and business practices. The legislature further finds it necessary to establish standards that will safeguard the people against financial hardship and to encourage fair dealing and prosperity in the travel business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) 'Travel charter or tour operator' means a person who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, arranges, or advertises in this state that he or she can or may arrange, or has arranged air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services. 'Travel charter or tour operator' does not include: (a) An air carrier, (b) an ocean carrier, (c) a motor carrier, (d) a rail carrier, (e) a charter party carrier, (f) an auto transportation carrier, (g) an authorized airline reporting corporation agent, (h) a member of the United States Tour Operator's Association, or (i) a person who sells membership in an organization, club, or association that entitles the purchaser to obtain transportation or other services from a travel charter or tour operator and who does not arrange or provide for transportation.

(2) 'Advertise' means to make any representation in conjunction with, or to effect the sale of, travel services and includes communication with other members of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity.

(3) 'Passenger' is a person who purchases travel arrangements in Washington state and on whose behalf money or other consideration has been given or is to be given to another, including another member of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity, for procuring transportation or other travel services.

(4) 'Adequate bond' means a bond executed by an authorized surety insurer in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars or an amount equal to ten percent of the total revenue of the two highest consecutive months for the travel charter or tour operator's business during the prior calendar year, whichever is greater, but in no case, more than five hundred thousand dollars, for the benefit of every person for whom services have not been delivered by the wrongful act of the principal acting in the course and scope of his or her occupation or business or by any official, agent, or employee of the principal acting in the course or scope of his or her employment or agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A travel charter or tour operator shall not advertise that air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services is or may be available unless he or she has, prior to such advertisement, received written confirmation with a carrier for the transportation advertised.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. At or prior to the time of full or partial payment for air, sea, or land transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation, the travel charter or tour operator shall furnish to the person making the payment a written statement conspicuously setting forth the following information:

(1) The name and business address and telephone number of the travel charter or tour operator.

(2) The amount paid, the date of such payment, the purpose of the payment made, and an itemized statement of the balance due, if any.

(3) The location and number of the trust account or bond required by this statute.

(4) The name of the carrier with whom the travel charter or tour operator has contracted to provide the transportation, the type of equipment contracted, and the date, time, and place of each departure: PROVIDED, That the information required in this subsection may be provided at the time of final payment.

(5) The conditions, if any, upon which the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger may be canceled, and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of such cancellation.

(6) A statement in eight-point boldface type in substantially the following form:

'If transportation or other services are canceled by the travel charter or tour operator, all sums paid to the travel charter or tour operator for services not performed in accordance with the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger will be refunded within fourteen days after the cancellation by the travel charter or tour operator to the passenger or the party who contracted for the passenger unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided.'

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) If the transportation or other services contracted for are canceled the travel charter or tour operator shall return to the passenger within fourteen days after the cancellation all moneys paid for services not performed in accordance with the contract unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided.

(2) Any material misrepresentation with regard to the transportation and other services offered shall be deemed to be a cancellation necessitating the refund required by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a travel charter or tour operator shall deposit ninety percent of all sums received for transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation in a trust account in a federally insured financial institution.

(2) The trust account required by this section shall be created and maintained for the benefit of the passengers paying money to the travel charter or tour operator. The travel charter or tour operator shall not in any manner encumber the corpus of the account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except: (a) in an amount equal to partial or full payment for the services contracted for the passengers to the carrier or person providing the other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator; or (b) to make the refunds as required by section 5 of this act or as provided for by written contract between the travel charter and tour operator and passengers. A travel charter and tour operator may withdraw from the account any interest earned and credited to the trust account for the sole benefit of the travel charter and tour operator after all services have been provided as contracted.

(3) A travel charter and tour operator, instead of maintaining a trust account as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, may maintain an adequate bond.

(4) A violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A travel charter or tour operator is not required to comply with section 6 of this act if a written agreement exists between the travel charter or tour operator and a current member of the United States Tour Operators' Association to provide full service in the event the travel charter or tour operator defaults in providing services to passengers, and the travel charter or tour operator states the existence of this agreement in all of its promotional brochures. Any misleading statement is a violation of this section, and shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A violation of sections 3 through 7 of this act shall constitute a violation of RCW 19.86.020.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. This chapter does not apply to the sale of public transportation by a public charter operator who is complying with regulations of the United States department of transportation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. This act shall take effect January 1, 1987, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 3, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1356 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 357, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.08.067 are each amended to read as follows:

All judicial positions created by the legislature after ~~((the effective date of this act))~~ July 28, 1985, including the additional judicial positions created by ~~((sections 1 through 3, chapter 357, Laws of 1985))~~ RCW 2.08.061, 2.08.062, and 2.08.064, shall be authorized only for counties that have implemented a mandatory arbitration program for civil claims to the maximum extent permitted by law. This section does not apply to counties of the third class or smaller, or to two- and three-county judicial districts with a population of less than seventy thousand. Implementing a mandatory arbitration program to the maximum extent permitted by law does not require a county to authorize arbitration for maintenance or child support issues as provided in RCW 7.06.020(2) if:

(1) The county uses a show cause or motion by affidavit calendar, or other procedure by which maintenance or support issues are decided on a summary basis; or

(2) Upon the request of the chief administrative judge of a judicial district, the office of the administrator for the courts determines that a mandatory arbitration program would be more costly and time consuming to the county than the procedure then in use in the county for determining support or maintenance issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 7.75 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Members of the board of directors of a dispute resolution center are immune from suit in any civil action based upon any proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the board.

(2) Employees and volunteers of a dispute resolution center are immune from suit in any civil action based on any proceedings or other official acts performed in their capacity as employees or volunteers, except in cases of wilful or wanton misconduct.

(3) A dispute resolution center is immune from suit in any civil action based on any of its proceedings or other official acts performed by its employees, volunteers, or members or its board of directors, except (a) in cases of wilful or wanton misconduct by its employees or volunteers, and (b) in cases of official acts performed in bad faith by members of its board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 26.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any county may contract under chapter 39.34 RCW with any other county or counties to provide joint family court services.

(2) Any agreement between two or more counties for the operation of a joint family court service may provide that the treasurer of one participating county shall be the custodian of moneys made available for the purposes of the joint services, and that the treasurer may make payments from the moneys upon proper authorization.

(3) Any agreement between two or more counties for the operation of a joint family court service may also provide:

(a) For the joint provision or operation of services and facilities or for the provision or operation of services and facilities by one participating county under contract for the other participating counties;

(b) For appointments of members of the staff of the family court including the supervising counselor;

(c) That, for specified purposes, the members of the staff of the family court including the supervising counselor, but excluding the judges of the family court and other court personnel, shall be considered to be employees of one participating county;

(d) For other matters as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to family court services provided by a single county are equally applicable to counties which contract, under this section, to provide joint family court services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 26.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the matter may be set for mediation of the contested issues before or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute.

(2) Each superior court may make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family court or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court is not required to institute a family court.

(3) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential. The mediator shall not testify as to any aspect of the mediation proceedings.

(4) The mediator shall assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and may interview the child or children if the mediator deems such interview appropriate or necessary.

(5) Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to the court and to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or any time thereafter designated by the court."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "2.08.067" and before the period insert "; adding a new section to chapter 7.75 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 26.12 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 26.09 RCW" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1356.

Excused: Representatives Lewis, Patrick, Winsley - 3.

Substitute House Bill No. 1356 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 3, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1869 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 14, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 7.68.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of applying for benefits under this chapter, the rights, privileges, responsibilities, duties, limitations and procedures contained in RCW 51.28.020, 51.28.030, 51.28.040 and 51.28.060 as now or hereafter amended shall apply: PROVIDED, That no compensation of any kind shall be available under this chapter if:

((+)) (a) An application for benefits is not received by the department within one year after the date the criminal act was reported to a local police department or sheriff's office or the date the rights of dependents or beneficiaries accrued; or

((+)) (b) The criminal act is not reported by the victim or someone on his behalf to a local police department or sheriff's office within seventy-two hours of its occurrence or, if it could not reasonably have been reported within that period, within seventy-two hours of the time when a report could reasonably have been made.

(2) This section shall apply only to criminal acts reported after December 31, 1985.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 239, Laws of 1983 and RCW 7.68.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW as now or hereafter amended govern the provision of medical aid under this chapter to victims injured as a result of a criminal act, including criminal acts committed between July 1, 1981, and January 1, 1983, except that:

(1) The provisions contained in RCW 51.36.030 (~~and~~), 51.36.040, and 51.36.080 as now or hereafter amended do not apply to this chapter:

(2) The specific provisions of RCW 51.36.020 as now or hereafter amended relating to supplying emergency transportation do not apply: PROVIDED, That when the injury to any victim is so serious as to require his being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, reasonable transportation costs to the nearest place of proper treatment shall be reimbursed from the fund established pursuant to RCW 7.68.090.

Sec. 3. Section 17, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The amendments to RCW (~~7-68-060 and~~) 7.68.070 by this act apply only to criminal acts occurring after December 31, 1985.

Sec. 4. Section 337, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 3.62.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be assessed and collected in addition to any fines, forfeitures, or penalties assessed, other than for parking infractions, by all courts organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW a public safety and education assessment equal to sixty percent of such fines, forfeitures, or penalties, which shall be remitted as provided in chapters 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, and 35.20 RCW. The assessment required by this section shall not be suspended or waived by the court.

(2) There shall be assessed and collected in addition to any fines, forfeitures, or penalties assessed, other than for parking infractions and for fines levied under RCW 46.61.515, and in addition to the public safety and education assessment required under subsection (1) of this section, by all courts organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW, an additional public safety and education assessment equal to fifty percent of the public safety and education assessment required under subsection (1) of this section, which shall be remitted to the state treasurer and deposited as provided in RCW 43.08.250. The additional assessment required by this subsection shall not be suspended or waived by the court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Section 4 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect May 1, 1986.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "compensation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 7.68.060, 7.68.080, and 3.62.090; amending section 17, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1349 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 29.01 RCW to read as follows:

'Election board' means a group of election officers serving one precinct or groups of precincts in a polling place.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No paper ballot precinct (~~shall~~) may contain more than three hundred voters. The county legislative authority may divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable, over-populated precincts shall contain no more than two hundred fifty registered voters in anticipation of future growth.

(2) Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored (~~PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That~~), Except as permitted under subsection (5) of this section, no precinct boundaries (~~shall~~) may be changed during the period starting ~~((as of))~~ on the thirtieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for the primary election and ending with the day of the general election.

(3) Precincts in which voting machines or electronic voting devices are used may contain as many as nine hundred registered voters ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~, but there shall be at least one voting machine or device for each three hundred registered voters or major fraction thereof when a state primary or general election is held in an even-numbered year.

(4) On petition of twenty-five or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the county legislative authority shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor.

(5) The county auditor shall temporarily adjust precinct boundaries when a city annexes county territory to the city. The adjustment shall be made as soon as possible after the approval of the annexation. The temporary adjustment shall be limited to the minimum changes necessary to accommodate the addition of the territory to the city and shall remain in effect only until precinct boundary modifications reflecting the annexation are adopted by the county legislative authority.

The county legislative authority may establish by ordinance a limitation on the maximum number of registered voters in each precinct within its jurisdiction. The limitation may be different for precincts based upon the method of voting used for such precincts and the number may be less than the number established by law, but in no case may the number exceed that authorized by law.

The county legislative authority of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the ~~((same))~~ precincts. The county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct.

Sec. 3. Section 29.04.055, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

At any election, general or special, or at any primary, the ~~((election authority))~~ county auditor may combine, unite, or divide precincts and may combine or unite election boards for the purpose of holding such election ~~((PROVIDED, That in the event such election shall be held upon the day of any state primary or state general election held in an even-numbered year this section shall not apply))~~.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other information required by this chapter, each applicant for registration shall establish his identity, unless personally known by the registration officer, by producing at least one of the following items:

(1) A social security card containing the applicant's signature. Whenever the social security record is so used, the registration officer shall enter the applicant's social security number upon the appropriate registration forms;

(2) A driver's license which contains the signature and/or a photograph of the applicant;

(3) A valid Washington state identicaid;

(4) A nationally or regionally known credit card containing the signature and/or photograph of the applicant;

(5) An identification card issued by the United States, any state or any agency of either, of a kind commonly used to identify the members or employees of such government agencies (including military I.D. cards), and which contain the signature and/or the photograph of the applicant.

In addition, whenever the registration officer has a doubt as to whether the applicant is of legal voting age, such officer ~~((may))~~ shall require the applicant to produce a record ~~((which))~~ that establishes the applicant's date of birth.

Failure to produce such identification except when necessary to establish the applicant's date of birth at the time of registration as set forth in this section shall not deter the act of registration: PROVIDED, That registration officials shall indicate on the registration form by checking either 'identification produced' or 'identification not produced'.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 29.07 RCW to read as follows:

The county auditor shall have custody of the voter registration records for each county and shall maintain those records in accordance with this section.

(1) The original voter registration form, as established by RCW 29.07.070, shall be filed alphabetically without regard to precinct and shall not be available for public inspection and copying.

(2) An automated file of all registered voters shall be maintained pursuant to RCW 29.07-.220, which shall be the source of the precinct lists of registered voters used at the polls on election day. Lists of registered voters produced from the automated file are public records and are thus available for inspection and copying.

Sec. 6. Section 29.13.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All city, town, and district general elections shall be held throughout the state of Washington on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the odd-numbered years.

This section shall not apply to:

- ((1)) (a) Elections for the recall of any elective public officer((:));
- ((2)) (b) Public utility districts((:)) or district elections (~~whereat~~) at which the ownership of property within ~~(said)~~ those districts is a prerequisite to voting, all of which elections shall be held at the times prescribed in the laws specifically applicable thereto((:));
- ((3)) (c) Consolidation proposals as provided for in RCW 28A.57.180 and nonhigh capital fund aid proposals as provided for in chapter 28A.56 RCW.

(2) The county auditor, as ex officio supervisor of elections, upon request in the form of a resolution of the governing body of a city, town, or district, presented to him at least forty-five days prior to the proposed election date, may, if he deems an emergency to exist, call a special election in such city, town, or district, and for the purpose of such special election he may combine, unite, or divide precincts. A special election called by such governing body shall be held on one of the following dates as decided by the governing body:

- (a) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in February;
- (b) The second Tuesday in March, except that if a state-wide political party caucus by a major political party is scheduled on the second Tuesday, then a special election may not be held on such date but may be held on the third Tuesday in March(~~(-PROVIDED HOWEVER, That in any county holding an election on the second Tuesday in March of 1980 pursuant to a home-rule charter adopted under Article XI, section 4 of the state Constitution, any city, town, or district where any portion of the registered voters of that city, town, or district reside within that charter county may hold special elections on the second Tuesday in March of 1980))~~);
- (c) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in April;
- (d) The third Tuesday in May;
- (e) The day of the primary election as specified by RCW 29.13.070; or
- (f) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

In addition to (a) through (f) above, a special election to validate an excess levy or bond issue may be called at any time to meet the needs resulting from failure of a school or junior taxing district to pass a special levy or bond issue for the first time or from fire, flood, earthquake, or other act of God, except that no special election may be held between the first day for candidates to file for public office and the last day to certify the returns of the general election other than as provided in (e) and (f) of this subsection. Such special election shall be conducted and notice thereof given in the manner provided by law.

This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish mandatory dates for holding elections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 29.13 RCW to read as follows:

For any reimbursement of election costs under RCW 29.13.047, the secretary of state shall pay interest at an annual rate equal to two percentage points in excess of the discount rate on ninety-day commercial paper in effect at the federal reserve bank in San Francisco on the fifteenth day of the month immediately preceding the payment for any period of time in excess of thirty days after the receipt of a properly executed and documented voucher for such expenses and the entry of an allotment from specifically appropriated funds for this purpose under RCW 43.88.111. The secretary of state shall promptly notify any county that submits an incomplete or inaccurate voucher for reimbursement under RCW 29.13.047.

Sec. 8. Section 2, chapter 142, Laws of 1984 and RCW 29.18.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Except where otherwise provided by state law, declarations of candidacy for the following offices shall be filed during regular business hours with the secretary of state or the county auditor no earlier than the ~~(fast)~~ fourth Monday in July and no later than the following Friday in the year in which the office is scheduled to be voted upon:

(1) Offices that are scheduled to be voted upon for full terms or both full terms and short terms at, or in conjunction with, a state general election; and

(2) Offices where a vacancy, other than a short term, exists that has not been filled by election and for which an election to fill the vacancy is required in conjunction with the next state general election.

Sec. 9. Section 29.21.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 31, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All candidates for offices to be voted on at any election in first, second, and third class cities and fourth class municipalities (towns) shall file declarations of candidacy with the county auditor not earlier than the ~~(fast)~~ fourth Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular city elections are held.

All candidates for district offices subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.010(~~(-as now or hereafter amended:))~~) shall file their declarations of candidacy with the county auditor of the county not earlier than the ~~(fast)~~ fourth Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular district elections are held: PROVIDED, That this chapter shall not change the method of nomination for first district officers at the formation of any district.

Any candidate for city, town, or district offices may withdraw his declaration at any time ~~((to and including the first Wednesday after))~~ before the Friday following the last day allowed for filing declarations of candidacy.

All candidates required to file declarations of candidacy shall pay the same fees and be governed by the same rules as contained in RCW 29.18.030 through 29.18.100(~~(- PROVIDED: That))~~, but no filing fee ~~((shall))~~ may be charged ~~((in the event that))~~ if the office sought is without a fixed annual salary.

This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for filing declarations of candidacy for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish a uniform five-day period throughout the state of Washington for filing declarations of candidacy.

Sec. 10. Section 29.30.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 51, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.30.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every primary paper ballot shall be uniform in color and size, shall be white and printed in black ink. Each ballot shall be identified at the top with the words, 'Primary Election Ballot,' and below that, the county in which the ballot is to be used, the date of the primary, and the instruction: 'To vote for a person mark a cross in the first square at the right of the name of the person for whom you desire to vote. To vote for a person not on the ballot, write in the name of the candidate, and the party affiliation if for a partisan office, in the space provided.' Beginning at the top of the left hand column, at the left of the line shall appear the name of the position for which the names following are candidates, and to the extreme right of the same line the words, 'Vote for,' then the words 'One,' 'Two,' or a spelled number designating how many persons under that head are to be voted for. Below this shall come the names of all candidates for that position, each followed by the name of the political party, if any, with which the candidate desires to affiliate or the word 'nonpartisan', with a square to the right. Each position with the names running for that office, shall be separated from the following one by a bold line. All primary paper ballots shall be sequentially numbered, but done in such a way to permit removal of such numbers ~~((by precinct election workers))~~ without revealing the identity of any individual voter. There shall be no printing upon the back of the ballots nor any mark thereon to distinguish them.

Sec. 11. Section 60, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 121, Laws of 1982 and RCW 29.30.081 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On the top of each general election paper ballot there shall be printed instructions directing the voters how to mark the ballot, including write-in votes. Next after the instructions and before the offices shall be placed the questions of adopting constitutional amendments or any other state measure authorized by law to be submitted to the voters of such election.

(2) The candidate or candidates of the major political party which received the highest number of votes from the electors of this state for the office of president of the United States at the last presidential election shall appear first below the office heading, the candidate or candidates of the other major political parties shall follow according to the votes cast for their nominees for president at the last presidential election, and the candidate or candidates of all other parties shall follow in the order of their qualification with the secretary of state. The candidates for nonpartisan offices shall be listed in the manner otherwise provided by law. There shall be blank spaces for writing in the name of any candidate, if desired, on the ballot.

(3) There shall be a at the right of the name of each nominee so that a voter may clearly indicate the candidate or the candidates for whom he wishes to cast his ballot.

(4) Under the designation of the office there shall be indicated the number of candidates to such office to be voted for at such election.

(5) If the election is in a year in which a president of the United States is to be elected, the names of candidates for president and vice president for each political party shall be grouped together, each group enclosed in brackets with a single square to the right in which the voter indicates his choice.

(6) All paper ballots for general elections shall be sequentially numbered, but done in such a way to permit removal of such numbers ~~((by precinct election workers))~~ without leaving any identifying marks on the ballot. There shall be no printing on the back of the paper ballots nor any mark thereon to distinguish them.

Sec. 12. Section 33, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.30.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All ballot pages for primary, general, or special elections in counties using voting devices shall be uniform in color and size, shall be white, and shall be printed in black ink. The first page shall be identified at the top with the name of the election, the county in which the ballot page is to be used, and the date of the election. On the front of the first ballot page or prominently displayed on each voting device to be used at a primary, general, or special election, there shall be printed instructions directing the voters how to properly record a vote for any candidate and for or against any measure. Beginning at the top of the left hand column, at the left of the line shall appear the name of the position for which the names to the immediate right are candidates, and below the name of the office or position the words, 'Vote for,' then the words 'One,' 'Two,' or a spelled number designating how many persons under that head are to be voted for. Immediately to the right of the name of the office or position shall come the names of all candidates for that position, each followed by the name of the political party, if any, with which the candidate desires to affiliate or the word 'nonpartisan', with an arrow or other notation at the right edge of the ballot page indicating where the voter is to punch or otherwise mark his ballot for that candidate. Each position with the names running for that office, shall be separated from the following one by a bold line. All ballot cards for primary elections shall be sequentially numbered, but done in such a way to permit removal of such numbers (~~by precinct election workers~~) without leaving any identifying marks on the ballot. There shall be no marks on the ballot cards which would distinguish an individual voter's ballot card from other ballot cards in the same precinct.

Sec. 13. Section 67, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.34.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On the front of the first ballot page or prominently displayed on each voting device to be used at a general election, there shall be printed instructions directing the voters how to properly record a vote for any candidate and for or against any measure, including write-in votes. After the instructions and before the offices shall be placed the questions of adopting constitutional amendments or any other state measure authorized by law to be submitted to the voters of such election.

(2) All nominations of any party or group of petitioners shall be indicated by the title of such party or petitioners as designated by them in their certificate of nomination or petition, following the name of such candidate, and the name of each nominee shall be placed beside the designation of the office for which he has been nominated.

(3) There shall be an arrow or other notation at the right edge of the ballot page opposite the name of each candidate indicating where the voter is to punch or otherwise mark his ballot card for that candidate.

(4) Under the designation of the office, if more than one candidate is to be voted for there shall be indicated the number of candidates to such office to be voted for at such election.

(5) If the election is in a year in which a president of the United States is to be elected, in spaces separated from the balance of the party tickets by a heavy black line, shall be the names and spaces for voting for candidates for president and vice president. The names of candidates for president and vice president for each political party shall be grouped together, each group enclosed in brackets with a single arrow or other notation to the right.

(6) All ballot cards for general elections shall be sequentially numbered, but done in such a way to permit removal of such numbers (~~by precinct election workers~~) without leaving any identifying marks on the ballot. There shall be no printing on the back of the ballot cards nor any mark thereon to distinguish an individual voter's ballot card from other ballot cards from the same precinct.

Sec. 14. Section 29.36.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 273, Laws of 1985 and RCW 29.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any duly registered voter may vote an absentee ballot for any primary or election in the manner provided in this chapter.

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section and RCW 29.36.013, a registered voter desiring to cast an absentee ballot must apply in writing to his or her county auditor no earlier than forty-five days nor later than the day before any election or primary.

(2) An application honored for a primary ballot shall also be honored as an application for a ballot for the following general election if the voter so indicates on his or her application.

(3) A voter admitted to a hospital no earlier than five days before a primary or election and confined to the hospital on election day may apply by messenger for an absentee ballot on the day of the primary or election if a signed statement from the hospital administrator, or designee, verifying the voter's date of admission and status as a patient in the hospital on the day of the primary or election is attached to the absentee ballot application.

(4) ~~(Such applications must contain the voter's signature and may be made in person, by mail, or messenger.)~~ The application must be signed by the voter, and except as provided under chapter 29.39 RCW, an application for an absentee ballot ~~((shall not be approved))~~ is not valid unless the voter's signature ~~((upon))~~ on the application ~~((compares favorably with the))~~ is substantially the same as that voter's signature ~~((upon))~~ on his or her registration record.

(5) An application for an absentee ballot shall be delivered to the county auditor of the county in which the voter is registered either in person, by mail, or by messenger. An absentee ballot application from a registered voter within this state shall be sent directly to the auditor of the county in which the voter is registered. An absentee ballot application from a registered voter who is temporarily outside this state may be sent either to the appropriate county auditor or to the secretary of state, who shall promptly forward the application to the appropriate county auditor. No person, organization, or association may distribute absentee ballot applications within this state that contains any return address other than that of a county auditor.

Sec. 15. Section 29.51.110, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 43, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.51.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon delivery of each ballot after being marked and folded by a voter, the inspector ~~((in an audible tone shall repeat the name of the voter and the number of the ballot. The election~~ clerks having in charge the registration cards and poll books or precinct lists of registered voters, if they find that the number marked opposite the voter's name thereon corresponds with the number of the ballot handed to the inspector, shall mark the word "voted" or check a spot so designated opposite the name of such voter and one of the clerks shall call back in an audible tone the name of the voter and the number of his ballot. The inspector shall ~~((then))~~ separate the slip containing the number of the ballot from the ballot and shall deposit the ballot in the ballot box. ~~((The numbers removed from the ballots shall be destroyed immediately.))~~ The inspector shall, however, permit any voter expressing a desire to separate his or her own slip or to deposit his or her own ballot, or both, to do so. Any voter detaching or separating the number slip must return that slip to the inspector.

Sec. 16. Section 28A.57.322, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.322 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person elected or appointed to the office of school director, before entering upon the discharge of the duties thereof, shall take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States and the state of Washington and to faithfully discharge the duties of his office according to the best of his ability. In case any official has a written appointment or commission, his oath or affirmation shall be endorsed thereon and sworn to before any officer authorized to administer oaths. School officials are hereby authorized to administer all oaths or affirmations pertaining to their respective offices without charge or fee. All oaths of office, when properly made, shall be filed with the ~~((officer with whom declarations of candidacy for such positions are filed))~~ county auditor.

Before entering upon his duties and within ten days after receiving notice of his election or appointment every officer of the city shall qualify by taking the oath of office and by filing such bond duly approved as may be required of him. The oath of office shall be filed with the county auditor. If no notice of election or appointment was received, the officer must qualify on or before the date fixed for the assumption by him of the duties of the office to which he was elected or appointed. The city council shall fix the amount of all official bonds and may designate what officers shall be required to give bonds in addition to those required to do so by statute.

The clerk, treasurer, city attorney, chief of police, police judge and street commissioner shall each execute an official bond in such penal sum as the city council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is the ex officio incumbent.

All official bonds shall be approved by the city council and when so approved shall be filed with the city clerk except the city clerk's which shall be filed with the mayor. No city officer shall be eligible as a surety upon any bond running to the city as obligee.

The city council may require a new or additional bond of any officer whenever it deems it expedient.

Sec. 18. Section 35.24.080, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In a city of the third class, the treasurer, city attorney, clerk, police judge, chief of police, and such other officers as the council may require shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath of office and execute and file with the clerk an official bond in such penal sum as the council shall determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and otherwise conditioned as may be provided by ordinance. The oath of office shall be filed with the county auditor.

Every officer of a town before entering upon the duties of his office shall take and file with the ~~((town clerk))~~ county auditor his oath of office. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal before entering upon their respective duties shall also each execute a bond approved by the council in such penal sum as the council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made ex officio incumbent.

All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the town clerk, except the bonds of the clerk which shall be filed with the mayor.

Sec. 20. Section 35A.12.080, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any officer before entering upon the performance of his duties may be required to take an oath or affirmation as prescribed by charter or by ordinance for the faithful performance of his duties. The oath or affirmation shall be filed with the county auditor. The clerk, treasurer, if any, chief of police, and such other officers or employees as may be designated by ordinance or by charter shall be required to furnish annually an official bond conditioned on the honest and faithful performance of their official duties. The terms and penalty of official bonds and the surety therefor shall be prescribed by ordinance or charter and the bond shall be approved by the chief administrative officer of the city. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the city. When the furnishing of an official bond is required of an officer or employee, compliance with such provisions shall be an essential part of qualification for office.

Sec. 21. Section 35A.29.110, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 30, chapter 18, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.29.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A candidate for office in a code city shall file a declaration of candidacy substantially in the form set forth in RCW 29.18.030 insofar as such form is applicable to nonpartisan offices. Declarations of candidacy for offices of code cities to be voted upon at any municipal general election shall be filed with the county auditor not earlier than the ~~(the)~~ fourth Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such general election is to be held (~~PROVIDED, That~~). However, if the first election of all officers upon reorganization as a non-charter code city under a plan of government newly adopted in the manner provided in RCW 35A.02.020, 35A.02.030, 35A.02.080, or 35A.06.030 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~) is an election as provided in RCW 35A.02.050 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~), such declarations of candidacy shall be filed with the county auditor not more than fifty nor less than forty-six days prior to the primary election provided for in RCW 35A.02.050 (~~as amended~~). Any candidate may withdraw his declaration at any time (~~but not later than five days after~~) before the Friday following the last day allowed for filing declarations of candidacy. Nominating petitions for charter commissioners and for any other office for which nominating petitions may be required shall be filed with the county auditor not more than sixty nor less than forty-six days prior to the date of the election, and may be withdrawn at any time, but not later than five days after the last day allowed for filing such petitions.

Sec. 22. Section 29, chapter 34, Laws of 1939 as amended by section 34, chapter 230, Laws of 1984 and RCW 52.14.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Before beginning the duties of office, each fire commissioner shall take and subscribe the official oath for the faithful discharge of the duties of office as required by RCW 29.01.135, which oath shall be filed in the office of the ~~(clerk of the superior court in)~~ auditor of the county in which the district is situated.

Sec. 23. Section 10, chapter 265, Laws of 1959 and RCW 54.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Each commissioner before he enters upon the duties of his office shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office to the best of his ability. This oath, or affirmation, shall be administered and certified by an officer of the county in which the district is situated, who is authorized to administer oaths, without charge therefor. The oath or affirmation shall be filed with the county auditor.

Sec. 24. Section 18, chapter 6, Laws of 1947 and RCW 68.16.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each cemetery commissioner, before assuming the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe an official oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office, which oath shall be filed in the office of the county ~~(clerk)~~ auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 29.07.150, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 19, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.150;

(2) Section 29.51.090, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.51.090; and

(3) Section 95, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.54.180.

In line 1 of the title, after "elections;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 29.04.040, 29.04.055, 29.07.065, 29.13.020, 29.18.025, 29.21.060, 29.30.010, 29.30.081, 29.30.310, 29.34.125, 29.36.010, 29.51.110, 28A.57.322, 35.23.190, 35.24.080, 35.27.120, 35A.12.080, 35A.29.110, 52.14.070, 54.12.100, and 68.16.180; adding a new section to chapter 29.01 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 29.07 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 29.13 RCW; and repealing RCW 29.07.150, 29.51.090, and 29.54.180."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1499 with the following amendments:

On page 9, after line 15, insert the following:

"Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1985 and by section 9, chapter 303, Laws of 1985 and RCW 10.31.100 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant. A police officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of the officer, except as provided in subsections (1) through (5) of this section.

(1) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, involving physical harm or threats of harm to any person or property or the unlawful taking of property or involving the use or possession of cannabis, or use or possession of liquor by a minor, shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(2) A police officer shall arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that:

(a) An order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(2), 10.99.050, 26.09.060, chapter 26.26 RCW, or chapter 26.50 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence or excluding the person from a residence; or

(b) The person is eighteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted that person's spouse, former spouse, or a person eighteen years or older with whom the person resides or has formerly resided and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that spouses, former spouses, or other persons who reside together or formerly resided together have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

(a) RCW 46.52.010, relating to duty on striking an unattended car or other property;

(b) RCW 46.52.020, relating to duty in case of injury to or death of a person or damage to an attended vehicle;

(c) RCW 46.61.500 or 46.61.530, relating to reckless driving or racing of vehicles;

(d) RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, relating to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;

(e) RCW 46.20.342, relating to driving a motor vehicle while operator's license is suspended or revoked;

(f) RCW 46.61.525, relating to operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner.

(4) A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of any traffic law or regulation.

(5) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of RCW 88.02.025 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(6) Except as specifically provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, nothing in this section extends or otherwise affects the powers of arrest prescribed in Title 46 RCW.

(7) No police officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice."

On page 9, after line 15, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 10.05 RCW to read as follows:

"As a condition of granting deferred prosecution, the court may order the petitioner to drive only a motor vehicle equipped with an approved alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device. 'Approved alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device' means equipment, approved by the commission on equipment, designed to prevent a motor vehicle from being operated by a person who has consumed an alcoholic beverage.

The court may establish a specific setting at which the alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device will prevent the motor vehicle from being started.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall attach or imprint a notation on the driver's license of any person restricted under section 7 of this act stating that the person may operate only a motor vehicle equipped with an alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

A person who knowingly assists another person who is restricted to the use of an alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device to start and operate that vehicle in violation of a condition of a deferred prosecution program is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

The deferred prosecution program shall be revoked for any person restricted to the use of an alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device as a condition of a deferred prosecution program who requests another person to start a vehicle equipped with an alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device.

The provisions of this section do not apply if the starting of a motor vehicle, or the request to start a motor vehicle, equipped with an alcohol-sensing ignition interlock device is done for the purpose of safety or mechanical repair of the device or the vehicle and the person subject to the deferred prosecution program does not operate the vehicle.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 7, chapter 302, Laws of 1985 and by section 2, chapter 353, Laws of 1985 and by section 28, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.63.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Failure to perform any act required or the performance of any act prohibited by this title or an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses, is designated as a traffic infraction and may not be classified as a criminal offense, except for an offense contained in the following provisions of this title or a violation of an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution:

(1) RCW 46.09.120(2) relating to the operation of a nonhighway vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance;

MOTION

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1499.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Niemi: "Mr. Speaker, I request a ruling on the scope and object of both of the Senate amendments."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker finds that the first amendment, which deals with the possession of alcohol by minors, broadens the scope and object of the bill. In that particular case, your point is well taken. In the case of amendment number 2, it speaks to an interlocking device for breathalyzer tests and upon examining that with the underlying bill, the Speaker believes that the second amendment is within the scope and object and your point is not well taken."

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the House refused to concur in the first Senate amendment to House Bill No. 1499, and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House do concur in the second Senate amendment to page 9 of House Bill No. 1499.

Representatives West, Padden and Barrett spoke against the motion, and Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of it.

The motion was lost.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1687 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of this chapter to protect against practices by private vocational schools which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair, and to help ensure adequate educational quality at private vocational schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Agency' means the commission for vocational education or its successor.

(2) 'Agent' means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) 'Degree' means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to 'associate,' 'bachelor,' 'master,' 'doctor,' or 'fellow' which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) 'Education' includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) 'Educational credentials' means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) 'Entity' includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) 'Private vocational school' means any entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) 'To grant' includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) 'To offer' includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. 'To offer' also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) 'To operate' means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state, and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. This chapter does not apply to:

(1) Bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organizations sponsoring educational programs primarily for that organization's membership or offered by that organization on a no-fee basis;

(2) Entities offering education that is exclusively avocational or recreational;

(3) Education not requiring payment of money or other consideration if this education is not advertised or promoted as leading toward educational credentials;

(4) Entities that are established, operated, and governed by this state or its political subdivisions under Title 28A, 28B, or 28C RCW;

(5) Degree-granting programs in compliance with the rules of the higher education coordinating board;

(6) Any other entity to the extent that it has been exempted from some or all of the provisions of this chapter under section 10 of this act;

(7) Entities not otherwise exempt that are of a religious character, but only as to those educational programs exclusively devoted to religious or theological objectives and represented accurately in institutional catalogs or other official publications;

(8) Entities certified by the federal aviation administration;

(9) Barber and cosmetology schools licensed under chapter 18.16 RCW;

(10) Entities which only offer courses approved to meet the continuing education requirements for licensure under chapters 18.04, 18.78, 18.88, or 48.17 RCW; and

(11) Entities not otherwise exempt offering only workshops or seminars lasting no longer than three calendar days.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The agency:

(1) Shall maintain a list of private vocational schools licensed under this chapter;

(2) Shall adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out this chapter;

(3) May investigate any entity the agency reasonably believes to be subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter. In connection with the investigation, the agency may administer oaths and affirmations, issue subpoenas and compel attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memorandums, or other records which the agency deems relevant or material to the investigation. The agency, including its staff and any other authorized persons, may conduct site inspections and examine records of all schools subject to this chapter;

(4) Shall develop an interagency agreement with the higher education coordinating board to regulate degree-granting private vocational schools with respect to nondegree programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) The agency shall adopt by rule minimum standards for private vocational schools. The minimum standards shall include, but not be limited to, requirements for each school to:

(a) Disclose to the agency information about its ownership and financial position and to demonstrate that it has sufficient financial resources to fulfill its commitments to students. Financial disclosures provided to the agency shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(b) Follow a uniform state-wide cancellation and refund policy as specified by the agency.

(c) Disclose through use of a school catalog, brochure, or other written material, necessary information to students so that students may make informed enrollment decisions. The agency shall specify what information is required.

(d) Use an enrollment contract or agreement that includes: (i) The cancellation and refund policy, (ii) a brief statement that the school is licensed under this chapter and that inquiries may be made to the agency, and (iii) other necessary information as determined by the agency.

(e) Describe accurately and completely in writing to students before their enrollment prerequisites and requirements for (i) completing successfully the programs of study in which they are interested and (ii) qualifying for the fields of employment for which their education is designed.

(2) The agency shall deny, revoke, or suspend the license of any school that does not meet or maintain the minimum standards.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Any entity desiring to operate a private vocational school shall apply for a license to the agency on a form provided by the agency. The agency shall issue a license if the school:

(1) Files a completed application with information satisfactory to the agency. Misrepresentation by an applicant shall be grounds for the agency, at its discretion, to deny or revoke a license.

(2) Files the surety bond or other security required under this chapter.

(3) Pays the required fees.

(4) Meets the minimum standards adopted by the agency under section 5 of this act.

Licenses shall be valid for one year from the date of issue unless revoked or suspended. If a school fails to file a completed renewal application at least thirty days before the expiration date of its current license the school shall be subject to payment of a late filing fee fixed by the agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The agency shall establish fees by rule at a level necessary to approximately recover the staffing costs incurred in administering this chapter. All fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Each private vocational school shall have on file with the agency an approved surety bond or other security in lieu of a bond. The bond or other security shall be in an amount not less than five thousand dollars but no more than two hundred thousand dollars. Security shall be determined on an incremental scale based on the average amount of unearned prepaid tuition in possession of the school, as determined by the agency.

(2) In lieu of a surety bond, a private vocational school may deposit with the agency a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the agency. The security deposited with the agency in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the school one year after the school's license has expired or been revoked if legal action has not been instituted against the school or the security deposit at the expiration of the year. The obligations and remedies relating to surety bonds authorized by this section, including but not limited to the settlement of claims procedure in subsection (5) of this section, shall apply to deposits filed with the agency, as applicable.

(3) Each bond shall:

(a) Be executed by the private vocational school as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state;

(b) Be payable to the state for the benefit and protection of any student or enrollee of a private vocational school, or, in the case of a minor, his or her parents or guardian;

(c) Be conditioned on compliance with all provisions of this chapter and the agency rules adopted under this chapter;

(d) Require the surety to give written notice to the agency at least thirty-five days before cancellation of the bond; and

(e) Remain in effect for one year following the effective date of its cancellation or termination as to any obligation occurring on or before the effective date of cancellation or termination.

(4) Upon receiving notice of a bond cancellation, the agency shall notify the school that the license will be suspended on the effective date of the bond cancellation unless the school files with the agency another approved surety bond or other security.

(5) If a complaint is filed under section 12(1) of this act against a private vocational school, the agency may file a claim against the surety and settle claims against the surety by following the procedure in this subsection.

(a) The agency shall attempt to notify all potential claimants. If the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the agency to ascertain the names and addresses of all the claimants, the agency after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure that information from all reasonable and available sources, may make a demand on a bond on the basis of information in the agency's possession. The agency is not liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims that may subsequently appear or be discovered.

(b) Thirty days after notification, if a claimant fails, refuses, or neglects to file with the agency a verified claim, the agency shall be relieved of further duty or action under this chapter on behalf of the claimant.

(c) After reviewing the claims, the agency may make demands upon the bond on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been filed. The agency may settle or compromise the claims with the surety and may execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond.

(d) If the surety refuses to pay the demand, the agency may bring an action on the bond in behalf of the claimants. If an action is commenced on the bond, the agency may require a new bond to be filed.

(e) Within ten days after a recovery on a bond or other posted security has occurred, the private vocational school shall file a new bond or otherwise restore its security on file to the required amount.

(6) The liability of the surety shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A private vocational school, whether located in this state or outside of this state, shall not conduct business of any kind, make any offers, advertise or solicit, or enter into any contracts unless the private vocational school is licensed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The executive director of the agency may suspend or modify any of the requirements under this chapter in a particular case if the agency finds that:

(1) The suspension or modification is consistent with the purposes of this chapter; and

(2) The education to be offered addresses a substantial, demonstrated need among residents of the state or that literal application of this chapter would cause a manifestly unreasonable hardship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It is an unfair business practice for a private vocational school or agent to:

- (1) Fail to comply with the terms of a student enrollment contract or agreement;
- (2) Use an enrollment contract form, catalog, brochure, or similar written material affecting the terms and conditions of student enrollment other than that previously submitted to the agency and authorized for use;
- (3) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that the school is an employment agency, is making an offer of employment or otherwise is attempting to conceal the fact that what is being represented are course offerings of a school;
- (4) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that an educational program is approved by a particular industry or that successful completion of the program qualifies a student for admission to a labor union or similar organization or for the receipt of a state license in any business, occupation, or profession;
- (5) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that a student who successfully completes a course or program of instruction may transfer credit for the course or program to any institution of higher education;
- (6) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, in advertising or in any other manner, the school's size, location, facilities, equipment, faculty qualifications, or the extent or nature of any approval received from an accrediting association;
- (7) Represent that the school is approved, recommended, or endorsed by the state of Washington or by the agency, except the fact that the school is authorized to operate under this chapter may be stated;
- (8) Provide prospective students with any testimonial, endorsement, or other information which has the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding current practices of the school, current conditions for employment opportunities, or probable earnings in the occupation for which the education was designed;
- (9) Designate or refer to sales representatives as 'counselors,' 'advisors,' or similar terms which have the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding the authority or qualifications of the sales representatives;
- (10) Make or cause to be made any statement or representation in connection with the offering of education if the school or agent knows or reasonably should have known the statement or representation to be false, substantially inaccurate, or misleading; or
- (11) Engage in methods of advertising, sales, collection, credit, or other business practices which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair, as determined by the agency by rule.

It is a violation of this chapter for a private vocational school to engage in an unfair business practice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) A person claiming loss of tuition or fees as a result of an unfair business practice may file a complaint with the agency. The complaint shall set forth the alleged violation and shall contain information required by the agency. A complaint may also be filed with the agency by an authorized staff member of the agency or by the attorney general.

(2) The agency shall investigate any complaint under this section and may attempt to bring about a settlement. The agency may hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, in order to determine whether a violation has occurred. If the agency prevails, the private vocational school shall pay the costs of the administrative hearing.

(3) If, after the hearing, the agency finds that the private vocational school or its agent engaged in or is engaging in any unfair business practice, the agency shall issue and cause to be served upon the violator an order requiring the violator to cease and desist from the act or practice and may impose the penalties under section 13 of this act. If the agency finds that the complainant has suffered loss as a result of the act or practice, the agency may order full or partial restitution for the loss. The complainant is not bound by the agency's determination of restitution and may pursue any other legal remedy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any private vocational school or agent violating section 6, 9, or 11 of this act or the applicable agency rules is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars for each separate violation. Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. Multiple violations on a single day may be considered separate violations. The fine may be imposed by the agency under section 12 of this act, or in any court of competent jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any entity or any owner, officer, agent, or employee of such entity who wilfully violates section 6 or 9 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. The criminal sanctions may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action brought by the attorney general of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A private vocational school, whether located in this state or outside of this state, that conducts business of any kind, makes any offers, advertises, solicits, or enters into any contracts in this state or with a resident of this state is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state for any cause of action arising from the acts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. If any private vocational school discontinues its operation, the chief administrative officer of the school shall file with the agency the original or legible true copies of all educational records required by the agency. If the agency determines that any educational records are in danger of being made unavailable to the agency, the agency may seek a court order to protect and if necessary take possession of the records. The agency shall cause to be maintained a permanent file of educational records coming into its possession.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. If a student or prospective student is a resident of this state at the time any contract relating to payment for education or any note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness relating thereto is entered into, section 18 of this act shall govern the rights of the parties to the contract or evidence of indebtedness. If a contract or evidence of indebtedness contains any of the following agreements, the contract is voidable at the option of the student or prospective student:

(1) That the law of another state shall apply;

(2) That the maker or any person liable on the contract or evidence of indebtedness consents to the jurisdiction of another state;

(3) That another person is authorized to confess judgment on the contract or evidence of indebtedness; or

(4) That fixes venue.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract relating to payment for education is not enforceable in the courts of this state by a private vocational school or holder of the instrument unless the private vocational school was licensed under this chapter at the time the note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract was entered into.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county in which a private vocational school or agent of the school is found may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of this chapter. The court may issue an injunction or grant any other appropriate form of relief.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The agency may seek injunctive relief, after giving notice to the affected party, in a court of competent jurisdiction for a violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The agency need not allege or prove that the agency has no adequate remedy at law. The right of injunction provided in this section is in addition to any other legal remedy which the agency has and is in addition to any right of criminal prosecution provided by law. The existence of agency action with respect to alleged violations of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter does not operate as a bar to an action for injunctive relief under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. A violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter affects the public interest and is an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of RCW 19.86.020 of the consumer protection act. The remedies and sanctions provided by this section shall not preclude application of other remedies and sanctions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. The remedies and penalties provided for in this chapter are non-exclusive and cumulative and do not affect any other actions or proceedings.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. The agency shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this act and annually thereafter, empanel a private vocational school advisory committee. Said committee shall serve as advisors in the implementation of this chapter and for such other liaison purposes as the agency may determine. It shall consist of no less than seven and no more than eleven persons who are practitioners in proprietary education but one of whom is a recent graduate of a proprietary school. Consideration in making appointments shall be given to maintaining a geographic balance among areas of the state and achieving a balanced representation of occupational specialties offered among private vocational schools statewide. The committee shall meet at least quarterly. Members shall serve without pay but be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. The committee shall adopt bylaws and elect officers from among its members annually.

Sec. 24. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 6, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof the candidate has received a high school degree or its equivalent; that the candidate is twenty-one years of age or older; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a midwifery program accredited by the director and ((registered)) licensed under chapter ((28B.05-RCW)) 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act), when applicable, or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the country in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign candidates must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the certificate or diploma was issued.

(2) The candidate shall meet the following conditions:

(a) Obtaining a minimum period of midwifery training for at least three years including the study of the basic nursing skills that the department shall prescribe by rule. However, if the applicant is a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or has had previous nursing education or practical midwifery experience, the required period of training may be reduced depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the department. In no case shall the training be reduced to a period of less than two years.

(b) Meeting minimum educational requirements which shall include studying obstetrics; neonatal pediatrics; basic sciences; female reproductive anatomy and physiology; behavioral sciences; childbirth education; community care; obstetrical pharmacology; epidemiology; gynecology; family planning; genetics; embryology; neonatology; the medical and legal aspects of midwifery; nutrition during pregnancy and lactation; breast feeding; nursing skills, including but not limited to injections, administering intravenous fluids, catheterization, and aseptic technique; and such other requirements prescribed by rule.

(c) For a student midwife during training, undertaking the care of not less than fifty women in each of the prenatal, intrapartum, and early postpartum periods, but the same women need not be seen through all three periods. A student midwife may be issued a permit upon the satisfactory completion of the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection and the satisfactory completion of the licensure examination required by RCW 18.50.060. The permit permits the student midwife to practice under the supervision of a midwife licensed under this chapter, a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, or a certified nurse-midwife licensed under the authority of chapter 18.88 RCW. The permit shall expire within one year of issuance and may be extended as provided by rule.

(d) Observing an additional fifty women in the intrapartum period before the candidate qualifies for a license.

The training required under this section shall include training in either hospitals or alternative birth settings or both with particular emphasis on learning the ability to differentiate between low-risk and high-risk pregnancies.

Sec. 25. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 8, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or deprecation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.-- RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act).

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 188, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.05.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.05.020;

(28) Section 45, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.292.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A private vocational school registered under chapter 188, Laws of 1979, as amended, as of June 30, 1986, shall be considered to be licensed under chapter 28C.-- RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this act) until January 31, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 1 through 23 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28C RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. (1) The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the agency for the biennium ending June 30, 1987. Subject to approval by the director of financial management, not more than $31,300 may be used to employ one additional full time equivalent employee to administer this chapter. Not more than $3,700 may be used for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) This section shall take effect when the director of financial management determines that the agency has established the fees under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act shall take effect July 1, 1986."

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1726 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to (~~protect the general public and public charity in the state of Washington, to require full public disclosure of facts~~) provide citizens of the state of Washington with information relating to persons and organizations who solicit funds from the public for public charitable purposes (~~the purposes for which such funds are solicited, and their actual uses, and~~) in order to prevent (1) deceptive and dishonest (~~statements and conduct in the solicitation of~~) practices in the conduct of soliciting funds for or in the name of charity; and (2) improper use of contributions intended for charitable purposes.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) A 'bona fide officer or employee' of a charitable organization is one (a) whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization (~~and~~); (b) who does not act in the manner of an independent contractor in his or her relation with the organization; and (c) whose compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised.

(2) 'Charitable organization' means ~~((a) Any benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, eleemosynary, education, social, recreation, fraternal organization, or any other person having or purporting to have a charitable nature; and (b) which solicits or solicits and collects contributions for any charitable purpose. 'Charitable' shall have its common law meaning unless the context in which it is used clearly requires a narrower or a broader meaning))~~ any entity that solicits or collects contributions from the general public where the contribution is or is purported to be used to support a charitable activity. 'Charitable' (a) is not limited to its common law meaning unless the context clearly requires a narrower meaning; (b) does not include religious or political activities; and (c) includes, but is not limited to, educational, recreational, social, patriotic, legal defense, benevolent, or health causes.

(3) 'Compensation' means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration.

(4) 'Contribution' means the donation, promise or grant, for consideration or otherwise, of any money or property of any kind or value which contribution is wholly or partly induced by a solicitation. Reference to dollar amounts of 'contributions' or 'solicitations' in this chapter means in the case of payments or promises to pay for merchandise or rights of any description, the value of the total amount paid or promised to be paid for such merchandise or rights less the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any such tangible merchandise, rights, or services resold by the organization, and not merely that portion of the purchase price to be applied to a charitable purpose.

~~((4) 'Compensation' means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration.))~~

(5) 'Cost of solicitation' means and includes all direct and indirect costs, expenditures, debts, obligations, salaries, wages, commissions, fees, or other money or thing of value paid or incurred in making a solicitation ~~((for a direct gift or conducting a sale or benefit affair.))~~. Cost of solicitation ~~((shall))~~ does not include the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any tangible goods or services resold by the organization as a part of its fund raising activities.

(6) ~~(('Direct gift' shall mean and include an outright contribution of food, clothing, money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value to be used for a charitable or religious purpose and for which the donor receives no consideration or thing of value in return.~~

~~((7)) 'Entity' means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, agency or unit of state government, or any combination thereof.~~

~~((7) 'General public' or 'public' means any individual located in Washington state without a membership or other official relationship with a charitable organization before a solicitation by the charitable organization.~~

(9) 'Membership' means that for the payment of fees, dues, assessments, etc., an organization provides services and confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, honor, or other direct benefit, in addition to the right to vote, elect officers, or hold office. The term 'membership' ~~((shall))~~ does not include those persons who are granted a membership upon making a contribution as the result of solicitation.

(11) 'Other employee' of a charitable organization means any person (a) whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization; (b) who does not act in the manner of any independent contractor in his or her relation with the organization; and (c) who is not engaged in the business of or held out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for charitable or religious purposes.

(12) 'Parent organization' means that part of a charitable organization ~~((which))~~ that coordinates, supervises, or exercises control over policy, fund raising, or expenditures, or assists or advises one or more chapters, branches, or affiliates of such organization in the state of Washington.

~~((9) 'Person' means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, or any combination thereof.~~

(10) 'Professional fund raiser' means any person who, for compensation or other consideration, plans, conducts, manages, or advises concerning any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable purpose, or who engages in the business of or holds himself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations. PROVIDED: That the following persons shall not be deemed professional fund raisers: (a) Any bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent establishment in the state of Washington; whose salary or other compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised; (b) a clergyman of a religious corporation exempt under the provisions of RCW 19.09.030.

(11) A 'professional solicitor' means any person other than a professional fund raiser who is employed or retained for compensation by any person or charitable organization to solicit contributions for charitable purposes from persons in this state, but shall not include any bona fide officer or employee of a registered charitable organization.

(12) 'Sale and benefit affair' shall mean and include, but not be limited to, athletic or sports event,azaar, benefit, campaign, circus, contest, dance, drive, entertainment, exhibition, exposition, party, performance, picnic, sale, social gathering, theater, or variety show which the public is requested to patronize or attend or to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable or religious purpose connected therewith. PROVIDED: That bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation within the provisions of this chapter.)

(13) 'Political activities' means those activities subject to chapter 42.17 RCW or the Federal Elections Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

(14) 'Religious activities' means those religious, evangelical, or missionary activities under the direction of a religious organization duly organized and operating in good faith that are entitled to receive a declaration of current tax exempt status for religious purposes from the United States government and the duly organized branches or chapters of those organizations.

(15) 'Secretary' means the secretary of state.

((H4)) (16) 'Solicitation' means any oral or written request for a contribution, including the solicitor's offer or attempt to sell any property, rights, services, or other thing in connection with which:

(a) Any appeal is made for any charitable purpose; or

(b) The name of any charitable organization is used as an inducement for consummating the sale; or

(c) Any statement is made ((which)) that implies that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale will be applied toward any charitable purpose or donated to any charitable organization.

The solicitation shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making it receives any contribution or makes any sale.

Bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted under chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All charitable organizations, independent fund raisers, and nonprofit fund raisers, as defined in RCW 19.09.020(~~unless exempt under RCW 19.09.030~~), shall register with the secretary.

(2) Failure to register as required by this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

(3) Information provided to the secretary pursuant to this chapter shall be a public record.

(4) Registration shall not be considered or be represented as an endorsement by the secretary or the state of Washington.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.075 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for registration as a charitable organization shall ((contain)) be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary, containing, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the charitable organization;

(2) The name(s) under which the organization will solicit contributions;

(3) The name, address, and telephone number of the ((~~president and treasurer, or comparable~~)) officers(:) of the organization;

(4) The names of the three officers or employees receiving the greatest amount of compensation from the organization;

(5) The purpose of the ((~~solicitations~~)) organization;

((5)) (6) (a) Whether the organization is exempt from federal income tax; and

(b) Whether the financial affairs of the organization are audited by an independent entity and, if so, the name and address of the entity;

(7) A solicitation ((history)) report of the organization for the preceding accounting year including:

(a) The number and types of solicitations ((campaigns over the past three years)) conducted;

(b) The total ((amount of money applied to the costs of the solicitations over the past three years):

(c) The total amount of money dispersed for charitable purposes over the past three years;

(d) The number of solicitation campaigns reported under subsection (5)(a) of this section for which the organization used a professional fund raiser; and

(6)) dollar value of support received from solicitations and from all other sources received on behalf of the charitable purpose of the charitable organization;

(c) The total amount of money applied to charitable purposes, fund raising costs, and other expenses;

(d) The name, address, and telephone number of any independent fund raiser used by the organization; and

(8) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The requirements of subsection((s(5)(b))) (7) (b) and (c) of this section may be satisfied by the submission of ((an independent certified audit)) such federal tax forms as may be approved by rule of the secretary.

The application shall be ((submitted with a fifteen-dollar filing fee and shall be)) signed by the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the organization and be submitted with a nonrefundable, ten-dollar filing fee. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

The application requirements of RCW 19.09.075 do not apply to the following:

(1) Any charitable organization raising less than five thousand dollars in any accounting year when all the activities of the organization, including all fund raising activities, are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services and no part of the charitable organization's assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to any officer or member of the organization;

(2) Any charitable organization located outside of the state of Washington if the organization files the following with the secretary:

(a) The registration documents required under the charitable solicitation laws of the state in which the charitable organization is located;

(b) The registration required under the charitable solicitation laws of the state of California and the state of New York; and

(c) Such federal income tax forms as may be required by rule of the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

An application for registration as a nonprofit fund raiser shall be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary and shall contain the following:

An application for registration as ((a professional)) an independent fund raiser shall ((contain)) be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary, containing, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the ((professional fund raiser)) independent fund-raising entity;

(2) ((A solicitation history of the professional fund raiser for the past three years including:

(a) Number of solicitation campaigns;

(b) Names of charitable organizations for whom fund raising has been performed; and

(c) A list of the states in which fund-raising has been performed; and
~~(3))~~ The name(s), address(es), and telephone number(s) of the owner(s) and principal officer(s) of the independent fund-raising entity;

(3) The name, address, and telephone number of the individual responsible for the activities of the independent fund-raising entity in Washington;

(4) A list of states and Canadian provinces in which fund raising has been performed;

(5) The names of the three officers or employees receiving the greatest amount of compensation from the independent fund-raising entity;

(6) Whether the financial affairs of the independent fund raiser are audited by an independent entity, and, if so, the name and address of the entity;

(7) A solicitation report of the independent fund-raising entity for the preceding accounting year, including:

(a) The number and types of fund raising services conducted;

(b) The names of charitable organizations required to register under RCW 19.09.065 for whom fund raising services have been performed;

(c) The total value of contributions received on behalf of charitable organizations required to register under RCW 19.09.065 by the independent fund raiser, affiliate of the independent fund raiser, or any entity retained by the independent fund raiser; and

(d) The amount of money disbursed to charitable organizations for charitable purposes, net of fund raising costs paid by the charitable organization as stipulated in any agreement between charitable organizations and the independent fund raiser;

(8) The name, address, and telephone number of any independent fund raiser that was retained in the conduct of providing fund raising services; and

(9) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The application shall be signed by an officer or owner of the independent fund raiser and shall be submitted with a ~~((fifteen-dollar))~~ nonrefundable, fifty-dollar filing fee ~~((and shall be signed by the professional fund raiser))~~. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.085 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Registration under this chapter shall be effective for ~~((two-years))~~ one year, or the end of the organization's accounting year, whichever comes first.

(2) ~~((Persons and charitable organizations))~~ Reregistration required under RCW 19.09.075 and section 6 of this act shall be received by the secretary no later than the fifteenth day of the fifth month after the organization's accounting period ends.

(3) Reregistration required under RCW 19.09.079 shall be received by the secretary no later than the fifteenth day of the third month after the organization's accounting period ends.

(4) Entities required to register under this chapter shall file a notice of change of information within thirty days of any change in the information contained in RCW 19.09.075 (1) through ~~((4))~~ (6), 19.09.079 (1) through (6), or section 6 (1) through (4) of this act.

~~((3))~~ (5) The secretary may notify ~~((persons and charitable organizations))~~ entities registered under this chapter of the need to reregister upon the expiration of their current registration. The notification shall be by mail, sent at least sixty days prior to the expiration of their current registration.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.095 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((if any chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division of))~~ A charitable organization that is supervised and controlled by a superior or parent organization ~~((which))~~ that is incorporated, qualified to do business, or is doing business within this state ~~((such chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division))~~ shall not be required to register under RCW 19.09.065 if the superior or parent organization files an application, on behalf of its subsidiary, in addition to or as a part of its own application. If an application has been filed by a superior or parent organization, on behalf of the subsidiary organization, the superior or parent organization ~~((need not include the financial statement information as part of its financial report for any chapter, branch, or affiliate which solicits and collects less than five hundred dollars during its fiscal year, providing all such fund raising is done by persons who are unpaid for such services. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend between five hundred dollars and five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall report such financial information either separately or in consolidated form. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend in excess of five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall set forth such financial information separately, in addition to including such information in consolidated form))~~ shall (1) report financial information either separately or in consolidated form for its subsidiary organization(s), and (2) identify the subsidiary organization(s) on whose behalf the application is being submitted, indicating which such organization(s), if any, collected or expended five thousand dollars or more during their fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

Before contracting for any fund raising service or activity, the charitable organization and independent fund raiser shall complete a registration form. The registration shall be filed by the charitable organization with the secretary, in the form prescribed by the secretary, within five working days of the execution of the contract containing, but not limited to the following information:

- (1) The name and registration number of the independent fund raiser;
- (2) The name of the surety or sureties issuing the bond required by RCW 19.09.190, the aggregate amount of such bond or bonds, the bond number(s), original effective date(s), and termination date(s);
- (3) The name and registration number of the charitable organization;
- (4) The name of the representative of the independent fund raiser who will be responsible for the conduct of the fund raising;
- (5) The type(s) of service(s) to be provided by the independent fund raiser;
- (6) The dates such service(s) will begin and end;
- (7) The terms of the agreement between the charitable organization and independent fund raiser relating to:
 - (a) Amount or percentages of amounts to inure to the charitable organization;
 - (b) Limitations placed on the maximum amount to be raised by the fund raiser, if the amount to inure to the charitable organization is not stated as a percentage of the amount raised;
 - (c) Costs of fund raising that will be the responsibility of the charitable organization, regardless of whether paid as a direct expense, deducted from the amounts disbursed, or otherwise;
 - (d) The manner in which contributions received directly by the charitable organization, not the result of services provided by the independent fund raiser, will be identified and used in computing the fee owed to the independent fund raiser; and
- (8) The names of any entity to which more than ten percent of the total anticipated fund raising cost is to be paid, and whether any principal officer or owner of the independent fund raiser or relative by blood or marriage thereof is an owner or officer of any such entity.

The registration form shall be submitted with a nonrefundable, five-dollar filing fee and shall be signed by an owner or principal officer of the independent fund raiser and the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the charitable organization.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess, as last amended by section 9, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The following conditions apply to solicitations as defined by RCW 19.09.020:

- (1) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall disclose orally or in writing to each person or organization solicited:
 - (a) The name of the individual making the solicitation;
 - (b) The name of the charitable organization;
 - (c) The purpose of the solicitation, and the name of the organization that will receive the funds contributed; and
 - (d) ~~(Upon request, the estimated percentage of the money collected which will be applied to the cost of the solicitation or to the charitable purpose;~~
- ~~(2)) Whether the charitable organization is or is not properly registered under this chapter, and if registered, that information relating to its financial affairs is available by contacting the office of the secretary of state, giving the secretary's toll-free telephone number, if available.~~

(2) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall conspicuously disclose in writing to each person or organization solicited:

(a) If the solicitation is conducted by a charitable organization, the percentage relationship between (i) the total amount of money applied to charitable purposes; and (ii) the dollar value of support received from solicitations and from all other sources received on behalf of the charitable purpose of the organization, as contained in the organization's most recent solicitation report filed in accordance with RCW 19.09.075(7);

(b) If the solicitation is conducted by an independent or nonprofit fund raiser, the percentage relationship between (i) the amount of money disbursed to charitable organizations for charitable purposes; and (ii) the total value of contributions received on behalf of charitable organizations by the independent or nonprofit fund raiser, as contained in the fund raiser's most recent solicitation report filed in accordance with RCW 19.09.079(7) or section 6 of this act.

(3) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions by telephone shall make the disclosures required by RCW 19.09.100(2) (a) or (b) in writing within five days of the receipt of any contribution. If the person or organization sends any materials to the person or organization solicited before the receipt of any contribution, those materials shall include the disclosures required in RCW 19.09.100(1)(d), and 19.09.100 (2) (a) or (b), whichever is applicable.

(4) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall not represent orally or in writing that:

(a) The charitable contribution is tax deductible unless the charitable organization for which charitable contributions are being solicited or to which tickets for fund raising events or other services or goods will be donated, has applied for and received from the internal revenue service a letter of determination granting tax deductible status to the charitable organization;

(b) The person soliciting the charitable contribution is a volunteer or words of similar meaning or effect that create the impression that the person soliciting is not a paid solicitor unless such person is unpaid for his or her services;

(c) The person soliciting the charitable contribution is a member, staffer, helper, or employee of the charitable organization or words of similar meaning or effect that create the impression that the person soliciting is not a paid solicitor if the person soliciting is employed, contracted, or paid by an independent fund raiser.

(5) If the charitable organization is associated with, or has a name that is similar to, any unit of government each person or organization soliciting contributions shall disclose to each person solicited whether the charitable organization is or is not part of any unit of government and the true nature of its relationship to the unit of government.

(6) A charitable organization shall comply with all local governmental regulations ((which) that apply to soliciting for or on behalf of charitable organizations(;;).

((3)) (7) The advertising material and the general promotional plan for a solicitation shall not be false, misleading, or deceptive, and shall afford full and fair disclosure((-and)).

((4)) (8) Solicitations shall not be conducted by a charitable organization or independent fund raiser that has, or if a corporation, its officers, directors, or principals have, been convicted of a crime involving solicitations for or on behalf of a charitable organization in this state, the United States, or any other state or foreign country within the past ten years ((and)) or has been subject to any permanent injunction or administrative order or judgment(;;) under ((the provisions of)) RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090, involving a violation or violations of ((the provisions of)) RCW 19.86.020, within the past ten years, or of restraining a false or misleading promotional plan involving solicitations for charitable organizations.

Failure to comply with subsections (1) through ((4)) (8) of this section is a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 227, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.09.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Charitable organizations and ((professional)) independent fund raisers shall maintain accurate, current, and readily available books and records at their usual business locations until at least three years ((shall)) have elapsed following the effective period to which they relate.

All contracts between ((professional)) independent fund raisers and charitable organizations shall be in writing, and true and correct copies of such contracts or records thereof shall be kept on file in the various offices of the charitable organization ((and/or professional)) and the independent fund raiser for a three-year period ((as provided in this section)). Such records and contracts shall be available for inspection and examination by the attorney general or by the county prosecuting attorney. A copy of such contract or record shall be submitted by the charitable organization or ((professional)) independent fund raiser, within ten days, following receipt of a written demand therefor from the attorney general or county prosecutor.

Sec. 13. Section 21, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the request of the attorney general or the county prosecutor, a charitable organization shall submit a financial statement containing, but not limited to, the following information:

- (1) The gross amount of the contributions pledged and the gross amount collected.
- (2) The amount thereof, given or to be given to charitable purposes represented together with details as to the manner of distribution as may be required.
- (3) The aggregate amount paid and to be paid for the expenses of such solicitation.
- (4) The amounts paid to and to be paid to ((professional)) independent fund raisers ((and solicitors)).

(5) Copies of any annual or periodic reports furnished by the charitable organization, of its activities during or for the same fiscal period, to its parent organization, subsidiaries, or affiliates, if any.

Sec. 14. Section 23, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 227, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.09.230 are each amended to read as follows:

No charitable organization, ((professional)) independent fund raiser, or ((professional solicitor shall)) other entity may knowingly use the name of any other person for the purpose of soliciting contributions from persons in this state without the written consent of such other person((-PROVIDED That)). Such consent may be deemed to have been given by anyone who is a director, trustee, other officer, employee, agent, ((professional)) or independent fund raiser((-or professional solicitor)) of the charitable organization.

A person may be deemed to have used the name of another person for the purpose of soliciting contributions if such latter person's name is listed on any stationery, advertisement, brochure, or correspondence of the charitable organization or person or if such name is listed or represented to any one who has contributed to, sponsored, or endorsed the charitable organization or person, or its or his activities.

Sec. 15. Section 24, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.240 are each amended to read as follows:

No charitable organization, (~~(professional)~~) independent fund raiser, or other person soliciting contributions for or on behalf of a charitable organization (~~(shall)~~) may use a name, symbol, or statement so closely related or similar to that used by another charitable organization or governmental agency that the use thereof would tend to confuse or mislead the public.

Sec. 16. Section 19, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Every ((person employed or retained as a professional fund raiser by or for a charitable organization)) independent fund raiser who (1) directly or indirectly receives contributions from the public on behalf of any charitable organization; or (2) is compensated based upon funds raised or to be raised, number of solicitations made or to be made, or any other similar method; or (3) incurs or is authorized to incur expenses on behalf of the charitable organization; or (4) has not been registered with the secretary as an independent fund raiser for the preceding accounting year shall execute a surety bond as principal ((in the amount of five thousand dollars)) with one or more sureties whose liability in the aggregate as such sureties will ((at least equal the said sum)) equal at least fifteen thousand dollars. The secretary may, by rule, provide for the reduction and reinstatement of the bond required by this section.

The issuer of the surety bond shall be licensed to do business in this state, and shall promptly notify the secretary when claims or payments are made against the bond. The bond shall be filed with the secretary in the form prescribed by the secretary. The bond shall run to the state and to any person who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond for any malfeasance ((or)), misfeasance, or deceptive practice in the conduct of such solicitation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any charitable organization, nonprofit fund raiser, or independent fund raiser who, after notification by the secretary, fails to properly register under this chapter by the end of the first business day following the issuance of the notice, is liable for a late filing fee of five dollars per day from the date of the notice until the registration is properly completed and filed. The late filing fee is in addition to any other filing fee provided by this chapter.

(2) The secretary shall notify the attorney general of any entity liable for late filing fees under subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 18. Section 14, chapter 222, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.275 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who wilfully and knowingly violates any provision of this chapter or who wilfully and knowingly gives false or incorrect information to the secretary, attorney general, or county prosecuting attorney in filing statements required by this chapter, whether or not such statement or report is verified is guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Any person who ((wilfully and knowingly)) violates any provisions of this chapter or who ((shall wilfully and knowingly)) gives false or incorrect information to the secretary, attorney general, or county prosecuting attorney in filing statements required by this chapter, whether or not such statement or report is verified, ((shall be deemed)) is guilty of a misdemeanor ((as provided in)) punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 106, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 222, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.030;

(2) Section 3, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.045;

(3) Section 5, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.050; and

(4) Section 14, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.069.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. To carry out this act, the sum of twelve thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the secretary of state from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1987, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1726.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1726 as amended by the Senate.

Mr. Locke spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Padden, Representative Locke's remarks were ordered spread upon the Journal.

Mr. Locke: "This is the charitable solicitation's bill and I wanted to take an opportunity to tell you some interesting points in the history of this bill. This bill originated from a great deal of exposure from the newspapers with the fraud that's perpetrated on the public by organizations purporting to be raising money for charitable purposes, when, in fact, a very small amount does go to a charitable purpose and much goes for salaries and overhead. This bill was the result of the Secretary of State's task force which recommended a great deal of disclosure and registration with the Secretary of State's Office. Various members of the House Judiciary Committee however felt that those proposals were not strong enough and perhaps police and firefighters had to be regulated more or restricted in their ability to call and ask for charitable solicitations. We, in the House Judiciary Committee made the requirement that all groups had to disclose the actual percentage of funds going to a charitable purpose. That passed through the House here with a great deal of support, but lo and behold, in the Senate of all groups, Washpurg and Fairshare tried to scuttle this bill and tried to claim exemptions from the requirements of disclosure on the grounds that they did not want it known to the public that their solicitors received a percentage or a commission of the money they solicited from the public. They, in fact, tried to kill this bill in the Senate, after first trying to be completely exempt, not only from the disclosure requirements, but also from the requirement that they have to file information with the Secretary of State's Office. I think it is extremely hypocritical and extremely disappointing for such organizations like Washpurg and Fairshare, which have always come to this legislature asking for more public disclosure and more input into government and more disclosure so that the public knew what was really going on, for them then to seek this type of exemption. I think it's a credit to the Senate and to the members of this body that we were able to defeat the hypocritical stand and position of Washpurg in this particular case. I urge your adoption and final passage of this bill."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1726 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Long, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Miller, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

Excused: Representatives Lewis, Patrick, Winsley - 3.

Substitute House Bill No. 1726 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1762 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1, Section 8, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 303, Laws of 1981 and RCW 88.16.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may pilot any vessel subject to the provisions of this chapter on waters covered by this chapter unless such a person is appointed and licensed to pilot such vessels on said waters under and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No person is eligible to be appointed a pilot unless such a person is a citizen of the United States, over the age of twenty-five years and under the age of seventy years and a resident of the state of Washington at the time of appointment, nor unless the pilot applicant holds as a minimum, a United States government license as a master of freight and towing vessels not more than one thousand gross tons (inspected vessel), such license to have been held by the applicant for a period of at least two years prior to taking the Washington state pilotage examination and a first class United States endorsement without restrictions on that license to pilot in the pilotage districts for which the pilot applicant desires to be licensed, nor unless the pilot applicant meets such other qualifications as may be required by the board.

(3) Pilots shall be licensed hereunder for a term of five years from and after the date of the issuance of their respective state licenses. Such licenses shall thereafter be renewed as of course, unless the board shall withhold same for good cause. Each pilot shall pay to the state treasurer an annual license fee established by the board of pilotage commissioners pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, but not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, to be placed in the state treasury to the credit of the pilotage account. The board may assess partially active or inactive pilots a reduced fee.

(5) On and after September 21, 1977, the board shall have developed five examinations and grading sheets for the Puget Sound pilotage district, and two for each other pilotage district, for the testing and grading of pilot applicants. The examinations shall be administered to pilot applicants on a random basis and shall be updated as required to reflect changes in law, rules, policies, or procedures. The board may appoint a special independent examination committee or may contract with a firm knowledgeable and experienced in the development of professional tests for development of said examinations. Active licensed state pilots may be consulted for the general development of examinations but shall have no knowledge of the specific questions. The pilot members of the board may participate in the grading of examinations. If the board does appoint a special examination development committee it is authorized to pay the members of said committee the same compensation and travel expenses as received by members of the board. When grading examinations the board shall carefully follow the grading sheet prepared for that examination. The board shall develop a 'sample examination' which would tend to indicate to an applicant the general types of questions on pilot examinations, but such sample questions shall not appear on any actual examinations. Any person who willfully gives advance knowledge of information contained on a pilot examination is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(6) All pilots and applicants are subject to an annual physical examination by a physician chosen by the board. The physician shall examine the applicant's heart, blood pressure, circulatory system, lungs and respiratory system, eyesight, hearing, and such other items as may be prescribed by the board. After consultation with a physician and the United States coast guard, the board shall establish minimum health standards to ensure that pilots licensed by the state are able to perform their duties.

(7) The board shall prescribe, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a number of familiarization trips, between a minimum number of twenty-five and a maximum of one hundred, which pilot applicants must make in the pilotage district for which they desire to be licensed. Familiarization trips any particular applicant must make are to be based upon the applicant's vessel handling experience.

(8) The board shall prescribe, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, such reporting requirements and review procedures as may be necessary to assure the accuracy and validity of license and service claims, and records of familiarization trips of pilot candidates. Willful misrepresentation of such required information by a pilot candidate shall result in disqualification of the candidate.

Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.103 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Pilots, after completion of an assignment or assignments which are seven hours or longer in duration, shall receive a mandatory rest period of seven hours.

(2) A pilot shall refuse a pilotage assignment if ~~((said))~~ the pilot is physically or mentally fatigued or if ~~((said))~~ the pilot has a reasonable belief that the assignment cannot be carried out in a competent and safe manner. Upon refusing an assignment as herein provided a pilot shall submit a written explanation to the board within forty-eight hours. If the board finds that the pilot's written explanation is without merit, or reasonable cause did not exist for the assignment refusal, such pilot may be subject to the provisions of RCW 88.16.100 ~~((as now existing or hereafter amended))~~.

(3) The board shall quarterly review the dispatch records of pilot organizations or pilot's quarterly reports to ensure the provisions of this section are enforced. The board may prescribe rules for rest periods pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is appropriated to the board of pilotage commissioners from the pilotage account of the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary. This money may be used by the board only to pay costs of investigating vessel incidents or accidents where a state-licensed pilot was involved and legal fees of the board."

In line 1 of the title, after "pilots;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 88.16.090 and 88.16.103; and making an appropriation." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1763 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 46.32.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 67, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The chief of the Washington state patrol (is hereby empowered to constitute, erect,) may operate, (and) maintain, or designate, throughout the state of Washington, stations for the inspection of school buses and private carrier buses, with respect to vehicle equipment, drivers' qualifications, and hours of service and to set ((a date, at a) reasonable times ((subsequent to the installation of such stations.)) when inspection of vehicles shall ((commence, and it shall be)) be performed.

(2) The inspection of private, common, and contract carriers with respect to vehicle equipment, drivers' qualifications, and hours of service shall be done in conjunction with weight enforcement under RCW 46.44.100.

(4) Inspections shall be ((in charge of)) performed by a responsible employee of the chief of the Washington state patrol, who shall be duly authorized ((as a police officer)) and who shall have authority to secure and withhold, with written notice to the director of licensing, the certificate of license registration and license plates of any vehicle found to be defective in equipment so as to be unsafe or unfit to be operated upon the highways of this state, and it shall be unlawful for any person to operate such vehicle unless and until ((the same)) it has been placed in a condition satisfactory to pass a subsequent equipment inspection((:)). The police officer in charge of such vehicle equipment inspection ((station)) shall grant to the operator of such defective vehicle the privilege to move such vehicle to a place for repair under such restrictions as may be reasonably necessary.

(5) In the event any insignia, sticker, or other marker (~~((should be))~~) is adopted to be displayed upon vehicles in connection with the inspection of vehicle equipment, (~~((the same))~~) it shall be displayed as required by the rules (~~((and regulations))~~) of the chief of the Washington state patrol, and it is a traffic infraction for any person to mutilate, destroy, remove, or otherwise interfere with the display thereof.

(6) It is a traffic infraction for any person to refuse to have his motor vehicle examined as required by the chief of the Washington state patrol, or, after having had it examined, to refuse to place (~~((a certificate of approval, or a certificate of condemnation))~~) an insignia, sticker, or other marker, if issued, upon (~~((his windshield))~~) the vehicle, or (~~((to))~~) fraudulently to obtain (~~((a certificate of approval))~~) any such insignia, sticker, or other marker, or to refuse to place his motor vehicle in proper condition after having had (~~((the same))~~) it examined, or (~~((to))~~) in any manner, to fail to conform to the provisions of this chapter.

(7) It is a traffic infraction for any person to perform false or improvised repairs, or repairs in any manner not in accordance with acceptable and customary repair practices, upon a motor vehicle.

Sec. 2. Section 46.32.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.32.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The chief of the Washington state patrol (~~((is empowered to provide))~~) may adopt reasonable rules (~~((and regulations))~~) regarding types of vehicles to be inspected, inspection criteria, times for the inspection of vehicle equipment, and all other matters with respect to the conduct of vehicle equipment inspections (~~((stations))~~).

~~((In the event that any municipality or other political subdivision of this state has installed and placed in operation any station for the inspection of vehicle equipment, the operation of such inspection station shall be in strict conformity with rules, regulations, procedure and standards of inspection prescribed by the chief of the Washington state patrol. The operation of such municipally owned vehicle inspection station shall be under the direction and supervision of the chief of the Washington state patrol and there shall be maintained and submitted as and when prescribed such records and reports as shall be required by the chief of the Washington state patrol.))~~

The chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and furnish such stickers, tags, record and report forms, stationery, and other supplies as shall be deemed necessary. The chief of the Washington state patrol is empowered to appoint and employ such assistants as he may consider necessary and to fix hours of employment and compensation.

Sec. 3. Section 46.32.040, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Vehicle equipment inspection shall be at such (~~((periodic))~~) intervals as (~~((shall be))~~) required by the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall be made without charge (~~((for such periodic inspection))~~).

Sec. 4. Section 46.32.050, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 68, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person employed by the chief of the Washington state patrol (~~((or by any municipality or other political subdivision, in))~~) at any vehicle equipment inspection station, to (~~((directly or indirectly, or in any manner whatsoever.))~~) order, direct, recommend, or influence the correction of vehicle equipment defects by any person or persons whomsoever.

It shall be unlawful for any person employed by the chief of the Washington state patrol (~~((or by any municipality or other political subdivision.))~~) while in or about any vehicle equipment inspection station, to perform any repair or adjustment upon any vehicle or any equipment or appliance of any vehicle whatsoever.

It shall be unlawful for any person to solicit in any manner the repair to any vehicle or the adjustment of any equipment or appliance of any vehicle, upon the property of any vehicle equipment inspection station or upon any public highway adjacent thereto.

Violation of the provisions of this section is a traffic infraction.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate or move, or for any owner to cause or permit to be operated or moved upon any public highway, any vehicle or combination of vehicles, which is not at all times equipped in the manner required by this title, or the equipment of which is not in a proper condition and adjustment as required by this title or rules adopted by the chief of the Washington state patrol.

Any vehicle operating upon the public highways of this state and at any time found to be defective in equipment in such a manner that it may be considered unsafe shall be an unlawful vehicle and may be prevented from further operation until such equipment defect is corrected and any peace officer is empowered to impound such vehicle until the same has been placed in a condition satisfactory to vehicle inspection. The necessary cost of impounding any such unlawful vehicle and any cost for the storage and keeping thereof shall be paid by the owner thereof. The impounding of any such vehicle shall be in addition to any penalties for such unlawful operation.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent the operation of any such defective vehicle to a place for correction of equipment defect in the manner directed by any peace officer or representative of the state commission on equipment.

Sec. 6. Section 46.32.070, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.32.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((in the event that any vehicle shall))~~ If a vehicle required to be inspected becomes damaged or deteriorated in such a manner that such vehicle ((shall have)) has become unsafe for operation upon the public highways of this state, it ((shall be)) is unlawful for the owner or operator thereof to cause such vehicle to be operated upon a public highway upon its return to service unless such owner or operator ((shall have presented)) presents such vehicle for inspection of equipment within twenty-four hours after its return to service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 46.32.030, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.32.030;

(2) Section 11, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.275; and in line 2 of the title, after "46.32.020," strike "46.32.030;"

(3) Section 37, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.276."

in line 3 of the title, after "RCW" insert "46.32.030," and after "43.131.275" insert ","

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1954 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 272, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.28.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the conditions set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the legislative body of any county or any city, is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax of not to exceed two percent on the sale of or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property: PROVIDED, That it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or to enjoy the same.

(2) Any levy authorized by this section shall be subject to the following:

(a) Any county ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this chapter shall contain, in addition to all other provisions required to conform to this chapter, a provision allowing a credit against the county tax for the full amount of any city tax imposed pursuant to this chapter upon the same taxable event((:)).

(b) In the event that any county has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, either pledged the tax revenues for payment of principal and interest on city revenue or general obligation bonds authorized and issued pursuant to RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 or has authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160, such county shall be exempt from the provisions of subsection (a), so long as, and to the extent that the tax revenues are pledged for payment of principal and interest on bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160: PROVIDED, That so much of such pledged tax revenues, together with any investment earnings thereon, not immediately necessary for actual payment of principal and interest on such bonds may be used for repayment either of limited tax levy general obligation bonds or of any county fund or account from which a loan was made, the proceeds from the bonds or loan being used to pay for constructing, installing, improving, ~~((maintaining, operating;))~~ and equipping stadium capital improvement projects ~~((to)), and to pay for any engineering, planning, financial, legal and professional services incident to the development of such stadium capital improvement projects, regardless of the date the debt for such capital improvement projects was or may be incurred.~~

As used in this subsection (2)(b), 'capital improvement projects' may include, but not be limited to a stadium restaurant facility, restroom facilities, artificial turf system, seating facilities, parking facilities and scoreboard and information system adjacent to or within a county owned stadium, together with equipment, utilities, accessories and appurtenances necessary thereto~~((and to pay for any engineering, planning, financial, legal and professional services incident to the development and operation of such stadium capital improvement projects))~~. The stadium restaurant authorized by this subsection (2)(b) shall be operated by a private concessionaire under a contract with the county((:)).

(c) No city within a county exempt under subsection (2)(b) of this section may levy the tax authorized by this section so long as said county is so exempt: PROVIDED, That in the event that any city in such county has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160, such city may levy the tax so long as and to the extent that the tax revenues are pledged for payment of principal and interest on bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160.

(3) Any levy authorized by this section by a county that has levied the tax authorized by this section and has, prior to June 26, 1975, either pledged the tax revenues for payment of principal and interest on city revenue or general obligation bonds authorized and issued pursuant to RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 or has authorized and issued revenue or general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of RCW 67.28.150 through 67.28.160 shall be subject to the following:

(a) Taxes collected under this section in any calendar year in excess of five million three hundred thousand dollars shall only be used for art and cultural museums.

(b) No taxes collected under this section may be used for the operation or maintenance of a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged. Expenditures for operation or maintenance include all expenditures other than expenditures that directly result in new fixed assets or that directly increase the capacity, life span, or operating economy of existing fixed assets.

(c) No ad valorem property taxes may be used for debt service on bonds issued for a public stadium that is financed by bonds to which the tax is pledged, unless the taxes collected under this section are or are projected to be insufficient to meet debt service requirements on such bonds.

(d) If a substantial part of the operation and management of a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged is performed by a non-public entity or if a public stadium is sold that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged, any bonds to which the tax is pledged shall be retired.

(e) The county shall not lease a public stadium that is financed directly or indirectly by bonds to which the tax is pledged to, or authorize the use of the public stadium by, a professional major league sports franchise unless the sports franchise gives the right of first refusal to purchase the sports franchise, upon its sale, to local government. This subsection (3)(e) does not apply to contracts in existence on the effective date of this 1986 section.

If a court of competent jurisdiction declares any provision of this subsection (3) invalid, then that invalid provision shall be null and void and the remainder of this section is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect April 1, 1986.*

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "1986;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 67.28.180; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 32 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts between employees, students, and the boards of regents or boards of trustees of the institutions of higher education in the state of Washington by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The boards of trustees of the state institutions of higher education are authorized to engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining representatives of their employees, as provided in this chapter: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter authorizes collective bargaining over class size: PROVIDED FURTHER, That faculty employees of four-year institutions who choose to establish collective bargaining units shall waive all tenure rights previously acquired: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boards of regents, the boards of trustees, and the exclusive bargaining representatives of the employees, shall mutually agree to the inclusion of a full-time undergraduate student in the collective bargaining process who shall have an equal decision-making role with the other participants. The boards of trustees shall not employ additional staff to engage in or administer collective bargaining agreements unless an employee organization has been properly designated as the exclusive representative under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Employee' means any employee of an employer, but shall not include the chief executive or administrative officers of the institution of higher education, confidential employees, casual employees, supervisors, or employees subject to chapter 28B.16 RCW.

(2) 'Casual employee' means any individual working in assignments of a limited scope or of a short-term or transitory nature so as to indicate that the individual does not share a community of interest with other employees of the institution or lacks an expectancy of continued employment. Medical residents and graduate students serving in graduate student service appointments are casual employees within the meaning of this section. An individual shall not be considered a casual employee within the meaning of this section solely by virtue of their status as a part-time employee.

(3) 'Confidential employee' includes:

(a) Any person who participates directly on behalf of an employer in the formulation of labor relations policy, the preparation for or conduct of collective bargaining, or the administration of collective bargaining agreements, if the role of the person is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of independent judgment; and

(b) Any person who assists and acts in a confidential capacity to such person.

(4) 'Supervisor' includes any individual having authority in the interest of an employer to hire, assign, promote, transfer, lay off, recall, suspend, discipline, or discharge other employees, to adjust employees' grievances, or to recommend effectively such action, if the exercise of the authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature but calls for the consistent exercise of independent judgment. A person is not included solely by reason of his or her membership on a faculty tenure or other governance committee or body. The term 'supervisor' includes only those persons who perform a preponderance of the acts of authority specified in this subsection.

(6) 'Collective bargaining' and 'bargaining' mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment. Collective bargaining shall be conducted during the periods outside the normal academic year and shall be completed within a period not to exceed two months in length. Service and activity fees as defined in RCW 28B.15.041, that portion of funds specifically designated for research grants, and endowments, fellowships, scholarships, or bequests whether from public or private agencies or donors shall not be a subject for bargaining. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

(6) 'Commission' means the public employment relations commission established under RCW 41.58.010.

(7) 'Employer' means the board of regents or board of trustees of each institution of higher education and includes any officer, board, commission, council, or other person or body acting on behalf of an employer.

(8) 'Employee organization' means any organization, union, association, agency, committee, council, or group of any kind in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of collective bargaining with employers.

(9) 'Exclusive bargaining representative' means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Prior to the effective date of this act, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(10) 'Institution of higher education' means each of the regional universities, community college districts, and The Evergreen State College and does not include the University of Washington and Washington State University.

(11) 'Person' means one or more individuals, labor organizations, partnerships, associations, corporations, employers, or legal representatives. In determining whether any person is acting as an agent of another person, so as to make such other person responsible for his or her acts, the question of whether the specific acts performed were actually authorized or subsequently ratified shall not be controlling.

(12) 'Unfair labor practice' means any unfair labor practice listed in section 9 of this act.

(13) 'Union security provision' means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay a representation fee equivalent only to their pro rata share of the costs of representation by the exclusive bargaining agent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Employees have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and also have the right to refrain from any or all of these activities except to the extent that employees may be required to make payments to an exclusive bargaining representative or charitable organization under a union security provision authorized in this chapter: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this chapter shall permit or grant any public employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his or her official duties.

Any public employee covered under this chapter shall not engage in any strike, work slowdown, or work stoppage. Employers may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin employee organizations from violating this act, to recover the actual damages sustained, together with the costs of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and the court may in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages sustained.

In the event of a strike or a refusal to perform duties, which is authorized, supported or overtly encouraged by an employee organization, the employee organization shall be monetarily liable to each student in an amount equal to the daily rate of tuition, for each day in excess of four, which are affected by such action or actions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Upon filing with the employer the voluntary written authorization of a bargaining unit employee under this chapter, the employee organization which is the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of the bargaining unit employee the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. Such employee authorization shall not be irrevocable for a period of more than one year. Such dues and fees shall be deducted monthly from the pay of all employees who have given authorization for such deduction, and shall be transmitted by the employer to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(2) A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a closed shop. The employer shall enforce any union security provision by monthly deductions from the salary of bargaining unit employees affected thereby and shall transmit such funds to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(3) An employee who is covered by a union security provision and who asserts a right of nonassociation based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall pay to a nonreligious charity or other charitable organization an amount of money equivalent only to their pro rata share of the costs of representation by the exclusive bargaining agent. The charity shall be agreed upon by the employee and the employee organization to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payments have been made. If the employee and the employee organization do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. In any dispute concerning the unit appropriate for collective bargaining or the allocation of employees or positions to bargaining units, the commission, after hearing, shall determine the dispute, taking into consideration the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the extent of organization among the employees, the community of interest among the employees, the desire of the employees, and the overall management structure of the employer including the interrelationships of divisions within the institution. Unnecessary fragmentation shall be avoided. All employees who are tenured or eligible to seek or be awarded tenure shall be included in the same bargaining unit at each institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The employee organization which has been designated by the majority of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit as their representative for the purposes of collective bargaining shall be the exclusive bargaining representative of, and shall be required to represent, all the employees within the bargaining unit without regard to membership in that employee organization: PROVIDED, That any employee may at any time present his or her complaints or concerns to the employer and have such complaints or concerns adjusted without intervention of the exclusive bargaining representative, and may request that the exclusive bargaining representative be given an opportunity to be present at that adjustment and to make its views known, and as long as the adjustment is made known to the bargaining representative and is not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement then in effect.

(2) The commission shall resolve any dispute concerning selection of a bargaining representative in accordance with the procedures specified in this section.

(a) No question concerning representation may be raised within one year following a certification or attempted certification.

(b) Where there is a valid collective bargaining agreement in effect, no question concerning representation may be raised except during the period not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the expiration date of the agreement: PROVIDED, That in the event a valid collective bargaining agreement, together with any renewals or extensions thereof, has been or will be in existence for more than three years, then a question concerning representation may be raised not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to the third anniversary date or any subsequent anniversary date of the agreement; and if the exclusive bargaining representative is removed as the result of such procedure, the collective bargaining agreement shall be deemed to be terminated as of the date of the certification or the anniversary date following the filing of the petition, whichever is later.

(c) An employee organization seeking certification as exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees, or bargaining unit employees seeking decertification of an exclusive bargaining representative, shall make a confidential showing to the commission of credible evidence demonstrating that at least thirty percent of the employees in the bargaining unit are in support of the petition. The petition shall indicate the name, address, and telephone number of any employee organization known to claim an interest in the bargaining unit.

(d) A petition filed by an employer shall be supported by credible evidence demonstrating the basis on which the employer claims the existence of a question concerning the representation of its employees.

(e) Any employee organization which makes a confidential showing to the commission of credible evidence demonstrating that it has the support of at least ten percent of the employees in the bargaining unit involved shall be entitled to intervene in proceedings under this section and to have its name listed as a choice on the ballot in an election conducted by the commission.

(f) The commission shall determine any question concerning representation by conducting a secret ballot election among the employees in the bargaining unit, except where the commission determines that a serious unfair labor practice has been committed which interfered with the election process and precludes the holding of a fair election, the commission may determine the question concerning representation by conducting a cross-check comparing the employee organization's membership records or bargaining authorization cards against the employment records of the employer.

(g) Where only one employee organization has qualified under (c) or (e) of this subsection, the representation election ballot shall contain a choice for that employee organization and a choice for no representation. The representation election shall be determined by the majority of the valid ballots cast.

(h) Where two or more employee organizations have qualified under (c) or (e) of this subsection, the representation election shall consist of two questions contained on the same ballot. The first question shall contain choices for and against organization of the bargaining unit under this chapter. The second question, to be counted only if the results of the first question indicate that organization of the bargaining unit has been chosen on a majority of the valid ballots cast, shall contain choices for each of the employee organizations qualifying under (c) or (e) of this subsection. The second question shall be determined by the majority of the valid ballots cast: PROVIDED, That where there are three or more choices on the ballot and none of the choices receives the vote of a majority of the valid ballots cast, a run-off election shall be conducted between the two choices receiving the highest and second highest number of votes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The commission shall adopt rules under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as it deems necessary and appropriate to administer this chapter, in conformity with the intent and purpose of this chapter, and consistent with the best standards of labor-management relations.

(2) The rules, precedents, and practices of the national labor relations board, if consistent with this chapter, shall be considered by the commission in its interpretation of this chapter, and before the adoption of any commission rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) It is an unfair labor practice for an employer:

(a) To interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed by this chapter;

(b) To dominate or interfere with the formation or administration of any employee organization or contribute financial or other support to it. An employer may permit employees to confer with it or its representatives or agents during working hours without loss of time or pay;

(c) To encourage or discourage membership in any employee organization by discrimination in regard to hire, tenure of employment, or any term or condition of employment, but nothing in this subsection prevents an employer from requiring, as a condition of continued employment, payment of a representation fee equivalent only to their pro rata share of the costs of representation by the exclusive bargaining representative under section 5 of this act;

(d) To discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because the employee has filed charges or given testimony under this chapter;

(e) To refuse to bargain collectively with the exclusive bargaining representative of its employees.

(2) It is an unfair labor practice for an employee organization or its agents:

(a) To restrain or coerce: (i) Employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in section 4 of this act, but this does not impair the right of an employee organization to prescribe its own rules for the acquisition or retention of membership in the organization; or (ii) an employer in the selection of its representatives for the purposes of collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;

(b) To cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an employee in violation of subsection (1)(c) of this section or to discriminate against an employee with respect to whom membership in such organization has been denied or terminated on some ground other than the failure of the employee to tender a representative fee equivalent only to their pro rata share of the costs of representation by the exclusive bargaining agent;

(c) To refuse to bargain collectively with the employer of employees for whom it is the exclusive bargaining representative.

(3) The expression of any views, argument, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under this chapter, if the expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The commission may prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice. This power shall not be affected by any other means of adjustment or prevention that has been or may be established by agreement, law, equity, or otherwise.

(2) A complaint charging unfair labor practices shall be filed within six months following the act or event complained of or discovery of such act or event complained of, whichever is later.

(3) The person or persons named as respondent in a complaint charging unfair labor practices shall have the right to file an answer to the complaint and to appear in person or otherwise to give testimony at the place and time set by the commission for hearing.

(4) If the commission determines that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any unfair labor practice, then the commission shall issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unfair labor practice and to take such affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes and policy of this chapter, including the reinstatement of employees with back pay.

(5) The commission may petition the superior court of the county in which the main office of the employer is located or where the person who has engaged or is engaging in the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of its order and for appropriate temporary relief.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Actions by or on behalf of the commission shall be under chapter 34.04 RCW, or rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The right of judicial review under chapter 34.04 RCW is applicable to all these actions and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Whenever a collective bargaining agreement between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative is concluded after the termination date of the previous collective bargaining agreement between the employer and an employee organization representing the same or a substantially similar bargaining unit, the effective date of the collective bargaining agreement may be the day after the termination date of the previous collective bargaining agreement, and all benefits included in the new collective bargaining agreement, including wage or salary increases, may accrue beginning with the effective date as established by this subsection.

(2) Any collective bargaining agreement may provide for all benefits, including wage and salary increases, to accrue beginning with the effective dates of any individual employee contracts covering employees in the bargaining unit for the same or related period.

(3) Any collective bargaining agreement may provide for the increase of any wages, salaries, and other benefits during the term of such agreement or the term of any individual employee contracts covering employees in the bargaining unit, if the employer receives, by increased appropriation, additional moneys for such purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The commission, through the executive director, may offer its mediation services in any labor dispute involving an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative, upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, when the dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(2) A person designated as a mediator in a labor dispute under this section shall meet with the representatives of the parties, either jointly or separately, and shall take other steps as he or she deems appropriate to persuade the parties to resolve their differences. A mediator shall not have power of compulsion.

The services of the mediator, including any per diem expenses, shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute at their own expense some other mediator or mediation procedure.

(3) If an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, then the employer may implement all or part of the employer's final offer without approval of the employee organization.

(a) The executive director shall provide the parties with a list of five persons qualified to serve as the neutral fact-finder. The parties shall without delay attempt to agree upon a fact-finder from the list provided by the commission or to agree upon some other person as a fact-finder. Upon the failure of the parties to agree upon a fact-finder within seven days after the issuance of the list, the commission shall, upon the request of either party, appoint a fact-finder. The commission shall not appoint as fact-finder the same person who acted as mediator in the dispute.

(b) The fact-finder shall promptly establish a date, time, and place to meet with the representatives of the parties and shall provide reasonable notice of the meeting to the parties to the dispute. The requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW shall not apply to fact-finding proceedings. The fact-finder shall make inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take such other steps as he or she deems appropriate. The fact-finder may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence.

(c) The fact-finder shall, within thirty days following the conclusion of the hearing, make written findings of fact and written recommendations to the parties as to how their dispute should be resolved. A copy shall be delivered or mailed to each of the parties to the dispute. A copy shall be filed with the commission. The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder are advisory only, however, the employer may implement all or any part of the fact-finder's recommendations without approval of the employee organization.

(d) The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder shall be held in confidence among the fact-finder, the employer, the exclusive bargaining representative, and the commission for seven calendar days following their issuance, to permit the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to study the recommendations. No later than seven calendar days following the issuance of the recommendations of the fact-finder, each party shall notify the commission and the other party whether it accepts or rejects, in whole or in part, the recommendations of the fact-finder. If the parties remain in disagreement following the expiration of the seven-day period, the findings and recommendations of the fact-finder shall be made public.

(e) The fees and expenses of the fact-finder shall be paid by the parties to the dispute, in equal amounts. All other costs of the proceeding shall be paid by the party incurring those costs. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or from agreeing to some other allocation of the costs of fact-finding between them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An employer and an exclusive bargaining representative who enter into a collective bargaining agreement may include in the agreement procedures for binding arbitration of the disputes arising about the interpretation or application of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to annul, modify, or preclude the renewal or continuation of any lawful agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an employee organization covering wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment. Where there is a conflict between any collective bargaining agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation of the employer or its agents, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges, or benefits granted by law to employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to interfere with the responsibilities and rights of the employer as specified by federal and state law, including the employer's responsibilities to students, the public, and other constituent elements of the institution: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this chapter shall permit or grant any employer the right to lock out its employees in connection with a labor dispute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. All agreements reached pursuant to this chapter shall contain the following clause: Implementation of any salary, compensation, and fringe benefit adjustment provided for in this agreement shall be consistent with legislative authorization and with any subsequent modification thereto.

No employer may grant salary, compensation, and fringe benefit increases from any fund source whatsoever in excess of the amount and or percentage, or in violation of the terms related to such salary and compensation increases, as may be provided for employees as set forth in the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the compensation is payable.

Sec. 19. Section 4, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.58.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation and fact-finding.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, he shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

(4) Final adjustment by a method agreed upon by the parties is declared to be the desirable method for settlement of grievance disputes arising over the application or interpretation of an existing collective bargaining agreement. The commission is directed to make its mediation and fact-finding services available in the settlement of such grievance disputes only as a last resort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.010;
- (2) Section 1, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 12, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.020;

- (10) Section 9, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.100; and
- (11) Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.200.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. PREAMBLE. The legislature finds that higher education is of the utmost importance to the continued social, cultural, and economic well-being of the people of Washington state.

The legislature also finds that salaries for full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty are below faculty salary levels at their peer institutions and that this situation is detrimental to attaining excellence in the education and training of our people.

The legislature recognizes that continued deterioration in faculty salaries will result from the inability to adequately address faculty salary disparities particularly in the retention and recruitment of the most able and meritorious faculty.

The legislature recognizes that efforts to address the problem of competitive faculty salaries will require the commitment of significant state resources for which other important programs will compete.

It is therefore the legislature's intent to reduce faculty salary disparities and achieve more competitive salaries for full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty at Washington state institutions of higher education as funds are available.

The legislature further intends that the salary increases which are provided by this chapter shall be based upon documented disparities in faculty salaries relative to those at peer institutions and be distributed within each institution on the basis of evidence of each faculty member's contribution to the profession, the institution, and the community.

The legislature intends that the salary increases which are provided by this chapter shall not be distributed on an across-the-board basis.

In as much as there is a lack of information concerning the salary disparity between community college faculty and their counterparts in other states, the legislature also intends to establish an objective measure of competitive salaries for community college faculty. The legislature finds it necessary to conduct a national survey of community college faculty salaries which will be the basis for determining competitive salary levels for community colleges in Washington state.

The legislature further finds that in addition to the critical issue of faculty salaries, there is substantial need for additional funding in the areas of student scholarships, student loans, and enhancement of undergraduate education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Washington state institutions of higher education' means the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and all community college districts within the jurisdiction of the state board for community college education.

(2) 'Research institutions' means the University of Washington and Washington State University.

(3) 'Regional institutions' means Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, and The Evergreen State College.

(4) 'Peer institutions' means those institutions most comparable to Washington's public institutions of higher education, including Washington's community college system, as determined by the office of financial management on the basis of similarity in role and mission, undergraduate or graduate education emphasis, research emphasis, program offerings at the doctorate, masters, professional, bachelors, and associate degree levels, and institutional size.

(5) 'Peer institution groups' means (a) for the University of Washington: The University of Arizona, the University of California at Berkeley, the University of California at Los Angeles, the University of Illinois, the University of Iowa, the University of Michigan, the University of North Carolina, and the University of Oregon; (b) for Washington State University: The University of California at Davis, the University of California at Santa Barbara, the University of Illinois, Purdue University, Iowa State University, Michigan State University, North Carolina State University, and Oregon State University; and (c) for the regional universities and The Evergreen State College: Northern Arizona University, California State University at Chico, California State University at Hayward, Western Illinois University, Northern Michigan University, Western Carolina University, and Portland State University.

(6) 'Faculty salary disparity' means, for each Washington institution of higher education, the extent to which average salaries for its eligible faculty are below the average salaries received by full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty at its designated peer institutions.

(7) 'Eligible faculty' means full-time state-funded teaching and research faculty including primary support personnel who are appointed with a faculty title and paid a full-time equivalent salary.

(8) 'Merit' means excellence in performance, consistent with the role and mission of each respective institution and its individual colleges, schools, and departments as evidenced by (a) evaluations of teaching effectiveness, (b) contribution to the institution and its students, the profession, and the community, and (c) where applicable, the professional recognition of research and publications.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. APPLICATION OF CHAPTER. This chapter applies only to eligible faculty at Washington state institutions of higher education.

This chapter shall not prevent the granting of salary increases, on terms consistent with this chapter, to research faculty supported by moneys other than state funds at Washington institutions of higher education if sufficient moneys exist to support the increases.

This chapter shall not preclude eligible faculty from receiving general salary increases granted by the legislature to state employees through the normal appropriations process, but these general salary increases shall be fully recognized by the office of financial management or the higher education coordinating board, or both, in updating reports of faculty salary disparities at each Washington institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. PEER GROUP COMPARISONS. The office of financial management shall annually identify the faculty salary disparities between Washington state's research and regional institutions of higher education and their respective peer institutions. The office of financial management shall report these disparities no later than January 15, 1987, and no later than January 15 of each subsequent year. The office of financial management shall concurrently identify and report the level of appropriation from the higher education improvement account necessary to eliminate the faculty salary disparities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. COMMUNITY COLLEGE SURVEY. The office of financial management, in conjunction with the higher education coordinating board, shall conduct, or designate a recognized consulting firm to conduct, a national survey to determine average salaries for full-time instructional faculty at a representative sample of two-year institutions of higher education in other states. The sample shall be constructed to reflect, to the greatest extent possible, the nature and composition of Washington state's community college system, with particular emphasis given to similarity in (1) degree and program offerings; (2) enrollment levels; (3) types of communities served; and (4) degree of reliance on state funding. Based on the findings of this survey, the office of financial management shall prepare a report no later than January 15, 1987, and no later than January 15 of each subsequent year, that identifies the faculty salary disparity for Washington state's community college system. The report shall also identify the level of appropriation necessary to eliminate the community college faculty salary disparity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. DISTRIBUTION PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR FOUR-YEAR INSTITUTIONS. Each research and regional institution shall submit to the higher education coordinating board by March 15, 1987, and by March 15 of each subsequent year, a plan to distribute, solely on the basis of merit, the moneys provided under this chapter to their eligible faculty. Each plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of the institution and its colleges and schools, provide for the involvement of faculty in assessing merit, and be specific to each college and school within the institution. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by college and school and professorial rank shall be prepared to support and accompany each plan. For The Evergreen State College, the faculty disparities shall be identified to major disciplines or departments and by an appropriate proxy for professorial rank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. DISTRIBUTION PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGES. The state board for community college education shall submit to the higher education coordinating board by March 15, 1987, and by March 15 of each subsequent year, a plan to distribute, solely on the basis of merit, the moneys provided by this chapter to their eligible faculty. The plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of the community college system and each individual community college, provide for faculty involvement in assessing merit, and be specific to each community college. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by college and major instructional department shall be prepared to support and accompany the plan.

Each community college district shall submit a plan to the state board for community college education to distribute the moneys provided by this chapter to their eligible faculty on the basis of documented objective merit procedures developed and adopted by each district with the participation of the district's faculty. Each plan shall be consistent with the role and mission of each community college, provide for faculty involvement in assessing merit, and be specific to major instructional departments within each community college. Evidence which documents faculty salary disparities by major instructional department shall be prepared to support and accompany each plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF PLANS. The higher education coordinating board shall review the plans submitted by the state board for community college education and each research and regional institution to certify whether each plan meets the requirements and intent of this chapter. By April 15, 1987, and by April 15 of each subsequent year, the higher education coordinating board shall approve only those plans which meet the requirements of this chapter.

If any institution's distribution plan is not submitted to the higher education coordinating board by March 15 of any year, or if the institution's plan has not been approved by the higher education coordinating board by April 15 of that year, the office of financial management shall retain in the higher education improvement account that portion of the appropriated moneys the institution would have otherwise received from the account. By September 15, 1987, and by September 15 of each subsequent year, each institution and the state board for community college education shall report to the higher education coordinating board on how their respective plan was implemented. The report shall specify the salary adjustments received by the eligible faculty of each school and college and be detailed by department and professorial rank within each school and college.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. REPORTS ON IMPLEMENTATION. By November 15, 1987, and by November 15 of each subsequent year, the higher education coordinating board shall submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives a report that documents the extent to which the faculty salary adjustments at each Washington state institution of higher education are being implemented in conformance with the plans approved by the higher education coordinating board. The report shall specify the salary adjustments received at each institution and shall provide detail on the distribution of these adjustments by the schools and colleges at each institution, including the distributions to major instructional departments by professorial rank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. HIGHER EDUCATION IMPROVEMENT ACCOUNT. (1) The higher education improvement account is hereby created in the state treasury. The account shall only be used as provided in this chapter.

(2) Moneys in the account shall be subject to legislative appropriation according to the following priorities:

(a) Not less than twenty percent of the moneys in the account shall be used for student scholarships, student loans, and the enhancement of undergraduate education according to the annual plan submitted to the legislature by the board under this chapter.

(b) As much of the moneys in the account as needed that remain after distribution under (a) of this subsection shall be used to fund faculty salaries to bring them as close as funds in the account permit to the average salary of each institution's peer group.

(3) Funding levels attained for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section shall be maintained in succeeding years from the account and not from the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Consideration' means all proceeds received, whether in cash, credits, or property, of any kind or nature, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or services, or other costs, interest, or discount allowed, or any other expense whatsoever, except that deductions are allowed for returned merchandise.

(2) 'Department' means the department of revenue.

(3) 'Motor vehicle' means all vehicles, engines, machines, or mechanical contrivances which are propelled by internal combustion engines or motors.

(4) 'Oil company' means every corporation, association, joint-stock association, partnership, limited partnership, copartnership, natural individual or individuals, and any business conducted by a trustee or trustees wherein evidence of ownership is evidenced by certificate or written instrument, formed for or engaged in the sale or the importation of petroleum products within this state.

(5) 'Person' means any oil company subject to tax under this chapter.

(6) 'Petroleum products' means any product of the industrial processing of crude oil and its fractionation products manufactured or refined or used for the generation of power used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel motor vehicles of any kind or character on the public highways. Petroleum products include but are not limited to gasoline, diesel fuel, kerosene, propane, and any other product of crude oil used for such purpose. Petroleum products do not include any product used for residential heating purposes or in the generation of electricity by a public utility or municipality.

(7) 'Petroleum revenue' means all consideration derived from the first sale of petroleum products otherwise subject to liquid fuel taxes to wholesale or retail dealers in this state for marketing and distribution or to a direct user. If the consideration derived from the sale to a wholesale dealer includes federal gasoline taxes, the taxes shall not be considered a part of the petroleum revenue. If no consideration is received or if the transaction involves a person owned or controlled by the selling entity or a division within the selling entity and the consideration does not reflect the consideration which would have been received in an arm's length transaction with an unrelated person, then the selling entity shall be deemed to have received from such sale revenue equal to the consideration it would have received in an arm's length transaction with an unrelated person. Receipts from the sale of petroleum products are allocable to this state if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser located within this state regardless of the F.O.B. point or other conditions of the sale. The importation of petroleum products into this state upon which this tax has not been imposed or collected shall constitute a sale within this state and the importing purchaser shall be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter. Subsequent exportation of these imported products from the state shall constitute a deduction from taxable revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. (1) Every oil company incorporated or organized now or hereafter by or under any law of this state or of any other state or territory or by the United States or any foreign government or dependency, and doing business in this state, shall pay an excise tax of one percent of its petroleum revenues for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchise or of doing business, or of employing capital, or of owning or leasing property in this state in a corporate or organized capacity, or of maintaining an office in this state, or of having employees in this state, for all or any part of any calendar year.

(2) The tax imposed by this chapter is in addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter or any other statute and shall not be permitted as a deduction in calculating any other tax imposed by the state.

(3) The tax imposed by this chapter automatically preempts any like tax or any tax on the privilege of processing or refining any petroleum product taxable under this chapter or any other refined product of crude oil imposed by any political subdivision of this state. This preemption does not extend to any local or personal or real property tax of general application or to any tax imposed by the state.

(4) The department may require purchasers of petroleum products to provide the selling oil company with documentation in such form and under such terms and conditions as the department may prescribe to substantiate any portion of its purchases which are or will be used for a nontaxable purpose.

(5) If at the time of a sale or importation of petroleum products by an oil company it cannot be reasonably determined whether the products will be used for a taxable purpose, it is presumed that the products are being used for a taxable purpose. The department may provide, in such form and under such terms as it may prescribe, a credit against any tax due and payable for any subsequent month upon submission to the department of such proof as it may require that any products presumed taxable were ultimately used for a nontaxable purpose.

(6) Any purchaser of petroleum products for a nontaxable purpose who provides documentation to an oil company pursuant to subsections (4) and (5) of this section and who subsequently sells or uses those products for a taxable purpose shall be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter.

(7) The department may provide, in any case in which the purchaser is unable to provide documentation that petroleum products are used for a nontaxable purpose, for the payment of a credit based on the average wholesale price of petroleum products determined pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

(8) Any purchaser from an oil company subject to tax under this chapter who intentionally provides an oil company with false or fraudulent proof of the ultimate use of petroleum products, which enables that oil company to obtain a credit or exemption to which it is not entitled, or who directly receives a credit for taxes paid, is liable to pay to the department two hundred percent of the credit so obtained, plus interest at the rate of eighteen percent per annum.

(9) Any purchaser or user of petroleum products may, upon application to and approval by the department, elect to be deemed an oil company for the purposes of this chapter and to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter. Any purchaser or user electing to be taxed as an oil company may acquire petroleum products without the imposition of tax upon the supplier of the petroleum products.

(10) The tax imposed by this chapter shall be collected once on any petroleum products sold or used in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 35. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the taxes imposed in this chapter, including RCW 82.32.045 on reports and returns.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 36. (1) The governor, or the governor's authorized representative, is hereby vested with authority to confer with the governor and the authorized representatives of other states with respect to reciprocal collection between this state and such other states of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(2) The governor, or the governor's representative, is authorized to join with such authorities of other states to conduct joint investigations, exchange information, hold joint hearings, and enter into compacts or interstate agreements with such other states to accomplish uniform reciprocal collection between those states who are parties to any compact or interstate agreement and this state of the tax imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 37. The department shall administer this chapter and is authorized to make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of taxes imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 38. All taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by this chapter shall be deposited in the higher education improvement account.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 39. APPROPRIATION. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the higher education improvement account to the office of financial management to conduct the community college survey required in section 27 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. CAPTIONS. Section captions as used in this chapter do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 41. LEGISLATIVE DIRECTIVE. (1) Sections 23 through 32 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

(2) Sections 33 through 38 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 42. EFFECTIVE DATE. This act shall take effect July 1, 1986.*

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "28B.52.200;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new chapters to Title 28B RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 82 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Wang moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

Representatives Vander Stoep, S. Wilson and Isaacson opposed the motion, and Representatives Wang and Sayan spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Vander Stoep again opposed the motion.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 48; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 47.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Zellinsky - 48.

Excused: Representatives Lewis, Patrick, Winsley - 3.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Smitherman, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the motion not to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 failed.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, according to Reed's Rule 250, it is now the declaration of the Chair as to what the final action has been by this body since the prevailing side was do not concur. Could we have that ruling?"

The Speaker: "Your point is well taken at this point. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32, the motion to not concur having failed to receive the votes, the House has concurred in the Senate amendments."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Smitherman moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the House failed to pass the motion to not concur in the Senate amendments and ask for a conference thereon.

MOTION

Mr. G. Nelson moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 be laid on the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, the motion to lay on the table, in my opinion, would be out of order--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "His first remarks addressed the motion, not the point of order."

The Speaker: "He did say, 'Point of Order,' that's why I recognized him. What is your point of order, Representative O'Brien?"

Mr. O'Brien: "My point of order, Mr. Speaker, is Reed's Rule 247 speaks of motions relating to agreement or disagreement between two houses. It spells out the motions in their order, and in no way does it say that the motion to lay on the table would be in order."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative O'Brien, Rule 16 speaks to the question of reconsideration. It is a privilege motion; it has a higher rank than a subsidiary motion, of second rank, to lay on the table. Therefore, your point is well taken.

"The question before the House is the motion to reconsider the vote by which the House defeated the motion to not concur. That is the question."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on motion for reconsideration of the vote by which the House failed to pass the motion not to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 47; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Brekke, Bristow, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, and Mr. Speaker - 48.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Braddock, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Kremen, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Zellinsky - 47.

Excused: Representatives Lewis, Patrick, Winsley - 3.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. J. King, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 was deferred.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1447 with the following amendments:

On page 3, after line 35, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Refuse collection business' means every person who receives waste for transfer, storage, or disposal including but not limited to all collection services, public or private dumps, transfer stations, and similar operations.

(2) 'Person' shall have the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030 or any later, superseding section.

(3) 'Waste' means garbage, trash, rubbish, or other material discarded as worthless or not economically viable for further use. The term does not include hazardous or toxic waste nor does it include material collected primarily for recycling or salvage.

(4) 'Taxpayer' means that person upon whom the refuse collection tax is imposed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax, or in the alternative has not notified the taxpayer in writing of the imposition of the tax, or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

To be eligible for this exemption, a person first must be certified by the department of revenue as a refuse collection business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department of revenue shall have the power to enforce the tax imposed in this chapter through appropriate rules.

Sec. 13. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(a) Railroad, express, railroad car, sewerage collection, light and power, and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent;

(b) Gas distribution business: Three and six-tenths percent;

(c) Urban transportation business: Six-tenths of one percent;

(d) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: Six-tenths of one percent;

(e) Motor transportation and tugboat businesses, and all public service businesses other than ones mentioned above: One and eight-tenths of one percent;

(f) Water distribution (~~and refuse collection~~) businesses(~~es~~): Four and seven-tenths percent.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Twenty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on water distribution businesses(~~(--seventy percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on refuse collection businesses--)~~) and sixty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on sewerage collection businesses shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 5 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "contracts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 39.04.010, 39.04.020, 39.04.050, 39.04.070, and 82.16.020; adding a new chapter to Title 82 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 39.04.090; and prescribing penalties." and the same is herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Haugen, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1447, and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Haugen, Hine and Brough as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1447.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1614 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 424, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

This act shall take effect on ~~((July 1, 1986))~~ January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature recognizes that a program to require a person to possess a valid driver's license as a prerequisite for the registration of motor vehicles can help improve highway safety in the state. The legislature also recognizes that such a program should be carefully analyzed and planned before implementation to ensure that it is as cost effective as possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislative transportation committee shall review the merits and costs of implementing the program established by chapter 424, Laws of 1985, including data on deaths and injuries caused by unlicensed drivers, and report back to the legislature prior to January 1, 1987.

Sec. 4. Section 46.08.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 26, Laws of 1983 and by section 1, chapter 77, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.01.140 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The county auditor, if appointed by the director of licensing shall carry out the provisions of this title relating to the licensing of vehicles and the issuance of vehicle license number plates under the direction and supervision of the director and may with the approval of the director appoint assistants as special deputies to accept applications and collect fees for vehicle licenses and transfers and to deliver vehicle license number plates.

At any time any application is made to the director, the county auditor, or other agent pursuant to any law dealing with licenses, registration, or the right to operate any vehicle upon the public highways of this state, the applicant shall pay to the director, county auditor, or other agent a fee of one dollar for each application in addition to any other fees required by law. Applicants for certificates of ownership shall pay to the director, county auditor, or other agent a fee of three dollars in addition to any other fees required by law. These additional fees, if paid to the county auditor as agent of the director, or if paid to an agent of the county auditor, shall be paid to the county treasurer in the same manner as other fees collected by the county auditor and credited to the county current expense fund. If the fee is paid to another agent of the director, the fee shall be used by the agent to defray his expenses in handling the application: PROVIDED, That an agent of the county auditor is entitled to an additional service charge of ~~((one dollar and seventy-five cents))~~ two dollars: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the fee is collected by the state patrol or the department of transportation, as agent for the director, the fee so collected shall be certified to the state treasurer and deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund. All such filing fees collected by the director or branches of his office shall be certified to the state treasurer and deposited to the credit of the highway safety fund.

Sec. 5. Section 12, chapter 380, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.01.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The county auditor, if appointed by the director of licensing shall carry out the provisions of this title relating to the licensing of vehicles and the issuance of vehicle license number plates under the direction and supervision of the director and may with the approval of the director appoint assistants as special deputies to accept applications and collect fees for vehicle licenses and transfers and to deliver vehicle license number plates.

At any time any application is made to the director, the county auditor, or other agent pursuant to any law dealing with licenses, registration, or the right to operate any vehicle upon the public highways of this state, excluding applicants already paying such fee under RCW 46.16.070 or 46.16.085, the applicant shall pay to the director, county auditor, or other agent a fee of one dollar for each application in addition to any other fees required by law. Applicants for certificates of ownership, including applicants paying fees under RCW 46.16.070 or 46.16.085, shall pay to the director, county auditor, or other agent a fee of three dollars in addition to any other fees required by law. These additional fees, if paid to the county auditor as agent of the director, or if paid to an agent of the county auditor, shall be paid to the county treasurer in the same manner as other fees collected by the county auditor and credited to the county current expense fund. If the fee is paid to another agent of the director, the fee shall be used by the agent to defray his expenses in handling the application: PROVIDED, That an agent of the county auditor is entitled to an additional service charge of ~~((one dollar and seventy-five cents))~~ two dollars: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the fee is collected by the state patrol or the department of transportation, as agent for the director, the fee so collected shall be certified to the state treasurer and deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund. All such filing fees collected by the director or branches of his office shall be certified to the state treasurer and deposited to the credit of the highway safety fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 5 of this act shall take effect at the same time as does chapter 380, Laws of 1985.

Sec. 7. Section 44, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 39, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.01.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of licensing is authorized to accept checks and money orders for payment of drivers' licenses, certificates of ownership and registration, motor vehicle excise taxes, gross weight fees, and other fees and taxes collected by the department, in accordance with ((regulations)) rules adopted by the director. The director's ((regulations)) rules shall duly provide for the public's convenience consistent with sound business practice and shall encourage the annual renewal of vehicle registrations by mail to the department, authorizing checks and money orders for payment. Such ((regulations)) rules shall contain provisions for cancellation of any registrations, licenses, or permits paid for by checks or money orders which are not duly paid and for the necessary accounting procedures in such cases: PROVIDED, That any bona fide purchaser for value of a vehicle shall not be liable or responsible for any prior uncollected taxes and fees paid, pursuant to this section, by a check which has subsequently been dishonored: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no transfer of ownership of a vehicle may be denied to a bona fide purchaser for value of a vehicle if there are outstanding uncollected fees or taxes for which a predecessor paid, pursuant to this section, by check which has subsequently been dishonored nor shall the new owner be required to pay any fee for replacement vehicle license number plates that may be required pursuant to RCW 46.16.270 ((as now or hereafter amended)).

(2) It is a traffic infraction to fail to surrender within ten days to the department or any authorized agent of the department any certificate, license, or permit after being notified by certified mail that such certificate, license, or permit has been canceled pursuant to this section.

(3) Whenever registrations, licenses, or permits have been paid for by checks that have been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment, a reasonable handling fee in an amount not to exceed ten dollars may be assessed for each such instrument. The director shall make rules allowing agents or subagents, appointed or approved by the director pursuant to RCW 46.01.140, to collect restitution, and where they have collected restitution, to retain the reasonable handling fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 46.01 RCW to read as follows:

No civil suit or action may ever be commenced or prosecuted against any county auditor, or against any other government officer or entity, or against any other person, by reason of any act done or omitted to be done in connection with the titling, licensing, or registration of vehicles or vessels while administering duties and responsibilities as an agent of the director of licensing, or as an agent of an agent of the director of licensing, pursuant to RCW 46.01.140. However, this section does not bar the state of Washington or the director of licensing from bringing any action, whether civil or criminal, against any such agent, nor shall it bar a county auditor or other agent of the director from bringing an action against his or her agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 8 of this act shall apply retroactively to all claims for which actions have not been filed before the effective date of section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 8 through 10 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 2 of the title, after "licenses;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.01.140 and 46.01.230; amending section 2, chapter 424, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); reenacting and amending RCW 46.01.140; adding a new section to chapter 46.01 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Walk moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1614, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Zellinsky: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on scope and object of the Senate amendment, please."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Zellinsky, the Speaker has examined Engrossed House Bill No. 1614 and the Senate amendment to that by the Committee on Transportation in the Senate. It's an act that deals with the prerequisite of the issuance of vehicle licenses. The Speaker has also examined the amendment and it also speaks to civil suits or actions that may be commenced or prosecuted against any county auditor or any government officer or entity against any other persons or any other actions and so forth. The Speaker has examined both the amendment and the underlying bill and the Speaker finds that the amendment broadens the scope and object of the bill and is, therefore, out of order. Your point is well taken. The body needs to know that if the motion does not pass, the bill must go to the House committee of origin."

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, is it possible for committees to have more meetings before sine die?"

The Speaker: "Yes."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Fisher, Walk and Van Luven as conferees on Engrossed House Bill No. 1614.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1399 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The sentencing guidelines commission shall study robbery of controlled substances and consider whether this type of robbery should be defined as a separate felony or whether additional sentencing enhancements are needed. The commission shall study the sentences for this type of robbery that have been imposed under the sentencing reform act. The commission shall deliver its recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.56.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 382, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.56.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions are applicable in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) 'Appropriate lost or misdelivered property or services' means obtaining or exerting control over the property or services of another which the actor knows to have been lost or mislaid, or to have been delivered under a mistake as to identity of the recipient or as to the nature or amount of the property;

(2) 'By color or aid of deception' means that the deception operated to bring about the obtaining of the property or services; it is not necessary that deception be the sole means of obtaining the property or services;

(3) 'Credit card' means any instrument or device, whether incomplete, revoked, or expired, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee for the use of the cardholder in obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value, including satisfaction of a debt or the payment of a check drawn by a cardholder, either on credit or in consideration of an undertaking or guarantee by the issuer;

(4) 'Deception' occurs when an actor knowingly:

(a) Creates or confirms another's false impression which the actor knows to be false; or

(b) Fails to correct another's impression which the actor previously has created or confirmed; or

(c) Prevents another from acquiring information material to the disposition of the property involved; or

(d) Transfers or encumbers property without disclosing a lien, adverse claim, or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, whether that impediment is or is not valid, or is or is not a matter of official record; or

(e) Promises performance which the actor does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed.

(5) 'Deprive' in addition to its common meaning means to make unauthorized use or an unauthorized copy of records, information, data, trade secrets, or computer programs;

(6) 'Obtain control over' in addition to its common meaning, means:

(a) In relation to property, to bring about a transfer or purported transfer to the obtainer or another of a legally recognized interest in the property; or

(b) In relation to labor or service, to secure performance thereof for the benefits of the obtainer or another;

(7) 'Wrongfully obtains' or 'exerts unauthorized control' means:

(a) To take the property or services of another; or

(b) Having any property or services in one's possession, custody or control as bailee, factor, pledgee, servant, attorney, partner, agent, employee, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or officer of any person, estate, association, partnership, or corporation, or as a public officer, or person authorized by agreement or competent authority to take or hold such possession, custody, or control, to secrete, withhold, or appropriate the same to his or her own unauthorized use or to the use of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto;

(8) 'Owner' means a person, other than the actor, who has possession of or any other interest in the property or services involved, and without whose consent the actor has no authority to exert control over the property or services;

(9) 'Receive' includes, but is not limited to, acquiring title, possession, control, or a security interest, or any other interest in the property;

(10) 'Services' includes, but is not limited to, labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment, the supplying of equipment for use, and the supplying of commodities of a public utility nature such as gas, electricity, steam, and water;

(11) 'Stolen' means obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion;

(12) Value. (a) 'Value' means the market value of the property or services at the time and in the approximate area of the criminal act.

(b) Whether or not they have been issued or delivered, written instruments, except those having a readily ascertained market value, shall be evaluated as follows:

(i) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft, or promissory note, shall be deemed the amount due or collectible thereon or thereby, that figure ordinarily being the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion thereof which has been satisfied;

(ii) The value of a ticket or equivalent instrument which evidences a right to receive transportation, entertainment, or other service shall be deemed the price stated thereon, if any; and if no price is stated thereon, the value shall be deemed the price of such ticket or equivalent instrument which the issuer charged the general public;

(iii) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation shall be deemed the greatest amount of economic loss which the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(c) Whenever any series of transactions which constitute theft, would, when considered separately, constitute theft in the third degree because of value, and said series of transactions are a part of a common scheme or plan, then the transactions may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said transactions shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with possessing stolen property and such person has unlawfully in his possession at the same time the stolen property of more than one person, then the stolen property possessed may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said stolen property shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(e) Property or services having value that cannot be ascertained pursuant to the standards set forth above shall be deemed to be of a value not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars;

(13) 'Shopping cart' means a basket mounted on wheels or similar container generally used in a retail establishment by a customer for the purpose of transporting goods of any kind;

(14) 'Parking area' means a parking lot or other property provided by retailers for use by a customer for parking an automobile or other vehicle.

Sec. 3. Section 9A.04.110, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In this title unless a different meaning plainly is required:

(1) 'Family or household members' means spouses, former spouses, adult persons related by blood or marriage, persons who are presently residing together or who have resided together in the past, and persons who have a child in common regardless of whether they have been married or have lived together at any time.

(2) 'Domestic violence' includes but is not limited to any of the following crimes when committed by one family or household member against another:

- (a) Assault in the first degree (~~((RCW 9A.36.016))~~) (section 4 of this 1986 act);
 - (b) Assault in the second degree (~~((RCW 9A.36.020))~~) (section 5 of this 1986 act);
 - (c) (~~((Simple))~~) Assault (~~((RCW 9A.36.040))~~) in the third degree (section 6 of this 1986 act);
 - (d) Assault in the fourth degree (section 7 of this 1986 act);
 - (e) Reckless endangerment (RCW 9A.36.050);
 - ~~((f))~~ (f) Coercion (RCW 9A.36.070);
 - ~~((g))~~ (g) Burglary in the first degree (RCW 9A.52.020);
 - ~~((h))~~ (h) Burglary in the second degree (RCW 9A.52.030);
 - ~~((i))~~ (i) Criminal trespass in the first degree (RCW 9A.52.070);
 - ~~((j))~~ (j) Criminal trespass in the second degree (RCW 9A.52.080);
 - ~~((k))~~ (k) Malicious mischief in the first degree (RCW 9A.48.070);
 - ~~((l))~~ (l) Malicious mischief in the second degree (RCW 9A.48.080);
 - ~~((m))~~ (m) Malicious mischief in the third degree (RCW 9A.48.090);
 - ~~((n))~~ (n) Kidnapping in the first degree (RCW 9A.40.020);
 - ~~((o))~~ (o) Kidnapping in the second degree (RCW 9A.40.030);
 - ~~((p))~~ (p) Unlawful imprisonment (RCW 9A.40.040);
 - ~~((q))~~ (q) Violation of the provisions of a restraining order restraining the person or excluding the person from a residence (RCW 26.09.300);
 - ~~((r))~~ (r) Violation of the provisions of a protection order restraining the person or excluding the person from a residence (RCW 26.50.060, 26.50.070, or 26.50.130);
 - ~~((s))~~ (s) Rape in the first degree (RCW ~~((9.79-170))~~ 9A.44.040); and
 - ~~((t))~~ (t) Rape in the second degree (RCW ~~((9.79-180))~~ 9A.44.050).
- (3) 'Victim' means a family or household member who has been subjected to domestic violence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 9A.36.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.36.010;
- (2) Section 9A.36.020, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 5, chapter 38, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess., section 9, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.36.020;
- (3) Section 9A.36.030, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 10, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 140, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9A.36.030;
- (4) Section 9A.36.040, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 18, chapter 263, Laws of 1984, section 8, chapter 303, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.36.040; and
- (5) Section 28A.87.140, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 61, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 318, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.87.140.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The enactment of section 9 of this act does not have the effect of terminating or in any way modifying any criminal liability in existence prior to the effective date of this act, nor affecting any proceeding instituted under the sections repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 4 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 9A.36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 3 through 10 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1986.

Sec. 13. Section 9A.04.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1985 and by section 19, chapter 455, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Prosecutions for the offenses of murder, and arson where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, committed by any public officer in connection with the duties of his office or constituting a breach of his public duty or a violation of his oath of office, and arson where death does not ensue, within ten years after their commission; for violations of RCW 9A.44.070, 9A.44.080, and 9A.44.100(1)(b), within seven years after their commission; for violations of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080, within six years after their commission; for bigamy, within three years of the time specified in RCW 9A.64.010; for all other offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, within three years after their commission; two years for gross misdemeanors; and for all other offenses, within one year after their commission: PROVIDED, That any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one, two, three, six, seven, and ten years respectively: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That where an indictment has been found, or complaint or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment, complaint, or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be extended by the length of time from the time of filing of such indictment, complaint, or information, to the time such indictment, complaint, or information was set aside.

Sec. 14. Section 9A.64.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.64.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of bigamy if he intentionally marries or purports to marry another person when either person has a living spouse.

(2) In any prosecution under this section, it is a defense that at the time of the subsequent marriage or purported marriage:

(a) The actor reasonably believed that the prior spouse was dead; or

(b) A court had entered a judgment purporting to terminate or annul any prior disqualifying marriage and the actor did not know that such judgment was invalid; or

(c) The actor reasonably believed that he was legally eligible to marry.

(3) The limitation imposed by RCW 9A.04.080 on commencing a prosecution for bigamy does not begin to run until the death of the prior or subsequent spouse of the actor or until a court enters a judgment terminating or annulling the prior or subsequent marriage.

(4) Bigamy is a class C felony.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 234, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The joint legislative committee on the criminal justice system shall survey and study crime prevention, the causes of crime, and how the administration of the criminal justice system impacts crime.

(2) The committee shall submit its findings and recommendations thereon to the governor, the legislature, and the judicial branch of state government. A final report shall be prepared and submitted by January 1, ~~((1986))~~ 1987, on which date the committee shall cease to exist.

(3) The committee shall conduct a study for the legislature to determine whether the sentencing reform act has addressed the high rate of minority incarceration in Washington. The committee shall determine whether there are significant statistical differences in the arrest, charging, conviction, and sentencing of minorities. The committee is also directed to determine the extent to which recommended prosecutor charging and plea bargaining guidelines set forth in the sentencing reform act are being followed around the state and whether uniform, mandatory standards should be adopted. The committee shall complete this report for the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 335, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.10.232 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The attorney general shall have concurrent authority and power with the prosecuting attorneys to investigate crimes and initiate and conduct prosecutions upon the request of or with the concurrence of any of the following:

~~((+))~~ (a) The county prosecuting attorney of the jurisdiction in which the offense has occurred;

~~((#))~~ (b) The governor of the state of Washington; or

~~((#))~~ (c) A majority of the committee charged with the oversight of the organized crime intelligence unit.

(2) Such request or concurrence shall be communicated in writing to the attorney general.

(3) Prior to any prosecution by the attorney general under this section, the attorney general and the county in which the offense occurred shall reach an agreement regarding the payment of all costs, including expert witness fees, and defense attorneys' fees associated with any such prosecution.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 5, chapter 346, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Commission' means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) 'Community corrections officer' means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) 'Community service' means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(4) 'Community supervision' means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(5) 'Confinement' means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(6) 'Conviction' means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(7) 'Crime-related prohibition' means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(8) (a) 'Criminal history' means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) 'Criminal history' includes a defendant's prior convictions ((or pleas of guilty)) in juvenile court if: (i) The ((guilty plea or)) conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); ((and)) (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant ((had not reached his or her twenty-third birthday)) was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(9) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

(10) 'Determinate sentence' means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through 'earned early release' can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(11) 'Drug offense' means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

(12) 'Escape' means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

(13) 'Felony traffic offense' means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

(14) 'Fines' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((+2)) (15)(a) 'First-time offender' means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

((+3)) (16) 'Nonviolent offense' means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(17) 'Offender' means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms 'offender' and 'defendant' are used interchangeably.

((+4)) (18) 'Partial confinement' means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

((+5)) (19) 'Restitution' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((+6)) (20) 'Serious traffic offense' means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

(21) 'Serious violent offense' is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

(22) 'Sentence range' means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a non-applicable sentence.

((+7)) (23) 'Sex offense' means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

(24) 'Total confinement' means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((+8)) (25) 'Victim' means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

((+9)) (26) 'Violent offense' means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, ~~((and)) vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;~~

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ~~((19)) (26)~~(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection ~~((19)) (26)~~ (a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:

(a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum;

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) The maximum term of confinement in a range may not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

~~(7) ((By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (6) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.~~

~~((8)) Every two years,))~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

~~((9)) (8)~~ The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

~~((10)) (9)~~ The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) At its regular session convening in 1983, the legislature shall enact laws approving or modifying either the standards recommended by the commission, or the additional list of standard sentence ranges consistent with prison capacity in the event an additional list has~~ been submitted pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040(6). The standards so adopted shall take effect on July 1, 1984:

(2)) Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years (~~and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted~~).

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) (~~and~~), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (~~other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.04.020~~), the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
 - (f) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution~~) and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, (~~restitution~~) a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of (~~any~~) a sex offense other than a violation of (chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.04.020 except) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions (~~of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.04.020~~) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment:

- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution~~;) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A-20-020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months ((6) for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1((3)) (RCW 9A.40.020))

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ~~((are))~~, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is ~~((computed in the following way:))~~ the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed 'other current offenses' within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((2)) (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

((3)) (10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior((s)) convictions as in subsection ((5)) (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

((4)) (11) If the present conviction is for ~~(Vehicular Homicide, only)~~ a felony traffic offense count ~~(the following crimes as part of the offender score:)~~ two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide~~(, Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500))~~. Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction); count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

~~(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.~~

~~((67)) (14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ((69)) (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~((68) If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.~~

~~(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.~~

~~(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~

~~(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.~~

~~(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.~~

~~The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.~~

~~The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.))~~

~~Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:~~

~~(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.~~

~~(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ((use)) rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ((and)) or admitted ((to or)), acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ((real)) facts shall be deemed ((proven)) proved at the ((evidentiary)) hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ((Real)) Facts that establish the elements of ((a higher crime;)) a more serious crime(;) or additional crimes ((cannot)) may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2), (c) and (d).~~

~~Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:~~

~~If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).~~

~~The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence(;). The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.~~

~~(1) Mitigating Circumstances~~

~~((1))~~ (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

~~((2))~~ (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

~~((3))~~ (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

~~((4))~~ (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

~~((5))~~ (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

~~((6))~~ (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

~~((7))~~ (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

~~((1))~~ (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

~~((2))~~ (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

~~((3))~~ (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

~~((d))~~ (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

~~((4))~~ (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify ~~((a))~~ a current offense as a major VUCSA:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d))~~ The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

~~((e))~~ (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

~~((f))~~ (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

~~((g))~~ (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

~~((h))~~ (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ~~((9.94A.400))~~ 9.94A.010.

~~(The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.)~~

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ~~((criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct))~~ if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ~~((in determining criminal history))~~. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's (~~prior convictions as~~) criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using (~~a criminal history~~) an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any (~~remaining~~) offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run (~~consecutively~~) concurrently with any felony (~~sentences previously~~) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court(;) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the (~~subsequent~~) current sentence expressly orders that they be served (~~concurrently~~) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, (~~this~~) that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimis Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((13)) below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
- (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

- (a) Charging a higher degree;
- (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and

(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

(1) Polygraph testing;

(2) Hypnosis;

(3) Electronic surveillance;

(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

(2) Statutory rape in the first degree is a class A felony. No person convicted of statutory rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except ~~((for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility))~~ under RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who, ~~((without lawful authority and))~~ with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, willfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ((to his own use)) any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

(2) A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

(3) Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

(4) Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 34. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 35. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.300; and

(2) Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.122.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 36. The sentencing guidelines commission shall consider methods of increasing sentence ranges for offenders who commit a series of physical or sexual abuse offenses. The consideration shall include, but not be limited to, the addition of an aggravating factor under RCW 9.94A.390, changes to the offender scoring rules under RCW 9.94A.390, and amendments to the criminal code. The commission shall consult with organizations concerned with child and sexual abuse as well as the Washington defender association, Washington association of prosecuting attorneys, and the superior court judges association. The commission shall present its recommendations to the 1987 legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 37. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 38. Sections 17 through 35 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "felons;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9A.56.010, 9A.04.110, 10.99.020, 43.10.232, 9.94A.030, 9.94A.040, 9.94A.070, 9.94A.120, 9.94A.190, 9.94A.310, 9.94A.320, 9.94A.330, 9.94A.360, 9.94A.370, 9.94A.390, 9.94A.400, 9.94A.410, 9.94A.440, 9A.44.070, 9A.56.080, 13.50.050, and 9.94A.110; amending section 2, chapter 234, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); reenacting and amending RCW 9A.04.080; adding new sections to chapter 9A.36 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 9A.36.010, 9A.36.020, 9A.36.030, 9A.36.040, 28A.87.140, 9.94A.300, and 9.94A.122; prescribing penalties; and providing effective dates."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1399 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, I would challenge the scope and object of the Senate amendments on this bill and ask for your ruling."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill No. 1399, which is 'An Act Relating to sentencing of adult felons....' the sentencing act of 1981, and the Senate amendments, the striking Senate amendment. The effect of the Senate amendment appears to deal with several additional subjects--robbery of controlled substances, business partnerships, minority prison population, etc. The Speaker finds, upon examination of the underlying bill and the Senate amendments thereto, that your point is well taken. The Senate amendments are beyond the scope and object of the original bill. The question before the House is the motion not to concur in the Senate amendments and request a conference thereon."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Locke: "Mr. Speaker, if the Speaker's ruling is that they are beyond the scope and object of the bill, is the proper motion simply then to not concur or should the motion include the request for a conference committee?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Armstrong has made the usual motion to not concur in the Senate amendments and ask the Senate for a conference thereon. Reed's Rule 240 provides it is appropriate to ask for a conference, 'Whenever a disagreement as to amendments between the two houses has reached such a phase that it seems likely to be final....' Whether we have reached such a phase will be determined by this vote. Your point is not well taken."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Prince: "Mr. Speaker, you ruled that the amendments were beyond the scope and object, which means that the Senate should take them away, therefore, we have nothing really to confer on. Right?"

The Speaker: "If for some reason the body wants possibly to have a conference on the underlying bill, they would vote with this motion. We did this earlier this evening. It's the same issue with the same point."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong: "Mr. Speaker, if this vote not to concur and to request a conference fails, what happens to the underlying bill?"

The Speaker: "That is a hypothetical situation, Representative Armstrong. Rule 12(C) states that in that particular case, the bill would go to the committee in the House of origin, which would be the House Committee on Judiciary."

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, would the proper motion under Rule 12(C) be simply to not concur, rather than do not concur and ask for a conference?"

The Speaker: "The Speaker will hold this under advisement and we will have a ruling for you tomorrow."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1593 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 21, after "membership" insert "or professional privileges"

On page 1, after line 23, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of social and health services shall not require a certificate of need for the commencement of obstetrical services by an existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020."

On page 1, line 1, after "facilities" insert "creating a new section" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTIONS

On motion of Ms. Brekke, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to page 1, line 21 of Substitute House Bill No. 1593.

Mr. Day moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendment to page 1, line 23 and the title amendment, and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brekke: "Mr. Speaker, I raise a question of scope and object on this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Brekke, the Speaker has examined the underlying bill, Substitute House Bill 1593, and has examined the Senate amendment on page 1, line 23. The underlying bill deals with standards and procedures for the considering of applications for staff membership or professional privileges. The amendment deals with the requirement for certificate of need. After examining both, the Speaker finds that the Senate amendment broadens the scope and object of Substitute House Bill 1593. Therefore, it is out of order. Your point is well taken."

The motion to not concur and ask the Senate to recede from the amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1593 carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. J. King, the House adjourned until 1:00 p.m., Sunday, March 9, 1986.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY

AFTERNOON SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Sunday, March 9, 1986

The House was called to order at 1:00 p.m. by the Speaker. The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives May, Van Luven and Winsley, who were excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Jennifer Sinner and Amy Weimer. Prayer was offered by Reverend Harold De Jong, Protestant Chaplain of St. Peter Hospital of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the preceding day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1399:

The House resumed consideration of the Senate message. For previous action, see Journal, 55th Day, March 8, 1986.

The Speaker: "The question before the House is the motion by Representative Armstrong that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1399 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

"Representative Padden has raised a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry as to whether the proper motion under Rule 12C would be simply to not concur rather than do not concur and ask for a conference. The Speaker would like to take a few extra moments to explain his ruling on this inquiry, because the rule in question, House Rule 12C, was amended this session which raises some issues that have not been presented to the body before.

"House Rule 12C prohibits Senate amendments which change the scope and object of House bills just as House Rule 12E proscribes House amendments which change the scope and object of the bill. Prior to this year, our House rules provided that when a Senate amendment to a House bill was beyond the scope and object of the bill, the bill would be referred to committee to take the same course as for original bills. Given the limited length of our legislative sessions, such a referral usually had the effect of killing the bill. House Rule 12C now provides that a motion to nonconcur may be adopted prior to referring the bill to committee, but should this motion fail, the bill would be referred to committee. The purpose of this rule change was to allow the body to keep bills alive while still respecting the Speaker's ruling on scope and object. Should this bill come back to us a second time, the Speaker's ruling on scope and object would still apply. In other words, an amendment which the Speaker has ruled beyond the scope and object of a bill under Rule 12C or under Rule 12E may not, at some later time, be adopted by the House.

"The amendment to House Bill 1399 which the Speaker ruled beyond the scope and object of the bill last night, was a striking amendment which contained many provisions, some of which changed the scope and object and some which did not. Should this bill go to conference and be before us again with language that changes the scope and object of the bill, the Speaker would rule the House could not adopt such language based on the scope and object ruling of last night. The only exception to this ruling would be the case where the two houses choose to grant the powers of Free Conference. At that point, where the question before the House is the adoption of a Free Conference Report, our House rules on scope and object are superseded by Joint Rule 8 which provides that a Free Conference Committee may consider new items within the scope and object of the title of the bill.

"Your parliamentary inquiry also raises the question as to whether or not it is proper to ask for a conference when making the motion to not concur in the Senate amendments. As the Speaker ruled last night, under Reed's Rule 240 as well as Reed's Rule 245, it is proper to ask for a conference at any time where a disagreement between the houses cannot be resolved through the concurrence/nonconcurrence process. The Speaker finds that the motion before us does not violate the purpose or the intent of House Rule 12C which prevents the House from concurring in or otherwise adopting language which changes the scope and object of the bill. Therefore, Representative Armstrong's motion is in order. I hope that this clarifies the Speaker's interpretation of this matter."

Mr. Armstrong spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Armstrong, Locke and Padden as conferees on Substitute House Bill No. 1399.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1337 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after the enacting clause, insert the following:

The committee may make grants of state funds to local governments which qualify as 'entitlement communities' under the federal law authorizing community development block grants. These grants may only be made on the condition that the entitlement community provide the committee with assurances that it will: (1) Spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which satisfies state constitutional requirements; (2) spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which would satisfy federal requirements (~~dealing with the entitlement community's spending of federal community development block grant funds, assuming the grant moneys were block grant funds received from the federal government~~); and (3) spend double the amount of the grant for loans to businesses from the federal funds received by the entitlement community (~~as community development block grant funds~~)."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On page 1, after the enacting clause, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state development loan fund committee is specifically authorized to operate as a licensed small business investment corporation under the provisions of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, Public Law 85-699, as amended, if it can qualify thereunder, and if the committee shall determine that such operation would reasonably serve to carry out the purposes of the operation of the fund.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(a) Is located within a distressed area and may reasonably be expected to increase employment or maintain threatened employment;

(b) Has been approved by the director as conforming to federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community development block grant funds;

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, and the employment of disadvantaged workers, will primarily accrue to residents of the distressed area;

(d) Will probably be successful;

(e) Would probably not be completed without the loan because other capital or financing at feasible terms is unavailable or the return on investment is inadequate.

(2) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

(3) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(4) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the committee shall not approve any application which would result in a loan or grant in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

(5) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

(6) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the 'greatest amount of employment or benefit' the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan.

(7) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

(8) The committee shall not approve any application to finance or help finance a shopping mall."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "committee;" insert "amending RCW 43.168.050; amending RCW 43.168.100; adding a new section to chapter 43.168 RCW;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Fisher moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1337.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Schoon: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to challenge the Senate amendments on scope and object of House Bill 1337."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined House Bill 1337, which deals with exempting the Washington State Development Loan Fund Committee from the conflict of interest act. The Senate amendment expands the duties of the Washington State Development Loan Fund Committee a number of ways, and in addition, it increases the limits of the loan grants to $700,000. After examining both, Representative Schoon, the Speaker believes the Senate amendments have, in fact, broadened the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken."

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Fisher, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1337 and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

Representative Van Luyen appeared at the bar of the House.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1339 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 441, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.27.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All parents in this state of any child eight years of age and under eighteen years of age shall cause such child to attend the public school of the district in which the child resides and such child shall have the responsibility to and therefore shall attend for the full time when such school may be in session unless:

(a) The child is attending an approved private school for the same time or is enrolled in an extension program as provided in RCW 28A.02.201(4);

(b) The child is receiving home-based instruction as provided in subsection (4) of this section; or

(c) The school district superintendent of the district in which the child resides shall have excused such child from attendance because the child is physically or mentally unable to attend school, is attending a residential school operated by the department of social and health services, or has been temporarily excused upon the request of his or her parents for purposes agreed upon by the school authorities and the parent: PROVIDED, That such excused absences shall not be permitted if deemed to cause a serious adverse effect upon the student's educational progress: PROVIDED FURTHER, That students excused for such temporary absences may be claimed as full time equivalent students to the extent they would otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.41.130 and 28A.41.140, as now or hereafter amended, and shall not affect school district compliance with the provisions of RCW 28A.58.754, as now or hereafter amended;

(d) The child is fifteen years of age or older and:

(i) The school district superintendent determines that such child has already attained a reasonable proficiency in the branches required by law to be taught in the first nine grades of the public schools of this state;

(ii) The child is regularly and lawfully engaged in a useful or remunerative occupation;

(iii) The child has already met graduation requirements in accordance with state board of education rules and regulations; or

(iv) The child has received a certificate of educational competence under rules and regulations established by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.135.

(2) A parent for the purpose of this chapter means a parent, guardian, or person having legal custody of a child.

(3) An approved private school for the purposes of this chapter shall be one approved under regulations established by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.04.120 as now or hereafter amended.

(4) For the purposes of this chapter, instruction shall be home-based if it consists of planned and supervised instructional and related educational activities, including a curriculum and instruction in the basic skills of occupational education, science, mathematics, language, social studies, history, health, reading, writing, spelling, and the development of an appreciation of art and music, provided for a number of hours equivalent to the total annual program hours per grade level established for approved private schools under RCW 28A.02.201 and 28A.02-.240 and if such activities are:

(a) Provided by a parent who is instructing his or her child only and are supervised by a certificated person. A certificated person for purposes of this chapter shall be a person certified under chapter 28A.70 RCW. For purposes of this section, "supervised by a certificated person" means: The planning by the certificated person and the parent of objectives consistent with this subsection; a minimum each month of an average of one contact hour per week with the child being supervised by the certificated person; and evaluation of such child's progress by the certificated person. The number of children supervised by the certificated person shall not exceed thirty for purposes of this subsection; or

(b) Provided by a parent who is instructing his or her child only and who has either earned forty-five college level quarter credit hours or its equivalent in semester hours or has completed a course in home-based instruction at a postsecondary institution or a vocational-technical institute; or

(c) Provided by a parent who is deemed sufficiently qualified to provide home-based instruction by the superintendent of the local school district in which the child resides.

(5) The legislature recognizes that home-based instruction is less structured and more experiential than the instruction normally provided in a classroom setting. Therefore, the provisions of subsection (4) of this section relating to the nature and quantity of instructional and related educational activities shall be liberally construed.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 201, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If a juvenile required to attend school under the laws of the state of Washington fails to attend school without valid justification recurrently or for an extended period of time, the juvenile's school, where appropriate, shall:

(1) Inform the juvenile's custodial parent, parents or guardian by a notice in writing in English and, if different, in the primary language of the custodial parent, parents or guardian and by other means reasonably necessary to achieve notice of the fact that the juvenile has failed to attend school without valid justification recurrently or for an extended period of time;

(2) Schedule a conference or conferences with the custodial parent, parents or guardian and juvenile at a time and place reasonably convenient for all persons included for the purpose of analyzing the causes of the juvenile's absences; and

(3) Take steps to eliminate or reduce the juvenile's absences(~~(including)~~). These steps shall include, where appropriate, adjusting the juvenile's school program or school or course assignment, providing more individualized or remedial instruction, preparing the juvenile for employment with specific vocational courses or work experience, or both, ((or) and assisting the parent or student to obtain supplementary services that might eliminate or ameliorate the cause or causes for the absence from school.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 201, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.022 are each amended to read as follows:

If action taken by a school pursuant to RCW 28A.27.020 is not successful in substantially reducing a student's absences from school, any of the following actions may be taken: (1) The attendance officer of the school district through its attorney may petition the juvenile court to assume jurisdiction under this chapter for the purpose of alleging a violation of RCW 28A.27.010 by the parent; or (2) a petition alleging a violation of RCW 28A.27.010 by a child may be filed with the juvenile court by the parent of such child or by the attendance officer of the school district through its attorney at the request of the parent. If the court assumes jurisdiction in such an instance, the provisions of this chapter, except where otherwise stated, shall apply.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.27.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 56, chapter 275, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

To aid in the enforcement of RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130, attendance officers shall be appointed and employed as follows: In incorporated city districts the board of directors shall annually appoint one or more attendance officers. In all other districts the educational service district superintendent shall appoint one or more attendance officers or may act as such himself.

The compensation of attendance officer in city districts shall be fixed and paid by the board appointing him. The compensation of attendance officers when appointed by the educational service district superintendents shall be paid by the respective districts. An educational service district superintendent shall receive no extra compensation if acting as attendance officer.

Any sheriff, constable, city marshal or regularly appointed policeman may be appointed attendance officer.

The attendance officer shall be vested with police powers, the authority to make arrests and serve all legal processes contemplated by RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130, and shall have authority to enter all places in which children may be employed, for the purpose of making such investigations as may be necessary for the enforcement of RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130. The attendance officer is authorized to take into custody the person of any child eight years of age and not over fourteen years of age, who may be a truant from school, and to conduct such child to his parents, for investigation and explanation, or to the school which he should properly attend. The attendance officer shall institute proceedings against any officer, parent, guardian, person, company or corporation violating any provisions of RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130, and shall otherwise discharge the duties prescribed in RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130, and shall perform such other services as the educational service district superintendent or the superintendent of any school or its board of directors may deem necessary. However, the attendance officer shall not institute proceedings against the child under RCW 28A.27.022 except as set forth under RCW 28A.27.022.

The attendance officer shall keep a record of his transactions for the inspection and information of any school district board of directors, the educational service district superintendent or the city superintendent, and shall make a detailed report to the city superintendent or the educational service district superintendent as often as the same may be required.

Sec. 5. Section 28A.27.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 201, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person violating any of the provisions of either RCW 28A.27.010 or 28A.27.090 shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars for each day of unexcused absence from school. However, a child found to be in violation of RCW 28A.27.010 shall be required to attend school and shall not be fined. Failure by a child to comply with an order issued under this section shall not be punishable by detention for a period greater than that permitted pursuant to a contempt proceeding against a child under chapter 13.32A RCW. It shall be a defense for a ((person)) parent charged with violating RCW 28A.27.010 to show that he or she exercised reasonable diligence in attempting to cause a child in his or her custody to attend school or that the juvenile's school did not perform its duties as required in RCW 28A.27.020. Any fine imposed pursuant to this section may be suspended upon the condition that a ((person)) parent charged with violating RCW 28A.27.010 shall participate with the school and the juvenile in a supervised plan for the juvenile's attendance at school or upon condition that the ((person)) parent attend a conference or conferences scheduled by a school for the purpose of analyzing the causes of a child's absence.

Attendance officers shall make complaint for violation of the provisions of RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130 (~~by any person eighteen years of age or over~~) to a justice of the peace, justice court judge or to a judge of the superior court.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.27.110, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 201, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.27.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The county prosecuting attorney or the attorney for the school district shall act as attorney for the complainant in all court proceedings relating to the compulsory attendance of children as required by RCW 28A.27.010 through 28A.27.130 except for those petitions filed against a child by the parent without the assistance of the school district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The school district attendance officer shall report biannually to the educational service district superintendent, in the instance of petitions filed alleging a violation by a child under RCW 28A.27.022:

- (1) The number of petitions filed by a school district or by a parent;
- (2) The frequency of each action taken under RCW 28A.27.020 prior to the filing of such petition;
- (3) When deemed appropriate under RCW 28A.27.020, the frequency of delivery of supplemental services; and
- (4) Disposition of cases filed with the juvenile court, including the frequency of contempt orders issued to enforce a court's order under RCW 28A.27.100.

The educational service district superintendent shall compile such information and report annually to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall compile such information and report to the committees of the house of representatives and the senate by January 1, 1988."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "attendance," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.27.010, 28A.27.020, 28A.27.022, 28A.27.040, 28A.27.100, and 28A.27.110; and creating a new section." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 803 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Basic necessities of life' means food and shelter, and shall include clothing and health care under circumstances in which the clothing or health care are necessary to protect or preserve life.

(2)(a) 'Bodily injury,' 'physical injury,' or 'bodily harm' means physical pain or injury, illness, or an impairment of physical condition;

(b) 'Substantial bodily harm' means bodily injury which involves a temporary but substantial disfigurement, or which causes a temporary but substantial loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ, or which causes a fracture of any bodily part;

(c) 'Great bodily harm' means bodily injury which creates a probability of death, or which causes serious permanent disfigurement, or which causes a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ.

(3) 'Child' means a person under eighteen years of age.

(4) 'Dependent person' means a person who, because of physical or mental disability, is dependent upon another person to provide the basic necessities of life.

(5) 'Parent' has its ordinary meaning and also includes a guardian and the authorized agent of a parent or guardian.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the first degree if he or she recklessly causes substantial bodily harm to a child or dependent person by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the second degree if he or she recklessly either (a) creates an imminent and substantial risk of death or substantial bodily harm, or (b) causes bodily harm by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 2 and 3 of this act do not apply to a decision to withdraw life support systems made in accordance with law by a health care professional and family members or others with a legal duty to care for the patient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In any prosecution for criminal mistreatment because of a parent's failure to provide medical treatment for his or her child, it is a defense that the parent relied on treatment by spiritual means alone through prayer for healing in accordance with bona fide religious beliefs which were genuinely held by such parent, unless the parent had reasonable cause to believe that the life of the child was substantially and seriously threatened or that permanent physical damage could result to such child for failure to provide medical treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9A RCW."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 573 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 22, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 60.04 RCW to read as follows:

Any owner of real property subject to a recorded claim of lien under RCW 60.04.060, or the contractor or subcontractor who disputes the correctness or validity of the claim of lien may record, either before or after the commencement of an action to enforce the claim of lien, in the office of the county recorder or auditor in the county where the claim of lien was recorded, a bond issued by an insurance company authorized to issue surety bonds in the state, that is acceptable to the lien claimant and contains a description of the claim of lien and real property involved, and in an amount equal to the greater of five thousand dollars or two and one-half times the amount of the claim of lien if it is twenty thousand dollars or less, and in an amount equal to the greater of thirty thousand dollars or two times the amount of claim of lien if it is in excess of twenty thousand dollars. If the claim of lien affects more than one parcel of real property and is segregated to each parcel, the bond may be segregated the same as in the claim of lien. A separate bond shall be required for each claim of lien. The condition of the bond shall be to guarantee the payment of the judgment entered in any action to recover the amount claimed in a claim of lien, or on the claim asserted in the claim of lien. The effect of recording a bond shall be to release the real property described in the claim of lien from the lien and any action brought to recover the amount claimed. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, if no action is filed to recover on a claim of lien within the time specified in RCW 60.04.100 the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond. If such an action is timely filed, then on payment of any judgment entered in the action or on payment of the full amount of the bond to the holder of the judgment, whichever is less, the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 60.28 RCW to read as follows:

Every person, firm, or corporation furnishing materials, supplies, or equipment to be used in the construction, performance, carrying on, prosecution, or doing of any work for the state, or any county, city, town, district, municipality, or other public body, shall give to the contractor of the work a notice in writing, which notice shall cover the material, supplies, or equipment furnished or leased during the sixty days preceding the giving of such notice as well as all subsequent materials, supplies, or equipment furnished or leased, stating in substance and effect that such person, firm, or corporation is and/or has furnished materials and supplies, or equipment for use thereon, with the name of the subcontractor ordering the same, and that a lien against the retained percentage may be claimed for all materials and supplies, or equipment furnished by such person, firm, or corporation for use thereon, which notice shall be given by (1) mailing the same by registered or certified mail in an envelope addressed to the contractor, or (2) by serving the same personally upon the contractor or the contractor's representative and obtaining evidence of such service in the form of a receipt or other acknowledgement signed by the contractor or the contractor's representative, and no suit or action shall be maintained in any court against the retained percentage to recover for such material, supplies, or equipment or any part thereof unless the provisions of this section have been complied with."

In line 2 of the title, after "property;" strike "and" and after "4.16.300" insert "; adding a new section to chapter 60.04 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 60.28 RCW" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1479 with the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 20, strike all new language through "programs." on line 35 and insert:

"No program may be certified by the department in any county, where the county legislative authority has prohibited methadone treatment. Counties may license methadone treatment programs based on compliance with the department's treatment regulations under this section and section one of this act. Counties shall be authorized to monitor methadone treatment programs for compliance with the department's treatment regulations under this section and section one of this act. Any county legislative authority may limit the number of licenses granted in that county where such number is based on methadone programs per population provided that such number shall not be less than the number of clinics certified in such county as of the effective date of this act."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Brekke, the House concurred in the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1479.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1479 as amended by the Senate.

Ms. Leonard spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Leonard yielded to question by Mr. Locke.

Mr. Locke: "Representative Leonard, you're the prime sponsor of Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1479, and you participated in the drafting of the Senate amendments to which we concur. I have a question with respect to the language of that Senate amendment where it says, the counties 'may limit the number of licenses granted in that county where such number is based on methadone programs per population....' Do you mean by 'per population,' per general population?"

Ms. Leonard: "Yes."

Mr. Locke: "The effect of the Senate amendment deletes the amendment that I offered on the House floor and my amendment authorized counties to establish treatment standards more restrictive than the state standards. In negotiating and helping to write the Senate floor amendment which inserts the language on page 2, line 20, and which, in effect, strikes my amendment, is it your intent by this language that the counties may not impose stricter licensing standards than the state standards, other than limiting the number of licenses granted in the county?"

Ms. Leonard: "That is correct."

Representatives Brooks, Locke and Padden spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1479 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1505 with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 33 after "benefits," insert "No program participant shall be entitled to participate in the program more than nine months."

On page 5, beginning on line 16 strike all of section 11 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title strike "; and making an appropriation" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Smitherman, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to page 1, line 2 and page 5, line 16 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 1505.

Mr. Smitherman moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendment to page 3, line 33 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

Representatives Smitherman and L. Smith spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1598 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the sexual offender treatment programs at western and eastern state hospitals, while not proven to be totally effective, may be of some benefit in positively affecting the behavior of certain sexual offenders. Given the significance of the problems of sexual assault and sexual abuse of children, it is therefore appropriate to review and revise these treatment efforts.

At the same time, concerns regarding the lack of adequate security at the existing programs must be satisfactorily addressed. In an effort to promote public safety, it is the intent of the legislature to transfer the responsibility for felony sexual offenders from the department of social and health services to the department of corrections.

Therefore, on and after July 1, 1987, no person convicted of a felony sexual offense may be committed under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) to the department of social and health services at eastern state hospital or western state hospital. Any person committed before July 1, 1987, to the department of social and health services under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) and still in the custody of the department of social and health services on June 30, 1993, shall be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections. On and after July 1, 1987, any person eligible for evaluation or treatment under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) shall be committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In cooperation and consultation with the mental health division of the department of social and health services, the department of corrections shall develop a plan for the administration of a sexual offender treatment program. In developing the plan, the department of corrections may consult with private agencies providing counseling to sex offenders. The plan shall include:

- (a) Criteria to determine amenability to treatment;
- (b) A description of the structure and organization of the program and program options, including staffing requirements;
- (c) The treatment methods and the number and characteristics of offenders proposed to be served;
- (d) The selection of the location or locations of the program within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections, including identification of alternative sites within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections;
- (e) An analysis of a proposal to permit selected offenders to participate in the program only during the last two or three years of their term of confinement;
- (f) Program security;
- (g) Program costs;
- (h) A description of the mechanisms and procedures to be used to collect valid and reliable data on program completion rates, recidivism rates, and escape rates;
- (i) A method for tracking offenders who have been released which method can be used to determine the efficacy of the treatment program;

(j) An analysis and description of other treatment models; and

(k) Negotiations with the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees affected to provide preferential consideration for job retention, including but not limited to interagency transfer or promotion during the period of transition.

(2) Any consultation, information, or other services necessary for the development of the plan, shall upon request by the department of corrections be provided to the department of corrections by the department of social and health services, the legislative budget committee, the office of financial management, the administrator for the courts, and the data processing authority and shall be provided without charge to the department of corrections.

(3) The plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1987, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987, unless otherwise directed by law.

Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) ~~((and))~~; (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine ~~(; make restitution;)~~ and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, ~~((restitution;))~~ a term of community supervision not to exceed one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of ~~((any))~~ a sex offense other than a violation of ((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except)) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions ~~((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020;))~~ for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, ~~((make restitution))~~ accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recompense to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced before July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court ~~((for determination as to whether))~~. The sentencing court shall commit the offender ((shall be transferred)) to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

- (i) Crime-related provisions;
- (ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and
- (iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW (~~9A.20.020~~).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 3, chapter ... (ESHB 1598), Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
 - (f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced ~~((before)) on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, ~~((order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. The sentencing court shall commit the offender to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement)) request the department of corrections to evaluate whether~~ the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender (~~(successfully)~~), completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court (~~(may)~~) to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and (~~(may)~~) to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

(i) Crime-related provisions;

(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and

(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit existing on the effective date of this section or the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement existing on the effective date of this section until such agreement has expired or until any such bargaining unit has been modified by action of the state personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. During the remainder of the 1985-1987 biennium, upon authorization of the office of financial management, the department of social and health services shall reimburse the department of corrections as is necessary for the department of corrections to provide custody to those persons determined not to be amenable to treatment or those persons referred to court by the department of social and health services for failure to comply with the conditions of the program and committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 72.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this section only, "assault" means an unauthorized touching of an employee by a resident, patient, or juvenile offender resulting in physical injury to the employee.

(2) In recognition of the hazardous nature of employment in state institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse institutional care employees of the departments of social and health services and of veterans affairs for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of assault by residents, patients, or juvenile offenders. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(3) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of social and health services or director of veterans affairs, or the secretary's or director's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) A resident or patient has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained demonstrated physical injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work;

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment; and

(c) The department of labor and industries has approved the employee's workers' compensation application pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW.

(4) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(5) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(6) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (4) of this section for any workday for which the director, secretary or applicable designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(7) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the director, secretary or applicable designee, believes are justified.

(8) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(9) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, the employee shall continue to receive service credit under chapter 41.32 or 41.40 RCW, whichever is appropriate, and the respective employee and employer contributions to the retirement system shall also continue to be made, under the appropriate chapter, on the regular compensation the employee would have received had not the disability occurred.

(10) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the employing department. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(11) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.122 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 8 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 1 of the title of the bill, after "9.94A.120;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 72.01 RCW;"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1498.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Braddock: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a ruling on scope and object of the Senate amendments."

The Speaker advised the body that he would take the point of order under advisement for a later ruling.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1631 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm's-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor, such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or

(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.

(b) ~~((Subparagraph (4)))~~ The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. This subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving (a) of this subsection to apply alone to such transfers: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall apply to transfers of ownership of assets occurring prior to January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the depreciation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

(5) If the net book value of the assets in the nursing home as of January 1, 1985 is below one thousand dollars per licensed bed using the standard lives and methods as stated in RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370, the depreciation base shall be one thousand dollars per bed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the changes in the state reimbursement system for nursing homes, RCW 74.46.840, resulting from requirements of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, (DEFRA) (P.L. 98-369). The study shall include analysis of the effects of these changes on: (1) Nursing home sales since July 18, 1984, the effective date of DEFRA; (2) capital formation for nursing home purchases and sales; and (3) leased nursing homes. The study shall also review adjustments other states may be making as a result of DEFRA. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study, including recommendations for any needed legislation, to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If ownership of a nursing home is conveyed on or before October 1, 1984, pursuant to an agreement entered into after July 1, 1984, the agreement shall be deemed legally enforceable under state law for the purposes of property reimbursement under federal law notwithstanding the absence of a legal description of the property in the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "reimbursement," strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "74.46.360" insert "; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency"

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Braddock, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1631 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Grimm, Sommers and Tilly as conferees on House Bill No. 1631.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 4, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1633 with the following amendments:

On page 3 after line 35, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 84.33 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If no later than thirty days after removal of classification or designation the owner applies for classification under RCW 84.34.020 (2) or (3), then the classified or designated forest land shall not be considered removed from classification or designation for purposes of the compensating tax under RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.140 until the application for current use classification under RCW 84.34.030 is denied or the property is removed from designation under RCW 84.34.108. Upon removal from designation under RCW 84.34.108, the amount of compensating tax due shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land when removed from designation under RCW 84.34.108 multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as forest land, but in no event greater than ten, minus the total number of years in excess of ten that the land was classified or designated under this chapter and classified under chapter 84.34 RCW.

(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the continued classification or designation under this chapter or defers or reduces the compensating tax imposed upon forest land not transferred to classification under subsection (1) of this section which does not meet the necessary definitions of forest land under RCW 84.33.100."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 3, after line 35, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW, to be codified within RCW 82.04.020 through 82.04.212, to read as follows:

'Plantation Christmas trees' means Christmas trees which are exempt from the timber excise tax under RCW 84.33.170.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) 'Sale at retail' or 'retail sale' means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale, or (d) purchases for the purpose of providing the property to consumers as part of competitive telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a 'sale at retail' or 'retail sale' even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), (c), or (d) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) and (7) and RCW 82.04.290.

(2) The term 'sale at retail' or 'retail sale' shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, and also excluding sales of laundry service to members by nonprofit associations composed exclusively of nonprofit hospitals, and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere leveling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; and for purposes of this section the term 'janitorial services' shall mean those cleaning and caretaking services ordinarily performed by commercial janitor service businesses including, but not limited to, wall and window washing, floor cleaning and waxing, and the cleaning in place of rugs, drapes and upholstery. The term 'janitorial services' does not include painting, papering, repairing, furnace or septic tank cleaning, snow removal or sandblasting; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16 RCW; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a 'sale at retail' or 'retail sale' even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

(3) The term 'sale at retail' or 'retail sale' shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities: (a) Amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

(4) The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

(5) The term shall also include the providing of telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, to consumers.

(6) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, seedlings, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including plantation Christmas trees and milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects, but only when such production and subsequent sale are exempt from tax under RCW 82.04.330, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

(7) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW, including the installing, or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation. Nor shall the term include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority.

Sec. 5. Section 82.04.100, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

'Extractor' means every person who from the person's own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, for sale or for commercial or industrial use mines, quarries, lakes or produces coal, oil, natural gas, ore, stone, sand, gravel, clay, mineral or other natural resource product, or fells, cuts or takes timber, Christmas trees other than plantation Christmas trees, or other natural products, or takes fish, or takes, cultivates, or raises shellfish, or other sea or inland water foods or products. 'Extractor' does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for others ~~(or)~~; persons cultivating or raising fish entirely within confined rearing areas on the person's own land or on land in which the person has a present right of possession; or persons who fell, cut, or take plantation Christmas trees from the person's own land or from land in which the person has a present right of possession.

Sec. 6. Section 82.04.330, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1985 and by section 10, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.04.330 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to any person in respect to the business of growing or producing for sale upon the person's own lands or upon land in which the person has a present right of possession, any agricultural or horticultural produce or crop, or of raising upon the person's own lands or upon land in which the person has a present right of possession, any plantation Christmas tree or any animal, bird, fish, or insect, or the milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substance obtained therefrom, or in respect to the sale of such products at wholesale by such grower, producer, or raiser thereof. This exemption shall not apply to any person selling such products at retail or using such products as ingredients in a manufacturing process; nor to the sale of any animal or substance obtained therefrom by a person in connection with the person's business of operating a stockyard or a slaughter or packing house; nor to any person in respect to the business of taking, cultivating, or raising ~~((Christmas trees or))~~ timber; nor to any association of persons whatever, whether mutual, cooperative or otherwise, engaging in any business activity with respect to which tax liability is imposed under the provisions of this chapter. As used in this section, 'fish' means fish which are cultivated or raised entirely within confined rearing areas on the person's own land or on land in which the person has a present right of possession.'

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

MOTION

Mr. Braddock moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1633 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smitherman: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a ruling on scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The title of the original bill is 'An Act Relating to taxation of timber harvest by public entity....' The amendment sent to us by the Senate deals with Christmas trees, exempting the sales tax on the retail and the B&O tax on wholesale. In addition, the first amendment deals with open space classification and timber lands. The Speaker, after examining the title of the original bill and the Senate amendments, finds that your point is well taken and the amendments are out of order."

Representatives Appelwick and B. Williams spoke in favor of the motion not to concur.

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Appelwick, Grimm and Hastings as conferees on House Bill No. 1633.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1709 with the following amendment:

On page 42, beginning on line 7, strike everything through "(uncodified)." on page 88, line 12 and insert the following:

"FIRE PROTECTION BOARD"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that fire protection services at the state level are provided by different, independent state agencies. This has resulted in a lack of a comprehensive state-level focus for state fire protection services, funding, and policy. It is the intent of the legislature to consolidate fire protection services into a single state agency and to create a state board with the responsibility of (1) establishing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services and (2) advising the director of community development and the director of fire protection on matters relating to their duties under state law. It is also the intent of the legislature that the fire protection services program created herein will assist local fire protection agencies in program development without encroaching upon their historic autonomy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

There is created the state fire protection policy board consisting of ten members appointed by the governor:

(1) Three representatives of fire chiefs. At least one shall be from a fire department east of the Cascade mountains and at least one shall be from a fire department west of the Cascade mountains. One shall be from a fire protection district;

(2) One insurance industry representative;

(3) One representative of cities and towns;

(4) One representative of counties;

(5) Two full-time, paid, career fire fighters;

(6) One volunteer fire fighter; and

(7) One representative of fire commissioners.

The governor, the commissioner of public lands, the insurance commissioner, the chairperson of the commission for vocational education or its successor organization, and the director of fire protection or their designees, shall be nonvoting ex officio members of the board. If an ex officio member of the board elects to send a designee to any or all meetings of the board, then that designee shall be selected from the immediate staff of that ex officio member and may not be a person who otherwise serves as a member of the board.

In making the appointments required under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall (a) seek the advice of and consult with organizations involved in fire protection; and (b) ensure that racial minorities, women, and persons with disabilities are represented.

The terms of the appointed members of the board shall be three years and until a successor is appointed and qualified. However, initial board members shall be appointed as follows: Three members to terms of one year, three members to terms of two years, and four members to terms of three years. In the case of a vacancy of a member appointed under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall appoint a new representative to fill the unexpired term of the member whose office has become vacant. A vacancy shall occur whenever an appointed member ceases to be employed in the occupation the member was appointed to represent.

The appointed members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The board shall select its own chairperson and shall meet at the request of the governor or the chairperson and at least four times per year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

Except for matters relating to the statutory duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection, the board shall have the responsibility of developing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services. In carrying out its duties, the board shall:

- (1) Adopt a state fire protection master plan;
- (2) Monitor fire protection in the state and develop objectives and priorities to improve fire protection for the state's citizens;
- (3) Establish and promote state arson control programs and ensure development of local arson control programs;
- (4) Provide representation for local fire protection services to the governor in state-level fire protection planning matters such as, but not limited to, hazardous materials;
- (5) Seek and solicit grants, gifts, bequests, devices, and matching funds for use in furthering the objectives and duties of the board, and establish procedures for administering them;
- (6) Promote mutual aid and disaster planning for fire services in this state;
- (7) Assure the dissemination of information concerning the amount of fire damage including that damage caused by arson, and its causes and prevention;
- (8) Submit annually a report to the governor containing a statement of its official acts pursuant to this chapter, and make such studies, reports, and recommendations to the governor and the legislature as are requested;
- (9) Adopt a state fire training and education master plan;
- (10) Develop and adopt a master plan for the construction, equipping, maintaining, and operation of necessary fire service training and education facilities, but the authority to construct, equip, and maintain such facilities is subject to chapter 43.19 RCW;
- (11) Develop and adopt a master plan for the purchase, lease, or other acquisition of real estate necessary to establish and operate fire service training and education facilities in a manner provided by law;
- (12) Adopt standards for state-wide fire service training and education courses including courses in arson detection and investigation for personnel of fire, police, and prosecutor's departments;

(13) Assure the administration of any legislation enacted by the legislature in pursuance of the aims and purposes of any acts of Congress insofar as the provisions thereof may apply;

(14) Cooperate with the common schools, community colleges, institutions of higher education, and any department or division of the state, or of any county or municipal corporation in establishing and maintaining instruction in fire service training and education in accordance with any act of Congress and legislation enacted by the legislature in pursuance thereof and in establishing, building, and operating training and education facilities.

This section does not apply to forest fire service personnel and programs. Industrial fire departments and private fire investigators may participate in training and education programs under this chapter for a reasonable fee established by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

In regards to the statutory duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection, the board shall serve in an advisory capacity in order to enhance the continuity of state fire protection services. In this capacity, the board shall:

(1) Advise the director of community development and the director of fire protection on matters pertaining to their duties under law; and

(2) Advise the director of community development and the director of fire protection on all budgeting and fiscal matters pertaining to the duties of the director of fire protection and the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Wherever the term state fire marshal appears in the Revised Code of Washington or the Washington Administrative Code it shall mean the director of fire protection.

(2) The director of community development shall appoint an assistant director who shall be known as the director of fire protection. The board, after consulting with the director, shall prescribe qualifications for the position of director of fire protection. The board shall submit to the director a list containing the names of three persons whom the board believes meet its qualifications. If requested by the director, the board shall submit one additional list of three persons whom the board believes meet its qualifications. The appointment shall be from one of the lists of persons submitted by the board.

(3) The director of fire protection may designate one or more deputies and may delegate to those deputies his or her duties and authorities as deemed appropriate.

(4) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall, after consultation with the board, prepare a biennial budget pertaining to fire protection services. Such biennial budget shall be submitted as part of the department's budget request.

(5) The director of fire protection shall designate a deputy who shall be known as the state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs. The duties of the state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs shall include:

(a) Assessing the current needs and capabilities of state and local radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response teams on an ongoing basis;

(b) Coordinating training programs for state and local officials for the purpose of updating skills relating to emergency response;

(c) Utilizing appropriate training programs such as those offered by the federal emergency management agency, the department of transportation and the environmental protection agency;

(d) Undertaking other duties in this area that are deemed appropriate by the board and the director.

(6) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall implement and administer, within the constraints established by budgeted resources, the policies of the board and all duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection.

(7) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall seek the advice of the board in carrying out his or her duties under law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 59. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the fire service training program established in section 56 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 60. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department may: (1) impose and collect fees for fire service training; and (2) establish and set fee schedules for fire service training.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 61. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The fire service training account is hereby established in the state treasury. The department shall deposit in the account all fees received by the department for fire service training. Moneys in the account may be appropriated only for fire service training.

Sec. 62. Section 1, chapter 349, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of a state fire service training center for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this chapter shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 63. Section 5, chapter 349, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this chapter or, if the legislature so determines, for any bonds and notes hereafter authorized and issued for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and the interest coming due on such bonds. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any such interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on such payment date.

Sec. 64. Section 1, chapter 225, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 14, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.51.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of a state fire service training center for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of six million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this chapter shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 65. Section 5, chapter 225, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.51.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund in the state treasury shall be used for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds and notes authorized under this chapter or, if the legislature so determines, for any bonds and notes hereafter authorized and issued for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and the interest coming due on the bonds. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Sec. 66. Section .05.32, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 16, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.05.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each authorized insurer shall promptly report to the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon forms as prescribed and furnished by ~~((the board))~~ him or her, each fire loss of property in this state reported to it and whether the loss is due to criminal activity or to undetermined causes.

(2) Each such insurer shall likewise report to the ~~((board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon claims paid by it for loss or damage by fire in this state. Copies of all reports required by this section shall be promptly transmitted to the state insurance commissioner.

Sec. 67. Section .33.03, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 17, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority at all times of day and night, in the performance of duties imposed by this chapter, to enter upon and examine any building or premises where any fire has occurred and other buildings and premises adjoining or near thereto.

(2) The ~~((state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority at any reasonable hour to enter into any public building or premises or any building or premises used for public purposes to inspect for fire hazards.

~~((3) Within his or her jurisdiction a resident fire marshal may exercise like powers as are conferred by subsections (1) and (2) of this section upon the state fire protection board. Such power in a resident fire marshal shall not be to the exclusion of any power of the state fire protection board.))~~

Sec. 68. Section .33.04, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 18, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((In jurisdictions within this state other than those in which there is in force a comprehensive local fire prevention and safety code, the state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy fire marshal.))~~ The director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority to enter upon all premises and into all buildings except private dwellings for the purpose of inspection to ascertain if any fire hazard exists, and to require conformance with minimum standards for the prevention of fire and for the protection of life and property against fire and panic as to use of premises, and may adopt by reference nationally recognized standards applicable to local conditions.

(2) ~~((A resident fire marshal shall have authority to enforce within his or her jurisdiction such ordinances and laws relative to fire prevention and safety and use of premises as may be in force therein. In areas outside those covered by such local fire prevention and safety codes:~~ the jurisdiction of any such resident fire marshal shall be subordinate to that of the state fire protection board:

(3) in areas covered by such fire prevention and safety codes the state fire protection board)) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, may, upon request by the chief fire official or the local governing body or of taxpayers of such area, assist in the enforcement of any such code.

Sec. 69. Section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for construction relative to fire prevention and safety for all schools under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction and state board of education shall be established by the state fire protection board(~~(-which)~~). The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall adopt such nationally recognized fire and building codes and standards as may be applicable to local conditions. After the approval of such standards by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education, the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made plan reviews and construction inspections as may be necessary to insure compliance with said codes and standards.

Political subdivisions of the state having and enforcing such fire and building codes and standards at least equal to or higher than those ~~((by the state fire protection board))~~ adopted as provided for in this section shall be exempted from the plan review and construction inspection provisions of this section within their respective subdivision for as long as such codes and standards are enforced.

Sec. 70. Section .33.05, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 20, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the ~~((state fire marshal or the marshal's))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, finds in any building or premises subject to their inspection under this chapter, any combustible material or flammable conditions or fire hazards dangerous to the safety of the building, premises, or to the public, he or she shall by written order require such condition to be remedied, and such order shall forthwith be complied with by the owner or occupant of the building or premises.

(2) An owner or occupant aggrieved by any such order made by the ~~((state fire marshal or a deputy state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, may ~~((within five days after the date of the order appeal to the state fire protection board))~~ appeal such order pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. If the ((state fire protection board confirms the)) order is confirmed, the order shall remain in force and be complied with by the owner or occupant.

(3) Any owner or occupant failing to comply with any such order not appealed from or with any order so confirmed shall be punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each day such failure exists.

Sec. 71. Section .33.06, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 21, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The chief of each organized fire department, the sheriff or other designated county official, and the designated city or town official shall investigate the cause, origin, and extent of loss of all fires occurring within their respective jurisdictions, as determined by this subsection, and shall forthwith notify the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, of all fires of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause occurring within their respective jurisdictions. The county fire marshal shall also be notified of and investigate all such fires occurring in unincorporated areas of the county. Fire departments shall have the responsibility imposed by this subsection for areas within their jurisdictions. Sheriffs or other designated county officials shall have responsibility imposed by this subsection for county areas not within the jurisdiction of a fire department, unless such areas are within the boundaries of a city or town, in which case the designated city or town official shall have the responsibility imposed by this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, county officials shall be designated by the county legislative authority, and city or town officials shall be designated by the appropriate city or town legislative or executive authority. In addition to the responsibility imposed by this subsection, any sheriff or chief of police may assist in the investigation of the cause, origin, and extent of loss of all fires occurring within his or her respective jurisdiction.

(2) The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, may investigate any fire for the purpose of determining its cause, origin, and the extent of the loss. The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, shall assist in the investigation of those fires of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause when requested by the reporting agency. In the investigation of any fire of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause, the ~~((state fire protection board, the state fire marshal, deputy state fire marshals, or resident fire marshals, acting within their jurisdiction, are))~~ director of community development and the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, are vested with police powers to enforce the laws of this state. To exercise these powers, ~~((state deputy and resident~~ ~~fire marshals~~) authorized deputies must receive prior written authorization from the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and shall have completed a course of training prescribed by the Washington state criminal justice training commission.

Sec. 72. Section 2, chapter 181, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 22, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Beginning September 1, 1980:))~~ The chief of each organized fire department, or the sheriff or other designated county official having jurisdiction over areas not within the jurisdiction of any fire department, shall report statistical information and data to the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, on each fire occurring within the official's jurisdiction. Reports shall be consistent with the national fire incident reporting system developed by the United States fire administration and rules established by the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and the department of natural resources shall jointly determine the statistical information to be reported on fires on land under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources.

(2) The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall analyze the information and data reported, compile a report, and distribute a copy annually by January 31 to each chief fire official in the state. Upon request, the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall also furnish a copy of the report to any other interested person at cost.

Sec. 73. Section .33.07, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 23, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In the conduct of any investigation into the cause, origin, or loss resulting from any fire, the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development and the director of fire protection shall have the same power and rights relative to securing the attendance of witnesses and the taking of testimony under oath as is conferred upon the insurance commissioner under RCW 48.03.070. False swearing by any such witness shall be deemed to be perjury and shall be subject to punishment as such.

Sec. 74. Section .33.08, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 24, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If as the result of any such investigation, or because of any information received ~~((by it, the state fire protection board)),~~ the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with any crime, ((#)) he or she may cause such person to be arrested and charged with such offense, and shall furnish to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the names of witnesses and all pertinent and material evidence and testimony within ((#s)) his or her possession relative to the offense.

Sec. 75. Section .33.09, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 25, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall keep on file all reports of fires made to ((it or to the commissioner)) him or her pursuant to this code. Such records shall at all times during business hours be open to public inspection: except, that any testimony taken in a fire investigation may, in the discretion of the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, be withheld from public scrutiny. The ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may destroy any such report after five years from its date.

Sec. 76. Section .33.11, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 26, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall submit annually a report to the governor of this state. The report shall contain a statement of ((#s)) his or her official acts pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 77. Section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 27, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Authorized agency' means a public agency or its official representative having legal authority to investigate the cause of a fire and to initiate criminal proceedings or further investigations if the cause was not accidental, including the following persons and agencies:

- (a) The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development and the director of fire protection;
- (b) The prosecuting attorney of the county where the fire occurred;
- (c) The state attorney general, when engaged in a prosecution which is or may be connected with the fire;
- (d) The Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any other federal agency; and

(e) The United States attorney's office when authorized or charged with investigation or prosecution concerning the fire.

(2) 'Insurer' means any insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, which insures against loss by fire, and includes insurers under the Washington F.A.I.R. plan.

(3) 'Relevant information' means information having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the investigation or determination of the cause of any fire more probable or less probable than it would be without the information.

Sec. 78. Section 4, chapter 174, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 89, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission for vocational education shall have the following functions:

(1) Plan development. The commission shall be responsible for complying with federal directives to insure the development and maintenance of a state plan for vocational education but initial planning shall be accomplished by the secondary and postsecondary education systems. Prior to the adoption of the state plan, the commission shall request comments from the higher education coordinating board and the advisory council for vocational education.

(2) State plan modification adjudication. Decisions on new programs and/or facilities for vocational education shall be made internally within the respective secondary or postsecondary education system in accordance with the provisions of the state plan. The commission may review such decisions to insure compliance with the state plan and avoid unnecessary duplication of current or projected programs.

Any common school or community college district, or the superintendent of public instruction, or the state board for community college education, or other interested parties as authorized by the commission, shall be afforded the opportunity to comment upon any new programs or facilities proposed. The commission, subject to dispute resolution rules adopted by said commission, shall have the final determination on any disputes arising out of such program proposals.

In adjudicating disputes between the two secondary and postsecondary education systems regarding the state plan, the commission will use at least the following criteria: Recognition that secondary education is constitutionally the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and that by legislative action postsecondary education is the responsibility of institutions of higher education; adhere to the general policy set forth in the state plan; consider the particular vocational need of the community, region, or state and whether the common school or community college, or both, can best respond to those needs; encourage cooperation and coordination rather than competition and program conflict between secondary and postsecondary education systems; consider the desires and preferences of the residents of the immediate program service area and of the representatives of the fields of management, labor, and agriculture which benefit from possible program offerings; and avoid unnecessary duplication of vocational education programs and facilities.

(3) Vocational education administration. The commission shall be the sole agency for the receipt and allocation of federal funds in accordance with the state plan. The supervision of the state plan shall be carried out by the commission; however, daily administration of the state plan shall be primarily the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That the commission shall review and approve state plan development proposals or special programs requiring personal service contracts, and activities beyond the program responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education.

Under the state plan the commission shall make periodic compliance audits at least once a biennium of the vocational education programs individually and jointly conducted by the common schools and community colleges to insure compliance with the state plan.

The commission shall be the primary state liaison with the federal government for the state plan for vocational education.

~~(4) (Fire service training program. The commission may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the fire service training program established in RCW 28C.04.140.~~

(5)) Job skills program. The commission shall have the following powers and duties for the job skills program:

(a) To collect and disseminate to interested individuals, in cooperation with and through any agencies of federal, state, and municipal government, information concerning areas of present and projected employment need, programs of skills training and education consistent therewith, and any other relevant information;

(b) To apply for, utilize, and accept grants from other federal, state, and local agencies for the purposes of matching requirements and to facilitate the purposes of RCW 28C.04.480 through 28C.04.480;

(c) To help identify, upon the request of business and industry, those educational institutions which could provide the training services sought by business and industry and to identify any existing programs which could serve the particular needs of business and industry;

(d) To provide job skills grants to educational institutions to facilitate the development of programs of job skills training and education consistent with employment needs;

(e) To work cooperatively with the employment security department to enhance and update the state's occupational information system and the state's career information system;

(f) To adopt rules to carry out its powers and duties for the job skills program.

Sec. 79. Section 1, chapter 320, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.24.400 are each amended to read as follows:

No building warden, who acts in good faith, with or without compensation, shall be personally liable for civil damages arising from his or her negligent acts or omissions during the course of assigned duties in assisting others to evacuate industrial, commercial, governmental or multi-unit residential buildings or in attempting to control or alleviate a hazard to the building or its occupants caused by fire, earthquake or other threat to life or limb. The term 'building warden' means an individual who is assigned to take charge of the occupants on a floor or in an area of a building during an emergency in accordance with a predetermined fire safety or evacuation plan; and/or an individual selected by a municipal fire chief or the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, after an emergency is in progress to assist in evacuating the occupants of such a building or providing for their safety. This section shall not apply to any acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or wilful or wanton misconduct.

Sec. 80. Section 1, chapter 204, Laws of 1967 and RCW 9.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who wilfully and without cause tampers with, molests, injures or breaks any public or private fire alarm apparatus, emergency phone, radio, or other wire or signal, or any fire fighting equipment, or who wilfully and without having reasonable grounds for believing a fire exists, sends, gives, transmits, or sounds any false alarm of fire, by shouting in a public place or by means of any public or private fire alarm system or signal, or by telephone, is guilty of a misdemeanor. This provision shall not prohibit the testing of fire alarm systems by persons authorized to do so, by a fire department or ~~((state fire marshal official))~~ the director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 81. Section 13, chapter 253, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all boarding homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to boarding homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the boarding home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the boarding home and the department or authorized department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, authorized department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the boarding home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department or authorized department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for boarding homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 82. Section 12, chapter 168, Laws of 1951 and RCW 18.46.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Fire protection with respect to all maternity homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt by reference, such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes, places of refuge, and maternity homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the maternity home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the department as to the manner in which the premises may qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the maternity home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made such inspection of such maternity homes as he or she deems necessary.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the regulation of which is equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for maternity homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the building inspector and the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection and shall approve the premises before a license can be issued.

In cities where such building codes are in force, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may, upon request by the chief fire official, or the local governing body, or of a taxpayer of such city, assist in the enforcement of any such code pertaining to maternity homes.

Sec. 83. Section 15, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 9, chapter 160, Laws of 1953 and RCW 18.51.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all nursing homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the nursing home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the nursing home and the department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the nursing home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such nursing homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for nursing homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 84. Section 16, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 45, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Inspections of nursing homes by local authorities shall be consistent with the requirements of chapter 19.27 RCW, the state building code. Findings of a serious nature shall be coordinated with the department and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for determination of appropriate actions to ensure a safe environment for nursing home residents. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall have exclusive authority to determine appropriate corrective action under this section.

Sec. 85. Section 5, chapter 134, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is the only authority having jurisdiction over the approval of portable oil-fueled heaters. The sale and use of portable oil-fueled heaters is governed exclusively by RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120: PROVIDED, That cities and counties may adopt local standards as provided in RCW 19.27.040.

Sec. 86. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

(4) Accredite, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

(5) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

(6) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

(7) Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations.

(8) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

(9) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

(10) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

(11) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 87. Section 7, chapter 36, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.710 are each amended to read as follows:

Information contained in the files and records of the section relative to the commission of any crime by any person shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public or disclosed for any personal purpose or in any civil court proceedings except upon a written order of the judge of a court wherein such civil proceedings are had. All information contained in the files of the section relative to criminal records and personal histories of persons arrested for the commission of a crime shall be available to all criminal justice agencies and, for the sole purpose of investigating the cause of fires under RCW 48.48.060(2) where the cause is suspected to be arson, to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon the filing of an application as provided in RCW 43.43.705.

Dependency record information contained in the files and records of the section shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public. Dependency record information may be disclosed as authorized by this chapter or may be disclosed to the same extent that information regarding dependency proceedings may generally be disclosed, as authorized by applicable laws or court rules.

Although no application for information has been made to the section as provided in RCW 43.43.705, the section may transmit such information in the chief's discretion, to such agencies as are authorized by RCW 43.43.705 to make application for it.

Sec. 88. Section 2, chapter 237, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 145, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.467 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every automobile, truck, motorcycle, motor home, or off-road vehicle that is fueled by an alternative fuel source shall bear a reflective placard issued by the national fire protection association indicating that the vehicle is so fueled. Violation of this subsection is a traffic infraction.

(2) As used in this section 'alternative fuel source' includes propane, compressed natural gas, liquid petroleum gas, or any chemically similar gas but does not include gasoline or diesel fuel.

(3) If a placard for a specific alternative fuel source has not been issued by the national fire protection association, a placard issued by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be required. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall develop rules for the design, size, and placement of the placard which shall remain effective until a specific placard is issued by the national fire protection association.

Sec. 89. Section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1980 and RCW 48.48.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Smoke detection devices shall be installed inside all dwelling units:

(a) Occupied by persons other than the owner on and after December 31, 1981; or

(b) Built or manufactured in this state after December 31, 1980.

(2) The smoke detection devices shall be designed, manufactured, and installed inside dwelling units in conformance with:

(a) Nationally accepted standards; and

(b) As provided by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, rules and regulations promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

(3) Installation of smoke detection devices shall be the responsibility of the owner. Maintenance of smoke detection devices shall be the responsibility of the tenant, who shall maintain the device as specified by the manufacturer. At the time of a vacancy, the owner shall insure that the smoke detection device is operational prior to the reoccupancy of the dwelling unit.

(4) Any owner or tenant failing to comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

(5) For the purposes of this section:

(a) 'Dwelling unit' means a single unit providing complete, independent living facilities for one or more persons including permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation; and

(b) 'Smoke detection device' means an assembly incorporating in one unit a device which detects visible or invisible particles of combustion, the control equipment, and the alarm-sounding device, operated from a power supply either in the unit or obtained at the point of installation.

Sec. 90. Section 1, chapter 258, Laws of 1983 and RCW 48.48.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All premises guarded by guard animals, which are animals professionally trained to defend and protect premises or the occupants of the premises, shall be registered with the local fire department. Front entrances to residences and all entrances to business premises shall be posted in a visible location with signs approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, indicating that guard animals are present.

(2) A fire fighter, who reasonably believes that his or her safety is endangered by the presence of a guard animal, may without liability: (a) Refuse to enter the premises, or (b) take any reasonable action necessary to protect himself or herself from attack by the guard animal.

(3) If the person responsible for the guard animal being on the premises does not comply with subsection (1) of this section, that person may be held liable for any injury to the fire fighter caused by the presence of the guard animal.

Sec. 91. Section 4, chapter 80, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 48.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When an insurer has reason to believe that a fire loss reported to the insurer may be of other than accidental cause, the insurer shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in the manner prescribed under RCW 48.05.320 concerning the circumstances of the fire loss, including any and all relevant material developed from the insurer's inquiry into the fire loss.

(2) Notification of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under subsection (1) of this section does not relieve the insurer of the duty to respond to a request for information from any other authorized agency.

Sec. 92. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.53.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) A fire insurance policy may not be issued to insure any property within a class of occupancy within a geographic area or within a geographic area designated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, as having an abnormally high incidence of arson until the applicant has submitted an anti-arson application and the insurer or the insurer's representative has inspected the property. The application shall be prescribed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and shall contain but not be limited to the following:

(a) The name and address of the prospective insured and any mortgagees or other parties having an ownership interest in the property to be insured;

(b) The amount of insurance requested and the method of valuation used to establish the amount of insurance;

(c) The dates and selling prices of the property, if any, during the previous three years;

(d) Fire losses exceeding one thousand dollars during the previous five years for property in which the prospective insured held an equity interest or mortgage;

(e) Current corrective orders pertaining to fire, safety, health, building, or construction codes that have not been complied with within the time period or any extension of such time period authorized by the authority issuing such corrective order applicable to the property to be insured;

(f) Present or anticipated occupancy of the structure, and whether a certificate of occupancy has been issued;

(g) Signature and title, if any, of the person submitting the application.

(3) If the facts required to be reported by subsection (2) of this section materially change, the insured shall notify the insurer of any such change within fourteen days.

(4) An anti-arson application is not required for: (a) Fire insurance policies covering one to four-unit owner-occupied residential dwellings; (b) policies existing as of June 10, 1982; or (c) the renewal of these policies.

(5) An anti-arson application shall contain a notice stating: 'Designation of a class of occupancy within a geographic area or geographic areas as having an abnormally high incidence of arson shall not be a valid reason for cancellation, refusal to issue or renew, modification, or increasing the premium for any fire insurance policy.'

Sec. 93. Section 6, chapter 110, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.53.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Rules designating geographic areas or classes of occupancy as having an abnormally high incidence of arson, and any other rules necessary to implement this chapter shall be adopted by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 94. Section 8, chapter 267, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 19, chapter 213, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.41.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all hospitals to be licensed hereunder shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt, after approval by the department, such recognized standards as may be applicable to hospitals for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the hospital to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as adopted pursuant to this chapter, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the hospital and to the department listing the corrective actions required and the time allowed for accomplishing such corrections. The applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any corrections required by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the hospital to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department a written report approving the hospital with respect to fire protection, and such report is required before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such hospitals at least once a year.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for hospitals adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 95. Section 11, chapter 239, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.62.290 are each amended to read as follows:

Rules and regulations establishing fire and life safety requirements, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall continue to be promulgated and enforced by the ~~((state fire marshal's office))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 96. Section 2, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The standardization of existing fire protection equipment in this state shall be arranged for and carried out by or under the direction of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. He or she shall provide the appliances necessary for carrying on this work, shall proceed with such standardization as rapidly as possible, and shall require the completion of such work within a period of five years from June 8, 1967: PROVIDED, That the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may exempt special purpose fire equipment and existing fire protection equipment from standardization when it is established that such equipment is not essential to the coordination of public fire protection operations.

Sec. 97. Section 3, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall notify industrial establishments and property owners having equipment, which may be necessary for fire department use in protecting the property or putting out fire, of any changes necessary to bring their equipment up to the requirements of the standard established by RCW 70.75.020, and shall render such assistance as may be available for converting substandard equipment to meet standard specifications and requirements.

Sec. 98. Section 4, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who, without approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, sells or offers for sale in Washington any fire hose, fire engine or other equipment for fire protection purposes which is fitted or equipped with other than the standard thread is guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That fire equipment for special purposes, research, programs, forest fire fighting, or special features of fire protection equipment found appropriate for uniformity within a particular protection area may be specifically exempted from this requirement by order of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 99. Section 11, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 7, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.170 are each amended to read as follows:

'License' means a nontransferable formal authorization which the ~~((state fire marshal is))~~ director of community development and the director of fire protection are permitted to issue under this chapter to engage in the act specifically designated therein.

Sec. 100. Section 27, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall enforce and administer this chapter.

(2) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall appoint such deputies and employees as may be necessary and required to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(4) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall prescribe such rules as may be necessary to ensure state-wide minimum standards for the enforcement of this chapter. Counties, cities, and towns shall comply with such state rules. Any local rules adopted by local authorities that are more restrictive than state law as to the types of fireworks that may be sold shall have an effective date no sooner than one year after their adoption.

(5) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may exercise the necessary police powers to enforce the criminal provisions of this chapter. This grant of police powers does not prevent any other state agency or local government agency having general law enforcement powers from enforcing this chapter within the jurisdiction of the agency or local government.

Sec. 101. Section 38, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.305 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 102. Section 40, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 20, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.315 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who desires to engage in the manufacture, importation, sale, or use of fireworks shall make a written application to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, on forms provided by him or her. Such application shall be accompanied by the annual license fee as prescribed in this chapter.

Sec. 103. Section 42, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.325 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for a license shall be made annually by every person holding an existing license who wishes to continue the activity requiring the license. The application shall be accompanied by the annual license fee as prescribed in RCW 70.77.340.

(2) A person applying for an annual license as a retailer under this chapter shall file an application by June 10 of the current year. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall grant or deny the license within fifteen days of receipt of the application.

(3) A person applying for an annual license as a manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler under this chapter shall file an application by January 31 of the current year. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall grant or deny the license within ninety days of receipt of the application.

Sec. 104. Section 43, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 22, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.330 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, finds that the granting of such license would not be contrary to public safety or welfare, he or she shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to engage in the particular act or acts upon the payment of the license fee specified in this chapter. Licensees may transport the class of fireworks for which they hold a valid license.

Sec. 105. Section 48, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.355 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any adult person may secure a general license from the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for the public display of fireworks within the state of Washington. A general license is subject to the provisions of this chapter relative to the securing of local permits for the public display of fireworks in any city, county, or fire protection district, except that in lieu of filing the bond or certificate of public liability insurance with the appropriate local official under RCW 70.77.260 as required in RCW 70.77.285, the same bond or certificate shall be filed with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The bond or certificate of insurance for a general license in addition shall provide that: (a) The insurer will not cancel the insured's coverage without fifteen days prior written notice to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection; (b) the duly licensed pyrotechnic operator required by law to supervise and discharge the public display, acting either as an employee of the insured or as an independent contractor and the state of Washington, its officers, agents, employees, and servants are included as additional insureds, but only insofar as any operations under contract are concerned; and (c) the state is not responsible for any premium or assessments on the policy.

(2) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may issue such general licenses. The holder of a general license shall file a certificate from the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, evidencing the license with any application for a local permit for the public display of fireworks under RCW 70.77.260.

Sec. 106. Section 49, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 22, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.360 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, finds that an application for any license under this chapter contains a material misrepresentation or that the granting of any license would be contrary to the public safety or welfare, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may deny the application for the license.

Sec. 107. Section 50, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 23, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.365 are each amended to read as follows:

A written report by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or a local fire official, or any of their authorized representatives, disclosing that the applicant for a license, or the premises for which a license is to apply, do not meet the qualifications or conditions for a license constitutes grounds for the denial by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, of any application for a license.

Sec. 108. Section 52, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 30, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.375 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, shall revoke any license issued pursuant to this chapter, if he or she finds that:

(1) The licensee has violated any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulations made by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under and with the authority of this chapter;

(2) The licensee has created or caused a fire nuisance;

(3) Any licensee has failed or refused to file any required reports; or

(4) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, reasonably would have warranted the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in refusing originally to issue such license.

Sec. 109. Section 60, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 25, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.415 are each amended to read as follows:

Every public display of fireworks shall be handled or supervised by a pyrotechnic operator licensed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under RCW 70.77.255.

Sec. 110. Section 63, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 28, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding RCW 70.77.255, following the revocation or expiration of a license, a licensee in lawful possession of a lawfully acquired stock of fireworks may sell such fireworks, but only under supervision of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. Any sale under this section shall be solely to persons who are authorized to buy, possess, sell, or use such fireworks.

Sec. 111. Section 64, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 37, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.435 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fireworks which are illegally sold, offered for sale, used, discharged, possessed or transported in violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or regulations of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be subject to seizure by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or ~~((any))~~ his or her deputy ~~((state fire marshal))~~. Any fireworks seized under this section may be disposed of by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, by summary destruction at any time subsequent to thirty days from such seizure or ten days from the final termination of proceedings under the provisions of RCW 70.77.440, whichever is later.

Sec. 112. Section 65, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 29, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person whose fireworks are seized under the provisions of RCW 70.77.435 may within ten days after such seizure petition the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to return the fireworks seized upon the ground that such fireworks were illegally or erroneously seized. Any petition filed hereunder shall be considered by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, within fifteen days after filing and an oral hearing granted the petitioner, if requested. Notice of the decision of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be served upon the petitioner. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may order the fireworks seized under this chapter disposed of or returned to the petitioner if illegally or erroneously seized. The determination of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is final unless within sixty days an action is commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction in the state of Washington for the recovery of the fireworks seized by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

(2) If the fireworks are not returned to the petitioner or destroyed pursuant to RCW 70.77-.435, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may sell confiscated common fireworks and special fireworks that are legal for use and possession under this chapter to wholesalers licensed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. Sale shall be by public auction after publishing a notice of the date, place, and time of the auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the auction is to be held, at least three days before the date of the auction. The proceeds of the sale of the seized fireworks under this section shall be deposited in the general fund. Fireworks that are not legal for use and possession in this state shall be destroyed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 113. Section 67, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.450 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 114. Section 68, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 38, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.455 are each amended to read as follows:

All licensees shall maintain and make available to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, full and complete records showing all production, imports, exports, purchases, sales, and consumption of fireworks items by kind and class.

Sec. 115. Section 69, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.460 are each amended to read as follows:

When reports on fireworks transactions or the payments of license fees or penalties are required to be made on or by specified dates, they shall be deemed to have been made at the time they are filed with or paid to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or, if sent by mail, on the date shown by the United States postmark on the envelope containing the report or payment.

Sec. 116. Section 70, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.465 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other reports required under this chapter, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may, by rule or otherwise, require additional, other, or supplemental reports from licensees and other persons and prescribe the form, including verification, of the information to be given when filing such additional, other or supplemental reports.

Sec. 117. Section 8, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.575 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall adopt by rule a list of the fireworks that may be sold to the public in this state pursuant to this chapter. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall file the list by October 1st of each year with the code reviser for publication, unless the previously published list has remained current.

(2) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall provide the list adopted under subsection (1) of this section by November 1st of each year to all manufacturers, wholesalers, and importers licensed under this chapter, unless the previously distributed list has remained current.

Sec. 118. Section 9, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.580 are each amended to read as follows:

Retailers required to be licensed under this chapter shall post prominently at each retail outlet a list of the fireworks that may be sold to the public in this state pursuant to this chapter. The posted list shall be in a form approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The ((fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make available the list.

Sec. 119. Section 2, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.105.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The department after notice and public hearing shall:

(1) Adopt regulations designating as extremely hazardous wastes subject to the provisions of this chapter those substances which exhibit characteristics consistent with the definition provided in RCW 70.105.010(6);

(2) Adopt and may revise when appropriate, minimum standards and regulations for disposal of extremely hazardous wastes to protect against hazards to the public, and to the environment. Before adoption of such standards and regulations, the department shall consult with appropriate agencies of interested local governments and secure technical assistance from the department of agriculture, the department of social and health services, the department of game, the department of natural resources, the department of fisheries, the department of labor and industries, and the ((state fire marshal)) department of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 120. Section 23, chapter 302, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 123, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.108.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for an outdoor music festival permit shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the issuing authority wherein the festival is to be held. Said application shall be filed not less than ninety days prior to the first scheduled day of the festival and shall be accompanied with a permit fee in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars. Said application shall include:

(1) The name of the person or other legal entity on behalf of whom said application is made: PROVIDED, That a natural person applying for such permit shall be eighteen years of age or older;

(2) A financial statement of the applicant;

(3) The nature of the business organization of the applicant;

(4) Names and addresses of all individuals or other entities having a ten percent or more proprietary interest in the festival;

(5) The principal place of business of applicant;

(6) A legal description of the land to be occupied, the name and address of the owner thereof, together with a document showing the consent of said owner to the issuance of a permit, if the land be owned by a person other than the applicant;

(7) The scheduled performances and program;

(8) Written confirmation from the local health officer that he or she has reviewed and approved plans for site and development in accordance with rules, regulations and standards adopted by the state board of health. Such rules and regulations shall include criteria as to the following and such other matters as the state board of health deems necessary to protect the public's health:

(a) Submission of plans

(b) Site

(c) Water supply

(d) Sewage disposal

(e) Food preparation facilities

(f) Toilet facilities

(g) Solid waste

(h) Insect and rodent control

(i) Shelter

(j) Dust control

(k) Lighting

(l) Emergency medical facilities

(m) Emergency air evacuation

(n) Attendant physicians

(o) Communication systems

(9) A written confirmation from the appropriate law enforcement agency from the area where the outdoor music festival is to take place, showing that traffic control and crowd protection policing have been contracted for or otherwise provided by the applicant meeting the following conditions:

(a) One person for each two hundred persons reasonably expected to be in attendance at any time during the event for purposes of traffic and crowd control.

(b) The names and addresses of all traffic and crowd control personnel shall be provided to the appropriate law enforcement authority: PROVIDED, That not less than twenty percent of the traffic and crowd control personnel shall be commissioned police officers or deputy sheriffs: PROVIDED FURTHER, That on and after February 25, 1972 any commissioned police officer or deputy sheriff who is employed and compensated by the promoter of an outdoor music festival shall not be eligible and shall not receive any benefits whatsoever from any public pension or disability plan of which he or she is a member for the time he is so employed or for any injuries received during the course of such employment.

(c) During the hours that the festival site shall be open to the public there shall be at least one regularly commissioned police officer employed by the jurisdiction wherein the festival site is located for every one thousand persons in attendance and said officer shall be on duty within the confines of the actual outdoor music festival site.

(d) All law enforcement personnel shall be charged with enforcing the provisions of this chapter and all existing statutes, ordinances and regulations.

(10) A written confirmation from the appropriate law enforcement authority that sufficient access roads are available for ingress and egress to the parking areas of the outdoor music festival site and that parking areas are available on the actual site of the festival or immediately adjacent thereto which are capable of accommodating one auto for every four persons in estimated attendance at the outdoor music festival site.

(11) A written confirmation from the department of natural resources, where applicable, and the ~~((office of the state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, that all fire prevention requirements have been complied with.

(12) A written statement of the applicant that all state and local law enforcement officers, fire control officers and other necessary governmental personnel shall have free access to the site of the outdoor music festival.

(13) A statement that the applicant will abide by the provisions of this chapter.

(14) The verification of the applicant warranting the truth of the matters set forth in the application to the best of the applicant's knowledge, under the penalty of perjury.

Sec. 121. Section 6, chapter 236, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.160.060 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter is not intended to regulate smoking in a private enclosed workplace, within a public place, even though such workplace may be visited by nonsmokers, excepting places in which smoking is prohibited by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or by other law, ordinance, or regulation.

Sec. 122. Section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 135, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 71.12.485 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all establishments to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to such establishments for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department of social and health services, upon receipt of an application for a license, or renewal of a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy shall make an inspection of the establishment to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the establishment and the department of social and health services, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the state fire marshal or his or her deputy shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the establishment to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department of social and health services a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such establishments at least annually. The department of social and health services shall not license or continue the license of any establishment unless and until it shall be approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, as herein provided.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for such establishments, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 123. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state fire marshal~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall have the power and it shall be his or her duty:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt recognized minimum standard requirements pertaining to each category of agency established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031, except foster-family homes and child-placing agencies, necessary to protect all persons residing therein from fire hazards;

(2) To make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations of agencies, other than foster-family homes or child-placing agencies, as he or she deems necessary;

(3) To make a periodic review of requirements under RCW 74.15.030(6) and to adopt necessary changes after consultation as required in subsection (1) of this section;

(4) To issue to applicants for licenses hereunder, other than foster-family homes or child-placing agencies, who comply with the requirements, a certificate of compliance, a copy of which shall be presented to the department of social and health services before a license shall be issued, except that a provisional license may be issued as provided in RCW 74.15.120.

Sec. 124. Section 8, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 359, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.15.080 are each amended to read as follows:

All agencies subject to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 shall accord the department of social and health services (~~and the state fire marshal~~), the director of community development, and the director of fire protection, or their designees, the right of entrance and the privilege of access to and inspection of records for the purpose of determining whether or not there is compliance with the provisions of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other written material in the possession of the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board pertaining to the office of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board shall be delivered to the custody of the department. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board in carrying out the powers and duties of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board shall be transferred to the department. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board shall be assigned to the department.

Any appropriations made to the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board, shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the department for the purpose of carrying out the transferred powers and duties.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions of the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. All employees of the state fire marshal's office and the state fire protection board are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department. All classified employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, shall be assigned to the department to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. All rules and all pending business before the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board on the effective date of this section shall be continued and acted upon in accordance with the provisions of sections 54 through 124 of this act. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the state fire marshal's office and the state fire protection board shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board and pertaining to fire service training shall be delivered to the custody of the department. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board in fire service training shall be transferred to the department. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with fire service training shall be assigned to the department.

Any appropriations made to the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board for fire service training shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the department.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 130. All employees of the commission for vocational education and the state fire protection board engaged in fire service training are transferred to the department. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the department to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 131. All rules and all pending business before the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board pertaining to fire service training shall be continued and acted upon in accordance with the provisions of sections 54 through 124 of this act. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed in accordance with sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 132. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board pertaining to fire service training shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 133. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 125 through 132 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 134. As used in sections 125 through 133 of this act, 'department' means the department of community development.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 135. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 312, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.142;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 312, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.144;

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Belcher, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1709 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Belcher, Perry and Hankins as conferees on Substitute House Bill No. 1709.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1827 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 31, strike all material down through line 33 and insert the following:
 "Sec. 4. Section 9, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 42, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.49.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An excise tax is imposed for the privilege of using a vessel upon the waters of this state, except vessels exempt under RCW 82.49.020. The annual amount of the excise tax ~~((is one-half of one percent of fair market value, as determined under this chapter, or five dollars, whichever is greater.))~~ shall be as follows:

(a) For vessels sixteen feet or more in length but less than twenty feet, one dollar and thirty-five cents per foot, or fraction thereof;

(b) For vessels twenty feet or more in length but less than twenty-six feet, two dollars and forty cents per foot, or fraction thereof;

(c) For vessels twenty-six feet or more in length but less than thirty-two feet, three dollars and ten cents per foot, or fraction thereof;

(d) For vessels thirty-two feet or more in length but less than thirty-eight feet, three dollars and thirty-five cents per foot, or fraction thereof; and

(e) For vessels thirty-eight feet or more in length, three dollars and seventy cents per foot, or fraction thereof.

Length is determined by means of a straight line measurement of the overall length from the foremost point of the vessel to the aftermost part of the vessel, measured parallel to the centerline. Bow sprits, bumpkins or boomkins, rudders, outboard motor brackets, and similar fittings or attachments are not included in the measurement.

(2) The excise tax upon a vessel registered for the first time in this state shall be imposed for a twelve-month period, including the month in which the vessel is registered, unless the director of licensing extends or diminishes vessel registration periods for the purpose of staggered renewal periods under RCW 88.02.050. A vessel is registered for the first time in this state when the vessel was not registered in this state for the immediately preceding registration year, or when the vessel was registered in another jurisdiction for the immediately preceding year. ~~((The excise tax on vessels required to be registered in this state on June 30, 1983, shall be paid by June 30, 1983.))~~

Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.49.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The excise taxes imposed under ~~((this chapter is))~~ RCW 82.49.010 and 82.49.070 are due and payable to the department of licensing or its agents at the time of registration of a vessel. The department of licensing shall not issue or renew a registration for a vessel until ~~((the tax is))~~ these taxes are paid in full.

The excise taxes collected under ~~((this chapter))~~ RCW 82.49.010 shall be deposited in the general fund. The excise taxes collected under RCW 82.49.070 shall be deposited in the vessel local excise tax account hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the vessel local excise tax account may be spent only for distribution to counties imposing the local tax. Distribution to the counties shall occur on a monthly basis, not later than the fifteenth day of the succeeding month after collection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 82.49 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any vessel which is not less than forty years old and whose hull is substantially unmodified shall be considered to be a classic vessel for the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Owners of classic vessels as described in subsection (1) of this section may, as an alternative to paying the vessel excise tax imposed in RCW 82.49.010, have the vessel appraised by the county assessor of the county in which the vessel is moored or stored. The appraised value of the vessel shall be reported to the department on a form prescribed by the department and the excise tax due and payable each year shall be paid at the rate of one-half of one percent of the appraised value of the vessel as certified by the county assessor.

(3) The fee for such appraisal shall be twenty-five dollars, payable to the county treasurer for deposit in the county current expense fund.

(4) This section shall apply to vessel registration periods beginning in 1987 and thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 11, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.49.040;

(2) Section 12, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.49.050; and

(3) Section 13, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.49.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired or liability or obligation incurred under the sections amended or repealed in this act or under any rule, regulation, or order adopted under those sections, nor as affecting any proceeding instituted under those sections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 4 through 7 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall be effective for taxes levied for collection in 1987, and thereafter."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "vessels;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.36.080, 84.08.200, 82.49.010, and 82.49.030; adding a new section to chapter 82.49 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 84.40 RCW; creating new sections; recodifying RCW 84.08.200; repealing RCW 82.49.040, 82.49.050, and 82.49.060; and providing an effective date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Braddock moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1827.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smitherman: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask for a ruling on the scope and object of the amendment to Substitute House Bill 1827."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill 1827, which is 'An Act Relating to property taxation of ships and vessels....' The amendment adds provisions for taxation and excise tax on pleasure boats based on length. The Speaker, after examining the title which relates to property taxation of ships and vessels and looking at the amendment, which is an excise tax, finds that your point is well taken. The Senate amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion not to concur and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, it is very clear that on the record it will show that Representative Braddock made a motion to do not concur."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, the motion to not concur by itself would automatically be to tell the Senate to recede, unless we ask for a conference thereon."

The motion carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1331 with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 17, after "appeals," strike "and superior court" and insert "superior courts, and district courts"

On page 4, line 18, after "on" strike "November 1, 1986," and insert "January 1, 1987."

On page 5, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 7. Section 100, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 3.58.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The annual salary of each full time district court judge shall be ~~((ninety percent of the salary of a judge of a superior court: PROVIDED, That in cities having a population in excess of four hundred thousand, the city which pays the salary may increase such salary of its municipal judges to an amount not more than the salary paid the superior court judges in the county in which the court is located: PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~ established by the Washington citizen's commission on salaries for elected officials. A member of the legislature whose term of office is partly coextensive with or extends beyond the present term of office of any of the officials whose salary is increased by virtue of the provisions of RCW 43.03.010, 2.04.092, 2.06.062, 2.08.092, and 3.58.010 shall be eligible to be appointed or elected to any of the offices the salary of which is increased hereby but he shall not be entitled to receive such increased salary until after the expiration of his present term of office and his subsequent election or reelection to the office to which he was appointed or elected respectively during his term of office as legislator."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct all internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "2.08.092," insert "3.58.010," and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Fisher, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1331, and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1851 with the following amendments:

On page 6, after line 35, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 82.08 RCW to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to lease amounts paid by a seller/lessee to a lessor after the effective date of this act under a sale/leaseback agreement in respect to property used by the seller/lessee primarily in the business of canning, preserving, freezing, or dehydrating fresh fruits, vegetables, and fish, nor to the purchase amount paid by the lessee pursuant to an option to purchase at the end of the lease term: PROVIDED, That the seller/lessee previously paid the tax imposed by this chapter or chapter 82.12 RCW at the time of acquisition of the property.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 82.12 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply with respect to lease amounts paid by a seller/lessee to a lessor after the effective date of this act under a sale/leaseback agreement in respect to property used by the seller/lessee primarily in the business of canning, preserving, freezing, or dehydrating fresh fruits, vegetables, and fish, nor to the purchase amount paid by the lessee pursuant to an option to purchase at the end of the lease term: PROVIDED, That the seller/lessee previously paid the tax imposed by this chapter or chapter 82.08 RCW at the time of acquisition of the property.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "processing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.04.050 and 82.04.190; adding a new section to chapter 82.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.12 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Braddock moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1851, and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Grimm: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask the Speaker to rule on the scope and object of the Senate amendments to House Bill 1851."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The amendment added by the Senate speaks to the exemption from the sales tax for certain amounts paid by a seller/lessee to a lessor in sale/leaseback agreements of property used in those processes. After examining the title of the underlying bill and the Senate amendments, Representative Grimm, the Speaker finds that your point is well taken, the amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill."

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 5, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1972 with the following amendments:

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2014 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall have the authority to issue a notice of civil infraction if an infraction is committed in his or her presence or, if after investigation, the director has reasonable cause to believe an infraction has been committed. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to refuse to properly identify himself or herself for the purpose of issuance of a notice of infraction or to refuse to sign the written promise to appear or respond to a notice of infraction. Any person wilfully violating a written and signed promise to respond to a notice of infraction shall be guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the disposition of the notice of infraction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person who receives a notice of infraction shall respond to such notice as provided in this section within fifteen days of the date of the notice.

(2) Any employee or agent of a licensee under this chapter is fully authorized to accept a notice of infraction on behalf of the licensee. The director shall also furnish a copy of the notice of infraction to the licensee by certified mail within five days of issuance.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination, that person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response, which does not contest the determination, is received, an appropriate order shall be entered into the courts record and a record of the response shall be furnished to the director.

(4) If a person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination, that person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of the infraction requesting a hearing and submitted either by mail or in person to the court specified in the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and the date of the hearing which shall not be sooner than fifteen days from the date of the notice, except by agreement.

(5) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination, but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it either by mail or in person to the court specified in the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place and date of the hearing.

(6) If a person issued a notice of infraction fails to respond to the notice of infraction or fails to appear at the hearing requested pursuant to this section, the court shall enter an appropriate order in assessing the monetary penalty prescribed in the schedule of penalties submitted to the court by the director and shall notify the director of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

A hearing held for the purpose of contesting the determination that an infraction has been committed shall be held without jury. The court may consider the notice of infraction and any other written report submitted by the director. The person named in the notice may subpoena witnesses and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court. The burden of proof is upon the state to establish the commission of the infraction by preponderance of evidence.

After consideration of the evidence and argument, the court shall determine whether the infraction was committed. Where it is not established that the infraction was committed, an order dismissing the notice shall be entered in the court's record. When it is established that the infraction was committed, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's record, a copy of which shall be furnished to the director. Appeal from the court's determination or order shall be to the superior court and must be appealed within ten days. The decision of the superior court is subject only to discretionary review pursuant to Rule 2.3 of the rules of appellate procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

A hearing held for the purpose of allowing a person to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of an infraction shall be an informal proceeding. The person named in the notice may not subpoena witnesses. The determination that the infraction has been committed may not be contested at a hearing held for the purpose of explaining circumstances. After the court has heard the explanation of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the infraction, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's record. A copy of the order shall be furnished to the director. There may be no appeal from the court's determination or order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 20.01 RCW to read as follows:

Any person found to have committed a civil infraction under this chapter shall be assessed a monetary penalty. No monetary penalty so assessed may exceed one thousand dollars. The director shall adopt a schedule of monetary penalties for each violation of this chapter classified as a civil infraction and shall submit the schedule to the proper courts. Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by the court, the penalty is immediately due and payable. The court may, at its discretion, grant an extension of time, not to exceed thirty days, in which the penalty must be paid. Failure to pay any monetary penalties imposed under this chapter shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 8, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 20.01.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this title the terms defined in this section have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Director' means the director of agriculture or his duly authorized representative.

(2) 'Person' means any natural person, firm, partnership, exchange, association, trustee, receiver, corporation, and any member, officer, or employee thereof or assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(3) 'Agricultural product' means any unprocessed horticultural, vermicultural and its byproducts, viticultural, berry, poultry, poultry product, grain, bee, or other agricultural products, and includes mint or mint oil processed by or for the producer thereof and hay and straw baled or prepared for market in any manner or form and livestock. When used in RCW

60.13.020. 'agricultural product' means horticultural, viticultural, and berry products, hay and straw, and turf and forage seed and applies only when such products are delivered to a processor or conditioner in an unprocessed form.

(4) 'Producer' means any person engaged in the business of growing or producing any agricultural product, whether as the owner of the products, or producing the products for others holding the title thereof.

(5) 'Consignor' means any producer, person, or his agent who sells, ships, or delivers to any commission merchant, dealer, cash buyer, or agent, any agricultural product for processing, handling, sale, or resale.

(6) 'Commission merchant' means any person who receives on consignment for sale or processing and sale from the consignor thereof any agricultural product for sale on commission on behalf of the consignor, or who accepts any farm product in trust from the consignor thereof for the purpose of resale, or who sells or offers for sale on commission any agricultural product, or who in any way handles for the account of or as an agent of the consignor thereof, any agricultural product.

(7) 'Dealer' means any person other than a cash buyer, as defined in subsection (10) of this section, who solicits, contracts for, or obtains from the consignor thereof for reselling or processing, title, possession, or control of any agricultural product, or who buys or agrees to buy any agricultural product from the consignor thereof for sale or processing and includes any person, other than one who acts solely as a producer, who retains title in an agricultural product and delivers it to a producer for further production or increase. For the purposes of this chapter, the term dealer includes any person who purchases livestock on behalf of and for the account of another, or who purchases cattle in another state or country and imports these cattle into this state for resale.

(8) 'Limited dealer' means any person operating under the alternative bonding provision in RCW 20.01.211.

(9) 'Broker' means any person other than a commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer who negotiates the purchase or sale of any agricultural product, but no broker may handle the agricultural products involved or proceeds of the sale.

(10) 'Cash buyer' means any person other than a commission merchant, dealer, or broker, who obtains from the consignor thereof for the purpose of resale or processing, title, possession, or control of any agricultural product or who contracts for the title, possession, or control of any agricultural product, or who buys or agrees to buy any agricultural product by paying to the consignor at the time of obtaining possession or control of any agricultural product the full agreed price of the agricultural product, in coin or currency, lawful money of the United States. However, a cashier's check, certified check, or bankdraft may be used for the payment.

(11) 'Agent' means any person who, on behalf of any commission merchant, dealer, broker, or cash buyer, acts as liaison between a consignor and a principal, or receives, contracts for, or solicits any agricultural product from the consignor thereof or who negotiates the consignment or purchase of any agricultural product on behalf of any commission merchant, dealer, broker, or cash buyer and who transacts all or a portion of that business at any location other than at the principal place of business of his employer. With the exception of an agent for a commission merchant or dealer handling horticultural products, an agent may operate only in the name of one principal and only to the account of that principal.

(12) 'Retail merchant' means any person operating from a bona fide or established place of business selling agricultural products twelve months of each year. ~~(Any retailer may occasionally wholesale any agricultural product which he has in surplus; however, such wholesaling shall not be in excess of two percent of the retailer's gross business:)~~

(13) 'Fixed or established place of business' for the purpose of this chapter means any permanent warehouse, building, or structure, at which necessary and appropriate equipment and fixtures are maintained for properly handling those agricultural products generally dealt in, and at which supplies of the agricultural products being usually transported are stored, offered for sale, sold, delivered, and generally dealt in in quantities reasonably adequate for and usually carried for the requirements of such a business, and that is recognized as a permanent business at such place, and carried on as such in good faith and not for the purpose of evading this chapter, and where specifically designated personnel are available to handle transactions concerning those agricultural products generally dealt in, which personnel are available during designated and appropriate hours to that business, and shall not mean a residence, barn, garage, tent, temporary stand or other temporary quarters, any railway car, or permanent quarters occupied pursuant to any temporary arrangement.

(14) 'Processor' means any person, firm, company, or other organization that purchases agricultural crops from a consignor and that cans, freezes, dries, dehydrates, cooks, presses, powders, or otherwise processes those crops in any manner whatsoever for eventual resale.

(15) 'Pooling contract' means any written agreement whereby a consignor delivers a horticultural product to a commission merchant under terms whereby the commission merchant may commingle the consignor's horticultural products for sale with others similarly agreeing, which must include all of the following:

(a) A delivery receipt for the consignor that indicates the variety of horticultural product delivered, the number of containers, or the weight and tare thereof;

(b) Horticultural products received for handling and sale in the fresh market shall be accounted for to the consignor with individual pack-out records that shall include variety, grade, size, and date of delivery. Individual daily packing summaries shall be available within forty-eight hours after packing occurs. However, platform inspection shall be acceptable by mutual contract agreement on small deliveries to determine variety, grade, size, and date of delivery;

(c) Terms under which the commission merchant may use his judgment in regard to the sale of the pooled horticultural product;

(d) The charges to be paid by the consignor as filed with the state of Washington;

(e) A provision that the consignor shall be paid for his pool contribution when the pool is in the process of being marketed in direct proportion, not less than eighty percent of his interest less expenses directly incurred, prior liens, and other advances on the grower's crop unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between grower and commission merchant.

(16) 'Date of sale' means the date agricultural products are delivered to the person buying the products.

(17) 'Boom loader' means a person who owns or operates, or both, a mechanical device mounted on a vehicle and used to load hay or straw for compensation.

(18) 'Conditioner' means any person, firm, company, or other organization that receives turf, forage, or vegetable seeds from a consignor for drying or cleaning.

(19) 'Seed bailment contract' means any contract meeting the requirements of chapter 15.48 RCW.

(20) 'Proprietary seed' means any seed that is protected under the Federal Plant Variety Protection Act.

(21) 'Licensed public weighmaster' means any person, licensed under the provisions of chapter 15.80 RCW, who weighs, measures, or counts any commodity or thing and issues therefor a signed certified statement, ticket, or memorandum of weight, measure, or count upon which the purchase or sale of any commodity or upon which the basic charge of payment for services rendered is based.

(22) 'Certified weight' means any signed certified statement or memorandum of weight, measure or count issued by a licensed public weighmaster in accordance with the provisions of chapter 15.80 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 232, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 6, chapter 182, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 20.01.125 are each amended to read as follows:

Every dealer and commission merchant dealing in hay or straw shall obtain a certified vehicle tare weight and a certified vehicle gross weight for each load hauled and shall furnish the consignor with a copy of such certified weight ticket within seventy-two hours after taking delivery. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any licensee to transport hay or straw which has been purchased by weight without having obtained a certified weight ticket from the first licensed public weighmaster which would be encountered on the ordinary route to the destination where the hay or straw is to be unloaded.

Sec. 8. Section 13, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 and RCW 20.01.130 are each amended to read as follows:

All fees and other moneys received by the department under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the director and shall be used solely for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter and rules ~~((and regulations))~~ adopted hereunder. All civil fines received by the courts as the result of notices of infractions issued by the director shall be paid to the director, less any mandatory court costs and assessments.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 232, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 4, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before the license is issued to any commission merchant or dealer, or both, the applicant shall execute and deliver to the director a surety bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state as surety. Said bond shall be to the state for the benefit of qualified consignors of agricultural products in this state. All such sureties on a bond, as provided herein, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond by giving notice to the principal and the director by certified mail. Upon receipt of such notice the director shall notify the surety and the principal of the effective date of termination which shall be thirty days from the receipt of such notice by the director, but this shall not relieve, release, or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration period provided for above.

(2) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall be not less than fifteen thousand dollars (for a commission merchant, or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed, hay, or straw). The actual amount of such bond shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of the licensee's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by twelve and increasing that amount to the next multiple of five thousand dollars, except that the bond amount for dollar volume arising from proprietary seed bailment contracts shall be computed as provided in subsection (4) of this section. Such bond for a new commission merchant or dealer in hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall be subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation based on the average of business volume for any three months. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the bond shall be not less than three thousand dollars for any other dealer.

(3) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in livestock shall be not less than (seven thousand five hundred) ten thousand dollars. ((*) The actual amount of such bond shall be determined in accordance with the formula set forth in the packers and stockyard act of 1921 (7 U.S.C. 181), except that a commission merchant or dealer in livestock shall increase his bond by five thousand dollars for each agent he has endorsed under RCW 20.01.090.

(4) The bond for a commission merchant ((or dealer, other than a commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw.)) handling agricultural products other than livestock, hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall not be less than seven thousand five hundred dollars. The bond for a dealer handling agricultural products other than livestock, hay, straw or turf, forage or vegetable seed shall not be less than three thousand dollars. The actual amount of such bond shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of ((that commission merchant's or dealer's)) the licensee's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by fifty-two and increasing that amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars. However, bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be increased to the next multiple of five thousand dollars.

(5) ((The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of that commission merchant's or dealer's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by twelve and increasing that amount to the next multiple of five thousand dollars, except that the determination of bond amounts for any portion of dollar volume directly related to proprietary seed bailment contracts shall be computed as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The bond for a new commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or dealer in hay or straw is subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation and shall be based on the monthly average of the volume of purchases of any three months of operation.

(6)) When the annual dollar volume of any commission merchant or dealer reaches two million six hundred thousand dollars, the amount of the bond required above this level shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived at by applying the appropriate formula.

Sec. 10. Section 22, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 4, chapter 194, Laws of 1982 and RCW 20.01.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any consignor of an agricultural product claiming to be injured by the fraud of any commission merchant and/or dealer or their agents may bring action upon said bond against principal, surety, and agent in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages caused by such fraud. Any consignor undertaking such an action shall name the director as a party.

Sec. 11. Section 23, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 and RCW 20.01.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or any consignor of an agricultural product may also bring action upon said bond against both principal and surety in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages caused by any failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules ((and regulations)) adopted hereunder. Any consignor undertaking such an action shall name the director as a party.

Sec. 12. Section 24, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 and RCW 20.01.240 are each amended to read as follows:

((In case of failure of a commission merchant and/or dealer to pay a consignor for an agricultural product received from said consignor, the director shall proceed forthwith)) (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, any consignor who believes he or she has a valid claim against the bond of a commission merchant or dealer shall file a claim with the director. Upon the filing of a claim under this subsection against any commission merchant or dealer handling any agricultural product, the director may, after investigation, proceed to ascertain the names and addresses of all consignor creditors of such commission merchant and((for)) dealer, together with the amounts due and owing to them by such commission merchant and((for)) dealer, and shall request all such consignor creditors to file a verified statement of their respective claims with the director. Such request shall be addressed to each known consignor creditor at his last known address.

(2) Any consignor who believes he or she has a valid claim against the bond of a commission merchant or dealer in hay or straw, shall file a claim with the director within twenty days of the licensee's default. In the case of a claim against the bond of a commission merchant or unlimited dealer in hay or straw, default occurs when the licensee fails to make payment within thirty days of the date the licensee took possession of the hay or straw. In the case of a claim against a limited dealer in hay or straw, default occurs when the licensee fails to make payment upon taking possession of the hay or straw. Upon verifying the consignor's claim either through investigation or, if necessary, an administrative action, the director shall, within ten working days of the filing of the claim, make demand for payment of the claim by the licensee's surety without regard to any other potentially valid claim. Any subsequent claim will likewise result in a demand against the licensee's surety, subject to the availability of any remaining bond proceeds.

Sec. 13. Section 46, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 4, chapter 20, Laws of 1982 and RCW 20.01.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a))~~ Any person who violates the provisions of this chapter or fails to comply with the rules adopted under this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Any commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer, or any person assuming or attempting to act as a commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer without a license is guilty of a class C felony who:

(a) Imposes false charges for handling or services in connection with agricultural products.

(b) Makes fictitious sales or is guilty of collusion to defraud the consignor.

(c) Intentionally makes false statement or statements as to the grade, conditions, markings, quality, or quantity of goods shipped or packed in any manner.

(d) ~~((Intentionally))~~ Fails to ~~((pay for agricultural products valued at more than two hundred fifty dollars within the time and in the manner required by this chapter, or attempts payment of an amount greater than two hundred fifty dollars by a check he or she knows not to be backed by sufficient funds to cover such check))~~ comply with the payment requirements set forth under RCW 20.01.010(10), 20.01.390 or 20.01.430.

(3) Any person who violates the provisions of RCW 20.01.040, 20.01.120, 20.01.125, 20.01.410 or 20.01.610 has committed a civil infraction.

Sec. 14. Section 8, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.610 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or his appointed officers may stop a vehicle transporting hay or straw upon the public roads of this state if there is reasonable cause to believe the carrier, seller, or buyer may be in violation of this chapter. Any operator of a vehicle failing or refusing to stop when directed to do so ~~((is guilty of a misdemeanor))~~ has committed a civil infraction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 60.13 RCW to read as follows:

A person who controls or possesses amounts payable to the preparer of dairy products or the preparer's assigns, if the preparer or preparer's assigns is not a producer-handler, which are properly encumbered by a preparer's lien upon an account receivable shall not be obligated to pay a producer amounts to which the producer's preparer lien has attached until that person receives written notice of such lien, nor shall that person be liable to the producer for any amounts paid out prior to receipt of said notice. The notice required herein shall contain the information described in RCW 60.13.040(2). If requested by the person responsible for payment of such amounts, the producer must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the preparer lien continues to exist and unless such proof is so furnished, that person has no obligation to pay the producer. A preparer of dairy products shall provide the name of the purchaser or marketing agent of the products to the producer upon request.

Failure to furnish the written notice as provided in this section shall not affect the status of the lien established under this chapter in regard to the relationship with other creditors.

Sec. 16. Section 9-204, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 41, Laws of 1981 and RCW 62A.9-204 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a security agreement may provide that any or all obligations covered by the security agreement are to be secured by after-acquired collateral.

(2) No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause to consumer goods other than accessions (RCW 62A.9-314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within ten days after the secured party gives value.

(3) Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment (subsection (1) of RCW 62A.9-105).

(4) A security interest cannot attach to livestock or to meat or meat products made from such livestock, where: (a) The livestock was sold to the commission merchant or dealer in livestock as defined in chapter 20.01 RCW or to a commercial feedlot by another party, (b) this other party has been paid by draft or check, and (c) the draft or check remains outstanding; PROVIDED, That a security interest may attach when the draft or check has been outstanding more than ten days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 69, Laws of 1965 and RCW 20.01.035; and

(2) Section 29, chapter 139, Laws of 1959, section 6, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.290."

The motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. J. King, further consideration of the resolution was deferred.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

- (a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;
- (b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;
- (c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;
- (d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, 'managed health care system' means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:

(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;

(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;

(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;

(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;

(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;

(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-of-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services; and

(i) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to Medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Washington basic health project' or 'project' means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) 'Board' means the Washington basic health project board created under section 6 of this act.

(3) 'Managed health care system' means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis to a defined patient population by enrollment in the project and in the managed health care system.

(4) 'Enrollee' means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who resides in a project area, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, does not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) 'Subsidy' means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health project trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) 'Project area' means one of not more than twelve distinct geographical areas within the state selected by the board as a demonstration site for the Washington basic health project. To the extent possible, the board shall select at least one project area in each congressional district of the state, define project areas coterminously with individual or adjacent cities, counties, or hospital districts, and take into special consideration any formal requests received from local governments or health care providers for selection of particular project areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health project trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health project board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the project and payment of costs of administering the project. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health project trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health project board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board may be colocated with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor. The governor shall select one member to serve as chairman. Not more than one member may have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms. However, of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, two shall be appointed to four-year terms, one to a three-year term, one to a two-year term, and one to a one-year term. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board may serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless three members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit.

The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such technical or other advisory committees as it deems necessary. The board shall appoint a standing technical advisory committee that is representative of health care professionals, health care providers, and those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, including consumers and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy. Individuals appointed to any technical or advisory committee shall serve without compensation for their services as members, but may be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the board.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, rules consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health project shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the project only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. In each project area, the board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who qualify for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes in the area. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close project enrollment in the area until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 17 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

(3) To select not more than twelve project areas in the state as sites for the project. In selecting the areas, the board shall take into account the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity among project sites, the actual and potential availability of managed health care systems in different parts of the state, levels and rates of unemployment in possible project areas, and the need to assess the financial ability of the project to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state's population that lacks basic health care coverage.

(4) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the project. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the project from among a selection of participating managed health care systems in at least some project areas. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the project areas.

(5) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health project operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(6) To accept applications from individuals residing in project areas, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health project, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above two and one-half times the poverty level for twelve consecutive months, by making payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 17 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(7) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(8) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the project area, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(9) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(10) To initiate, at the option of the board, a matching grant program, in up to three project areas, to demonstrate the potential that better coordination of all local primary health care resources in the provision of necessary care to low-income residents who are unlikely or unable to enroll in the project can be more cost-effective. The board may award grants to local governments that sponsor consortia of health care providers, including at least one hospital in each area. Any grant proposal must meet minimum standards set by the board, including requirements for coordination of care by local providers and for coordination of local funding sources, which may include in-kind charity care provided by hospitals and physicians as well as public or private funds and sliding-scale payments from individuals served. Any grants awarded under this subsection shall be made from funds appropriated for such purpose from the Washington basic health project trust account, may be extended for up to three years, and shall be on the basis of one dollar from the board for every four dollars of local or private funds expended in the demonstration program.

(11) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the project shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. In each project area, on and after a date set by the board for the area, but in no case before March 31, 1987, enrollees whose payments to the board are current are entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. The board shall not at any time maintain enrollment of more than thirty thousand enrollees who are eligible for subsidies. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the project as a whole and in each project area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of a project area may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the project and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the project. Upon removal of an enrollee from the project, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the project shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. A participating managed health care system may offer, but not require acceptance of, additional health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the project, that will be the sole responsibility of the enrollee. Any action by or on behalf of any enrollee based on a claim of professional negligence shall, at the option of the enrollee, be submitted for arbitration under chapter 7.04 RCW. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The project shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective project areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the project, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a project area; and

(4) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference, in one or more project areas, to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Enrollees of any participating managed health care system may, if offered, execute an agreement on behalf of themselves and/or any dependents enrolled in the project to arbitrate any dispute, controversy, or issue arising out of health care or treatment rendered by or through the managed health care system. The agreement to arbitrate shall provide that its execution is not a prerequisite to enrollment in the project or the provision of any services and shall provide that the enrollee may revoke the agreement within sixty days after execution by notifying the managed health care system in writing.

The agreement shall contain the following provision in at least nine-point boldface type immediately above the space for signature of the parties:

'This agreement to arbitrate is not a prerequisite to enrollment or the provision of any services and may be revoked by the enrollee within sixty days after execution by notification in writing.'

Participating managed health care systems that use arbitration agreements shall furnish to the enrollee at the time of enrollment a copy of an information brochure, prepared and approved by the board, which clearly outlines the arbitration process as an alternative dispute resolution process to that of a court and/or jury trial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The board shall submit to the 1987 session of the legislature the design plan for a schedule of basic health care services as outlined in section 10 of this act, including appropriate co-payments and/or deductibles, and the schedule of periodic payments that will be the responsibility of any enrollee. For this project to remain in effect it must be approved by the legislature by June 30, 1987, and the level of benefits and periodic payments cannot be changed without legislative approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the project on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the project, and no premium may be charged to such an enrollee. With respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the project shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the project under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the project. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of project enrollees and payments on their behalf between the project and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems.

(3) With health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015 and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance. Any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

(4) With any public hospital district established under chapter 70.44 RCW or with any county or city, to administer the project as the board's agent with respect to enrollees residing and managed health care systems serving a project area within the boundaries of the district, county, or city: PROVIDED, That the district, county, or city shares with the board, on a dollar for dollar matching basis, the cost of payments to participating managed health care systems for coverage of enrollees residing within the boundaries of the district, county, or city less the amounts payable by enrollees to the district, county, or city as agent for the board. However, if the unemployment rate of a participating county exceeds by twenty percent or more the state average as determined by the employment security department, the board may increase the level of its contribution to not more than two dollars for each local dollar.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the project and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the project, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health project under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the project, are exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify in writing any person filing a claim under this chapter who resides in a project area of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health project under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act), unless the Washington basic health project board has notified the commissioner of a closure of enrollment in the area. The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health project enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 74.08 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify in writing any applicant for public assistance who resides in a project area and is under sixty-five years of age of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health project under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act), unless the Washington basic health project board has notified the department of a closure of enrollment in the area. The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health project enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health project.

Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to six and five-tenths percent of the selling price.

(2) An additional tax is imposed, effective January 1, 1987, through June 30, 1992, equal to one-twentieth of one percent. The moneys collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the basic health project trust account of the state treasury.

(3) The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property.

((3)) (4) The rates provided in this section ((applies)) apply to taxes imposed under chapter 82.12 RCW as provided in RCW 82.12.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The Washington basic health project board shall be appointed and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this act. Not later than December 1, 1986, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 10 of this act;

(2) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health project, along with an identification of prospective project areas;

(3) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health project trust account as of March 31 and June 30, 1987;

(4) An estimate of the number of enrollees whose basic health care coverage under this chapter can be expected to be financed during the 1987-88 and 1988-1989 state fiscal years by combining revenue received under RCW 82.08.020(2) with payments from the enrollees;

(5) A description of the sliding fee schedule for periodic enrollee payments adopted by the board under section 10 of this act:

(6) Any proposals for statutory changes which the board deems necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter:

(7) A draft of the brochure on arbitration that may be used under section 15 of this act by participating managed health care systems; and

(8) Any other information which the board deems appropriate.

Not later than January 1, 1988, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1986 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the project to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 12 of this act. The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 1 of each year thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 4 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is appropriated from the general fund to the basic health project trust account, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of one million dollars, to carry out the purposes of sections 4 through 30 of this act. Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable, but not later than June 30, 1987, from the revenue accruing to the basic health project trust account under RCW 82.08.020(2).

There is appropriated from the basic health project trust account of the state treasury to the Washington basic health project board, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of five million dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, not exceeding funds deposited in the account, to carry out the purposes of chapter 70. RCW (sections 4 through 20 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington basic health project board and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, 1991, as provided in section 28 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1992:

- (1) Section 4 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (2) Section 5 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (3) Section 6 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (4) Section 7 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (5) Section 8 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (6) Section 9 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (7) Section 10 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (8) Section 11 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (9) Section 12 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (10) Section 13 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (11) Section 14 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (12) Section 15 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (13) Section 16 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (14) Section 17 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (15) Section 18 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (16) Section 19 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (17) Section 20 of this act and RCW 70._____;
- (18) Section 21 of this act and RCW 50.20._____ and
- (19) Section 22 of this act and RCW 74.08._____.

Sec. 29. Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1943 as amended by section 1, chapter 209, Laws of 1947 and RCW 7.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Two or more parties may agree in writing to submit to arbitration, in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, any controversy which may be the subject of an action existing between them at the time of the agreement to submit, or they may include in a written agreement a provision to settle by arbitration any controversy thereafter arising between them out of or in relation to such agreement. Any contract providing prepaid health care services may include an agreement to settle by arbitration any controversy thereafter arising between the consumer and a health care provider with respect to personal injury or wrongful death.

Such agreement shall be valid, enforceable and irrevocable save upon such grounds as exist in law or equity for the revocation of any agreement.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any arbitration agreement between employers and employees or between employers and associations of employees, and as to any such agreement the parties thereto may provide for any method and procedure for the settlement of existing or future disputes and controversies, and such procedure shall be valid, enforceable and irrevocable save upon such grounds as exist in law or equity for the revocation of any agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. An impartial and thorough review of past and current practices in dealing with the costs of charity care rendered by health care providers, both institutional and individual, is necessary in view of the increasing use of prospective payment systems by major purchasers of health care. The governor, in consultation with officials in appropriate state agencies such as the department of social and health services, the hospital commission, the basic health project board, and others, including members of the legislature, such as the chairman and ranking minority members of the committees on ways and means, human services and corrections, and social and health services, as well as the officers of any organizations of health care providers and the major insurers or purchasers of health care in the state, shall initiate such a review that includes recommendations of possible solutions for legislative consideration. The review and report will include, as a priority item, recommendations on how to address the incidence of charity care that may be provided by hospitals, including those amounts that patients and/or their families are unable to pay, but not those amounts that anyone able to pay shall refuse to pay. Up to fifty thousand dollars of the funds appropriated to the basic health project by section 26 of this act may be expended, upon certification by the director of financial management, in connection with the review, including consultant services that might be required. A report to the legislature shall be submitted by December 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 31. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 32. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 33. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, of which ninety thousand is from the general fund—state and sixty thousand is from the general fund—federal, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, for the purposes identified in sections 2 and 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 34. The department of social and health services shall not require a certificate of need for the commencement of obstetrical services by an existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.41.020."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "health care," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 82.08.020 and 7.04.010; adding a new section to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.131 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency," and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. J. King moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Braddock: "Mr. Speaker, I request the Speaker to rule on the scope and object of the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2021."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined the underlying bill, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021, 'An Act Relating to managed health care....' The Speaker has also looked at the purpose of the bill, '...the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid...' and so forth. The Speaker notes that the amendment is an increase of a tenth of one percent in the retail sales tax and it also deals with the certificate of need process which is in a different title of the RCWs. The Speaker, after examining the Senate amendment and the original bill, finds that your point is well taken; the amendment is out of order. The motion to concur is not in order."

MOTION

Ms. Brekke moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 55; nays, 42; excused, 1.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Braddock, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1992 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Locke, Wineberry and Sanders as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1992.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 131 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I

UNIFORM DISCIPLINARY ACT

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to strengthen and consolidate disciplinary procedures for the licensed health and health-related professions and businesses by providing a uniform disciplinary act with standardized procedures for the enforcement of laws the purpose of which is to assure the public of the adequacy of professional competence and conduct in the healing arts.

It is also the intent of the legislature that all health and health-related professions newly created by the state come under the uniform disciplinary act.

Further, the legislature declares that the addition of public members on all health care boards can give both the state and the public, which it has a statutory responsibility to protect, assurances of accountability and confidence in the various practices of health care.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Disciplining authority' means (a) the board of medical examiners, the board of dental examiners, and the board of chiropractic examiners with respect to applicants for a license for the respective professions, (b) the medical disciplinary board, the dental disciplinary board, and the chiropractic disciplinary board with respect to holders of licenses for the respective professions, or (c) the agency or board having the authority to take disciplinary action against a holder of, or applicant for, a professional or business license upon a finding of a violation of this chapter or ~~((the chapter under which the license is held))~~ a chapter specified under RCW 18.130.040.

- (2) 'Department' means the department of licensing.
- (3) 'Director' means the director of licensing or the director's designee.
- (4) 'Board' means any of those boards specified in RCW 18.130.040.
- (5) 'Unlicensed practice' means:
 - (a) Practicing a profession or operating a business identified in RCW 18.130.040 without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so; or
 - (b) Representing to a consumer, through offerings, advertisements, or use of a professional title or designation, that the individual is qualified to practice a profession or operate a business identified in RCW 18.130.040, without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so.
- (6) 'Disciplinary action' means sanctions identified in RCW 18.130.160.
- (7) 'Practice review' means an investigative audit of records related to the complaint, without prior identification of specific patient or consumer names, to determine whether unprofessional conduct may have been committed.
- (8) 'Health agency' means city and county health departments and the department of social and health services.
- (9) 'License,' 'licensing,' and 'licensure' shall be deemed equivalent to the terms 'license,' 'licensing,' 'licensure,' 'certificate,' 'certification,' and 'registration' as those terms are defined in RCW 18.120.020.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 29, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.130.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

- (2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:
 - (i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;
 - (ii) Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW;
 - (iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;
 - (iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;
 - (v) ~~((Psychologists licensed under chapter 18.83 RCW unless a disciplinary committee is established under chapter 18.83 RCW;~~

- ~~((vi))~~ (vi) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;
- ~~((vii))~~ (vii) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW; and
- ~~((viii))~~ (viii) Acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.
- (b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:
 - (i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;
 - (ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;
 - (iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;
 - (iv) The council on hearing aids as established in chapter 18.35 RCW;
 - (v) The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;
 - (vi) The board of examiners for nursing home administrators as established in chapter 18.52 RCW;
 - (vii) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;
 - (viii) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;
 - (ix) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;
 - (x) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;
 - (xi) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;
 - (xii) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;
 - (xiii) The disciplinary committee established by the examining board of psychology under chapter 18.83 RCW;

- ~~((xiv))~~ (xiv) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and
- ~~((xv))~~ (xv) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority(~~(-the board of chiropractic examiners;~~ the board of dental examiners, and the board of medical examiners; if adopted pursuant to this chapter by the disciplinary authority)).

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The disciplining authority may adopt rules requiring any person, including, but not limited to, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and ((federal;)) state((;)) or local governmental agencies, to report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that a license holder has committed an act which constitutes unprofessional conduct, or to report information which indicates that the license holder may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety to consumers as a result of a mental or physical condition. To facilitate meeting the intent of this section, the cooperation of agencies of the federal government is requested by reporting any conviction, determination, or finding that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter has committed an act which constituted unprofessional conduct and reporting any information which indicates that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety as a result of a mental or physical condition.

(2) If a person fails to furnish a required report, the disciplining authority may petition the superior court of the county in which the person resides or is found, and the court shall issue to the person an order to furnish the required report. A failure to obey the order shall be punished by the court as civil contempt.

(3) A person is immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the disciplining authority pursuant to the rules adopted under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The holder of a license subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter shall report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that the licensee has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. Failure to report within thirty days of notice of the conviction, determination, or finding constitutes grounds for disciplinary action.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A person, ((firm, corporation, or public officer)) including but not limited to consumers, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and state and local governmental agencies, may submit a written complaint to the disciplining authority charging a license holder or applicant with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. If the disciplining authority determines that the complaint merits investigation, or if the disciplining authority has reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that a license holder or applicant may have engaged in unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall investigate to determine whether there has been unprofessional conduct. A person who files a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in any civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority determines, upon investigation, that there is reason to believe a violation of RCW 18.130.180 has occurred, a statement of charge or charges shall be prepared and served upon the license holder or applicant at the earliest practical time. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the disciplining authority within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the disciplining authority may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be fixed by the disciplining authority as soon as convenient, but the hearing shall not be held earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing. The notice shall also notify the license holder or applicant that a record of the proceeding will be kept, that he or she will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses, who will be subject to cross-examination, and evidence in his or her own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him or her, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him or her, to conduct depositions, and to have subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority.

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.130 are each amended to read as follows:

An order pursuant to proceedings authorized by this chapter, after due notice and findings in accordance with this chapter and chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered under this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its being served. The order, if appealed to the court, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the disciplining authority or court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the disciplining authority, which stay shall provide for terms necessary to protect the public.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon a finding that a license holder or applicant has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition, the disciplining authority may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

- (1) Revocation of the license;
- (2) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
- (3) Restriction or limitation (~~((on the license holder's))~~) of the practice;
- (4) (~~((The establishment of a requirement that))~~) Requiring the ~~((license holder satisfactorily complete))~~ satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;
- (5) The monitoring of the ~~((license holder's))~~ practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;
- (6) Censure or reprimand;
- (7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
- (8) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account;
- (9) Denial of the license request;
- (10) Corrective action (~~((by the license holder))~~);
- (11) Refund of fees (~~((charged))~~) billed to and collected from the consumer (~~((by the license holder))~~).

Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the disciplining authority. In determining what action is appropriate, the disciplining authority must first consider what sanctions are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after such provisions have been made may the disciplining authority consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the license holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant.

Sec. 9. Section 17, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority believes a license holder or applicant may be unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to consumers by reason of any mental or physical condition, a statement of charges in the name of the disciplining authority shall be served on the license holder or applicant and notice shall also be issued providing an opportunity for a hearing. The hearing shall be limited to the sole issue of the capacity of the license holder or applicant to practice with reasonable skill and safety. If the disciplining authority determines that the license holder or applicant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the disciplining authority shall impose such sanctions under RCW 18.130.160 as is deemed necessary to protect the public.

(2) In enforcing this section, the disciplining authority may require a license holder or applicant to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more (~~((physicians, a psychological examination by one or more licensed psychologists))~~) licensed or certified health professionals designated by the disciplining authority (~~((or any combination thereof))~~). The cost of the examinations ordered by the disciplining authority shall be paid out of the health professions account. In addition to any examinations ordered by the disciplining authority, the licensee may submit (~~((psychiatric))~~) physical(~~(:)~~) or (~~((psychological))~~) mental examination reports from (~~((physicians or psychologists))~~) licensed or certified health professionals of the license holder's or applicant's choosing and expense. Failure of a license holder or applicant to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension or denial of the license, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentations of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the person's control. A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that a license holder or applicant is mentally incompetent or mentally ill is presumptive evidence of the license holder's or applicant's inability to practice with reasonable skill and safety. An individual affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that the individual can resume competent practice with reasonable skill and safety to the consumer.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, an applicant or license holder governed by this chapter, by making application, practicing, or filing a license renewal, is deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental, physical, or psychological examination when directed in writing by the disciplining authority and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility or use of the examining (~~((physician's or psychologist's))~~) health professional's testimony or examination reports by the disciplining authority on the ground that the testimony or reports constitute privileged communications.

Sec. 10. Section 18, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

- (1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. ~~((The disciplinary authority shall define by rule acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession.))~~ If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;
- (2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;
- (3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;
- (4) Incompetence, negligence, or ~~((use of any practice or procedure in the practice of the profession which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer))~~ malpractice which results in injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed;
- (5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice the profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;
- (6) The possession, use, ~~((addiction to,))~~ prescription for use, ~~((diversion,))~~ or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, ~~((or))~~ the addition to or diversion of controlled substances or legend drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing ((drugs)) controlled substances for oneself;
- (7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;
- (8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:
 - (a) Not furnishing any papers or documents;
 - (b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority; or
 - (c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding;
- (9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining authority or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the disciplining authority;
- (10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;
- (11) ~~((Willful or repeated))~~ Violations of rules established by any health agency ((or authority of the state or a political subdivision thereof));
- (12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or rule;
- (13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;
- (14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;
- (15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;
- (16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;
- (17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;
- (18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;
- (19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;
- (20) The wilful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;
- (21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW;
- (22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by wilful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;
- (23) Drunkenness or habitual intemperance in the use of alcohol or addiction to alcohol;
- (24) ~~((Physical))~~ Abuse of a client or patient or sexual contact with a client or patient.

Sec. 11. Section 19, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall investigate (~~bona fide~~) complaints concerning practice by unlicensed individuals of a profession requiring a license. In the investigation of the complaints, the director shall have the same authority as provided the director for the investigation of complaints against license holders. The director shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated this subsection. If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The cease and desist order shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(2) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the director, a board, or any individual may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin any individual practicing a licensed profession without a license from engaging in such practice until the required license is secured. However, the injunction shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(3) Unlicensed practice of a profession under the jurisdiction of a disciplining authority specified in RCW 18.130.040 (~~(without a license)~~), unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of this section shall be remitted to the health professions account.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.200 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who attempts to obtain or obtains a license by wilful misrepresentation or fraudulent representation is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Section 22, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.210 are each amended to read as follows:

If the disciplining authority determines or has cause to believe that a license holder has committed a crime, the disciplining authority, immediately subsequent to issuing findings of fact and a final order, shall (~~(-in addition to taking the appropriate administrative action, concurrently)~~) notify the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney in the county in which the act took place of the facts known to the disciplining authority.

Sec. 14. Section 24, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.900 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter shall be known and cited as the uniform disciplinary act.

(2) This chapter applies to any conduct, acts, or conditions occurring on or after the effective date of this 1986 act.

(3) This chapter does not apply to or govern the construction of and disciplinary action for any conduct, acts, or conditions occurring prior to the effective date of this 1986 act. Such conduct, acts, or conditions must be construed and disciplinary action taken according to the provisions of law existing at the time of the occurrence in the same manner as if this chapter had not been enacted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW to read as follows:

If an individual or business regulated by this chapter violates RCW 18.130.170 or 18.130.180, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, the board, or any other person may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin the person from committing the violations. The injunction shall not relieve the offender from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of the offender to criminal prosecution and disciplinary action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.030 are each repealed.

PART II PODIATRY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 18.22 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 10, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.22.015 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall:

(1) Administer all laws placed under its jurisdiction;

(2) Prepare, grade, and administer or determine the nature, grading, and administration of examinations for applicants for podiatrist licenses;

(3) Examine and investigate all applicants for podiatrist licenses and certify to the director all applicants it judges to be properly qualified(;

(4) ~~Conduct hearings for the refusal, suspension, or revocation of licenses or appoint a departmental hearing officer to conduct these hearings;~~

(5) investigate all reports, complaints, and charges of malpractice, unsafe conditions or practices, or unprofessional conduct against any licensed podiatrist and direct corrective action if necessary;

(6) issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;

(7) Take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding; and

(8) Adopt rules establishing ethical standards for the podiatric profession including rules relating to false or misleading advertising and excessive charges for professional services)).

The board may adopt any ((other)) rules which it considers necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 11, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.22.016;

(2) Section 26, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.22.017;

(3) Section 13, chapter 52, Laws of 1957, section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1973, section 3, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.22.020;

(4) Section 15, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.22.141;

(5) Section 16, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.22.151;

(6) Section 14, chapter 149, Laws of 1955, section 18, chapter 77, Laws of 1973, section 18, chapter 21, Laws of 1982, section 24, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.22.215;

(7) Section 3, chapter 38, Laws of 1917 (uncodified); and

(8) Section 2, chapter 48, Laws of 1935 (uncodified).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The repeal of RCW 18.22.020, 18.22.141, and 18.22.151 shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART III CHIROPRACTIC

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 18.25 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 18.26 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

 (5) Section 15, chapter 43, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.34.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. The repeal of RCW 18.34.090 and 18.34.140 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART VII
HEARING AIDS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. A new section is added to chapter 18.35 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 49. Section 11, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 39, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.35.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to causes specified under RCW 18.130.170 and 18.130.180, any person licensed under this chapter may be subject to disciplinary action by the council for any of the following causes:

(1) ~~((The licensee, in the application for the license, or in any written or oral communication to the department concerning the issuance or retention of the license, has made any material misstatement of fact, or has omitted to disclose any material fact which makes that which is stated misleading:~~

~~((2)) For unethical conduct (or for gross incompetence)) in dealing in hearing aids. Unethical conduct shall include, but not be limited to:~~

~~(a) Using or causing or promoting the use of, in any advertising matter, promotional literature, testimonial, guarantee, warranty, label, brand, insignia, or any other representation, however disseminated or published, which is false, misleading or deceptive;~~

~~(b) ((Employing directly or indirectly any suspended or unlicensed person to perform any work covered by this chapter:~~

~~(c)) Failing or refusing to honor or to perform as represented any representation, promise, agreement, or warranty in connection with the promotion, sale, dispensing, or fitting of the hearing aid:~~

~~((d)) (c) Advertising a particular model, type, or kind of hearing aid for sale which purchasers or prospective purchasers responding to the advertisement cannot purchase or are dissuaded from purchasing and where it is established that the purpose of the advertisement is to obtain prospects for the sale of a different model, type, or kind than that advertised;~~

~~((e)) (d) Falsifying hearing test or evaluation results;~~

~~((f)) (e) (i) Whenever any of the following conditions are found or should have been found to exist either from observations by the licensee or on the basis of information furnished by the prospective hearing aid user prior to fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any such prospective hearing aid user, failing to advise that prospective hearing aid user in writing that the user should first consult a licensed physician specializing in diseases of the ear or if no such licensed physician is available in the community then to any duly licensed physician:~~

~~(A) Visible congenital or traumatic deformity of the ear, including perforation of the eardrum;~~

~~(B) History of, or active drainage from the ear within the previous ninety days;~~

~~(C) History of sudden or rapidly progressive hearing loss within the previous ninety days;~~

~~(D) Acute or chronic dizziness;~~

~~(E) Any unilateral hearing loss;~~

~~(F) Significant air-bone gap when generally acceptable standards have been established as defined by the food and drug administration;~~

~~(G) Visible evidence of significant cerumen accumulation or a foreign body in the ear canal;~~

~~(H) Pain or discomfort in the ear; or~~

(f) Any other conditions that the department may by rule establish. It is a violation of this subsection for any licensee or that licensee's employees and putative agents upon making such required referral for medical opinion to in any manner whatsoever disparage or discourage a prospective hearing aid user from seeking such medical opinion prior to the fitting and dispensing of a hearing aid. No such referral for medical opinion need be made by any licensee in the instance of replacement only of a hearing aid which has been lost or damaged beyond repair within six months of the date of purchase. The licensee or the licensee's employees or putative agents shall obtain a signed statement from the hearing aid user documenting the waiver of medical clearance and the waiver shall inform the prospective user that signing the waiver is not in the user's best health interest: PROVIDED, That the licensee shall maintain a copy of either the physician's statement showing that the prospective hearing aid user has had a medical evaluation or the statement waiving medical evaluation, for a period of three years after the purchaser's receipt of a hearing aid. Nothing in this section required to be performed by a licensee shall mean that the licensee is engaged in the diagnosis of illness or the practice of medicine or any other activity prohibited under the laws of this state;

(ii) Fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any person under eighteen years of age who has not been examined and cleared for hearing aid use within the previous six months by a physician specializing in otolaryngology except in the case of replacement instruments or except in the case of the parents or guardian of such person refusing, for good cause, to seek medical opinion: PROVIDED, That should the parents or guardian of such person refuse, for good cause, to seek medical opinion, the licensee shall obtain from such parents or guardian a certificate to that effect in a form as prescribed by the department;

(iii) Fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any person under eighteen years of age who has not been examined by an audiologist who holds at least a master's degree in audiology for recommendations during the previous six months, without first advising such person or his or her parents or guardian in writing that he or she should first consult an audiologist who holds at least a master's degree in audiology, except in cases of hearing aids replaced within six months of their purchase;

~~((g))~~ (f) Representing that the services or advice of a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery under chapter 18.71 RCW or osteopathy and surgery under chapter 18.57 RCW or of a clinical audiologist will be used or made available in the selection, fitting, adjustment, maintenance, or repair of hearing aids when that is not true, or using the word 'doctor,' 'clinic,' or other like words, abbreviations, or symbols which tend to connote a medical or osteopathic profession when such use is not accurate;

~~((h))~~ (g) Permitting another to use his or her license;

~~((i))~~ (h) Stating or implying that the use of any hearing aid will restore normal hearing, preserve hearing, prevent or retard progression of a hearing impairment, or any other false, misleading, or medically or audiologicaly unsupportable claim regarding the efficiency of a hearing aid;

~~((j))~~ (i) Representing or implying that a hearing aid is or will be 'custom-made,' 'made to order,' 'prescription made,' or in any other sense specially fabricated for an individual when that is not the case; or

~~((k))~~ (j) Directly or indirectly offering, giving, permitting, or causing to be given, money or anything of value to any person who advised another in a professional capacity as an inducement to influence that person, or to have that person influence others to purchase or contract to purchase any product sold or offered for sale by the licensee, or to influence any person to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors.

~~((3))~~ Engaging in the fitting or dispensing of hearing aids while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving risk to the public:

~~(4)~~ Dealing in hearing aids under a false, misleading, or deceptive name;

~~(5)~~ Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules adopted by this chapter.

~~(6)~~ Failure to properly and reasonably accept responsibility for the actions of his or her employees;

~~((7))~~ (2) Engaging in any unfair or deceptive practice or unfair method of competition in trade within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020 as now or hereafter amended.

~~((8))~~ (3) Aiding or abetting any violation of the rebating laws as stated in chapter 19.68 RCW.

Sec. 50. Section 13, chapter 39, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.35.161 are each amended to read as follows:

The council shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To establish by rule such minimum standards and procedures in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids as deemed appropriate and in the public interest;

(2) To develop guidelines on the training and supervision of trainees;

(3) To adopt any other rules or regulations necessary to implement this chapter and which are not inconsistent with it;

(4) To develop, approve, and administer all licensing examinations required by this chapter; and

(5) To ~~((conduct all disciplinary proceedings pursuant to this chapter. All hearings conducted and all rules adopted shall be in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. If, following a hearing, the council finds that an applicant or licensee has violated any section of this chapter or any of the rules promulgated under it, the council may enter an order imposing one or more of the following penalties:~~

- ~~(a) Denial of an initial license or renewal;~~
- ~~(b) Revocation or suspension of license;~~
- ~~(c) A fine not to exceed one thousand dollars for each separate offense;~~
- ~~(d) Issuance of a reprimand or letter of censure;~~
- ~~(e) Placement of the licensee on probation for a period of time;~~
- ~~(f) Restriction of the licensee's authorized scope of practice; or~~
- ~~(g) Requiring the))~~ require a licensee to make restitution to any individual injured by ((the)) a violation of this chapter or chapter 18.130 RCW, the uniform disciplinary act. The authority to require restitution does not limit the council's authority to take other action deemed appropriate and provided for in this chapter or chapter 18.130 RCW.

Sec. 51. Section 19, chapter 106, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 39, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.35.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to remedies otherwise provided by law, in any action brought by or on behalf of a person required to be licensed hereunder, or by any assignee or transferee thereof, arising out of the business of fitting and dispensing of hearing aids, it shall be necessary to allege and prove that the licensee at the time of the transaction held a valid license as required by this chapter, and that such license has not been suspended or revoked pursuant to RCW 18.35.110 or 18.35.120.

(2) ~~((Any person who shall engage in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids without having obtained a license or who shall willfully and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars per violation or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six months or both.~~

(3)) In addition to any other rights and remedies a purchaser may have, the purchaser of a hearing aid shall have the right to rescind the transaction for other than the seller's breach if:

(a) The purchaser, for reasonable cause, returns the hearing aid or holds it at the seller's disposal: PROVIDED, That the hearing aid is in its original condition less normal wear and tear. 'Reasonable cause' shall be defined by the council but shall not include a mere change of mind on the part of the purchaser or a change of mind related to cosmetic concerns of the purchaser in wearing a hearing aid; and

(b) By sending notice of such cancellation to the licensee at the licensee's place of business by certified mail, return receipt requested, which shall be posted not later than thirty days following the date of delivery: PROVIDED, That in the event of cancellation pursuant to this subsection or as otherwise provided by law, the licensee shall, without request, refund to the purchaser postmarked within ten days after such cancellation all deposits, including any down payment less fifteen percent of the total purchase price or one hundred dollars per hearing aid, whichever is less, and shall return all goods traded in to the licensee on account or in contemplation of the sale less any reasonable costs actually incurred in making ready for sale, goods so traded in: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the buyer shall incur no additional liability for such cancellation.

(c) Where a purchaser has taken the steps described in subsections (a) and (b) above to cancel the purchase, and the purchaser subsequently agrees with the seller to extend the trial or rescission period, the purchaser remains entitled to receive the refund described in ~~((RCW 18.35.190(3)(b)))~~ subsection (2)(b) of this section upon demand made within sixty days of the original date of delivery or such other time as agreed to in writing by both parties. Written notice of the last date for demanding a refund shall be provided to the purchaser at the time the trial or rescission period is extended.

Sec. 52. Section 17, chapter 39, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.35.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the council determines following notice and hearing, or following notice if no hearing was timely requested, that a person has:

- (a) Violated any provisions of this chapter or chapter 18.130 RCW; or
- (b) Violated any lawful order, or rule of the council an order may be issued by the council requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice. The council shall then take affirmative action as is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) If the council makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, a temporary cease and desist order may be issued. Prior to issuing a temporary cease and desist order, the council, whenever possible, shall give notice by telephone or otherwise of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person to whom the order would be directed. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether the order becomes permanent.

(3) The department, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or rule or order under this chapter. Upon proper showing, injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The department shall not be required to post a bond in any court proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 33, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.35.173; and
- (2) Section 15, chapter 39, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.35.210.

PART VIII

DRUGLESS HEALING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 18.36 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 55. Section 13, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 as amended by section 1, chapter 131, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'drugless therapeutics,' as used in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter consists of hydrotherapy, dietetics, electrotherapy, radiography, sanitation, suggestion, mechanical and manual manipulation for the stimulation of physiological and psychological action to establish a normal condition of mind and body, including the use of severance and penetration of the skin for purposes only of withdrawing blood samples for diagnostic purposes (venipuncture), but shall in no way include the giving, prescribing, or recommending of pharmaceutical drugs and poisons for internal use, the purpose of (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter being to confine practitioners under this chapter to drugless therapeutics. A person shall be considered as practicing within the meaning of this chapter if the person uses, prescribes, directs, or recommends any drugless treatment for the relief of a wound, fracture, bodily injury, or disease, either mental or physical.

The legislative budget committee shall specifically study the appropriateness of venipuncture within this definition pursuant to the sunset review process provided for in chapter 43.131 RCW.

The words 'certificate' and 'license' shall be interchangeable terms in this chapter, but nothing in this section affects the definitions of these terms in chapter 18.120 RCW.

Sec. 56. Section 12, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'separate and coordinate system' as used in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter is defined as follows:

Food science. Is the science of treating disease through the chemical action of foods, water, nonmedicinal herbs, roots, barks and all natural food elements other than pharmaceutical drugs and poisons, to bring about a normal condition of health.

Mechano-therapy. Is a system of therapeutics which enables the practitioner to know how to apply scientifically the mechanics of hydrotherapy, dietetics, circumstances, idea and manual manipulation for the stimulation of psycho and physiological action to establish a normal condition of the body.

Suggestive therapeutics. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know how to offer suggestions that will cause the mind of the patient to overcome the disease of the body and bringing mind and body into harmony, and both into harmony with environment.

Physcultopathy. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know the scientific effect of movements on the body and how to direct a system of mechanical gymnastics that restore the diseased parts or functions to a normal condition.

Sec. 57. Section 8, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be construed as to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of families' remedies, nor shall (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter apply to any commissioned health officer in the United States army, navy or marine hospital service, in discharge of his official duties, nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry, nor to any duly licensed physician in the practice of medicine, or surgery, nor to a person duly licensed to practice osteopathy, from using or recommending drugless methods of healing in the course of their practice, nor shall this apply to any practitioner from any other state who visits this state in response to a call to treat a particular patient: PROVIDED, such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients within the limits of this state, nor shall (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: PROVIDED, also that nothing in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be held to apply to, or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer.

Sec. 58. Section 3, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 34, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Only persons desiring to practice drugless therapeutics in this state shall apply to said director for a license and pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

which sum in no case shall be refunded. If at a time appointed, or at the next regular examination, he or she shall prove he or she has completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty-six weeks each at a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a high school education, or its equivalent and shall pass an examination in the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, urinalysis, dietetics, hydrotherapy, radiography, electrotherapy, gynecology, obstetrics, psychology, mechanical and manual manipulation, they shall be granted a license by said director, or if the school attendance of said applicant was prior to the passage of RCW 18.36.010 (~~through 18.36.165~~) a diploma from a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a common school education or its equivalent, and two years continuous practice in this state shall suffice; or if the applicant has no diploma but has been in continuous practice in any of the drugless systems herein mentioned for the past four years, two years of which shall have been in continuous practice in one place in this state, he or she shall be allowed to practice: PROVIDED, said applicant shall take an examination on the following subjects: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, mechanical and manual manipulation. After such examination the director shall grant the applicant a license to practice drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington. The examinations shall be both scientific and practical and thoroughly test the fitness of the candidate. All answers to questions peculiar to any school of therapeutics shall be scrutinized and their sufficiency passed upon by the director, but the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, and gynecology, shall be construed to be in common with all systems herein mentioned, and each candidate shall be examined in each of said subjects: PROVIDED, after 1921, the following subjects shall be construed as common to all systems, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, symptomatology, hydrotherapy, and gynecology. (~~The director may refuse to grant a license to, or may revoke the license of any person guilty of unprofessional conduct, subject to the right of appeal within ninety days, to the superior court of the county where the board met when said license was refused, or revocation made. Any license granted without a full and fair compliance with the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 may be canceled in any action brought in the name of the state by the prosecuting attorney of the county where the examination was held, or said action may be brought by the attorney general; and if a license is denied an applicant shall have the right to petition the superior court where said examination was held for an order compelling said board to issue said license.~~)

Continuous practice as herein provided shall be construed to apply to drugless physicians who have actually been practicing in this state, even if they have not received a license under the present medical laws.

Sec. 59, Section 11, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 as last amended by section 35, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The examination held by the director under (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the following regulations:

(1) Each applicant is required to make an affidavit setting forth his age, place of residence, time and place of each course of lectures, or other work connected with his drugless education and the date of graduation, or length of time in practice. The affidavit must be corroborated by the exhibition of a certificate from the proper officers of the college, showing that the applicant had completed the prescribed course for graduation. No advance standing shall be recognized for work done at other than drugless colleges.

(2) A fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 must accompany the application. This fee is under no consideration to be returned, but if the applicant should fail to secure an average of sixty-five percent, and should be denied a license, such applicant shall, without paying a further fee and without losing his classification under (~~the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter, be permitted to take another examination any time within two years. Drugless practitioners who hold a diploma from a legally incorporated drugless school who have practiced in this state two years previous to the passing of RCW 18.36.010 (~~through 18.36.165~~) and those having no diploma but who have been in continuous practice in this state for three years, shall be given a credit of fifteen percent on the general average.

(3) The examination shall be in charge of the director, and the papers of candidates shall be known by numbers which shall be arranged as follows: Envelopes shall be numbered and each containing a blank corresponding to the number, on which blank the applicant shall write his name and address, and return to the envelope, sealed by the applicant, and delivered to the director. Each candidate shall place on his paper the number given him and the year of graduation.

(4) The director shall examine the papers and place the mark opposite each candidate's number. When the markings are completed, the envelopes containing the names are to be opened and the names placed opposite their respective numbers.

(5) No dishonest methods will be tolerated, and any candidate disregarding these rules shall be debarred from further examination.

(6) Each subject for examination shall be covered by ten questions, and two hours' time shall be allowed for each subject.

(7) No candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination room after the question papers have been distributed, until the questions are answered and delivered to the examiners in charge.

(8) All examinations shall be in English. Within twenty days after a license is granted or refused, the reasons shall be set forth in writing and placed with the papers used in the examination, and all of said examination papers shall be filed with the director within thirty days after said license has been granted or refused.

Sec. 60. Section 4, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The following forms of certificates shall be issued by the director:

- (1) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice mechanotherapy;
- (2) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice suggestive therapeutics;
- (3) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice food science;
- (4) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice physcullopathy;
- (5) A certificate for any other separate and coordinate system of drugless practice: PROVIDED, they shall show evidence of not less than fifty graduates, practicing in this state, whose requirements shall be no less than as set forth in ~~((RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165))~~ this chapter. Practitioners hereunder shall confine their practice to the subjects and system or systems represented by their certificate or certificates granted by said director. The applicant for an examination must file satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma issued by some legally chartered drugless college, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, except as herein otherwise provided, and must fill out a blank application to be sworn to before some person authorized to take acknowledgments, showing that he or she is the person named in the diploma, is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made on a blank furnished by said director, and shall contain such other information concerning the instruction and preliminary education of the applicant as said director may by rule adopt.

Sec. 61. Section 7, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.130 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons granted licenses or certificates under ~~((RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165;))~~ this chapter shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations, relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying of births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 34, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.36.135;
- (2) Section 10, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.140; and
- (3) Section 9, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. The repeal of RCW 18.36.140 and 18.36.150 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART IX

EMBALMERS AND FUNERAL DIRECTORS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. A new section is added to chapter 18.39 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 65. Section 15, chapter 108, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 39, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((director))~~ board may recognize licenses issued to funeral directors or embalmers from other states if the applicant's qualifications are comparable to the requirements of this chapter. Upon presentation of the license and payment by the holder of a fee determined under RCW 43.24.086, the ~~((director))~~ board may issue a funeral director's or embalmer's license under this chapter. The license may be renewed annually upon payment of the renewal license fee as herein provided by license holders residing in the state of Washington.

Sec. 66. Section 3, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 40, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.39.145 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((director))~~ board shall issue a funeral establishment license to any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization to operate a funeral establishment, at specific locations only, which has met the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant has designated the name under which the funeral establishment will operate and has designated locations for which the general establishment license is to be issued;
- (2) The applicant is licensed in this state as a funeral director and as an embalmer, or employs at least one person with both such qualifications or one licensed funeral director and one embalmer who will be in service at each designated location;
- (3) The applicant has filed an application with the director as required by this chapter and paid the required filing fee therefor as fixed by the director pursuant to RCW 43.24.086;

(4) As a condition of applying for a new funeral establishment license, the person or entity desiring to acquire such ownership or control shall be bound by all then existing prearrangement funeral service contracts.

((The director shall make the determination of qualifications of all applicants within a reasonable time after the filing of an application with the director.)) The board may deny an application for a funeral establishment license, or issue a conditional license, if disciplinary action has previously been taken against the applicant or the applicant's designated funeral director or embalmer. No funeral establishment license shall be transferable, but an applicant may make application for more than one funeral establishment license so long as all of the requirements are met for each license. All funeral establishment licenses shall expire on June 30, or as otherwise determined by the director.

Sec. 67. Section 4, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.148 are each amended to read as follows:

If a licensed funeral establishment does not have a licensed funeral director and embalmer in its employ at its place of business, its license shall be canceled immediately by the ~~((director or the))~~ board. Upon notification of cancellation of a funeral establishment license, the funeral establishment shall be notified of the opportunity for a hearing, which shall be conducted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 68. Section 8, chapter 108, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 41, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.39.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any licensed funeral director or embalmer whose license has lapsed shall reapply for a license and pay a fee as determined under RCW 43.24.086 before the license may be issued. Applications under this section shall be made within one year after the expiration of the previous license. If the application is not made within ~~((three))~~ one year(s), the applicant shall be required to take an examination or submit other satisfactory proof of continued competency approved by the ~~((director))~~ board and pay the license fee, as required by this chapter in the case of initial applications, together with all unpaid license fees and penalties.

Sec. 69. Section 9, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 402, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.39.175 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the board of funeral directors and embalmers shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in connection with board duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The state board of funeral directors and embalmers shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) To be responsible for the preparation, conducting, and grading of examinations of applicants for funeral director and embalmer licenses;

(2) To certify to the director the results of examinations of applicants and certify the applicant as having 'passed' or 'failed';

(3) To make findings and recommendations to the director on any and all matters relating to the enforcement of this chapter;

(4) To adopt, promulgate, and enforce reasonable rules. Rules regulating the cremation of human remains and establishing fees and permit requirements shall be adopted in consultation with the cemetery board; and

(5) To examine or audit or to direct the examination and audit of prearrangement funeral service trust fund records for compliance with this chapter and rules adopted by the board.

(6) To ~~((suspend or revoke any license, after proper hearing and notice to the licensee.))~~ conduct disciplinary proceedings under chapter 18.130 RCW if the licensee has violated that chapter or has committed ~~((any of the following:~~

(a) A crime involving moral turpitude and resulting in a conviction;

(b)) unprofessional conduct, which includes:

((i) Misrepresentation or fraud in the conduct of the business or the profession of a funeral director or embalmer;

((ii) False or misleading advertising as a funeral director or embalmer;

((iii)) (a) Solicitation of human dead bodies by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, whether the solicitation occurs after death or while death is impending. This chapter does not prohibit general advertising or the sale of pre-need funeral plans;

((iv)) (b) Employment by the licensee of persons known as 'cappers,' 'steerers,' or 'solicitors' or other persons to obtain funeral directing or embalming business;

((v)) (c) Employment directly or indirectly of any person for the purpose of calling upon individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular funeral director or embalmer;

((vi)) (d) The buying of business by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, or the direct or indirect payment or offer of payment of a commission by the licensee, his agents, assistants, or employees, for the purpose of securing business;

((vii) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice funeral directing or embalming;

((viii)) (e) Solicitation or acceptance by a licensee of any commission or bonus or rebate in consideration of recommending or causing a dead human body to be disposed of in any crematory, mausoleum, or cemetery;

~~((ix))~~ (f) Using any casket or part of a casket which has previously been used as a receptacle for, or in connection with, the burial or other disposition of a dead human body without the written consent of next of kin;

~~((x))~~ Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules in support thereof;

~~((xi))~~ (g) Violation of any state law or municipal or county ordinance or regulation affecting the handling, custody, care, or transportation of dead human bodies;

~~((xii))~~ (h) Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license;

~~((xiii))~~ (i) Refusing to promptly surrender the custody of a dead human body upon the express order of the person lawfully entitled to its custody;

~~((xiv))~~ (j) Selling, or offering for sale, a share, certificate, or an interest in the business of any funeral director or embalmer, or in any corporation, firm, or association owning or operating a funeral establishment, which promises or purports to give to purchasers a right to the services of the funeral director, embalmer, or corporation, firm, or association at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public; or

~~((xv))~~ (k) Knowingly concealing information concerning a violation of this chapter;

~~((6))~~ (7) To adopt rules establishing mandatory continuing education requirements to be met by persons applying for license renewal.

Sec. 70. Section 5, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.181 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) ~~(To determine the qualifications of applicants for all licenses under this chapter;~~

~~(2))~~ To issue all licenses provided for under this chapter;

~~((3))~~ (2) To annually renew licenses under this chapter;

~~((4))~~ (3) To collect all fees prescribed and required under this chapter; and

~~((5))~~ (4) To keep general books of record of all official acts, proceedings, and transactions of the department of licensing while acting under this chapter.

Sec. 71. Section 15, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.231 are each amended to read as follows:

A funeral director or any person under the supervision of a funeral director shall not, in conjunction with any professional services performed for compensation under this chapter, provide financial or investment advice to any person other than a family member, represent any person in a real estate transaction, or act as an agent under a power of attorney for any person. However, this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a funeral establishment from entering into prearrangement funeral service contracts in accordance with this chapter or to prohibit a funeral director from providing advice about government or insurance benefits.

A violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor and is grounds for disciplinary action ~~(including suspension or revocation of the license, as provided in RCW 18.39.179)~~.

The board shall adopt such rules as the board deems reasonably necessary to prevent unethical financial dealings between funeral directors and their clients.

Sec. 72. Section 4, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.260 are each amended to read as follows:

A funeral establishment shall not enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts in this state unless the funeral establishment has obtained a certificate of registration issued by the ~~((director))~~ board and such certificate is then in force.

Certificates of registration shall be maintained by funeral establishments until all prearrangement contract obligations have been fulfilled. The funeral establishment shall comply with all requirements related to the sale of prearrangement contracts until all obligations have been fulfilled.

Sec. 73. Section 7, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.280 are each amended to read as follows:

To apply for an original certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

(1) File with the ~~((director))~~ board its request showing:

(a) Its name, location, and organization date;

(b) The kinds of funeral business it proposes to transact;

(c) A statement of its financial condition, management, and affairs on a form satisfactory to or furnished by the director; and

(d) Such other documents, stipulations, or information as the ~~((director))~~ board may reasonably require to evidence compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Deposit with the director the fees required by this chapter to be paid for filing the accompanying documents, and for the certificate of registration, if granted.

Sec. 74. Section 8, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.290 are each amended to read as follows:

All certificates of registration issued pursuant to this chapter shall continue in force until the expiration date unless suspended(;) or revoked(, or renewed). A certificate shall be subject to renewal annually ~~((on the first day of July upon))~~ ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, as stated on the original application, by the funeral establishment and payment of the required fees.

The director shall determine and collect ~~((in advance the following))~~ fees(:

(1) ~~Certificate of registration:~~

(a) ~~Issuance — thirty-five dollars;~~

(b) ~~Renewal — fifteen dollars;~~

(2) ~~Annual statement of financial condition — ten dollars)) related to certificate of registration licensure.~~

All fees so collected shall be remitted by the director to the state treasurer not later than the first business day following receipt of such funds and the funds shall be credited to the ((general fund)) health professions account.

Sec. 75. Section 6, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the grounds for action set forth in RCW 18.130.170 and 18.130.180, the ((director)) board may ((~~refuse to renew or may revoke or suspend a~~) take the disciplinary action set forth in RCW 18.130.160 against the funeral establishment's license, the license of any funeral director and/or the funeral establishment's certificate of registration, if the ((funeral establishment)) licensee or registrant:

(1) Fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter, chapter 18.130 RCW, or any proper order or regulation of the ((director)) board;

(2) Is found by the ((director)) board to be in such condition that further execution of prearrangement contracts could be hazardous to purchasers or beneficiaries and the people of this state;

(3) Refuses to be examined, or refuses to submit to examination or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination by the ((director)) board when required; or

(4) Is found by the ((director)) board after investigation or receipt of reliable information to be managed by persons who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed or continued operation hazardous to purchasers, beneficiaries, or to the public.

Sec. 76. Section 10, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each authorized funeral establishment shall annually, ((~~before the first day of March~~) at the time of its registration renewal, file with the ((director)) board a true and accurate statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs for ((the)) its preceding ((calendar)) fiscal year. The statement shall be on such forms and shall contain such information as required by this chapter and by the ((director)) board.

(2) The ((director)) board shall ((~~suspend or revoke~~) take disciplinary action against the certificate of registration of any funeral establishment which fails to file its annual statement when due or after any extension of time which the ((director)) board has, for good cause, granted.

Sec. 77. Section 11, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.330 are each amended to read as follows:

No prearrangement funeral contract forms shall be used without the prior approval of the ((director)) board.

The ((director)) board shall disapprove any such contract form, or withdraw prior approval, when such form:

(1) Violates or does not comply with this chapter;

(2) Contains or incorporates by reference any inconsistent, ambiguous or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which unreasonably or deceptively affect the merchandise or service purported to be provided in the general coverage of the contract;

(3) Has any title, heading, or other part of its provisions which is misleading; or

(4) Is being solicited by deceptive advertising.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 35, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.39.176;

(2) Section 12, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.179;

(3) Section 6, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 17, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.223;

(4) Section 7, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 18, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.225;

(5) Section 9, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.310; and

(6) Section 12, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.340.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. The repeal of RCW 18.39.179 and the amendment of RCW 18.39.175 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART X MIDWIFERY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. A new section is added to chapter 18.50 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 7, chapter 160, Laws of 1917, section 9, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.100;

(2) Section 9, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 and RCW 18.50.120; and

(3) Section 36, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.50.125.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. The repeal of RCW 18.50.100 and 18.50.120 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XI

NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATORS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. A new section is added to chapter 18.52 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 84. Section 10, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 243, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The board with the assistance of the director for administrative matters shall have the duty and responsibility within the limits provided in this chapter:

(1) To develop standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a nursing home administrator, which standards shall include criteria to evaluate the practical experience, education, and training of applicants for licenses to determine that applicants have the equivalent of two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home. The standards and criteria shall be designed to insure that nursing home administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as nursing home administrators as provided in this chapter.

(2) To develop appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations to the extent necessary to determine whether an individual meets such standards for licensing.

(3) To develop, administer, and supervise an administrator-in-training program for applicants for licenses who are otherwise qualified but do not have the equivalent of two years experience in the operation of a nursing home at the time of application. Such program shall provide for supervision of each administrator-in-training by licensed nursing home administrators as preceptors. The board shall have the authority to do all acts necessary for the implementation of such a program, including, but not limited to, conducting education and training programs, establishing standards of qualification for preceptors, establishing criteria for creating and evaluating individual programs, and monitoring such programs to assure compliance with rules and regulations adopted by the board.

(4) To order the director to issue licenses to individuals determined by the board, after the application of such techniques, to meet such standards and to order the director to deny licenses to individuals who do not meet such standards or who are in violation of ~~(the provisions of RCW 18.52.120)~~ this chapter or chapter 18.130 RCW.

~~(5) ((To assure that the goals set forth in RCW 18.52.010 are effected the board shall have the authority after any notice and hearing which may be required by law, to order a reprimand of any licensee, or the suspension, refusal to reregister, or revocation of any license. The board may defer any such order or impose conditions thereon to permit continued licensed status when such action is reasonable considering the circumstances of the case, the protection of the health and safety of patients, and fairness to the administrator.~~

~~(6) To investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the board or director to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of the standards for licensing.~~

(7) To conduct a continuing study and investigation of the licensing of administrators of nursing homes within the state with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of new administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who are to be licensed.

~~((8))~~ (6) To encourage qualified educational institutions and other qualified organizations to establish, provide, and conduct and continue such training and instruction courses and programs as will enable all otherwise qualified individuals to attain the qualifications necessary to meet the standards for licensing nursing home administrators.

~~((9))~~ (7) To establish and carry out procedures, if required, designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements and standards for licensing set forth in this chapter.

~~((10))~~ (8) To establish appropriate procedures for the issuance in unusual circumstances and without examination of temporary license permits as nursing home administrators. Such permits may be issued and renewed by the director pursuant to rules and regulations which shall be established by the board. Such permits and renewals shall be subject to confirmation or rescission by order of the board upon review at the next board meeting. Any such permit or renewal thereof shall in all events expire six months from the date issued. No more than three consecutive permits shall be issued to any one person. Persons receiving such permits need not have passed the required examination but shall meet the other requirements of this chapter, except RCW 18.52.070(2). After hearing before the board and upon order of the board the director may ~~((revoke or suspend any such permit))~~ take appropriate disciplinary action for the reasons provided in this chapter ~~((for suspension or revocation of administrator licenses))~~ or chapter 18.130 RCW.

~~((+1))~~ (9) To advise the relevant state agencies regarding receipt and administration of such federal funds as are made available to carry out the educational purposes of this chapter.

~~((+2))~~ (10) To advise the director regarding the application forms used by the director under this chapter.

~~((+3))~~ (11) To direct the granting of provisional licenses as provided in this chapter.

~~((+4))~~ (12) To issue rules and regulations which are necessary to carry out the functions of the board specifically assigned to it by this chapter.

- (9) The practice of medicine by a person who is regularly enrolled in a physician's assistant program approved by the board: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the performance of such services be only pursuant to a regular course of instruction in said program: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed pursuant to this chapter;
- (10) The practice of medicine by a registered physician's assistant which practice is performed under the supervision and control of a physician licensed pursuant to this chapter;
- (11) The practice of medicine, in any part of this state which shares a common border with Canada and which is surrounded on three sides by water, by a physician licensed to practice medicine and surgery in Canada or any province or territory thereof;
- (12) The administration of nondental anesthesia by a dentist who has completed a residency in anesthesiology at a school of medicine approved by the board of medical examiners: PROVIDED, That a dentist allowed to administer nondental anesthesia shall do so only under authorization of the patient's attending surgeon, obstetrician, or psychiatrist: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the medical disciplinary board shall have jurisdiction to discipline a dentist practicing under this exemption and enjoin or suspend such dentist from the practice of nondental anesthesia according to the provisions of chapter 18.72 RCW and chapter 18.130 RCW;
- (13) Emergency lifesaving service rendered by a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician, by a physician's trained mobile airway management technician, or by a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, as defined in RCW 18.71.200, if the emergency lifesaving service is rendered under the responsible supervision and control of a licensed physician.
- Sec. 118. Section 3, chapter 60, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.71.050 are each amended to read as follows:
- (1) Each applicant who has graduated from a school of medicine located in any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada, shall file an application for licensure with the board on a form prepared by the director with the approval of the board. Each applicant shall furnish proof satisfactory to the board of the following:
- ((1)) (a) That the applicant has attended and graduated from a school of medicine approved by the board;
- ((2)) (b) That the applicant has completed two years of postgraduate medical training in a program acceptable to the board, provided that applicants graduating before July 28, 1985, may complete only one year of post-graduate medical training;
- ((3)) (c) That the applicant is of good moral character;
- ((4)) (d) That the applicant is physically and mentally capable of safely carrying on the practice of medicine. The board may require any applicant to submit to such examination or examinations as it deems necessary to determine an applicant's physical and/or mental capability to safely practice medicine((:
- (5) ~~That the applicant's license to practice medicine is not at the time of the application revoked or suspended by any licensing agency and that the applicant has not been guilty of~~ ~~any conduct which would constitute grounds for refusal, revocation or suspension of such license under the laws of the state of Washington).~~

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the board from requiring such additional information from applicants as it deems necessary. The issuance and denial of licenses are subject to chapter 18.130 RCW, the uniform disciplinary act.

Sec. 119. Section 1, chapter 189, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 6, chapter 322, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.71.095 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may, without examination, issue a limited license to persons who possess the qualifications set forth herein:

(1) The board may, upon the written request of the secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary of corrections, issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with patients, residents, or inmates of the state institutions under the control and supervision of the secretary of the department of social and health services or the department of corrections.

(2) The board may issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by a county or city health department as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with his or her duties in employment with the city or county health department.

(3) Upon receipt of a completed application showing that the applicant meets all of the requirements for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050 except for completion of two years of postgraduate medical training, and that the applicant has been appointed as a resident physician in a program of postgraduate clinical training in this state approved by the board, the board may issue a limited license to a resident physician. Such license shall permit the resident physician to practice medicine only in connection with his or her duties as a resident physician and shall not authorize the physician to engage in any other form of practice. Each resident physician shall practice medicine only under the supervision and control of a physician licensed in this state, but such supervision and control shall not be construed to necessarily require the personal presence of the supervising physician at the place where services are rendered.

All persons licensed under this section shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the medical disciplinary board to the same extent as other members of the medical profession, in accordance with chapters 18.72 and 18.130 RCW ~~((and in addition, the limited license to practice medicine in the state of Washington may be revoked by the medical disciplinary board after a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions set forth in chapter 18.72 RCW, and determination made by the medical disciplinary board that such licensee has violated the limitations set forth herein)).~~

Persons applying for licensure pursuant to this section shall pay an application fee as determined by the director ~~((as provided in RCW 43-24-006 and, in the event the license applied for is issued, a license fee at the rate provided for renewals of licenses generally)).~~ Licenses issued hereunder may be renewed annually pursuant to the provisions of RCW 18.71.080. Any person who obtains a limited license pursuant to this section may, without an additional application fee, apply for licensure under this chapter.

Sec. 120. Section 2, chapter 305, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.71.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in ~~((RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended))~~ this chapter, a 'physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician' means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services;

(2) As used in ~~((RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended))~~ this chapter, a 'physician's trained mobile airway management technician' means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile airway management technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services; and

(3) As used in (~~RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended~~) this chapter, a 'physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic' means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director:

(i) To carry out all phases of advanced cardiac life support;

(ii) To administer drugs under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iii) To administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iv) To perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic by the University of Washington's school of medicine or by the department of social and health services.

Sec. 121. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 57, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.71.230 are each amended to read as follows:

A right to practice medicine and surgery by (~~a Canadian physician~~) an individual in this state pursuant to RCW 18.71.030 ~~(5) through (12)~~ shall be (~~revocable~~) subject to discipline by order of the (~~director of licensing~~) board upon a finding by the (~~director~~) board of an act of unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW (~~18.72.030~~) 18.130.180 or that the individual is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety due to a mental or physical condition as described in RCW 18.130.170. Such physician shall have the same rights of notice, hearing and judicial review as provided licensed physicians generally pursuant to chapters 18.72 and 18.130 RCW.

Sec. 122. Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 61, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.71A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician practicing in this state shall utilize the services of a physician's assistant without the approval of the board.

Any physician licensed in this state may apply to the board for permission to use the services of a physician's assistant. The application shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, shall detail the manner and extent to which the physician's assistant would be used and supervised, shall detail the education, training, and experience of the physician's assistant and shall provide such other information in such form as the board may require.

The board may approve or reject such applications. In addition, the board may modify the proposed utilization of the physician's assistant, and approve the application as modified. No such approval shall extend for more than one year, but approval once granted may be renewed annually upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Whenever it appears to the board that a physician's assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of an approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with (~~RCW 18.71.140~~) chapter 18.130 RCW.

Sec. 123. Section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.71A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician who uses the services of a physician's assistant in accordance with and within the terms of any permission granted by the medical examining board shall be considered as aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to practice medicine (~~(within the meaning of RCW 18.71.020 or 18.72.030(13))~~); PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any physician shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of medicine as defined in RCW 18.71.010 when performed by a physician's assistant in his employ.

Sec. 124. Section 2, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 and RCW 18.72.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Terms used in this chapter and in RCW 18.71.040(~~;~~) and 18.71.080(~~18.71.120, 18.71.140 and 18.71.180 shall~~) have the meaning set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) 'Board' means the medical disciplinary board.

(2) 'License' means a certificate or license to practice medicine and surgery in this state as provided for in RCW 18.71.010 and 18.71.050.

(3) 'Members' means members of the medical disciplinary board.

(4) 'Secretary' means the secretary of the medical disciplinary board.

Sec. 125. Section 15, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 5, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board ~~((shall have the following powers and duties:~~

~~(1) To) may adopt, amend, and rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter:(~~

~~(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine if unprofessional conduct has been committed;~~

~~(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;~~

~~(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation or investigative or disciplinary hearing or proceeding;~~

~~(5) To investigate complaints or reports of malpractice and unsafe conditions and practices, to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action;~~

~~(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of the license of a physician, or restricting or limiting the licensed physician's practice pending proceedings by the board, as authorized by RCW 34.04.170;~~

~~(7) To appoint a hearing officer to conduct hearings subject to final determination by the board;~~

~~(8) To enter into contracts for professional services determined by the board to be necessary;~~

~~(9) To contract with physicians or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervising of physicians and surgeons who are placed on probation, or whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to being monitored by the board; and~~

~~d.300 (10) The board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW)).~~

Sec. 126. Section 15, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.265 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) ((The board may adopt regulations requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, hospitals, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the board any: Conviction, determination, or finding that a licensed physician has committed unprofessional conduct as defined by RCW 18.72.030 as now or hereafter amended; or to report information which indicates that a licensed physician may not be able to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients as the result of any mental or physical condition:~~

~~(2))) The contents of any report file under RCW 18.130.070 shall be confidential and exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, except that it may be reviewed (a) by the licensee involved or his counsel or authorized representative who may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information, which statements or other information shall be included in the file, or (b) by a representative of the medical disciplinary board, or investigator thereof, who has been assigned to review the activities of a licensed physician.~~

~~((3)) Upon a determination that a report is without merit, the board's records may be purged of information relating to the report.~~

~~((4) If any person contumaciously refuses to furnish a required report, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which said person resides or is found, and said court shall issue to such person an order to furnish the required report. Any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.~~

~~(5)) (2) Every individual, medical association, medical society, hospital, medical service bureau, health insurance carrier or agent, professional liability insurance carrier, professional standards review organization, and agency of the federal, state, or local government shall be immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the board subsequent to ((the regulations outlined in (sub)section (1) of this section)) RCW 18.130.070, or for which an individual health care provider has immunity under the provisions of RCW 4.24.240, 4.24.250, or 4.24.260, as now or hereafter amended.~~

Sec. 127. Section 2, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature further declares its intention to supersede all ordinances, regulations, and requirements promulgated by counties, cities and other political subdivisions of the state of Washington, insofar as they may provide for the regulation of emergency medical care, first aid, and ambulance services which do not exceed the provisions of this chapter; except that (1) license fees established in this chapter shall supersede all license fees of counties, cities and other political subdivisions of this state; and, (2) nothing in this chapter shall alter the provisions of RCW ~~((18.71.020;))~~ 18.71.200, 18.71.210 and 18.71.220.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 136. The repeal of RCW 18.74.080, 18.74.082, and 18.74.100 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XVIII

PRACTICAL NURSES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 137. A new section is added to chapter 18.78 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 138. Section 5, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 6, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall conduct examinations for all applicants for licensure under this chapter and shall certify qualified applicants to the department of licensing for licensing. The board shall also determine and formulate what constitutes the curriculum for an approved practical nursing program preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement. ~~((The board or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW may conduct hearings for the suspension or revocation of licenses.))~~

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 139. Section 7, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 9, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The director may issue a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse without examination to any applicant who has been duly licensed as a licensed practical nurse by examination under the laws of another state.))~~ An applicant graduated from a nursing program outside the United States and licensed by a country outside the United States shall meet all qualifications required by this chapter and by the board and shall pass an examination to be determined by the board.

Sec. 140. Section 10, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 66, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.78.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Every licensed practical nurse in this state shall renew the license with the department of licensing and shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Any failure to register and pay the renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor and upon payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 ~~((together with all delinquent license renewal fees)).~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 141. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

PART XIX
PSYCHOLOGY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 143. A new section is added to chapter 18.83 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 144. Section 13, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 84, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Within the meaning of this chapter and in addition to those acts defined in chapter 18.130 RCW, unethical practice of psychology shall include ~~((any act or practice which violates the codes of ethics established by the board. In addition, the following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute the unethical practice of psychology for any licensee or applicant subject to this chapter:~~

~~(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, relating to the practice of psychology, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the licensee or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this subsection abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW.~~

~~(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof.~~

~~(3) Advertising in a manner which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and so be harmful or injurious to public health, safety, or welfare.~~

~~(4) Incompetency or negligence in the practice of psychology which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer.~~

~~(5) Practicing psychology while under the suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.~~

~~(6)):~~

~~(1) Violation of any state statute or administrative code specifically governing the practice of psychology((:~~

~~(7) Failure to cooperate with the committee by:~~

~~(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents requested by the committee;~~

~~(b) Not furnishing in writing a complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the committee;~~

~~(c) Not appearing before the committee at the time and place designated; or~~

~~(d) Not properly responding to subpoenas issued by the committee.~~

~~(8) Failure to comply with an order issued by the committee or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the committee.~~

~~(9) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required.~~

~~(10))): and~~

~~(2) Gross, willful, or continued overcharging for professional services.~~

~~((11) Willful or repeated violations of rules established by any health officer of the state or a political subdivision thereof.~~

~~(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law.~~

~~(13) Misrepresentations or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the profession.~~

~~(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's safety is at risk.~~

~~(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health.~~

~~(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service.~~

~~(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of psychology. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW.~~

~~(18) Physically abusing or having sexual contact with a patient or client.~~

~~(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the committee.~~

~~(20) The wilful betrayal of a professional secret.~~

~~(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW.))~~

Sec. 145. Section 12, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 85, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The board ~~((shall refuse to grant a license to any applicant and shall revoke or suspend the license of any psychologist, or place other restrictions on that psychologist's practice of psychology.))~~ may take disciplinary action under RCW 18.130.160 for the following reasons:

~~(1) ((Commission of any act involving moral turpitude, as defined by the board by rule, dishonesty, or corruption, which relates directly to a person's fitness to practice psychology, whether that act constitutes a crime or not; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at any ensuing disciplinary hearing of guilt of the psychologist of the crime described in the indictment or information and of the violation of the statute upon which it is based.~~

~~(2))~~ Failing to maintain the confidentiality of information under RCW 18.83.110.

~~((3))~~ (2) Violations of the ethical code developed by the board under RCW 18.83.050 and 18.83.120.

~~((4))~~ (3) Failing to inform prospective research subjects or their authorized representatives of the possible serious effects of participation in research; and failing to undertake reasonable efforts to remove possible harmful effects of participation.

~~((5))~~ (4) Practicing in an area of psychology for which the person is clearly untrained or incompetent.

~~((6) Being negligent in the practice of psychology.~~

~~(7))~~ (5) Failing to exercise appropriate supervision over persons who practice under the supervision of a psychologist.

~~((8))~~ (6) Using fraud or deceit in the procurement of the psychology license, or knowingly assisting another in the procurement of such a license through fraud or deceit.

~~((9) Engaging in the practice of psychology while the person's ability to perform professional services is significantly impaired by alcohol, drugs, illness, or other dysfunctions.~~

~~(10) Engaging in the practice of psychology when the person's psychology license has been suspended or revoked by competent authority in any other state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction when the reason for that suspension or revocation is a violation of this chapter or rules adopted by the board and its disciplinary committee.~~

~~(11) Unprofessional conduct as defined in chapter 19.68 RCW.~~

~~(12) Wilful violation of RCW 18.83.120 or section 79 of this 1984 act or wilful disregard of the subpoena or notice of the disciplinary committee.~~

~~(13) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed under RCW 18.83.150.~~

~~(14) Violation of any board rule fixing a standard of professional conduct.))~~

Sec. 146. Section 86, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.135 are each amended to read as follows:

The disciplinary committee shall meet at least once each year or upon the call of the chairperson at such time and place as the chairperson designates. A quorum for transaction of any business shall consist of five members, including at least one public member.

The members of the disciplinary committee shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon its disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the committee.

In addition to the authority prescribed under RCW 18.130.050, the committee shall have the following authority:

~~(1) ((To order investigation of all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;~~

~~(2) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;~~

~~(3) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;~~

~~(4) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;~~

~~(5) In the course of investigating a complaint of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;~~

~~(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the committee;~~

~~(7) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings, however, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license;~~

~~(8) To use consultants or individual members of the board to assist in the direction of investigations and issuance of statements of charges; however, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case;~~

~~(9) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;~~

~~(10) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the committee;~~

~~(11) To grant or deny license application, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;~~

~~(12) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement not to violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action;~~

~~(13)) To maintain records of all activities, and to publish and distribute to all psychologists at least once each year abstracts of significant activities of the committee; and~~

~~((14)) (2) To obtain the written consent of the complaining client or patient or their legal representative, or of any person who may be affected by the complaint, in order to obtain information which otherwise might be confidential or privileged((;~~

~~(15) To report, when appropriate, statements of complaints and disposition of cases processed by the committee to:~~

~~(a) The person or agency initiating the action;~~

~~(b) Appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology, including counterpart licensing boards in other states; and~~

~~(c) The public;~~

~~This subsection does not require the reporting of any information which is exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42-17 RCW or is otherwise privileged or confidential.~~

~~The committee has, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in this chapter, all of the powers and duties under chapter 34-04 RCW, which include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions)).~~

Sec. 147. Section 89, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.155 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall report to appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology any action taken pursuant to an investigation or hearing that finds a licensee has committed unprofessional or unethical conduct.

~~((In the event of an order for revocation or suspension of a psychology license, or for restriction or limitation of a licensee's practice, the committee shall report such action to the public. This public notification shall be suspended for thirty days from date of filing of any appeal.~~

~~If the committee finds that a complaint against a licensee is not substantiated, or if there is no finding of unprofessional or unethical conduct, resulting in dismissal of the complaint and exoneration of the licensee, the committee shall attempt to relieve the licensee of any possible odium that may attach by reason of the complaint by such public exoneration as is necessary.))~~

Sec. 148. Section 18, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 18, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be a gross misdemeanor for any person to:

(1) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a licensed psychologist unless duly licensed under or specifically excluded from the provisions of this chapter;

(2) Practice as a licensed psychologist during the time his or her license issued under the provisions of this chapter is suspended or revoked.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 149. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 45, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.053;

(2) Section 88, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.145;

(3) Section 90, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.161; and

(4) Section 91, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.83.165.

PART XX

PART XXI

VETERINARY MEDICINE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 154. A new section is added to chapter 18.92 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 155. Section 4, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the board to prepare examination questions, conduct examinations, and grade the answers of applicants. ~~((The board shall supervise the conduct of those practicing veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry and shall make such recommendations as it deems necessary to the director in regard to the granting, suspension, or revocation of licenses. It shall be the duty of the board to adopt a code of professional conduct for the practice of the veterinary profession in this state.))~~ The board, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter including the performance of the duties and responsibilities of animal technicians: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such rules are adopted in the interest of good veterinary health care delivery to the consuming public, and do not prevent animal technicians from inoculating an animal. The board shall further have the power to adopt, by reasonable rules and regulations, standards prescribing requirements for veterinary medical facilities and to fix minimum standards of continuing veterinary medical education.

The department shall be the official office of record.

~~((The board shall have the power to conduct all hearings pertaining to violations of this chapter and may impose appropriate sanctions on licensees or registrants following a hearing. The hearings may be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW.))~~

Sec. 156. Section 6, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.92.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No person, unless registered or licensed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in this state at the time this chapter shall become operative, shall begin the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry without first applying for and obtaining a license for such purpose from the director. In order to procure a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in the state of Washington, the applicant for such license shall file his or her application at least sixty days prior to date of examination upon a form furnished by the director of licensing, which, in addition to the fee provided by this chapter, shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence that he or she is at least eighteen years of age and of good moral character, and by official transcripts or other evidence of graduation from a veterinary college satisfactory to and approved by the board. Said application shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to by him or her before some person authorized to administer oaths.

When such application and the accompanying evidence are found satisfactory, the director shall notify the applicant to appear before the board for the next examination (~~PROVIDED; HOWEVER, That the director of licensing must deny the application of every applicant who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct within the two years immediately preceding date of application for license~~). In addition, applicants shall be subject to grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional license under chapter 18.130 RCW.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the board from permitting a person who has completed a portion of his or her educational program as determined by the board, in a veterinary college recognized by the board, to take the examination or any part thereof prior to satisfying the requirements for application for a license: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That no license shall be issued to such applicant until such requirements are satisfied.

Sec. 157. Section 11, chapter 124, Laws of 1907 as last amended by section 8, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 18.92.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall make application for examination, as provided by RCW 18.92.070, and who has not previously failed to pass the veterinary examination, and whose application is found satisfactory by the director, may be given a temporary certificate to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry valid only until the results of the next examination for licenses are available. In addition, applicants shall be subject to the grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional license under chapter 18.130 RCW. No more than one temporary certificate may be issued to any applicant. Such permittee shall be employed by a licensed veterinary practitioner or by the state of Washington.

Sec. 158. Section 6, chapter 44, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.125 are each amended to read as follows:

No veterinarian who uses the services of an animal technician shall be considered as aiding and abetting any unlicensed person to practice veterinary medicine (~~within the meaning of RCW 18.92.160~~). A veterinarian shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of veterinary medicine as defined in this chapter when performed by an animal technician in his employ.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 159. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 3, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.033;
- (2) Section 47, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.92.045;
- (3) Section 2, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 and RCW 18.92.050;
- (4) Section 13, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 1, chapter 157, Laws of 1961, section 10, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 7, chapter 44, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 8, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.160;
- (5) Section 14, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 11, chapter 92, Laws of 1959, section 11, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 24, chapter 67, Laws of 1981, section 9, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.180;
- (6) Section 15, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 63, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 18.92.210;
- (7) Section 22, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 and RCW 18.92.220; and
- (8) Section 14, chapter 92, Laws of 1959 and RCW 18.92.235.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 160. The repeal of RCW 18.92.050, 18.92.160, and 18.92.180 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XXII

MESSAGE OPERATORS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 161. A new section is added to chapter 18.108 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 162. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 48, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.108.075;
- (2) Section 9, chapter 280, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.108.080; and
- (3) Section 18, chapter 280, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.108.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 163. The repeal of RCW 18.108.080 and 18.108.170 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XXIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 164. Section 43.24.110, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 60, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and section 79, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.24.110 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Whenever there is filed in a matter under the jurisdiction of the director of licensing any complaint charging that the holder of a license has been guilty of any act or omission which by the provisions of the law under which the license was issued would warrant the revocation thereof, verified in the manner provided by law, the director of licensing shall request the governor to appoint, and the governor shall appoint within thirty days of the request, two qualified practitioners of the profession or calling of the person charged, who, with the director or his duly appointed representative, shall constitute a committee to hear and determine the charges and, in case the charges are sustained, impose the penalty provided by law. In addition, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the committee.

The decision of any three members of such committee shall be the decision of the committee.

The appointed members of the committee shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 165. Section 3, chapter 122, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.54.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician may be subject to disciplinary action by any entity of either the state of Washington or a professional association for prescribing or administering amygdalin (Laetrile) to a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct ~~((as defined in RCW 18.57.170 and 18.72.030))~~.

Sec. 166. Section 2, chapter 50, Laws of 1981 and RCW 70.54.190 are each amended to read as follows:

No hospital or health facility may interfere with the physician/patient relationship by restricting or forbidding the use of DMSO (dimethyl sulfoxide) when prescribed or administered by a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW and requested by a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

No physician may be subject to disciplinary action by any entity of either the state of Washington or a professional association for prescribing or administering DMSO (dimethyl sulfoxide) to a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct ~~((as defined in RCW 18.57.170 and 18.72.030))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 167. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 168. The legislature recognizes that there is an increasing interest by the citizens of this state in physical fitness and that in response to such interest a wide variety of health and conditioning services are available. Therefore, the legislature declares that it is a matter of public interest that the citizens of this state be assured of reasonable protection when contracting for health and conditioning services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 169. (1) As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) 'Contract for health and conditioning services' means: A contract which provides as one of its primary purposes services or facilities which assist the purchaser to improve physical condition or appearance through physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, reducing, weight loss, figure development, or any other similar activity;

(b) 'Initiation or membership fee' means a fee paid either in a lump sum or installments on a one-time basis when a person first joins a health and conditioning facility for the privilege of belonging to such facility;

(c) 'Use fees' means fees paid on a regular periodic basis for use of a health club. This does not preclude prepayment of use fees at the buyer's option;

(d) 'Health club' or 'club' means any individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity offering contracts for health and conditioning services to the public.

(2) A 'contract for health and conditioning services' does not include:

(a) Professional services within the scope of the person's license rendered or furnished by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW;

(b) Instruction at public common schools, public institutions of higher education, private schools approved under RCW 28A.02.201, and private institutions of higher education;

(c) Instruction, training, or assistance relating to diet or control of eating habits not involving physical fitness programs, body building, exercising, figure development, or any other similar activity; or

(d) Recreational or social programs offered by organizations listed in section 169(3) of this act, which either involve no physical exercise or exercise only incidental to the program.

(3) Except for the purposes of sections 170, 175, and 176 of this act, a 'contract for health and conditioning services' does not include: (a) Services rendered by bona fide nonprofit organizations which have been granted tax exempt status by the internal revenue service, including, but not limited to, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, or other similar organizations, whose functions as health studios are only incidental to their overall functions and purposes; or (b) services rendered by bona fide nonprofit corporations organized under chapter 24.03 RCW which have members and whose members have meaningful voting rights to elect and remove a board of directors which is responsible for the operation of the health club and corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 170. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall be in writing and are subject to this chapter. A copy of the written contract shall be given to the customer when the customer signs the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 171. Contracts for health and conditioning services between the same buyer and the same seller which have overlapping terms are deemed to be one contract for the purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 172. If a contract exceeds three years, the buyer shall sign or initial the provision which establishes the duration of the contract.

Contracts may not be sold, advertised, or measured by the lifetime of the buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 173. A contract for health and conditioning services may be sold prior to opening of the facility. Such contract shall provide that:

(1) Agreed upon services will begin within twelve months from the date the contract is signed unless the buyer signs an extension; and

(2) A five-day period for cancellation of the contract shall begin to run from the day the facility opens for use of the buyer and the seller begins to provide the agreed upon services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 174. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all moneys paid to the seller by the buyer prior to the opening of the facility shall promptly be deposited by the seller in a trust account, maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such moneys for the buyer, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. The seller shall within seven days of the first deposit notify the office of the attorney general, in writing, of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the seller is entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account moneys. The seller shall provide the buyer with a written receipt for the moneys and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If prior to the opening of the facility the status of the seller is transferred to another, any sums in the trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor, and the successor shall promptly notify the buyer and the office of the attorney general of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository. The buyer's claim to any moneys paid under this section is prior to that of any creditor of the seller, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled. After receipt of the notice of cancellation of the agreement or if the seller fails to open the facility and provide the agreed upon services within twelve months of the signing of the contract, the seller shall within ten days give a full refund to the buyer. The moneys on deposit shall revert to the seller on the day the facility opens.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to any sellers who, prior to any preopening sales, have provided a bond guaranteeing performance of all contracts for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility. The bond shall be drawn upon a surety in an amount acceptable to the office of the attorney general, running to the state of Washington. An action on the bond may be brought by the office of the attorney general or by any buyer of a contract for health and conditioning services sold prior to the opening of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 175. (1) The contract for health and conditioning services shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the health and conditioning facilities operator;

(b) The date the buyer signed the contract;

(c) The current fees to be paid by the buyer and, if such fees are subject to periodic adjustment, such fact shall be disclosed;

(d) The services to be provided under the contract; and

(e) The duration of the contract.

(2) Unless the health and conditioning facilities operator has complied with subsection (1) of this section, the buyer may cancel the contract for health and conditioning services at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 176. Contracts for health and conditioning services shall contain clauses which notify buyers of the following rights:

(1) The buyer has the right to cancel the contract at any time prior to midnight of the third calendar day after the date the contract is signed by the buyer. Cancellation under this subsection entitles the buyer to a refund of all moneys paid and relieves the buyer from any future obligations under the contract without penalty.

(2) If by reason of death or total disability the person agreeing to receive services is unable to receive services that have been contracted for, the person or person's estate may cancel the contract.

(a) For total disability, a written confirmation of total disability shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require the person to be examined by a physician of their choice if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties. Total disability is a condition incurred after the person signs the contract which precludes the person from physically using the facilities for the remaining term of the contract.

(b) For death, a certified copy of the death certificate shall be sufficient evidence to cancel the contract.

(3) If the health and conditioning facilities are permanently closed and comparable facilities owned and operated by the seller are not made available within a ten-mile radius of the closed facility, the person agreeing to receive health and conditioning services may cancel the contract.

(4) If a contract for health and conditioning services extends for more than one year or requires payment of an initiation or membership fee, the buyer has the right to cancel the contract for any reason upon thirty days' written notice to the seller.

(5) Upon cancellation under subsection (2), (3), or (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a refund and relief from future obligations for payments of one-time only initiation and membership fees and monthly use fees as follows:

(a) The buyer is entitled to a refund of the unused portion of any prepaid monthly use fees and relief from future obligations to pay use fees concerning use after the date of cancellation;

(b) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (2) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee less a predetermined fee not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee;

(c) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (3) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee;

(d) If the contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels under subsection (4) of this section, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of such fee and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract unless the contract clearly states that the initiation or membership fee is nonrefundable, or states what percentage of the fee is refundable, and the clause is separately signed by the buyer;

(e) To calculate the amount of the refund and relief from future obligations for payment under the contract, the fee shall be apportioned into an equal installment amount by dividing the total fee by the number of months of use contracted for by the buyer. The buyer is entitled to relief from the obligation for payment and a refund of any moneys paid in excess of the number of months of use prior to the date of cancellation multiplied by the equal installment amount; and

(f) All refunds shall be made within thirty days of receipt of the notice of cancellation by the health and conditioning facilities operator. Notice of cancellation shall be provided to the seller by mailing or delivering a signed and dated notice, or sending a telegram which states that the buyer is canceling the contract, or words of similar effect. The seller may require the buyer to return the original copy of the contract, or any membership card, or any other materials which evidence membership in the club.

(6) For any period in which a person is precluded from physically using the facilities due to a temporary total disability, the obligation of that person to pay any monthly use fees will be suspended. For a temporary total disability, a written confirmation shall be submitted by the person's treating physician. The health and conditioning facility may require, if requested within sixty days after a written confirmation is submitted by the treating physician, the person to be examined by a physician of their choice. If the two physicians disagree, they shall choose a third physician to examine the person, each party bearing half the fee. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on all parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 177. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive and do not relieve the parties from compliance with all other applicable federal, state, and local laws and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 178. Any contract for health and conditioning services which does not comply with the applicable provisions of this chapter or in which the buyer waives any provision of this chapter is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 179. It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale any contract for health and conditioning services entered into in reliance upon any false, fraudulent, or misleading information or representations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 180. A seller who has not furnished a bond under section 174 of this act and who receives money from a buyer under a contract for services from health and conditioning facilities sold prior to the opening of the facility and the provision of the agreed upon services and who fails to deposit such moneys in a trust account maintained by the seller for the purpose of holding such funds for the buyer in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington within three business days of receipt excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays shall be guilty of a class C felony as defined in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 181. A violation of this chapter, for purposes of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 182. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contracts for health and conditioning services entered into before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 183. Sections 168 through 182 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW."

MOTION

Ms. Brekke moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 131.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Lewis: "Mr. Speaker, I ask your ruling on the scope and object of the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill 131."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill 131, 'An Act Relating to regulation of health and health related professions and businesses....,' which is a pretty broad title, but the bill itself deals with technical implementation of the uniform disciplinary act for eighteen licensed or regulated health professions. The effect of the Senate amendment is to add health club facilities and physical fitness conditioning services and make them subject to the consumer protection act under a new chapter created in Title 19 RCW. The Speaker, after examining both the original bill and the underlying purpose therein, and the Senate amendment, finds that your point is well taken; the Senate amendment broadens the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Brekke, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 131, and asked the Senate to recede therefrom.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 27, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1472 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that both consumers and producers of agricultural and aquacultural products benefit from practices and policies which reduce the postproduction costs of making such products available to consumers. The legislature declares it to be the policy of the state to encourage and promote the marketing of agricultural products directly to consumers at the sites of the production of such products as one means of reducing those costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 47.42 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall take such actions as are practicable to assist the marketing of agricultural products including plantation Christmas trees, and cultured aquatic products as defined in RCW 15.85.020 at the sites of their production by ensuring that adequate directions to such sites within the state are available to the public. Adequate directions shall include allowing the placement of signs on public highway rights of way at no charge during the season that such products are available for purchase directly by consumers.

Sec. 3. Section 82.04.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

"To manufacture" embraces all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use, and shall include the production or fabrication of special made or custom made articles.

"To manufacture" shall not include conditioning of seed for use in planting, or activities which consist of cutting, grading, or ice glazing seafood which has been cooked, frozen or canned outside this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "section;" strike "adding a new section to chapter 43.23 RCW;"

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "marketing;" insert "amending RCW 82.04.120;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Vekich moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 1472 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smitherman: "Mr. Speaker, I request that you rule on the amendment in respect to scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined House Bill 1472, 'An Act Relating to agricultural marketing....' The amendment adds injunction for the conditioning of the seed used for planting from the definition of manufacturing for the purposes of the state B&O tax laws. Having examined both the amendment and the underlying bill, the Speaker finds that your point is well taken and that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

Mr. Barrett moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "While no Point of Parliamentary Inquiry or Point of Order has been raised, the Speaker would like to read from (Reed's) Rule 245, Method of Obtaining Conference. '...The formal method, which perhaps any House has a right to insist on, is illustrated in this way: A bill passed by one House is amended in the other and returned. The originating House disagrees to the amendment, and notifies the amending House by a message, returning the papers. Thereupon the amending body either recedes and concurs or insists and asks for a conference.' The conventional method of dealing with this matter would be to not concur and ask the Senate to recede, as indicated in this rule. It has been the practice of this House to recognize the motion to not concur and ask for a conference thereon, but this action is also allowed. The Speaker believes that according to Reed's Rules, that the most conventional approach should come first and would find that your motion is, in fact, in order, Representative Barrett. Therefore, the question before the House is to not concur with the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede therefrom."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich: "Having ruled the amendment out of scope, is it possible subsequently to concur in the rest of the bill? Would that take precedent over Representative Barrett's motion?"

The Speaker: "The answer is no. There was only one amendment before us and that was a striking amendment. The Speaker ruled that out of scope and object."

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 7, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1950 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that medical malpractice will be reduced if hospitals establish coordinated medical malpractice prevention programs and provide greater scrutiny of physicians prior to granting or renewing hospital privileges.

(2) The legislature also finds that physician disciplinary boards can reduce medical malpractice if they have access to additional information on health care providers who are incompetent or impaired.

PART I

MEDICAL DISCIPLINARY BOARD

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 71, Laws of 1977 and RCW 18.72.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the 'Washington state medical disciplinary board,' which shall be composed of one holder of a valid license to practice medicine and surgery from each congressional district now existing or hereafter created in the state and ~~((one))~~ three members of the public who meet~~(s)~~ the qualifications contained in RCW 70.39.020(2) shall be appointed by the governor. The public ~~((member's))~~ members' term shall be for ~~((two))~~ four years ~~((commencing on October 1st of each odd-numbered year)).~~ In order to achieve staggered terms, the public member serving on the board on the effective date of this 1986 act shall continue to serve until October 1, 1987. The remaining two public members shall be appointed to initial terms of three years and four years, respectively.

The board shall be an administrative agency of the state of Washington. The attorney general shall be the advisor of the board and shall represent it in all legal proceedings. Assistant attorneys general assigned to the board are subject to the approval of the board and shall work under the direct control of the board while so assigned.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.155 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of the department of licensing shall appoint, from a list of three names supplied by the board, an executive secretary who shall act to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall also employ such additional staff including administrative assistants, investigators, and clerical staff as are required to enable the board to accomplish its duties and responsibilities. Investigators employed under this section shall be assigned solely to the board and are subject to the approval of the board. The executive secretary shall be exempt from the provisions of the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

PART II

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE PREVENTION PROGRAM

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every hospital shall maintain a coordinated program for the identification and prevention of medical malpractice. The program shall include at least the following:

(a) The establishment of a quality assurance committee with the responsibility to review the services rendered in the hospital in order to improve the quality of medical care of patients and to prevent medical malpractice. The committee shall oversee and coordinate the medical malpractice prevention program and shall insure that information gathered pursuant to the program is used to review and to revise hospital policies and procedures. At least one member of the committee shall be a member of the governing board of the hospital who is not otherwise affiliated with the hospital in an employment or contractual capacity;

(b) A medical staff privileges sanction procedure through which credentials, physical and mental capacity, and competence in delivering health care services are periodically reviewed as part of an evaluation of staff privileges;

(c) The periodic review of the credentials, physical and mental capacity, and competence in delivering health care services of all persons who are employed or associated with the hospital;

(d) A procedure for the prompt resolution of grievances by patients or their representatives related to accidents, injuries, treatment, and other events that may result in claims of medical malpractice;

(e) The maintenance and continuous collection of information concerning the hospital's experience with negative health care outcomes and incidents injurious to patients, patient grievances, professional liability premiums, settlements, awards, costs incurred by the hospital for patient injury prevention, and safety improvement activities;

(f) The maintenance of relevant and appropriate information gathered pursuant to (a) through (e) of this subsection concerning individual physicians within the physician's personnel or credential file maintained by the hospital;

(g) Education programs dealing with patient safety, injury prevention, staff responsibility to report professional misconduct, the legal aspects of patient care, improved communication with patients, and causes of malpractice claims for staff personnel engaged in patient care activities; and

(h) Policies to ensure compliance with the reporting requirements of this section.

(2) Any person who, in substantial good faith, provides information to further the purposes of the medical malpractice prevention program or who, in substantial good faith, participates on the quality assurance committee shall not be subject to an action for civil damages or other relief as a result of such activity.

(3) Information and documents, including complaints and incident reports, created, collected, and maintained about health care providers arising out of the matters that are subject to evaluation by a review committee conducting quality assurance reviews are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action, and no person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee or board shall be permitted or required to testify in any civil action as to the content of such proceedings. This subsection does not preclude: (a) In any civil action, the testimony of any person concerning the facts which form the basis for the institution of such proceedings of which the person had personal knowledge acquired independently of such proceedings; (b) in any civil action by a health care provider regarding the restriction or revocation of that individual's clinical or staff privileges, introduction into evidence information collected and maintained by quality assurance committees regarding such health care provider; or (c) in any civil action, disclosure of the fact that staff privileges were terminated or restricted, including the specific restrictions imposed, if any.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt such rules as are deemed appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this section.

(5) The medical disciplinary board or the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery, as appropriate, may review and audit the records of committee decisions in which a physician's privileges are terminated or restricted. Each hospital shall produce and make accessible to the board the appropriate records and otherwise facilitate the review and audit. Information so gained shall not be subject to the discovery process and confidentiality shall be respected as required by subsection (3) of this section. Failure of a hospital to comply with this subsection is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

(6) Violation of this section shall not be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.72 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A licensed health care professional licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW shall report to the medical disciplinary board when he or she has personal knowledge that a practicing physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute statutorily defined unprofessional conduct or that a practicing physician may be unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical conditions.

(2) Reporting under this section is not required by:

(a) An appropriately appointed peer review committee member of a licensed hospital or by an appropriately designated professional review committee member of a county or state medical society during the investigative phase of their respective operations if these investigations are completed in a timely manner; or

(b) A treating licensed health care professional of a physician currently involved in a treatment program as long as the physician patient actively participates in the treatment program and the physician patient's impairment does not constitute a clear and present danger to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(3) The medical disciplinary board may impose disciplinary sanctions, including license suspension or revocation, on any health care professional subject to the jurisdiction of the board who has failed to comply with this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 18.72 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every institution or organization providing professional liability insurance to physicians shall send a complete report to the medical disciplinary board of all malpractice settlements, awards, or payments in excess of twenty thousand dollars as a result of a claim or action for damages alleged to have been caused by an insured physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of medicine. Such institution or organization shall also report the award, settlement, or payment of three or more claims during a year as the result of the alleged physician's incompetence or negligence in the practice of medicine regardless of the dollar amount of the award or payment.

(2) Reports required by this section shall be made within sixty days of the date of the settlement or verdict. Failure to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

The chief administrator or executive officer of a hospital shall report to the board when a physician's clinical privileges are terminated or are restricted based on a determination, in accordance with an institution's bylaws, that a physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute unprofessional conduct. The officer shall also report if a physician accepts voluntary termination in order to foreclose or terminate actual or possible hospital action to suspend, restrict, or terminate a physician's clinical privileges. Such a report shall be made within sixty days of the date action was taken by the hospital's peer review committee or the physician's acceptance of voluntary termination or restriction of privileges. Failure of a hospital to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

Each hospital shall keep written records of decisions to restrict or terminate privileges of practitioners. Copies of such records shall be made available to the board within thirty days of a request and all information so gained shall remain confidential in accordance with sections 4 and 11 of this act and shall be protected from the discovery process. Failure of a hospital to comply with this section is punishable by civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 18.57 RCW to read as follows:

A health care professional licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW shall report to the board when he or she has personal knowledge that a practicing osteopathic physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute statutorily defined unprofessional conduct or that a practicing osteopathic physician may be unable to practice osteopathic medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any impairing mental or physical conditions.

(2) Reporting under this section is not required by:

(a) An appropriately appointed peer review committee member of a licensed hospital or by an appropriately designated professional review committee member of an osteopathic medical society during the investigative phase of their respective operations if these investigations are completed in a timely manner; or

(b) A treating licensed health care professional of an osteopathic physician currently involved in a treatment program as long as the physician patient actively participates in the treatment program and the physician patient's impairment does not constitute a clear and present danger to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(3) The board may impose disciplinary sanctions, including license suspension or revocation, on any health care professional subject to the jurisdiction of the board who has failed to comply with this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 18.57 RCW to read as follows:

Every institution or organization providing professional liability insurance to osteopathic physicians shall send a complete report to the board of all malpractice settlements, awards, or payments in excess of twenty thousand dollars as a result of a claim or action for damages alleged to have been caused by an insured physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of osteopathic medicine. Such institution or organization shall also report the award, settlement, or payment of three or more claims during a year as the result of the alleged physician's incompetence or negligence in the practice of medicine regardless of the dollar amount of the award or payment.

Reports required by this section shall be made within sixty days of the date of the settlement or verdict. Failure to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

PART III

GRANT OR RENEWAL OF HOSPITAL PRIVILEGES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Prior to granting or renewing clinical privileges or association of any physician or hiring a physician, a hospital or facility approved pursuant to this chapter shall request from the physician and the physician shall provide the following information:

(a) The name of any hospital or facility with or at which the physician had or has any association, employment, privileges, or practice;

(b) If such association, employment, privilege, or practice was discontinued, the reasons for its discontinuation;

(c) Any pending professional medical misconduct proceedings or any pending medical malpractice actions in this state or another state, the substance of the allegations in the proceedings or actions, and any additional information concerning the proceedings or actions as the physician deems appropriate;

(d) The substance of the findings in the actions or proceedings and any additional information concerning the actions or proceedings as the physician deems appropriate;

(e) A waiver by the physician of any confidentiality provisions concerning the information required to be provided to hospitals pursuant to this subsection; and

(f) A verification by the physician that the information provided by the physician is accurate and complete.

(2) Prior to granting privileges or association to any physician or hiring a physician, a hospital or facility approved pursuant to this chapter shall request from any hospital with or at which the physician had or has privileges, was associated, or was employed, the following information concerning the physician:

(a) Any pending professional medical misconduct proceedings or any pending medical malpractice actions, in this state or another state;

(b) Any judgment or settlement of a medical malpractice action and any finding of professional misconduct in this state or another state by a licensing or disciplinary board; and

(c) Any information required to be reported by hospitals pursuant to RCW 18.72.265.

(3) The medical disciplinary board shall be advised within thirty days of the name of any physician denied staff privileges, association, or employment on the basis of adverse findings under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A hospital or facility that receives a request for information from another hospital or facility pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall provide such information concerning the physician in question to the extent such information is known to the hospital or facility receiving such a request, including the reasons for suspension, termination, or curtailment of employment or privileges at the hospital or facility. A hospital, facility, or other person providing such information in good faith is not liable in any civil action for the release of such information.

(5) Information and documents, including complaints and incident reports, created, collected, and maintained about health care providers arising out of the matters that are subject to evaluation by a review committee conducting quality assurance reviews are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action, and no person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee or board shall be permitted or required to testify in any civil action as to the content of such proceedings. This subsection does not preclude: (a) In any civil action, the testimony of any person concerning the facts which form the basis for the institution of such proceedings of which the person had personal knowledge acquired independently of such proceedings; (b) in any civil action by a health care provider regarding the restriction or revocation of that individual's clinical or staff privileges, introduction into evidence information collected and maintained by quality assurance committees regarding such health care provider; or (c) in any civil action, disclosure of the fact that staff privileges were terminated or restricted, including the specific restrictions imposed, if any.

(6) Hospitals shall be granted access to information held by the medical disciplinary board and the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery pertinent to decisions of the hospital regarding credentialing and recredentialing of practitioners.

(7) Violation of this section shall not be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "medical" strike the remainder of the title and insert "malpractice"; amending RCW 18.72.040 and 18.72.155; adding new sections to chapter 18.57 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 18.72 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 70.41 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

The House resumed consideration of the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1598.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Braddock, you previously raised the question of scope and object of the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1598.

The Speaker has examined the original bill, 'An Act Relating to sexual offenders....' which transfers this responsibility from the Department of Social and Health Services to the Department of Corrections. The Senate amendment by the Committee on Judiciary adds the provision that sets up a supplemental program to reimburse institutional care employees of the Department of Social and Health Services and the Department of Veterans' Affairs for costs related to being assaulted by residents, patients or inmates. The original bill deals with transferring of the program from DSHS to Corrections. The Speaker, after examining the original bill and the amendments, finds that the amendments broaden the scope and object of the original bill. Therefore, your point is well taken. The Senate amendment is out of order; it is beyond the scope and object."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Armstrong, the House refused to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598 and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Armstrong, Valle and Padden as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the House adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Monday, March 10, 1986.

WAYNE EHLERS, Speaker

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 8, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The House amendments to REENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4541 were ruled beyond the scope and object of the bill, and the Senate asks the House to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Lewis moved that the House insist on its position on Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4541, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

Mr. West moved that the House recede from the amendments.

The Speaker stated that under Reed's Rule 247, Representative West's motion was of higher rank and therefor the question before the House.

Representatives West and Bristow spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Lux opposed it.

On motion of Ms. Hine, further action was deferred.

Representatives Sanders and Taylor appeared at the bar of the House.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Wang, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 was placed on the calendar for immediate consideration.

Mr. J. King demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Dobbs and Vekich.

On motion of Mr. J. King, the absent members were excused, and the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion not to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

MOTIONS

Mr. Padden moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

Mr. J. King moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. J. King spoke against the motion to concur and Representatives Vander Stoep and Padden spoke in favor of it.

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32, and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 49; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Doty, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S, Zellinsky - 47.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Winsley, and Mr. Speaker - 49.

Excused: Representatives Dobbs, Vekich - 2.

The Speaker stated that the motion having failed, the House had by its action failed to concur in the Senate amendments.

MOTION

Mr. J. King moved that the House ask the Senate for a conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, under Reed's Rules we have already taken action on this bill. It is no longer before us for the purpose of a motion."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, the issue is still before us. We have had one motion; the item is still in possession of the House and there has been a motion made on the issue. Your point is not well taken."

MOTION

Mr. Padden moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments and ask the Senate to recede therefrom.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, that action was taken by motion. When the motion to concur failed, that opportunity is no longer before us. The question before us now, Representative Padden, is the request for a conference."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, the motion presented by Representative Padden is to not concur and ask the Senate to recede therefrom, which is a high ranking motion by virtue of your ruling last night on another measure. The motion to ask for a conference is made only after the previous action in asking for the recession from the amendment."

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, the action that I ruled on last night was that when Representative Barrett raised a question, and the motion was a motion to not concur and ask for a conference thereon, Representative Barrett made the motion to not concur and ask to recede therefrom. I ruled that had a high order, which I also indicated a few moments ago to Representative Padden, that this was the case. Subsequently, Representative King made the motion to concur. This has a higher order than any of the three. When that was turned down (the motion to concur), we are then in a position, having taken that action, of being in a position of having voted not to concur. At that point the only appropriate request would be either to send that message or to have a subsequent motion which gives further direction to the other body. In this case, Representative King has made a motion to request a conference and that is what is before us. I would like to read Reed's 245, please. 'Whenever the two Houses have reached the point where they disagree, the House which has the papers may reject the amendments of the other House and ask a conference...'"

Mr. G. Nelson: "I would ask that the Speaker then address to the body Reed's 250 relative to the ranking and relationship of the motions to concur and nonconcur."

The Speaker: "Representative Nelson, examining Reed's 250 in addition to 245, the Speaker would also point out 240 supersedes, notwithstanding Rule 250. Rule

240: 'A conference is one of the methods of communication between two assemblies which together constitute the legislative department of a government. Whenever a disagreement as to amendments between the two Houses has reached such a phase that it seems likely to be final, the House which has the papers usually asks a conference upon the disagreeing votes of the two Houses and announces the names of the committee of conference.' The Speaker would rule, Representative Nelson, that your point is not well taken."

Representative Vekich appeared at the bar of the House.

MOTION

Mr. Padden moved that the House ask the Senate to recede from the amendments.

The Speaker: "That would be a redundant motion; we have already done that, Representative Padden."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, we've only moved previously to ask the Senate to not concur and recede. We've not made a separate motion to recede, which I believe by your ruling yesterday, is a higher motion than a request for a conference."

The Speaker: "Representative Padden, you made the motion to not concur and ask the Senate to recede therefrom. Representative King made the motion to concur. That failed. As I stated previously, the effect of that action is to put us into the position of nonconcurrency. As I stated previously, at that point a motion to request conference was not one that was made previously and that is now being made. The question---"

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Regarding what you just said, if the record to the House should show that the first motion made--and you say that the request for conference has never been made before, but recession has--I would say that the record of the House would show that the first motion made was to nonconcur and request a conference. Your ruling seems a little inconsistent here."

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, you are accurate in the sense that I am inaccurate in that the motion was made, but no action was taken on it, which is what I should have said, because of the higher ranking motion that was made."

A division was called.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to ask the Senate for a conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 32, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 41; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hine, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J. King P. King R. Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Miller, Nelson D. Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K. Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 56.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Doty, Fuhrman, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Lewis, Long, Lundquist, May, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Sommers, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S - 41.

Excused: Representative Dobbs - 1.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1134 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall investigate the conviction records or pending charges of persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons. The investigation may include an examination of state and national criminal identification data and the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining the character, suitability, and competence of these applicants. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose. If necessary, persons may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the background investigation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

The state personnel board shall adopt rules, in cooperation with the secretary of social and health services, for the background investigation of persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 35, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 97, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall maintain a central registry of reported cases of child abuse or abuse of an adult dependent person and shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section. Records in the central registry shall be considered confidential and privileged and will not be available except upon court order to any person or agency except (1) law enforcement agencies as defined in this chapter in the course of an investigation of alleged abuse or neglect; (2) protective services workers or juvenile court personnel who are investigating reported incidents of abuse or neglect; (3) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character and/or suitability of an agency and other persons who are applicants for licensure, registration, or certification, or applicants for employment with such an agency or persons, or under contract to or employed by an agency or persons directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, or adult dependent persons pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW; (4) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character, suitability, and competence of persons being considered for employment with the department in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons pursuant to chapters 43.20A and 41.06 RCW; (5) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character or suitability of any persons with whom children may be placed under the interstate compact on the placement of children, chapter 26.34 RCW; ~~((6))~~ (6) physicians who are treating the child or adult dependent person or family; ~~((7))~~ (7) any child or adult dependent person named in the registry who is alleged to be abused or neglected, or his or her guardian ad litem and/or attorney; ~~((8))~~ (8) a parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for the welfare and safety of the child or adult dependent person named in the registry; ~~((9))~~ (9) any person engaged in a bona fide research purpose, as determined by the department, according to rules and regulations, provided that information identifying the persons of the registry shall remain privileged; and ~~((10))~~ (10) any individual whose name appears on the registry shall have access to his own records. Those persons or agencies exempted by this section from the confidentiality of the records of the registry shall not further disseminate or release such information so provided to them and shall respect the confidentiality of such information, and any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 82.08 RCW to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to sales of eligible foods which are purchased with coupons issued under the Food Stamp Act of 1977, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in RCW 82.08.0293.

When a purchase of eligible foods is made with a combination of coupons issued under the Food Stamp Act of 1977 and cash, check, or similar payment, the cash, check, or similar payment shall be applied first to food products exempt from tax under RCW 82.08.0293 whenever possible.

As used in this section, 'eligible foods' shall have the same meaning as that established under federal law for purposes of the Food Stamp Act of 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 82.12 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply with respect to the use of eligible foods which are purchased with coupons issued under the Food Stamp Act of 1977, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in RCW 82.12.0293.

As used in this section, 'eligible foods' shall have the same meaning as that established under federal law for purposes of the Food Stamp Act of 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The governor shall petition the secretary of the United States department of agriculture for a delay in the date section 1505(a) of the federal Food Security Act of 1985 takes effect with respect to this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Section 6 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 4 and 5 of this act shall take effect on the day section 1505(a) of the federal Food Security Act of 1985 takes effect with respect to this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 151, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.20A.700 are each repealed."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 26.44.070; adding a new section to chapter 43.20A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.06 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.12 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 43.20A.700; and providing an effective date."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Brekke moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1134 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. J. King: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask you to rule on the scope and object of the Senate amendments to our House bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative King, the Speaker has examined the bill, which is an act relating to the Department of Social and Health Services, very broad, then examined the underlying bill, which is requiring DSHS to investigate conviction records of pending charges against persons applying for positions directly responsible to the supervision, care and treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons. The Speaker notes that within the amendment, section 5, 'The provisions of this chapter shall not apply with respect to use of eligible foods which are purchased with coupons issued under the Food Stamp Act of 1977....' The Speaker finds that this particular section violates the scope and object of the bill and your point is well taken."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Brekke, Leonard and Lewis as conferees on Substitute House Bill No. 1134.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. West, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5005 without the House amendments passed the House.

Mr. Lux spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be reconsideration of final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5005 without the House amendments.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Lux, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the House receded from the amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5005.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. Lux, the House insisted on its position on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5005, and asked the Senate for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Lux, Crane and West as conferees on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5005.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease until 4:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House was called to order at 4:00 p.m. by the Speaker.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 34, Laws of 1984 and by section 14, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 42.17.240 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Every elected official and every executive state officer shall after January 1st and before April 15th of each year file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding calendar year. However, any local elected official whose term of office expires immediately after December 31st shall file the statement required to be filed by this section for the year that ended on that December 31st.

(2) Every candidate shall within two weeks of becoming a candidate file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(3) Every person appointed to a vacancy in an elective office or executive state officer position shall within two weeks of being so appointed file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(4) A statement of a candidate or appointee filed during the period from January 1st to April 15th shall cover the period from January 1st of the preceding calendar year to the time of candidacy or appointment if the filing of the statement would relieve the individual of a prior obligation to file a statement covering the entire preceding calendar year.

(5) No individual may be required to file more than once in any calendar year.

(6) Each statement of financial affairs filed under this section shall be sworn as to its truth and accuracy.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term 'executive state officer' includes those listed in RCW 43.17.020 and those listed in RCW 42.17.2401.

(8) This section does not apply to incumbents or candidates for a federal office or the office of precinct committeeman.

(9) 'Executive state officers' as defined in RCW 42.17.2401 are prohibited from filing as a registered lobbyist for any entity other than to fulfill their responsibilities as an executive state officer.'

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "commission," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.131.269 and 43.131.270; and reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.240." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Vendor rate adjustments shall average 3% on January 1, 1986.

(2) $2,423,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $3,231,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for phased-in increases in child protective services field staff.

(3) $116,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $116,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to expand the homebuilders program beyond current service levels.

(4) $185,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $185,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to expand services in the therapeutic day-care program beyond current levels.

(5) $516,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $487,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for field staff increases in day-care screening, licensing, monitoring, and information and referral. The department shall conduct at least one scheduled and one unannounced on-site inspection of each licensed day-care facility during the facility's licensing period. The department shall make available to any parent, guardian, or custodian requesting information about day-care providers, for inspection and copying (with copying fees waivable in cases of hardship), any documents in its possession relating to any licensed day-care facility that are not exempt from public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. The department shall require that every licensed day-care facility display prominently on its premises the address and telephone number of the appropriate local or regional office of the department and the name(s) of any department employee(s) responsible for the licensing and monitoring of the facility.

(6) $3,654,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $3,370,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $3,654,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $3,370,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to increase the safety and quality of care in children's group homes, including the conversion of at least 75 but not more than 143 beds for use in intensive residential treatment of severely disturbed youth at a monthly rate of $2,100 per occupied bed, effective July 1, 1985. The department shall develop and implement written standards as to which children may be placed in residential treatment, clearly distinguishing the residential treatment population from the remaining group care population. As used in this subsection, 'residential treatment' includes permanent planning for child placement, counseling of natural parents when appropriate, and recruiting, training, and counseling of adoptive or foster parents when appropriate, for which services the department may develop additional rates. The department shall develop a client outcome monitoring system as part of a specific plan for performance-based contracts whereby a portion of vendor payments for group care and residential treatment is contingent on vendor attainment of client outcome standards to be developed by the department. The plan shall be transmitted to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives and the legislative budget committee by July 1, 1986, and scheduled for implementation on July 1, 1987, pending legislative review.

(7) $615,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $554,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $615,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $554,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to increase vendor rates for family foster care, effective July 1, 1985.

(8) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase private agency service fees in connection with foster care placements, effective July 1, 1985.

(9) $17,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $17,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase vendor rates for group crisis residential centers, effective July 1, 1985.

(10) $51,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $51,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase vendor rates for family interim care homes, effective July 1, 1985.

(11) $139,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $132,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $139,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $132,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to expand the children's hospitalization alternative program by up to 25 additional beds, including expansion into geographical areas not presently served.

(12) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for emergency medical examinations of child protective services clients who are not eligible for federally matched medical assistance.

(13) ~~$(455,000)~~ 910,000 of the general fund—state appropriation (~~for fiscal year 1986~~) is provided solely for contracted services to 'street kids.' For purposes of this subsection, 'street kids' are children between the ages of eight and seventeen who do not receive care, shelter, or supervision from parents or other responsible adults, who are not placed in residential settings by the department, and who are living in a dangerous urban environment. Services may include street outreach, advocacy, counseling, and foster care. Not more than 150 'street kids' may receive services supported under this subsection from any single center at any one time. All programs receiving funds under this subsection shall provide cultural- and language-sensitive services to minority 'street kids.'

(14) ~~$(1,241,000)~~ 11,451,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which ~~$(7,976,000)~~ 8,186,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and ~~$(1,376,000)~~ 13,960,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which ~~$(6,361,000)~~ 8,971,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, shall be initially allotted for day-care payments. ~~(The department shall revise program eligibility and/or participation criteria, consistent with statute, if necessary to prevent the overexpenditure of moneys allotted for the program in each fiscal year.)~~

(15) $175,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $175,000 for fiscal year 1987 from the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for the victims of sexual assault program.

(16) $90,000 from the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely for an education and training pilot project for the prevention of child abuse and neglect in inner-city Seattle. The department shall distribute these funds to the department of pediatrics at Harborview medical center. The project shall be evaluated by comparing the group of mothers served to a control group based on objective outcome measures such as episodes of abuse and neglect, evidence of failure to thrive, hospitalizations, anemia, immunization status, and the ratio of scheduled well-child visits to episodic drop-in visits. The department shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1987, on the status of the project.

Total Appropriation	S((787,365,000))	845,623,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall continue the aid to families with dependent children program for two-parent families through June 30, 1987.

(2) Not later than October 1, 1985, the department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(a) The process implementing such medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontradicted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(b) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation.

(3) Grant payment standards and vendor rates shall be increased by 3% on January 1, 1986, above the standards and rates in effect on March 1, 1985, for aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, consolidated emergency assistance, and refugee assistance.

(4) It is the continuing intention of the legislature that payment levels in the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, and refugee assistance programs contain an energy allowance to offset the high and rising costs of energy and that such allowance be excluded from consideration as income for the purpose of determining eligibility and benefit levels of the food stamp program to the maximum extent such exclusion is authorized under federal law and RCW 74.08.046. To this end, up to $100,000,000 is so designated for exemptions of the following amounts:

Family size:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	or more
Exemption:	$30	39	46	56	63	72	84	92

(5) The department shall establish a study committee to examine the general assistance income and medical programs. The committee shall particularly examine the structure of the general assistance—unemployable program as it relates to treatment programs for alcoholism, mental illness, and substance abuse. The committee shall include representatives of affected department programs, treatment providers, community advocacy groups, legal services, and the legislature. The committee shall examine alternative treatment or assistance methods which would help clients to overcome their illnesses, while providing necessary assistance. The report shall include detailed historical and projected income and medical caseload and cost information by client group. The report shall further identify policy changes, statutory or otherwise, which have affected caseload levels and costs. The department shall report the findings and recommendations of the study committee to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1987.

(6) The department, in cooperation with the department of revenue, shall seek a waiver to delay implementation of the sales tax exemption on food stamp purchases in accordance with Public Law 99-198.

Sec. 207. Section 211, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

Total Appropriation	196,462,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) No funds shall be expended directly or indirectly for the production or distribution of any materials regarding homosexual sex safety.

(2) Vendor rate adjustments shall average 3% on January 1, 1986.

((2)) (3) $1,000,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $1,000,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for grants in aid to public and private non-profit community health centers serving populations that lack access to affordable health care. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be used by the centers to provide primary health care services to persons who have no health care coverage. The grants shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to the centers. No center may receive funding under this subsection if it fails or refuses to provide medically necessary care on the basis of any patient's inability to pay or lack of coverage, or if it does not contract with the department to provide care under the medical assistance program. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of community health centers to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the secretary shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

((3)) (4) $43,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $43,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to implement the provisions of chapter 187, Laws of 1984, regarding standards for organic chemicals in drinking water.

((4)) (5) $34,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $34,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to implement the provisions of chapter 156, Laws of 1984, regarding compiling of information on sentinel birth defects.

((5)) (6) $90,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $90,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—local appropriation are provided solely for monitoring and implementation of health and sanitation standards for agricultural labor camps under chapter 248-63 WAC, as adopted by the state board of health in 1984. In health jurisdictions where there is no agreement with the local health officer for local enforcement of the standards, the department shall enforce the standards and charge fees under RCW 43.20A.670 in amounts sufficient to cover its enforcement costs.

engaged in cancer research or in research concerning the effects of smoking on the cardiovascular and respiratory systems.

~~((7))~~ (8) $593,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $554,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—local appropriation is provided solely for radiation control activities, including those required under Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3799 and Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 3.

(9) $2,800,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation is provided solely to continue prenatal care services for low-income pregnant women who do not qualify for full coverage under the medical assistance program. The department shall pay for direct prenatal care, including delivery and postpartum medical services, and including the services of licensed nurse midwives where appropriate, as defined by the department, at rates not exceeding those paid under the medical assistance program and only to the extent of available funds. The department may also provide educational services to low-income women regarding the importance of early prenatal care through the development or acquisition of pamphlets or video tapes to be distributed through county health departments, schools, and other appropriate social and health services agencies and organizations. Not later than January 1, 1987, the department shall submit a report to the social and health services and ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives on the prenatal program. The report shall include definitions of eligibility, numbers of persons served, an estimate of the number of persons potentially eligible for program services and, if the department has requested funding to continue the program in the 1987-89 biennium, a proposal for legislation establishing the program in statute.

(10) $600,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for increased vaccine costs.

(11) $1,000,000 from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for adult dental services that are not mandated by Title XIX of the federal social security act. The department shall contract for these services with public and private nonprofit community health centers serving populations that lack access to affordable dental health care. The department shall impose such limitations as may be necessary to provide services throughout fiscal year 1987.

Sec. 208. Section 213, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The assistance shall include providing to the client or the appropriate social security office any documentation of the client's disability and, if appropriate, referral to legal counsel with expertise in social security law.

(2) The department shall provide a comprehensive report to the legislature no later than January 15, 1987, on all child day care programs currently being provided, including but not limited to programs related to seasonal and regular employment, child welfare or protection, training, and education. To the extent possible, the report shall provide historical and projected data by program on the number of families and children served, client characteristics, expenditures, eligibility criteria, payment or income disregard levels, and program policy. In addition, the report shall identify programs or services mandated or prioritized by federal or state statutes or rules and identify variations in administrative processes or eligibility determination among programs. The department shall also study and report on the cost effectiveness of current child care programs for employed parents and parents in training. The study shall measure the effectiveness of these programs in reducing or avoiding public assistance costs on both a short- and long-term basis. The report shall include an analysis of existing programs and recommendations regarding continuing, revising, or discontinuing any existing programs.

(3) $300,000, of which $150,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely to implement the employment partnership program created in Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1505. If Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1505 is not enacted by July 1, 1986, the amounts provided by this subsection shall revert.

Sec. 210. Section 215, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—REVENUE COLLECTIONS PROGRAM

	FY 1986	FY 1987
General Fund Appropriation—State $	7,815,000	8,043,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal $	15,556,000	((16,093,000))
		16,693,000
General Fund Appropriation—Local $		200,000
Total Appropriation	$((47,507,000))
	48,307,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,195,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $359,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $1,597,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $478,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to implement the order of the King county superior court in Carter v. Simpson, cause number 82-5-50039-0. If this order is reversed on appeal, the unexpended balance of the amounts provided in this subsection shall revert.

(2) In serving custodial parents not on public assistance who apply for support enforcement services, the department shall, to the maximum extent permitted by federal and state law, give priority to cases in which the custodial parent is at risk of becoming eligible for aid to families with dependent children.

(3) The department shall study and make recommendations to the legislature regarding a comprehensive and equitable plan for determining financial responsibility of clients and relatives of clients who receive department-provided or department-funded services. A committee shall be established to oversee the study, to be composed of representatives of the department, the affected population, the public, and other branches of government, including both caucuses of both houses of the legislature. The secretary of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the committee. The study shall consider the legal, ethical, financial, managerial, and pragmatic consequences of the imposition of financial responsibility on utilizers of services provided or funded by the department. The study specifically shall address, but is not limited to:

(a) The level of financial responsibility assessed under existing statutes and policy for utilization of various department services by clients and their responsible relatives;

(b) The effect of financial responsibility on discouraging the utilization of necessary services provided by the department; and

(c) An equitable method of assessing the amount of financial responsibility.

The study findings shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and the senate no later than November 1, 1986, along with any recommendations for legislative action.

Sec. 211. Section 217, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

	FY 1986	FY 1987

Total Appropriation	$((153,372,000))
	155,270,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $975,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $975,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely for grants in aid to public or private nonprofit organizations operating shelters for homeless persons. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be used to provide temporary emergency shelter, including either direct shelter services or vouchers to pay for low-cost commercial accommodations, to persons and families who are without housing and lack funds to purchase lodging. Grantee organizations shall give priority in the use of grant funds to shelter for families and children. Grants shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to grantee organizations, and shall be awarded in amounts not exceeding the amount of local government and private funds that an organization receives in the grant year. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of grantee organizations to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the director shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

(2) $475,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $475,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for grants in aid to public or private nonprofit organizations operating food banks which distribute food without charge to persons unable to purchase enough food for their subsistence, and to public or private nonprofit organizations operating food distribution systems that furnish donated or purchased food to food banks. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to grantee organizations, and shall be awarded in amounts not exceeding the amount of local government and private funds that an organization receives in the grant year. Sixty percent of the funds under this subsection shall be provided to food banks and forty percent to food distribution organizations. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of grantee organizations to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the director shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

(3) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for administration of grants in aid to emergency shelter and food programs under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) If Second Substitute House Bill No. 738 is not enacted by July 1, 1985, $250,000 in fiscal year 1986 and $250,000 in fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation shall revert.

(5) $120,000, of which $96,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1986 and $24,000 is from the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1986, and $120,000 from the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely to implement Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3261. The general fund—state appropriation shall be paid back to the state general fund from the building code council account by June 30, 1989.

(6) $60,000 of the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1986 is provided solely to implement Substitute House Bill No. 1114. The funds generated from the surcharge on building permits established by SHB 1114 shall be deposited in the general fund—building code council account. If federal funds are available for the purposes of SHB 1114, a portion of the amount provided in this subsection equal to the amount of available federal funds shall revert.

(7) A maximum of $100,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $100,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation may be spent in a study of mitigating the impact of the proposed Navy home port at Everett, Washington.

(8) $2,970,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely to initiate preschool state education and assistance programs at the local level in accordance with chapter 418 (E2SHB 1078), Laws of 1985 (early childhood assistance act).

(9) $46,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1986 is provided solely for the reimbursement of government and nonprofit entities for costs incurred in controlling fires on the L.T. Murray Range.

(10) $200,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $550,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for the state matching funds for the federal emergency management agency grant for damages caused by heavy rains, flooding, mud slides, and wind which occurred on January 16-25, 1986.

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) On or before October 1, 1985, the department of ecology shall file with the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives and the office of financial management a master compilation by project type of those projects proposed for funding during the 1985-87 biennium from the appropriations for waste disposal facilities and water supply facilities. A separate compilation shall be supplied for each bond proceed account. The department shall submit updates for the master compilation to the committees on ways and means and the office of financial management at six-month intervals during the 1985-87 biennium. The updates shall reflect project completions, deletions, substitutions, or additions made during the course of administering the projects. If the department proposes to change or modify any project list on the master compilation, it shall give the committees on ways and means and the office of financial management thirty days' written notice of the change or modification prior to the expenditure or obligation of any funds appropriated by this section. The department shall immediately inform the committees and the office of financial management of significant changes from historic federal funding levels for waste disposal facilities and water supply facilities. If the department does not comply fully and in a timely manner with the several compilations, updates, and modification reports required by this subsection, the director of financial management is authorized to place in reserve the second year funds allotted to the department until such time as the documents are produced and distributed as directed by this subsection.

(2) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—water supply facilities (Referendum 27) may be expended to pay up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or loan or combination thereof. Also, the department may lend up to 100% of the eligible costs of preconstruction activities and the department may provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(3) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—waste disposal facilities (Referendum 26) may be expended by the department to pay for up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution, lake rehabilitation, or solid waste management facilities. The department is authorized to provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(4) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—waste disposal facilities 1980 (Referendum 39) may be expended by the department to pay up to 75% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan, or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution, lake rehabilitation, or solid waste management facilities. The department is authorized to provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(5) ~~((Contingent on the enactment of House Bill No. 811, House Bill No. 1081, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3703, or Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3827, the appropriation from the water quality account may be expended by the department to pay up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan, or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution or water storage facilities which enhance water quality. The department is authorized to provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.~~

~~(6) In order to monitor the expenditure of Referendum 38 funds that are to be expended prior to the use of funds provided by Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4136, the department of ecology shall provide an annual report to the legislature of the funds remaining from Referendum 38 and the projects that are in work and awaiting approval. If SSB 4136 is not enacted by July 1, 1985, the annual reports shall not be required.~~

~~(7)) The department may operate, and seek and accept grants or gifts for the purpose of operating and maintaining, the Padilla Bay estuarine sanctuary and interpretive center.~~

At the close of the 1985-87 biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer $200,000 from the worker and community right to know fund to the general fund. If House Bill No. 865 is not enacted before July 1, 1985, the general fund amount provided in this subsection shall revert and the transfer from the worker and community right to know fund shall not occur.~~

~~((13)) (11) $354,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the department to develop a state hazardous waste management plan, including criteria for the siting of hazardous waste management facilities.~~

~~((14)) (12) For the purpose of implementing the requirements of a shellfish protection program, including a pilot program for the prevention of nonpoint source pollution of important shellfish resource areas, the department of ecology shall expend up to a maximum of $300,000 for:~~

- ~~(a) The development of regulations designating priority shellfish protection resource areas;~~
- ~~(b) Contracts with local governments and conservation districts to develop plans, educational programs, and other activities to clean up and protect shellfish resource areas; and~~
- ~~(c) Washington conservation corps activities and other programs to assist land owners in eliminating animal waste related pollution.~~

~~((15)) (13) The office of financial management is authorized to allow the department to deviate from the annual allocation of moneys provided in this section. This authorization pertains only to moneys appropriated and reappropriated for construction grants and hazardous waste remedial action construction contracts.~~

~~(14) $470,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $396,000 of the general fund—local appropriation are provided solely to implement either Senate Bill No. 4876 or House Bill No. 1655 on low-level radioactive waste. If neither Senate Bill No. 4876 nor House Bill No. 1655 is enacted by July 1, 1986, the amounts provided by this subsection shall lapse.~~

~~(15) $57,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to implement Substitute House Bill No. 69 (chapter 426, Laws of 1985), dealing with the development of guidelines and standards for the establishment of solid waste trust funds.~~

~~(16) $52,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to implement House Bill No. 974 (chapter 456, Laws of 1985), dealing with acid rain assessment.~~

(17) $45,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for water quality laboratory analysis.

(18) $59,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the conduct of civil and criminal investigations of violations of environmental statutes.

(19) Not more than $15,000 from the general fund—reclamation revolving account appropriation shall be paid to Cowlitz county as reimbursement for prior contributions of the flood control district to the account.

(20) Not more than $150,000 from the general fund—private/local appropriation may be expended by the department to perform studies, by contract or otherwise, to define site closure and perpetual care and maintenance requirements for the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility and to assess the adequacy of insurance coverage for general liability, radiological liability, and transportation liability for the facility. The department shall complete the studies and report its findings to the legislature by December 31, 1987. The department shall make a preliminary progress report to the legislature by December 31, 1986.

Sec. 502, Section 503, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION)

General Fund Appropriation	$	((3,465,393,000))
		3,436,768,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) As a condition to the allocation of funds to school districts appropriated pursuant to this section, the superintendent shall require school districts to ensure that, during the respective school year, the district has complied with all rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction to implement RCW 28A.58.095. For any violation of such rules, the superintendent shall withhold an amount equal to the level of the violation when applied to the district's respective basic education allocation, unless or until such time as the school district comes into compliance with the rules.

(2) ~~S((3+7,285,000))~~ 314,650,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(3) Allocations for certificated salaries for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education certificated salary allocation defined in section 504 of this act by the district's formula-generated certificated staff units determined as follows:

(a) One certificated staff unit for each twenty average annual full time equivalent kindergarten, elementary, and secondary students, excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollment as calculated according to the procedures in the allocation model established in section 506 of this act and excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations in subsection (3) (b) through ~~((d))~~ (e) of this section: PROVIDED, That those school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students and whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given enrollment month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5% shall be entitled to an additional state allocation of 110% of the pro rata share that such enrollment would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month.

(b) During the 1985-86 school year, one certificated staff unit for each average annual eighteen and three-tenths full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction, for the 1986-87 school year one certificated staff unit for each average annual seventeen and one-half full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That in skills centers, the ratio shall be one certificated staff unit for each average annual sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths full time equivalent students enrolled in an approved vocational education program.

(c) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

(i) For the 1985-86 school year, for those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, three certificated staff units;

(ii) For the 1985-86 school year, for those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, four certificated staff units;

(iii) For the 1986-87 school year, for those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, two certificated staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(iv) For the 1986-87 school year, for those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, two certificated staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated staff unit for each additional student enrolled.

(d) For districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students (except as otherwise specified) and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants enroll more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

(i) For grades K-6, for enrollments of not more than sixty annual average full time equivalent students, three certificated staff units;

(ii) For grades K-6, for enrollments above sixty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students;

(iii) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollments of not more than twenty annual average full time equivalent students, one certificated staff unit;

(iv) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollments above twenty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students;

(v) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated staff unit;

(vi) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated unit.

~~((d))~~ (e) A district that operates no more than two high schools with enrollments of not more than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students shall be allocated certificated staff units for enrollment in each such high school as follows:

(i) Nine and one-half certificated staff units for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students;

(ii) Additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students.

~~((e))~~ (f) In addition to those staffing ratios specified by RCW 28A.41.140, school districts with an enrollment of at least 100 annual average full time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through third grade shall receive during the 1986-87 school year a certificated unit allocation in addition to that provided in subsection (3)(a) of this section, at a rate of one certificated staff unit per 1,000 annual average full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through third grade: PROVIDED, That school districts shall use the additional certificated unit allocation to provide during the 1986-87 school year additional personnel whose primary duty is the daily classroom educational instruction of students.

(4) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education classified salary allocation as defined in section 504 of this act by the district's formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) One classified staff unit per each three certificated staff units determined under subsection (3) (a), (c), ~~((and))~~ (d), and (e) of this section;

(b) One classified staff unit for each sixty full time equivalent vocational students enrolled; and

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(5) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of 20.03 percent in the 1985-86 school year and 20.08 percent in the 1986-87 school year of certificated salary allocations provided pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, and a rate of 16.86 percent in the 1985-86 school year and 16.91 percent in the 1986-87 school year of classified salary allocations provided pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Insurance benefit allocations for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated at a rate of $167 per month for the number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section and for the number of classified staff units determined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by 1.152.

(7)(a) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (3) (a), (c), ~~((and))~~ (d), and (e) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $5,614 per staff unit in the 1985-86 school year and a maximum of $5,833 per staff unit in the 1986-87 school year.

(b) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (3)(b) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $10,698 per staff unit in the 1985-86 school year and a maximum of $11,115 per staff unit in the 1986-87 school year.

(8) Allocations for costs of substitutes for classroom teachers shall be provided at a rate of $268 per full time equivalent basic education classroom teacher during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years.

(9) The superintendent shall distribute a maximum of $3,010,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1986 and 1987 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $320,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1986 and a maximum of $342,000 in fiscal year 1987.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, not more than ~~$(999,000)~~ 771,000 shall be expended in fiscal year 1986 and not more than $1,077,000 in fiscal year 1987.

(c) For school district emergencies, a maximum of $136,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1986 and a maximum of $136,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1987.

(10) A maximum of $125,000 shall be distributed to enhance funding provided in subsections (3) through (9) of this section in the 1986-87 school year for remote and necessary school plants on islands without scheduled public transportation which are the sole school plants serving students in elementary grades on these islands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—RETIREMENT BENEFITS
General Fund—Revenue Accrual Account

Appropriation $ 11,297,000'

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The superintendent shall distribute funds appropriated in this section in proportion to the state-supported classified salary allocation to each district.

(2) Funds appropriated in this section are intended to fully fund employer contributions to the public employees' retirement system.

Sec. 504. Section 504, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—SCHOOL DISTRICT EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION

General Fund Appropriation $ 47,733,000

(1) For the purposes of section 503 of this act and this section, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) 'LEAP Document 7' means the computer tabulation of 1984-85 derived base salaries for basic education certified staff and 1984-85 average salaries for basic education classified staff, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 11, 1985, at 10:36 hours.

(b) 'Revised LEAP Document 7' means the computer tabulation of certificated and classified derived base salaries as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on February 27, 1986, at 9:41 hours.

(c) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 502 of this 1986 act, each district's average basic education certificated salary allocation shall be the district's certificated derived base salary shown on LEAP Document 7, multiplied by the district's prior year staff mix factor calculated using LEAP Document 1.

~~((c))~~ (d) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 502 of this 1986 act, each district's average basic education classified salary allocation for both the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be the district's classified derived base salary multiplied by the district's prior year classified increment mix factor, as specified in this section. For the 1985-86 school year, the classified derived base salary for each district shall be the average classified salary specified for each district in LEAP Document 7 divided by the 1984-85 classified increment mix factor for each district calculated according to the formula used by the superintendent of public instruction in the 1984-85 school year. By December 1, 1985, the superintendent of public instruction shall provide to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee the appropriate data with which to modify LEAP Document 7 to reflect the classified derived base salary for use in the 1986-87 school year.

(e) 'Incremental fringe benefits' means 19.44 percent for certificated staff and 15.49 percent for classified staff, which percentages shall be the fringe benefit rates applied to all salary increases provided in this section, and is for employer contributions to employee benefits and retirement benefits.

(2) For the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 and section 503(1) of this act, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) Effective September 1, 1986, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's actual basic education certificated derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7; and (ii) three percent of the state-wide average certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7.

(b) Effective September 1, 1986, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's actual basic education classified derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7; and (ii) three percent of the state-wide average classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7.

(c) The maximum average percentage salary increase in school district programs other than the basic education program shall not exceed the percentage increase authorized pursuant to this section for the district's basic education program.

((b)) (d) Insurance benefits are limited by this act to an average monthly rate of $167 per full time equivalent certificated employee and to an average monthly rate of $167 per classified unit. Classified units shall be calculated on the basis of 1.440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted for more than one unit. In accordance with RCW 28A.58.095, this subsection relates to insurance benefit increases granted in either the 1985-86 or 1986-87 school year which would raise the rate per full time equivalent unit to over $167 per month.

((c)) (e) Increments granted by school districts to certificated staff shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given by a district to the extent only that the aggregate of increments granted by a district exceeds the aggregate of increments pursuant to LEAP Document 1.

((d)) (f) Seniority increments granted by a school district pursuant to the district's salary schedule for classified employees shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given to the extent only that the aggregate of the increments granted by the district exceeds the amount of the district's increments calculated using the formula adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the classified increment mix factor.

(g) Districts may elect an alternate measure of salary compliance for classified staff by comparing base salaries of 1986-87 staff to the imputed base that was or would have been paid the same staff in the same positions during 1985-86 if the districts electing this alternative certify by board resolution that any amount in excess of state-funded salary levels in each year henceforward is solely a district obligation created through local district personnel policies and salary schedule placements, and that the effect shall neither incur nor imply any current or future funding obligation by the state.

(3)(a) A maximum of $650,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided to fund the conversion from LEAP Document 7 to revised LEAP Document 7, effective September 1, 1986. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute these moneys to fund increases in salary costs and incremental fringe benefits resulting from using revised LEAP Document 7 to calculate allocations for certificated and classified staff units as in section 502 of this 1986 act.

(b) $28,582,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education certificated staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 502 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 LEAP Document 1 basic education staff mix factor times three percent of the state-wide average certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(c) $5,926,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education classified staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 502 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 basic education classified increment mix factor times three percent of the state-wide average classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(d) A maximum of $2,263,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits in the following programs, to be distributed by increasing 1986-87 school year allocation rates as specified:

(i) Transitional bilingual instruction (section 508), $11.43 per pupil;

(ii) Remediation assistance (section 509), $8.80 per pupil;

(iii) Education of highly capable students (section 510), $6.77 per pupil;

(iv) Vocational-technical institutes (section 512), $59.94 per FTE pupil;

(v) Pupil transportation (section 514), $0.46 per weighted pupil-mile.

(e) A maximum of $3,968,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program (section 506), and for state-supported staff in educational service districts (section 502) and institutional education programs (section 507). The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute a three percent salary increase for these programs using the pertinent program state-wide average derived base salaries.

(f) $6,344,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided to enhance salaries for certificated personnel in state-supported programs pursuant to this subsection. Each school district with a certificated derived base salary of less than $16,500, as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, is authorized to grant salary increases effective September 1, 1986, which both:

(i) Increase the actual full time equivalent salary of each certificated employee of the district to a minimum of $16,500 for the 1986-87 school year; and

(ii) Increase the district's actual basic education certificated derived base salary, excluding the salary increase provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section, to no more than $16,500.

For the purposes of allocating basic education funds in the 1986-87 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall modify revised LEAP Document 7 to reflect a certificated derived base salary of $16,500 for each district which grants the increases authorized by this subsection. The superintendent of public instruction may distribute a maximum of $71,000 of the funds provided by this subsection to those districts whose actual cost of granting minimum increases to $16,500 under (i) of this subsection exceeds the increase in the district's total salary allocation resulting from the modification of revised LEAP Document 7.

In addition to other increases provided by this section, each school district with a certificated derived base salary of at least $16,500, as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, is authorized to grant such increases effective September 1, 1986, as are necessary to achieve a minimum full time equivalent salary of $16,500 for any individual certificated employee, $1,500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be distributed by the superintendent of public instruction solely to increase salaries of individual certificated employees in these districts who would otherwise receive a full time equivalent salary of less than $16,500.

(4) increases provided by this section shall be included in the programs referenced in RCW 84.52.0531(1) for purposes of calculating the levy lid.

Sec. 505. Section 506, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR HANDICAPPED EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	((355,371,000))
		362,380,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	30,153,000
Total Appropriation	$	((385,524,000))
		392,533,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) ~~$((32,235,000))~~ 32,120,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds for the 1985-86 ~~((and 1986-87))~~ school year(s) in accordance with a district's actual handicapped enrollments and the allocation model established in ~~((new))~~ LEAP Document 8 as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on May 28, 1985, at 14:04 hours.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds for the 1986-87 school year in accordance with a district's actual handicapped enrollments and the allocation model established in LEAP Document 8 (revised) as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on December 10, 1985, at 9:45 hours.

(4) A maximum of $250,840 may be expended from the general fund—state appropriation to fund three teachers and one aide at Children's Orthopedic Hospital and Medical Center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through home and hospital allocation and the handicapped program.

Sec. 506. Section 509, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR REMEDIATION ASSISTANCE

General Fund Appropriation	$	((24,733,000))
		29,580,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $2,644,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(2) Funding for school district remediation programs serving grades two through nine shall be distributed during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years at a maximum rate of $337 per unit as calculated pursuant to this subsection. The number of units for each school district shall be the sum of: (a) The number of students enrolled in grades two through six in the district multiplied by the percentage of students taking the fourth grade basic skills test ~~((in the previous year))~~ who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced to the extent that the number of students ages seven through eleven in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW exceeds four percent of the district full time equivalent enrollment in grades two through six; and (b) the number of students enrolled in grades seven through nine in the district multiplied by the percentage of students taking the eighth grade basic skills test ~~((in the previous year))~~ who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced to the extent that the number of students ages twelve through fourteen in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW exceeds four percent of the district full time equivalent enrollment in grades seven through nine. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1985-86 school year, the superintendent shall use the prior year's fourth and eighth grade basic skills test scores. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1986-87 school year, the superintendent shall use the most recent prior five-year average scores on the fourth grade test and the most recent prior two-year average scores on the eighth grade test.

Sec. 507. Section 510, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR PROGRAMS FOR HIGHLY CAPABLE STUDENTS

General Fund Appropriation	$	((4,918,000))
		4,876,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

General Fund—Death Investigations
Account Appropriation $	335,000	379,000
Total Appropriation $	(442,373,000) 442,504,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

- (1) $126,790,000 from the fiscal year 1986 general fund appropriation and $126,791,000 from the fiscal year 1987 general fund appropriation are provided solely for the instruction program. Not less than a biennial average of $4,281 per academic year full time equivalent student shall be spent from the state general fund in the instruction program. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, at least $1,829,000 shall be spent for enhancement of the instructional equipment budget. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, a maximum of $40,000 may be spent on activities related to federated learning centers.
- (2) A maximum of $400,000 may be spent for costs of initiating in underserved urban areas those undergraduate programs that are intended to become substantially self-supporting. Full time equivalent enrollments resulting from expenditures under this subsection are not subject to the conditions of subsection (1) of this section. The university shall make every effort to provide the classes authorized in this subsection on the university campus.
- (3) The office of financial management shall initially allot for the following:
 - (a) Equipment $8,318,000
 - (b) Plant operations and maintenance $48,148,000
- (4) The salary increases for the faculty of the University of Washington~~(-effective)~~ which take effect January 1, 1986, may be granted solely to reduce critical market disparities in teaching disciplines. For the purposes of this subsection, 'faculty' means only those individuals holding faculty appointments in the instruction, research, public service, primary support, and sponsored research programs, including medical residents. The university shall report to the office of financial management its plans for granting salary increases under this section, including but not limited to data on increases to specific disciplines by professorial rank by October 30, 1985. The office of financial management shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives regarding the specific criteria the university will use to measure market disparities in teaching disciplines and to allocate salary increases to reduce such disparities. The report shall be made no later than December 1, 1985.

(5) A maximum of $25,000 from the general fund appropriation may be spent for the purpose of developing and/or operating a cardiac transplantation unit. The university shall provide a report to the senate and house ways and means committees on January 1, 1986, and January 1, 1987. The report shall detail total expenditures to date by fiscal year and by each fund source relating to the development and/or operation of the cardiac transplantation unit and shall include expenditures from all fund sources.

(6) A minimum of $789,000 shall be spent for support of computer grants.

(7) $131,000 of the general fund appropriation ((*) for fiscal year 1986 and $131,000 of the general fund appropriation for fiscal year 1987 are provided solely for the handling of the papers of Senator Magnuson and Senator Jackson.

Sec. 602. Section 604, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY

	FY 1986	FY 1987

Not less than a biennial average of $2,668 per academic year full time equivalent student shall be spent from the state general fund in the instruction program. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, at least $371,000 shall be spent for enhancement of the instructional equipment budget. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, a maximum of $40,000 may be spent on activities related to federated learning centers.

(2) A maximum of $407,000 may be spent for departmental research fellowships, limited to no more than three months per award.

(3) The office of financial management shall initially allot for the following:

- (a) Equipment $1,991,000
- (b) Plant operations and maintenance $9,752,000

(4) A maximum of $395,000 may be spent on intercollegiate sports activities.

(5) $54,000 of the general fund appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely for the Peoples Republic of China exchange training program: PROVIDED, That at least fifty percent of the expenses of the program shall be provided from nonappropriated and private fund sources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 606. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund $881,000 for fiscal year 1987 summer quarter support on the condition that the universities receiving this appropriation implement and collect summer quarter tuition fees at the same rates established for the regular academic quarter. This appropriation shall be disbursed according to the following schedule:

Central Washington University	$295,000
Eastern Washington University	$220,000
Western Washington University	$366,000

Sec. 607, Section 609, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE ((COUNCIL FOR POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION)) HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD

	FY 1986	FY 1987
General Fund Appropriation—State	$ (17,966,000)	$ (17,967,000)

State Educational Grant Appropriation	20,000	20,000
Total Appropriation	$ (39,607,000)
	39,757,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) No later than June 30, 1986, the ((council's)) board's first priority shall be to provide financial assistance to the core of students with extremely high unmet need. The ((council)) board shall adopt a definition for this group of students and provide financial aid for all such students at a standard to be established by the ((council)) board. To the greatest extent possible, the ((council)) board shall emphasize work study and other self-help programs in its financial assistance programs.

(2) The ((council)) board shall take all necessary management precautions to ensure that financial aid awards to individuals and institutions do not exceed the amounts provided in subsection (1) of this section. Any over-commitment of funds shall be paid directly from the funds provided for the coordination and policy analysis program until those funds are exhausted.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 608. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION

General Fund Appropriation	$ 1,729,000
----------------------------------	--------------

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,629,000 of the appropriation shall be expended solely to satisfy judgments and claims incurred from the deferral of faculty salary increases during the 1981-83 fiscal biennium. The appropriation shall be spent for all salary and interest costs incurred in fiscal year 1983. Additional costs related to the salary deferral but incurred after fiscal year 1983 shall be borne by the districts incurring such costs. Acceptance of the proceeds of this appropriation shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs regarding the 1981-83 salary deferral.

(2) $100,000 of this appropriation is provided solely to implement a pilot program for volunteer literacy tutorial coordination. The pilot program shall be jointly coordinated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education with special emphasis on raising the potential of adult illiterates for permanent employment.

By January 1988, the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of community college education shall provide the appropriate legislative standing committees with a report on the educational history of students in adult literacy programs and in other publicly funded programs designed to provide adults with basic educational skills; the highest grade level attained by students; the states where the students attended school; and the amount of time the students spent in Washington schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

The senate committee on education, the house of representatives committee on higher education, and the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives shall conduct a study of higher education faculty salaries and shall make recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986.

PART VII
SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS

Sec. 701. Section 701, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—EMERGENCY FUND

General Fund Appropriation—State $ 1,700,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The appropriation is for the governor's emergency fund to be allocated for the carrying out of the critically necessary work of any agency.

(2) $100,000 of this appropriation may be spent for law enforcement and social service problems arising from Expo '86.

Sec. 702. Section 702, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—COMPARABLE WORTH IMPLEMENTATION AND LAWSUIT

General Fund Appropriation $ 26,790,000

Special Fund Salary Increase

Revolving Fund Appropriation $ 19,120,000

Total Appropriation $ 45,910,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $644,500 of the general fund appropriation and $326,250 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation are provided solely for a salary increase for those job classifications tied to salary survey benchmarks falling 8 ranges or more below the January 1, 1985, actual average comparable worth line as calculated under the formula of $$983.72 + ($3.28 \times \text{points})$ and rounded to the nearest Step G or equivalent step for shortened ranges. However, a job classification shall receive an increase only if its salary range as of January 1, 1985, is also 8 or more ranges less than the salary range of that classification as calculated under the aforementioned formula using the evaluation points of that classification as adopted by the respective personnel board. This adjustment shall take place July 1, 1985, and shall equal $75 a year for all affected classes and employees and shall terminate on March 30, 1986.

(2) $350,000 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely by the office of the governor to hire an independent consultant with expertise in developing and evaluating public employee job classification systems and implementing comparable worth. The consultant shall:

(a) Review the Willis methodology;

(b) Update job class specifications for all job classes with incumbents that have not been reviewed for the past five years;

(c) Develop a new benchmark and indexing structure which reflects the evaluated worth of the job classes; and

(d) Evaluate the job class specifications for the implementation of comparable worth.

(3) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide any assistance needed by the consultant to perform the activities in subsection (2) of this section. Both the state personnel board and higher education personnel board must submit joint reports to the legislature on the progress to date in implementing the consultant's recommendations no later than January 1, 1986, and July 1, 1986. On January 1, 1987, both boards shall submit a final report to the legislature.

(4) $150,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $100,000 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation shall be used solely for the office of the governor to allocate to agencies that provide technical assistance to the consultant hired under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) $25,545,500 of the general fund appropriation and ~~$(18,793,750)~~ 18,693,750 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation, along with all moneys currently included in agencies' budgets for payment of the $100 per year comparable worth salary increase pursuant to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., are provided for the settlement of all claims of all plaintiffs and class members of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., Cause Nos. C82-4657, 84-3569, and 84-3590 and the implementation of comparable worth pursuant to RCW 28B.16.116 and RCW 41.06.155. The settlement shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs and class members. It is the intent of the legislature that salary adjustments for affected class members not exceed the adjustment calculated using the average actual comparable worth salary line as applied to the Willis evaluation points of the affected job classification and adopted by the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That on or before the dates on which comparable worth increases become effective, the higher education personnel board shall review the salaries of all job classifications receiving comparable worth increases which are also receiving special pay to determine whether the requirements of WAC 251-09-090 continue to be met and shall make any reductions in special pay necessary to adjust for the increases in base pay resulting from comparable worth adjustments. The governor as the chief executive officer of the state, with the assistance of the attorney general, is authorized to seek a proposed settlement. However, any such settlement is tentative and subject to legislative ratification. $100,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the office of the governor to retain any special consultants or negotiators to work with the attorney general in seeking a settlement of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., within the terms of the appropriation as set out in this subsection. If a tentative settlement is reached within the terms of the appropriation within this subsection, the governor and the attorney general shall jointly present a report on the tentative settlement to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, for ratification. No funds shall be released before April 1, 1986, or until such time as stipulated final judgment is entered under the terms of the tentative settlement ratified by the legislature, whichever is later. The appropriation provided for settlement in this subsection shall lapse if no proposal is brought before the legislature before January 1, 1986, if the tentative settlement brought before the legislature is not ratified by the legislature during the 1986 legislative session, or if stipulated final judgment is not entered before June 30, 1986.

(6) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide monthly reports to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee regarding the steps each has taken, or proposes to take, to implement the settlement agreement referred to in subsection (5) of this section. The reports will include information on all disputes or potential disputes regarding implementation which have been brought to the attention of the two agencies.

The legislative evaluation and accountability program committee shall report to the legislature regarding the implementation steps taken by, and potential disputes facing, the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. Such reports shall be provided as often as deemed necessary by the committee, but no later than June 1, 1986, December 1, 1986, and April 1, 1987.

(7) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1986, with a report identifying those job classifications not covered by the lawsuit that would be entitled to receive adjustments under the average actual comparable worth line. The report shall include recommendations regarding implementation of comparable worth adjustments for these affected job classes.

(8) To facilitate payment of salary increases from special funds, the state treasurer is directed to transfer sufficient income from each special fund to the special fund salary and insurance contribution increase revolving fund hereby created in accordance with schedules provided by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 703. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—COMPENSATION INCREASES

The appropriations in this section, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be expended exclusively for the purposes designated in this section and are subject to the conditions and limitations specified in this section.

PART IX
 MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 901. Section 4, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 24, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury, designated as the 'state employees insurance fund', to be used by the trustee as a revolving fund for the deposit of contributions, dividends and refunds, and for payment of premiums for employee insurance benefit contracts entered into in accordance with instructions of the board and payments authorized by RCW 41.05.030(2). Moneys from the state employees insurance fund shall be disbursed by the state treasurer by warrants on vouchers duly authorized by the trustee. However, before June 30, 1987, the treasurer shall not disburse moneys from the fund when the disbursement would result in a fund balance of less than $11,597,000. Notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090, all earnings of investments of balances in the state employees insurance fund shall be credited to this fund.

Sec. 902. Section 12, chapter 167, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 28, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and by section 507, chapter 405, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.19.610 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established in the state treasury an account to be known as the motor transport account into which shall be paid all moneys, funds, proceeds, and receipts as provided in RCW 43.19.615 and as may otherwise be provided by law. Disbursements therefrom shall be made in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.19.560 through 43.19.630, 43.41.130 and 43.41.140 as authorized by the director or his duly authorized representative and as may be provided by law. All earnings of investments of balances in the motor transport account shall be credited to the general fund.

The ~~((office of financial management may direct the))~~ state treasurer ~~((to))~~ shall transfer to the general fund ~~((an amount not to exceed $1,500,000))~~ two million dollars from the motor transport account ~~((for the 1983-85 fiscal biennium))~~ on or before June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. The state treasurer shall transfer to the general fund $1,500,000 from the public facilities construction loan and grant revolving account on or before June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. Section 3, chapter 50, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Signed by Senators McDermott, Gaspard; Representatives Grimm, Braddock.

MOTION

Mr. Grimm moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. B. Williams: "Mr. Speaker, I wish to raise a point of order regarding new section 904 on scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Williams, the Speaker has examined the title of the bill, which is 'An Act Relating to state fiscal matters....' The Speaker has also examined Joint Rule 8, Free Conference requests. 'In case of failure for the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, the committee may' in addition consider new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference for the purpose of requesting the powers of free conference. A report requesting the powers of free conference shall be made in the same manner as other reports of conference committees and shall set forth the proposed report of free conference committee, including all amendments to the bill or resolution to be agreed upon by the free conference committee. The proposed report may be in the form of a new bill or resolution and such report must have the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee appointed from each house.' Representative Williams, after examining both the Free Conference Report as well as the specific section you have referred to, the Speaker believes that it is within the scope and object of the bill."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. B. Williams: "Since this bill before us is uncodified, what happens at the end of the biennium to the section of law that it is amending?"

The Speaker: "Representative Williams, without the direction from the legislature, the Code Reviser has the authority to determine for the Session Laws what is codified and what is not."

Mr. B. Williams spoke against the motion.

The motion was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL AS AMENDED
BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill NO. 4762 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

Mr. B. Williams spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Grimm spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Day.

Mr. Day: "Representative Grimm, the biennial operating budget prohibits the State Employees' Insurance Board from increasing benefit levels beyond the level that existed on July 1, 1985. Would SEIB compliance with SSB 4531 and ESSB 4762 be viewed as an expansion of benefits beyond the July 1, 1986 level?"

Mr. Grimm: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Ms. Rayburn.

Ms. Rayburn: "Representative Grimm, is it your understanding that the biennial budget for Washington State University included sufficient funds to continue the Yakima Nursing Center through both the years of the 1985-87 biennium?"

Mr. Grimm: "We appropriated over $250 million to Washington State University for the biennium starting July 1, 1985. While we did not specifically in the budget earmark funds for the Yakima Nursing Center, it was and is my understanding and intention that WSU received sufficient funding to continue operation of the Yakima Nursing Center throughout the current biennium. This contention and understanding on my part is supported by debate which occurred on the budget in the Senate at the time the biennial budget was adopted in June of last year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Grimm, on that last question from the Representative from the 16th District regarding the medical program at Yakima Valley College, would that be part of our budget notes, that that funding would be continued through Washington State University?"

Mr. Grimm: "It is my understanding that it would be and it would also be a part of the Journal, which is, in fact, of overriding significance as far as expression of legislative intent."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 55; nays, 43.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Grimm, Hargrove, Haugen, Hine, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, McMullen, Nelson D, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Peery, Rayburn, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Wilson K, Wineberry, Winsley, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 55.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Bond, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Dobbs, Doty, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Lewis, Long, Mary, Miller, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Taylor, Thomas, Tilly, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Walker, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson S - 43.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762 as amended by Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease until 7:30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) called the House to order at 7:30 p.m.

Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, Washington State's Speaker of the House, Representative Wayne Ehlers, will be leaving the House of Representatives and will be sorely missed by his colleagues; and

WHEREAS, Speaker Ehlers was born in Bellingham, Washington on November 25, 1938 receiving his Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees at Western Washington University and his Masters degree at the University of Denver; and

WHEREAS, Speaker Ehlers has served as a public school teacher for over twenty-five years in the Franklin Pierce School District and part time at Pacific Lutheran University, and presently serves as field representative to the Public School Employees; and

WHEREAS, His civic activities include community services too numerous to enumerate; and

WHEREAS, His political career spans more than a decade of public service, being first elected to the House of Representatives in 1973 at the age of thirty three, serving on the Education, State Government and Ways and Means Committees and continuing to serve on these committees even after his appointment as Chair of the State Government Committee in 1976, continuing in that position until he was elected House Democratic Leader in 1980; and

WHEREAS, In 1983 he was elected Speaker of the House by his peers and became Chair of the House Rules Committee and has continued to serve in that capacity until the present time; and

WHEREAS, Speaker Ehlers' numerous honors and awards include 1977 VFW Legislator of the Year, TIME Pierce County Newsmaker of Tomorrow, and the 1978 Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Poll "Best Committee Chair in the House";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the members of the House of Representatives, that we honor Speaker Ehlers for his many years of public service, commend him for his continued efforts on behalf of the Legislature and the people of the State of Washington, acknowledge our loss at his upcoming departure, and express our best wishes for his future endeavors and those of his family; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Speaker Ehlers.

Mr. O'Brien moved adoption of the resolution.

On motion of Mr. Vander Stoep, the following remarks were ordered inserted in the Journal:

Mr. O'Brien: "We're losing a very valuable member of the House of Representatives. During his period as Speaker of the House, he has been a dedicated and able leader. He benefits tremendously by the powers of his own convictions and hard work. He also has a very fine memory. He remembers historical events and also important issues and he can cite them. When Wayne leaves here I'm sure he is going to remember us always in his memories. As a matter of fact, we're going to remember him too and I think, to a degree maybe, we should put our gavel up there in some kind of an iron case in the archives of the State of Washington, dedicated to Wayne Ehlers, because he has been a gentleman and a scholar, someone who demands decorum. I think it has been well for us that we've had someone of that nature to keep us in line from time to time. In these hallowed chambers of ours I know all of us remember what has happened in the past and, in the future the memory of being here always remains with those who participate. There's something about serving in the Legislature that is rather unique. It's different from any other realm of life. Tonight, for instance, they had an Old Timers' Meeting in Olympia at the Olympic Hotel, and many members of past renown were there talking about things of interest that occurred while they were members of the Legislature. So it's something we are always going to remember -- Speaker Ehlers as being a person who showed great capabilities and responsibilities in his term as Speaker of the House here, and I know that I speak for all of you that we wish him well in his future endeavors and the memory of us serving with him will remain always in his memories."

Mr. S. Wilson: "I was elected to this august body in 1972, the same year that Wayne was elected. We have served together here for nearly fourteen years. Unfortunately, I don't think that at any time in that period we ever served on the same committee, so we haven't had that kind of an experience at any rate; however, when he was elected Speaker by the body four years ago, I frankly thought: 'Well, it may be a good choice.' But I think, like any one of us, we grow into the job; we learn the job. Some learn it extremely well and Wayne has learned extremely well. I think he has been a very able Speaker. I was asked by one of the news people the other day what I thought of the job he did, and of course, they always expect a quip of some sort out of me, just some sort of snotty remark--but, I really can't find any because I'm afraid of his next ruling. In truth, I appreciate the kind of work he has done, particularly during the last two years. I hesitate to say he's been fair, but I think he has tried. We will remember him. You look at the pictures of Speakers on the wall in the Speaker's office there; most of them have been two years there. It's a wearing job; it's a hard job, but what I've observed of it, I don't think it's a job in which you get many thanks. It's tough, and for an individual to serve two full terms in that job is, I think, rather remarkable; and he's to be commended greatly for the kind of work he has done. There isn't a great deal more I could say; Representative O'Brien said it far better. We will remember the years that Wayne has served here--in the majority and briefly in the minority--too bad you won't be back to experience that again; however, we will remember you, and hope that Speakers in the future will profit by the example you have set. He has been truly cognizant of the institution, great regard for it, and that is one of the most important aspects of the work you do here. We have to have regard for our government and how it is conducted and conduct it properly. Wayne, I thank you for the job you have done."

Mr. J. King: "I'm not Monty Hall from 'Let's Make a Deal,' but one of the nice things you get to do as floor leader is say some nice things about some people you care a whole lot about. I had a chance during a break today, and it's a nice day outside, to take a nice long walk with Wayne. It was pleasant weather and we had a chance to visit, and I think part of the character of Wayne came through on that walk when I asked him what he liked the best about that job--is it those tough rulings up there and the ability to wield the gavel? Or is it the tense situations when you have to ease through a tight spot? Characteristically, he said, 'No, I liked chairing a committee a lot -- back when I used to be able to get something done.' I think that he liked to chair that committee says a lot about the man, the status of running that gavel up there that has motivated him and inspired trust from all of us. All of us have come to appreciate his incredible institutional memory. I particularly enjoy it when he is able, without going back through the records, to cite the rulings of Speaker Polk to use those to rule on difficult situations. One of the things that Democrats aren't supposed to be able to do very well, all of us know that we can't manage very well, that it's just not part of our nature, that on the other side of the aisle are the people who can manage. We just went through a cutoff this time, the first time in maybe ten years according to Representative Nelson that we've been able to have a lunch break before we ended the cutoff day with a nice relaxed, well-managed phase. All of this was due to Wayne's ability to set tight deadlines and urge us along and hurry us along and stick to those cutoffs. A job which I think really explains the respect that all of us have for Wayne. Wayne, more than anybody else, illustrates that it's not just character that is more than anything else to be looked for in a leader, personal philosophy, the ability that when Wayne speaks -- people who have worked with us say -- that word is his bond, that is what is going to happen to the best of his ability to make it happen. It's that trust that Wayne has inspired that has brought him to be so fair and straight when he wields that gavel up there."

Mr. Barrett: "I don't want to enshrine that gavel; we already enshrined a $400 piece of glass off that podium. That, I think, is monument enough and I think that sine die night, what it really showed was the exuberance of the Speaker, not only his bad aim, but it shows one of the only two disabilities that I've ever found that he has--he has a terrible aim and he's hard of hearing. We sometimes--and he's a young man--and we've stood right down there and couldn't get his attention. I've enjoyed my relationship with Wayne. I think it's been one of the delights of this position that I hold as a selection of my colleagues. I've been able to work closely with him and you know in my position, I'm not supposed to agree with the Speaker at all times. I'm never supposed to agree with the majority, but I'm not supposed to agree with the Speaker at all times because we are here to do our own battle and try to get our own input into the system. Parliamentary rules are made for the minority. The majority has the votes; they don't need anything else. They have the gavel; they have the votes. The minority has the parliamentary system, and if I can say, and I want to second what Representative Wilson said: In all of my dealings with the Speaker, I have found that, above all, he is a very fair person. His rulings have been impartial; they have been professional; they have been exact and I thank him for that."

Ms. Unsoeld: "I wanted to draw your attention to something as simple as the calendar of the day. When the Speaker first came here to Olympia to serve in the Legislature, there wasn't calendar to rely on. Of course, we skip around on it a bit, but there is a calendar with a list of the bill numbers, a description, so that everyone has the opportunity to know what the business of this body is. I think that part of what Wayne has brought to this body in his leadership is that movement toward process and fairness and open government, and I want to thank you, Wayne."

Mr. Jacobsen: "Mr. Speaker, I've been collecting parliamentary laws in this body and making some observations, and one of those that Speaker Ehlers gave me for my first term was, I observed one day that I had forty votes on a bill, and he said you can get forty votes on anything in this place, but you play hell getting the last ten. I found that to be very true. Also, the other Ehlers' law is, you know how far you can go when you have gone too far. Then we caucus and caucus and caucus and eventually we come out, and it's gone too far. The last thing I will say about Wayne is: Looking at Wayne, I really appreciate that line from the country-western song, 'How Can I Miss You If You Don't Go Away?' I think I'm really going to miss you."

Mr. Tilly: "It has been my privilege, along with three others who have served with Wayne -- we're part of the Class of '72; our ranks are sort of getting thin -- but as I'm looking back here tonight, I'm sure that I see another one or two future Speakers of the House. There is hope -- if you stay here long enough, gain experience, gain knowledge of the system. When we first came here we were certainly starry-eyed freshmen. I'd say, for my part, that I'm still learning. You always learn and I guess that's the exciting part about being here. On a recent occasion I was at a dinner with another former Speaker, and they were asking me about what is the difference now and between 1973, and I say that the difference is the quality of the people serving here. After each election the quality of the legislature improves. I certainly have felt that way and this is my fourteenth year here. For those of us who are going to be leaving this time, I guess that tells you something about what is going to happen in the future. It's going to get better folks. Congratulations, Wayne."

Mr. Barnes: "When I first came down to the Legislature, I was appointed in the middle of a term, or shortly after the beginning of a term, and I came down here for the first time in a special session, and my first day and first committee meeting I was kind of lost, as you might imagine--so for guidance and advice I turned to the grizzled veteran sitting next to me and, this was Wayne, and of course, I took every word of advice that he gave me, and he instructed me on how to get along and so forth. I drank it all in, and you know, I didn't know until just a few minutes ago, when a gentleman from the 10th District was speaking, that Wayne had only been here about seven months before I had."

Ms. K. Wilson: "A little north of here, in Snohomish County, in a little tiny town of Lake Stevens, there is a faculty on a high school that has been, over the law few years, very proud to know that Wayne Ehlers, a former faculty member, was down here in Olympia earning a reputation for open democratic government and fair-minded leadership. They will be very sorry to know that Wayne is leaving. I might add that they hope to have another colleague down here in Olympia to carry on the tradition for open government and fair-minded leadership."

Ms. Winsley: "On behalf of the Pierce County delegation, I would like to give Wayne a big thank you. When I first came to Olympia, I first served in the Legislature in 1974, I guess the year following--the one thing that I will always think of Wayne as having the most political smarts of anyone I've ever known. I like to get into a conversation with him because he can remember any district, whether it's the 20th District or the 17th District or the 28th District, he has a vision of that district and he can just tell you every aspect of a district. He knows the state from one end to the other; what makes up the various economic situations of the state, which in essence, falls into different political realities. I think that Pierce County is very proud to have had him as our Speaker for the last four years. We're proud of the work and the time and the effort that he has put into that position. We hope that, in the future, Pierce County is well represented. I think someone has some big shoes to fill next session. Maybe Pierce County is going to lose a little bit of its power base, but I hope not. Congratulations Wayne for a job well done."

Mr. Dellwo: "When I first came from Spokane, I came with the understanding that eastern Washington was oftentimes ignored, making up only twenty-five percent of the body, sometimes we felt that we were cheated when we only received twenty-five percent of the bills and the money that went with them, but I found, very much to my delight, that with our Speaker--who has been Speaker from the time I've been here--Spokane and eastern Washington have not been ignored. We were not given gifts, although some thought that, but we were given the opportunity to obtain what was for eastern Washington State, and I want to thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Sayan: "I, perhaps, have a unique experience in relation to the Speaker. I preceded him in Olympia by a number of years and when he showed up among the number of new kids on the block in the Legislature, we found that, by gosh, we had a friend and I, as an agency director, found that agency directors didn't have a whole lot of friends in the Legislature, but he was one. We soon learned this young fellow was a hard working fellow; you could tell he was hardworking, his shirttail was always out--most folks, however didn't have it out in the front also--he would always stop and talk to you and unlike many of his colleagues, I regret to say, at the time (we are now different from that group) but unlike his many colleagues of that day, he never gave the impression that my problem was unimportant because I was running an agency and it was important to me. The attributes that he shared then are the attributes that I've experienced in the Legislature, and that is why I was proud to cast my ballot for him as Speaker of the House."

Mr. Braddock: "It's difficult to get up and talk about Speaker Ehlers without getting melancholy and I didn't intend to speak, but then I thought of all the hours I've had to listen to him. I think much has been said about Wayne and the reason we appreciate Wayne and one of the things, of course, is his institutional memory. He shares that with Speaker O'Brien, a great institutional memory, and it's something we all need and we all appreciate. Beyond that, Wayne, I think, epitomizes the best in politics. So much today politics has a bad name, but I think Wayne is a politician and he's proud of it and he will tell you that he's a politician. He does political things and he does them well, and he does them without weakening his integrity at all and without weakening the integrity of this body. He is an excellent politician and he's proud of it. I think that is something we all need and we all should appreciate and share in this democracy--we have to have politicians and people who are proud to be politicians and can be political with great integrity. Also, Wayne is a big 'D' Democrat; he's always a big 'D' Democrat and I hope he stays a big 'D' Democrat, but I think we can all appreciate serving here, and he's also a small 'd' democrat and that's very important and I think we should all appreciate and all learn that from Wayne--it's not enough just to be a Democrat or Republican, it's important to be a small 'd' democrat and be democratic in the way we act around here."

Ms. Rayburn: "I would just like to say a few things that are kind of personal to me that I think many of you would share. It seems to me, as a freshman, that Wayne always had the time to listen and he was always there when we, as freshmen, were needing help and advice and believe you me, freshmen need a lot of that; and we need a lot of advice, we need a lot of help in getting along in this process. None of our problems were ever so small and insignificant that he was not willing to sit down. Another thing that I really enjoyed and liked and admired about him, he always had that open-door policy. The door was never shut to you, and so I would just like to say thank you so much, Wayne, for all of that, from we freshmen."

Mr. Prince: "Wayne, I've enjoyed so very much the friendship that we've developed over the last six years. I think that's the real test of this body. I think it's very fitting for us to say thanks and, as a friend, I've enjoyed seeing Wayne develop and grow in stature as a Speaker. It has been real rewarding to see that growth and to see the contribution that he has made to this body, and in the vernacular of agriculture and the farm backing that I come from, the greatest honor that I can bestow upon upon you, is to say, 'The welcome mat is out.' I hope you come to visit; we'd like very much to break bread with you."

The Speaker (Mr. Madsen presiding): "This Speaker does have a few comments. I've known Wayne--well I knew him before he was elected back in '71-72, most of the time the campaign boxes full of stuff have ended up in my garage and Wayne would get mad when the envelopes would stick together after two years in my garage. I know I can't say good-bye to him because most likely I still have a table or a chair in my garage; I don't know. I do want to say one thing, and I will say it honestly, thank you to a very good friend. Thank you very much."

House Resolution No. 86-157 was adopted.

The Speaker (Mr. Madsen presiding) appointed Representatives Hine and Ballard to escort Speaker Ehlers to the rostrum.

Representative Ballard presented the resolution to Speaker Ehlers.

Mr. Ballard: "Wayne, on behalf of the other members, I would like to present you with this resolution. I would also like to make just a brief comment. I talked to Wayne the other night when we had a pretty hairy issue here and I said to him: 'I really appreciate the consideration you gave us when you had the hammer.' It has been a real delight to watch you as a professional, and so on behalf of the other members, may I present you with this special memory."

Ms. Hine: "Mr. Speaker, on behalf of all the members of this Legislature, we would like to present you with this gift from us. I realize that this is your second term as Speaker and we honor you for that, and we also acknowledge the fact that you have decided to retire. Normally when someone retires, you give them a gold watch--well, we did that two years ago and you didn't take the hint. This time we are giving you some place settings for your sterling silver in recognition of the respect that we hold for you. You have, indeed, created a high level for all of us to achieve. Your respect for the institution has been absolutely superb and those of us who are here, who will follow in your footsteps, will really take that as an example. We also will take some of the humor involved because you have been able, while doing it straightforward, sometimes you've been able to get your will through kind of circuitous routes and none of us will ever, whether we are on the right side or the wrong side, forget that cackle that occurred when you accomplished what you wanted to, whether straightforward or not. We truly do acknowledge that you have been fair; that your respect for the institution has been first and foremost, no matter how you felt on the issues. With that in mind, on behalf of all the members of the Legislature, Representative Ballard and I, on behalf of our caucuses, do present you with this gift."

Speaker Ehlers: "Thank you very much. I'd like to take, under Point of Personal Privilege, just a couple of minutes. This is a big surprise to me. I wasn't really expecting this tonight. Many years ago--it seems many galaxies from here--I used to sit back there where I sat tonight and those of you who have sat on either side know the advantages of sitting back there, and I had forgotten. I had forgotten how cool it is; it's close to the water fountain; it's close to escape--particularly when you are on this side and you are of the male gender because the men's restroom is over there--you have all kinds of advantages that this position up here doesn't have. I want to say that there have been a lot of nice things said tonight about me -- and I appreciate those -- and about the institution. On the bottom line, I don't think the general public fully appreciates the fine work that members on both sides of the aisle do in this body. We represent our constituencies, but we are State Representatives. We are not from Pierce County; we are not from eastern Washington; we are from the State of Washington. I appreciate the cooperation by members on both sides of the aisle and particularly the staff--I sometimes don't say thanks--and particularly my personal staff to which I don't say thank you often enough. I have to my right, my wife Patricia, my older son Jeff and his friend, who have come down tonight. I expected Patricia, because I thought she was going to be here for other reasons, and my older son Jeffrey, I did not expect. I want to say in conclusion, after saying about the institution and the importance of this institution, a little bit about politics. As Representative Braddock and others have said, I am, first of all, a politician. As Robert F. Kennedy said, that is an honorable profession. I have been proud to be a politician and I hope you have been too. Thank you."

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. J. King, the House adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 11, 1986.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Braddock: "Mr. Speaker, I request a ruling on scope and object of the amendments to this bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "In regard to your point of order on Engrossed Senate Bill 4463, under Rule 8 of our Joint Rules, a Free Conference Report may include new proposed items within the scope and object of the title in conference. The Speaker has examined Engrossed Senate Bill 4463 and the report of the Free Conference Committee. The bill is entitled 'An Act Relating to the promotion of Washington products....' The report of the Free Conference Committee adds several new items, including the authorization for an additional lottery game dedicated to the benefit of urban parks, a change in the definition of urban parks for the purposes of park acquisition and development by the Interagency Commission for Outdoor Recreation, establishment of an employee's cooperative corporation act in chapter 23 RCW, a program in the Department of Community Development to assist employee-owned businesses and a B&O tax and sales tax exemption for plantation Christmas trees. The Speaker finds that these new items proposed by the Free Conference Committee do not fall within the title of the act relating to promotion of Washington products. Your point is well taken, the motion to adopt the Conference Report is not in order."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on HOUSE BILL NO. 1472, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 1472, promoting the marketing of agricultural products, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill.

Signed by Senators Hansen, Bailey; Representatives Kremen, Madsen, Nealey.

MOTION

Mr. Kremen moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1472 and grant the committee powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I would like a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment."

The Speaker informed the House he would take the Conference Committee report under advisement for a later ruling.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Prince: "I'm a little confused. Are we getting opinions on the Free Conference report before the Free Conference is granted?"

The Speaker: "We're just as confused as you are, Representative Prince, and that's why we're taking some of these under advisement, to try and sort through what the Senate has done. That's one of our problems."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, from your statement just now, are you implying that this is the only time in this process, at the time of granting Free Conference, when we could properly raise the question of scope and object?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, a lot of what we are doing here in some of our rulings within the last week or so, is plowing new ground and we want to make sure that when we are making these rulings--and sometimes we are taking them under advisement because of information coming from the Senate and other times we are getting into new ground. The Speaker would rule that when one is raising scope and object, it could be done on two occasions: When there is a motion to grant the powers of Free Conference, but not during debate once debate has commenced; and at the time that the motion to adopt the report of the Free Conference. The logic behind that is that members would have an opportunity in the twenty-four hours, unless the rules were suspended, to look at that issue and research it. So, Representative Barrett, that would be my ruling."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Grimm, the House adopted the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1633, and the committee was granted powers of Free Conference.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 9, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, encouraging employers to hire recipients of unemployment insurance benefits and public assistance, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill.

Signed by Senators Bottiger, Warnke, Hayner; Representatives McMullen, Schoon.

MOTION

Mr. McMullen moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1754 and grant the committee powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Cole: "I request a ruling on scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Cole, under Rule 8 of our Joint Rules, a Free Conference may include new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference. The Speaker has examined Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1754 and the report of the Free Conference Committee. ESHB 1754 is entitled, 'An Act Relating to economic development....' The new items proposed in the report of the Free Conference Committee deal with the tax deferral programs in chapters 82.60 and 82.61 RCW and with the new program of tax deferrals in distressed areas for employers who increase employment by fifteen percent or more. The Speaker finds that these provisions relate to the subject of economic development and are therefore within the scope and object of the bill. Your point is not well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Cole: "Mr. Speaker, I would like you to rule on the negative fiscal impact."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Cole, you are speaking to Rule 25D(6). The question raised was of a negative fiscal impact. The rule reads, 'All bills having a direct negative revenue impact...' (we're not talking about a fiscal impact) '...or a direct appropriation of fifty thousand dollars or more shall be referred to the ways and means committee or transportation committee as appropriate before their final passage.' Are you asking for a revenue impact? That's a different question."

Ms. Cole: "Yes."

The Speaker: "The Speaker, on at least two different occasions this session has ruled that issue is not appropriate at this time; it is only appropriate before final passage. We are not on final passage as yet. Your point is not well taken."

The motion to grant the committee powers of Free Conference was carried.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on HOUSE BILL NO. 1851, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The President has signed:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1972.

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4541:

The House resumed consideration of the bill. (For previous action, see Journal, 57th Day, March 10, 1986.)

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Representative West that the House recede from its position and pass the bill without the House amendments.

With the consent of the House, Mr. West withdrew the motion.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Lux, the House receded from its amendments to Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4541.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL WITHOUT HOUSE AMENDMENTS

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4541 without the House amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4541 without the House amendments, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 92; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barnes, Barrett, Basich, Baugher, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Chandler, Cole, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dobbs, Doty, Ebersole, Fisch, Fisher, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Grimm, Hankins, Hargrove, Hastings, Haugen, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, King J, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lundquist, Lux, Madsen, May, McMullen, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Prince, Rayburn, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Thomas, Todd, Unsoeld, Valle, van Dyke, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 92.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1472:

The House resumed consideration of the bill. The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order raised by Representative Sommers on the scope and object of the Free Conference Committee proposed amendments.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Sommers, as to your point of order on House Bill 1472, which is 'An Act Relating to agricultural marketing....' The Speaker has examined the bill and has examined the Free Conference report. In the Free Conference report there are several additions to the bill. One is that irrigation district associations may change their names, and so forth. The Speaker finds that to be within the scope and object. The Speaker also notes that under section 5 there is a portion dealing with seeding and Christmas tree plantations, exempting them from certain taxation statutes. Section 9 is exempting the conditioning of seed for use in planting in the definition of manufacturing for B&O taxation. The Speaker finds that in sections 5, 8 and 9, specifically, that those portions of the Free Conference Committee report are outside the scope and object of an act relating to agricultural marketing. Your point is well taken."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Madsen, the House asked the Senate for a further conference on House Bill No. 1472.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Kremen, Madsen and Nealey as conferees on House Bill No. 1472.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 378 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.88 RCW to read as follows:

The omnibus biennial operating appropriations act shall include an appropriation for the full amount that will be paid out during the biennium under any postretirement cost-of-living adjustment adopted after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(6) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740. For persons who served as elected officials and whose accumulated employee contributions and credited interest was less than seven hundred fifty dollars at the time of retirement, the minimum benefit under subsection (1) of this section shall be ten dollars per month for each year of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is appropriated five million three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the general fund for the purposes of paying the cost-of-living adjustments provided in sections 2 and 3 of this 1986 act. Of this amount, two million dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund and three million three hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1986."

In line 1 of the title, after "adjustments;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.32.485 and 41.40.198; adding a new section to chapter 43.88 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Sommers, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 378.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 378 as amended by the Senate.

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Excused: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Miller, Schoon, Tilly, Waiker, Winsley - 7.

Substitute House Bill No. 378 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 495 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Sections 1 through 6 of this act may be known and cited as the Colville Indian reservation criminal jurisdiction retrocession act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize a procedure for the retrocession, to the Colville Confederated Tribes of Washington and the United States, of criminal jurisdiction over Indians for acts occurring on tribal lands or allotted lands within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

Sections 1 through 6 of this act in no way expand the Colville tribe's criminal or civil jurisdiction, if any, over non-Indians or fee title property. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall have no effect whatsoever on water rights, hunting and fishing rights, the established pattern of civil jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the established pattern of regulatory jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, taxation, or any other matter not specifically included within the terms of sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act:

(1) 'Colville reservation,' or 'Colville Indian reservation,' means all tribal lands or allotted lands lying within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States, but does not include those lands which lie north of the present reservation which were included in original reservation boundaries created in 1872 and which are referred to as the 'diminished reservation.'

(2) 'Indian tribe,' 'tribe,' or 'Colville tribes' means the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation.

(3) 'Tribal court' means the trial and appellate courts of the Colville tribes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives from the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation a resolution expressing their desire for the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the governor may, within ninety days, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The confederated tribes of the Colville reservation may express their desire under section 4 of this act only by a resolution approved by a majority vote of the enrolled adult members of the tribes voting at the next general tribal election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An action or proceeding which has been filed with any court or agency of the state or local government preceding the effective date of retrocession of jurisdiction under sections 1 through 6 of this act shall not abate by reason of the retrocession or determination of jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 37.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 6, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765 with the following amendments:

On page 6, after line 27, insert:

"Sec. 2, Section 74.09.010, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 18, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

- (1) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.
- (2) 'Secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.
- (3) 'Internal management' means the administration of medical assistance, medical care services, and the limited casualty program.
- (4) 'Medical assistance' means the federal aid medical care program provided to categorically needy persons as defined under Title XIX of the federal social security act.
- (5) 'Medical care services' means the limited scope of care financed by state funds and provided to general assistance recipients and the ineligible spouses of beneficiaries of supplemental security income who meet the incapacitation criteria as provided in RCW 74.04.005(6)(a)(iii)(B).
- (6) 'Limited casualty program' means the medical care program provided to medically needy persons as defined under Title XIX of the federal social security act, and to medically indigent persons who are without income or resources sufficient to secure necessary medical services.

(7) 'Nursing home' means nursing home as defined in RCW 18.51.010.

Sec. 3, Section 19, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.09.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To the extent of available funds, medical care services may be provided to recipients of general assistance and the ineligible spouses of beneficiaries of supplemental security income who meet the incapacitation criteria as provided in RCW 74.04.005(6)(a)(iii)(B) in accordance with medical eligibility requirements established by the department.

(2) Determination of the amount, scope, and duration of medical care services shall be limited to coverage as defined by the department, except that adult dental, and routine foot care shall not be included unless there is a specific appropriation for these services.

(3) The department shall establish standards of assistance and resource and income exemptions, which may include deductibles and co-insurance provisions. In addition, the department may include a prohibition against the voluntary assignment of property or cash for the purpose of qualifying for assistance.

(4) Residents of skilled nursing homes, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded who are eligible for medical care services shall be provided medical services to the same extent as provided to those persons eligible under the medical assistance program.

(5) Payments made by the department under this program shall be the limit of expenditures for medical care services solely from state funds.

(6) Eligibility for medical care services shall commence with the date of certification for general assistance."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "74.04.005" insert ", 74.09.010, and 74.09.035" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4741, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4741, relating to commercial fishing licenses, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

The director of the department of fisheries shall waive the landing and other permit requirements under RCW 75.30.120 if such requirements were not fulfilled by the license holder due to procedures initiated by a foreign government.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

Any commercial salmon fishing license issued under RCW 75.28.110 or salmon delivery permit issued under RCW 75.28.113 shall revert to the department when any government confiscates and sells the vessel to which the license or permit was issued. Upon application of the person named on the license or permit and the approval of the director, the department shall transfer the license or permit to the original owner. Application for transfer of the license or permit must be made within the calendar year in which the vessel was licensed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that maintaining a commercial whiting fishery in Puget Sound affects the public welfare. Excessive fishing for Puget Sound whiting, especially at the time of spawning, severely affects the abundance of whiting. The legislature further finds that as a result of increases in the number of vessels fishing for whiting, the amount of gear used in fishing, and the limited whiting resource, it is proper and necessary to limit the number of vessels and amount of gear used in taking whiting in Puget Sound.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

Commercial Puget Sound whiting license endorsements issued under section 6 of this act shall be valid for the owner and the vessel for which the endorsement was issued. The endorsement may be transferred through gift, devise, bequest or descent to members of the immediate family which shall be limited to spouse, children or stepchildren. Only a natural person may possess an endorsement. The owner of the endorsement must be present on any vessel taking whiting under terms of the endorsement. In no instance may temporary permits be issued.

The director may adopt rules necessary to implement sections 3 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

To obtain a Puget Sound commercial whiting endorsement, the owner of the vessel must have delivered at least fifty thousand pounds of whiting during the period from January 1, 1981, through February 22, 1985 as verified by fish delivery tickets and must have possessed, on January 1, 1986, all equipment necessary to fish for whiting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 75.30 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to any other license, a Puget Sound commercial whiting endorsement is required to take whiting in the waters of marine fish-shell fish management and catch reporting areas 24B, Port Susan; 24C, Saratoga Passage; 26A, Possession Sound; or any other area designated by the department. An annual endorsement fee is two hundred dollars for residents and four hundred dollars for nonresidents. The license shall be affixed to the licensed vessel.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 106, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 138, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.30.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall appoint three-member advisory review boards to hear cases as provided in RCW 75.30.060. Members shall be from:

(a) The salmon charter boat fishing industry in cases involving salmon charter boat licenses or angler permits;

(b) The commercial salmon fishing industry in cases involving commercial salmon licenses;

(c) The commercial crab fishing industry in cases involving Puget Sound crab license endorsements; ~~((and))~~

(d) The commercial herring fishery in cases involving herring validations; and

(e) The commercial Puget Sound whiting fishery in cases involving Puget Sound whiting license endorsements.

(2) Members shall serve at the discretion of the director and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 171, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 103, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.014 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may establish by rule license application deadlines for types of gear and licensing districts. An applicant for a commercial salmon fishing license shall submit a license application in accordance with this subsection.

(a) If an application is postmarked or personally delivered to the department in Olympia by ~~((April 15th of the license year))~~ the application deadline, it shall be accompanied by the prescribed license fee.

(b) If an application is postmarked or personally delivered to the department in Olympia after ~~((April 15th of the license year))~~ the application deadline, it shall be accompanied by the prescribed license fee and a late application fee of two hundred dollars.

(2) Columbia River smelt license applications accompanied by the license fee shall be made in person or postmarked by January 10 of the license year."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "licenses;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 75.30.050 and 75.28.014; and adding new sections to chapter 75.30 RCW."

Signed by Senators Owen, Metcalf, Halsan; Representatives Basich, Haugen, Thomas.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Haugen, the House adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4741 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4872 and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4872, revising school governance, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 28A.04.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 179, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education shall be ~~((comprised))~~ composed of ~~((two))~~ one member~~((s))~~ from each congressional district of the state, ~~((not including any congressional district at large, elected by the members of the boards of directors of school districts thereof, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, and))~~ three members at large, one nonvoting member ~~((elected at large, as hereinafter in this chapter provided, by the members of the boards of directors of))~~ to represent all private schools in the state meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201, as now or hereafter amended, and the superintendent of public instruction as provided for under RCW 28A.03.030(6). The members shall be appointed by the governor upon consultation with the superintendent of public instruction and with the advice and consent of the senate of the state of Washington.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.04.030, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The terms of the initial appointed members shall be as follows: Four members of the state board of education shall be appointed for terms of three years commencing with the second Monday in January of 1987, four members shall be appointed for terms of four years commencing with the second Monday in January of 1988, and four members shall be appointed for terms of five years commencing with the second Monday in January of 1989. Thereafter, all members shall serve for terms of six years.

(2) The terms of the members of the state board of education as of the effective date of this 1986 act shall expire as soon as their successors are appointed by the governor and pursuant to the provisions of this subsection as follows:

(a) The terms of the members from the third and sixth congressional districts, one member at large, and the term of the member representing all private schools in the state meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201 shall end on the second Monday in January of 1990;

(b) The terms of the members from the first, fourth, and seventh congressional districts and one member at large shall end on the second Monday in January of 1992; and

(c) The terms of the members from the second, fifth, and eighth congressional districts and one member at large shall end on the second Monday in January of 1994.

(3) Whenever any new and additional congressional district is created, ((except a congressional district at large, the superintendent of public instruction shall call an election in such district at the time of making the call provided for in RCW 28A.04.020. Such election shall be conducted as other elections provided for in this chapter. At the first such election two members of the state board of education shall be elected, one for a term of three years and one for a term of six years. At the expiration of the term of each, a member shall be elected for a term of six years)) the governor shall appoint an individual to represent the district on the state board of education.

((2)) (4) The terms of office of members of the state board of education who are ((elected)) appointed from the various congressional districts shall not be affected by the creation of either new or new and additional districts. In such an event, each board member may continue to serve in office for the balance of the term for which he or she was ((elected or)) appointed: PROVIDED, That the board member continues to reside within the boundaries of the congressional district as they existed at the time of his or her ((election or)) appointment. Vacancies which occur in a board member position during the balance of any such term shall be filled pursuant to RCW 28A.04.080, as now or hereafter amended, by a successor who resides within the boundaries of the congressional district from which the member whose office was vacated was ((elected)) appointed as they existed at the time of his or her ((election. At the election)) appointment. Immediately preceding the expiration of the term of office of each board member provided for in this subsection following the creation of either new or new and additional congressional districts, and thereafter, a successor shall be ((elected)) appointed from the congressional district which corresponds in number with the congressional district from which the incumbent was appointed ((or elected)).

Sec. 3. Section 28A.04.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((Candidates for membership on the state board of education shall file declarations of candidacy with the superintendent of public instruction on forms prepared by the superintendent. Declarations of candidacy may be filed by person or by mail not earlier than the first day of September, or later than the sixteenth day of September. The superintendent of public instruction may not accept any declaration of candidacy that is not on file in his office or is not postmarked before the seventeenth day of September, or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the twenty-first day of September.)) No person employed in any school, college, university, or other educational institution or any educational service district superintendent's office or in the office of superintendent of public instruction or any officer or employee of any education association or organization that represents school employees, or any school directors shall be eligible for membership on the state board of education and each member ((elected who is not representative of the private schools in this state and thus not running at large)) appointed must be a resident of the congressional district from which he or she was ((elected)) appointed, except the person appointed to represent private schools meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201. No member of a board of directors of a local school district or private school shall continue to serve in that capacity after having been ((elected)) appointed to the state board.

(2) The prohibitions against membership upon the board of directors of a school district or school and against employment, as well as the residence requirement, established by this section, are conditions to the eligibility of state board members to serve as such which apply throughout the terms for which they have been ((elected or)) appointed. Any state board member who hereafter fails to meet one or more of the conditions to eligibility shall be deemed to have immediately forfeited his or her membership upon the board for the balance of his or her term: PROVIDED, That such a forfeiture of office shall not affect the validity of board actions taken prior to the date of notification to the board during an open public meeting of the violation.

Sec. 4. Section 28A.04.070, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The term of office of each member of the state board of education shall begin on the second Monday in January next following the ~~((election))~~ time at which he or she was ~~((elected))~~ appointed, and he or she shall hold office for the term for which he or she was ~~((elected))~~ appointed and until his or her successor is ~~((elected and qualified))~~ appointed. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 28A.04.030, each member of the state board of education shall be ~~((elected))~~ appointed for a term of six years.

Sec. 5. Section 28A.04.080, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall be a vacancy upon the state board of education, from any cause whatever, it shall be the duty of the ~~((remaining members of the board))~~ governor to fill such vacancy by appointment, and the person so appointed shall continue in office ~~((until his successor has been specially elected, as hereinafter in this section provided, and has qualified. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the superintendent of public instruction shall call, in the month of August next following the date of the occurrence of such vacancy, a special election to be held in the same manner as other elections provided for in this chapter, at which election a successor shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of the member whose office was vacated))~~ for the duration of the term of the position vacated at which time he or she is reappointed or a successor is appointed.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.04.090, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall ~~((annually))~~ elect annually a ~~((president and))~~ vice president. The superintendent of public instruction shall be an ex officio member and the ~~((chief executive officer))~~ president of the board. As such ex officio member the superintendent shall have the right to vote only when there is a question before the board upon which no majority opinion has been reached among the board members present ~~((and voting thereon and the superintendent's vote is essential for action thereon)).~~ The superintendent, as ~~((chief executive officer))~~ president of the board, shall furnish all necessary record books ~~((and)),~~ forms, and support staff for its use, and shall represent the board in directing the work of school inspection.

(2) All members appointed to the state board of education to represent the congressional districts of the state and the members at large shall have full voting privileges on all matters that come before the board.

Sec. 7. Section 28A.04.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 160, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:
