Sec. 2, Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting, denying, or rescinding of a permit on shorelines of the state pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 as now or hereafter amended may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the date of filing as defined in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within fifteen days from the date of the receipt by the department or the attorney general of a copy of the request for review filed pursuant to this section. The shorelines hearings board shall initially schedule review proceedings on such requests for review without regard as to whether such requests have or have not been certified or as to whether the period for the department or the attorney general to intervene has or has not expired, unless such review is to begin within thirty days of such scheduling. If at the end of the thirty day period for certification neither the department nor the attorney general has certified a request for review, the hearings board shall remove the request from its review schedule.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines hearings board and the appropriate local government within thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, or guidelines (~~designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state~~) adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

~~((a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program.))~~ If the board determines that said ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline:

~~((i))~~ (a) Is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or

~~((ii))~~ (b) Constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or

~~((iii))~~ (c) Is arbitrary and capricious; or

~~((iv))~~ (d) Was developed without fully considering and evaluating all ~~((proposed master programs))~~ material submitted to the department by the local government; or the board shall enter a final decision declaring the ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline invalid, remanding the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

~~((v))~~ (e) Was not adopted in accordance with required procedures;

~~((b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines.~~

~~((c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply.))~~

(5) Rules, regulations, ~~((designations, master programs.))~~ and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department and each local government shall periodically review any master programs under its jurisdiction and make such adjustments thereto as are necessary. ((Each local government shall submit any proposed adjustments, to the department as soon as they are completed. No such adjustment shall become effective until it has been approved by the department.)) Any adjustments proposed by a local government to its master program shall be forwarded to the department for review. The department shall approve, reject, or propose modification to the adjustment. If the department either rejects or proposes modification to the master program adjustment, it shall provide substantive written comments as to why the proposal is being rejected or modified.

(2) Any local government aggrieved by the department's decision to approve, reject, or modify a proposed master program or master program adjustment may appeal the department's decision to the shorelines hearings board. In an appeal relating to shorelines, the shorelines hearings board shall review the proposed master program or master program adjustment and, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the local government's adjustment in light of the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. In an appeal relating to shorelines of state-wide significance, the board shall uphold the decision by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the decision of the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved local government shall have the burden of proof in all such reviews. Whenever possible, the review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed master program or master program adjustment is primarily located. The department and any local government aggrieved by a final decision of the hearings board may appeal the decision to the superior court of Thurston county.

(3) A master program amendment shall become effective after the approval of the department or after the decision of the shorelines hearings board to uphold the master program or master program adjustment, provided that the board may remand the master program or master program adjustment to the local government or the department for modification prior to the final adoption of the master program or master program adjustment.

Sec. 4. Section 21, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The attorney general or the attorney for the local government shall bring such injunctive, declaratory, or other actions as are necessary to insure that no uses are made of the shorelines of the state in conflict with the provisions and programs of this chapter, and to otherwise enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Any person who shall fail to conform to the terms of a permit issued under this chapter or who shall undertake development on the shorelines of the state without first obtaining any permit required under this chapter shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. Each permit violation or each day of continued development without a required permit shall constitute a separate violation.

(3) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department or local government, describing the violation with reasonable particularity and ordering the act or acts constituting the violation or violations to cease and desist or, in appropriate cases, requiring necessary corrective action to be taken within a specific and reasonable time.

(4) Within thirty days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department or local government may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department or local government in its discretion deems proper. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by the department shall be subject to review by the shorelines hearings board. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by local government shall be subject to review by the local government legislative authority. Any penalty jointly imposed by the department and local government shall be appealed to the shorelines hearings board.

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Revising provisions relating to local government investments. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to enable political subdivisions to participate with the state in providing maximum opportunities for the investment of surplus public funds consistent with the safety and protection of such funds. The legislature finds and declares that the public interest is found in providing maximum prudent investment of surplus funds, thereby reducing the need for additional taxation. The legislature also recognizes that not all political subdivisions are able to maximize the return on their temporary surplus funds. The legislature therefore provides in this chapter a mechanism whereby political subdivisions may, at their option, utilize the resources of the state treasurer's office to maximize the potential of surplus funds while ensuring the safety of public funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Public funds investment account' or 'investment pool' means the aggregate of all funds from political subdivisions that are placed in the custody of the state treasurer for investment and reinvestment.

(2) 'Political subdivision' means any county, city, town, municipal corporation, political subdivision, or special purpose taxing district in the state.

(3) 'Local government official' means any officer or employee of a political subdivision who has been designated by statute or by local charter, ordinance, or resolution as the officer having the authority to invest the funds of the political subdivision. However, the county treasurer shall be deemed the only local government official for all political subdivisions for which the county treasurer has exclusive statutory authority to invest the funds thereof.

(4) 'Funds' means public funds under the control of or in the custody of any local government official by virtue of the official's authority that are not immediately required to meet current demands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a trust fund in the state treasury to be known as the public funds investment account. All moneys remitted by local government officials under this chapter shall be deposited in this account. The earnings on any balances in the public funds investment account shall be credited to the public funds investment account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If authorized by local ordinance or resolution, a local government official may place funds into the public funds investment account for investment and reinvestment by the state treasurer in those securities and investments set forth in RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW. The state treasurer shall invest the funds in such manner as to effectively maximize the yield to the investment pool. In investing and reinvesting moneys in the public funds investment account and in acquiring, retaining, managing, and disposing of investments of the investment pool, there shall be exercised the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which persons of prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of the funds considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of the capital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state treasurer's office is authorized to employ such personnel as are necessary to administer the public funds investment account. The bond of the state treasurer as required by law shall be made to include the faithful performance of all functions relating to the investment pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state treasurer shall by rule prescribe the time periods for investments in the investment pool and the procedure for withdrawal of funds from the investment pool. The state treasurer shall promulgate such other rules as are deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the investment pool. The rules shall also provide for the administrative expenses of the investment pool, including repayment of the initial administrative costs financed out of the appropriation included in this act, to be paid from the pool's earnings and for the interest earnings in excess of the expenses to be credited or paid to the political subdivisions participating in the pool. The state treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of the pool. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivisions' respective deposits in the investment pool and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the investment pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The state treasurer shall keep a separate account for each political subdivision having funds in the investment pool. Each separate account shall record the individual amounts deposited in the investment pool, the date of withdrawals, and the earnings credited or paid to the political subdivision. The state treasurer shall report monthly the status of the respective account to each local government official having funds in the pool during the previous month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. At the end of each fiscal year, the state treasurer shall submit to the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee a summary of the activity of the investment pool. The summary shall indicate the quantity of funds deposited; the earnings of the pool; the investments purchased, sold, or exchanged; the administrative expenses of the investment pool; and such other information as the state treasurer deems relevant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Local governments may not invest in repurchase agreements, nor have their money invested in repurchase agreements, unless the local government or its agent takes possession of the securities to be repurchased, or a third party holds the securities in trust for the local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the request of one or several units of local government that invest their money with the county under the provisions of RCW 36.29.020, the treasurer of that county may combine those units' moneys for the purposes of investment.

Sec. 11. Section 15, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 21, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a sewer district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositaries, or to invest such moneys in ~~((direct obligations of the United States government))~~ any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

Sec. 12. Section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 22, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 57.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a water district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of water commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositaries, or to invest such moneys in ~~((direct obligations of the United States government))~~ any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, to the state treasurer from the state treasurer's service fund the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to defray the initial administrative costs of the public funds investment account. On or before June 30, 1991, the state treasurer's service fund shall be reimbursed for the amount of such money expended by the state treasurer to defray these initial administrative costs by transferring such money from the public funds investment account to the state treasurer's service fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The long-range health and economic and environmental goals for the state of Washington require the protection of the state's surface and underground waters for the health, safety, use, and enjoyment of its people. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide public bodies an additional means by which to provide for financing, development, and operation of water pollution control facilities needed for achievement of state and federal water pollution control requirements for the protection of the state's waters.

It is the intent of the legislature that public bodies be authorized to provide service from water pollution control facilities by means of service agreements with public or private parties as provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Water pollution control facilities' or 'facilities' means any facilities, systems, or subsystems owned or operated by a public body, or owned or operated by any person or entity for the purpose of providing service to a public body, for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, or recycling of wastewater, including but not limited to sanitary sewage, storm water, residential wastes, commercial wastes, industrial wastes, and agricultural wastes, that are causing or threatening the degradation of subterranean or surface bodies of water due to concentrations of conventional, nonconventional, or toxic pollutants. Water pollution control facilities do not include dams or water supply systems.

(2) 'Public body' means the state of Washington or any agency, county, city or town, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi-municipal corporation.

(3) 'Water pollution' means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of any surface or subterranean waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity, or odor of the waters, or such discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substance into any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental, or injurious to the public health, safety, or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

(4) 'Agreement' means any agreement to which a public body and a service provider are parties by which the service provider agrees to deliver service to such public body in connection with its design, financing, construction, ownership, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

(5) 'Service provider' means any privately owned or publicly owned profit or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, or other person or entity that is legally capable of contracting for and providing service with respect to the design, financing, ownership, construction, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Public bodies may enter into agreements with service providers for the furnishing of service in connection with water pollution control facilities pursuant to the process set forth in section 4 of this act. The agreements may provide that a public body pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the service actually available without regard to the amount of service actually used during all or any part of the contractual period. Agreements may be for a term not to exceed forty years or the life of the facility, whichever is longer, and may be renewable.

(2) The source of funds to meet periodic payment obligations assumed by a public body pursuant to an agreement permitted under this section may be paid from taxes, or solely from user fees, charges, or other revenues pledged to the payment of the periodic obligations, or any of these sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative authority of a public body may secure services by means of an agreement with a service provider. Such an agreement may obligate a service provider to design, finance, construct, own, operate, or maintain water pollution control facilities by which services are provided to the public body. Service agreements and related agreements under this chapter shall be entered into in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The legislative authority of the public body shall publish notice that it is seeking to secure certain specified services by means of entering into an agreement with a service provider. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the public body, or if there is no official newspaper then in a newspaper in general circulation within the boundaries of the public body, at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. The final notice shall appear not less than sixty days before the date for submission of proposals. The notice shall state (a) the nature of the services needed, (b) the location in the public body's offices where the requirements and standards for construction, operation, or maintenance of projects needed as part of the services are available for inspection, and (c) the final date for the submission of proposals. The legislative authority may undertake a prequalification process by the same procedure set forth in this subsection.

(2) The request for proposals shall (a) indicate the time and place responses are due, (b) include evaluation criteria to be considered in selecting a service provider, (c) specify minimum requirements or other limitations applying to selection, (d) insofar as practicable, set forth terms and provisions to be included in the service agreement, and (e) require the service provider to demonstrate in its proposal that a public body's annual costs will be lower under its proposal than they would be if the public body financed, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained facilities required for service.

(3) The criteria set forth in the request for proposals shall be those determined to be relevant by the legislative authority of the public body, which may include but shall not be limited to: The respondent's prior experience, including design, construction, or operation of other similar facilities; respondent's management capability, schedule availability, and financial resources; cost of the service; nature of facility design proposed by respondents; system reliability; performance standards required for the facilities; compatibility with existing service facilities operated by the public body or other providers of service to the public body; project performance warranties; penalty and other enforcement provisions; environmental protection measures to be used; and allocation of project risks. The legislative authority shall designate persons or entities (a) to assist it in issuing the request for proposals to ensure that proposals will be responsive to its needs, and (b) to assist it in evaluating the proposals received. The designee shall not be a member of the legislative authority.

(4) After proposals under subsections (1) through (3) of this section have been received, the legislative authority's designee shall determine, on the basis of its review of the proposals, whether one or more proposals have been received from respondents which are (a) determined to be qualified to provide the requested services, and (b) responsive to the notice and evaluation criteria, which shall include, but not be limited to, cost of services. These chosen respondents shall be referred to as the selected respondents in this section. The designee shall conduct a bidder's conference to include all these selected respondents to assure a full understanding of the proposals. The bidder's conference shall also allow the designee to make these selected respondents aware of any changes in the request for proposal. Any information related to revisions in the request for proposal shall be made available to all these selected respondents. Any selected respondent shall be accorded a reasonable opportunity for revision of its proposal prior to commencement of the negotiation provided in subsection (5) of this section, for the purpose of obtaining best and final proposals.

(5) After such conference is held, the designee may negotiate with the selected respondent whose proposal it determines to be the most advantageous to the public body, considering the criteria set forth in the request for proposals. If the negotiation is unsuccessful, the legislative authority may authorize the designee to commence negotiations with any other selected respondent. On completion of this process, the designee shall report to the legislative authority on his or her recommendations and the reasons for them.

(6) Any person aggrieved by the legislative authority's approval of a contract may appeal the determination to an appeals board selected by the public body, which shall consist of not less than three persons determined by the legislative authority to be qualified for such purposes. Such board shall promptly hear and determine whether the public body entered into the agreement in accordance with this chapter and other applicable law. The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as contested a case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall have the power only to affirm or void the agreement.

(7) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where contracting for design services by the public body is done separately from contracting for other services permitted under this chapter, the contracting for design of water pollution control facilities shall be done in accordance with chapter 39.80 RCW.

(8) A service agreement shall include provision for an option by which a public body may acquire at fair market value facilities dedicated to such service.

(9) Before any service agreement is entered into by the public body, it shall be reviewed and approved by the department of ecology to ensure that the purposes of chapter 90.48 RCW are implemented.

(10) Prior to entering into any service agreement under this chapter, the public body must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the service agreement and that the service agreement is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(11) Each service agreement shall include project performance bonds or other security by the service provider which in the judgment of the public body is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the service provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A public body may sell, lease, or assign public property for fair market value to any service provider as part of a service agreement entered into under the authority of this chapter. The property sold or leased shall be used by the provider, directly or indirectly, in providing services to the public body. Such use may include demolition, modification, or other use of the property as may be necessary to execute the purposes of the service agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A public body that enters into a service agreement pursuant to this chapter, under which a facility is owned wholly or partly by a service provider, shall be eligible for grants or loans to the extent permitted by law or regulation as if the entire portion of the facility dedicated to service to such public body were publicly owned. The grants or loans shall be made to and shall inure to the benefit of the public body and not the service provider. Such grants or loans shall be used by the public body for all or part of its ownership interest in the facility, and/or to defray a part of the payments it makes to the service provider under a service agreement if such uses are permitted under the grant or loan program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 3 through 6 of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional method for the provision of services from and in connection with facilities and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other state laws and by federal laws.

(5)) (3) The board may, by rule, provide for granting credit to a person for satisfactory completion of a written examination in any one or more of the subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section given by the licensing authority in any other state. These rules shall include

(4) The board may, by rule, prescribe the terms and conditions under which a person who passes the examination in one or more of the subjects indicated in subsection (1)(c) of this section may be reexamined in only the remaining subjects, giving credit for the subjects previously passed. A person is entitled to any number of reexaminations, subject to this subsection and any other rules adopted by the board.

(5) A person passing the examination in any one or more subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall meet the educational requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section in effect on the date the person successfully completes the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract his bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.
- (4) If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at his option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In order to help meet the rapidly growing need for child care and in order to utilize all available resources, it is the policy of the state of Washington to permit the use of public school facilities for the provision of child care. Child care programs provided under this chapter at the discretion of school districts are optional programs which do not fall within the state's educational duties established by Article IX of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definition in this section applies throughout this chapter.

'Child care program' means the nonresidential care and supervision of minors before, during, and after school hours, and during nonschool days and may include planned educational activities with an emphasis upon developmental skills. However, such program shall not include the care and supervision, during school hours, of students enrolled in the common school program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. School districts may establish, maintain, and operate child care programs using school facilities, local resources including child care program revenues, gifts and grants, and special tax levy revenues, and any state funds as may be appropriated by the legislature for the purpose of child care programs.

School districts establishing a child care program after the effective date of this act shall conduct a study designed to assess the need for and the availability of both public and private child care services within the school district's jurisdiction before establishing a child care program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For the child care program under section 3 of this act, the board of directors of a school district may:

(1) Fix reasonable charges for the maintenance and operation of child care programs and may fix the charges either at a uniform rate or at a variable rate based on the ability of the parents of the children enrolled in the programs to pay the charges;

(2) Contract with private entities or public agencies under chapter 39.34 RCW or with both and employ necessary personnel for all or part of the management and operation of child care programs. When a school district board of directors chooses to contract with other private or public agencies pursuant to this section, the child care programs so established shall be located at such points as the board of directors deems suitable for the convenience of the public;

(3) Remodel, renovate, otherwise improve, and maintain school facilities for the purposes of child care programs and no state school construction funds may be used for the construction of child care facilities;

(4) Transport minors enrolled in child care programs to and from program sites using district-owned transportation vehicles or may contract for transportation services, or both and charge a fee in an amount sufficient to reimburse the district for the actual per seat cost of providing such transportation;

(5) Supplement fee revenues, gifts and grants, and any earmarked state appropriated funds with special tax levy revenues to the extent approved by the electorate of the school district and necessary to meet the full direct and indirect costs of child care programs;

(6) May receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the child care programs and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments; and

(7) Otherwise perform and provide for such other functions and activities as are necessary and incidental to the maintenance and operation of safe, healthful, efficient, and prudently managed child care and preschool programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Child care programs provided for by school districts under this chapter shall comply with personnel, facility, program, health, and safety requirements established by the department of social and health services under chapter 74.15 RCW and the rules adopted under chapter 74.15 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An 'established place of business' requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an 'established place of business' unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency: PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer is accountable for the dealer's employees, sales personnel, and managerial personnel while in the performance of their official duties. Any violations of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW committed by any of these employees subjects the dealer to license penalties prescribed under RCW 46.70.101. A retail purchaser who has suffered a loss or damage by reason of a breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer, salesperson, managerial person, or other employee of a dealership, that constitutes a violation of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety bond as set forth in RCW 46.70.070.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Listing dealers shall transact dealer business by obtaining a consignment for sale, and the buyer's purchase of the mobile home shall be handled as dealer inventory. A complete account of all funds received and disbursed shall be given to the seller or consignor after the sale is completed.

Each of the following acts or practices is (~~hereby declared~~) unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a vehicle may be purchased for a smaller down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of 'bushing' which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer, or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, for any reason except substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used vehicle offered for sale.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle.

(9) For a dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash 'on deposit' from a purchaser prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle said 'on deposit' funds with assets of the dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding said 'on deposit' funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse 'on deposit' instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside 'on deposit' cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales agreement signed by the seller and buyer.

(11) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer's order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 18. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW ((46.70.180(7)(b))) 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW ((46.70.180(7)(b))) 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 17, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a canceled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 is pending and was filed within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of ((said)) the complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said sixty days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue ((said motor)) the vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW.

Sec. 20. Section 18, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 by a complaining ((motor)) vehicle dealer within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any canceled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to RCW 46.70.200, has ordered the director to issue a ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee.

If a new franchise is given by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the sale of the same make of ((motor)) vehicle in the same area of responsibility in that covered in ((said)) the canceled or terminated franchise, ((such act shall be)) that act is prima facie evidence that the new franchise replaced the canceled or terminated franchise.

Sec. 21. Section 24, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between ((motor)) vehicle dealers and manufacturers or factory branches and to all future franchises and contracts.

When determining the particular business activity at an identified site, the department of ecology shall consider the major purpose of the activity or activities occurring at the identified site. Under this section, each identified site shall be required to pay only one fee annually, but no fee shall be assessed on any person at an identified site engaged solely in making retail sales as defined in RCW 82.04.050, except for those identified sites which generate hazardous waste.

(2) The fee imposed by this section shall be due and payable on June 30 of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which a person has engaged at any time in the business activities listed in subsection (1) of this section. The amount of the fee for an identified site shall be graduated by reference to the annual gross income of the business apportioned to the site as provided in subsection (3) of this section ~~((in accordance with the following schedule)), and shall not exceed the following limits:~~

(a) For annual gross income not in excess of ~~((one million))~~ fifty thousand dollars, a fee of not more than ~~((one))~~ five hundred fifty dollars;

(b) For annual gross income in excess of ~~((one million))~~ fifty thousand dollars but not exceeding ~~((ten million))~~ one hundred thousand dollars, a fee of not more than ~~((seven hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars;

(c) For annual gross income in excess of ~~((ten million))~~ one hundred thousand dollars but not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, a fee of not more than ~~((seven thousand five hundred))~~ three thousand dollars;

(g) For an annual gross income in excess of ten million dollars, a fee of not more than thirteen thousand dollars.

For any identified site that is operated by a federal, state, or local authority, the department of ecology shall use in lieu of annual gross income the annual operating budget for the identified site. In those cases where the federal, state, or local authority cannot or will not provide the annual operating budget for the identified site, the department of ecology shall assign an annual operating budget of one billion dollars to federal sites, one hundred million dollars to state sites, and ten million dollars to local sites. If an identified site is jointly operated by more than one authority and the department of ecology must assign an annual operating budget to the site, then the department shall assign the highest of the possible annual operating budgets that could be assigned.

The department of ecology shall further graduate the fees set forth in (a) ~~((b), and (c))~~ through (g) of this subsection in accordance with criteria including but not limited to the quantity of hazardous waste generated and the health and environmental risks associated with the waste; PROVIDED, That the minimum fee assessed to any identified site shall be not less than seventy-five dollars. In calculating these fees the department shall not include any wastes produced solely from clean-up or remedial actions resulting from actions taken by the department under RCW 70.105A.060(1). The department of ecology shall publish by rule a schedule of these graduated fees.

(3) For purposes of this section, annual gross income of the business shall mean gross proceeds of sales as defined in RCW 82.04.070 or gross income of the business as defined in RCW 82.04.080; and shall mean gross income, as defined in RCW 82.16.010 (12). Annual gross income of the business of a person rendering services taxable under RCW 82.04.290 and maintaining places of business within and without this state shall be apportioned in accordance with the provisions of RCW 82.04.460. The total annual gross income of the business taxable in this state under chapters 82.04 and 82.16 RCW shall be apportioned equally by the department of ecology among the identified sites utilized by such business in this state without regard to the amount or nature of the use; PROVIDED, That the person subject to the fee may request, and the department of ecology shall grant, apportionment among identified sites utilized in this state according to each site's share of annual gross income of the business apportioned to this state. The person subject to the fee shall bear the burden of supporting the allocation among sites with appropriate data as reasonably requested by the department of ecology.

(4) If an identified site does not generate hazardous wastes regulated by chapter 70.105 RCW, the person owning or controlling the site is exempt from the fee imposed by this section.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) or (2) of this section or RCW 70.105A.040, no person who owns or operates a combined identified site and hazardous waste treatment, storage or disposal site shall be required to pay more than ~~((seven))~~ twenty thousand ~~((five hundred))~~ dollars annually to the hazardous waste control and elimination account.

(6) The department of ecology is authorized to adjust the fees imposed by this section ((and the limitation on total payment of subsection (5) of this section shall be adjusted)) by five percent whenever the consumer price index of the United States department of labor increases or decreases by a five percent increment from the index figure in existence on January 1, ~~((1983))~~ 1986, and such fee and limitation adjustments shall be published in rules by the department of ecology.

(7) Fees shall not be required under this section for solid wastes generated primarily from the combustion of coal or other fossil fuels, until at least six months after the date of submission of the study required by section 8002 of the federal resource conservation and recovery act.

(8) For purposes of this section 'manufacturer,' 'wholesaler,' 'retailer,' and 'person engaging in service activities' shall have the meaning attributed to such terms in chapter 82.04 RCW. 'Business activities' shall mean activities of any person subject to the fees imposed in subsection (1) of this section engaging in business as defined in chapters 82.04 and 82.16 RCW.

(9) In the administration of this section and in addition to other provisions in this chapter for the enforcement and collection of fees due and owing under this section, the department of revenue is authorized to apply the provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW, provided that the provisions of RCW 82.32.050 and 82.32.090 shall not be applied. If the annual gross income of the business of any person subject to the fee imposed under this section is finally determined to be greater or less than that reported to the department of revenue for the year in question, the department of revenue shall, if necessary, recompute the fee due and shall refund or assess the outstanding balance, as the case may be.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 65, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.105A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who operates a facility for the purpose of treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous wastes, that is subject to a permit issued under authority of RCW 70.105.130 or 70.105A.060(4) (including a permit issued in satisfaction of the requirements of 42 U.S.C. section 6925 of the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, as amended) shall ~~(-on or before September 1, 1984, and on or before May 15 of each year thereafter;)~~ pay to the state ~~((a))~~ an annual fee relating to the operation of such treatment, storage, or disposal facilities. In relation to these annual fees, the department is empowered to adopt rules relating to: (a) Establishment of classes of facilities subject to fees, taking into account the size and type of facility and the risks of detrimental impacts associated therewith; and (b) the setting of a fee schedule pertaining to these classes with those classes presenting a greater risk having a higher dollar amount than those classes presenting a lesser risk; PROVIDED, That the annual fee for any class shall not be greater than ~~((seven thousand five hundred))~~ fifteen thousand dollars.

The department shall prepare a list of all such hazardous waste facilities and the fee for each such facility or type of facility and shall provide a statement to each operator of a facility specifying the fee that is owed and the basis for the fee.

(2) ~~(Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 70.105A.030 (1) through (5) or this section, no person who operates a combined identified site and hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal site shall be required to pay more than seven thousand five hundred dollars annually to the hazardous waste control and elimination account))~~ (a) For the purposes of this subsection, a new facility is any facility which has not been treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous wastes before June 30, 1986, and which must be issued a permit under RCW 70.105.130 or 70.105A.060(4) before it can treat, store, or dispose of hazardous wastes in compliance with chapter 70.105 RCW.

(b) Any person who applies to the department to issue a permit for a new facility shall pay to the department, on a schedule to be determined by the department, a fee of:

(i) One hundred fifty thousand dollars if the permit application is for a landfill, land treatment, waste pile, or surface impoundment facility;

(ii) Fifty thousand dollars if the permit application is for an incinerator facility; or

(iii) Ten thousand dollars if the permit application is for any other type of facility.

(c) For any new facility permit application that includes more than one type of hazardous waste management, the permit application fee shall be the highest of the applicable fees required by (b) of this subsection.

(d) Any person who has submitted a permit application for a new facility to the department between January 1, 1985, and the effective date of this 1986 act shall pay to the department, by January 1, 1987, one-half of the applicable fee required by (b) of this subsection.

(e) The department is authorized to not work on any new facility permit application until the fee required under (b) of this subsection has been paid.

(3) The department of ecology is ~~((required))~~ authorized to increase or decrease the fees of subsections (1) ~~((of this section))~~ and ~~((the limitation on total payment of subsection))~~ (2) of this section ~~(:)~~ by five percent on each occasion when the consumer price index of the United States department of labor increases or decreases by a five percent increment from the index figure as it existed on January 1, ~~((1983))~~ 1986. Each such fee and limitation increase or decrease shall be set forth in rules adopted by the department of ecology.

The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication of the adoption of any such regulation under the federal food, drug and cosmetic act give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such regulation shall not be applicable under the provisions of RCW 69.04.110, 69.04.392, 69.04.394, and 69.04.396. Such hearing shall be in accord with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended.

The penalty shall be in an amount equal to the average daily wholesale value of the product processed by the milk plant for the thirty-day period immediately preceding the date on which the sample was taken.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. In determining the penalty amount, the person shall submit records to the department to certify the average daily production of the product deemed to be adulterated and the average wholesale price received for the product for the thirty-day period in question. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a contested case hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580. At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, reduced, or not imposed and shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. Tests performed for the component parts of milk products by a state laboratory of a milk sample collected by a department official shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the amounts of milk components in the product.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted by the violator to the department and deposited in the revolving fund of the Washington state dairy products commission. One-half of the funds received shall be used for purposes of education with the remainder one-half to be used for dairy processing and/or marketing research. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the standards for the composition of milk products, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the violation which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Washington's fisheries produce high quality products which are sold throughout the world. The department of agriculture, in conjunction with the department of fisheries and the department of trade and economic development, shall examine the means by which the state may promote and assist in marketing Washington caught fish. The department shall design a marketing plan for each of those means with the greatest potential for assisting such marketing, project the effectiveness of each plan, and estimate the cost of implementing each plan. Separate plans shall be prepared for each of Washington's major fisheries, including, but not limited to, bottomfish, salmon, mollusks, and crustaceans. To assist in preparing the plans, the department shall appoint advisory committees to represent each major fishery. The advisory committees shall include representatives of Indian and non-Indian fisheries, processors, wholesalers, and individuals knowledgeable in the field of fish marketing.

The legislature further finds that the production of incompatible varieties of rapeseed in close geographical proximity adversely affects the purity and marketability of rapeseed, and that it is in the public interest to establish geographical districts and buffer zones wherein the production of rapeseed may be restricted by variety.

For the purpose of rapeseed production in the state of Washington, the director of the department of agriculture shall have the regulatory authority on the production of rapeseed by variety and geographic location until such time as a rapeseed commodity commission is formulated. Once formed, the rapeseed commodity commission shall assume the regulatory authority on the production of rapeseed by variety and geographic location in the state of Washington.

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 86-139, by Representative S. Wilson

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the great State of Washington has seen fit over the years to designate a state flower, tree, bird, song, et cetera, to distinguish the uniqueness and quality of our beloved state; and

WHEREAS, Each succeeding session of the Legislature brings forth additional proposals of recognition of other unique features of our beloved state;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That this Resolution serve as an omnibus vehicle to name, once and for all, the many and varied features of our beloved state that have heretofore been overlooked and are as follows:

(1) STATE MYTH:

(a) Traditional: Paul Bunyan and Babe the Blue Ox;

(b) Modern: The Sasquatch (homo hirsute erectus), that reclusive denizen of our dark and mysterious forests;

(2) STATE MAMMAL:

(a) The Roosevelt Elk (cervus Sanderus Rooseveltus), an animal of noble bearing, no doubt honoring two of our great presidents who bore that distinguished name;

(b) Pacific Mole (scapanus orarius), a perfect symbol for our state as eastsiders are always digging in the dirt and westsiders are always squinting in the illusive sunlight;

(c) Blacktail Jackrabbit (lepus grand couleeus); a remarkable inhabitant of the sand and sagebrush of the Inland Empire;

(d) The Opossum (didelphis marsupialis), especially recognized as an import to our state, following the tar-heel migration to the northwest;

(e) The Timber Beast (homo hirsute sapiens), a peripatetic denuder of the arboreal landscape;

(3) STATE INSECT:

(a) The No-See-Um, Midge or Gnat (diptera obscura), an incredible irritant whose greatest delight is to make the life of the outdoorsman or casual picnicker miserable. A universal nuisance;

(b) The May Fly (ephemeroptera legistorus), a stage of a species that never has time to eat. They just reproduce, much like the Legislature;

(4) STATE MOTTO:

(a) Western: "When the tide's out, the table's set.";

(b) Eastern: "Thar she blows" or "Have you seen a windstorm over the Horse Heavens?";

(5) STATE MOLLUSK:

The Geoduck (panopea genorosa), a wingless, long-necked bivalve unique to the depths of northwestern waters. Truly a delicacy, proving the truth of the western Washington motto;

(6) STATE INVERTEBRATE:

The Banana Slug (limax maximus), a delight to step on bare-footed, this friendly gastropod, a favorite of gardeners, is our strongest weapon to discourage in-state migration;

(7) STATE MUSHROOM:

The Chanterelle (cantharellus cibarius), a tasty species threatened by European palates and frequently the cause of roadside traffic jams in our deepest woods;

(8) STATE BIRD:

The American Goldfinch (carduelis tristis), a timely correction to state statutes (RCW 1.20.040) as the current state bird; the willow goldfinch, is no longer recognized as a separate species by the American Ornithological Union;

(9) STATE WEED:

(a) Western: Quack grass (agropyron repens) or crab grass (panicum fanguinale); their very names are derogatory;

(b) Eastern: Tumble weed; the drifts of tumble weed decorating the fence lines of eastern Washington add a distinguished flavor to the landscape;

(10) STATE MINERAL:

(a) Western: Blue Clay, which, combined with hardpan, illustrates the alluvial history of the western slope dating to the ice age. Its unique character is exhibited whenever excessive moisture is trapped by layers of this material thus creating significant movement in localized landscapes;

(b) Eastern: Palouse Clay. One needs only a visit through the Palouse Hills during the occasional wet spell to appreciate the significance of this choice;

(c) Mount St. Helens' Ash. Once an obscure local scenic attraction, it became a mineral of state wide significance due to its cataclysmic visitation upon the rest of the state, which brought instantaneous notoriety;

(11) STATE SCRAP FISH:

(a) Dog Fish (squalus squalus), the bane of every salt water fisherman;

(b) Carp, a pestilence in fresh waters;

(12) STATE LIE:

(a) "The bluest skies I've ever seen are in Seattle.";

(b) "Trust me," as it applies to the Legislature;

(13) STATE FOSSIL:

(a) Trilobite, a vast evolutionary advance from the single-cell amoeba, it inhabits the Paleozoic shales that underlie our fair state;

(b) Citizen's Choice:, feel free to nominate a "living" fossil who truly represents our fair state; and

(14) STATE STRONGMAN:

John Huelsdonk, "The Iron Man of the Hoh," a truly remarkable example of the pioneer spirit that exemplifies the finest qualities of our state's citizenry.

On motion of Mr. S. Wilson, the resolution was adopted.

(1) Submit biennial needs assessments beginning January 1, 1983, and mental health service plans which incorporate all services provided for by the county authority consistent with state minimum standards and which provide access to treatment for the county's residents who are acutely-mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed. The county program shall provide:

The report shall include an analysis of consolidating these services, ways to improve linkages with the public school system, and appropriate recommendations. It shall also include all options considered but not accepted and reasons for rejection, and the legislative and organizational changes necessary for the implementation of the recommendations.

Grants shall be made by the department to counties for community mental health programs totaling not less than ninety-five percent of available resources. The department may use up to forty percent of the remaining five percent to provide community demonstration projects, including early intervention or primary prevention programs for children, and the remainder shall be for emergency needs and technical assistance under this chapter. The department shall provide a biennial accounting of the use of these funds to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives.

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 246, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 60, Laws of 1983 and RCW 72.33.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to provide ongoing points of contact with the handicapped individual and his family so that they may have a place of entry for state services and return to the community as the need may appear; to provide a link between those individuals and services of the community and state operated services so that the individuals with handicapping conditions and their families may have access to the facilities best suited to them throughout the life of the individual; to offer viable alternatives to state residential school admission; and to encourage the placement of persons from state residential schools, the secretary of social and health services or his designee, pursuant to rules and regulations of the department, shall receive applications of persons for care, treatment, hospitalization, support, training, or rehabilitation provided by state programs or services for the handicapped. Written applications shall be submitted in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) In the case of a minor person, the application shall be made by his parents or by the parent, guardian, limited guardian where so authorized, person or agency legally entitled to custody, which application shall be in the form and manner required by the department; and

(b) In the case of an adult person, the application shall be made by such person, by his or her guardian, or limited guardian where so authorized, or agency legally entitled to custody, which application shall be in the form and manner required by the department.

(2) Upon receipt of the written application the secretary shall determine if the individual to receive services has a handicapping condition as defined in RCW 72.33.020 qualifying him for services. In order to determine eligibility for services, the secretary may require a supporting affidavit of a physician or a clinical psychologist, or one of each profession, certifying that the individual is handicapped as herein defined.

(3) After determination of eligibility because of a handicapping condition, the secretary shall determine the necessary services to be provided for the individual. Individuals may be temporarily admitted, for a period not to exceed thirty days, to departmental residential facilities for observation prior to determination of needed services, where such observation is necessary to determine the extent and necessity of services to be provided.

(4) The secretary shall annually advise the persons specified in subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section that they may, by application, propose program and placement alternatives for care, treatment, hospitalization, support, training, or rehabilitation of the handicapped person; PROVIDED, That current appropriations are sufficient to implement alternative services without reducing services to existing clients.

(5) Upon receipt of an application for alternative care, the secretary shall consult with the applicant and within ninety days of the application determine whether the following criteria are met:

(a) That the alternative plan proposes a less dependent program than the current services provide;

(b) That the alternative plan is appropriate under the goals and objectives of the individual program plan;

(c) That the alternative plan is not in violation of applicable state and federal law; and

(d) That necessary services can reasonably be made available.

(6) If the alternative plan meets all the criteria of subsection (5) of this section, it shall be implemented as soon as reasonable, but not later than one hundred twenty days after completion of the determination process, unless the secretary determines;

(a) That the alternative plan is more costly than the current plan; or

(b) Current appropriations are not sufficient to implement alternative services without reducing services to existing clients; or

(c) The alternative plan would take precedent over other priority placements.

~~(7) ((One year after April 21, 1983, the secretary shall forward to the appropriate legislative committees of the senate and house of representatives a report that includes a description of each application that was denied and the basis for denial;~~

~~(8) Within thirty days of April 21, 1983, the secretary shall submit to the appropriate legislative committees explicit criteria for determining whether an alternative plan is more costly than a current plan as required by subsection (6) of this section.)) The secretary shall by July 1st of each even-numbered year report to the legislature on the use of program options. The report shall include the number of persons applying for program options, the number denied and reasons, the number approved and implemented, the programs they transferred from and to, the costs and savings incurred, and the amounts and sources of funding used to finance program options services. The report shall also estimate use and funding for the next biennium.~~

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) After July 1, 1989, pumpout facilities for disposal of sanitary wastes from boats shall be installed at all public and private marinas located on the waters of the state if:

(a) The marina is of sufficient size and design to serve boats with toilets;

(b) There is a lack of adequate pumpout facilities within a reasonable distance or within a boating usage area;

(c) Provisions can reasonably be made for the disposal of the sewage from the pumpout facility; and

(d) The marina:

(i) Has provisions for transient moorage facilities and permits transient vessels to moor;

(ii) Has provisions for vessels that are used by live-aboards or which have a crew either permanently or temporarily living on board; or

(iii) Sells fuel, food, fishing supplies or other marina supplies. Docks where bait only is sold are not included in this category.

The department of ecology shall determine if a marina is required to install pumpout facilities and may grant exemptions from this section in appropriate cases. State park facilities which provide only mooring buoys or small floats shall not be included in the provisions of this section.

(2) The pumpout facilities required under this section shall be designed according to the criteria established by the department of ecology by rule.

(3) Pumpout facilities required by this section for public entities shall be eligible to receive grants and/or loans offered for water pollution control facilities.

(4) Each marina shall prominently display signs stating that untreated sanitary wastes are not to be discharged while boats are within the waters of the state.

(5) The department of ecology shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section.

(6) The department of ecology shall establish, by rule, in consultation with the department of social and health services, standards for the design and operation of sewage pumpout facilities at marinas.

(8) Violation of this section is subject to a civil penalty of up to five hundred dollars per day for each violation.

(9) As used in this section, 'marina' includes public and private vessel moorage facilities including, but not limited to, yacht clubs, commercial moorages, public piers, and public terminals. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Prior to adopting rules, the department of ecology shall conduct a study to assess the need and practicality for sanitary marine pumpout and dump facilities at marinas throughout the state. A study team shall be established to assist the department and shall consist of representatives from the interclub boating association of Washington, an organization representing private marina owners, the department of social and health services, the parks and recreation commission, the public ports association, and the interagency committee for outdoor recreation.

The study shall:

- (1) Clearly define the size and design of marinas that are subject to this act;
- (2) Assess the need for marine pumpout and dump facilities by geographic area throughout the state;
- (3) Identify marinas where it is unreasonable to dispose of sewage from a pumpout facility;
- (4) Assess the current overall usage of marine pumpout facilities and dump facilities in the state;
- (5) Investigate alternative ways to fund construction of facilities and enforcement of section 1 of this act and methods to encourage public usage of marine pumpout and dump facilities;
- (6) Recommend strategies to encourage the use of marine pumpout facilities;
- (7) Recommend appropriate pumpout or sewage disposal systems for vessels that are used as live-aboards or which have a crew either permanently or temporarily living on board; and
- (8) Recommend methods to educate the general public and boat owners on the need for proper disposal of sanitary wastes from boats.

Results of the study shall be presented to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by October 1, 1986.

As used in this section, 'marina' has the definition given in section 1 of this act.

The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.792 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.10.790, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 360, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1985 and RCW 47.60.560 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary for vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements for the Washington state ferries, there shall be issued and sold upon the request of the department general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred thirty-five million dollars or such amount thereof as may be required (together with other funds available therefor). If the state of Washington is able to obtain matching funds from the urban mass transportation administration or other federal government agencies for the acquisition of passenger-only vessels capable of operating as an integral part of the Washington state ferries on Puget Sound and the Straits of Juan de Fuca, a sufficient amount of the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein shall be used to pay the state's share of the acquisition cost of the passenger-only vessels. Upon request being made by the department, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress in constructing the ferries. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 360, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.60.570 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the Puget Sound capital construction account of the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.60.560, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. ESB 4620 Prime Sponsor, Senator Halsan: Modifying provisions on the retail sale of motor vehicle fuel. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Advertisement' means any written or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communication media published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise.

(2) 'Affiliate' means any person, firm, or corporation who controls or is controlled by any motor fuel refiner-supplier, and includes any subsidiary or affiliated corporation in which the motor fuel refiner-supplier or its shareholders, officers, agents, or employees hold or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares.

(3) 'Community interest' means a continuing financial interest between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer in the operation of the franchise business.

(4) 'Marketing area' means an area five miles or less in any direction from a retail motor fuel outlet selling products of the same trademark as the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(5) 'Motor fuel' means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use in self-propelled motor vehicles and includes gasohol.

(6) 'Motor fuel franchise' means any oral or written contract, either expressed or implied, between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the motor fuel retailer is supplied motor fuel for resale to the public or for sale on commission or for a fee to the public, or any agreements between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the retailer is permitted to occupy premises owned, leased, or controlled by the refiner-supplier for the purpose of engaging in the retail sale of motor fuel supplied by the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(7) 'Motor fuel refiner-supplier' means any person, firm, or corporation, including any affiliate of the person, firm, or corporation, engaged in the refining of crude oil into petroleum who supplies motor fuel for sale, consignment, or distribution through retail outlets.

(8) 'Motor fuel retailer' means a person, firm, or corporation that resells motor fuel entirely at one or more retail motor fuel outlets pursuant to a motor fuel franchise entered into with a refiner-supplier.

(9) 'Offer or offer to sell' includes every attempt or offer to dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy a franchise or an interest in a franchise.

(10) 'Person' means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(13) 'Retail motor fuel outlet' means any location where motor fuel is distributed for purposes other than resale.

(14) 'Sale or sell' includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of a franchise.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is unlawful for any motor fuel refiner-supplier to discriminate in price between motor fuel retailers for purchases of motor fuel of like grade and quality, where the effect of the discrimination may be substantially to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any retailer who receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with the customers of either retailer. Nothing in this section prevents differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the fuel is sold to motor fuel retailers. Upon proof being made of discrimination under this section, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, a motor fuel refiner-supplier shall not absolutely prohibit or unreasonably withhold its consent to any sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise by a motor fuel retailer to a third party without fairly compensating the motor fuel retailer for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the motor fuel retailer's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. A motor fuel refiner-supplier may offset against amounts owed to a motor fuel retailer under this section any amounts owed by the motor fuel retailer to the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may prohibit or prevent the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise to a corporation in which the motor fuel retailer has a controlling interest if the motor fuel retailer offers in writing personally to guarantee the performance of the obligations under the motor fuel franchise.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the interest of a motor fuel retailer under such an agreement shall be considered personal property and shall devolve on the death of the motor fuel retailer to a designated successor in interest of the retailer, limited to the retailer's spouse, adult child, or adult stepchild or, if no successor in interest is designated, to the retailer's spouse, if any. The designation shall be made, witnessed in writing by at least two persons, and delivered to the motor fuel refiner-supplier during the term of the franchise. The designation may be revised at any time by the motor fuel retailer and shall be substantially in the following form:

I (motor fuel retailer name) at the service station located at in the City of Washington, designate as my successor in interest under section 4 of this act and as my alternate successor if the originally designated successor is unable or unwilling so to act.

I so specify this day of, 19....

The motor fuel refiner-supplier shall assist the designated successor in interest temporarily in the day-to-day operation of the service station to insure continued operation of the service station.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the retailer shall be given the right of first refusal to purchase the real estate and/or improvements owned by the refiner-supplier at the franchise location, and at least thirty days' advance notice within which to exercise this right, prior to any sale thereof to any other buyer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may:

(1) Require any retailer to meet mandatory minimum sales volume requirements for fuel or other products unless the refiner-supplier proves that its price to the retailer has been sufficiently low to enable the retailer reasonably to meet the mandatory minimum;

(2) Alter, or require the retailer to consent to the alteration of, any provision of the franchise during its effective term without mutual consent of the retailer;

(3) Interfere with any retailer's right to assistance of counsel on any matter or to join or be active in any trade association; and

(4) Set or compel, directly or indirectly, the retail price at which the retailer sells motor fuel or other products to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any franchise directly or indirectly:

(1) To sell or offer to sell a franchise in this state by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

(2) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.

(3) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and the motor fuel retailers:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Require a motor fuel retailer to purchase or lease goods or services of the motor fuel refiner-supplier or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(b) Discriminate between motor fuel retailers in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that any classification or discrimination between motor fuel retailers is reasonable, is based on franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(c) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a motor fuel retailer any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(d) Require motor fuel retailer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any person who sells or offers to sell a franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the motor fuel retailer or motor fuel refiner-supplier who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of section 8 of this act rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(2) The suit authorized under subsection (1) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff: PROVIDED, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(3) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(4) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such person in any action brought by any party against such person under subsection (1) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: PROVIDED, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any motor fuel retailer who is injured in his or her business by the commission of any act prohibited by this chapter, or any motor fuel retailer injured because of his or her refusal to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or her, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(2) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime by statute or at common law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a franchise at the time of entering into a franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter apply to any motor fuel franchise or contract entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and a motor fuel retailer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be interpreted consistent with chapter 19.100 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its beneficial purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. This chapter shall be known as the 'Dealer Bill of Rights Act.'

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. The Washington state attorney general shall conduct a study to determine whether motor fuel refiner-suppliers are injuring competition from motor fuel retailers, by charging retailers that sell products under their trademark, prices for motor fuel which equal or exceed the prices charged for motor fuel in the same geographic market to retail customers at retail motor fuel outlets operated by company personnel, a subsidiary company, or commissioned or contract agents. The attorney general shall report his findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986. Periodic reports shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. For the purposes of this study, the attorney general is authorized to use all of the civil investigative demand powers enumerated in RCW 19.86.110, subject to the procedures and requirements specified in RCW 19.86.110: PROVIDED, That disclosure of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or the contents thereof, to members of the legislature and legislative staff shall not require a court order unless the documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony are identified at the time they are furnished as containing trade secrets. When seeking a court order allowing disclosure of material containing trade secrets, the attorney general shall give reasonable notice of such proceeding to the party furnishing the material.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. To carry out this act, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the office of attorney general from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect March 30, 1986."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, ~~((1986))~~ 1990, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, ~~((1986))~~ 1990:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill, including a security deposit. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) ~~((Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or))~~ Provides self-certification of household income for the prior twelve months to a grantee of the department of community development which administers federally funded energy assistance programs((;)). The grantee shall determine that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and ((which provides)) shall provide a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income. The grantee may verify information in the self-certification;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is ~~((applicable))~~ available for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. If the past due bill is not paid by the following October 15, the customer shall not be eligible for protections under this chapter until the past due bill is paid. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but ~~((the plan))~~ shall not be ~~((invalidated))~~ in default unless payment during this period is less than seven percent of monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this ~~((subsection))~~ section. Customers who qualify for payment plans under this section who default on their payment plans and are disconnected can be reconnected and maintain the protections afforded under this chapter by paying reconnection charges, if any, and by paying all amounts that would have been due and owing under the terms of the applicable payment plan, absent default, on the date on which service is reconnected.

(3) All municipal utilities shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan. The budget billing or equal payment plan shall be offered low-income customers eligible under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance prepared in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 8624(C)(1) without limiting availability to certain months of the year, without regard to the length of time the customer has occupied the premises, and without regard to whether the customer is the tenant or owner of the premises occupied.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 7 of this act.

(1) 'Animal control authority' means a local government entity having responsibility for enforcement of animal control laws and for the shelter and welfare of animals, and means the county's chief law enforcement officer with respect to any area not served by such an entity.

(2) 'Enclosure' means a fence, dwelling, or other method of confinement, which fence, dwelling, or method of confinement is adequate to keep the dog within the enclosed area, has a conspicuous sign indicating that there is a vicious dog within the enclosure, and is adequate to prevent the entry of young children.

(3) 'Leashed' means the condition under which a dog is secured by a chain, strap, or other device held by the keeper and which method of security is adequate to control the dog and prevent it from wandering.

(4) 'Muzzled' means the condition in which a dog's jaws are adequately held together by a device designed to prevent the dog from biting.

(5) 'Provoked' or 'provocation' has its customary meaning, except that a person will not be considered to have provoked a dog or engaged in conduct constituting provocation if the person acted reasonably in attempting to protect his or her property or to prevent bodily injury.

(6) 'Vicious dog' means:

(a) Any dog that when unprovoked has bitten a human being, either on public or private property;

(b) Any dog with a propensity, tendency, or disposition to attack unprovoked, to cause injury, or to otherwise endanger the safety of human beings; or

(c) Any dog trained for dog fighting.

For purposes of section 6 of this act, 'vicious dog' means a dog which bites or kills any farm animal or domestic animal.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, each animal control authority shall confiscate, and promptly destroy in an expeditious and humane manner, any vicious dog within its jurisdiction if the dog is outside of an enclosure without being leashed and muzzled.

(2) The authority may permit the keeper to retain the dog if each of the following occur:

(a) The keeper requests that he or she be permitted to retain the dog; (b) the authority believes that the keeper did not know or have reason to know that the dog was vicious; and (c) the destruction of the dog is not required under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any keeper of a vicious dog who fails to confine the dog to an enclosure at any time while the dog is not leashed and muzzled is guilty of a misdemeanor. This subsection only applies if, at the time of the keeper's failure, the keeper knew or had reason to know that the dog was a vicious dog.

(2) Any keeper of a vicious dog who fails to confine the dog to an enclosure at any time while the dog is not leashed and muzzled is guilty of a crime under this subsection if, as a result of such failure, the dog bites any person. Except as provided under subsection (3) of this section, this crime is punishable as a gross misdemeanor. This subsection only applies if, at the time of the keeper's failure, the keeper knew or had reason to know that the dog was a vicious dog. This subsection does not apply if the person bitten provoked the dog.

(3) Any person who has a previous conviction under subsection (1) of this section and who is subsequently convicted under subsection (2) of this section is guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW for such subsequent conviction. Any person who has a previous conviction under subsection (2) of this section and who is subsequently convicted again under subsection (2) of this section is guilty of a class B felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW for such subsequent conviction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each animal control authority shall promptly, expeditiously, and humanely destroy any dog within its jurisdiction, regardless of whether the dog is within the definition of 'vicious dog' provided in section 1 of this act, if the dog:

(a) Has severely bitten or maimed any child under the age of ten years; or

(b) Without provocation, has bitten or maimed any person.

(2) The word 'maim' has its customary definition, but a bite injury will not be excluded from this definition merely because it can be corrected by restorative surgery.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

In any civil action brought by or on behalf of a person bitten by a dog and in which damages are awarded for injuries resulting from the dog bite, the following rules apply:

(1) If damages for the injuries are awarded, the court shall award the person his or her court costs and reasonable attorney's fees. However, this subsection does not apply if the damages awarded are not at least twenty percent greater than the highest amount offered by the defendant as a settlement; and

(2) In addition to the person's general and special damages awarded, an amount equal to double such damages, but not exceeding ten thousand dollars, shall be awarded if the trier of fact finds that:

(a) The person did not provoke the dog;

(b) The dog was a vicious dog; and

(c) The injuries would not have occurred but for the failure of the defendant to confine the dog within an enclosure, or to keep it leashed and muzzled when not within an enclosure, and that, at the time of such failure, the defendant knew or should have known that the dog was a vicious dog.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

In any civil action in which the owner of a farm animal or a domestic animal, such as a dog or cat, recovers damages for losses resulting from a vicious dog biting or killing such animal, the court shall award attorney's fees and costs to the owner if the trier of fact finds that the biting or killing occurred on the property of the owner and that the losses would not have occurred had the dog been confined to an enclosure or kept leashed when not so confined. The court shall award such fees and costs regardless of whether the keeper of the dog had any prior knowledge that the dog was a vicious dog. This section does not apply if the damages awarded are not at least twenty percent greater than the highest amount offered as a settlement by the defendant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 16.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Sections 1 through 6 of this act do not apply to any dog which is used and owned by a law enforcement agency.

(3) Nothing in this section may prohibit the following:

(c) The training of dogs or the use of equipment in the training of dogs for any purpose not prohibited by law.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. PREAMBLE. Tort law in this state has generally been developed by the courts on a case-by-case basis. While this process has resulted in some significant changes in the law, including amelioration of the harshness of many common law doctrines, the legislature has periodically intervened in order to bring about needed reforms. The purpose of this chapter is to enact further reforms in order to create a more equitable distribution of the cost and risk of injury and increase the availability and affordability of insurance.

The legislature finds that counties, cities, and other governmental entities are faced with increased exposure to lawsuits and awards and dramatic increases in the cost of insurance coverage. These escalating costs ultimately affect the public through higher taxes, loss of essential services, and loss of the protection provided by adequate insurance. In order to improve the availability and affordability of quality governmental services, comprehensive reform is necessary.

The legislature also finds comparable cost increases in professional liability insurance. Escalating malpractice insurance premiums discourage physicians and other health care providers from initiating or continuing their practice or offering needed services to the public and contribute to the rising costs of consumer health care. Other professionals, such as architects and engineers, face similar difficult choices, financial instability, and unlimited risk in providing services to the public.

The legislature also finds that general liability insurance is becoming unavailable or unaffordable to many businesses, individuals, and nonprofit organizations in amounts sufficient to cover potential losses. High premiums have discouraged socially and economically desirable activities and encourage many to go without adequate insurance coverage.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to reduce costs associated with the tort system, while assuring that adequate and appropriate compensation for persons injured through the fault of others is available.

If more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several, except that a person whose percentage of fault is less than that allocated to the claimant is liable to the claimant only for the person's own percentage of the damages.

PART V LIMITATION OF ACTIONS--FELONY

NEW SECTION, Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is a defense to any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was engaged in the commission of a felony at the time the injury or death was caused if the commission of the felony was related to the injury or death as to time, place, or activity. Nothing in this section affects the right of action under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

PART VI INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

Sec. 601. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property;

(1) Caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable;

(2) Caused by or resulting from the concurrent negligence of (a) the indemnitee or the indemnitee's agents or employees, and (b) the indemnitor or the indemnitor's agents or employees, is valid and enforceable only to the extent of the indemnitor's negligence and only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor, and may waive the indemnitor's immunity under industrial insurance, Title 51 RCW, only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor and the waiver was mutually negotiated by the parties. This subsection applies to agreements entered into after the effective date of this 1986 section.

PART VII BUILDER LIMITATION

Sec. 701. Section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1955 and RCW 4.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasimunicipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

Sec. 702. Section 2, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase 'substantial completion of construction' shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 section.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

PART VIII
PERIODIC PAYMENTS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. (1) In an action for personal injuries, wrongful death, or property damage in which a verdict or award of future damages is in excess of the amount established under subsection (4) of this section, the court may, at the request of a party, enter a judgment for periodic installments of such future damages as provided in this chapter.

(2) The court shall enter judgment in lump sum for past damages, attorney fees, costs, and litigation expenses of the plaintiff.

(3) If a judgment for periodic installments is to be entered under subsection (1) of this section, the court prior to entry of judgment shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of such future damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include the following provisions: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the intervals between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, payment of interest, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal which, in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice, best provides for the future needs of the claimant.

(4) On the effective date of this section, the minimum amount referenced in subsection (1) of this section shall be one hundred thousand dollars. On July 1, 1987, and on July 1 of each year thereafter, the office of the administrator for the courts shall adjust the minimum amount in accordance with the change in the federal consumer price index during the previous year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. (1) As a condition of entering a judgment for periodic installments of future damages under section 801 of this act, the court may require a judgment debtor who has not made adequate provision for payment of periodic installments to post security sufficient to assure full payment of such future damages.

(2) If the court determines that a judgment debtor has not made adequate provision for payment of periodic installments and is unable to post security sufficient to assure full payment of the future damages, then the court may enter a judgment for the lump sum of the damages, past and future, incurred by the plaintiff against the judgment debtor.

(3) Upon satisfaction of the judgment for periodic installments, the security, or so much as remains, shall be ordered returned to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 803. If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic installments under section 801 of this act, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court which rendered the original judgment for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor, and shall not convert these amounts to their present value. The court shall also require the payment of interest on the outstanding judgment and shall award the petitioner reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 804. In cases in which future damages are payable in periodic installments under this chapter:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the liability for payment of any installments for medical or other costs of health care or noneconomic loss not yet due at the death of the judgment creditor terminates upon the death of the person; and

(2) The portion of any periodic payment allocatable to loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor, but shall be considered part of the estate of the judgment creditor. In such cases, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, convert those portions of such periodic payments allocatable to the loss of future earnings to a lump sum by calculating the present value of such payments in order to assist in the settlement of the estate of the judgment creditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 805. (1) If, at any time after entry of judgment, a judgment creditor or successor in interest can establish that the continued payment of the judgment in periodic installments will impose a severe hardship, the court may, in its discretion, order that the remaining payments or a portion thereof shall be made to the judgment creditor in a lump sum. The court shall, before entering such an order, consider the following: (a) Whether unanticipated and substantial medical or other needs have arisen that warrant the payment of the remaining payments, or a portion thereof, in a lump sum; (b) whether ordering such a lump sum payment would impose an unreasonable financial burden on the judgment debtor or debtors; (c) whether ordering such a lump sum payment will accommodate the future medical and other needs of the judgment creditor; and (d) whether ordering such a lump sum payment would further the interests of justice.

(2) If a lump sum payment is ordered by the court, such lump sum shall be calculated on the basis of the present value of remaining periodic payments, or portions thereof, that are converted into a lump sum payment. The remaining future periodic payments, if any, shall be reduced accordingly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 806. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit the right of a plaintiff, defendant or defendants, and any insurer to settle claims as they consider appropriate and in their complete discretion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 807. Section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56.240 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 808. Sections 801 through 806 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 4 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 809. If any provision of sections 801 through 807 of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of sections 801 through 807 of this act shall be null and void.

PART IX MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 901. Section 2, chapter 103, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 3, chapter 265, Laws of 1985 and RCW 7.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All civil actions, except for appeals from municipal or justice courts, which are at issue in the superior court in counties which have authorized arbitration, where the sole relief sought is a money judgment, and where no party asserts a claim in excess of ~~((ten))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, or if approved by the superior court of a county by two-thirds or greater vote of the judges thereof, up to ~~((twenty-five))~~ one hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, are subject to mandatory arbitration. For purposes of RCW 2.08.067, 'implementing a mandatory arbitration program to the maximum extent permissible' under this subsection means authorizing arbitration in civil claims of at least twenty-five thousand dollars.

(2) If approved by majority vote of the superior court judges of a county which has authorized arbitration, all civil actions which are at issue in the superior court in which the sole relief sought is the establishment, termination or modification of maintenance or child support payments are subject to mandatory arbitration. The arbitrability of any such action shall not be affected by the amount or number of payments involved.

Sec. 902. Section .19.03, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.19.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Rates shall be used, subject to the other provisions of this chapter, only if made in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) In the case of insurances under standard fire policies and that part of marine and transportation insurances not exempted under RCW 48.19.010, manual, minimum, class or classification rates, rating schedules or rating plans, shall be made and adopted; except as to specific rates on inland marine risks individually rated, which risks are not reasonably susceptible to manual or schedule rating, and which risks by general custom of the business are not written according to manual rates or rating plans.

(2) In the case of casualty and surety insurances:

(a) The systems of expense provisions included in the rates for use by any insurer or group of insurers may differ from those of other insurers or groups of insurers to reflect the requirements of the operating methods of any such insurer or group with respect to any kind of insurance, or with respect to any subdivision or combination thereof for which subdivision or combination separate expense provisions are applicable.

(b) Risks may be grouped by classifications for the establishment of rates and minimum premiums. Classification rates may be modified to produce rates for individual risks in accordance with rating plans which establish standards for measuring variations in hazards or expense provisions, or both. Such standards may measure any differences among risks that can be demonstrated to have a probable effect upon losses or expenses.

(3) Due consideration in making rates for all insurances shall be given to:

(a) Past and prospective loss experience within and outside this state ~~(-and)~~; PROVIDED, That, in the case of rates for fire insurance, due consideration shall be given to the loss experience of insurers as to insurance against fire during a period of not less than the most recent five-year period for which such experience is available. In addition, casualty rates and rating schedules shall be supported, whenever possible, by loss experience for this state. If such information is not available or is not statistically credible, an insurer may use loss experience from the state of Idaho, Montana, and Oregon in support of a rate filing or rating schedule. Loss experience from states other than Washington, Idaho, Montana, and Oregon may be used in support of a rate filing or rating schedule only after it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the loss experience from those states is either not available or is not statistically credible.

(b) Conflagration and catastrophe hazards, where present.

(c) A reasonable margin for underwriting profit and contingencies.

(d) Dividends, savings and unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members, or subscribers.

(e) All other relevant factors within and outside this state.

(4) In addition to other factors required by this section, rates filed by an insurer on its own behalf may also be related to the insurer's plan of operation and plan of risk classification.

(5) Except to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 48.19.020 uniformity among insurers in any matter within the scope of this section is neither required nor prohibited.

(6) Under no circumstances shall any filing pursuant to the requirements of this chapter be made which would constitute more than a fifteen percent increase over the rate in use one year before the date of filing. No insurance company may cancel a policy as the result of this limitation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. The insurance commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, on the effects of this act on insurance rates and the availability of insurance coverage and the impact on the civil justice system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. If any provision of section 901 or 902 of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of sections 901 and 902 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 4.44 RCW to read as follows:

In any action in superior court for damages for personal injury or wrongful death, the court shall require all parties to the action to participate in a settlement conference no less than fourteen days before the date set for trial. A judge or court commissioner shall preside at the conference and shall encourage the parties to negotiate in good faith on each issue in controversy. The presiding judge or commissioner shall recommend for each issue a settlement that may be accepted or rejected by the parties. The proceedings of the settlement conference and the recommendations of the presiding judge or commissioner are not admissible in any subsequent trial on the action, and the presiding judge or commissioner shall not hear the case in any subsequent trial on the action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 907. A new section is added to chapter 7.70 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. A new section is added to chapter 4.44 RCW to read as follows:

In an action for damages for personal injury, wrongful death, or damage to property, the court shall instruct the jury that if the jury finds a verdict awarding damages, it shall in its verdict specify the damages that have been incurred prior to the verdict and amounts intended to compensate for damages to be incurred in the future. Specification of damages shall include each category of damages considered by the jury.

Sec. 909. Section 4, chapter 136, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 1, chapter 147, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.56.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 910. Section 1, chapter 26, Laws of 1975 as amended by section 2, chapter 147, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.56.115 are each amended to read as follows:

If such shares are issued pursuant to approved stock option plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time the option is granted. If such shares are issued pursuant to approved stock purchase plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time of purchase. If such shares are issued in order to qualify a new director of ~~the corporation, the consideration received shall not be less than the higher of par value or ninety-five percent of the fair value of the shares at the time of the sale). The shares may be issued for such consideration as shall be established by the board from time to time but for not less than the par value, if any, and all consideration received therefor shall be allocated to the capital stock or surplus of the corporation.~~

Sec. 27. Section 2, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 106, Laws of 1979 and RCW 30.08.088 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any amendments to articles of incorporation which provide for authorized but unissued stock shall be made as provided in the case of a capital increase which is to be paid in full before becoming effective. However:))~~ The authorized but unissued shares shall not become a part of the capital stock ~~((except for the purposes hereof))~~ until they have been issued and paid for ~~((in cash))~~. Prior to the issuance of authorized but unissued stock, the bank shall notify the supervisor of the proposed issuance and the consideration to be received therefor and receive the supervisor's approval thereof, except that such notification and such approval shall not be required if the authorized but unissued stock is issued to employees of the bank pursuant to approved stock option, stock purchase, stock bonus or other similar plans approved by the supervisor.

Sec. 28. Section 30.08.090, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 and RCW 30.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bank or trust company may increase or decrease its capital stock or otherwise amend its articles of incorporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, by a vote of the stockholders representing two-thirds of ~~((its issued capital stock))~~ each class of shares entitled to vote under the terms of the shares at any regular meeting, or special meeting duly called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by its bylaws~~((PROVIDED: That notice of a meeting to increase or decrease authorized capital stock shall first be published once a week for four weekly issues in a newspaper published in the place in which such corporation is located, or if there be no newspaper published in such place, then in some newspaper published in the same county. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting, the amount of the present authorized capital stock of the bank or trust company and the proposed new authorized capital stock))~~. A certificate of the fact and the terms of the amendment shall be executed by a majority of the directors and filed as required herein for articles of incorporation. ~~((Except when an amendment provides for authorized but unissued shares as permitted in this title:))~~ No ~~((increase of authorized))~~ issuance of capital stock shall be valid, until the amount thereof shall have been ~~((subscribed and))~~ actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor. No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital~~((: nor be valid, nor warrant the cancellation of stock certificates, nor diminish the personal liabilities of the stockholders until such reduction has been approved by the supervisor, nor shall any reduction relieve any stockholder from any liability of the corporation incurred prior thereto))~~ by the supervisor. No amendment shall be made whereby a bank becomes a trust company unless such bank shall first receive permission from the supervisor.

Banks having authorized but unissued stock shall disclose on all statements of condition the amount of authorized stock and the amount of issued and paid in stock, as certified by the supervisor. The supervisor shall certify to each bank having authorized but unissued stock the amount of its issued and paid in capital stock and this amount shall be used in all statements of condition and in computing the capital of the bank for purposes of determining loan or investment limits ~~((and branching powers))~~ until a new certificate is issued by the supervisor. In cases where a bank issues authorized but unissued stock as permitted by this title, a new certificate need not be requested upon each stock issue. However, if the bank so requests and the supervisor approves, a certificate of issued and paid in capital stock shall be issued by the supervisor. A new certificate must be requested at such time as any increase of paid in capital stock represents five percent of the authorized capital stock and at such time as there is no remaining authorized but unissued stock.

Sec. 29. Section 30.08.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 248, Laws of 1957 and RCW 30.08.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank shall accept, either in a foreign or a domestic transaction, for any one person, company, firm or corporation, to an amount equal at any one time in the aggregate to more than ten percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus unless the bank is secured by attached documents or by some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance; and no bank shall accept such bills to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than one-half of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the supervisor, under such general regulations applicable to all banks irrespective of the amount of capital or surplus, as he may prescribe may authorize any bank to accept such bills to an amount not exceeding at any time in the aggregate one hundred percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the aggregate of acceptances growing out of domestic transactions shall in no event exceed fifty percent of such capital stock and surplus.

Every bank and trust company shall be managed by not less than five directors. ~~((excepting that a bank having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or less may have only three directors)) who need not be residents of this state.~~ Directors shall be elected by the stockholders and hold office for ~~((one year)) such term as is specified in the articles of incorporation, not exceeding three years,~~ and until their successors are elected and have qualified. In the first instance the directors shall be those named in the articles of incorporation and afterwards, those elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at least once each year on a day to be specified by the bank's or trust company's bylaws ~~((but not later than May 15th of each year)).~~ Shareholders may not cumulate their votes unless the articles of incorporation specifically so provide. If for any cause no election is held at that time, it may be held at an adjourned meeting or at a subsequent meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the corporation's bylaws. The directors shall meet at least once each month and whenever required by the supervisor. A majority of the then serving board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all stockholders' meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Any stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy. ~~((Every director must own in his own right shares of the capital stock of the bank or trust company of which he is a director the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than four hundred dollars, unless the capital of the bank or trust company shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, in which case he must own in his own right shares of such capital stock the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than two hundred dollars, or an equivalent interest, as determined by the supervisor of banking, in any company which has control over such bank or trust company within the meaning of section 2 of the federal bank holding company act of 1956, as now or hereafter amended. Any director who ceases to be the owner of the required number of shares of the stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place.))~~

Immediately upon election, each director shall take, subscribe, swear to, and file with the supervisor an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to such corporation ~~((and that he is the beneficial owner in good faith of the number of shares of stock required by this section, and that the same is fully paid, is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt)).~~ Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the board.

Sec. 31. Section 30.12.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All meetings of the stockholders of any bank or trust company, except organization meetings, and meetings held with the consent of all stockholders, must be held in the ~~((town or city)) county in which the head office or any branch of the corporation is located.~~ Meetings of the directors of any bank or trust company may be held either within or without this state. Every such corporation shall keep ~~((a book)) records~~ in which shall be recorded the names and residences of the stockholders thereof, the number of shares held by each, ~~((when each person became a stockholder))~~ and also the transfers of stock, showing the time when made, the number of shares and by whom transferred. NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who has been a shareholder of record at least six months immediately preceding his or her demand or who is the holder of record of at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a bank or trust company, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, has the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, the bank or trust company's minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its shareholder records, and its existing publicly available records. The person is entitled to make extracts therefrom, except that the person is not entitled to view or make extracts of any portion of minutes that refer or relate to information which is confidential.

Any officer or agent who, or a bank or trust company that, refuses to allow any such shareholder or his or her agent or attorney, to examine and make extracts from its minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, record of shareholders, or existing publicly available books and records, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to the shareholder for actual damages or other remedy afforded the shareholder by law.

It is a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has, within two years: (1) Sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders for shares of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; (2) aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose; (3) improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of existing publicly available books and records, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; or (4) not acted in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his or her demand.

Nothing in this section impairs the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which the shareholder has been a shareholder of record, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or her, to compel the production for examination by the shareholder of the existing publicly available books and records, minutes, and record of shareholders of a bank or trust company.

Upon the written request of any shareholder of a bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. As used in this section, 'shareholder' includes the holder of voting trust certificates for shares.

Sec. 33. Section 30.12.030, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Such bonds may be individual, schedule or blanket form, and the premiums therefor shall be paid by the bank or trust company.

(2) The said directors shall also direct and require suitable insurance protection to the bank or trust company against burglary, robbery, theft and other similar insurance hazards to which the bank or trust company may be exposed in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere.

The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors ~~((and thereafter be reported to the supervisor and be subject to his approval))~~.

Sec. 34. Section 30.12.050, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A director, officer, employee or other agent of any bank shall not purchase, or be interested in the purchase, directly or indirectly, of any of its assets without the previous ~~((written))~~ consent of ~~((the supervisor and of))~~ a majority of ~~((the))~~ disinterested directors of the bank; PROVIDED, That if the fair market value of the asset or assets exceed ten thousand dollars, not less than ten days' prior notice of the sale shall be given to the supervisor. ((Whoever knowingly does or participates or aids in the doing of any act in violation of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and be punished accordingly, and also shall forfeit to the state double the amount of any loss suffered by the bank or trust company on account of the unlawful purchase, the recovery to be one-half for the use of the bank or trust company and the rest for the use of the state.))

Sec. 35. Section 30.12.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Every))~~ No officer, director, agent, employee or stockholder of any bank or trust company ~~((who))~~ shall, directly or indirectly, receive a bonus, commission, compensation, remuneration, gift, speculative interest or gratuity of any kind from any person, firm or corporation other than the bank or as allowed by section 36 of this 1986 act for granting, procuring or endeavoring to procure, for any person, firm or corporation, any loan by or out of the funds of such bank or trust company or the purchase or sale of any securities or property for or on account of such bank or trust company or for granting or procuring permission for any person, firm or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank or trust company((:)). Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a ((felony)) gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a transaction is fair to a corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified, the fact that a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in the transaction is not grounds for either invalidating the transaction or imposing liability on the director or officer.

(2) In any proceeding seeking to invalidate a transaction with the corporation in which a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation, the person asserting the validity of the transaction has the burden of proving fairness unless:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the board of directors, or a committee of the board, and the board or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director or an officer of a corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation if:

(a) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material financial interest, or in which such person is a general partner, is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction, and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (3)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(5) For purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the vote of a majority of shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. All outstanding shares entitled to vote under this title or the articles of incorporation are entitled to be counted under this subsection except shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section shall not be counted to determine whether shareholders have authorized, approved, or ratified a transaction for purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section. The vote of the shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this title and for purposes of determining a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of RCW 30.08.088, the board of directors of a bank or trust company may grant options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class of its stock. The instrument evidencing the option shall state the terms upon which, the time within which, and the price at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of such option. If any such options are granted by contract, or are to be granted pursuant to a plan, to officers or employees of the bank or trust company, then the contract or the plan shall require the approval, within twelve months of its approval by the board of directors, of the holders of a majority of its voting capital stock. Subsequent amendments to any such contract or plan which do not change the price or duration of any option, the maximum number of shares which may be subject to options, or the class of employees eligible for options may be made by the board of directors without further shareholder approval.

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation, the board of directors of a bank or trust company shall have the authority to enter into any plans or contracts providing for compensation for its officers and employees, including, but not being limited to, incentive bonus contracts, stock purchase or bonus plans and profit sharing plans.

The administrative review process shall include the following minimum conditions:

Any hearing ordered under this subsection shall be conducted by the planning commission or hearings officer as required by county or city ordinance.

(4) On its own initiative within twenty-one days of the filing of the request for approval of the subdivision, the governing body, or a designated employee or official, of the county, city,

The board shall give at least thirty days' advance written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the governing body of each governmental unit having jurisdiction within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed, formed, incorporated, disincorporated, dissolved or consolidated, or within the boundaries of a special district whose assets and facilities are proposed to be assumed by a city or town, and to the governing body of each city within three miles of the exterior boundaries of such area and to the proponent of such change. Notice shall also be given by publication in any newspaper of general circulation in the area of the proposed boundary change at least three times, the last publication of which shall be not less than five days prior to the date set for the public hearing. Notice shall also be posted in ten public places in the area affected for five days when the area is ten acres or more. When the area affected is less than ten acres, five notices shall be posted in five public places for five days. ~~(If the board after such hearing shall determine to modify the proposal by adding territory, then the board shall set a date, time and place for an additional hearing on the modification, for which notice shall be given as provided in this subsection.)~~ Notice as provided in this subsection must include any territory which the board has determined to consider adding in accordance with RCW 36.93.150(2).

(2) A verbatim record shall be made of all testimony presented at the hearing and upon request and payment of the reasonable costs thereof, a copy of the transcript of such testimony shall be provided to any person or governmental unit.

indicate whether the proposed change is approved, rejected or modified and, if modified, the terms of such modification. Dissenting members of the board shall have the right to have their written dissents included as part of the decision.

(5) Unanimous decisions of the hearing panel or a decision of a majority of the members of the board shall constitute the decision of the board and shall not be appealable to the whole board. Any other decision shall be appealable to the entire board within ten days. Appeals shall be on the record, which shall be furnished by the appellant, but the board may, in its sole discretion, permit the introduction of additional evidence and argument. The filing of such notice of appeal within such time limit shall stay the effective date of the decision of the board until such time as the appeal shall have been adjudicated or withdrawn. On appeal the superior court shall not take any evidence other than that contained in the record of the hearing before the board.

(6) The superior court may affirm the decision of the board or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if any substantial rights may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (a) In violation of constitutional provisions, or
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the board, or
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure, or
- (d) Affected by other error of law, or
- (e) Unsupported by material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted, or
- (f) Arbitrary or capricious.

An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases."

2SSB 3487 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Energy & Utilities: Requiring guidelines for state agencies to implement energy conservation procedures. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Capital investments in energy conservation in buildings can produce significant reductions in energy use, reducing the need to import or extract fossil fuels and lowering the cost of operating buildings.

(2) The state of Washington has an obligation to operate state buildings efficiently and to implement all cost-effective energy conservation measures so that citizens are assured that public funds are spent wisely and so that citizens have an example of the savings possible from energy conservation.

(3) The state has completed energy consumption and walk-through surveys of its buildings and other facilities and has established a schedule for technical assistance studies which is the basis for implementing energy conservation measure installations to meet the milestones in RCW 43.19.680. However, there is uncertainty that the milestones will be met.

(4) The potential savings from energy conservation can be more readily realized by explicitly considering conservation measures and procedures in the state's budgeting and long-range planning process.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 1, chapter 313, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.19.680 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon completion of each walk-through survey required by RCW 43.19.675, the director of general administration or the agency responsible for the facility if other than the department of general administration shall implement energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures that may be identified for any state-owned facility. These procedures shall be implemented as soon as possible but not later than twelve months after the walk-through survey.

(2) By December 31, 1981, for the capitol campus the director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the state energy office, shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature an implementation plan.

(3) By December 31, 1983, for all other state-owned facilities, the director of general administration in cooperation with the director of the state energy office shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature the results of the energy consumption and walk-through surveys and a schedule for the conduct of technical assistance studies. This submission shall contain the energy conservation measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium. Priority considerations for scheduling technical assistance studies shall include but not be limited to a facility's energy efficiency, responsible agency participation, comparative cost and type of fuels, possibility of outside funding, logistical considerations such as possible need to vacate the facility for installation of energy conservation measures, coordination with other planned facility modifications, and the total cost of a facility modification, including other work which would have to be done as a result of installing energy conservation measures. Energy conservation measure acquisitions and installations shall be scheduled to be twenty-five percent complete by June 30, 1985, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, fifty-five percent complete by June 30, 1989, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, eighty-five percent complete by June 30, 1993, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, and fully complete by June 30, 1995, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later. Each state agency shall implement energy conservation measures with a payback period of twenty-four months or less that have a positive cash flow in the same biennium.

For each biennium until all measures are installed, the director of general administration shall report to the governor and legislature installation progress, measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium, and changes, if any, to the technical assistance study schedule. This report shall be submitted by December 31, 1984, or at the end of the following year whichever immediately precedes the capital budget adoption, and every two years thereafter until all measures are installed. The office of financial management shall indicate which of the measures in the foregoing report are included in the biennial budget request and the total cost to accomplish those measures which are not included.

(4) The director of general administration shall adopt rules to facilitate private investment in energy conservation measures for state-owned buildings consistent with state law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The office of financial management shall develop policy guidelines for state agencies to use in budgeting for and implementing energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures and energy conservation measures, including those mandated under RCW 43.19.680:

(2) The guidelines shall require that agencies budget for the timely implementation of cost-effective measures and procedures or explain why any measures or procedures should not be funded;

(3) In developing the guidelines the office of financial management shall ensure that to the extent possible the budget process shall allow state agencies implementing energy conservation to retain the resulting cost savings for other purposes, including further energy conservation; and

(4) The office of financial management shall consult with the state energy office and the department of general administration, as necessary, to administer this section properly. The office of financial management shall establish the guidelines by December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The state energy office shall provide the office of financial management with energy consumption data necessary to implement section 3 of this act. Facilities or the agencies responsible for them shall report accurate monthly energy consumption and cost figures for all fuels to the state energy office quarterly, including any changes in total space served or facility operations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 43.41 RCW.*

ESSB 4465 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Judiciary: Modifying provisions relative to use of deadly force. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 9A.16.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required:

(1) 'Necessary' means that no reasonably effective alternative to the use of force appeared to exist and that the amount of force used was reasonable to effect the lawful purpose intended.

(2) 'Dangerous felony' means any felony or equivalent juvenile offense under the laws of this state or any other state or federal jurisdiction which involves:

(a) The use or attempted use of force causing death or serious physical injury to another;

or
(b) The use or attempted use of force creating a substantial risk of death or serious physical injury to another; or

(c) A threat, express or implied, including but not limited to the display of a deadly weapon, which places a person in reasonable fear of death or serious physical injury to himself or herself or another or in fear that he or she or another person will be kidnapped.

(3) 'Deadly force' means the intentional application of force through the use of firearms or any other means reasonably likely to cause death or serious physical injury.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.16.040, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Homicide or the use of deadly force is justifiable ~~((when committed by a public officer, or person acting under his command and in his aid;))~~ in the following cases:

~~((+))~~ (a) When a public officer is acting in obedience to the judgment of a competent court(-); or

~~((#))~~ (b) When ((necessary)) necessarily used by a peace officer to overcome actual resistance to the execution of the legal process, mandate, or order of a court or officer, or in the discharge of a legal duty.

((3) When necessary in retaking an escaped or rescued prisoner who has been committed, arrested for, or convicted of a felony; or in arresting a person who has committed a felony and is fleeing from justice; or in attempting, by lawful ways or means, to apprehend a person for a felony actually committed; or in lawfully suppressing a riot or preserving the peace.)) (c) When necessarily used by a peace officer or person acting under the officer's command and in the officer's aid:

(i) To arrest or apprehend a person who the officer reasonably believes has committed, has attempted to commit, is committing, or is attempting to commit a dangerous felony;

(ii) To prevent the escape of a person from a federal or state correctional facility or in retaking a person who escapes from such a facility; or

(iii) To prevent the escape of a person from a county or city jail or holding facility if the person has been arrested for, charged with, or convicted of a dangerous felony; or

(iv) To lawfully suppress a riot if the actor or another participant is armed with a deadly weapon.

(2) In considering whether to use deadly force under subsection (1)(c) of this section, to arrest or apprehend any person for the commission or attempted commission of a dangerous felony, the peace officer must have probable cause that the suspect, if not apprehended, poses a threat of serious physical harm to the officer or a threat of serious physical harm to others. Among the circumstances which may be considered by peace officers as a 'threat of serious physical harm' are the following:

(a) The suspect threatens a peace officer with a weapon or displays a weapon in a manner that could reasonably be construed as threatening; or

(b) There is probable cause to believe that the suspect has committed any crime involving the infliction or threatened infliction of serious physical harm.

Under these circumstances deadly force may also be used if necessary to prevent escape from the officer, where, if feasible, some warning is given.

(3) A public officer or peace officer shall not be held criminally liable for using deadly force without malice and with a good faith belief that such act is justifiable pursuant to this section.

(4) This section shall not be construed as:

(a) Affecting the permissible use of force by a person acting under the authority of RCW 9A.16.020 or 9A.16.050; or

(b) Preventing a law enforcement agency from adopting standards pertaining to its use of deadly force that are more restrictive than this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that RCW 9A.16.040 establishes a dual standard with respect to the use of deadly force by peace officers and private citizens, and further recognizes that private citizens' permissible use of deadly force under the authority of RCW 9.01.200, 9A.16.020, or 9A.16.050 is not restricted and remains broader than the limitations imposed on peace officers."

Sec. 3, Section 4, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.021 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person, firm, or association to act as a vehicle dealer ~~((vehicle salesman))~~ or vehicle manufacturer, to engage in business as such, ~~((act as such;))~~ serve in the capacity of such, advertise himself, ~~((itself))~~ herself, or themselves as such, solicit sales as such, or distribute or transfer vehicles for resale in this state, without first obtaining and holding a current license as provided in this chapter ~~((PROVIDED, That a vehicle dealer shall not be required to have a vehicle salesman's license. PROVIDED, FURTHER, That)),~~ unless the title of the vehicle is in the name of the seller. It is unlawful for any person other than a licensed vehicle dealer to display a vehicle for sale unless the registered owner or legal owner is the displayer or holds a notarized power of attorney. A person or firm engaged in buying and offering for sale, or buying and selling five or more vehicles in a twelve-month period, or in any other way engaged in dealer activity without holding a vehicle dealer license, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and upon conviction is subject to a fine of up to one thousand dollars for each violation and up to one year in jail. A second offense is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW. A violation of this section is also a per se violation of chapter 19.86 RCW and is considered a deceptive practice. The department of licensing, the Washington state patrol, the attorney general's office, and the department of revenue shall cooperate in the enforcement of this section. A distributor, factory branch, or factory representative shall not be required to have a vehicle manufacturer license so long as the vehicle manufacturer so represented is properly licensed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An 'established place of business' requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an 'established place of business' unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency: PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer is accountable for the dealer's employees, sales personnel, and managerial personnel while in the performance of their official duties. Any violations of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW committed by any of these employees subjects the dealer to license penalties prescribed under RCW 46.70.101. A retail purchaser who has suffered a loss or damage by reason of a breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer, salesperson, managerial person, or other employee of a dealership, that constitutes a violation of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety bond as set forth in RCW 46.70.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Listing dealers shall transact dealer business by obtaining a consignment for sale, and the buyer's purchase of the mobile home shall be handled as dealer inventory. All funds from the purchaser shall be placed in a trust account until the sale is completed, except that the dealer shall pay any outstanding liens against the mobile home from these funds. A complete account of all funds received and disbursed shall be given to the seller or consignor after the sale is completed.

It (~~(shall be)~~) is a misdemeanor for any person to violate any of the provisions of this chapter, except where expressly provided otherwise, and the rules (~~(and regulations promulgated)~~) adopted as provided under this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 16, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 472, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of the following acts or practices is (~~(hereby declared)~~) unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a vehicle may be purchased for a smaller down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of 'bushing' which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer, or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, for any reason except substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used vehicle offered for sale.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle.

(9) For a dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash 'on deposit' from a purchaser prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle said 'on deposit' funds with assets of the dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding said 'on deposit' funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse 'on deposit' instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside 'on deposit' cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales agreement signed by the seller and buyer.

(11) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer's order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW ~~((46.70.180(7)(b)))~~ 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW ~~((46.70.180(7)(b)))~~ 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 17, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a canceled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 is pending and was filed within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of ~~((said))~~ the complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said sixty days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue ~~((said motor))~~ the vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 18, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 by a complaining ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any canceled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to RCW 46.70.200, has ordered the director to issue a ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee.

If a new franchise is given by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the sale of the same make of ~~((motor))~~ vehicle in the same area of responsibility in that covered in ~~((said))~~ the canceled or terminated franchise, ~~((such act shall be))~~ that act is prima facie evidence that the new franchise replaced the canceled or terminated franchise.

Sec. 22. Section 24, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between ~~((motor))~~ vehicle dealers and manufacturers or factory branches and to all future franchises and contracts.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Special districts shall have authority to enter into contracts for the construction of any improvement authorized by law, or for labor, materials, or equipment entering therein, without public bidding, with the written approval and consent of the governing body in instances of genuine emergency to be declared by the governing body or in any instance where the contract price does not exceed ten thousand dollars.

"Sec. 1. Section .18.29, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 17, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.290 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cancellation by the insurer of any policy which by its terms is cancellable at the option of the insurer, or of any binder based on such policy, may be effected as to any interest only upon compliance with either or both of the following:

(a) Written notice of such cancellation, accompanied by the actual reason therefor, must be actually delivered or mailed to the insured ~~((or))~~ and to his or her representative in charge of the subject of the insurance not less than forty-five days prior to the effective date of the cancellation except for cancellation of insurance policies for nonpayment of premiums, which notice shall be not less than ten days prior to such date and except for cancellation of fire insurance policies under chapter 48.53 RCW, which notice shall not be less than five days prior to such date; PROVIDED, That ten days' notice of cancellation is sufficient if cancellation occurs within thirty days after the effective date of a binder for new insurance. No additional notice of cancellation or nonrenewal is required if the coverage is evidenced by a written binder delivered to the insured containing a clearly stated expiration date: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in all cases a loss payee shall receive no less than forty-five days' notice of cancellation;

(b) Like notice of not less than forty-five days must also be so delivered or mailed to each mortgagee, pledgee, or other person shown by the policy to have an interest in any loss which may occur thereunder.

(2) The mailing of any such notice shall be effected by depositing it in a sealed envelope, directed to the addressee at his or her last address as known to the insurer or as shown by the insurer's records, with proper prepaid postage affixed, in a letter depository of the United States post office. The insurer shall retain in its records any such item so mailed, together with its envelope, which was returned by the post office upon failure to find, or deliver the mailing to, the addressee.

(3) The affidavit of the individual making or supervising such a mailing, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such facts of the mailing as are therein affirmed.

(4) The portion of any premium paid to the insurer on account of the policy, unearned because of the cancellation and in amount as computed on the pro rata basis, must be actually paid to the insured or other person entitled thereto as shown by the policy or by any endorsement thereon, or be mailed to the insured or such person as soon as possible, and no later than forty-five days after the date of notice of cancellation to the insured for homeowners', dwelling fire, and private passenger auto. Any such payment may be made by cash, or by check, bank draft, or money order.

(5) This section shall not apply to contracts of life or disability insurance without provision for cancellation prior to the date to which premiums have been paid, to surety bonds required by statute, or to contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 20, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.2901 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each insurer shall be required to renew any contract of insurance subject to RCW 48.18.290 unless one of the following situations exists:

(a) The insurer gives the named insured at least forty-five days' notice in writing as provided for in RCW 48.18.290, that it proposes to refuse to renew the insurance contract upon its expiration date; and sets forth therein the actual reason for refusing to renew; or

(b) At least twenty days prior to its expiration date, the insurer has communicated its willingness to renew in writing to the named insured, or to his or her representative, and has included therein a statement of the amount of the premium or portion thereof required to be paid by the insured to renew the policy, ~~((including the amount by which the premium or deductibles have changed from the previous policy period; and the date by which such payment must be made;))~~ and the insured fails to discharge when due his obligation in connection with the payment of such premium or portion thereof; or

(c) The insured's agent or broker has procured other coverage acceptable to the insured prior to the expiration of the policy period.

(2) Any insurer failing to provide the notice required by RCW 48.18.2901(1)(b) shall renew a policy subject to that subsection according to the rates and contract provisions applicable to the expiring policy; PROVIDED, That an insurer may change rates and contract provisions applicable to any such policy after the renewal date if the insurer provides at least twenty days' advance notice of the changes to the named insured or to his or her representative.

(3) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal, or with respect to cancellation of fire policies under chapter 48.53 RCW.

~~((3))~~ (4) 'Renewal' or 'to renew' means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a contract of insurance replacing at the end of the contract period a contract of insurance previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a contract beyond its policy period or term: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any contract of insurance with a policy period or term of six months or less whether or not made continuous for successive terms upon the payment of additional premiums shall for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295 be considered as if written for a policy period or term of six months: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any policy written for a term longer than one year or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall, for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.

Sec. 3. Section 23, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 22, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.296 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 48.18.291 through 48.18.297 shall not apply to:

(1) Contracts of insurance issued under the assigned risk plan: ~~((and))~~

(2) Any policy covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards; and

(3) Contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) 'Disabled employee' means an individual receiving a disability retirement allowance from the public employees' retirement system.

(b) 'Health plan' means any contract, policy, fund, trust, or other program established by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state that provides for all or a part of hospitalization or medical aid for its employees and their eligible dependents pursuant to RCW 41.04.180.

(c) 'Retired employee' means an individual who is a public employee covered under the public employees' retirement system with not less than five years of service at the date of retirement.

(d) 'Supplemental plan' means an individual or group health plan designed primarily as a supplement to reimbursements under federal medicare for the hospital, medical, or surgical expenses of persons eligible for medicare by reason of age.

(e) 'Person' means a retired or disabled employee.

(2) Any county, municipality, or other political subdivision that provides a health plan for its employees shall permit retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents to continue participation in such plan subject to the exceptions, limitations, and conditions set forth in this section. However, this section does not apply to:

(a) A county, municipality, or other political subdivision participating in an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW if retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents of such participating county, municipality, or other political subdivision are covered under an insurance program administered under chapter 41.05 RCW;

(b) Members of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system under chapter 41.26 RCW; or

(c) Members of the first class cities' retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW.

(3) A person who requests continued participation in their employer's health plan may be required to pay for such participation. However, such payment shall not exceed the rate, cost, or premium that is calculated for an active employee under the same plan. If the utilization of health plan benefits by those continuing participation in the health plan causes a greater than ten percent increase in the active employee rate or cost for the plan, then the rate or cost for those continuing participation in the health plan shall be adjusted to cover the costs in excess of the ten percent increase. However, no provision of this subsection shall be deemed to require any employer who is currently paying for all or part of a health plan for their retired and disabled employees and their eligible dependents from discontinuing those payments.

(4) When a person or his or her spouse continuing participation under a health plan becomes eligible for federal medicare, then health plan participation shall be terminated and the person or his or her spouse shall have the option of participating in a supplemental plan provided by the employer. Any payment required of the person or his or her spouse shall be modified to reflect cost differences between the health plan and the supplemental plan.

(5) Payments for continued participation in a former employer's health plan may be assigned to the underwriter of the health plan from public pension benefits or may be paid to the former employer, as determined by the former employer, so that an underwriter of the health plan that is an insurance company, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization shall not be required to accept individual payments from persons continuing participation in the employer's health plan.

(6) There shall be a one time initial open enrollment period from May 1, 1986, to June 30, 1986. An employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the health plan if the person is responsible for a lapse in coverage under the plan. In addition, an employer shall not be required to permit a person to participate in the employer's health plan if the employer offered continued participation in a health plan with substantially similar benefits and at substantially the same price as that plan provided for active employees and the person failed to enroll in that plan at the time the person was retired or disabled.

(7) If a person continuing participation in the former employer's health plan has other medical coverage as a result of that person's employment or that person's spouse's employment, the other medical coverage shall be the primary coverage for purposes of coordination of benefits as provided for in the former employer's health plan.

(8) If an eligible dependent's continued participation in a health plan was permitted because of the person's relationship to a retired or disabled employee of the employer providing the health plan and the retired or disabled employee dies, then that eligible dependent shall be permitted to continue participation in the health plan for a period of not less than six months after the death of the retired or disabled employee.

(9) An employer may offer one or more health plans different from that provided for active employees and designed to meet the needs of persons requesting continued participation in the employer's health plan. These health plans for continued participation shall be provided at a rate, cost, or premium which does not exceed that provided for active employee health plans. An employer, in designing or offering continued participation in a health plan, may utilize terms or conditions necessary to administer such plans to the extent such terms and conditions do not conflict with this section.

(10) If an employer changes the underwriter of a health plan, the replaced underwriter has no further responsibility or obligation to persons who continued participation in a health plan of the replaced underwriter. However, the employer shall permit such persons to participate in any new health plan.

(11) The benefits granted pursuant to this section shall not be considered a matter of contractual right. Should the legislature revoke or change or a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state change any benefits granted under this section, an affected person shall not be entitled thereafter to receive the benefits as a matter of contractual right.

(12) Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contained in a collective bargaining agreement in existence as of the effective date of this act. However, any plan contained in future collective bargaining agreements shall conform to the provisions of this section. In addition, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to affect any health plan contract or policy in existence as of the effective date of this act, except any renewal of the contract or policy shall conform to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Participation in the health plans provided under section 4 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1987, for all self-insured plans and for all plans renewed on or after September 1, 1986. Participation in health plans provided under section 4 of this act which are renewed after the effective date of this act but prior to September 1, 1986, shall take effect on the date the plan is next renewed, but in no case later than January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 4 and 5 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

(1) Uniform Building Code and Uniform Building Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(2) Uniform Mechanical Code, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ including Chapter 22, Fuel Gas Piping, Appendix B, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(3) The Uniform Fire Code and Uniform Fire Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association: PROVIDED, That, notwithstanding any wording in this code, participants in religious ceremonies shall not be precluded from carrying hand-held candles;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code and Uniform Plumbing Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: PROVIDED, That chapters 11 and 12 of such code ~~((are))~~ shall not be adopted; and

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following.

The council may issue opinions relating to the codes at the request of a local building official.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing bodies of counties and cities may amend the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 if they apply within their respective jurisdictions, but the amendments shall not result in a code that is less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code. No amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 that affects single family or multifamily residential buildings shall be effective unless the amendment is approved by the building code council under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b). Any county or city amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 which is approved under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) shall continue to be effective after any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) without necessity of reapproval under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) unless the amendment is declared null and void by the council at the time any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) because such action in any way altered the impact of the amendment.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any governmental subdivision or unit of local government.

(3) The governing body of each county or city may limit the application of any portion of the state building code to exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures according to use other than single family or multifamily residential buildings: PROVIDED, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with a B occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, ~~((1982 edition))~~ as specified in RCW 19.27.031(1), and with a city fire insurance rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization.

(5) No provision of the uniform fire code concerning roadways shall be part of the state building code: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not limit the authority of a county or city to adopt street, road, or access standards.

(6) The provisions of the state building code are preempted by any physical standards adopted by the state jail commission under RCW 70.48.050 when the code provisions relating to the installation or use of sprinklers in the cells conflict with the standards and the secure and humane operation of jails.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.070 are each amended to read as follows:

((~~in case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following;~~))

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The University of Washington college of architecture and department of mechanical engineering shall conduct in situ testing of the annual thermal transmittance of individual construction components and conservation measures proposed for new residential construction by the northwest power planning council.

(2) There shall be a committee to oversee the study. The committee shall include the director of the state energy office as chair; two members recommended by the home building industry chosen by the governor; and two members nationally renowned as experts in building energy performance chosen by the governor.

(3) The study shall include an analysis of the economic feasibility of adopting thermal performance standards for new residential construction as proposed by the northwest power planning council. The study of economic feasibility shall include but not necessarily be limited to factors which shall not require an amortization of the individual components exceeding a life cycle of seven years and a discount rate (interest) computed at the current conventional market rate of home mortgages at par.

(4) The director of the state energy office shall make recommendations, based on the results of the study and the residential standards demonstration program, to the legislature and the state building code ((~~advisory~~)) council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to RCW ((~~19-27-075~~)) 19.27A.020 no later than January 15, 1988.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 76, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state building code ((~~advisory~~)) council shall promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, for the purpose of adopting a revised state code. The revised code shall be designed to achieve reductions in energy consumption relative to buildings constructed to comply with the state energy code, June 30, 1980 edition, as amended. The council shall follow the legislature's guidelines set forth in this section to design a revised code which requires new buildings to meet a certain level of energy efficiency, but allows flexibility in building design and construction within that framework. The revised code shall take into account regional climatic conditions and shall be designed according to the following guidelines:

(a) For new electric resistance heated residential buildings, the code shall be designed to achieve energy savings equivalent to savings achieved in typical buildings constructed with:

(i) Ceilings insulated to a level of R-38, except single rafter or joist vaulted ceilings may be insulated to a level of R-30 (R value includes insulation only);

(ii) Walls insulated to a level of R-19 (total assembly);

(iii) Floors over unheated spaces insulated to a level of R-19 for areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days and to a level of R-25 for areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days (R value includes insulation only);

(iv) Double glazed windows with tested R values not less than 1.79 when tested according to the procedures of the American architectural manufacturers association; and

(v) In areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days a maximum of seventeen percent of the floor area in glazing; in areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days a maximum of twenty-one percent of the floor area in glazing. Throughout the state for the purposes of determining equivalent thermal performance, the maximum glazing area shall be fifteen percent.

(b) For new residential buildings which are space-heated with other fuels, the code shall be designed to achieve energy savings equivalent to savings achieved in typical buildings constructed with:

(i) Ceilings insulated to a level of R-30 (R value includes insulation only);

(ii) Walls insulated to a level of R-19 (total assembly);

(iii) Floors over unheated spaces insulated to a level of R-19 (R value includes insulation only);

(iv) Double glazed windows with tested R values not less than 1.40 when tested according to the procedures of the American architectural manufacturers association; and

(v) In areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days a maximum of seven percent of the floor area in glazing; in areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days a maximum of twenty-one percent of the floor area in glazing. Throughout the state for the purposes of determining equivalent thermal performance, the maximum glazing area shall be fifteen percent.

(c) For new nonresidential buildings, the code shall be designed to achieve a ten percent reduction in energy consumption relative to buildings constructed to comply with the state energy code, June 30, 1980 edition, as amended.

(2) In developing the revised code, the council shall consider possible health and respiratory problems caused by insulating buildings so tightly that the rate of air exchange is significantly retarded, thereby concentrating toxic pollutants at unhealthy high levels.

(3) The council shall publish the revision as proposed rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW and provide for the rules to become effective January 1, 1986. All cities, towns, and counties shall enforce the revised state energy code not later than April 1, 1986.

Sec. 8, Section 5, chapter 144, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, references to the state building code (~~(advisory)~~) council shall be construed to include any successor agency.

ESB 4564 Prime Sponsor, Senator Vognild: Authorizing municipal corporations and political subdivisions to establish accident and tort liability funds. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. In addition to, in combination with, or in lieu of liability insurance, every municipality may create a tort liability fund upon which the treasurer shall draw warrants for the full amount of any settled claim or judgment, including interest and costs, against the municipality or its officers and employees on account of personal injuries, property damage, or death suffered by any person as a result of any tortious acts of the municipality. If such a fund is created, the fund, applicable insurance coverage, and reserves set aside to cover insurance deductibles, shall be the exclusive sources for the payment of settled claims or judgments resulting from tortious acts of said municipality, its officers and employees, or both, when acting within the scope of their authority.

For purposes of this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act, 'municipality' includes every county, city, town, school district, special purpose district, municipal corporation, and quasi-municipal corporation in the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A tort liability fund may be created as, or converted to, a cumulative reserve fund subject to the restrictions of a cumulative reserve fund created by a city or town under RCW 35.21.070.

A municipality that creates a tort liability fund under sections 1 through 3 of this act shall maintain an amount of money in the fund which, in combination with supplemental security for its tort liability, shall be equal to at least one million dollars. This supplemental security includes: (1) Letters of credit; (2) a pledge to issue councilmanic general obligation bonds, if the municipality possesses the authority to issue general obligation bonds, which pledge shall have the same effect on its indebtedness limitation as if the bonds were actually issued; (3) the amount of liability insurance coverage for the first million dollars of potential liability; (4) the amount of liability coverage under a self-insurance pool adopted pursuant to chapter 48.62 RCW for the first million dollars of potential liability; and (5) money placed into another fund to be used exclusively as coverage for deductibles on liability insurance coverage or self-insurance pool coverage.

However, the municipality may gradually accumulate this one million dollar amount in the fund or as supplemental security as follows: The initial amount when the fund is created shall be at least two hundred thousand dollars; at the beginning of the second year at least four hundred thousand dollars shall be accumulated; at the beginning of the third year at least six hundred thousand dollars shall be accumulated, at the beginning of the fourth year at least eight hundred thousand dollars shall be accumulated; and at the beginning of the fifth year at least one million dollars shall be accumulated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In the event a final judgment or settlement is presented for payment that exceeds applicable insurance coverage, reserves set aside to cover insurance deductibles, and money available in the tort liability fund, the municipality shall file with the superior court a financial report of tort liability fund as a part of the action in which the judgment has been rendered or settlement reached. The financial report shall recite all warrants issued or anticipated to be issued from the fund in the current fiscal year and the next succeeding fiscal year, including interest on the subject judgment or settlement. The filing of the financial report shall stay all further execution, collection, mandamus, or other proceedings on the judgment or settlement against the municipality or its officers' and employees' personal or community assets. Within thirty days from the filing of the treasurer's report, the governing body of the municipality shall prepare a payment plan to satisfy the judgment or settlement, including interest thereon. The plan shall be filed with the superior court on or before the thirty-first day after the financial report is filed. The plan shall include:

- (1) Financial background, such as:
 - (a) Tort liability funding for the current fiscal year and the next fiscal year including the judgment or settlement, and interest thereon;
 - (b) Budget appropriations and revenue levels for the current year and any anticipated changes in the next succeeding year;
 - (c) Any general fund reserves;
 - (d) Any general fund real and personal property that may be surplus to current needs;
 - (e) Any unlevied revenue sources, such as utility taxes, business and occupation taxes, sales taxes, and real property taxes;
 - (f) General obligation indebtedness;
 - (g) Other bonded indebtedness; and
 - (h) Other information related to the financial condition of the municipality; and
- (2) A payment schedule for the judgment or settlement, and interest thereon, which may include periodic payments over a period not exceeding twenty years; and
- (3) Such other information as will assist the court in issuing an order approving a payment plan as provided in this section.

Following filing of the payment plan, any party may move that the superior court enter an order approving the payment plan, or modifying and approving the payment plan, which order shall require that the municipality include the payment schedule approved in the plan in future appropriations to the liability fund. The order shall be entered upon a finding that the plan provides adequate compensation for the needs of the party in whose favor the judgment has been entered, taking into consideration other available resources to the party, while providing for the current and future financial integrity of the municipality and its ability to maintain public service levels during the payment period. Entry of the order shall bar further proceedings for collection on the judgment or settlement against either the municipality or its officers' and employees' personal or community assets; provided that either party may move to modify said order upon a showing of change of conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are each added to chapter 4.96 RCW.

(6) 'Secretary' means the secretary of the agency, as defined in subsection (1) of this section.

(7) 'Transportation' means the transport within the borders of the state of radioactive material destined for or derived from any location, and any loading, unloading, or storage incident to such transport, but does not include permanent storage or disposal of the material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No person may transport within the state of Washington any radioactive material designated by rule by the secretary, except radioactive material transported to or from hospitals or other medical facilities and materials not hazardous to health, without first obtaining a permit from the agency. The secretary shall consider the impact on human health from the transportation of radioactive materials and the type of packaging within which those materials are contained prior to designation by rule. The permit shall be available for examination and shall be displayed in accordance with rules adopted by the agency.

(2) Applications for a permit under this section shall be made in a form and manner prescribed by rule by the secretary. The application shall include:

(f) Any other information required by the secretary to evaluate the application.

(3) The secretary shall collect a fee on a quarterly or semiannual basis from all applicants for permits under this section in an amount determined by rule by the secretary. The fee set shall be in an amount sufficient to fund the activities specified in this subsection but in no event shall the amounts collected exceed what is necessary to fund those activities. Moneys collected from this fee may be used for the following:

(a) The costs of performing the duties of the agency under this chapter;

(b) The additional cost of state patrol enforcement of compliance for all carriers of radioactive materials designated by the secretary under this chapter and chapter 46.48 RCW and rules adopted pursuant thereto after the expenditure of funds distributed pursuant to RCW 70.98.085;

(c) The cost of the utilities and transportation commission enforcement for terminal inspections of carriers of radioactive materials designated by the secretary under this chapter and chapter 81.80 RCW and rules adopted pursuant thereto;

(d) Expenses incurred by the state and local governmental units in responding to any radioactive material transportation accidents; and

(e) Costs for the training of state and local officials, including fire fighters, police officers, and other emergency response personnel, to respond to radioactive materials transportation accidents. This training shall be provided to the extent possible at existing training centers in this state including the fire fighters training center in North Bend.

(4) The secretary shall issue a permit only if the application demonstrates that the proposed transportation complies with this chapter and all other applicable state and federal statutes and rules. The permit may be issued on a quarterly or semiannual basis.

Permits issued under this section may be subject to any reasonable conditions imposed by the secretary and shall be effective for such period as determined by the secretary.

(5) The secretary is authorized to suspend or revoke any permit if it is determined that any provision of the permit requirements have been violated or if the driver, owner, lessee, or custodian of a permitted vehicle has been convicted of two or more violations under section 13 of this act within a calendar year. If the secretary has reasonable cause to believe that there exists any immediate danger to the public health, safety, welfare, or environment, the secretary may issue an emergency order suspending any permit granted under this chapter for a reasonable period not to exceed fourteen days.

(6) All money collected under this section shall be deposited in the radioactive materials enforcement and emergency response fund in the state treasury. Moneys in the fund shall be spent pursuant to appropriation and only for the purposes enumerated in subsection (3) of this section.

(7) No moneys may be spent under this chapter for equipment purchases for local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Interested state agencies and local government agencies in whose jurisdiction the route or routes of proposed shipments may be located may request from the secretary information contained in the permits about proposed shipments.

(2) The secretary may place reasonable conditions on the permit based on comments received from the agencies notified under subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The agency shall be the agency in the state primarily responsible for responding to all accidents and incidents involving radioactive materials. All actions taken by the agency shall be consistent with the comprehensive emergency management plan adopted by the department of emergency management.

(2) This section shall not be construed to amend or alter the responsibility of the Washington state patrol or other designated incident command agency to provide immediate response to accidents or incidents involving the transportation of radioactive materials pursuant to chapter 70.136 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A person obtaining a permit under section 2 of this act shall establish and maintain records, make any reports, and provide any information as the secretary may by rule require to assure compliance with the conditions of the permit or other state or federal statutes or rules affecting the transportation of radioactive materials designated by rule by the secretary and submit the reports and make the records and information available at the request of the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(2) The secretary may authorize any employee or agent of the secretary to enter upon, inspect, and examine, at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner for the purpose of administration or enforcement of this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder, the records and property of persons within this state who have applied for permits under section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All motor carriers of radioactive waste entering the state are required to enter the state through one of only two allowable ports of entry. These ports of entry are located on Interstate 90 approximately one-half mile west of the Idaho state line, in Spokane county, and on Washington state route number 14 approximately one mile north of the Oregon state line, in Benton county. The state patrol may, on application, authorize the use of other ports of entry under such circumstances as it deems fit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Within the state of Washington, all motor carriers of radioactive materials designated by the secretary shall submit to a comprehensive safety and permit inspection. The inspection shall insure compliance with this chapter and all applicable state and federal statutes and regulations. The inspection shall occur no earlier than twenty-four hours before transport for radioactive materials originating within the state or at the ports of entry designated under section 6 of this act for radioactive materials originating from outside the state. No interstate or intrastate motor carrier of radioactive waste may enter the commercial low-level Hanford radioactive waste disposal site without displaying a certification of inspection. The chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and furnish such certificate of inspection forms and any other forms deemed necessary to assure compliance. The comprehensive safety and permit inspection shall be conducted by members of the Washington state patrol for highway inspections or the Washington utilities and transportation commission for terminal inspections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Officers of the Washington state patrol have the authority to immobilize, impound, or otherwise direct the disposition of motor vehicles transporting radioactive materials if the officer determines that the motor vehicle or the operation thereof is unsafe and if the immobilization, impoundment, or disposition is otherwise appropriate under rules adopted by the state patrol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state patrol shall adopt rules to establish reasonable standards for the designation, operation, and use of areas for the parking of motor vehicles transporting radioactive materials. This requirement shall not prevent the state patrol from designating a 'safe haven' area due to exigent circumstances. The designation of these areas shall be made with the concurrence of the local fire department or the fire protection district in which the proposed safe haven is located. If there is no local fire department or fire protection district, the designation shall be made with the concurrence of the county sheriff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The secretary, the attorney general, or any appropriate prosecuting attorney may commence and prosecute in superior court a civil enforcement action against a person who is alleged to have violated this chapter or any permit, standard, regulation, condition, or requirement which has become effective pursuant to this chapter. Such actions may be for appropriate relief or remedies specified in this chapter or any other applicable law. The secretary is not required to initiate or prosecute an administrative action before commencing and prosecuting a civil action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The secretary, the attorney general, or any appropriate prosecuting attorney, for the purposes contemplated by this chapter, upon probable cause to believe that a violation of this chapter has occurred, may apply to the superior court for the county in which the violation is believed to have occurred for a subpoena to compel the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of pertinent books, payrolls, accounts, papers, records, documents, and testimony. The court shall issue a subpoena upon a finding of probable cause and shall enforce refusals to testify or to produce subpoenaed items with contempt sanctions. Subpoenas shall be served and witness fees and mileage paid as allowed in civil cases in the superior courts of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The remedies specified in this section are cumulative and nonexclusive.

(1)(a) A person who makes a false statement or representation in any application, label, manifest, record, report, permit, or other document filed, maintained, or used for the purpose of complying with this chapter is liable for a civil penalty not less than three hundred dollars, not to exceed ten thousand dollars, for each separate violation.

(b) A person who violates this chapter or any permit, standard, rule, condition, or requirement issued or promulgated pursuant to this chapter is liable for a civil penalty not less than three hundred dollars, not to exceed ten thousand dollars, for each separate violation.

(2) A person who violates this chapter or any permit, standard, rule, condition, or requirement issued or promulgated pursuant to this chapter may be assessed for:

(a) The state's costs for any nonroutine investigations, inspections, monitoring, or surveys that lead to evidence of the violation;

(b) The state's costs, including the reasonable value of attorneys' services, for preparing and litigating the case; and

(c) The state's cost for impounding, storing, and disposing of contaminated property.

(3) Moneys recovered under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid into the radioactive materials enforcement and emergency response fund created under section 2 of this act.

(4) A person who violates this chapter or any permit, standard, rule, or requirement issued or promulgated pursuant to this chapter is subject to injunctive or other relief deemed appropriate. Upon a showing to the court that a violation is causing an imminent hazard to the public health, the public safety, or the environment, the agency need not allege or prove at any stage of the proceeding that long-term irreparable damage will occur if the injunction or order is not issued or that the remedy at law is inadequate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) A person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation in a permit application under section 2 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both, for each violation.

(2) A person who knowingly violates any permit issued under section 2 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both, for each violation.

(3) A person who knowingly fails to obtain a permit required under section 2 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both, for each violation.

(4) A person convicted of a second offense under this chapter within a period of five years is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(5) A criminal action under this section may be commenced and prosecuted by the attorney general or any appropriate prosecuting attorney. The secretary is not required to initiate or prosecute an administrative or civil action before the attorney general may commence and prosecute a criminal action under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a person who has suffered actual damages from an alleged violation of a permit, standard, rule, condition, requirement, or order that has become effective pursuant to this chapter, may commence a civil action on that person's own behalf against the person alleged to have committed the violation.

(2) No action may be commenced under subsection (1) of this section if the secretary, the attorney general, or a prosecuting attorney has commenced and is diligently prosecuting an administrative, civil, or criminal action to require compliance with the law. Further, no action may be commenced under subsection (1) of this section unless the plaintiff has given the agency sixty days' notice and substantial evidence of the violation on which the citizen's action is based. However, if the secretary, the attorney general, or a prosecuting attorney commences an action in a court of the state, an interested person may intervene as provided in the superior court civil rules of procedure.

(3) In an action under this section, the secretary, the attorney general, or a prosecuting attorney may intervene as a matter of right.

(4) When issuing any final order in an action brought under this section, the court may award costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney and expert witness fees, to a prevailing party if the court determines such an award is appropriate, except that the state shall not be required to pay such costs in a citizen suit in which the state has become a party.

(5) This section does not restrict any right which a person or class of persons may have under any other statute or the common law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The secretary shall prepare and submit to the energy and utilities committees of the legislature and the governor on January 1 of each year a comprehensive report on the transportation of radioactive materials in this state and provide an evaluation of the adequacy of the agency's and local government's emergency response capability to any accidents involving radioactive materials. The report shall include but need not be limited to:

(1) A brief description and compilation of any accidents and casualties or incidents in the state involving the transportation of radioactive waste or other radioactive materials as designated by the secretary;

(2) Other statistical data regarding the shipment of radioactive materials, including a summary of the permit system instituted by the secretary and the use of moneys collected from the permit;

(3) A description of costs of the personnel required to administer the provisions of this chapter and the relationship of the fees generated by application of the provisions of this chapter to these costs;

(4) A personnel plan for reducing the costs of the personnel required to administer the provisions of this chapter if there is a reduction in the fees generated;

(5) A summary of outstanding problems confronting the agency in the administration of this chapter; and

(6) Such recommendations for additional legislation as the secretary considers necessary or appropriate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The secretary may establish a committee of state and local officials and interested citizens to advise the secretary on issues relating to the transportation of radioactive materials.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. All requirements imposed by this chapter must be consistent with all applicable federal statutes, the rules of the federal department of transportation and the nuclear regulatory commission, and any other applicable rules promulgated by a federal agency or department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to amend or alter the liability of transporters of radioactive materials for operational expenses and emergency purchases incurred by state or local governments in responding to nuclear incidents as provided in state law, including the provisions of RCW 4.24.460.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter is not intended to affect any state law in effect on the effective date of this act or intrude upon the duties and responsibilities of any state officer with respect to matters related to this chapter, but in the case of any conflict relating to the transportation of radioactive materials, this chapter shall control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The secretary shall seek federal financial assistance for activities undertaken pursuant to this chapter as may be available under federal law, including the hazardous materials transportation act of 1974 (P.L. 93-633) and the nuclear waste policy act of 1982 (P.L. 97-425).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 1 through 21 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW."

Sec. 205. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 5, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing or maintaining equipment to be operated by electric current as it pertains to the electrical industry, without having an unrevoked, unsuspended, and unexpired electrical contractor license, issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. All electrical contractor licenses expire on the thirty-first day of December following the day of their issue. Application for an electrical contractor license shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant; in case of firms or partnerships, the names of the individuals composing the firm or partnership; in case of corporations, the names of the managing officials thereof; the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is conducted; and whether a general or specialty electrical contractor license is sought and, if the latter, the type of specialty. Electrical contractor specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and non-residential maintenance. A general electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder the right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electric current, and installing or maintaining equipment, or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current, in the state of Washington. A specialty electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder a limited right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electrical current, and installing or maintaining equipment; or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current in the state of Washington as expressly allowed by the license.

(2) The application for a contractor license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars with the state of Washington named as obligee in the bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the department. The bond shall at all times be kept in full force and effect, and any cancellation or revocation thereof, or withdrawal of the surety therefrom, suspends the license issued to the principal until a new bond has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Upon approval of a bond, the department shall on the next business day deposit the fee accompanying the application in the electrical license fund and shall file the bond in the office. The department shall upon request furnish to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity a certified copy of the bond upon the payment of a fee that the department shall set by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of furnishing the certified copy. The bond shall be conditioned that in any installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to convey electrical current, and equipment to be operated by electrical current, the principal will comply with the provisions of this chapter and with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2) that is in effect at the time of entering into a contract. The bond shall be conditioned further that the principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work, taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the department shall deposit the funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from the account.

(3) The department shall issue general or specialty electrical contractor licenses to applicants meeting all of the requirements of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, are exclusive, and no political subdivision of the state of Washington may require or issue any licenses or bonds or charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity holding more than one specialty contractor license under this chapter may be required to pay an annual fee for more than one such license or to post more than one three thousand dollar bond, equivalent cash deposit, or other negotiable security.

(4) To obtain a general or specialty electrical contractor license the applicant must designate an individual who currently possesses an administrator's certificate as a general electrical contractor administrator or as a specialty electrical contractor administrator in the specialty for which application has been made. Administrator certificate specialties include but are not limited to: Residential, domestic, appliance, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance. To obtain an administrator's certificate an individual must pass an examination as set forth in RCW 19.28.123 unless the applicant was a licensed electrical contractor at any time during 1974. Applicants who were electrical contractors licensed by the state of Washington at any time during 1974 are entitled to receive a general electrical contractor administrator's certificate without examination if the applicants apply prior to January 1, 1984. The board (~~of electrical examiners~~) shall certify to the department the names of all persons who are entitled to either a general or specialty electrical contractor administrator's certificate.

Sec. 206. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 57, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.28.123 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor.))~~ It shall be the purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. It shall be the further purpose and function of ~~((this))~~ the board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis. ~~((Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries.))~~

Sec. 207. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant for an electrical contractor's license, other than an individual, shall designate a supervisory employee or member of the firm to take the required administrator's examination. This person shall be designated as administrator under the license. No person may qualify as administrator for more than one contractor. If the relationship of the administrator with the electrical contractor is terminated, the contractor's license is void within ninety days unless another administrator is qualified by the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~. However, if the administrator dies, the contractor's license is void within one hundred eighty days unless another administrator is qualified by the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~. A certificate issued under this section is valid for the calendar year of issuance, unless revoked or suspended, and further is nontransferable. The certificate may be renewed without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. An individual holding more than one administrator's certificate under this chapter shall not be required to pay annual fees for more than one certificate. A person may take the administrator's test as many times as necessary without limit.

(2) The administrator shall:

(a) Be available during working hours to carry out the duties of an administrator under this section;

(b) Ensure that all electrical work complies with the electrical installation laws and rules of the state;

(c) Ensure that the proper electrical safety procedures are used;

(d) Ensure that all electrical labels, permits, and licenses required to perform electrical work are used;

(e) See that corrective notices issued by an inspecting authority are complied with; and

(f) Notify the department in writing within ten days if the administrator terminates the relationship with the electrical contractor.

(3) The department shall not by rule change the administrator's duties under subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 208. Section 8, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 7, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall cause an inspector to inspect all wiring, appliances, devices, and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter except those pertaining to cities and towns pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect electrical power to the installation if the necessary electrical work permit is displayed. Whenever the installation of any wiring, device, appliance, or equipment is not in accordance with this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity owning, using, or operating it shall be notified by the department and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger to life or property and to make it conform to this chapter. The director, through the inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to conductors or equipment that are found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with this chapter. Upon making a disconnection the inspector shall attach a notice stating that the conductors have been found dangerous to life or property and are not in accordance with this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or equipment without the approval of the department, and until the conductors and equipment have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in a condition that complies with this chapter. The director, through the electrical inspector, has the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his or her official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment, or material contained in or on the buildings or premises. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to this chapter may be concealed until it has been approved by the inspector making the inspection. Persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities making electrical installations shall obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the department as required by this chapter before requesting the electric utility to connect to the installations. Electric utilities may connect to the installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the electrical work permit required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately at the discretion of the utility before approval if an electrical work permit is displayed. The permits shall be furnished upon payment of the fee to the department. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the ((advisory)) board, shall set by rule a schedule of license and electrical work permit fees that will cover the costs of administration and enforcement of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. No fee may be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances.

Sec. 209. Section 2, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 9, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.260 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to install or maintain any electrical wiring, appliances, devices, or equipment not in accordance with this chapter. In cases where the interpretation and application of the installation or maintenance standards prescribed in this chapter is in dispute or in doubt, the ((advisory)) board shall, upon application of any interested person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity, determine the methods of installation or maintenance or the materials, devices, appliances, or equipment to be used in the particular case submitted for its decision.

Sec. 210. Section 13, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 10, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity desiring a decision of the ((advisory)) board pursuant to RCW 19.28.260 shall, in writing, notify the director of such desire and shall accompany the notice with a certified check payable to the department in the sum of two hundred dollars. The notice shall specify the ruling or interpretation desired and the contention of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity as to the proper interpretation or application on the question on which a decision is desired. If the ((advisory)) board determines that the contention of the applicant for a decision was proper, the two hundred dollars shall be returned to the applicant; otherwise it shall be used in paying the expenses and per diem of the members of the ((advisory)) board in connection with the matter. Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

Sec. 211. Section 7, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 11, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.310 are each amended to read as follows:

The department has the power, in case of continued noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter, to revoke or suspend for such a period as it determines, any electrical contractor license or electrical contractor administrator certificate issued under this chapter. The department shall notify the holder of the license or certificate of the revocation or suspension by certified mail. A revocation or suspension is effective fifteen days after the holder receives the notice. Any revocation or suspension is subject to review by an appeal to the board ((~~of electrical examiners~~)). The filing of an appeal stays the effect of a revocation or suspension until the board ((~~of electrical examiners~~)) makes its decision. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after notice of the revocation or suspension is given by certified mail sent to the address of the holder of the license or certificate as shown on the application for the license or certificate, and shall be effected by filing a written notice of appeal with the department, accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars, which shall be returned to the holder of the license or certificate if the decision of the department is not sustained by the board. After said hearing the state (~~(commission on equipment))~~ patrol shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter and regulations issued by the (~~(commission))~~ state patrol. If said device does not meet the requirements of this chapter or the (~~(commission's))~~ state patrol's regulations it shall give notice to the one to whom the certificate of approval has been issued of the (~~(commission's))~~ state patrol's intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval for such device in this state.

(2) If at the expiration of ninety days after such notice the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the state (~~(commission on equipment))~~ patrol that said approved device as hereafter to be sold or offered for sale meets the requirements of this chapter or the (~~(commission's))~~ state patrol's regulations, the state (~~(commission on equipment))~~ patrol shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor and shall require the withdrawal of all such devices from the market and may require that all said devices sold since the notification be replaced with devices that do comply.

(3) When a certificate of approval has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this chapter or regulations by the state (~~(commission on equipment))~~ patrol, the device shall not be again approved unless and until it has been submitted for reapproval and it has been demonstrated, in the same manner as in an application for an original approval, that the device fully meets

The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway.

(2) No vehicle shall be equipped with nor shall any person use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section.

(3) It is permissible for any vehicle to be equipped with a theft alarm signal device so long as it is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Such a theft alarm signal device may use a whistle, bell, horn, or other audible signal but shall not use a siren.

(4) Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol, but such siren shall not be used except when such vehicle is operated in response to an emergency call or in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, in which said latter events the driver of such vehicle shall sound said siren when reasonably necessary to warn pedestrians and other drivers of the approach thereof.

Sec. 721. Section 46.37.420, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 50, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.420 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway may have on its periphery any block, flange, cleat, or spike or any other protuberance of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances that will not injure the highway, and except also that it is permissible to use tire chains or metal studs imbedded within the tire of reasonable proportions and of a type approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol, upon any vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid. It is unlawful to use metal studs imbedded within the tire between April 1st and November 1st. The state department of transportation may, from time to time, determine additional periods in which the use of tires with metal studs imbedded therein is lawful.

(3) The state department of transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of the movable tracks or farm tractors or other farm machinery, the operation of which upon a highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(4) Tires with metal studs imbedded therein may be used between November 1st and April 1st upon school buses and fire department vehicles, any law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 722. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 73, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.425 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall drive or move or cause to be driven or moved any vehicle, the tires of which have contact with the driving surface of the road, subject to registration in this state, upon the public highways of this state unless such vehicle is equipped with tires in safe operating condition in accordance with requirements established by this section or by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol.

The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth requirements of safe operating condition of tires capable of being employed by a law enforcement officer by visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges. These rules shall include effects of tread wear and depth of tread.

A tire shall be considered unsafe if it has:

(1) Any ply or cord exposed either to the naked eye or when cuts or abrasions on the tire are probed; or

(2) Any bump, bulge, or knot, affecting the tire structure; or

(3) Any break repaired with a boot; or

(4) A tread depth of less than 2/32 of an inch measured in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire, or for those tires with tread wear indicators, a tire shall be considered unsafe if it is worn to the point that the tread wear indicators contact the road in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire; or

(5) A legend which indicates the tire is not intended for use on public highways such as, 'not for highway use' or 'for racing purposes only'; or

(6) Such condition as may be reasonably demonstrated to render it unsafe; or

(7) If not matched in tire size designation, construction, and profile to the other tire and/or tires on the same axle.

No person, firm, or corporation shall sell any vehicle for use on the public highways of this state unless the vehicle is equipped with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the tires are found to be in violation of the provisions of this section, the person, firm, or corporation selling the vehicle shall cause such tires to be removed from the vehicle and shall equip the vehicle with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, I raise a point of order on the basis that the amendment is not germane to the subject of the original bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Engrossed Senate Bill 4609 and the proposed amendment by the Committee on Transportation. ESB 4609 is an act relating to county rail districts. This bill deals with the methods for establishing and modifying the boundaries of such districts. The amendment proposed by the committee amends a section of Title 64 RCW, real property and conveyances. It deals with property rights in railroad properties which are no longer used for railroad operations. The Speaker finds that this amendment goes beyond the subject of county rail districts. Your point is well taken, Representative O'Brien, the amendment is out of order."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Cities and counties may request additional jail capacity pursuant to this chapter. If all or part of such requests are denied or conditionally approved, the board shall issue written findings setting forth the basis for the denial or conditions of approval and citing the appropriate law or constitutional provision as the basis for the denial.

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Revising provisions relating to local government investments. Reported by Committee on Ways & Means

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments and without Committee on Local Government amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to enable political subdivisions to participate with the state in providing maximum opportunities for the investment of surplus public funds consistent with the safety and protection of such funds. The legislature finds and declares that the public interest is found in providing maximum prudent investment of surplus funds, thereby reducing the need for additional taxation. The legislature also recognizes that not all political subdivisions are able to maximize the return on their temporary surplus funds. The legislature therefore provides in this chapter a mechanism whereby political subdivisions may, at their option, utilize the resources of the state treasurer's office to maximize the potential of surplus funds while ensuring the safety of public funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Public funds investment account' or 'investment pool' means the aggregate of all funds from political subdivisions that are placed in the custody of the state treasurer for investment and reinvestment.

(2) 'Political subdivision' means any county, city, town, municipal corporation, political subdivision, or special purpose taxing district in the state.

(3) 'Local government official' means any officer or employee of a political subdivision who has been designated by statute or by local charter, ordinance, or resolution as the officer having the authority to invest the funds of the political subdivision. However, the county treasurer shall be deemed the only local government official for all political subdivisions for which the county treasurer has exclusive statutory authority to invest the funds thereof.

(4) 'Funds' means public funds under the control of or in the custody of any local government official by virtue of the official's authority that are not immediately required to meet current demands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a trust fund in the state treasury to be known as the public funds investment account. All moneys remitted by local government officials under this chapter shall be deposited in this account. The earnings on any balances in the public funds investment account shall be credited to the public funds investment account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If authorized by local ordinance or resolution, a local government official may place funds into the public funds investment account for investment and reinvestment by the state treasurer in those securities and investments set forth in RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW. The state treasurer shall invest the funds in such manner as to effectively maximize the yield to the investment pool. In investing and reinvesting moneys in the public funds investment account and in acquiring, retaining, managing, and disposing of investments of the investment pool, there shall be exercised the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which persons of prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of the funds considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of the capital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state treasurer's office is authorized to employ such personnel as are necessary to administer the public funds investment account. The bond of the state treasurer as required by law shall be made to include the faithful performance of all functions relating to the investment pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state treasurer shall by rule prescribe the time periods for investments in the investment pool and the procedure for withdrawal of funds from the investment pool. The state treasurer shall promulgate such other rules as are deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the investment pool. The rules shall also provide for the administrative expenses of the investment pool, including repayment of the initial administrative costs financed out of the appropriation included in this act, to be paid from the pool's earnings and for the interest earnings in excess of the expenses to be credited or paid to the political subdivisions participating in the pool. The state treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of the pool. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivisions' respective deposits in the investment pool fund and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the investment pool: PROVIDED, That the appropriated start-up costs of the pool must be repaid by June 30, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The state treasurer shall keep a separate account for each political subdivision having funds in the investment pool. Each separate account shall record the individual amounts deposited in the investment pool, the date of withdrawals, and the earnings credited or paid to the political subdivision. The state treasurer shall report monthly the status of the respective account to each local government official having funds in the pool during the previous month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. At the end of each fiscal year, the state treasurer shall submit to the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee a summary of the activity of the investment pool. The summary shall indicate the quantity of funds deposited; the earnings of the pool; the investments purchased, sold, or exchanged; the administrative expenses of the investment pool; and such other information as the state treasurer deems relevant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state finance committee shall administer this chapter and adopt appropriate rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Local governments may not invest in repurchase agreements, nor have their money invested in repurchase agreements, unless the local government or its agent takes possession of the securities to be repurchased, or a third party holds the securities in trust for the local government.

The ~~((director of financial))~~ risk management office shall report on request to the legislature on the status of the tort claims revolving fund, all payments made therefrom, all reimbursements made thereto, and the identity of agencies and departments of state government whose operations and activities give rise to liability ~~((- including those agencies and departments over which he does not have authority to revise allotments under chapter 43-88 RCW))~~.

The ~~((director of financial))~~ risk management office shall adopt rules ~~((and regulations))~~ governing the procedures to be followed in making payment from the tort claims revolving fund ~~((;))~~. The office of financial management shall adopt rules governing the procedures to be

If the legislature approves the claim, the department shall pay it from moneys appropriated for that purpose.

(2) If a claim for damages under RCW 77.12.270 has been refused or has not been settled and paid by the commission within one hundred twenty days of the filing of the claim, either the claimant or the commission may serve upon the other personally or by registered mail a notice of intent to arbitrate. The notice shall contain the name of an arbitrator. Within ten days of receiving the notice, the person served shall serve the name of an arbitrator personally or by registered mail upon the other party. The two arbitrators, within seven days of the naming of the second arbitrator, shall select a third arbitrator who shall not be an employee of the department or member of the commission. *NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9A.16 RCW to read as follows:

It is the policy of this state to protect children from assault and abuse and to encourage parents, teachers, and their authorized agents to use more effective and less dangerous methods of correction and restraint of children. However, the physical discipline of a child is not unlawful when it is reasonable and moderate and is inflicted by a parent or guardian for purposes of restraining or correcting the child. Any assault on a child by any other person is unlawful unless it is reasonable and moderate and is authorized in advance by the child's parent or guardian for purposes of restraining or correcting the child.

The following actions are never reasonable when used to correct or restrain a child: (1) Throwing, kicking, burning, or cutting a child; (2) striking a child with a closed fist; (3) shaking a child under age three; (4) interfering with a child's breathing; (5) threatening a child with a deadly weapon; or (6) doing any other act that is likely to cause and which does cause bodily harm greater than transient pain. 'Bodily harm greater than transient pain' does not include minor and temporary bruising considering the age and size of the child. This list is illustrative of unreasonable actions and is not intended to be exclusive.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Braddock, the other night in Ways & Means Committee, we had a similar amendment that was passed. I'm confused. What's the difference between what we did then and this massive change?"

Mr. Braddock: "There are two differences. One is that we found in research that the cuts changing from the 15% cut to the 20% cut on the judicial information system (a 20% cut was in our proposal) that that money was put into crime victims and criminal justice training. What this amendment does is decrease the amount of that. We won't take it all out of the judicial information system. We do not take such a drastic cut, plus the amendment addresses the possibility of a bill passing. The bill has passed out of the Senate which would provide additional money into the system through a surcharge on traffic fines. If that bill makes it through this house--that's House Bill 1869 as amended by the Senate--then the public safety and education appropriation will revert."

Mr. Tilly: "If the bill doesn't pass, then were will that shortage be made up, Representative Braddock?"

Mr. Braddock: "The shortage will be made up in a similar fashion but not as drastic a cut as in the judicial information system."

Mr. Tilly spoke against the amendments, and Mr. Braddock spoke again in favor of them.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Addison yielded to question by Mr. Smitherman.

Mr. Smitherman: "Representative Addison, on the way you have put this program together, I was just wondering, is this a voluntary or mandatory program?"

Mr. Addison: "The RCW has the various rules and guidelines that are applied and I would remind you of what I said before: That for a member of a household who is between the ages of 18 and 60 years old, who is not a parent of a child under 6, and various other requirements--in other words, if they are taking care of someone who is incapacitated--this is a mandatory program they are asked to participate in. It's the mandatory part of the program that has made it so successful. It's the mandatory part of the program that has, for instance in the food stamp program, mainly been directed at males who are 25 years of age and older. In those situations we find that a third of them drop out of the program when they are asked to work in the program."

Mr. Smitherman: "In terms of job skills, do these jobs that the people are undertaking provide them with real skills so that they can continue on to make good living wages? I heard talk about community services, and that's laudable, but on the other hand, are they being provided with the real skills that will enable them to carry on in a real job in the future?"

Mr. Addison: "That's a good question and I think the answer is yes. We have asked the department not to provide simply make-work time, but jobs and, in fact, one of the real successes was the gentleman in the Moses Lake CSO who was working for the sheriff's department over there and has done an outstanding job for them. They have asked him if he would like to go to school to become a deputy sheriff. He is now training and will become a deputy sheriff in Moses Lake."

~~((b))~~ (d) Insurance benefits are limited by this act to an average monthly rate of $167 per full time equivalent certificated employee and to an average monthly rate of $167 per classified unit. Classified units shall be calculated on the basis of 1,440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted for more than one unit. In accordance with RCW 28A.58.095, this subsection relates to insurance benefit increases granted in either the 1985-86 or 1986-87 school year which would raise the rate per full time equivalent unit to over $167 per month.

~~((c))~~ (e) Increments granted by school districts to certificated staff shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given by a district to the extent only that the aggregate of increments granted by a district exceeds the aggregate of increments pursuant to LEAP Document 1.

~~((c))~~ (f) Seniority increments granted by a school district pursuant to the district's salary schedule for classified employees shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given to the extent only that the aggregate of the increments granted by the district exceeds the amount of the district's increments calculated using the formula adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the classified increment mix factor.

(g) Districts may elect an alternative measure of salary compliance for classified staff as specified in this subsection. For the purposes of determining compliance in 1986-87, the district's actual 1986-87 classified derived base salary is reduced by the difference between:

(i) The district's actual 1985-86 classified derived base salary, after adjustment for new positions and reductions-in-force as approved by the superintendent of public instruction during the 1985-86 school year; and

(ii) The district's actual 1985-86 classified derived base salary, without such adjustments. A district may elect this option only if its board of directors has certified by resolution that any resulting difference between actual and state-funded salary levels in each year henceforward is solely a district obligation, and that the effect shall neither incur nor imply any current or future funding obligation by the state.

(3)(a) A maximum of $650,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided to fund the conversion from LEAP Document 7 to revised LEAP Document 7, effective September 1, 1986. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute these moneys to fund increases in salary costs and incremental fringe benefits resulting from using revised LEAP Document 7 to calculate allocations for certificated and classified staff units as in section 501 of this 1986 act.

(b) $47,637,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education certificated staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 501 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 LEAP Document 1 basic education staff mix factor times five percent of the state-wide average certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(c) $9,877,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education classified staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 501 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 basic education classified increment mix factor times five percent of the state-wide average classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(d) A maximum of $3,858,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits in the following programs, to be distributed by increasing 1986-87 school year allocation rates as specified:

(i) Transitional bilingual instruction (section 508), $19.06 per pupil;

(ii) Remediation assistance (section 509), $14.66 per pupil;

(iii) Education of highly capable students (section 510), $11.29 per pupil;

(iv) Vocational-technical institutes (section 512), $99.90 per FTE pupil;

(v) Pupil transportation (section 514), $0.80 per weighted pupil-mile.

(e) A maximum of $6,614,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program (section 506), and for state-supported staff in educational service districts (section 502) and institutional education programs (section 507). The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute a five percent salary increase for these programs using the pertinent program state-wide average derived base salaries.

(f) Each school district with a certificated derived base salary of less than $16,500, as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, is authorized to grant salary increases for the 1986-87 school year which increase the district's basic education certificated derived base salary, before the salary increase authorized in subsection (2)(a) of this section, to no more than $16,500. A maximum of $4,773,000 is provided to fund the cost of this increase in state-supported programs. For the purposes of allocating basic education funds in the 1986-87 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall modify revised LEAP Document 7 to reflect a certificated derived base salary of $16,500 for each of these districts.

(4) Increases provided by this section shall be included for purposes of calculating the levy lid pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW."

ESSB 4724 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Adopting the Washington award for excellence in education program act. Reported by Committee on Ways & Means

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment by Committee on Ways & Means and without amendment by Committee on Education: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 through 8 of this act may be known and cited as the Washington award for excellence in education program act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual award program for excellence in education to recognize teachers, principals, school district superintendents, and school boards for their leadership, contributions, and commitment to education. The program shall recognize annually:

(a) Three teachers from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary level teacher, one must be a junior high or middle-school level teacher, and one must be a secondary level teacher;

(b) Three principals from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary building principal, one must be a junior high or middle school building principal, and one must be a secondary building principal;

(c) One school district superintendent from the state; and

(d) One school district board of directors from the state.

Not more than three teachers and three principals from each congressional district and one superintendent and one school board from the state may be recognized and receive awards in any school year.

(2) The awards for teachers and principals shall include certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations.

(3) In addition to certificates under subsection (2) of this section, awards for teachers and principals shall include:

(a) A waiver of tuition and fees under section 6 of this act and a stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses for which the tuition and fees have been waived under this subsection and section 6 of this act. The stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095; or

(b) Teachers and principals, at their discretion, may elect to forego the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section and apply for a grant not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 7 of this act. Within one year of receiving the award for excellence in education, teachers and principals shall notify the superintendent of public instruction in writing of their decision to apply for a grant or to receive the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The award for teachers under the Washington award for excellence in education program shall be named the 'Christa McAuliffe Award, in honor and memory of Sharon Christa Corrigan McAuliffe.' As the first teacher and private citizen selected nationally to voyage into space, Christa McAuliffe exemplified what is exciting and positive about the teaching profession. Her contributions within the scope of the nation's education system helped to show that education can and should be a vital and dynamic experience for all participants. Christa McAuliffe's chosen profession encompasses learning by discovery and her desire to make new discoveries was reflected by her participation in the nation's space program.

The selection of Christa McAuliffe as the first teacher in space was directly linked to Washington state in that superintendent of public instruction Dr. Frank Brouillet both appointed and served as a member of the national panel which selected Christa McAuliffe.

The tragic loss of the life of Christa McAuliffe on the flight of the space shuttle Challenger on January 28, 1986, will be remembered through the legacy she gave to her family, friends, relatives, students, colleagues, the education profession, and the nation: a model example of striving toward excellence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The awards for the superintendent and school board shall include:

(1) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations;

(2) A grant to the superintendent not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of section 8 of this act; and

(3) A grant to the school board not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, which grant shall be awarded under section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the purposes of this chapter. These rules shall include establishing the selection criteria for the Washington award for excellence in education program. The superintendent of public instruction is encouraged to consult with teachers, principals, superintendents, and school board members in developing the selection criteria. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2(1) (a) and (b) of this act, such rules may allow for the selection of individuals whose teaching or administrative duties, or both, may encompass multiple grade level or building assignments, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived for one full academic year at any state institution of higher education: PROVIDED, That the waiver shall begin to be used within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Teachers and principals who have received an award for excellence in education under section 2 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant in lieu of receiving a waiver of tuition and fees and a stipend as provided under section 2(3) of this act. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as a written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent and school board who have received an award for excellence in education under section 4 of this act shall be eligible to apply for an educational grant. The superintendent of public instruction shall award the grant as long as a written grant application is submitted to the superintendent of public instruction within one year after the award was received. The grant application shall identify the educational purpose toward which the grant shall be used.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The sum of sixty thousand five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the purposes of this act."

Signed by Representatives Grimm, Chair; Appelwick, Basich, Brekke, Bristow, Hine, J. King, Locke, Long, Madsen, G. Nelson, Niemi, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, L. Smith, Smitherman, Sommers, Taylor and Tilly.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment by Committee on Ways & Means and without amendment by Committee on Education: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In order to help meet the rapidly growing need for child care and in order to utilize all available resources, it is the policy of the state of Washington to permit the use of public school facilities for the provision of child care. Child care programs provided under this chapter at the discretion of school districts are optional programs which do not fall within the state's educational duties established by Article IX of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definition in this section applies throughout this chapter.

'Child care program' means the nonresidential care and supervision of minors before, during, and after school hours, and during nonschool days and may include planned educational activities with an emphasis upon developmental skills. However, such program shall not include the care and supervision, during school hours, of students enrolled in the common school program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. School districts may establish, maintain, and operate child care programs using school facilities, local resources including child care program revenues, gifts and grants, and taxes levied pursuant to RCW 84.52.053 through 84.52.054.

School districts establishing a child care program after the effective date of this act shall conduct a study designed to assess the need for and the availability of both public and private child care services within the school district's jurisdiction before establishing a child care program. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as requiring school districts to provide day care services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For the child care program under section 3 of this act, the board of directors of a school district may:

(1) Fix reasonable charges for the maintenance and operation of child care programs and may fix the charges either at a uniform rate or at a variable rate based on the ability of the parents of the children enrolled in the programs to pay the charges;

(2) Contract with private entities or public agencies under chapter 39.34 RCW or with both and employ necessary personnel for all or part of the management and operation of child care programs. When a school district board of directors chooses to contract with other private or public agencies pursuant to this section, the child care programs so established shall be located at such points as the board of directors deems suitable for the convenience of the public;

(3) Remodel, renovate, otherwise improve, and maintain surplus school facilities for the purposes of child care programs and no state school construction funds may be used for the construction of child care facilities;

(4) Transport minors enrolled in child care programs to and from program sites using district-owned transportation vehicles or may contract for transportation services, or both and charge a fee in an amount sufficient to reimburse the district for the actual per seat cost of providing such transportation;

(5) Supplement fee revenues, gifts and grants with taxes levied pursuant to RCW 84.52.053 through 84.52.054 to the extent approved by the electorate of the school district and necessary to meet the full direct and indirect costs of child care programs;

(6) May receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the child care programs and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments; and

(7) Otherwise perform and provide for such other functions and activities as are necessary and incidental to the maintenance and operation of safe, healthful, efficient, and prudently managed child care and preschool programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Child care programs provided for by school districts under this chapter shall comply with personnel, facility, program, health, and safety requirements established by the department of social and health services under chapter 74.15 RCW and the rules adopted under chapter 74.15 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Child care programs authorized in sections 1 through 5 of this act shall not be considered part of basic education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 28A.34.010, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.34.010;

(2) Section 28A.34.020, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.34.020;

(3) Section 28A.34.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.34.040; and

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 28A.34 RCW."

Signed by Representatives Grimm, Chair; Braddock, Vice Chair; Appelwick, Basich, Brekke, Bristow, Hine, Holland, J. King, Locke, Madsen, Niemi, Rust, Sayan, Smitherman and Sommers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington partnership for innovation act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The legislature finds that the diversification of the state's economic base and the reduction of unemployment is one of its highest priorities. The state economy is highly susceptible to fluctuations in the United States economy and is experiencing its highest rates of unemployment since the great depression. One of the key avenues to diversify the economy is to assist in the development of businesses and the generation of new products which can be traded outside of the state's borders. Entrepreneurs represent a valuable state resource which, if provided capital and technical assistance, can contribute to long-term job generation. The private sector has substantial expertise to identify emerging companies and potential marketable products. The state finds it a public purpose to work as a partner with private investors to locate and provide financial assistance to worthy entrepreneurs for early state development of new products and companies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Department' means the department of revenue.

(2) 'Enterprise' means a small business that is primarily located and operated in Washington and that is or proposes to be engaged in this state in research and development.

in commercial product development, or in manufacturing, technology, or the production of goods and services with high potential for expansion and trade outside the state's borders.

(3) 'Professional investor' means any person, partnership, corporation, licensee under the federal small business investment act of 1958 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 661 et seq.), or other entity whose resources are primarily dedicated to investing in product development, managing venture capital funds, and the development of new successful companies and whose net worth exceeds five hundred thousand dollars.

If the petition has been signed by the requisite number of county voters, the county legislative authority shall submit such a proposition to the voters for their approval or rejection at the next general election held at least sixty days after the proposition has been certified by the auditor.

On page 6, line 21 of the amendment, after "apply" insert "if the person may recover attorney's fees under chapter 4.84 RCW or"

On page 8, after line 14, insert the following:

"Sec. 9. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1941 and RCW 16.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Proof of provocation of the attack by the injured person shall be a complete defense to an action for damages. However, for purposes of this section, a child under the age of six years is incapable of provocation, and there is a rebuttable presumption that a child between the age of six years, inclusive through fourteen years, inclusive, is incapable of provocation."

Remember the sections consecutively.

Mr. Vekich spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich yielded to question by Ms. Long.

Ms. Long: "Representative Vekich, you said that the amendment is not aimed at any particular breed of dog. Would you tell me what subsection (b), line 19, page 2 means? It says, 'Any dog with a propensity, tendency or disposition to attack unprovoked, to cause injury, or to otherwise endanger the safety of human beings....' What does that mean and how would that be determined?"

Mr. Vekich: "For one thing, it would be a question of fact being recorded to determine propensity to be vicious. In the past history of the dog, if there is any intent and knowledge on the owner's part that the dog is a problem, and it would have to be a previous problem, that would qualify as a propensity. Perhaps there had been a bite in the past or inability to get along with other animals. Perhaps dog fights, any number of things can lead to propensity."

Ms. Long: "If I understand you correctly, you are saying that when this bill started out it was directed at pit bulls, that the intent is to say that if there is a pit bull dog that has not done the things you have just mentioned, then it would not be a dog that was considered vicious?"

Mr. Vekich: "That's correct. We could not find that pit bulls were more vicious or less vicious, based on the evidence presented to us, than any other particular breed or type. They are a type of dog, not a breed of dog."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich yielded to question by Mr. Zellinsky.

Mr. Zellinsky: "Representative Vekich, I've been pretty upset all day since I went to caucus today and you made your presentation of this most serious legislation. If you read through this, it says 'vicious' and 'harbor a vicious dog,' and 'kill' and all these other things. I've got a little part-poodle at home and if a child came into my yard and my little dog, which I dearly love, nipped at this little child under six, would that mean that somebody could come and take my dog and have it put to sleep?"

Mr. Vekich: "Representative Zellinsky, it is my understanding of the bill, and again I was not the author of this bill, I'm merely offering it to the floor, but I would like to say that it is my understanding of the bill that it must be a bite of a very severe nature, one that I doubt that your particular type of dog could inflict."

Representatives Zellinsky, Nealey and Barrett opposed the amendments to the amendment, and Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of them.

MOTION

Repealing the mandatory vehicle license plate replacement program.

Mr. Wineberry moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Lundquist moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, following line 21 insert:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A fleet shall qualify for centennial plates to be issued in consecutive order if available. A fleet shall be defined for purposes of the RCW as a group of five vehicles or more registered in the same name and whose owner has been assigned a fleet identifier code by the department of licensing."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Lundquist spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lundquist yielded to question by Ms. Schmidt.

Ms. Schmidt: "Representative Lundquist, in your definition of a fleet you discussed trucks. Would this also include a fleet of cars?"

Mr. Lundquist: "My understanding of this is that it will include any vehicle that is engaged in that kind of an operation. For instance, a logging company may have two or three logging trucks, may have several gravel trucks, may have two or three pickups and a couple of trucks. They would all qualify under the fleet."

Ms. Schmidt: "But would a company that only operates a fleet of cars also qualify?"

Mr. Lundquist: My understanding is that they would."

Ms. Schmidt: "Have you discussed this amendment with the Department of Licensing in light of the fact that we are almost out of numbers as far as the sequence available to us in the current numbering system?"

Mr. Lundquist: "In terms of the sequential numbers, I have not discussed that with the Department of Licensing. I have discussed the reduction of the number from twenty-five to five with the Department of Licensing. They are indicating that they would prefer that we drop from twenty-five to fifteen. Dropping from twenty-five to fifteen does not provide relief to the kind of people who have been complaining to me about the size of fleets."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wineberry, the committee amendment to the title of the bill was adopted.

On motion of Mr. J. King, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

"A dog shall not be considered a vicious dog under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this subsection if the dog is or was used on a farm for the purpose of herding or protecting animals and if the only reason for otherwise considering the dog a vicious dog is based on the fact that the dog has nipped a person on a limb while the person was on the farm. This exception only applies so long as the keeper of the dog posts a conspicuous sign which is located in the area where visitors to the farm would normally park their vehicles and which warns them of the presence of a dog that will bite."

Representatives Nealey and Vekich spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Vekich yielded to question by Mr. Madsen.

Mr. Madsen: "Representative Vekich, the focus of this bill is to make the owner a little bit more liable for his dog's actions. Under this particular amendment, by putting up a sign--the act of putting up a sign--does that, in fact, set me up legally to say that I do have a vicious dog and my liability becomes a little bit more heavy?"

Mr. Vekich: "The intent of the sponsor of the bill, or the sponsor of the amendment anyway, is that your liability would be decreased because you are exercising due care and caution and being a responsible dog owner."

Mr. Madsen opposed the amendment to the amendment and Mr. Nealey spoke again in favor of it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "I would challenge this amendment on the basis of scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has looked at the title of the bill and the committee amendment. It is a skillful job, but the committee amendment deals with the licensing and process by which we are going to regulate or license auctioneers. The amendment by Representative Wang deals not with licensing or regulating auctioneers, but rather with the product of motion pictures, under the motion picture competition act and deals with the auctioning of a product or a service. In the view of the Speaker, this floor amendment broadens the scope and object of the committee amendment and the title. Your point is well taken, Representative Barrett."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the committee amendment as amended.

Ms. Belcher spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. S. Wilson opposed it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Belcher, on page 2 of the bill it talks about the governor appointing the head of Transportation, the head of Game and the head of Parks. On line 28 it says, 'The commission may delegate to the director additional duties and powers necessary and appropriate to carry out this title.' This is the section that relates to the Department of Game. My question is that it seems to me that the commissioner has got some extra power, this particular commission, to give their director more duties and responsibilities, so is the director working for the commission or is he or she working for the governor? It's confusing to me."

Ms. Belcher: "I think, clearly, the intent of this bill is that the director would be appointed by the governor. The commission would retain its policy-making authority and that would include their ability to delegate any authority they wanted to the director."

Mr. Tilly: "Does that also apply to the Parks and Recreation Commission and to the Department of Transportation?"

Ms. Belcher: "I don't have the bill in front of me, Representative Tilly, so I can't tell you that's the express language that's in the bill, but my assumption would be that each of those commissions, retaining all of their policy-making authority, would have the authority to delegate if they so chose."

Representatives Tilly, Schmidt and B. Williams spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. J. King spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Padden demanded an oral roll call vote and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Prince, C. Smith, Silver and Long spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. Crane demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The appropriations in this section are provided for the management and support of the marine transportation division of the department of transportation and for the operation, maintenance, and capital improvements of the Washington state ferry system. The appropriations are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The Puget Sound reserve account appropriation is provided to carry out RCW 47.60.420.

(2) The Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation is provided for the operation and maintenance of the Washington state ferries, supplementing revenues available from the Washington state ferry system. To the extent that revenue collections exceed that amount assumed in this act the transfer authority authorized in this subsection shall be reduced by a like amount. If the elimination of the sales tax on fuel consumed by the marine division is not enacted by July 1, 1986, then the transfer authority authorized in this subsection shall be increased by $1,005,000.

(3) The Puget Sound capital construction account appropriation is provided for improving the Washington state ferry system, including, but not limited to, vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements. The department of transportation shall implement the terminal projects as delineated in 1986 Supplemental Budget Request for Marine Division Capital Construction Program (dated January 16, 1986) as presented to the joint house and senate transportation committees in accordance with state procurement regulations. Should the commission determine it is not feasible to refurbish the ferry 'Rhododendron', and with the approval of the legislative transportation committee, the capital appropriation of $2,500,000 provided for that purpose may be used to purchase a passenger-only vessel, provided that the marine division shall make application for reimbursement from the federal urban mass transportation administration (UMTA) for the cost of the initial vessel and any subsequent vessel purchase.

(5) Savings realized in marine operations as of the end of the fiscal period shall be placed into reserve status and no expenditure shall be made from that reserve without consulting with the legislative transportation committee and obtaining the approval of the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.88.110.

If the project is not implemented, then $560,000 of the moneys appropriated in this section for that purpose shall not be expended for any other purpose.~~

(7) The traditional and customary ferry transportation service supported by these appropriations shall receive priority in the implementation of all directives contained in this section. It is the intent of the legislature that the motor vehicle fund appropriation—state of $1,140,000 contained in this section shall be expended exclusively for the support of costs associated with EXPO '86 services. Any additional costs associated with the EXPO '86 services shall be funded by fare revenue generated from EXPO '86 traffic. (9) Pursuant to the limitations authorized in RCW 47.64.180(1), for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1987, no more than $1,135,000 of the Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation, the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriations, or moneys in the ferry system, 1963, revolving fund may be expended to effect an increase in the base salaries for ferry employees or to effect an increase in insurance benefits for ferry employees. The amount determined for base salary increases shall be reduced by the amount by which the ferry system's contribution for employees' and dependents' insurance and health care plans exceeds that provided for other state agencies, as specified in RCW 47.64.270.

(10) After all possible internal management economies have been achieved, if an operating budget deficit still exists, the transportation commission is authorized to request authority from the legislative transportation committee to effect an interfund loan from the motor vehicle fund to the Puget Sound ferry operations account for some or all of the deficit as authorized by the legislative transportation committee: PROVIDED, That any amount loaned to the Puget Sound ferry operations account shall be repaid to the motor vehicle fund from ferry system operating revenues collected in the 1987-89 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The transportation commission shall provide a detailed analysis of feasible alternatives that will achieve a long-range balance between funding requirements of the marine division's operating and capital programs and funding sources. The commission also shall identify the alternative that it believes should be implemented and the rationale for its choice. The analysis and the commission's recommended alternative shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee and the office of financial management no later than September 1, 1986.

If the commission's recommendation includes changes in the funding sources for the marine division, it shall provide an assessment of the impact such changes will have on other state-funded transportation programs.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 169, Laws of 1982 and RCW 35.21.850 are each amended to read as follows:

No demand for a fee or tax or penalty shall be made by a city or town against a motor carrier of freight for hire on gross income derived from providing transportation services more than four years after the close of the year in which the same accrued except (1) against a taxpayer who has been guilty of fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact; or (2) where a taxpayer has executed a written waiver of such limitations; ~~(or (3) against a taxpayer who has not registered as required by the ordinance of the city or town imposing such tax or fee, provided this subsection shall not apply to a taxpayer who has registered in any city or town where the taxpayer maintains an office or terminal; or in the case of a taxpayer who has paid a license fee or tax based on such gross receipts to any city or town levying same which may reasonably be construed to be the principal market of the taxpayer but in which he maintains no office or terminal).~~

The attorney general shall include in his report a comprehensive summary of all cases involving tort claims against the department of transportation involving highways which were concluded and closed in the previous calendar year. The report shall include for each case closed:

On page 2, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature finds that growth of the state's population and economy places increasingly greater demands on available water resources, including this state's ground water supplies. The legislature also finds that chapter 90.44 RCW, popularly known as the Ground Water Code of 1945, protects the public welfare by providing an orderly system of rights to the beneficial use of water based upon the 'first in time is first in right' principle of the prior appropriation doctrine. The purpose of sections 4 and 5 of this act is to provide remedies to protect the right of a holder of a senior right to ground water to a safe sustaining yield of water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The remedies to protect the right of the holder of a senior water right to a safe sustaining yield of water include protection of the availability of water in the well or wells used to exercise that senior water right, without the wells or withdrawal works being significantly modified. That availability is protected against interruption or other interference caused by either: (a) The water works of, or the water withdrawal activities of, a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water; or (b) any other activities of a person or persons that do not directly involve the exercise of a more senior right to water. Junior rights to ground water are those established subsequently to a senior right under the prior appropriation doctrine upon which this chapter is based.

(2) The holder of a senior water right is entitled to adequate compensation whenever the water works or water withdrawal activities of a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water cause such an interruption or interference in that availability of water. Adequate compensation for the loss of that availability will be made if the holder of the senior right is provided with:

(a) An amount equivalent to the increased costs reasonably incurred by or reasonably to be incurred by the holder of the senior water right in securing and using water, to the full extent of the senior right, as a result of losing the availability protected by subsection (1) of this section. The full extent of the senior right includes any conditions that applied to the right such as the quantity and quality of the water, the location of use, and time of use;

(b) The delivery of water to the holder of the senior right. To qualify as compensation, the water delivered must be of a quantity equal to and a quality equivalent to that of the senior right. The delivery must also be under such conditions, including but not limited to timing and location, as applied to the senior right without increased costs being incurred by the senior rightholder; or

(c) The payment of just compensation pursuant to the exercise of eminent domain if the holder of the junior rights has been granted the power of eminent domain.

(3) In lieu of the forms of compensation provided by this section, the holder of the senior right to ground water may freely enter contractual agreements establishing other compensation.

(4) In any civil action brought under this section, if the court believes the legal remedies are inadequate or excessively harsh, it may provide such equitable relief as it believes appropriate. The court shall also provide such emergency relief as is appropriate for the protection of ground water rights.

(5) The department of ecology shall not enforce the remedies provided under this section. It is intended that such remedies will be privately enforced by the holders of senior water rights. In considering an application filed after the effective date of this section for a permit under this chapter, the department shall decide the application as if this section were never enacted. However, the department shall place on each permit granted after the effective date of this section a notation conditioning the permit on the holder's compliance with the remedy provisions of this section. Whenever the court finds that a permit holder is unable or unwilling to cure the holder's noncompliance with such provisions, the court shall issue an order revoking the permit and serve a copy of its order on the department. The order shall become effective on the day it is served on the department.

(6) The statutory remedies provided under this section apply only against interruption or interference caused by the exercise of junior water rights for which permits have been issued after the effective date of this section or which have been otherwise perfected after the effective date of this section. These statutory remedies may not be applied against interruption or interference caused by the exercise of water rights existing prior to the effective date of this section. Nothing in this section expands, prohibits, or restricts in any manner whatsoever any powers of the judiciary to devise, provide for, and enforce remedies designed to protect senior water rights existing prior to the effective date of this section from interruption or interference caused by the exercise of junior water rights also existing prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No permit shall be granted for the development or withdrawal of public ground waters beyond the capacity of the underground bed or formation in the given basin, district, or locality to yield such water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift in case of pumping developments, or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure in the case of artesian developments. ~~((The supervisor of water resources))~~ Except as provided otherwise in section 4 of this 1986 act, the director of ecology shall have the power to determine whether the granting of any ((such)) permit will injure or damage any vested or existing right or rights under prior permits and may in addition to the records of his office, require further evidence, proof, and testimony before granting or denying any such permits.

The granting of a permit by the director does not relieve the recipient of the permit of any liability for injuring or damaging vested or existing rights to water.

In multi-aquifer systems, the director may require, as permit conditions, the casing and sealing of wells or other construction techniques to: (1) Protect the use of the uppermost aquifer or aquifers of the system by persons with senior rights to ground water, or (2) protect the use of waters from the uppermost aquifer or aquifers for future domestic or similar uses, traditionally involving shallower wells, that the director finds to be vital for the support of future development of the overlying land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) This section contains remedies designed to protect the holder of a ground water right against activities that cause damage or injury by adversely affecting the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains. Any holder of a ground water right who sustains any damage or injury, whether to property or person, which is caused by activities that decrease the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains, shall be entitled to recover full compensation for such damage or injury from the person or persons responsible for or conducting the activities. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. May yielded to question by Mr. Braddock.

Mr. Braddock: "I haven't had a chance to go over this amendment. I didn't hear you indicate whether or not this could or could not have a fiscal impact on the system. Do you have any idea whether it would or not?"

Mr. May: "Yes, I have a good idea. All it does is take a part of a pension from somebody who doesn't pay and provide it to the other person, so there would be no fiscal impact."

Mr. Braddock: "So there would be no fiscal impact to the pension system?"

Mr. May: "No."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any member of the Washington judicial retirement system who wishes to transfer such membership to the retirement system provided for in this chapter shall file a written request with the director as required by RCW 2.10.040 on or before December 31, 1987. Upon receipt of such request, the director shall transfer from the judicial retirement system to this retirement system: (a) An amount equal to the employee contributions paid into the judicial retirement system by the member which shall be credited to the member's account established under this chapter; (b) an amount equal to the matching employer contributions as provided by RCW 2.10.090(2); and (c) a record of service credited to the member.

(2) The member shall be given year-for-year credit for years of service, as determined under RCW 2.10.030(8), earned under the judicial retirement system. Service credit granted under the judicial retirement system pursuant to RCW 2.10.220 shall not be transferred under this section. The director instead shall reverse the transfer of contributions and service credit previously made under RCW 2.10.220 and shall credit the member for such periods of service and contributions under this chapter as though no transfer had ever occurred.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "ESSB 4463 is an act relating to the promotion of Washington products and it sets up a program for the Department of Trade and Economic Development for their purpose. The committee amendment repeals three sections of chapter 39.24 RCW. These sections deal with the purchase preference by state and local governments of fuels mined or produced in Washington State. It appears that this amendment is inconsistent and incompatible with the act. Under Reed's Rule 161, a question of this nature is up to the body to decide. So I will let the body determine whether or not they wish to adopt or not adopt this amendment."

Mr. McMullen spoke in favor of the committee amendment, and Mr. Schoon opposed it.

(1) Contracts for public improvements or work, other than for professional services, by the state, or any county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, herein referred to as "public body", shall provide, and there shall be reserved by the public body from the moneys earned by the contractor on estimates during the progress of the improvement or work, a sum not to exceed five percent, said sum to be retained by the state, county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, as a trust fund for the protection and payment of any person or persons, mechanic, subcontractor or materialman who shall perform any labor upon such contract or the doing of said work, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons or subcontractors with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work, and the state with respect to taxes imposed pursuant to Title 82 RCW which may be due from such contractor. Every person performing labor or furnishing supplies toward the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said moneys so reserved: PROVIDED, That such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in RCW 39.08.030 as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board, council, commission, trustees, officer or body acting for the state, county or municipality or other public body: (a) at any time after fifty percent of the original contract work has been completed, if it finds that satisfactory progress is being made, may make any of the partial payments which would otherwise be subsequently made in full; but in no event shall the amount to be retained be reduced to less than five percent of the amount of the moneys earned by the contractor: PROVIDED, That the contractor may request that retainage be reduced to one hundred percent of the value of the work remaining on the project; and (b) thirty days after completion and acceptance of all contract work other than landscaping, may release and pay in full the amounts retained during the performance of the contract (other than continuing retention of five percent of the moneys earned for landscaping) subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020.

(2) The moneys reserved under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, at the option of the contractor, shall be:

(a) Retained in a fund by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed;

(b) Deposited by the public body in an interest bearing account in a bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association, not subject to withdrawal until after the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed, or until agreed to by both parties: PROVIDED, That interest on such account shall be paid to the contractor;

(c) Placed in escrow with a bank or trust company by the public body until thirty days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed. Such check shall be converted into bonds and securities chosen by the contractor and approved by the public body and such bonds and securities shall be held in escrow. Interest on such bonds and securities shall be paid to the contractor as the said interest accrues.

(3) The contractor or subcontractor may withhold payment of not more than five percent from the moneys earned by any subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier contracted with by the contractor to provide labor, materials, or equipment to the public project. Whenever the contractor or subcontractor reserves funds earned by a subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier, the contractor or subcontractor shall pay interest to the subcontractor or sub-subcontractor or supplier at a rate equal to that received by the contractor or subcontractor from reserved funds.

Such bond and any proceeds therefrom shall be made subject to all claims and liens and in the same manner and priority as set forth for retained percentages in this chapter. The public body shall release the bonded portion of the retained funds to the contractor within thirty days of accepting the bond from the contractor. Whenever a public body accepts a bond in lieu of retained funds from a contractor, the contractor shall accept like bonds from any subcontractors or suppliers from which the contractor has retained funds. The contractor shall then release the funds retained from the subcontractor or supplier to the subcontractor or supplier within thirty days of accepting the bond from the subcontractor or supplier.

(5) If the public body administering a contract, after a substantial portion of the work has been completed, finds that an unreasonable delay will occur in the completion of the remaining portion of the contract for any reason not the result of a breach thereof, it may, if the contractor agrees, delete from the contract the remaining work and accept as final the improvement at the stage of completion then attained and make payment in proportion to the amount of the work accomplished and in such case any amounts retained and accumulated under this section shall be held for a period of thirty days following such acceptance. In the event that the work shall have been terminated before final completion as provided in this section, the public body may thereafter enter into a new contract with the same contractor to perform the remaining work or improvement for an amount equal to or less than the cost of the remaining work as was provided for in the original contract without advertisement or bid. The provisions of this chapter 60.28 RCW shall be deemed exclusive and shall supersede all provisions and regulations in conflict herewith.

(6) Whenever the department of transportation has contracted for the construction of two or more ferry vessels, thirty days after completion and final acceptance of each ferry vessel, the department may release and pay in full the amounts retained in connection with the construction of such vessel subject to the provisions of RCW 60.28.020: PROVIDED, That the department of transportation may at its discretion condition the release of funds retained in connection with the completed ferry upon the contractor delivering a good and sufficient bond with two or more sureties, or with a surety company, in the amount of the retained funds to be released to the contractor, conditioned that no taxes shall be certified or claims filed for work on such ferry after a period of thirty days following final acceptance of such ferry; and if such taxes are certified or claims filed, recovery may be had on such bond by the department of revenue and the materialmen and laborers filing claims.

(7) ~~((On projects commenced after June 7, 1964, the trust fund established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be reserved for the protection of the owner or owners of such public improvements when specifically required by regulations of the farmers home administration for the provision of grant or loan funds administered by that agency))~~ Contracts on projects funded in whole or in part by Farmers Home Administration and subject to Farmers Home Administration regulations shall not be subject to subsections (1) through (6) of this section.

Ms. Rust: "Yes, it will."

Mr. Tilly: "Is there a minimum of employees or are they still going to bill you?"

That didn't make much sense and I think the people in the country really were disappointed in what state government does. I am asking you if there is any provision in this bill that they would mail this fee out with the regular letter instead of making a special mail-out that costs more money than they take in?"

Mr. Chandler: "I don't believe there is any provision in there to state that. Representative Nealey, but if there was I would question whether or not it would be done that way. I think maybe tis additional fee is to make up for the mistake that they did and it cost them last year on it."

Mr. G. Nelson spoke against passage of the bill.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that more than 700,000 of our citizens die each year from heart attack and stroke, a greater number of deaths than is caused by any other illness; that research has identified saturated fats as a major cause contributing to heart disease and stroke; that public health officials and medical authorities have urged the general public to moderate their intake of saturated fats; that recent studies have shown that many restaurants, particularly fast food restaurants, use highly saturated fats, such as beef tallow, in the preparation of deep fried foods; that restaurants do not disclose in their menus or otherwise routinely disclose the kind of fat used in their fried foods; and that requiring such disclosure would enable consumers, particularly consumers with histories or family histories of heart disease or stroke, to make more intelligent decisions with respect to the foods they consume, decisions more consistent with their long term health. Therefore, the legislature enacts this law requiring all restaurants serving deep fried foods to disclose to consumers the kind of fat used in the preparation of such foods.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall adopt rules requiring restaurants that sell deep fried foods to disclose in a conspicuous manner to prospective consumers of such foods the kind of fat or fats used to deep fry the foods, and if the director finds it in the interest of public health, the extent to which the fat or fats are saturated. Any fried foods sold or offered for sale in violation of this section or the rules adopted hereunder shall be deemed to be misbranded for the purposes of this chapter. For purposes of this section, the word 'restaurants' shall be broadly construed to mean any commercial food service establishment that prepares deep fried foods and sells the same, whether on or off the premises, to consumers of such foods."
