Any proposed improvement or part thereof, not exceeding five thousand dollars in cost, may be constructed by district employees: PROVIDED, That this shall not restrict a special district from using volunteer labor and equipment on improvements, and providing reimbursement for actual expenses.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 51. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 62, chapter 72, Laws of 1937, section 10, chapter 104, Laws of 1982, section 56, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 86.09.184; and

Sec. 52, Section 51, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.151 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Said flood control districts shall have full authority to carry out the objects of their creation and to that end are authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, lease, manage, improve, repair, occupy, and sell real and personal property or any interest therein, either inside or outside the boundaries of the district, to enter into and perform any and all necessary contracts, to appoint and employ the necessary officers, agents and employees, to sue and be sued, to exercise the right of eminent domain, to levy and enforce the collection of special assessments and in the manner herein provided against the lands within the district, for district revenues, and to do any and all lawful acts required and expedient to carry out the purpose of this chapter.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred in this chapter and those in chapter 85.38 RCW, flood control districts may engage in activities authorized under RCW 36.61.020 for lake management districts using procedures granted in this chapter and in chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 53. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply to sections 54 and 55 of this act.

(1) 'State highway right of way' means the right of way for a state highway. The phrase includes the right of way of a state limited-access highway inside or outside a city or town but does not include city or town streets forming a part of the route of state highways that are not limited-access highways. The term does not include state property under the jurisdiction of the department of transportation that is outside the right of way lines of a state highway.

(2) 'Storm water control facility' means any facility, improvement, development, property, or interest therein, made, constructed, or acquired for the purpose of controlling, or protecting life or property from, any storm, waste, flood, or surplus waters.

(3) 'Rate' means the dollar amount charged per unit of surface area of a parcel of real property based upon factors established by the local government utility.

(4) 'Comparable real property' means real property equal to the state highway right of way or a section of state highway right of way in terms of the factors considered by the local government utility in establishing rates.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

The rate charged by a local government utility to the department of transportation with respect to state highway right of way or any section of state highway right of way for the construction, operation, and maintenance of storm water control facilities under chapters 35.67, 35.92, 36.89, 36.94, 56.08, and 86.15 RCW, shall be thirty percent of the rate for comparable real property, except as otherwise provided in this section. The rate charged to the department with respect to state highway right of way or any section of state highway right of way within a local government utility's jurisdiction shall not, however, exceed the rate charged for comparable city street or county road right of way within the same jurisdiction. The legislature finds that the aforesaid rates are presumptively fair and equitable because of the traditional and continuing expenditures of the department of transportation for the construction, operation, and maintenance of storm water control facilities designed to control surface water or storm water runoff from state highway rights of way. The utility imposing the charge and the department of transportation may, however, agree to either higher or lower rates with respect to the construction, operation, or maintenance of any specific storm water control facilities based upon the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and upon the actual benefits to state highway rights of way from the storm water control facilities constructed by the local government utility. If a different rate is agreed to, a report so stating shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. If the local government utility and the department of transportation cannot agree upon the proper rate, and after a report has been submitted to the legislative transportation committee and after ninety days from submission of such report, either may commence an action in the superior court for the county in which the state highway right of way is located to establish the proper rate. The court in establishing the proper rate shall take into account the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and the actual benefits to the sections of state highway rights of way from storm water control facilities constructed, operated, and maintained by the local government utility. Control of surface water runoff and storm water runoff from state highway rights of way shall be deemed an actual benefit to the state highway rights of way. The rate for sections of state highway right of way as determined by the court shall be set forth in terms of the percentage of the rate for comparable real property, but shall in no event exceed the rate charged for comparable city street or county road right of way within the same jurisdiction.

Sec. 55. Section 1, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.67.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by cities and towns pursuant to RCW 35.67.020. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 56. Section 2, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.92.021 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by cities and towns pursuant to RCW 35.92.020. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 57. Section 3, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.89.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by counties pursuant to RCW 36.89.080. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 58. Section 4, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.94.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by counties pursuant to RCW 36.94.140. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 59. Section 5, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by sewer districts pursuant to RCW 56.08.010 or 56.16.090. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 60. Section 16, chapter 153, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.15.160 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter the supervisors may authorize:

(1) An annual excess ad valorem tax levy within any zone or participating zones when authorized by the voters of the zone or participating zones under RCW 84.52.052 and 84.52.054;

(2) An assessment upon property, including state property, specially benefited by flood control improvements or storm water control improvements imposed under chapter 86.09 RCW;

(3) Within any zone or participating zones an annual ad valorem property tax levy of not to exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when the levy will not take dollar rates that other taxing districts may lawfully claim and that will not cause the combined levies to exceed the constitutional and/or statutory limitations, and the additional levy, or any portion thereof, may also be made when dollar rates of other taxing units is released therefor by agreement with the other taxing units from their authorized levies;

(4) A charge, under RCW 36.89.080, for the furnishing of service to those who are receiving or will receive benefits from storm water control facilities and who are contributing to an increase in surface water runoff. Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state and state property, shall be liable for the charges to the same extent a private person and privately owned property is liable for the charges, and in setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of in-kind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property;

(5) The creation of local improvement districts and utility local improvement districts, the issuance of improvement district bonds and warrants, and the imposition, collection, and enforcement of special assessments on all property, including any state-owned or other publicly-owned property, specially benefited from improvements in the same manner as provided for counties by chapter 36.94 RCW.

Sec. 61. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.15.176 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisors may provide by resolution for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of service to those served (~~(-including public entities;)~~) or receiving benefits from a flood control improvement (~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~) including public entities, except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act. The service charge shall be uniform for the same class of benefits or service. In classifying services furnished or benefits received the board may in its discretion consider the character and use of land and its water runoff characteristics and any other matters that present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Service charges shall be applicable to a zone or participating zones. The disposition of all revenue from service charges shall be in accordance with RCW 86.15.130.

Sec. 62. Section 8, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 90.03.500 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that increasing the surface water or storm water accumulation on or flow over real property, beyond that which naturally occurs on the real property, may cause severe damage to the real property and limit the gainful use or enjoyment of the real property, resulting in a tort, nuisance, or taking. The damage can arise from activities increasing the point or nonpoint flow of surface water or storm water over the real property, or altering or interrupting the natural drainage from the real property. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to permit the construction and operation of public improvements to lessen the damage. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to provide for the equitable imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges to fund such improvements. This shall include the imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges on real property to fund that reasonable portion of the public improvements that alleviate the damage arising from activities that are the proximate cause of the damage on other real property. Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, these special assessments, rates, and charges may be imposed on any publicly-owned, including state-owned, real property that causes such damage.

Sec. 63. Section 9, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 90.03.510 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a county, city, town, sewer district, or flood control zone district imposes rates or charges to fund storm water control facilities or improvements and the operation and maintenance of such facilities or improvements under RCW 35.67.020, 35.92.020, 36.89.080, 36.94.140, 56.08.010, or 56.16.090, it (~~(shall)~~) may provide a credit for the value of storm water control facilities or improvements that a person or entity has installed or located that mitigate or lessen the impact of storm water which otherwise would occur.

Sec. 64. Section 84.64.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 179, Laws of 1984 and by section 19, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.64.050 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.

The county treasurer may include in the certificate of delinquency any assessments which are due on the property and are the responsibility of the county treasurer to collect. For purposes of this chapter, 'taxes, interest, and costs' include any assessments which are so included by the county treasurer.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners, and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED, That(~~at least thirty days~~) prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL
AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4486 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

Representatives Haugen, Betzoff, Hankins, Brough and Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson: "Mr. Speaker, oftentimes I have a little red book here on my desk that I kind of thumb through from time to time, and I would like to ask a question: In Article II, section 19, it says, 'No bill shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.' I am wondering if this bill fits that requirement?"

The Speaker: "Reed's Rule 161 speaks to the incompatibility or the inconsistency of amendments and, also, the question of unconstitutionality is not for the Speaker to decide. Incompatibility, inconsistency and constitutionality are matters of argument. So, Representative Isaacson, I'm not going to comment on this."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4486 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4738, revising provisions relating to juvenile offenders, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 7, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.32A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A law enforcement officer shall take a child into custody:

(1) If a law enforcement agency has been contacted by the parent of the child that the child is absent from parental custody without consent; or

(2) If a law enforcement officer reasonably believes, considering the child's age, the location, and the time of day, that a child is in circumstances which constitute a danger to the child's (physical) safety; or

(3) If an agency legally charged with the supervision of a child has notified a law enforcement agency that the child has run away from placement; or

(4) If a law enforcement agency has been notified by the juvenile court that the court finds probable cause exists to believe that the child has violated a court placement order issued pursuant to chapter 13.32A RCW.

Law enforcement custody shall not extend beyond the amount of time reasonably necessary to transport the child to a destination authorized by law and to place the child at that destination.

An officer who takes a child into custody under this section and places the child in a designated crisis residential center shall inform the department of such placement within twenty-four hours.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the authority of any political subdivision to make regulations concerning the conduct of minors in public places by ordinance or other local law.

Sec. 2. Section 21, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 5, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 may, at his or her discretion, transport the child to the home of a responsible adult who is other than the child's parent where the officer reasonably believes that the child will be provided with adequate care and supervision and that the child will remain in the custody of such adult until such time as the department can bring about the child's return home or an alternative residential placement can be agreed to or determined pursuant to this chapter. An officer placing a child with a responsible adult other than his or her parent shall immediately notify the department's local community service office of this fact and of the reason for taking the child into custody.

(2) A law enforcement officer acting ~~((reasonably and))~~ in good faith pursuant to this chapter in failing to take a child into custody, in taking a child into custody, or in releasing a child to a person other than a parent of such child is immune from civil or criminal liability for such action.

(3) A person other than a parent of such child who receives a child pursuant to this chapter and who acts reasonably and in good faith in doing so is immune from civil or criminal liability for the act of receiving such child. Such immunity does not release such person from liability under any other law including the laws regulating licensed child care and prohibiting child abuse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There shall be created a joint select legislative committee to review the implementation and administration of:

(1) Chapter 13.04 RCW, the basic juvenile court act;

(2) Chapter 13.32A RCW, procedures for families in conflict generally, and specifically review the alternative residential placement process and the advisability of granting the juvenile court jurisdiction to make in-house placements. The committee shall consider the establishment of a residential school to address the needs of children who, pursuant to law, may be ordered into an alternative residential placement. A residential school may be funded and operated, in whole or in part by private contributions;

(3) Chapter 13.34 RCW, the juvenile court act relating to dependency of a child and the termination of a parent and child relationship; and

(4) Chapter 74.13 RCW, child welfare services.

The joint select legislative committee shall be composed of bipartisan members of the house and senate judiciary committee to be selected at the discretion of the committee chairpersons.

The committee established under this section shall meet and conduct hearings as often as is necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter.

In reviewing the implementation and administration of chapters 13.04, 13.32A, 13.34, and 74.13 RCW the joint select legislative committee may inquire into instances where it is alleged that a law enforcement officer, school employee, department employee, judge, or juvenile court employee has either misrepresented a provision of the cited chapters or has failed to follow any such provision.

The joint select legislative committee shall be granted access to all relevant information necessary to monitor behavior of agencies and/or employees: PROVIDED, That any confidential information shall be kept confidential by members of the committee and shall not be further disseminated unless specifically authorized by state or federal law.

The joint select legislative committee shall report its findings and make recommendations regarding implementation of the chapters cited in this section in a report submitted to the legislature before the 1988 regular session of the legislature.

The joint select legislative committee, unless recreated by the legislature, shall cease to exist after submitting the report required under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that there is evidence of failure to implement and enforce juvenile justice laws. This failure may be due to a number of factors, including, but not necessarily limited to, resource limitations within the various units of government charged with responsibility for such implementation and enforcement.

Therefore, commencing with the effective date of this act, and continuing through such time as further legislative direction is enacted into law, any person legally responsible for implementation or enforcement of any provision of chapter 13.04, 13.32A, 13.34, or 74.13 RCW who is unable to implement or enforce any such provision shall file a report on the situation as soon as possible with the oversight committee created under section 3 of this act or, if the oversight committee has ceased to exist, to the judiciary committees of the house of representatives and the senate. Any such report shall include a documented description of the situation and the reason or reasons for failure to implement or enforce the provision in question.

Nothing contained in this section is intended to limit criminal or civil liability or to protect any employee against possible disciplinary action for failure to perform his or her duties.

Sec. 5. Section 74, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 15, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a respondent fails to comply with an order of restitution, community supervision, penalty assessments, or confinement of less than thirty days, the court upon motion of the prosecutor or its own motion, may modify the order after a hearing on the violation.

(2) The hearing shall afford the respondent the same due process of law as would be afforded an adult probationer. The court may issue a summons or a warrant to compel the respondent's appearance. The state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the fact of the violation. The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the violation was not a willful refusal to comply with the terms of the order. If a respondent has failed to pay a fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or to perform community service hours, as required by the court, it shall be the respondent's burden to show that he or she did not have the means and could not reasonably have acquired the means to pay the fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or perform community service.

(3) (a) If the court finds that a respondent has willfully violated the terms of an order pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, it may impose a penalty of up to thirty days' confinement. Penalties for multiple violations occurring prior to the hearing shall not be aggregated to exceed thirty days' confinement. Regardless of the number of times a respondent is brought to court for violations of the terms of a single disposition order, the combined total number of days spent by the respondent in detention shall never exceed the maximum term to which an adult could be sentenced for the underlying offense.

(b) If the violation of the terms of the order under (a) of this subsection is failure to pay fines, penalty assessments, complete community service, or make restitution, the term of confinement imposed under (a) of this subsection shall be assessed at a rate of one day of confinement for each twenty-five dollars or eight hours owed.

(4) If a respondent has been ordered to pay a fine or monetary penalty and due to a change of circumstance cannot reasonably comply with the order, the court, upon motion of the respondent, may order that the unpaid fine or monetary penalty be converted to community service. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty or fine shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour. The monetary penalties or fines collected shall be deposited in the county general fund. A failure to comply with an order under this subsection shall be deemed a failure to comply with an order of community supervision and may be proceeded against as provided in this section.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In so doing the board shall consider the toxicity or other potentiality for harmful effect of the drug, the method of its use, and any collateral safeguards necessary to its use. The board shall classify a drug as a legend drug where these considerations indicate the drug is not safe for use except under the supervision of a practitioner.

In identifying legend drugs the board may incorporate in its rules lists of drugs contained in commercial pharmaceutical publications by making specific reference to each such list and the date and edition of the commercial publication containing it. Any such lists so incorporated shall be available for public inspection at the headquarters of the ~~((state board of pharmacy))~~ department of licensing and shall be available on request from the ~~((board))~~ department of licensing upon payment of a reasonable fee to be set by the ~~((board))~~ department of licensing.

(b) After considering the factors enumerated in subsection (a) the board may issue a rule controlling the substance if it finds the substance has a potential for abuse.

(c) If the board designates a substance as an immediate precursor, substances which are precursors of the controlled precursor shall not be subject to control solely because they are precursors of the controlled precursor.

(d) If any substance is designated, rescheduled, or deleted as a controlled substance under federal law and notice thereof is given to the board, the substance shall be similarly controlled under this chapter after the expiration of thirty days from publication in the Federal Register of a final order designating a substance as a controlled substance or rescheduling or deleting a substance, unless within that thirty day period, the board objects to inclusion, rescheduling, or deletion. (a) Every person who manufactures, prescribes, distributes, or dispenses any controlled substance within this state or who proposes to engage in the manufacture, prescription, distribution, or dispensing of any controlled substance within this state, including agents or employees of manufacturers or distributors distributing samples of controlled substances to practitioners must obtain annually a registration issued by the ~~((state board of pharmacy))~~ department in accordance with ~~((the))~~ the board's rules.

(b) Persons registered by the ~~((board))~~ department under this chapter to manufacture, prescribe, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with controlled substances may possess, manufacture, prescribe, distribute, dispense, or conduct research with those substances to the extent authorized by their registration and in conformity with the other provisions of this Article.

(c) The following persons need not register and may lawfully possess controlled substances under this chapter:

(3) an ultimate user or a person in possession of any controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner or in lawful possession of a Schedule V substance.

(d) The board may waive by rule the requirement for registration of certain manufacturers, prescribers, distributors, or dispensers if it finds it consistent with the public health and safety: PROVIDED, That personal practitioners licensed or registered in the state of Washington under the respective professional licensing acts shall not be required to be registered under this chapter unless the specific exemption is denied pursuant to RCW 69.50.305 for violation of any provisions of this chapter.

(e) A separate registration is required at each principal place of business or professional practice where the applicant manufactures, distributes, or dispenses controlled substances.

(f) The ~~((board))~~ department may inspect the establishment of a registrant or applicant for registration in accordance with the board's rule.

Sec. 1022. Section 69.50.303, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 69.50.303 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) compliance with applicable state and local law;

(3) any convictions of the applicant under any federal and state laws relating to any controlled substance;

(4) past experience in the manufacture or distribution of controlled substances, and the existence in the applicant's establishment of effective controls against diversion;

(5) furnishing by the applicant of false or fraudulent material in any application filed under this chapter;

(6) suspension or revocation of the applicant's federal registration to manufacture, distribute, or dispense controlled substances as authorized by federal law; and

(7) any other factors relevant to and consistent with the public health and safety.

(b) Registration under subsection (a) does not entitle a registrant to manufacture and distribute controlled substances in Schedule I or II other than those specified in the registration.

(c) Practitioners must be registered, or exempted under RCW 69.50.302(d), to dispense any controlled substances or to conduct research with controlled substances in Schedules II through V if they are authorized to dispense or conduct research under the law of this state. The board need not require separate registration under this Article for practitioners engaging in research with nonnarcotic controlled substances in Schedules II through V where the registrant is already registered under this Article in another capacity. Practitioners registered under federal law to conduct research with Schedule I substances may conduct research with Schedule I substances within this state upon furnishing the board evidence of that federal registration.

(d) Compliance by manufacturers and distributors with the provisions of the federal law respecting registration entitles them to be registered under this chapter upon application and payment of the required fee.

Sec. 1023. Section 69.50.304, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 69.50.304 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) has violated any state or federal rule or regulation regarding controlled substances.

(b) The board may limit revocation or suspension of a registration to the particular controlled substance or schedule of controlled substances, with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension exist.

(c) If the board suspends or revokes a registration, all controlled substances owned or possessed by the registrant at the time of suspension or the effective date of the revocation order may be placed under seal. No disposition may be made of substances under seal until the time for taking an appeal has elapsed or until all appeals have been concluded unless a court, upon application therefor, orders the sale of perishable substances and the deposit of the proceeds of the sale with the court. Upon a revocation order becoming final, all controlled substances may be forfeited to the state.

(d) The ~~((board))~~ department shall promptly notify the Bureau of all orders suspending or revoking registration and all forfeitures of controlled substances.

Any agency so registered shall not permit a person to administer sodium pentobarbital unless such person has demonstrated adequate knowledge of the potential hazards and proper techniques to be used in administering this drug.

The ~~((board))~~ department may issue a limited registration to carry out the provisions of this section. The board shall promulgate such rules as it deems necessary to insure strict compliance with the provisions of this section. All information appearing on such written reports shall be revised at least annually. These reports shall be verified by the president, or the vice president, and one other officer of the cemetery authority, the accountant or auditor who prepared the report, and, if required by the ~~((board))~~ department for good cause, a certified

Sec. 1034. Section 23, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 and RCW 68.46.170 are each amended to read as follows:

No cemetery authority shall enter into prearrangement contracts in this state unless the cemetery authority has obtained a prearrangement sales license issued by the ~~((board or its authorized representative))~~ department and such license is then current and valid.

(4) Is found by the board after investigation or receipt of reliable information to be managed by persons who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed or continued operation hazardous to purchasers, beneficiaries, or the public; or

(5) Is found by the board to use false, misleading, or deceptive advertisements or sales methods.

Sec. 1037. Section 31, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 and RCW 68.46.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~(board or its authorized representative)~~) department shall give a cemetery authority notice of its intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a prearrangement sales license, and the board shall grant the cemetery authority a hearing, in the manner required for contested cases under chapter 34.04 RCW, before the order of suspension, revocation, or refusal may become effective.

No cemetery authority whose prearrangement sales license has been suspended, revoked, or refused shall subsequently be authorized to enter into prearrangement contracts unless the grounds for such suspension, revocation, or refusal in the opinion of the board no longer exist and the cemetery authority is otherwise fully qualified. Any prearrangement sale by an unlicensed cemetery authority shall be voidable by the purchaser who shall be entitled to a full refund.

Sec. 1038. Section 32, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 and RCW 68.46.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The (~~(board or its authorized representative)~~) department may issue and serve upon a cemetery authority a notice of charges if in the opinion of the (~~(board)~~) department or its authorized representative the cemetery authority:

(b) Is violating or has violated any statute of the state of Washington or any rule of the board; or

(c) Is about to do an act prohibited in (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section when the opinion is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or practice and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held by the board to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the cemetery authority. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the board (~~(or its authorized representative)~~) at the request of the cemetery authority.

Unless the cemetery authority appears at the hearing by a duly authorized representative it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of a cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the board finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the board may issue and serve upon the cemetery authority an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the cemetery authority and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the cemetery authority to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service of the order upon the cemetery authority except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective as provided in the order unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the board or a reviewing court.

(4) The powers of the board under this section are in addition to the power of the board to refuse to renew or to revoke or suspend a cemetery authority's prearrangement sales license.

Sec. 1039. Section 33, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 and RCW 68.46.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board (~~(or its authorized representative)~~) determines that a cemetery authority is in violation of this chapter or that the continuation of acts or practices of the cemetery authority is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the cemetery authority or to otherwise seriously prejudice the interests of the purchasers or beneficiaries of prearrangement contracts, the board (~~(or its authorized representative)~~) may issue a temporary order requiring the cemetery authority to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the cemetery authority and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under RCW 68.46.240 or until the board dismisses the charges specified in the notice under RCW 68.46.220 or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the cemetery authority under RCW 68.46.220.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, creating Washington health care project commission, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill.

Signed by Senators McDermott, Talmadge; Representatives J. King, Brekke.

MOTION

Mr. J. King moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 and grant the committee powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, I challenge the scope and object of this conference report and ask the Speaker for a ruling."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, regarding your point of order on Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2021, under Rule 8 of our Joint Rules, a Free Conference report may include new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference. The Speaker has examined the bill and the report of the Free Conference Committee. The bill is entitled 'An Act Relating to managed health care....' The original bill establishes a new program to enroll public assistance recipients in managed health care systems. The items proposed in the Free Conference report expand the bill to include a program for managed health care for low-income persons not eligible for public assistance, a dedicated tax source to fund this program and a study of the problems of health care. The Speaker finds the provisions of the Free Conference report relate to the subject of managed health care and are therefore within the scope and object of the bill. Your point is not well taken."

Mr. Vander Stoep spoke against the motion and Mr. J. King spoke in favor of it.

The motion was lost.

MOTION

Mr. J. King moved that the House ask the Senate for a further conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, would you provide the House a reference as to the motion that has been made as to whether or not it is a motion that is privileged or to what extent this motion is proper in now accepting or asking for a conference?"

The Speaker: "Other than the fact that in the last twenty-four hours or so we have already done it three times, Reed's Rule 224, the last sentence reads: 'If not agreed to by either House, the only method of renewing the question is by a further conference or by one House receding and concurring with the other.' We have done this in the past."

The motion was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives J. King, Brekke and Ballard as conferees on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021.

The House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

On motion of Mr. J. King, the Rules Committee was relieved of HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 22 and it was ordered placed at the top of the second reading calendar.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 22, by Representatives Wang, Barrett, Brekke and Jacobsen: by request of Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped

Creating a joint select committee on disability employment and economic participation.

The resolution was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Appelwick, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Wang and Barrett spoke in favor of the resolution.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on adoption of House Concurrent Resolution No. 22, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 94; excused, 4.

Mr. Bristow: "Representative Barnes, Northwest Alloys Corporation produces magnesium. They use ferrosilicon to produce magnesium. If they produce their own ferrosilicon, the components that are used to produce ferrosilicon, which is later used to produce magnesium, are subject to sales tax. If they purchase ferrosilicon from an outside source and use that ferrosilicon in the manufacture of magnesium, sales tax is not required, so we are exempting the sales tax from the components that they would use to process and make ferrosilicon, which will later be used to make magnesium."

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on HOUSE BILL NO. 1631, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 1631, modifying provisions relating to nursing home cost reimbursement, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm's-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor, such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or

(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.

(b) ((Subparagraph (4))) The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. This subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving (a) of this subsection to apply alone to such transfers: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall apply to transfers of ownership of assets occurring prior to January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis or as a related-party lease.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the depreciation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the changes in the state reimbursement system for nursing homes, RCW 74.46.840, resulting from requirements of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, (DEFRA) (P.L. 98-369). The study shall include analysis of the effects of these changes on: (1) Nursing home sales since July 18, 1984, the effective date of DEFRA; (2) capital formation for nursing home purchases and sales; and (3) leased nursing homes. The study shall also review adjustments other states may be making as a result of DEFRA. The legislative budget committee shall report the results of this study, including recommendations for any needed legislation, to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1986.

Sec. 3. Section 41, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 17, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(j) Bad debts of non-Title XIX recipients. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.090 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. For purposes of this chapter:

- (1) 'Refuse collection business' means every person who receives waste for transfer, storage, or disposal including but not limited to all collection services, public or private dumps, transfer stations, and similar operations.
- (2) 'Person' shall have the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030 or any later, superseding section.
- (3) 'Waste' means garbage, trash, rubbish, or other material discarded as worthless or not economically viable for further use. The term does not include hazardous or toxic waste nor does it include material collected primarily for recycling or salvage.
- (4) 'Taxpayer' means that person upon whom the refuse collection tax is imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax, or in the alternative has not notified the taxpayer in writing of the imposition of the tax, or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11: To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

To be eligible for this exemption, a person first must be certified by the department of revenue as a refuse collection business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department of revenue shall have the power to enforce the tax imposed in this chapter through appropriate rules.

Sec. 14. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(a) Railroad, express, railroad car, sewerage collection, light and power, and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent;

(b) Gas distribution business: Three and six-tenths percent;

(c) Urban transportation business: Six-tenths of one percent;

(d) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: Six-tenths of one percent;

(f) Water distribution ((and refuse collection)) business((es)): Four and seven-tenths percent.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Twenty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on water distribution businesses(~~(. seventy percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on refuse collection businesses.))~~) and sixty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on sewerage collection businesses shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 6 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The legislature finds that the regulation, management, and disposal of solid waste through waste reduction, recycling, and the use of resource recovery facilities of the kind described in RCW 35.92.022 and 36.58.040 should be conducted in a manner substantially consistent with the priorities and policies of the Solid Waste Management Act, chapter 70.95 RCW. Nothing contained in sections 17 through 20 of this act shall detract from the powers, duties, and functions given to the utilities and transportation commission in chapter 81.77 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 35.92 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any city, the legislative authority of a city or town may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the city or town, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the city or town at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall (a) state in summary form, the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the city or town who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the city or town decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the city or town, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the city or town must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the city or town is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 18. Section 35.21.120, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city ~~((and))~~ or town may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of garbage collection and disposal for the entire city or town or for portions thereof, and award contracts for garbage collection and disposal or provide for it under the direction of officials and employees of the city or town. Contracts for solid waste handling may provide that a city or town pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contract period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 36.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any county, the legislative authority of a county may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the county, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the county at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall state in summary form (a) the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the county who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the county decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the county, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be interviewed and selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth above. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the county must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the county is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of each county may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of solid waste disposal for all the unincorporated areas of the county or for portions thereof. Each county may designate disposal sites for all solid waste collected in the unincorporated areas pursuant to the provisions of a comprehensive solid waste plan adopted pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW: PROVIDED, That for any solid waste collected by a private hauler operating pursuant to a certificate granted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission under the provisions of chapter 81.77 RCW and which certificate is for collection in a geographic area lying in more than one county, such designation of disposal sites shall be pursuant to an interlocal agreement between the involved counties.

Such systems may also provide for the processing and conversion of solid wastes into other valuable or useful products with full jurisdiction and authority to construct, lease, purchase, acquire, manage, regulate, maintain, operate, and control such system and plants, and to enter into agreements with public or private parties providing for the construction, purchase, acquisition, lease, maintenance, and operation of systems and plants for the processing and conversion of solid wastes and for the sale of said products. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW.

The legislative authority of a county may award contracts for solid waste handling, and such contracts may provide that a county pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contractual period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the operation of a solid waste collection system by counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 16 through 20 of this act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. Sections 16 through 20 of this act shall be deemed to provide an alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by the Washington state Constitution, other state laws, and the charter of any city or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "contracts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 39.04.010, 39.04.020, 39.04.050, 39.04.070, 82.16.020, 35.21.120, and 36.58.040; adding a new section to chapter 35.92 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.58 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 82 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 39.04.090; and prescribing penalties."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 10, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1754, encouraging employers to hire recipients of unemployment insurance benefits and public assistance, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that the essential purpose of state economic development programs is to encourage the hiring of the unemployed. It is of even greater benefit to the state if those hired were drawing unemployment benefits or public assistance and the benefits terminate when employment is secured. A targeted program that encourages employers to make a good faith effort to hire public assistance recipients and the unemployed will provide benefits to the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) 'Department' means the employment security department.

(2) 'First source contract' means an agreement by an employer to screen applicants from a pool of qualified individuals, if any, submitted to the employer by the department and to consider hiring from that pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall encourage the use of first source contracts with employers looking to locate or expand in the state. The department shall make every effort to guarantee easy access by employers to qualified workers. The commissioner may delegate duties under this chapter to a local organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department may provide specific financial incentives to employers who sign first source agreements if state funds are appropriated or if federal funds are made available for that purpose. The incentives may include but shall not be limited to providing an employer with up to fifty percent of a trainee's wages during the first ten weeks of employment and on-the-job training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employer and a prospective employee to be hired from the pool may agree to a thirty-day training period, at the end of which time the employer shall make a decision whether to hire the individual. The individual may continue to draw unemployment or public assistance, or both during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The funds specified in section 4 of this act shall be available during the thirty-day training period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall expire December 31, 1989.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 82.61.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Applicant' means a person applying for a tax deferral under this chapter.

(2) 'Person' has the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030.

(3) 'Department' means the department of revenue.

(4) 'Eligible investment project' means: (a) Construction of new buildings and the acquisition of related machinery and equipment when the buildings, machinery, and equipment are to be used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, which construction is commenced prior to December 31, ~~((1986))~~ 1988; or (b) acquisition prior to December 31, 1988, of machinery and equipment to be used for either manufacturing or research and development if the machinery and equipment is housed in a new leased structure: PROVIDED, That the lessor/owner of the structure is not eligible for a deferral unless the underlying ownership of the buildings, machinery, and equipment vests exclusively in the same person.

In addition to the requirements of this section, a project must create at least one new full-time qualified employment position for each three hundred thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested.

(5) 'Manufacturing' means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and includes the production or fabrication of specially made or custom-made articles.

(6) 'Research and development' means the development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process before commercial sales have begun.

(7) 'Buildings' means only those new structures used for either manufacturing or research and development activities, including plant offices and warehouses or other facilities for the storage of raw materials or finished goods if such facilities are an essential or an integral part of a factory, mill, plant, or laboratory used for manufacturing or research and development purposes. If a building is used partly for manufacturing or research and development and partly for other purposes, the applicable tax deferral shall be determined by apportionment of the costs of construction under rules adopted by the department.

MOTION

Mr. McMullen moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1754.

Mr. Schoon spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1754 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Cole: "Mr. Speaker, I request the Speaker's ruling on the potential violation of the Free Conference Committee report of House Rule 25(D)(6) regarding a negative revenue impact and the requirements of Joint Rule 19."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "House Rule 25(D)(6) provides that all bills having a direct negative revenue impact or a direct appropriation of $50,000 or more shall be referred to the Ways & Means Committee or Transportation Committee before their final passage. Rule 25(D)(6) applies whenever a bill is on final passage, unless superseded by the Joint Rules. In that regard, the Speaker would note the provisions of Joint Rules 8 and 9 as well as Reed's Rule 236.

"Under the Joint Rules, the two houses together may grant the powers of Free Conference which includes the power to consider new items within the scope and object of the title of the bill. Reed's Rule 236 provides that the Joint Rules are controlling over the rules adopted in either house by itself. Therefore, the Speaker finds that House Rule 25(D)(6) does not apply to a bill on final passage when amended by the report of a Free Conference Committee. Your point is not well taken, Representative Cole."

Representatives McMullen, Hargrove, Schoon, Fisch, Chandler, O'Brien, Taylor, Peery, Lundquist, Vekich and Wineberry spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Cole, Braddock, Sommers, Isaacson and D. Nelson opposed it.

Mr. Crane demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Section 7, on pages 16, 17 and 18 and the corresponding amendment by Senator Wojahn on line 1 of the title, and that the bill as amended do pass.

MOTION

Mr. Armstrong moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Braddock: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask for your ruling on scope and object of the amendments to this bill."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "On March 9, the Speaker ruled the Senate striking amendment to ESHB 1598 beyond the scope and object of the bill under House Rule 12(C). This ruling was based on the fact that while the original bill dealt with the sexual psychopath program, section 7 of the Senate amendment added a new program to reimburse state institutional employees for costs related to assaults by residents, patients or inmates. The report of the Conference Committee would delete section 7 of the Senate amendment. The Speaker has examined the remaining sections of the Senate striking amendment, and finds that they are not beyond the scope and object of the original bill and therefore, do not conflict with the Speaker's ruling of March 9. Your point is not well taken, Representative Braddock."

Representatives Locke, Niemi and Patrick spoke against the motion, and Representatives Armstrong, Padden and Valle spoke in favor of it.

A division was called.

Upon removal from designation under RCW 84.34.108, the amount of compensating tax due under this chapter shall be equal to:

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker: "The Speaker would like to take a moment. Today is an important day for a number of us and particularly to a colleague of mine--we came into the legislature together. Many of you know that Representative Earl Tilly and I (there are others, too, of course) are voluntarily leaving. The Speaker would like to introduce Mrs. Tilly and guests who are here on Earl's last day in the Washington State Legislature."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Tilly: "I thought this would be something I might say late tonight when there is no one else here. I got the official call this morning. The other day when the Speaker said that he would like to announce my appointment, I said, 'Well, I appreciate that, and it was great news to have the Senator's announcement, but I haven't heard from the guy I'm going to work for yet.' The call did come this morning so we're okay. I guess Barbara didn't know that yet either. The people who are the most proud of this are my kids. They said, 'Dad, you're going to have a real job.'

"I have thought several times of what this would be like, this last day and I had to think about what it was like when I first came here. I remember when we told the children --they were very small then. Our boy was 4 or 5--and when I told him that Dad might go to work in Olympia, he said 'Well, I wouldn't mind living in that big white courthouse over there.' We've really got a lot of good memories and I could tell a lot of stories. I could give you my oral history if the Speaker didn't want to get out of here today. There are some thoughts I would like to share and they really come from, I guess, my previous experience of being in business. Some of you maybe get tired of hearing this, but you need that business perspective down here. I got it from my Dad. I think a lot of us are lucky to have had parents who have shared their basic fundamentals. We were in a very, very competitive business and there's a present colleague here who I competed with for many years. He was selling another brand product, which I won't mention because there are ladies present. A lot of times in that type of competition, people would say bad things about our products and Dad would never say anything bad about the others. His tenet was that if you can't say anything good about somebody, you shouldn't say anything. I guess that's the only part about politics that I have not enjoyed. I want to lay it on you folks; it would be great in the 1986 elections if all we heard was positive things about ourselves. I would sure like to see us prescribe to that rule.

Call that the Tilly Rule. We talked about the Sullivan Rule last night, and I think that should be a rule that we, as politicians, should use.

"I would not have been able to be here today without the support of my family. Without my parents and Barbara's parents, especially Barbara and the kids, it just would not have been possible. I think most of you know that this is my tenth year to be here without my family. The first four years when the kids were small, the family came with me and they went to school here and after a of day being here, they didn't want to go back to Wenatchee and we had that seesaw every year, but once they got to junior high age, we felt it was best for them to stay and be able to maintain their social contacts in the schools they were accustomed to being in.

"As I leave you today, the new agency I will be with is the Farmer's Home Administration. It's a division of the Department of Agriculture. The part that is really attractive to me is their mission statement to improve the quality of life in rural America. I wouldn't be able to take this position without your help, all of you. You have taught me a lot. People ask me how I ever got into politics and what did I have to know--business contacts would ask. I told them I had to take a lot of bumps on the head from you and that's what taught me to work over in this area. I think you have taught me how to care about people to a greater degree, and I really feel that this is going to help prepare me for this next position. You know, you hear the advertisement slogan, 'Baseball, hotdogs, apple pie and FHA.' I'm going to miss you. I know that you will do great things for the people in the state in the future, and if it's ever possible to do something with you again, I'd love to do it. Thank you very much."

Could you explain to the body what the historic properties as defined in RCW 84.26.020 are?"

Mr. Vekich: "Representative Nelson, it is my understanding that is the register of historic places."

Mr. G. Nelson: "It would be my understanding then that the idea here is to provide parking facilities only in those locations where the historic facility landmark has been placed?"

Mr. Vekich: "Yes."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Hastings: "Mr. Speaker, section 2 is an expansion of the statutory industrial revenue bonds part of the statutes, which, I believe, our Constitution gives a sixty percent requirement. How many votes does this bill have to have in order to pass?"

The Speaker: "It has to have fifty-nine votes, since there is a bond attached to the section."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1825 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 67; nays, 31.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 11, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate insists on its position on SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765, refuses to recede and once again asks the House to concur in the Senate amendments, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Braddock moved that the House insist on its position and again ask the Senate to recede from the amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1765.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Barnes.

Mr. Barnes: "Representative Braddock, you may know by now that I am a little bit slow-witted and I'm having trouble keeping up. Would you explain to us what this bill does?"

Mr. Braddock: "There has been a case filed against the Department of Social and Health Services defining whether or not the spouses of eligible SSI beneficiaries can receive grants and aid and medical assistance. This bill is intended to clarify that position. The Senate version that they have sent to us broadens beyond the original bill that I sponsored the benefits paid to beneficiaries and would have a cost estimated to be around $900,000. I believe that we should stick with the House position and provide a response to the case that has been lost but is on appeal. I believe we should not take the action that the Senate is requesting unless, or until, that appeal is finished and we know whether or not we will win or lose that case. I believe we have evidence that we can be successful in that case, and if we take the House position that I am recommending, we will be saving the state approximately $900,000."

Mr. Taylor spoke in favor of the motion and Ms. Brekke opposed it.

The motion was carried.

~~(7) ((By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. ~~(8) Every two years:))~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (~~other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020;~~) the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
- (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
- (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
- (f) Pay a fine, ((~~make restitution;~~)) and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, ((~~restitution;~~)) a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of ((~~any~~)) a sex offense other than a violation of ((~~chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except~~)) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions ((~~of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020;~~)) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, ((~~make restitution;~~)) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recompense to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A-20-020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ~~((are)), partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:~~

The offender score is ((computed in the following way:)) the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed 'other current offenses' within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

~~((2))~~ (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

~~((3))~~ (10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior~~(s)~~ convictions as in subsection ~~((5))~~ (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

~~((4))~~ (11) If the present conviction is for ~~(Vehicular Homicide, only)~~ a felony traffic offense count ~~(the following crimes as part of the offender score:)~~ two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide~~(, Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500))~~. Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections ~~(2), (3), (4), or (8)~~ of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction); count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

~~((6))~~ (12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

~~((7))~~ (14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ~~((9))~~ (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

~~((8))~~ If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.

~~(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.~~

~~(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~

~~(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.~~

~~(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.~~

~~The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.~~

~~The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.))~~

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ~~((use))~~ rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ~~((and))~~ or admitted ~~((to or))~~, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ~~((real))~~ facts shall be deemed ~~((proven))~~ proved at the ~~((evidentiary))~~ hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ~~((Real))~~ Facts that establish the elements of ~~((a higher crime))~~ a more serious crime~~((;))~~ or additional crimes ~~((cannot))~~ may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) and (d).

Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence~~((;))~~. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

~~((1))~~ (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

~~((2))~~ (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

~~((3))~~ (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

~~((4))~~ (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

~~((5))~~ (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

~~((6))~~ (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

~~((7))~~ (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

~~((1))~~ (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

((2)) (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

((3)) (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

((d)) (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

((4)) (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify ((am)) a current offense as a major VUCSA:

((a)) (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

((b)) (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

((c)) (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d)) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or~~

((e)) (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

((f)) (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

((g)) (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

((h)) (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ((9.94A.400)) 9.94A.010.

~~((The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.))~~

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ~~((criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct))~~ if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ((in determining criminal history)). Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's ~~((prior convictions as))~~ criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ~~((a criminal history))~~ an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any ~~((remaining))~~ offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run ~~((consecutively))~~ concurrently with any felony ((sentences previously) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court(:)) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the ((subsequent) current sentence expressly orders that they be served ((concurrently)) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, ~~((this))~~ that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

- (i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((13)) below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
 - (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.
- (2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
- (a) Charging a higher degree;
 - (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended;

or

- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;

(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

(2) Statutory rape in the first degree is a class A felony. No person convicted of statutory rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except ~~((for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility))~~ under RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who, ~~((without lawful authority and))~~ with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, wilfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ~~((to his own use))~~ any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

(2) A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

(3) Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

(4) Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 34. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

(a) Revoke or suspend practice privileges granted in that state to a holder of a certified public accountant certificate or a public accountant registrant of that state; or

(b) Revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice in that state who holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(2) Unless the charge or charges are dismissed by the board as unfounded or trivial, the board shall set a date for hearing not later than ninety days after formal charges are filed. A copy of the charge or charges, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing before the board shall be served not less than thirty days prior to the date set for hearing on the accused either personally or by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the address of the accused last known to the board;

(3) If after having been so served with a notice of hearing, the accused fails to appear at the hearing, the board may proceed to hear evidence against him and may enter such order as may be justified by the evidence, which shall be final unless the accused petitions for a review thereof. Within thirty days from the date of any such order upon a showing of good cause for failing to appear, the board may reopen the proceedings and may permit the accused to submit evidence in his or her behalf;

(4) At any hearing the accused may appear in person and by counsel, may produce evidence and witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may cross-examine such witnesses as may appear against him. A partnership may be represented before the board by counsel or by a partner. A corporation may be represented before the board by counsel or by a shareholder. (5) The board, or any member thereof, may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and may administer oaths, take testimony, hear proofs, and receive exhibits in evidence in connection with or upon hearing under this chapter. To compel obedience to a subpoena the board may invoke the aid of any court of this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence;

(6) The board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence;

(7) The decision of the board shall be by majority vote;

(10) Any person adversely affected by any action of the board may obtain a review thereof by filing a written petition for review in the superior court of the county in which he resides within thirty days after the entry of such order. A copy of the petition shall be served upon any member of the board and thereupon the board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record upon which the order complained of was entered. The court will hear the matter de novo, and may sustain, modify, or set aside the board's order in whole or in part, or may remand the matter to the board for further action, and may, in its discretion, stay the effect of the board's order pending its determination of the case. The court's decision has the force and effect of a decree in equity; and

(11) On rendering a decision to: (a) Revoke or suspend a certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105; (b) revoke or suspend a registration issued under RCW 18.04.195; or (c) revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, the board shall examine its records to determine whether the accused holds a certificate, a registration, or a permit or annual limited permit to practice in any other state. If the board determines that the accused holds a certificate, or a registration in any other state, the board shall notify the board of accountancy of the other state of its decision by mail within thirty days of rendering the decision)) under the provisions of this chapter, such proceedings and any appeal therefrom shall be taken in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

However, the employee or assistant shall not issue any accounting or financial statement over his or her name.

(2) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant registered in another state, or any accountant of a foreign country holding a certificate, degree or license which permits him to practice therein from temporarily practicing in this state on professional business incident to his regular practice.

(3) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to other certified public accountants, peer review teams, partnerships, or corporations of public accountants engaged in conducting peer reviews, or any one of their employees in connection with peer reviews of that accountant's accounting and auditing practice conducted under the auspices of recognized professional associations.

(4) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to any employee, representative, officer, or committee member of a recognized professional association, or to the board of accountancy, or any of its employees or committees in connection with a professional (~~'ethics')~~ investigation held under the auspices of recognized professional associations or the board of accountancy.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 12, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 12, 1986

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2021, creating Washington health care project commission, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;

(b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;

(c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;

(d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:

(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;

(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;

(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;

(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;

(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;

(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-of-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services; and

(i) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There is created the Washington health care project commission composed of fifteen members; four members shall be state representatives, two from each political party appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; four members shall be state senators, two from each political party appointed by the president of the senate.

The legislative members of the commission shall select seven public members, to serve on the commission, that are representative of health care professionals, health care providers, those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, industry, consumers, and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy.

The legislative members shall select from among the public members one to serve as chairman and from among the legislative members four to serve, together with the chairman, as an executive committee of the commission.

(1) The commission may hire staff or contract for professional assistance with funds made available for their activities. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide staff support. The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and services, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs or access to health care.

The public members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members, but shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as specified in RCW 44.04.120.

The commission may establish ad hoc technical advisory committees to assist it with any particular matters deemed necessary and any person serving in such capacity may be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of such committee or the commission in the same manner as public members of the commission.

(2) The commission shall have the following responsibilities:

(a) To review and estimate the following information about persons in the state of Washington who do not have health care coverage:

- (i) The numbers of such persons;
- (ii) Their age and geographic distribution;
- (iii) Their employment status;
- (iv) Their family size;
- (v) Their economic status; and
- (vi) Such other information as the commission deems relevant.

(b) To define basic health care coverage, using the following guidelines:

(i) The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive primary health care, including necessary physician services, and inpatient and outpatient hospital services;

(ii) The schedule of services shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care;

(iii) The schedule of services shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children eighteen years of age and younger, for those who might choose to secure basic coverage only for their dependent children;

(iv) In designing the schedule of services, the commission shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080; and

(v) The schedule of services shall be based upon an estimated cost not exceeding fifty dollars per month per person enrolled. The commission may develop alternative schedules of services based on higher or lower monthly costs as it deems appropriate.

(c) After establishing at least a tentative schedule of basic health care services, obtain the following information about persons identified in (a) of this subsection:

(i) An estimate of demand for basic health coverage expressed in terms of numbers of potential enrollees if such a program were made available to them, including the basis upon which such an offering should be made; and

(ii) The characteristics of likely enrollees including demographic and economic data, likely utilization and such other actuarial information as needed to estimate the likely cost of the benefit schedule defined by the commission.

(3) The commission shall then use the information obtained pursuant to this section to develop plans that includes:

(a) Methods of delivery for the schedule of basic health care services by managed health care systems;

(b) Methods of soliciting and accepting application for participation in the program to deliver such basic health care services on a demonstration basis from managed health care systems, including payment methods, rates, and any risk sharing provisions;

(c) Methods whereby the delivery of such services could be integrated with the managed health care systems that may be participating in the medical assistance program of the department of social and health services;

(d) A structure of periodic payments, based upon gross family income, that would be the responsibility of any person or subscriber within the identified groups, or that might be made the responsibility of another private party;

(e) Establishing necessary eligibility standards and guidelines for person seeking such health care coverage, and whatever administrative structure may be needed to enroll such persons;

(f) Methods of monitoring the provision of services to enrollees and the quality of care provided; and

(g) Methods of funding the reasonably anticipated costs of such plans, collectively or individually.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care systems" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract the schedule of services by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis.

(5) The commission shall submit a final report to the legislature no later than December 1, 1986. The report shall include plans that address the needs for such a basic health care program for any identified groups of persons and an analysis of any alternatives considered, but not adopted.

(6) The commission shall terminate upon the submission of their final report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, of which ninety thousand is from the general fund—state and sixty thousand is from the general fund—federal, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, for the purposes identified in sections 2 and 3 of this act.

The sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the Washington health care project commission for the purposes identified in this act: PROVIDED, That the house executive rules committee and senate facilities and operations committee may jointly authorize expenditures for necessary expenses directly related to commission activities or studies on health care issues conducted by any legislative committee during 1986 or 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following state agencies are directed to cooperate with the office of financial management in order to establish appropriate health care information systems in their programs: The department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the department of veterans affairs, and the department of corrections.

The office of financial management, in conjunction with such agencies, shall determine:

- (1) Definitions of health care services;
- (2) Health care data elements common to all agencies;
- (3) Health care data elements unique to each agency;
- (4) A mechanism for program and budget review of health care data; and
- (5) Executive review of health care data.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each of the agencies listed in section 6 of this act, with the exception of the department of labor and industries, which expends more than five hundred thousand dollars annually of state funds for purchase of health care shall identify the availability and costs of nonfee for service providers of health care, including preferred provider organizations, health maintenance organizations, managed health care or case management systems, or other nonfee for service alternatives. In each case where feasible in which an alternative health care provider arrangement, of similar scope and quality, is available at lower cost than fee for service providers, such state agencies shall make the services of the alternative provider available to clients, consumers, or employees for whom state dollars are spent to purchase health care. As consistent with other state and federal law, requirements for copayments, deductibles, the scope of available services, or other incentives shall be used to encourage clients, consumers, or employees to use the lowest cost providers, except that copayments or deductibles shall not be required where they might have the impact of denying access to necessary health care in a timely manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Plans for establishing or improving utilization review procedures for purchased health care services shall be developed by each agency listed in section 6 of this act. The plans shall specifically address such utilization review procedures as prior authorization of services, hospital inpatient length of stay review, requirements for use of outpatient surgeries and the obtaining of second opinions for surgeries, review of invoices or claims submitted by service providers, and performance audit of providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state agencies listed in section 6 of this act shall review the feasibility of establishing prospective payment approaches within their health care programs. Work plans or timetables shall be prepared for the development of prospective rates. The agencies shall identify legislative actions that may be necessary to facilitate the adoption of prospective rate setting methods.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Each agency listed in section 6 of this act shall individually or in cooperation with other agencies take any necessary actions to control costs without reducing the quality of care when reimbursing for or purchasing drugs. To accomplish this purpose, each agency shall investigate the feasibility of and may establish a drug formulary designating which drugs may be paid for through their health care programs. For purposes of this section, a drug formulary means a list of drugs, either inclusive or exclusive, that defines which drugs are eligible for reimbursement by the agency.

(2) In developing the drug formulary authorized by this section, agencies:

(a) Shall prohibit reimbursement for drugs that are determined to be ineffective by the United States food and drug administration;

(b) Shall adopt rules in order to ensure that less expensive generic drugs will be substituted for brand name drugs in those instances where the quality of care is not diminished;

(c) Where possible, may authorize reimbursement for drugs only in economical quantities;

(d) May limit the prices paid for drugs by such means as central purchasing, volume contracting, or setting maximum prices to be paid;

(e) Shall consider the approval of drugs with lower abuse potential in substitution for drugs with significant abuse potential; and

(f) May take other necessary measures to control costs of drugs without reducing the quality of care.

(3) Agencies may provide for reasonable exceptions to the drug formulary required by this section.

(4) Agencies may establish medical advisory committees, or utilize committees already established, to assist in the development of the drug formulary required by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 43.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the purpose of this section to ensure implementation and coordination of chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 6 through 10 of this act) as well as other legislative and executive policies designed to contain the cost of health care that is purchased or provided by the state. In order to achieve that purpose, the director may:

(a) Establish within the office of financial management a health care cost containment program in cooperation with all state agencies;

(b) Implement lawful health care cost containment policies that have been adopted by the legislature or the governor, including appropriation provisos;

(c) Coordinate the activities of all state agencies with respect to health care cost containment policies;

(d) Study and make recommendations on health care cost containment policies;

(e) Monitor and report on the implementation of health care cost containment policies;

(f) Appoint a health care cost containment technical advisory committee that represents state agencies that are involved in the direct purchase, funding, or provision of health care; and

(g) Engage in other activities necessary to achieve the purposes of this section.

(2) All state agencies shall cooperate with the director in carrying out the purpose of this section.

(3) By December 15 of each even-numbered year, the office of financial management shall submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives a report covering total expenditures over the past two years for the purchase or provision of health care services, together with an estimate of such future expenditures during the ensuing four years. The reports, together with any suitable recommendations, shall be consistent with the provisions of section 17, chapter 288, Laws of 1984 (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Not later than January 1, 1988, the superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature on proposed methods of controlling school employee health care costs consistent with the policies and goals of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 6 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "health care," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.41 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. G. Nelson: "Mr. Speaker, I didn't get a chance to join with the others the night before last during the floor resolution honoring you, and so I thought during this wind-down evening on the last day you are presiding, I thought that we would, perhaps, reminisce a little bit. I want to share with everybody that I know we have dealt with a lot of issues over the years and you've given a good deal of your time to make this a responsive body even when things are wild. I'm sure everyone here feels that you've passed along some straight thinking advice to be effective legislators in this full House. It has come to my attention that since this is the last evening of your presiding, and I know that my rule book, Reed's, is getting dog-eared and kind of battered, so I would hope that you would put yours aside because I would like to have you now take on other rules that would be enjoyable.

"This is a new rule book that I hope you enjoy; this is not Rules by Reed, this is Rules by Hoyle, and I would hope that it comes in handy. I know that with recent experiences that you have had, things have been getting tougher and I often thought maybe it was your glasses that needed some redoing, but on second thought, I knew it wasn't your glasses; it was just something that perhaps happens when you do get a little older. So I am providing to you a new set of tools that should be used frequently, but not here. I don't know how many of the folks here realize that for the last five years I've had your name on my IRS Form 1040. You've become a legitimate deduction for me on occasion, whether it happens to be at lunch hour or on certain evenings. In fact, I was thinking, with some of the bills that passed out of the chambers during the course of this session, that the acronym 'DOE' in these chambers won't stand for Department of Ecology or Department of Energy, but it's really 'Deal Out Ehlers.' We'll probably have a bill dealing with the new DOE.

"In closing, we've had a lot of fun over the last fourteen years together and I suppose there will be times when we miss you. I'm really looking forward to the fact that you will be able to spend more time with Patricia, really, because those late evenings that you were spending away, staying down here to enjoy our company, certainly were not too profitable from our standpoint. This last evening, in saying good-bye to your official status as Speaker, I was hoping to have the colleagues behind me stand and give you the best hand you've ever had."

You are another in a long line of distinguished Speakers, another of whom we have here on the podium tonight. I don't think there's a person in the Legislature that doesn't appreciate the leadership you have provided and the wisdom you have brought to this body and the fact that the House of Representatives did a sterling job this time, in a year when people thought it wouldn't be as strong because of your 'lame duck' status. In fact, you did a tremendous job, Wayne, and I want to say personally, from the bottom of my heart, I'll miss you and God bless."

MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable,
Speaker of the House of Representatives
The Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington
Mr. Speaker:

I, Ralph Munro, do hereby certify that the attached is a full, true and correct copy of the Proclamation of the Governor calling a special session of the State Legislature, which Proclamation was signed and attested to on the twenty-fifth day of July, 1986.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington at Olympia, this first day of August, 1986.

(Seal)

RALPH MUNRO,
Secretary of State

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

Under the terms of the Nuclear Waste Policy Act, Public Law 97-425, Congress and the United States Department of Energy are required to follow certain processes in making the selection of a site for a high level nuclear waste repository. On May 28, 1986, the U.S. Department of Energy announced the selection of three sites, including one on the Hanford Reservation, for further study. It is my belief that the people of this state should have the opportunity to express their opinion about the process used to select sites. In order to accomplish this, it is necessary for the Legislature to meet solely for the purpose of taking action to place a referendum before the people.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Booth Gardner, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 12 (Amendment 68), and Article III, Section 7 of the State Constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington on Friday, August 1, 1986, at 10:00 a.m. in Special Session in the Capitol at Olympia for a period of no more than twenty-four hours for the sole purpose of considering legislation to place a referendum before the people pertaining to the process for selecting the State of Washington as a potential high level nuclear waste repository site.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia at 2:00 p.m., this 25th day of July, A.D., nineteen hundred and eighty-six.

(Seal)

BOOTH GARDNER,
Governor

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, does the Governor have the legal authority to limit the agenda of a Special Session to one item, and further, to limit the time of this legislature to meet to twenty-four hours?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Article II, Section 12 of the State Constitution provides that 'Special legislative sessions may be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the governor....' This section of the Constitution also provides that any specification of purpose for which the special session is called by the Governor '...shall be considered by the legislature but shall not be mandatory.' In answer to your point of parliamentary inquiry, consistent with the prior rulings of both Speaker Polk and Speaker O'Brien, the Speaker would rule that in accordance with the State Constitution, the Governor may not limit the subject this body may consider and may not restrict the legislature's time to act to less than thirty days."

The House advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. J. King, the rules were suspended to allow consideration of House Floor Resolution No. 86-175.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 86-175, by Representatives J. King and S. Wilson

BE IT RESOLVED, That the Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives, Forty-Ninth Legislature, as set forth in House Floor Resolution No. 86-94, be amended by adding a new subsection to Rule 11 to read as follows:

Is 'other parties' intended to include affected Indian tribes?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Yes. The Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1982 clearly specifies that affected Indian tribes have an active role in the repository site selection process. This subsection urges that those activities continue and that alliances be pursued with any other affected Indian tribes that may be identified."

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON HOUSE BILLS VETOED AND PARTIALLY VETOED

Forty-Ninth Legislature
1986 Regular and Special Session

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 5, Substitute House Bill No. 495, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation; authorizing retrocession of jurisdiction over Indian lands; and adding new sections to Chapter 37.12 RCW."

This bill authorizes a procedure for the state to retrocede (return) partial criminal jurisdiction to the United States over the Colville Indian reservation. The primary purpose of this bill is to make possible the Colville Tribe's application for federal funds for law enforcement functions. Currently, sixteen other tribal reservations in Washington State are already under a partial state jurisdiction similar to what this bill will allow. However, section 5 requires the Colville tribe to express their desire for retrocession by a majority vote of its enrolled adult members during the next general tribal election. Through their legitimate, elected governing body, the Colville Business Council, the tribal members have already expressed their official support for retrocession. The elected Boards of Commissioners from both Ferry and Okanogan Counties have also officially endorsed retrocession. The strong tribal and local expressions of support for retrocession make the tribal election vote called for in Section 5 unnecessary and I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 5, Substitute House Bill No. 495 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 4, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1, 2 and 3, Substitute House Bill No. 573, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to claims arising from improvements upon real property."

Sections 1, 2 and 3 are identical to sections 701, 702 and 703 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630. Since I am signing Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, sections 1, 2 and 3 of this bill are duplicative.

With the exception of sections 1, 2 and 3, Substitute House Bill No. 573 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 7, Substitute House Bill No. 588, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to setting retirement system contribution rates."

Section 7 suspends the reclamation of pension benefits paid to a retiree who is still employed by the state. This section is nearly, but not exactly, identical to section 8 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 3182. To avoid confusion in the law, I have vetoed section 7 of this bill.

With the exception of section 7, Substitute House Bill No. 588 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4(9), Substitute House Bill No. 1134, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the Department of Social and Health Services."

Section 4(9) of this bill would permit Department of Social and Health Services employees injured by assault to receive retirement credit for their period of disability. Similar provisions are also contained in section 2 of Engrossed House Bill No. 1652. To avoid conflict between the two provisions, I have vetoed section 4(9).

With the exception of section 4(9), Substitute House Bill No. 1134 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 10(1) and (2) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1333, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the deferring or deleting of the proposed termination and repeal of agencies and programs."

Sections 10(1) and (2) would repeal the requirement that the Cemetery Board be subject to sunset review by the Legislature in 1987.

The Cemetery Board is an anomaly with respect to its organizational placement in state government. It is an independent state agency, whereas nearly every other business and occupational regulatory board is placed within a larger agency for administrative purposes. It is also a very small agency, with only one full-time employee.

I recently proposed to the Legislature that the Cemetery Board and two other similar boards be transferred to the Department of Licensing for administrative support. This consolidation proposal would have aligned the Cemetery Board with related regulatory programs such as pre-need sales, real estate, securities, and embalmers and funeral directors. In addition, the Cemetery Board could have taken advantage of the administrative support services offered by full-time personnel in the Department of Licensing.

The sunset review process will afford an excellent opportunity to review the organizational placement of the Cemetery Board. I, therefore, do not believe that this opportunity to systematically review the operations and organizational placement of the Board should be repealed.

With the exception of sections 10(1) and (2), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1333 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 1, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to four sections, Substitute House Bill No. 1355, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the Department of Agriculture."

I am vetoing sections 3 and 4 because they duplicate language contained in Substitute Senate Bill No. 4769, sections 1 and 2.

I am vetoing sections 5 and 6 because they duplicate language contained in Substitute Senate Bill No. 4425 sections 1 and 2.

With the exception of Sections 3, 4, 5 and 6, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 1355 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 2, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 3 in part of Substitute House Bill No. 1400, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to indeterminate sentencing."

This bill makes a number of changes relative to the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, including its redesignation as the Indeterminate Sentencing Review Board. I am supportive of the bill.

However, one sentence in section 3 appears to be an anomaly and reads as follows: "However, the Governor may request nominations of qualified persons when filling vacancies in the Board after July 1, 1987." I have vetoed this sentence out of section 3 of the bill because its meaning is not clear. At the present time I do request nominations of qualified people when filling vacancies on the Board and the direction to start doing this after July 1, 1987, does not make sense. Leaving this sentence in the statute could only lead to confusing interpretations if someone were to question the meaning of this section.

With the exception of section 3 in part, Substitute House Bill No. 1400 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 6, Substitute House Bill No. 1458, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to local boards of health and the department of social and health services enforcing laws relating to public water supply systems."

Section 6 of this bill would significantly expand the authority of administrative law judges, turning them into a new arm of the judiciary. These judges now have the authority to issue a proposed decision. This section would give them authority to make a final decision which could be appealed only to the courts.

This new authority is not necessary or justified. Section 6 would also create a new appeals process outside the provisions of the state's Administrative Procedure Act. The Administrative Procedure Act has made agency actions more uniform and this uniformity is more understandable to the state's citizens. For these reasons, I have vetoed section 6.

With the exception of section 6, Substitute House Bill No. 1458 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

April 3, 1986

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to portions of section 4, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to port district sponsored trade expansion projects."

In passing the federal Export Trading Company Act of 1982, Congress recognized that "ETCs will periodically have to engage in importing, barter, third party trade, and related activities." (See: Conference Report to accompany S. 734, Rept. No. 97-924, 97th Cong. 2nd Session (1982).)

Given this recognition of Export Trading Company functioning, the section 4(7) prohibition on importation of goods or products for in-state sale in competition with Washington grown, mined or produced products could prove to be economically crippling to the newly-created companies and could violate the purposes of the federal act, even though an import activity was incidental to an export trading company's principal exporting objectives and activity.

In addition, this section may violate federal trade treaties to which the United States is a signatory, such as the General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs. The section furthermore may be unconstitutional as it delegates legislative power to state agencies without sufficiently specific legislative standards.

The section would also be costly and difficult to implement for the following reasons:

1) In order to identify goods that compete with Washington products, the agencies named must identify all goods currently grown, produced or mined in Washington. This is a potentially overwhelming task.

2) The departments must be knowledgeable of all goods imported into the state under this section. Currently, no state system exists for collection and evaluation of this information.

3) The departments would have to make evaluations about competitiveness of all goods imported versus all goods currently grown, produced or mined in Washington. I do not believe these judgments are practical or appropriate for state agencies to make, given the lack of information and specific statutory direction as to what would be competition and how great the protection would be. The potential for conflict and disagreement would be high.

Clearly, the legislation's specific intent is to increase exports of Washington products and enhance export trade -- it is not the purpose of the new law to create outside competition for Washington State businesses.

I commend the Legislature for its wisdom and leadership in enacting legislation to allow ports to take advantage of the Export Trading Company Act; such ventures have been successful in other regions of the country.

Section 4(1)(b) would authorize port districts to enter into contracts, joint ventures, brokerage or other agreements. This provision is redundant and would cause confusion in the interpretation of the provision. Section 3(1) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 provides the authority for port districts to establish export trading companies and to enter into contracts with other public and private organizations for the provision of services. Section 4(1)(b) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 restates the same authority.

With the exception of sections 4(1)(b) and 4(7), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House

State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 3(7)(c), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to sexual offenders."

Section 3(7)(c) provides for post-prison community supervision for sex offenders if their crimes are committed after July 1, 1986, and their term of incarceration is at least one year. Violation of the terms of supervision would result in confinement to the county jail at state expense.

The determinate sentencing law, passed by the Legislature in 1981, was a clear departure from the system of indeterminate sentencing and long-term parole or post-release supervision. It is important for that process to be more fully implemented so that the criminal justice system can stabilize prior to such a significant and costly change in direction as would be provided for in section 3(7)(c).

I do not believe that a limited amount of supervision for sexual offenders is sufficient to ensure public safety, particularly when it may provide a rationale for shorter sentences or early release from prison. In addition, there are no studies that have shown supervision to be an effective deterrent to reoffenses.

However, a short period of supervised transition for all offenders as they re-enter the community from prison was indicated in the original determinate sentencing bill and may be an issue worth revisiting. As this section would not have taken effect until July 1, 1987, it is appropriate that this issue is reviewed in the next budget cycle. However, there are a number of issues in the correctional area that also merit review, such as job training conducted in the institutions and alcohol and drug treatment. I have therefore vetoed section 3(7)(c) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598.

With the exception of section 3(7)(c), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598 is approved.

Sincerely,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 5 and 13, Engrossed House Bill No. 1630, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to health care service contractors."

Sections 5 and 13 of this bill conflict with amendments to RCW 48.44.145 contained in Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636. The amendments in Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636 are part of a new method of funding the Office of the Insurance Commissioner and are thus the appropriate amendments to RCW 48.44.145.

With the exception of sections 5 and 13, Engrossed House Bill 1630 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 4, 5, 6, and 7 of House Bill No. 1633, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to taxation of timber harvested by public entities."

These sections of House Bill No. 1633 would give Christmas tree growers the tax status of farmers. Specifically, it would exempt Christmas tree plantations from the timber tax and exempt them from sales tax on seedlings, fertilizer, and other spray materials used in producing Christmas trees, as well as exempting them from the B & O tax.

In vetoing these sections, it is important to recognize that Washington already has a tax designed especially for the business of growing trees. Christmas trees are not food, and they are not used to build housing; they are luxury consumption items priced so that anyone can afford them.

The proponents of this measure argue that their tax status is a detriment to their competitive position in the interstate market, a market in which transportation costs are a dominant factor. While I believe that it is important for Washington to re-examine its tax structure in order to mitigate barriers to business development and to enhance the interstate and international competitiveness of our industries, I do not believe that tax policies are effective in offsetting primary business factors such as transportation costs. In addition, the competitive market for Christmas trees is not comparable to the "price taker" market faced by producers of agricultural products, in which suppliers of perishable products have greater difficulty in passing on any portion of their tax burden. Furthermore, I do not believe it is appropriate to extend a preferential tax status designed for producers of food to the producers of non-food luxuries simply for the purpose of improving a competitive market position, especially when this measure shows no promise of producing additional jobs for Washington.

With the exception of sections 4 through 7, House Bill No. 1633 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 1647, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the sunset termination and repeal of the public disclosure commission, of the powers and duties of the commission, and of the programs administered or enforced by the commission."

Section 3 of this bill would have restricted registered lobbyists from serving as executive state officers as that term is defined by RCW 42.17.2401 in the Public Disclosure Act. I do not believe that there has been a demonstrated need for this legislation or that the far-reaching effects have been recognized. Leaving this provision in the legislation would exclude persons who are appointed to any of the many boards or commissions of this state. Most of these positions are part-time and only minimally compensated by expense reimbursement. In this regard, section 3 would unfairly restrict the activities of those who serve on the state's boards of regents, boards of trustees and the numerous other boards and commissions.

With the exception of section 3, House Bill No. 1647 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to a portion of Substitute House Bill No. 1678, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to telephone solicitations."

The last sentence of Substitute House Bill No. 1678 section 2(5), page 3, lines one and two, which requires the Attorney General to take action on second and subsequent violations by a company, conflicts with the first sentence of the same subsection which is permissive.

The legislation sets forth a scheme for controlling telephone solicitations. It sets standards for commercial telephone solicitations and allows consumers to remove their names from lists used to make these telephone calls.

Section 2(5) of the legislation deals with enforcement and is intended to give the Attorney General the discretion needed to enforce violations of the law. However, the last sentence of section 2(5) conflicts with that intent by requiring the Attorney General to take action on second and subsequent violations. I believe this unnecessarily limits the Attorney General's ability to determine the proper cause of action under the bill.

With the exception of the last sentence of section 2(5), Substitute House Bill No. 1678 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 23, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to private vocational schools."

Section 23 of this bill would create an advisory committee whose members serve as advisors in implementing this bill and for other liaison purposes as the Commission for Vocational Education determines. Boards, commissions, committees, task forces and similar entities have proliferated in this state, now numbering over 400 bodies. While many of these existing entities were created to serve useful purposes, the needs of the state change over time. Since these entities are specified in statute, they often persist beyond their period of usefulness. Statutory entities lack the flexibility to adapt to changing conditions since an entity designed to serve one purpose cannot change to meet new or different needs without legislative approval.

I have also found that it is difficult to abolish statutory entities that have outlived their usefulness. State agencies, moreover, generally have the authority to create ad hoc advisory groups as the need arises. This authority makes it unnecessary to create advisory committees in statute. For these reasons, I have vetoed section 23.

A veto of the entire bill was considered because I have strong reservations about the assignment of this legislation to the Commission for Vocational Education. Additional duties should not be given to an agency that will begin the sunset process on June 30, 1986. My approval of this bill should not give the impression that I favor strengthening or expanding the duties of the Commission for Vocational Education. However, students attending proprietary schools need the protections and safeguards provided in the bill.

With the exception of section 23, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to several sections, Substitute House Bill No. 1709, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to consolidation of agencies into the department of community development."

This bill would consolidate the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation, the Department of Emergency Management, and the Fire Protection Board into the Department of Community Development. The original bill was introduced at my request in order to consolidate programs that deal with local government officials. I also encouraged this bill in order to reduce the number of executive agencies and to achieve better efficiencies by centralized support services. However, a number of partial vetoes are necessary to perfect the measure.

Sections 46 and 47 of Substitute House Bill No. 1709 would amend the Sunset Act provisions affecting the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation. Since I intend to sign the portion of Substitute House Bill 1333 that will repeal the same statute, I have vetoed sections 46 and 47 of Substitute House Bill 1709 to avoid a double amendment situation.

I have also vetoed portions of section 55 that would have put several officials on the State Fire Protection Policy Board as nonvoting ex-officio members. These members included the Governor, the Commissioner of Public Lands, the Insurance Commissioner, the Chair of the Commission for Vocational Education and the Director of Fire Protection. The latter official will, in fact, serve as the primary staff person for the Board, so it is inappropriate that he/she serve as a voting member. I believe the other officials will monitor the Board's activities with appropriate staff. Also, having the officials on the Board as ex-officio members makes the Board unnecessarily large.

Finally, I have vetoed section 140 so that the transfer of the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation and the Department of Emergency Management to the Department of Community Development can take place in June 1986 rather than in January 1987. The departments indicate the change can be accomplished earlier and the delay is not necessary.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 46, 47, 55 in part, and 140. With the exception of these vetoes, Substitute House Bill No. 1709 has been approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one provision, Substitute House Bill No. 1754, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to economic development."

I strongly support this bill's intent to strengthen the State's commitment to stimulating employment and job-creating private investment, particularly in economically distressed areas, as well as to encourage companies that receive State economic development assistance to hire job applicants from among the unemployed and welfare recipients.

This bill makes certain needed changes in existing legislation which provides for the deferral of sales tax on eligible investments in manufacturing facilities and equipment. The majority of these changes are reasonable and are supported by our experience to date with these programs.

However, I am vetoing that portion of Section 9(4) that would limit the sales tax deferral granted to firms making eligible investments in the state for the first time to a total amount not exceeding $300,000 per new full-time employment position created. This proposed limitation is not a part of the existing sales tax deferral statute for eligible first-time investments by manufacturing and research and development firms. Although I believe that creating new jobs is one important policy objective for the State's sales tax deferral programs, I am concerned, that enactment of this particular limitation would conflict with another important program objective--namely, to enhance the Washington's competitiveness with other states in attracting certain industries for which this state possesses distinct strategic advantages. Washington is one of the few states that taxes capital expenditures and thereby significantly increases entry costs here compared to other states with whom this State competes for new investment.

Our experience with the program thus far has demonstrated that the limitation proposed in this bill would significantly reduce the number of industries that Washington could pursue to strategically diversify and expand our economic base. In particular, this limitation would make it more difficult to attract the more capital intensive, higher value-added, industries that tend to provide higher wage employment. Industries of this type are critical to raising Washington incomes and stimulating spin-off employment and growth in new industries.

Therefore, with the exception of that portion of Section 9(4) which I have vetoed, Substitute House Bill No. 1754 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to certain portions, Substitute House Bill No. 1950, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to medical malpractice."

The last sentence of section 2 would require Assistant Attorneys General assigned to the Medical Disciplinary Board to be subject to Board approval and to work under the Board's control. Section 3 would require investigators to be assigned solely to the Board and to be subject to the Board's approval. Both provisions are being vetoed.

Designation and supervision of full-time staff is not the duty of a part-time board. It is better performed by the staff of the administrative agency, in this case the Department of Licensing. If staffing problems arise, the Board should be able to work them out with the support agency, as a number of other boards presently do. One of the benefits of having a part-time board staffed by a larger administrative agency is that the agency can adjust workloads and tasks so that employees are efficiently utilized. To assign attorneys and investigators to only one board could result in inefficiencies and would prevent pooling of valuable personnel resources.

For these reasons I have vetoed the last sentence of section 2 and all of section 3. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Substitute House Bill No. 1972, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to self-insurance."

Groups of local governments are presently authorized to pool for self-insurance, or purchase insurance, for liability coverage. Section 1 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972 extends that authority to include property replacement insurance, which I strongly support.

Property insurance lines are stable and profitable. Inclusion of property coverage as a part of local government pools should help them to attract commercial insurance packages that include the more volatile liability insurance coverages as well. The state's insurance code provides for the effective regulation of local government insurance pools by the Office of the Insurance Commissioner.

However, section 2 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972 seeks to exempt from the state insurance code both "fraternal benefit societies" that organize to self-insure against property and liability claims, as well as "cooperatives" which organize to self-insure against officer and director liability claims. I strongly oppose these two proposed exemptions. Unlike the local government insurance pools referenced in section 1 of the bill, the proposed exemption of "fraternal benefit societies" and "cooperatives" would effectively authorize a class of self-insurers operating totally outside the purview of the insurance code. The insurance code contains safeguards such as requirements for capital reserves, reinsurance and guaranty association protection. These safeguards protect both the self-insurer and those members of the general public who deal with the self-insurer. Exempting groups from these requirements is unwarranted.

In contrast to the approach proposed in section 2 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972, the state insurance code already provides the means by which such groups may form conventional insurance organizations with the appropriate financial and procedural safeguards.

With the exception of section 2, Substitute House Bill No. 1972 is approved.

To the Honorable, the House
of Representatives of the
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 11(3), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to managed health care."

Section 11 of this bill permits the Director of Financial Management to establish within the Office of Financial Management a health care cost containment program. The section also authorizes the Director to take other actions to control the cost of health care purchased by state agencies. I support wholeheartedly this effort to control costs. The bill, however, does not provide any funds for the creation of the cost containment program. Most of section 11 is permissive, giving the Director of Financial Management the flexibility necessary to undertake those aspects of the program that can be accomplished without funding. Subsection (3), however, is a mandatory reporting requirement that involves significant amounts of staff time and other resources, which are not available. For this reason, I have vetoed section 11(3).

With the exception of section 11(3), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Booth Gardner, Governor
