I. M. HOWELL,

Secretary of State.

Senator French moved that the returns of the election of the newly elected Senators be considered canvassed and the gentlemen be given seats in the Senate.

The motion carried.

Chief Justice O. R. Holcomb of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington administered the oath of office to Senators-elect Mack F. Gose and Clarence J. Sather, Senator Mack F. Gose being elected to fill the unexpired term of Senator Kuykendall, resigned, and Senator Clarence J. Sather being elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Fairchild.

The Secretary called the roll, all members being present, except Senators Bishop, Hutchinson and Thomle.

Senator Bishop was excused on account of sickness.

On motion of Senator Smith, Senator Hutchinson was temporarily excused on account of an accident.

The Secretary read:

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y., March 21, 1920.

Hon. P. H. Carlyon, President of the Senate, Olympia, Wash.

Regret exceedingly my inability to be present for the ratification of the eighteenth amendment, granting national franchise to women. While Washington led the progressive movement several years ago, giving that worthy right to them, I know the special session will unanimously ratify the national cause. Sincerely trust that the members of the legislature will be unanimous in immediate adjournment and not throw the state into any unwarranted nervous situation at this time. The national eyes are today focused upon our state and Delaware, and hope Delaware will follow our precedent, bringing to a final close this momentous issue for which our sisters so long have fought for equality and recognition. With kind regards to our Governor and all my colleagues, believe me,

M. G. THOMLE.

Senator Phipps was called to preside.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION.

By Senator Coman:

Resolved, That the officers and standing committees of the regular session of 1919 be the officers and committees of this extra session, substituting therefor the name of Mack F. Gose on those committees for which Elgin V. Kuykendall was a member, and the name of Clarence J. Sather for that of Senator Wilburn Fairchild.

On motion of Senator Coman, the resolution was adopted.

The President resumed the chair.

The Secretary read:

SENATE RESOLUTION.

By Senator French:

Resolved, That all accredited representatives of the press in attendance at this special session of the Legislature be accorded the privileges of the Senate.

Senator French moved the adoption of the resolution.

The motion carried.

The Secretary read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL,
OLYMPIA, March 22, 1920.

Hon. P. H. Carlyon, President of the Senate, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: There is enclosed herewith a letter addressed to Hon. Fred A. Adams, Speaker of the House, which is self-explanatory.

Yours respectfully,

L. L. THOMPSON,
Attorney General.

March 22, 1920.

Hon. Fred A. Adams, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: You have asked the opinion of the Attorney General upon the question of whether or not any balances not heretofore expended from the appropriations made by Chapters 1 and 2, Laws of 1919, are available for legislative expenses and legislative printing, respectively, of the present special session of the Sixteenth Legislature.

Chapter 1, supra, appropriates the sum of $115,000.00 "for the purpose of paying the expenses of the Sixteenth Legislature of the State of Washington."

Chapter 2, supra, makes an appropriation of $15,000.00 to pay for such printing "as may be ordered by the Sixteenth Legislature, or either branch thereof."

These appropriations are not restricted to the payment of the expenses of the regular session of the Sixteenth Legislature. Expenses of this special session are, in my opinion, expenses of the Sixteenth Legislature within the purview of the statutes referred to.

Yours respectfully,

L. L. THOMPSON,
Attorney General.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, March 22, 1920.

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislature of the State of Washington:

The Constitution of the state vests in the Chief Executive the power to convene the Legislature in extraordinary or special session. The same article of the Constitution makes it the duty of the Executive to communicate at every session by message to the Legislature the condition of the affairs of the state and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient for their action. The special session of the Legislature having been convened you are entitled to know the necessity therefor.

When admitted into the Union in 1889 our state started in a reasonably modest way under a stable representative government, providing only such governmental functions as custom and experience had proven necessary for the peace, happiness and prosperity of the people at a cost of about $4.70 per capita.

Since that time many departments, boards and commissions, adding numerous theretofore unknown governmental functions, have been created by the Legislature, with but one attempt at organization or consolidation under departmental heads, until we find the cost of government has arisen to $20.81 per capita.

Continuing adding governmental functions can but continue to increase governmental expense and higher rate of taxation.

Providing revenues by direct taxes on property has almost reached the dividing line between taxation and confiscation.

What the state most needs is not greater appropriations but the exercise of sensible, rigid economy in all its departments. The plans for reorganizing the boards and commissions under departmental heads are not sufficiently worked out in detail to justify their presentation at this time, nor would the time at your disposal at this special session be sufficient for an intelligent consideration thereof. The suggestion is made for the study by the people between now and the next regular session of the Legislature.

From the year 1913 to 1919 the assessed valuation of the property of this state increased from $1,005,086,251 to $1,035,938,644, or an increase of about 3%.

DEFICIENCY.

It has been the practice of the Board of Equalization for several years to make a very low tax levy for general state purposes in one year and levying the maximum or near maximum rate for the succeeding year to take care of the deficiencies caused by the previous year's low levy.

Following this custom the Board of Equalization in September, 1918, made a tax levy for general state purposes of 1.8 of a mill. This levy was made about six weeks prior to the signing of the Armistice, and the Legislative session of 1919 immediately following the levying of this tax and the signing of the Armistice, found itself confronted with "after war" conditions that demanded appropriations far in excess of those ever heretofore made. The result of this low tax levy and increased appropriation was that the estimated revenues for the biennium April 1, 1919, to March 31, 1921, was $1,907,176.89 less than the actual appropriations for the same period and we were confronted on March 8, 1920, with an overdraft in the general fund amounting to $1,112,649.65.

If the tax levy for general state purposes made in September, 1918, had have been the full three mill levy in anticipation of "after war" expenditures, the revenues for the first half of this biennium would have been $1,243,000 greater than they in fact were and would have more than taken care of the present overdraft in the general fund. This condition makes it impossible to appropriate money from the general fund to take care of deficiencies in other than strictly state fund institutions unless some relief can be had in excess of the three mill tax levy.

HIGHER EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

The close of the war and the resumption of civil affairs brought an increased enrollment to the State University and to the State College of nearly 70%, which made it impossible for these institutions to function with the funds available from a tax levy fixed at the 1917 session, to say nothing of the demands for increased wages and other constantly growing higher expenses.

This condition is relatively true of the State Normal Schools, and the funds available for all of the higher educational institutions will have been exhausted by the time the Legislature meets in regular session, and unless some relief is granted at this time there will be no funds available or anticipated from which the deficiency appropriations could be met nor that would take care of the deficiency for the coming biennium with a tax levy as fixed in 1917.

In 1911 the Legislature endeavoring to get these institutions on a better business basis provided for what has been generally known as the millage tax and in 1917 this millage tax was revised and at the same time the Board of Higher Curricula of the state was directed in their report next preceding the convening of the Legislature in 1921 to recommend any changes in levy which the state board may deem necessary or proper and to give their specific grounds and reasons therefor. It is not practicable to readjust this millage tax without such detailed report as contemplated in this direction to the Board of Higher Curricula and without considerable thought and study on the part of the legislators to determine what is just and necessary.

The temper of the people of our state is not such as to justify the Legislature in considering any matters that will extend the length of the session unreasonably or that can be deferred until the regular session next January.

No appropriation should be made at this session for any purpose.

CHANGE OF TAX LEVY.

To take care of the deficit caused by a tax levy one and two-tenths mills lower than it should have been for the year 1919, and of the increased cost of maintenance, it is recommended that Section 9212 of Remington's Codes and Statutes of Washington be amended by raising the maximum tax levy for general state purposes and thus allow the Board of Equalization to make a levy to raise the funds to take care of all of these deficiencies.

At the regular session you will be asked to change the date for meeting of the Board of Equalization, as well as changing the beginning of the fiscal year from April 1st to July 1st. Reasons for the proposed change will be presented to the regular session.

It is the province of the Legislative branch of government to determine governmental policies, and the Board of Equalization should meet immediately after adjournment of the regular session of the Legislature to levy a tax to raise funds to carry on the work laid out by the Legislature.

This change, of course, could not become operative before the year 1922, even if adopted at the next regular session.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The condition of our public schools is almost, if not quite as deplorable as the institutions of higher learning. Hundreds of teachers are quitting the profession for more remunerative employment. Young men and women are being deterred from qualifying for and entering the profession by reason of the meager wages paid school teachers as compared with men and women engaged in other vocations. A conference was held some weeks ago with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and a plan of campaign mapped out to be executed the latter part of this month and early in April to induce the local boards and electors to provide ways and means to take care of increased expense incident to reasonable wages. It is hoped that the school directors and the electors in the several districts throughout the state wherein it is necessary to increase their revenue in order to pay a living wage to their teachers, will not hesitate to take advantage of the present statute and where necessary make a tax levy of twenty mills or so much as is needed for that purpose. It is confidently believed that if this is done the present unsatisfactory condition may be tided over until the regular session of the Legislature having before it a well digested bill, prepared in advance, may enact such legislation at the regular session as will give permanent relief and will equalize the revenue upon a census basis. A commission to make a thorough survey and report a code to the next session is recommended.

SOLDIERS' BONUS.

Early in the regular session last year there was adopted, by the almost unanimous vote of the senators and members of the House, what was known as Senate Joint Resolution No. 3 by Senator Smith, urging Congress to take certain action for the relief of the returned service men. In all but one thing Congress did the things requested and public sentiment appears to be almost as nearly unanimous as was the Legislature a year ago in demanding that something be done for these "boys." A carefully drawn bill will be presented providing a reasonable sum for each returned service man and for the dependents of those who will never return, fixing the manner of its payment and providing for the issue and sale of general state bonds to provide the funds necessary. If this bill should be passed it ought to be referred to the voters at the general election in November, 1920.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

At the general election held in November, 1912, the citizens of this state, by an overwhelming majority, amended the Constitution of the State of Washington to provide for equal suffrage regardless of sex. Since that time the state has done well under the joint management of the men and women of the state and our people are fully committed to the principle of woman suffrage.

At the first session of the Sixty-sixth Congress of the United States of America begun and held at the city of Washington on Monday, the nineteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution extending the right of suffrage to women was passed. Said proposed amendment reads as follows:

"Article ———.

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

"Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

On the 12th day of June, 1919, the then Acting Secretary of State certified a copy of said joint resolution and sent the same to the Governor of the State of Washington with a request that he cause it to be submitted to the Legislature of this state for such action as may be had.

In conformity with such request, said resolution is herewith transmitted for ratification.

CONCLUSION.

In the foregoing, effort has been made to justify the proclamation convening the legislators in extraordinary session, which was issued with a full knowledge that while the power of convening the Legislature is vested in the Chief Executive, the subjects to be considered, the action to be taken and the duration of the session are matters resting in the sound discretion of the legislators. It has many times been truly said that the Legislature of Washington has ever been responsive to public opinion; and never was the general sentiment of the people of this state more completely crystallized upon any matter than in the present demand that the legislators speedily attend to the business they find at hand to do and return to their several homes, thus relieving our citizens of any anxiety as to what new legislation may be enacted.

With an abiding faith in the patriotism and integrity of the legislators to do as their constituents would have them do, and as their several consciences dictate, this extraordinary session of the Legislative of Washington was convened.

LOUIS F. HART,

Acting Governor of Washington.

At 1:25 p. m., on motion of Senator Sinclair, the joint assembly dissolved.

At 1:30 p. m. the Senate reconvened in the Senate Chamber.

At 1:35 p. m. Senator Cox moved that the Senate take a recess until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Senator Rockwell moved as a substitute that the Senate take a recess until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The substitute motion prevailed.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Senate was called to order at 3:00 o'clock p. m. by the President.

On motion of Senator Taylor, the courtesy of the Senate was extended to Mrs. Homer Hill, mother of the woman suffrage movement in the United States, and the President appointed Senators Taylor and Cox to escort her to a seat beside the President.

I. M. HOWELL,
Secretary of State.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR.
OLYMPIA, March 20, 1920.

Honorable I. M. Howell, Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: I am herewith handing you Senate Bill No. 223, entitled "An act relating to fraternal benefit associations." Section 1 of this bill is approved. Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 223 is vetoed for the following reasons:

Section 2 is an effort to amend Section 6059-229 of Rem. & Bal. Codes by substituting for said section, which is part of what is known as the "mobile law," a new section taken from what is known as the "New York Conference Bill," and it applies peculiarly to fraternal insurance orders doing business upon inadequate rates. Somewhere in the process of legislation the word "not" was inserted in line 4 of section 2 of enrolled bill, which makes the section apply to those orders that have readjusted their rates and are upon a solvent basis. The Legislature did not intend to enact this legislation to affect fraternal insurance orders doing business on adequate rates, but intended to regulate and build up to a standard of safety orders that are doing business on rates so low as to jeopardize the interest of their members. This word "not" directly reverses the act as intended by the Legislature.

Further objection to this section of the bill is noted in the next to the last paragraph of the section where the word "not" is omitted; thus requiring, under the terms of this bill, a fraternal benefit association or order to keep individual accounts and to require all calculations to be made by actuarial methods.

Again, this was, in my opinion, the reverse of the Legislative intent.

If I am mistaken as to the Legislative intent, then the bill ought to be vetoed because it is wrong in principle and injurious to the best interests of the public.

For the reasons above noted, Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 223, entitled "An act relating to fraternal benefit associations," is vetoed.

Yours very truly,

LOUIS F. HART,
Acting Governor.

Senator Taylor moved that the veto message on Senate Bill No. 223 be placed in the Journal of the Senate, and the amended section be laid on the table.

The motion carried.

I. M. HOWELL,

[SEAL]

Secretary of State.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR.
OLYMPIA, March 25, 1919.

Honorable I. M. Howell, Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: I hand you herewith Senate Bill No. 136, entitled "An act relating to banking and trust business; the organization, regulation, management and dissolution of banks and trust companies, relating to the office of bank commissioner, providing penalties, and amending Sections 2, 3, 5, 7, 9, 15, 23, 24, 28, 33, 36, 37, 40, 47, 49, 75 and 80 of Chapter 80 of the Laws of 1917."

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20 of this bill are approved.

Sections 9, 11, 12 and 13 are vetoed. In Section 9 about the only amendment is in Par. 12, in which stocks are eliminated from the securities which trust companies may handle.

I can see no good reason for this restriction upon the trust companies, while on the other hand such a discrimination against the stock of legitimate enterprises, which are generally an attractive asset of such institutions and necessary in the building up of the industries of our state would be discredited as an investment by individuals and thus make it inconvenient for companies that must of necessity distribute stock to do business.

I cannot believe that any serious loss will come to the people of this state by permitting trust companies, as heretofore, to purchase, handle and sell, or to invest in legitimate stocks. I do not believe that the market for such legitimate stocks should be destroyed and their value lessened in the minds of the general public by such unnecessary discrimination against them. For this reason, Section 9 is vetoed.

The new matter in Section 11 prohibits any bank or trust company from carrying any asset on the books of the corporation at a value in excess of its actual cost to the bank or trust company.

Why the Legislature should discriminate against state banks by denying to them a privilege which is given to national banks by the Federal Government, I do not understand. Surely our state banks serve a large number of contractors and borrowers, and as long as it is safe banking, should be permitted to compete on the same terms and conditions as national banks. If a bank should acquire a quantity of bonds under foreclosure proceedings or judgment sale at 80 or 85 cents on the dollar at a time when the money market was depressed and no one would pay more, and subsequently these bonds should come to par and the interest thereon at 7 or 8 per cent was paid regularly and the securities for their final payment was unquestioned and unquestionable, I cannot understand why the bank should be compelled to carry them on its books at 80 or 85 per cent of their face value. Surely if a bank should acquire bonds at par and they should drop in the markets to 80 cents and persist in staying down to 80 cents on the dollar and interest remain unpaid, I cannot conceive of the Bank Commissioner allowing the bank to continue to carry them at par.

It appears to me that the assets of the bank, especially those that have a stable value, should be carried in the assets of the bank at their value. For these objections, Section 11 of Senate Bill No. 136 is vetoed.

Regarding Section 12, the same discrimination is made against stocks by state banks as is done in Section 9 in trust companies.

It is provided that any stock acquired in any manner by bank or trust company shall be disposed of in six months if it can be sold for the amount which the bank or trust company has invested in it, and must be sold regardless of price within one year after such acquisition. It appears to me that this is not a safeguard, but rather a penalizing of safe banking. I can see no reason for compelling a bank to dispose of stock at whatever price it can get when it has acquired it through judgment sale in the collection of a previous debt and when by holding it a reasonable time the bank can be made whole on the transaction. For this reason Section 12 of Senate Bill No. 136 is vetoed.

Section 13 provides that no real estate shall be carried as an asset of a bank at a greater valuation than the actual cost of acquiring title. This is perhaps a meritorious provision, but one which can be readily enforced under the present statute; it also provides that the cost cannot be increased by any improvements made thereon.

When a bank acquires a building by foreclosure proceeding or by judgment sale, the building is usually in a dilapidated and run-down condition. Possibly an expenditure of two or three per cent of the amount invested in the building, properly spent in reconstruction, papering and painting will add 25 or 30 per cent to its value and bring an immediate sale and conversion into cash of what would otherwise be a dead asset to the bank. To prohibit this would be almost a crime and for that reason Section 13 of Senate Bill No. 136 is vetoed.

In this bill the name of the State Bank Examiner is changed to that of Bank Commissioner, and his salary increased from $3,600 to $5,000 per annum, while he is given a Deputy Bank Commissioner at a salary of $3,600 a year and is authorized to appoint as many bank examiners as he may need at the salary of $3,000 each. I assume that the reason for increasing the salary of the Bank Commissioner from $300 a month to $5,000 a year was to enable the state to obtain the services of a thoroughly competent banker to have charge of this department. Having provided this and made provision for all possible necessary assistants it does seem to me that it is unnecessary to handicap legitimate banks in legitimate banking business by incorporating prohibitive measures relating to every possible wrong that an unscrupulous banker might conceive.

I feel that from the Commissioner's Department might be expected some judgment and discretion and that he will not permit inexperienced or unscrupulous bankers to jeopardize the interest of their depositors and stockholders by doing the things that would prove injurious while claiming as their only right to do the things the fact that the Legislature had not specifically said that they might not make a loan to John Doe or buy securities from Richard Roe. Believing that our statutes are amply sufficient, with the regulatory supervision and powers given to the Bank Commissioner to protect the public against the unscrupulous, Sections 9, 11, 12 and 13 of Senate Bill No. 136 are vetoed. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Yours very truly,

LOUIS F. HART,

Acting Governor.

On motion of Senator Taylor, the Governor's veto message was ordered placed in the Senate Journal, and the vetoed sections laid on the table.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.
OLYMPIA, March 22, 1920.

To the Honorable President of the Senate, Senate Chamber, Olympia, Washington.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith, pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the Senate, the following Senate bills passed by the Senate and House at the sixteenth session, and vetoed by the Acting Governor, together with his veto messages attached thereto. Senate Bill No. 98. Senate Bill No. 152.

Very respectfully,

I. M. HOWELL,

Secretary of State.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR.
OLYMPIA, March 25, 1919.

Honorable I. M. Howell, Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: I hand you herewith Senate Bill No. 152, entitled "An act authorizing the Commissioner of Public Lands to contract with persons, companies or corporations for the drilling of wells for petroleum and natural gas upon lands belonging to the State of Washington, and for the mining and extraction of such products and providing for the surrender of leases for the mining and extraction of petroleum and natural gas from state lands," which is vetoed.

The state derived its title to these lands from the United States by virtue of the Enabling Act approved February 22, 1889, and in referring thereto in Section 11 of said Enabling Act the following language is used: "But said lands may, under such regulations as the Legislatures may prescribe, be leased for periods of not more than five years."

Section 1 of Article 16 of the State Constitution provides that the lands held by grant from the United States (in any case in which the manner of disposal and minimum price are so prescribed) shall not be disposed of except in the manner and for at least the price prescribed in the grant thereof, without consent of the United States.

I know it is argued that this is not a lease. It has all of the terms and provisions of a lease and by reversing the orders of the parties to the agreement it is styled a contract. Having all the terms and conditions of a lease, there can be but one reason for changing the term to that of contract, and that is in an effort to avoid the provisions of the Enabling Act and the State Constitution. Changing the name or form, and not the substance, of the agreement does not change the situation.

The provision of the Enabling Act above mentioned was a wise one and the reaffirmance of it by the Constitution shows the good judgment of the framers of the instrument.

It is argued that the Commissioner of Public Lands would protect the interests of the state. With that statement with the present occupant of the office I most heartily agree. However, safeguards of the character set out in the Enabling Act and Constitution are not to protect the public domain, where entrusted to one like the present guardian of our public lands, which are the heritage of the school children of the state; but such provisions are necessary by reason of the fact that under our form of government the personnel of our public offices change, and I am not willing to assume that it is good policy to set aside the Constitution and disregard the conditions of our grant from the Federal Government on the assumption that we will always have the same honest, painstaking commissioner.

This act is an attempt to violate the compact with the United States through which we acquired title to these lands.

For the objections above noted, Senate Bill No. 152 is vetoed.

Yours very truly,

LOUIS F. HART,
Acting Governor.

Senator Groff moved that the Governor's veto message be placed in the Journal of the Senate, and the vetoed bill be laid on the table.

The motion carried.

The Secretary read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR.
OLYMPIA, March 20, 1919.

Honorable I. M. Howell, Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR SIR: I am today filing in your office Senate Bill No. 98, entitled "An act relating to levies of taxes for bond interest, serial bond installments, sinking and redemption funds and the investment thereof, of school districts," passed the Senate February 14, 1919, passed the House March 11, 1919, and delivered to this office on March 13, 1919, vetoed for reasons following:

Senate Bill No. 98 amends Section 4613, Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, which section provides among other things for the investment of moneys in sinking fund of school districts, accumulating for the purpose of paying off bonded indebtedness of the district. The law provides that the county treasurer, when so directed by the board of directors of any school district, shall invest any accumulated or other sinking fund of said district in school, county or state warrants. The amendatory matter authorizes the purchase in the market of certificates of indebtedness or bonds of the United States, and requires the county treasurer to sell United States bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the United States upon the open market for the purpose of redeeming district bonds when due, and it further provides that any loss by reason of a sale of said certificates of indebtedness or bonds of the United States, at a price lower than that for which they were purchased, shall be borne by the school district.

This is not patriotic legislation for the purpose of assisting the United States Government in floating a loan as it requires the treasurer to go into the open market and buy bonds.

It is not necessary to the school districts as there is no dearth of good securities which can be purchased in the open market. There is no reason why a county treasurer should be authorized to purchase any securities for the trust funds of the district that will not readily sell at par at a time when the district will need the money to pay off maturing bonds.

It seems to me that the only result of this legislation would be to invite or encourage county treasurers to use this redemption fund to speculate in securities of a fluctuating value.

I can see no possible good to be obtained by this legislation and consequently no reason why it should encumber the statute.

For the reasons above given, Senate Bill No. 98 is vetoed.

Yours very truly,

LOUIS F. HART,

Acting Governor.

Senator Phipps moved that the Governor's veto message be included in the Journal of the Senate, and the vetoed bill be laid on the table.

The motion carried.

On motion of Senator Myers, the rules were suspended and the Senate returned to the order of business.

RESOLUTION.

By Senator Phipps:

Resolved, That the sentiment of this Senate is that any report circulated which is detrimental to the good name, and honor of Senator W. Lon Johnson relative to his action on Senate Bill No. 240 or any other matter before the Senate, is false and without foundation and further that our judgment is that Senator Johnson's conduct as a senator of this state and as a representative of the people has been above reproach.

On motion of Senator Phipps, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Senator Smith, the Senate resumed consideration of the resolution offered by Senator Coman, relating to the extending of an invitation to the Capitol Building Commission to appear before the Senate.

Senator Smith moved as a substitute to the resolution offered by Senator Coman, the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the President of the Senate to wait upon the chairman and secretary, respectively, of the State Capitol Commission and invite them to designate some member of the commission to appear before the Senate at such time as may be convenient to them for the purpose of explaining the present condition and the progress in construction of the State Capitol and advise this body of any changes which may have been made in the plans.

Senator Coman accepted the substitute and moved its adoption.

The substitute resolution was adopted.

The President appointed Senators Coman, Smith and Rockwell as a committee to act under the foregoing resolution.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT REGARDING INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING.

The institutions of higher learning present one of the great emergency situations in the state. The Governor has indicated the fact in his call and his message.

The amounts needed to restore the efficiency of these institutions as determined by the hearings and deliberations of the appropriations committees are as follows:

	1919-1920	1920-1921
University of Washington.....	$494,000	$400,000
Washington State College.....	294,000	264,000
Bellingham Normal School.....	60,000	23,000
Cheney Normal School.....	50,000	14,000
Ellensburg Normal School.....	56,000	22,000
	$954,000	$723,000

The amounts for 1919-1920 are based on restoration of efficiency, destroyed by greatly increased attendance or increased cost of maintenance or both, and is based upon millage yield on present valuation.

The amounts for 1920-1921 are based on the millage yield on the full fifty per cent valuation now required by law.

The Appropriations Committee therefore recommends that the institutional needs be cared for (1) by increasing the maximum state levy so as to provide adequate funds from which needed appropriations may be made at the next regular session, and (2) that the Governor request the State Board of Equalization in September to take into account these needs of the higher institutions to make its tax levy so that the appropriations may be made at the coming regular session of the Legislature.

COMMANDRY-IN-CHIEF, SONS OF VETERANS, U. S. A.
September 24, 1919.

To the Senate, State of Washington.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor by direction of the Thirty-eighth Annual Encampment of the Commandry-in-Chief, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., held at Columbus, Ohio, September 8-11, 1919, to certify to you and the Legislature of your state the unanimous adoption of the following "Declaration of the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A."

Very respectfully.

H. H. HAMMER, National Secretary.

The Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., being the descendents of the Union soldiers and sailors of the Civil war, organized as a civic body for many years to perpetuate the memory of their fathers' service and sacrifices for the preservation of the Union, and to inculcate the principals of patriotism and love of country, do declare:

That the Order will, to the limit of its power and influence, vigorously oppose all bolshevik movements and tendencies, and all efforts that make for the destruction or impairment of our Constitutional Union.

That we demand of all citizens one hundred per cent Americanism.

That we call upon Congress to provide necessary laws for the deportation of all unregenerate aliens, and those who do not in good faith seek to become citizens.

That we insist upon the energetic enforcement of these laws by the executive branch of the government.

That we believe that Congress should forthwith cause to be made an extensive and exhaustive investigation of the causes of social unrest in all parts of the country, and having ascertained the causes, then to provide the remedies that will restore the peace and happiness of the whole people under unaltered American institutions.

To the accomplishment of the foregoing the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A., hereby pledge the unswerving and loyal efforts of their entire membership; and express their willingness to cooperate with all other patriotic organizations actuated by similar motives.

This order furthermore offers the Government the service of its nation-wide organization with its influence in affiliated orders and social circles to distribute any propaganda of Americanism which may be authorized to combat all movements which would raise the red flag of anarchy, or which are treasonable or subversive of free democracy as handed down by the founders of this Republic.

WHEREAS, There was passed on October 7, 1919, by the House of Representatives of the United States and by it referred on October 8, 1919, to the Senate of the United States, House Bill No. 5218, introduced by Mr. Lindley H. Hadley, Congressman of the Second District of the State of Washington, "to provide revenue for the Government and to establish and maintain the production of magnesite ores and manufactures thereof in the United States; and

WHEREAS, On the declaration of war against Germany the United States was practically dependent upon Germany's ally, Austria, for magnesite, and only a short time later we were actually at war with Austria; and

WHEREAS, Discovery was made during the war that the magnesite deposit in Stevens County, Washington, which had before been used as a building material was a first-class quality of magnesite, and it was mined, manufactured, and used all through the war for refractory purposes; and

WHEREAS, Ninety-five per cent of the magnesite used before the war was imported from Austria and the Austrian supply will be due to arrive again when normal conditions are restored in this country and in the world; and

By Senator Hastings:

To the Honorable Congress of the United States of America:

Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, respectfully memorialize the Congress of the United States to consider and favorably act upon the following representations:

The North Pacific Coast of the United States, including Alaska and the Navy Yard, Puget Sound, is without any adequate naval defense whatsoever. Adjoining the State of Washington on the north, at Esquimalt, on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Dominion of Canada, the British Government has powerful naval defenses. The Territory of Alaska and the entire Puget Sound country, embracing the North Pacific Coast, are without any naval defense whatsoever. The Navy Yard, Puget Sound, has already become one of the great Naval Stations of the United States. To leave it without adequate defense would be a national disaster.

Realizing this condition of affairs, King County, the wealthiest and most populous county in the State, has, at an expenditure of over $300,000, purchased for the Federal Government, free of charge to the Federal Government, a tract of land of about 400 acres at a point on Lake Washington, which naval experts, aviation experts, army experts, and other men of highly intelligent and experienced judgment, have declared to be the ideal site for an Aviation Field on the North Pacific Coast. These experts and gentlemen has reached this conclusion after careful examination of all prospective and favorable situations on the North Pacific Coast. A committee of the Congress of the United States has visited the Puget Sound country and examined the situation thus represented, and which is called Sand Point. One and all, they have declared it to be the one ideal site for an Aviation Field.

Before the close of the late World War, the Navy Department of the United States had already determined that it was necessary to have a great Aviation Field at that point; but the close of the War left the question undecided.

In view of these circumstances, and of the heavy outlay made by said County of King in procuring for the Federal Government, without expense to it, a great site for an Aviation Field, the Legislature of the State of Washington respectfully asks the Congress to make the necessary appropriation for the establishment of a great Aviation Field at Sand Point, on Lake Washington, State of Washington.

Senator Hastings moved that the rules be suspended, the memorial read the second and third time and placed on final passage.

Senator Taylor stated as a point of order that a motion to suspend the rules is not debatable.

The point of order was held well taken.

The motion by Senator Hastings carried.

The memorial was read the third time.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Joint Memorial and it passed the Senate by the following vote:

Those voting aye were: Senators Adamson, Barnes, Bishop, Carlyon, Cleary, Coman, Cornwell, Cox, Crawford, Fawcett, Groff, Hall, Hastings, Hutchinson, Johnson, Lambert, Loomis, McCauley, McCoy, McMillen, Metcalf, Myers, O'Harra, Palmer, Post, Renick, Rockwell, Rust, Ryan, Sinclair, Swofford, Taylor, Wells, Westfall, Wilmer, Wray—36.

Those absent or not voting were: Senators Davis, Karshner, Landon, Morthland, Sutton, Thomle—6.

To the President and Members of the Legislature of the State of Washington now assembled.

HONORABLE SIRS: Each member of your Honorable body has this date been supplied with a printed copy of the Act drawn by the Industrial Code Commission relative to the consolidation of several state agencies.

By H. ALVIN MOORE, Commissioner.

Senator Carlyon moved that the report of the Industrial Code Commission, together with the communication, be referred to the Special Committee on Executive Recommendations.

Senator Taylor stated as a point of order that the motion was out of order as the report was in the Labor and Labor Statistics Committee and unless the Senate desired to take it out of that Committee it was not before the Senate.

The President ruled the point of order well taken.

Senator Rockwell moved that the Special Committee on Executive Recommendations appointed by the President be confirmed.

Senator Carlyon stated as a point of order that a resolution had been adopted that a committee consisting of three members from the Senate and five members from the House be appointed as a joint committee on Executive Recommendations and that confirmation of the President's appointments was not in order.

The President ruled the point of order well taken.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4.

By Senator Taylor:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled:

Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent as follows:

The United States Shipping Board is at present time maintaining a training station at Seattle, Washington, for the purpose of training young Americans in the fundamentals of seamanship, and of qualifying them to fill the positions of ordinary seamen, firemen, oilers and gallerymen on the ships of the new American merchant marine, such training being conducted on the training ship "Hollywood," a combination cargo carrier and training ship especially constructed for the work which is now, and has been for the past six months, engaged in carrying cargoes between Seattle, Honolulu and San Francisco.

This is the only service in the country which offers an opportunity for young Americans who are desirous of entering sea life and serving on the ships of the American merchant marine to secure the requisite training to qualify them to fill even the most unskilled positions on such ships.

The unparalleled growth of our merchant marine during the past three years has created a great shortage of American seaman, which shortage still exists to such an extent that at the present time thirty-six per cent of the crews of the American ships sailing out of the port of Seattle are allens, and seventy-five per cent of the officers of such ships are not American born.

There should ever be borne in mind the lesson taught by the late war, when the greatest question before the country was how to get ships and the men to man them; when large numbers of alien seamen employed on American ships refused to man such ships on voyages through the war zone, but instead sought safety on coastwise runs, or retired entirely from the sea until after the war was over, making it necessary to man such ships with untrained young Americans where that was possible, or, as was unavoidable in a large number of cases, to tie them up entirely until American youths could be trained to man them, thus crippling the country's resources because of its lack of a trained body of American seamen.

The shipping interests of foreign nations are resorting to every practice to cripple the American merchant marine, and actual experience has proved that the subjects, or former subjects of these countries who are now employed on American ships discriminate, whenever possible, against the young Americans who work under them, and are attempting, in every conceivable way, to drive these Americans off the ships, and that unless the shipping board continues to assist more young Americans to go to sea and replace this element, they will ultimately be successful in their efforts and the American merchant marine will be manned solely by men of foreign birth, as it was prior to the great war.

The recruiting service of the United States shipping board has, during the two and one-half years of its existence on the Pacific Coast, actually succeeded in reducing the percentage of alien seaman sailing out of the port of Seattle on American ships from sixty per cent to thirty-six per cent, and is steadily continuing such reduction by replacing such aliens with young Americans trained in the service, and is performing a similar work in connection with the licensed personnel of such ships, by means of its engineering and navigation schools, conducted at the University of Washington and at other points throughout the country, where young Americans with the requisite amount of sea experience are prepared for their examinations for a license.

It is the belief of your memorialists that the vessels of the American merchant marine must be manned and officered by Americans if these ships are to be operated profitably and successfully in competition with the ships of other nations which are manned by men who owe sole allegiance to the flag under which they sail.

Therefore, Your memorialists respectfully petition your honorable bodies that the present American merchant marine be retained under the American flag; that such merchant marine be manned solely by American citizens that, to this end, there be maintained training stations and training ships upon which ambitious young Americans may receive an intensive course of training fitting them to fill these new positions that the training stations and training ships, as now conducted at Seattle and other ports of the country by the United States Shipping Board, be continued and broadened in scope until such time as the supply of American seamen is sufficient to meet every demand.

The Secretary of State of the State of Washington shall immediately transmit five copies of this memorial to the Congress of the United States.

On motion of Senator Taylor the rules were suspended, the memorial read a second time and referred to the Committee on Memorials.

As per above instruction I have the honor to report that I have examined the topography along this proposed road and find it entirely feasible to construct a road between these points.

Utility. This proposed road traverses a sparsely settled and undeveloped farming community, but would materially shorten the distance between Snohomish and Seattle.

Total length of road from Snohomish River Bridge to a connection with the Woodinville-Duval road would be approximately 12.75 miles long; 11.5 in Snohomish County and 1.25 in King County.

Respectfully submitted,

But no committee on conference shall consider or report on any matter except that directly at issue between the two houses. The papers shall be left with the conferees of the house asking for such conference, and they shall present the report of the committee to their house. Every report of a committee of conference shall be read through in each house, before a vote is taken on the same.

Rule 6. In case of a failure of the conferees to agree, a report of such disagreement may be made and the power of free conference may be granted by the two houses, either to the same committee, or the committee may be discharged and a new committee appointed with the power of free conference, to whom the whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be committed, and the committee of free conference may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments, unless such bills or resolutions are comprised entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective houses for original bills or resolutions, as the case may be.

A veto message and a bill, or the message alone, may be referred and the bill laid on the table.

The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

Section 56 placing a maximum salary of the Director of Health at $5,000, I believe is inadvisable. I feel that it requires as much skill and training to properly administer this department as any other department of state government. I believe it a wise policy to fix the maximum salaries sufficiently large so as to make possible securing the services of men best qualified to serve the state. I believe the maximum salary of the Director of Health should be $7,500.00 per annum. I believe, further, that a prerequisite should be demanded of at least five years actual practice in his profession and that he be well trained in sanitary science and public health administration.

The bill, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The President announced that the joint session was called for the purpose of holding memorial services as a mark of respect to the memories of former legislators and state officials who had departed this life.

Senator Daniel Landon delivered an eulogy on the life of former Governor Ernest Lister, as follows:

In common with most of you present I first met Governor Lister upon his taking up the duties of state.

Memory brings us back to the dignified appearance, the sincere manner of the man who from that time on was a living power among men, molding public opinion and shaping the destiny of our state.

It is difficult, indeed, to realize that we shall hear the earnest tones of his voice no more and be deprived of his counsel in time of need.

After having served the people for four years as the chief executive, he was re-elected without difficulty, for it can be truthfully said that he fought for them and they in turn for him; his acts were above suspicion and he discharged his duties with credit to himself and honor to the state.

A thorough and intimate knowledge of the state institutions and their requirements, gained as secretary of the Board of Control, and finally as Governor, qualified him as an authority on the subject of the business conduct of the state government and gave weight to his recommendations for economy in state expenditures. He was a firm and able advocate of sane finance in public affairs and nothing in the record more redounds to his credit than his insistence upon and success in applying business principles in the administration of his office. He regarded a promise to the public as a sacred contract and bent every energy and effort to fulfill his promise to reduce the cost of government in this state by effecting practicable economies without crippling the legitimate and normal functions of government or without failing to give proper care to the wards of the state.

He was an ardent champion of democracy and he realized that man was greater than anything that man could do and insofar as it was within his power he restored and protected the inalienable rights of the people.

Governor Lister was essentially a fighter. He never beat a retreat. There was neither weakness nor fear in his makeup.

He met every responsibility and every difficulty with strong courage and a determined purpose to insure justice to all. The severe test of war, no less exacting in its demands upon the civil officer than upon the soldier in the field, found him prepared and ready to discharge the duties that it imposed. He gave to his state and his country the best service of which he was capable throughout the period of the war, and gave so unsparingly that physical strength failed under the self-imposed burdens that he shouldered. He sacrificed health and life itself to his high sense of duty.

Our friends and loved ones pass from life—and the rest is silence. Only faith can make a hopeful response, and never is faith so hopeful as when regarding duty well done. From out the darkness of the tomb we hear the still small voice: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Senator E. T. Coman delivered an eulogy on the life of former Governor Miles C. Moore, as follows:

It is a high privilege to be permitted to stand here for a few brief moments and recount some of the salient points in the life and career of that distinguished citizen and pioneer developer of the Northwest, Hon. Miles C. Moore, the last Governor of the Territory of Washington.

Miles C. Moore was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, April 17, 1845. At the early age of twelve years, with his parents, he removed to the State of Wisconsin where he received his education. Of an adventurous spirit, his eyes turned toward the setting sun. The tales of wondrous natural resources and agreeable climate of this sparsely settled region of the Northwest fired the ambition of young Moore and he broke the home ties to try his fortune in the new land before he had attained his majority. Availing himself of the varied forms of transportation in use in that early day, he arrived in Walla Walla in 1863. His most engaging personality won him friends from the start and, although penniless and unknown, he soon found employment and shortly thereafter was admitted to the firm. Later he associated with Dr. D. S. Baker, who was then one of the most prominent, wealthy and progressive citizens of the Northwest, with very extensive business interests. In 1873 he was married to Mary Elizabeth, the oldest daughter of Dr. Baker, and resided in Walla Walla continuously until the time of his death December 18, 1919.

In 1869, in association with Eugene Boyer, there was founded the Baker-Boyer Bank, later converted into a national bank, and at the present time the oldest financial institution in the state and the largest in point of resources in the territory which it serves. Governor Moore was actively identified with its management as its vice-president and in 1899 as its president, which office he held until the time of his death. His business career was one of almost uninterrupted success, and at his death he left a most substantial fortune as a result of his faith in the future of this state and his untiring industry, coupled with sagacity in his investments. His dependability and right judgment brought him in contact with business men in various walks of life. His counsel was always appreciated and his advice usually heeded. In recognition and appreciation of his ability, he served as a member of the Executive Council of the State Bankers' Association and was afterward honored by election to the presidency of that organization. On retiring from that office he was chosen by his fellow bankers of the state to represent the Washington bankers in the Executive Council, which is the governing body of the National Bankers' Association, a position which he held for three years.

While a most successful business man, Governor Moore was not unmindful of the duties and responsibilities of a good citizen and the need of a contribution of a part of his time and resources to the public welfare. He served his community as councilman, mayor and member of the school board prior to being called to the higher office of chief executive of the state. President Benjamin Harrison appointed him territorial governor in 1889 and he served in that position until his office was terminated by the admission of the territory to full statehood, a period of seven months.

During his incumbency in office the three principal cities of the state, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane, were visited by very disastrous conflagrations which destroyed the larger part of the business districts of these cities, besides rendering many thousands of people homeless. Governor Moore showed his firmness and executive capacity in promptly rising to the responsibilities imposed upon him by these calamities. He ordered out the militia and in one case where the need was the greatest proclaimed martial law that the rights and property of the bereaved and stricken citizens might be afforded the fullest protection.

In addition to his business and political careers, Governor Moore was a sincere lover of his fellowman and deeply interested in every movement that promised for the welfare and betterment of those with whom he came in contact. For many years he served as overseer of the board of trustees of Whitman College and at his death was president of that organization.

A strong personality, with decided views, his political ambitions brought him in conflict with others of like type and character. Out of these contests grew one of the most notable political feuds in the Northwest, between Governor Moore and Senator Levi Ankeny. The passage of time and the afflictions of death in the immediate families softened the hearts of those fine old antagonists and a number of years prior to the death of Governor Moore they had become completely reconciled and each learned to appreciate the fine qualities of, and the large contribution to the public service that had been rendered by the other.

Governor Moore's long and successful career should be an inspiration to all who contemplate his life and character. His public activities were a notable contribution to the framing of the public policy of the Territory and State of Washington. His success in business amid such handicaps is an encouraging example to young men striving to make for themselves a career. His fidelity to every trust and his faithful performance of every public duty imposed upon him should lead us, who have our several public responsibilities, to attempt to emulate his high example.

Representative Satterlee delivered an eulogy on the life of former Lieutenant Governor Charles E. Coon, as follows:

It is with the deepest respect and veneration, I believe, that we pause in our rapid progress through life, and at this time bring before us the spirits of those who have passed the dark border of the valley of shadow. There comes to me at this time the great honor to speak for a few minutes in eulogy of the Honorable Charles E. Coon, and in refreshing the memory of this venerable character I bring before you the life of one of the most noted men in public life, not only of our own state, but of the nation.

Charles Evert Coon was born on March 15, 1842, in the little village of Friendship, in the Alleghany Mountains of New York, of sturdy Scotch and English stock. Through his mother he was a direct descendent of the intrepid Brigadier General Gideon Brownson, who commanded a brigade of the famous "Green Mountain Boys" in the War of the Revolution. Perhaps it was this inherited fighting blood from his forebears which led him, in 1861, at the age of 18, to enlist in the 23rd New York Volunteer Infantry, with which organization he served in the army of the Potomac until 1863, when he became chief clerk and deputy provost marshal of the 27th Congressional district of New York.

In 1864, upon his honorable discharge from the army, he was given a position in the office of the United States Treasurer at Washington, and, though he had but the merest common school education, through long years of service, his life was a story of promotion and success in the service of the government, until he became assistant secretary of the treasury under President Arthur. He was finally transferred to the office of the secretary. In 1871 Mr. Coon was selected as one of the staff of Hon. Wm. A. Richardson, assistant secretary of the treasury, a staff charged with the very important duty of refunding the United States bonded debt. He was engaged in this work for ten years, during the latter part of which time he served as agent in charge. It has been computed that during this time money and securities passing through his hands totaled over a billion dollars.

Mr. Coon was employed in the office of the secretary of the treasury at the time of that historic event when Secretary John Sherman brought about the resumption of specie payments. By Mr. Sherman's direction Mr. Coon prepared an exhaustive report to Congress which was published under the title of "Refunding and Resumption of Specie Payments." Perhaps one of the most notable services rendered by Mr. Coon was at the outset of the Garfield administration, when a disturbance of balance of trade was threatened by the return from abroad of a large number of United States bonds about to fall due. He went to England, and through his experience and acquaintance with British financial circles was enabled to exchange these for low-interest-bearing long-time bonds, thus saving the nation from a critical financial situation, at the same time making an enormous saving in interest.

In 1884 Mr. Coon was selected by President Arthur as assistant secretary of the treasury, and upon the death of his chief, Charles J. Folger, became acting secretary. His continuous service with the treasury of the Government lasted from the regime of Salmon P. Chase in 1864 to that of David Manning in 1885. He was widely known as a wonderful source of information and authority on government finance.

Mr. Coon linked his life with the destinies of the State of Washington in 1895, when on a visit to his daughter at Tacoma he became so favorably impressed with the Puget Sound country that he decided to remain. He located at Port Townsend in 1897 and established a mercantile business which he conducted until his death. He served two terms as mayor of his adopted city and was an earnest worker for its welfare in every possible way.

In the fall of 1904 our Commonwealth honored this venerable statesman by electing him to the position of Lieutenant Governor, in which capacity he served as president of the Senate from 1905 to 1909. He was elected without opposition to the 16th session of this Legislature as a member of the House, the last official act of his life being to notify the Senate that the House was about to adjourn sine die.

Mr. Coon was prominent in fraternal circles in the state and nation. He was one of the first members of the Grand Army of the Republic, having assisted in its organization in Washington, D. C., was a member of the Masons, the Elks, and a member of other fraternal orders. He was always an active participant in social and civic affairs in his home town. Wherever people were gathered the imposing figure and genial bearing of "Uncle Charlie", as he was lovingly called by his friends and neighbors, at once inspired attention, and his wonderful life of experience made him intensely interesting in conversation. He was open-hearted and friendly to men, chivalrous and courteous to women, and kind and loving to little children.

During the closing months of his life he seemed to ripen into the fullness of his eventful career. And Uncle Charlie died as he lived—as he wished to die—with his shoulder to the wheel, with his hand still at the helm of his earthly affairs, in spite of his advanced years, looking calmly and fearlessly toward the sunset and asking nothing more than that the strike of the grim messenger should be swift and sure. On January third, 1920, in the seventy-eighth year of his life, he was stricken with paralysis and sank into a deep sleep from which he never awakened, and five days later, the well-filled book of his life was gently closed and there passed into the corridors of memory a remarkable soul, the best years of whose life and effort were given to the service of his country.

Senator Guy B. Groff delivered the following eulogy on the life of former Secretary of State I. M. Howell:

This being the day dedicated to pay our respects to the memory of those servants of this State who have departed, it is most fitting and proper that we should from time to time recall the achievements and personal sacrifices made by these individuals resulting in the development of this Commonwealth. The creation of the Union and its several states, and the blessings of our present form of Government have been maintained and developed by our public servants.

Frequently the major portion of a man's life is spent in public service. Pride actuates an individual to exert his or her best efforts and by such manner and means the state secures the contribution of this service. Rarely is he ever compensated in any degree for the amount of benefit rendered to his fellowman. The people, generally, are not prone to encourage the efforts of a servant with praise, but never neglect to criticize. This is due primarily to an oversight and not to lack of appreciation. We, as a class, are patriotic, and frequently make utterances without much reflection and are too busy to smooth over hurried statements.

All of our public servants who have contributed the most to the creation and nurturing into existence of this great Republic have left an achievement, and an occasional mention of that achievement in kind words of appreciation often stimulate, rest and relax an overworked individual and inspire him to greater effort. Pride actuates men and women to perform many deeds which redound to the common benefit of all of us.

Captain I. M. Howell was born in Waukon, Alamakee County, Iowa, February 13, 1866. At the age of six years he moved to Rock Rapids, Lyon County, Iowa, with his parents, where they became interested in farming and city building. In 1877 he moved to Tacoma, Washington Territory, and received his education in the public schools at Tacoma, finishing at the Oregon State Normal.

His entry into politics dates back to 1901 when he was appointed chief deputy of Auditor J. H. Davis in Pierce County. His record as deputy elected him the succeeding term, where he served eight years. In 1909 he received the appointment of Secretary of State under Governor Hay, and was elected to the office by the people in 1912 and 1916. Mr. Howell filled the position of Secretary of State with honor and was favorably mentioned for the governorship on many occasions. In politics he was always a staunch republican, never wavering during the Populist craze or later in the Progressive movement. He always held the confidence of his friends and had a faculty of making no enemies.

"Cap", as he was affectionately called by his many friends, was always ready to contribute his time, energy and talent toward the advancement of the party to which he was connected, and to give his untiring efforts to the people of whom he was a servant. He was not in any sense a politician. His office was never used to promote his interests or for his own profit or advantage. After many years of faithful service to the State, he died a poor man, leaving his family very little in the way of property or money, but leaving the greatest estate that any man could leave—a host of loyal friends and a life record of honesty and square-dealing. He died on the 13th day of July, 1920.

Senator Geo. W. Adamson spoke on the life of former Senator Jacob Hunsaker as follows:

Away back in 1845, in Adams County, Illinois, on the 22nd day of January, Jacob T. Hunsaker and Emily Hunsaker, his wife, living in a humble home, coming from old pioneers of Pennsylvania, to them on this day was born Jacob Hunsaker (and in latter days was called Jake Hunsaker by his more intimate friends). At the age of one year and a half his father and mother, longing for the land of the setting sun, started on the old ox trail for the State of Oregon, and landed, after a long and dangerous journey, near Oregon City, where they made their home on a farm.

The boy at an early age determined to secure an education, such as was afforded in the country school, and on merging into young manhood, without any advantages, worked his way partially through Pacific University, Forest Grove, Oregon. After securing his education he came to the State of Washington and taught school in Thurston County for a period of three years. Being of an adventurous nature, in the year 1872, he went to Peru, South America, where he was employed by a railroad construction company. After residing in Peru for a little over one year, he again set out on a long journey and landed at Olympia, Washington.

In 1873, on the 1st day of May, he was married to Elizabeth Chambers, a native of Thurston County, living at Chambers Prairie. In 1875 they located on a farm near what is now called Underwood. In 1883 he removed to White Salmon, where he was engaged in general merchandising. During the years 1885 to 1889 he was county commissioner of Klickitat County. In the fall of 1889 he was elected as State Senator for Klickitat and Skamania Counties and served during his term of office. In 1892 he moved to Everett, Washington. During his residence in Everett he was honored by being elected Mayor, for two terms, also City Treasurer. During his active life he was always interested in the welfare of others. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Hunsaker.

Mr. Hunsaker was a great admirer of Abraham Lincoln, and always loved his country and his fellowman. Many young men will remember him for his fatherly advice and counsel.

On the morning of December 27, 1920, Mr. Hunsaker, the pioneer, the husband, the father, the Christian gentleman, the friend of all, arose as usual and spent an active day in his office. About 4 o'clock in the evening, on his way home to his loved ones, without any warning, his Heavenly Father said "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Thus ended the earthly career of our friend and brother.

Senator O. T. Cornwell spoke on the life of former Senator William Philip Reser, as follows:

Hon. William Philip Reser was born in Quincy, Illinois, February 29, 1843. He was the oldest son of the late Rev. John L. Reser. When two years of age he was taken by his parents to Missouri where he grew to manhood and received his education. In 1863 he crossed the plains by ox team and settled on a homestead about three miles southeast of Walla Walla. Mr. Reser was married in 1863 to Miss Mary Gray, who died May 16, 1895, leaving four children by this marriage: Mrs. Clara Cordiner, Mrs. Anna Drumheller and Philip Reser, all of Walla Walla; and Frank Reser, who died in 1895. Mr. Reser was again married in 1897 to Miss Linda Davis, daughter of a pioneer family, who still survives him. To this union one son, Byron Reser, was born and resides with his mother on the farm. In 1900 Mr. Reser was elected to the State Senate of Washington and served in the sessions of 1901 and 1903. At the time of his election he was the only democrat elected on the ticket in Walla Walla County.

Immediately on arriving in the Walla Walla Valley he began laying out an extensive program of farming and stock-raising. At one time he owned and operated 60,000 acres of land, farming and growing wheat on the fertile lands of the valley and raising livestock of all kinds on the mountain and arid lands, using the mountain ranges for summer pasture and the breaks of the Snake River for winter range. At the time of his election to the State Senate he was known as one of the most extensive farmers in the Northwest in grain raising, stock raising and diversified farming. On his home ranch he kept a band of elk and raised them successfully for a great many years.

Mr. Reser had a strong personality and personally superintended and supervised the operations of his many farms. He was very liberal and kindly disposed to all educational and other institutions that were for the betterment of the rising generation. He was a friend of the young men and was always ready with his timely advice in directing and advising the young man in his moral career as well as in his business interests. While he was a very busy man, he took a particular interest in the welfare of his neighbors and the social center of the community in which he lived. On Sunday mornings he was never absent from the little church in the community of which he was a devoted member and he was always present instructing a Sunday school class in that new and growing country. He followed these lines of activity until the time of his death on June 23, 1919.

Senator Chas. E. Myers spoke on the life of former Senator C. W. Bethel, as follows:

"When to the common rest that crowns our days,
Called in the noon of life, the good man goes;
Or full of years, and ripe in wisdom, lays
His silver temple in their last repose;
When, o'er the buds of youth, the death-wind blows,
And blights the fairest: Then our bitterest tears
Stream, as the eyes of those that love us close,
We think on what they were, with many fears
Lest goodness die with them and leave the coming years."

We come today, to commemorate the lives of some of death's trophies among whom is former Senator C. W. Bethel, of Lincoln County.

He reached the bounds of man's appointed years and like the long line of his neighbors, sleeps beneath the rolling prairies that he helped to conquer.

Senator Bethel was a hardy pioneer, and got his start between the handles of the plow. No shade trees cooled his early dwelling place, but being a true son of labor he pursued that most legitimate occupation, a tiller of the soil under the slanting rays of the morning and evening sun, and not shrinking from the tasks that called for arduous labor even under the blistering and perpendicular glare of the noon-day.

Like many of his brawny neighbors who now sleep beside him, and others who yet survive him, he became a factor in transforming the virgin prairies from an unsightly sagebrush plain to a vast field of golden grain, and did his full part in building that abstract structure we call society.

Senator Bethel was a jolly bald-headed man, and I imagine he was the sort of a fellow that Shakespeare said Julius Caesar liked. He had his faults and frailties in common with you and me, and while the early and ancient biographers in the time of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, recorded the good and bad in men for a purpose not fully revealed to us, we are inclined to adhere to the doctrine of a great dramatist: "That the good men do lives after them, and the bad is interred with their bones."

On the walls of the rotunda of this capital hang frames containing likenesses of black-bearded, together with time-wrinkled men, with locks of white, who gave us laws. Their feet no longer tread the halls within this State house. The sound of their voices is no longer heard in these chambers; but laws and resolutions and mandates have not ceased to issue forth because of their demise.

Therefore, let us not despair because of their withdrawal. The earth has yet its everlasting youth. Spring will come again with all its verdure and song of birds. Each season will come and go, and earth will reward the honest toil of men as in the favored past.

As we look back into the night of years we have no regret that men are dead who laid out the great highways of thought or who have discovered Nature's secrets, or who have passed down to us our most useful philosophies, for the same dart that downs the good man pierces the wretch that prowls around our homes at midnight, and they must yield to that inexorable law that makes them again brother to the insensible clod, and mix forever with the elements.

We take out of their lives the contribution left their fellows; that which is useful and good. That which is otherwise, we remember no more. No—all goodness shall not die from the earth at the departure of our most illustrious men.

When our beloved McKinley was stricken down by the assassin's hand, the stalwart Roosevelt with his rugged honesty put on the mantle of executive authority and the Ship of State plowed on.

We halt today to pay tribute to the great deeds and the memory of our departed associates, but look ever ahead to bright days and the free spirit of mankind, under the fatherly care of our benign Creator.

Senator Walter Davis delivered an eulogy on the life of former Senator Wilburn Fairchild as follows:

When the 1919 session of the Legislature adjourned, perhaps no one would have selected Senator Wilburn Fairchild as the first of that body of forty-two men who would be taken by the hand of death and would not answer to the roll call at the 1921 session.

He was so strong, so vigorous that he was one of those men with whom we do not connect the thought of death. When in October, 1919, within seven short months after the adjournment of the 1919 session, the news of Senator Fairchild's death went over our state, it came as a distinct surprise and shock to his friends and fellow Senators. Senator Fairchild had so many noble qualities, his human interests and sympathies were so large, that it is most fitting that tribute be paid to his memory in more than a conventional sense.

He was chosen in 1912 to the Senate in the Roosevelt and Progressive movement which swept over this state. In 1916 he was re-elected as a Republican and without opposition from any source. As he had been a conductor on the Northern Pacific Railway for many years between Tacoma and Portland, his interests in legislation were chiefly on labor questions. He was a true friend to labor and yet not unfair to capital. He enjoyed the confidence of his employers. He strove to bring labor and capital together, and on the passage of the labor legislation of the 1919 session, he arose and uttered the memorable words: "Washington now has the best labor laws of any state in the Union."

On the attempt in the 1915 session to repeal the full crew bill, it was Senator Fairchild more than any other member, to whom is due the retention of that law on the statutes, though others may deserve credit for its original passage in 1911.

Aside from his interest in labor, the law by which Senator Fairchild will best be known, is the "Absentee Voters' Law" of 1915, which secured the right of franchise to those unavoidably absent on election day. He was also interested in the question of pure food and a lower rate of interest.

Senator Fairchild was devoted to duty and rarely absent from his seat. It may be said of him, as was said of William Henry Seward, "He was faithful". He did not harbor enmity and was known for his kindness to political opponents. Words spoken in a heated debate were soon forgotten by him. Like Abou Ben Adhem, he loved his fellowmen. He was a believer in the Second Commandment. He loved a good story, for his strong and hearty laugh could be heard above the hum of conversation when the Senate was not in session.

Educated only in common schools, he gave to the support of struggling institutions. If not learned in the books of men, he had read from the books of nature and experience and knew his fellowmen.

He enjoyed a very wide acquaintance along the line of the Northern Pacific Railway from Tacoma to Portland. He did his part in charity for he was a strong believer in the fullest religious freedom. He was very happy in his home circle. He had higher political ambitions, and hoped to represent this district in Congress. He was a good neighbor and had the qualities of neighborliness; a good citizen himself; a worker and a friend to those who toiled; a devoted husband; a faithful and conscientious lawmaker, Senator Wilburn Fairchild has deserved well of the Republic and of our State. Like Governor Lister and the American soldiers who fell in France, Senator Fairchild died at the post of duty.

Charles Sumner says there is a beautiful story in Greek history, that while there might be war and strife in other parts of Greece, there was one spot—the little Island of Delos—free from war and the tread of marching feet. There all tribes met in peace and harmony. Here arose the temple of Concord, here was kept the common treasure.

So it is, friends, that in this biennial lodge of sorrow, in this biennial meeting, we come together in a different spirit than in the regular session. In the daily session there is the clash of minds, there are words spoken in the heated debates, but here today all contention is laid aside and we unite in paying tribute to our noble dead.

Nothing is more certain than death; so sure is it that courts have held that a note made so many days after a man's death is valid, while contracts made so many days after certain other events are not valid.

Gradually the members of the House and Senate will be dropping from the Legislature, to each of us in turn will come the day for tribute from our surviving comrades. May our devotion to duty be such; may our relations to one another be so cordial that these tributes may come from the heart as those we pay today to Governor Lister and our devoted comrades.

Mr. Mansfield delivered the following eulogy on the life of Hon. W. G. Duncan:

William George Duncan was a native of Ontario, Canada, born August 26th, 1857, of Scotch-Irish ancestry. He came to Washington Territory in 1884 and on July 4th of that year settled on a homestead at Egypt, Lincoln County, where, in addition to farming, he conducted a store and post office for some years.

Before leaving Canada he was married to Mary Hemphill and nine children were born to them. In 1914 Mr. Duncan was elected to the Legislature from the 16th district, and served Lincoln County faithfully and conscientiously in the 1915 session.

He was known as a man of high ideals and honesty of purpose, and was an unswerving Republican from the time he became a citizen of the United States.

During the last two years of his life he resided at Deep Creek, Spokane County, where his death followed a surgical operation in May, 1919.

Mr. Richardson delivered the following eulogy on the life of Hon. S. H. Manley:

Dr. Sherie H. Manley was a prominent physician and surgeon of Northeastern Washington. He was born on a farm near Norwalk, Ohio, March 10, 1847. He was a graduate of the Keokuk (Iowa) Medical College, receiving his diploma in 1873. In the early 80's he came West to California and later moved to the Territory of Washington. He was elected to the territorial legislature from Whatcom County in 1884. In 1885 he crossed the mountains into Eastern Washington and located at Colville and from Stevens County was elected to the constitutional convention which convened in 1889.

At the time of the mining boom on the Colville Indian Reservation he moved from Colville to the City of Republic where he continued to reside until a few years ago when he moved to San Francisco. Dr. Manley took an active part in civic affairs of Ferry County, serving for a number of years as county physician or coroner.

He built and equipped a hospital and was active in promoting every public enterprise.

In 1877 Dr. Manley married Miss Florence Gotel of Saginaw, Mich., and to that union eight children were born, of whom three daughters, a son and their mother still survive.

His death in San Francisco in June, 1920, was not unexpected, as he had been in a very serious condition for a long time. He leaves a host of friends in Northeastern Washington who sincerely regret the passing of one of Nature's gentlemen, a man admired for his ability, his generous, genial and kindly disposition.

Mr. Rogers delivered the following eulogy on the life of Hon. Elmer E. Johnson:

The Hon. Elmer E. Johnson came to Everett in 1891. Was intimately acquainted with him for 28 years. His first occupation was as a stenographer and clerk at the smelting works. He studied law, was admitted to practice. In 1899 he was elected to represent Snohomish County in the House. He was a Democrat in politics and was elected from a strong Republican district. The records of that session will show that he was an influential member. He was a man of exceptional executive ability. He was appointed executive commissioner to represent the State of Washington at the Buffalo Exposition. He did his work so well that he was appointed to represent the State of Washington at St. Louis Fair, the Portland Exposition and the A. Y. P. Exposition at Seattle. Then he was appointed to represent the State of Washington at San Francisco but resigned on account of his large private interests. At the time of his death he was vice president and manager of the Bank of Commerce of Everett, one of the large banks of Everett.

He was a quiet man and of a retiring disposition but made many friends and kept them. He loved the country life and his home, when he died, was on his farm between Everett and Seattle. He loved horses, cows, chickens and everything pertaining to a farm. He liked to go in the woods and saw blocks for fire wood and to get exercise, but every day you would find him at his desk in the bank at certain hours and then would go back and work on his farm.

He was a Christian man, and also a member of the Masonic fraternity. He was taken away in the prime of life. He was a large man, fine physique, robust and healthy. But, my friends, when the Great Master of the Universe calls us from this earthly sphere it behooves us all to be ready for that hour.

He was a good citizen, influential in the community in which he lived. He was charitable and kind and was always ready to assist the poor and needy. He was a man of good character, honest and upright. A man you could point to your son to pattern after. The City of Everett mourned his untimely death.

His wishes were that his funeral would be private. He left a wife and one daughter to mourn his loss.

I am sure that when he shall appear before the Great Master of the Universe, He shall say: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Mr. Bassett delivered the following eulogy on the life of Hon. Gerhardt Erickson:

We have this afternoon been recalling the services of an unusually large number of leaders in this history of our State. Among recent leaders our thoughts have gone back to the recent Governor of the State, who, despite the difficulties attending difference in political views with his associates, led our State with such high ideals until his untimely death, of a Lieutenant Governor who presided over our Senate with so much dignity, of our last territorial governor whose usefulness as a citizen in later years has almost led us to forget his services as a governor, and of the head of one of our most important departments who so lately passed away, perhaps the most popular of our State officials. Today I want to add a word for one who was a private in the ranks of public servants, Gerhardt Erickson of King County, a member of the Legislature of 1905. He and I were privates in the State's service during that session. I remember him well, a short stocky man, with traces in his speech of the land from which he came. I remember his name, Gerhardt Erickson, as it often appeared in the reports of the educational committee on which we both served. During the session, he was especially interested in education, both common school and higher, in agriculture and in the candidate of his county for the highest office in the gift of the State, then chosen by the Legislature. He was a faithful rather than an obtrusive member and showed his interest by his vote and his attention to details rather than by his voice in public. He accepted his position in this body as he did the ordinary duties of life, the calls of a customer or of a neighbor, to be performed faithfully as a matter of course, with thought of the public and not of himself. He seldom started a discussion in politics but preferred to give his attention to matters of importance to the State and to his constituents.

Mr Erickson was born in Norway in 1860. He crossed the ocean as a young man, took up a homestead near Bothell and later started a small general store through it which grew into the leading store of the town. He became a leading citizen of the community, was postmaster for twenty years and when a bank was organized in his town, became its president. He was a member of the Lutheran church. He lived a quiet and unassuming life, helping in all public matters and good works and leaving behind him a family comfortably provided for, a good name and a kindly remembrance with many whom he had helped. Mr. Erickson started life about as near the bottom as any one could, foreign born, with a new language in a strange country on an unimproved homestead in a timber country. His life brought him a fair competence, a good standing in the community, a position in this body, and opportunities for usefulness of which he availed himself to the advantage of his neighbors and friends. No man could start much poorer, any man could well be satisfied with such a life, almost everyone can secure equal respect and be equally useful. In these days of unrest and dissatisfaction would that every young man, however circumscribed in early life, could see the opportunities before him, and by following in the path of sobriety, industry and integrity which Mr. Erickson traveled, win for himself, before his life is over, the same returns, to his own satisfaction and the good of the community in which he lives.

Representative Spencer spoke on the life of Hon. C. W. Gorham as follows:

It is, indeed, a beautiful custom for us to stop for a few moments in the hurry and bustle of the affairs of the State, and pay tribute to the former members who have passed to the great beyond.

C. W. Gorham was born in the City of New York, May 30, 1865. Of his early life I know but very little, other than that after completing his common school education, he entered Cornell College, Iowa, from which he graduated as a young man. He came to the great Pacific Northwest, and settled in the City of Snohomish, Snohomish County. In 1900 he was elected to the Legislature of the State of Washington. After the session of 1901 he returned home and resumed private life. During the administration of Governor Mead, he was appointed State Printer, which office he held during that administration. Upon the expiration of his term of office he became closely identified with the business, fraternal and social welfare of his community. He was elected a director of the First National Bank. He was also instrumental in financing the Cascade Lumber Company, one of the largest institutions of Snohomish County. In 1916 he was, for the second time, elected to the State Legislature. It was during this session of 1917 that I had the privilege of meeting Mr. Gorham and found in him a man of sterling qualities and worth. After that session, came the Great War. Mr. Gorham put aside his business affairs and became very actively identified with war work. He was placed at the head of the Liberty Loan, Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. drives in his district, working from early morning until late at night. In 1918 he was again elected to the Legislature, and the day before the opening of the session of 1919, while seated at his desk, in this Chamber, he was stricken with paralysis, after remaining in the hospital in the City of Olympia, for a couple of weeks until he had gained sufficient strength to be removed to his home in Snohomish, where he could be with friends and loved ones.

Mr. Gorham believed in and exemplified the principal that Labor is the noblest of virtues; that life is short, while the thought and influence of our words and deeds are immortal; that the stars in their never ending course, in all space, and in all time, silently are continuing admonishing us to labor while it is yet today. Labor which is broad as the earth has its summit in Heaven. To toil, whether by the sweat of the brow or of the brain or heart, is worship, which is the noblest thing yet discovered beneath the stars. He believed that we should cease to think that labor is a curse, for without it there could be no true excellence in human nature; without it, and pain and sorrow, there could be no human virtues.

I believe that on the 22nd day of October, 1919, C. W. Gorham made the supreme sacrifice, in no less degree than did those who fell on Flander's Field, when the spirit of the Universe called him to that undiscovered "borne from which no traveler ever returned."

In the passing of Mr. Gorham, his family lost a father and companion; his community lost a friend, and this State and Nation lost a man and a citizen, of whom we can all well be proud.

The committee appointed to escort the Governor to the joint session was instructed to escort the Governor to his chambers.

On motion of Mr. Reed, the joint session dissolved at 3:50 p. m.

At 3:55 p. m., the Senate reconvened in the Senate Chamber.

At 3:57 p. m., on motion of Senator Carlyon, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow morning.

The Secretary read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
OLYMPIA, February 15, 1921.

To the Senate of the Legislature of the State of Washington.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to advise you that the Governor has signed Senate Bill No. 38, entitled: "An act making appropriations for the department of agriculture."

Very respectfully,
C. L. SHUFF, Secretary to the Governor.

The Secretary read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
OLYMPIA, February 15, 1921.

To the Senate of the Legislature of the State of Washington.

GENTLEMEN: I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 16, entitled: "An act relating to the establishment of county law libraries in certain counties and to provide for their government and maintenance and amending Section 1 of Chapter 84 of the Session Laws of 1919, the same being Section 5512-1 of Pierce's Washington Code," without my approval.

Two years ago Chapter 84 of the Session Laws of 1919 was allowed to become a law without the Governor's signature.

That act was not signed by the Governor for the following reasons:

First: He had committed himself to carry out certain policies.

Second: He was assured by those who appeared to be very much interested in the law that the same only applied to King County and would not apply to any other; and that the same was demanded by the people.

I thought then that there was no more reason for providing a source of revenue to provide the tools and machinery for lawyers than there was to raise a fund to buy machinery for the farmer. I can see no difference in principal. The only difference is in degree.

It may be that collecting a revenue under cover may be justified under the old saying "what one don't know won't hurt him," but inasmuch as many of our paternalistic expenses, like the oak, grew from small things, so in my opinion will this continue to grow, if permitted to go on. It is not unreasonable to look forward a few years when this law providing for law libraries starting in King County, now endeavoring to extend to Spokane and Pierce, will be extended to cover every county in the state and in the rivalry of the bar for as good or better libraries than the other county has, it would soon lead to the expenditure of public funds for this purpose, if not the levying of a direct tax to maintain the library.

Admitting my error of two years ago, I think the time to stop this growth is to do it now and for that reason Senate Bill No. 16 is vetoed.

Very truly yours,

LOUIS F. HART, Governor.

The Secretary read:

SENATE BILL NO. 16.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 7.

By Senators Wells and Bishop and the Military Committee:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled:

Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, Whidby Island, upon which is located Fort Casey in the State of Washington, by reason of its geographical location, facing and commanding the Strait of Juan de Fuca, occupies an important strategic position for the purposes of defense and for conducting military operations; and

WHEREAS, A narrow channel known as Deception Pass separates Whidby Island from Fidalgo Island, which latter Island is connected with the main land by two steel wagon bridges and a railroad bridge; and

WHEREAS, The construction of a bridge across Deception Pass, connecting the military reserves at that place and rendering it possible to move troops and mobile artillery to and from Whidby Island and the main land would be of little expense compared to its military value;

Now Therefore, Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, respectfully petition your honorable body to authorize the construction by the United States of a suitable bridge connecting Whidby Island and Fidalgo Island, and to that end make immediate appropriations and authorization for preliminary surveys and estimates for such a bridge; and

Be It Resolved, That the Secretary of State of the State of Washington is hereby directed to transmit copies of this memorial to the presiding officer of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, to the Secretary of War, to the Secretary of the Navy, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the State of Washington.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 8.

By Senator Cornwell:

To the Honorable Federal Power Commission of the United States:

Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, do most respectfully represent and memorialize your honorable body as follows:

The second paragraph of Section 7 of the Federal Water Power Act clothes the Federal Power Commission with authority and makes it its duty, in certain instances where the Federal Government possesses special interest, or where the potentialities of an hydro-electric power site appear to present features of moment to the Federal Government, to make investigation and to report results to Congress with appropriate recommendations.

The Umatilla Rapids site on the Columbia River, between the States of Oregon and Washington, manifestly comes within the purview of said paragraph in the following notable particulars, to-wit:

The development of an hydro-electric power plant at that point will eliminate the last serious obstacle to the free navigation of the middle Columbia, insure the irrigation of more than half a million acres of now arid lands, where the climate is equable, the soil fertile and located upon established transportation lines, will furnish electric power for light and manufacture in a wide expanse of country where now both light and power are difficult and expensive, will serve, with ease of access and economy of expense, several important lines of railroad with the means of electrification, and will contribute to the industrial development of a territory Imperial in expanse and unrivalled in climatic and material resources.

WHEREFORE, Your memorialists do most respectfully petition your honorable body to immediately initiate surveys and investigations upon the Columbia River at the Umatilla Rapids and report results of such surveys and investigations, with appropriate recommendations to the Congress of the United States, to the end that the Federal Government may undertake the development of an hydro-electric project at that point, and your memorialists will ever pray;

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate at once transmit a copy of this memorial to the Federal Power Commission at Washington, District of Columbia.

On motion of Senator Johnson, the memorial was referred to the Committee on Reclamation, Irrigation and Logged-off Lands.

The Secretary read:

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 9.

By Joint Military Committee:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled:

Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, The State of Washington was among the first to recognize, in a practical manner, the obligation of the Government to award compensation to those who served honorably in the armed forces of the United States at some time during the war with the Imperial German Government; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives of the United States also recognized the principle of awarding adjusted compensation to those who served as aforesaid by its passage on May 29, 1920, of House Bill No. 14157, commonly known as the four fold optional plan of adjusted compensation, which bill is now pending in the Senate of the United States; and

WHEREAS, The following bills are also before Congress, to-wit; House Bill No. 13558, known as the Wason Bill, providing for certain changes in the administration of war risk insurance; House Bill No. 10835, known as the Stevenson Bill, providing for the retirement of disabled emergency or reserve corps officers on the same basis as that granted to officers of the regular army, and the Rogers Bill providing for the consolidation and co-ordination of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, the rehabilitation division of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, and the United States Public Health Service to be placed under the jurisdiction of the Department of Interior;

Now, Therefore, Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, respectfully petition the Senate of the United States to pass House Bill No. 14157 and we further petition your honorable body to pass, with the utmost despatch, the other bills hereinbefore mentioned;

Be It Resolved, That the Secretary of State of the State of Washington is hereby directed to transmit copies of this memorial to the presiding officer of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the State of Washington.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8.

By Senator Hutchinson:

Granting the consent of the legislature of the State of Washington that there be erected and created by the Congress of the United States a new state, to be known as the State of Lincoln, from a portion of the State of Idaho and a portion of the territory of the State of Washington, defining the boundaries thereof, providing for the holding of a constitutional convention therein and the method for the selection of delegates thereto, and petitioning Congress for the admission of such a state into the Union.

WHEREAS, By reason of the existence of mountain barriers the northern portion of the State of Idaho hereinafter described is separated from the southern portion of that state not only physically but economically; and

WHEREAS, That portion of the State of Washington lying east of the summit of the Cascade Mountains is likewise separated from that portion of the State of Washington lying west of the Cascade Mountains physically and economically; and

WHEREAS, Said eastern portion of the State of Washington and northern portion of the State of Idaho are not only contiguous but are similar in climatic conditions and economic interests, and the problems of development, and consequently the mode of life and thought of the people living therein are the same; and

WHEREAS, It is desirable that that territory be permitted to solve its own problems, to secure its own development, and to work out its own destiny as a separate and sovereign state; and

WHEREAS, The said northern portion of Idaho has a population of approximately 150,000 and said eastern portion of Washington has a population of 437,191, or a combined population of 587,191, and the remaining portion of Idaho has a population of 280,000, and the remaining portion of Washington has a population of 919,430; and

WHEREAS, The great Inland Empire composed of Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho is a compact, harmonious whole, having its common industries and development problems;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled:

That consent is hereby granted for the Congress of the United States to erect and create a new state out of all that territory now a part of the State of Idaho described as follows: Commencing at a point in the center of the channel of Snake River at the intersection of said channel with the south line of Section 2, Township 22 North, Range 3 West, Boise Meridian, when said line is surveyed, said line being the northern boundary of Adams County; thence east along said line as surveyed or to be surveyed to the intersection of said line and the center of the channel of Little Salmon River; thence up the center of Little Salmon River to its intersection with the line between Township 20 North and Township 21 North of the Boise base line; thence east along said township line to its intersection with the top of the divide separating the watershed of the Salmon River from the watershed of the Snake River; thence following the top of said divide to its intersection with the line between the states of Montana and Idaho; thence following the boundary line between said states in a northwesterly and northerly direction to a point where it intersects the national boundary; thence west following the national boundary to the boundary line between the states of Idaho and Washington; thence in a southerly direction following the boundary line between the states of Idaho and Washington and Idaho and Oregon to the point of beginning; and that portion of the State of Washington lying east of the summit of the Cascade Mountains;

That authority is hereby granted to the citizens of that portion of the territory of the State of Washington hereby proposed to be joined with Northern Idaho and formed into a state to, in conjunction with the citizens of Northern Idaho, hold a constitutional convention to be convened at the State Armory in the City of Spokane on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1921, at twelve o'clock noon of said day, for the purpose of formulating and submitting to the qualified electors resident in such territory, for their rejection or approval, a constitution for such proposed state and, with that in view, to select delegates to such convention, to be apportioned among the counties comprising that territory, as hereinafter provided. Such delegates shall be chosen in such manner as the county commissioners of their counties respectively shall determine: Provided, That neither the expense of holding any election for the purpose of selecting delegates nor the expense of delegates attending upon the constitutional convention, nor the expense of the convention itself, shall be or become a charge against such counties or any of them or against the State of Washington;

That each county which, or the major portion of which, is included within the boundaries of the proposed state shall be entitled to the same number of delegates in the proposed constitutional convention as such county now has senators and representatives in the state legislature;

That the said convention shall have the power to make its own rules governing its deliberations, to provide all necessary means for submitting the constitution formed by it to a vote of the people, and to provide for the canvassing and certifying of the said vote to the proper authorities, should other means be necessary than is now provided by the Laws of the State of Washington;

That right and justice demand that the eastern portion of Washington be created into a separate state, and we pray that, when a proper constitution has been adopted and this portion of the state applies to the Congress of the United States for admission to the Union as a separate and sovereign state, to be known as the state of Lincoln, its prayer be granted.

The Secretary read:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14.

By Senator Bishop:

BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, the House concurring, that the people of the State of Washington, through their legislature now assembled, most earnestly protest against the assumption of jurisdiction and control of the fisheries within the territorial limits of the State of Washington as is proposed by the Fraser River sockeye fisheries treaty negotiated in 1920, between the United States of America and Great Britain, acting on behalf of the Dominion of Canada, and which now is pending in the United States Senate.

The State of Washington hereby reaffirms its title to all the public fisheries within its territorial limits and insists that it has the exclusive right, by virtue of its sovereignty, to keep, control and regulate all the fisheries within its borders without federal or international interference.

Washington is the only one of the forty-eight states affected by the Fraser River treaty. It has met the problem of controlling and regulating the sockeye fishing industry and dealing with extra territorial problems by the creation of a board of fisheries clothed with full authority to determine when, how and where fishing operations may be carried on. The fisheries problem is one that changes from season to season and may present unusual and unexpected aspects even during a single season's run of fish. The board of fisheries of Washington has full power to act promptly in any crisis that might arise and is competent to fully protect the fisheries of this state, whereas the pending treaty lays down inflexible rules, drafted without a full understanding of the fisheries problem of this state and proposed to stand without change for a period of years. The treaty should be withdrawn.

BE IT RESOLVED FURTHER, That a copy of this resolution be forthwith transmitted by telegraph to the United States Senators and Representatives from the State of Washington, and that they be requested thereby to use all honorable means to prevent any action tending to ratify or make said treaty effective.

On motion of Senator Bishop, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Fisheries.

The Secretary read House Joint Resolution No. 5 by Mr. Wolf "Relating to the purchase of the pictures of the members of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Legislative Sessions of the State of Washington."

HEADQUARTERS COAST DEFENSES OF PUGET SOUND,
FORT WORDEN, WASH., February 15, 1921.

Hon. L. B. Hastings, Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash.

DEAR SIR: Yours of the 14th inst., signed jointly by Mr. Bishop, Mr. Wells, and yourself was received this morning. The former letter of Mr. Wells, to which you refer, was not received by me until February 12, when I returned from a month's leave of absence, spent in the east. I answered it at once.

The improvement of the road from Camp Lewis to Port Townsend and from Port Townsend to Port Angeles, would be of great military value. A reconnaissance of the road between Camp Lewis and Port Townsend was made in November, 1920, by artillery officers from Camp Lewis, and it was found that the road was not practicable for the movement of tractor artillery, as some of the bridges would not carry the load. A reconnaissance is now being made of the Olympic Highway to and beyond Port Angeles. There is no need for me to argue with you the fact that in time of war or threatened war, a road from Camp Lewis capable of carrying tractor artillery would be of vital importance to this sector and to the whole of the Puget Sound country.

A strong bridge across Deception Pass, connecting Whidby and Fidalgo Islands, with good roads connecting this bridge with the Pacific Highway and Fort Casey, would be of almost equal military importance and would add very materially to the practicability of successfully defending the entrance of Puget Sound, and the country north of it from attack by an enemy.

Both projects upon which you are now working, are of great and immediate importance.

Respectfully,

JOHN L. HAYDEN, Col. C. A. C. Comdg.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
OLYMPIA, February 18, 1921.

To the Senate of the State of Washington:

GENTLEMEN: Senate Bill No. 43, entitled "An act relating to the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, providing for the court en banc and for separate departments of such court, for the holding of terms thereof, for the method of hearing and determining causes therein and authorizing the making of rules; and amending Section 10 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington". is returned to you herewith without my approval.

The apparent object of the amendment to Section 10 of the Code is that each lawyer shall immediately receive a typewritten copy of the opinion of the supreme court in the case in which he is interested. Such copies to be furnished at the expense of the state.

The advance sheets of decisions are printed and distributed within a week or ten days from the time of filing opinions, and as nearly every attorney in the state gets these advance sheets, the only thing to be gained by the proposed amendment in Senate Bill No. 43 is to get the full text of the opinion a week earlier and without expense to the lawyer.

During the two years beginning February 15, 1919, and ending February 15, 1921, the clerk of the supreme court paid into the state treasury $3,562.10 as proceeds for the furnishing of typewritten copies of decisions to attorneys, at the rate of ten cents per folio. This revenue, equivalent to the salary of a first-class stenographer, will be lost to the state if Senate Bill No. 43 becomes a law.

Whatever additional expense by reason of stenographer's salary, stationery and postage may be necessary to furnish two copies of every opinion is problematical and will not be considered.

Perhaps a more vital point in connection with this act is the additional time of the court which would be taken up in quibbling over what might be termed technicalities.

The law now provides that "whenever a decision shall become final as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon." Under Senate Bill No. 43, if permitted to become a law, "a judgment shall issue thereon" only upon the furnishing of copy of decision to one attorney for the appellant and to one attorney for the respondent.

It seems to me that to thus attack the stability of the final judgment of the highest court in the state is so unsound as to make one feel that in the enthusiasm to get free copies of the opinions this effect upon the present statute was entirely overlooked by the legislators.

To allow the final judgment of the court of last resort to be attacked on such flimsy pretext is too unreasonable to justify serious consideration.

For the reasons above stated Senate Bill No. 43 is vetoed.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

LOUIS F. HART, Governor.

SENATE BILL NO. 43.

AN ACT relating to increasing the number of judges of the supreme court of the State of Washington providing for the court en banc and for separate departments of such court, for the holding of terms thereof, for the method of hearing and determining causes therein and authorizing the making of rules; and amending Section 10 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. That Section 10 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Section 10. The decision of a department, except in cases otherwise ordered as hereinafter provided, shall not become final until thirty days after the filing thereof, during which period a petition for rehearing, or for a hearing en banc, may be filed, the filing of either of which, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall have the effect of suspending such decision until the same shall have been disposed of. If no such petition be filed the decision of a department shall become final thirty days from the date of its filing, unless during such thirty-day period an order for a hearing en banc shall have been made: Provided, That if for any cause the chief justice or a majority of the department rendering any decision shall be of the opinion that such decision should go into effect prior to thirty days after its filing, it shall go into effect, and a judgment issue thereon, any time after its filing and prior to such thirty-day period, upon being in writing approved by the chief justice and any two associate judges who took no part in rendering such decision. The effect of granting a petition for a rehearing, or of ordering a cause once decided by department to be heard en banc, shall be to vacate and set aside the decision. Whenever a decision shall become final, as herein provided, a judgment shall issue thereon: Provided, further, That upon the filing of any decision the clerk of the court shall forthwith furnish, free of charge, an authenticated copy of such decision to at least one attorney appearing in the cause for each of the appellants and respondents.

On motion of Senator Rockwell, the veto message of the Governor and Senate Bill No. 43 were made a special order of business for Wednesday, February 23, at 2:00 p. m.

The Secretary read:

REPORT TO THE SEVENTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

The undersigned joint committee appointed by virtue of House Joint Resolution No. 2, hereby respectfully makes the following report:

Several days were consumed in endeavoring to agree upon a method of procedure and similar matters.

The committee formally convened in public session on the second day of February, 1921, at the hour of 2 p. m. and began taking testimony concerning acts of the state reclamation board pursuant to said joint resolution. The committee was represented by the attorney general. The board was without counsel.

The committee continued receiving testimony until February 4 at approximately 11 a. m., when it was notified of the passage by the legislature of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11. Upon being advised of such action by the legislature, the committee forthwith went into executive session for about thirty minutes, after which it returned to the room in which it was holding its public hearing and made the following public announcement:

"The committee will hold its investigation in abeyance until Monday, February 7, 1921, at 1 p. m., up to which time any who desire may file charges in writing against the reclamation board with the chairman of the committee. In the event of no charges being filed, the committee will proceed with its investigation under House Joint Resolution No. 2 and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11, the attorney general representing the public upon one hand, and the reclamation board being represented by the attorney selected by them upon the other hand."

The committees then adjourned until Monday, February 7, 1921, at 1 p. m., at which time it reconvened. Mr. Scott Z. Henderson, accompanied by Mr. C. L. Babcock, State Treasurer, appeared before the committee and announced that Mr. Henderson had been retained as attorney for the reclamation board.

No charges having been filed with the chairman, the committee made the following public announcement and requested the representatives of the press present to give publicity to the same, to-wit:

"The joint committee of the House and Senate, appointed by the seventeenth legislature of the State of Washington, to investigate the state reclamation board, having held its investigation in abeyance until 1 p. m., Monday, February 7, 1921, to permit the filing of definite charges in writing against said board by any desiring to do so in accordance with Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11, and no charges having been filed, the committee will proceed upon its own initiative to investigate the acts of said board.

The committee invites any and all persons having evidence against said reclamation board or any of its members, to acquaint the said committee therewith in writing."

The committee, having made such announcement, forthwith proceeded upon its investigation, a large number of witnesses, including members of the board, its employes, persons living in localities where the board has assisted in reclamation work, and those who had criticised the acts of the board were called and interrogated. The work of the board during its entire history has been reviewed. Its official records and files were called for and have been examined in detail. Over fifty documentary exhibits have been received in evidence, properly marked and included in the record. An audit by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices of the accounts and of all moneys expended by the board was secured by the committee, has been examined by it and duly included in the record as an exhibit, and to the best of our ability, we have investigated all of the acts of the state reclamation board. The proceedings before the committee including testimony, have been reported and a transcript of the same, together with the exhibits introduced in evidence are herewith submitted as a part of this report. No written charges have been filed with your committee.

Inasmuch as many of the exhibits, including the minute book of the state reclamation board, have been taken from the files and archives of said board and should be in their possession, we recommend that the said board, upon action being taken by the legislature upon this report, be permitted to withdraw from the records such exhibits as have been taken from their files and archives.

From its examinations and investigations of the acts of the state reclamation board, your committee finds and concludes:

1. That the propriety of creating the reclamation board arbitrarily from officers with other duties and selected for other purposes, and allied matters are questions which we regard as eliminated by the enactment of the new administrative code.

2. That the board has done little under the land settlement act, other than making certain preliminary investigations. We believe that their conduct in this regard is justified for the reason that the constitutionality of the act was in doubt until the decision of the supreme court in April, 1920, and for the further reason that the sum of $150,000.00 appropriated by the 1919 legislature for land settlement purposes is entirely inadequate to carry on any feasible scheme of land settlement. The impression which seems to prevail in some quarters that the reclamation fund could have been used in the land settlement act, we regard as erroneous. The reclamation act and the land settlement act are two separate and distinct acts, therefore, the funds appropriated to carry out one of these acts could not be used to carry out the other.

The committee believes that in order to properly carry out a policy of land settlement as proposed under the land settlement law, an assistant supervisor should be appointed in the department of conservation and development, to have charge of land settlement exclusively.

3. That in the matter of charges of wasteful expenditures in the Methow Okanogan District, the reclamation board has a contract with the district which calls for the reimbursement to the state of all money expended in that district. There having been no complaints filed with your committee from this district, we assume that it is satisfied with the manner in which its money was expended.

4. That the board has spent some money in having prepared an amended irrigation code and paid fees and expenses in connection therewith; that it arranged for the employment of one person familiar with its acts to remain in attendance during the present session of the legislature to advise inquiring members of the legislature with reference to its acts and ideas and that in connection with said proposed amended code it paid the expenses of several experts attending the conference at Seattle, and further find that in all its acts, including its contracting of expense, employment of individuals, etc., the board should not be adversely criticised and that it acted in accordance with what it believed to be the best interests of irrigation and land reclamation in this state.

5. That while the board under the law is given wide discretion in the disbursement of funds, we believe that it has never been wasteful or reckless in its expenditures of money, including the purchase of bonds, but on the contrary, has proceeded with due diligence and caution, and the testimony of various witnesses appearing before the committee has been to the effect that the activities of the board have been of great assistance in various irrigation districts of the state and in promoting generally the matter of reclaiming lands.

(Signed)

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. LOOMIS, Chairman,

 C. E. HUGHES,

 C. W. RYAN.

LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF _____ HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. _____

By Committee on Irrigation.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress Assembled:

Your memorialists, the legislature of the State of _____ respectfully represent: that,

WHEREAS, The future growth and prosperity of _____ and the entire West and Southwest is of vital importance in connection with the maintenance of our national institutions and of inestimable value in connection with the future defense of the nation, and is almost wholly dependent upon the development and utilization of natural resources, particularly the reclamation by irrigation and drainage of the vast areas of now unproductive desert and swamp lands; and

WHEREAS, The wisdom of government reclamation of arid lands by Irrigation and drainage has been fully demonstrated through the accomplishments of the United States Reclamation Service created by an act of Congress in 1902 whereby former arid and wholly unproductive lands now sustain upwards of 45,000 prosperous families and contribute annually eighty million dollars in crop value to our national wealth; and

WHEREAS, There is an urgent necessity for stimulating activity in that greatest of all American industries—home building—and for the lending of national support to the "back to the farm movement" in order that our discontented floating population might be permanently cemented to the soil and its loyalty as citizens guaranteed to the nation; and

WHEREAS, The most important of these reclamation enterprises are beyond the scope and probability of development by private or even state capital, but are essentially national problems;

Now, Therefore, Your memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of _____ hereby endorse a fixed and comprehensive national policy of reclamation of arid and swamp lands and solicit the immediate enactment of legislation designed and adapted to the needs of this great work, embodying such policies as will make available the natural resources essential to drainage and reclamation; and

That the Secretary of State of the State of _____ is hereby instructed to forward this memorial to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America.

On motion of Senator Johnson, the Governor's message and proposed memorial were referred to the Committee on Reclamation, Irrigation and Logged-off Lands.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
OLYMPIA, February 24, 1921.

To the Senate of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

GENTLEMEN: I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 17, entitled "An act relating to levies upon personal property, the liability of the executing officers and providing for indemnifying bonds to such officers."

The proponents and supporters of this measure were prompted by ideal motives in their efforts to free the sheriff from liability in the execution of various writs, without first protecting himself with a bond of indemnity; and provides that the sheriff shall not be liable, either personally or on his official bond, if in the execution of a writ he levies upon any personal property in the possession of the judgment debtor, or which is pointed out to him by the judgment creditor, or his agent, as the property of the judgment debtor, and holds the same during the three days "open season" provided in the bill.

It seems to me that the present law amply protects the sheriff wherein it gives him the right to demand an indemnifying bond before he executes a writ; and that the present act only relieves the judgment creditor of the expense of procuring an indemnifying bond.

The danger to the sheriff has been entirely overlooked in that if Senate Bill No. 17 is permitted to become a law the sheriff will be liable on his official bond for failure and refusal to levy upon property which he in good faith believes is the property of another than the judgment debtor. In other words, we should not lose sight of the fact that there are a few people who make a living operating so-called collection agencies or mercantile associations who are willing to take advantage of every opportunity given them by the law to collect claims placed in their hands for collection.

If a judgment creditor or his attorney demands that the sheriff levy upon certain personal property to satisfy a writ of execution in his hands and the sheriff is satisfied beyond question that the property is not owned by the judgment debtor and declines to execute the writ, and that property is removed, sold, converted or dissipated, the judgment creditor may at any time, within the statute of limitations, bring suit against the sheriff for the amount of the judgment upon which the writ of execution was issued for his refusal to execute the writ as demanded. Then the burden is upon the sheriff to prove that the property was not owned by the judgment debtor, a burden that is unfair and unjust to a public official and one that ought not to be imposed. It may be said that the sheriff can protect himself by indiscriminately and uniformly following the directions of each and every attorney who presents him with a writ for execution, but even if this be so, unless some benefit was to be gained thereby, the public ought not to be harrassed by making it necessary for the sheriff to levy on the personal property of any innocent person whom some unscrupulous creditor or his agent might be willing to annoy.

With nothing to be gained by way of assisting in collection of honest debts and the unnecessary and unfair burden imposed upon sheriffs by this Act, Senate Bill No. 17 is vetoed. Very respectfully,

LOUIS F. HART, Governor.

Senator Taylor moved that the message to the Governor be placed in the journal and the bill laid on the table.

The motion carried.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 25, 1921.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The Speaker has signed Enrolled Senate Bill No. 31;
Also, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 4;
Also, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 45;
Also, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 86;
Also, Enrolled Substitute Senate Bill No. 32.
And the same are herewith transmitted.

C. R. MAYBURY, Chief Clerk.

The motion carried.

The President stated the question was on the amendment by Senator Taylor amended to read as follows:

Strike lines 49 and 50 of the printed bill, the same being lines of the original bill, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"That a parent or guardian having control or charge of any child enrolled in the public school may file annually with the principal of the school in which he is enrolled, a statement in writing, signed by such parent or guardian, stating that he will not consent to the physical examination of his child, and thereupon such child will be exempt from any physical examination except in case of suspected contagious disease; but whenever there is good reason to believe that such child is suffering from a recognized contagious or infectious disease, such child shall be sent home and shall not be permitted to return until the school authorities are satisfied that such contagious or infectious disease does not exist, and: Provided further, That no child shall be required to submit to vaccination against the will of his parent or guardian, and: Provided further, That no form of vaccination, inoculation or other medication shall hereafter be made a condition precedent in this state for admission to or attendance in any public school, college, university or other educational institution, or for the employment of any person as teacher or in any office or employment in any educational establishment, or for the exercise of any right, the performance of any duty or the enjoyment of any privilege arising out of or in connection therewith."

The amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Groff was called to preside.

The President resumed the chair.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage Senate Bill No. 10, as amended, and it failed to pass the Senate by the following vote:

Those voting aye were: Senators Carlyon, Cleary, Davis, Groff, Karshner, Lambert, McCauley, McCoy, Metcalf, Myers, Palmer, Post, Renick, Rockwell, Rust, Ryan, Sutton, Swofford, Taylor, Westfall, Wray—21.

Voting nay: Senators Adamson, Barnes, Bishop, Cornwell, Cox, Crawford, Fawcett, Hall, Hastings, Hutchinson, Johnson, Landon, Loomis, McMillen, Morthland, O'Harra, Sinclair, Wells, Wilmer—19.

Absent or not voting: Senators Coman, Thomle—2.

When Senator Hutchinson's name was called he explained his vote as follows:

"I vote No on Senate Bill 10 for the reason that the Senate refused to permit the bill to be referred to the people and as the bill takes the management of the schools out of the hands of the people, who are most interested, and placed them in the hands of five salaried persons in each county who cannot be in touch with the conditions in the various school districts, and as the bill provides for a large number of salaried employees, thereby increasing the costs of the schools, and on account of those employees not having the interests of the various districts at heart as the resident director has. I vote No."

When Senator Karshner's name was called, he explained his vote as follows:

"I believe this school code is correct in theory but premature in installation. I concur in its main provisions. I believe in a blanket county tax and in an enlarged uniform state tax which make for an equal distribution of school funds.

"I believe in the centralization of school authority to secure efficiency and economy in school government. Furthermore, I believe in the subtraction of all water from school attendance. I cannot concur, however, with its radical method of taking out of the local school board the question of local self government, without a referendum. Failing to secure the passage of this amendment, I then vote for the bill in the belief that more good than harm can come to the child in the rural school."

At 4:10 p. m. Senator Rockwell moved that the Senate adjourn until tomorrow morning.

Senator Bishop moved to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 10 failed to pass the Senate.

Senator Taylor stated as a point of order that Senator Bishop had voted with the minority and therefore his motion to reconsider was out of order.

The President held the point of order to be well taken.

At 4:15 p. m. Senator Rockwell's motion to adjourn carried and the Senate adjourned until tomorrow morning.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
OLYMPIA, February 28, 1921.

To the Senate of the State of Washington.

GENTLEMEN: I have this day signed Senate Bill No. 168, entitled "An act relating to the relief of veterans of the war with the central allied powers, repealing Chapter 9, Laws of 1919, and making an appropriation", except that I have vetoed Section 5 of said bill.

Fully realizing the merit of and consideration that should be shown for the veterans of the late war, it appears to me that in view of the fact that we are just starting in on the distribution of $11,000,000.00 as additional compensation to the soldier boys, and that we have expended during the last two years, under the direction of the Veterans' Welfare Commission one-half million dollars, less about $38,000, which by the terms of Sections 1 and 2 of this bill is donated to the American Legion, Department of Washington, to be expended in further aid of the veterans of the late war, and in view of the further fact that the general fund of this state is already overdrawn many times the Constitutional limitation, it is not proper that we should be swayed by our emotions, our sympathies and our patriotic desires to further overburden a depleted treasury by appropriating an additional $25,000.00 from the general funds for this laudable purpose.

I am advised that some of the legislators who supported this measure were laboring under the mistaken impression that moneys borrowed from the Veterans' Welfare Commission, which had not been repaid by persons entitled to compensation under the Veterans' Equalized Compensation Act, would have the amount thereof deducted from the sums payable to such persons and that the amount of said loan thus collected by the auditor indirectly, would be paid into the state general fund. This is a mistake.

Unpaid sums borrowed from the Veterans' Welfare Commission are deducted from the sum due the borrower, but no part thereof goes into the general fund but is retained in the veterans' compensation fund.

Believing that the Senate has done all it can financially afford to do under present conditions, Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 168 is vetoed. Very respectfully,

LOUIS F. HART, Governor.

Senator Groff moved that the veto message be placed in the journal and the vetoed section laid on the table.

SEATTLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND COMMERCIAL CLUB.

SEATTLE, February 28, 1921.

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, Legislature of the State of Washington, Seventeenth Session, Olympia, Washington.

Attention Lieut. Governor Coyle, Presiding Officer of the Senate:

GENTLEMEN: At a recent meeting of representatives of the Taxation, Industrial and Publicity Bureaus of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club, called for the purpose of discussing means of lightening taxation of Seattle industries, a motion was unanimously passed thanking the legislature for the good work it is accomplishing and the example it is setting in reducing the expenditures for which the people are called upon to pay taxes.

Seattle industries are feeling the burden of taxation so keenly that they are demanding relief, some of them even threatening to leave the state. The high tax rate also makes it difficult to induce new industries to locate here. High taxation has become a menace to the prosperity and development of the state.

We feel that the legislature, in cutting down expenditures and requests for additional appropriations, is taking the most practical means of reducing our heavy tax burden. We wish to commend you heartily for your efforts and accomplishments in this line.

Yours very truly,

ROBERT S. BOYNS, President.

By Senator Thomle:

To the President of the United States:

We, your memorialists, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, do hereby most respectfully and earnestly represent and petition as follows:

That there are within the borders of the former government of Russia and particularly within the borders of Siberia, many merchants and business men of high character and responsibility who have in their possession large quantities of the products of said countries that are needed by the people of the United States and that there is a great demand for the products of the United States in the territory formerly comprised within the government of Russia, and that were it not for the trade barrier imposed in the time of war, extensive commerce could and would be carried on between the people of the United States and the people of the former government of Russia; that other nations, particularly the British Empire and the countries of Scandinavia are carrying on extensive trade and commerce with the Russian people and that by reason of the trade barriers imposed in the time of war, the people of the United States are deprived of the opportunity to participate in an extensive commerce with the Russian people;

Wherefore, your memorialists do pray that the trade barrier now existing between the people of the United States and the Russian people be removed and that the people of the United States and particularly the people residing upon the Pacific coast, be permitted to carry on trade and commerce with the Russian people and particularly with the inhabitants and merchants of Siberia across the Pacific Ocean.

And your memorialists will ever pray.

C. R. MAYBURY, Chief Clerk

The Secretary read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF GOVERNOR,
 OLYMPIA, March 9, 1921.

The Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington:

GENTLEMEN: I am returning you herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No 52, entitled "An act providing for the regulation of fishing at Prosser Falls, in the Yakima River, in Benton County, State of Washington, by Indians of the Yakima Nation, claiming rights under a certain treaty made with the United States on June 9, 1855, and by any other person."

I am at a loss to understand the necessity for this bill.

The Indians are permitted to fish at Prosser Falls in the Yakima River under proper rules and regulations. The fact that Indians do not like to acknowledge the supremacy of the law or to acknowledge the dominant power of the State is not a reason, in my opinion, for permitting them to indiscriminately fish at the Prosser Falls Dam and to exercise privileges denied the white people.

The Indians have no reason to complain, and the only excuse they have is that they are under restraint of the law.

I am strongly of the opinion that only for the most urgent reasons is the legislature justified in making a declaration of fact, uncorroborated by good and sufficient evidence, which fact could be pleaded in the courts against the interests of the state in any litigation that might be pending or might hereafter arise. Such legislative declaration might properly be held as binding upon the state and depriving it of its rights to demand that an opposing litigant establish the truthfulness of his pleading by competent proof.

I think that litigation ought to be conducted in the courts and that legislative action ought not to be invoked which would deny the state its "day in court".

For the foregoing reasons Senate Bill No. 52 is vetoed.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed)

LOUIS F. HART, Governor.

The President stated the question to be, shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor.

Senator Morthland demanded a call of the Senate, seconded by Senators Post and Bishop.

MOTIONS FOR JOINT SESSION.

RULE 2. All motions for a joint session shall be made by concurrent resolution and when an agreement has once been made it shall not be altered or annulled, except by concurrent resolution.

BUSINESS LIMITED.

RULE 3. No business shall be considered in joint session, other than that which may be agreed upon before the joint session is called.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE, REPORTS, ETC.

RULE 4. In every case of difference between the two houses, upon any subject of legislation, either house may request a conference and appoint a committee of three for that purpose, and the other house also shall appoint a like committee to confer. The committees shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen, and shall confer upon the differences between the two houses as indicated by the amendment made in one and rejected in the other. But no committee on conference shall consider or report on any matter except that directly at issue between the two houses. The papers shall be left with the conferees of the house asking for such conference, and they shall present the report of the committee to their house. When such house shall have acted thereon, it shall transmit the same and the papers relating thereto, to the other, with a message certifying its action thereon. Every report of a committee of conference shall be read through in each house, before a vote is taken on the same.

HOW MADE UP.

RULE 5. The presiding officer of each house shall appoint a committee of three members, selecting them so as to represent the attitude of the majority and minority of their respective houses.

FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

RULE 6. In case of a failure of the conferees to agree, a report of such disagreement may be made and the power of free conference may be granted by the two houses, either to the same committee, or the committee may be discharged and a new committee appointed with the power of free conference, to whom the whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be committed, and the committee of free conference may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments, unless such bills or resolutions are comprised entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective houses for original bills or resolutions, as the case may be.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE AND FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE, HOW MADE OUT; WHO RETURNED TO.

RULE 7. Three copies of the report must be prepared, and the copy of the bill as agreed to by the committee with all amendments inserted must be returned to the house asking for such conference and which is in possession of the bill; it shall act upon such report, and if an agreement is reported, keep one of the copies of the report for its journal and duly message its action together with the bill, the original copy of the report and the remaining duplicate to the other house, which if the conference report be concurred in and the bill concurred in as amended, shall be the bill that is finally passed.

* Requires a constitutional majority. Requires two-thirds on constitutional amendment.

A veto message and a bill, or the message alone, may be referred and the bill laid on the table.

The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.
