JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

STATE OF WASHINGTON

THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Monday, January 10, 1955.
Twelve O'clock Noon.

The Thirty-fourth Senate of the State of Washington assembled at the Senate Chamber in the State Capitol, pursuant to law, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

Lieutenant Governor Emmett T. Anderson, President of the Senate, called the Senate to order.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Neil Hanson, Color Bearer, Mary Doumit, Claudia McCormick and Norman Taft, presented the Colors.

Reverend J. Edgar Pearson, Jr., of the United Churches of Olympia, offered prayer, as follows:

"O Lord, our Heavenly Father, hear us as we convene this Senate in prayer. We pray that Thou wilt bless these men chosen by the people of this State, for Thou knowest them better than they know themselves, better than they know one another. May each of them remember that Thou art concerned with what is said and done here, and may they have a clear conscience before Thee as they make their choice of those who will guide them during this session. Be with the Governor of the State, the elective officials, that forgetting their own personal wants and desires, they may work together for those principles that would promote harmony and better living in our State.

"We thank Thee for the work that is before this body. Knowing that criticism will come, help them to take what is helpful and forgive that which is unjust and unkind. Amid all the pressures brought upon them, may they ever hear Thy voice and follow Thy guidance for the good of all people. May they have the strength and courage to act when Thou dost show them what to do. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen."

The Acting Secretary called the roll of holdover members of the Senate, all being present.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President of the Senate appointed Senators Goodloe, Shannon and Riley as a committee to escort the Honorable Chief Justice, Frederick G. Hamley, of the Supreme Court, to the Senate Chamber and a seat upon the rostrum.

The committee retired.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the arrival of the Honorable Chief Justice Hamley and the special committee at the bar of the Senate.

Chief Justice Hamley was thereupon escorted by the Sergeant-at-Arms and the special committee to a seat upon the rostrum.

The following certificate of election from the Secretary of State was read by the Acting Secretary of the Senate:

ROY A. NELSON,

Constituting the Joint Board of Douglas and Okanogan County Commissioners.

The Acting Secretary called the roll of the newly re-elected and new members of the Senate, all being present.

The President requested the Sergeant-at-Arms to conduct all the re-elected members to the bar of the Senate to receive their oath of office.

Chief Justice Hamley, of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, thereupon administered the oath of office to the following re-elected Senators:

B. J. Dahl	Albert D. Rosellini
John H. Happy	R. R. "Bob" Greive
David C. Cowen	Edward F. Riley
W. C. Raugust	Victor Zednick
Nat Washington	Patrick D. Sutherland
E. J. Flanagan	Howard S. Bargreen
Andrew Winberg	William D. Shannon
R. C. "Russ" Barlow	Michael J. Gallagher
John N. Todd

The President presented to each of the newly re-elected Senators his certificate of election.

The President requested the Sergeant-at-Arms to conduct each of the newly elected and the newly appointed Senators to the bar of the Senate to receive their oath of office.

Chief Justice Hamley, of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, thereupon administered the oath of office to each of the following newly elected and newly appointed Senators:

Louis E. Hofmeister	Ted G. Peterson
H. N. "Barney" Jackson	John N. Ryder
Homer O. Nunamaker	George D. Zahn

President Anderson presented to each of the newly elected and the newly appointed Senators his certificate of election.

The President:

"Judge Hamley, I most sincerely thank you for your courtesy in coming here this morning to administer the oath of office to the newly re-elected and new members of the Senate. I know you have added dignity to this occasion, and I think I have expressed the feeling of all of our Senators."

The President requested the Special committee to escort Chief Justice Hamley to the President's Chambers.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

President Anderson:

"At this point I wish to say a few words of welcome to each and every Senator. We are all aware that we are facing serious problems, but with cooperation and understanding and tolerance we will meet the challenge and discharge our duties and our responsibilities. I assure all of you of my cooperation, and I sincerely trust that we will have a harmonious and constructive session. My kindest personal regards to each and every one of you."

MOTION

Senator Hoff moved that the permanent rules of the 1953 session be the temporary rules of this session.

Senator Zednick seconded the motion.

The motion carried.

MOTION

Senator McMullen moved that the Senate now proceed with the election of officers for this session.

The motion carried.

MOTION

Senator Lennart moved that that portion of Rule 40 relating to smoking be suspended.

The motion carried.

The President:

"We are now at the point of electing our officers."

The President declared that nominations for President Pro Tempore were now in order.

Senator McMullen:

"I have the distinct pleasure at this time of offering to this group as its President Pro Tempore the name of a man known to all of you and whom we all recognize as having exceptional qualities and ability along this line; one who has served in this Senate for over twenty years, and who has served in this particular office before, with dignity and credit to himself and also to the Senate.

"I am happy to have the opportunity to nominate to this position our old friend and hard worker, Victor Zednick of Seattle."

Senator Washington:

"It is a distinct pleasure for me to place in nomination for President Pro Tempore the name of a Senator who is respected on both sides of the aisle. We in the Democratic minority realize that the election of the President Pro Tempore is decided beforehand. But it is definitely an honor for any man to be nominated to this high office, even though he knows beforehand that the vote and outcome are already decided.

"The Senator I wish to nominate not only has the respect of all of us here, but the respect of the people of his district collectively. I think that is a prime requirement for a man to have the backing of his constituency at home.

"This Senator was first elected in 1934 and served for six years in the House. In 1941 he was appointed to the Senate but did not serve. In 1942 he was elected to the Senate, and has served continuously since that time.

"His service here on the floor of the Senate and in the committees has been outstanding, and his work has found its way into many of the laws of the state. He has served on the Interim Committee on Taxation, Legislative Council and Legislative Budget Committee. He has also been a member of the Rules Committee a number of years, which indicates the respect and support the members on both sides of the aisle have for a member. So it gives me great pleasure to place in nomination for the office of President Pro Tempore the name of Gerald G. Dixon, of Tacoma."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Cowen, the nominations for President Pro Tempore were closed.

The Secretary called the roll on the election of President Pro Tempore, and Senator Zednick was elected by the following vote: Senator Zednick, 25; Senator Dixon, 21.

Those voting for Senator Zednick were: Senators Andrews, Barlow, Clark, Copeland, Dahl, Flanagan, Goodloe, Hall, Happy, Hoff, Ivy, Lennart, Lindsay, Luvera, McMullen, Nordquist, Peterson, Raugust, Ryder, Sears, Shannon, Wall, Wilson, Zahn, Zednick—25.

Those voting for Senator Dixon were: Senators Bargreen, Cowen, Dixon, Gallagher, Ganders, Gissberg, Greive, Hofmeister, Jackson, Keefe, Knoblauch, Nunamaker, Pearson, Riley, Rogers, Rosellini, Roup, Sutherland, Todd, Washington, Winberg—21.

Senator Cowen seconded the motion.

The motion carried.

The Secretary stated that the order had been fulfilled.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ryder:

"I desire to call the attention of the Senators to the fact that former Senator Corwin Phillip Shank is present, and since Senator Shank's declination to run made it possible for me to be here, I would like to request that he be escorted to a seat upon the rostrum."

The President appointed Senator Ryder to escort former Senator Shank to the rostrum.

Former Senator Corwin Phillip Shank:

"Mr. President, I would like to have the privilege of suspending Rule 40 with penalty."

The request was granted.

The President declared the nomination of Temporary President was now before the Senate.

Senator Goodloe:

"It is a great pleasure to nominate for Temporary President, Senator B. J. Dahl.

"Mr. Dahl, born in Norway, came to this country at a very tender age, and still at a tender age became a printer's devil with a printing firm. He entered into the printing trade upon graduation from college, and through the years worked himself into the position of the editor of a very prominent newspaper in this state.

"He has used his position as an editor to improve our state. He has taken the various issues as they have arisen and treated them on their merits. With this background and a character of high caliber he is known to his fellow members of the Senate as being a man of courage, one who votes his convictions, one who is not persuaded by political expediency. He is a man deeply rooted in the doctrines of Christianity, and these doctrines also go into the merits of his character.

"It is a privilege to place before this body Senator Dahl as the Temporary President of this body."

Senator Rosellini:

"I have the honor to place before this body for the nomination of position of Temporary President one whom all of us have learned to love and respect.

"John Todd commenced his activities in the Senate in 1943, during which time he has served on the various committees and in various capacities. I think everyone will agree with me that the way he has performed his duties is above reproach.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to place in nomination the name of John Todd for Temporary President."

MOTION

The motion carried.

The Secretary cast an unanimous ballot for Senator Dahl as Temporary President.

The President declared that nominations for Secretary of the Senate were now in order.

Senator Zednick:

"It is again my pleasure to place in nomination a man whom you all know—a man with whom I first became acquainted when we were in college together—you may imagine a great many years ago. When I was Secretary of the Senate for five sessions, he was my Assistant; he was Secretary after that, and has been Secretary again. And I think most important of all, at one time he was a member of this Senate, and therefore knows the problems of this side of the chamber. He knows the courtesy and consideration that we expect from the Secretary of the Senate.

"Personally I believe there is no more important position in this entire body than the Secretary of the Senate, and therefore we need a man of integrity and ability, all of which Herb Sieler has.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to place in nomination for this office the Honorable Herbert H. Sieler."

MOTION

Senator Cowen moved that the nominations for Secretary of the Senate be closed.

The motion carried.

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast an unanimous ballot for Herb Sieler as Secretary of the Senate.

The motion carried.

The Secretary stated that the order had been fulfilled.

Herbert H. Sieler, having received the constitutional majority, was declared elected Secretary of the Senate.

The President declared that nominations for Sergeant-at-Arms were now in order.

Senator Sears:

"For the second time it has been my pleasure to place before you the nomination of John Buck. He was here working as early as six o'clock in the morning and he never quit until the work was finished, and it is indeed a great pleasure for me to nominate John Buck as Sergeant-at-Arms."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Cowen, the nominations for Sergeant-at-Arms were closed.

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that the rules be suspended and that the Secretary be instructed to cast an unanimous ballot for John Buck as Sergeant-at-Arms. The motion carried.

The Secretary stated that the order had been fulfilled.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andrews, Bargreen, Barlow, Clark, Copeland, Cowen, Dahl, Dixon, Flanagan, Gallagher, Ganders, Gissberg, Goodloe, Greive, Hall, Happy, Hoff, Hofmeister, Ivy, Jackson, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lennart, Lindsay, Luvera, McMullen, Nordquist, Nunamaker, Pearson, Peterson, Raugust, Riley, Rogers, Rosellini, Roup, Ryder, Sears, Shannon, Sutherland, Todd, Wall, Washington, Wilson, Winberg, Zahn, Zednick—46.

John Buck, having received the constitutional majority, was declared elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

The President:

President Anderson thereupon presented to the Senate the newly elected officers of the Senate—the President Pro Tempore, Victor Zednick; B. J. Dahl, the Temporary President; Herbert H. Sieler, Secretary of the Senate; John Buck, the Sergeant-at-Arms.

MOTION

Senator Zednick moved that Rule 40 be suspended, with penalties, either at this time or tomorrow morning. "Too many cigars for one day."

The motion carried.

Mr. Sieler:

"With permission and without penalty, I, too, join in a similar motion."

The motion carried.

Mr. Buck:

"I also join in the motion."

The motion carried.

Senator Dahl:

"I renew the motion, making it unanimous here."

The motion carried.

MOTION

Senator Happy moved that the President appoint a committee to notify the House that the Senate is now organized and ready to transact business.

SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Tuesday, January 11, 1955.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 o'clock a. m. by President Emmett T. Anderson.

The Color Guard consisting of Pages Don Chandler, Color Bearer, Neil Hanson and Mary Doumit, presented the Colors.

Reverend J. Edgar Pearson, Jr., of the United Churches of Olympia, offered prayer, as follows:

Our Father, give us the faith to believe that the words we speak, the prayers we offer, the yearnings of our hearts are open to Thee; that those for whom we pray will seek to find Thee in this place of government.

Help each of us in this moment of quiet, before the rush and confusion and pressure of time become too strong, so to decide upon the principles that will guide us that we will not be shaken by those who would turn us away from our purpose before Thee. May we think now not so much of specific pieces of legislation as of those spiritual truths that should guide us in our deliberations and our voting. While we may differ in our approaches to problems, may we ever be open to consider another and better way of acting, guided not by whether it is politically expedient or popular or practical, but always by whether it is right.

We pray, too, that in the days ahead, our private lives and our public actions may be consistent with our calling as leaders of this state, as representative of good government. These things we ask in the name of Him who came to give fullness to life, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

On motion of Senator Dahl, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

The President requested the Sergeant-at-Arms to retire to the President's Chambers and escort a distinguished visitor to the rostrum.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gallagher, that portion of Rule 40 relating to smoking was suspended.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President:

"Gentlemen, I am very proud to have today a former Lieutenant Governor—a man not too well known to this state but one whose heart is in the Senate. I now give you former Lieutenant Governor Victor A. Meyers." (Applause.)

Former Lieutenant Governor Victor A. Meyers:

"You know I feel strangely at home among these surroundings, and as I look out there I see a great many familiar faces. I hope to see you all personally after while, probably in the Meyers Cafeteria. It is good to be back home and to be in the Senate again, and to see my good friend, Emmett Anderson.

"Someone asked me what were the duties of the Lieutenant Governor. He presides over the State Senate, votes in case of a tie, and spends the rest of his time checking up on the health of the Governor. I sincerely hope he has better luck than I had. The closest call I ever had to becoming Governor by the back door turned out to be a bad case of laryngitis.

"I believe this is going to be a successful session. You have gotten your one foot in the front door of the Governor's office already.

"I happened to stop at the Lieutenant Governor's office to freshen up a bit. There have been quite a few changes made—quite a few things are missing. At least I couldn't find anything.

"You folks have got your work cut out for you—tax problems and other matters. You really have a wonderful looking bunch of intelligent fellows. You cannot stand in the way of progress. I guess that is why the State of Washington got a new Lieutenant Governor. I am glad to be here." (Applause.)

The President:

"I will say, Vic, you are welcome today and will be welcome tomorrow. Come whenever you can."

MOTION

Senator Hoff moved that the permanent rules of the 1953 session become the permanent rules of this session, with the following exceptions—Rules 14, 28 and 61.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gallagher:

"Did we not yesterday adopt the rules of 1953 as the temporary rules?"

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"As the temporary rules."

Senator Gallagher:

"I presume Senator Hoff is going to propose some changes. Under Rule 28, it provides for a one day notice of any change in the rules."

Senator Hoff:

"In reference to Rule 28, it speaks of standing rules but not temporary rules. They are not standing rules. You can always adopt permanent rules."

Senator Rosellini:

"Speaking on the point of order in support of Senator Gallagher's position, I think the precedent establishes Senator Gallagher to be in order. In the Journal, page 20 of last session, the following language was used: 'Senator Shank moved that the standing rules of the 1951 session of the Senate be adopted as the standing rules of the 1953 session with a number of changes.'

"At that time it was recognized that one day's notice would be needed."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"I am convinced your point is well taken as it refers to changing the rule."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"I would like to have a ruling from the Chair as to whether we are operating under standing rules or temporary rules which do not take the same sort of procedure as a standing rule."

MOTION

Senator Lindsay:

"I move that the rules be suspended, and that the Senate do now adopt the rule concerning the committees of the Senate."

Senator Rosellini seconded the motion.

Senator Hall:

"I asked for a ruling of the Chair."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"I am glad to go along with the ruling last session. A precedent was established and I think the ruling is in order."

Senator Rosellini:

"In order to make the record clear, I think the amendments should be read and that should be considered as notice, and the change in the rules could be adopted tomorrow, and I would like to go along with Senator Lindsay's motion to consider the committees."

Senator Hoff:

"I think first we should read the various amendments to the rules so we would know what we are working under here."

Senator Lindsay:

"A change of the rules is not debatable."

Senator Hoff:

"I would like to give one day's notice that tomorrow we will resist any more opposition to changing the rules."

Senator Rosellini:

"I presume he means that as a notice that tomorrow he will move to change the rules."

Senator Hoff:

"That is right."

Senator Hoff read the amendments to the rules, as follows:

Moved that the standing rules of the 1953 session, with the following changes, be made the standing rules of the 1955 session:

Rule 2. The following standing committees shall constitute the standing committees of the Senate:

Rule 14. In line 5 of Rule 14 strike the words "two-thirds" and insert in lieu thereof "majority".

Rule 21. Under Incidental Motions, strike the words "Objection to Consideration" and insert in lieu thereof the words "Method of Consideration".

Rule 26. At the end of the rule before the period insert the following: "provided that such protest does not exceed 200 words. The senator protesting shall file his protest with the Secretary of the Senate within twelve hours following the action protested."

Rule 28. In rule 28 strike the following words: "but this shall not apply to that portion of Rule 61 relating to the third reading of bills which cannot be suspended", being the last three lines of the rule.

Rule 39. In the last line of the rule strike the words "two-thirds" and insert in lieu thereof the word "majority".

Rule 46. In line 3 of the rule strike the words "Claims and Auditing" and insert in lieu thereof the words "Claims, Auditing and Employment".

Rule 58. In line 2 of Rule 58 strike the word "quadruplicate" and insert in lieu thereof the word "quintuplicate".

In line 9 of Rule 58 after the word "printer" and before the word "for" strike the word "one" and insert in lieu thereof the word "two".

Rule 60. Strike the 1953 Rule 60 and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Bills introduced in the Senate intended to amend existing statutes, shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing statutes underlined in the original and printed bills. Any matter to be deleted from the existing statutes shall be indicated in the original bill by setting such matter forth in full enclosed by double parenthesis, and indicated in the printed bill by setting such matter forth in full in italics enclosed by brackets, and no bill shall be printed or acted upon until the provisions of this rule shall have been complied with.

"Sections added by amendatory bill to an existing act, or chapter of the official code, shall be underlined in the original and printed bills but new enactments need not be underlined."

Rule 61. In line 2 of Rule 61 after the word "senate" and before the word "deem", insert the words "by a majority vote".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hall, the Senate recessed for ten minutes.

At 12:03 p. m., the President called the Senate to order.

Senator Lindsay stated that with the permission of the Senate he would like to withdraw his motion.

There being no objection, Senator Lindsay's motion was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that the rules be suspended, and that the Senate adopt as permanent rules the rules of the 1953 session with the amendments read here by Senator Hoff, with the exception of Rules 14, 28 and 61.

Senator Riley seconded the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"That does not take a suspension of the rules; it just takes a majority vote."

Senator Gallagher:

"I think the Chair ruled earlier we were operating under the rules of 1953. The Chair ruled that under Rule 28, that portion calling for one day's notice was in order, and that portion of the rules provides for a two-thirds majority to change the rules."

Senator Hoff:

"I believe the Chair ruled only on one question as to precedents established by one day's notice."

Senator Gallagher:

"The point I inquired about was whether or not the rules of 1953 were the ones under which we were operating and required one day's notice, and the Chair ruled—and rightly so—that the rule did provide for one day's notice. Therefore my position is that the rest of Rule 28 provides for a two-thirds vote."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Your inquiry pertained to one thing only—the one day notice on the matter of precedent. The precedent was the only thing I was ruling on."

Senator Rosellini:

"Senator Hall's point of order is well taken. I think we will have to suspend the rule for the purpose of getting by the one day notice."

Senator Zednick:

"Will the Senator yield to a question?"

Senator Rosellini:

"I will."

Senator Zednick:

"Then you admit that tomorrow they may be adopted by a majority vote?"

Senator Rosellini:

"Senator, I will not admit anything. I am not at this time going to say what the question will be tomorrow, whether by majority or two-thirds vote. The motion now is to suspend the rules for the purpose of adopting these rules with these three exceptions."

Senator Zednick:

"One day's notice will have been given by tomorrow on those three. Therefore tomorrow a majority vote would carry or defeat those changes."

Senator Rosellini:

"I don't think we should decide today what we are going to do tomorrow."

Senator Hall:

"I would like a ruling on my point of order that it does not take a two-thirds vote to change the rules."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Senator Hall has raised a point of order and has asked for a ruling."

Senator Rosellini:

"That point is not before the Senate at this time."

Senator Hoff:

"That question is directly before you, Mr. President, and you should rule whether it takes a majority or a two-thirds vote."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"My ruling is that we are now operating under temporary rules, and a majority only is necessary to adopt permanent rules."

Senator Hoff:

"In accordance with your ruling then we will ask for the previous question that we adopt all those rules with the exception of Rules 14, 28 and 61, and further that the temporary Rules 14, 28 and 61 shall be changed as to those three."

The President:

"Perhaps the motion should be re-stated because of the matter of the suspension of rules there."

Senator Rosellini:

"I made a motion that the rules be suspended for the purpose of adopting as permanent rules for the 1955 session the permanent rules of the 1953 session with the amendments made, a little while ago, with the exception of the amendments to Rules 14, 28 and 61."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Senator Rosellini, I ruled a two-thirds majority was not necessary."

Senator Hoff:

"If the Senator has an objection to your ruling he has a right to appeal. I think we should proceed in order to adopt all the permanent rules which have been suggested except Rules 14, 28 and 61."

Senator Rosellini:

"I have no objection to your ruling. I am trying to make the body live up to that ruling."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

"I would like to refer to Rule 36 in our own rules. (Reads.)"

Senator Hall:

"I would like to inquire what the Senator is arguing on."

Senator Rosellini:

"I move the previous question."

Senator Hoff:

"We don't have to suspend the rules to adopt the permanent rules of the session."

Senator Gallagher:

"We are trying to uphold the ruling of the Chair which he made before the recess."

Senator Zednick:

"In accordance with the ruling, Senator Rosellini should withdraw that portion of his motion which says that the rules be suspended."

Senator Rosellini:

"I haven't withdrawn that motion at all. I move the previous question."

Senator Hoff demanded the previous question, but the demand was not sustained.

Senator Zednick:

"I move to amend Senator Rosellini's motion by striking therefrom the words 'to suspend the rules.'"

Senator Rogers:

"A motion to suspend the rules is not debatable or amendable."

Senator Hoff:

"Senator Zednick made a motion to amend Senator Rosellini's motion."

The President:

"Inasmuch as I ruled Senator Rosellini out of order, I am waiting for you to renew your motion."

Senator Hoff:

"I now move that the permanent rules of the 1953 session be adopted, together with the amendments as read, in which we gave notice, with the exception of Rules 14, 28 and 61; and that those three rules still be considered temporary rules and be considered at the proper time tomorrow."

Senator Zednick seconded the motion.

Senator Gallagher:

"Is it permissible now to change the rules without twenty-four hours notice?"

The President:

"Under the temporary rules, which require only a majority vote."

Senator Hoff:

"Inasmuch as the Senator from Seattle objects to taking up the rules setting up the committees, I will now withdraw my motion that we adopt those rules."

There being no objection, Senator Hoff's motion was withdrawn.

Senator Rosellini:

"I renew my motion that we suspend the rules if adopting the 1953 rules."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"Senator Rosellini, I ruled that motion out of order, on the basis that a suspension of the rules takes a two-thirds vote and we are now operating under a majority vote."

Senator Rosellini:

"May I ask now if that is a change from your previous ruling?"

The President:

"I think you can decide that. I think there is a distinction between the two rulings made."

MOTION

Senator Hoff:

"I now move that the rules of the 1953 session become the permanent rules of the 1955 session, with all the amendments as read by me earlier and given to the Senate."

Senator Zednick seconded the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rosellini:

"Are you going to rule at this time that the motion is in order?"

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"I will rule that it is now in order."

Senator Rosellini spoke against the motion.

Senator Dixon:

"I would like to make a substitute motion that this matter be referred to the Rules Committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hoff:

"Is that a substitute motion?"

The President:

"He is offering a substitute motion."

Senator Hoff:

"There is no Rules Committee. We have not appointed a Rules Committee."

Senator Dixon:

"We are operating under the 1953 rules. Everyone on the Rules Committee then is sitting in this body."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hoff:

"Has the Chair ruled there is no Rules Committee?"

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

The President:

"There is no Rules Committee at the present time. They have not been appointed."

Senator Dixon:

"I will change my motion to say that this matter be referred to the appointed Rules Committee."

MOTION

Senator Zednick moved that the substitute motion by Senator Dixon be laid on the table.

Senator Hoff seconded the motion.

The motion carried.

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that the motion by Senator Hoff be amended, and that the amendments to Rule 61 be stricken therefrom.

Senator Washington seconded the motion.

MOTION

Senator Zednick moved that the amendment by Senator Rosellini to the motion by Senator Hoff be laid on the table, without taking the original motion with it.

Division was called for.

The result was a tie vote.

The Lieutenant Governor voted in the affirmative, and the motion to table the amendment by Senator Rosellini carried.

Senator Greive:

"I ask that the entire context of these rules, as amended, be reduced to writing and be read by the Secretary."

The President:

"Shouldn't your point have been raised at the time of reading instead of at this time?"

Senator Greive:

"I will withdraw it."

The President declared the question now before the Senate to be on the motion by Senator Hoff.

Division was called for.

The motion carried on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McMullen, the Senate recessed for lunch until 1:15 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:15 p. m.

The Secretary read:

"O God, our Father, come nearer to us than we have ever known and stay with us during the deliberations of this day, lest we give way to selfishness.

"As the members of this Senate hear the message of the administration, may they be able to disagree without being disagreeable and to differ without being difficult. In an atmosphere of team spirit, give them freedom to be honest without tension and frank without offense, that the spirit of service and fair-mindedness may not be driven from their midst.

"May their high professions in their office not be joined to low attainments, their fine words hide shabby thoughts or friendly faces mask cold hearts.

"Thou hast made us heirs of a great heritage and trustees of priceless things. Make us strong in convictions, with insight for our times and courage for our testing. These things will become possible within us as recognizing our dependence upon Thee, we seek Thy guidance and Thy spirit. In the name of Him who was the cornerstone of our liberty, even Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE TO THE LEGISLATURE

*Mr. President, Mr. Speaker,
Ladies and Gentlemen of the Legislature,
My Fellow Citizens of the State of Washington:*

The well-being of our state, for better or worse, is tied to the well-being of the nation and the world around us. For more than twenty years we have been operating in periods of war, depression, and uneasy peace.

Today the menace of communism looms as an even greater threat to the future of the free world than the "isms" of the past. The United States is giving, and must continue to give, leadership to the non-communist world. To do so, with ever increasing confidence and vigor, our nation must lead from strength, the strength from within that comes from a free people, spiritually strong and functioning through the soundest set of governmental institutions yet developed by man.

The transcendence of problems of national scope in the last quarter-century has shifted emphasis from the local level to the national level and imposed limiting factors upon the states. Authority and fiscal power moved steadily upward and became increasingly concentrated in the national government.

These are days of major decisions. New demands and greater responsibilities are again being placed on state and local governments. We in state government and the people we represent must face these problems realistically and courageously.

My message on state matters this year seems necessarily lengthy and so that I will not presume overly on your time, I am in this address condensing its full text considerably. It will be presented to you in printed form and I trust you will refer to the more detailed presentation.

GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION

The structural organization of our state government and its financial systems and personal procedures have become increasingly involved and complicated over the past few decades.

The Shefelman committee—functioning since 1951—will, as you know, make certain recommendations to you for reorganization. I commend the bills they have prepared to you for passage.

Basically, government is organized to serve the people in those things they cannot do as well or as economically by themselves.

The problems that we face in state government are constantly changing in their scope and impact as well as in their cost. Our population growth has not been uniform in all age groups. The number of people in the age groups 17 years and under and 65 years and over, increased 75% since 1940 while the number of those between 18 and 64, the more productive ages grew only 19%. As a result, the load of caring for the young and those among the older who are no longer employed has become heavier. This shift has vastly increased our responsibilities in the fields of public assistance, public health and education.

First let me talk about Public Assistance:

Our aging population is now better cared for than ever. We have overcome in the last four years some of the serious deficiencies which resulted from unwise initiative action. Today, we are among the most progressive states in the nation in the assistance and medical care made available to our senior citizens.

This has been accomplished by the development of a better public assistance law, by the extended coverage of the old age and survivors insurance program, and by a persistent process of elimination from the welfare rolls of those who would fraudulently collect public funds.

As a result, during the next biennium we shall be able to reduce substantially the appropriation necessary for the Department of Public Assistance while maintaining a reasonable level of assistance for those in need.

Four years ago the medical welfare program was transferred from the Department of Public Assistance to the Department of Health. Since that time various controls have been instituted and a staff has been recruited to better administer this program. It now appears advisable to integrate medical care more closely with the public assistance program. This will also make additional Federal matching funds available. I, therefore, recommend that we transfer the welfare medical care program to the Department of Public Assistance.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Many of you are undoubtedly aware of the success of our tuberculosis hospitalization program. During 1952, an average of 2,400 tuberculosis hospital beds were available with an average occupancy during the year of 1,949 cases. In October 1954, only 1,107 patients were hospitalized.

Legislation passed at the last extraordinary session provided the framework for consolidating this service by using fewer hospitals—thus saving money as well as providing the best in medical care. With the cooperation of the county commissioner, the department closed the four smaller tuberculosis institutions. That leaves presently operating four county and two private institutions. The present occupancy rate, which should continue to decline, is 52% as of November 1, 1954.

To operate these institutions, the Health Department has placed in its budget 7 million 800 thousand dollars for 1955-57. This equals a savings over the present biennium of 2 million 300 thousand dollars. Instead of maintaining so many hospitals with an occupancy rate of only 52%, these patients could be cared for at two hospitals—Firlands in Seattle and Edgecliff Sanatorium in Spokane and the budget could be reduced by one million two hundred thousand dollars;— or all the patients could be adequately cared for at Firlands Sanatorium with an additional saving of 400 thousand dollars. The medical and hospital care would continue to be of the very finest. The difficulty in doing this lies in the closing of public institutions and the removal of the patients a considerable distance from their homes.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS

Our public institutions will require a major increase in their appropriations during the next biennium.

From a humanitarian standpoint, the improvement of the programs in our penal and charitable institutions, affecting thousands of our fellow citizens, is a moral responsibility we cannot dismiss.

And from the economic point of view, it is good business to invest adequate funds in these programs—good business that will save money for the taxpayers of Washington—just as it was and is good business to invest in the campaign against tuberculosis.

By improved treatment we will be able to return to society greater numbers of self-supporting people instead of maintaining them at public cost. It has been established that prompt diagnosis, correct classification, concentrated treatment and effective rehabilitation by well trained people speeds the healing and corrective process by months and sometimes years.

We have a choice of entering into a gigantic institutional building program in the years ahead or directing our concentrated energies and financial resources now to the core of the problem—thorough treatment, research and prevention. The latter course is the best and most economical program we can advocate. What we invest today will bring great dividends in human happiness and, in the long run, will save the taxpayers of our state substantial sums of money.

To give us the tools to do the job, I am requesting an additional 18 million dollars for the next two years.

Fuller details on the program for our state institutions is included in the printed message and other material that will be supplied to you.

NATURAL RESOURCES

Essential to the maximum self-development of our people is the area of our natural resources. Our land and water and great forests have long been the foundation upon which our material and social well-being is based.

FORESTRY

At the present time the Division of Forestry is planting three million trees per biennium, which will reach maturity in approximately eighty years. It is proposed to double this program by planting and by direct seeding by helicopter, a minimum of six million trees in the next biennium.

To plant these six million trees in the next biennium will cost 200 thousand dollars and their total protection cost for the 80-year growing period will be 154 thousand dollars. This reforestation at present market prices will, at maturity, return to the economy of the state 40 million dollars.

The protection of growing timber protects other resources, too. The Department of Fisheries will continue its protection, expansion and improvement of salmon producing environment in the rehabilitation program it has been developing over a period of years.

FISH

Under the Department's stream improvement program for 1955-57 there will be a continuation of positive action to increase the output of salmon by added spawning grounds. Further developments under this program mean bringing back salmon runs not only in areas where they existed in the past but in new spawning areas that have not had a salmon in them.

GAME

During the past several years the fish and game system of the state has been greatly expanded. In order to perpetuate this valuable form of recreation and its enjoyment by our citizens, it is desirable to secure more firmly by new legislation the right of our people to use the public waters of the state for purposes of fishing. Our state-owned lands contain many properties which abut on lakes and streams, and which have a high value as public fishing areas. Legislation to provide the right of the people to use these lands for fishing in perpetuity will be submitted to you.

POWER

One of the great resources of the Pacific Northwest is our hydroelectric power potential whose increasing development has been a source of new industry and greater service to all of our people. However, the growing needs of the Pacific Northwest and the diversification of interests involved in producing, distributing and marketing of power—together with the rapidly increasing demand—presents difficulties that call for continuing analysis and constructive leadership.

Not only do we have a conflict of interests as between Federal, local and private ownerships, but irrigation and fisheries and flood control measures all have to be integrated into the development of a comprehensive use of the Columbia River and its tributaries. The total benefit to all the people must constantly be in the forefront of all planning in this field.

Several years ago, in order to facilitate this development, the creation of a State Power Commission was recommended to the legislature. The purpose was to set up an agency of state government that would represent the total interest of the people of the State of Washington. It thus not only would serve the purpose of power generation and power transmission, but also act as a coordinating agency between the often conflicting interests of private and public power. The present State Power Commission was authorized by the 1953 legislature and was activated late that year.

It has been apparent, too, for some years that Federal monies to develop our power facilities to the extent needed in this growing area would not be forthcoming in volumes big enough to meet our rapidly expanding needs. In addition, because so much of our power resources are low-cost in development, it seemed wise to be able to reclaim these low-cost installations for the people of our area so that, when they were paid for, the residents of the Pacific Northwest might enjoy the benefits of this low-cost power without superimposed management and possible diversion of local funds to national purposes.

Because the Columbia River and its development is an extensive and involved subject of study, and since the factors determining the best possible utilization of the water resources of the Columbia River have changed from time to time, it is necessary that any plan for its total development be carefully evaluated so that the maximum benefits to the people may be obtained at the lowest cost. To that end, our State Power Commission, the Department of Conservation and Development and the Interstate Compact Commission have been making studies looking toward the future development of our power and water resources. Their studies have been objective from the standpoint of trying to bring about the integration of presently developed hydro power with that to be constructed in the future and integrating that with steam generated power.

It is unfortunate that some conflicts have arisen over the construction of a dam or dams at what is known as the Priest Rapids site on the Columbia River, conflicts between the Power Commission and the Grant County PUD and those associated with it. Unfortunate from the standpoint that impressions are abroad that there is a basic conflict between the Power Commission and the PUD's. This situation is fortunate, however, to this extent: it does help to bring to light some of the problems that are involved in resource development of a coordinated system and I am sure when all the facts are established that a determination of the best method for the construction in that section of the Columbia River will be readily forthcoming.

Local agencies should be encouraged to build generating projects that are within their capabilities. However, there is no valid reason any city or PUD should be building power dams to serve a region-wide consumer potential. The problems of management of a utility marketing power outside its immediate and potential service area are such that their programs would seldom work out for the well-being of the state or region. It only leads to further confusion of an already complex problem. Surely there can be no quarrel with any PUD or city or adjacent cities, or PUD's developing power generation on a scale to meet their own needs adequately. But for any agency of government to expect to go into the wholesale power business to serve customers outside of its own jurisdiction to any appreciable extent is a violation of sound principles of government that, it occurs to us, should not be encouraged. In a free society there is always room for discussion of issues. There is no room for bitterness and recrimination.

It is the feeling of the State Power Commission that since they are subject to legislative authority and represent all of the people of the State of Washington, and have within their commission representatives of private and public agencies generating and marketing power to the public, that they have the facilities and the financial standing—backed by the people of the state of Washington—to move promptly in the area of developing low cost power generation to meet some of the existing deadlines for power requirements that already begin to impinge upon the Pacific Northwest. In fact, aside from the Federal government itself, it is difficult to find any agency, public or private, that is as well equipped as the State Power Commission to undertake for the people the development of electric generation and its integration into the regional power system while effectively protecting the rights of the people of our state.

I would urge that the legislature, if it is interested in this matter, carefully go into all of the factors involved and then, I hope, you will see fit to give this agency the necessary funds and support so that it may promptly proceed to develop new generation of power to help to properly integrate it into the total power system of the Pacific Northwest. To do this job for the Priest Rapids project in the event the Federal Power Commission grants the project license to the Commission would make desirable an appropriation of one million dollars which would be provided on a loan basis to do the required engineering work preceding revenue bond financing and construction; but such moneys would be refunded to the General Fund when the financing procedure is completed.

While it is a new agency, it has—by reason of its position as a state organization—prestige, backing and an ability under sound rules of procedure, to finance and construct, and negotiate with Federal, state and private agencies in a manner unequalled by anyone else—aside from the Federal government itself.

Certain legislation clarifying sections of the present power program will be submitted to you.

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

The year 1954 was a much better year on the whole for employment in the State of Washington than was anticipated. The expanding economy of our state indicates that next year will be even better.

President Eisenhower has suggested that states raise their maximum weekly unemployment benefits so that beneficiaries may get an amount equal to half of their regular earnings.

During most of the years since the war, the weekly benefit amount has been below both the figure intended in the original inception of the program and President Eisenhower's suggestions. With the increased cost of living in past years, I think it is imperative that benefits be raised. At present more than 610 thousand Washington workers are protected under this program.

So that our labor force can be afforded a realistic level of wage-loss protection, I propose a new benefit schedule designed to raise the average weekly payment from $24.75 to $30.00 and the top weekly benefit amount from $30.00 to $38.00.

HIGHWAYS

As our state grows in industrial activity and population, our highways become an ever more important facility for our people. It is a fact that the next few years look like continuing years of expansion in our economy. There will ensue investment in new industries creating new payrolls and more opportunities for all of our people.

Our highway program has advanced in the last few years at a terrific pace and we have made many gains. About 50 million dollars in highway construction is under contract.

But again the increased use of the automobile has minimized some of these forward steps. The program of highway and street construction must continue to be accelerated. The Highway Commission is making real strides in that direction.

The President, working with the Governors of, the various states, will soon be presenting to Congress a ten-year program of highway construction which will be of great benefit to us. It will in the next ten years make it possible, on the basis of existing revenues and plans, to substantially modernize our entire highway and street system.

TOLL FACILITIES

Several studies now are underway of possible new toll facilities in our state. Among these are studies of a toll road between Tacoma and Everett through Seattle, toll bridges across Puget Sound and Hood Canal, a new bridge across Lake Washington and bridges over the Columbia River between Vancouver and Portland, and Megler and Astoria. Progress is being made also in planning for a toll bridge at Maple Street in Spokane and at Warren Street in Bremerton.

Preliminary studies indicate that a toll road between Tacoma and Everett can be financed. Engineering studies are now underway to determine the cost as well as the amount of travel which could be expected. These reports should be ready in February and we will know then whether or not we can go ahead and sell the bonds and build this badly needed new highway facility.

Preliminary studies on bridges over Puget Sound and Hood Canal indicate they can eventually be financed. Studies now are being made to determine potential traffic as well as total estimated costs. We expect the results of these studies within the next few weeks and we shall know then whether we can go ahead and sell the bonds and build these new bridges or if more time must elapse before that undertaking can be financed.

All the preliminary work has been completed on the new Lake Washington Bridge. It is being designed now and soon the bonds will be sold and the contract awarded for construction.

FERRIES

The Washington Toll Bridge Authority has operated the Puget Sound ferry system for approximately three and one-half years. During that period, three vessels of modern design have been added to the system, all being of steel construction. Two of the vessels were purchased from the State of Maryland and one newly constructed on Puget Sound. These three vessels have added to the system a combined automobile carrying capacity of approximately 245 automobiles, seriously needed to reduce excessive patrons' waiting periods, reduce operating costs and to replace certain vessels becoming obsolete. In addition, most terminals have been either rebuilt or extensively rehabilitated. The ferry system has been changed from a system in a poor state of repair, physically incapable of properly and safely handling the traffic, to a greatly improved ferry system which is utilized not only to handle our local traffic and develop the areas served, but in addition to assist in the handling of extremely valuable tourist traffic.

Of the eleven million one hundred thousand dollars in revenue bonds issued to bring the ferry system to its present state of service and repair, one million eight hundred eighty-two thousand dollars have been retired; however, due to large increases in operating expenses, primarily increased cost of wages, fuel oil, repairs, and supplies which have advanced at a greater rate than new revenues, it is necessary that the ferry system be refinanced. The refinancing will secure a more equitable debt service than originally was available at the time of purchase when the depreciated and run-down equipment had such a short life. The alternate necessary to refinancing would be substantial increases in ferry rates, which is not considered in the best interests of ferry users, the ferry system, or the areas served.

GENERAL FUND BUDGET

In the budget that will be submitted to you I have attempted to keep state expenditures in the next biennium within the expected revenues. But the urgency of our institutional and educational needs made this impossible. In fact, many desirable and beneficial projects had to be deferred or their appropriations pruned in an endeavor to stay within our income. You may find it advisable to raise the amounts in some cases if the necessary means can be found.

The increases in appropriations for the various state departments which I am recommending to you in the Governor's budget can be substantially financed from the increase in revenues which we can reasonably expect in the 1955-57 biennium from existing sources. This can be accomplished only through the application of the most rigid economy in all branches and agencies of state government, and through the unceasing efforts of our department heads to effect all possible administrative savings. It also assumes the continuation of the excise tax rate increases enacted in 1951.

It proved impossible within that limitation to find funds which our public schools and institutions of higher learning will need to take care of the enlarged enrollment. The problem of financing education may again in this legislative session—as it has in several recent sessions—present the most difficult subject to come before you. Let us briefly review its background.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

In the last five years public school enrollment in Washington jumped by more than one hundred thousand pupils. A further increase of almost the same size within the next five years was recently forecast by the Washington State Census Board. An average of twenty thousand additional children will crowd into our schools every year till 1960. To house them, will require more than 700 new classrooms annually besides those needed for replacement and relief of current shortages, to teach them, more than 800 additional teachers. Clearly those children must be and will be taken care of. None of our obligations is more unequivocal or more imperative.

One cause of our difficulties is the lop-sided system of school financing that has been permitted to develop over the years. Our per-capita income is ten percent above the national average; but state school aid is 108 percent above the national average. In all other states with high educational standards, school support rests firmly upon the concrete base of community responsibility, it carries forth from year to year and is assured. In other states outside the deep South the bulk of school funds is raised locally. Washington schools, however, have been led to rely increasingly on state aid. Washington is the only Northern state in which two-thirds of the current school revenues come from the state, and only one-fourth from the property tax.

This slight dependence on local support has led to a decline of the local property tax administration up to a point where it is threatening the basis from which a substantial part of the school funds should be drawn. The controversy over state school aid has led to bitter fights in and out of the legislature in recent years. Since we all have the same objective in mind—the best possible education for our children—we may wonder whether some better and more harmonious approach to our common goal could be found.

The 1953 legislature raised state school support from the current school fund by eighteen million dollars. Ten million dollars came from current revenues, eight million dollars from a transfer of monies that had accumulated in the State School Equalization Fund. The legislature further increased the appropriation from the State School Equalization Fund by three million five hundred thousand dollars, and shifted two mills of the state's property tax levy to the schools. That boost in funds enabled the schools not only to cope with the enrollment increase but to raise teachers' salaries and expenditure standards to among the highest in the nation. We should now try to maintain our schools at their current high level. My recommendations to you are based on a preservation of the current levels and standards of services.

The needs of the schools for additional funds can be summarized as follows: On the basis of current operating costs, the two-year enrollment increase of 40,000 pupils—eight percent of the present enrollment—as estimated by the Washington State Census Board, will add about 24 million dollars a biennium to school expenditures. The shift in the fiscal biennium for which appropriations are made, from April 1 to July 1, will add another 4 million dollars. The additional requirement for the next biennium will thus total 28 million dollars.

Revenues to the schools from proper taxes are estimated to yield 13 million dollars more than in the 1953-55 biennium. This is partly due to the shift of two mills from the state to the schools which became effective only in the second year of the current biennium, and partly due to higher assessments. Payments from the State School Equalization Fund, based on the larger enrollment, will yield an additional two million dollars.

This leaves an increase of 13 million dollars needed from the current school fund. A salary raise of $200.00 for teachers and a proportionate raise for non-teaching employees of the schools will cost about ten million dollars. I am recommending a total appropriation of 164 million dollars from the current school fund, an increase of 23 million dollars over the 1953-55 biennium. Because eight million dollars of the 1953-55 appropriation were derived from a non-recurring source, 31 million dollars in additional revenues will be required to sustain an appropriation increase of 23 million dollars.

The state appropriation will not take care of all financial requirements of the schools in the next biennium. Local communities may have to review their needs and raise additional funds in keeping with their concepts of school requirements, desirable extent of programs, and the willingness of their citizens to tax themselves, as do ten thousands of communities in other states of the Union. It will be advisable to extend the provisions of a law easing the passage of special school levies which was adopted at the last legislative session.

Better ways may be found to distribute the state funds and to spend the available school moneys. The present distribution formula is inequitable, extremely complicated and confusing. Your Legislative Council and Legislative Budget Committee have drawn up a number of proposals which may help toward a more economical use of the school funds. Certain sound principles should guide in a consideration of those measures:

1. School districts should be more effectively organized than they presently are. Many small districts with but few children and very little property often adjoin districts with which they should combine. Such enlarged units would have a more adequate tax base and a sufficient number of children for whom to conduct enriched school programs at more reasonable costs. Good progress was made in school district reorganization between 1941 and 1945; little has been accomplished since then.

2. Too much of the present state support is distributed in the form of flat grants, and not enough used for the purpose of equalizing the burden between wealthier and less well-to-do districts. Consequently, some of the poorer communities are finding it difficult to maintain even a minimum school program while other districts can afford diversified programs with very little effort.

3. Through our system of equalization aid the state has been rewarding counties which have shirked their local revenue-raising responsibilities, and has penalized counties which have been trying to do a proper job. The obvious unfairness of this situation requires correction.

4. Provision should be made for emergency aid in unusual cases where a district due to sudden increases in enrollment cannot without an undue burden finance an adequate school program from its regular sources of revenue.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION

The continuing increase in school enrollments makes it necessary to maintain a high rate of school construction for many years to come. In the last few years the State of Washington has given its school districts more than 70 million dollars in grants for new school plants. Only two states in the Union have given higher grants than that. Because this is a continuing program we should no longer look toward an emergency solution every two years but devise a more permanent method of aiding districts which cannot finance the needed buildings through bond issues or moderate building levies.

A number of states have in recent years aided the school building program through state building authorities. Those authorities construct the needed plants, raise the necessary funds through revenue bonds, sell them to state investment funds, and retire the bonds from the proceeds of rentals paid by the users of the facilities. Some districts which are bonded up to capacity, carry heavy debt charges and often have voted special levies for building purposes, may find it difficult to pay rentals in addition to their existing heavy burden. The state might provide aid in those hardship cases by paying the excess of rental and other construction service charges above a certain maximum effort. Because it will take considerable time to get this program started, it is not likely that substantial amounts will be needed for such aid in the next biennium.

A bill will be submitted to you creating a Washington State Building Authority. That authority will be empowered to construct buildings for the public schools, the institutions of higher learning and for other state institutions and departments, and to finance them through revenue bonds which will be retired from rental charges. These revenue bonds may be, but need not be, sold in the market. Our various investment and trust funds have presently invested about 240 million dollars in Federal securities; they are adding to it almost every month. Instead of lending our money to the Federal government, we might invest it in our schools and other institutions. We would thus finance the capital needs of our growing state from our own funds instead of lending out our accumulated monies, and then try to borrow our requirements in the market.

HIGHER EDUCATION

The University of Washington, Washington State College and the Colleges of Education have requested and will need substantially greater funds in the next biennium if they are to maintain their high standards, and accommodate the additional students who will be asking for admission. College enrollment which had been declining for five years turned upward in the fall of 1954. It is expected to keep rising at the rate of about 1,000 students a year for the next five years, and to expand more rapidly in the nineteen sixties when the waves of new pupils who are now crowding our elementary schools will reach college age. A steadily growing number of our youth have been continuing their education beyond the high school level; this trend is likely to gain momentum and will add to the attendance at our colleges.

I am recommending an increase of 7 million 500 thousand dollars in state appropriations for the operation of the five institutions of higher learning in addition to an adjustment to offset the effect of the shift in the two mill property tax levy enacted by the 33rd legislature. I am also recommending a capital outlay appropriation from the General Fund of 3 million 300 thousand dollars, an increase of 2 million 300 thousand dollars over the preceding biennium. It seems impossible to meet the other capital outlay needs of the institutions of higher learning from current revenues, particularly for the completion of the teaching hospital at the University of Washington and for the Institute of Agricultural Sciences at the State College. I recommend that these and other facilities be financed by the Washington State Building Authority whose creation I have proposed.

REVENUE PROBLEMS

To finance the state support for public schools which I am recommending to you requires: additional revenues of 31 million dollars. To finance support for the institutions of higher learning requires 9 million 800 thousand dollars. New avenues must be opened from which about 41 million dollars in new funds can be obtained.

The difficulty of finding new revenue sources has been plaguing us for several years, and to all appearances will be with us for some time until a more satisfactory and permanent solution to our fiscal problems can be found.

Over the last quarter century, the Federal government has vastly extended its taxing powers and indebtedness. It expanded its activities into many fields which used to be the primary obligation of states and local governments, and gained control of numerous state and local activities through the system of grants-in-aid. The ever-increasing Federal tax load made it economically and politically impossible for state and local governments to retain their share of the national income and maintain taxes at the level required by their essential services. They came to depend increasingly on Federal aid. Here in the State of Washington the state and local tax burden dropped from 14.3 percent of the income of our residents in 1932 to 8.3 percent in 1953; the state tax burden remained stable at 5.7 percent, but the local tax burden fell from 8.6 percent to 2.6 percent.

Our national administration felt that the trend of the last 20 years should be reversed and a determined effort be made to preserve our Federal system by strengthening the position of the states. With that aim the President and Congress created in 1953 the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations in order to study this whole problem and submit recommendations for a program of well defined relationships between the Federal government and the states.

An important element in such an undertaking is a reduction of the Federal tax load so as to enable the states to raise the necessary funds under their own authority. This last year Federal taxes were reduced by 7 billion 400 million dollars, which is the biggest tax cut in history. The tax savings of Washington citizens can be estimated at 120 million dollars a year. Part of these savings will have to be applied to sustain the essential services of state and local governments. If state government fails to raise the necessary revenue to provide those services, the people will increasingly turn to the national government, and the states will slowly but surely fade from the scene.

In making this statement I am fully aware of the heavy tax burden presently carried by our citizens and of the urgent need for tax relief if we are to sustain a healthy and growing economy. But the alternative here is not between levying or not levying the necessary taxes or between rendering or not rendering essential public services. The question before us is whether we want to raise the necessary funds at the state and local level and keep the cost under local control and at the lowest possible level or whether we prefer sending our money on a round trip to the Federal Treasury, knowing full well that we shall get back only part of the money we pay. I believe that we should do our job at home.

There are three principal forms of taxation: income, property and excise taxes.

INCOME TAXES

Washington is one of the fifteen states which have no income tax. The legislature submitted to the people four times a constitutional amendment authorizing a graduated net income tax; it failed each time. The combined vote was better than two to one against it. Decisions of our State Supreme Court and opinions of the State Attorney General hold that neither a graduated nor a flat income tax can be enacted in Washington without a constitutional amendment. Good arguments are being advanced in favor of submitting such an amendment to the people for the fifth time. Many groups regard a tax measured by net income as the fairest tax which can tap much income that is now beyond the reach of the state. I know that many of you would like to see such a tax enacted. Nobody can tell whether the citizens of Washington have changed their minds since they last voted on an income tax twelve years ago.

It is your privilege and you probably should submit to the people at the next regular election a constitutional amendment permitting a net income tax if you believe that the answer to our financial problem lies in an income tax. In no case could such action produce the funds we need in the 1955-57 biennium. Those funds must be raised in some other way.

PROPERTY TAXES

Many years ago the people of Washington decided through the adoption of several initiatives and finally a constitutional amendment that they wanted their property taxes limited to forty mills on values assessed at fifty percent of true and fair value of the property. Subsequently, assessed values did not keep pace with the general rise in values and income nor the shrinkage of the value of the dollar. Assessment procedures deteriorated to such a degree that the inequities in this field now constitute the most flagrant injustice perpetrated upon our citizens. How can we expect our people to show respect for the law and comply with the various taxing statutes if government itself displays a disregard for the fundamental principles of taxing justice and the mandate of the state constitution?

Current assessment practices have cut the taxing and bonding powers of our counties, cities, school districts and other local units to fractions of their legal entitlement. They have thus undermined the ability of local governments to finance their essential services and made them increasingly dependent on the state government.

Two years ago I said in my legislative message: "Valuations are now a mockery of the uniformity provisions of our state constitution."

I added that "it has been suggested that the state government should either take over making assessments or prescribe the formula by which it is done as is done in a number of states." I submitted several specific proposals. None of them was enacted; with a few exceptions, the situation is today as bad as it has ever been.

A study sponsored by your Legislative Council, which has just been completed, substantiates my earlier statements. It reported that, and I quote, "the most outstanding feature of property tax assessments in Washington is the variation of assessment ratios within each county." It found that more than one-sixth of the property sampled was assessed at less than ten percent of its current value.

In the last few years an annual average of more than 400 million dollars in new private construction was completed in the State of Washington. But an average of only about 40 million dollars of new improvements was added to the tax rolls each year. That does not mean that the new property was assessed at ten percent. It does mean that much of the new construction does not get on the tax rolls or may be listed only after many years.

I want to stress that this situation is not just the fault of the assessors. Most of those officials are badly underpaid, and do not have sufficient funds to hire a professionally competent staff or use the modern technical devices which are necessary for the complete and scientific appraisal of property. Nor has the state rendered them the assistance to which they are entitled. Several other states have done far more in this field.

Your Legislative Council has drafted several proposals which deserve your consideration. It seems likely that a re-assessment program to carry out the word and spirit of the forty mill amendment and to restore tax justice could do much to preserve the law which otherwise might sooner or later fall by the wayside.

Such measures will of necessity take several years to produce substantial additional funds. Some more immediate expedients must be found if the yield of the property tax is to be raised beyond its normal increase during the next biennium. Your Legislative Council is recommending a bill that would permit the collection of the schools' 14 mill levy at the state's adjusted value rather than at the locally assessed values. It has not been definitely determined at the present time whether such a provision would be constitutional. The proposal should be carefully studied and considered because it could add 15 million dollars or more to the revenue of the public schools in the next biennium.

EXCISE TAXES

Washington levies the highest excise taxes in the nation. Included among those taxes are the three percent sales and compensating tax, the business and occupation tax of three-tenths percent and six-tenths percent, utilities taxes of up to three and three-tenths per cent and the excise taxes on motor fuel, liquor and cigarettes. In 1953 sales and gross receipts tax collections in Washington totaled $56.36 per capita compared with a national average of $15.70 per capita. An increase in the rates of the sales tax, business and occupation tax or utilities tax would bring Washington even more out of line with its neighbors. Administratively though it would be the simplest and most inexpensive way to boost taxes; it may be the only immediate way if no other possibility can be worked out. You might also consider extending the taxing powers of local governments in this field. Rates of several minor excise taxes could be raised or newly adopted; they would yield only relatively small amounts.

I will work jointly with you through your legislative committee, much as we did in 1951, to determine which measures would be most desirable and effective in yielding the required funds for the 1955-57 biennium.

A government constituted such as ours, with responsibilities so equally divided, calls for cooperative action in which the people may have confidence. For this reason, we jointly share the task of raising the additional money required for the next biennium.

For me or any individual to attempt to determine one tax or group of taxes that should be imposed to raise essential funds for our growing state would probably result in needless bickering and discussion. Together we can strive for a satisfactory solution.

CONCLUSION

In the next sixty days you will be faced with momentous decisions that may affect the lives and the well-being of the citizens of Washington for many years to come. Our state has reached a critical point in its development at which it is imperative that action, positive and bold action, be taken in order to sustain the state's natural and healthy growth. We must have the vision and the courage to invest in the foundation of this growth in our ample human and natural resources. This will not be a painless process. But I am fully confident that the people who elected us will support us if we deal with them forthrightly and do not try to protect them from an unpleasant truth.

We may as well face the fact that we will be laboring under difficult conditions. The division between the two parties in both Houses is so close that attempts to indulge in purely political partisanship will condemn this Legislature to ineffectiveness and inevitably lead to a stalemate. This is not what the people of Washington have a right to expect or are likely to condone.

I am calling on you, not as Democrats or as Republicans but as representatives of the people of Washington to think first not of what divides us but what unites us. Let us not pit one against another; let us not dwell in self-righteousness upon cleavages of the past but join in common endeavor for a greater future. Unless we do this, all our efforts may be in vain.

We in the State of Washington have much to be grateful for. We are blessed with fertile land, a pleasant climate, strategic location, abundant resources and scenic beauty which have attracted citizens from all over the nation to this new Promised Land. We are in the midst of a period of extended growth whose end cannot be foreseen. Let us think not of selfish advantage for today but of the common welfare of all in a greater tomorrow. The citizens of Washington have placed their trust in us, laid their destiny in our hands. We must not fail them.

I offer you my utmost cooperation in your difficult task. If we join forces and raise our sights to lofty aims, we shall, with Divine Guidance move forward to prepare the way for a greater, for a more prosperous, for a happier State of Washington. For this I fervently pray. (Applause.)

The President of the Senate instructed the committee consisting of Senators Zednick, Clark and Lindsay, and Representatives Huhta, Hyppa and Johnston to come forward and escort Governor Langlie from the rostrum to the reception room.

The committee retired.

The President of the Senate instructed the committee consisting of Senators Ivy, Hoff and Gissberg, and Representatives McFadden, Sawyer and Canfield to come forward and escort the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington from the House Chamber to the reception room.

The committee retired.

The President of the Senate instructed the committee consisting of Senators Pearson, Zahn and Nunamaker, and Representatives Hanson (Herb), Carty and Shropshire to come forward and escort the elective state officials from the House chamber to the reception room.

The committee retired.

The Lieutenant Governor turned the gavel over to Speaker O'Brien.

The Speaker instructed the committee consisting of Senators Lindsay and Hoff, and Representatives Young and Wedekind to escort Lieutenant Governor Anderson back to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The Sergeants-at-Arms of the House and the Senate escorted the Senators to the Senate chamber.

AFTERNOON SESSION

At 1:20 p. m., President Anderson called the Senate to order.

SPECIAL ORDER

Senate Bill No. 18:

MOTION

Senator Hall moved that consideration of Senate Bill No. 18 be made a special order of business as the first thing to be considered under Second Reading of Bills tomorrow.

The motion carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Goodloe:

"Having just returned from the address of our Governor, I wish to make a few necessary comments to express the previously unexpressed thoughts of some of the members of this body.

"During the last campaign a little brochure, 'Don't Gamble,' was provided to us. (Reads same.)

"Now with that information in the hands of the voters, and with the knowledge that the Republican leaders went throughout the state advocating that policy, it is now interesting to listen to some of the comments in the corridors—"That's what the Democrats wanted. We knew all the time you didn't want it, but it will only cost a couple of hundred thousand dollars for a special election to prove our point. We don't want to embarrass the Democrats."

"This is no time for political chicanery. Our leaders have indicated in the election Republicans will be dedicated to fight an income tax. Reading from the address of the Governor: 'It is your privilege and you probably should submit to the people at the next regular election a constitutional amendment permitting a net income tax if you believe that the answer to our financial problem lies in an income tax.'

"Republicans dedicated themselves against an income tax. The Democrats said they were for it. I suggest that in a mild fashion some of them may charge us with a breach of the pledge we have made. I feel that Republicans should not go on record as advocating an income tax. I wish to go on record as stating this is not the fruit of the Republican caucus."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Zednick:

"I feel the same way about an income tax that Senator Goodloe does. But the Governor did not get out that brochure. In the second place, the Governor did not recommend this. He said you should give it some consideration. He simply called it to our attention as a possibility, and the implication of Senator Goodloe to reflect on the Governor and his integrity I certainly resent."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Luvera:

"I feel that the advertising Senator Goodloe gave to us was probably local, and not statewide. And while I am not for an income tax to be passed by me, I shall have no hesitancy to let my constituents vote on it if they want to. I shall make it easier for my constituents to arrive at such a decision."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Raugust:

"Since my good friend, Bill, has seen fit to bring up an issue here, I might say I got some of those papers and threw them in the waste basket. I should like to inform my friend, Bill, I believe in a free country where I can introduce anything I want. I was born in a country where I could not do that. I believe every person has a right to vote. I think the records will show I pay taxes myself. But I want to inform my good friend, Bill, that as long as this nation exists, we have a right to express ourselves. I believe in the right of the people to vote for what they want."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lennart:

"Two years ago I introduced a bill for a state income tax. But if we had passed it, we wouldn't have come down here so empty-handed as we are today. I have wrestled with this problem many years, and I am sure we have a system the result of legislative bungling. All we have done is to wait until the last day of the session to enact tax laws to provide revenue. Something better be done about this. We can talk loudly about increasing the property tax, but we need other sources of revenue."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hall:

"Just to set my friend, Bill, straight, I wish to inform him I do believe in a state income tax, and any time I would like to have you show me where there is any source of revenue for government taxes that does not come out of income. I think that the income tax is the fairest form of tax.

"It seems to me that the statements Bill made were out of place. I think the fairest form of tax is the income tax."

FOURTH DAY

NOON SESSION

SENATE CHAMBER,

OLYMPIA, WASH., Thursday, January 13, 1955.

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 o'clock noon by President Anderson.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Don Chandler, Color Bearer, Neil Hanson and Rosanne Hull, presented the Colors.

Reverend J. Edgar Pearson, Jr., pastor of the United Churches of Olympia, offered prayer as follows:

"God of our Fathers, in whom we trust and by whose guidance and grace this nation was born, bless the Senators of this state at this important time in our history and give them all things needful for the faithful discharge of their responsibilities.

"Let us have less talking and more thinking, less work and more respect for Thee, less pressure and more prayer. For if we are too busy to acknowledge Thee even in a brief moment of prayer, we are far busier than we have any right to be.

"When differences arise, as they will, may these men be not disturbed at being misunderstood, but rather be disturbed at not understanding.

"Create a new warmth and consideration between members of this body that they may be saved from wasting their time and energies in party and personal squabbles that accomplish little but destroy much of the confidence of the people in their ability—for if they cannot handle themselves, how can they handle the affairs of the state?

"May what is done here be so clearly right that it needs no justification save its own merits.

"These things we ask in Jesus' name. Amen."

"God of grace, help us to spend this moment in honest communion with Thee, with all distractions put from our minds. For then will our whole day be changed for us, and we will be changed for the day; our moods will become right and our actions will then become in keeping with those principles that should guide us. Use these moments, our Father, to make every thought and feeling what they ought to be, that we may be able to do things for Thy sake that we would not have done for our own or for the sake of anyone else.

"We know that a different world cannot be built by indifferent people. Even so, may we see that good government can come only from those whose motives are right. Help us to see, then, that the Scriptural truth applies to the work of this Senate; that indeed, faith without works is dead, and works that are not impelled by Thy spirit cannot live.

IN MEMORIAM

By Senator Lennart:

As it comes to all men, death removed from our midst Judge Ralph Olson, Justice of the State Supreme Court. We mourn him as a friend, we mourn him as a man of large mould, dignified in deportment. People who knew him, and there were many, looked up to him as a man who walked upright before God and man. His understanding was profound, he acquired with ease, and retained well.

The last time he was in this building was a few days ago, when the Governor gave his message to the Legislature. He greeted me as a friend, his countenance was solemn as though it proclaimed: "The Lord is my shepherd. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil. Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me."

That kind and good heart has now come to rest. We mourn him; he does not heed it. "He has gone where the weary are at rest; where the wicked cease from troubling."

"No farther seek his merits to disclose,
Or draw his frailties from their dread abode;
There they alike in trembling hope repose,
The bosom of his Father and his God."

MOTION

Senator Gissberg seconded the motion.

The motion carried.

HERBERT H. SIELER, Secretary of the Senate.

TENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Wednesday, January 19, 1955.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 o'clock a. m. by President Anderson.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Neil Hanson, Color Bearer, Rosanne Hull and Marianna Pea, presented the Colors.

Reverend William E. Callahan, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Olympia, offered prayer.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

On motion of Senator Hoff, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that at this time the Senate respectfully request the Executive of this state to forthwith submit the budget for the coming biennium.

Senator Zednick:

"I think this is just a futile play for us to ask the Governor to present this forthwith. He will get it here as soon as he can. We can all depend on that. The Budget Director is just as anxious for us to have this as we are to get it."

Senator Clark:

"For your information, I think we will have the budget this afternoon. We were informed we were going to have it this afternoon in time for our meeting."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hall:

"Is there a motion before the Senate?"

The President:

"Yes, the motion by Senator Rosellini."

MOTION

Senator Hall moved that the motion by Senator Rosellini be laid on the table.

Senator Zednick seconded the motion.

The motion carried.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sears:

"Some six years ago I had the privilege of introducing a very distinguished guest from the country to the North of us, and last night he was at the Olympian Hotel at the Chamber of Commerce dinner. He is in the Senate Chamber today. This gentleman served in the English Navy during the last war. I refer to the Reverend William Hills, from Cadboro Bay, Victoria, B. C. I would like to have him introduced to the Senate."

The President requested Senator Sears and the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort the distinguished visitor to the rostrum.

The President:

"Senator Sears, will you kindly present our distinguished visitor to the Senate?"

Senator Sears:

"Members of the Senate, I really made the introduction before I brought Reverend Mr. Hills in. There is nothing more I can say except that I think he has a wonderful understanding of the relationship that should exist between our country and Canada, and our country and possibly the countries to the South."

Reverend William Hills:

"Mr. President, Honored and Distinguished Senators:

"I want to say once again that only on this North American Continent, particularly of the two countries separated by that international boundary line, could such an honor be given to anyone as this that has been given to me. The last time I was here in 1949 there was another man sitting in that Chair, and others were seated on the floor of the Senate. And while such changes occur, still nevertheless the wheels of the legislature revolve on a stability as provided by your own state, and people have a continuing confidence in the democratic processes of your own government.

"Last time I was here I was scared to death because, being an alien and occupying a place on the rostrum, I thought I might start a war between our two countries. I have recovered enough of my peace of mind to tell this august assembly a little story.

"It is about a little epitaph I once saw in Bar Harbor in my Navy days. It had three names on it—two feminine and one masculine. Apparently it was the epitaph of a man who had had two wives. It said: 'Here I lie between two of the best women in the world—my wives; but I have requested my relatives to tip me a little towards Tillie.'

"I find myself between two of the greatest nations in the world, just merely tipped by Providence a little towards Canada rather than towards the United States.

"I think that wherever we are on this North American Continent, those of us charged with constitutional democratic responsibility should keep two factors in our minds as we go about this business. I think we all ought to understand that all philosophy boils down to this one thing. There is a difference between right and wrong—a relationship between cause and effect. And I think if we can hang onto those two things in our deliberations, we will be guided by Providence toward the discharge of our responsibilities so as to adorn the fair name of Democracy, in whose honor this building has been erected and through whose processes God is guiding His people.

"'May God continue to bless you' is the desire of your friends North of the border."
(Applause.)

The Reverend Mr. Hills was thereupon escorted from the Senate Chamber by Senator Sears and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Secretary read:

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson:

"Mr. President:

"I have some guests I would like to introduce to you and to the members of the Senate."

The President:

"Senator Peterson, will you and the Sergeant-at-Arms please escort these guests to the rostrum?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rosellini:

"The Senate will recall that yesterday a motion was made with reference to having the Governor bring up the budget for the biennium, and the motion was voted down principally on the representation that the budget would be presented yesterday afternoon. I have looked around my desk and fail to find the budget here. However, I was informed in good faith yesterday on the part of the Senator that the information he had yesterday was misinformation. It was the highway budget and not the Governor's budget.

"I am not going to renew the motion, but I just want to point out we are on the eleventh day and have not yet had the Governor's budget, but rather than renew my motion I am going to express the hope that the motion made yesterday may be brought to the attention of the public, and that that information will seep down to the lower floor and bring forth the budget."

President Anderson:

"I present now Senator Ted Peterson, who will introduce his guests to the Senate."

Senator Peterson:

"Mr. President, Members of the Senate, and Guests:

"It affords me great pleasure to introduce to you today members of the Oregon State Legislature. We have a group—twelve in number—three Senators, five Representatives and four members of the Oregon State Game and Wild Life Commission.

"As you know, down through the years Oregon and Washington have worked as a close unit. It has been nothing short of miraculous the things they have done towards developing our natural resources. As the freshman Chairman of Fisheries, it gives me great pleasure to find that things have been going on like this since 1860. There was a compact signed in 1916-'17 and just last Saturday there was another compact signed. It concerns the Columbia River, which starts in the State of Washington and which is a natural resource of much value to both states.

"It gives me pleasure to introduce the Chairman of Natural Resources Committee of the Oregon State Senate, Senator Paul Geddes, Senator Bob Holmes and Senator Walter Leth, both members of the Natural Resources Committee.

"We have already had quite a round of entertainment. We are taking care of them. We will have a dinner for them tonight after going through the rounds today. We are going to Deschutes, Hood's Canal, and will really show them what makes the State of Washington tick. If you want to come down to the hotel tonight, every member of this organization is invited to meet these friends and the rest of our committee."

President Anderson:

"I would like to ask Senator Paul Geddes to say a few words to the Senate."

Senator Paul Geddes:

"Mr. President and Senators:

"It is true we in Oregon and Washington get along well together. I never knew just why until last night. I learned then. When we are so royally entertained, we fall in line with your ideas. It is wonderful. Your intelligence is marvelous. We want to learn how you manage to do your business in sixty days, because we expect to be in Salem until about the fourth of July."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Raugust:

"Members of the Senate:

"You will find on your desk a map and an explanation of the amount of money that will be spent for roads in your district."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hoff:

"I would like to announce the caravan will leave for Western State Hospital at twelve o'clock, at the southeast corner of the legislative building."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

President Anderson:

"At this order of business I would like to have a distinguished visitor escorted to the rostrum—the national head of a great fraternal organization, who is visiting Olympia at this time. I will appoint Senators Zednick, Barlow and Cowen as a committee to escort our distinguished visitor to the rostrum."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wall, that portion of Rule 40 relating to smoking was suspended.

President Anderson:

"Members of the Senate, I have a great deal of pleasure now in presenting to you the Honorable William J. Jernick, the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks."

The Honorable William J. Jernick:

"Members of the Senate:

"I am delighted to have this privilege of being with you this morning. I have been very much impressed with your great State of Washington, particularly impressed with its beauty and the majesty of its buildings and mountains and lakes, and I am also impressed with the kind of people that they have here in Washington, as indicated by the warmth of your reception here in these chambers.

"In coming here to Washington I wanted to bring with me the felicitations and well wishes of some one million, one hundred forty-six thousand God-fearing red-blooded Americans who compose the membership of our beloved Order. We have been privileged to number among our membership many of our public officials, and I dare say many of the Senators and Representatives of your great state are members of the B. P. O. E., and I think that it is proper they should be, because after all we are an all-American Order, the kind of an Order that goes about unselfishly doing things for others.

"It might be interesting to know that our program is one of working particularly for the youth of America. We have a program that includes some two million youngsters in all types of recreational activities and youth centers for the youth of America; also scholarships and awards for the boys and girls of America.

"We have been stressing not only the facts of good leadership, but also that they need guidance and experience, and beyond that they need a sound moral foundation before they assume leadership. We feel we can and must provide this guidance and experience to properly develop our future leaders of America.

"We have spent something like several million dollars this past year, and have adopted as our slogan—taken from the Scriptures:

"As Elkdome sows

"So America reaps.

"We hope to bring about better communities, better states, and thus a better America. Our program this year is the sowing of good seeds and doing good deeds." (Applause.)

President Anderson:

"Mr. Jernick, we are happy indeed you found time to come in and pay your respects to the Washington Senate, among whom are a good many Elks."

The President Pro Tempore assumed the Chair.

EIGHTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Thursday, January 27, 1955.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 o'clock a. m. by President Anderson. The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Joe Allen, Color Bearer, Neil Hanson and Rosanne Hull, presented the Colors.

Reverend Delbert W. Daniels, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered prayer.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

On motion of Senator Lindsay, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

Senator Dixon moved that all revenue bills be given priority over other bills.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"The Senator has made a motion that we give priority to revenue measures. I don't think his discussion is on his motion. I think he is talking on the history of revenue and taxation. I think he should confine his remarks to the motion."

Senator Greive:

"I think Senator Dixon is in order."

MOTION

Senator Barlow moved that that portion of Rule 40, relating to smoking, be suspended.

The motion carried.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zednick:

"I raise the point of order under Rule 46: 'The committees shall acquaint themselves with the interest of the state specially represented by the committee, and from time to time present such bills and reports as in their judgment will advance the interests and promote the welfare of the people of the state.'"

"I think this motion involves a suspension of that rule, or a change rather in the rule, which would require a one day's notice to raise that point of order for your consideration. Will the Senator submit to a question, please?"

Senator Dixon:

"I don't object."

Senator Zednick:

"Aren't you now giving notice that tomorrow you will suspend this rule to make that provision?"

Senator Dixon:

"No, Senator. I am speaking on the motion."

Senator McMullen:

"I would like to speak against this motion of Senator Dixon's. This year we adopted some new rules, and created a Ways and Means Committee whose duty it is to see that the budget is balanced. Now you are a member of that committee, and I don't see why it is necessary for you to make a motion such as you have presented to this body."

MOTION

Senator Hall moved that the motion by Senator Dixon be laid on the table.

The motion by Senator Hall carried.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., January 26, 1955.

MR. PRESIDENT:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate Joint Memorial No. 3, relating to rescinding of House Joint Memorial 13, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

Amend line 10, page 1 of the original memorial, same being line 10, page 1 of the printed memorial, after the word "was" and before the word "and", strike the word "petition" and insert in lieu thereof the word "petitioning"

Amend line 17, page 1 of the original memorial, same being line 17, page 1 of the printed memorial, strike the entire paragraph beginning with the words "Be it further resolved" and ending with the word "thereof." WILLIAM C. GOODLOE, Chairman.

We concur in this report: Victor Zednick, Eugene D. Ivy, W. A. Gissberg, M. J. Gallagher, Patrick D. Sutherland, Roderick A. Lindsay, Neil J. Hoff, Dale McMullen.

Senate Joint Memorial No. 3 was read the second time in full.

Senator Hall moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the memorial by striking everything following the word "WHEREAS," in the second paragraph thereof and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The United Nations General Assembly is expected to call a meeting in 1955 to review the United Nations Charter and to consider its amendment; and

"WHEREAS, It is the policy of the present administration to cooperate with and work through the United Nations in its efforts to establish and maintain world peace;

"WHEREAS, The Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Washington are strongly in favor of international cooperation and a united effort on the part of all nations to end war and to advance the cause of world peace;

"Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the Senate and the House of Representatives of the state of Washington in legislative session assembled, do respectfully petition the President and the Congress of the United States to initiate and support such changes in the structure and powers of the United Nations as will enable it to become a more effective force in the establishment and maintenance of international relations which contribute to a peaceful civilization; and

"Be It Further Resolved, That the United States should not, however, support any changes in the United Nations Charter which would enable it to interfere with the domestic affairs of the United States or to impair the basic rights and freedoms guaranteed to the American people by the American Constitution; and

"Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, and to each member of the Washington Congressional delegation."

Senator Dixon seconded the motion.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dahl:

"I would like to have the President rule as to whether or not this amendment is permissible in view of the fact that it does entirely change the scope of the bill."

President Pro Tempore Zednick:

"The President Pro Tempore is a little embarrassed ruling on this, for the reason that Senate Joint Memorial No. 3 was introduced by Senators Zednick and Barlow, and it makes it a little embarrassing for me to rule."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dixon:

"We could relieve the embarrassment of the presiding officer and have our own parliamentarian make the ruling."

Senator Gallagher:

"I think the amendatory matter is germane."

Senator Hall:

"The rules say any amendatory matter must be germane to the subject matter it wishes to amend. I maintain my amendment is germane to the subject under discussion, and as such it is in order and should be considered."

Senator Greive:

"The rule I referred to was Rule 62. This amendment explains that we were not for the original memorial."

Senator Goodloe:

"I would refer you to the Constitution, Article II, Section 38. My suggestion is that the memorial is not a bill and therefore does not come under the rule Senator Greive has mentioned."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

President Pro Tempore Zednick:

"I was looking at our Rule 62: 'No amendment shall be allowed which shall change the scope or object of the bill.' I don't believe we have any rule applying to memorials and resolutions."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

"Rule 57 provides that memorials and resolutions take the same course as bills."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I don't think that Rule 57 is applicable because the course of a bill means it shall go to committee, and then come out on second reading and then go to the Rules Committee. That has no bearing on this other Rule 62.

"It is my personal opinion that while I do definitely think this is outside the scope of the memorial, I don't see that we have a rule on the subject. Therefore I will have to rule that the point of order is not well taken."

MOTION

Senator Hoff moved that Senate Joint Memorial No. 3 be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Hall:

"Then what happens to the amendment?"

Senator Hoff:

"I will amend my motion then to include the amendment with the memorial and that it be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I think that is proper. If there is an amendment pending, you cannot leave the amendment on the desk."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question to be on the motion that Senate Joint Memorial No. 3, with the pending amendment, be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The motion carried.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Hall:

"Having voted on the prevailing side, I do now move that we reconsider the vote by which we referred this memorial to the Judiciary Committee."

Senator Hoff demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained by Senators McMullen, Hall and Nordquist.

The motion for the previous question carried.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question to be now on Senator Hall's motion to reconsider the vote by which Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, together with his amendment, be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Division was called for.

The motion for reconsideration carried on a rising vote.

RECONSIDERATION

The President Pro Tempore declared the motion to reconsider had carried, and declared the question now to be on the question: Shall this memorial, together with Senator Hall's amendment, be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee?

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that Senator Hoff's amendment be laid on the table.

Division was called for.

The President Pro Tempore explained the vote:

"If this motion to lay Senator Hoff's motion on the table does not carry, then the question will be on Senator Hoff's original motion to re-refer."

The motion to lay on the table carried.

Senator Pearson demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained by Senators Gallagher, Greive and Rosellini.

The motion for the previous question carried.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question to be on Senator Hall's amendment.

Senator Lennart moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend the amendment in line 25, by striking the words "American Constitution" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Constitution of the United States"

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The amendment by Senator Hall, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Hall moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial, as amended, be placed on final passage.

The motion lost.

Senate Joint Memorial No. 3 was ordered engrossed and referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

The Secretary read:

PROTEST

The undersigned Senators wish to protest the action taken by the Senate in sending Senate Joint Memorial No. 3 to the Rules Committee with amendment. The vote to adopt the amendment was a vote to kill the Memorial; the scope and purpose of the Memorial was completely changed. The adopted amendment was excellent, but it should have been considered as a separate Memorial and not used to destroy the original purpose of Senate Joint Memorial No. 3, which was to place the State Legislature on record as opposing a world government which would engulf and destroy the sovereign entity of the United States of America.

The President declared the question to be on the demand for the Call of the Senate.

The motion for the Call of the Senate lost.

Senate Bill No. 127 was read the second time by sections.

Senator Gallagher moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the bill by adding a new section reading as follows:

"Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Senator Rosellini proceeded to speak on the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"The Senator is not speaking on the amendment. He is speaking on the merits of the bill."

Senator Rosellini:

"I have to speak on the merits of the bill in order to determine whether such an emergency clause should be enacted."

The President Pro Tempore:

"Will you please confine your remarks as to whether there should be an emergency clause?"

Senator Rosellini:

"That is exactly what I am speaking on, Mr. President."

Senator Rosellini continued speaking.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"I don't believe the Senator is speaking on the merits of the proposed amendment."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I think the point of order is well taken."

Senator Rosellini:

"I think by necessity I have got to give the background. I believe we have to review the provisions of the original act."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I will hold the point of order well taken."

Senator Hoff moved the previous question be ordered on the amendment by Senator Gallagher.

The President Pro Tempore:

"It is pretty hard to keep you within the scope as to why we need the emergency clause right now, Senator Rosellini."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hall:

"Our rules provide that when a Senator has been ruled out of order he should take his seat."

Senator Rosellini:

"As long as I proceed within the scope of the emergency clause, may I proceed in order?"

Senator Hoff moved the previous question, and the demand was sustained by Senators McMullen, Raugust and Hall.

The previous question was ordered.

The amendment by Senator Gallagher was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gallagher, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

Amend the title by striking the period (.) and adding the following: "; declaring an emergency."

Senator Raugust moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading be considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 127, as amended, be put on final passage.

Division was called for.

The motion carried on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gallagher raised the point of order that it takes a two-thirds majority to suspend the rules and advance a bill to third reading and final passage.

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"Senator Gallagher, it does not require a two-thirds majority under our amended Rule 61."

Senator Gallagher:

"As I recall it, I maintain that the motion to suspend the rules will take a majority to move it up to third reading."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"This is just as good a time to rule as any."

(The President Pro Tempore reads Rule 61 of this session.)

Senator Gallagher:

"I hold with you, unless the rules have been suspended by a two-thirds vote."

The President Pro Tempore:

"They were suspended by a majority vote."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"There has been a suspension of the rule so it does not have to be read on three separate days."

Senator Rosellini:

"The purpose was so that there would not have to be a reading on three separate days. But the rule the President Pro Tempore read applies specifically to three separate days. However, we still have the rule that requires any bill on second reading to go back to the Rules Committee, and that, of course, cannot be suspended without a two-thirds vote."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hall, seconded by Senator Gallagher, the Senate recessed for fifteen minutes.

The President Pro Tempore called the Senate to order.

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"The Chair has ruled that this bill is on final passage, and in further confirmation of that I would like to have you look at your Rule Book, Rule 46, the third paragraph. (Reads paragraph 3.)

"This bill is now in final passage."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pearson:

"Does it mean that you also do not have to read the bill in full without suspension of the rule? I will go with you on a majority vote to go to third reading, but I believe it takes a two-thirds majority to suspend the rules so it need not be read."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"My ruling would be, it would not be necessary."

Senator Hall moved that the rules be suspended and Senate Bill No. 127 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Senator Pearson raised the point of order that it would require a two-thirds majority vote to advance the bill again to third reading.

The President Pro Tempore:

"The rules which I read to you refer to advancing. It will take a two-thirds vote to revert back."

MOTION

Senator Hall moved that a few minutes be given to Senator Goodloe to explain some amendment he wishes to present.

The motion carried.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question now to be on the motion of Senator Hall that the rules be suspended and the bill be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

NOTICE OF MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Senator Gallagher:

"I give notice now that at the proper time Monday I will make a motion to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 24 passed the Senate."

The President Pro Tempore:

"On that bill a motion was made and carried that the bill be immediately transmitted to the House."

Senator Greive:

"I respectfully ask the Presiding Officer to change that ruling."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I understand it has always been the procedure. That motion was made and carried."

Senator Greive:

"All I am doing now is serving a notice."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I think that is permissible under the circumstances."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Sears:

"I move that we immediately reconsider the matter."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

"We are not under the proper order."

MOTION

At 4:17 p. m., on motion of Senator Sutherland, the Senate adjourned until Monday, January 31, 1955, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

VICTOR ZEDNICK, President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

HERBERT H. SIELER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

SENATE CHAMBER,

OLYMPIA, WASH., Monday, January 31, 1955.

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 o'clock noon by the President Pro Tempore.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Neil Hanson, Color Bearer, Mary Doumit and Margaret Livengood, presented the Colors.

Reverend J. Burton Salter, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, offered prayer.

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present, except Senators Keefe and Lindsay.

On motion of Senator Riley, Senators Keefe and Lindsay were excused.

On motion of Senator Dahl, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Gallagher:

"Having given notice at the last regular session, I renew my motion that we now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 24 passed the Senate."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"The Chair will have to rule the motion out of order because notice was not given until after the motion had been carried, under suspension of the rules, to transmit this bill to the House. And although it is not material, it is a fact that physically the bill has actually been transmitted. In support of which, I would ask the Secretary to read the journal with reference to the matter."

Senator Gallagher:

"I want to point out that while the motion had been made, the rules had not been suspended."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"That is why I want the journal read, Senator."

Thereupon, the Secretary read that portion of the minutes referred to.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Sutherland:

"I would like to ask you what it means in Rule 31 where it says: 'A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn.'"

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"Senator, I can answer that. It would take precedence if some other motion had been made at the time. But this motion was made minutes—if not hours—before, to suspend the rules and transmit; and the bill was transmitted in accordance with that motion. The bill is not at this time before the Senate."

Senator Sutherland:

"That bill was up in the Secretary's possession. I talked to the Clerk over in the House. The Clerk does not know what time it came over. There have been a few cases near the close of the session where, under the order of expediency, we have done that. But this is the fastest that I think it has ever been done. I submit that the bill was in the Senate."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hoff:

"He is speaking on the merits of the bill."

Senator Sutherland:

"I am speaking on the motion to reconsider."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"I have ruled that your motion, or Senator Gallagher's motion, is out of order.

"There isn't anything about the time, but the fact of the matter is that when a motion is made to suspend the rules and immediately transmit a bill, immediately at that time the Senate loses jurisdiction. The same thing applies to a bill which is referred to the Rules Committee.

"Senator Sutherland, one of the processes from time immemorial in the House and Senate has been a motion to suspend the rules and immediately transmit, and that has been done nine times out of ten for the very purpose of preventing a later notice of reconsideration. It may be a parliamentary device, but it has been used a great number of times."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Greive:

"Having voted on the prevailing side, I now move to reconsider the vote by which the minutes of the previous day were approved."

Senator Hoff moved that Senator Greive's motion be laid on the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

"Under Senate Rules 21 and 31, a motion to reconsider cannot be laid on the table. I ask for a ruling."

Senator Hoff:

"I withdraw my motion, and now move the previous question."

Senator Greive withdrew his motion.

Senator Hoff:

"I move the rules be suspended and we immediately take up reconsideration of the motion by which the reading of the journal was approved."

The President Pro Tempore:

"Senator Hoff, your motion now is immediately to reconsider the vote by which the minutes were approved."

Senator Hoff demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained by Senators Barlow, Sears and Hall.

The previous question was ordered.

The motion for reconsideration carried.

RECONSIDERATION

The President Pro Tempore:

"The question now, the motion having carried, is the approval of the minutes."

Senator Grieve:

"Will you please explain the question now before the Senate?"

The President Pro Tempore:

"The motion was made by Senator Hoff for reconsideration; the reconsideration carried. The question now is the approval of the motion by Senator Hoff, in order to consider the confirmation or approval of the minutes."

Senator Hoff:

"I move, as a substitute motion, that the reading of the minutes of the previous day be dispensed with, and that they stand approved, with the exception of that section which actually happened the last thing Friday."

The President Pro Tempore:

"Senator, your motion then is that the reading of the minutes of the previous session be dispensed with, and that they stand approved, with the exception of that section having to do with the motion that was made to immediately transmit Senate Bill No. 24 to the House."

The motion carried.

The President Pro Tempore:

"The minutes are approved."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barlow, that portion of Rule 40 relating to smoking was suspended.

MOTION

Senator Sutherland:

"Under the first order of business I move that the Secretary send his man over to the House and bring back Senate Bill No. 24."

The President Pro Tempore:

"It will take a two-thirds vote to do that."

On motion of Senator Hall, the motion by Senator Sutherland was laid on the table.

The Secretary read:

To the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, Vice President of the United States, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled:

We, your Memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent and petition as follows:

WHEREAS, The present United States Sugar Act will expire on December 31, 1956, and must be renewed before expiration; and

WHEREAS, These periodic occasions of Sugar Act expiration leave a condition of instability and uncertainty in the United States sugar producing industry; and

WHEREAS, The United States beet sugar producing industry is now given an annual government allotment of one million eight hundred thousand tons of refined sugar which constitutes only twenty-two percent of the United States consumption, and this percentage diminishes each year due to the yearly increase in United States sugar consumption being by law allotted to foreign producers; and

WHEREAS, The annual United States increase in sugar consumption is now between one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred and thirty-five thousand tons of refined sugar and ninety-six percent of this increase is allotted to the Cuban Islands and the remaining four percent to other foreign sugar producers; and

WHEREAS, New irrigation project lands without sugar beet history under the present act are denied any share of the annual increase in the American sugar market; and

WHEREAS, The present law deprives these new project lands of an important and essential crop;

Now, Therefore, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that the Congress of the United States take such legislative action as is necessary to provide:

(1) That the United States Sugar Act be made a permanent act, subject only to amendment and modification when needed;

(2) That the producers of sugar in the continental United States be granted all the quota of annual increase in United States sugar consumption until such time as the producers in the continental United States recover the historical percentage of the American sugar market that they had when the present Sugar Act was passed; after which time the annual additional increase be divided between continental United States producers and overseas producers on an equitable basis;

(3) That the annual increase in sugar consumption quota be allocated directly to new project areas in the United States now denied the right to grow sugar beets until such time as the new lands have established a sugar beet industry on a basis comparable to the older producing areas;

Be It Resolved, That copies of this Memorial be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the State of Washington.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Senator Copeland presented the following report on the Marcus Whitman Statue Fund:

MARCUS WHITMAN FOUNDATION, INC.

(The Washington State Whitman Statue Commission)

P. O. Box 357
Walla Walla, Washington
February 22, 1955.

To Governor Arthur B. Langlie and Members of the Washington State Legislature:

The 1949 session of the State Legislature approved the placing of a statue of Dr. Marcus Whitman in Statuary Hall, Washington, D. C., as the first of the two national leaders "of historic renown" which this state is entitled to have in Statuary Hall. On May 22, 1953, the Marcus Whitman Foundation, Inc. completed the assignment which resulted from the 1949 legislation with the unveiling of the statue.

At the request of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of this state, I introduced the 1949 legislation and now as a member of the Board of the Marcus Whitman Foundation, I should like to report to the Governor and to the legislature on the completion of the project for which the State provided no funds.

People of the State of Washington, by voluntary donations, raised $23,804.80, of which $3,013.08 came directly from the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of the state as the original sponsors. Voluntary subscriptions from schools amounted to $1,639.88.

Twenty-one legislators made contributions of $691.10 which included $84.00 each as additional personal subscriptions by my colleagues, Representatives Milton Loney, Lester Robison and myself, the $84.00 being our expense allowance for the special session of 1953.

In addition to the $23,804.80 raised in the state, the Foundation received $3,538.17 in donations from interested alumni of Whitman College, friends of Whitman residing outside of the state and from a limited sale of the booklet "The Story of Marcus Whitman".

Dr. Avard Fairbanks, dean of the College of Fine Arts, University of Utah, was selected as the sculptor and created a statue which any number of people have termed one of the outstanding among all the statues in Washington, D. C. For this he was paid a fee of $15,000, a sum which was unquestionably an excellent bargain and actually represented a contribution on his part.

Other expenses incurred by the Foundation included $2,115.95 for the base for the statue, $1,737.78 in expenses incident to the unveiling ceremonies of May 22, 1953, $4,349.83 for printing and supplies, which included a considerable amount of historical material made available at no cost to schools throughout the Pacific Northwest, the balance of the expenses being for postage, fund-raising materials, labor and other items.

The Foundation now has on hand approximately $600.00 which will be used for some additional printed material and distribution of supplies. The Congress of the United States has authorized and the government will soon print copies of the unveiling proceedings and portions of the Whitman history.

The Board of the Foundation, appointed by Governor Langlie, directed the campaign for the raising of the funds and conducted the arrangements with the sculptor and in turn worked out the arrangements of unveiling under the direction of Congressman Hal Holmes, with the cooperation of other members of the Washington State Congressional delegation.

Members of the Foundation Board served without pay other than the compensation of achieving the satisfactory conclusion of a project which is a credit to the State of Washington. Literally hundreds of hours of unselfish time and service were given by Mrs. Goldie Rehberg of Walla Walla as the Foundation chairman. Associated with her on the Board were Chapin Foster of Tacoma and Ashley Holden of Spokane as vice-chairmen, former Senator Clinton S. Harley of Seattle as treasurer, Alfred McVay of Walla Walla as secretary, and Mrs. Ida Burford of Olympia, Dr. Willard F. Goff of Seattle, Judge E. V. Kuykendall of Pomeroy, Whitman College President Chester C. Maxey of Walla Walla, Cameron Sherwood of Walla Walla, Herbert G. West of Walla Walla and myself.

The statue and the project are indeed a credit to the State of Washington and all those who have shared as sponsors and contributors are deserving of a warm and sincere expression of appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY J. COPELAND,
State Senator.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rogers, the report read by Senator Copeland was ordered to be made a part of the Senate Journal.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Peterson:

"Former State Senator James T. Sullivan, from my district in Seattle, King County, the Forty-fourth District, is here today, and I would like to request that he be escorted to the rostrum."

The President requested the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort former Senator Sullivan to the rostrum.

President Anderson:

"Gentlemen of the Senate, it is my pleasure to present to you now the Honorable James T. Sullivan, former Senator." (Applause.)

Former Senator Sullivan:

"My remarks will be short and snappy. This is just a mailman's holiday, and I am happy to be down here to greet some of my former friends."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Shannon:

Mr. President:

"It is my privilege to present to this Senate, on behalf of the American Legion of the State of Washington, a new State Flag. It is fitting and proper that on the day we show respect to the Father of our country, suitable recognition may be made of the State of Washington Flag, an emblem of a great state named after the first President of the United States.

"The State Flag was adopted in 1915 by the Daughters of the American Revolution and in 1923 was adopted by the State Legislature. It is probably the most significant State Flag in the nation, not only because it has great historical value in the study of American history, but because Washington is the only state in the Union named after a President, the Father of our country. Twenty-two states in the Union have mandatory laws regarding the display of their State Flags, among such being our neighboring States of Oregon and California.

"The State Flag which you see on the rostrum was presented to the State of Washington in 1928 by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Its green background was to typify our Evergreen State and the seal, our own seal of Washington.

"May I say in closing that the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the State Historical Society are joining in the hope that some day soon we can bring to a realization a more prominent recognition of the State emblem.

"So to you, Mr. President, I present this Flag in trust for the members of this august body, and may it always stand on this rostrum as an emblem of the sovereign State of Washington."

President Anderson:

"On behalf of the Senate, I wish to thank you for the fine resolution and for this splendid gift. It is deeply appreciated." (Applause.)

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Winberg:

"We have with us today a former Senator, and I would like to have him escorted to the rostrum."

The President:

"Will the Sergeant-at-Arms escort our distinguished visitor to the rostrum?"

The President:

"Gentlemen of the Senate, I have the honor to present to you now the Honorable Lester T. Parker." (Applause.)

Former Senator Parker:

"I thought I would get by without spending any money. Mr. President, I move to suspend Rule 40."

President Anderson:

"The motion is carried. Is that all you wish to say?"

Former Senator Parker:

"That's all."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Washington:

"This being the birthday of George Washington, for whom our State of Washington was named, I would like to ask that one of the Senators here give us a short address on the life and works of George Washington.

"I refer to Senator Lennart."

Senator Lennart was thereupon requested by President Anderson to come to the rostrum, and address the Senate on the subject of George Washington.

Senator Lennart:

"Mr. President, and Members of the Senate:

"I feel greatly honored to be asked to speak on the life of George Washington. I think there are many of you Senators who probably could more ably describe this great man. But perhaps in my own way I can give you some of the characteristics of this great man.

"I am primarily honored to have been asked by a man who perhaps has the same blood in his veins as the great man I am going to speak about.

"Alone in his grandeur stands this great man in history, like some lone peak that has no equal in the mountain range of greatness. Washington did the two greatest things which in history it has been permitted man to attempt. He maintained by peace the independence of his country which he had conquered by war. He established a new government fashioned after the principles of order.

"Washington did those things. But he did more. Out of disconnected fragments, he moulded a country. Finally he established his country and its freedom in an enduring frame of constitutional government to make its constitution and union one and inseparable.

"None of the great men of history come up to his stature. Statesman, soldier, patriot, father of his country—solitary and unapproachable in his grandeur—such was his greatness that only by a symbol could he be typified.

"No one can aspire to be the leader of a great people who does not emulate and follow his example. We think of Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon as great leaders; but when Washington's face rises before us, immediately people say, 'There is a man for nations to trust.'

"Individual examples there were with single qualifications; but it was for Washington to blend them all. As a statesman, he enlarged the policy of his country. And such was the wisdom of his views, that to the soldier and to the statesman alike, he was the outstanding leader of his age.

"Yes, indeed, a noble character of stature was Washington. It is difficult to fashion in my mind a pedestal on which to place this great man. But his genius was equally rare. It dealt with men in the concrete. The two greatest characters of American history were Washington and Lincoln. One assisted with the independence of the states, and the other with the freedom of the slaves. Thus Washington and Lincoln are always associated.

"The things Washington commenced were completed by Lincoln. It was natural. But here the resemblance ends, and the contrast begins. These two illustrious men achieved grand results for man in the same century.

"Washington drew his sword but to establish a throne that has had no rule but the tribute of the people. He has had the gratitude of the people of his time, and will be held in everlasting reverence by posterity. His fame will never die.

"My fellow Senators, a noble manhood nobly consecrated never dies. The father of our country, the martyr, the emancipator of a race, may be buried from human sight, but their deeds will live on in history forever."

MOTION

Senator Knoblauch moved that Senator Washington suspend that portion of Rule 40, relating to smoking, with penalty.

The motion carried, and members of the Senate were treated to cigars furnished by Senator Washington.

The Speaker invited the honored guests to seats on the rostrum.

The President of the Senate requested that the Speaker of the House introduce the honored guest.

The Speaker of the House introduced His Excellency Aba Eban, Ambassador from Israel.

The Ambassador was invited to address the Joint Session.

His Excellency Aba Eban, Ambassador from Israel:

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives:

"I rejoice in the opportunity and privilege of expressing my deep appreciation for the cordial hospitality which I have encountered in your favorite state. Last evening in Seattle, I stood nine thousand miles from my country, separated from Israel by the unlimited expanse of continents and oceans, yet I could not forbear to reflect on the intense and ardent partiality which thousands of citizens feel for the Israeli cause. There was the Star of David, the emblem of Israel renewed, flying over the Pacific, the symbol of the universality of Israel's broad appeal.

"Why is it that a profound attraction and appeal of Israel has been felt across all the continents of the world? Surely this attraction can only be explained in terms beyond the dimensions of our ties and economic power: To reach the answer we must, I think, refer to particular episodes and facts in Israel's history which gives to the affairs of this small country a universal significance in time and space. For this is not just a small republic arising suddenly upon the shores of the Eastern Mediterranean. This is a consecutive climax in the history of the Jewish people and a consummation of universal scope, a re-entry into the family of sovereign nations of a people that had been absent from that family for so many generations.

"Our people arose to a nation since the second World War, less than ten years ago, when they had been slaughtered by the most brutal massacre and persecution that had ever fallen upon any family. The life of our institutions in Europe lay about our feet in ruins. Six million of our kinsmen had been brutally murdered and slaughtered, one million Jewish children were cast into the furnace. Out of the darkest days of man's history, there had struck at the throat of the Jewish people the fear of destruction. The Jewish people, the oldest family of the human race with a constant recorded history of four thousand years, had seen the worst of persecution and degradation. The horrors of dictatorship and totalitarianism had inflicted upon this people the sharpest agony which had ever fallen upon any section of the human race. Many believed there could be no recovery from such a tragedy, unmatched in the annals of human martyrdom.

"Within a few years of this moment of paralyzing weakness, the Jewish Commonwealth had come into existence. The flag of Israel fluttered bravely. Its ancient Hebrew culture entered upon a new lease of life. Warm waves of consolation and aid flowed from every home throughout the length and breadth of the land where the traditions of the Hebrew people are cherished, and they recovered. This was one of the most remarkable illustrations of recuperation and recovery in all of human history.

"If a people could recover from such a shattering blow, if from the depths of paralyzing weakness, they could recover strength and pride, then what could the free human not achieve? What disaster is too profound to be beyond the hope of eventual consolation? Then this was the step undertaken that appealed to men throughout the free world, the battle against overwhelming odds, the capacity of human faith to overcome the cruel changes of historic persecution. There were other elements in this process of Israel's revival which also helped to gain its universal appeal. This was no new people, this people of Israel which has witnessed its new birth of freedom in this short decade. This is the lineal descendant of the ancient Jewish kingdoms that gave to mankind its most authentic religion, the message of individual morality, of social justice and universal peace. In the great expanses of the American continent, in Europe, wherever freedom is upheld as the guiding doctrine of individual and national life, men have known the debt they owe to the Hebrew people in these virtues of social interest upon which free institutions are based. No man who understood the manner in which his own heritage is derived could fail to be moved by the prospect that this people would be restored to that land and through that language in which that great cultural tradition had been born.

"In addition to this victory of human wealth, to this remarkable revival of the fortunes of the Jewish people after two thousand years of exile, there were other circumstances which made the rise of this small republic an event of significance and scope. It was a proud moment in the progress of democracy that here in the Middle East had sprung a democracy where for centuries had been ruled by every form of autocracy, totalitarianism and military dictatorship. It is a new way of life, a government with just powers derived from the consent of the governed.

"If you look upon Israel's democratic institutions, you might see nothing original or spectacular from the American point of view. It has a vigorous parliamentary life, a legislature elected by universal suffrage, the organization of government changing hands in response to the public will, electoral processes proceeding with that routine certainty which is the true glory of the democratic process. This is not new or remarkable to American eyes. Political parties regard each other with unlimited enthusiasm. (Laughter.) This is not a familiar aspect in the Middle East. Nowhere else in that huge sub-continent have the citizens been able to rule themselves in freedom. It is the absence of free institutions in the Middle East and the areas surrounding it that makes it one of the greatest points of tension in the modern world. Will Asia and the Middle East be open or closed to democracy? The forces of democracy under the proud leadership of the United States are fairly evenly divided against the forces of despotism and communism. Into which side of the balance will fall the uncommitted part of the human race? The answer to that question is of vital importance for world peace. Those who cherish democracy cannot be indifferent to whether democracy shall flourish or perish in the only country in the Middle East in which it exists. If their democracy shall survive and grow, its infection may spread until its present institutions may become the general pattern of Middle Eastern life. If, Heaven forbid, the proud and gallant institutions be submerged or overcome, the democracies would lose their only bulwark to the forces of the Middle East that at present surround us on all sides.

"These are some of the impulses that arose when the world looked at the spectacle of Israel's free government.

"Israel, like America, is a country of immigration, throwing open its doors to the hounded and dispossessed from all corners of the globe. Israel, like America, is a country of pioneering, setting the strength of man's body and spirit against the forces of the wilderness. By this pioneering, within the course of an ordinary decade, our farmers, settlers, and industry have begun to restore its fine former fertility from the neglect and ravages of centuries of social backwardness, to make the country recognizable as the land of milk and honey, the joy of the entire earth. It is now being restored. Never since the psalmist sung of the green pastures and peaceful waters three thousand years ago has a belt of fertility covered so large a portion of the promised land.

"All of this development in the construction of advanced western economy, the increase of agricultural and industrial production, an enormous and increasing amount of immigration has proceeded against the background of ancient voices, for modern Israel has revived the language and culture of the ancient people. That reminds the citizens of Israel of its ancient laws. This is the picture of the state of Israel, a picture full of promise and dynamic change, a picture of it without its imperfections. Not everything is perfect in Israel. If I were to have any illusions that all was perfect, I would only have to have a short conversation with some of our tourists or read the proceedings of our legislature. There are many imperfections and handicaps to be overcome. The general tendency is toward the advance of vitality and of resilience.

"The special exaltation which attends a people in the formative hours of its national destiny is somewhat akin to the sign of exaltation which must have been felt throughout this continent.

"I cannot part from an American legislature without a word of profound and moving homage to that element in Israel's international relationship which has done so much to help us gain this place, the friendship between the United States and Israel has sustained us in our doubts and strengthened us in our many weaknesses. It is natural that the rise of Israel should appeal to Americans who share the descent of the Hebrew faith and tradition, and also millions of others who follow the course of their own Christian civilization and heritage. It was natural that the effort and struggle of a pioneering people to build a democratic life upon the shores of the Eastern Mediterranean should evoke memories in this great continent of immigrants and pioneers whose pioneering instincts, particularly in this Pacific Northwest, have not yet yielded to the more comfortable allurements of an already established society.

"Those are some of the elements that bring the public sentiment of our two countries together in those stirring days seven years ago when Israel proclaimed itself independent and was called upon to defend that independence with the best of its blood. I am confident those elements—those common elements in the tradition of America and Israel constitute the abiding friendship between our two countries. We need that friendship as we move toward the unfulfilled objectives that confront us in the future.

"The first objective is that of peace between Israel and its kindred Arabian neighbors. We yearn for the resumption of peaceful relations. If relationship of harmony and mutual aid were achieved, then our region would open up to the wealth it knew two centuries ago. The Middle East is not internally a poor area as its past history amply proves. The situation that exists is not the kind of situation that should prevail from the region from which the theory of united brotherhood came down through the ages.

"We believe the statesmanship of the western world and the United States will persist in lending a helping hand in order to bring Israel and the Arabian states together in direct association and adjustment of the differences and conflicts. If American interest would express itself in such an achievement, your country would have written another noble chapter in its career of leadership in the modern world. We hope the western states, with the United States as its leader will have organized the security of our region, not to exclude Israel, the only democracy, from the new network of security and arms agreements which are being established in our region.

"Thus, there is much America and Israel have to do together in pursuit of their common purposes of Middle Eastern peace. The American people in every section of this continent attends the dramatic story of Israel's rebirth with vigilance, with confidence, and with affection. I do not know if there does exist any other small republic that can excite across nine thousand miles such ardent interest and affection as that I find in so many of the cities, of the states of this great republic. Let us then fortify this, our partnership. Let us guard it against criticism. There are few more moving encounters than that which brought America and Israel together in the past decade in so many acts of statesmanship, this partnership between the two countries, one vast and powerful, the other small and weak but with significance in the intangible values of history.

"It is to the strengthening of this partnership as an element for the peace and stability of the Middle East, it is to that strength in gratitude this morning that the blessings of the Holy City of Jerusalem attend your labors as you go about your work for the safety, the strength, and the dignity of the State of Washington and the United States of America." (Applause.)

Following the address, the President of the Senate instructed the committee consisting of Senators Cowen and Wall, and Representatives Dore and McDermott to come forward and escort Ambassador Aba Eban and Governor Langlie from the rostrum to the Governor's office.

The committee retired.

The Speaker resumed the chair.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zednick:

"This is the highest ranking motion—a motion for consideration. Everyone knows what bill it is. I think the question of consideration, as raised by Senator Hall, should be considered at this time."

"As many as are in favor of the question of consideration will say 'aye'; those opposed 'no.'"

"I want to amend my answer to Senator Rosellini. I know that this deprives kindergartens of state support. It does not do away with kindergartens."

President Anderson explained the vote:

"A vote 'aye' will allow the question to be before the Senate. A vote 'no' does not."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

President Pro Tempore Zednick:

"Gentlemen of the Senate, I am of the opinion that this sort of procedure is contrary to the provisions of the constitution. Until today I have never seen this happen before. What is to prevent a Senator being away for half a day and coming in and requesting that his vote be recorded on a number of roll calls?

"I think I will take it on myself to rule that the voting, if you are not within the bar of the Senate at the time your name is called, is out of order. I am sure it is unconstitutional and causes constant confusion."

Senator Gallagher:

"I agree with the Chair. I don't know of this happening before today, and I am sure the Senate will agree with the Chair in your ruling."

"Gentlemen of the Senate, I have the pleasure and privilege at this time to present the Senior Senator from the State of Washington to you, the Senators of the State of Washington. I am happy now to present the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson."

United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson:

"Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate.

"I first of all want to say how deeply I appreciate the warmth of your welcome here today. I see many old friends on both sides of the aisle. I notice that Davey Cowen, in taking me to the rostrum, took me around the left side. In looking over this group I was checking on both sides of the aisle, because twenty-two years ago I was a member of the House of Representatives of this state. I think the only one left, who was here at that time, is Davey Cowen, and I am glad to shake his hand. I think there are one or two over there in the House.

"I just want to come and say 'Hello'. I know how busy you are this session with many important problems such as we have in the United States Senate. I might say, Mr. President, that the division here is about the same as the United States Senate, only in reverse. But it does mean that all of us—not as Republicans, not as Democrats, but as good Americans—should work together on many things. And I have always found there were more areas of agreement than disagreement in legislative bodies.

"I have spent most of my life in legislative bodies. I sometimes wonder why we spend so much time in legislative bodies, because I do know the work you have to do. You have many state problems—taxes, highways, schools, and the same problems as present themselves to the Congress of the United States.

"We try to be helpful to all the states of the Union, and I try to be as helpful with your problems in the State of Washington as I can. The problems of the State Senate, as well as the United States Senate, are the same except in one respect—international relations. I know you will come out of the session doing a good job for the people of Washington, and not just a good job for a political party.

"We in the Senate, on international matters, appreciate that there again we can all work together and do the best job we know how in a very troubled world.

"If there is any help I can be of to you, I know you will call on me. I refer to those problems that correlate between the State of Washington and the Federal Government.

"I thank you very much again for your kind hospitality, and appreciate you allowing me to come into the Washington State Senate, and I hope I can reciprocate some day when you come back to Washington, by having you come into the United States Senate."

The Secretary read:

"Sec. 42. Section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1950 extraordinary session as last amended by section 4, chapter 91, Laws of 1953 and section 2, chapter 195, Laws of 1953 (heretofore codified as RCW 82.04.220, 82.04.230 and 82.04.240 through 82.04.290) is divided and amended as set forth in sections 2 through 9 of this act.

"Sec. 43. (RCW 82.04.220) There is levied and shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities. Such tax shall be measured by the application of rates against value of products, gross proceeds of sales, or gross income of the business, as the case may be.

"Sec. 44. (RCW 82.04.230) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as an extractor; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, extracted for sale or for commercial or industrial use, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent;

"The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so extracted regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

"Sec. 45. (RCW 82.04.240) Upon every person except persons taxable under subsection (2) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in business as a manufacturer; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products, including byproducts, manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

"The measure of the tax is the value of the products, including byproducts, so manufactured regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries may be made to points outside the state.

"Sec. 46. (RCW 82.04.250) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of making sales at retail; as to such persons, the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the business, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

"Sec. 47. (RCW 82.04.260) (1) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of buying wheat, oats, corn and barley, but not including any manufactured or processed products thereof, and selling the same at wholesale; the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of one one-hundredth of one percent.

"(2) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing wheat into flour; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

"Sec. 48. (RCW 82.04.270) Upon every person except persons taxable under subsection (1) of RCW 82.04.260 engaging within this state in the business of making sales at wholesale; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of such business multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent. The tax imposed by this section is levied and shall be collected from every person engaged in the business of distributing in this state articles of tangible personal property, owned by them from their own warehouse or other central location in this state to two or more of their own retail stores or outlets, where no change of title or ownership occurs, the intent hereof being to impose a tax equal to the wholesaler's tax upon persons performing functions essentially comparable to those of a wholesaler, but not actually making sales: PROVIDED, That the tax designated in this section may not be assessed twice to the same person for the same article. The amount of the tax as to such persons shall be computed by multiplying one-quarter of one percent the value of the article so distributed as of the time of such distribution. The tax commission shall prescribe uniform and equitable rules for the purpose of ascertaining such value, which value shall correspond as nearly as possible to the gross proceeds from sales at wholesale in this state of similar articles of like quality and character, and in similar quantities by other taxpayers.

"Sec. 49. (RCW 82.04.280) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of: (1) Printing, and of publishing newspapers, periodicals or magazines; (2) Building, repairing or improving any publicly owned street, place, road, highway, bridge or trestle which is used, or to be used, primarily for foot or vehicular traffic; as to such persons, the amount of tax on such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

"Sec. 50. (RCW 82.04.290) Upon every person engaging within this state in any business activity other than or in addition to those enumerated in RCW 82.04.230, 82.04.235, 82.04.240, 82.04.250, 82.04.260, 82.04.270 and 82.04.280; as to such persons the amount of tax on account of such activities shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of one-half of one percent. This section includes, among others, and without limiting the scope hereof (whether or not title to materials used in the performance of such business passes to another by accession, confusion or other than by outright sale), persons engaged in the business of rendering any type of service which does not constitute a 'sale at retail' or a 'sale at wholesale.'"

United States to call a convention for proposing the following Article as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States in lieu of Article V:

"Article

Section 1. The Congress, whenever two thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this Constitution, or on the application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States shall call a convention for proposing amendments; or the Legislature of any State whenever two thirds of each house shall deem it necessary, may propose amendments to this Constitution by transmitting to the Secretary of State of the United States and to the Secretary of State of each of the several States a certified copy of the resolution proposing the amendment, which shall be deemed submitted to the several States for ratification when certified copies of resolutions of the Legislatures of any twelve of the several States by two thirds of each house shall have been so transmitted concurring in the proposal of such amendment; which, in any case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of this Constitution when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States: Provided, That no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate.

Sec. 3. A proposal of an amendment by a State shall be inoperative unless it shall have been so concurred in within seven years from the date of the proposal. A proposed amendment shall be inoperative unless it shall have been so ratified within fifteen years from the date of its submission, or shorter period as may be prescribed in the resolution proposing the amendment.

Sec. 4. Controversies respecting the validity of an amendment shall be justiciable and shall be determined by the exercise of the judicial power of the United States."

Resolved further, That such amendment shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution of the United States when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states;

Resolved further, That as the power of the sovereign states to propose amendments to the Constitution of the United States by convention under Article V has never been exercised and no precedent exists for the calling or holding of such convention, the State of Washington hereby declares the following basic principles with respect thereto: that the power of the sovereign states to amend the Constitution of the United States under Article V is absolute; that the power of the sovereign states to propose amendments to the Constitution by convention under Article V is absolute; that the power of the sovereign states extends over such convention and the scope and control thereof and that it is within their sovereign power to prescribe whether such convention shall be general or shall be limited to the proposal of a specified amendment or of amendments in a specified field; that the exercise by the sovereign states of their power to require the calling of such convention contemplates that the applications of the several states for such convention shall prescribe the scope thereof and the essential provisions for holding the same; that the scope of such convention and the provisions for holding the same are established in and by the applications therefor by the legislatures of the two thirds majority of the several states required by Article V to call the same, and that it is the duty of the Congress to call such convention in conformity therewith; that such convention is without power to transcend, and the delegates to such convention are without power to act except within, the limitations and provisions so prescribed;

Resolved further, That such convention shall be called and held in conformity with the following limitations and provisions, and that the Congress, in the call for such convention, hereby is requested to and shall prescribe:

(1) That such convention shall be held in the city of Philadelphia, in the state of Pennsylvania, on the first Monday of the first December following transmission to the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of applications for such convention by the legislatures of two thirds of the several states and, in honor of the nation's founders and for invocation, shall convene at Constitution Hall, at Independence Square, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock in the morning of such day, and thereupon adjourn to more commodious quarters within said city for session as the convention shall determine;

(2) That the several states shall have equal suffrage at such convention; that each of the several states shall be entitled to three delegates thereat and that each of such delegates shall be entitled to one vote; that the delegates to such convention from the several states shall be the highest officer of the senate and the highest officer of the house of representatives of their respective legislatures at the time of such convention, except that in states where the lieutenant governor is president of the senate, the president of the senate pro tem or other highest officer from the membership of the senate shall be such delegate from the senate and in states having a unicameral legislature the two highest officers of its legislature shall be such delegates, which two delegates in each of the several states shall jointly designate a citizen of such state at large who shall be the third delegate from such state to such convention; that in case of a vacancy in the office of any delegate during such convention, not otherwise filled pursuant to law or by legislative act or as herein provided, such vacancy shall be filled by the governor of such state from the senate or house of its legislature or the state at large, respectively, as the case may be; that during such vacancy and during the absence of a delegate from the floor of the convention the delegates present from such state shall be empowered to exercise the vote of the absent delegate or delegates from such state; that the legislature of any state may choose its delegates to such convention, other than hereinabove designated, in which case the delegates so chosen shall be certified to the convention by the secretary of state of such state and shall constitute the delegates of such state at such convention in lieu of the delegates otherwise hereinabove designated.

(3) That such convention shall be limited and restricted specifically to the consideration and proposal of such amendment to Article V, the choosing of officers and adoption of rules of procedure for the conduct of such convention and the maintenance of order thereat, the determination of any issue respecting the seating of delegates, adjournment from day to day and to a day certain and from place to place within said city as may be convenient, and adjournment sine die; and such convention shall not be held for any other purpose nor have any other power, and the delegates thereto shall have no power other than within the limitations herein prescribed;

(4) That a permanent record shall be made of the proceedings of such convention, which shall be certified by the secretary of the convention, the original of which shall be placed in the Library of Congress and printed copies of which shall be transmitted to the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress, to the secretary of state of the United States, and to each house of the legislature and to the secretary of state of each of the several states;

(5) That the powers of such convention shall be exercisable by the states, represented at such convention by duly constituted delegates thereat, by majority vote of the states present and voting on such proposal, and not otherwise;

Resolved further, That this application shall constitute a continuing application for such convention under Article V of the Constitution of the United States until the legislatures of two thirds of the several states shall have made like applications and such convention shall have been called and held in conformity therewith, unless the Congress itself propose such amendment within the time and the manner herein provided;

Resolved further, That proposal of such amendment by the Congress and its submission for ratification to the legislatures of the several states in the form of the article hereinabove specifically set forth, at any time prior to sixty days after the legislatures of two thirds of the several states shall have made application for such convention, shall render such convention unnecessary and the same shall not be held; otherwise such convention shall be called and held in conformity with such applications;

Resolved further, That as this application under Article V of the Constitution of the United States is the exercise of a fundamental power of the sovereign states under the Constitution of the United States, it is requested that receipt of this application by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States be officially noted and duly entered upon their respective records, and that the full context of this resolution be published in the official publication of both the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress; and

Resolved further, That certified copies of this resolution be transmitted forthwith to the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States, to each senator and representative in the Congress from this state, and to the secretary of state of the United States, and to each house of the legislature and to the secretary of state of each of the several states, attesting the adoption of this resolution by the legislature of this state.

REPORT

February 28, 1955.

To: The Senate Committee on Claims, Auditing and Employment
From: Herbert H. Sieler, Secretary of the Senate

Covering the items contained in the motion of Senator Lindsay, your Secretary reports as follows:

1. (a) Total salaries for balance of session. If the session should run into overtime, for each additional calendar day add approximately $1,900.00 per day $49,931.25
- (b) Post session employment will depend upon the amount of work to be done; the amounts the Committee on Employment and the Senate may decide. The cost can only be measured by experience of the past sessions. Last session the post session payroll amounted to 16,224.25
- (c) The pre-session employment for the opening of the 1957 Legislature is estimated at $5,000.00. The pre-session employment for the present session amounted to 5,600.00
2. Telephone and and telegraph charges for the first 20 days of the session amounts to $1,223.00. Long distance calls since the first of February are running 50% higher than in January, from which an estimate is derived amounting to $3,600.00 or a total of 4,823.00

Postage for members, per Senate resolution was $1,470.00, and postage for mailing bills and final records was $500.00, or a total of	1,970.00
3. Travel expenses. The only travel expenses ever incurred during the Legislative Session is by some members of the Senate, and the amounts are negligible.
4. Other 1957 pre-session expenses, such as supplies, cannot be definitely determined, but is estimated at	2,000.00
5. Miscellaneous expenses cover supplies and services rendered by other than employees; the Senate contribution to the Retirement Fund. Bills of the present session remaining unpaid, as of this date, amount to	5,067.62
Retirement contribution estimated in the report to the committee on Appropriations was listed with miscellaneous expenses. Based upon the number subject to the State Retirement System brings the Senate's contribution to approximately	7,395.00
6. Officers and employees of the Senate receiving $25.00 or more a day are as follows:
Paul AlexanderReading Clerk	$25.00
Agnes BarchusMinute Clerk	27.50
Marie BloomClerk Roads and Bridges	25.00
Vaughan BrownCaucus Attorney	45.00
John BuckSergeant-at-Arms	45.00

Stuart W. ToddCaucus Attorney	45.00
Roy F. TrolsonClerk Judiciary	30.00
Fred WillsDocket Clerk and Supervisor of Index.....	35.00
Robert A. YothersAttorney	45.00

Each have been paid up to and including the 35th day of the session, leaving 25 days of the session. The number of days each employee will receive during the post session period will be determined by the Committee on Claims, Auditing and Employment.

The figures given you herein total $93,011.12 which leaves less than $7,000.00 for any possible errors in the estimate or for contingencies.

$93,011.12

It seems rather unfair to quote figures which make it appear that the cost of operating the Senate exceeds the cost of operating the House of Representatives. During the past biennium, according to figures received from the State Auditor, the Senate expended $179,422.01, whereas the expenses by the House amounted to $199,573.97, the Senate expenses being $20,000.00 less. Upon the passage of House Bill 436, in its present form, the Senate would have an appropriation of $180,000.00 compared with the appropriation of the House of $211,000.00 or $31,000.00 less than the House appropriation.

The amount of the Senate appropriation could have been reduced had not the Legislative Council expended more than $11,000.00 out of legislative expense appropriation. These expenditures were made out of the legislative appropriation notwithstanding the fact the Legislative Council had a separate appropriation and the council had agreed not to draw on the legislative appropriation.

(signed) HERBERT H. SIELER.

COMMITTEE'S FINDINGS

We, your Committee on Claims, Auditing and Employment, find this report correct.

We further report that all expenditures and salaries have been approved by Senate or Senate Committee and that since the convening of this session, salaries and expenditures have been made upon the approval of your committee. We will meet before the end of this session to authorize the necessary expenses for post session and interim period. Effort will be made to complete the work with a minimum of expense. The pre-session expense of the 1957 session will be approved on the same basis.

"I have always wanted to give the Lieutenant Governor some rhubarb, and so I am going to present to him today a beautiful rhubarb plant from the Sumner Rhubarb Growers Association.

"Mr. President, here is a hill of Sumner Hot House Rhubarb, which I want to present to you."

The Honorable S. K. Banerji:

"I give you greetings from India. I give you greetings from a country which is far away from you in distance, but is close in ideas. We in India would be entirely familiar with proceedings of a Senate Chamber like this, and with the acceptance of a majority vote. In fact, these are the principles taken from democratic countries.

"We have tremendous problems in our country—problems of politics, food, clothing and shelter. We have solved our food problems. We are now in the process of industrializing our country. But much more important than this is the fact that we have chosen to follow the democratic way of life; and in this respect, together with a feeling for the natural dignity of man, we in India are very close to you.

"I therefore thank you for giving me this opportunity of coming here and visiting this splendid and democratic gathering.

"I thank you."

President Anderson:

"We are glad you were able to come and pay us this short visit. And let me say that you are welcome at any time."

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

State of Washington,
Department of Public Institutions,
Olympia, Washington,
February 28, 1955.

Joint Senate-House Committee of the Thirty-fourth Legislature, State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

Senator Carlton I. Sears, Chairman, Senate Committee
Representative Andy Hess, Chairman, House Committee

Subject: Estimated Costs to Carry out Provisions of House Concurrent Resolution No. 12

GENTLEMEN:

Following the brief meeting with your committee Saturday morning, February 26, the Department has prepared estimates of cost for the remodeling and furnishing of the first floor of the Legislative Building for the use of the Legislature. This estimate of costs contemplates the following:

1. On public hearing room space on the Senate side and two public hearing room spaces on the House side, each of which would have a total seating capacity of from 200 to 240 people, and each of which would be arranged for subdivision into two or three smaller hearing rooms by means of folding door partitions.
2. Office space arrangements to care for continuing legislative committee operations, such as Legislative Budget Committee, Statute Law Committee, and Bill Drafting personnel, together with facilities that may be assigned from time to time to the use of specially appointed Interim Committees.

3. The refinishing of all the spaces referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, including sound insulation treatment of the ceilings, suitable lighting throughout, sound-proof partitioning and complete redecoration.
4. Certain corrections to the system of ventilating these areas; in particular to care for ventilation of hearing rooms and interior office space areas.
5. Furnish hearing rooms with comfortable chairs of the metal folding type, and other needed office furniture thoroughly suited to office use but not in excessively expensive or what might be termed a "luxury" class.
6. Re-equip the present elevators now serving the Legislative Chambers for faster and more convenient operation by reason of automatically opened car and carport doors and with automatically operated floor stop and leveling devices.

Admittedly, these estimates of cost are on a closely approximated basis by reason of the limited time in which the Department and your committee have had to review suggested arrangements. For your information, we have broken this estimate down into its general component parts. However, for the purpose of manageability may I suggest that such appropriation as may be made to the Department to cover this work be made in a lump sum with sufficient flexibility to care for additions or deductions in the presently contemplated layout.

Estimated costs for foregoing are as follows:

1. Revision of the present elevator equipment.....	$110,000
2. Accoustical treatment	10,000
3. Partitioning and plastering.....	15,000
4. Lighting	15,000
5. Painting	10,000
6. Folding doors in hearing rooms.....	4,000
7. Corrections to ventilation.....	10,000
8. Equipment and furniture.....	30,000
9. Construction supervision and contingencies.....	25,000

Quite frankly, some of these items may be trimmed down on getting actual bids for the work. However, there may be other needs become apparent as the work progresses which would be offsetting.

Respectfully yours,

H. D. VAN EATON, Director.

Senator Zednick seconded the motion.

Extended debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Clark:

"A few days ago I received a letter from the Chairman of the Revenue and Taxation Committee in the House. This morning I noticed part of it in the Seattle P. I. This letter really amazed me. I would like to read one passage: 'Under the circumstances I can only urge that you apply the utmost speed in your consideration of the appropriation bill.'

"I don't know why the Senate should apply any speed. They have not applied much speed in the House. Even no effort was made. Why don't he adjust his tax measure to fit the appropriation bill? I can see no reason for this group to be in extreme speed to pass a bill to satisfy the whim of the Revenue and Taxation Committee of the House. Certainly I take exception to his letter and to the article in the paper. I think it is up to the House to pass the taxation matters.

"I cannot understand why politics has to be dragged into every nook and cranny of every bill passed or considered by this legislature. I have the utmost regard for my friend, Mr. Olson, in the House. I said: 'Ole, I would like to see you pass a bill that we can get through the Senate without going to conference.' And he said, 'It cannot be done.'

"Last Sunday, a week ago, I saw Mr. Olson at dinner, and he informed me we would need ten days additional time to consider these bills. I want to go on record as saying the necessity for an extra session has come entirely from the House."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bargreen:

"I feel that had the Governor furnished us with a budget the first day of the session, the House would have had sufficient time to get the budget bill over here, and we would have had proper time to study the bill. I do not feel the House should take the entire responsibility for the delay, and under the circumstances we should go right to the base of our trouble. I feel that the trouble is because of the delay, not of the House, but because the Governor did not send his budget to us sooner."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Clark:

"I would like to answer Senator Bargreen.

"It is required that the budgets of the different departments be in the hands of the Director of the Budget by Labor Day. One department has always refused, and only submitted his budget between Christmas and New Years. How can the budget be prepared if the heads of the departments do not get in their budget request in time?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bargreen:

"I believe Senator Clark has reference to the office of the Secretary of State. I contacted our Secretary of State and he advised me he had turned in his request to Mr. Brabrook. The blame is not altogether on the part of the Governor."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Goodloe:

"I cannot understand how the Democrats of the House can blame the Governor for not getting his bill in. I was over at the House the night the budget bill was passed, and it was the most disgraceful affair I have ever seen. It was nothing less than pork barrel tactics."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lindsay:

"Regardless of whether they were Democrats or Republicans, I criticize them. I feel the House deserves criticism for sending us over such a bill.

"They did not do their job over in the House. I think Senator Clark is right in his remarks, and right in being disturbed with the action of the House and some of the publicity that has been in the papers.

"I think Senator Clark is trying to do a reasonable job in the State of Washington, and believe me, he has my support and the support of several other Democrats in the Senate."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive:

The President:

"Nothing. This discussion has been under Personal Privilege."

Senator Hall moved that House Bill No. 540 be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zednick:

"The motion has already carried that it be placed at the foot of the calendar."

Senator Hall:

"A motion is made nearly every day to advance a bill to another place on the calendar."

Senator Greive:

"May I point out, it comes under Rule 46."

Senator Zednick:

"I believe that only applies when the bill is on second reading."

Senator Greive (reads):

"Provided, however, that by a vote of the majority of the senate any bill may be advanced to any place on the calendar."

Senator Riley:

"My point would be that the rule provides you can move a bill any place on the calendar."

Senator Greive:

"The question is, do you have jurisdiction over the bill?"

Senator Hall:

"In order to prevent argument, I move that House Bill No. 540 be placed before us for consideration at this time."

On motion of Senator Hoff, Senator Hall's motion was laid on the table.

"So that there may be no question in the future as to the intent of the legislature, I would like to ask Senator Wall if the appropriation which is in this bill is to be used for the general operation of the Power Commission and also for the study of plants and hydro-electric generators.

"I would like to have my remarks incorporated in the journal."

Senator Lindsay:

"I think if something is to be entered in the journal it must be placed in writing and be approved by the Senate. I don't think any remarks from the floor should be placed in the journal unless they are in writing."

President Anderson:

"I think you are right, and they should be in writing and approved within two hours."

Senator Rosellini:

"I think the journal should reflect the proceedings of the Senate, and should show the intent of the sponsors."

Senator Hoff:

"I might suggest the sponsors of this bill are not Senators.

"Senator Wall well knows the purpose of this bill. There is no need on the Senate floor to ask a known sponsor of a bill to explain the full purpose. Senator Wall has met with the Governor. There is no need on the floor of the Senate to expect anybody, not a sponsor, to explain the full purport of the bill and what the bill will do."

Senator Zednick:

"For future guidance, I don't think that the Minute Clerk is a court reporter, and I don't know whether she can get rapid conversation and the full import of the speeches made on the floor. That is the purpose of requesting that such material to be incorporated in the journal should be reduced to writing and be approved by the Senate."

Senator Hoff:

"The Supreme Court has ruled it cannot go behind the law passed by the legislature. Therefore any comments made on the floor of the Senate cannot be relied upon to show the intent of a bill.

"If we are to start this kind of a precedent, we must ask every sponsor of a bill to explain what their intent was. So I say it is out of order."

Senator Lindsay:

"They are attempting to write into the records what the intent is, and I think they are entirely out of order."

President Anderson:

"I believe if Senator Wall wishes to answer, he can."

Senator Shannon:

"I think his explanation is very fair and is quite proper. I would simply say that this amount of money is to be used for the operation of the State Power Commission."

Senators Hoff, Hall and Happy demanded the previous question.

Senator Lindsay:

"May we have a ruling?"

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

President Anderson:

"Our journal record is a record of motions and actions of the Senate, and is not a record of speeches or questions and answers."

The President:

"The chair would like to say, with reference to Senator Greive's suggestion, it may be good or may be bad. All bills are on second reading for the purpose of amendment, if any. But it is certainly a very unusual procedure to discuss bills on second reading. The proper place to discuss them is on third reading, unless the Senator making an amendment may review the entire bill in order to explain his amendment."

Senator Greive:

"I think it is only a fair proposal that somebody explain each bill, so we will know what is in the bill, in lieu of the reading."

"It is not up to the Chair to decide, except to call your attention to the fact it is an unusual procedure."

Following section 6, page 5, line 6 of the engrossed bill, being page 5, line 5 of the printed bill, add two new sections to be known as section 7 and section 8, respectively, to read as follows:

"Sec. 7. Section 81, chapter 53, Laws of 1937 and RCW 47.32.140 are each amended to read as follows:

"(RCW 47.32.140) Each railroad company shall keep its right-of-way clear of all brush and timber in the vicinity of a railroad grade crossing with a state highway for a distance of one hundred feet from the crossing in such manner as to permit a person upon the highway to obtain an unobstructed view in both directions of an approaching train. The [director] Washington state highway commission shall [keep] cause brush and timber to be cleared from the right-of-way of a state highway in the proximity of a railroad grade crossing for a distance of one hundred feet from the crossing in such a manner as to permit a person upon the highway to obtain an unobstructed view in both directions of an approaching train. It shall be unlawful to erect or maintain a sign, signboard, or billboard [at or near a state highway or railroad and within a distance of five hundred feet from the point of intersection at grade of the highway and railroad and in such a way that it may obstruct the view of a person operating a vehicle or train and approaching the crossing], except official highway signs and traffic devices and railroad warning or operating signs, at or near a grade crossing of a state highway and a railroad or within a distance of five hundred feet from the point of intersection of such highway and railroad.

"When a person who has erected or who maintains such a sign, signboard, or billboard or when a railroad company permits such brush or timber in the vicinity of a railroad grade crossing with a state highway or permits the surface of a grade crossing to become inconvenient or dangerous for passage and who has the duty to maintain it, fails, neglects, or refuses to remove or cause to be removed such brush, timber, sign, signboard, or billboard, or maintain the surface of the crossing, the public service commission upon complaint of the [director] highway commission or upon complaint of any party interested, or upon its own motion, shall enter upon a hearing in the manner now provided for hearings with respect to railroad-highway grade crossings, and make and enforce proper orders for the removal of the brush, timber, sign, signboard or billboard, or maintenance of the crossing: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prevent the posting or maintaining of any legal notice or sign, signal, or traffic device required or permitted to be posted or maintained, or the placing and maintaining thereon of highway or road signs or traffic devices giving directions or distances for the information of the public when the signs are approved by the [director] commission. The [director] commission shall inspect highway grade crossings and make complaint of the violation of any provisions of this section.

"Sec. 8. Whenever the director of highways or the governing body of any city, town or county shall deem that the public safety requires signals or other warning devices, other than sawbuck signs, at any crossing of a railroad at common grade by any state or county highway, road, street, alley, avenue, boulevard, parkway or other public place actually open and in use or to be opened and used for travel by the public, he or it shall file with the public service commission a petition in writing, alleging that the public safety requires the installation of specified signals or other warning devices at such crossing or specified changes in the method and manner of existing crossing warning devices. Upon receiving such petition, the commission shall set the matter for hearing, giving at least ten days' notice to the railroad company or companies and the county or municipality affected thereby, or the director of highways in the case of a state highway, of the time and place of such hearing. At the time and place fixed in the notice, all persons and parties interested shall be entitled to be heard and introduce evidence, which shall be reduced to writing and filed by the commission. If the commission shall find from the evidence that public safety does not require the installation of the signal, other warning device or change in the existing warning device specified in the petition, it shall make findings to that effect and enter an order denying said petition in toto. If the commission shall find from the evidence that public safety requires the installation of such signals or other warning devices at such crossing or such change in the existing warning devices at said crossing, it shall make findings to that effect and enter an order directing the installation of such signals or other warning devices or directing that such changes shall be made in existing warning devices. The commission shall also at said hearing receive evidence as to the benefits to be derived by the railroad and the public, respectively, and shall on the basis of such benefits apportion the cost of installation of such signals or other warning devices, other than sawbuck signs, between the railroad, municipality or county affected, or if the highway is a state road or parkway, between the railroad and the state: Provided, That the commission shall in no case apportion more than fifty percent of the cost of such installation or change in existing warning devices to the public body involved. Nothing herein shall be deemed to foreclose the right of the interested parties to enter into an agreement providing for the installation of signals or other warning devices at any such crossing or for the apportionment of the cost thereof. Any order entered by the public service commission under this section shall be subject to review, supersedeas and appeal as provided in RCW 81.04.170 through RCW 81.04.190."

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that the rules be suspended and we dispense with the Call of the Senate and proceed with the roll call.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lindsay:

"I think that motion is out of order, and I think Senator Greive knows it."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

Senator Zednick:

"I think that a motion would be in order to suspend the rules and excuse Senator Raugust."

Senator Hoff:

"Mr. President, Senator Raugust won't be here for another fifteen or twenty minutes."

Senator Lindsay:

"I believe, Mr. President, it is out of order to interrupt a roll call at any time."

The President Pro Tempore:

"I think that has been the practice and procedure, at least."

Senator Hall:

"Mr. President, it seems to me the Senate can suspend any rule by a two-thirds majority."

Senator Lindsay:

"I think by precedent we cannot interrupt a roll call."

The President Pro Tempore:

"I am trying to find a specific rule."

Senator Greive:

"I would like to quote from Rule 28.

"Reed's Rule says that after the first name has been called, the roll call cannot be interrupted. Reed's Rules supplement our rules; and where our rules don't govern, I think Reed's Rules do. I think Reed's Rules can be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the body."

Senator Lindsay:

"I would like to have a ruling, as to whether we can interrupt a roll call at any time."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

President Pro Tempore Zednick:

"I think a rule of the Senate can be suspended by a two-thirds vote. This is not a Senate rule, but Reed's Rule."

Senator Riley:

"I think this Senate can suspend any rule by a two-thirds majority. But there is a very strong precedent to hold inviolate, that once a roll call has been started, it cannot be interrupted."

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The President Pro Tempore:

"The Chair will hold that we will wait until Senator Raugust gets here."

APPEAL FROM THE RULING OF THE CHAIR

Senator Hoff:

"I appeal from the ruling of the Chair."

Senator Lindsay (speaking against the appeal):

"It is true there are a lot of bills you are interested in. But once this body decides not to proceed in order, we are going to be in one bad mess. It seems to me if you decide to interrupt roll calls, it will cause all sorts of confusion. A roll call should never be interrupted."

MOTION

Senator Rosellini:

"I move that we unanimously agree to dispense with the Call of the Senate.

"I think Senator Lindsay has a good point, of course, but in order to get down to the very good bills on the calendar, I move we take that action for the very practical purpose of getting that work accomplished."

Senator Wall seconded the motion.

Senator Andrews:

"I think we should look at Rule 52 which states: 'The senate may at any time, by a vote of the majority of the members present, suspend any rules and orders of the senate for the purpose of going into the committee of the whole.'"

Senator Hoff:

"I would be most humbly willing to withdraw my motion."

The President Pro Tempore:

"The question is on the motion that the Senate give unanimous consent to proceeding with the roll call."

The motion lost.

COMMUNICATION

Washington State Senate
Olympia, Wash., March 8, 1955.

Dear Lieutenant Governor Anderson:

We would like to thank you and the Senate for your cooperation with us in the Mock Session. We had fun planning and carrying it out and got a kick out of our "pages". We appreciate the fact that the Senators delayed their evening session for our benefit.

Would you please convey our thanks to the Senate?

Sincerely,
The Pages.

MOTION

Senator Lindsay:

"I move that the Senate convey its thanks, on record, to the Pages for the fine job they did and make their letter a part of our journal."

The motion carried.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Senator McMullen:

"I would like to make just a brief remark, and have it noted in the journal, that a former member of the Senate passed away in Vancouver this afternoon. I refer to Judge Charles Wilbur Hall.

"He was born in Ashbula County, Iowa, and came to Clark County as a boy. He was a graduate of the University of Washington law school in 1908, and served on the Superior Court bench since 1937. He was a member of the Spanish-American War Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Vancouver Rotary Club, the Elks Lodge and St. Luke's Episcopal Church.

"He was a member of the House in 1924 and 1926, and in 1928 was elected to serve in the Senate. He was well thought of by all who knew him. He was the most able and sincere Judge I have ever seen serve on the Superior Court bench. I know his loss will be greatly felt by all who knew him."

President Anderson:

"In recognition of the former Senator Hall, I will ask you to rise at the sound of the gavel, and stand for a moment of silence."

Members of the Senate stood for one moment of silence in tribute to former Senator Hall.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wall:

"We have a distinguished guest from Washington, D. C., in Olympia. I would like to have him escorted to the rostrum and be introduced to the Senate."

President Anderson:

"Senator Wall, will you kindly join with Senator Shannon and the Sergeant-at-Arms and escort our distinguished visitor to the rostrum?"

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the arrival of the Under-Secretary of Commerce, Walter W. Williams, at the door of the Senate Chamber.

President Anderson:

"Senator Wall, will you present our distinguished visitor to the Senate?"

Senator Wall:

"Mr. President, Members of the Senate:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to introduce to you the Under-Secretary of Commerce, from Washington, D. C., Mr. Walter W. Williams." (Applause.)

Mr. Walter W. Williams:

"Mr. President and my friends of the Washington Senate:

"I cannot possibly tell you how delighted I am to be here. I want you to know I appreciate it very much indeed.

"This Washington, D. C., life is a complicated venture, both as to day life and night life. I realize I am standing now before an audience composed of both parties. I think that while perhaps this night life may have its difficult aspects, it also has its beneficial aspects, because there we have the opportunity to mix and become acquainted not only with our own party, but with the opposite party as well. I personally have had the pleasure to have met with people on the opposite sides of the aisle, and I think that is a very great gain, because you come to know each other better.

"Another place where I have seen this two-party system work is before committee hearings. But you would be amazed how penetrating the questions are, and how genuinely of interest the questions are, from both sides; and I have developed a rather profound respect for our two-party system of government. They study hard on these committees, and therefore they do ask intelligent questions. And, frankly, I wish to state where the questions have been highly political, they have been relatively few and far between.

"Of course, in our two-party system we are always going to have differing viewpoints. We sometimes have those within our own party. But I am very much gratified to know that in these difficult times, there is a commonness of purpose on both sides of the aisle. The ultimate goal is just as much the property of one party as of the other. I am gratified to see how well this commonness of purpose is working.

"Of course we have in our two-party system those things that are in common, and one of them is the preservation of our national security and the development of our productivity. And to the extent that we can see clearly and objectively those things where we can work together as teams, to that extent I think we are going to be making a maximum contribution to our national productivity." (Applause.)

President Anderson:

"Thank you, Mr. Walter Williams. I am glad he mentioned that our great country has these two strong political parties.

"Mr. Williams, we enjoyed your remarks immensely, and I want you to know you are always welcome to the Washington State Senate."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hall:

"I was under the impression we had a joint rule that 'no bills except appropriation or revenue measures would be considered after the fifty-eighth day.'"

President Anderson:

"Don't you think the concurrent resolution would supersede that rule? The concurrent resolution authorized the introduction of the bill itself."

Senator Hall:

"I will withdraw any objection if the Chair will rule it is in order."

Senator Dixon:

"I think that to be in order it is necessary to call it a concurrent resolution."

Senator Greive:

"I would suggest that it almost has to be a concurrent resolution."

President Anderson:

"There was a Concurrent Resolution No. 24 which was adopted, authorizing the introduction of this bill."

The President declared the question to be on the motion by Senator Goodloe.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hoff, the Senate recessed until 10:15 p. m.

The President called the Senate to order.

The President:

"Will Senator Sutherland and Senator Sears escort Senator Peterson to the rostrum?"

Senator Peterson:

"Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

"I stand before you this evening, Gentlemen of the Senate and Mr. President, in appreciation of the way you accepted me into your wonderful group here. I came down here very green. I did some studying before I came down here. I am not sure it did much good. The things that I have gained through such association are the things I deeply appreciate.

"You might say we had some factions here, and I appreciate the way the gentlemen on the other side of the aisle accepted me. I have become accustomed to respecting you gentlemen. I know some things have gone on to enlighten us, but all have been in the nature to be uplifting to me. At this time I want to say 'thanks' to the pages, the telephone girls, and the people who have been assisting us in the wonderful things we have done.

"And now in appreciation, Mr. President, of the wonderful things you have done, this being the last day of the session, I want to make a presentation to you of a little gift from all the members of the Senate here. I am glad to see Mrs. Anderson sitting in the balcony. I know you will have places for this. I might say it comes from our hearts, and we want to say to you and to your future—'God bless you, and may you keep going.'"

President Anderson:

"Senator Peterson and Members of the State Senate:

"I would like words to express my gratitude for the thought behind this check, and I do say I am grateful for the very distinct feeling of friendship that has prevailed since we opened this session January tenth. I cannot help but think that two years ago when I was handed the gavel, I was scared to death. You knew it, and I certainly knew it.

"As this association has gone on with the acquaintanceships and friendships I have made, I want to congratulate each and every one of you for the manner in which you have accepted the other fellow's opinions.

"I am very happy and very grateful for this check. There is only one bad feature about it. The check is made out to my wife, and I probably would not get in on very much except to just deposit it to my account.

"It is a pleasure to receive it, and I very greatly appreciate it.

"I had intended before adjournment to say something of this nature, but this is a better time to make the remarks."

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON SENATE BILLS VETOED OR PARTIALLY VETOED

March 16, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to subsection 3 of section 1, Senate Bill No. 82, entitled:

"An Act relating to the civil defense of the state of Washington; amending section 13, chapter 178, Laws of 1951, and RCW 38.52.110 (1953 Supp.); and repealing section 21, chapter 178, Laws of 1951."

Subsection 3 would make the ground observer corps a part of the state civil defense organization. The proviso to that subsection would prohibit the personnel of any ground observer corps from participating in compensation benefits from death or injury occurring in the course of their activities in such civil defense work.

It seems to me that the item is unsound for two reasons.

- (A) The ground observer corps is a separate and distinct organization from the civil defense organization. It is under the operational control of the Air Force, while the civil defense organization is under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Governor. The administrative difficulties in coordinating a program under dual jurisdiction would be most burdensome. Furthermore, the question of the extent of financial responsibility of the state civil defense organization is left undetermined.
- (B) The provision, as drafted, is also unsound in its direct application to the ground observer corps personnel. The proviso which prohibits benefit coverage for death or injury is discriminatory and unfair to those workers as compared to other civil defense personnel.

In my opinion, subparagraph (3) is not in the best interests of the civil defense organization, or the people of the state. For the reasons stated above, subsection 3, of section 1 of Senate Bill No. 82 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE,
Governor.

March 22, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

Returned herewith, without my approval, is Senate Bill No. 101, entitled:

“An Act relating to capital land grant lands; and making an appropriation.”

This bill directs the state sustained yield forest number one committee to make an inventory and appraisal of capitol land grant lands for the purpose of evaluating the condition, value, and timber-raising or Christmas-tree-raising potential of such lands. It appropriates twenty-five thousand dollars for such purpose.

I am unable to see any possible benefit from such a survey unless and until the state is prepared to follow it up with some definite long range program of forest management. At the present time, no adequate program exists. A complete survey of capitol grant timber and resources was presented to the capitol committee on September 27, 1954, and it is very doubtful that a new survey could add materially to the information contained in that report. Under such circumstances, the money spent upon such a survey may well be wasted. Furthermore, there is not sufficient money in the capitol building construction fund to finance the program in any event.

For these reasons, Senate Bill No. 101 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLIE,
Governor.

March 15, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Senate Bill No. 111, entitled:

“An Act relating to judges in the superior courts in certain counties; amending section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 and RCW 2.08.061; and declaring an emergency.” Section 2 provides that:

“Of the two additional judges for King county as provided for in section 1 of this act, one judge shall be appointed by the governor immediately to hold office as provided in RCW 2.08.069 and the other judge shall be elected at the next general election.”

An emergency clause is added to the bill by section 3.

This bill creates by section 1, two additional judicial offices in King County. As noted, section 2 postpones until the next general election the filling of one of these offices. This provision, in my opinion, violates article

4, section 5 of our state constitution which provides that the Governor shall fill vacancies in judicial offices by appointment. In addition to this infringement of the constitutional mandate vesting the power of judicial appointment in the executive, there is a conflict between the intent expressed by the emergency clause and the postponement of the filling of one of the two offices created. If there is a need for two additional judges in King County, they are needed now. On the other hand, if there is a need presently for only one additional judge, it would not seem to be the business of this legislature to predict what the need may be two years hence respecting another judge. This more properly is a matter for the decision of the next legislature.

I realize that the effect of the veto of section 2 of this bill would advance the time of the judicial vacancy of the second position by almost two years. I entertain some doubt as to whether this may or may not constitute an act of affirmative legislation. Consequently I do not intend to make any appointment to the second position. If this veto has such an affirmative effect and is therefore invalid, the original bill would stand as passed. This would still leave open the question of whether or not the act is invalid as an unconstitutional infringement upon the appointive power of the Chief Executive. This is a judicial question and I make no effort to resolve it. In my opinion, at least to the extent that the legislature intended to create one immediate additional judicial office in King County, the legislative intent is clear. Beyond that I consider both the intent and the legal effect of this act to be somewhat doubtful.

For these reasons section 2 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLIE,
Governor.

March 22, 1955.

To the Honorable Earl Coe,
Secretary of State,
Olympia, Washington

Dear Mr. Coe:

I am transmitting, without my signature, Senate Bill No. 119, entitled:

"An Act relating to motor vehicles; altering procedure and penalties where defendant is charged with driving under the influence of liquor or drugs; requiring the director of licenses to furnish abstracts of driving records; enlarging jurisdiction of justices of the peace and police court judges; prescribing penalties; and amending section 65, chapter 188, Laws of 1937 and RCW 46.20.250, section 15, chapter 196, Laws of 1949 and RCW 46.52.100, and section 4, chapter 196, Laws of 1949 and RCW 46.56.010 and adding new sections."

Several agencies of the state government have advised me that this bill may result in poorer enforcement procedures as far as drunken drivers are concerned. However, there is evidence that some prosecutors and judges feel that this measure will make possible a more just administration of the law and will not adversely affect the safety of our citizenry on the highways. In view of the conflict of opinion, and the inability to come to any definite conclusions in this matter, I have decided that the law can be given a two year trial, and then perhaps constructive amendments may be enacted if enforcement weaknesses develop.

For the reasons mentioned, I am allowing Senate Bill No. 119 to become law without my signature.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLIE,
Governor.

March 15, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 142, entitled:

"An Act relating to revenue and taxation; and amending section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1943 and RCW 82.44.040."

This bill was passed with an erroneous citation embodied in the act. The error was corrected and the bill was passed again as Substitute Senate Bill No. 471. For this reason Senate Bill No. 142 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLIE,
Governor.

March 22, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 343, entitled:

"An Act relating to the department of fisheries, food fish and shellfish; and amending section 41, chapter 207, Laws of 1953 and RCW 75.28.325; adding a new section to chapter 75.28 RCW."

This bill would permit custom canneries to intermingle different quality fish and deliver to the customer canned fish on the basis of quantity rather than identity. Section 2 of the bill requires each canner to pay the same privilege fee for sport canning which is imposed upon commercial canning. This is not possible because of the method used in computing the tax. The privilege fee applicable to commercial fish canning is based upon the primary value of the fish and there is no such value for game fish landed by sport fishermen.

The burden of administering the act is placed upon the Department of Fisheries. It would be extremely difficult for the Department to properly administer the act, since it would require continuous checking and inspection. There are a great many varieties of fish of different quality, any or all of which may be in the possession of a cannery at a given time. In order to establish adequate safeguards against the exchange of inferior quality canned fish and superior quality raw fish, it would be necessary for the Department to set up extensive regulations and inspection procedures. The revenue to be derived from the license and privilege fees included in this act are grossly inadequate to cover the additional administrative cost.

For these reasons, Senate Bill No. 343 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE,
Governor.

March 15, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 8, Senate Bill No. 366, entitled:

"An Act relating to absentee ballots; amending sections 1 through 5, chapter 41, Laws of 1933 extraordinary session, as last amended by section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1950 extraordinary session and RCW 29.36.010 through 29.36.070; declaring an emergency."

Section 8 is a reenactment of RCW 29.36.070 which relates to the canvassing of absentee ballots and the modification of election returns upon a precinct basis. This section was reenacted as part of this bill for technical reasons adopted by the codifier. This section, however, was amended by this legislature in section 3 of House Bill No. 341, heretofore signed into law and now known as chapter 50, Laws of 1955. That act amended RCW 29.56.070 by providing for the canvassing of absentee ballots and the modification of election returns on the basis of legislative districts rather than precincts.

For the reasons stated, section 8 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE,
Governor.

March 18, 1955

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 370, entitled:

“An Act relating to cities and towns; and amending section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1933, as last amended by section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1953, and RCW 35.50.030, 35.50.040 and 35.50.060 through 35.50.210.”

Section 2 of this bill makes the following changes in our existing law with respect to the foreclosure of delinquent local improvement assessment or installments thereof, to wit: (1) Increases the number of installments which must be delinquent before foreclosure may be instituted from two to four installments; (2) Increases the period during which such assessment or installments thereof must be delinquent as a condition to the institution of foreclosure from one to four years.

The foregoing changes apply only to cities of the first class, and the provisions of the existing law shall continue to apply to all other cities and towns.

There is nothing in the recent history of local improvement assessment foreclosures or in our existing law which in my judgment indicates or justifies any change extending the time within which a city may take the necessary action to collect delinquent assessments. The present law provides as does this bill that the owner of the property subject to foreclosure or other person having redemption rights shall have a period of two years from the date of any local improvement assessment foreclosure sale within which to redeem the property foreclosed.

I am convinced that if this measure should be approved it would have the effect of weakening the security behind LID bonds because of the increase in the possibility that necessary money to redeem the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds would not be available upon maturity. This, in turn, will undoubtedly result in an increase in the interest rates on such revenue bonds and an increase in the amount of interest required to be paid on local improvement assessments by the persons benefited. There is a further likelihood that a demand would be made for an increase in the amount of money in the guaranty funds established in connection with the issuance of this type of bond. The reasons, if any, which may obtain in support of the change in the foreclosure procedure provided by this bill are scarcely sufficient in my judgment to risk such adverse effects upon LID bonds.

For the reasons stated herein, Senate Bill No. 370 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLEY,
Governor.

March 22, 1955.

To the Honorable
The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 400, entitled:

“An Act relating to superior court judges; amending sections 4 and 6, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 and RCW 2.08.062 and 2.08.064; and declaring an emergency.”

This bill combines the counties of Clark, Klickitat and Skamania into one judicial district and provides three Superior Court judges for the new district. Cowlitz County, which is now a part of the judicial district of which Klickitat and Skamania Counties form the other two parts, is by this bill, converted into a separate judicial district, with a provision for two judges. The effect of the measure is to add one Superior Court judge for the new judicial district to be made up of Clark, Klickitat and Skamania Counties.

The creation of another judgeship for these counties would necessitate the construction of new courtroom facilities and the employment of a complete courtroom staff in addition to the salary for the additional judge. This would create quite a heavy financial burden upon such counties over and above that now being carried. It is an area of the state in which the population will probably increase substantially in the near future. However, it is not anticipated that the increase will be so sudden or so great as to require the immediate creation of this new post. If, at the time of the next legislative session, the need has become great enough to justify the new position, it may be created then. I do not believe the facts justify this creation at this time.

For the reasons stated herein, Senate Bill No. 400 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE,
Governor.

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR ARTHUR B. LANGLIE TO THE LEGISLATURE

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Legislature:

When you started the deliberations of the Thirty-fourth Regular Session two months ago, all of us realized that the seriousness of the problems to be met and the volume of work to be done would make it extremely difficult to complete your task within the sixty days allowed by the Constitution. Only once in the last quarter-century has the Washington Legislature been able to stay within the time limit, which was set in territorial days.

A few days ago it became apparent that it would be impossible, prior to the scheduled adjournment of the Regular Session, to reconcile the varying views on the appropriations and revenues needed during the next two years and to adopt a financial program which would match income with outgo.

Knowing that a continuation of the Regular Session beyond the scheduled date of adjournment would be of doubtful legality, leaders of both Houses met with me, at my request, and an understanding was reached to convene a special session immediately for the purpose of considering and adopting appropriations for the next biennium and of passing tax measures sufficient to balance the budget.

We all recognize that the rapid growth of our state during the past 15 years requires expenditures which are higher than would be needed in a state with a stable population. On the other hand, there is a limitation on the rate at which the tax burden can be increased without becoming an impediment to future growth and development.

After a careful evaluation of the original departmental requests and after considering the size of the additional load that could be imposed upon our citizens, I recommended to you a budget that would require $41 million in additional taxes.

I still believe that the component parts and the total of this budget are realistic and that it distributes the state funds fairly and equitably among the various state functions. I am proposing only one adjustment. The recommendation for state school support was based on a projection by the State Census Board of an enrollment increase of about 40,000 children in the basic grades. The Census Board, since the Legislature convened, has revised its earlier estimates upward to about 45,000 pupils. The cost of educating an additional 5,000 children for two years equals $3 million. I am proposing that the state assume this cost and raise the school appropriation to $167 million.

The amount of additional state taxes required by this budget is $44 million. I believe that this amount will be sufficient to meet the basic needs of the people of this state and at the same time will keep the rate of tax increase in check so as not to imperil the economy of our state. It is of course your privilege to increase some of the appropriations which I have recommended if you feel that the citizens of Washington are willing to pay a substantial tax increase to meet the cost.

There would be no point in my re-outlining here the requests I made of you earlier. I sincerely trust that you will review once again my Legislative Message and recommended budget. In that message I outlined possible revenue measures which I shall be happy to discuss with your committees at your convenience.

Your leaders expressed their wish to me that this Special Session be restricted to the consideration of appropriations and revenues. I yield to this request reluctantly. There were, as you know, several measures of major importance before the Regular Session, some of which were acted upon by one House but did not reach the floor of the other House. I still believe that these proposals deserve full consideration by both Houses. But I also know that in opening up the field, many of you, too, may want to present bills which failed of action during the Regular Session. There is a general desire, which I share, to complete the Special Session in the shortest possible time. I see no reason why this session should not be able to accomplish its task quickly if we approach the problems before us in a spirit of true cooperation. It is time that we do. I shall exert my best efforts to work with you toward that end.

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, Governor Arthur B. Langlie, to the Governor's Chambers.

The special committee thereupon escorted the Governor from the House Chamber.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the Joint Session was dissolved.

"Make this truly a special session for them, that they may approach their tasks with a special spirit, a renewed interest and high motives.

"Let them not be content to wait and see what will happen, but give them the courage and the initiative to make the right things happen. While time is running out and problems go unsolved, save them from mistaking selfish motives or political cowardice for patience or statesmanship.

"Give them the courage to stand for their convictions, the true humility of spirit that can compromise on a program without sacrificing that which is priceless. Help them to lay aside every disguise that would hide wrong motives, that would deceive themselves. This strength of character can be theirs, if they will but turn to Thee in faith and in spirit. So guide us in what we do that Thou canst bless what is done. May it be true in our lives even as it is written on the coins about which we talk so much in this special session: 'In God we trust.' On motion of Senator Zednick, the report of the Committee was adopted.

On motion of Senator Zednick, the reading had in the Committee of the Whole was considered the second reading of House Bill No. 1.

On motion of Senator Zednick, the following amendments to House Bill No. 1 adopted in the Committee of the whole, were adopted by the Senate:

(Here follow the Committee Amendments as set forth in the printed Senate Committee Amendments to House Bill No. 1.)

Senator Rosellini:

"Mr. President, I have an amendment."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zednick:

"I think that amendments are out of order in the general appropriation bill on the floor, after the Committee of the Whole has reported."

Senator Rosellini:

"I think the rules provide it requires a two-thirds vote, but they are not out of order."

RULING OF THE PRESIDENT

President Anderson:

"Rule 65 provides: 'Bills appropriating money shall be considered in committee of the whole senate, and no change in the amount appropriated shall be made outside of the committee of the whole.'"

Senator Rosellini:

"Certainly we have a right to present any amendment by a simple suspension of the rules."

President Anderson:

"I will read the balance of the rule:

"No amendment to the general appropriation bill, commonly known as the budget, adding any new item, or items, thereto not incorporated in the bill as reported by the committee on appropriations, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the senators elected."

Senator Greive:

"May I call your attention to Rule 28:

"When the suspension of a rule is called, and after due notice from the president, no objection is offered, he may announce the rule suspended, and the senate may proceed accordingly."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zednick:

"We had two such matters up in the Committee of the Whole, and it took a two-thirds vote."

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Senator Rogers:

"I raise a question of consideration."

Senator Rosellini requested that his amendment be read.

The amendment by Senator Rosellini was read, as follows:

"Amend Sec. 2, line 9, page 24, by changing the figure to 25,000,000."

Senator Rosellini moved that the rules be suspended, for the purpose of adopting his amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rogers:

"The question of consideration has been raised. I don't think we can adopt this amendment."

Senator Rosellini:

"I think that is what we are voting on now—whether it should be considered."

Senator Zednick:

"The question of consideration is of highest rank. It really is necessary to know what the question of consideration was raised on."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive called attention to Rule 21.

Senator Rogers:

"We have had long precedent on raising a Question of Consideration, that the amendment must be read. But then you can have no subsequent debate, because the Question of Consideration is on the amendment that has just been read, and we have to decide whether this body wishes to consider it."

Senator Rosellini:

"We are not in disagreement. The amendment has been read. All we want is a roll call on the Question of Consideration."

Senator Rosellini demanded a roll call, and the demand was sustained by Senators Rogers, Washington, Winberg, Gallagher, Sutherland, Knoblauch, Bargreen and Greive.

President Anderson explained the vote as follows:

"A vote 'aye' means you are willing to consider it. A vote 'no' shows you do not."

The Secretary called the roll, and the question of consideration lost on the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 28; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting yea were: Senators Bargreen, Dixon, Gallagher, Gissberg, Greive, Hall, Hofmeister, Jackson, Knoblauch, Lennart, Nunamaker, Pearson, Riley, Rosellini, Sutherland, Todd, Washington, Winberg—18.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Wash., March 18, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The President of the Senate,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington*

Sir: /

I have the honor to transmit herewith, pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the State Senate, a certified copy of Enrolled Senate Bill No. 82 passed by the Senate and House of the Regular Thirty-fourth Session of the Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Said Enrolled Senate Bill No. 82 is now identified as Chapter 210, Laws of 1955.

Respectfully,
EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 16, 1955.

To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to subsection 3 of section 1, Senate Bill No. 82, entitled:

"An Act relating to the civil defense of the state of Washington; amending section 13, chapter 178, Laws of 1951, and RCW 38.52.110 (1953 Supp.); and repealing section 21, chapter 178, Laws of 1951."

Subsection 3 would make the ground observer corps a part of the state civil defense organization. The proviso to that subsection would prohibit the personnel of any ground observer corps from participating in compensation benefits from death or injury occurring in the course of their activities in such civil defense work.

It seems to me that the item is unsound for two reasons.

- (A) The ground observer corps is a separate and distinct organization from the civil defense organization. It is under the operational control of the Air Force, while the civil defense organization is under the exclusive jurisdiction of the Governor. The administrative difficulties in coordinating a program under dual jurisdiction would be most burdensome. Furthermore, the question of the extent of financial responsibility of the state civil defense organization is left undetermined.
- (B) The provision, as drafted, is also unsound in its direct application to the ground observer corps personnel. The proviso which prohibits benefit coverage for death or injury is discriminatory and unfair to those workers as compared to other civil defense personnel.

In my opinion, subparagraph (3) is not in the best interests of the civil defense organization, or the people of the state. For the reasons stated above, subsection 3, of section 1 of Senate Bill No. 82 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
ARTHUR B. LANGLEE,
Governor.

President Anderson:

"The message will be received."

MOTION

Senator Rosellini moved that the Senate take up consideration of the veto message at this time.

Senator Hall moved that the veto message together with the vetoed section of the bill be referred to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

Debate ensued.

President Anderson:

"The question before the Senate is: Shall the vetoed section of Senate Bill No. 82 pass, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?"

"A vote 'aye' will pass the vetoed section; a vote 'no' will sustain the veto."

The Secretary called the roll, and the veto of the Governor was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Senators Dixon, Gallagher, Gissberg, Greive, Hofmeister, Jackson, Knoblauch, Nordquist, Nunamaker, Pearson, Rosellini, Todd, Washington, Winberg—14.

Those voting nay were: Senators Andrews, Barlow, Clark, Copeland, Cowen, Dahl, Ganders, Goodloe, Hall, Happy, Hoff, Ivy, Lennart, Lindsay, Luvera, McMullen, Peterson, Raugust, Riley, Roup, Ryder, Sears, Shannon, Wall, Wilson, Zahn, Zednick—27.

Those absent or not voting were: Senators Bargreen, Flanagan, Keefe, Rogers, Sutherland—5.

The vetoed section of Senate Bill No. 82, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared lost, and the Governor's veto was declared sustained.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Washington, March 16, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The President of the Senate,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington*

SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington for the consideration of the State Senate, certified copies of the following bills passed by the Senate and House of the Regular Thirty-fourth Session of the Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

They are Senate Bill No. 111, now identified as Chapter 176, Laws of 1955, and Senate Bill No. 366, now identified as Chapter 167, Laws of 1955.

Respectfully,

EARL COE,

Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 15, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)*

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Senate Bill No. 111, entitled:

"An Act relating to judges in the superior courts in certain counties; amending section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 and RCW 2.08.061; and declaring an emergency." Section 2 provides that:

"Of the two additional judges for King county as provided for in section 1 of this act, one judge shall be appointed by the governor immediately to hold office as provided in RCW 2.08.069 and the other judge shall be elected at the next general election."

An emergency clause is added to the bill by section 3.

This bill creates by section 1, two additional judicial offices in King County. As noted, section 2 postpones until the next general election the filling of one of these offices. This provision, in my opinion, violates article 4, section 5 of our state constitution which provides that the Governor shall fill vacancies in judicial offices by appointment. In addition to this infringement of the constitutional mandate vesting the power of judicial appointment in the executive, there is a conflict between the intent expressed by the emergency clause and the postponement of the filling of one of the two offices created. If there is a need for two additional judges in King County, they are needed now. On the other hand, if there is a need presently for only one additional judge, it would not seem to be the business of this legislature to predict what the need may be two years hence respecting another judge. This more properly is a matter for the decision of the next legislature.

I realize that the effect of the veto of section 2 of this bill would advance the time of the judicial vacancy of the second position by almost two years. I entertain some doubt as to whether this may or may not constitute an act of affirmative legislation. Consequently I do not intend to make any appointment to the second position. If this veto has such an affirmative effect and is therefore invalid, the original bill would stand as passed. This would still leave open the question of whether or not the act is invalid as an unconstitutional infringement upon the appointive power of the Chief Executive. This is a judicial question and I make no effort to resolve it. In my opinion, at least to the extent that the legislature intended to create one immediate additional judicial office in King County, the legislative intent is clear. Beyond that I consider both the intent and the legal effect of this act to be somewhat doubtful.

For these reasons section 2 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE, Governor.

MOTION

Senator Hall moved that the Governor's veto on section 2 of Senate Bill No. 111 be sustained.

Senator Hall:

"When only a part of a bill is vetoed, it seems to me the motion should be that the Governor's veto should be sustained."

MOTION

Senator Pearson moved that Senate Bill No. 111, together with the Governor's partial veto message thereon, be referred to Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

The motion carried.

The Secretary read:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 15, 1955.

To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 8, Senate Bill No. 366, entitled:

"An Act relating to absentee ballots; amending sections 1 through 5, chapter 41, Laws of 1933 extraordinary session, as last amended by section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1950 extraordinary session and RCW 29.36.010 through 29.36.070; declaring an emergency."

Section 8 is a reenactment of RCW 29.36.070 which relates to the canvassing of absentee ballots and the modification of election returns upon a precinct basis. This section was reenacted as part of this bill for technical reasons adopted by the codifier. This section, however, was amended by this legislature in section 3 of House Bill No. 341, heretofore signed into law and now known as chapter 50, Laws of 1955. That act amended RCW 29.56.070 by providing for the canvassing of absentee ballots and the modification of election returns on the basis of legislative districts rather than precincts.

For the reasons stated, section 8 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE, Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hall, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 366, together with the Governor's partial veto message thereon, was referred to Committee on Rules and Joint Rules.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Washington, March 18, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The President of the Senate,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington*

SIR:

I have the honor to return herewith, pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the State Senate, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 370 passed by the Senate and House of the Regular Thirty-fourth session of the Legislature, and vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,

EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 18, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)*

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill 370, entitled:

"An Act relating to cities and towns; and amending section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1933, as last amended by section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1953, and RCW 35.50.030, 35.50.040 and 35.50.060 through 35.50.210."

Section 2 of this bill makes the following changes in our existing law with respect to the foreclosure of delinquent local improvement assessment or installments thereof, to wit: (1) Increases the number of installments which must be delinquent before foreclosure may be instituted from two to four installments; (2) Increases the period during which such assessment or installments thereof must be delinquent as a condition to the institution of foreclosure from one to four years.

The foregoing changes apply only to cities of the first class, and the provisions of the existing law shall continue to apply to all other cities and towns.

There is nothing in the recent history of local improvement assessment foreclosures or in our existing law which in my judgment indicates or justifies any change extending the time within which a city may take the necessary action to collect delinquent assessments. The present law provides as does this bill that the owner of the property subject to foreclosure or other person having redemption rights shall have a period of two years from the date of any local improvement assessment foreclosure sale within which to redeem the property foreclosed.

I am convinced that if this measure should be approved it would have the effect of weakening the security behind LID bonds because of the increase in the possibility that necessary money to redeem the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds would not be available upon maturity. This, in turn, will undoubtedly result in an increase in the interest rates on such revenue bonds and an increase in the amount of interest required to be paid on local improvement assessments by the persons benefited. There is a further likelihood that a demand would be made for an increase in the amount of money in the guarantee funds established in connection with the issuance of this type of bond. The reasons, if any, which may obtain in support of the change in the foreclosure procedure provided by this bill are scarcely sufficient in my judgment to risk such adverse effects upon LID bonds.

For the reasons stated herein, Senate Bill No. 370 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. LANGLEY,
Governor.

MOTION

Senator Greive moved that Senate Bill No. 370, together with the Governor's veto message thereon, hold its place on tomorrow's calendar.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Washington, March 22, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The President of the Senate,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington*

SIR:

I have the honor to return herewith, pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the State Senate, Enrolled Senate Bill No. 343 passed by the Senate and House of the Regular Thirty-fourth session of the Legislature and vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,

EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 22, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)*

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 343, entitled:

"An Act relating to the department of fisheries, food fish and shellfish; and amending section 41, chapter 207, Laws of 1953 and RCW 75.28.325; adding a new section to chapter 75.28 RCW."

This bill would permit custom canneries to intermingle different quality fish and deliver to the customer canned fish on the basis of quantity rather than identity. Section 2 of the bill requires each canner to pay the same privilege fee for sport canning which is imposed upon commercial canning. This is not possible because of the method used in computing the tax. The privilege fee applicable to commercial fish canning is based upon the primary value of the fish and there is no such value for game fish landed by sport fishermen.

The burden of administering the act is placed upon the Department of Fisheries. It would be extremely difficult for the Department to properly administer the act, since it would require continuous checking and inspection. There are a great many varieties of fish of different quality, any or all of which may be in the possession of a cannery at a given time. In order to establish adequate safeguards against the exchange of inferior quality canned fish and superior quality raw fish, it would be necessary for the Department to set up extensive regulations and inspection procedures. The revenue to be derived from the license and privilege fees included in this act are grossly inadequate to cover the additional administrative cost.

For these reasons, Senate Bill No. 343 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR B. LANGLEIE,
Governor.

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,
Olympia, Washington, March 22, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The President of the Senate,
The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington*

SIR:

I have the honor to return herewith, pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the State Senate, Enrolled Senate Bills Nos. 101 and 400, passed by the Senate and House of the Regular Thirty-fourth session of the Legislature, and vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,
EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 22, 1955.

*To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington,
(Through the Secretary of State)*

GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 400, entitled:

"An Act relating to superior court judges; amending sections 4 and 6, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 and RCW 2.08.062 and 2.08.064; and declaring an emergency."

This bill combines the counties of Clark, Klickitat and Skamania into one judicial district and provides three Superior Court Judges for the new district. Cowlitz County, which is now a part of the judicial district of which Klickitat and Skamania Counties form the other two parts, is by this bill, converted into a separate judicial district, with a provision for two judges. The effect of the measure is to add one Superior Court Judge for the new judicial district to be made up of Clark, Klickitat and Skamania Counties.

The creation of another judgeship for these counties would necessitate the construction of new courtroom facilities and the employment of a complete courtroom staff in addition to the salary for the additional judge. This would create quite a heavy financial burden upon such counties over and above that now being carried. It is an area of the state in which the population will probably increase substantially in the near future. However, it is not anticipated that the increase will be so sudden or so great as to require the immediate creation of this new post. If, at the time of the next legislative session, the need has become great enough to justify the new position, it may be created then. I do not believe the facts justify this creation at this time.

For the reason stated herein, Senate Bill No. 400 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,
ARTHUR B. LANGLEY,
Governor.

Senator Goodloe moved that Senate Bill No. 400 do pass, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor.

Senator Greive seconded the motion.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 400, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 11; absent or not voting, 3.

Those voting yea were: Senators Andrews, Bargreen, Barlow, Clark, Dixon, Gallagher, Ganders, Gissberg, Goodloe, Greive, Happy, Hoff, Hofmeister, Jackson, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lennart, McMullen, Nordquist, Nunamaker, Raugust, Rosellini, Roup, Ryder, Sears, Sutherland, Todd, Wall, Washington, Wilson, Zahn, Zednick—32.

Those voting nay were: Senators Copeland, Cowen, Dahl, Flanagan, Hall, Ivy, Luvera, Peterson, Riley, Rogers, Shannon—11.

Those absent or not voting were: Senators Lindsay, Pearson, Winberg—3.

Senate Bill No. 400, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 22, 1955.

To the Honorable, The Senate of the State of Washington,
(Through the Secretary of State)

GENTLEMEN:

Returned herewith, without my approval, is Senate Bill No. 101, entitled: "An Act relating to capitol land grant lands; and making an appropriation."

This bill directs the state sustained yield forest number one committee to make an inventory and appraisalment of capitol land grant lands for the purpose of evaluating the condition, value, and timber-raising or Christmas-tree-raising potential of such lands. It appropriates twenty-five thousand dollars for such purpose.

I am unable to see any possible benefit from such a survey unless and until the state is prepared to follow it up with some definite long-range program of forest management. At the present time, no adequate program exists. A complete survey of capitol grant timber and resources was presented to the capitol committee on September 27, 1954, and it is very doubtful that a new survey could add materially to the information contained in that report. Under such circumstances, the money spent upon such a survey may well be wasted. Furthermore, there is not sufficient money in the capitol building construction fund to finance the program in any event.

For these reasons, Senate Bill No. 101 is vetoed.

Respectfully submitted,
ARTHUR B. LANGLEY,
Governor.

PROTEST

We do hereby file our protest and reasons why we voted against Free Conference Committee Report to House Bill No. 1.

The reasons are as follows:

1. The appropriation for the schools was inadequate.
2. The appropriation provided for public welfare was not sufficient particularly in the category of old age assistance and aid to dependent children.

3. We protest the insufficient appropriation for the veterans rehabilitation council.

4. We also had an overall objection to the bill as generally it was out of proportion in that some appropriations were too high in some areas and in others too low.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rosellini:

"In the last days of the session I want to just take a moment to point out that too often the public, and we ourselves, fail to give proper recognition to some of the faithful services performed here, and I would like at this time to ask the Senate to pay tribute to one of the outstanding Senators of the State of Washington who has served in the Senate so ably for twenty years, and prior to that as County Commissioner for two and one-half years, and has also served in the House.

"I have reference to our distinguished Senator from Walla Walla County, Senator Copeland.

"I want to say that we, on this side of the aisle, have not always agreed with his philosophy of government, but we have never questioned his sincerity. Then in this session particularly we have the unprecedented situation where a bill was passed in the Senate, passed in the House, and signed by the Governor, introduced by Senators Copeland and Rosellini.

"I would like to ask the Senate to suspend the rules and give Senator Copeland a rising vote of thanks."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dahl:

"I would likewise like to pay tribute to a gentleman on the other side of the aisle, with a record of over twenty years—a man who has a very distinguished record, a man from Pierce County—Senator Dixon.

"He has not only been conscientious regarding his work during the session, but I know he devotes practically all his time to being a State Senator when we are not in session. I think he should be given recognition for his untiring services in this regard.

"It has been my privilege and honor to have my name on several bills with Senator Dixon. He is a man of very high integrity and very high morals. I think we are very fortunate to have a man of such high caliber as Senator Dixon."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Clark:

"Some fourteen years ago it was my pleasure to get acquainted with a man who has done more in his community than most people realize for the good of his community and the good of his state.

"It is a great pleasure to serve with Davey Cowen who has so ably served his state and community."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Copeland:

"I would just like to extend my thanks for this recognition of both the Republicans and the Democrats. I have enjoyed working with them both this great number of years. I recognize a great many faces, on both sides of the aisle, of those with whom I have worked many years."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dixon:

"Mr. President, and my friends in the Senate:

"I certainly appreciate the tribute which you have paid to me, and especially from Senator Dahl—a gentleman whom I admire very much. I would like to live as Senator Dahl lives, with truthfulness and honesty to all his fellow men.

"I also served with Senator Copeland in '35 in the House, and also with my friend Davey Cowen, and I have known a great many of you in the House and Senate during the intervening years.

"I am not hanging up my hat yet in this political game.

"I certainly appreciate deeply the tribute which you have paid me, and I hope and trust I will see everyone of you again in future sessions. Thank you very much."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Cowen:

"I wish to thank the members of the Senate for the tribute they have paid me. And if the Lord is willing, I will be back here in two years, serving my twenty-second year.

"Thanks to you, Senator Clark, and I hope to see every one of you members here again."
