WE ARE COMMITTED, YET FIND OURSELVES IN A SWIRL OF CONFLICTING OPINION AND INTERESTS. AND SO WE PAUSE, TO CENTER OURSELVES IN YOUR QUIETNESS. Sincerely, DIXY LEE RAY
 Governor.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of the appointment of Robert C. Bailey.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the appointment of Robert C. Bailey as Chairman of the Utilities and Transportation Commission be confirmed.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I know that this procedure is somewhat out of order. Ordinarily we would send these particular confirmations directly to committee. However, we have in the past, particularly with those who have been closely associated with us on the floor of this Senate, immediately taken action to act upon their confirmation. So it is with Senator Bailey.

"We had the opportunity last week to hear from a number of us on the floor with regard to the qualifications of Senator Bailey, and I need not reiterate them now. I think of course, that you will all agree with me that he is fully qualified to assume this responsible position on the public utility commission. He will be an outstanding member of that commission and one that we can be justly proud as coming from our ranks of the Senate.

"I urge his confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. We would also like to join in support of the immediate confirmation of Senator Bailey.

"It is seldom that we have the opportunity of being so well advised of the qualifications of an appointee as we have with respect to Senator Bailey, and it would simply be prolonging the time to go into the various reasons why it should be confirmed, and I think that there is no other reasonable course than immediate confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Seriously, on a serious vein, we already started doing some preliminary checks. There is absolutely nothing adverse that anybody can find about Senator Bailey, in addition to the obvious knowledge of all the members of the Senate. I know of no reason to delay the process by sending it to committee."

The motion of Senator Walgren carried and the Senate confirmed the appointment of Robert C. Bailey as Chairman of the Utilities and Transportation Commission.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDermott moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the Senate failed to pass Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 on March 14, 1977.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. The point of order I wish to raise is that Senator Newschwander was the one that gave notice of reconsideration, and my point is that he is the only person that can make the motion.

"I am quite aware, Mr. President, that rule 31 of the Senate rules provides that in such circumstances specifically that notice having been given, any member may then make the motion. However, we have been repeatedly informed by our majority leader that we are not operating under those rules. I look at Reed's and Reed's has no provision covering this particular situation.

"So, it is unthinking in reality, unthinkable really, that a body such as this should be proceeding without some sort of understandable rules. It is a precept of any kind of a parliamentary body that one of the first things that should be done is the adoption of reasonable rules and regulations.

"I think it is quite a tribute to our presiding officer that he has carried on this long a period, all through the regular session, and been able, in effect, to keep order in this body when the body has not been fit to let him know the rules which he is supposed to be enforcing.

"I, at this time, with due respect would like to raise the question as to what rules we are operating under. I am very apprehensive that the majority leader, in substance, is trying to perpetuate a situation where he calls upon the rules when it is to his benefit to do so, but when it is not to his benefit to do so, then he takes the position that we have no rules. Now, I submit that that is not something that can be permitted to go on in this particular body. We do have the right to know and have accentuated the rules under which we are operating.

"If we are operating under no rules at all, I submit that our majority leader can get in trouble when he gets into a dispute among some of his own people. Of course it is quite obvious to all of us that we operating under some sort of rules. We have motions to table. We have motions for reconsideration. We have dispensed with the Journal. We advance to certain orders of business, all of these kinds of things, but what rules are we operating under, Mr. President, in this connection?

"Now, it occurs to me that we can, in reality, be in one of two different situations. Either we are operating as most bodies do when there are no rules, you operate under the presumption that the rules applicable to the last convening of the body carry on unless and until new rules are operative. In substance I think that is what we have been doing in reality, and I think that if we are doing that, we then should have a firm understanding that that is what we are doing.

"We have also been purportedly operating under Reed's Rules, but the only reason we are doing that is because the rules of the previous session, in effect, say that as to matters not covered within those rules we then relate to Reed's.

"What I think, Mr. President, is and I make this point primarily for the purpose of obtaining a clarification for the body as to what kind of rules we are operating under here. I think every one of us has the right to be advised as to that. Either we are operating under the rules of the previous session, we are operating under Reed's Rules or we are operating under no rules at all, and I submit that nobody of any parliamentary proceeding can operate without any rules whatsoever."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I think Senator Clarke is correct when he assumes, at least for most of the time, Senator Clarke, that we are operating under the rule of the majority. Of course, when that is the case, then we must revert and refer to the general rules of parliamentary law as it relates to the various motions and procedures that would be followed, and I think that those rules are generally set out and have been very capably interpreted by the presiding officer, as you have already noted.

"Of course, if your suggestion were to prevail, that is that only the maker of the motion for reconsideration could then perfect that motion it seems to me that we would have an intolerable situation for the minority because then the presiding officer very likely, were that to be the rule, would only be able and probably would only recognize the majority for making those types of motions. As a result, the minority would not have an opportunity, it seems to me, of being recognized very often.

"If we are able to proceed as we are doing so now, then of course, the minority is able to be recognized as is only proper, but the particular motion can be perfected by any member. Of course, I think that is the general rule of law when we do not, and have not, adopted any rules."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "In response. Mr. President, I want to point out that Senator Walgren has spoken only as to the logic of the proposed rule, and has done nothing whatsoever to assist us in clarification of knowing what rules we are operating under.

"What he has said in substance, if you listen to him carefully, is that we are simply operating under the rules that the majority may make as it goes along from time to time which leads us exactly to the opening statement that I made, and that was to the effect that he wants a situation where he can quote the rules where it is to his benefit to do so and where it is not to his benefit to do so, he can completely ignore any rules.

"If not, what then are the rules that he is bound by or that he is asking you as President to enforce? I submit that not only we, as the minority, but the public in general has the right to know the rules under which this Senate is being operated."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Mr. President, Senator Bailey is no longer here. Will Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, can you give us some indication as to whether the majority leader expects to have some rules within the next few weeks?"

Senator Walgren: "Senator, as you know, we have talked about the adoption of rules, as a matter of fact, very early in the session, and you and I and other members of the leadership of both parties sat down and drafted some rules. I think we were basically in agreement. We have not perfected those over the last several weeks because there did not appear to be any great need to do so. Apparently the minority is now requesting that there be rules. You are expecting some action, I take it, here in these next several weeks, that you would like to flex your muscles a little bit more, and certainly we would like to give you that opportunity.

"More importantly, perhaps, the Secretary of the Senate, Mr. Snyder, wants to get out the little red books, and he can't do so unless, of course, he has these rules adopted.

"At any rate, Senator Matson, I want you to be assured that the Democrats will certainly give full consideration to your request. I think it probably is appropriate that reasonable rules be adopted."

Senator Matson: "Senator Walgren, we would be only too happy to help you iron out those problems with the rules."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Clarke, agrees with one exception with every remark you made, Senator Clarke.

"The President has been trying to adhere to the rules adopted by the Senate for the 1975 session, and to date believes there has been only one instance where the Senate in its wisdom has violated those rules, and that was to the disadvantage of Senator Grant's position when reconsideration was taken upon the vote of a bill on the same day that the bill was considered upon the motion of reconsideration by Senator Newschwander.

"The President believes that in defense of fairness that rather than disenfranchise practically the entire Senate, that the President will entertain the motion by Senator McDermott that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill 2115 was lost."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Do I understand correctly then, that unless and until we adopt some changes in the rules that the President will follow the rules of the preceding session."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "To the best of his ability, Senator Clarke."

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the purpose of this 1977 amendatory act to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Domestic and irrigation uses of public surface and ground waters shall be given priority in determining "beneficial uses" for the purposes of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to the powers previously vested in the department of ecology to permit the withdrawal of public surface and ground waters by chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW, the department of ecology is authorized to permit withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, for any period ending not later than January 22, 1979, for any beneficial use. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose: PROVIDED, That with respect to a new domestic use such funding shall not be necessary; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) As to projects and water withdrawal permits issued or authorized or both under sections 3 and 10 of this 1977 amendatory act, the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and all local zoning ordinances, plans, and local building and construction permit ordinances are waived and inapplicable. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, water projects and related withdrawal permits, authorized or issued pursuant to sections 3 or 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall not be subject to any public notice requirements. Permits issued under sections 3 and 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be in lieu of all environmental protection and natural resource regulation permits, certificates, and other approvals and authorization documents required under state statutes including, but not limited to, RCW 90.58.140, 75.20.100, and 86.16.080, as well as all other similar permits required under local ordinances. All state departments or other agencies having jurisdiction over state or other public lands which are required to be used in carrying out projects related to water withdrawal permits, issued pursuant to sections 3 and 10 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall provide short term easements or other appropriate property interests upon the payment of the fair market value: PROVIDED, That this mandate shall not apply to any lands of the state which are reserved for a special purpose or use which cannot properly be carried out if such a property interest were to be conveyed.

(2) Upon request of the department of ecology or any other state agency or municipal or public corporation, the department of general administration may waive any public bidding requirements otherwise provided by law, for any project authorized by section 3 or 10 of this 1977 amendatory act and financed with funds appropriated in section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act or in section 6, chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., if the department of general administration determines that (a) an emergency condition exists, and (b) if the request for a waiver is not approved the public interest will be significantly affected in a detrimental manner. The department of general administration shall rule upon requests for waiver submitted to it within five working days. If the department fails to rule within said five-day period the request shall be deemed approved and a waiver deemed to be granted. The department of general administration, after obtaining the views of the department of ecology, shall adopt rules to implement this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this subsection shall terminate on October 15, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights.

(2) Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize the establishment of rights to withdrawal of waters of a permanent nature or of rights with any priority.

(3) Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize the establishment of a water right under RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060.

(4) Nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall preclude any person from filing an application pursuant to RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any such application for withdrawal rights as to withdrawals made under authority of this act shall be considered de novo and subject to all applicable laws and rules and regulations as though this emergency law had not existed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology shall adopt such rules as are necessary and appropriate to carry out the powers provided in this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The power is granted to the department of ecology to levy civil penalties of up to one hundred dollars per day for violation of any of the provisions of this chapter and chapters 90.03, 90.22, and 90.44 RCW, and rules, permits, and similar documents and regulatory orders of the department of ecology adopted or issued pursuant to such chapters. The procedures of RCW 90.48.144 shall be applicable to all phases of the levying of a penalty as well as review and appeal of the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is hereby appropriated to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the state and local improvements revolving account—water supply facilities of the general fund the amount of $7,733,072, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this 1977 amendatory act.

The appropriation contained in this section shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Not more than $3,733,072 may be expended to provide financial assistance, subject to the limitations provided in chapter 43.83B RCW, to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050, to construct irrigation water supply and distribution facilities authorized in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act or for purposes authorized in section 10 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) Not more than $4,000,000 may be expended to provide financial assistance, subject to the limitations provided in chapter 43.83B RCW, to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050, to construct municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977: PROVIDED, That the department may expend funds from this appropriation to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public water utilities, and the grant portion of such a combination loan and grant for any project shall not exceed forty percent of the total moneys received by such project under this 1977 amendatory act and chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess.: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the department may expend funds from this appropriation to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies for any project up to one hundred percent of the total moneys received by such project under this 1977 amendatory act and chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., for the eligible costs of preconstruction activities and other necessary costs: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That funds expended pursuant to this section shall be in accordance with the interagency agreement dated April 9, 1973, between the department of ecology and the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of ecology is authorized to employ necessary temporary personnel until October 1, 1977, in project-related fields, including, but not limited to, engineering, hydrology, geology, and natural or water resources, not to exceed five full time equivalent staff years to carry out the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act. Such temporary personnel shall be funded only through the biennial appropriations to the department, and not by funds provided by this 1977 amendatory act and chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In addition to the other powers provided to the department of ecology by this chapter, the department of ecology is authorized with funds, not exceeding $5,000,000 provided by section 8(1) of this 1977 amendatory act and chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., to construct directly (or by contract with others) emergency water withdrawal and delivery facilities. Such facilities may be constructed solely to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from a drought: PROVIDED, That not more than $5,000,000 may be expended for this purpose as authorized by section 8(1) of this 1977 amendatory act and by section 6(5) of chapter ... (ESSSB 2632), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess. No public surface or ground waters shall be withdrawn pursuant to the authority of this section unless a permit to withdraw the same is first issued by the department. Permit for purposes hereof shall mean a permit issued under this chapter or chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW. The provisions of section 4 of this 1977 amendatory act are applicable to actions taken by the department pursuant to this section.

In relation to facilities to be constructed and operated by the department of ecology directly as authorized by this section, the department of general administration shall, upon the request of the department of ecology, execute contracts as are appropriate to achieve the required construction of facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall, by rule, establish rates of charges for all waters delivered from such facilities. Where the department provides water to public or municipal corporations or other governmental bodies having authority to distribute water, the payment for the water may be made pursuant to contract over a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of delivery. In all other cases, the department shall obtain payment for waters prior to its delivery to a purchaser. All payments received shall be deposited into the state emergency water projects revolving fund to be used only for the purposes of bond redemption.

Sec. 12. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.83B.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to make loans or grants or combinations thereof to eligible public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for rehabilitation or betterment of agricultural water supply facilities, and/or construction of agricultural water supply facilities required to develop new irrigated lands or, when required because of emergency drought conditions, to provide water to previously irrigated lands. The department of ecology may make such loans or grants or combinations thereof as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. A loan or combination loan and grant shall not exceed fifty percent of the approved eligible project costs for any single proposed project. Any grant or grant portion of a combination loan and grant for any single proposed project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the eligible project costs: PROVIDED, That the fifteen percent limitation established herein shall not be applicable to project commitments which the director or deputy director of the state department of ecology made to the bureau of reclamation of the United States department of interior for providing state funding at thirty-five percent of project costs during the period between August 1, 1974, and June 30, 1975.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The provisions of sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall automatically expire on January 22, 1979, except as otherwise specifically provided in this 1977 amendatory act.

On page 2, line 2 of the amendment, strike "extreme"

On page 2, line 44 of the amendment, strike "of" and insert "or"

On page 3, line 41 of the amendment, after "90.44.060" insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any such application for withdrawal rights as to withdrawals made under authority of this act shall be considered de novo and subject to all applicable laws and rules and regulations as though this emergency law had not existed"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Gaspard yield to a question? Senator Gaspard, I note that in section 11 of your amendment, you set up a procedure by which the department shall establish a series of rates and charges for waters delivered from the facilities constructed under this measure.

"It further indicates that with respect to public or municipal corporations that charge may be extended over a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of delivery of the water, and with respect to other users, and I assume that would be private users, that payment or charge must be made prior to delivery.

"Is it the intention of this section to include within the rate base or charges to be made for the water the cost of the amortization of the capital investment of the project?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Mardesich, the question did come up yesterday, and after checking with the other sponsors of the bill on this amendment and a representative of the department of ecology, that the answer is yes to your question."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Gaspard yield to a question? Senator Gaspard, this in no way affects domestic water wells on this side of the mountains? If we have a dry year and the water table goes down, we can deepen the well or anything like that?"

Senator Gaspard: "That we can deepen a well? Is that what you said? Could you repeat that, I didn't quite get that?"

Senator Talley: "It no way affects domestic water wells on this side of the mountains?"

Senator Gaspard: "Domestic water wells?"

Senator Talley: "Yes."

Senator Gaspard: "Drilling the water wells would be on state land, done by the department of ecology or they could contract out."

Senator Talley: "I didn't understand what you said then."

Senator Gaspard: "The answer is no specifically to your question."

Senator Talley: "It does not."

Senator Gaspard: "That is correct, no."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, perhaps I could add to the answer to Senator Talley. This does provide for emergency authority to the department of ecology and the processing of temporary permits, so if in fact domestic wells were running dry in a certain area, they could investigate, could authorize the drilling of those wells to new depths or could even instigate other emergency procedures under this particular, the flexibility involved in this bill.

"So, yes, I feel it is a legislative answer even in the area of domestic wells."

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Bottiger, Benitz, Morrison and Washington to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "appropriation," insert "prescribing penalties;"

On motion of Senator Morrison, Reengrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2620 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2632 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senators Bottiger, Gaspard, Morrison, Benitz and Washington was adopted:

On page 1 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of forty-five million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this act shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution. No bonds shall be sold after January 22, 1979.

The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form of such bonds, the time of sale of all or any portion or portions of such bonds, and the conditions of sale and issuance thereof.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due. The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the due date thereof under such terms and conditions as it may determine. The state finance committee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of the bonds.

As used in this act, the term "water supply facilities for water withdrawal and distribution" shall mean municipal, industrial, and agricultural water supply and distribution systems including, but not limited to, all equipment, utilities, structures, real property, and interest in and improvements on real property necessary for or incidental to the acquisition, construction, installation, improvement, or use of any water supply or distribution system furnishing water for agricultural, municipal or industrial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. At the time the state finance committee determines to issue such bonds authorized in section 1 of this act or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuance thereof, issue in the name of the state, temporary notes in anticipation of the money to be derived from the sale of the bonds, which notes shall be designated as "bond anticipation notes". The proceeds from the sale of bonds and notes authorized by this act shall be deposited in the state emergency water projects revolving account, hereby created in the general fund in the state treasury, and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of such bonds and notes: PROVIDED, That such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds as may be required for the payment of the principal and interest on such anticipation notes as have been issued, shall be deposited in the state emergency water projects bond redemption fund of 1977 in the state treasury created by section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The principal proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in this act shall be administered by the director of the department of ecology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state emergency water projects bond redemption fund of 1977, hereby created in the state treasury, shall be used for the purpose of the payment of interest on and retirement of the bonds and notes authorized to be issued by this act. The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months, to meet bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any such interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 emergency water projects bond redemption fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on such payment date.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for any of the bonds, by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding, may require and compel the transfer and payment of funds as directed herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The bonds authorized by this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is hereby appropriated to the department of ecology from the state emergency water projects revolving fund the sum of $30,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977: PROVIDED, That the appropriation contained herein shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Not more than $25,000,000 shall be expended for agricultural water supply and distribution systems and not more than $5,000,000 shall be expended for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution systems.

(2) The department may expend funds from this appropriation to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050. The grant portion of a combination loan and grant to a public body for any project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the total amount received by such project under this act except where used for municipal and industrial water supply facilities, in which case the amount of the allowable grant portion shall be determined the same as in section 8(2) of chapter ... (ESSSB 2620), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess.

(3) The department may expend funds from this appropriation to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies (as defined in RCW 43.83B.050) to satisfy the matching requirements of RCW 43.83B.210: PROVIDED, That if funds available from this appropriation are used in conjunction with funds available under chapter 43.83B RCW, then the total grant portion for any project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the total moneys received by such project under this act and chapter 43.83B RCW.

(4) The expenditure of funds from this appropriation by the department of ecology to make loans or combinations of loans and grants for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities shall be limited to those facilities authorized by the department of ecology pursuant to section 3 of chapter ... (ESSSB 2620), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess.

(5) The department of ecology may expend funds, either directly or by contract with others, for the construction of water withdrawal and delivery facilities. Not more than $5,000,000 shall be expended for the purposes of this subsection as authorized in section 10 of chapter ... (ESSSB 2620), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., either from this appropriation or through a combination of funds authorized by this appropriation and that authorized by section 8(1) of chapter ... (ESSSB 2620), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That if chapter ... (ESSSB 2620), Laws of 1977 1st ex. sess., does not become law, the provisions of this act shall be null and void and of no further force and effect whatsoever."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I have pretty well explained the purpose of the bill in discussing the amendment. I would like to ask if Senator Gaspard would yield to a question in respect to this bill and the one that we just passed.

"Senator Gaspard, Senator Talley's question was a little confusing to me, and I think to you as well. I used the words 'domestic water' rather than 'municipal water supplies.' It is my understanding that this bill provides for municipal, publicly owned water supplies. This bill and the other are approximately ten million dollars for improvement for those publicly owned water systems. Is that your understanding?"

Senator Gaspard: "That is correct, and there was some confusion, and we did talk of Senator Talley's question and my answer to it and the interpretation of my answer.

"Yes, there is the amount of money that you specified in here for that use."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Recrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2632 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2632, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—40.

Excused: Senators Buffington, Grant, Herr, Mardesich, Matson, Newschwander, Peterson, Wojahn, Woody—9.

REENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 2632, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the following bill be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee:

SENATE BILL NO. 2339, by Senators Cunningham, Mardesich, Rasmussen and Guess:

Prescribing rights of private property owners.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Cunningham yield to a question? Senator Cunningham, I realize that if Senator Bailey were here he would object to this, but I have always started off with the premise that a bill is going to change something, and I have been searching as to what this bill changes. Are we just doing a PR thing, or are we intending to make some change in the law?"

"You mentioned—it came up in caucus. I asked this question about if property is currently zoned 'general use' and the neighbors get together and want to make it 'suburban agriculture' could one neighbor object and thereby insist on being paid if the rest of them wanted to change the zoning from 'general' to 'suburban agriculture'? Senator Mardesich was of the opinion that they would have to be paid if any change at all were made in the existing zoning laws as of the effective date of this act.

"If that is the change intended, then I think we had better tell some county commissioners and some other people about what we are doing."

Senator Cunningham: "Mr. President, responding to what I think was a question, it is my understanding that the bill does not address itself specifically to down zoning, and that is what you are talking about in that there is nothing in our statutes that presently address themselves to up zoning other than how these normally reflect on your tax statements.

"What the bill very specifically says is that if your property is taken away from you, the right to use that property, that you cannot be subject to the state saying, 'But because we are going to take this away from you, we are going to let you use it for a few more years in lieu of paying you.' That is specifically what the bill says. That and that the rest of your property rights will be protected by the state Constitution."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Walgren carried on a rising vote. Senate Bill No. 2339 was rereferred to the Judiciary Committee.

SECOND READING

Absent: Senator Fleming—1.

Excused: Senators Buffington, Grant, Herr, Marjesich, Matson, Peterson, Wojahn, Woody—8.

"O GOD, WHO ART THE GUIDE FOR ALL PEOPLE, IN ALL TIMES, WE THANK YOU FOR ALL THE KNOWN AND UNKNOWN, THE FAMED AND UNNAMED SAINTS OF FAITH, WHO COME FROM MANY DIFFERENT LANDS, AND SHARE THEIR VISION OF LIFE ETERNAL, WHO SHARE THEIR KINDNESS TO ALL IN NEED, WHO PROCLAIM THE 'GOOD NEWS' OF YOUR COMPASSION. WE THANK YOU FOR ALL THE SAINTS, GREAT AND SMALL, WHO HAVE GIFTED US WITH OUR HERITAGE, OUR IDENTITY AND OUR REASON TO HOPE.

"ESPECIALLY THIS DAY, O GOD, WE REMEMBER AND CELEBRATE ST. PATRICK, WHO KNEW THE OPPRESSION OF SLAVERY, BUT RETURNED TO HIS OPPRESSORS WITH THE MESSAGE OF YOUR RECONCILIATION, BRINGING WITH HIM THE GIFTS OF EDUCATION, CIVILIZATION AND A VISION FOR A BETTER WORLD. YET AS WE RAISE OUR VOICES AND OUR DRINKS IN CELEBRATION, WE REMEMBER TOO THE TURMOIL WHICH TEARS AT THE VERY FIBER OF HIS BELOVED IRELAND. O COMPASSIONATE AND SUFFERING GOD, WE SENSE THE DIVINE AGONY WHEN MEN AND NATIONS USE RELIGION NOT AS A SACRED TRUST BUT AS A SCOURGING CLUB TO DENY LIFE TO OTHERS, EACH SIDE CLAIMING TOTAL TRUTH AND USING THE PRECIOUS IDENTITY OF THEIR FAITH NOT TO BRING A NEW ORDER OF JUSTICE, BUT TO MAKE NEW SOLDIERS CARRY FORTH A CENTURY OF OLD HATE.

"IN HUMILITY O LORD OF LIFE, WE CONFESS WE HAVE NO TOTAL POSSESSION OF TRUTH OR RIGHT. HELP US TO LEARN THAT PEACE WILL NOT BE SURE WITHOUT JUSTICE FOR ALL, AND THAT JUSTICE WILL NOT FLOW UNTIL WE LEARN TO LIVE IN RESPECT FOR EACH PERSON AND IN CELEBRATION THAT ALL PEOPLE ARE VALUED AS YOUR CHILDREN. IN MEMORY OF ST. PATRICK, WE HOPE THAT PEACE IS STILL POSSIBLE, WE PRAY. AMEN."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Scott yield to a question? I would like to ask before it is sent down for purposes of amendment whether or not college newspapers are included as publications which would require the state printer or the approval and certification or approval prior to the printing of college newspapers?"

Senator Scott: "They would have to meet the guidelines set forth by OPP&FM, yes."

Senator Goltz: "Would it be your expectation that you could meet the guideline for an entire series of publications rather than each individual issue?"

Senator Scott: "Senator, remember we are not talking about contents now in terms of specific items. We are talking about the way that a college publication is put out. If it is put out, for instance, on a tabloid and the number of copies that are put out. If it is intended, for instance, for Western Washington's campus, there would be no point in bringing the question up if you are dealing with two thousand or five thousand or ten thousand copies. But if there were twenty thousand copies issued and mailed to the western part of the state, then maybe that would be the kind of a signal that would bring OPP&FM to question whether that many copies were necessary."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 15, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2207, withholding salary warrants of department of social and health services management personnel until timely payment is made to all vendors for personal services (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 16, add a new paragraph to read as follows:

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Goltz, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2207 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, the bill reads that no salary warrant shall be issued to the secretary of the DSHS, deputy secretary, assistant secretary, regional administrator and so forth, until he or she shall have made and filed with the state treasurer an affidavit that no vendor is unpaid. Who is he or she in this case?"

Senator Goltz: "The secretary of the DSHS."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "OK, I don't think it reads all that clearly for that."

"Then the next question I have is, reading that sentence further, it says 'no warrant shall be paid to any of them or other management person responsible for processing and payment of vendor services.' Does that mean that all the typists and clerical help and so forth in the whole vendor payment process shall be denied their warrants if there is one warrant outstanding?"

Senator Goltz: "No, I think it does not mean that. I think the use of words 'management personnel', and there has been a suggestion that everybody in the chain should be held responsible, but in this particular case, it does not mean that. It means those that have managerial responsibility."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "How would you decide that?"

Senator Goltz: "That list would be determined by the department and would be filed with the treasurer."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Goltz yield to another question? Senator Goltz, it isn't clear in the bill — at what time would this start running for the sixty days, from the time that the person deposited his bill in the mail, or—?"

Senator Goltz: "I would assume that at the time when a person signs the voucher and puts it in the mail the time would start ticking. Sixty days from that point, that person should have a payment."

Senator Rasmussen: "And if the mail was not delivered, the penalty would still be the same?"

Senator Goltz: "I would assume that the sixty days allows for reasonable mail delivery times. Yes, I would say the penalty would be the same. If something is lost in the mail, I would assume that there would be some way to cover that particular exigency."

Senator Rasmussen: "And if you were an administrator, you had numerous things laying on your desk that you just did not get to at the proper time, would you, as an administrator, see that those became lost and then ask them to submit another bill because you couldn't find the original?"

Senator Goltz: "I don't think Secretary McNutt would do that."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am not talking about Secretary McNutt."

"The further question I had, is it anticipated that one form will be circulated, and that each person, from the secretary on down, would sign that. It would be a standard form. 'Everything has cleared my desk within the sixty days, and I expect my paycheck.' How would they handle that?"

Senator Goltz: "There would be an affidavit that would be signed and would be put into the treasurer's office. One person within the department could sign that affidavit, and it could cover all the persons in the management chain responsible for the payment."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Goltz."

THE ARTICLE DID POINT OUT WE ARE ALL INFLUENCED IN OUR UNDERSTANDING OF CHURCH AND GOVERNMENT BY OUR RELIGIOUS TRAINING OR LACK OF IT. WE ASK YOU THEN LORD TO COME TO THE ASSISTANCE OF THE LEGISLATORS WHO APPROACH PROBLEMS WITH VARYING VIEWPOINTS AND PHILOSOPHIES. THEIR TASK IS AN EXTREMELY COMPLICATED ONE. On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment by Senators Bluechel, Guess and Goltz was adopted:

Beginning on line 8 of both the engrossed and printed bill, strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

"The legislature finds that in many instances there is a lack of prompt processing and payment of vendor services by the department of social and health services. Therefore, a vendor who has furnished services to the department of social and health services for payment of which the department is liable, and who has not been paid for such services sixty days after the department has been billed for such services, shall be entitled to receive on such debt interest computed at the rate of nine percent per annum from the date of receipt of the original billing to the date of payment.

When payment for vendor services is not made within the sixty-day period, the individual(s) responsible for the processing and/or payment of those services shall file an affidavit stating the reason or reasons which prevented the timely payment. Copies of this affidavit shall be forwarded to the secretary of the department of social and health services and to the legislative budget committee at the time payment is made to the vendor."

On motion of Senator Goltz, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2207 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, would Senator Goltz yield to a question, please? If it is necessary to pay interest for failure to having made their required payment, would that amount come from the DSHS budget? Appropriations?"

Senator Goltz: "The answer is obviously that it would come from the DSHS budget, but I am assuming that the control of the reporting and the embarrassment of having to pay interest after sixty days will restrict this to a very few cases."

Senator Day: "Yes, Senator Benitz, and replaces it with a board. This has happened with a number of these professional groups, in this instance, this is exactly what is happening here. It gives the new board the opportunity to examine and to write rules relative to a number of subjects including examination and the disposition of human remains."

Senator Benitz: "Thank you. One further question, then we are not necessarily creating a new state agency here?"

works for the state to any member of the public, it has to go bulk mail, or are you talking about just when it exceeds five or six persons that it has to be bulk mail?"

Senator Scott: "Talking about to the public. Any time that there is more than one individual involved it is a mail mailing. We are not talking about individual correspondence, letters. Again we are talking about printed material."

Senator Francis: "All right, what you are talking about then, is sending it at the least expensive means which may well be first class if it is less than a large number of people."

On that day, Senator Newschwander served notice that he would move for reconsideration of the vote. On March 15, 1977, Senator McDermott moved for immediate reconsideration and Senator Ridder held that motion for March 16, 1977. On March 17, 1977, Senator McDermott held the motion for reconsideration to March 21, 1977.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion for reconsideration of the failure of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 to pass the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 was returned to second reading.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I raise the question of scope and object in the particular amendment. The purpose of the original bill as set forth in section one is very plainly restricted to desegregation purposes, and I think that if we start opening this bill up to other types of appropriation, for other kinds of busing, that in reality we are creating a situation where there can be an unlimited amount of variant type of amendments that could be offered."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115, together with the pending amendments by Senators Odegaard, McDermott, Donohue, and Jones and the Point of Order by Senator Clarke, was ordered held for further consideration March 22, 1977.

Senator Sandison moved the two amendments by Senator Sandison adopted by the Senate on March 4, 1977, be not adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "A matter of parliamentary inquiry. I am all in accordance with what Senator Sandison has said, but I am wondering about the status of this particular bill which was in conference and died during the constitutional session. It has been repassed by the House and I would assume that as repassed by the House it was in its original state, and therefore it is before us in that condition. For that reason it doesn't seem to me it is necessary for us to do anything about the purported amendments that we were talking about last session, and that all we need to do is to in effect make the amendment proposed by Senator Sandison. This bill really, has come back from the House. It hasn't gone to committee, it has come directly back here to the floor, but I would assume that it comes to the floor in the condition that it passed the House which, I think, would be without the amendment that we put on it last session."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Sandison yield? Senator Sandison, I built a home about six years ago, and I planted eleven or twelve fruit trees. For the first couple of years I couldn't get any leaves or limbs on them because the deer ate them off. I could have planted beans and used them for bean poles. I have a dog, and I got a dog for the express purposes of running the deer off so I could raise some fruit trees. Does this exclude my dog from chasing those deer away from my fruit trees?"

Senator Sandison: "It is commonly accepted, I think, that when they chase them away from your fruit trees, they are not really chasing the deer, they are merely scaring them off."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed House Bill No. 280, together with the motion by Senator Sandison and the parliamentary inquiry by Senator Clarke, was ordered held for further consideration March 22, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 109.

WHILE SHE HID FROM THE NAZIS SHE WROTE HER DIARY EXPRESSING HOPE FOR A BETTER LIFE AHEAD. FARMERS WORRIED ABOUT THE DROUGHT, CITIZENS WORRIED ABOUT CRIME, THE ELDERLY AT HOME OR IN CONVALESCENT CENTERS AND THE UNEMPLOYED, THE PRISONERS IN OVERCROWDED JAILS ALL LOOK TO THE MEN AND WOMEN HERE PRESENT FOR HELP. WE ASK THEE, LORD, THAT YOU MAY BE WITH THEM AFTER TWO MONTHS OF INTENSIVE WORK AND GRANT THEM RENEWED COURAGE AND WISDOM TO MAKE THE DREAM OF ANNE FRANK, THE DREAM ALSO OF SO MANY IN OUR STATE A REALITY; THAT THEY RECEIVE HELP WITH THEIR PARTICULAR BURDEN IN LIFE. ## MOTION

On motion of Senator Cunningham, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-19

By Senators Cunningham, Day and Walgren:

WHEREAS, The Food and Drug Administration has abruptly banned the distribution of saccharin products in the United States for the publicly stated reason that a white rat in a Canadian test laboratory developed a malignant tumor after being injected with a quantity of saccharin equivalent to a human consuming diet pop at the rate of 800 cans per day; and

WHEREAS, The FDA action was mandated by the so-called Delaney Amendment to the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938 which requires any substance that caused cancer in man or animal to be entirely eliminated from food; and

WHEREAS, Several million diabetics in this country have been using saccharin as it is the only approved artificial sweetener since in a similar cavalier manner the federal bureaucracy banned the distribution of cyclamates; and

WHEREAS, Not one human death or illness has been related to the use of saccharin; and

WHEREAS, The unfortunate results of hasty action of the federal bureaucracy has been clearly demonstrated in the past as in the infamous cranberry foul-up and the swine flu inoculation program; and

WHEREAS, In the face of the overwhelming evidence of the health hazards of smoking, the cigarette industry continues to market its products subject only to placing a warning on the label; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of this country have the right to the food products of their choice and as the duly elected representatives of the citizens of the State of Washington we are obligated to inform the Congress in no uncertain terms of our concern with the absurdity of the situation created by the Delaney Amendment;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Washington opposes this banning of the distribution of saccharin products and strongly urges the Congress to enact legislation to remedy the unwarranted effects of the Delaney Amendment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be delivered forthwith to all members of the Washington State Congressional delegation.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2081, by Senator Francis:

Creating warrant server positions for municipal courts of large cities.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after "vested" insert "only"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, that previous bill required training for law officers. Would these warrant servers and arrestors have the same training?"

Senator Francis: "They would not, Senator Rasmussen, and this is why these warrant servers would be limited to the Seattle municipal court only which has been a fairly innovative court. They are the ones that have tried a number of approaches to try to solve some of the problems that we have around the state, and some of them have been adopted by other courts. This warrant server thing is one of those, and the idea is to save the highly trained officers for positions that require training and let these warrant servers serve the warrants and handle just that alone."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Francis, a further question. It is my understanding that these warrants may be served statewide under the present law?"

Senator Francis: "Only within the terms provided in the statute. In other words, the Seattle municipal court would not have the authority to let warrant servers serve statewide unless that was agreed to by the jurisdiction that they went to. It is provided for in the bill that a jurisdiction that they went to and asked for this permission could refuse that and could require them to use a deputy sheriff or some other sworn personnel."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is my concern is some people object violently to these people that they have no knowledge of arriving from some other part of the state and serving a Seattle warrant, and yet you are having these people, untrained in law enforcement, they have no knowledge of how to disarm somebody or how to successfully make a peaceable arrest, and you are sending them out serving these warrants. I am just questioning this whole process."

Senator Francis: "Well, I think there is some value in questioning it, and I think on the other hand this is something that we ought to let the Seattle municipal court try and see how it works. It seems that they have done very well with the magistrate's approach where people have been able to come in and discuss their ticket or their citation with a magistrate, and this has resolved many cases that used to go to court. They have been successful in a number of other innovations and I think this is one. I would hope that we would adopt this amendment, and then we can look at the merits of the bill as a whole."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, are these warrant servers armed?"

Senator Francis: "It is my understanding that they are not armed, and I am not sure about that, but it was my understanding they were not armed."

Senator Pullen: "If Senate Bill 2418 were to become law this session, would the warrant servers be under the purview of Senate Bill 2418?"

Senator Francis: "Are you referring to the criminal justice training bill?"

Senator Pullen: "Yes."

Senator Francis: "It is not our intention that they be required to complete a criminal justice training. In fact, that is the idea of this bill is to be able to have warrant servers who are paid less because they are not as highly trained."

Senator Pullen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Francis yield? Would the warrant officers provided for under this bill be eligible for the LEOFF system for retirement purposes?"

Senator Francis: "There is no provision in this bill to put them in the LEOFF system. It is my understanding that they are not eligible to be under LEOFF."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield, please? The bill states that they would be peace officers of the state of Washington. You do not assume that they would therefore be under the state system?"

Senator Francis: "I not only do not assume that, Senator Hayner, but it is my understanding that they would not be. The amendment which we are in the process of adopting would say that they will be vested only with the special authority to make arrests authorized by the warrants which they have been directed to serve by courts created by chapter 35.20 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a further question? Senator Francis, in line ten, 'Said warrant servers shall hereby be peace officers of the state of Washington,' as Senator Hayner just mentioned. This would automatically give them access to police permits for carrying weapons, and they would have no knowledge of whether the warrant server decided for his own protection he had better carry a weapon."

Senator Francis: Senator Rasmussen, as of the present time, any citizen with very few exceptions is entitled to a permit to carry a concealed weapon. I certainly wouldn't want to have them have fewer rights than any citizen. There is nothing that expressly authorizes it here, but I don't see anything that expressly prohibits it either.

"If there is some concern about the LEOFF system which Senator Hayner raised, then I would suggest that we might want to hold this at least a little while on the calendar while we get a chance to get some response on that, and as such, I would move, Mr. President, that this bill hold its place on the calendar. I would like to adopt the amendment first, if we may, and then maybe I can ask that it be held."

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 12, after "arrests" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "authorized by the warrants which they have been directed to serve by courts created by chapter 35.20 RCW."

Making changes in the RCW code to reflect other laws relating to education.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator McDermott, Senate Bill No. 2831 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, is it necessary to spell out what day that they celebrate or recognize Veteran's Day? The reason I am asking is that it may be some time in the future this may be changed or it may be that some schools are going to be in session on that day even though it is a holiday. Why not just leave it up to them to determine whether they could make better arrangements before or after or on the day?"

Senator McDermott: "The testimony in the committee from the superintendent's office, and this is a superintendent of public instruction request bill, is that there is confusion and that in an effort to standardize what is happening, they wanted to have the change in law. There is, I suppose, some possibility that Veteran's Day will someday be a holiday that is not a holiday, but I doubt that as long as the Senate exists."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2831, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Absent or not voting: Senator Jones—1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Herr—2.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 108, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2115, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Senators McDermott, Donohue, Buffington, Fleming and Francis):

Appropriating funds for desegregated purposes to a school district with an enrollment of 50,000 pupils.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115. On March 14, 1977, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 failed to pass the Senate. On March 21, 1977, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill failed to pass. At that time, on motion of Senator McDermott, the bill was returned to second reading and the following amendment by Senators Odegaard, McDermott, Donohue and Jones was moved for adoption:

On page 1, line 6, after "million" insert "fifteen thousand"

On page 1, line 25, after "goals" insert: PROVIDED, That fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be used for disbursement by April 15, 1977 to those school districts who in the determination of the superintendent of public instruction meet the following criteria, such apportionment to be based on each such district's estimated need: (1) Have not operated a student transportation program for at least one continuous month during the 1976-77 school year, and (2) have raised funds from private sources for the operation of their student transportation program by April 1, 1977, which funds are equal to at least twice the amount that such district or districts qualify for from this section: PROVIDED FURTHER, That districts qualifying for funds under this proviso are not subject to any of the reporting requirements or conditions described in Section 1 or Section 2 of this act."

At that time, Senator Clarke raised a Point of Order on the amendment by Senators Odegaard, McDermott, Donohue and Jones and the bill was held for a Ruling by the President.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Substitute Senate Bill number 2115, a point of order as presented by Senator Clarke. In ruling upon Senator Clarke's point of order on Senator Odegaard's amendment to Substitute Senate Bill 2115, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill 2115 appropriates one million dollars for desegregation purposes by busing to any first class school district having an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils or more.

"Senator Odegaard's amendment provides fifteen thousand dollars to school districts under fifty thousand for transportation of students in districts in which levy failures have forced discontinuation of busing.

"Therefore, the President believes the amendment does increase the scope and object of the bill and is thus out of order."

The amendment by Senators Odegaard, McDermott, Donohue and Jones was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Peterson was excused.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 8, strike "fifty" and insert "ten"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator McDermott yield to a question, please? Senator McDermott, this bill authorizes the payment of transportation here for school districts with fifty thousand population or more. Is that fifty thousand dollar student figure, is that weighted enrollment or raw student?"

Senator McDermott: "That is FTE'S, raw, as you call it."

Senator Beck: "Raw students."

Senator McDermott: "Yes."

Senator Beck: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, why did you happen to choose a figure of ten thousand? Why not reduce it down to five hundred or whatever?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Odegaard, I picked it because, as I understood it in a quick analysis, those districts which have a racial imbalance problem generally tend to fall in the higher population levels or the central cities, the Everett, the Tacoma, the Yakima, Pasco situations. If you have some examples where you need to go from ten to five hundred and it is a racial integration problem, so that we stay within the scope and object of the act, I would have no objection."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Herr moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 be ordered held for further consideration on second reading for March 23, 1977.

Debate ensued.

Senator Wojahn demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Bottiger, Pullen, Goltz, Bausch, Walgren, Donohue, von Reichbauer and Rjdder.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Herr that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 be held for further consideration on the second reading calendar for March 23, 1977.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Herr failed by the following vote: Yeas, 9; nays, 37; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Guess, Herr, Newschwander, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Talley, Wanamaker, Wilson, Wojahn—9.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Hayner, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Woody—37.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Mardesich—2.

Excused: Senator Peterson—1.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Wojahn demanded a roll call on the amendment by Senator Bottiger and the demand was sustained by Senators Bottiger, Rasmussen, von Reichbauer, Matson, Herr, Newschwander, Pullen, Clarke and Guess.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Bottiger.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Bottiger was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 30; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Cunningham, Gaspard, Guess, Hayner, Herr, Newschwander, Rasmussen, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wojahn, Woody—16.

Voting nay: Senators Beck, Bluechel, Buffington, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—30.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Mardesich—2.

Excused: Senator Peterson—1.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Pullen to page 1, after line 25, adding a new paragraph, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Lewis Cunningham, Bausch, Wojahn, Benitz, Hayner, Washington, Sellar, Goltz, Odegaard and Mardesich:

On page 1, line 13, after "section" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the funds appropriated herein shall be used to support the voluntary transfer of students for the purpose of achieving a more balanced racial distribution within the school district. No such funds shall be used to accomplish an altered racial distribution by the mandatory transfer of students from one school to another"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, would Senator Pullen yield to a question? Senator Pullen, as I read your amendment, it simply says that none of the funds in this particular appropriation could be used for mandatory transfer of students. Is there anything in your bill or in your amendment or intended by you to prevent a district from using other funds for mandatory transfers?"

Senator Pullen: "Senator Francis, although I personally would very much like to do that, and I would pretty much like to achieve that, the wording of my amendment relates only to the one million dollars appropriated in Senate Bill 2115, and it does not address the question of how other funds might be utilized."

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115, and the bill passed the Senate, on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Walgren, Washington, Wilson—29.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, Clarke, Cunningham, Guess, Hayner, Herr, Jones, Lewis, Newschwander, Pullen, Rasmussen, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Wojahn, Woody—18.

Absent or not voting: Senator Mardesich—1.

Excused: Senator Peterson—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2115, having received the constitutional majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

THIRTEENTH DAY

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Kelly Wright and Pat Stamey, presented the Colors. Father William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, WE RECALL TODAY A MESSAGE FROM ONE OF THE GREAT MEN OF OUR TIME, VIKTOR FRANKL, WHO SURVIVED THE CONCENTRATION CAMPS. HE POSES THE QUESTION WE NEED TO ASK OFTEN OF OURSELVES. 'WHAT THEN, IS MAN? HE IS A BEING WHO CONTINUOUSLY DECIDES WHAT HE IS; A BEING WHO EQUALLY HARBORS THE POTENTIAL TO DESCEND TO THE LEVEL OF AN ANIMAL OR TO ASCEND TO THE LIFE OF A SAINT. MAN IS THAT BEING WHO, AFTER ALL, INVENTED GAS CHAMBERS, BUT AT THE SAME TIME HE IS THAT BEING WHO ENTERED INTO THOSE SAME GAS CHAMBERS WITH HIS HEAD HELD HIGH AND WITH THE "OUR FATHER." OR THE JEWISH PRAYER OF THE DYING ON HIS LIPS.'

"WE PRAY FOR THOSE LEGISLATORS THAT THEY MAY COURAGEOUSLY AND WISELY FACE THE TASKS AHEAD OF THEM AND MAKE WISE DECISIONS FOR THE GOOD OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:20 a.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2081, by Senator Francis:

Creating warrant server positions for municipal courts of large cities.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2081 as amended by Senator Francis on March 22, 1977.

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 26, add a new subsection as follows:

"(6) Said warrant servers shall not be entitled to death, disability or retirement benefits pursuant to chapter 41.26 RCW on the basis of service as a warrant server as described in this section."

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 10, after "shall" and before "vested" on line 11, strike "hereby be peace officers of the state of Washington" and insert "be"

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2081 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, we have checked in response to the questions of some of the members with Mr. Malloy who is the court administrator for the Seattle municipal court, and I would like to answer some of your questions before final passage so that you will know those answers.

"Number one, warrant servers are not required to carry guns as a condition of their employment. Warrant servers who are retired law enforcement officers do normally carry guns. Those who are not are not granted that power under their commissions.

"The warrant servers themselves receive their commissions from the Seattle chief of police. Retired law enforcement officers receive a full commission giving them powers of arrest twenty-four hours a day, and that is so they can serve these warrants any time of day if need be. The warrant servers who are not retired law enforcement officers receive limited commissions giving them arrest powers only during normal working hours. If a subject resists arrest the warrant servers have been directed to terminate the arrest attempt and contact a local law enforcement authority to complete the arrest. The city of Seattle is liable for any damages for false arrest.

"Then we got into the question of the LEOFF system. There was no intention or desire to have those people covered by LEOFF, so there was certainly no objection to the amendments that we have just made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, if Senator Francis does not object, could those remarks be entered in the record?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, as I understand this bill, if it passes we can expect some warrant servers from Seattle to come into the hinterlands at all times of the day and night and arrest the local citizens for their traffic tickets numbering about fifty thousand in number."

Senator Francis: "Senator Bottiger, I suspect that there are some miscreants who have been hiding from the law in your district, however, I am sure that in your district there are very few of them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, I am serious. 'The position of warrant server is hereby created within the court.' What authority do the courts have in regard to arresting of people?"

Senator Francis: "Arrests are made by process of court. Ordinarily unless there is a felony in process or something like that or a police officer actually sees a misdemeanor being committed, most arrests are made by a warrant. A warrant is court process done by the authority of a court."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, what you indicate here is that you are creating the position of warrant server, and generally warrant serving it is assumed you dash up to somebody and hand them the papers before he knows what he is getting. He thinks he is getting a valentine and he gets a paper to come into court, but in this and further down here, you don't provide any provisions authorizing them to make arrests, but you do down below. Now, you have struck the peace officers which we would assume would give the powers of arrest, but then in the last paragraph, which apparently is still in the bill, 'upon a defendant being arrested in another city.'"

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, we did not delete the part in sub two that provides for the special authority to make arrests in connection with the warrants that they are given to serve, and so they are granted by this statute the authority to arrest for those purposes. That is basically what we are doing is authorizing by statute that those people can make arrests in connection with a court issued warrant for arrest."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is what bothers me. You are authorizing any person that the court would want to designate to go out and make arrests, and yet previously, in the bills that have passed through here, we provided for the proper training for these people and here you are setting up another category without any training. Now, if they are just going to serve papers I can understand, but if they are going to serve papers and arrest too, they most assuredly should be required to have some training."

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, one of the things we are trying to do is to save some money and to be efficient, and if you want to you can term it a pilot project because, of course, anything that the Seattle municipal court does, and this only relates to the Seattle municipal court, is going to be isolated to that court by the fact that it is in a separate part of the RCW. If it works, and we expect it to work, then maybe some other people will want to do it."

"As I explained earlier, these people are not going to try to overcome a resistance, they will contact local law enforcement people if they have an arrest that is resisted. These people are commissioned by the chief of police of the city of Seattle so it is just not anybody that comes along that is going to be doing it.

"It seems to me that we have enough built in safeguards that we ought to let them attempt to work this process and see if they can't make it a success."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2364, by Senators Bluechel, Bottiger, Walgren, Benitz and Sellar:

Establishing a pilot project on bicycles.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, line 21, after "transportation" strike "and utilities"

On page 2, line 36, after "the" strike "traffic" and insert "highway"

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President, would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator Bluechel, on this tax on kiddies, what is the penalty for failure for compliance with the mandatory registration?"

Senator Bluechel: "There isn't any. This is a pilot project only. This is meant for one county, the county to be established by the commission, and it is an attempt to set up a procedure where it will reduce the amount of theft and problems with bicycles. It is similar to a program that is already in effect in the city of Seattle."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Ridder: "A point of information if I may, Mr. President. Senator Cunningham, I wasn't quite sure of the implication of your statement about Seattle. Did you mean that the Seattle administration was voluntarily entering into a mandatory bicycle registration which is my understanding of the situation in Seattle?"

Senator Cunningham: "Senator Ridder, it is my understanding that Seattle themselves have decided that they want to have a bicycle registration program, and they are in turn, for the filing of a fee you are able to get a registration decal to put on your bike and to register it. It is my understanding that they are not mandating full registration of all bicycles."

Senator Ridder: "My understanding is that they are."

Senator Cunningham: "Well, even so, but they are making the decision. We are not coming along and doing it for them."

Senator Ridder: "Right, the administration is doing it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? This is registration of bicycles, now. This doesn't include tricycles?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Herr, the bicycles are defined in a separate section of the code."

Senator Herr: "And if we pass this bill, I suppose this session you will amend the bill, or next year to include tricycles. Now, I think we should have tricycle safety too then. Is that what you are saying?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Herr, if you wish to propose that bill, fine."

Senator Herr: "Well, you have convinced me to vote 'no' on this bill because I think what we are doing, we are getting very ridiculous on registration of things like that, and I have to support Senator Cunningham's logic on it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator Bluechel, by your amendment which would change the traffic safety fund to the highway safety fund, do we at this time have a highway safety fund?"

Senator Bluechel: "That is the correct name. It isn't the traffic safety fund, it is the highway safety fund. This was given to me as a technical amendment by the transportation committee."

Senator Odegaard: "We have, I know, a traffic safety fund. Senator Donohue and I hadn't heard of the highway safety fund before."

Senator Bluechel: "I stand to be corrected because this was a technical amendment, and the transportation committee staff put this together."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I don't want a lot of verbiage to get into the record. I would like to ask Senator Bluechel a question, but I don't want a long answer that will go into the record if we can stop it."

"Senator Bluechel, in driving down the street today I noticed a young lad with his lunch sack and he was riding a unicycle. Nowhere in this bill can I find anything relating to unicycles."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Rasmussen, it is not in the bill. Unicycles are not covered at this time."

Senator Rasmussen: "You have no intention, and that will be one free way of expressing our own individual opinion without inspection, registration and anything else that the committee may think up."

Senator Bluechel: "Absolutely."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am glad because that little boy seemed to be enjoying it. In the bill it provides for a mandatory system of bicycle registration. You indicated that this was a pilot project, and I can realize that the camel can't get into the tent unless it gets its nose in first. That has always been the problem when you let camels into your place of business. You indicated that King county—King county or Seattle—already is doing this."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Rasmussen, Seattle has a limited program. It is not as comprehensive as this. This is the reason for the advisory committee's proposal to have a comprehensive program to tackle the whole field of bicycles including safety, promotion, usage and everything else in one bill and see what happens. It may not work out. We may not want to go any farther at all after we see what happens but this is at least a pilot project to find out results."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 25; excused, 3.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Guess moved the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364 failed to pass the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry: "I would like to raise a point of order that while Senator Beck's speech was very enlightening, the body has not yet voted on the motion by Senator Guess that we reconsider immediately."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Guess carried on a rising vote and the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364 failed to pass the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that we just voted to reconsider. The matter is now on the calendar for final passage which we could vote on now if we want, of course subject to debate, subject to being held a day if we want, and so forth, but we have reconsidered. Isn't that correct, Mr. President?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Well, traditionally, and pursuant to the rules adopted in the previous session you would reconsider the vote tomorrow, but yes, Senator Guess made a positive motion that the Senate immediately reconsider which would have taken a suspension of the rules under previous rules."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call, on reconsideration, of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2364 failed to pass the Senate, on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 24; excused, 3.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 104, by Senators Francis, Clarke, Marsh and Van Hollebeke:

Amending the Constitution to adopt a new judicial article.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 2, 1977.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 104, amending the Constitution to adopt a new Judicial Article (reported by Judiciary Committee):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 4, line 14, following Article IVA, Section 18, add a new section to read as follows:

"Article IVA, section 19. CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT. The county clerk shall be, by virtue of his office, clerk of the Superior court."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Hayner, Jones, Van Hollebeke, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, would the county clerk remain an elected position under your amendment?"

Senator Francis: "Yes, Senator Odegaard, under this amendment the county clerk would remain an elected official, elected in that county and independently responsible to the voters."

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Pullen moved the following amendments by Senators Pullen, Lewis, Sellar and Rasmussen be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 5, strike "an amendment" and replace with "four amendments"

On page 1, line 8 after "Article IVA" and before "the" insert "all or part of"

On page 1, line 9 after the colon add "SJR 104A which shall consist of section 31, of Article IVA; SJR 104B, which shall consist of sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, 26, and 28 of Article IVA; SJR 104C, which shall consist of sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 22, 23, 25, and 27 of Article IVA; and SJR 104D, which shall consist of section 17 of Article IVA; PROVIDED, That SJR 104A shall not be deemed ratified unless SJR 104B is also ratified; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the effective date of each of the four amendments shall be in accordance with section 29 of Article IVA."

On page 5, section 30, at the end of line 21 after "27" insert "or any part thereof"

On page 5, line 34, add an "s" to the word "amendment"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: Mr. President, would Senator Pullen yield to a question? Senator, your point being that you interpret the single subject clause of the amendatory section of the present Constitution as requiring that we talk about four individual amendments as opposed to separate amendments, is that the point of all of these amendments?"

Senator Pullen: "Well, you are close. Of course, our Constitution does not say that an amendment must be of a single subject. It simply says that in Article XXIII you must submit separate amendments to the voters so that they can vote for or against each amendment separately. That is what I am trying to accomplish. There are at least four amendments within SJR 104. There may be more, but I can pick out at least four and this particular amendment would try to satisfy Article XXIII of our Constitution."

Senator Bottiger: "The purpose of my question, Senator Pullen, is that all of these amendments considered together do the same thing so that the debate and vote on all of these amendments are actually the same debate and same vote."

Senator Pullen: "That is exactly right."

Senator Bottiger: "I would have no objection to considering them all together."

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendments will be considered simultaneously.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, this is a technical question. If the voters voted on both the constitutional amendments at the one time, they do not go into effect for thirty days, until after the vote is certified, what would the position be?"

Senator Marsh: "I have not examined HJR 7 to see whether or not that particular problem is taken care of. If it is not, I think it would be a simple matter to make it retroactive to cover this and I would certainly join in that kind of an amendment to HJR 7."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President—I don't know—I have two or three questions. I am going to ask the questions, and maybe Senator Francis or someone could answer them, but I have a question on the language on page 2, line 5 where it says 'The judges of the courts of each level of court in each region shall elect a judge.' Does that mean, for instance, that the people will not elect that judge, that that judge shall be elected outside of those judges already elected? The way I read it, it does indicate that.

"The second thing which would, in my judgment, mean that automatically they could create more judges without a vote of the people or by the legislature. The second thing, is there anything in this Article or any of the language that would possibly indicate that the judges could set their own appropriation? There are two distinct questions."

Senator Francis: "Senator Donohue, in reply to your questions, first I think your question is an excellent one. On page 2, line 5 that sentence is meant and was intended by every member of both the task force and the judiciary committee to mean that the judges would elect someone from among themselves to be their chief, and I see the ambiguity you are talking about. I am glad you brought it up so that we can make it a matter of record here that the intention is that that means they elect one of the persons who is already a judge to be the chief judge. They do not elect someone to become a judge. The only people who are provided—in other words, the only way that you can become a judge is either by appointment of the Governor or by election by the people under this Article, and one of the things which we took a great deal of care to do was to preserve the right of the people to elect the judges of this state. So I am very glad that you brought that up because I want that clear as a matter of record that that is what that is intended to mean.

"As to the second question, I did not write it down, but it was with regard to whether or not the judges could appropriate their own funds and their own salaries and so forth. There is nothing in here that would speak to that or change the present situation. I think, as you know, we have a continuing problem, and it is a very delicate problem, relating to the separation of powers between the coequal branches of government, and so far the legislative branch and the judicial branch, or for that matter the legislative branch and the executive branch, have never come into a head-on confrontation on that issue. I think that the legislature would continue to have the power of appropriation. I got no indication from any judge that they intended to challenge that power in any way, and there is nothing in here that would provide the judicial branch that power."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 6, after "shall elect a judge" insert "from among those then serving"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Mardesich, do you think you could include in that amendment that—I meant to ask this question of Senator Francis—that that judge so chosen as the regional head of the district, the regional district, would be a working judge, would not just have the position of being the regional judge and sort of the presiding judge?"

Senator Mardesich: "I believe, at least as far as I am concerned, that is the intent of this section and I don't think there is anything there that implies to the contrary."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 6, after "elect" strike "a judge" and insert "one of their number"

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 26, after "supreme court may" insert "subject to appropriation by the legislature"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I gather that Senator Clarke takes the position that such an amendment would be more proper as an additional Article, and if so, I would be more than happy to join him in that approach. I would agree."

Senator Clarke: "Yes, I think it should be in a separate, specific chapter. I might say that this is one of the possible differences between the 104 as it presently is before us and 101 which we drafted previously, in that 101 had a specific provision in it that the court appropriations should be, in effect, and I forget the exact wording, but as determined by the legislature. That was in there by a specific affirmative provision, and that does not appear in 104."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment was withdrawn.

MOTION

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

The Senate resumed consideration from earlier today of Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 on second reading.

Senator Pullen moved the following amendments by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen and Grant be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 30, after "position" insert "other than the supreme court"

On page 2, line 32, after the period insert: "To be eligible for appointment or election to the supreme court a person must be registered to vote."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Pullen yield? Senator Pullen, I am inclined to agree with you, but I am wondering if the justices of the U. S. supreme court are required to be, quote, registered to vote, and if not, why do you now require that they be registered to vote?"

Senator Pullen: "The reason is that that is a consistent requirement that we have for virtually all of our offices, and that is a requirement that is already imposed in section eleven for all other judges, and I am not particularly concerned as much with that point as I am with the other one, but for consistency I decided to keep that as part of my amendment."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendments were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 8, after "vacancy" insert "to the supreme court, the court of appeals or superior court"

On page 3, line 11, after "term." add the following: "District court vacancies shall be filled as provided by statute."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 7, strike "six" and insert "four"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, after line 17, insert a new section as follows:

"Article IVA, section 28. FUNDING. The legislature shall provide funding for the operations of the courts to the extent it deems necessary."

Renumber following sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? I assume the 'it' refers back to 'Legislature' rather than to 'court.'"

Senator Mardesich: "I suppose that—what I did was took this language as suggested from the old Resolution and I would assume that question—might answer that. If not, we could say, 'to the extent the Legislature deems necessary.' If there is no objection to that, that would make it very clear, which is exactly what I had in mind anyway. The word 'it' would be stricken, and the word 'Legislature', 'the Legislature deems necessary.'"

Debate ensued.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich:

Amend the Mardesich amendment to page 5, line 17 as follows:

On line 1 of the amendment, after "provide" insert "the method of"
Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Hayner, the amendment to the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted:

Amend the Mardesich amendment to page 5, line 17, as follows:

On line 3 of the amendment, after "provide" insert "the method and amount of"

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 1, strike "The legislature may provide that a candidate who is unopposed or receives a majority in the primary election is elected."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 24, strike Article IVA, section 22.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Cunningham moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 21, insert a new section as follows:

"Article IVA, section 17, RETIREMENT. Any justice or judge shall retire from judiciary office at the end of the calendar year in which he attains the age of seventy years. The legislature may, from time to time, fix a lesser age for mandatory retirement. This provision shall not affect the term to which any such justice or judge shall have been elected or appointed prior to, or at the time of, approval and ratification of this provision."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Cunningham:

Amend the amendment to page 3, line 21 as follows:

On line 5 of the amendment, after "seventy" insert "-five".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Cunningham was adopted on a rising vote.

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Cunningham failed and the amendment, as amended, was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Mardesich:

On page 3, section 14, line 7, after "for" strike "judges and justices is six years" and insert "judges of the supreme court and of the court of appeals is six years and for all other judges and justices, four years"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 5, following section 26, insert a new section as follows:

"The legislature shall determine the qualifications and methods of admitting persons to practice law."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, it is not a practice in any other profession that I know of for the members of that profession to decide who should be admitted. Would you please tell me why you think the attorneys should decide who should be a member of the legal fraternity, why the supreme court should decide that instead of doing it as we do in all other professions?"

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator, which question are you asking me, whether the attorneys should do it or whether the supreme court should do it, because those are two different things."

"I am not asking that the bar association determine, but I am asking that the supreme court determine, and that isn't the bar association, that is a separate and coequal branch of the government of the state of Washington that we are talking about."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I meant because they are attorneys. I meant the supreme court."

Senator Francis: "Have I answered your question?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "No."

Senator Francis: "Maybe you had better repeat it, then. I don't quite understand what you are asking me."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "My question was why do you think that the legal profession is different from all other professions that the members there, or the supreme court who are members of that association should decide who should be members of the legal profession. We don't allow the grocers to say, 'We are not going to have any more grocers,' or 'We are going to have only so many more,' or pharmacists, but we do do this in the legal profession."

Senator Francis: "OK, well, in order to make sure that this remains a part of the record, I am going to ask my counselor, Senator Bottiger, to answer that one for me."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Van Hollebeke, to the contrary to what you suggest, most of the professions are governed by their own governing board that establishes the rules and regulations, write the test, conduct the test, and administer the test and decide who and how many people pass. If you will look in Title 18, there is a whole list, everything from doctors to chiropractors to optometrists to dispensing opticians to barbers and beauticians, and all the way down the line. They are a board appointed by the Governor to administer that function."

"To the contrary, in the legal profession, a group of elected officials, mainly the supreme court establishes the procedure. They also happen to be attorneys, but if you will look in Title 18 you will find all of the other boards are made up of their own profession, occasionally with one public member. The bar association has public members on it, but it doesn't admit or discipline attorneys."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Francis, would you yield to a question? What is the constitutional provision now relating to the determination of the qualification of attorneys?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Washington, I am not sure that is in the state Constitution. It is handled by the state supreme court, and maybe somebody can point out the provision. I am not familiar with what the number is."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Washington, my knowledge is that it is not covered by the Constitution. I have read the appellate court decisions on this. The supreme court has just taken this prerogative, said 'We will set the standards. Legislature can set certain minimum standards, but we are going to call the shots.' Arguing with Senator Bottiger, no it wasn't Senator Bottiger, it was Senator Clarke argued that this would not have public appeal. On the contrary, I think I am pretty much in tune with how the public feels about this, and this is one of their greatest criticisms of the legal profession is that it is that tight, and they do decide who is going to be admitted on their own.

"This would, I think, have a good deal of public appeal."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment by Senator Mardesich was ordered held temporarily.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Perhaps Senator Washington could yield. If I understood it, Senator Washington, was it your understanding that if we don't do this that the Legislature has the right to set standards? Is that what you—"

Senator Washington: "I would assume that it does. If we haven't by the Constitution given the supreme court the power—"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I think that should be a correct assumption, but the supreme court has said otherwise. It was in one case some of the appellate court decisions I read were interpreting, or at least one was, was it interpreting where this Legislature tried to set standards, and they said, 'Sorry, you can't do that.'"

Senator Washington: "I am willing to leave it the way it is at the present time. I am informed that if we don't adopt the amendment of Senator Mardesich, we will leave it the way it is at the present time."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, it just strikes me that this amendment may be outside the scope and object of the judicial article. If I may raise that question, I would like to speak on it very briefly."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I think the President said that if there were no objection, this amendment would be set aside. There are two other amendments on the desk that could be considered. There was no objection at that time."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is correct. With your approval, Senator Goltz, the President will put your point after the other two amendments have been considered and the present amendment comes under the consideration of the Senate."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 17, after "court" strike all the material down to the period on line 20.

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment by Senator Mardesich was withdrawn.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 29, after "determination" insert ": PROVIDED, That such person shall not qualify for the judges' or judicial retirement systems"

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Donohue:

Amend the amendment to page 4, line 29 as follows:

After "systems" on the last line of the amendment, insert "or any other retirement system"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I think, for the record it might be well that your intent be established that that was for any other public retirement system. Is that true?"

Senator Donohue: "Well, I suppose that would be true. I would like to, for a moment, I don't know who to ask, my constitutional attorney, Senator Pullen, or someone. The remark that was made a moment ago as to whether this type of language should go into the Constitution, as I read the rest of the Article, I am wondering why a lot of things are in here that should not be possibly statutory. So if somebody would explain that to me, Senator Pullen or Senator—"

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, all I can say is we have tried to keep it clean, but you can see what happens, can't you? I would suggest that people at least think about an amendment which I am going to propose after we finish voting on Senator Donohue's oral amendment, and that is to put the word 'thereby' after 'not have before qualified' so that we make it clear Senator Donohue, that we are not saying that just because he served as a judge pro tem, somebody who might otherwise be qualified loses his retirement. We want to make it clear that it is simply that he does not qualify just because of his serving as a judge pro tem. So if we put the word 'thereby' in, I think we would also take care of Senator Lewis's concern. So it would then say, 'provided that such person shall not thereby qualify for the judges or judicial, et cetera, et cetera.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "I am assuming then from your remarks now that you think this should go into the constitutional amendment, the amendment that—"

Senator Francis: "Senator, I agree with Senator Clarke that it ought to be in statute, however I expect it to be adopted and I just want to see it written right. I think it ought to be somewhere. I think it certainly is consistent with our intent. I am simply trying to perfect this by making it clear that these people don't lose all of their retirement benefits that they had already earned just by serving as a pro tem one day. Do you understand what I am saying, Senator Donohue?"

Senator Donohue: "I understand what you are saying, and I had the nod from Senator Pullen. He said also that this should go into the statute, as my constitutional lawyer, so I am going to, with the permission of the body, withdraw the amendment to the amendment and the amendment."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Donohue, the amendment and the amendment to the amendment were withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Joint Resolution No. 104, as amended, was ordered reprinted and held on the second reading calendar for March 28, 1977.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I would like to know the disposition of the Mardesich amendment on page 5, line 5 following section 26."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Goltz, in reply to your inquiry, Senator Mardesich withdrew that particular amendment. Senator Washington had planned to present another amendment, but thus far has not done so."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "I find that the point I am interested in does not require an amendment. I would prefer to leave the constitutional situation as it is at the present time."

MOTION

At 3:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, March 25, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Thank you. Would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, I think you really explained this rather fully, but I think everyone of us out here do have some concerns about the agencies included. My concern is, as I have talked to you, is the commodity commission. It is my understanding, and is that correct, if in fact the commodity commissions were to be dealt with in this manner, that it would come back to this legislative body and we could then discuss the merits of that at that time?"

Senator Wilson: "That is absolutely correct."

Senator Sellar: "Thank you very much."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

March 25, 1977.

I missed the vote on Senate Bill No. 2082 because the House of Representatives was amending and debating Senate Bill No. 2620, an act dealing with the water emergency we face this summer. Signed: Senator Sid Morrison

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 16, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2426, regulating the disclosure of the records of the department of employment security (reported by Committee on Labor):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 8, after "individual" strike "or employing unit".

On page 2, line 10, strike "or employing unit".

On page 2, line 12, after "to" insert "its own" and after "and" insert "to any records and".

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Chairman; Bailey, Grant, Matson, Morrison, Peterson, Sellar.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Ridder, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2426 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I note on page 2, section 6—I note first of all page 1, section 2 that the release of any of this information is prohibited, except of course, to the federal government who sponsors part of the program, and then it goes on on page 2, section 6 to provide that certain governmental agencies may request and have access to the records if the employment security department finds that the information or records are needed by the agency for official purposes. Then it says further on page 3 at the top of section (b) on line 3 that the director of the agency designated by the employment security department rule shall verify the need for the information. What is the position of the Legislature with respect to getting information from the department? Must we request and the department approve before they give us the records? To whom would we go if we wanted information? Who is the, quote, director, commissioner, chief executive or other official of this Legislature who would designate whether I, as an individual, have the right to make inquiry, and third, is it intended that anything in this bill would prohibit me, as an individual legislator from seeking information from the department with respect to individual cases and records or general statistical information?"

Senator Ridder: "I can't remember whether I should answer 'no' or 'yes', Senator Mardesich. By way of explanation, it would be my understanding that in the course of pursuing legislative inquiry which many of us have, in terms of constituent inquiries, and most frequently of course, these might come from an individual rather than from an employing unit, but it would seem to me that as has been the custom in the past, if we have an inquiry to make that we can make that from whoever the top person is that we get to. I would think that 'other official' would cover that.

"If there were some reason that our inquiry seemed outside the lines of propriety, I am sure it would follow upward on the administrative trail, and that I would read it as a non lawyer as saying that anyone from the legislative branch or the executive branch would have the opportunity to make an inquiry, and I would assume that since the employment security department is anxious to cooperate they would make that information available to us, or if indeed, it were a breach of confidentiality, would advise us chapter and verse why it could not be provided.

"You will notice under section 10, 'Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the disclosure of information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if all details identifying an individual or employing unit are deleted or the individual or employing unit consents to the disclosure.' I would assume that if we want information on a statistical basis that that would be made available to us or conversely, if either an individual or the employing unit for whom we are making inquiry consents."

Senator Mardesich: "One question to which I think you did not respond was that relating to line 3 on page 3 where it says that the employment security department shall name the person who is allowed to make inquiry to the department. Who would that person be with respect to me as a member of the Legislature that I would have to direct my inquiry to?"

Senator Ridder: "My reaction would be to the director. I am sure he would want to be responsive. I don't see it as being exclusive."

Senator Mardesich: "It says the director designated by employment security shall verify the need."

Senator Ridder: "I am sorry, I would read that 'director, commissioner, chief executive or other official of the agency designated.'"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, I think that—"

Senator Ridder: "And I would refer 'designated' to 'official.'"

Senator Mardesich: "Is your answer then that this bill would allow me to directly make inquiry to the department?"

Senator Ridder: "Yes."

Senator Mardesich: "And the department would be bound to respond?"

Senator Ridder: "By legislative intent."

Senator Mardesich: "Let me take a specific case. If some person reports to me that they have reason to believe that an individual is making claim of the department for unemployment compensation while working, according to the allegations, do I have the authority to check with the department to see whether that individual is in fact, or has been in fact, drawing benefits during a particular period of time, and must the department respond?"

Senator Ridder: "My reaction would be that if it is an inquiry on the part of your next door neighbor as to whether someone down the street is drawing benefits that there would be a limit to the information that would be transmitted to you or to that neighbor. In other words, if the employing unit had a question, those records would be available. Simple curiosity would not be satisfied under this measure."

Senator Mardesich: "What you are saying then is that if someone were to make such a report to me I could not satisfy my curiosity by a request to the department for such information?"

Senator Ridder: "I would think that you would be able to make that inquiry of the department. I do think that there would be some restriction as to your inquiry into that individual's private records."

Senator Mardesich: "You have bothered me now. I just wonder if we shouldn't require that the legislators have the right to make inquiry because it is only by making such inquiry that we are able to respond to problems which exist in this system or in any other system. If we are unable to get information freely, well then I think it may bind us in responding to the problems which arise. Without a direct response from you that the intent of this bill is to allow legislators to make any inquiries they desire, then I would feel compelled to vote against the measure."

Senator Ridder: "I must say that I would feel somewhat uncomfortable at the thought even that legislators could make completely random inquiries. I would see no constraint in allowing, or certainly encouraging legislators to make inquiries into particular records. My personal concern would be with the response back in terms of specifics, that is, a fishing expedition. I could not give you legal interpretation, and perhaps someone else could more adequately respond or perhaps would give it a different feeling. I have a personal reaction in that."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2435, by Senators Donohue, Scott and Sandison:

Providing for disposition of operating fees charged at institutions of higher education.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2435 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I have had several calls from home about this thing. The problem that they see is that a short time ago we authorized a treasurer for Eastern Washington State College to save them from having to charter a plane and send the representative over here to pick up the vouchers. Will this require that the colleges in the eastern part of the state have to send over here to get their money?"

Senator Donohue: "We passed a bill that took care of that problem only for Eastern Washington—"

Senator Guess: "Wait a minute, not for the community colleges?"

Senator Donohue: "Well, I understand that, but there is a bill, House Bill 585, and Senate Bill 3051, which will be coming before us that will authorize that treasurer, the person that is writing the checks now, will be authorized as that treasurer and will solve the problem that you are talking about, Senator."

Senator Guess: "In other words, what you are saying is that they will have the money at hand so they can take the two or five percent discount for ten days payment of their bills without having to send over here to get the voucher to pay it with?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct. The money will come from the treasury directly to the college and be deposited for their disbursement by that treasurer."

Senator Guess: "Senator Donohue, are the community colleges now earning interest on the deposits that they are keeping in Eastern Washington?"

Senator Donohue: "I would assume so, Senator. I didn't check on that specifically, but we have taken care of that in the bill so that those dollars, even though the dollars are deposited within the state treasury, they were deposited in that account and will be kept separate so that the interest accruing from any investment by the treasurer will be accrued to that particular college."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much, Senator."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2435, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Goltz, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wojahn, Woody—26.

Absent or not voting: Senator Odegaard—1.

Excused: Senators Beck, Benitz, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Peterson, Rasmussen, Wanamaker—9.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2435, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2154, by Senators Bottiger and Hayner:

Governing increased state participation in third party industrial insurance actions.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2154 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2154 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Ridder, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2154 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, I have had an interest in third party liability claims for a long time since I saw a small contractor put out of business because his employees were working on another job—I mean on a job right along beside the prime contractor's personnel who were covered by the state industrial insurance. This instance occurred where the man removed the cover off of a man hole and proceeded to do his work. Unfortunately, and unbeknownst to the electrician, the carpenter crawling down a ladder came down backwards, stepped into the man hole and was seriously injured. He subsequently sued and won a judgment for a sizeable amount of money, and the electrical subcontractor had to pay it all. It caused him to go out of business because he did not, and could not, buy insurance to cover that third party liability.

"The question that bothers me here is, is this going to make the activity in this field far more expensive in the future than it has been in the past, and I express my concern for those people who cannot buy insurance but whose corporate existence will be put in jeopardy."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, I don't think this bill does anything to that fact situation. It doesn't address it at all. The third party, the theory of third party negligent defendant's recovery is not even touched in this bill. If anything, it might in a given set of cases permit that small contractor to settle a case that he otherwise could not settle and would be forced into court by allowing the department to accept less than their full lien to accomplish the settlement."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2154, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 9.

Voting nay: Senator von Reichbauer—1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Wojahn—1.

Excused: Senators Beck, Benitz, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Peterson, Rasmussen, Wanamaker—9.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2154, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2437.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2437, by Senators Henry, Guess, Beck, Lewis and Woody:

Enacting the interstate compact for school bus safety.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 18, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2437, enacting the interstate compact for school bus safety (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 7, line 19, following section 1 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state commissioners to the western states school bus safety commission shall be the director of highways, the superintendent of public instruction and the chief of the Washington state patrol or their respective designees. Annually the Washington commissioners shall elect a chairman from their own membership who shall serve for one year commencing July 1. Election as chairman shall not interfere with the member's right to vote on all matters before the Washington commissioners. The Washington commissioners may by majority vote designate one of their members to represent the state on any matter coming before the Western states school bus safety commission."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 7, line 20, before "general" insert "traffic safety education account of the"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Beck, Vice Chairman; Bluechel, Guess, Sellar, Talley.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Henry, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Newschwander, Senator Murray was excused.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Walgren and Woody were excused.

On motion of Senator Henry, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2437 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, I have no qualms or concern about the direction this is taking in terms of standardizing the signalization or signalling and the training for drivers and this sort of thing, but it has been brought to my attention or at least purported that passage of this bill will give some school bus manufacturers some advantages over others, particularly it would be advantageous to out of state manufacturers. Would you clarify that for me, please?"

Senator Guess: "Senator Lewis, there are no school bus manufacturers in the state of Washington, and there are a number of buses that are sold in this state that come from out of state. The largest market for the construction of school buses are in Indiana and in California. School buses which meet the standards in the state of Washington are higher in quality and better and they cost more money than those in either Idaho, Oregon or California and Montana. The hope by this is that we will reach a standard of construction but not to reduce the standard of construction in any state.

"I believe that in the state the work that has been done in this state has produced a very high type bus, and I think that we do not intend to, in any way, cause a diminution of the standards of the state of Washington, but it will operate to bring up the standards of the other states. The standards that are arrived at will be done in the committee. I assure you each state has an equal voice upon the standards that are to be brought up, and I am sure that those who are going to represent the state of Washington will tolerate no diminution in the quality of the bus. So I believe that it will result in an improvement of the bus system, particularly as it has to do with the ability to buy buses that are made on a production line so that you don't have the various differences to go into.

"For instance, I will give you an example. In the state of Washington we require that all of the windows be removable windows. There are other states that do not require this same degree of safety. In other words, if a bus turns over the kids are able to kick the windows out. At the same time the window has to be raised not more than eight inches. In some states the windows are raisable to the point that the kids can stick their bodies out. I think it would be an improvement if all of the states had the same eight inch requirement that we have, so of course, there will be for the first time an interchangeable nature of the buses in one state to the other and this is what some people object to."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, on page 7, section 2, line 21 'hereby appropriated from the general fund to the western state school bus safety commission the sum of—' and then blank number of dollars. Is there a particular reason that that is blank?"

Senator Guess: "It is based upon the—fifty cents a bus, Senator Odegaard, and before the bill is finally signed, we will have to have for the ways and means committee, I am sure, that figure. We are waiting on that. It is an oversight. It should have been put in there."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, I misspoke when I said 'manufacturer', Senator Guess, but there are people engaged in the school bus business, the selling of school buses, in the state of Washington. Does this bill in any way put people in the state of Washington at a disadvantage in comparison with surrounding states?"

Senator Guess: "The only disadvantage is that a school bus that has been manufactured to the western standards or to the national standards and used in Idaho will then be able to be used in any other state. If you are thinking of the amount of increase in competition, if a person doesn't like competition, then he will face, perhaps, additional competition when it comes for somebody buying a used school bus. Right now, because no other state has the same standards that we have, they don't face competition from out of state, but, in my opinion, competition never hurt anybody. In fact, competition is the spice of life so I am sure that it will be to the betterment of all of us."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Senator Guess, I didn't like your answer on that blank. How could we pass the bill and put a dollar amount in later? I know that it is fifty cents a bus, but it certainly sounds unconstitutional to pass the bill and then have the ways and means committee put the total dollar amount later where it is now blank."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, there are eighteen hundred and ninety-six buses in the state, and fifty cents a bus, I think will be the amount."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 25, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed REENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2620 with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that it is necessary to provide the department of ecology with emergency powers to authorize withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, and construction of facilities in relation thereto, in order to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977.

In order to provide needed capital for the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water supply facilities to withdraw and distribute water to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state of Washington during the summer and fall of 1977, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eighteen million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this section and sections 13 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Domestic and irrigation uses of public surface and ground waters shall be given priority in determining "beneficial uses" for the purposes of section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to the powers previously vested in the department of ecology to permit the withdrawal of public surface and ground waters by chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW, the department of ecology is authorized to permit withdrawals of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis, for any period ending not later than September 30, 1977, for any beneficial use. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In addition to any other powers previously vested in the department of social and health services, the department is authorized to permit withdrawal of public surface and ground waters for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities to alleviate emergency water supply conditions arising from the drought forecast for the state during the summer and fall of 1977. Such authorization shall be on a temporary basis for any period ending not later than September 30, 1977. The department may issue such emergency permits if, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(1) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used in relation to beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose; and

(2) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public water body which are not exercisable due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(3) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (a) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (b) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights.

All permits issued hereunder shall contain provisions which allow for termination of authorized withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) As to projects and water withdrawal permits issued or authorized or both under sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and all local zoning ordinances, plans, and local building and construction permit ordinances are waived and inapplicable. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, water projects and related withdrawal permits, authorized or issued pursuant to sections 3 or 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall not be subject to any public notice requirements. Permits issued under sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be in lieu of all environmental protection and natural resource regulation permits, certificates, and other approvals and authorization documents required under state statutes including, but not limited to, RCW 90.58.140, 75.20.100, and 86.16.080, as well as all other similar permits required under local ordinances. All state departments or other agencies having jurisdiction over state or other public lands which are required to be used in carrying out projects related to water withdrawal permits, issued pursuant to sections 3 and 4 of this 1977 amendatory act, shall provide short term easements or other appropriate property interests upon the payment of the fair market value: PROVIDED, That this mandate shall not apply to any lands of the state which are reserved for a special purpose or use which cannot properly be carried out if such a property interest were to be conveyed.

(2) Upon request of the department of ecology or the department of social and health services, the department of general administration may waive any public bidding requirements otherwise provided by law, for any project authorized by sections 3 or 4 of this 1977 amendatory act and financed with funds appropriated in this 1977 amendatory act if the department of general administration determines that (a) an emergency condition exists, and (b) if the request for a waiver is not approved the public interest will be significantly affected in a detrimental manner. The department of general administration shall rule upon requests for waiver submitted to it within five working days. If the department fails to rule within said five-day period the request shall be deemed approved and a waiver deemed to be granted.

The department of general administration, after obtaining the views of the department of ecology and the department of social and health services, shall adopt rules to implement this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of this 1977 amendatory act, this subsection shall terminate on September 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Nothing in sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights.

(2) Nothing in sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize the establishment of rights to withdrawal of waters of a permanent nature or of rights with any priority.

(3) Nothing in sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize the establishment of a water right under RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060.

(4) Nothing in sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall preclude any person from filing an application pursuant to RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any such application for withdrawal rights as to withdrawals made under authority of sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be subject to all applicable laws and rules as though sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act had not existed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The department of ecology shall adopt such rules as are necessary and appropriate to carry out the powers provided in this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) The department of social and health services shall adopt such rules as are necessary and appropriate to carry out the powers provided in this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The power is granted to the department of ecology to levy civil penalties of up to one hundred dollars per day for violation of any of the provisions of this chapter and chapters 90.03, 90.22, and 90.44 RCW, and rules, permits, and similar documents and regulatory orders of the department of ecology adopted or issued pursuant to such chapters. The procedures of RCW 90.48.144 shall be applicable to all phases of the levying of a penalty as well as review and appeal of the same.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of ecology is authorized to employ necessary temporary personnel until September 30, 1977, in project-related fields, including, but not limited to, engineering, hydrology, geology, and natural or water resources, not to exceed five full time equivalent staff years to carry out the provisions of sections 1 through 10 this 1977 amendatory act. Such temporary personnel shall be funded only through the biennial appropriations to the department, and not by funds provided by this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department of ecology shall, by rule, establish rates of charges for all waters delivered from such facilities as constructed by the department with funds provided in sections 18(2) or (3) of this 1977 amendatory act. Where the department provides water to public or municipal corporations or other governmental bodies having authority to distribute water, the payment for the water may be made pursuant to contract over a period not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of delivery. In all other cases, the department shall obtain payment for waters prior to its delivery to a purchaser. All payments received shall be deposited into the state emergency water projects bond redemption fund of 1977.

(2) Public bodies, eligible to obtain funds through grants or loans or combinations thereof under the provisions of sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act and RCW 43.83B.210 as now or hereafter amended, are authorized to enter into contracts with the department of ecology for the purpose of repaying loans authorized by sections 17 and 18 of this 1977 amendatory act and for the purpose of purchasing water under this section.

(3) The department of ecology is authorized to enter into appropriate contracts to ensure effective delivery of water and the operation and maintenance of facilities constructed pursuant to this 1977 amendatory act.

Sec. 11. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., as amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.83B.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to make loans or grants or combinations thereof to eligible public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for rehabilitation or betterment of agricultural water supply facilities, and/or construction of agricultural water supply facilities required to develop new irrigated lands or, when required because of emergency drought conditions, to provide water to previously irrigated lands. The department of ecology may make such loans or grants or combinations thereof as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. A loan or combination loan and grant shall not exceed fifty percent of the approved eligible project costs for any single proposed project: PROVIDED, That for projects authorized by section 18 of this 1977 amendatory act the department of ecology may make a loan or combination loan and grant up to one hundred percent of the total single project cost and the grant portion for any single project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the total single project cost. Any grant or grant portion of a combination loan and grant for any single proposed project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the eligible project costs: PROVIDED, That the fifteen percent limitation established herein shall not be applicable to project commitments which the director or deputy director of the state department of ecology made to the bureau of reclamation of the United States department of interior for providing state funding at thirty-five percent of project costs during the period between August 1, 1974, and June 30, 1975.

The department of social and health services is authorized to make grants of up to forty percent of the cost of construction of any eligible project necessitated by the 1977 drought conditions. Such grants may be made only to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form of the bonds authorized in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act, the time of sale of all or any portion or portions of such bonds, and the conditions of sale and issuance thereof.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due. The committee may provide that the bonds, or any of them, may be called prior to the due date thereof under such terms and conditions as it may determine. The state finance committee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures in the issuance of the bonds.

As used in sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act, the term "water supply facilities for water withdrawal and distribution" shall mean municipal, industrial, and agricultural water supply and distribution systems including, but not limited to, all equipment, utilities, structures, real property, and interest in and improvements on real property necessary for or incidental to the acquisition, construction, installation, improvement, or use of any water supply or distribution system furnishing water for agricultural, municipal or industrial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. At the time the state finance committee determines to issue such bonds authorized in sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuance thereof, issue in the name of the state, temporary notes in anticipation of the money to be derived from the sale of the bonds, which notes shall be designated as "bond anticipation notes". The proceeds from the sale of bonds and notes authorized by sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be deposited in the state emergency water projects revolving account, hereby created in the general fund in the state treasury, and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of such bonds and notes: PROVIDED, That such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds as may be required for the payment of the principal and interest on such anticipation notes as have been issued, shall be deposited in the state emergency water projects bond redemption fund of 1977 in the state treasury created by section 15 of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The principal proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be administered by the director of the department of ecology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The state emergency water projects bond redemption fund of 1977, hereby created in the state treasury, shall be used for the purpose of the payment of interest on and retirement of the bonds and notes authorized to be issued by sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act. The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months, to meet bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any such interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 emergency water projects bond redemption fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on such payment date.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for any of the bonds, by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding, may require and compel the transfer and payment of funds as directed herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The bonds authorized by sections 1, and 12 through 16 of this 1977 amendatory act shall be a legal investment for all state funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is hereby appropriated to the department of social and health services the sum of nine million seven hundred thirty-seven thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the general fund—state and local improvements revolving account—water supply facilities for the purposes authorized in sections 1 through 10 of this 1977 amendatory act and RCW 43.83B.210 as now or hereafter amended relating to the emergency water conditions arising from the drought forecast for the summer and fall of 1977 affecting municipal and industrial water supply distribution facilities. Prior to the expenditure of funds for projects approved by the department, the department shall file a listing of the approved projects with the senate ways and means committee and the house appropriations committee.

(2) There is hereby appropriated to the department of social and health services the sum of five million three hundred twenty-seven thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the general fund—state and local improvements revolving account—water supply facilities to be expended for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facility projects for which applications are in progress on the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and have arisen from the drought forecast for the summer and fall of 1977. Prior to the expenditure of funds for projects approved by the department, the department shall file a listing of the approved projects with the senate ways and means committee and the house appropriations committee.

The municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities receiving funds from the appropriations contained in this section shall comply with the eligible costs criteria, health and design standards, and contract performance requirements of the municipal and industrial funding program under chapter 43.83B RCW. All projects shall be evaluated by applying the said chapter's evaluation and prioritization criteria to insure that only projects related to water shortage problems receive funding. The projects funded shall be limited to those projects providing interties with adjacent utilities, an expanded source of supply, conservation projects which will conserve or maximize efficiency of the existing supply, or a new source of supply. No obligation to provide a grant for a project authorized under this section shall be incurred after June 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) There is hereby appropriated to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the state emergency water projects revolving account in the general fund, the sum of seven million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, which shall be expended for the financing of the following agricultural water supply and distribution projects from surface water sources: Kennewick Irrigation District; Kittitas Reclamation District; Stemilt Irrigation District; Wenatchee Heights Reclamation District; and the Wenatchee Reclamation District.

(2) There is hereby appropriated to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the state emergency water projects revolving account in the general fund, the sum of five million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, which shall be expended for the financing and construction of agricultural water supply and distribution projects from ground water sources primarily in the Moxee-Ahtanum and Park Creek aquifer areas.

(3) There is hereby appropriated to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the state emergency water supply revolving account in the general fund the sum of six million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, which shall be expended for water withdrawal projects relating to ground and surface waters as provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section and for the financing and construction of agricultural water supply and distribution projects from ground and surface water sources which may become required by public bodies other than those identified in this section as a result of the drought forecast for the summer and fall of 1977.

The department may expend funds from the appropriations contained in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050. The grant portion of a combination loan and grant to a public body for any project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the total amount received by such project under this section.

The department may expend funds from the appropriations contained in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section to make loans or combinations of loans and grants to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 to satisfy the matching requirements of RCW 43.83B.210 as now or hereafter amended.

Prior to the funding of any agriculture projects not specifically set forth in this section the department must make a formal finding that: An emergency water shortage condition exists; the project proposed for funding will alleviate the water shortage; the public body recipient of any funds has reasonable capability to repay the loan involved; and the water from the project will be used for a beneficial purpose as a substitute for water not available due to drought conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1, of the title after "water;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.83B.210; creating new sections; authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond anticipation notes; making appropriations; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 104.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 104, by Senators Francis, Clarke, Marsh and Van Hollebeke:

Amending the Constitution to adopt a new judicial article.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 104, as amended on March 24, 1977.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 28, insert a new section as follows:

"Article IVA, section 11. QUALIFICATIONS OF ATTORNEYS. Qualifications of attorneys shall be prescribed by statute or supreme court rules authorized by statute."

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, my first question is what does the present state Constitution say on this subject?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't know what it says, but this is a new constitutional amendment we are considering, and the rationale applied to this amendment may well be amendatory to the Constitution. If it is, the body might see fit to adopt or reject as they desire."

Senator Francis: "My second question, Senator Mardesich, would be what is the problem to which your proposed amendment addresses itself?"

Senator Mardesich: "The problem is that under the possible interpretation that the court would be the sole judge of qualification, then they could well have a very restrictive group and a restriction on the number of entries into the field. I don't say that will happen. I simply point out that that is a possibility and that the legislature should retain to itself the authority to keep that group a relatively open and accessible group, one to which people may aspire to be attorneys and judges and to which they may enter without having the qualifications set at such a high standard that they would be unreasonable."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, could you tell me what the difference would be between being an attorney and in being eligible to practice law in this state?"

Senator Mardesich: "The difference is that in the passage of laws the people respond. It is the right of people to elect those whom they wish to represent them, and it is the right of the legislature who have been sent here by the people to determine the qualifications of judges and attorneys, and that is the issue to which this amendment addresses itself. We have never left up to the controlling or regulating body, in any other case, the full and constitutional authority which we would not be able to then change were we to adopt this amendment. We have not allowed any other group to have that constitutional right, and this merely assures that neither will the lawyers have a constitutional right which we, as the legislature representing the people, have the authority to change."

Senator Pullen: "Would it be your intention that for a person to be eligible to practice law in this state he would also have to be an attorney?"

Senator Mardesich: "My intention does not relate to that issue. That would be a question for the legislature if and when the issue arises which it undoubtedly would, were this constitutional amendment to be adopted. Then the legislature would make the determination as to, number one, what the qualifications would be should it desire to establish those qualifications or, as an alternative, to allow the court to establish those qualifications, and I am sure that the legislature has enough to do, and they would probably assign that task to the court. By putting this into the Constitution, we would reserve to ourselves, the legislature, the representatives of the people, the right to change that qualification rather than have it very restrictive, which possibility exists."

"The question of what should go into a constitution is one Senator Francis says I don't have any specific example, but I would think the purpose of a Constitution is not only to address itself to specific examples, but to all of the possibilities that the framers of that Constitution see in the future, and the Constitution is designed to allow the people the rights that they have. That is all that my amendment does. It reserves in the people and their representatives the right to determine what the qualifications of the judiciary and the bar will be."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the following amendment by Senators Morrison and von Reichbauer was adopted:

On page 2, line 32, after "vote." insert "To be eligible for appointment or election to a judicial position in a district court, the person must meet all of the requirements of a judge sitting in a court of record except that a person who has been elected and is serving as a justice of the peace or as a district court judge in Washington on the effective date of this constitutional amendment shall not be required to be admitted to the practice of law in the state of Washington."

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order, Mr. President. The appointment of Diane Oberquell, which is number 42, and the following ones upon the calendar which I will read, all fall within the list which the Governor requested be withdrawn en masse and which the Senate purported to, in effect, withdraw en masse. The point of order has been previously made as to similar such appointments, and the arguments on both sides have been made. So with the consent of the Senate I would like to have the record show that the same objection and the entire record with respect to this particular point as was made as to the previous appointments be regarded as having been made, and the particular appointments to which I make reference are numbers 42, 44, 68, 73, 76, 77, 79, 85, 86 and 90. I would also, at this time like to have it made clear that many of us on this side of the aisle will be voting 'no' upon these appointments, and the reason for that vote is solely upon the point of order and is not intended to have any significance with respect to the capability or qualifications of the particular individuals."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Responding to Senator Clarke, simply to note for the record that the arguments that have been made on behalf of these gubernatorial appointments who have faced the similar situation to which Senator Clarke refers, that arguments should also be part of the record, and the understanding that has been indicated by Senator Clarke is certainly agreed to."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. It is my understanding that your ruling on the point of order will be the same and that the record will be the same as on the previous point."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is correct, Senator Clarke."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "In answer to Senator Rasmussen, we were rather careful on our side not to get into the merits of the situation because we didn't believe this was the time or place to argue it, and by remaining silent I don't want you to assume that we are agreeing with everything that you say, Senator."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried.

THOSE AROUND US MAY SEEM PREOCCUPIED AT TIMES, BUT NOT YOU, LORD. WE PAUSE IN THE BUSINESS, OR THE BUSY-NESS OF THIS DAY, TO SEEK YOUR HELP. NONE OF US HERE IS SINLESS. NONE OF US IS GETTING STRAIGHT 'A' IN ALL OF LIFE. WE NEED YOU LORD! AND HOW WE PRAISE YOU THAT YOU NEVER QUIT ON US. WHEN IT LOOKED LIKE YOU MIGHT LOSE THIS WORLD THAT YOU HAD MADE, YOU Poured MORE INTO IT . . . YOU GAVE YOUR ONLY SON. WE KNOW, LORD, THAT YOUR STILL GIVING. GIVE TO THESE LAWMAKERS THE WISDOM, THE STRENGTH, THE INSIGHT THEY NEED FOR THE DEMANDS OF TODAY. LET POSITIVE THOUGHT AND EMOTION FLOW THROUGH THIS HALL. WE TAKE THESE FEW MOMENTS TO TURN AWAY FROM THE MEAGER EFFORTS OF OUR LIVES TO DRAW UPON THE GREAT RECOURSES AVAILABLE THROUGH YOU, LORD. Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Matson, Jones and Pullen:

On page 1, line 8, after "thirty" strike "-four", and on line 9 after "court" insert "as of the effective date of this amendatory act of 1977, thirty-two judges of the superior court as of the second Monday of January, 1978, thirty-four judges of the superior court as of the second Monday of January, 1979"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Cunningham yield? Senator Cunningham, your initial sentence in the proviso says, 'that with respect to the additional judges', and then you go on to talk about that no new facilities shall be built, but you also say that, as I assume, with respect to the additional judges that the court shall schedule sessions at night and weekends. I hope it is not your intent that these additional judges would carry the full load of evening and weekend service. That would be shared among all the judges."

Senator Cunningham: "I think, very frankly, Senator Goltz, seniority always has its privilege, so I would assume that the courts themselves in setting up their own rules and regs would see that the senior members have the best shift."

The motion by Senator Cunningham failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2221 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Regulating prearrangement funeral service contracts.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2210 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2210 and the substitute bill was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Clarke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2210 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you. Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, I am just trying to read in the bill. One thing I would ask, is the contract a purchase? After fifteen percent face value of the cash of that contract is put on a deferred payment, does the interest that goes with the deferred payment on the outstanding principal amount go into the escrow account, or does it go to the seller?"

Senator Clarke: "I would have to read the bill in detail, but my recollection of the testimony before the committee, and I think that the way the bill was finally agreed upon was that in the event the services are rendered, that is, on these prepayments the person making the prepayment normally has the option of withdrawing the funds if they are going to move to another area or something of that nature. If they withdraw, then they are entitled, not only to the amount they put in, but also the interest on that amount. But in the event the services are actually performed then the purveyor of the services, of course, keeps the entire amount because he earns the entire amount and retains it."

Senator Cunningham: "Mr. President, not to continue a question, but I am not sure that I explained my question. What I am concerned about is, and I don't serve on this committee but I am watching this. Where the seller when he sells a predeath funeral service, the seller can retain fifteen percent of the face value, and the rest has to go into a trust account, and that is fine. But what I want to know is where does the interest on that unpaid balance still owing go, to the seller or into the trust account?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, when you say 'interest on the unpaid balance' let's just make an assumption. Let's assume they pay in five hundred dollars as a prepayment, and of that prepayment fifteen percent then can immediately be used by the seller. The—"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "Mr. President, I would like to assist Senator Clarke here and point out in the bill where it spells this out. It is on page 3, section 2, subsection 6. 'All interest, dividends, increases, or accretions of whatever nature earned by a trust fund shall be kept unimpaired and shall become a part of the trust fund.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY (CONTINUED)

Senator Clarke: "Yes, that is correct, but I think what Senator Cunningham was asking about is, at the time you pay the money the cost of what you are going to furnish is a given price, and at the time when the services are rendered there may be a substantial increase, actually, in the cost of the purveyor. My understanding is that the contracts provide that they shall furnish certain designated things, and that they have to make that delivery regardless of the actual cost at the time that the delivery has to be made."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2210, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—45.

Providing for the erection of a statue in statuary hall in the national capitol.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2431 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2431 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Bluechel moved the following amendments by Senators Bluechel, North, Walgren, Buffington and Jones be considered and adopted.

On line 2 of the Bluechel amendment to page 1, line 6, strike "Seattle" and insert "Sealth"

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senators Bluechel, North, Walgren, Buffington and Jones was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator Bluechel, I have several Indian reservations in my district, and they insist that they are an independent nation, that they are not subject to our laws, and I am just wondering whether you have checked with the Indian tribes to see if this would have any effect on any of the court cases as to whether they were citizens of the state or not?"

Senator Bluechel: "No. Senator Bottiger. Would you like to hold the bill over so I can do that checking?"

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bluechel failed and the amendments, as amended, were not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Francis moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2431 be held for further consideration on the second reading calendar for March 31, 1977.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, where is the Pioneer Association headquartered?"

Senator Marsh: "According to this letterhead, the Pioneer Association is headquartered at 1642 Forty-third Avenue East, Seattle, Washington."

Senator Scott: "Do they include professionals in the field that are now practicing that would have a wide knowledge of historical, anthropological, social, economic events in the state, or are simply a club for persons interested in antiquity?"

Senator Marsh: "I believe they have both interests, Senator. I do not have specific knowledge of the membership other than I am informed that the membership consists of descendants of pioneers of this state, and I am sure among those descendants are those qualified people that you are talking about."

Senator Scott: "In their search for a candidate for the second and last place in statuary hall, did they consider individuals like John McLaughlin, chief factor of the Hudson Bay Company in Vancouver over a number of years; people like Chief Joseph, who outwitted the entire United States army for an entire winter; people like James J. Hill, the empire builder; people like Judge Thomas Burke, of whom it is said, he built Seattle; several of the fathers of the Grand Coulee Dam; Vernon Parrington, who wrote some of finest belles lettres that this country saw in its first quarter of the twentieth century; people like Theodore Roethke, our poet laureate, and even August Mardesich, who has on several occasions moved the boundaries of the city of Everett?"

Senator Marsh: "Well, Senator, I am not sure whether they considered August Mardesich, but I am sure they were very judicious in their selection."

MOTION

Senator Scott moved Senate Bill No. 2431 be rereferred to the Committee on State Government with instructions.

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Gould: "Members of the Senate, may I offer a point of personal privilege? Perhaps that is not the proper request at this time, but I do have an amendment which, hopefully, I would like to have considered and which, hopefully, will avoid further deterioration of the issue. With the consent of the body I would ask that at this point."

Further debate ensued.

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Francis that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2431 be held on the second reading calendar for further consideration on March 31, 1977.

The motion by Senator Francis failed.

Senator Gould moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Gould and Bluechel:

On page 1, strike all the matter after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The selection committee for statuary hall is hereby created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The committee shall consist of eleven members. The governor shall select one member who is not a Washington state legislator from each congressional district to serve on the committee. The Washington State Historical Society shall select four members from its membership to serve on the selection committee for Statuary Hall. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation or reimbursement for carrying out the provisions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The committee shall conduct a study of candidates for commemoration in the old house of the House of Representatives at the national capitol. On or about January 1, 1978, the committee shall submit its recommendations for a candidate to be commemorated in the national capitol to the Washington State Legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The committee shall have a life not to exceed two years."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, would Senator Gould yield to a question? Senator, I could offer an amendment but I thought I would check to see whether you would support it before I do. On the last line of the amendment, after the word 'exceed' I would like to insert the word 'twenty', and I would like to point out the reason for that. Senator Scott has suggested that my name should be considered and I don't think that should happen until I am gone. Now, if I should, by chance, live to a ripe old age exceeding some seventy-nine years old or thereabouts, which that would do to me, I would be more than happy to go."

Senator Gould: "Senator Mardesich, I appreciate your comments. I do recognize that it does require the demise of the person that is to be honored and in that respect would be delighted to support it for your benefit."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Beck yield?"

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Will you answer the questions Senator Walgren asks you to answer?"

Senator Beck: "Yes. I live recklessly, you know. Reckless Red Beck."

Senator Walgren: "Senator Beck, you served on the bicentennial commission. Are some standards or qualifications of which you are aware in regard to a nominee in statutory hall?"

Senator Beck: "Yes, Senator Walgren, there is. As you know, statutory hall was created by an act of Congress in 1864, and each state was invited to submit two nominees to have their statues placed in this, what used to be the House of Representatives in the United States Congress.

"It became filled up in 1933. Since 1933 there has not been any statues placed in statutory hall. The capitol architect has been placing all these statues in other places around in the national capitol building.

"In 1976 it became such a haphazard matter. There are ninety-one statues already in the capitol building that have been nominated by the various states, and in 1976 Congress passed a law creating a committee to arrange all of these statues and to adopt some kind of a standard which the nominees must have, and one of the first things in the standards that this screening committee has to approve of is, they must be not only popular in their own area, but they must have done something nationally.

"They are going to be placed in statues in the national capitol with people like Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and Adams, famous people like Robert Fulton who invented the steamboat, Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, Jefferson Davis, the president of the Southern Confederacy and many more people of that stature and nature.

"In the state of Washington they are very much divided as to who. This has been a study that has been going on, and in 1941, I believe it was, the historical society threw up their hands and quit. There are fourteen United States senators that are in that statutory hall, people like Huey Long, people like Senator Borah, Senator Bartlett, Senator Pat McCarran and people of that nature. There are many people that think that some prominent political figure should be in statutory hall representing the state of Washington.

"I think this is a good amendment and I would support it."

The motion by Senator Gould failed and the amendment by Senators Gould and Bluechel was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2431 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2431, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 13; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Goltz, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Wilson, Wojahn—32.

Voting nay: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Gaspard, Gould, Jones, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Scott, Walgren, Washington—13.

MOTION

At 2:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Thursday, March 31, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION

---

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, March 31, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Fleming, Francis, Grant and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Fleming, Francis, Grant and Woody were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Lori Franz and Michael Zevenbergen, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"FATHER IN HEAVEN, WE BOW IN THY PRESENCE TO THANK YOU FOR ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY OF PRAYING TOGETHER. WE HAVE DISCOVERED THAT WHAT ONE SEEKS WITH GREAT EFFORT THROUGH THE RACKING OF ONE'S BRAINS, OR THROUGH MANY BOOKS, OR THROUGH MUCH CONVERSATION, IS OFTEN GIVEN TO US QUITE UNEXPECTEDLY AFTER A FEW BREATHS OF SINCERE PRAYER. THAT IS WHY THE APOSTLES MUST HAVE ASKED, 'LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY!' WE KNOW PRAYER IS COMMUNICATION. WE KNOW THAT PRAYER DOESN'T CHANGE YOU, LORD, IT MERELY QUALIFIES US FOR THE ANSWER TO OUR DESIRE AND PETITION. WE ARE NOT JUST FILLING UP SO MUCH SPACE IN THE AGENDA WHEN WE PRAY, WE ARE INVOKING THE GUIDANCE AND BLESSING OF THE ALMIGHTY UPON OUR WORK, TASTEFUL OR DISTASTEFUL, FOR ANOTHER DAY. BE THOU OUR GUEST IN THESE CHAMBERS. MAY OUR PRAYER AND DESIRE BE LIKE THE PSALMIST'S OF OLD: 'LET THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH, AND THE MEDITATION OF MY HEART, BE ACCEPTABLE IN THY SIGHT, OH LORD, MY STRENGTH, AND MY REDEEMER.'

"THANK YOU, HEAVENLY FATHER, FOR HEARING US. THANK YOU FOR LOVING US. THANK YOU FOR HELP AND STRENGTH THROUGH THE WORK OF ANOTHER DAY. IN CHRIST'S NAME. AMEN."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

March 31, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration of a section vetoed by the governor Senate Bill No. 2133, the remainder of which has been designated Chapter 75, Laws of 1977, together with a copy of the official veto message of the governor setting forth her objections to the section as provided by Article III, Section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the State of Washington. Done at the Capitol at Olympia on the 31st day of March, 1977.

BRUCE K. CHAPMAN
Secretary of State.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 2133

Office of the Governor, March 30, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval of one section, SENATE BILL NO. 2133 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state government reports and publications."

The specific section I have vetoed is New Section 35 at page 40, lines 15 through 25, which requires each state and local agency to purge its mailing lists each year of all persons not responding positively to inquiries on whether they wish to remain on such lists. The scope of this section is unnecessarily broad, and would, for example, require some agencies which mail valuable but unsolicited information to large segments of the population to curtail such activities. In many cases such mailings are required by law. Furthermore, section 35 would severely restrict the ability of our state institutions of higher learning to regularly solicit donations from their alumni or to keep their large constituencies informed of continuing educational opportunities. Even members of the legislature and other state and local elected officials would have to curtail their mailings.

For the reasons stated above, and because I am confident that the legislature will pass appropriate legislation to deal with the problem of unnecessary mailing expenses because of the use of stale mailing lists, I have vetoed section 35 of Senate Bill No. 2133. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

MOTION

At 10:15 a.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 11:50 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:50 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2034, by Senator Beck:
Making various changes in election laws.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Beck, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2034 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2034 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 13, beginning on line 2, strike the entire paragraph down through line 10 and insert:

"In the printing of ballots the positions of the names of candidates for each numbered position shall be changed as many times as there are candidates for the numbered position, following insofar as applicable the procedure provided for in RCW 29.30.040 for the rotation of names on primary ballots, the intention being that ballots at the polls will reflect as closely as practicable the rotation procedure as provided for herein."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 15, line 21, after "ballot pages" insert "for the voting devices"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Beck, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2034 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Beck yield? Does this bill in any way address itself to the problem that the only way that you can appeal that an election has been invalid in any way is to go to a county prosecutor who is in a partisan office and who in many instances will not act because of that partisan position?"

Senator Beck: "Senator Day, each of the major political parties may train a person to go and observe any counting or any election anywhere they are going, and you have the right to appeal to the county canvassing board which is composed of the chairman of the board of county commissioners, the prosecuting attorney and the county auditor. From there on you have got to go to court."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Beck yield to a question?"

Senator Beck: "Yes, and I love lawyers, too, Senator Van Hollebeke."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I am not a member of the bar. I would like to make that clear."

Senator Beck: "Beg pardon?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I am not a member of the bar of the state of Washington."

Senator Beck: "I expect you are a capable attorney whether you are a member or not."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator, when we use the voting machines we have three copies of the tally made at the polling place the night of the election. The inspector keeps one for the inspector's permanent record at the inspector's home. One is sent down to the county authorities, and one is posted on the door of the polling place. It is a very good checking method and a great deterrent to voter fraud. Now, with the punch card system we don't have that. Does this bill address itself to that problem, and if not, why not?"

Senator Beck: "It does not, repeat, not count the ballots in the polling booth. This has got to be taken to a computer. Ample safeguards are made for protecting the integrity of that ballot, but in order to count all those little punch cards on that IBM card or computer records (sic) or whatever card you are using, it has got to be taken and run through a computer, and it is well protected. There is a bill now pending in the constitutions and elections committee addressing itself to that issue, but this bill does not provide for counting at the polling booth. There are machines that will do that, and when they get down to within the cost range where they can be afforded, why we probably will go to that system, but we don't have it now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, page 15, the proviso, line 38, 'that this restriction shall not apply to counties with fewer than twenty-five precincts,' why should the rotation process not be included in counties with less than twenty-five precincts?"

Senator Beck: "When you have a county that is that small, they can't afford one of these big computers there. They are mostly all hand ballots and rather than the county go to the expense of a great big computer, there, if you have less than twenty-five precincts, the counting of the ballots is not a major issue. It is not a major problem, but this only applies to real small counties, the small voting districts."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2034 was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for April 1, 1977.

realignment of signs, repositioning and meeting what is a very strict standard of signs within its community. Is there any intent to be a retroactivity in this bill for those mutually arranged sign removals and changes?"

Senator Henry: "No."

Senator Jones: "Your answer is 'no'. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Beck yield? Senator, my question is one which I think you have discussed, but I want to get it on the record, relates to the fiscal impact of this bill on local government and more particularly, the county auditors' offices. Was it the testimony presented to your committee that the bill will cost local government more money in running elections or less money or will not have any impact at all?"

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Senator Wilson, I think I explained that at one stage of this bill, here. Currently the law says that the county auditors must have printed ballots in an amount ten percent over the total registered voters whether they are active or inactive. The registered voters list is active until after four years from the time they voted last time. What this will do over a six year period is going to make a savings of six hundred and eighty-five thousand dollars to the counties in just printing of the ballots alone. There is an impact to the counties in saving the counties an estimated six hundred and eighty-five thousand dollars over a six year period."

need for it. This is not a mandate to the commission to go out and spend the fifty million?"

Senator Walgren: "That is correct, Senator Guess."

Senator Guess: "I also understand that the money will come from the Puget Sound reserve account which is the flow through agency for three-eighths of a cent of gas tax money, is that correct?"

Senator Walgren: "Or such other place that the legislature might in the future determine."

Senator Guess: "That's right. Thank you very much."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senator Donohue was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, you said that you would support the amendments offered. He offered three amendments and asked that they be taken up at one time. Beginning on line 10, 'strike all the matter down through line 11.' I would agree with you that this is going to be the stumbling block by which this Resolution passes, but it really, as you say, the meat of the matter is in the Resolution. So as far as the first amendment—"

Senator Washington: "First two. I agree. He didn't discuss the one on line 21. I don't think that that is necessary. I am talking about the first two amendments."

Senator Guess: "Well, I would like to urge that the one beginning on line 17 be maintained because the Republic of China in its—virtue of its location and its commitment to the philosophy of the free world is a contributing resolution. I don't think that there is any question in my mind that the statement is valid, it is accurate and it is important, but the first amendment I could go with."

Senator Washington: "Well, I agree with you. I think the first amendment is the most important. I think there is also maybe some debatable conclusions in the one from seventeen to nineteen. It just seems to me that those could be removed and I see nothing wrong with the resolving clause."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, would it make it acceptable to you if we did take the first two amendments and accept those?"

Senator McDermott: "If you wish to divide the question, I certainly have no objection to that."

MOTION TO DIVIDE QUESTION

On motion of Senator Guess, the Senate moved to divide the question. The first two amendments by Senator McDermott will be considered simultaneously.

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Grant, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Grant, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2924.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2924, by Senators Henry, Beck, Bottiger, Peterson, Keefe, Sellar, Wanamaker and Talley:

Creating a department of transportation.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Henry, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2924 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Matson was excused.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendments were adopted:

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 9, line 3, after "laws" strike the remainder of the sentence down to the semicolon.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, before it is advanced to third reading, I wonder if Senator Henry would yield to a question? Senator Henry, I talked to Senator Mardesich about page 9, line 16, and he couldn't enlighten me as to what that meant. The part that says, 'and for the amendment of the state transportation policy by the legislature.' It sounds like the transportation commission is going to have to determine the procedure for the legislature to be able to amend the state transportation policy. I really don't know what that means. It seems to me we have our own procedures here, and in other words, I am not offering an amendment at this time because I don't know whether maybe it is necessary, but I just don't know what that clause in that sub (d) there means."

Senator Henry: "Will you give me that line again please?"

Senator Francis: "Yes; on line 16, beginning with the word 'and'."

Senator Henry: "I would have no objection to striking the comma, put in a semicolon, and strike the balance of that sentence. I think it is excess verbiage, too."

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 9, line 15, after "policy" strike the comma and insert "and"

On page 9, line 16, after "legislature" strike the remainder of the subsection down to the semicolon on line 17.

On motion of Senator Henry, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Donohue was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Henry yield? Senator Henry, on page 10 of the bill, line 25, it refers to the power of the department of transportation to approve the issuance and sale of all bonds authorized by the legislature for capital construction, and then it specifies state highways, toll facilities, Columbia Basin county roads, and so on. My question is whether or not, in your opinion, the words 'toll facilities' include issuance of bonds for capital construction with regard to the state ferry system?"

Senator Henry: "Whether it was the intent that it be? The intent was not. They have to approve all the bonds, now, don't they?"

Senator Walgren: "Yes."

Senator Henry: "Even though the legislature approves them?"

Senator Walgren: "As I understand it, Senator Henry, the ferry system is a part of the state highway system. We have said that by statute. Toll facilities generally include the state ferry system, and I want to be sure that it is the intent of this act that we are authorizing the department to issue bonds for capital construction for the state ferry system."

Senator Henry: "Why didn't you say so? We have no intention of taking the ferries away from Bremerton after making them part of the highway system, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Henry yield to a further question? Senator Henry, this relates to the same question, only a different phase of it... 'to approve the issuance and sale of all bonds.' Does this mean under the supervision of the state finance committee?"

Senator Henry: "I think all toll bonds and toll facility bonds and so forth are not under the state finance committee. They are handled by the department themselves. What do you want to know, do I intend for it to be handled by the state finance committee? The answer is 'no.'"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this isn't just for toll facilities. This is for all capital construction."

Senator Henry: "It has nothing to do with toll facility capital construction. It might have for buildings like the proposed executive building and things like that, but it doesn't have anything to do with this phase of the government."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I think all bonds issued by the state ought to be under the state finance committee so we have one central authority handling them. I hope they will take care of that over in the House."

Senator Henry: "They have trouble taking care of the House. How do I know?"

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2924, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 7.

Raising the salary of PUD commissioners.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2132 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2132 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Wanamaker was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Washington yield? This act establishes a level of salaries for commissioners of PUD districts based on the operating revenue?"

Senator Washington: "Right."

Senator Mardesich: "Is there anything implicit in here that the payment of such salary would constitute compensation within the meaning of the pension laws?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, it would."

Senator Mardesich: "Irrespective of the amount of time put in on that job?"

Senator Washington: "No. The amount that they receive as a salary would be eligible for a pension under PERS. They are under it now at the hundred and fifty dollars per month level. In other words, they are like the county commissioners, any other salaried public official, they are under PERS."

Senator Mardesich: "Even those commissioners who are at the two hundred dollar level would automatically then—"

Senator Washington: "Yes, at the present time they are now under it at one hundred and fifty dollars."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2132 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, in effect raising the salaries of revenues of over fifteen million, five hundred dollars per month. I don't know much about how PUDs operate. Now, a Grant county commissioner with a vast generating facility, very little local service—"

Senator Washington: "A substantial amount of local service, actually."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, not for the size of the plant, or any of the other big generating facilities would meet maybe once a month. They don't have many local problems, nothing very much to direct their manager on, and the generation is pretty much matter of fact. Apparently these people would be able to get five hundred dollars a month for one meeting a month."

Senator Washington: "Well no, that—"

Senator Rasmussen: "—where a smaller PUD with ten thousand customers would probably have numerous local problems, yet did not generate the vast amount of revenue from the generation, but from the distribution, and they would have more problems. They would meet maybe four or five times a month. I fail to see the relationship here between just the fact that they have a vast generating power that their duties are not that much greater. Could you explain that?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, I believe I could. Actually one of the basic facts of this increase is the substantial amount of additional time that I think all public utility district commissioners are putting in because of the energy shortage and the energy crisis. The commissioners of public utility districts of Grant County, Chelan, or Douglas County have numerous problems relating to the fisheries department, numerous problems relating to river flow, problems also each one of these districts in addition to running the dams themselves, they meet every week, sometimes more than one day a week, and they always meet at least once a week. There are many problems relating to running two dams. For instance, Grant County has Priest Rapids and Wanapum Dam, many problems relating to that, and to the problems of distribution, contract problems with the many agencies that purchase power from them, each one of these districts is also a member of the Washington public power supply system.

"They have additional duties, serving on various boards, particularly the board of the Washington public power supply. It is a very demanding position at the present time in attempting to provide power, and Grant county public utility district, not only for its own area, but also power for the Pacific Northwest. That public utility district in itself is in a growing area, a tremendous amount of agricultural load. It has a large number of customers and certainly it is a real demanding job."

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-22

By Senator Ridder:

WHEREAS, The Washington State Utilities and Transportation Commission has heretofore been mandated by the superior court of the State of Washington to restrict the misuse of benefits flowing to utility companies by reason of charitable contributions; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Utilities and Transportation Commission has disregarded both judicial decision and the precedents of tax law in dealing with the charitable contributions of utility companies by recently allowing substantial benefits to telephone company owners, which benefits are unobtainable by the individual wage earner; and

WHEREAS, Charitable contributions made by utility companies are actually paid by the customers through their utility bills; and

WHEREAS, Customers are the ones who should receive the tax deductions or credits for the money that the companies give as charitable contributions to foster community relations; and

WHEREAS, There is a gross inequity when the Utilities and Transportation Commission permits a utility to claim contributions as a cost of doing business while an individual or other business may take only a standard tax deduction after paying contributions from salary or business income;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the Washington State Utilities and Transportation Commission be commended for any other action that it might take to encourage charitable contributions but that it be admonished for its discriminatory treatment in favor of utilities in recently allowing certain utilities to escape both the cost and the tax consequences which would be the responsibility of the stockholders of any other form of company making charitable contributions;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to each member of the Utilities and Transportation Commission.

 Means):

 Jones, Marsh, Morrison, Murray, Sandison, Scott, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Donohue would yield? Senator Donohue, would you object if we set this bill over while I prepare an amendment to allow dog racing on these small tracks? Or would you rather have me let it go to the House and put it on over there?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I am waiting for your bill to come out on the floor, and—"

Senator Talley: "Thank you, sir."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, on page 2, line 17 the last word is 'and', but would it require for this distribution to take place to any county that the county not operate fairs, but also operate a race course?"

Senator Donohue: "There are only three fairs that, fair areas that actually have race tracks, and—"

Senator Woody: "I understand that, but in order to be a recipient, such as Snohomish County fair does not operate a race track per se. Would they be eligible for these funds even though they have a fair?"

Senator Donohue: "The answer, Senator, is 'no', and the reason for this is that the small tracks today, and there are three of them, do produce some income which goes back into the fair fund. Consequently, they would be the only ones that would fall into the act."

Senator Woody: "Perhaps I am not making myself clear, or I don't understand you, the latter of which could be equally true. In the distribution on line 16, the funds that are distributed, would they only go to the three tracks that you are talking about, or would they also go to the smaller counties such as Snohomish County fair?"

Senator Donohue: "No, they would go only to the fairs that own and operate race tracks."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield to another question? Senator Donohue, I would like to rephrase Senator Woody's question.

Snohomish County and Pierce County hold agricultural fairs, but we at this time, at least to date, have not held a race. If we held a race as well as the fair, would we be able to qualify for this distribution?"

Senator Donohue: "If you fell under the—if they would develop a race track and actually held races and were non-profit, the answer to the question is 'yes'."

Senator Bottiger: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2441 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Francis: "Senator Cunningham, in my opinion, section 1 is one of those preamble rhetoric type sections, and I am not sure what it means. It is a legislative finding that states that 'and others' have unique and special problems, but the section that the working portions of the bill is going to have to refer to is the definition section, and if we are going to be working from a definition of minorities, we had better define it broadly, a little more broadly than it is in that definition."

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 18, after "examine" strike "and define"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, would Senator Wojahn yield to a question? I would like to ask Senator Wojahn is there a fiscal note on this bill, and if there is, what is the origin of that fiscal note?"

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Goltz, there is a fiscal note that I got from the office of program planning and fiscal management, and the fiscal is now with Senator Odegaard, but it is in excess of almost a million dollars—it is almost a million dollars fiscal."

MOTION

At 2:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until Wednesday, April 6, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

Enacting a Landlord-Tenant Act for mobile home lots.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 21, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2668, enacting a Landlord-Tenant Act for mobile home lots (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall regulate and determine legal rights, remedies, and obligations of the parties to any rental agreement regarding a mobile home lot. Any written or oral rental agreement shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW shall be applicable only in implementation of the provisions of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter which shall be exclusive where applicable. Rentals of mobile homes themselves are governed by the Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Tenant" means any person, except a transient, who rents a mobile home lot on which such person places a mobile home pursuant to a rental agreement.

(2) "Transient" means a person who rents a mobile home lot expressly for a period of less than one month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. On and after the effective date of this act, no landlord may offer a mobile home lot for rent without offering to the tenant or prospective tenant a written rental agreement for a term of six months. A tenant or prospective tenant who desires to occupy a mobile home lot for other than a six months term may have the option to be on a month to month basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such six month term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a mobile home to be moved into a mobile home park in this state until a written rental agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided for the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall contain:

(1) The terms for the payment of rent, including time and place, and any additional charges to be paid by the tenant. Additional charges that occur less frequently than monthly shall be itemized in a billing to the tenant;

(2) Reasonable rules for guest parking shall be clearly stated and, unless a violation thereof occurs, no fee shall be charged a tenant or the guest of a tenant for guest parking, except guest parking which covers an extended period as defined in the rental agreement. No agreement shall provide for towing or impounding of a vehicle except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner of said vehicle;

(3) The rules and regulations of the park, serious or repeated violations of the material terms of which will constitute grounds for eviction from the mobile home park and/or termination of the rental agreement;

(4) The name and address of the person who is the landlord, and if such person does not reside in the state where the premises are located there shall also be designated by name and address a person who resides in the county who is authorized to act as agent for the purposes of service of notices and process. If no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered the agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement or any renewal thereof may be terminated by the landlord only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Failure of the tenant to comply with the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination;

(2) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(3) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Unless otherwise agreed rental agreements shall be for a term of six months and shall be automatically renewed on a semiannual basis unless:

- (a) otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement; or
- (b) the landlord shall notify the tenant in writing two months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in such notice.

A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

(2) The tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location of the tenant's employment requires a change in his residence, and shall not be liable for rental following such termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the mobile home lot at a fair rental. If the landlord is not able to rent the lot, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the lot is rented or the original term ends.

(3) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement with less than thirty days notice if he receives reassignment orders which do not allow greater notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

The provisions of this act shall apply to such mobile home parks only when the primary purpose of such a mobile home park is the rental or lease of such lots or spaces for the production of income: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply when there is an employer-employee relationship between the landlord and tenant."

Senator Talley: "Thank you."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 10, after "patient" insert ": PROVIDED, That before prescribing or administering amygdalin, the physician shall obtain the signature of the patient on an informed consent form as provided in RCW 7.70.060 and, further, the physician shall advise the patient of the availability of amygdalin on the local commercial market"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator North yield to a question? Senator North, the first amendment requires the doctor to offer the informed consent form that we drafted to handle surgery type situations. Now, to the best of my knowledge, if I go to the doctor and he prescribes aspirin, I don't sign a consent, implied consent form. I am wondering, then, what new liability we might be imposing on a doctor who fails to either fully describe as I go to 7.70.060 all of the kind of things that might be incurred there. Is the amendment a friendly amendment in the sense of better informing the patient or is it an amendment that is going to impose malpractice liability on a doctor if he misses something?"

Senator North: "Senator Bottiger, it is meant as a friendly amendment to strengthen the bill. I have 7.70.060 in front of me and I don't see any words that say this is a situation limited strictly to surgery."

Senator Bottiger: "I agree that isn't in there but the word 'treatment' is in there. If the interpretation of that implied consent is that every time a doctor gives a prescription for anything he must use an implied consent because that is all he is doing here is prescribing something, then we are imposing a new duty on doctors that I don't think any of them anticipated when we passed the malpractice bill."

Senator North: "The reason that it is here, Senator Bottiger, is the whole bill, and I wasn't going to mention it until we get to the second amendment, is so unusual in the whole RCWs. Nowhere do we speak to a specific substance. Nowhere do we specifically grant immunity to a member of a profession for making use of a specific product. This is unique in the whole RCWs. We don't have anything like it, and because of its uniqueness, I really felt that we needed to clue in this particular informed consent formula that we have here. This is something that we already have in our law. It made sense to me to cross reference to it, and so that is the intent, to make it clear that the patient is fully informed about this specific substance."

Senator Bottiger: "One more question, Senator North, if you will. The second half, 'further, the physician shall advise the patient of the availability,' and I can't pronounce it, 'on the local commercial market.' Now, from what I understood you to say, there isn't any local commercial market other than going out and grinding it yourself, which I take it wouldn't be commercial."

Senator North: "Not quite correct, Senator Bottiger. At the hearing, it was brought out that there are some health food stores within the state who do have this preparation available. In some places it is labeled as a vitamin. Research tells us that it isn't a vitamin, but it is available in some health food stores, and I felt that the physician should advise the patient of this, making it clear that it is pretty darn hard to get, and giving him the whole picture about interstate commerce, foreign countries and what is available within the state of Washington."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, would Senator Woody yield to a question? If we do not accept Senator North's amendment, let me pose a case to you and I would like your response as to whether there would be the possibility of an action, a malpractice suit.

"A person comes to a doctor. The diagnosis of cancer is made, and the doctor lays out the alternatives, X-ray treatment, chemotherapy and other similar kinds of disastrous treatments, in a way. The patient says, 'No, I would like to take Laetrile.' Within six months the Laetrile doesn't affect that situation. The patient dies. Is there any way in which the family can then come back and sue the physician because he did not administer the generally medically accepted treatments since there is no record of the fact that the doctor explained these other things, and the whole conversation, in other words, without a written form how is the doctor protected in the situation where someone else, or maybe even the patient changes their mind at a certain point?"

Senator Woody: "Clearly in the event that the patient were to die and all of the transaction occurred orally, if there were a subsequent suit for malpractice, whether it be for conduct beneath the standard of care in the community or, and I emphasize 'or', lack of informed consent or any other ground for a medical malpractice suit, then immediately at the trial you would be confronted with the so-called dead man's statute, and that is you can't testify to a transaction with a decedent. At which point you would not get into evidence the fact that we discussed all of these other things, chemotherapy, radiation—. Even in front of other people, the dead man's statute applies. But in the event it were in writing, the dead man's statute still applies as to transactions, and that has been interpreted by the supreme court as to transactions between people as opposed to negligent conduct. At that point it would be an element of truth, and I think anyone who has been through suits of that nature can tell you that the posture of the truth at the time it occurs is highly different from the time it is in court and there is testimony about what occurred, and in all likelihood the malpractice suit would continue beyond a challenge to the sufficiency of the evidence and you would go all the way to the jury.

"At that point, I can only say juries do what juries will do, and it is pi R squared times your weight. The instructions by the judge will be that in the event that you find that there was an informed consent, all these other alternatives were stated to the patient, and if the patient then said, 'I don't care about those other things. I demand Laetrile,' and if that is the only allegation in the suit, undoubtedly the physician will be successful in the suit. However, if that is not the only allegation, if there are some plaintiff's expert witnesses who testify that the standard of care in the community is, even when a person is told about these other possible sources of treatment and they say, 'I want Laetrile,' the standard of care in the community is to insist upon these other things as well, or else say, 'I'm sorry, I'm not going to continue treating you because treatment of Laetrile is not within the medical profession,' there might very well be a lawsuit.

"In the end result, I don't think whether we have this amendment or not, you are going to substantially affect medical malpractice suits in the event Laetrile is or is not used."

The motion by Senator North failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator North moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, lines 11 through 16, strike all of section 2.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, would the enactment of this bill prevent the disciplinary board from bringing before it a doctor who prescribed Laetrile in all cases for anybody suspected of cancer? Is it so broad that we would create a quackery?"

Senator Day: "It is my opinion, and it is my intent—we will put this right in the record, that that would not be so, that it would allow a physician to keep control of a patient and to use any and all other methods that he felt were indicated, and at the same time, allow the patient to have Laetrile without running to Mexico or California, if they could afford to do so for a couple thousand dollars, thereby really retaining the patient-doctor relationship and strengthening the capability of the medical profession to handle the case. That is my intent in passing this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. I am wondering, would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, we have had a lot of discussion on this. Would you be adverse to having this bill held until tomorrow so we can get a lawyer's opinion?"

Senator Day: "We have had a number of lawyer's opinions. In fact, we have had the learned counsel, Senator Woody's opinion, and we had other people's opinions on this bill and I feel that, you know, I think people know whether they are for the patient having certain rights or not. That is all this bill is about. It doesn't take anything away from the medical profession, rather it extends to them a very small additional protection for them in their patient relationship, and I just think that holding it isn't going to change anybody's mind. As far as I am concerned, we have washed this bill around plenty. I think that maybe this thing can be what it really is intended to be, and that is a signal to someone that when a substance, just because the substance is not a drug, or because a substance is not generated out of a large cartel somewhere, doesn't mean that it doesn't have value, and that people have a right to utilize it."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator North: "Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry. Are we acting upon Senator Cunningham's motion, or are we acting upon the amendment. I am a little confused."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to your inquiry, Senator North, the question is the adoption of the amendment. Senator Cunningham made several remarks on the amendment and then moved adoption of the amendment. If Senator Cunningham desires to make the motion at a later time, the President will recognize him to do so."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator North yield to a question? Senator North, if in the event that they hold the bill, wouldn't it be better to hold your amendment until such a time as they—"

Senator North: "I would temporarily withdraw my amendment if that will clarify the situation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Day, would you yield to a question? Senator Day, you have no objection to holding the bill for one day?"

Senator Day: "Well, I will agree to holding the bill for one day. I can't see that it is going to in any way change something that we have been delving into this long, but out of courtesy, I certainly would do it."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 2241, as amended, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for April 7, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis, Senators Newschwander, Wanamaker and Murray were excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2301, by Senators Francis, Clarke and Van Hollebeke (by Judicial Council request):

Increasing witness fees.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Clarke, Senate Bill No. 2301 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2301, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—43.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Francis, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Wanamaker—6.

SENATE BILL NO. 2301, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2241.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2241, by Senators Day, von Reichbauer and Herr:
Permitting use of Laetrile.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2241 as amended on April 6, 1977. At that time, an amendment by Senator North to page 1, line 11 through 16 striking all of section 2 had been moved for adoption.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator North, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator North moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators North, Bottiger and Mardesich:

On page 1, line 10, after "patient" insert:

" : PROVIDED, That before prescribing or administering amygdalin, the physician shall obtain the signature of the patient on a form as prescribed by the Medical Disciplinary Board. This form shall include: (1) The derivation and character of the substance being administered or prescribed; (2) the recognized possible alternative forms of treatment; and (3) Any other material fact or facts the Medical Disciplinary Board feels would aid the patient in arriving at a reasoned determination as to the use of amygdalin."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, will Senator North yield? Senator North, I notice that you are amending section 1, page 1, on line 10, which is the section that has to do with the hospital or health facility, not with the physician. Shouldn't this amendment properly be attached to the second section which deals with the responsibility of the physician?"

Senator North: "I believe, Senator Day, if you will look at the very last of section 1, the words where this amendment is to fit is discussing 'administered by a physician licensed pursuant to and requested by the patient,' so the words are fitting in right there with the physician and the patient, and you notice that the title of the act deals with the physician-patient relationship. So I would feel that this is proper because it is attached directly to the words 'physician' and 'patient' and dealing with the relationship between the two."

Senator Day: "Well, of course, I agree with what you said in substance in the answer, but I also would point out that it is in the wrong place because the first part of this bill in the first section says no hospital or health facility may interfere with a physician when he does certain things. The second part of it says no physician may be subject to disciplinary action, et cetera, and I believe that this should properly fall into that particular section.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators North, Bottiger and Mardesich was adopted:

Amend the amendment to page 1, line 10, as follows:

On the first line, strike " : PROVIDED, That before" and insert "NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Before:"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, if this passes now, what if the disciplinary board fails to provide the form, and there is no time limit in here for such a form to be provided? Don't you think we should put something in here that would require that within ninety days after this becomes law that such a form be available to a physician who may wish to participate?"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, Senator Day, we presume that state government, state agencies will act as directed by the legislature and I can only assure you that the medical disciplinary board under the sunset law provision would be in trouble if they don't prescribe that form within the effective date of this act. If they don't, I would presume a mandamus action or something like that would compel them to, and I think you can give them the word, and I will be glad to sign the letter, that they had better."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator North failed and the amendment, as amended, was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator North moved the amendments to page 1, line 15 and page 1, line 16 adding a new paragraph be considered and adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Day, the question was divided.

Senator North moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators North, Bottiger and Mardesich:

On page 1, following line 16 after the material added by the committee amendment, add a new paragraph as follows:

"It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW 18.72.030."

The motion by Senator North carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator North moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators North, Bottiger and Mardesich:

On page 1, line 15, after "association" insert "solely"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator North failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2241 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Benitz would yield to a question? Senator Benitz, in listening to debate, I am a little confused. It seems like we are almost on a religious crusade with the use of Laetrile, what I have heard. I understand you have had some personal experience at home in the use of Laetrile, and I wonder if you could give the knowledge that you have had to this body that might help in the final vote?"

Senator Benitz: "Yes, thank you, Senator Newschwander and members of the body. Perhaps that is one of the reasons it is scarce. As one who has fed thousands of hogs, I have had the opportunity to feed many hundreds of tons of apricot kernels. In all those years I have never had a single case of cancer in those hogs. It must speak quite well for the product."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2241, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—36.

Voting nay: Senators Buffington, Goltz, Gould, Keefe, Newschwander, North, Scott, Sellar, Walgren—9.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson—1.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Fleming, Odegaard—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2241, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wilson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2489 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2489 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2489 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

MOTION

At 12:15 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, April 8, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

---

MORNING SESSION

---

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, April 8, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Fleming, Francis, McDermott, Ridder and Scott. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Fleming, Francis and Ridder were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Matthew Lund and Renee Liscom, presented the Colors. Reverend George M. Mitchell, pastor of the First Christian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD, ON THIS SPECIAL HOLY DAY MAY WE NOT FORGET THE AGONY SUFFERED BY YOUR SON AT THE HANDS OF POLITICAL AND RELIGIOUS AUTHORITIES: HIS BETRAYAL, HIS LONELY VIGIL OF PRAYER, HIS FALSE TRIAL, HIS MOCKING AND SCOURGING, THE TORTURE OF THE CROSS. FOR THERE ARE TIMES WHEN WE ALSO EXPERIENCE BURDENS, PAINS, TEARS, AND HEARTACHE. WE ALSO NEED YOUR PRESENCE, YOUR COMFORT, YOUR GUIDANCE, YOUR WISDOM.

"UPHOLD US WITH THE HOPE OF THE RESURRECTION BEYOND THAT CROSS WHICH YOU HAVE ASKED US TO TAKE UP AND CARRY IN YOUR NAME. STRENGTHEN US WITH THE FAITH IN THEE AND IN OUR FELLOW HUMAN BEINGS THAT ENABLES US TO TRUST WHERE WE CANNOT KNOW. BUT ABOVE ALL, O GOD, GIVE US EACH DAY A CLEARER UNDERSTANDING OF THAT LOVE WHICH WE SAW SO CLEARLY IN CHRIST AS HE HUNG FROM THE CROSS AND PRAYED, 'FATHER, FORGIVE THEM FOR THEY KNOW NOT WHAT THEY DO.' AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, what is the total amount, then, that we will be spending for purposes of this combined association?"

Senator Wilson: "If all the boards of commissioners in the county council of all of the thirty-nine counties approve the full amount, it would come to about a hundred and twenty thousand dollars, of which approximately half will be needed to sustain the prosecutor's operation when the federal funding expires."

Senator Rasmussen: "And in the event that the federal funding does not expire, the LEAA funds, will they be on top of this amount, or will they not collect that difference?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator, while I am not the board of directors of the elected officials association, I think I can respond to that by saying that I think all of us recognize that Lyle Watson is an honorable person, that if somehow a sixty thousand dollar windfall comes from the federal government to continue the prosecutor's operation, it would be my feeling that the association would not ask for that amount."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is not the intent that they spend both amounts, then?"
 Senator Wilson: "That is correct."

Could we use this bill and sign a five year lease to amortize the remodeling costs that might be required to bring them up to school codes?"

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1 add a new section following section 1 to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 18, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child custody proceeding is commenced in the superior court:

(a) By a parent:

(i) By filing a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or declaration of invalidity; or

(ii) By filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where he is found; or

(b) By a person other than a parent, including any grandparent, by filing a petition seeking custody of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where he is found, but only if the child is not in the physical custody of one of its parents or if the petitioner alleges that neither parent is a suitable custodian.

(2) Notice of a child custody proceeding shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and custodian, who may appear and be heard and may file a responsive pleading. The court may, upon a showing of good cause, permit the intervention of other interested parties."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 26.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a decree of adoption is for the adoption of a child of a previous marriage of the petitioner's spouse, the decree shall become null and void if the marriage is dissolved and the natural parent marries another person within one year of the entry of the adoption decree, and the decree shall so state. The occurrence of such an event shall relieve the petitioner of all liability for support of the child under chapter 26.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The provisions of section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act are procedural and remedial in nature and shall be retroactive to January 1, 1977."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. Mr. President, the bill itself deals with grandparent rights in the case of dissolution or divorce in marriage, and this particular amendment deals with adoption, and I think the two are not compatible in this bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of inquiry. The last line of the amendment that was read was, 'retroactive to January 1, 1977,' but I see a new section 2 proposed, and a new section 3, and I did not hear that those amendments were being considered as one. My inquiry is relative to which amendment we are considering."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 2323, as amended, together with the amendment moved for adoption by Senator Rasmussen, the Point of Order by Senator Bluechel on the amendment by Senator Rasmussen and the Point of Information by Senator Pullen, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for April 11, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2297, by Senators Francis, Clarke and Van Hollebeke (by Judicial Council request):

Allowing electronic recordings of superior court trials.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 16, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2297, allowing electronic recordings of superior court trials (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 9, after "through" and before the comma strike "2.32.320" and insert "2.32.310"

On page 1, line 26, after "record" and before "and shall" insert "of that portion of the proceeding which has been electronically recorded"

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Jones, Van Hollebeke.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Francis and Marsh:

On page 1, line 18, after "equipment," strike "if either party to the suit or action, or his attorney, requests an electronic court recording of the proceedings," and insert "it may be used only if both or all parties to the suit or action, or the attorneys for both or all parties, request an electronic court recording of the proceedings,"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Francis, would you yield, please? What advantage would it be in the trial of a case for the counsel and parties on both sides to agree to electronic transcripts? At the present time there is a salaried court reporter, of course, who charges for the pages that he transcribes, so why would the parties agree to electronic transcripts?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Washington, I guess I would say why would they not agree. What reason is there not to go ahead and try it? I suppose that the same question would be asked, why would somebody waive a jury, or why would somebody go along with some other new process? It seems to me that there may be some advantage to the fact that on an appeal, as Senator Clarke has said, you could let the appellate court listen to the voice inflections and so forth, and I think most of the time these things are going to be transcribed and typed up anyway, but it may be that you are going to want to preserve your record on appeal including the voices of the people, and you think that is important enough that you want to go with an electronically recorded trial.

"It may be that the next step is going to be that we are going to video tape them too so that you can see what is going on, see the faces and the demeanor of the witnesses, and so forth. It seems to me we are starting down a road that might be a very, very good one for all concerned."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment by Senators Francis and Marsh was adopted:

On page 1, line 20, after "request." strike the following sentence, beginning with "The judge may," and ending on line 25 with the words "jury instructions"

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 17, after "recorded" insert ": PROVIDED, That whenever such equipment is approved, it shall be installed in duplicate to reduce chances of an incomplete recording being taken"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Goltz failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Buffington moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Buffington and Mardesich:

On page 1, after line 27 add a new paragraph as follows:

"In no event shall a magnetic tape containing a record of court proceedings be altered, erased, spliced or tampered with during the preservation time period determined pursuant to section 4 of this 1977 act."

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Buffington and Mardesich was adopted:

On line 3 of the amendment to page 1, after line 27, strike "preservation"

The motion by Senator Buffington carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following line 14, insert a new paragraph to read as follows:

"During court recess periods, the lunch hour, and after adjournment of court, the qualified person having operated the equipment shall test the recording made during the preceding court period to ascertain whether the equipment was in proper working condition and shall call to the judge's attention any malfunctioning of the equipment which took place immediately preceding such recess, lunch period, or adjournment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Marsh, would it be your intention that the complete proceedings of the morning court would be checked to see that it was there, or how would he check?"

Senator Marsh: "I believe that the tape can be speeded up and you can catch whether or not it is blank in any particular portion. I have been to various conferences where they will transcribe an entire proceeding and then check the tape made of that proceeding in a matter of minutes. I think it is electronically possible to do that in a matter of minutes. A qualified operator can do it, and I don't think they would have to listen the entire hour or whatever it might be that they are checking."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question, Senator Marsh. Does the court allow the attorneys to bring their own tape recorders?"

Senator Marsh: "Right now that is in the discretion of the court."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, by the way in reply to that last thing, the most recent trial that I had which was two weeks long, in December, my clients brought a tape recorder, and were taping it for about the first four days, and then the judge noticed what they were doing and just about had a fit because he said, 'You know that you can't do that,' and I certainly didn't know it, and I know that they didn't know it, but they didn't tape anything after that. I can't for the life of me figure out what was wrong with taping what is going on, especially if it was so unobtrusive that the judge didn't notice it for the first four days of the trial."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Marsh failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 22, after "civil cases and" insert "/or"

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2297 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Well, if, Senator Clarke, I understood your arguments against the bill, and they are very convincing, you say that the judicial council and all these people would be opposed to the bill in this present form?"

Senator Clarke: "It is my belief that they would consider it ineffective in its present form. I cannot, of course, speak for the judicial council. I can speak only for myself as a member."

Senator Herr: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator, my question pertains to the ownership of the tapes under the bill as it is presently written, and I am asking the question, I guess, on behalf of the media and the newspapers of this state. Quite often a reporter who is trying to cover a trial accurately, and there will be a very key statement by a witness that the reporter wants to get in complete accuracy, and he is not certain of his own notes. Now, under present procedures unless the proceedings are transcribed, or unless the reporter can make an informal understanding with the court reporter to verify the accuracy of his quotation, he often has a problem. My question is, if tapes are used in certain proceedings, open proceedings, under terms of the act as it is now written, would a newspaper reporter have access to a portion of the tape so that he could verify the accuracy of something that a witness said?"

Senator Francis: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Wilson, two things. First of all, section 5 basically speaks to the process of transcription. For the most part, I would think that journalists would be interested in the same things that they are now, and that would be a transcribed version. In other words, what they would want is to be able to read what was said because you can go through that a lot faster than having to listen to a tape, and you can make your markings and so forth. It would seem to me that these provisions are adequate for requiring that a transcription or a typed version of the electronically recorded proceedings would be made available.

"In addition to that, it would seem to me that there is nothing in Senator Buffington's amendment or anywhere else in the bill that would prevent duplications being made of the transcript itself, that is, of the tape. The tape itself, the original, would have to be controlled and under the possession of the clerk's office, and they would be responsible for its safekeeping, but I see no basis for objecting to duplicates being made so that the voices themselves could be heard later and even played on the radio or the television."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2297, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 26; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 13, beginning on line 19, after "one" strike "and one-third" which shall determine and reflect user densities and preferences and suitability and availability of designated ORV trails and areas within the state. The plan shall be maintained on a continuing basis with the plan document updated at least once every third biennium and shall be used by all participating agencies to guide distribution and expenditure of nonhighway vehicle funds."

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Guess, Peterson, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, line 24, after "~~cross-country~~)" insert "recreation"

On page 2, line 25; after "or for" insert "recreation"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments were adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, line 1, after "vehicles" insert "when used on ORV trails"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, in view of the language on the bottom of page 3 and top of page 4—how would you make it clear that while those vehicles are on highways and roads, other than ORV trails, that they would pay the same tax and that tax would go into the regular fund rather than into the ORV fund?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Mardesich, all of the money—there is no refund for these people from their motor vehicle gas tax, so when they bought it they paid the tax. We have no refund provision like we would on a boat. What happens is the money goes into the gasoline tax account and by prior legislation established, I think six or seven years ago, one percent of that amount is set aside for this purpose, but what you are doing here is, you would be saying that if you go on the ORV trail, that counts against the fund but if you go off the trail, then that money doesn't go into the fund which we use to build the trails to keep them off the non-trail land."

Senator Mardesich: "What if we had a vehicle that spent five percent of its time, or less, on an ORV trail and the rest of the time on the highways, would all of the funds then go into the ORV fund?"

Senator Bottiger: "No. None of the funds would go into the ORV fund. One percent of the gas tax goes into the ORV fund, namely because the legislature says it shall. There is no division. When you buy gas at the gas station, you have a four wheel drive Jeep, that gas tax goes into the same fund as if I pull up behind you in my car. We have had some surveys or some studies made of what percentages of the gasoline tax is not used on tax supported roads, and those surveys—another one is actually called for in this bill to update it—those surveys determine that one percent. In fact, the survey said four percent should.

"In theory the legislature could take all of the gas tax money and apply it on a road whether it is ORV road or not. Now that will never happen, as I am sure you are well aware. The present law says that one percent of the total gas tax collection goes into this ORV fund. This bill does not change that in any way."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich the amendment was withdrawn.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, on line 23, page 2, which is in the first section there, you find a repetition of the words 'non-highway vehicle.' We remove the appellation on page 17 down at the bottom of the page, and we change the 'non-highway' to 'ORV' vehicle. To be consistent, should not that word 'non-highway' be changed?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, on line 13, we again define ORV to mean a non-highway vehicle, so you could do it. I see your point, but I think we picked it up on line 13 on page 2."

Senator Guess: "O.K."

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 12, line 1, after "equal to" strike "one-half of"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Washington failed and the amendment was not adopted.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Washington to page 12, line 3 on the Secretary of the Senate's desk was withdrawn.

Senator Washington moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 14, line 19, after "chapter" insert ", and not more than fifty percent of its share of said amount for education and law enforcement programs related to non-highway vehicles"

On page 14, line 22, after "areas;" insert "for education and law enforcement programs related to nonhighway vehicles;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I am not sure I understood all of the previous debate, but weren't we replacing the term 'non-highway vehicles' with 'ORVs' previously?"

Senator Washington: "We have in most cases, but this was using the broader term in that there are a number of vehicles that may not actually have the four wheel speeds that do travel on the highways, get off of the roads, and they didn't want to get into the technical problem of utilizing funds for an arrest if the vehicle didn't technically meet the definition that we have elsewhere in the bill. That is why we have the broader definition."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendments were adopted.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 13, line 36, after "facilities" insert ": PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the department of natural resources, two months prior to the acquisition and development of nonhighways roads and recreation facilities for off-road vehicles or off-road vehicle parks or recreation areas, as defined by RCW 46.09.020 (section 1 of Senate Bill No. 2472), shall conduct a public hearing at a suitable location in the nearest town of five hundred population or more, and the department shall notify all owners of property within a radius of twenty miles of such proposed ORV area or park by publishing a notice of such hearing on the same day of each week for two consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties where the property which is the subject of the proposed facility is located, and by giving notice of such hearing through the United States mail, first class, postage" prepaid, to all owners of property abutting the proposed facility, as such property owners appear on the property tax roll of the county treasurer, and by notifying the owners of property adjoining any highway or access road within a radius of five miles, leading to such facility. The department of natural resources shall further file such notice of hearing with the department of ecology at the main office in Olympia and shall file with the department of ecology an environmental impact statement, prepared in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.21.101"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, you previously indicated the substance of your amendment and I told you I would have no objection, but now when I read it, on the fourth from the bottom line I think you got a sneaker in there, 'and shall file with the department of ecology an environmental impact statement prepared in accordance with 34.21.101.' Now we have a governmental agency, the department of natural resources, who is building a trail head, at the end of a trail, and they go through the entire environmental impact procedure even though ecology might say it is a no impact proposal?"

Senator Goltz: "Senator Bottiger, it is my understanding that in the filing of an environmental statement, where the lead agency can make a declaration of no impact, that they would be in compliance with the RCW so it does not require a full blown environmental impact statement for every activity which would be considered by the department of natural resources."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Goltz was adopted:

On the last line of the amendment to page 13, line 36, after "34.21.101" insert ", if required by the department of ecology"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Goltz yield, please? Senator Goltz, in reading the amendment, I just wonder—the department of natural resources is going to have to give notice of such hearings through the United States mail, first class, postage prepaid to all property owners abutting the proposed facility, and as such property owners appear on the tax roll of the county treasurer, and by notifying the owners of property adjoining any highway or access road with a radius of five miles. That is the most stringent type of notice that I have ever seen in a bill coming to the floor. I wonder if you realize the impact of what you are doing?"

Senator Goltz: "If you divide the question, Senator Guess, on the adjoining property, I think I understand the impact of that. With regard to the radius of five miles, that may be a more stringent requirement than I would even support. I would accept an oral amendment to strike 'the access road' requirement."

Senator Guess: "I wouldn't make that."

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment by Senator Goltz to the amendment by Senator Goltz was adopted:

Amend the Goltz amendment to page 13, line 36, as follows: On line 19 of the amendment, after "located" insert a period and strike all the matter down through "facility." on line 27 of the amendment.

MOTION

Senator Newschwander moved the amendment by Senator Goltz, as amended, be laid upon the table.

The motion by Senator Newschwander failed on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Goltz, as amended.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Grant and Francis:

On page 17, after line 3, insert additional sections as follows:

"Sec. 21. Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with a mirror on the left side of the handlebars which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle(:);

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless he wears glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type approved by the state commission on equipment.

~~((c) For any person to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle unless he wears upon his head a protective helmet of a type approved by the state commission on equipment. Such a helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion:))~~

(2) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend regulations, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for approval of glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets (~~required in this section~~). The state commission on equipment shall maintain and publish a list of those devices which the commission on equipment has approved.

Sec. 22. Section 10, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.37.535 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to rent out motorcycles unless he shall also have on hand for rent helmets of a type approved by the commission on equipment.

~~((No motorcycle shall be rented out unless the renter thereof has in his possession a helmet of a type approved by the commission on equipment regardless from whom the helmet is obtained:))"~~

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, on the amendment I raise the question of scope and object. Mr. President, it is as Senator Grant has said, a repeal of the helmet law. I have indicated to the people who have proposed the repeal of the amendment that I will vote with them this year, but not in this form.

"The bill has to do with the off-road vehicles, hasn't got anything to do with motorcycles, and I think it is totally out of order."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2472, as amended, together with the Point of Order by Senator Guess, was ordered held for the second reading calendar on April 13, 1977.

MESSAGE TO LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JOHN A. CHERBERG
KEEP WASHINGTON GREEN ASSOCIATION, INC.

April 6, 1977.

THE HONORABLE JOHN A. CHERBERG
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AND PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE
STATE OF WASHINGTON
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

DEAR MR. CHERBERG:

Knowing you as one well informed and conscientious, I need not tell you that Arbor Day falls on April 13 and that Governor Ray has declared the week of April 11-15, 1977 as Arbor Week.

We would again very much appreciate it if you would be kind enough to read the attached statement relative to Arbor Day at the beginning of the Senate session on Wednesday, April 13, 1977.

Arrangements have already been made to have placed on the desk of each Senator a seedling of our state tree, Western Hemlock.

Thank you very much for your support and cooperation. I trust you will find this a pleasant task.

Sincerely,
ED LONERS
Director, Keep Washington Green
Chairman, Washington State Arbor Day Committee.

KEEP WASHINGTON GREEN ASSOCIATION, INC.

April 6, 1977.

GENTLEMEN:

Today is Arbor Day, a time to plant and appreciate trees.

The custom of celebrating Arbor Day dates back to the fifth century when people in a small Swiss town instituted a day of tree planting as a yearly holiday. They knew the important beneficial effect trees had on each of their lives and on their country as a whole.

In the United States, the 100th anniversary of Arbor Day was celebrated in 1972.

In Washington State, legislation passed in 1957 designates the second Wednesday in April as Arbor Day.

In our state, Arbor Day has special meaning. Our trees and forests give us many comforts; beauty, shade, oxygen, and spiritual support as well as great environmental and economic values such as watersheds, forest products, and jobs.

In honor of Arbor Day, each of you will find a Western Hemlock seedling on your desk along with planting instructions and a brochure on Arbor Day. This nine month old seedling was grown in a styrofoam container in the Washington State nursery in Bellingham, operated by the Department of Natural Resources. The capacity of this nursery is now 1-1/2 million plug-type seedlings a year. The Webster Nursery at Lathrop has a capacity of 25 million open-grown seedlings a year. Several varieties of seedling stock are grown in both state nurseries for commercial forest plantings to replace the harvested trees of our most important renewable forest resource.

By planting this seedling, you affirm the spirit of Arbor Day and further enhance our heritage as the Evergreen State.

Thank you for your thoughtfulness.

ED LONERS
Director, Keep Washington Green
Chairman, Washington State Arbor Day Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Point of order for the benefit of those in the gallery who are not acquainted with our previous procedure here. This appointment, number 50, number 51, 63, 95, 97, 109 and 117 were all included in a letter from the Governor on a mass or purported mass withdrawal of appointments and were acted on en masse by the Senate. It is and has been our position with respect to all of those in that category that the action, both of the Governor and the Senate thereon, was contrary both to the Constitution and the law, and we therefore have raised this point of order.

"The President has ruled adversely, but in order to keep the record correct, we are raising the point as to each of the appointments in that category, and many of us will vote 'no' on those appointments for the exclusive reason of that point of order.

"I want to accentuate that a vote 'no' does not, in any way, infer that the present appointees are incapable or that there is anything wrong with them. It is simply to preserve the point of order that we have been maintaining here, and with the consent of the President and the body, I would ask that as has been done in the past the entire record with respect to the original point of order be regarded as applicable to these particular appointments."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, responding to Senator Clarke's statement, this is an accurate statement of the proceedings that have occurred with regard to these various appointments in which there is some controversy, and I, too, would join in the request that the remarks that have previously been made by Senator Clarke and others on the Republican side, and those remarks made by myself and others on the Democratic side, be made a part of this particular matter as it involves these further gubernatorial appointments."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

I am sure they knew that Elgin Ologg is a retired FBI agent and served on law and justice for Pierce County for two years, and I think he would be and will be an excellent addition to the gambling commission."

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2472.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2472, by Senators Bottiger, Guess and Bausch:
Changing the law on recreational vehicles.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2472 as amended on April 12, 1977. At that time, the following amendment by Senators Grant and Francis had been moved for adoption:

On page 17, after line 3, insert additional sections as follows:

"Sec. 21. Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with a mirror on the left side of the handlebars which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle((-);

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless he wears glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type approved by the state commission on equipment.

~~((c) For any person to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle unless he wears upon his head a protective helmet of a type approved by the state commission on equipment. Such a helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion:))~~

(2) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend regulations, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for approval of glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets (~~(required in this section)~~). The state commission on equipment shall maintain and publish a list of those devices which the commission on equipment has approved.

Sec. 22. Section 10, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.37.535 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to rent out motorcycles unless he shall also have on hand for rent helmets of a type approved by the commission on equipment.

~~((No motorcycle shall be rented out unless the renter thereof has in his possession a helmet of a type approved by the commission on equipment regardless from whom the helmet is obtained:))"~~

Remember the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

Senator Guess raised a Point of Order on the amendment.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Guess, the President finds that Senate Bill 2472 creates a general class of vehicles known as off-road vehicles with provisions to license and regulate the use of such vehicles, whereas the amendment proposed by Senators Grant and Francis is in essence a repeal of the motorcycle helmet law. Therefore the President does believe that the amendment changes the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Grant and Francis was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 1, after "vehicles" insert "as described in section 13"

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 17, after line 3, insert additional sections as follows:

"Sec. 21. Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with a mirror on the left side of the handlebars which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle ((-));

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless he wears glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type approved by the state commission on equipment ((-));

(c) For any person to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle on a highway unless he wears upon his head a protective helmet of a type approved by the state commission on equipment. Such a helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion.

(2) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend regulations, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for approval of glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets required in this section. The state commission on equipment shall maintain and publish a list of those devices which the commission on equipment has approved."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "I haven't had a chance to read it, but it seems to me that you have already ruled on the issue. It still has to do with motorcycles. Just because he changed the locale of it hasn't got anything to do with it. It amends a different section, and it starts off and says that 'it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motorcycle, a motor driven cycle not equipped with a mirror on the left side of the handlebars shall be so located as to give the driver complete—' It has to do with motorcycles."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Just to make the record clear, I don't recall that Senator Guess formally raised the point of order as to this particular amendment, although there has been debate on it, and I would like the record to show that he has raised the point on this amendment."

President Cherberg: "You are raising the point, Senator Clarke?"

Senator Clarke: "On Senator Guess's behalf, I am raising the point of scope and object which has already been argued but I don't think was before the body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that your remarks are correct in that regard, Senator Clarke."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Henry yield to a question? Senator Henry, as I heard your explanation, you kind of turned it around. You said that they could fix up their homes. My understanding of the bill is that they decide they are going to build a highway; they file it with the county auditor, but then that person has two years in which he may make no improvements on his home and expect to be compensated for it. Is this correct?"

Senator Henry: "Well, in effect that is correct, not necessarily improvements on the home because the condemnation will be done on the appraised value and so forth, but it would not permit him to go build a new factory or something in the corridor site and expect to get paid for it and if it is done within two years. I am quite sure that you understand that most of my explanations that I make have no direct relation to the bill under discussion. I am sure you understand that."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Henry."

Debate ensued.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2975.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2975, by Senators Bluechel, Gould, Murray, Goltz and Hayner:

Relating to the liability of ski resort operators.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2975 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Bluechel moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Just before we move the bill, I would like to ask Senator Bluechel a question. Senator Bluechel, in this proposed legislation you make it a misdemeanor for a person involved in a skiing accident to depart from the scene of the accident without leaving identification, I have a question about that. Do you remember in the motor vehicle code where a person leaves an accident that—of course it is a criminal offense without reporting it, but what are you talking about in regards to an accident where I, as a skier, ski into a tree, does it involve some other person or a certain amount of damage? What are you speaking of?"

Senator Bluechel: "A skiing accident as defined in this would be—it is not defined, but would be understood to be where you hit somebody else, where two people are involved in an accident, and that one person has contributed to part of the accident. The other person would be injured. Now, it is not a misdemeanor under this bill if there are no injuries or if no aid is required. It is only when injuries or aid are required and two people have collided or in some sense one person has caused the accident to the other person."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does require an injury?"

Senator Bluechel: "Yes. If there is no injury—"

Senator Rasmussen: "In what amount? I sprained my ankle or hurt my feelings?"

Senator Bluechel: "No, I think the bill goes on to state, 'where aid is required,' In other words, where aid must be summoned such as the ski patrol is summoned to help that person off the mountain. Somebody must report that accident and say that he was involved. This has developed into a problem in areas because people have caused accidents and then left the scene, and then in further to this, where somebody is involved in an accident they have then later come back and sued the area and the area has never even known about an injury-type accident. They have gotten off the hill themselves by some method and consequently, the area then has been sued, and the people in the area have never heard of the accident. There is no record in the ski patrol. Under normal common practices in skiing, if you are involved in an accident or cause an accident, you must stay and help that person if that person requires help because of an injury. I would say if you get a sprained ankle and you ski off on it, it is highly questionable whether that would be the type of accident we are talking about. We are talking about where somebody has a serious accident."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, in further answering Senator Rasmussen's question, I call attention to lines 14 and 15 on page 4 where it says, 'knowing that any other person involved in the accident is in need of medical or other assistance,' so I think that very well takes care of the point you were endeavoring to make."

The motion by Senator Bluechel carried and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975 was advanced to third reading and final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Will Senator Bluechel yield? Senator, insofar as this bill is designed to achieve the purposes you are speaking to, I think it is a good bill. My attention is attracted to section 5 on page 4 pertaining to mandatory liability insurance which a ski lift operator must maintain. I would like to have some idea as to what this sort of insurance costs. In other words, I am wondering if this is a cost item which might mean very little to the proprietors up on Snoqualmie Pass, but could mean quite a bit to the small, informal cooperative ski hills that are operated in my neck of the woods."

Senator Bluechel: "No, this insurance to my knowledge, now, is carried by all of the areas that operate publicly. If the area is operating on a private basis, it is a different matter, but all of the areas that are operating publicly, and I think we contacted them before the committee hearing and spoke to every one of them, and the area operator's association which, I believe, all of the ski areas in the state belong to. I may be wrong on that. There may be one or two that don't, but to my knowledge they all belong, and the insurance that is covered here is what they are carrying now for their own protection."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Alan, sharing with you the concern on skiing, I am looking at section 3, . . . and possibly through question and answer, it talks here about leaving the scene knowing that the other person is injured, what I am wondering is how do you interpret that with say, a five-year-old or a six-year-old who inadvertently skis in front of somebody and forces them to have an accident?"

Senator Bluechel: "I think you can point out many circumstances in something like this where there is a question. If somebody skis in front of somebody and causes an accident, and he is five years old, other people will be around. The primary purpose of this section is to notify the first aid ski patrol that somebody is hurt so somebody stays there and somebody goes to notify the patrol so that they will get immediate medical assistance. This is the primary purpose. This, in discussion with the various attorneys that drafted this, and in the committee, is I will agree, a somewhat nebulous area, and whether the enforcement can be done or not is questionable. But the intent of the ski area operators is to post a sign saying you are guilty of a misdemeanor if you leave the scene of an accident, and hope that the general public will comply with this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bausch: "Will Senator Bluechel yield? There are a couple of things about the bill that bother me, but in particular, I would like to know what the intent is as to the definition of the bill being written in favor of or for skiers or for the ski resort owners."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Bausch, the attempt was made to write it right down the middle, to neither favor one nor the other, to notify the skiers that they have responsibilities when they ski in an area, and certain of the responsibilities they take upon themselves. At the same time it was to notify the ski area operators that they must have liability insurance, that they must post signs, that they must not have anything in gross negligence. They are liable for any gross negligence. Hopefully it is written right down the middle. The bill has partially been taken from a statute in New Hampshire which was a great deal of the first sections of this bill where they have used this to try to put common sense back into skiing. Hopefully it doesn't favor either side, and hopefully it will keep a lid on the prices, which is the main reason I am entering this."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Murray yield to a question, please? Senator Murray, have you checked with the Washington Environmental Council, and have you written an environmental impact statement on going way up in the top of those mountains and sticking up sign boards?"

Senator Murray: "In my opinion there is no environmental impact statement necessary."

Senator Beck: "Yes, but you are putting sign boards up there. Better beware of those environmentalists."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I find that in chapter 70.88 of the RCWs the state parks and recreation commission has certain responsibilities for inspection of ski facilities and equipment, and was wondering if Senator Bluechel can tell us what kind of a job the commission has been doing in inspecting those facilities."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Odegaard, that law was passed two or three years ago, and the inspections have been carried out under the state parks and recreation. Actually, from a practical matter, all of the ski areas operate under the ANSI code which is much different from anything we have in this state, and for their own self protection, they take out liability—they post signs. They do all of the things that will get them their liability insurance, and the inspection by the state parks, while it is a necessary part of skiing, they would do it anyway, and I believe that in this state they supersede those inspections in all ways."

Senator Odegaard: "Actually that law was passed in 1959. Would this bill in any way repeal any section of that law in 70.88?"

Senator Bluechel: "Not to my knowledge at all. It was not the intent, and I don't think it does."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2975 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for April 14, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2472, a special order of business.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2472, by Senators Bottiger, Guess and Bausch:

Changing the law on recreational vehicles.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2472, as amended. Earlier today, Senator Grant moved adoption of an amendment to page 17, following line 3, inserting additional sections. Senator Guess raised a Point of Order on the amendment.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Guess the Point of Order raised by Senator Guess was withdrawn.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Grant, the proposed amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2472 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Francis was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, the question comes up, does this require that a person who is on a hunting trip, goes out and uses a trail in a normal vehicle, does he have to have an ORV tag?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, you are only supposed to ask questions so that I have a chance to look it up. My understanding is it does not change the existing law at all. Where he required one before, it would require him to have one now, if he is using these forms of roads."

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger, the situation where a person gets a permit from the department of natural resources and goes out in the forest to cut firewood, is it going to be necessary for him to have, when he has in his possession a temporary permit to cut firewood, to have also the ORV tag?"

Senator Bottiger: "I don't believe so."

Senator Guess: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Guess yield to a question? I understand your question related to the person that used his, maybe not his Jeep, with a registered off-the-road vehicle license?"

Senator Guess: "No, I wasn't talking about that. I was talking about a person who has a pick-up and gets a permit to go cut firewood, and he happens to use one of these forest service trails, an ORV trail. Is it necessary for him, during the time he is getting the wood, to have to have an ORV sticker?"

Senator Rasmussen: "And Senator Bottiger said he did not believe so?"

Senator Guess: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "I believe that he would have, any time he was caught on any one of these trails, he would be expected to have an off-the-road vehicle license. I am not an attorney, but as I read the bill, it would require it."

Senator Guess: "Senator Rasmussen, this occurred to me as we were in debate, and I was hoping that we would clarify the situation to make sure that the person who had a temporary permit to get firewood, and had occasion to use one of the trails would not be required to have an ORV sticker."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, usually if you have enough time you can find the answer to those questions. On page 3, line 25, 'ORV use area' and it there specifies that if you are on a designated trail with some exceptions, buffer zone, approved camping site, things of this nature, if you go on the ORV trail, designated, posted ORV trail, you must have an ORV sticker permit. Now, if the firewood cutter decides to drive up an ORV trail, then there is a three dollar permit that he buys. If he doesn't want to buy the permit, then he can carry his wood back to the trailhead."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2472, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

April 14, 1977.

The President's ruling that my amendment to Senate Bill No. 2933 is outside the scope and object of the bill supports my contention that Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 violates Article 23, Section 1, of the state Constitution by simultaneously submitting more than one amendment to the voters. Since my amendment to Senate Bill No. 2933 is the exact same language taken from Senate Bill No. 2936, and since both Senate Bill No. 2933 and Senate Bill No. 2936 are implementing bills for Senate Joint Resolution No. 104, it is clear that separate subjects are dealt with in the two bills. The logical conclusion is that Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 contains at least two distinct and separate subjects not dependent upon or connected with each other.

Signed: Senator Kent Pullen.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, in section 53, subsection 5 the second sentence in the section delineates contracts, which I have no problem with, however there are some fine programs being operated in the state such as the Seattle Community Accountability Program, the Snohomish Alternatives for Youth, the Clark County Project Breakthrough, Spokane's Alternative Services for Juveniles and Yakima's Youth Home Associates. Now, is it the intent of this section that, if granted, these programs would continue in the same manner and mode that they have been operating?"

Senator Donohue: "Yes, Senator Day. It is the intent of this language to generally allow them to continue to operate, however, and I am sure you agree, that the department will have performance criteria in the contracts with these agencies to assure accountability and performance, et cetera."

Senator Day: "Fine, thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, in section 68, we are providing an additional nine hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars for twenty-five FTE staff years to be expended within the safety inspection and educational program, and the question that I would like to ask you, is that your understanding, based on contacts with the department of labor and industries regarding this appropriation, that it is their intent to insure that new inspectors will be properly qualified safety engineers capable of accomplishing the goals and objectives of this program?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct, Senator. We have talked to the department and they say that they believe it most necessary that they upgrade their staff, and they believe that the employee and the employer will benefit from an educational training program, a program that will enable both parties to recognize and correct cooperatively the problems when an unsafe condition exists."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

Voting nay: Senators Gaspard, Gould, Grant, Murray, Odegaard, Pullen—6.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, von Reichbauer, Woody—3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3109, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Odegaard: "I would just like to explain why I voted 'no' on the budget was for Conference Committee purposes. I am certainly very supportive of the budget. Senator Donohue and Lyle Jacobsen and his staff did a tremendous job and the forty votes for it show it."

MOTION

At 9:36 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, April 15, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2399.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2399, by Senators Bausch, Pullen and Rasmussen: Making the day before a legal holiday which falls on Saturday a holiday.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2399 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2399, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 19, after "subdivisions;" strike "except hourly rated faculty employees and those employed on the basis of contracts for a specified number of work days or faculty appointments" and insert "except employees of school districts and non-classified employees of institutions of higher education holding academic year appointments"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, in declaring this to be a legal holiday, is there any impact on dollars that you are aware of?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No. There would be no additional impact over what there was previously when all employees were granted a holiday and the state government shut down. That was the election day."

Senator Cunningham: "Senator Rasmussen, to continue on that, are there any areas where the state cannot withhold services on Friday which this would now mandate even though the holiday falls on Saturday, we would be required to pay double time plus the holiday pay?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Cunningham, you are talking about an additional part of the bill that I have not touched on, and that does not concern the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, would Senator Rasmussen yield to another question? Senator Rasmussen, as I read this, and I will use Christmas Day falling on a Saturday. Typically, we have not granted Christmas Eve off, and I find nothing in the bill that would indicate that Christmas Eve or New Year's Eve, for that matter, are holidays, but if they fell on Saturday we would have created a new paid day off. Do you find something in the bill that is to the contrary?"

Senator Rasmussen: "State your question again. I didn't—"

Senator Bottiger: "I am reading the bill, and your explanation was we did not intend to grant any additional paid holidays, however, Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, if they fell on a Saturday, or Christmas Day or New Year's Day, if they fell on a Saturday, this bill would create a new paid holiday being Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't think that that would be true. It certainly is not the intent. The intent of that particular section of the bill that Senator Cunningham raised a question on, and that you just raised a question on, is that it would clarify as to what day would be the holiday. At the present time it varies. Some groups of state employees get Monday as a holiday, and some get the Friday as a holiday. They all get it because it is scheduled as part of the paid holidays. This just makes it uniform. This was cleared through the office of OPP&FM. All employees at the present time are getting those as holidays because it is spelled out in the contract."

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2558, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2493.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2493, by Committee on Higher Education (endorsed by Senators Sandison, Donohue, Goltz, Benitz, Odegaard, Guess and Scott):

Making miscellaneous changes in community college law.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2493 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Odegaard, I might call to your attention section 2 which is a new section and reads, 'that notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the terms of present members of community college boards of trustees shall be extended for a period of six months or not later than October first of the year of expiration to carry out the purposes of section one of this amendatory act,' and I question whether that can be done. These are appointments that have to be approved and approved for a certain term by the Senate, and I question whether we can extend every incumbent's term by six months by the passage of a statute. Unless the lawyers here disagree with me, I suggest you perhaps might want to hold this until Monday so we can take a look at it."

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, Senator Van Hollebeke, this particular section amends the present language so that it will enable us to extend their terms six months. In order to make the terms effective, or to change the date from April first to October first, that would be the only way to do it is to extend their terms six months. Otherwise, we would have to strike that whole section of the bill, which is to get that effective and I don't see any problem there. The main thrust of that section is the problem that when new trustees come on board on April first, they usually are in the middle of negotiations at that time with the faculty and employees. When we extend that to October first, then they have had several months experience on the board and they are not in the middle of negotiations usually at that time. That is the purpose of it, and I don't think there is any problem."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Senate Bill No. 2493 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for April 18, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2593.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2593, by Senators Sandison and Guess: Relating to community colleges.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2593 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2593, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2593 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, could you describe the kinds of programs that are being offered to military personnel outside the United States through the community college authority that is granted in the original bill, and what kind of programs would be offered, are available to dependents of those military personnel with the extension of this legislation?"

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Grant, as I understand it, and I am not totally familiar with the programs that are offered, I think that Senator Washington is probably more familiar since Big Bend is in his district. But as I understand it, mainly the types of programs for many of the military and also what the new bill here would do to extend it to dependents and civilians, for those to help them complete their basic education and their GED type high school education and those kinds of programs."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, is Big Bend the only junior college that is now engaged in this?"

Senator Odegaard: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "How many others—"

Senator Odegaard: "One other, Olympic at Bremerton, just the two."

Senator Rasmussen: "Olympic, they are at Bremerton, yes, but how far is their program extended?"

Senator Odegaard: "I believe they work with the Naval personnel, and whether it actually extends beyond that, I don't know."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is this set up as a correspondence course, or do we actually have instructors following the Navy ships?"

Senator Odegaard: "As I understand it, we actually have personnel overseas with these people, and they are a part of the Big Bend Community College on their faculty."

Senator Rasmussen: "Are you talking about Olympic now?"

Senator Odegaard: "And Olympic."

Senator Rasmussen: "Both Olympic and Big Bend have faculty all over the world, then?"

Senator Odegaard: "Not all over the world, Senator Rasmussen. I think it is mainly in Germany, and Olympic's program, I haven't heard so much about as Big Bend. I think Big Bend has actually been in it more than Olympic has. Senator Walgren might be a little more familiar with Olympic's program than I would be and could answer it better than I."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2593 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for April 18, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2485.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2485, by Senators Bottiger, Guess, Wanamaker and Beck (by Department of Highway request):

Establishing new functional classifications for highways.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 15, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2485, establishing new functional classifications for highways (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 9, after the comma and before "and" insert "report thereon to the legislature biennially"

On page 1, line 29, before "service" strike "intercounty" and insert "interregional"

On page 2, line 7, before "function" strike "collection" and insert "collector"

On page 2, line 12, after "relating" and before "the functional" strike "the" and insert "to"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Beck, Vice Chairman; Bluechel, Guess, Peterson, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Beck moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 32, strike all of section 3 and add the following new section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 1 of this 1977 act modifying the functional classification of state highways shall apply to the long range plan for highway improvements and to the six year program for highway construction commencing July 1, 1979 and to the preparation thereof and shall take effect July 1, 1977. Section 2 of this 1977 act shall take effect July 1, 1979."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Beck would yield to a question? Senator Beck, you put off the effective date of the implementation of the act into the July 1, '79 period, and that will be after our next session. I am not so sure that you will have the authority at that time to implement what you attempt to implement."

Senator Beck: "Senator Mardesich, this is going to require considerable phasing out of the existing classifications of highways. The current budget which was submitted to us is based upon the current classifications and it would require completely rewriting the highway budget, and to take care of this, we made this effective right away.

"What it does for all practical purposes is it will start going into effect and will enable the highway department to go ahead and expend the budget which we are going to adopt at this session, beginning July 1, 1977—"

Senator Mardesich: "But my point is—"

Senator Beck: "—and it terminates on June 30, 1979."

Senator Mardesich: "My point is though, in January through whenever we are finished in '79, we will have passed a new budget, right? Next budget?"

Senator Beck: "Yes, in January, '79, there will be a new budget."

Senator Mardesich: "Which should be based on this new classification system."

Senator Beck: "That is right. This will give them opportunity to begin a long two-year phase-in of the program."

Senator Mardesich: "My point is that this effect, this law that you now are passing, setting up the new system will not take effect until July 1, '79, and yet you are going to try to implement it—"

Senator Beck: "If you will notice, 'the preparation thereof shall take effect July 1, 1977'. Read the entire amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate and Senator Mardesich, our problem is that we have a budget based on the old priority array. We are asking the highway department to establish a new one for the budget to become in effect in 1979. You will notice on the next to the last line from the bottom, we say that the new array becomes effective in '71, but section 2, the implementation section, is in '79."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "All right, Senator Beck, a question. Senator Beck, parts of this you want to become effective July first, but it does not contain an emergency clause spelling that out, and the ninety days for a law to become effective will be later than that."

Senator Beck: "If you will just read the amendment, Senator Rasmussen, it says, 'Section one of this act, of this 1977 act, modifying the functional classification of state highways shall apply to the long range plan for highway improvement, and to the six year program for highway construction commencing July 1, 1979 and to preparation thereof, and shall take effect July 1, 1977. Section two of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1979.' I interpret that that this gives them an opportunity to prepare a long range plan. Senator Bottiger, maybe you interpret it differently, I don't know."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, Senator Rasmussen, you are absolutely right in that on July 1, 1977 the new act will not come into effect. It will come into effect ninety days after we adjourn, so that phrase 'July 1, '77' is actually ineffective. However, what we are doing is telling the highway department that in preparing the budget for two years from now, 'use this new classification,' and I am sure the forty-five days delay or so in their getting started won't make any real effect."

The motion by Senator Beck carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Beck, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "providing" strike "an" and after "effective" strike "date" and insert "dates"

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2485 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2485, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 1; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—42.

Voting nay: Senator Grant—1.

Excused: Senators Francis, Gould, Herr, Monohon, von Reichbauer, Woody—6.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2485, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2061, by Senators Day, Jones and Buffington:

Regulating proprietary hospitals.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2061 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz and Matson were excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, on line 27, it reads, 'includes an allowance for a fair return to stockholders based upon actual investment or, if the hospital elects, upon the fair value of the investment.' My question is it is my understanding in reading recent news releases that this is settling down to about three large profit making chains, stockholder held."

Senator Day: "Presently in the state there are about six or seven proprietary hospitals."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am talking about nationwide, they are gradually taking over. Why should we guarantee any stockholder held, profit making corporation a fair return? We ordinarily do not do that. The stockholders take their chances without having a guarantee of profit."

Senator Day: "Well, I understand that, but when you are regulating their rates it doesn't guarantee them a profit, but it does guarantee that in those rates that a consideration for a return on their investment will be a part of the rate making process, Senator. We are not guaranteeing them a profit. What we are saying is that in the regulation of rates, the determination of what they want the cost of the facility computed on the basis of original cost or on the basis of fair value of the investment for purposes of rate making. Certainly the people who invested the money should be entitled to at least interest on their money, and that is what this is talking about. Do you understand?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, Senator Day. I only wish that same guarantee would apply to any investments that I or anybody else on this floor may make in a stockholder's private corporation that we should have a fair return. It doesn't work out that way out in the world."

Senator Day: "That is true, but when we make an investment, it isn't regulated as to what we can charge for the services or where we make the investment isn't regulated as to what the price of the commodity can be, and this is, and so therefore they have to have some basis upon which to compute a fair return on the amount of money or the value of the property that they have invested in. Otherwise, there would be no proprietary hospitals because they wouldn't allow them any rate of return. I don't think that is what you want to do, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is not the experience. We are gradually getting just three separate ones that are major ones."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, as I read the language under the laws that existed before, someone builds a hospital, they are allowed a fair return on the investment—"

Senator Day: "Correct. There was some question, Senator, whether that—"

Senator Mardesich: "—or the fair value of the investment, nevertheless. Now this could affect, of course, our medical payments through the budget. Someone builds a hospital currently, today. Let's go back ten years ago, twenty years ago they build it. Up to this time they have been allowed a fair return on their investment under the law as it is currently drafted. Let's assume they have depreciated it a hundred percent over the twenty year period. They are now able to put a fair market value on that for depreciation purposes and begin again, and that is quite different from a fair return on investment."

Senator Day: "Yes, I understand that, but the reason for this is that there was a question about the 1973 hospital regulation act as to whether it abrogated an existing contract. Consequently, there was a question whether the rate commission could regulate at all. Now what this is intended to do is to get by that contractual problem and to allow them a choice of which way to go, and once they go that way, they cannot change the method they have chosen unless they go back to the rate commission to do it, and as I understand it, this will get by the problem for only those profit making hospitals. Now, the number changes. At one time there were nine. I believe there are six or seven only now out of the hundred and eight or nine in the state, so we are only talking about a relatively small number of hospitals. What the rate commission is trying to do is get this in a position where they are not confronted with a lawsuit saying that you have abrogated an existing contract when they attempt to regulate the rate structure, and a component of that rate structure is a fair rate of return on investments."

Senator Mardesich: "I don't know what the question is with respect to abrogation of contract, but this allows everyone to begin anew with depreciation if they desire, if they are completely depreciated—"

Senator Day: "As I understand it, it would only apply to proprietary, profit making hospitals."

Senator Mardesich: "I understand that, too—"

Senator Day: "—Line 23, you mean every one of the six or seven in existence."

Senator Mardesich: "Right."

Senator Day: "But that is correct, however that would have to be because any one of them would be affected by the abridgement of contract problem, and consequently, it is necessary for us to change this so that the hospital rate commission can substantiate their position and proceed."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Day yield? Senator, in any way, would this bill work to protect—we know that welfare patients and people on relief and things like that do not have to pay, the state does not pay the going rate, so that a private patient has to subsidize the state patients. Will this be a bill that will allow the state to get that up there where they should be?"

Senator Day: "No, to correct what you have said, since Medicare became effective the hospital rates paid by the state are dictated by the Medicare law. You know, the nursing homes are still running up and down here not getting rates that they say will pay their costs, even, but not the hospitals, because since Medicare, the Medicare act dictates what the state must pay for Medicaid rates. They must pay ninety-nine percent of the effective cost of the preceding year, so this will, in no way, affect that and there are only about six or seven of these in the state. This will not affect any of the so-called not-for-profit hospitals, and of course, that, the vast majority, about a hundred of them are not for profit. The number does change as they close these hospitals. This only affects the proprietary hospital, and the only reason the hospital rate commission has requested the bill is because they, at the moment, cannot effectively regulate them because of the question of abrogation of contract, and that is what this bill is intended to get around."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

At 12:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, April 18, 1977.

REMARKS BY SENATOR ODEGAARD

Senator Odegaard: "On 2493 I had explained the bill last Friday, and the question came up by Senator Van Hollebeke whether we could legally extend the dates of the trustees by six months. Our staff has checked that out with the attorney general's office. Phil Austin informs us that there is no problem in doing that. He said if it were a proposed legislation in federal Congress there could be a problem, but there is no constitutional problem and there is no other problem within our own state. Of course this section of the bill is amending old language to allow this to happen, and the reason for it is to remind you of the reason to extend the date six months because we changed the present date of when trustees take office of April first to October first.

"The reason for that is that the new trustees who come on line on April first begin serving in the middle of local budget negotiations oftentimes, where by in October there is very seldom any negotiations going on having to do with budgets, and so it was recommended to us by the trustees as the higher education committee traveled to the different community colleges that the date be moved to October first."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 2493.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3047, with the following amendments:

On page 2, add new sections following section 2, as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 212, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.34-.065 are each amended to read as follows:

The true and fair value of farm and agricultural land shall be determined by consideration of the earning or productive capacity of comparable lands from crops grown most typically in the area averaged over not less than ~~((five))~~ four years, capitalized at indicative rates. The earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be the "net cash rental", capitalized at a "rate of interest" charged on long term loans secured by a mortgage on farm or agricultural land plus a component for property taxes.

For the purposes of the above computation:

(1) The term "net cash rental" shall mean the average rental paid on an annual basis, in cash or its equivalent, for the land being appraised and other farm and agricultural land of similar quality and similarly situated that is available for lease ~~((for a period of at least three years))~~ to any reliable person without unreasonable restrictions on its use for production of agricultural crops. There shall be allowed as a deduction from the rental received or computed any costs of crop production charged against the landlord if the costs are such as are customarily paid by a landlord. There shall be added to the rental received or computed an amount to represent federal agricultural subsidies if appropriate and not otherwise included. If "net cash rental" data is not available, the earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be determined by the cash value of typical or usual crops grown on land of similar quality and similarly situated averaged over not less than ~~((five))~~ four years. Standard costs of production shall be allowed as a deduction from the cash value of the crops.

With respect to farm and agricultural land classified or under application for classification pursuant to chapter 84.34 RCW which is being leased or is available for lease, lease payment amounts shall be disclosed to the county assessor or department of revenue upon request.

The current "net cash rental" or "earning capacity" shall be determined by the assessor with the advice of the advisory committee as provided in RCW 84.34.145, and through a continuing study within his office, assisted by studies of the department of revenue. This net cash rental figure as it applies to any farm and agricultural land may be challenged before the same boards or authorities as would be the case with regard to assessed values on general property.

(2) The term "rate of interest" shall mean the weighted average rate of interest charged by the farm credit administration and other large financial institutions regularly making loans secured by farm and agricultural lands through mortgages or similar legal instruments, (a) averaged over the immediate past ((five)) four years and (b) weighted by the estimated dollar volume of such loans made in each year.

~~((The "rate of interest" shall be determined annually by the revenue department of the state of Washington, and such determination shall be published not later than January 1 of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the revenue department may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals by any~~

~~owner of farm or agricultural land or the assessor of any county containing farm and agricultural land:))~~

(3) The "component for property taxes" shall be a percentage equal to the estimated ((~~millage rate times the legal assessment ratio~~)) levy rate multiplied by the ratio of current-use value in the county to equalized true and fair value of those properties classified under this chapter.

(4) The rate of interest and component for property taxes shall be determined by the department of revenue of the state of Washington. Such determinations shall be published not later than January 1st of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the department of revenue may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals by any owner of land affected by the determination or by the assessor of any county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A five member committee consisting of two representatives designated by the assessors association, one representative designated by the association of counties, and one representative designated by the United States department of agriculture cooperative extension service, and chaired by a representative designated by the department of revenue shall serve in a review capacity in the implementing of open space current use assessment guidelines.

The committee shall:

(1) Review, as deemed necessary by the committee, the procedures and methodology of current use assessment of open space land as defined in RCW 84.34.020.

(2) Advise the legislature concerning the administration of the laws governing current use assessment of open space land; and proposed changes to said law; and

(3) Make recommendations to the assessors of those counties in which the department of revenue determines that the department's estimate of current use value differs from assessed current use value by more than ten percentage points."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "84.34.035;" add "amending section 10, chapter 212, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.065; adding a new section to chapter 84.34 RCW;"; and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

Revising the regulation of charitable solicitations.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 16, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2429, revising the regulation of charitable solicitations (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, line 19, after "activities" and before "conducted" insert ", raffles, and amusement games"

On page 5, line 16, after "Any" strike all the material down through and including "funds," on line 18 and insert "charitable organizations ((which are organized and operated principally for charitable or religious or educational purposes, other than the raising of funds;))"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, in your amendment of subsection 2, line 16, on page 5 which was your second amendment, you struck, in the amendment, 'religious or educational purposes.' Now, my question is when you now only define charitable organizations as qualifying, what does that do to private schools that run certain types of endeavors to raise funds for educational purposes?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Day, I refer you to the definition section which is on page 2 of the bill, defining 'charitable organization' which includes educational, philanthropic, patriotic, eleemosynary, recreational or fraternal, and so I would say that if it affects anything, it would affect possibly the religious aspect, although even there if it were for an educational purpose of a religious organization, such as for a church school or something like that, they would still be O.K."

"On the other hand, if it were not, and it were a direct thing such as people selling candy door to door and saying that it is for a certain church, it may be that they would have to comply and show that they were really representing this church and that is really where the money is going and so forth."

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment to page 6, striking all of section 3, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Senate Bill No. 2429, as amended, was ordered held for further consideration this afternoon.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 104, by Senators Francis, Clarke, Marsh and Van Hollebeke:
Amending the Constitution to adopt a new judicial article.

MOTIONS

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 34, after "necessary." add the following sentence: "The financial transactions, records, and accounts of all courts and all other agencies of the judicial branch, however denominated, are and shall be subject to audit as the legislature may prescribe."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, at first I thought you were saying that Senator Grant's amendment should wait until you have considered yours, and in the latter part of your speech you indicated you just didn't want any part of Senator Grant's amendment. I think that Senator Grant should have a chance to offer his amendment to the amended version of Senate Joint Resolution No. 104."

Senator Clarke: "Well, Senator, that is a matter, perhaps, of parliamentary procedure. I think that if you adopt the philosophy that you want to present one issue at a time, I am simply saying that some of us feel that we should isolate this question of discipline of the courts, and it is a completely separate issue from that offered by Senator Grant.

"I think that Senator Grant's amendment from a parliamentary standpoint as the matter now stands before us is entirely proper. I am suggesting, however, from a practical standpoint that I urge you to vote that amendment down and then to adopt the amendment which will then be proposed by Senator Francis and myself, and which will present the single, clear-cut issue of the disciplinary board."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Grant, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke:

On page 1, beginning on line 5, after "to" strike the remainder of the resolution and insert "Article IV of the Constitution of the state of Washington by adding a new section to read as follows:

Article IV, section . . . . .

The supreme court may censure, suspend, or remove a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct and may retire a judge or justice for disability which is permanent or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease.

The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when disciplinary action other than removal is taken. The supreme court may not discipline or retire a judge or justice until the judicial qualifications commission recommends after notice and hearing that action be taken and the supreme court conducts a hearing after notice to review commission proceedings and findings against a judge or justice.

The judicial qualifications commission shall consist of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and two persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Debate ensued.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke:

Amend the Francis/Clarke amendment to page 1, on line 5, as follows:

Before "BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED" of the last paragraph of the amendment, insert the following sentence: "The financial transactions, records, and accounts of all courts and all other agencies of the judicial branch, however, denominated, are and shall be subject to audit as the legislature may prescribe."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 104, together with the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke, the amendment to the amendment by Senator Grant, and the Point of Order raised by Senator Jones, was made a special order of business for 1:15 p.m. today.

INTRODUCTION OF MASON COUNTY FOREST FESTIVAL ROYALTY

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:15 p.m.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 104, by Senators Francis, Clarke, Marsh and Van Hollebeke:

Amending the Constitution to adopt a new judicial article.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 from earlier today.

Senator Jones had raised a Point of Order on the following amendment by Senator Grant to the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke:

Amend the Francis/Clarke amendment to page 1, on line 5, as follows:

Before "BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED" of the last paragraph of the amendment, insert the following sentence: "The financial transactions, records, and accounts of all courts and all other agencies of the judicial branch, however, denominated, are and shall be subject to audit as the legislature may prescribe."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Jones has questioned the scope and object of Senator Grant's amendment to the Senate floor amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke to Senate Joint Resolution No. 104.

"The proposed floor amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke to Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 is an amendment to the Judicial Article of the Constitution. The amendment gives to the supreme court disciplinary powers over all judicial officers and officers of the court, subject to prior inquiry and hearings before a judicial qualifications commission, consisting of judges, members of the bar, and laymen, to be established by legislative enactment.

"Senator Grant's amendment subjects all financial transactions, records and accounts of all courts and other agencies relating to the judicial branch, to legislative audit, to be established in detail by legislative enactment.

"In view of the fact that the Senate is dealing in this instance with an amendment to a proposed constitutional amendment, to which the narrow construction imposed by the Constitution, pursuant to Article II, section 19, relating to bills is inapplicable, the President rules that Senator Grant's amendment is encompassed within the general scope of the disciplinary powers of the supreme court over judicial officers and agencies, expressed in the floor amendment of Senators Francis and Clarke. Therefore, the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Grant to the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke was ruled to be in order.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Grant to the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke.

The amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Francis and Clarke.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 104 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Revising statutes relating to energy facility site selection.

On motion of Senator Mardésich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bottiger was adopted:

Amend the amendment by Senator Bottiger on page 18, line 18, after "council" and before the period, insert "from the funds submitted".

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 1, after "chapter" and before the period insert: "PROVIDED HOWEVER, That no oil transshipment port site may be located north of Rosario Strait, and the energy facility site evaluation council shall not accept any application for such a facility to be sited north of Rosario Strait".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, specifically, in reference to the limitations on the movement of tankers now, how does this change the existing law such as in 527?"

Senator Goltz: "This amendment would change the direction for the energy siting council as to the application. It does not have anything to do with the way in which tankers use Puget Sound. It doesn't speak to that at all. I think if it spoke to that subject it would be out of scope and object of the bill, but this speaks to the energy siting council, and its consideration of applications for an oil transshipment port."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Goltz failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 10, after "act" and before the period insert "with the exception of section 12 of this 1977 amendatory act".

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 15, line 3, after "approval" strike "or" and insert a comma, and after "rejection" and before "of" insert ", revocation or suspension".

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 15, line 34, after "council" and before the period insert "; a civil action for damages may be brought by any person adversely affected by a failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the certification".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Marsh: "Senator Woody, would you yield to a question? Senator Woody, your amendment does not expressly state who your right of action would be. I assume it would be against the applicant, is that correct?"

Senator Woody: "That is correct, and of course, that is the thrust of the entire subsection 3 where the prosecutor or attorney general would bring civil actions too."

They are going to bring it against the applicant for his failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the certification. All of those certifications have a certification agreement where they say they will do certain things, and all of them have clauses where they are not going to damage the neighbor's apple orchard or the neighbor's cows and that sort of thing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Woody yield, please? Senator, do you want that to read as a separate sentence? It looks to me like that is the way it should, and the amendment says 'after "council" before the period insert'. It looks to me like it should be a separate sentence."

Senator Woody: "I would rather have a semicolon in there, and I say that only because sometimes you have difficulty explaining this to courts, to the counsel, that sort of thing. If they see it in the same action they know that one relates to the other."

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 98.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 98, by Representatives Bauer, Charnley, Douthwaite, Kilbury, Lee, Lysen, Smith and Nelson (Gary):

Establishing thermal performance standards for new dwellings.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 17, 1977.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 98, establishing thermal performance standards for new dwellings (reported by Committee on Energy and Utilities):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 19, after "occupancy," strike all of the material down through the period on line 22 and insert "as the term "dwellings not intended for year round occupancy" is defined by the county legislative authority."

On page 3, line 13, after "total" insert "structural".

On page 3, line 14, after "total" and before "heat" insert "structural".

On page 3, line 16, after "chapter" and before the period, insert ": PROVIDED, That compliance with these provisions shall be deemed conclusive when certified to by a registered architect or registered mechanical engineer".

On page 3, line 22, after "of" and before "shall" strike "these regulations" and insert "this 1977 amendatory act".

On page 4, line 28, after "thermal" and before "is" strike "performance" and insert "insulation".

On page 5, line 3, after "than" and before "of" strike "35%" and insert "thirty-five percent".

On page 5, line 17, after "Spaces." strike all of the material down through "floors" on line 18 and insert "Insulation shall be required in floor sections over unheated spaces with a maximum "U" value 0.08 and a minimum insulation "R" value 9: PROVIDED, That insulation shall not be required in floor sections".

On page 5, line 29, after "or" and before "downward" insert ", alternatively,".

On page 8, line 16, after "overall" and before "heat" insert "structural".

On page 8, add a new section following section 12 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The senate and house committees on energy and utilities shall make continuing studies of the state building code as it relates to energy consumption, conservation and retention and shall submit their recommendations concerning such to the legislature periodically,"

Re-number the remaining sections consecutively.

Signed by: Senators Bottiger, Chairman; Bausch, Vice Chairman; Benitz, Gaspard, Lewis.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendments to pages 1, 3, 4 and 5 were adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 8, line 16.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, when you are using the word 'structural' here, had you checked that out with a heating engineer, because you get a situation that arises when you figure heat loss. You can figure heat losses through a building and through the area in which the insulation is in, and then you can figure the heat loss as through the structural portion which would be from, say, plywood to the two by fours to the plasterboard, and this is a different heat loss. I think you may be inadvertently referring to something which you are not intending."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Bluechel, the engineers and the building trades and everybody else was down, and no one else brought up that objection. In fact, they recommended this amendment."

Senator Bluechel: "The reason I bring it up is because when I was in the business of figuring heat losses for the Alaska area, we figured the heat losses through the structural portion of the building and through the portions of the building that had the insulation, and it is substantially different, and I again question whether we are walking into something that is not intended."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Bluechel, you obviously know more about it than I do. The people at the hearing that I can only tell you to the best of my knowledge that was their amendment to make it possible so that we weren't testing each building. We were looking at the insulation put in, is it put in properly, and that we not have to bring machinery out to test it."

Senator Bluechel: "I would agree, Senator Bottiger, with what you are intending to do. I question whether the word 'structural' is correct. I simply think that maybe it should be used the 'entire.' The worrying about an open door is just extraneous to the definition. When you figure heat loss in a building, you figure it from the entire wall area, or from the entire roof or floor area, or from the entire building. I am getting very, very technical, and if somebody interpreted it this way, I think it could be interpreted that you are looking at the heat loss from the structural portion of the building and not the open space in the walls itself."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Bluechel, three oral amendments proposed by Senator Bluechel were withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendment to page 8, line 16 was adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 8 adding a new section 13.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "I wonder if Senator Bottiger would yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, there are two amendments in my book and you have used the second one. The first one is the joint committee on energy and utilities, and the one you are on now is the Senate and House committee on energy. Are we not considering the first one?"

Senator Bottiger: "We are not considering the first one. We had hoped to have the first one because there was a lot of federal money that could fund these things, but I was encouraged not to do that so we did not offer the first amendment."

Senator Newschwander: "And the second committee, the Senate and House committee, will this be studies on the weekend meetings we have when we are not in session, or is this mandating studies during the interim at the pleasure of the chairman?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Newschwander, the rules and facilities committee have absolute control over any of the standing committees, and while I do intend to make an appeal to those committees and appeal to Senator Donohue for some study funds to look into these things, I may or may not be successful."

Senator Newschwander: "Then you will go through the facilities committee rather than the weekend monthly meetings?"

Senator Bottiger: "I intend to ask on this and on solar energy rights bills for some funds to hire a consultant, or in this case, to put some staff on the job of attempting to rewrite the building code to provide new energy standards. I intend to ask, and based on past experience, I have some doubts whether I will be successful."

Senator Newschwander: "Well, then, we will listen."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, on page six of this bill there is a requirement that vapor barriers shall be properly installed in walls and ceilings. Does this create a problem by allowing a building inspector to require polyethylene sheeting?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Wilson, that question came up in the committee meeting, and it was thoroughly discussed. No, there is a number of accepted vapor barriers, foil backed insulation blankets, kraft backed insulation blankets, foil backed gypsum board and others recognized by the international conference of building officials. This language does not necessarily require polyethylene sheets. What the language does require is that the vapor barrier be properly installed, that it not be ripped or torn, and that the rips must be repaired and that the vapor barriers on insulation blankets fit snugly on wall studs or ceiling rafters. It is my intent, and I believe the intent of the committee, that we not add a new requirement over and above existing good, workmanshiplike practices."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the committee amendment to page 8 adding a new section 13 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 98, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question or two? Senator Bottiger, specifically, with the exception of the floor insulation, what does this bill do that cannot be accomplished in FHA financing qualifications that exist right now?"

Senator Bottiger: "Nothing."

Senator Cunningham: "Then why do we need it?"

Senator Bottiger: "The home building industry appeared and testified before us and indicated to us that there are probably five or six percent of the houses, varying from three to five percent on the estimate, of homes that are built that do not go FHA, VA standards, that the standards are not required either by the lending institution or there isn't any lending institution involved. This not only provides unfair competition for them, but it creates a series of people who are getting houses who have been led to believe they are properly insulated, and in fact, are not. For that reason the home builders, the contractors, all support this act."

Senator Cunningham: "Well, Senator Bottiger, I guess what my concern is, I don't see anything in this bill that people can't do themselves now, and I think the few percentages that you are talking about of people who build homes without FHA financing, are either so poor they can't qualify or they are building something that is so expensive that it, by its esthetics, wouldn't qualify. While I am supportive of energy conservation, I am questioning our mandating somebody's responsibility. I would just appreciate really knowing why specifically we need this."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Cunningham, I can repeat the answer I gave you, and I can add to that what I also thought of. There was some testimony in committee about substandard insulation, that there were builders who fudged, and who did not meet the full standard, and there was nothing under the building code that the building inspector could do about it. In this sense, the bill does add a tool to the building inspector to see that the insulation put in is minimal, and that is all this bill does."

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

Revising energy emergency powers and procedures.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 13, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 928, revising energy emergency powers and procedures (reported by Committee on Energy and Utilities):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

"Section 1. Section 15, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.21G.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that energy in various forms is increasingly subject to possible shortages and supply disruptions, to the point that there may be foreseen an emergency situation, and that without the ability to institute appropriate emergency measures to ((reduce and/or allocate the usage)) regulate the production, distribution, and use of energy ((through a program of mandatory usage curtailment and/or allocation)), a severe impact on the public health, safety, and general welfare of our state's citizens may occur. The prevention or mitigation (~~(of the effects)~~) of such energy shortages or disruptions and their effects is necessary for preservation of the public health, safety, and general welfare of the citizens of this state.

It is the intent of this chapter to:

- (1) Establish necessary (~~(energy)~~) emergency powers for the governor and define the (~~(conditions)~~) situations under which such powers are to be exercised;
- (2) Provide penalties for violations of this chapter.

It is further the intent of the legislature that in developing proposed orders under the powers granted in RCW 43.21G.040 as now or hereafter amended the governor may utilize, on a temporary or ad hoc basis, the knowledge and expertise of persons experienced in the technical aspects of energy supply, distribution, or use. Such utilization shall be in addition to support received by the governor from the state energy office under RCW 43.21F.050 and 43.21F.070 and from other state agencies.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.21G.020 are each amended as follows:

As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Energy supply facility" means a facility which produces, extracts, converts, transports, or stores energy.
- (2) "Energy" means any of the following, individually or in combination: Petroleum ((or) fuels; other liquid fuels; natural or synthetic fuel gas; solid carbonaceous fuels; fissionable nuclear material, or electricity.
- (3) "Person" means an individual, partnership, joint venture, private or public corporation, association, firm, public service company, political subdivision, municipal corporation, government agency, public utility district, joint operating agency or any other entity, public or private, however organized.

(4) (~~"Council"~~ means the energy advisory council created by section 8 of this ~~1976 amendatory act~~;) "Committee" means the joint committee on energy and utilities created by RCW 44.39.010 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Distributor" means any person, private corporation, partnership, individual proprietorship, utility, including investor-owned utilities, joint operating agencies, municipal utility, public utility district, or cooperative, which engages in or (~~(are)~~) is authorized to engage in the activity of generating, transmitting, or distributing energy in this state.

(6) "Regulated distributor" means a public service company as defined in chapter 80.04 RCW which engages in or is authorized to engage in the activity of generating, transmitting, or distributing energy in this state.

(7) "Energy supply alert" means a situation which threatens to seriously disrupt or diminish the supply of energy to the extent that the public health, safety, and general welfare may be jeopardized.

(8) "Energy emergency" means a situation in which the unavailability or disruption of the supply of energy poses a clear and foreseeable danger to the public health, safety, and general welfare.

(9) "State or local governmental agency" means any county, city, town, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, or state agency.

Sec. 3. Section 17, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.21G.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that the governor (~~(and the council)~~) shall, in developing (~~(provisions)~~) plans for the production, allocation, (~~(conservation)~~) and consumption of energy, give (~~(due consideration)~~) high priority to supplying vital public services (~~(such as)~~) including, but not limited to, essential governmental operations, public health and safety functions, emergency services, public mass transportation systems, fish production, food production and processing facilities, including the provision of water to irrigated agriculture, and energy supply facilities, during a condition((s)) of ((an)) energy supply alert or energy emergency. In developing any ((energy allocation)) such ((programs)) plans, provisions should be made for the equitable distribution of energy among the geographic areas of the state.

It is further the intent of the legislature that the governor shall, to the extent possible, encourage and rely upon voluntary programs and local and regional programs for the production, allocation, and consumption of energy and that involvement of energy users and producers be secured in implementing such programs.

Sec. 4. Section 18, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.21G.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((In addition to his existing powers and duties, the governor shall have the following duties and special energy emergency powers subject to the definitions and limitations in this chapter:))

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 116, by Senators Bottiger, Lewis, Bausch and Gaspard:

Permitting the lending of state and local government credit for energy conservation services and materials.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 116 was substituted for Senate Joint Resolution No. 116 and the substitute resolution was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, a question before this is boosted. Senator Bottiger, this Substitute Senate Joint Resolution provides that you use moneys or credit to finance research and educational projects. What do you have in mind on the research and educational projects that they cannot engage in at the present time?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, when you asked me that yesterday I went to Mr. Billington and some of the people from the public generating entities, and they would like to work to do research in some of the same things that we talked about on House Bill 98 on efficiency of appliances, things of this nature: They also currently do some joint research projects with Puget Power and some of the privates, and they are concerned about the question. The language is limited to the conservation field, the conservation of energy. One of the other things I now recall them mentioning is line load loss. They lose almost twenty percent of the power generated at a plant on line loss, and they would like to work on a glass insulated line that cuts that down."

Senator Rasmussen: "And then the other question I had, Senator Bottiger, was they are amending notwithstanding the provisions of section five or seven. Did you check that out in the Constitution?"

- ~~(1) Costs attributable to staff experience and professional preparation; and~~
- ~~(2) Costs to state and local funds attributable to the operation of approved educational programs arising as a result of a concentration of culturally disadvantaged students, or as a result of a high degree of transient enrollment;~~
- ~~(3) Costs resulting from the operation of small school plants within districts: PROVIDED, That such plants are judged by the state board of education as remote and necessary;~~
- ~~(4) Costs differentials attributable to the operation of approved elementary and secondary programs;~~
- ~~(5) Costs which must be incurred to operate an approved vocational program;~~
- ~~(6) Costs resulting from the attendance of students who:

The weighting schedule when established shall be renewed biennially by the state superintendent and shall be subject to approval, rejection or amendment by the legislature. The schedule shall be submitted for approval as a part of the state superintendent's biennial state budget. In the event the legislature rejects the weighting schedule presented, without adopting a new schedule, the schedule established for the previous biennium shall remain in effect. The enrollment of any district, before weighting, shall be the average number of full time students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145 enrolled on the first school day of each month:))

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:

The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

(1) Certificated staff and their related costs;

(2) Classified staff and their related costs;

(3) Nonsalary costs;

(4) Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools, small high schools, urban schools, and schools experiencing enrollment declines.

In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous biennium shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full time students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the first school day of each month.

Certificated staff shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent: PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certified person exercises general supervision. Annual average full time equivalent classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall be at least twenty-two hours per week. Classified staff shall include those persons employed by a school district other than certificated staff as defined in this section in a capacity for which certification is not required.

(2) Costs of acquisition of approved transportation equipment shall be ~~((limited))~~ reimbursed up to ((ninety)) one hundred percent of the cost to be reimbursed over the anticipated life of the vehicle, as determined by the state superintendent: PROVIDED, That reimbursements for the acquisition of approved transportation equipment received by school districts shall be held within the general fund exclusively for the future ((purpose)) purchase of approved transportation equipment and for major transportation equipment repairs consistent with rules and regulations authorized and promulgated under RCW 28A.41.170 and chapter 28A.65 RCW.

County commissioners or the legislative authority of the respective counties to which the money is distributed are authorized and directed annually to distribute not less than fifty percent of said money to each school district within each such county according to the proportional number of ~~((weighted))~~ annual average full time equivalent students enrolled in each such school district during the immediate preceding school year as certified by the ((county school superintendent of schools or the intermediate)) educational service district superintendent ((of schools as the case may be: PROVIDED, That if any such school district would suffer a decrease in its total revenue as the result of receipt of said money, such district may refuse its proportional share and the county commissioners shall thereupon redistribute such proportional share to the remaining districts in the county)). The county commissioners or county legislature authority shall expend the balance of said money for the benefit of the public roads of such county, and not otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Rules and regulations adopted by the state board of education and superintendent of public instruction pursuant to the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act shall be subject to periodic review by the legislature.

All parents, guardians and the persons in this state having custody of any child ~~((eight))~~ six years of age and under fifteen years of age shall cause such child to attend the public school of the district in which the child resides for the full time when such school may be in session or to attend a private school for the same time unless the school district superintendent of the district in which the child resides shall have excused such child from attendance because the child is physically or mentally unable to attend school or unless such child is attending a residential school operated by the division of institutions of the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That when any parent, guardian or custodian of a child presents to the school district superintendent of the school district in which said child resides, a sworn affidavit stating that said parent, guardian or custodian of said child has conscientious convictions based on religious or philosophical beliefs that the welfare of the child of whom they have custody is best served by training him at home until said child has reached the age of eight years, the school district superintendent of that district shall excuse such child from attendance at school until such child has reached the age of eight years. Such child shall thereafter be enrolled in school at the beginning of the next school year after the child's eighth birthday.

All parents, guardians and other persons in this state having custody of any child fifteen years of age and under eighteen years of age shall cause such child to attend the public school of the district in which the child resides for the full time when such school may be in session or to attend a private school for the same time excepting when the school district superintendent determines that such child is physically or mentally unable to attend school or has already attained a reasonable proficiency in the branches required by law to be taught in the first nine grades of the public schools of this state, or the child is regularly and lawfully engaged in a useful or remunerative occupation, or the child is attending a residential school operated by the division of institutions of the department of social and health services, or the child has already met graduation requirements in accordance with state board of education rules and regulations, or the child has received a certificate of educational competence under rules and regulations established by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.135.

Proof of absence from any public or approved private and/or parochial school shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section. An approved private and/or parochial school for the purposes of this section shall be one approved under regulations established by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.04.120 as now or hereafter amended.

(h) Evaluate each student's educational growth and development and make periodic reports thereon to parents, guardians, or custodians and to school administrators.

Failure to carry out such requirements as set forth in subsection (2) (a) through (h) above shall constitute sufficient cause for discharge of any member of such teaching or administrative staff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts thereof are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 28A.45.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.45.040;

In line 1 of the title after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.130; amending section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.140; amending section 28A.41.160, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 80 Laws of 1977 and RCW 28A.41.160; amending section 4, chapter 217, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.41.145; amending section 28A.44.040, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.44.040; amending section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 51, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28A.27.010; amending section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 71, chapter 275, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.02.201; amending section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 21, chapter 288, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.01.130; amending section 28A.44.080, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 24, chapter 118, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.44.080; amending section 2, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 118, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.44.085; amending section 28A.45.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.45.050; amending section 28A.58.190, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.190; amending section 36.33.110, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 230, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.33.110; creating new sections; adding new sections to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapters 28A.41 and 28A.58 RCW; repealing sections 28A.45.040, 28A.67.100 and 28A.67.110, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.45.040, 28A.67.100 and 28A.67.110; providing penalties; and making an effective date."

Signed by: Senators McDermott, Chairman; Francis, Gaspard, Gould, Hayner, Washington.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Mardesich, Henry, Benitz, Hayner, Matson, Day, Lewis and Donohue to the committee amendment:

On page 23, line 38 of the amendment, insert a new section 21 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Beginning with the November 3, 1981 general election and including any and all subsequent elections at which a school district submits any excess levy to the public, excluding excess levies for capital purposes, the following words shall be appended to the ballot cards, paper ballots, or voting machine next to each levy ballot title:

"The state of Washington currently makes ample provision for the education of all children residing within the state. The passage of this excess levy will provide additional funding for certain special programs, which some residents of this school district believe would further enhance the delivery of quality education. The failure of this excess levy will in no way impact or injure the sound program of basic education which the children now receive."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, you very graciously gave me the information as to the school districts that are in the second legislative district, and you pointed out to me that because of the very low salary schedules we had it might be necessary for us to pass some levies to get our salary schedule up, and that once we had done that the funding plan would provide the money, but it was up to us to get the levies up to get the salaries up so that you would pick up the money. Now, presuming that we were not able to do it, we have a terrible time passing a levy every year, and we have a history of once every other year, so I would take it that we get one shot, and if we don't get our salaries up then we are down at the bottom forever."

Senator McDermott: "No, that is not correct. Under the present budget that we put out about a week ago, we pumped in three hundred and seventy-five million dollars into the school formula, and it was set in such a way that those districts that are presently below the state average will have considerably more money than they have previously had. The money will be available to them in the most flexible way, and I think most districts will use that to increase their salaries. So they are not totally dependent on levies for additional money for districts like you are talking about, districts like Bethel where the salaries have been quite low in the past. So that is not the sole source. There will be money in the next two years for salary increases."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, I challenge the scope and object of the amendment. While I have to agree with all of the prior speakers, I don't think this is the right way to approach the question of excess levies. I very much want to see an excess levy bill passed through this session to put a cap on them, but I don't think this is the way to do it.

"Now, in regard to the challenge, the entire bill, the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill 960 is in chapter 28A which deals with education, and the amendment pertains to elections, and I think that the amendment should be in any election bill, but it should not be in chapter 28A."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Bluechel, finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill Number 960 is a bill which, in essence, defines basic education. The President determines that the amendment proposed by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Mardesich, Henry, Benitz, Hayner, Matson, Day, Lewis and Donohue is merely a statement of intent by the members of the Senate, and therefore is quite in order. The point is not well taken."

Further Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, what was the date that Judge Doran put in his decision when we had to be fully funded for basic education?"

Senator Washington: "1981."

Senator Rasmussen: "You would not take a chance, Senator Washington, being an attorney of some note, of being in contempt of court, would you?"

Senator Washington: "I can visualize that basically over the state there will be general and widespread agreement in funding with Judge Doran's decision, but I can also visualize some of the school districts who are now having a difficult time and are low, that a few of those might not be able to make it at that time. I just don't think we can predict with sufficient clarity at this point that we need to put this on the ballot at this time. I think the time to do it is 1981."

Senator Rasmussen: "If you will read the amendment, Senator Washington, and Mr. President and members of the Senate, it merely provides 'by November third, nineteen eighty-one'. You do not put it on the ballot prior to that time, and this is the time that the Legislature is charged by the judge to fully fund, and I think it falls right in with the judge's decision. There would be nothing on the ballot prior to that time. They can put as many levies as they want for any purpose, and this only says that after that date when we are funding basic education then they must explain it. I think the amendment is in order and a good proposal."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have been informed that Judge Doran's decision said July first, nineteen seventy-nine, so this nineteen eighty-one date would be a long ways away from the time when we will be in contempt of court, and when we get in contempt of court, we probably won't be able to hold office."

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Mr. President, I had a question for Senator McDermott before we go further. Senator McDermott, I spoke with you before we reconvened. On page 13 of the amendment, you are there dealing with nonpublic schools and you are limiting, as I read it, that their school day can be no longer than the required public schools. Is it the intention of this bill to simply say that they must be of at least the minimum length of the public schools in hours, but they could also be more than that?"

Senator McDermott: "That is the intention. The intention of this language is to make it possible for private schools to provide at least as much as the public schools, so we have no intention of limiting private schools in providing a longer school day."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 5, section 4, line 35, after "act" and before the period, insert:

": PROVIDED, That beginning with the 1983-85 biennium, and in each biennium thereafter, the basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall increase by an amount equal to the percentage increase in the cost-of-living which occurred during the two years of the immediately preceding biennium. The cost-of-living increase shall be based on the United States Department of Labor consumer price index for Seattle, Washington".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 19, beginning on line 3, strike all of section 18.

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Hayner yield? Senator Hayner, I note that the language in the law before the adoption, or before the underlined matter was added, provided that the school superintendent of the district could excuse, not mandatory, and the language in the proposed amendment on line 32 says that the superintendent shall excuse."

Senator Hayner: "That is right."

Senator Mardesich: "That mandate runs not only to the conscientious conviction based on religion, but also on philosophy. I am raising the question whether it would not satisfy both parties, both sides of the debate to rather strike the word 'shall' on line 32, and impose the word 'may', so that there is some flexibility, and yet it is not mandated."

Senator Hayner: "I don't support that. In the first place, the language on line 17 says they shall be excused but only if they are physically and mentally unable to attend school. Now, many of these children are certainly physically and mentally able to attend school. Their parents do not think it advisable for them for other reasons. As far as I am concerned, it would be even worse if a child of an Adventist family that wanted to send their child to bible school at age six and seven, and the superintendent said, 'No, you may not even if you sign an affidavit.' I don't think we want that situation at all."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "While I am on my feet, Mr. President, may I ask Senator McDermott to yield, please? Senator McDermott, it seems to me that we had a discussion in education committee about the truancy provisions of our law, and the superintendent of instruction wanted those provisions left in the law, but the committee thought differently. Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "I am not aware that we took them out any place. No, they are still in the law. That must have been some other committee, because the truancy question was never included in this bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "I wonder, Senator Hayner, if the words 'philosophical beliefs' on line 27 would not take care of that problem if the parents really felt philosophically that their child would be better off to wait a year or two that they could sign this affidavit and stating so, and then their child could be held out a year or two?"

Senator Hayner: "Yes, indeed it does if you are going to require them to have an affidavit. I don't think they should have to have an affidavit."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Will Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, I think your remarks earlier indicated that certainly there are responsible parents who will take the proper measures and stay within the law and abide by it and so forth, but you are after those whose parents might not care as much, might not be as responsible. What provisions are there that anything will change in the future to insure that those children will be going to school?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hayner raised the question about the truancy laws, and I think maybe Senator Woody might speak more appropriately to that because I think that is in the juvenile code revision that they are working on. We did not put it in this law. I think that what we wanted to do in our definition of basic education was make a general statement. Unfortunately, when you start trying to define what the educational system should be for 750,000 children, the minute you put a specific in you begin to have problems, and we said as a general rule, we thought children ought to start at age six. If their parents wanted to take them out for one reason or another, we gave them an option on a way out.

"If the school for any reason saw them as not appropriately in school at age six, then they could by rule and regulation give them a way out, but we wanted to make as a general policy statement of the state the fact that, as a general rule, children ought to start at six. You could argue, I suppose, that you could put that date any place, but you would always have to make provisions for exceptions and that is what we tried to do in the general policy statement."

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 17, line 24, strike "The" and insert "Except as otherwise provided by law, the".

There being no objections, the amendment to page 3, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate was withdrawn.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, rather than to move adoption, perhaps Senator McDermott could yield to a question. It struck me, Senator McDermott, as we were in caucus this morning, that when you were explaining this bill on the blackboard, that you had graduated from the prescription writing school of penmanship and I would just like to clarify whether language arts does include penmanship."

Senator McDermott: "It should have."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? In order to clarify what is meant by the bill, I would like to ask, section 3 defines the minimum number of hours which are required, and mandates that a certain percentage of those will be devoted to the basic skills. If the school district provides more than that, as far as numbers of hours, does the percentage requirement apply to them...additional hours?"

Senator McDermott: "The percentage requirements in the bill are intended to apply to the required number of course hour offerings for basic education only. Those additional programs would be offered in addition to basic education, and would be funded by local revenues, and would not be funded by the state. Consequently, a local school district may offer an additional class in whichever field the district desires and in any way distribute the time."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator McDermott yield to another question? Senator McDermott, I sent you the materials on the plan used by the Franklin-Pierce school district of interims and programs of that nature and asked you whether this bill would prevent a school district from using that kind of innovative program. They have one month a year where the children are offered two courses which they take intensive study. In other words, in the morning they take one class; in the afternoon they take another. Is that kind of program prohibited by this bill?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Bottiger, we have tried to write a bill that was flexible for the local districts to make any program that made sense to them for their children.

"In addition, this bill does not have an effective date until the first of September, 1978, which means that Superintendent Brouillet will have time to do a survey to find out if there is any district in the state where we have precluded them from any kind of innovative program. The reason of setting the effective date at that point was to give us time to make sure that we haven't in any way taken away local control of how the hours are distributed or how the programs are offered in the local school districts. So, there is no intention to bind the hands of any district like Franklin-Pierce that has really a very excellent program in area work skills."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, on page 8, starting with line 9, 'distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs: 'and sub 4, starting on line 19 includes extraordinary costs of the amount necessary to small high schools, the urban schools and the enrollment decline factor. My question is, I have some concern about the wording, 'shall provide appropriate recognition.' Does that mean that there has to be recognition provided in dollar terms, that there has to be a factor established to provide funds, for example, for the urban school factor?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Odegaard, in drafting this section of the bill, we tried to give ourselves as much flexibility. The difficulty of writing a bill in 1977 when it has never happened in this legislature before, and is unlikely to be changed significantly for a long period of time, you are trying to anticipate what the problems of the future may be, and when the bill was originally in committee we had not included this language because when you start to write a list like this, you always wonder if you have left something out or you have put something in that you may want to take out at some later point.

"It is the intention of the committee, and certainly I hope of the legislature, by passing this bill, that these factors shall be considered by the Governor as a budget as being prepared, but it is not our intention to say that any one or the other of them must be included. In the budget that we just passed out about a week ago, we included the small school districts, the remote necessary schools, the small high schools, and schools experiencing enrollment decline. Now, those districts that are experiencing enrollment decline are essentially urban districts like Seattle and Tacoma. It is the major city districts, and this language is intended, the language on line 12, 'appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts'. That is very flexible language which we intended to cover these various factors. The addition of this to the law does not, in my opinion, bind the Governor or the superintendent of public instruction to include these factors in any budget presented to the legislature."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Will Senator McDermott yield to a question, please? Senator McDermott, is there anything in the bill that would address itself to the problem of rapidly increasing population districts?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Bluechel, you raise immediately the problem when you put a list in like this. I was thinking about your district, Lake Washington, and Richland, and a district in Clark County when I put on line 12 'the following costs among the varioud districts within the state.' That flexible language is intended to cover all of these, and there is nothing in this bill that says 'increasing enrollment'. We did not put in vocational education. That line there could be extended, I think, for some period of time while we added in all of the various factors of the school formula, but the language on line 12 will take care of districts with increasing enrollment if that becomes a significant problem that needs to be dealt with in the formula."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 8, section 5, line 29, after "legislature" strike all the matter down to and including "personnel" on line 35.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question, please? In putting this into the bill when they amended it in committee, it was my understanding that this was only a method, as some people call, a 'driver' for establishing apportionment for a district, but it was not mandatory that these ratios be held to. Could you clarify that?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Gould, members of the Senate, as we in the committee discussed the whole question of a 'floor' or a statement to the people of what our basic intention was, we considered, first of all, Senator Murray's proposal.

"It was a specific proposal that would have put everything that is presently in the budget in this basic education definition. The committee, after listening to testimony, rejected that idea.

"We then had the possibility of either defining a floor in terms of a dollar per student amount or putting in a teacher-pupil ratio. The committee rejected the dollar amount because—well, in part, we didn't want to put the levy lid in here, and that will be the subject of another bill. There certainly has to be a levy lid. We decided to do this in terms of a teacher-student ratio. How was the number picked? Well, I think that if you look at the Doran decision, one of the means he looked at as far as defining basic education was the whole question of the common sense of the people. That which the people of this state have, through special levies, been willing to support, and the effect of the passage of special levies throughout the state has been to provide enough money to provide teachers in the ratios which appear in this bill, fifty per thousand.

"Now, if you will look on page 8, there is a proviso that says, 'the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only, and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions.'

"Senator Clarke raises the question of whether or not we are saying that there must be a one to twenty ratio of teachers to students in the classroom. That is not the intention of this provision. It is merely to say we will provide enough money for fifty teachers, certified people, for every one thousand children. We left to the local district the decision as to whether that means forty teachers in the classroom, or forty-five, or thirty-five and the rest administrators. That kind of decision we felt was best left at the local level.

"We have tried throughout this bill to provide an ample education for the children of this state in terms of a broad and flexible curriculum, in terms of the provisions of fifty teachers per thousand, and I think that this provision is most important as a statement to the people of our intention. It is obviously being carried out in the budget. We did it already. We did the first step, and I don't think there is any question of we are going to continue to do it.

"We have the judge behind us, and certainly school district attorneys who will make it clear to the judge that we have or have not done it, so I think this is a statement in the law as to our intention in terms of the provision of ample education, and I think it ought to be left in the law."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, on page 8, section 5, line 29 of the bill, there is language reading, 'PROVIDED, That by the third year following the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, the ratios included in the formula shall reflect not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand students and one classified personnel to three certificated personnel.' Is it the intent of that language, as incorporated by the committee, and in the bill now on the floor, in any way mandate that class size as related to that ratio, whether for the funding of that basic education or all education in either event? Could I have a 'yes' or 'no', please?"

Senator McDermott: "The answer to your question is 'no.' It is not intended that—I guess you just wanted a 'no'. Period. No."

Senator Walgren demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Woody, Washington, Bottiger, Talley, Bluechel, Guess, Matson, Jones and Rasmussen.

PERMISSION GRANTED FOR USE OF SENATE CHAMBERS

Senator Bottiger was granted permission for use of the Senate Chambers by the Committee on Energy and Utilities for a joint hearing for briefing on President Carter's energy plans for the state of Washington on Tuesday, April 26, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, you sort of inferred that President Carter had something special planned for us rather different than the other states. You said President Carter's plans for the state of Washington. I wonder if you had a pipeline the rest of us didn't have?"

Senator Bottiger: "I have no pipeline. I have been trying to get one, but nobody seems to want it. What we have, Senator Rasmussen, is a request from the Seattle office of the federal energy administration to brief—we had requested them earlier that when they had something ready that they would give us a briefing, and they had replied favorably, and we had selected this date, and we need a place big enough for the two committees to meet, plus I am sure people will be interested."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woody, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2197 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, beginning with line 36 and ending on page 10, line 22, strike all of Sec. 13.

Renumber the following sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, it occurs to me that you might well accomplish what you are interested in with an amendment that would be less sweeping. It could start on—just take out 'sub l' starting on line 10, and ending on line 15, which would certainly accomplish the point that I think you talked about. I share your concern particularly since quite frequently in some businesses, employees are required to file an agreement that they won't be in competition and go into business in competition with their employer, which could further complicate the matter of someone else going into the business.

"It seems to me you could leave almost everything in that particular section and have a much smaller amendment."

Senator Grant: "Senator Washington, I agree that the amendment would be smaller, but the other portion of that particular section requiring that a person be eighteen years of age, that they have a high school diploma or its equivalent and is a resident of the state of Washington, are taken out in the stricken language up above on lines 2 through 6. Those are then being deleted. I mechanically have no problem with just a deletion of subsection 1, and I again would like to take this opportunity to speak to that issue."

Debate ensued.

Senator Grant: "Senator Washington, back to your question, if I felt that Senator Woody would be agreeable to the amendment striking subsection 1, I would offer that and withdraw the current amendment."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Mardesich was excused.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 20 of the title, strike "amending section 9, chapter 245, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.220;"

On motion of Senator Moody, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2430 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator North yield? Senator North, has King County any agency that is constituted now where the functions of the Metropolitan Transit Company would be handled without a serious dislocation to the staff and organization of King County?"

Senator North: "King County is not in the public transportation business. Is that what you are asking?"

Senator Guess: "Yes."

Senator North: "They are not presently in the transportation business."

Senator Guess: "In other words, they would have to assemble the staff, the people with the necessary expertise in order to take over this function. Is this right?"

Senator North: "The bill, Senator Guess, provides for the blending of the two if the voters so choose, and the staff is transferred. It is in section 5, I believe, of the bill. The professional staff that know all about the public transportation would become part of the county. There is no effort to lose that expertise at all. That is protected in section 5."

Senator Guess: "Can you tell me why the move is made to try to take Metro out of the picture and put King County into the transportation business?"

Senator North: "I think that the thought here has been in terms of long range comprehensive planning, and as I remarked a little bit earlier, that Metro proceeding on its own, very often determines the growth and the whole planning function for King County by running sewer lines, by determining transportation routes, and the communication needs to be brought together."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Fleming moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2430 be placed on the third reading calendar for April 25, 1977.

Senator Grant moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2430 be considered after Senate Bill No. 2490 on today's calendar.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Goltz, Senate Bill No. 2444 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, I know that your purpose is very good. Will this not have a tendency to—I am an alcoholic. I go for treatment, and I have been working at it for years; I haven't got to that point yet, but if I should be, I go once. I go back again in the same year. I have got marital problems, and I get on the wine or whiskey. This would have a tendency for that person not to come in and voluntarily commit himself or submit to treatment because it says in the law that now, as you are proposing, that any two treatments in one year makes him subject to petition to be restrained and retained in the facility."

Senator Goltz: "First of all, Senator Rasmussen, this language is permissive. It only allows the people who are handling the treatment to make a judgment as to whether or not this person, and having been detoxified at least twice in a twelve-month period, might be subject to further treatment. I think it is permissive; I think there is an element of judgment involved. I think a person who comes in voluntarily and has this problem, probably would be less subject to this provision than a person who is picked up off the street, as it were, several times during a twelve-month period, so I think it is an attempt to take a look at the so-called revolving door recidivist. That is a person who keeps coming in and going out, occupying the detoxification facilities and overloading the detoxification facilities so that other people do not have the opportunity to use them, and makes no effort to cure his condition by further treatment."

Debate ensued.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall not apply to an individual whose marital status or domestic responsibilities cause him or her to leave employment. Such an individual shall not be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits until he or she has requalified, either by obtaining work and earning wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks or by reporting in person to the department during ten different calendar weeks and certifying on each occasion that he or she is ready, able, and willing to immediately accept any suitable work which may be offered, is actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices, and is utilizing such employment counseling and placement services as are available through the department.

Sec. 2. Section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Suitable work for an individual is employment in an occupation in keeping with the individual's prior work experience, education, or training and if the individual has no prior work experience, special education, or training for employment available in the general area, then employment which the individual would have the physical and mental ability to perform. In determining whether work is suitable for an individual (~~or whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause~~), the commissioner shall also consider the degree of risk involved to ~~((his))~~ the individual's health, safety, and morals, ~~((his))~~ the individual's physical fitness ~~((and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his))~~ the individual's length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in ~~((his))~~ the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from ~~((his))~~ the individual's residence, and such other factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies.

Sec. 3. Section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 22, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with his or her work and thereafter until he or she has obtained

work and earned wages of not less than ~~((his))~~ the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks ~~((PROVIDED, That disqualification under this section shall not extend beyond the tenth calendar week following the week in which such individual was discharged or suspended))~~.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, an individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been convicted of or pleads guilty to or confesses to a felony committed in the scope of employment which resulted in his or her dismissal or voluntarily quitting until he or she has obtained work with a different employer and earned wages of not less than his or her suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any individual registered at an established school in a course of study providing scholastic instruction of twelve or more hours per week, or the equivalent thereof, shall be disqualified from receiving benefits or waiting period credit for any week during the school year commencing with the first week of scholastic instruction or the week of leaving employment to return to school, whichever is the earlier, and ending with the week immediately before the first full week in which the individual is no longer registered for classes: ~~PROVIDED, That this nonregistration will be for a period of sixty days or longer.~~ The term "school" includes primary schools, secondary schools, and "institutions of higher education" as that phrase is defined in RCW 50.44.040.

This disqualification shall not apply to any individual who:

- (1) Is in approved training within the meaning of RCW 50.20.043; or
- (2) Demonstrates to the commissioner by a preponderance of the evidence his or her actual availability for work, and in arriving at this determination the commissioner shall consider the following factors:
  - (a) Prior work history;
  - (b) Scholastic history;
  - (c) Past and current labor market attachment; and
  - (d) Past and present efforts to seek work.

Sec. 5. Section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this title benefits shall be payable to any eligible individual during ~~((his))~~ the individual's benefit year in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of thirty times the weekly benefit amount (determined hereinafter) or one-third of the individual's base year wages under this title.

(2) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of ~~((his))~~ the average quarterly wages of the individual's total wages during ~~((that))~~ the two quarters of ~~((his))~~ the individual's base year in which such total wages were highest, except that if such computed amount is less than seventeen dollars, the weekly benefit amount shall be deemed to be seventeen dollars. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be determined as of each June 30th to apply to benefit years beginning in the twelve-month period immediately following such June 30th. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be ~~((fifty))~~ fifty-five percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30th: PROVIDED, That if as of any June 30th the unemployment compensation trust fund balance has improved so that the employer contribution, as determined pursuant to RCW 50.24.010 is less than 3.0 percent, the maximum amount payable weekly shall be sixty percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any weekly benefit or maximum benefit amount computed herein is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, except that if the computed amount ends in fifty cents, it shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

Sec. 6. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 13, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions) for each calendar year in which ~~((he))~~ the employer is subject to this title at the rate of two and seven-tenths percent of wages paid each employee, except for such rates as determined for qualified employers according to chapter 50.29 RCW: PROVIDED, That if, as of any June 30th, the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than three and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, contributions for the following calendar year for all employers shall be payable at the rate of three percent of wages subject to tax.

The amount of wages subject to tax for each individual as of January 1, 1971, shall be four thousand two hundred dollars. If the amount in the unemployment compensation fund on any June 30th, after January 1, 1971, is less than four and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, the amount of wages subject to tax shall increase on the January 1st next following by six hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That the amount of wages subject to tax in any calendar year shall not exceed ~~((seventy=five))~~ eighty percent of the "average annual wage" for the second preceding calendar year rounded to the next lower multiple of three hundred dollars.

In making computations under this section and RCW 50.29.010, wages paid based on services for employers making payments in lieu of contributions shall not be considered remuneration. Moneys paid from the fund, based on services performed for employers who make payments in lieu of contributions, which have not been reimbursed to the fund as of any June 30 shall be deemed an asset of the unemployment compensation fund, to the extent that such moneys exceed the amount of payments in lieu of contributions which the commissioner has previously determined to be uncollectible: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the amount attributable to employment with the state shall also include interest as provided for in RCW 50.44.020.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

In the payment of any contributions, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 50.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Only during the 1978 and 1979 calendar years, contributions payable by employers under the provisions of RCW 50.24.010 shall be payable at the rate of three and three-tenths percent of wages subject to tax, rather than in accordance with the rates therein.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year" with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week ~~((with respect to))~~ in which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week ~~((with respect to))~~ in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the expiration of ~~((his))~~ the individual's last preceding benefit year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the establishment of a new benefit year under the laws of another state pursuant to any agreement providing for the interstate combining of employment and wages and the interstate payment of benefits nor shall this limitation be deemed to preclude the commissioner from backdating an initial application at the request of the claimant either for the convenience of the department of employment security or for any other reason deemed by the commissioner to be good cause.

An individual's benefit year shall be extended to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

No benefit year will be established unless it is determined that the individual earned wages in ~~(("employment" during his base year of not less than the "qualifying annual wage" computed for the calendar year preceding the last June 30th immediately preceding his benefit year and either had "employment" in not less than sixteen weeks of his base year in each of which he earned the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the second calendar year preceding the calendar year in which each such week ends or had))~~ "employment" in not less than six hundred eighty hours of ~~((his))~~ the individual's base year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a benefit year cannot be established if the base year wages include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year unless the individual earned wages in "employment" during the last two quarters of the new base year of not less than six times the weekly benefit amount computed for ((his)) the individual's new benefit year.

~~((As the change contained in the third paragraph of this section relating to the weeks worked qualification would invalidate basic data upon which benefit qualification determinations must be made the satisfaction of the weeks worked requirement will require as to base year weeks ending in the second two quarters of 1972 that the individual will have earned not less than the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the calendar year 1971. Nothing in this paragraph or in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to justify or support the redetermination of any monetary determination denying the establishment of a benefit year made prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.))~~

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his or her wages at regular intervals.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.355 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of June of each year an "average annual wage", an "average weekly wage", ~~((a "qualifying annual wage", a "qualifying weekly wage"))~~ and an "average annual wage for contributions purposes" shall be computed from information for the preceding calendar year including corrections thereof reported within three months after the close of that year by all employers as defined in RCW 50.04.080. The "average annual wage" is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers by the average number of workers reported for all months and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar. The "average annual wage" thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar to determine the "average weekly wage". ~~((The "qualifying annual wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average annual wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of fifty dollars, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of fifty dollars. The "qualifying weekly wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average weekly wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.))~~ The "average annual wage" for contribution purposes is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers subject to contributions by the average number of workers reported for all months by these same employers and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.

Sec. 10. Section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the commissioner or his or her authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports with respect to persons employed by it, which he or she deems necessary for the effective administration of this title. Each employer shall make periodic reports at such intervals as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the remuneration paid for employment to workers in its employ, the names of all such workers, and until April 1, 1978, the number of weeks for which the worker earned the "qualifying weekly wage", and beginning July 1, 1977, the hours worked by each worker and such other information as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

In the event the employing unit fails or has failed to report the number of ~~((weeks))~~ hours in a reporting period for which a worker ~~((earned the "qualifying weekly wage"))~~ worked such number will be computed by the commissioner and given the same force and effect as if it had been reported by the employing unit. In computing the number of such ~~((weeks))~~ hours worked the total wages for the reporting period, as reported by the employing unit, shall be divided by the dollar amount of the ~~((qualifying weekly wage))~~ state's minimum wage in effect for such reporting period and the quotient, disregarding any remainder, shall be credited to the worker: PROVIDED, ~~((That the total number of weeks credited to the worker for any quarterly period shall not exceed thirteen weeks. PROVIDED, FURTHER,))~~ That the computation so made will not be subject to appeal by the employing unit.

Section 11. Chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

"Employing unit" means any individual or any type of organization, including any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint stock company, insurance company, or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, or the legal representative of a deceased person, which has or subsequent to January 1, 1937, had in its employ or in its "employment" one or more individuals performing services within this state. The state and its political subdivisions shall be deemed employing units as to any transactions occurring on or after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act which would render an employing unit liable for contributions under RCW 50.24.130.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The provisions of this 1977 amendatory act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately: PROVIDED, That the first paragraph of section 8 shall take effect immediately and the remaining portion of section 8 and all of section 9 shall take effect commencing with benefit years beginning on and after October 1, 1978; section 5 shall take effect commencing with benefit years beginning on and after July 3, 1977; sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10 shall take effect on and after July 3, 1977."

On line 5 of the title after "50.04.090" insert:

"amending section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.355; amending section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070; amending section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 21, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.050; amending section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 22, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060; amending section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.100; amending section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.120; amending section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 13, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.010; adding a new section to chapter 50.20 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 50.24 RCW; prescribing effective dates and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Ridder, Chairman; Matson, Mardesich, Morrison, Peterson, Sellar.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 495 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order of scope and object. The committee amendment that is being presented greatly expands the scope and object of the original bill which dealt with very simple definitions, the definition of 'benefit year' and 'employing unit' in RCW 50.04.030 and 090. Those were the only two sections of the RCW that were touched, the definition sections, and the labor committee amendment that is being proposed touches on sections relating to benefits and claims with regard to disqualifications for voluntary quits, setting new standards for suitable work factors, talks about a new section with regard to disqualification for misconduct, a new section on disqualification of students.

"It even sets a new benefit level which certainly expands the scope of the original measure. It talks about contributions by the employers in addition to changing the benefit level. It speaks to the employers' contributions, and nothing was touched in that section by the original measure that was presented to us by the House. It sets a new tax base for those employers.

"I believe that the committee amendment is in violation of Article II, Section 38 of the State Constitution, and also in violation of Senate rule number sixty."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President, in reply to Senator Grant's point of order that the proposed amendment changes the scope and object of the bill, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill number 495 deals simply with modifying certain definitions under the unemployment compensation law. The Senate labor committee proposed amendment makes sweeping changes in the unemployment compensation law which include increases in employer taxes, increases in unemployment workers' benefits, changes provisions for eligibility requirements and several other major departures from the law.

"Therefore the President believes that the point of order as presented by Senator Grant is well taken and that the Senate labor committee amendment is beyond the scope and object of Engrossed House Bill 495."

The committee amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

At 4:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Monday, April 25, 1977.

The President appointed Representatives Kreidler, Keller and Patterson and Senators Donohue, Pullen and Grant to escort Governor Dixy Lee Ray to a seat on the rostrum.

The President appointed Representatives King, Polk and Berentson, and Senators Bottiger, Buffington and Beck to escort Governor Jay Hammond and Attorney General Avrum Gross of the State of Alaska to seats on the rostrum.

The President: "Governor Ray, Governor Hammond, General Gross, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen: The purpose of the Joint Session is to receive a message from His Excellency The Honorable Jay Hammond, Governor of the State of Alaska. The members of the Senate, members of the House, all of the people of our state, the state elected officials, join in extending a very warm welcome to our illustrious and distinguished guest. The President this morning has the great pleasure of presenting to you at this time the Honorable Dixy Lee Ray, Governor of the State of Washington, who will in turn introduce Governor Hammond. Governor Ray."

Governor Ray: "Thank you very much. President Cherberg, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen: It's all too rare that we can host the governor and elected officials or legislative people from other states during the time that our own Legislature is in session, but we have had that opportunity these last couple of days and it has been a rare one. Contact and exchanges of information with our neighboring states are very valuable as we seek to solve reasonably some of the many problems that we face and to reinforce both economical and social ties that bind us together. In the case of Governor Hammond of the State of Alaska, we are, here in the state of Washington, very much aware of our mutual interests and we have always devoted the necessary time to develop them. When I visited Alaska last December, Governor Hammond and I agreed that although our two states are separated geographically we have perhaps more in common than any two other states in the union. We share interests and mutual concerns in both economic and environmental areas and in the very special areas of resources, of energy, of fisheries, timbers, conservation, and we are devoted to the same kind of open and positive, careful, responsible development and utilization of those resources.

"Obviously the matter of Alaskan oil is of primary concern and our two states are deeply involved in the transportation of that valuable commodity. We were very happy therefore yesterday at a meeting of regional governors and legislators to find that we mutually agree that this valuable commodity should be utilized in the United States and that we have an important role to play in the transportation. We also have other ties educationally, and I would like us to refer to the most important development that's taken place between our two states in the utilization of satellite communications for advanced instruction in the medical profession. As a result we have had a nine hundred percent increase in medical students in our medical schools in the State of Alaska. Our ties in the so-called money programs are bringing us closer and closer together and we hope that will enlarge and extend to other fields of education as well.

"More than anything else it's a pleasure for me to welcome and introduce Governor Jay Hammond of the State of Alaska as a friend and a colleague and because, as he has so graciously said on a number of occasions, he owes to me what he is today—the only Republican Governor in the West. Thank you, Governor Hammond."

Governor Hammond: "Governor Ray, members of the Legislature, distinguished guests: I'm deeply honored by your invitation to address this body. Having been twelve years myself a legislative member, it might be expected the Alaska Legislature and I share a certain warm regard for one another. As a matter of fact, sometimes it gets downright hot.

"I don't know exactly what happens when one departs the legislative scene and assumes the chores of the executive. Moving up the one required floor in our State Capitol Building shouldn't really make much difference; however one's viewpoint certainly does refocus. I recall that when in the Legislature, I was dismayed at the arbitrary powers permitted the executive. Now, curiously, I'm dismayed at the great frustration imposed upon my exercise of office through the small inconvenience of the legislative process. Is it possible that the rarer atmosphere of higher public office could so fuddy up one's thinking, or is it because, though our objectives may be the same, like two people peering through opposite ends of the same telescope, we observe a distorted image of the other guy standing between ourselves and our objectives? I suspect we'd all be better off if governors and legislative bodies would stop peering apprehensively at one another through such fractured focus, we should look past those myopic misperceptions that we've conjured up and recognize such images are but ephemeral while those objectives which we jointly share will long endure after we've all heard that last hurrah.

"The Governor stole one of my lines. I'd intended to say that while her very gracious introduction was unduly generous, unfortunately, modestly, she omitted one important fact of which you may not be aware, and that being that in her defeat of John Spellman as Dan Evans' gubernatorial successor, your own Governor Dixy Lee has done more than anyone else to help make me what I am today, and that is the entire Republican contingency of the Western Governor's Conference, to say nothing of the only Western Governor who is inclined to wear a beard.

"Speaking of beards, you may wonder about the political liability of a set of whiskers. I know my campaign staff certainly did. In their efforts two years ago to sort of sanitize the Hammond image, they urged me to shave it off. I reflected on the matter, but I concluded that, by golly, if I didn't deserve to be governor with a beard, I certainly didn't deserve to be governor without one. Besides I was in a store one day when a clerk looked up and told me, 'Say, didn't I see you on television? By George, you've got my vote. Any guy that's got guts enough to wear a beard and run for governor has got to be different. The rest of those fellows are all clean-shaven and trying to convey the impression of honesty and integrity and we know they're crooks.' Incidentally, after I'd won the primary I told my campaign people that I'd shave the beard and they said I didn't dare, so you see, I'm stuck with what most have finally concluded to be more a political asset than liability. Eat your heart out, Governor Ray. I'm afraid you're just going to have to make it all alone on talent.

"Alaska and Washington, of course, have common bonds of interest which stretch back almost a century. Washington was the launching port for legions of gold-seekers, many of whom planted family roots in Alaskan soil. Our fishing industries were, for the most part, founded with Washington know-how and hard cash. As Alaska tourism, transportation and most other enterprise flourishes or founders in Alaska, reverberations are felt in the width and breadth of Washington. Thus I can appreciate the interest in, and perhaps the apprehension, over that which you read and hear about Alaska and just what mischief we might be up to there. For example, are we opposed to more development as some might try to tell you? Or, as some others might assert, are we intent on rapidly exploiting our resource wealth as if there is no tomorrow? Let me first try to put my own views into perspective.

"There are some in Alaska who would brand me an environmentalist. That's a charge to which I happily plead guilty. Of course I'm an environmentalist. I'm concerned however about the economic and the social as well as the physical environment. Are there any neanderthals yet left who are unconcerned? If not, then I presume that an environmentalist is the only proper thing to be. Unfortunately, in usage labels take on a certain taint and tend to polarize, thus we find many politicians, who, while acknowledging a concern for the environment, are quick to point out they are not extremists by stating that, 'Of course, I'm a conservationist, but.' Somehow this seems to make that acknowledgement respectable. I suspect that I'm somewhat guilty in reverse. I've tried to mute the extremist charge and modify the perception of my own proclivities by professing that, of course, I'm a developer, but—my point being that neither end of the spectrum has a market cornered on extremists, just as there are some crackpot conservationists who would stop everything, there are crackpot developers who would rip-off and run roughshod over anyone and anything in their exploit of greed. Proper balance, of course, is what we should aspire to. I sometimes believe that I've achieved that balance for half the time the Chamber of Commerce is disgusted with me and half the time the conservationists are thumping me. I must admit that I've brought some of that abuse on myself. Long before I ever thought of running for this office I delighted in making irreverent statements, some of which have surfaced since to haunt me. For example, I once told a local Chamber of Commerce that I was well aware that some of their membership was apprehensive that as a conservationist I was inclined to thwart their interests. I said I wanted to alleviate their fears, and assured them that contrary to what some might try to tell them there was no truth whatsoever to the rumor that given all his druthers Hammond might put a fence around Alaska and make it into one huge national park. I told them that's a ridiculous charge, after all, your community doesn't deserve park status; that it had already degenerated beneath acceptable eligibility requirements. You can imagine why some members of that business community didn't sleep too well when I was first elected. However, I believe that many of those apprehensions have since been alleviated. Most Alaskans have to come to realize that I will support sound development, insisting only that it not do undue violence to the environment and is capable of paying its own way rather than compelling us to subsidize. Actually when you get right down to it that is what most Alaskans would ask of each prospective developmental project. The problem is that they phrase it in somewhat different terms. For example, I can go to the Chamber of Commerce and make points by stating that I favor and will promote any development which is environmentally sound and pays its own way and they like that. On the other hand, I can go before the Sierra Club and win applause by stating that I'm going to oppose any development that is not environmentally sound, and does not pay for its way. In both cases, of course, I've said the same thing, but heaven help me if someone should ever switch my slips.

"Most Alaskans aspire to the same thing people elsewhere do. It's simply that we've had time and some options that are not as yet foreclosed. Alaska is especially blessed with what remains in large measure the last place on earth where we can do things right the first time.

"Most Alaskans share a fundamental vision of what the future of Alaska should and possibly can be. Alaskans want the freedom to choose a lifestyle designed to one's own blueprint; a natural environment that facilitates this lifestyle and inspires rather than immerses either one's surroundings or one's spirit. Yet, also, most Alaskans want a healthy, stable economic environment which is rewarding to and controlled by the people whom it most affects.

"Alaskans recognize our oil wealth is but ephemeral. Thus, most believe Alaska's long-term future lies with increased dependence on renewable resources: Fisheries, timber, agriculture and tourism. Accordingly, it is our intent to use our oil wealth to invest heavily in the enhancement of these activities.

"In order to assure that our depleting nonrenewable, 'nest-egg' inheritance wealth from oil will not be simply used to further expand government or squandered through gigantic subsidies, the Alaskan voters recently adopted a constitutional amendment creating a permanent fund savings account into which a portion of our oil wealth must go. It is our intent to use the capital wealth itself for sound investments and permit only interest earnings from this fund to be used for recurring government expenses. We realize full well that moneys from depleting nonrenewable resources belong not only to this generation of Alaskans, but to those who will come behind us. Thus, the creation of the permanent fund indicates that we have learned some lessons from the past and are determined to buy a piece of tomorrow for our children. Had we instead continued the past practice which permitted those of us in public office to pump such 'nest-egg' moneys into a ballooning bureaucracy, I fear that we might find at the rainbow's end naught but the pot, the gold would have gone into government.

"To an alarming degree, Alaska's current economic situation is dependent upon our rich petroleum reserves. Oil from the largest individual pool yet discovered on our continent, in Prudhoe Bay will begin its journey to the marketplace this summer. That historic occasion, as well as the prospective routing of our natural gas, are items which I know are of great interest to Washingtonians.

"Regarding oil transport, from the first I believed that an oil pipeline could be constructed which was reasonably failsafe. My prime concern has ever been the transportation of petroleum. From what I hear some of you share this concern as well. My concerns in this regard were somewhat modified in the wake of assurances emanating from the Coast Guard and other federal agencies during the Trans-Alaska oil pipeline route debate. At that time we were repeatedly assured that tanker standards would be upgraded substantially. Since that time, however, we've seen indications that such commitments may have been relaxed. Accordingly, we have done our best to remind respective federal agencies that tanker standards must be upgraded. While we've come some way towards accomplishing that objective, we have yet a way to go.

"Starting in 1977, shipments of more than one million barrels of oil a day will depart from Alaska's Port of Valdez by tanker. These tankers will then move down our coast through some of the most biologically productive waters in the world. The waters off your coast share this distinction and attendant vulnerability.

"Research has led us to conclude that most oil pollution can be prevented if standards for construction and operation of tankers are upgraded to the changes we've proposed. To minimize spill potential, we are asking for improved navigation and communications equipment on all tankers. This would consist of standby radar, electronic position locating equipment and collision avoidance systems. We are asking for segregated ballast tanks. We are asking for double bottoms on the largest tankers. We are asking for fuel tank gas inerting systems to prevent explosions. We believe these are reasonable requests in terms of the unreasonable risks involved. From the twelve or so tanker incidents occurring in the past few months, those risks are evident. From them we've had a tremendous amount of pollution, loss of life and, of course, huge financial loss as well. Virtually all of these particular incidents could have been avoided had the tankers been equipped as proposed by our list of standards.

"This, of course, is not simply an Alaskan issue but one national in scope. Accordingly, I'm pleased to report that at the recent Governor's Conference virtually all the nation's governors supported the above proposals.

"Another major issue in which we have common interest is the prospective gas pipeline route designed to take north slope gas to market. My administration strongly supports the so-called All-Alaskan route. We believe there are some key advantages to all in this system. First, it could deliver gas much sooner to the nation than the other routes proposed. Second, it provides capability for expansion and delivery of additional Alaskan gas reserves. Moreover, the construction of the necessary cryogenic tanker fleet to haul the liquefied natural gas would permit development of reserves in areas where economic considerations precluded construction of a pipeline. Third, there is no exposure to foreign taxation and jurisdictional uncertainties which attend routes which would traverse a foreign country. Fourth, there is minimal environmental disturbance insofar as this route follows the already established oil pipeline route. Fifth, it provides thousands of jobs to U.S. citizens both on the line and in the shipyards. It also adds an estimated $10.5 billion dollars to the U.S. economy and a highly favorable impact upon our balance of payments. Sixth, there is no exposure to the uncertainty of decisions of a foreign nation.

"The major consideration in opposition to either one of the two Canadian alternatives is the probability of prolonged delay presented by the yet unresolved issue of the Canadian native lands question. Those of us in Alaska who watched our own oil pipeline high-center until this issue was resolved, believe it may be by far the most important consideration.

"Regarding the time schedule for decisions on the gas pipeline route: On February 1, administrative law Judge Litt of the Federal Power Commission recommended approval of a Trans-Canada natural gas pipeline system. This recommendation, of course, is only the first step in the F.P.C. consideration of the matter. The full commission is now reviewing Judge Litt's action and will make a recommendation to the President by May 1 this year. The President then will make a decision regarding the route no later than September 1. After that, Congress will have 60 days to approve his choice. I would hope that in your studies on this issue you have concluded that there are advantages to Washington in the All-Alaskan route. I know that many of your constituents have already reached that conclusion from what they have conveyed to me. Should you concur, a resolution to that effect might be helpful if conveyed to the President and Congress.

"Another issue of perhaps even greater implication for the future of Alaska goes by the cryptic designation of D-2. Most Alaskans have learned that D-2 stands not for the latest version of a supersonic bomber nor one of the highest peaks in the Karakoram Mountains, but rather the manner in which federal lands within Alaska will be managed in the future. The term D-2 actually stands for a section in the Alaska native Claims Settlement Act which authorizes Congress to set aside up to 80 million acres of so-called national interest lands, to be managed by one of four federal agencies—National Parks, Refuges, Forest Service, or the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

"Many in Alaska, both conservationist and developer alike, have become convinced that we should look at something different than the traditional approach which would set up in some cases federal enclaves providing for 100 percent protection for certain national interests, say, fish or game habitat, which on adjacent state or private lands would be exposed to virtual desecration depending upon the whim of state or private owner. Thus, we have proposed a new approach which would, in return for greater utilization of those federal lands, improve the likelihood of a broadly comprehensive and rational cooperative land use plan being applied to much more acreage. The need for such a plan became self-evident to me some years ago when I looked at what the feds proposed to do to a lake on which I have a homestead. Under the so-called Morton Bill, one end of that lake is proposed to go into a national park, the other end into an ecological reserve while through the middle there would be a strip of land completely open to accommodate some mining interests and throughout the shoreline would be interspersed lands in native ownership or other private holdings. It seemed obvious that under such scattered ownership nothing but a chaotic land use pattern could possibly emerge. Such could serve neither the best interest of rational 'conservationists' or 'developers' nor Congress. There are many such situations in Alaska which could be remedied only through cooperative management. Such, of course, requires all parties to make a few concessions in return for more flexibility and rational land planning.

Thus many, including our congressional delegation and myself, encourage the creation of a joint federal state land use planning commission which would attempt to establish a voluntary cooperative management plan for Alaska's variegated landowners. Membership on this commission would be comprised of four persons appointed by the governor and four appointed by the President. Federal lands not going immediately into one of the four systems but on which there were clearly national interest values would be placed in what might be termed a holding pattern. Should these lands be matched acre for acre with state and private lands, they would be eligible for cooperative management. Private owners of undeveloped lands dedicated in this fashion would receive an exemption from state and local property taxes as long as their lands were managed under the commission's guidelines. All owners would have an incentive to commit lands to cooperative management, for without such commitment neighboring landowners could go their own way to the possible detriment of adjoining land values or the possible exclusion of uses beneficial to the area as a whole. Your Senator Henry Jackson will have a great influence on the final outcome of the D-2 issue. I met with him recently in Washington to discuss this concept. I am pleased that he expressed substantial interest. However, it will be an uphill battle particularly to persuade conservationists that there are benefits for them in this alternative proposal. As a conservationist, I am convinced there are. As a developer, I am equally convinced that in return for greater utilization of those national lands most Alaskans are prepared to allow the federal government at least a voice in formulating plans which impact our lands as well. Should we not be able to work out our differences, we could, of course, then go our separate ways. However, I hope we at least have the chance to try.

"In conclusion, let me remedy a common misperception. Contrary to the views of many, Alaska at this moment is on very shaky financial ground, indeed. Not only are we currently forced to borrow some $200 million annually from prospective future oil revenues, but from the standpoint of sound financial practice, we are in worse shape than we were back in 1960. Shocking as that may seem to some, let me prove that case. In 1960 the state's recurrent annual income per capita was more than the per capita cost of state services. Thus, we were clearly "paying our way."

We didn't go very far, but we paid our fare out of pocket. Yet the year this administration entered office, the state was spending almost twice as much per citizen as it gleaned from him in taxes. This unhealthy situation crept up almost unnoticed.

The fact that we had long since stopped "paying our way" was obscured behind a stack of cold hard cash 900 million dollars high which we received in 1969 for selling leases on the north slope. Now, unfortunately, that stack has dwindled down and more and more Alaskans can clearly see some disturbing cold hard facts. One of the most alarming is that if the government is permitted to expand at the average annual rate it has since statehood, come 1985 the costs of government could outstrip expected revenues, from all sources, by about $1 billion dollars. These disturbing revelations prompted me to cut past average annual government growth by almost half. To do so required me to exercise my veto power to excise more than ten times the money from the budget than had all other Alaskan governors combined. Moreover, to my dismay, I found that despite our apparent oil wealth, financial prudence suggested increasing consumer and other taxes rather than reducing them. Thus, I have proposed a multitude of tax increases. Frankly, I almost wish I had not ferreted out the data which convinced me of those facts for they are not platform plans suitable for constructing pads from which successful reelection bids are launched.

"There is, of course, only one reason why a politician will fly in the face of politics—he's either right or stupid. Since you may presume the latter or share misperceptions as to Alaska's affluence, permit me to briefly open up our books for your inspection.

"Whereas in 1960 our state budget was funded totally from recurring tax revenues, this year our state budget will require that 61% of it or $477 million come from nonrenewable resource 'nest egg wealth' which, once gone, will never come to us again. Only 39% of our current costs of government are being paid for from recurring taxes. Almost everybody and every industry in Alaska is being subsidized by our depleting wealth from oil. The dangers of continuing this practice should be painfully apparent. Yet this situation crept up on us insidiously and with little pain. Where we erred was permitting state salaries and services to escalate beyond the point the citizen was willing to pay for them through appropriate tax revenues. By injecting massive amounts of 'nest egg' oil wealth into expanding government, we lived in a politician's paradise. We could provide all sorts of wondrous new programs and not charge recipients one more cent in taxes. Were I concerned primarily with reelection, I might ignore this fact and continue as before because there really is no need to do anything about it until our nonrenewable resources exhaust some years from now. Meanwhile, I could bask in the warm glow of popularity by increasing services while reducing taxes. Instead, I intend to turn down that thermostat for what we have done is akin to keeping the home fires burning by feeding it the home. Certainly, one can stay warm and comfortable for quite awhile by throwing on first the floorboards and then the siding and the studs, but, inevitably, someday in the future the roof caves in.

"How can Alaska kick the habit of injecting massive amounts of our 'nest egg' wealth into the day-by-day bloodstream of state government? Certainly we have become so hooked that we cannot quit cold turkey. However, I believe there is a way through which we might ease withdrawal pangs. To blunt the pain of shifting to appropriate tax schedules now while we yet can, we could provide that a portion of the earnings from our permanent fund investments be given directly to Alaskans in cash dividends. Such would offset the net impact of appropriate new taxes and, thus, might elicit their necessary political support. Moreover, by giving Alaskan stockholders an actual dividend we might suppress the unhealthy growth of government. Constraints would be more popular if every time we politicians wished to expand the cost of government we had to recoup these dividend dollars from the citizen in the form of taxes. It seems clear that the government bureaucracy will continue to balloon until there is a string tied from that balloon directly to the pocket of the citizen. The citizen in turn should require that those of us in public office twitch that string every time his money is used to expand government. Unfortunately for Alaska, as long as the public demand for services can be met in such a way that the public feels little pain, I fear we will continue to take the easy course and let that balloon float ever upward assuring that someday our children will come crashing down to earth when the last oil lease is sold and our 'nest egg' wealth is scrambled.

"Alaska, of course, can have a wondrous future, but we must chart our course carefully and program ourselves if we would ever find it. To do so requires that we must nurture our depleting 'nest egg' oil wealth and use much of it to enhance those renewable resources upon which we ultimately must depend. I would like to see an economy which would provide steady jobs for a population not much larger than we have now for once our nonrenewable resources exhaust, as they surely will, our renewable resources must be able to absorb those who would remain in Alaska.

"I would like to see sufficient oil and gas refined in Alaska to meet our needs if such can also reduce our costs, but to compel, despite the cost, refining to be done within our state or to greatly expand our petrochemical complex would simply increase the number of people who were dependent upon our depleting nonrenewable resources, and certainly it's unlikely that once our oil is gone, oil from the lower 48 will be sent back up our pipeline to keep those plants in operation.

"Most Alaskans wish to concentrate instead on permanent renewable resources industries. Accordingly, they imposed upon themselves a $30 million bond issue for the enhancement and rehabilitation of our fisheries. Moreover, expansion into fisheries not previously exploited by Alaskans is being ardently explored and shows much promise.

"Alaskans would like to see a healthy timber industry, however most do not believe this requires a commitment of all forest lands in order to sustain it.

"Alaskans would like to see a state in which a variety of lifestyles could exist harmoniously. One where those who opt for the simple subsistence style of the bush will not be overrun by the exploiters, but a clear vision of Alaska's future is not possible until we thin the haze of red ink with which some governmental practices have served to cloud our awareness of our past, our present and what could be our future. Moreover, until we achieve the high ground of a sane and sound economical environment, our concerns for other physical and social environmental needs are likely to be set aside. Until we start paying as we go for government and support only that government—or private sector—growth which does not demand subsidy, we'll find we simply cannot afford the luxury of taking the time or money necessary to assure we do things right. Instead, we will ever be engaged in a monstrous game of exploitive catch-up which we are sure to lose.

"Some of my environmental friends have expressed distress with me for overemphasizing economics. However, I point out to them that like the string which holds intact a diamond necklace, basic financial practices thread through not only present circumstances, but all options for the future. Those practices, while to many uninteresting or undetectable, are as functionally imperative as that necklace string and unless such is of solid substance, it will inevitably unravel, scattering all sorts of bright hopes into dark corners.

The discovery of Prudhoe Bay's fantastic pool of stored sunlight has ushered Alaska into a new era. Our challenge is to successfully navigate that transition with a sensitivity that embraces the old and anticipates the new. That challenge we intend to meet with the help of many, including those of you from this great state, for I am confident that we, together, can best meet it. Thus I am pleased to have had this opportunity to convey some of my thoughts, aspirations, concerns and hopes to you. More appropriately, perhaps I should have listened to your questions rather than doing all the talking. As a matter of fact you'd think I might have learned my lesson. Just recently I had it brought home to me dramatically that one can get into a great deal of trouble by talking when he should be listening. Just prior to the Presidential inauguration, I had my secretary place a call to the then Governor Carter. When she announced over the intercom that the Governor was on the line, I picked up the receiver and heard him say, 'Hello.' I responded, "Hello Governor, or is it Mr. President-elect, or just what does protocol dictate that I call you?" The answer was, 'You can call me the operator. I'll go get the Governor for you.' With that I had better sit down and say no more lest you come to realize that I share an affliction all too common to those of us in public office and that's the inability to confine ones' self to ten words when 10,000 words will do. If you'll grant me but two more, let me simply say, thank you."

(Applause)

The President: "Governor Hammond, on behalf of the members of the Legislature and the people of our state, I thank you very much for your most instructive and informative address. Your remarks gain even more significance when we realize that you are the first governor from another state who has ever addressed the Washington State Legislature, and we are honored and proud that you are the one to be first. As a result of your being here today, we are all sure that the friendly ties that exist between our two states are even stronger. Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Pullen, Gould, Woody, Van Hollebeke, Day, Keefe and Herr.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Rasmussen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 8; nays, 39; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Gould, Henry, Pullen, Rasmussen, Van Hollebeke, Wojahn, Woody—8.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 24, strike "two-thirds" and insert "((two-thirds)) one-third"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 31, add a paragraph as follows:

"For claims filed in 1978 and each year thereafter, the income range limitations prescribed by this subsection (and as previously adjusted pursuant to this paragraph) shall be adjusted by the percentage change in the consumer price index in Seattle for the twelve month period ending September 30 of the previous year."

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen:

Amend the Rasmussen amendment to page 2, line 31 as follows:

On the fifth line of the amendment, after "change" strike the remainder of the amendment and insert "in social security benefits of the previous year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, would a fifteen percent inflationary increase in social security necessarily or automatically equate to a fifteen percent dollar increase in property taxes? I don't see any necessary relation between the two, and we may be getting our current arrangement out of line."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Scott, it doesn't because social security depends on Congressional action, and there will be a period where they don't and then they do, and there may be a change. But what I am seeking to do is find those people that are, because of their social security income, exempt from the special levy tax relief, and that is all we are exempting them from, and keep them level irrespective of any social security increase they get. So if you got a fifteen percent increase applied to the eight thousand or the seven thousand dollar exemption, that exemption would move up to the same percentage. If there was no social security increase, there would be no exemption increase."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Senator Bottiger, I wonder if you would yield? I am somewhat confused. It would seem to me that if social security went up, say ten percent, but a person's income were not based only on social security, and it would probably have to be based on other things if they were to be in danger of losing their exemption, wouldn't you be actually increasing the exemption by a larger dollar amount than the social security base?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Ridder, you could be. I could conceive of somebody having, say, an eighty dollar a month social security plus, say, a teacher's retirement pension. When social security went up ten percent, you would be raising that exemption. If the teacher's pension went up and the social security both went up the same percentage, that person would not lose their exemption. If teacher's went up a lesser amount and social security a greater, you might add a very few number of new people who would be entitled to an exemption. I think it would be so small that we would find the bottom level and it would raise by whatever percentage social security does."

Senator Ridder: "It would just seem to me that if you are talking eight thousand dollars and social security went up ten percent, you would be talking about an increase to eighty-eight hundred, whereas the actual dollar amount that that person went up on your proposed eighty dollars would be only eight dollars, so that you would really be giving them a massive increase on the basis of the language that you suggested."

Senator Bottiger: "There would, I think, be a few people who fell in that category. I would presume their other retirement income would probably go up a similar percentage. Let's say a teacher's retirement with an escalator clause in it. We are still talking about the bottom group of people in allowing an automatic increase."

Senator Ridder: "I would have to answer you that I really think then that we are reaching outside of that extremely low income group. My math says that if you are earning four dollars an hour on the basis of a forty hour week, you are only earning eight thousand dollars, and if you happen to be a young married person trying to support a family on that, you don't get that kind of an exemption."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to another question? Senator Bottiger, is there any conflict between your add-on of the full benefit increase and the two-thirds provision immediately preceding it? I can see where we could be giving more exemptions because they would be getting the increase removed by your amendment and then only two-thirds of it considered as a deduct up above."

Senator Bottiger: "That would, in effect, diminish Senator Ridder's example. They only count for social security purposes two thirds of the increase, so in that case, I think we would probably take that eighty dollars or eight hundred dollars up to maybe what, twelve."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Bottiger, do I interpret this as a sort of an integration with social security and this is the principle which you support in other areas?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Mardesich, I have always thought you borrowed the idea from me."

Senator Mardesich: "I didn't get that to be 'yes' or 'no'. Would you be more direct?"

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, is this an automatic increase? Every time social security changes the plan will change?"

Senator Bottiger: "That would be the intention, Senator Guess. If Congress were to, say every two years, grant a social security benefit, then this exemption would go up by that same percentage amount."

Senator Guess: "Have you any idea what this would cost us for the last time that they raised it?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, sir."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, have we got this much money in the treasury?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Guess, I was going to rise in a moment and speak against the amendment. I don't know what the fiscal impact would be to local government, nor to the state as it relates to property taxes, and we are talking about schools and so forth. This is the kind of a thing that should be discussed in committee. Here we are out here on the floor trying to determine something. We don't have the proper information before us, and it would seem appropriate to go ahead and pass this bill the way it came out of committee. It is a good bill. It is an update after two years.

"We are going to be back here probably in six or seven months. If it becomes a critical issue, I don't see any reason, Senator Guess, why we can't take a look at it then, so I am against the amendment. I don't know the answer to your question, and that is one of the reasons that I oppose it."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted. Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, strike all of lines 3, 4, and 5.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2840 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2840, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Voting nay: Senators Francis, Guess—2.

Excused: Senator Cunningham—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2840, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

On motion of Senator Wilson, Senators Sellar, Guess, Peterson and Rasmussen were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Resolution 1977-30.

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-30

By Senators Wilson, Sellar, Guess, Peterson and Rasmussen:

WHEREAS, The U.S. Corps of Engineers, Bonneville Power Administration, the Bureau of Reclamation and other federal agencies intend to release approximately two million acre feet of water from Lake Roosevelt behind Grand Coulee Dam in an effort to flush juvenile salmonids over Columbia River dams rather than causing them to pass through turbines, thereby increasing their prospects for survival; and

WHEREAS, This release will contribute substantially to lower-than-normal water levels in Lake Roosevelt, to the effect that this lake, with a normal full level of 1,290 feet above sea level, will be drawn down to about 1,235 feet and even by July 1 will not have risen beyond 1,280 feet; and

WHEREAS, According to the U.S. Army Engineers, even when Lake Roosevelt is only 11 feet below its normal full level log landings must be rebuilt, log booms become stranded, logging schedules are disrupted, piers and resort facilities are left high and dry, irrigated farmers pumping from the lake must lift water higher and in some instances will be unable to pump, and wells dependent on the lake for recharge may well run dry; and

WHEREAS, These consequences and others almost certainly will cost millions of dollars in loss to individuals and industries whose livelihoods are dependent on normal water levels in Lake Roosevelt; and

WHEREAS, The drawdown additionally will cost a net loss of an estimated 500 million kilowatt hours in power production during a drought year which even without the drawdown is likely to produce power shortages later this year, affecting the entire Northwest; and

WHEREAS, The only possibility of relieving the Lake Roosevelt industries of at least a portion of the abnormally high price they are expected to pay in this effort to save a portion of the salmon run lies in the purchase of additional water stored behind Mica Dam or elsewhere in British Columbia, so as to raise the level of Lake Roosevelt and thus mitigate their damages; and

WHEREAS, The recently-passed federal emergency drought relief act contains $10 million for the purchase of additional water under certain circumstances; and

WHEREAS, The fish salvage operation is a federal program and therefore it should be an obligation of the federal government to provide relief for those individuals and industries uniquely and adversely affected;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Washington respectfully urges the Congressional delegation from this state to do everything possible to insure that at least a portion of the available federal funds will be spent to replenish water in Lake Roosevelt so as to cause a minimal disruption of economic activities dependent on normal lake levels, and the Senate further requests that the Governor's Office continue its efforts in support of this action; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to each member of the Congressional delegation from the State of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, concurring with Senator Wilson and desiring to ask a question if Senator Guess would yield? Senator Guess, it is my understanding we have a dam site that if we had the dam and the power generation, we would be saving a million barrels of oil a year. Wouldn't that dam site additionally give us the additional water storage that would be worth millions and millions of dollars in times like this and in ordinary times also?"

Senator Guess: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "What is that?"

Senator Guess: "The High Mountain Sheep Dam would have supplied us something in the neighborhood of in excess of five million acre feet of water. The total number of acre feet of water going to be released to the spring fish freshet is about two million acre feet, so you see we would have had two and one-half times that amount of water to come out of High Mountain Sheep. I think that we ought not to overlook the fact that there are two dams in Montana that are going to contribute to this in addition to Grand Coulee. However, Coulee is largely responsible for the fish portion of it, but to make up for that we will have water spilled out of Libby Dam and Hungry Horse.

"Down in Idaho the people around there are a little bit up tight because they are going to spill water out of Dworshak, and Dworshak and Albany Falls will both spill water for us. The situation is the most grave that we have faced in my lifetime, and I think that we certainly want to urge the Congress to buy as much water—

"The water that they are talking about is coming out of the Keenleyside Dam system. The Canadians built that in cooperation with a treaty a number of years ago, and actually, that water is being paid for by us. They are being given power or the revenue from the power, but the Canadians took a bold step forward when they built that series of dams up there, and it has proven to be one of the best cooperative efforts between two nations that is on record. We ought not to forget the fact that the Canadians have helped us, and I believe that if we can buy this water from them, it will be of a great deal of benefit to us."

The motion by Senator Wilson carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 2:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 26, 1977.

On motion of Senator Beck, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 28, after "foregoing" strike "or harmonious with the foregoing"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, I am reading this bill, and it apparently, correct me if I am wrong, would allow cities to operate or let, lease, the centers or portions of it for all sorts of purposes including taxis, auto rentals, travel agents, commercial airlines, air charter. Now is it your intention or was it the intention of the committee that cities could get into the business of running on their own, centers for commercial airlines or travel agencies and owning those things?"

Senator Beck: "I don't think that it was the intention—what the intent of this bill, Senator Woody, is is to permit these abandoned transportation centers to be utilized to try to make it a headquarters. For example, up in Seattle, let's take the King Street Basin down there. That is more or less becoming a center for railroad stations. If we could make that a great big terminal for all different modes of transportation, it might help to solve some of the problems in that particular area.

"I think Senator Washington would like to speak also. We also have an abandoned railroad station over in his district that is quite valuable and could be used for an awful lot of purposes. I would call on Senator Washington if he would like to elaborate on that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "May I ask that same question of Senator Washington?"

Senator Washington: "As I understand it, your concern is that the intermodal transportation center would itself go into the business of running taxis or travel agencies and such."

Senator Woody: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Washington: "The idea is that you provide the center, and that for instance, the one that I am most familiar with would be the relatively large abandoned station in Ephrata, a substantial amount of space. There is space there for a travel agent to be able to sell airline tickets. You would have space there if the Amtrak didn't continue with ticket service to have that same person be able to sell Amtrak tickets. It would be the place where the taxi service could pay rent and have a taxi stand. It would be this type of thing, where Greyhound Bus Lines could come into that particular point, and the intention is that it serves this type of business, but that it would be the center, but it not be the purveyor of those particular services."

Senator Woody: "Senator Washington, why are we limiting this, then, to cities and towns, and why do we not include counties within this authority?"

Senator Washington: "The amendment took care of that. I think it was a good amendment."

Senator Woody: "I missed that. Thank you, Senator Washington."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, if I might, Senator Henry? May I address that same question to Senator Henry?"

Senator Henry: "Senator Woody, the answer is 'no'."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "If you have some, maybe a suggested amendment, because there is no idea, I think the overall wording of the bill, nor is there any idea that the cities or public agencies are going to engage in these activities, although it might be possible if you had a municipal bus system, that the municipal bus system would operate out of there. There is some possibility in small towns to have the dial-a-bus system that would belong to the municipal corporation, and of course, it would operate out of the transportation centers."

Further debate ensued.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2510, by Senators Beck and Washington:
Authorizing the establishment of transportation centers.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2510, as amended earlier today.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 13, after "operate" strike "or let" and insert "for purposes of leasing space at fair market value for the services set forth in section 3 of this act, and to perform other functions permitted by law,"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, I am under the impression that King County has their own charter, and therefore they can do anything except that which is prohibited in the Constitution. Is that correct?"

Senator Francis: "I don't know the answer to that one, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is my understanding, that they are the only county that operates under their own charter and they can do anything."

Senator Francis: "I certainly agree that that is your understanding, Senator. However, I think that maybe this might modify the county charter since it makes it pretty clear that they couldn't continue to operate it themselves. That is just the way I read this amendment. All I am asking is, give me a reason for voting for this amendment. Otherwise, I have got to vote against it."

On motion of Senator Clarke, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Woody was adopted:

In the Woody amendment to page 1, line 13, on the second line of the amendment, retain the words "or let"

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Beck mentioned, of course, the desirability of using these old buildings and abandoned railroad stations, et cetera, but the bill says 'may construct or otherwise acquire'. Can you visualize any circumstances under which a city or a governmental entity described herein would get into the business of getting federal funds, which I believe has to be the purpose of the bill, to build a center such as this and then lease space to travel agencies and other related businesses that now rent from private enterprise and go into the business of running a transportation center? Can you visualize that happening?"

Senator Washington: "Well, I think to answer you honestly, I think that could be a possibility. I know there are some possibilities of federal funds, at least for old depots. Now, I can't answer you whether or not it could be utilized for construction, but at least there very possibly could be federal funds utilized, particularly as I say, for depots."

"On the other hand, I can also visualize a town like my own, if they didn't have a depot, and at the present time the Greyhound Bus comes in at the outside of town at a very small grocery store. It closes about nine o'clock. Most of the buses come in at a time when it isn't open. It is cold. We do need a bus station. We do need places, a central place for the taxis to come in. I can also visualize possibly the city wanting to have a central place if they get into a dial-a-ride type of a bus operation where older people can come in towards the center of town, and that you find that it would be proper to do that. Just like you found it was very necessary to build an airport in Spokane, and you leased out facilities to private enterprise to make that a handy place for people to come and utilize transportation facilities. I am sure there were federal funds involved in the Spokane airport.

"Ephrata's idea is in small towns are much less sweeping than that, very small but very important to the small towns."

ROLL CALL

SENATE BILL NO. 3004, by Senators Francis, Marsh and Walgren:
Adding three members to the judicial council.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 7, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 3004, adding three members to the judicial council (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 18, strike "~~((two)) three~~" and insert "two"

On page 1, line 23, strike "~~((two)) three~~" and insert "two"

On page 2, line 3, strike "six" and insert "Eight"

On page 2, line 8, after "court, and" and before "to be" strike "two" and insert "~~((two))~~ four"

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Marsh, Vice Chairman; Buffington, Clarke, Jones, Van Hollebeke.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following section one, add two new sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1925 and RCW 2.52.040 are each amended to read as follows:

((~~(A)~~) ~~One meeting of the council shall be held ((at the seat of government on the second Monday of September of))~~ each year. Other regular meetings may be provided for by rule. A special meeting may be held anywhere in the state at any time upon call by the chairman or five other members of the council and upon notice given to each member in time to enable him to attend.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 45, Laws of 1925 and RCW 2.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the council:

(1) Continuously to survey and study the operation of the judicial department of the state, the volume and condition of business in the courts, whether of record or not, the methods of procedure therein, the work accomplished, and the character of the results;

(2) To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens as to remedies for faults in the administration of justice;

(3) To devise ways of simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice;

(4) To submit from time to time to the courts or the judges such suggestions as it may deem advisable for changes in rules, procedure, or methods of administration;

(5) To report biennially to the governor and the legislature (~~((on the condition of business in the courts))~~) with the council's recommendations as to needed changes in the organization of the judicial department or the courts or in judicial procedure; and

(6) To assist the judges in giving effect to Art. 4 § 25 of the state Constitution."

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was adopted:

Amend the Francis amendment, adding new sections 2 and 3, as follows:

On the fourth line of section 2, after "held" insert "within the state"

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

On line 7 of section 2, after "rule" insert "within the state"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Marsh failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator, your committee amendments have been adding, I think, a fair number of members to the council, although I am not sure what the total is now. In the amendment currently before us, it states that the chairman can call a special meeting which I think is perfectly appropriate, or five other members of the council could call a meeting, and my question is whether the total membership of the council, with your changes, is now reaching a level where a call of a special meeting by five other members is too small a part of the council to have that authority."

Senator Francis: "Senator Wilson, your question is well taken. So far there has been sufficient communication within the judicial council that the members themselves have been able to assure that the notice has been adequate, and I think for purposes of what the statutory authority is, I still think five members would be sufficient because again, we have the requirement that the notice itself is adequate to enable them to attend. They are very rarely called. There is also an executive committee which is convened by the chief justice which can take action on certain matters without having to have the full council there. So, I think that the number of five is adequate for that purpose."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Francis yield to an additional question? Senator Francis, I see in the amendment here that the report biennially on the condition of business in the courts is being eliminated, and so it appears to me that some of the responsibilities of the judicial council are being eroded by the administrator for the courts, and I am just wondering can you tell me what the general fund appropriation is for the judicial council and/or the administrator of the courts, and particularly with regard to the judicial council. Now, what are the funds spent for and was there any consideration given to elimination of the council rather than adding on to it?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Grant, I don't know the answer to any of your questions or any portion of the overall question."

Senator Grant: "All right, Senator Francis, then I am concerned with an expansion of the judicial council whose appropriation I believe now is in the neighborhood of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, when we have established an administrator of the courts who has some of the same responsibilities, admitted by the amendment that reports on the condition of business in the courts is one of the responsibilities of the administrator of the courts, and that seems to me to be a pretty good sizeable piece of money to just add to additional persons on this council. Now, perhaps I am just speaking against, not against the amendment, but against the whole concept of the judicial council.

"Senator Marsh offered an amendment that he felt was fiscally conservative. I would suggest to you that we might be even more conservative than that by reviewing the necessity for the judicial council itself, and I mean that in all seriousness. I think that it is questionable as to the value received for the appropriation rendered, and I would hope that in the future, the judiciary committee or another committee, perhaps the ways and means committee, might offer us some suggestions as to the value of the judicial council."

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator Grant, I think I can certainly answer that part of your question because you have gotten to the part that I know a little bit about, and I would be delighted to show you some of the judicial council reports, and Senator Grant, I would be glad to even show you some of the working papers of some of the committees of the judicial council, which are many and which are hard working. You will find that the judicial council, and of course their work is outlined in the present RCW. All we are doing is striking the part where there was an overlap, and that is the only part where there is an overlap, and if you read all of the language that is not stricken here, you see the major work of the judicial council. There are not only members here who are now on, but there are members here who have been on the judicial council and know some of the effort that goes into it, and it is one of the few public agencies that actually listens to individual members of the public.

"Whenever any practicing attorney, judge, law school student, private citizen or whatever writes a letter to the judicial council and asks them to look into changing a rule or regulation, a statute, making a recommendation to the legislature, or anything else, they always give it careful consideration. They dig into the problem. They research it. They decide whether or not they need to set up a committee to work it and so forth.

"I think it is one of the most effective bodies that we have, and I have been very impressed with their work, and this is why I just think we need to change the structure of it a little bit."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, just a few additional remarks. The judicial council, I believe, is the only existing forum where all of the various agencies engaged in law enforcement can get together and exchange ideas as to how to improve the judicial system. You have, not only members of the judiciary at every level, you have the prosecuting attorneys. You have the bar association, you have the county clerks. You have in substance everyone that has to do with the judicial process so that in considering complaints of the public or other suggestions, you get a broad cross section and I don't know where else you would really get that."

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis:

After "correcting" on line 3 of subsection (3), insert "excessive judicial leniency and other"

Debate ensued.

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Pullen, in your questionnaire, did you also have the question of where we should locate mini-prisons in your district?"

Senator Pullen: "I am glad you asked that question. I did have a question as to whether my constituents favored the concept of mini-prisons or whether they favored the concept of more remote prisons, and eighty-three percent said they favored the concept of more remote, larger facilities rather than community mini-prisons."

Senator Bottiger: "I have been having the same trouble with an oil port."

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Francis was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "council;" strike "and" and on line 3, after "2.52.010" insert "; amending section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1925 and RCW 2.52-.040; and amending section 5, chapter 45, Laws of 1925 and RCW 2.52.050"

Authorizing parks and recreation districts to issue interest bearing warrants.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 6, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 3009, authorizing parks and recreation districts to issue interest bearing warrants (reported by Committee on Parks and Recreation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 26, after "authorized" strike "by such voters"

On page 1, line 26, after "voted" and before the period, insert "by such voters"

Signed by: Senators von Reichbauer, Chairman; Lewis, Monohon, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3009 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, this looks like something that could be used by other park and recreation districts in the state who are rather handcuffed at the present time because they have no taxing authority other than issuing a bond referendum out to the voters. What could these warrants be used for? Could they be used for secretarial purposes, typewriters, anything in the way of offices so that the current park and recreation districts who are really non-operative because they don't have these facilities at the current time, could these expenses be used, or raised, out of these warrants?"

Senator Peterson: "Senator Woody, I don't think it would change anything that they cannot now already do. The new language addresses itself simply to the single issue, and I don't see where this would broaden any existing authority in that respect, although I am not familiar with the statutes on the total matter, but the new language certainly doesn't address itself to your question."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3009, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—47.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, North—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3009, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed SUBSTITUTE BILL NO. 2082, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. This act may be known and cited as the "Regulatory Reform Act of 1977".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The state legislature finds that state agencies may fail to deliver services as effectively and efficiently as is expected by the general public and as originally contemplated by the legislature. It further finds that state government actions have produced a substantial increase in numbers of agencies, growth of programs, and proliferation of rules and regulations, and that the entire process has evolved without sufficient legislative oversight, regulatory accountability, or a system of checks and balances. The legislature further finds that by establishing a system for the termination, continuation, or modification of state agencies, coupled with a system of scheduled review of such agencies, it will be in a better position to evaluate the need for the continued existence of existing and future state agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this act the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Committees of reference" means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider termination, modification, or reestablishment of state agencies pursuant to this act.

(2) "Person" includes every natural person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or organization.

(3) "Regulatory entity" means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which licenses or regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in the state of Washington.

(4) "State agency" includes every state office, officer, department, board, commission, regulatory entity and agency of the state, and where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any state agency scheduled for termination by the processes provided in this act may be reestablished by the legislature for a period of time specified by law, but not to exceed six years. At the end of such period of time the legislature shall again review such state agency in a manner consistent with the provisions of this act and reestablish, modify, or consolidate such state agency or allow it to be terminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislative budget committee shall cause to be conducted a program and fiscal review of each state agency scheduled for termination by the processes provided in this act. Such program and fiscal review shall be completed and a report prepared on or before September 30 of the year prior to the date established for termination. Upon completion of its report, the legislative budget committee shall transmit copies of the report as well as related studies and documents to all members of the legislature, to the state agency concerned, to the governor, and to the state library.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In conducting the review of a regulatory entity, the legislative budget committee shall consider, but not be limited to, the following factors where applicable:

(1) The extent to which the regulatory entity has permitted qualified applicants to serve the public;

(2) The extent to which the regulatory entity restricts or inhibits competition or otherwise adversely affects the state's economic climate;

(3) The extent to which the system of regulation has contributed directly or indirectly to increasing or decreasing the costs of any goods or services involved;

(4) The duties of the regulatory entity and the costs incurred in carrying out such duties;

(5) Whether the regulatory entity has operated in the public interest, including the extent to which the regulatory entity has:

(a) Sought and achieved public participation in making its rules and decisions including consideration of recommending appointment of one or more "public" members to the entity;

(b) Processed to completion in a timely and equitable manner the formal complaints filed with it;

(c) Implemented an effective system of evaluating the impact on the public of its rules and decisions regarding economy, availability and improvement of the services rendered to the persons it regulates;

(d) Initiated administrative procedures or recommended statutory changes to the legislature that would benefit the public as opposed to the persons it regulates; and

(e) Identified the needs and problems of the recipients of goods and services provided by those regulated;

(6) The extent to which persons regulated by the regulatory entity have been encouraged to participate in assessing problems in their profession, occupation, or industry which affect the public;

(7) The impact and effectiveness of the regulatory entity with respect to the problems or needs the entity was intended to address;

(8) The consequences of eliminating or modifying the program of the regulatory entity;

(9) The extent to which the regulatory entity duplicates the activities of other regulatory entities or of the private sector, where appropriate; and

(10) The extent to which the absence or modification of regulation would adversely affect the public health, safety, or welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In conducting the review of a state agency other than a regulatory entity, the legislative budget committee shall consider, but not be limited to, the following factors where applicable:

(1) The extent to which the state agency has complied with legislative intent;

(2) The extent to which the state agency is operating in an efficient and economical manner which results in optimum performance;

(3) The extent to which the state agency is operating in the public interest by effectively providing a needed service that should be continued rather than modified, consolidated, or eliminated;

(4) The extent to which the state agency duplicates the activities of other state agencies or of the private sector, where appropriate; and

(5) The extent to which the termination or modification of the state agency would adversely affect the public health, safety, or welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Following receipt of the report of the legislative budget committee, the appropriate committees of reference in the senate and the house of representatives shall jointly hold a public hearing to consider the legislative budget committee report and any related data. The committees shall also receive testimony from representatives of the state agency involved, which shall have the burden of demonstrating a public need for its continued existence; and from the governor or the governor's designee, and other interested parties, including the general public.

(2) When requested jointly by the presiding members of the appropriate senate and house committees of reference, a regulatory entity under review shall mail an announcement of the joint hearing to the persons it regulates who have requested notice of agency rule-making proceedings as provided in RCW 34.04.025(1)(a), as now existing or hereafter amended, or who have requested notice of hearings held pursuant to the provisions of this section. On request of either presiding member, such mailing shall include an explanatory statement not exceeding one page in length prepared and supplied by the member's committee.

(3) The presiding members of the senate committee on ways and means and the house committee on appropriations may designate one or more liaison members to each committee of reference in their respective chambers for purposes of participating in the joint hearing and in subsequent committee of reference discussions and to seek a coordinated approach between the committee of reference and the committee they represent in a liaison capacity.

(4) Following the joint hearing by the committees of reference, such committees may separately hold additional meetings or hearings to come to a final determination as to whether a state agency has demonstrated a public need for its continued existence or whether modifications in existing procedures are needed. In the event that a committee of reference concludes that a state agency shall be reestablished or modified or its functions transferred elsewhere, it shall make such determination as a bill. No more than one state agency shall be reestablished or modified in any one bill.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If terminated, a state agency shall continue in existence until June 30th of the next succeeding year for the purpose of concluding its affairs: PROVIDED, That the powers and authority of the state agency shall not be reduced or otherwise limited during this period. Unless otherwise provided:

(1) All employees of terminated state agencies classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, shall be transferred as appropriate or as otherwise provided in the procedures adopted by the personnel board pursuant to RCW 41.06.150;

(2) All documents and papers, equipment, or other tangible property in the possession of the terminated state agency shall be delivered to the custody of the agency assuming the responsibilities of the terminated agency or if such responsibilities have been eliminated, documents and papers shall be delivered to the state archivist and equipment or other tangible property to the department of general administration.

(3) All funds held by, or other moneys due to, the terminated state agency shall revert to the fund from which they were appropriated, or if that fund is abolished to the general fund;

(4) All rules made by a terminated state agency shall be repealed, without further action by the state agency, at the end of the period provided in this section, unless assumed and reaffirmed by the agency assuming the related legal responsibilities of the terminated state agency;

(5) All contractual rights and duties of a state agency shall be assigned or delegated to the agency assuming the responsibilities of the terminated state agency, or if there is none to such agency as the governor shall direct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall not affect the right to institute or prosecute any cause of action by or against a state agency terminated pursuant to this act if the cause of action arose prior to the end of the period provided in section 9 of this act. Such causes of action may be instituted, prosecuted, or defended in the name of the state of Washington by the office of the attorney general. Any hearing or other proceeding pending before a state agency to be terminated and not completed before the end of the period provided in section 9 of this act, may be completed by the agency assuming the responsibilities of the terminated state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any reference in this act to a committee of the legislature including the legislative budget committee shall also refer to the successor of that committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint a select joint committee consisting of ten members of the legislature within thirty days of the effective date of this act. The speaker shall appoint three members of the majority party and two members of the minority party. The president shall appoint three members of the majority party and two members of the minority party. The committee shall be responsible for the development of legislation which provides a schedule for the termination of state agencies in a manner consistent with the terms of this act. The termination of such state agencies shall occur over a period of six years, beginning on June 30, 1979. In the development of such legislation, the select joint committee shall:

(a) Identify state agencies which might appropriately be scheduled for termination;

(b) Arrange for automatic termination of state agencies with a reasonable number of state agencies to be terminated on June 30, 1979, a reasonable number of state agencies to be terminated on June 30, 1981, and a reasonable number of state agencies to be terminated on June 30, 1983;

(c) Seek to schedule state agencies with like goals, objectives, or functions for termination on the same date so as to better assure identification of duplicative activities and provide for appropriate modification or consolidation of state agencies to avoid future duplication; and

(d) Seek to schedule state agencies for termination in a manner which assures that as many committees of reference as possible have sufficient opportunity to develop experience in conducting reviews as provided pursuant to the terms of this act, and which assures that no such committee is given responsibility for review of an unreasonable number of state agencies during any legislative session.

(2) In identifying those state agencies to be scheduled for termination, the select joint committee shall consider, but not be limited to, the following factors where applicable:

(a) The extent to which the burden of compliance on the executive and legislative branches with the terms of the act is reasonable;

(b) The extent to which a state agency may serve the interests of a particular profession, occupation, or industry as opposed to the interests of the public;

(c) The extent to which a state agency may have outlived its original statutory purpose; and

(d) The potential for fiscal savings.

(3) The select joint committee shall also be responsible for assisting in the implementation of the terms and provisions of this act and shall establish proposed procedures which facilitate legislative review as required by this act for presentation to the legislature. Such committee shall recommend legislative rules which assure effective and appropriate consideration of all bills and reports regarding termination, modification, consolidation, or reauthorization of state agencies scheduled for termination.

(4) Proposed legislation, recommendations, and findings shall be submitted to the legislature as soon as is practicable, but no later than the first day the legislature is in session after January 1, 1978.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing in this act shall prevent the legislature from abolishing or modifying a state agency scheduled for termination prior to the agency's established termination date or from abolishing or modifying any other state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The following programs shall be terminated on June 30, 1978:

- (a) Debt adjusting (chapter 18.28 RCW);
- (b) Midwifery (chapter 18.50 RCW);
- (c) Proprietary schools (chapter 18.82 RCW);
- (d) Grist mills (chapter 19.44 RCW); and
- (e) Regulation of vessels (chapter 88.04 RCW).

(2) The following state agencies and programs shall be terminated on June 30, 1979:

- (a) Driving instructors examining committee;
- (b) Water well construction operators examining board;
- (c) Forest fire advisory board;
- (d) Escrow commission;
- (e) Employment agency advisory board; and
- (f) Charitable solicitations (chapter 19.09 RCW).

(3) The state agencies scheduled for termination in this section shall be subject to all of the processes provided in this act. The state agencies set forth in this section may also be included in the schedule of state agencies to be terminated which shall be developed by the select joint committee as provided in section 12 of this act. If any state agency set forth in this section is reestablished or modified, such agency shall remain subject to the provisions of section 12 of this act. If any state agency set forth in this section is not reestablished or modified according to the provisions of this section, then the inclusion of that state agency in the schedule provided in section 12 of this act shall be null.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Except for sections 14, 16, and 17 of this act, this act shall expire on June 30, 1983, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed, effective June 30, 1979:

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2662.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2662, by Senators Rasmussen and Henry:
Revising the membership of the veterans' affairs advisory committee.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 21, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2662, revising the membership of the veterans' affairs advisory committee (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 8, after "capacity to" insert "the governor and"

On page 1, line 30, after "governor" insert "and the director"

On page 2, line 3, after "changes to" insert "the governor and"

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Bausch, Cunningham, Day, Henry.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 10, after "~~(nine)~~" strike "seven" and insert "eleven"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after "consist of" strike all the material down through "veteran;" on line 12 and insert "two veterans at large, one of whom shall be a Viet Nam era veteran ((:)) ; ((and)) one representative of the Washington soldiers' home and colony at Orting, one representative of the Washington veterans' home at Retsil;"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Rasmussen the amendment to page 1, line 11, was temporarily withdrawn.

Senator Gould moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 22, after "years" insert ": PROVIDED, That the Retsil and Orting appointees, provided for in this 1977 amendatory act shall, for the original term, hold office for three years and four years respectively"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, what is the rationale behind doing away with all the board members that are now serving? Why get rid of all of those? Is this what you are doing?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That was the next amendment that was going to be offered, Senator Guess. 'Immediately after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, all positions on the committee shall become vacant and the Governor shall appoint four members to serve two years,' that is not in relation to this amendment."

Senator Guess: "I know, Senator, but it has something to do with whether or not this amendment is adopted. If Senator Gould's amendment is adopted, and your second amendment was not adopted, then Senator Gould's amendment would be in order, would it not?"

Senator Rasmussen: "If the second amendment were not adopted, yes."

Senator Guess: "Well, I think that the thing ought to be argued on the basis that the second amendment has not been adopted, and that the amendment before us is a proper amendment."

Senator Rasmussen: "There is nothing wrong with the amendment that is offered, yes, except the second amendment would leave it up to the Governor to choose whomever she would want to be for the longer term. It is merely a process of rotation. That is why I am urging that the Gould amendment not be adopted, and that the other amendment would be adopted."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, point of parliamentary inquiry. If we adopt the Gould amendment, and do not adopt any of the remaining two amendments going to be proposed by Senator Rasmussen, and yet we pass Senate Bill 2662 with the Gould amendment on it, we wouldn't have anybody from Retsil or Orting on the board, would we?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Woody, the President believes that your remarks are correct."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, I would suggest then that Senator Rasmussen's second amendment ought to be in order at this point, and then Senator Gould's amendment would be then in order."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes you are absolutely correct, Senator Woody."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Gould, the amendment to page 1, line 22, was temporarily withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 11, after "consist of" strike all the material down through "veteran;" on line 12 and insert "two veterans at large, one of whom shall be a Viet Nam era veteran ((:)) ; ((and)) one representative of the Washington soldiers' home and colony at Orting, one representative of the Washington veterans' home at Retsil;"

On motion of Senator Gould, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 22, after "years" insert ": PROVIDED, That the Retsil and Orting appointees, provided for in this 1977 amendatory act shall, for the original term, hold office for three years and four years respectively"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 19, after "organizations." strike all the matter down through "terms" on line 23 and insert: "((The first members of the committee shall hold office as follows: Three members to serve two years, three members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years. Upon expiration of said original terms)) Immediately after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, all positions on the committee shall become vacant, and the governor shall appoint four members to serve two years, four members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, I was wondering why the amendment was not taken up and put on the bill during the time that it was before the committee."

Senator Rasmussen: Senator Guess, the same amendment is on a veterans' bill that is down in rules at the present time, put on by the committee. After we had this bill up for consideration—it has been down in rules for some time, the House bill came along and we revised the amendment, and this is the same amendment."

Senator Guess: "But you did not put it on 2662. Was it discussed during the committee amendment, during the committee consideration of the bill?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Not this bill. On the other bill it was, which came along about a month later, when it was brought up that we probably should have some representation from the two veterans' homes."

Senator Guess: "Was there evidence before your committee that the present members of that committee are in malfeasance at all?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't think, Senator Guess, that you would want to charge them with malfeasance because they had enlarged the budget, no. If that was the case we would be charging all of the House members with malfeasance, and we wouldn't want to do that."

Senator Guess: "I am not so sure about that, but let's talk about this—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we wouldn't want to say it, we might think it."

Senator Guess: "The thing that bothers me is that there are some people on this commission that are good friends of mine, and I thought they had been doing a good job."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Guess, they will probably be reappointed if they are good friends of yours."

Senator Guess: "Well, I am not so sure about that either."

Senator Rasmussen: "But I am sure they would be doing a good job if they were friends of yours."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield, please? Senator Rasmussen, would you tell us why this board should be abolished, why the present members should be dismissed, if some of them, you say some of them are likely to be reappointed anyway, why should we take this action?"

Senator Rasmussen: "With the desire to give the Governor her opportunity to appoint or reappoint those people that she thinks will do the best job for the veterans, and the only way that you could do it is in this fashion. You realize, Senator Lewis, as I do, that the veterans department is on trial. Something new, we have put it off. The reports were bad when it came out on the new budget that they were proposing, and it sort of inferred that the legislature did not know what they were doing when we split the department off. Hopefully this new advisory commission will operate in a manner that we can all be proud of."

Senator Lewis: "Well, hopefully, yes, but I don't know any of the persons who are on the committee, so I have no personal friends, no personal acquaintances with anybody who is serving, but it just seems to me this is a back-door attempt at withdrawal that you might apply the same logic to every commission and board that exists in this state, Senator, and I just don't think that is the kind of continuity that these boards and commissions should have, and I think that is what the legislature has tried in the past to have is some kind of continuity on these boards and commissions even though it is on trial, it should still have somebody there who has been there before and can help carry on the work. So I really think this is a very bad amendment."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we understand, Senator Lewis, that these people are picked from a number that is suggested from the various veterans' organizations so that they will be approved by the veterans' organizations and presented to the Governor for her choice."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Guess, Clarke, Jones, Benitz, North, Herr, Bausch, Hayner and Buffington.

The President declared the question to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to page 1, beginning on line 19.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

April 27, 1977.

TO: Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary of the Senate

FROM: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Scott, Sellar and Wanamaker

RE: Statement for Senate Journal: Senator Rasmussen's amendment to Senate Bill No. 2662, which removes all the members of the Veterans' Affairs Advisory Committee and corresponding "no" vote on final passage.

We, the undersigned members of the Senate of the State of Washington, wish to state for the record our disapproval of the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 2662, as adopted by the Senate on April 27, 1977:

On page 1, beginning on line 19, after "organizations." strike all the matter down through "terms" on line 23 and insert:

~~"(The first members of the committee shall hold office as follows: Three members to serve two years, three members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years. Upon expiration of said original terms)~~ Immediately after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, all positions on the committee shall become vacant, and the governor shall appoint four members to serve two years, four members to serve three years, and three members to serve four years"

The effect of this amendment is to remove all nine of the present members of the Veterans' Affairs Advisory Committee. This committee has been in existence for approximately one year.

There has been no rational justification presented for this unprecedented statutory appointment withdrawal procedure. It can only be assumed that the motivation for this improper method of reconstituting a commission was political in nature. Not unlike the massive withdrawal of appointees by Governor Ray on January 21, 1977.

It was for this reason that the undersigned voted "nay" on final passage of this otherwise meritorious measure. We certainly agree that addition of advisory members representing Retsil and Orting is proper and we were all supportive of the amendment to accomplish this purpose.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2662 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2662, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 21; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Monohon, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wojahn, Woody—26.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson—21.

Excused: Senators Francis, Pullen—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2662, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Walgren, honored members of the Senate, with your consent the President has been advised by Senator James Edward Keefe of Spokane that the newly appointed chief of the Washington state patrol, the Honorable Robert Landon, is present in the Senate Chamber. Would Chief Landon please come to the portico in order that the members of the Senate may properly recognize and acknowledge you a warm welcome, and also to offer you heartiest congratulations upon your appointment. The chief is accompanied by our own Chief Bachofner."

REMARKS BY CHIEF BACHOFNER

Chief Bachofner: "Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, it is a real privilege for me to stand here and present to you a young man who I have worked with all of his career in the Washington state patrol, and I honestly believe is going to be probably the finest chief that our department ever had. I say that very sincerely, and I would like to present to you a man who has been in the department over twenty years, the last four years at our academy, I am sure a very popular choice with the men of the department, and in taking a man from the ranks, I think all of us in this room agree that was an excellent decision.

"It is my privilege to introduce to you Bob Landon who will be the chief effective Saturday morning, and I want you to know that I am looking forward to retiring. Thanks for all of the nice things you have done for me."

REMARKS BY CAPTAIN LANDON

Captain Landon: "Thank you, Chief. I appreciate those kind remarks, and ladies and gentlemen, it is quite an honor for me to be in the Senate of the state of Washington. I am going to look forward to being of service to all of the people of this state, and I hope to be able to fill a small portion of Will Bachofner's shoes in the next few years. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and to our distinguished guest, we certainly welcome you, Chief Landon, and I know that we will continue the very close cooperation that we in the legislature have had with the state patrol, and I can say that is even true during budget time, Chief Bachofner. We are very pleased with the selection that has been made, and of course, Will, we are sorry to see you leave at this time. As you know, we have had a very, very good and close relationship personally and, of course, you have had with all members of the legislature.

"I want to extend on behalf of the state Senate our congratulations to you on your retirement, and to you, Chief, on your ascendancy to this position."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I also want to join in the remarks of Senator Walgren. I think we have all been extremely fortunate in having an organization such as the state patrol. That is one group of law enforcement personnel that, as far as I can recall, has never received any adverse publicity, and whose function has always been the admiration, not only of the people that they serve, but also other law enforcement groups throughout the state. We have been most fortunate in having the long continued service of our retiring chief, and we certainly join in hoping that the new chief will have as equal a good working relationship with us and a good stature throughout the state."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I don't know how close that relationship was that Senator Walgren had with Chief Will, there. I never had the opportunity of getting stopped by him, but it may have been a very close relationship. However, we are sorry to see Chief Will leave. We have had a good relationship with him, and I am sure that the next forty years of his next job, we hope is just as pleasant as the past forty years have been. We welcome the new chief, and I was just going to say both of those young fellows up there, you can't tell much difference between them. I would assume that the chief is going to be—someplace he is going to be active and we wish him well as we do the new chief."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you, Senator Rasmussen, Senator Walgren and Senator Clarke. Chief Landon, I am sure that everyone in the state joins in congratulating you and wishes you well in your new endeavor, and we have the utmost confidence that you will continue in the finest tradition of the Washington state patrol, and to you, Chief Bachofner, the people of our state join in expressing their deepest appreciation to you for the many remarkable contributions you have made to the safety, health and welfare of our citizens, and also for the many contributions in developing the finest state patrol in the world.

"Congratulations to you, and best wishes. Thank you, Senator Keefe, for calling their presence to the attention of the members."

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 27, strike "department of game" and insert "state parks and recreation commission"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, why did you select the parks and recreation commission instead of the department of natural resources?"

Senator Woody: "Frankly, my first choice was the department of natural resources, and working on this quite quickly, I got the information that the department of natural resources did not want this. If that is the case, I would rather have parks. If, however, the department of natural resources would rather be the controlling agency, I would rather have that office too."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 24, after "The" strike "director of the department of game" and insert "chairman of the parks and recreation commission" and on line 25 strike "director's" and insert "chairman's"

On motion of Senator Washington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? This bill that is in front of us, would this have anything to do with private ownership rights on the rivers or would this affect them in any way?"

Senator Bluechel: "Not in any way. If you will refer to page 6, lines 20 to 24, let me read this. 'Nothing in this chapter shall grant to the committee of participating agencies or the department the power to restrict the use of private land without either the specific written consent of the owner thereof or the acquisition of rights in real property authorized by section four of this act.' To further explain, the only acquisition anybody is talking about in this thing is boat launching ramps to get down to the river, and that is the cost if and when the legislature should vote the funds to do it. That is what is being talked about in the bill. It is boat launching ramps, access to the river for boats."

Senator Herr: "Does it give it the right of eminent domain?"

Senator Bluechel: "There is no eminent domain in the bill. It is specifically excluded."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question, please? Senator Donohue, you said that the statement had been made there is no fiscal impact. I have a document in my hand prepared by Mr. George Volker, of the department of game, that says that for the first biennium there is a hundred and thirty-one thousand, nine hundred and fifty dollars. For the six year period of six hundred and fifty-nine thousand, four hundred and thirty-seven dollars. Has the ways and means committee looked at this bill yet?"

Senator Donohue: "No, Senator, it has not, and I think that those figures you are looking at are what they figure that it will take just for the administration of the act."

Senator Beck: "That is correct. That provides nothing."

Senator Donohue: "There are also other costs in here. I think if you will take a look at new section five which mandates that local government shall also see that the rules are adopted and to function in conjunction with this board. This is going to cost local government money, too, and I would like to say to Senator Bottiger that we have eagles and beaver in many, many other places besides on the river that you are talking about, and I think that they are protected. I think they are happy, and I hate to think about a lot of people parading around a scenic river disturbing all those beautiful creatures."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Sandison and Walgren were excused.

MOTION

Senator Beck moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich amended the motion by Senator Beck that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions that a fiscal impact statement be prepared and presented to the legislature by May 4, 1977.

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Herr, Rasmussen, Bottiger, Wojahn, McDermott, Bluechel, Day, Gould, Van Hollebeke and Grant.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "If the bill should be reported back with no fiscal impact next Wednesday, would that be beyond the cutoff date to consider?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR PETERSON

Senator Peterson: "Mr. President, we have a fiscal impact on this bill, and I don't see any problem at all, Senator Bluechel. I will get you a copy this afternoon."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes not, Senator Bluechel."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Beck, as amended by Senator Mardesich, that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion failed by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 25; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Cunningham was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, where did the hearings take place on Senate Bill three zero zero two? Were they in Olympia, or were they in East Snohomish County?"

Senator Washington: "The hearings on this particular bill were in Olympia."

Senator Woody: "I think you sold me to vote no."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3002.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator von Reichbauer yield to a question? Senator von Reichbauer, if my prize stallion runs off after some young filly and gets brought into one of these places, does this provide for runaway animals first of all?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "No."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Does it have anything to do with that?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "It only addresses itself to animals that have been left there for specified or unspecified time periods by their owners. It has nothing to do with animals that have run away."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "O.K. Thank you. That is all I needed."

Renumber remaining subsections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, it maybe would help me to understand this better if Senator Hayner could define what an informal adjustment is."

Senator Hayner: "Well, actually, if you are speaking of the informal adjustment of the probation officer, if you, for instance, Senator Odegaard, would indicate that your neighbor's boy has stolen something out of your yard, and you told the probation officer about it, and yet you were not willing to file a petition to that effect in court, the probation officer would take the matter up and make an informal adjustment on it, and he may decide to divert that child and not ever file a petition in court.

"In this way, we can, on a very informal basis, sometimes take care of these problems and straighten the kids out without having to go to the more formal open court procedure."

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 24, beginning with "if", strike all material through line 35 and insert:

The court, upon receiving such a report shall hold a hearing to determine whether the child should be removed from the informal adjustment program. At the hearing, evidence shall be taken of the child's alleged failure to comply with the informal adjustment program, and the child shall have the right to present evidence on his or her behalf. The court shall either order that the child continue on the informal adjustment program or be removed from the program. If removed from the informal adjustment program, a petition shall be filed pursuant to RCW 13.04.060 as now or hereafter amended. If a petition is filed, the case shall proceed as if an informal adjustment has never been entered."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Gaspard yield? I am not being facetious now, Senator, but if we create a commission for the care of apiaries, I am wondering how we can deny a commission on any other subject. Isn't there any other way to handle this problem?"

Senator Gaspard: "Oh, I suppose there are many ways to handle the problem. This just happens to be one we picked out. There is a fiscal note that it would probably cost the department an estimate of sixteen hundred dollars for the biennium. It points in there that the commission shall meet at least once a year. It is anticipated that the commission will probably meet three times during the first year of its creation. Thereafter, it will meet at the most two times a year. I don't anticipate it being a very active committee, but to those in the bee-keeping industry it is a very important step for them, and it is not going to be a large financial or fiscal drain on the state."

On page 2, after line 31 insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 4, chapter 287, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state shall be deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Such officer shall inform the person of his right to refuse the test, and of his right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he refuses to submit to the test. Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of his breath only: PROVIDED, That refusal to submit to the tests provided for in this section shall not affect a person's eligibility to hold an occupational driver's license or privilege to drive pursuant to such license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if an individual is under arrest for the crime of negligent homicide by motor vehicle as provided in RCW 46.61.520, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.506, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections 2 through 6 of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of motor vehicles, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as hereinbefore in this section directed, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving such notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of such hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege or permit is so affected shall have the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county wherein he resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Henry: "I raise scope and object on both of them."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "I raise the question of the scope and object of the amendment. Clearly it enlarges the scope and object of the bill which is a bill relating to driver abstracts in the department of motor vehicles, while the amendment would apply to the Breathalyzer operation and would relate to occupational driver's license, clearly expanding the scope and object of the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President finds that Senate Bill 3098 is a bill that provides that information pertaining to accidents incurred by law enforcement officers and firefighters while driving official vehicles in the performance of their occupational duty shall, under certain conditions, be excluded from the abstract report provided to the insurance company.

"The proposed amendment by Senator Grant applies to all people driving vehicles and repeals a portion of the so-called implied consent law, therefore the President believes the amendment does change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order as presented by Senator Henry and Senator Washington is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Grant was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Woody, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3098 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3098, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent or not voting, 7; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—39.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Substitute Bill No. 2480 was not substituted for Senate Bill No. 2480.

Senate Bill No. 2480 was read the second time by sections.

Senator Ridder moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Ridder and Morrison:

On page 2, beginning on line 26, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.116 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" shall include the service of an individual who is a citizen of the United States, performed outside the United States (except in Canada ~~((or the Virgin Islands))~~, and in the case of the Virgin Islands after December 31, 1971 and prior to January 1 of the year following the year in which the United States secretary of labor approves the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands under section 3304(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) in the employ of an American employer (other than service which is deemed "employment" under the provisions of RCW 50.04.110 or 50.04.120 or the parallel provisions of another state's law), if:

(1) The employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this state; or

(a) The employer is an individual who is a resident of this state; or

(b) The employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this state; or

(c) The employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this state is greater than the number who are residents of any one other state; or

(3) None of the criteria ~~((fimt))~~ in subsections (1) and (2) of this section is met but the employer has elected coverage in this state, or the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits, based on such service, under the laws of this state.

(4) An "American employer", for the purposes of this section, means a person who is:

(a) An individual who is a resident of the United States; or

(b) A partnership if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States; or

(c) A trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States; or

(d) A corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 264, Laws of 1957 and RCW 50.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" shall not include service performed in agricultural labor except as otherwise provided in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act.

Agricultural labor is defined as services performed:

(1) On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and furbearing animals and wild life, or in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment; or

(2) In packing, packaging, grading, storing, or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such service is performed as an incident to ordinary farming operations. The exclusions from the term "employment" provided in this paragraph shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to commercial packing houses, commercial storage establishments, commercial canning, commercial freezing, or any other commercial processing or with respect to services performed in connection with the cultivation, raising, harvesting and processing of oysters or raising and harvesting of mushrooms or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Service performed in agricultural labor on and after January 1, 1978, for a farm operator or crew leader will be deemed services in employment if the farm operator or crew leader:

(a) Paid twenty thousand dollars or more as remuneration to individuals employed in agricultural labor during any calendar quarter in the current or preceding calendar year; or

(b) Employed ten or more individuals in agricultural labor for some portion of the day in each of twenty different calendar weeks in either the current or preceding calendar year regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time or whether or not the weeks were consecutive.

(2) Service performed in agricultural labor on and after January 1, 1980, for a farm operator or crew leader will be deemed services in employment if the farm operator or crew leader:

(a) Paid five thousand dollars or more as remuneration to individuals employed in agricultural labor during any calendar quarter in the current or preceding calendar year; or

(b) Employed four or more individuals in agricultural labor for some portion of the day in each of twenty different calendar weeks in either the current or preceding calendar year regardless of whether they were employed at the same moment of time or whether or not the weeks were consecutive.

(3) Service performed in agricultural labor on and after January 1, 1982, for a farm operator or crew leader will be deemed services in employment if the farm operator or crew leader employed one or more individuals and paid remuneration of one thousand dollars or more to individuals employed in agricultural labor in any calendar quarter in the current or the preceding calendar year.

(4) A farm operator is the owner or tenant of the farmlands who stands to gain or lose economically from the operations of the farm. Employment will be considered employment by the farm operator unless it is established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the services were performed in the employ of a crew leader. The risk of nonpersuasion is upon the farm operator. The operator will nonetheless be liable for contributions under RCW 50.24.130 even though services performed on the operator's farmlands would not be sufficient to bring the services under the term employment if services performed on the operator's land in the employ of a crew leader would be covered and the crew leader has failed to pay contributions on the services. For the purposes of the preceding sentence and RCW 50.24.130, all moneys paid or payable to the crew leader by the farm operator shall be deemed paid for services unless there is a written contract clearly specifying the amounts of money to be attributed to items other than services of the crew leader or the crew leader's employees.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a crew leader is a person who furnishes individuals to perform services in agricultural labor for the benefit of any other person, who pays for the services performed in agricultural labor (either on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the other person), and who has not made a written agreement making himself or herself an employee of the other person: PROVIDED, That no person shall be deemed a crew leader unless he or she is established independently of the person for whom the services are performed and either has a valid certificate of registration under the farm labor contractor registration act of 1963 or substantially all the members of his or her crew operate or maintain tractors, mechanized harvesting or crop dusting equipment, or any other mechanized equipment which is provided by the crew leader.

Sec. 4. Section 17, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The term "employment" shall not include domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That) Services performed in domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority shall not be considered services in employment unless the services are performed after December 31, 1977, for a person who paid remuneration of one thousand dollars or more to individuals employed in this domestic service in any calendar quarter in the current or the preceding calendar year. The terms local college club and local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority shall not be deemed to include alumni clubs or chapters.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Services performed by aliens legally or illegally admitted to the United States shall be considered services in employment subject to the payment of contributions to the extent that services by citizens are covered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Benefits shall not be paid to any individual on the basis of any services, substantially all of which consist of participating in sports or athletic events or training or preparing to so participate, for any week which commences during the period between two successive sport seasons (or similar periods) if the individual performed the services in the first of the seasons (or similar periods) and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the latter of the seasons (or similar periods).

Sec. 7. Section 28, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" shall not include casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business (labor which does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer). Temporary labor in the usual course of an employer's trade or business or domestic services as defined in RCW 50.04.160 shall not be deemed to be casual labor.

Sec. 8. Section 31, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 10, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.300 are each amended to read as follows:

"State" includes, in addition to the states of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(a) Begins with the third week after whichever of the following weeks occurs first:

(i) A week for which there is a national "on" indicator((:); or

(ii) A week for which there is a state "on" indicator((: PROVIDED, That, as there was a state "on" indicator for the week which was three weeks prior to October 11, 1970, an extended benefit period began on that date:); and

(b) Ends with the third week after the first week for which there is both a national "off" indicator and a state "off" indicator: PROVIDED, That no extended benefit period shall last for a period of less than thirteen consecutive weeks, and further that no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the fourteenth week after the close of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state((: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That prior to January 1, 1972, an extended benefit period may become effective and be terminated in this state solely by reason of a state "on" and a state "off" indicator, respectively)).

(2) There is a "national 'on' indicator" for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that ((for each of the three most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent)), for the period consisting of such week and the twelve weeks immediately preceding it, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states equaled or exceeded four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period).

(3) There is a "national 'off' indicator" for a week if the United States secretary of labor determines that ((for each of the three most recent calendar months ending before such week, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent)), for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (seasonally adjusted) for all states was less than four and five-tenths percent (determined by reference to the average monthly covered employment for the first four of the most recent six calendar quarters ending before the close of the period).

(4) There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) (~~as determined under the provisions of subsection (6) of this section~~):

(a) Equalled or exceeded one hundred twenty percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years(;) and

(b) Equalled or exceeded four percent.

(5) There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding twelve weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) (~~as determined under the provisions of subsection (6) of this section~~) was either:

(a) Less than one hundred twenty percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding thirteen-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years; or

(b) Less than four percent.

(6) (~~"Rate of insured unemployment", for purposes of subsections (4) and (5) of this section, means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent thirteen consecutive-week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this title for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such thirteen-week period.~~

((~~11~~)) (10) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were payable to him under this title or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and regular benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week; or

(b) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this title or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and regular benefits available to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week, after the cancellation of some or all of his wage credits or the total or partial reduction of his rights to regular benefits: PROVIDED, That, for the purposes of (a) and (b), an individual shall be deemed to have received in his current benefit year all of the regular benefits that were payable to him, or available to him, as the case may be, even though:

(ii) By reason of the seasonal provisions of another state law, he is not entitled to regular benefits with respect to such week of unemployment (although he may be entitled to regular benefits with respect to future weeks of unemployment in the next season, as the case may be, in his current benefit year), and he is otherwise an exhaustee within the meaning of this section with respect to his right to regular benefits under such state law seasonal provisions during the season or off season in which that week of unemployment occurs; or

(iii) Having established a benefit year, no regular benefits are payable to him during such year because his wage credits were canceled or his right to regular benefits was totally reduced as the result of the application of a disqualification; or

(c) His benefit year having ended prior to such week, he has insufficient wages or employment, or both, on the basis of which he could establish in any state a new benefit year that would include such week, or having established a new benefit year that includes such week, he is precluded from receiving regular benefits by reason of the provision in RCW 50.04.030 which meets the requirement of section 3304(a)(7) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, or the similar provision in any other state law; and

(d) (i) Has no right for such week to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States secretary of labor; and

Sec. 11. Section 104, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute employment as defined in this title are performed may file with the commissioner a written election that all such services performed by any distinct class or group of individuals or by all individuals in its employ in one or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all the purposes of this title for not less than two calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the commissioner, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to this title from and after the date stated in such approval(~~(-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any political subdivision of this state or any instrumentality of a political subdivision may elect coverage in accordance with the provisions of RCW 50.44.030 as a matter of right)~~). Services covered pursuant to this section shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of January 1st of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years, only if the employing unit files with the commissioner prior to the fifteenth day of January of such year a written application for termination of coverage(~~(- PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the provisions of RCW 50.04.200 to the contrary notwithstanding, public port districts may elect to cover the services of all or any distinct class or group of individuals in its employ on a contribution basis, such election shall preclude said port districts from covering contemporaneous services of any other class or group of employees under the provisions of RCW 50.44.030)).~~

Sec. 12. Section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Commencing with benefit years beginning on or after January 28, 1971, services performed subsequent to September 30, 1969 in the employ of this state or any of its wholly owned instrumentalities or jointly owned instrumentalities of this state and another state or this state and one or more of its political subdivisions shall be deemed services in employment unless such services are excluded from the term employment by RCW 50.44.040.

The state shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided with respect to nonprofit organizations in subsections (2) and (3) of RCW 50.44.060: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That for weeks of unemployment beginning after January 1, 1979, the state shall pay in addition to the full amount of regular and additional benefits so attributable the full amount of extended benefits so attributable: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no payment will be required from the state until the expiration of the twelve-month period following the end of the biennium in which the benefits attributable to such employment were paid. The amount of this payment shall include an amount equal to the amount of interest that would have been realized for the benefit of the unemployment compensation trust fund had such payments been received within thirty days after the day of the quarterly billing provided for in RCW 50.44.060(2)(a).

Sec. 13. Section 20, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 2, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any political subdivision of this state or any instrumentality of a political subdivision may elect to cover the services of all or any distinct class or group of individuals in its employ: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That public utility districts and public power authorities may not elect coverage under this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any political subdivision of this state or any instrumentality of a political subdivision which elects to cover the services of any employees in an institution of higher education or hospital operated by said political subdivision or instrumentality shall cover the services of all employees in all institutions of higher education and all hospitals operated by said political subdivision or instrumentality.~~

~~For the purposes of this chapter the term "hospital" means any institution primarily engaged in the treatment of emotional or physical disability which provides, on a regular basis, twenty-four hour per day bed care under the supervision of licensed medical personnel and those components, of other institutions, which are primarily engaged in the treatment of emotional or physical disability and which provide, on a regular basis, twenty-four hour per day bed care under the supervision of licensed medical personnel:~~

~~For the purposes of this chapter, the term "institution of higher education" means an educational institution in this state which~~

~~(1) Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;~~

~~(2) Is legally authorized within this state to provided a program of education beyond high school;~~

~~(3) Provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, or offers a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and~~

(4) Is a public or other nonprofit institution;

(5) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing subsections, all colleges and universities in this state are "institutions of higher education".

Services covered by the election performed subsequent to the date of such election shall be deemed services in employment unless such services are excluded from the term "employment" by RCW 50.44.040.

Any political subdivision or instrumentality electing coverage under this section shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided with respect to nonprofit organizations in subsections (2) and (3) of RCW 50.44.060.

An election under the provisions of this section shall be for no less than two calendar years. A political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision desiring to terminate coverage may do so by filing a written application for termination of coverage no later than the December fifteenth preceding the calendar year with respect to which such termination is to be effective. Termination of coverage will not relieve the political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision of the obligation to reimburse the unemployment compensation fund for all benefits paid attributable to service performed during the covered period in the employ of such political subdivision or instrumentality of a political subdivision:))

(1) All services performed for any political subdivision or instrumentality of one or more political subdivisions of this state or one or more political subdivisions of this state and any other state after December 31, 1977, will be deemed to be services in employment to the extent coverage is not exempted under RCW 50.44.040.

(2) All such units of government shall file, before December 15, 1977, a written registration with the commissioner of the employment security department. Such registration shall specify the manner in which the unit of government will finance the payment of benefits. The elections available to counties, cities and towns are the local government tax, provided for in section 14 of this 1977 amendatory act, or payments in lieu of contributions, as described in RCW 50.44.060. The elections available to other units of government are the contributions plan in chapters 50.24 and 50.29 RCW, or payments in lieu of contributions, described in RCW 50.44.060. Under any election the governmental unit will be charged the full amount of regular and additional benefits attributable to its account plus one-half the amount of extended benefits so attributable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That beginning with weeks of unemployment commencing after January 1, 1979, the unit of government which is financing the payment of benefits under the payment in lieu of contributions option shall, in addition to paying the full amount of regular and additional benefits attributable to its account, pay the full amount of extended benefits so attributable.

(3) Any political subdivision or instrumentality of more than one political subdivision of this state is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with other political subdivisions or instrumentalities of more than one political subdivision of this state to form pool accounts for the purpose of making payments in lieu of contributions. These accounts shall be formed and administered in accordance with applicable regulations. The formation of such accounts shall not relieve the governmental unit of the responsibility for making required payments in the event that the pool account does not make the payments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and to chapter 50.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any county, city or town which has not elected to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay a "local government tax". The local government tax is a percentage, determined in accordance with the provisions of this section, of all remuneration paid for services in its employment.

(a) For calendar years 1978 and 1979 all such employers shall pay local government tax at the rate of one and one-quarter percent.

(b) For each year after 1979 each such employer's tax rate shall be computed in accordance with this section.

(2) A reserve account shall be established for each such employer.

(a) The "reserve account" of each such employer shall be credited with tax amounts paid and shall be charged with benefit amounts charged in accordance with the formula set forth in RCW 50.44.060 except that such employer's account shall be charged for the full amount of extended benefits so attributable for weeks of unemployment commencing after January 1, 1979. Such credits and charges shall be cumulative from January 1, 1978.

(b) After the cutoff date, the "reserve ratio" of each such employer shall be computed by dividing its reserve account balance as of the computation date by the total remuneration paid during the preceding calendar year for services in its employment. This division shall be carried to four decimal places, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded.

(3) A "benefit cost ratio" for each such employer shall be computed by dividing its total benefit charges during the thirty-six months ending on the computation date by its total remuneration for the same period: PROVIDED, That after the cutoff date in 1979 each employer's total benefit charges for the fifteen months ending on the cutoff date shall be divided by its total remuneration paid in the calendar year 1978; and after the cutoff date in 1980 each employer's total benefit charges for the twenty-seven months ending on the cutoff date shall be divided by its total remuneration paid in the calendar years 1978 and 1979. Such computations shall be carried to four decimal places, with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded.

(4) For each such employer its benefit cost ratio shall be subtracted from its reserve ratio. One-third of the resulting amount shall be subtracted from its benefit cost ratio. The resulting figure, expressed as a percentage and rounded to the nearest tenth of one percent, shall become its local government tax rate for the following rate year. For the rate year 1980 no tax rate shall be less than six-tenths percent nor more than two and two-tenths percent. For 1981 no tax rate shall be less than four-tenths percent nor more than two and two-tenths percent. For years after 1981 no tax rate shall be less than two-tenths percent nor more than three percent. No individual rate shall be increased by more than one percent from one rate year to the next.

(5) After December 31, 1979, newly formed political subdivisions or instrumentalities of one or more political subdivisions of this state which do not elect to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay local government tax at the rate of one and one-quarter percent until they have been chargeable with benefits for at least twenty-four months prior to any computation date.

(6) Each year after 1980 the commissioner shall review the local government tax system and make recommendations to the legislature for changes in said system.

(7) Local government employers shall have the same rights to request review and redetermination of their tax rates as provided in RCW 50.29.070.

(8) The commissioner may redetermine any local government tax rate in accordance with the provisions of RCW 50.29.080, and the employer involved shall have the same rights to request review and redetermination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and to chapter 50.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, the term "institution of higher education" means an educational institution in this state which:

Sec. 18. Section 23, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Benefits paid to employees of "nonprofit organizations" shall be financed in accordance with the provisions of this section. For the purpose of this section and RCW 50.44.070, the term "nonprofit organization" is limited to those organizations described in RCW 50.44.010, and joint accounts composed exclusively of such organizations.

(1) Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes subject to this title on or after January 1, 1972 shall pay contributions under the provisions of RCW 50.24.010, unless it elects, in accordance with this subsection, to pay to the commissioner for the unemployment compensation fund an amount equal to the full amount of regular and additional benefits and one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin during the effective period of such election to the extent that such payments are attributable to service in the employ of such nonprofit organization.

~~(a) ((Any nonprofit organization which is, or becomes, subject to this title on January 1, 1972 may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than one taxable year beginning with January 1, 1972. PROVIDED, That it files with the commissioner a written notice of its election within the thirty-day period immediately following such date.~~

~~(b)) Any nonprofit organization which becomes subject to this title after January 1, 1972 may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than twelve months beginning with the date on which such subjectivity begins by filing a written notice of its election with the commissioner not later than thirty days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.~~

~~((c)) (b) Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with paragraph(s) (a) ((or (b))) of this subsection will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the commissioner a written notice terminating its election not later than thirty days prior to the beginning of the taxable year for which such termination shall first be effective.~~

~~((d)) (c) Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this title for a period subsequent to January 1, 1972 may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the commissioner not later than thirty days prior to the~~

~~((f))~~ (d) The commissioner may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1969.

~~((ff))~~ (e) The commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as he may prescribe, shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which he may make of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Any nonprofit organization subject to such determination and dissatisfied with such determination may file a request for review and redetermination with the commissioner within thirty days of the mailing of the determination to the organization. Should such request for review and redetermination be denied, the organization may, within ten days of the mailing of such notice of denial, file with the appeal tribunal a petition for hearing which shall be heard in the same manner as a petition for denial of refund. The appellate procedure prescribed by this title for further appeal shall apply to all denials of review and redetermination under this paragraph.

(2) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this section including either paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(a) At the end of each calendar quarter, the commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization or group of such organizations which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular and additional benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid during such quarter that is attributable to service in the employ of such organization.

(b) (i) Each nonprofit organization that has elected payments in lieu of contributions may request permission to make such payments as provided in this paragraph. Such method of payment shall become effective upon approval by the commissioner.

(ii) At the end of each calendar quarter, or at the end of such other period as determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization for an amount representing one of the following:

(A) ~~((For 1972, six-tenths of one percent of its total payroll for 1971.~~

~~((B) For years after 1972, such))~~ (B) The percentage of its total payroll for the immediately preceding calendar year as the commissioner shall determine. Such determination shall be based each year on the average benefit costs attributable to service in the employ of nonprofit organizations during the preceding calendar year.

~~((C))~~ (B) For any organization which did not pay wages throughout the four calendar quarters of the preceding calendar year, such percentage of its payroll during such year as the commissioner shall determine.

(iii) At the end of each taxable year, the commissioner may modify the quarterly percentage of payroll thereafter payable by the nonprofit organization in order to minimize excess or insufficient payments.

(iv) At the end of each taxable year, the commissioner shall determine whether the total of payments for such year made by a nonprofit organization is less than, or in excess of, the total amount of regular and additional benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits paid to individuals during such taxable year based on wages attributable to service in the employ of such organization. Each nonprofit organization whose total payments for such year are less than the amount so determined shall be liable for payment of the unpaid balance to the fund in accordance with paragraph (c). If the total payments exceed the amount so determined for the taxable year, all of the excess payments will be retained in the fund as part of the payments which may be required for the next taxable year, or a part of the excess may, at the discretion of the commissioner, be refunded from the fund or retained in the fund as part of the payments which may be required for the next taxable year.

(c) Payment of any bill rendered under paragraph (a) or (b) shall be made not later than thirty days after such bill was mailed to the last known address of the nonprofit organization or was otherwise delivered to it, and if not paid within such thirty days, the reimbursement payments itemized in the bill shall be deemed to be delinquent and the whole or part thereof remaining unpaid shall bear interest from and after the end of such thirty days at the rate and in the manner set forth in RCW 50.24.040.

(d) Payments made by any nonprofit organization under the provisions of this section shall not be deducted or deductible, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the organization. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this paragraph shall be unlawful.

(3) Each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall pay to the commissioner for the fund the total amount of regular and additional benefits plus the amount of one-half of extended benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employer. If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by more than one employer and one or more of such employers are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount ~~((payable))~~ payable to the fund by each employer that is liable for such payments shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) ~~((or (b)))~~ through (d) of this subsection.

(a) If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by one or more employers that are liable for payments in lieu of contributions and on wages paid by one or more employers who are liable for contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

(b) If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two or more employers that are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each such employer shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

~~((4) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this section, any nonprofit organization which prior to January 1, 1969, paid contributions into the unemployment compensation fund, and pursuant to this section, elects, within thirty days after January 1, 1972 to make payments in lieu of contributions, shall not be required to make any such payment on account of any regular, additional, or extended benefits paid, on the basis of wages paid by such organization to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin on or after the effective date of such election until the total amount of such benefits equals the amount of the positive balance in the experience rating account of such organization.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.98 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Effective with benefit years beginning on and after January 1, 1978, base year wages shall include remuneration paid for previously uncovered services: PROVIDED, That the maximum benefits payable to an individual as computed for the benefit year will be reduced to the extent that benefits were paid on the basis of identical calendar quarters of the previously uncovered services with respect to a claim filed by the individual under Title II of the Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act of 1974. Benefits will be paid, subject to the provisions of this title, based upon the previously uncovered services to the extent that the unemployment compensation trust fund will be reimbursed for the cost thereof by the federal government under section 121 of PL 94-566 and regulations published by the secretary of labor relating thereto.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term "previously uncovered services" means services performed before January 1, 1978, which are not employment as defined in Title 50 RCW at any time during the one year period ending December 31, 1975, and which:

(a) Is agricultural labor as defined in RCW 50.04.150 and covered by section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act or domestic services as defined in and covered by RCW 50.04.160; or

(b) Is service performed by an employee of this state or a political subdivision of this state newly covered by this 1977 amendatory act or by an employee of a nonprofit educational institution which is not an institution of higher education as provided in RCW 50.44.040(3).

(3) Any nonprofit organization or governmental entity electing to make payments in lieu of contributions shall not be liable to make payments with respect to benefits paid any individual whose base year wages include wages for previously uncovered services as defined in subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section to the extent that the unemployment compensation fund is reimbursed for the benefits under section 121 of PL 94-566.

(4) Benefits paid any individual whose base year wages include wages for previously uncovered services as defined in subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section shall not be charged to the experience rating account of any contribution paying employer to the extent that the unemployment compensation fund is reimbursed for the benefits under section 121 of PL 94-566.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.98 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This 1977 amendatory act has been enacted to meet the requirements imposed by the federal unemployment tax act as amended by PL 94-566. Internal references in any section of this 1977 amendatory act to the provisions of that act are intended only to apply to those provisions as they existed as of the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act.

In view of the importance of compliance of this 1977 amendatory act with the federal unemployment tax act, any ambiguities contained herein should be resolved in a manner consistent with the provisions of that act. Considerable weight has been given to the commentary contained in that document entitled "Draft Language and Commentary to Implement the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1976 PL 94-566", published by the United States department of labor, employment and training administration, and that commentary should be referred to when interpreting the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Section 21, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 7, chapter 265, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1953, section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess., section 9, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.200 are each repealed on January 1, 1978.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 26, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.250; and

(2) Section 27, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1951 and RCW 50.04.260.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 6, 11, 13, 14, 15, and 17 of this 1977 amendatory act shall take effect on January 1, 1978."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, do I understand you to say that this was part of the federal law that we cut off those school district employees that only work nine months?"

Senator Ridder: "This is one of the options which we had available to us, Senator Rasmussen, and it was the decision of the committee to write in what we felt was reasonable assurance language which was what the department was now acting on. The committee felt that reasonable assurance should be somewhat more closely defined."

Senator Rasmussen: "Let me ask another question. Those employees—let's take the very lowest paid in the schools, the cafeteria workers and the cooks that are ordinarily hired for nine months. They will not be able to draw unemployment even though they are looking for work?"

Senator Ridder: "I think if they do not have written notice of fall employment and are looking for work, then they would be eligible."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then under this interpretation that you are giving me, each and every school district would have to, in effect, cut those employees off and say, 'you are not coming back,' and release them so they could get unemployment—"

Senator Ridder: "That is true."

Senator Rasmussen: "—or look for work."

Senator Ridder: "If that was the objective. Many school employees, Senator Rasmussen, are on effectively a twelve month basis in which their salary is paid proportionately for a twelve month period, that is, an annual basis even though they are not called upon to perform duties during those summer months, and in actuality, may be available for some kinds of temporary employment if they wish to be employed during the summer. They also, of course, if they are on a twelve months payout, are probably receiving both health and welfare and pension benefits."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Ridder."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, I notice in the analysis of this bill it says, 'There will be a denial of benefits to professional athletes between seasons and illegal aliens.' My understanding is that you can ask an alien if he or she is illegal or not, but they don't have to prove to you whether they are legal. How are we going to prove that they are illegal so that they would not qualify?"

Senator Ridder: "I think that has to be within the administration of the department, and it has been my understanding from contacts with Mr. Garcia and communications from him that there is a real desire to put that into conformity in various offices, and to achieve as closely as possible evaluation of whether that is actually a legal alien worker. I think at this point we are not, perhaps, in a position to say specifically, 'This person is entitled and can be considered legal.'"

Further debate ensued.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Ridder and Morrison:

On page 16, strike all of section 14 and renumber the remaining sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Ridder yield to a question, please? Senator Ridder, I too, dislike the federal government interfering with our programs here, and I heard one figure mentioned, but just in order to impress upon the seriousness of this thing, do you have and would you repeat again the figures which it is going to cost the state, the fiscal impact of this if we do not pass the bill?"

Senator Ridder: "You have asked, actually, two different questions, Senator Beck, because you have asked for the fiscal impact and you have asked for what it will cost the state."

Senator Beck: "I would like both."

Senator Ridder: "O.K. The fiscal impact is three hundred eight million dollars. It will not cost the state that much because, in essence, it is the cost to the employers of the state who will be required to pay taxes and will not get credit for a state program because they will be outside of conformity and eligibility for that program. In addition, Senator Morrison mentioned, I think, forty-five million, was that right? That would be administrative costs. He suggests that perhaps the unemployment compensation program might not operate. I would suggest that might be an additional cost to the general fund in order to have that operate."

Senator Beck: "Thank you kindly."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Morrison yield to a question? Senator Morrison, I don't recall if you were here at that time. Do you remember the time that the representatives of the Boeing Company approached the legislators and said, 'We have no unemployment. We think that we are entitled to an experience rating that we would only have to pay about one-third the going rate because we are paying so much into the fund, and never drawing anything out of it. The legislature in its wisdom did not go on experience rating that time, though we had had it previously some years ago. It seems to me that it was about two years later that Boeing then had a great experience. They went from some hundred and two thousand employees down to somewhere around forty-five to fifty thousand, and it took the unemployment comp fund down some three or four hundred million, and they are still down about fifty million even with their employment today. Now that is what experience rating did. If we had gone that way as suggested at that time by Boeing, our fund would have been depleted because we would have not been paying into it."

"Now you are suggesting we go back to experience rating for county, city and school employees, when through the years it is proven that if we maintain a level rate and increase it on everybody that we are far better able to handle the problems of unemployment than the person that is in the seasonal industries that does not have that exceedingly high rate caused by the seasonal industries. But, in effect, you are saying it is good now when it was not good a few years ago. I think we should maintain the level rates rather than go on experience rating, and I am inclined to agree with Senator Grant."

Senator Morrison: "Senator Rasmussen, we could fish several questions out of your speech. I am sure if you were still serving as the mayor of Tacoma you would be right here along with all of the other elected officials saying, 'Our rates of employment in the city of Tacoma have been very level over the years. In fact, the tests show that we should only be paying point six six percent of our payroll as a tax, and the only option we have is to pay three percent emergency rate that is charged to all other employers.' I don't think you would want that, and I am sure you wouldn't have if you were still speaking for local government."

"Yes, I remember the days when an earned rate system was discussed by private enterprise. The approach that many of us took at that time was to build in enough safeguards that an earned rate system would still guarantee a solvent fund. We have an earned rate system right now. Unfortunately, it takes about a three hundred million dollar cushion in the fund before it goes into effect, and because of the Boeing decline and other circumstances the system really has never worked, and that is because of the safeguards that were built into the compromise that occurred back about 1970. I think that there are sufficient safeguards built into this proposal that I don't think we, as a legislature, should mind setting up this system to demonstrate whether an earned rate proposal actually can work or not.

"Under this proposal any city, say the city of Seattle, finally just one day went out of business and everyone was unemployed, and qualified. Naturally the fund could not cover that sort of cost, but the department continues to have the authority to go back to that individual unit of government and sue them, take them to court, do everything they possibly can to collect, just as they would an individual business.

"I just assure you there is no risk in this. The only risk that is involved is this might look pretty good after a few years, and this legislature might, in fact, be willing to say, 'Why don't we do the same thing for private industry?'"

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, do you have any knowledge of how King County might feel about this particular amendment?"

Senator Grant: "I have no knowledge—that shot that."

Senator Senator Jones: "I think so. The answer was there. I think we are aware. Thank you, Senator."

The motion by Senator Grant failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Ridder carried and the amendment by Senators Ridder and Morrison was adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment by Senators Ridder and Morrison to the title was adopted:

On line 1 of the title after "unemployment compensation;" delete the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.116; amending section 16, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 264, Laws of 1957 and RCW 50.04.150; amending section 17, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.04.160; amending section 28, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.270; amending section 31, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 10, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.300; amending section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 7, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.22.010; amending section 104, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.160; amending section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.020; amending section 20, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 2, chapter 35, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.030; amending section 21, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.040; amending section 22, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 17, chapter 288, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.44.050; amending section 23, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.44.060; adding new sections to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and to chapter 50.44 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.98 RCW; creating a new section; repealing section 21, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 7, chapter 265, Laws of 1951, section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1953, section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess., section 9, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.04.200; repealing section 26, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.04.250; repealing section 27, chapter 35, Laws of 1945, section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1951 and RCW 50.04-.260; and providing effective dates."

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2480 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, we had an opportunity yesterday to meet the new chief of the Washington state patrol. He was presented, of course, by our current chief, Will Bachofner. Today that new chief will be sworn into office, and of course, it is appropriate that we recognize in writing and by the adoption of this resolution the fine work that has been accomplished over several years by Chief Bachofner. I think this resolution adequately and appropriately represents our views in this regard, and I certainly endorse its adoption."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I want to also endorse the adoption of the resolution. It was impossible yesterday to speak, but I would not like for the occasion of Will's retirement to pass without saying to him and to the members of the Senate how much I have appreciated the fine cooperation that we have had out of Will all of these years.

"Working on the transportation and utilities committee, we have seen Will operate one of the best shops I think that has been in government, and we are certainly going to miss him."

SENATE BILL NO. 2429, by Senators Francis, Buffington, Marsh, Matson and Van Hollebeke (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Revising the regulation of charitable solicitations.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2429. On April 18, 1977, all committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Clarke moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the following committee amendment was adopted on April 18, 1977:

On page 6, add a new subsection following subsection (6) to read as follows:

"(7) Solicitations by volunteer hospital organizations affiliated with non-profit hospitals whose budgets are subject to review by the Washington state hospital commission according to RCW 70.39 when: net proceeds of such solicitations are used solely to improve or maintain tax exempt health care services or facilities of such institutions; the solicitation is carried on solely by persons who are unpaid for their services and inures to the benefit of, or is paid to any officer or member; and no professional fund raiser or solicitor is employed or retained for compensation in connection with such solicitations."

The motion by Senator Clarke carried. The Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment on reconsideration.

On motion of Senator Buffington, the following amendment by Senators Buffington and Francis to the committee amendment was adopted:

On line 8, of subsection (7) added by the amendment, after "services and" insert "no part of the volunteer organizations' assets or income"

The motion by Senator Clarke carried and the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

Senator Buffington moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 17, line 21, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 19.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Compliance with the provisions of this chapter exempts charitable organizations from complying with any county or municipal ordinances or regulations relative to charitable organizations."

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Buffington yield to a question? Senator Buffington, does this imply that the county or city where a charitable solicitation may be taking place, and particularly a law enforcement agency, may not have the information that such a solicitation is taking place?"

Senator Buffington: "I would assume so. In other words, Senator Goltz, an individual who wanted to find out whether or not a charitable solicitation — a particular organization were really a bona fide one, they would have to call the department of motor vehicles which presently handles all of the charitable solicitations records."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Buffington yield? Senator Buffington, do you know of any counties or cities that have ordinances regulating charitable organizations?"

Senator Buffington: "Oh, yes. King County, for sure."

Senator Grant: "And is that ordinance, is it more restrictive than the state charitable solicitations act?"

Senator Buffington: "It is less so, Senator Grant."

Senator Grant: "If the county were to enact an ordinance, or city, either one, that was more restrictive with regard to charitable organizations, it would not be enforceable if your amendment were to pass. Is that not correct?"

Senator Buffington: "I would assume the state law would preempt over that, Senator Grant."

Senator Grant: "Well, the point is, Senator, that your amendment, as I read it, says that a local governmental unit, whether it be city or county, cannot pass an ordinance with regard to charitable solicitations that even might be more restrictive than the state requirements. If I read it correctly, that certainly is a concern. I think that cities and counties should have the opportunity to regulate solicitations for charitable purposes within their own borders to the extent they would like to or their local governmental unit would like to."

Senator Buffington: "Senator Grant, there are large organizations such as the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, who fall under requirements within every county in the state of Washington, so what you are asking those people to do is to comply with not only the cities in the entire state, but also all thirty-nine counties' rules and regulations regarding several solicitations. It is really the large ones we are attempting to help out. The smaller ones who are really coming in, and they are a fly-by-night operation, are going to be monitored by the state and by those individuals who don't know for sure if it is a bona fide organization, and so they can simply make a call and find out very rapidly whether or not it is a good purpose."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NORTH

Senator North: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Grant, you have put your finger on a very interesting legal question. We have two counties in this state now with home rule charters, both King and Clallam counties, and this would make a most interesting court test to see what would happen if those two counties were to establish more restrictive legislation regulating these than what we have here, but we don't know the answer to this question because no one has had the courage to really take this to court."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, would Senator Buffington yield? Part of my question was asked by Senator Grant, let me ask it this way. If a city or county has an ordinance that is equal to or less restrictive than the state's rules on this matter, would the charitable organizations still be obliged if those ordinances exist in the city to report their activities and make the city aware of what they are doing?"

Senator Buffington: "No, that is the purpose of this amendment, to make it much easier for those organizations. After all, they are volunteers who are trying to help people who really need it."

Further debate ensued.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2331 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Goltz yield, please? Senator Goltz, the language on lines 15 and 16 indicate that the court may fix a date to avoid unreasonable delay. Is that the only grounds upon which the court, as apposed to the defendant, may fix the date, that is, in order to avoid unreasonable delay? Or may the court also set the trial date to be one in which the city has all of its cases on that particular day?"

Senator Goltz: "I guess my response to that is that it seems to me that if it says that the person who is charged with a violation, in setting the date by telephone, tries to delay the time of the appearance in court unreasonably that the court could overrule the person's objection and set the date."

Senator Woody: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2331, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Absent or not voting: Senator Murray—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Fleming, Francis, Talley—4.

SENATE BILL NO. 2331, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Washington was excused.

On motion of Senator Beck, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2359 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, Senator Beck, Senator Marsh brought out the point that these light reflectors have to be visible, I believe, within six hundred feet. Do the bicycles presently that we have, meet that requirement?"

Senator Beck: "There are no rules or regulations at all. Currently the law says 'from all distances from one hundred feet to six hundred feet,' and this expands the distance. It must be visible now from six hundred feet, and that is about a block and a half, these reflectors at night time. The low beam of an automobile coming up behind them must be able to reflect it a block and a half away."

Senator Odegaard: "My question though, is do our bicycles presently meet that requirement? Do reflectors on the bicycles today meet that requirement, or will—?"

Senator Beck: "No."

Senator Odegaard: "—people have to purchase all new reflectors?"

Senator Beck: "No. I would yield to Senator Guess. He is the bicycle expert."

Senator Guess: "The reflectors on the new bicycles, Senator, do. Some of the smaller ones which were an inch and a quarter in diameter did not meet that, so in order to comply, yes, they will need to make sure that the new reflector is on bicycles. They cost about two and a half."

Senator Odegaard: "How large would these new reflectors have to be? What diameter?"

Senator Guess: "Two inches."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3068 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator McDermott direct himself to the bill on line 9. 'The school year shall begin on the first day of September and end with the last day of August.' There is no problem with that because if you begin in September, the next August is not until the succeeding year, but under the proviso, you could have it beginning August one and ending August thirty-one, and that is the school year. I just took a glance, I didn't have that much time to look at it."

Senator McDermott: "Would you like to ask me a question, Senator Mardesich? That is an editorial comment, but I am not sure how to respond to that. The intent of the bill is to—"

Senator Mardesich: "Senator McDermott, it would appear that it is possible under the measure as it is drafted. Since it does not name the year involved, a school year could begin on the first of August and declared to end at the end of August."

Senator McDermott: "That is certainly not the intention."

Senator Mardesich: "I suspect that what you are intending is that the school year would begin in August of one year and end in August, or in some time in the succeeding year. Is that a correct interpretation of what you intend to do?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Yes, I think so because the last paragraph reads, 'that for the purposes of this subsection a slot machine shall be conclusively presumed to be an antique slot machine if it has been manufactured prior to that time,' but it deals only with that presumption there."

Senator Pullen: "And there is no other definition in the bill of what constitutes an antique slot machine?"

Renumber the remaining section.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "Mr. President, I would challenge scope and object of that amendment. The bill deals specifically with amending of the fire code while the amendment deals with an entirely new class of drinking establishment and drinking license."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Sellar, finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2107 is a very limited bill which amends the state building code to allow for increased occupancy of drinking and dancing establishments, whereas the proposed new section proposed by Senator Grant is essentially another bill in that it deals with the issuance of class H licenses and to such entertainment facilities that do not offer meals along with the sale of intoxicating liquors.

"Therefore, the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill, and the point presented by Senator Sellar is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Grant was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Sellar, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2107 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Revising the regulation of charitable solicitations.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2429. On April 18, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted. On April 29, 1977, one committee amendment was reconsidered, amended, and adopted. ### SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2429, by Senators Francis, Buffington, Marsh, Matson and Van Hollebeke (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Revising the regulation of charitable solicitations.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2429 as amended earlier today. The following amendment by Senator Buffington had been moved for adoption:

On page 19, line 32, after "19.09.120;" strike "and", and on line 34, after "19.09.130" strike the period and insert: "; and

(3) Section 33, chapter 13, Laws of 1973, 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.330."

The motion of Senator Buffington carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Buffington, the following amendment by Senators Buffington and Mardesich to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 28 of the title, after "19.09.130 insert "; repealing section 33, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.330"

On motion of Senator Buffington, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2429 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Will Senator Buffington yield? Senator Buffington, with the adoption of your amendment, I take it we have prohibited any local municipality from having anything to say about the charitable solicitations conducted in this area. Is that correct, and if for example, a firm wishing to solicit had a charitable basis, had only in mind, for example, a solicitation in Spokane County, rather than conducting their solicitation on a statewide basis, would that firm likewise be able to register with the state, with or without the approval of the Spokane County authorities?"

Senator Buffington: "Senator Wilson, they would indeed register with the state. With the proviso on the second amendment that we did adopt today the department of motor vehicles would then notify Spokane and tell them that this particular organization has come into the state of Washington, asked to specifically solicit in the area of Spokane, and notify those local people so that they will know they are there. Then if there is any problem the local people call the department of motor vehicles and they will then go and take care of any problem if there is one."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Buffington yield to another question? Senator Buffington, under the old act, we used to have a way. If somebody came knocking at the door, we could ask them for their ID card or some proof that they were actually soliciting for a worthwhile cause. I know you have taken that out, but what I don't understand is how now do I know?"

Senator Buffington: "Senator Bottiger, there was a problem with that system before because those cards were easily forged. We felt in committee that it would be much easier to try and keep track of these organizations if they were to, indeed, register and at least on an annual basis, file a financial report. You, as an individual who may be at home when someone does come knocking on your door, I guess will just have to trust the organization, and if you do have any questions I would pick up the phone and call the department of motor vehicles and ask if they really are valid and if they are registered."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2429, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 14; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Donohue, Gaspard, Gould, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, North, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woody—30.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Day, Goltz, Grant, Guess, Lewis, Mardesich, McDermott, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Talley, Wilson, Wojahn—14.

Absent or not voting: Senator Morrison—1.

On page 1, line 22, after "in" strike "chapter 18.71A RCW" and insert "chapters 18.57A and 18.71A RCW, acting under a supervising physician"

On motion of Senator Sellar, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3044 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2244, by Senators Henry, Guess and Beck (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Van Hollebecke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2244 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2244 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Buffington moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Buffington and Marsh:

On page 1, after line 10, insert an additional section as follows:

"Section 1. Section 3, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.011 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Vehicle" means and includes every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in, upon, or by which any persons or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

(2) "Motor vehicle" shall mean every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails, and which is required to be registered and titled under Title 46 RCW, Motor Vehicles.

(a) A "motor vehicle dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in new and used motor vehicles;

(b) A "mobile home and travel trailer dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in mobile homes or travel trailers, or both;

(c) A "miscellaneous vehicle dealer" shall be a vehicle dealer that deals in motorcycles and/or vehicles other than motor vehicles or mobile homes and travel trailers.

(6) The term "department" means the department of motor vehicles which shall administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(7) "Director" means the director of the department of motor vehicles.

(8) "Manufacturer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new and unused vehicles and shall further include the terms:

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Buffington yield? Senator Buffington, it would appear to me, though, that wouldn't it be a better method if you mandated in the statute here somewhere that before the sale was final or could be finalized they would have to drive together to the nearest state patrol office and have it inspected, rather than preventing the whole operation as this does?"

Senator Buffington: "Senator Day, I am sure that would be a marvelous idea. I wonder who is going to enforce the seller of the car to take the new owner of the car down to the state patrol and have that VIN number checked to make sure that it isn't stolen."

Senator Day: "Well, it would be easy to mandate that before a sale in a flea market such as that were final, you know, and have them post it around there rather than—I think this looks to me like a terrific idea for a way to sell a car is what I am saying, and the problem that I see in it—. Let's say you go to an existing auction and you run your car through the auction trying to sell it, and whether you sell it or not you pay a commission, and it appears to me that this just takes the wrong tack on this is all."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President and Senator Day, I really think that this amendment does take the correct tack. What is required, it requires these operators of flea markets to register as other used car dealers do, and they will pay a B & O tax, a B & O tax on the rental of space. They are not involved in the sale of automobiles, and frankly, I think the suggestion that you made that they have to go down to the state patrol would be even more onerous than complying with this particular amendment.

"As you know, there is a fee charged by the state patrol for making those inspections, and they are not readily available, so I think this is a much superior way of going about it. It is a method that is supported very strongly by both new and used auto dealers. They want the competition to simply be on equal terms. They have got to pay B & O tax for running a used car lot or new car lot. They think it is only fair that those who rent their lots to sellers of their own cars be also required to pay a B & O tax on the rental, on the rental of the lot, not on the sale of the cars, but on the rental of the lot. I point out that this amendment does not affect home sales. You can still sell your car at home or any other place. It doesn't affect you selling your own car, but it does say if you are a dealer, if you are a person who rents lots on a regular basis for a flea market, you are going to pay a B & O tax.

"I think that is fair, and I think most people in the car business feel it is fair, and I urge your support of this particular amendment."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Mr. President, I raise the issue of scope and object on this amendment.

"Mr. President and members, the bill as it was deals with only two subjects. It changes the requirement as to what crimes are relative to—or the period of time for which crimes relative to this business must be reported or can be used as a cause for denying or suspending or revoking a license. The only other area the bill deals with is one requiring that automobile dealers set up separate trust accounts for deposits made on automobiles and mobile homes and so forth, dealing with only those two areas, whereas the amendment would bring into the licensing provisions those who are renting space to people who wish to sell their own cars, and I think this does broaden the scope of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2244, together with the pending amendment by Senators Buffington and Marsh and the Point of Order raised by Senator Van Hollebeke was ordered held following consideration of Senate Bill No. 2654.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2405.

President Pro Tempore Henry assumed the Chair.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2405, by Senator McDermott:

Mandating rules and regulations for voluntary transfer of students between school in same school district.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2405 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator McDermott yield? The last statement that you made regarding transportation, Senator McDermott, I don't know how it would operate. The language is very brief as it applies to it, but for instance, where one family might be short of the two miles of the school that they are now going to, then they request transfer to another school, that then throws them into the free transportation area. Will this preclude that?"

Senator McDermott: "It won't preclude it, but it will not require the school district to go out of their way to pick the child up."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clark: "Thank you. Will Senator McDermott yield? Senator, it would appear to me that if a district wanted to grant this privilege of letting a parent choose a particular school within the district that the district can adopt rules and regulations, and I think many of them do this at the present time. All I can see that this bill does is to mandate that a school district approve any such request unless they can reject it on the basis of inadequacy of classrooms in the area to which the request is made.

"Why should the district have this additional burden placed upon them?"

Senator McDermott: "There are many instances, Senator Clark, in the school system where parents become dissatisfied with the placement of their child. They have no options at the moment if the school does want to let them move their child. They can go and petition the board, but the board can reject them on any basis they choose, and I would only quote the Walla Walla superintendent who said, 'We felt that parents ought to have some options.' I think the purpose of this bill is to make it so the districts cannot just without giving a reason refuse to move a child. Parents have to have some options. If they have to pay the bill, they should have at least some say in where their children go to school.

"In Walla Walla ninety-seven percent go to their local school. In Tacoma ninety-six percent go to their local school, so it is not a big number of people we are talking about. We are talking about people who would like to have the option, and ought to be granted that option as long as they can't move just any time they want. We have made some rules. They have to make their decision by the fifteenth of May, and we felt that that was a legitimate kind of request for parents to have."

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Would you consider that this bill mandates that local school districts have an open enrollment policy?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, within the guidelines outlined in the bill. That is, people have to make application by the fifteenth of May, and as long as it doesn't disturb the desegregation policies or the classroom size of the schools, yes."

Senator Gould: "If I may further, Senator, if a district wanted to keep their high schools balanced in enrollment size, would they be able to make rules and regulations to allow this? Would there be justifiable rules for keeping schools at certain sizes, perhaps?"

Senator McDermott: "Absolutely. We talk about classrooms in the bill, and I think they have a right to say they are only going to have one section of physics in a school. They are not going to have three sections in one school and none in the other schools in order to exclude somebody who wants to come for that reason."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, I notice in the bill where it says 'the board of directors of every school district'. Many of us in the rural areas have small school districts with only one high school, one grade school. I am wondering, Senator McDermott, why it is necessary for every school district to adopt rules and regulations that they wouldn't even be able to implement?"

Senator McDermott: "I think in some areas that may be a very short adoption."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, I note that on line 10, part of the qualification is that 'as classroom space permits'. Could that be interpreted that classroom space might be available even though it might force a student in the school to have to go to another school? I am wondering whether the bill might not be clarified with a proviso that no student should be required to attend a school other than that closest to his home by virtue of a lack of space caused by transfers into his school. That is much of what we have been talking about, but—."

Senator McDermott: A little short proviso like that—"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, you know, just a short one. Well, I am concerned that people coming in might force someone else who wants to go to his neighborhood school to go elsewhere. I don't think it is intended to do that."

Senator McDermott: "No, and if your question is intended to clarify that, I would say that our intention is that by May fifteenth we know how many teachers we are going to have in a school district. We also know the students who will be enrolled in a particular school. People at that point can make an application to move their child, and if there is space available after you have taken care of all the local residents, then there would be no reason to exclude them from the school, so we don't intend to push anybody out."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Sellar, Senator Pullen was excused.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405 was placed on the second reading calendar for today following Senate Bill No. 3048.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2554, by Senators Benitz, Gaspard, Wanamaker and Morrison:

Imposing a one-eighth of one percent business and occupation tax on the business of manufacturing triticale into flour.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Benitz, the following amendment by Senators Benitz and Hayner was adopted:

On page 1, line 15, after "wheat" insert ", soybeans"

On motion of Senator Benitz, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2554 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, would Senator Benitz yield to a question? This must have quite a fiscal impact. I see we are making quite a change in the tax rate here. Could you give us a breakdown of the reduced income to the state both for triticale and for soybeans?"

Senator Benitz: "It would be virtually impossible to give it in total dollars, but the difference in the tax rate which wheat and other commodities have for milling now is one-eighth of one percent, and unless it is specifically in the law, it would be point 044 which is about four times as high, and would, of course, preclude us getting other industries into the state of Washington."

Senator North: "If I may, one more question. About how large a production are we talking about? I understand triticale is new and quite small, but soybeans is a pretty substantial industry, isn't it, in this state?"

Senator Benitz: "There were eight thousand acres of triticale in the state last year, and there will be a lot less than that this year because of the drought in Eastern Washington and some other problems, but there is a financial institution now looking at the Pacific Northwest to establish a soybean processing plant. They will require three hundred thousand acres to establish the plant, and it is fifty bushels to the acre is what will be required, and it is possible that we can get that at ten dollars a bushel. You can see a billion and a half dollar industry that may arrive in the Pacific Northwest. I would like to do everything possible to give us the best chance of getting that industry in the state of Washington."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Will Senator Benitz yield to a question? It is my impression from reading your amendment in the context of the bill that only the soybeans which are ground into flour would be given this preferential B & O tax rate. It would not affect other processing of soybeans. Is that not correct?"

Senator Benitz: "The total value of the product that is processed. It is a kind of a wholesale processing tax. Total value of that would be taxed. If it is meal or if it is oil, they would pay the processing tax at the rate that is the same as wheat into flour. It is total, it is on any product that would come out of that. For processing."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Day yield to another question? Senator Day, I read in the paper the other day that one of the bakeries was using a fibrous product as a substitute for grain. Coming from an area where fibrous wood products are manufactured, I am wondering what our B & O tax rate is if you make trees into flour."

Senator Day: "Well, I will tell you what. Instead of the health department sending people up to the agriculture committee to speak against a bill that would properly label dairy products, for coffee creaming for example, and make them properly label other things that were used in substitutes, this is a good case in point because I understand some of those wood products that were being used were not exactly too digestible, and were creating some problems, and there are some restrictions that are going to be placed on them, and that is totally commensurate with my thinking."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Grant and Ridder were excused.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, McDermott, North, Scott, Van Hollebeke—6.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 312, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2244.

President Cherberg assumed the Chair.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2244, by Senators Henry, Guess and Beck (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Revising laws governing car dealers and salesmen.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2244. Earlier today, Senator Buffington had moved adoption of an amendment by Senators Buffington and Marsh beginning on page 1, after line 10. Senator Van Hollebeke had raised a Point of Order on the amendment.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President finds that Senate Bill 2244 is a measure that simply revises the laws governing car dealers and salesmen, establishes standards and regulations, and also providing certain penalties for infractions. The amendment proposed by Senator Buffington and Senator Marsh requires a dealer operating a listing service to also be covered by the laws governing regular car dealers and salesmen and thus providing additional protection for the consumer. Therefore the amendment does not change the scope and object, and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Buffington and Marsh was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Buffington failed and the amendment by Senators Buffington and Marsh was not adopted on a rising vote.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Buffington, the amendments to page 2, line 32 and page 12, following line 32, on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate were withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2244 was advanced to third, reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Van Hollebeke yield? Senator Van Hollebeke, on page 1, beginning at line 25 and on, and I think on page 4 in the middle, there is some provision there changed that says the applicant must show instead of that he was convicted of a crime within the preceding five years involving fraud and misrepresentation or conversion, that language is stricken out and rather it is put in, 'adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought.' Well, one of the things that a dealer does is handle money. What difference does it make if he is an embezzler from a bank and got convicted of that within the last ten years, and he is an embezzler now when he is intending to deal with cars?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Well, you probably have a valid point, Senator."

Senator Woody: "Perhaps I should just ask you why this change? What was said in committee for the necessity of this change?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I think I recall something to the effect that the ten year—well, you are not referring to that ten year part, but that brought it into line with some other statutes, but I don't know why the difference in wording. Let's see, the original wording—just one moment."

Senator Woody: "That was the original wording in the prior—"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Yes—involved fraud, misrepresentation or conversion, and now it has to relate directly to the car—if you would like to put it back on second reading and offer an oral amendment, perhaps leaving in the 'ten years' and the 'adjudged guilty', which would be fine—"

Senator Woody: "Before I do that, perhaps I could address this question to the prime sponsor, Senator Henry, since I don't want to suggest an amendment if there was a good reason for this change."

Senator Henry: "I don't know what they did to it in committee because it was not in my committee. The prime purpose of this bill is to protect the buyer who puts down a down payment and then has the man go out of business, take bankruptcy or something, and not being able to get immediate access to his funds. I don't think if a man is an embezzler from a bank or whatever, it wouldn't make any difference because the funds in this particular case would be in a trust fund. That is the purpose of the law."

Senator Woody: "Senator Henry, that was in the original bill that you were the prime sponsor on, this same language. I am also wondering, 'adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought'. Well, as a salesman, of course, you have to do three things. You sell cars, you take their money and you drive them around. What if he has been convicted of the crime of speeding or driving while under the influence or negligent driving?"

"Is that going to prevent him from obtaining a license under this act?"

Senator Henry: "The answer is 'no', and I think that if he is an embezzler from a bank, he may have used that money to get into business with, in this particular business, and that he is going to have to put the money in a trust fund so he doesn't have any particular problems."

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2244, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lewis, Senator Cunningham was excused.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator McDermott was excused.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2675.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2675, by Senators Francis and Clarke:

Modifying the penalty for the taking of certain merchandise.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Clarke, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2675 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, I notice on page 2, on line 3, it says that judgments but not claims may be assigned. In other words, you are permitting a collection agency to enter into this. Is that correct?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, it is much worse to allow claims to be assigned. This takes that out and in reality restricts the assignment of those things to collection agencies because they may be assigned only after the judgment is actually entered."

Senator Wojahn: "But, one more question. Normally, this would normally arise in small claims court, is that not correct, this type of an action?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, I think it would depend upon the amount. This goes up to a thousand dollars which would be above the small claims situation."

Senator Wojahn: "If it were two hundred, and I thought I read here two hundred, one to two hundred dollars."

Senator Clarke: "That is the additional penalty over and above the cost of the goods or other damages, so I can conceive of a situation where it would be brought in small claims court, but I think the majority of them would not."

Senator Wojahn: "Would there be a problem with this if the bill were brought in small claims court which does not permit an assignment, if it were under these, if it were between one and two hundred dollars?"

Senator Clarke: "There could be a question as to whether this as a later enactment would supplant the prevention against assignment in small claims court. I would assume however, that a court would rule that this was meant to relate to general type claims, and that where that is a specific would overrule a general, and whereas the small claims only there is a prohibition against assignment, I would expect the court to rule that the small claims law would prevail."

Senator Wojahn: "Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, Senator Wojahn, to further clarify that, by an act we passed, I think, two years ago, any judgment rendered in small claims court, if not paid within fifteen days automatically is registered on the district court judgments docket, and that judgment even under this act, could thereafter be assigned. In subsection three on page two, where you asked the question, the problem with the prior language, it had double negatives. It said the same thing as the current, what we have proposed to be current law, but it used double negatives. I don't know how we ever permitted the double negatives to pass this legislature."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2675, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; excused, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—41.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Cunningham, Fleming, Francis, Grant, McDermott, Murray, Pullen—8.

SENATE BILL NO. 2675, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2731.

o

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2731, by Senators Ridder, Morrison and Grant:

Providing for designation of specialty plumbers and revising other laws on plumbing.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Ridder, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2731 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2731 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 28, after "the" strike "coordinating council on occupational education" and insert "commission for vocational education or its designee"

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2731 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, will Senator Ridder yield to a question? I notice there is no grandfather clause for specialty plumbers. When this bill went through the legislature before I put an exemption in there for people who hook up, for example, soft water systems. Would they be classified as a specialty plumber under this bill?"

Senator Ridder: "I am sorry, Senator Day, I wasn't present for the testimony. Perhaps Senator Van Hollebeke would be able to tell us if there was any discussion of that in the commerce committee when it was heard."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: I will repeat the question, Senator Van Hollebeke. When the bill passed before here, we exempted people who hook up soft water units in houses. In other words, this was a situation where the plumbing is in and they go in and just merely cut into the lines and hook up a unit that makes a part or all of your water soft, and they were exempted before. I note that the grandfather clause does not exempt specialty plumbers. Are they classified now as a specialty plumber, and would that mean they could not hook up soft water units?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I am not sure what the answer—the question did come up, as I recall, and I do think I recall some concern being expressed over it, and that they should not be included but I don't recall anything being done to the bill to change that. I think they are included—I believe they are included."

Senator Day: "You believe they are excluded."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "They are included. Without being excluded, they are included."

MOTION

Senator Day moved that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2731 be placed on the third reading calendar for May 3, 1977.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Ridder, the specialty plumbing designation of three years, does that in some ways liberalize the licensing of plumbers? At the present time they all have to have four years experience, is that the system now?"

Senator Ridder: "I am sorry, again I must defer to the chairman who keeps getting caught on the telephone."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Did you hear the question, Senator Van Hollebeke? As I understand it, at the present time the journeyman plumber needs four years of practical experience. At the present time do we have a designation of any type of a plumber who can get a license with only three years experience?"

(No reply)

Senator Morrison: "Senator Washington, perhaps I can help again. Currently, you are either a journeyman plumber or you are working as an apprentice, and those are the only two groups that are recognized by the state as being able to do any type of plumbing work under our existing law. This creates a new category of specialty plumber, provides that they have to have three years of practical experience not working under a journeyman at all. A journeyman now has to have four years working under another journeyman before he can be licensed."

"In effect, this entire bill, and many of you have come to me wondering why, number one, I would sponsor it, and what this really does. It does open up the plumbing profession. By recognizing the fact that for limited work in most residences up to three stories high, there is now the use of plastic pipes, and we get away from all the requirements that journeyman plumbers have had to have in the past. So this is a recognition by both the business community and the unions involved that now we do need more plumbers. We need plumbers that specialize in this sort of work. The passage of this bill should mean that more plumbers are available at a lower cost to most consumers across the state."

Senator Washington: "Thank you."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Day, the motion to hold Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2731 for third reading on May 3, 1977 was withdrawn.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3028, by Senator Bausch:

Permitting proceeds from port district revenue bonds to be used for funding reserve accounts.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3028 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3028 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Before we advance this measure, I wonder if Senator Bluechel would answer a question? Senator Bluechel, as I understand revenue bonds, they are bonds which are predicated upon the income from the lease of the development which has been provided for under the revenue bonds, and that is all it is supposed to do. Now, what company would want to lease the building and provide for the payment of—there is supposed to be another word—the funds for the guarantee of the revenue which the bonds raise, and that is usually the rental of the property."

Senator Bluechel: "Or other income, or whatever it is they are raising it for, but revenue bonds are used by local government for a wide variety of areas. In this particular case, the original bill started out talking about revenue bonds for port district improvements."

Senator Mardesich: "What I am asking, though, is would the lessee—let's say that you—port districts or anyone, builds a building for someone. Under the law today, as I understand it, the income is supposed to support the bonds."

Senator Bluechel: "That is correct."

Senator Mardesich: "What company would want to lease with all of the additional factors that are thrown in by this bill, replacements and so on and so forth?"

Senator Bluechel: "O.K., maybe I had better explain the bill then before we bump it, but what this is, is an optional tool for local government, and it is designed to work as reserve funds work in private industry, which are used all the time."

"Under present law with the exception of one entity in the state, you cannot issue revenue bonds to cover reserve accounts, but in private industry it has been found to be very advantageous, and let me give you the example here. Under this bill you could issue revenue bonds to cover the reserve account of three types of reserves. One would be contingency reserves, one would be an operating reserve and one would be a betterment reserve. Now, this would mean that if you had a thirty year bond issue and the normal practice would be to issue thirty—one years of bonds to pay back the principal and interest. What is done and what would be done in a case like this is that you would take these additional years interest and you would place them in government securities which generate a substantial rate of interest, sometimes as much as one or two percent more than the interest that you are paying on the revenue bonds."

"Over the period of the thirty years, you apply this additional return which is gained from the reserve account back to reduce the principal and interest on the revenue bonds as you pay them off. This was recommended by a bond counsel. At the present time Metro is the only one that has this particular capability, and in the last ten years they said that they had reduced the cost of principal and interest on their revenue bonds by approximately two million dollars. They recommended that we pass this bill about a month ago, prior to the issuance of revenue bonds by the Port of Tacoma. They stated, the bond counsel stated that with this ability, which is an optional ability, the Port of Tacoma would have saved over five hundred thousand dollars alone in its one issue that was, that it floated about a month ago.

"That is the reason for the bill, and the bill does allow for the additional one year in the length of the bonds which then goes into a reserve account which is then invested, and invested in government bonds at usually one to two percent higher. This is a common practice used. According to bond counsel, a common practice used in private business all the time, and a very useful tool for government because it actually reduces the cost of the revenue bonds."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, would Senator Bluechel yield to a further question? Senator Bluechel, I can understand the situation in which the Port of Tacoma or any other port which is having a healthy economy and a fiscal situation which is not in trouble, but due to the variations of income and expenses, they may well want to use this technique, but what about the political subdivision that is in trouble, and I hate to use New York City all the time as an example, but one that just sort of got out on a limb, used our HCR 52 type funding too often, and in order to rescue themselves, again are bargaining away the immediate future's revenue by floating some more bonds to pay the debt service? Can't we find that occurring?"

Senator Bluechel: "All right, according to bond counsel, and their explanation of this is that the reason you fund a reserve account is so that if the income in any project that is being started up is slow in the first few years, under normal circumstances, without a reserve account what you do is you have to take the principal and interest out of the operating funds. Consequently, you short yourself, and as any banker will tell you, when you go to borrow you borrow enough so you don't short yourself because that is where the biggest weakness comes in to any business, and that is where the most potential failure takes place."

"This goes, as an example, one year over. You are only floating an additional year on a normal bond length, but you have the ability then to, if you have an emergency, you have the ability to pick it up. Otherwise, your pay-back comes out of your operating revenues all the time. That is the normal pay-back on revenue bonds, anyway. This gives you a bit of flexibility and a bit of leeway, and to again, all I can quote is the bond counsel, and the bond counsel strongly recommends that this was a very useful, optional fiscal tool, that was a conservative fiscal tool."

Senator Woody: "Thank you. Mr. President and members of the Senate, again I, with the answer that was given to me, apparently bond counsel, of course, is giving the answers as to when this is good fiscal management, but I am thinking about the New York City syndrome where things just get in worse shape and worse shape, and they begin borrowing from future revenues, pay with future revenues, and they use today's bonds to do it. Ultimately, they get in trouble. I don't think any little political subdivision in the state of Washington is going to have much calls with President Carter asking to be bailed out, such as New York did, but this is the same thing that could occur. One year, I don't know if that is elsewhere in the statute, but assuming that one year limitation is so, and there is tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow. Each year you do the same thing, float another bond. I am a little bit concerned, not for the good aspects of it, but rather for the bad aspects. When a political subdivision gets in this trap for the lack of money to pay their debt service or any of the other contingencies, they begin to float bond after bond on future revenues, and at the same time that they are doing this, tying up their future revenues, they have their local employees bargaining and negotiating with them for pay increases."

Senator Bluechel: Senator Woody, to clear up a point you made there, this is not intended to be bond after bond after bond. This is intended to be when the original revenue bonds are floated enough additional bonds are issued, a one year basis is what the bond counsel told us, to provide a reserve account. Now, under normal operating business, in practically every company that, major corporation that exists, they use reserve accounts specifically for this purpose. We are not talking in this issue here of issuing new revenue bonds. We are talking about one issue at one time and during that time enough additional bonds are issued to fund the reserve account. There is no additional funding that is being talked about in this bill."

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, Senator Bluechel, I see your analysis when you say 'may include in the amount of such issue funds for the purpose'. Would I be correct in saying if an entity wanted thirty million dollars for a particular project that they might ask for an additional million or two just in case they weren't right about the original, those are the contingencies?"

Senator Bluechel: "No, the bond counsel, in explaining this to us, said when they are looking for, say, thirty million dollars, they might ask for the principal and interest for one year, and that would provide a more secure, not a less secure, but a more secure operation. It is the same thing as when if you are in private industry, you go to the bank, they say, 'Make sure you borrow enough for contingencies when you make a loan, you don't come in short,' and that is what we are talking about is that you take the principal and interest for one additional year and you put that into the original bonds, then the bond counsel makes their appraisal as to the saleability of them."

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2156, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

At 10:22 a.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 12:08 p.m.

NOON SESSION

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2697 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2697, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Mardesich, Rasmussen, Lewis, Henry, Matson, Hayner, Day and Benitz:

On page 5, line 23, insert a new section 5 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Beginning with the November 3, 1981 general election and including any and all subsequent elections at which a school district submits any excess levy to the public, excluding excess levies for capital purposes, the following words shall be appended to the ballot cards, paper ballots, or voting machine next to each levy ballot title:

"The state of Washington currently makes ample provision for the education of all children residing within the state. The passage of this excess levy will provide additional funding for certain special programs, which some residents of this school district believe would further enhance the delivery of quality education. The failure of this excess levy will in no way impact or injure the sound program of basic education which the children now receive."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Mr. President, would Senator Pullen yield? Senator Pullen, I would assume from your rationale on the language of the amendment that you would, indeed, regard this then as a guarantee that the state will amply fund basic education?"

Senator Pullen: "Yes, absolutely."

Senator Ridder: "And that this, then, would be a declaration of intent by the legislature to provide that funding."

Senator Pullen: "That is correct, and I believe that that intent is set forth in the package of bills that we are now passing, and I am certain that this intent will be carried out."

Senator Ridder: "Thank you."

There being no objection, Senator Grant was excused.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2697 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2697, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2376, by Senators Beck, Wanamaker and Bottiger (by Department of Highways request):

Providing that highway and ferry bonds which are authorized and which pledge motor vehicle excise taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall be an equal charge against the revenues of such motor vehicle fuel excise taxes.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Beck, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2376 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2376, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Beck would respond to a question? Senator Beck, I am wondering whether the reference to RCW 48.10.780 through 48.10.788 covers the recent proposals that have been made with respect to the ferries?"

Senator Beck: "It refers to any bill, any bonds which are sold in the future, yes. It makes them a full pledge of the motor vehicle fund."

Senator Mardesich: "I have no recollection with respect to whether we amended in that ferry bill whether there was an amendment with respect to those sections of the code or we added new sections, and if we added new sections, then this guarantee would not apply to your latest ferry bond. I just wonder if we shouldn't check that before we move it out—"

Senator Beck: "—we have not passed the ferry bond bill yet, but we will."

Senator Mardesich: "—I assume."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "The purpose of this contingency bond bill is to have on tap funds, if necessary, because in building bridges and highway projects that extend beyond the biennium there would be a very good chance that these contingency bonds will never be sold. The purpose of this is to assure that there will be financing in the event that two, four or six years down the road when we have big highway projects that are obligated in advance, that in the case the gas tax revenues don't come up to the standard to meet the bills, then these bonds will be sold to take care of those projects. It has nothing to do with the ferries."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "My point is, should not the bonds under the ferry program be under the guarantee as well, and I am not so sure that these sections of the code cover the issue, and I thought perhaps they should be checked out so that they do cover the guarantees that—"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2376 was ordered placed on today's second reading calendar following consideration of Senate Bill No. 3048.

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2851.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2851, by Senators Walgren, Bailey and Donohue:
Revising state employees' insurance and health care.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2851 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2851, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment by Senator Donohue was adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert a new section 1 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 41.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature, recognizing the desirability of maintaining a healthy work force in order to promote the efficiency and productivity of the employees and officials working for the state, declares it to be in the best interest of the state to provide comprehensive health care to state employees and officials and their dependents.

It is therefore the purpose of this chapter to establish health care plans that provide comprehensive health care for all qualified state employees and officials and their dependents, which plans will be funded by the employer to the fullest extent possible."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2851, as amended, was made a special order of business for 3:30 p.m. today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3028.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3028, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Senator Bausch):

Permitting proceeds from port district revenue bonds to be used for funding reserve accounts.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3028. On May 2, 1977, Senator Bluechel substituted Senate Bill No. 3028 for the original bill.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and Bluechel:

On page 1, line 19, after "law" and before the period insert: ": PROVIDED, That no such bond issue may include an amount in excess of fifteen percent thereof for the purpose of establishing, maintaining or increasing reserves as enumerated above"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Senator Mardesich, will you yield? By your statements you said the IRS says that you can only do certain things, then why do you need to cloud up this bill with a thing like that? They are not going to be in violations of IRS laws?"

Senator Mardesich: "The difference is that the IRS rule applies only to that situation in which the funds are invested. If the funds are simply held in reserve without investment and thereby earning an amount of interest, then that prohibition of the IRS would not apply. The amendment is designed to not only protect the tax-free nature of the bond under the IRS provision, but in addition, to provide that there would be no more than fifteen percent placed in reserve. Now, fifteen percent is a lot of money for reserve. It is undoubtedly two to three years of payments, and would be enough to get them over the hump, I am sure."

Senator Talley: "Senator Mardesich, a lot of times you buy a crane, a crane will cost two and a half to three million dollars, and you can't get delivery within thirty-six months, but you are still going to have to vote your bonds and have your money there to pay for it when it does come. I just don't see the need of this amendment at all, just clouds up a good bill."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, in response, this does not prohibit the issuance of the bond, it merely says that you can't issue in excess of fifteen percent more than the amount required to put into a reserve. It aids the bond issue rather than harms it, and at the same time, provides the guarantee that the bond will retain a tax-free status under the fifteen percent rule."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield? As I read your amendment, Senator Mardesich, it is clear to me that the bond issue revenue only is limited to fifteen percent for purposes of establishing, maintaining or increasing those reserves. It would be possible, as I read your amendment, to increase those reserves to more than fifteen percent by revenues other than those generated from the sale of bonds."

Senator Mardesich: "That would be true to the extent of revenue collected in excess of bond service requirements, so that it is not a lid in that respect."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Guess was excused.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Gaspard, Grant and Ridder were excused.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3028 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3028, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Goltz, Gould, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—42.

Absent or not voting: Senators Hayner, Sellar—2.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Gaspard, Grant, Guess, Ridder—5.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3028, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2949.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2949, by Senators Bottiger, Newschwander and Henry: Implementing the gambling act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2949, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendment by Senators Wilson, Bottiger and Wanamaker was adopted:

On page 1, following line 28, insert a new paragraph as follows:

"The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping of or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment engaged in the business of selling food or beverages for consumption on the premises to determine which of the participants will pay for certain items of food or beverages served or sold by such establishment and therein consumed. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises, but only for use in such limited wagering. Persons engaged in such limited form of wagering shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided for in this chapter."

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 9, line 34, after "this section" and before ";", insert "other than any agricultural fair referred to thereunder"

On page 10, section 1, line 5 after "thousand dollars" and before "; (b)" insert "during the total calendar days of such fund raising event in the calendar year"

On motion of Senator Wanamaker, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 14, section 2, line 3 after "to" strike all matter through "subsection," on line 4 and insert: "wagering as described in subsection (6), sports pools as described in subsection (7),"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Hayner and Sellar were excused.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, that first amendment that you adopted, if I were to take the Senators out for dinner some night, apparently there is no restriction on the size of the charge that I could roll the dice for. If I took all the Senators here and the bill came to, you know, three or four hundred dollars, I could still roll the dice for it apparently under this provision of the amendment?"

Senator Wilson: "There is no monetary limit."

Senator Rasmussen: Thank you. I am not going to take the Senators to dinner, though."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Wilson would yield? Senator Wilson, if I bought a sandwich and I said to the bartender, 'I will shoot you double or nothing,' would that be legal?"

Senator Wilson: "I believe it would under terms of this amendment."

Senator Talley: "It would be legal under the terms of this amendment."

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 13; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Waigren, Wilson, Woody—28.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Gould, Jones, Mardesich, McDermott, North, Pullen, Scott, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Wojahn—13.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Donohue, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Ridder, Sellar—7.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2949, having failed to receive the constitutional sixty percent majority, was declared lost.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Point of inquiry. Does this take a fifty percent constitutional majority or a sixty percent?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Pullen, in answer to your inquiry, the President appreciates your calling the matter to the attention of the body and the President. As per amendment fifty-six of the Constitution, 'Lotteries shall be prohibited except as specifically authorized upon the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the members of each House of the Legislature.'

"Therefore, your inquiry was quite in order. The passage of this particular bill requires a sixty percent majority."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, on motion of Senator Wojahn, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949 failed to pass the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, as I look at this, it is kind of hard to understand what we are doing with regard to the controls over professional gamblers. My observation of those Reno nights at Elks Clubs and so forth is that they were all handled in the past, that is, in the good old days, as some people put it, by people who spent virtually all of their time traveling from club to club around the state operating roulette wheels and card games and so forth.

"Is there a provision in here that protects us from the professional gamblers in this type of operation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Francis, I am trying to find the exact words. When I read it earlier this morning, I found that only actual members of the charitable organization could on line nine on page ten, 'Only bona fide members of the organization who are not paid for such services shall participate in the management or operation of the activities,' so you can't even hire somebody to do this for you. You have got to do it within your own club members.

"It seems to me that that is the kind of protection to keep the roving professional out."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2949, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the bill passed the Senate, on reconsideration, by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Wilson, Woody—32.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Gould, Jones, Mardesich, McDermott, North, Pullen, Scott, von Reichbauer, Washington, Wojahn—12.

Absent or not voting: Senators Fleming, Rasmussen—2.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Grant, Guess—3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2949, having received the constitutional sixty percent majority, on reconsideration, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3071, by Senator Peterson:

Extending and updating the commercial fishing gear reduction program.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3071, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 29, after "the" strike "appropriate" and insert "((appropriate))"

On page 3, line 7, after "all" strike "appropriate" and insert "((appropriate))"

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Peterson yield? I remember when we passed the bill the first time, and after the first round of buy back, some of the boats that were bought from fishermen appeared back on the fishing fleet of other owners, and are still fishing in Puget Sound waters, as I understand it. Would that be possible under this act, that fishing boats bought back could appear back on the Puget Sound waters for fishing?"

Senator Peterson: "Not in our fishery. Under the original bill there weren't, and I don't know what you are referring to. If some other fisherman has a license, already has his license, it could be possible that way, but it is specifically stated out in the law that it is not to reenter our fishery. There was a court ruling after we passed this bill that the Indians would be permitted, and that is still in adjudication and being contested, but to this date the Indians have not exercised that right, and to my knowledge, they haven't entered into this buy back program at all."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, the intent of this law is to cut down the number of fishermen. Now if this man has rights in Puget Sound, rights in Willapa, and rights in the Columbia River, and we buy out his boat and gear, and he goes out and only sells one license, shouldn't it be the intent of the department to acquire all of his rights?"

Senator Peterson: "I wish the bill was written in that manner, however, I don't think it is, and I am not too sure what the federal law is when they allocated this money to the buy back program, and whether or not we could do this at this time or not I am not sure."

"I would like to look into it, and if that is possible perhaps we can get it on in the House. I feel this is a necessary program that we should continue in order to cut down as much as possible the user groups that have licenses, and that in effect, is what it does and it also goes hand in hand with the moratorium that this body has passed as far as the issuance of new licenses. It is just an enhancement of the moratorium bill, and I would hope that we can support it, and continue it at least for the money that is left available to us to get the fishermen that wish to get out of the market, out of it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Peterson yield, please? Senator Peterson, does the department have the power to rights and regulations relative to the sale of these boats?"

Senator Peterson: "The power of what?"

Senator Lewis: "To rights and regulations, or what I am concerned about is that I have been told, and I do not know how authoritatively, that some of these boats have been purchased from a fisherman and resold at a very substantial bargain price to another member of the family of such fisherman. Now, I am wondering if there should be anything in here to preclude that happening. I mean, even though they are federal dollars, they are still taxpayers' dollars. That kind of a rip off is not intended, but apparently it has happened I have been told."

Senator Peterson: "There may be an isolated instance where a boat may have been sold at a lower price than what may be considered market value, however these boats are not sold at the discretion of the department of fisheries price fee. They are sold on the basis of the marine surveyor's figures, and the seller has the option when he puts his boat up to the department of fisheries for sale of bringing his own marine surveyor in to establish the value of his boat.

"There are instances where boats may have been sold to some fisherman that has decided not to fish any more, at perhaps lower than the market value, but if that market value is lower, it was established by a legitimate, licensed marine surveyor, not the department of fisheries. So, I think it is as legal and as upright as it can be."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2405, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Senator McDermott):

Mandating rules and regulations for voluntary transfer of students between school in same school district.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405. On May 2, 1977, the bill had been returned to second reading and held for further consideration today.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and McDermott was adopted:

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator McDermott, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2405 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, several of us who represent the rural areas have small school districts where there might only be one grade school, or one high school, or maybe the one grade school has only one grade level of each grade, or it might have two classes of each grade. Is there anything in this bill that would mandate those districts to have to take the time to establish rules and regulations even if they wouldn't really come under this bill?"

Senator McDermott: "No. We wrote the bill so that small school districts that do not have these kinds of options because of the size of the school district, would not have to write the rules and regulations. The original bill did mandate that all districts write rules, but we got opposition to that approach, and so we said that the people could make application, and if a district has it, then they could do it."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield? A thought just occurred to me, Senator McDermott, that where a pupil might request a transfer to a school which would require extraordinary transportation network, and to get students going back and forth across the district to the schools they prefer, is there any obligation on the part of the district to provide transportation where transportation would otherwise be provided?"

Senator McDermott: "In section 2 of this bill, Senator Goltz, it says, 'Nothing in this section shall be deemed to modify the provisions of Chapter 28A.24 relating to school transportation,' and that says that you can't force the school district to give you transportation if you request to move to a school outside of your normal service area."

Further debate ensued.

Extending and updating the commercial fishing gear reduction program.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3071.

ROLL CALL

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2654.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2654, by Senator Bottiger:

Relating to state environmental policy act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2654 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2654, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Woody and Newschwander:

On page 2, beginning on line 4, strike all of subsection (i) and insert:

"(i) Mailing to the latest recorded real property owners, as shown by the records of the county treasurer, who share a common boundary line with the property upon which the project is proposed through United States mail, first class, postage prepaid."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, in looking at this amendment, would you include someone who is directly across the street—in other words, you have the street rather than a boundary between your properties, and would you include someone whose property is diagonal. In other words, you only have a point. That's the corner of your property as being on a common boundary."

Senator Woody: "Yes, it would because in both instances there is an underlying title that does touch. In the street situation, there is an underlying right up to the middle of the street to the title in the event that the street is vacated, and it passes with the title to the land in the event of a transfer. Where the apex, that is the point so to speak, of one land touching the point of the other, they are still abutting. They are still touching each other, and they would be considered to be abutting land owners."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 18, strike all of subsection (5).

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, if under section 5 as it is currently constituted, subsection 5, if the legislature failed to act prior to September 1, 1979—I assume that means the regular session two years from now—"

Senator Washington: "Give some additional time after that, however"

Senator Mardesich: "I would assume that it would have to be a special session. But if the legislature failed to act before the end of the next regular session, what would be the law with respect to notices in these cases, then? We would have none."

Senator Washington: "Then we would go back to new section 3 which reenacts the present act. I mean, this is the way that the code reviser points out that you have to do if you try the sunshine approach. One, you provide that the—well, sunshine, sunset—. This bill of course, has some sunshine. We are putting a little light on the subject, but the sunset provision would expire, and then immediately section 3 would come into being, putting the present law back into effect. If you will look at section 5, 'This section shall take effect on September second, nineteen seventy-nine.'

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Woody to page 4, beginning on line 31 on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, line 2, after "codes" insert ". In the case of counties with a population of less than seventy thousand people and cities with a population of less than thirty-seven thousand people, such conditions or denials made more than three years from the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act shall also be based upon policies developed by the appropriate local governmental authority and incorporated into resolutions, regulations, ordinances, plans, or codes"

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, strike all of lines 11 and 12.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, beginning on line 13, strike all of section 3.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, insert a new section 3 as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 179, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.21C-.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any action involving an attack on a determination by a governmental agency relative to the requirement or the absence of the requirement, or the adequacy of a "detailed statement", the decision of the governmental agency shall be accorded substantial weight.

(2) Notwithstanding any applicable provision of chapter 34.04 RCW, in any action involving attack on a determination by a governmental agency relative to the requirement or the absence of a requirement for a "detailed statement", the decision of a governmental agency shall be reversed only if the decision is determined to have been arbitrary and capricious in light of the record before the decision maker of the governmental agency and in light of any mitigating measures which have been incorporated in the proposed action.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment starting on page 5 changes the scope and object of the bill 2654 in violation of rule 60.

"Speaking on the point of order, Senate Bill 2654 is a very narrow bill in its scope. It relates only to procedural matters, and those procedural matters relate only to local government, and as far as local government is concerned, to the legislative and to the administrative or executive. Pardon me, there are some areas also that could relate to state government, but again, also relating only to the administrative side of state government.

"The amendment, however, of Senator Woody, completely changes the scope and object of the bill by relating to the judiciary and would make a very radical change in the method of appeals of SEPA provisions. At the present time an act can be appealed on under the administrative procedures act and under general law on the basis that the act of the administrative officer or the administrative agency is clearly erroneous and there is a second ground upon which an appeal may be raised on the basis of arbitrary and capricious. Senator Woody's amendment would change that, and would prevent the court from considering on appeal the very important issue of whether or not the action taken by the governmental agency is clearly erroneous. It is a provision that would only relate during an appeal to a court. It relates only to the judiciary, and I would like to call your attention. I have here before me the administrative procedures act, and under subsection 6, it provides for a number of grounds of appeal. This would eliminate all of those grounds except the last one which is '(f) arbitrary and capricious.' It would eliminate number (e) and particularly what we are interested in, the clearly erroneous argument, the clearly erroneous provision.

"So, what Senator Woody is doing is changing a bill which is very restricted as far as its scope is concerned, to a very broad action extending clear into the supreme court, the courts of appeals and the superior court."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2654, as amended, together with the amendment by Senator Woody and the Point of Order by Senator Washington, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for May 4, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3039.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3039, by Senators Bottiger and Mardesich:

Taxing attorney's fees against the state in certain civil actions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 8, after "party." strike the balance of the bill.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3039 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I feel strongly that this is a good type approach to the subject. As a matter of fact, I proposed a similar bill with respect to claims of an insured against insurance companies. That bill is still in committee, but it is the same theory, and perhaps that bill is even a fairer bill because you have paid for insurance coverage. If you had a loss, then you should be allowed to recover the amount of your loss, and not give half of it to an attorney. So, in that bill it would provide that an insured where he sues his company would recover the fees. This is a slightly different situation.

"You have heard Senator Bottiger's approach and you have heard the response by Senator Clarke. I still feel that this is a fair measure because the state, the government, is in a position to bring almost overbearing pressures by virtue of the ability and the finances which they have to draw upon to harass people, and don't tell me it doesn't happen. I am not suggesting it happens in my case, but don't tell me it doesn't.

"As Senator Bottiger pointed out, the case of a man who is trying to get a—a is it a zoning problem—solved to build a home, and he is extended already simply because it has become a cause with him, some sixteen thousand dollars which is going to go down the drain.

"The personal privilege to which I address myself is the question as to whether this bill would affect the current cause of action which the attorney general has against me. I suspect that it would, and for that reason I would refrain unless directed by the President, from voting on the measure, and secondly, would be more than happy to forgo any claim for costs and attorney's fees and will do so if this bill should become law."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? What will be the effect of this bill if it passes on suits by the attorney general in consumer fraud cases? I am asking also if it might not act as somewhat of a damper on the activities of the attorney general in vigorously prosecuting consumer fraud in face of this bill."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Washington, I think that there would be a review procedure established. If there was a good chance of winning, the action would be brought. If it was lost, despite the good chance, the attorney general would have to pay the businessman or whoever was being charged with 'consumer fraud.' On the other hand if the state won, there is usually attorney fees awarded to the state inasmuch as treble damages in consumer fraud. So, we haven't asked for three times the attorney fees, we have only asked for the single time. I can expand that and tell you how we used to do it."

Senator Washington: "I think you have answered that question. Now it also occurs to me that we are going to have some difficulties because we are establishing a number of new offenses that used to be criminal. We now call them civil, and in order to handle that, I feel, again very possibly, that a prosecutor should not have this in the back of his mind in determining whether or not to take action of these civil offenses, and I think it is a good way that we are going, but I have some fears for this bill."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Washington, I will interpret that as a question. First of all, the prosecutor isn't involved. It is actions by the state, so we are not talking about a prosecutor. The attorney general does have some criminal authority, and this bill does not apply to criminal cases, it applies to civil suits. It would appear to me that in the area of consumer fraud—I headed the Tacoma office of the attorney general's consumer fraud division. Before we brought a suit, three attorneys had to review and determine that it was probable that we should bring it. In other words, you had to have a good case built. Before we brought it, we called the person in on a cease and desist order, an informal one, and if we didn't get any satisfaction, we brought a formal proceedings, absent going to court, to avoid the necessity of filing charges. You file a charge under the consumer fraud action, you cut off all the person's credit; no bank will touch him. You completely destroy his business. I think a return to the old system is well in order."

Further debate ensued.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, what is the fiscal impact of this bill for this biennium?"

Senator Rasmussen: "It has no fiscal impact. The total cost is $57,777.00."

Senator Odegaard: "That is for this biennium?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, and that is not state money. That is LEAA up until the end of 1977. There will probably be LEAA funds available beyond this time, but not the increased moneys that pass through here, doubling the amount that they could withdraw out of local tax moneys that are supposed to fund this."

Senator Odegaard: "What will happen, Senator Rasmussen, if the LEAA funds are terminated, or is the state going to be expected to pick this cost up?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Not the state, the counties."

Senator Odegaard: "The counties will?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That is correct."

Senator Odegaard: "Will all counties have revenues for that purpose—sufficient?"

Senator Rasmussen: "What was it—I think Senator North could tell us. What was the total amount of money that would be raised by that increase, $125,000?"

Senator North: "Yes, I believe that is correct. The LEAA grant does expire, and it is not renewable, so we will be looking at this as it comes down the road, and it will be a question as to whether it is state funding or whether it is up to the counties, and that is a policy decision that the Senate will have to face in the future."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator North."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? From what I have seen here, the prosecuting attorneys are doing a pretty fair job of representing themselves in the legislature on an as needed basis now. Why do we need to get into this situation?"

Senator Rasmussen: "This is a pilot program financed by the LEAA funds. All of the prosecutors that appeared before the state government committee, and there were numerous prosecutors, said that the assistance that was rendered by this central office was invaluable to them in the operation of their offices, and the committee was convinced that it was a worthwhile organization to set up."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, in response to Senator Scott's question, I think the testimony in state government committee brought out that the services that will be offered by this group is greater than would be considered by other elected officials at the county level. In other words, they help prepare briefs for those smaller counties, that perhaps, have not had experience in certain highly technical areas. They help in advisory and consultation work with them, and I think it is specifically needed for the prosecuting attorney."

ROLL CALL

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3066, on reconsideration, was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for May 4, 1977.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2512.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2512, by Senators von Reichbauer, Ridder and Murray:

Giving preference to the acquisition of historic landmarks for public needs.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 2512 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator von Reichbauer yield? Senator von Reichbauer, I am looking at section 2, on page 1, lines 15 through 20. Starting on the end of line 17, it says 'these buildings which meet the needs of elected state officials, institutions, departments, commissions or other state agencies.' Who is to decide whether they meet the needs of the elected officials, of the state agencies, of the legislature? Is that the park director who will decide and then direct us if we are going to have our offices in a historic site, across town, or do we, as elected officials, have some say, and I am not certain what this does and therefore I ask the question."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, in answering Senator Mardesich, I think that it is clear that the director of the department of general administration will make the recommendations, but I think it has no manner of infringement upon our responsibilities or our prerogatives in determining what buildings we want."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator von Reichbauer yield to a question? I am looking at line 5 where it says that the director of the state parks and recreation commission—it says on this 'only the director'. It doesn't provide that the commission shall adopt those recommendations. It says the director, he determines what is a historic building, identifies it in writing and then it goes on further down that the director of the department of general administration—it doesn't say he may. It says 'shall' give preference to the purchase, lease or rent of the historic architectural—my question is, why do we give that authority to the director, that he drives around and makes a survey and determines this is a building that he thinks is something that should be historic. It doesn't provide anybody else to review it. That is rather broad powers."

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, if I may, Senator Rasmussen, if you will read the rest of that line, on line 7 it says, 'that are designated or eligible for designation on the state or national registers of historic places as historical architectural cultural landmarks and would be suitable.' There are certain specifications that have to be met for buildings to be so designated. There is, as you know, a national commission. The secretary of state of Washington serves on that commission, and there are certain requirements that have to be met, so I don't think you are at the mercy of the parks director to go out and just designate any such buildings. They do have to meet certain standards."

Senator Rasmussen: "But Senator Lewis, it doesn't say that after they have been designated, it says 'or eligible for,' and I think there is a lot of difference."

Senator Murray: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would just like to—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I didn't ask all of these other Senators, I was only asking Senator von Reichbauer."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Rasmussen, Senator Ridder and Senator Murray are also cosponsors of the measure, and Senator Lewis is a member of the committee, and I am always willing to yield the floor to them."

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, I would just like to point out if we are going to quote from the bill itself, in section 2, it says, 'the director of the department of administration shall give preference,' etc., but it also goes down and says, 'which meet the needs of elected state officials, institutions,' et cetera, or 'unless the space would not be as feasible and prudent as the use of available alternatives,' so unless it meets, in effect, a prudent rule, and unless it is as good as another alternative, why it wouldn't apply. Only if all things are equal, shall this historic building get preference."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator von Reichbauer yield? Senator von Reichbauer, in section 1, it talks about 'whether or not in need of repair or alteration'. Do you have any idea of what the cost impact might be if this bill were to pass?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "This bill has no fiscal impact because it would be up to the general administration to determine some buildings that would be included in any budget they would have, and they would determine any repair as well as purchase of any new building sites."

Senator Odegaard: "You don't happen to know what that list might be—"

Senator von Reichbauer: "This is just permissive language for them to do this, and I would point out, Senator Odegaard, the language 'as is prudent' is clearly defined there in the section, and I think this is definitely a mandate by the legislature to the department of general administration as well as to the department of state parks and recreation to be prudent in the choice of these sites. The idea, of course, is to use these historical sites that this state abounds with, and by that use, hopefully preserve them whether they be old forts, or building sites in Seattle, or out in the outskirts of our great state."

Senator Murray: "I would like to point out to Senator Odegaard that section 2 still applies. Number one, they have to establish the need for the building and its use, and the cost could not be more than the alternative, so, you know, nobody can tell how much it is going to cost, but it could not cost more than what you are going to spend on another alternative."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Hayner yield? Senator Hayner, when I was passing by the corner there, a moment ago, you related an incident over in your area with respect to historical sites. Would you repeat that story for the benefit of the whole Senate?"

Senator Hayner: "Well, it was rather interesting because I came in contact with a situation that occurred in Walla Walla. I didn't realize it was so easy to have a building placed on the historical record. If you walk down the street and you see a building that you think is kind of an antique, and you like the looks of it, all you have to do as an individual is write to the conservator here in this state and ask that that be put on the register of the state as an historical building, and he comes over with several people and looks at the building and makes a determination of whether or not indeed it should be, and if he thinks that it should, it goes on the register. He can then apply that it be placed on the national register, and you may be occupying the building, and it may be put on the national register.

"What happened in Walla Walla was a particular building right in the middle of town was put on the national register. It was then sold to a bank that wanted to put a new building up. They got permission from the federal government. They had to have a permit from them, although they were not asking for any money, and they began tearing the building down, whereupon the group that had given it the national registration said that they could not tear it down. They had a lawsuit between two of the federal agencies, as a matter of fact. But the building was already down by that time, so that there was not much they could do about it, but it was a lesson in the fact that if you really want to get a building on the register, it really is very easy to do so.

"Then you are somewhat limited in what you can do if you have to have any permits from the federal government because they will deny them if it is on the national record, on the national historic record."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 2512 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for May 4, 1977.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—43.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2638, by Senator Day:

Relating to on-site sewage systems.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2638 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2638, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Day, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2638 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator, when you say this bill won't cost anything, I assume you are talking about DSHS."

Senator Day: "I am talking about that there is no appropriation in here for any additional development or that type of thing. All they will have to do is hold a public hearing and adopt rules relative to the technical knowledge that they presently have about alternative systems, and as they develop, of course, they can add them as available alternatives for the local authorities to utilize."

Senator Wilson: "Right. My question is, has there been any cost estimate as to what this will cost the county governments in terms of the work that their people will have to do?"

Senator Day: "They are already having the problem of the failures, and in some areas there are no viable alternatives. It shouldn't cost them any more than they are presently spending except that when they put one of these waterless units in, for example, it will eliminate their having to run out to inspect where sewage is coming to the surface, et cetera, Senator, so that there should not be any additional cost to local government with this bill. It gives them the right to choose an alternative that the department has said is an acceptable alternative. That is the only change, really."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, I very much support this idea of the alternative system because in our county we no longer have it, but on a quick reading of the bill, it looks like it only applies to existing facilities where they have failed. Is there anything in the bill that would apply to sites that will not, and cannot pass a perk test to allow that site to construct and have an alternative system?"

Senator Day: "Yes, it is my understanding that the department already has that authority. Really, what the bill does is to say to the department, 'Let's get busy and extend what you have already done in recognizing viable alternatives.' This does, in addition, for replacement purposes give the local authorities the needed law so that they can waive some of the plumbing codes, and I believe that would also apply to a new installation. That is the intent."

MOTION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:15 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3024.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3024, by Senators Peterson, Talley and Wanamaker:
Establishing a new policy of fisheries for the state.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3024 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3024, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 24, after "meal" insert ": PROVIDED, That edible food fish shall not be used for animal or fish feed"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, I agree with your philosophy on your amendment, however are you not opening the door with your amendment, then, to say that the department can go back and further the sale of edible fish to canneries which, in effect, competes with our commercial fishermen?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, Senator Peterson, I am not saying anything about that. With our present harvesting techniques that we have we hope, we are very hopeful that we will not have that surplus. What they do is they give away the carcasses to the Indians, and in particular the Puyallup tribe, I forget how many thousand fish that were given to the Indians this year, and I just want to make sure that we are leaving that open so that they can supply edible food fish."

Senator Peterson: "I appreciate what you are trying to do, but I think you are opening a Pandora's box here, and I think, Senator Rasmussen, that the language of the bill on page 1, line 22 'To the extent feasible, all available salmon and salmon carcasses. . . shall be diverted to animal and fish feed and/or fish meal,' but if your amendment is added on here, that would mean, in effect, that all of the edible fish, whoever makes that determination could go on the open market. This is one of the things that we have been trying to avoid and been trying to get away from for a number of years, and I don't think that this language is going to accomplish what you want it to do."

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was adopted:

On line 3 of the Rasmussen amendment to page 1, line 24, after "used" insert "exclusively"

REMARKS BY SENATOR PETERSON

Senator Peterson: "I just want to make it clear to the body and have it inserted into the record that we are certainly not by this amendment opening it up for the department of fisheries to sell surplus fish on the open market in competition with the existing user groups. This is what we have been trying to get away from, and with that understanding, I will support the amendment."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3024 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, would we distribute these court documents at cost or at enough money to come out on it? This is the thing that bothers me. If you are going to put the state printer, and having seen some of the state printer's bills, I very much doubt whether he can come under what the book printers are doing, because his charges are way outside of the normal."

Senator Francis: "Senator Guess, I don't know about the state printer's involvement in it except that right now they are printed by the state printer, and sold and distributed by Bancroft-Whitney, so the question really is how much of a markup is needed to handle the distribution itself, and we are planning to do it by means of a revolving fund so that as the attorneys and the libraries and the other people pay in, that will be used to pay for the distribution in future years, and we think we can get that cost down quite a bit. It does not go to the printing itself."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "Will Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, in new section 2, on line 27 on the first page, it refers to an RCW, it says shall not be applicable to any of the moneys received or collected. Does that mean, then, that we are not going to be able to attribute those funds to the actual collections for these moneys in this new system?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Buffington, I would have to look at that. I know that the answer to your question is 'no'. As you recall, in the committee we were setting up a revolving fund. This does not prevent that."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2465, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 4.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2906, by Senator Fleming:
Expanding the right to be free from discrimination.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Francis, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2906, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Francis, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, I recently read in the newspaper where NOW, I don't know what that stands for, but NOW organization indicated that they were going out and boycott all of those merchants or legislators that were in any way involved in the ERA fight. Would this now make what their declared purpose is illegal? They adopted this by resolution at their convention."

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, I think if you read carefully the substitute bill which is floor number 645 in your book, it says, 'The discriminatory boycotts or blacklists for purposes of this section shall be defined as the formation or execution of any express or implied agreement under standing policy or contractual arrangement for economic benefit between any persons which is not specifically authorized by the laws of the United States, and which is required or imposed either directly or indirectly overtly or covertly by a foreign government or foreign person in order to restrict, condition, prohibit or interfere with, or in order to exclude any person or persons from any business relationship on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin or lawful business relationship,' and then it says, 'provided however, that it won't apply to bona fide labor disputes,' I think, then, that as you read that, you will see that the answer to your question is 'no,' it would not apply to an organization within the United States such as NOW."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Francis, when you threw sex in there, you made it clear that it did apply to that, and they could not discriminate. I think this is a good bill and should be passed."

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, maybe you weren't paying attention, but that is in addition. It also has to be by a foreign government or a foreign person in every case, and in addition, they have to be excluding on the basis of race, color, et cetera, et cetera, so that those are conjunctive."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "May I ask a question? Senator Francis, what business is the state getting into this problem? I thought this was a federal problem with the state department and the President in their relationship, and when are we starting to negotiate and set laws up . . . what business is it of the state? Why not let the new President and the secretary of state solve the problem, because I know it is a great concern at the federal level. I am just wondering what we are getting into it for."

Senator Francis: "Senator Newschwander, that thought was expressed in committee also, and the members finally concluded that we have a right and a duty to protect the business people of this state at least as far as making the laws of this state quite clear that people in this state have a right to do business where they wish without some of the kinds of boycotts that have been proposed and imposed, not only directly of those businesses, but of their suppliers and of other people who have done business with them. So, we just made a decision that as far as we are concerned, the business people in this state can choose who they are going to do business with. I am sure there will be other speakers on this bill who will go into that at more length."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Lewis moved the rules be suspended and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 be returned to second reading.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Lewis failed on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Mr. President, just one question of Senator Francis if he would yield. The language on line 4, 'foreign person', could that conceivably mean an illegal alien?"

Senator Francis: "Before I answer that I want to know, if I say 'yes' will that get you to vote for the bill? 'Yes', that is my answer, Mr. President."

Establishing an office for coordination and assistance to prosecuting attorneys.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the rules were suspended, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 3066 was returned to second reading.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, following line 3, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The office of prosecution coordination shall not receive any appropriation of state of Washington funds for any purpose whatsoever."

Renumber the following sections.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, I don't see any punishment or penalty in there in your amendment. I am just wondering if, say, the 1978 or 1979 legislature should appropriate money for this, do we go to jail or just what happens if we do actually go ahead and violate this statute and appropriate money to these people?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I would presume, Senator Francis, with the wisdom and the ability of the attorneys that we have on this floor, working in committee, that they would become aware of that section of the law, and if they decided to grant moneys through the appropriation process in their committees, and it came to Senator Donohue's committee, appropriation, ways and means, that he would catch it if they didn't, so you would not be violating the law. I have a lot of confidence in the attorneys on this floor and the chairman of ways and means."

Senator Francis: "I take it also, Mr. President, that if Senator Donohue and a majority of the members of the legislature want to appropriate money in some future biennium, they could also with the same number of votes, repeal this section quite easily."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I was just wondering if the state is not going to help fund this when the LEAA funds run out, which I understand they will do. If this amendment were adopted, who is going to pay for it then, Senator Rasmussen?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Odegaard, we passed through the Senate a bill that was doubling the amount that—. The county officials' association, I forget the right name of it, they are going to have double the amount of money, and part of that was to go to assist in this effort, the local funds."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 7, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The office of prosecution coordination shall cease to exist on March 31, 1979, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Point of inquiry, Mr. President. I understand that at 4:00 p.m. today we can no longer consider Senate bills. Would a motion such as this have put the bill if it were called up just before four o'clock, would such a motion have put the bill in a posture for action after the four o'clock closing?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes so, Senator Mardesich."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved the motion by Senator Marsh be made a special order of business for 3:55 p.m. today.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Matter of parliamentary inquiry. I would assume if that is made a special order of business, then the entire bill, including final passage if the body so desired to act, would also continue beyond the four o'clock deadline."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is true, Senator Clarke. The President has always believed that once consideration has been started upon a bill, that it should be completed."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "As I understand the motion, the motion is to move the bill to judiciary, it is not to hear the bill at three fifty-five. If the motion to move the bill to judiciary is considered at three fifty-five, what effect would this have? Would the bill be before us if we did not move it to judiciary at that time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The bill would be before the Senate for disposition at the pleasure of the members of the Senate."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Would it be permissible to change the amendment to state—make Senate Bill 2744 a special order of business at three fifty-five?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that inasmuch as Senate Bill 2744 would be before the Senate at three fifty-five as a special order of business, the fate of the bill would be determined by the members of the Senate. The President believes that the members of the Senate could determine whatever they wish in regard to the bill."

The motion by Senator Marsh, as amended by Senator Mardesich, that Senate Bill No. 2744 be referred to the Judiciary Committee was made a special order of business for 3:55 p.m. today.

SECOND READING

On motion of Senator Henry, the following amendment by Senators Henry, Walgren, Beck, Bottiger, Wanamaker, Guess, von Reichbauer, Rasmussen and Bluechel was adopted:

On page 1, on line 19, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state toll bridge authority shall, no later than January 1, 1980, elect to negotiate a contract with any shipbuilding firm, which has prequalified under section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries. Whenever the toll bridge authority begins such negotiations, it shall proceed in the manner provided by this section.

(2) Whenever the Washington state toll bridge authority decides to procure one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries by negotiated contract pursuant to this section, it shall determine the number of vessels to be constructed, the money available for these purposes, any performance criteria or requirements which the boat, as constructed, must meet, and any other information related to the procurement which the toll bridge authority deems pertinent.

(3) Whenever the toll bridge authority elects to negotiate a contract for the design and/or construction of one or more ferry vessels, it shall publish a notice of its intent to negotiate such a contract once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in one trade paper and one other paper, both of general circulation in the state. The notice shall contain, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) The number of ferry vessels to be built, their vehicular and passenger capacity, and the proposed delivery date for each vessel;

(b) A short summary of the requirements for prequalification contained in section 2 of this 1977 amendatory act, including a statement explaining that prequalification is a prerequisite to consideration by the toll bridge authority of any ferry vessel proposal;

(c) An address and telephone number which may be used to obtain the application forms for prequalification and the request for proposal.

(4) The authority shall send to any firm which shall request it and to any firm known to the authority which has previously expressed an interest in constructing ferries for the Washington state ferry system a request for proposal outlining the design and construction requirements for the ferry vessels. The request for proposal shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) Solicitation of a proposal which provides complete design specifications and details sufficient for the construction of ferry vessels which meet or exceed performance criteria specified by the authority;

(b) The number of vessels to be contracted for;

(c) The proposed delivery date for each vessel, the port on Puget Sound where delivery will be taken, and the location where acceptance trials will be held;

(d) The maximum funds which can be expended for procurement and an explanation that no proposal will be considered which quotes a price greater than that amount;

(e) The amount of the contractor's bond;

(f) A copy of any contract plans and specifications for ferry vessels possessed by the department of highways which the authority determines might be useful to firms in preparing proposals;

(g) The date by which proposals for ferry vessel design and construction must be received by the authority in order to be considered;

(h) A requirement that all designs submitted shall conform to the American bureau of shipping and the United States coast guard standards for the design of passenger vessels;

(i) A statement that any proposal submitted shall constitute an offer and shall remain open until ninety days after the deadline for submitting proposals, unless the firm submitting it shall withdraw it by formal written notice received by the toll bridge authority prior to the authority's selection of the firm submitting the most advantageous proposal; and

(j) A copy of chapter 47.60 RCW.

(5) The authority shall evaluate all timely proposals received from prequalified firms for compliance with the requirements specified in the request for proposal, and, in addition, shall estimate the operation and maintenance costs of each firm's vessel design by applying appropriate criteria developed by the authority for this purpose.

(6) Upon concluding its evaluation, the toll bridge authority shall:

(a) Select the firm presenting the proposal most advantageous to the state, taking into consideration the requirements stated in the request for proposal and the in-state preference provided in section 8 of this 1977 amendatory act, and rank the remaining firms in order of preference, judging them by the same standards; or

(b) Reject all proposals as not in compliance with the requirements contained in the request for proposals.

The authority shall immediately notify those firms, which were not selected as the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal, of the authority's decision. The authority's decision shall be conclusive unless appeal therefrom shall be taken by an aggrieved firm to the superior court of Thurston county within five days after receiving notice of the authority's final decision. The appeal shall be heard summarily within ten days after the same is taken and on five days notice thereof to the toll bridge authority. The court shall hear any such appeal on the administrative record which was before the authority. The court may affirm the decision of the authority or it may reverse the decision if it determines the action of the authority is arbitrary or capricious.

(7) Upon selecting that firm which has presented the most advantageous proposal and ranking the remaining firms in order of preference, the authority shall:

(a) Negotiate a contract with the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal; or

(b) In the event that a final agreement cannot be negotiated with the firm presenting the most advantageous proposal which is satisfactory to the authority, the authority may then negotiate with the firm ranked next highest in order of preference. Should it be necessary, the authority may repeat this procedure and negotiate with each firm in order of rank until the list of firms has been exhausted.

(8) In negotiating such a contract for the design and/or construction of ferry vessels, the authority may, subject to the provisions of RCW 39.25.020, authorize the use of foreign made materials and components in the construction of ferries in order to minimize costs.

(9) The authority may delegate any of the powers or duties conferred upon it by this section to the department of highways, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 47.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington state toll bridge authority shall require any firm desiring to contract for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries to prequalify for such work in the manner prescribed herein. The authority shall supply to such person, firm, or corporation a standard form of questionnaire and financial statement applicable to shipbuilders, including a complete statement of the financial ability and experience of such firm in shipbuilding. Such questionnaire shall be sworn to before a notary public. The authority shall certify as prequalified for the construction of ferry vessels only those firms which have all of the following requirements:

(1) Adequate financial resources or the ability to secure such resources;

(2) The necessary experience, organization, and technical qualifications to construct ferry vessels;

(3) The ability to comply with the required performance schedule taking into consideration all of the firm's existing business commitments;

(4) A satisfactory record of performance, integrity, judgment, and skills; and

(5) Be otherwise qualified and eligible to construct ferry vessels under applicable laws and regulations.

A refusal by the authority to certify a firm as prequalified to construct ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries shall be conclusive unless appeal therefrom to the superior court of Thurston county be taken within five days after receiving notice thereof, which appeal shall be heard summarily within ten days after the appeal is taken and on five days' notice thereof to the authority. The court shall hear any such appeal on the administrative record which was before the authority. The court may affirm the decision of the authority or it may reverse the decision if it determines the action of the authority is arbitrary or capricious. A firm may reapply for certification after one year has elapsed from the date certification was denied.

The Washington state toll bridge authority may delegate to the department of highways any of the powers or duties conferred upon the authority by this section, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 39.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The contractor's bond required by chapter 39.08 RCW in connection with any negotiated contract for the construction of one or more ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries shall be in an amount to be specified by the Washington state toll bridge authority in the request for proposal provided for in section 1 of this 1977 amendatory act. In no event shall the bond be for more than twenty-five percent of the total contract price of two or more ferry vessels nor more than fifty percent of the total contract price for a single vessel. In determining and fixing the amount of such bond the authority may take into account the financial resources required of all firms which prequalify to construct ferry vessels for the Washington state ferries, the number of vessels which may be constructed, and the time period in which the vessels are to be constructed.

The Washington state toll bridge authority may delegate to the department of highways any of the powers or duties conferred upon the authority by this section, and the department shall assume or perform those powers or duties.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 207, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1915 and RCW 39.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The bond mentioned in RCW 39.08.010 shall be in an amount equal to the full contract price agreed to be paid for such work or improvement, and shall be to the state of Washington, except as otherwise provided in section 3 of this 1977 amendatory act, and except in cases of cities and towns, in which cases such municipalities may by general ordinance fix and determine the amount of such bond and to whom such bond shall run: PROVIDED, The same shall not be for a less amount than twenty-five percent of the contract price of any such improvement, and may designate that the same shall be payable to such city, and not to the state of Washington, and all such persons mentioned in RCW 39.08.010 shall have a right of action in his, her, or their own name or names on such bond for work done by such laborers or mechanics, and for materials furnished or provisions and goods supplied and furnished in the prosecution of such work, or the making of such improvements: PROVIDED, That such persons shall not have any right of action on such bond for any sum whatever, unless within thirty days from and after the completion of the contract with an acceptance of the work by the affirmative action of the board, council, commission, trustees, officer, or body acting for the state, county or municipality, or other public body, city, town or district, the laborer, mechanic or subcontractor, or materialman, or person claiming to have supplied materials, provisions or goods for the prosecution of such work, or the making of such improvement, shall present to and file with such board, council, commission, trustees or body acting for the state,

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Henry, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, on line 1 of the title after "ferries;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 3, chapter 207, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1915 and RCW 39.08.030; amending section 1, chapter 166, Laws of 1921 as last amended by section 1, chapter 104, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 60.28.010; amending section 82.08.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.030; amending section 82.12.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 11, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.030; adding a new section to chapter 39.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 47.60 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Henry, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3039 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would Senator Henry yield? Senator Henry, the act that is before us is a rather decided departure from other pieces of legislation that the highway department and the toll bridge authority operate under. Is there any chance by the adoption of this amendment that we will give them the right on other jobs to operate with the same bonding authority?"

Senator Henry: "No."

Senator Guess: "Senator Henry, the negotiated type of contract is something that the state of Washington has never engaged in or permitted any of its agencies to engage in, in the past. Does this set a precedent that will cause any other agency to have that authority?"

Senator Henry: "It doesn't establish a precedent, but the highway department has, in one particular instance of a bridge on Snoqualmie Pass, entered into a negotiated contract. I might add that one of the things in this bill, as you probably know, is that it reduces the bonding from a hundred percent to fifty percent which, when you get into multimillion dollar contracts, to bond for the full amount is a very expensive procedure. That way we are hoping to get local participation within the state."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator Henry."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Henry yield to a question? Senator Henry, section 5 of the information sheet suggests a couple of amendments. Were they put in the bill? I was scanning it quickly and I couldn't find—. While Senator Beck is looking that up, I have another question, Senator Henry. Sections 6 and 7, ferry vessel construction are exempted from sales and use taxes. It seems to me that all of our public buildings that we build are still subject to sales and use taxes. Is this correct?"

Senator Henry: "Well, this is a little different proposition. We are doing, following the precedent of California and some of the other states that in order to attract local bidders for what you are, in effect, is giving them a six percent preference, and that is not unusual. It is being done in other states."

Senator Rasmussen: "My concern, probably, is suppose I am a Japanese company and I come over here, and I wish to build. I bid on these, or a California firm. Could be, but build them in Tacoma or Seattle yards. You would still exempt them from sales and use taxes."

Senator Henry: "I don't think that condition could exist. In the first place, under the Jones Act, no foreign firm could build them, but yet I think it specifically states Washington corporations or Washington based firms."

Senator Rasmussen: "I didn't see that in there. It is entirely possible that I could be a California firm and have a branch, make a branch yard up here and—."

Senator Henry: "My attorney says he couldn't do business without incorporating."

Senator Rasmussen: "Of course, you know the secretary of state's office is back a few years on the incorporation. It is barely possible they could do business and never catch up with them for two years and build the ferries."

Senator Henry: "I think that is a partisan statement. Senator Rasmussen."

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments to pages 2, 11 and 20 were adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 24, line 31.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen and Lewis:

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Bill No. 2482, as amended, be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions that it be referred back to the Senate the next session of the legislature.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President, Senator Francis, I have a concern also. On page 8, starting on line 13, that paragraph which talks about the cooperation and to act jointly and by division of labor with the United States, other states and political subdivisions of the state of Washington, and their respective human rights agencies, et cetera, and then the last sentence says: 'The commission may perform services for such agencies and be reimbursed therefor.' Would you explain to me exactly what that means? It sounds to me as though that they could act in any way they so desire, if the commission so desired, with other agencies, and require that those agencies reimburse them if they are billed for that service.

"We have no idea what that is going to cost. We don't know who they are going to be billing or who they are going to be working with."

Senator Francis: "Senator Donohue, in answer to your question, I will first point out that you read out loud the part that says, 'carry out the purposes of this human rights law.' I think that that subsection 7 would all be interpreted that they would be limited by that, the requirements of this statute. What we are talking about is, say a woman is denied employment and believes it is because of her sex. She goes to the EEOC, and that is a federal agency. The question is, are they going to be duplicating the efforts of the human rights commission, or are we going to cooperate? Does that answer satisfy you, Senator Donohue?"

Senator Donohue: "No."

Senator Francis: "Did you hear any of it?"

Senator Donohue: "I heard enough to know that it didn't satisfy me."

Senator Francis: "I would really like you to be listening since you asked me these questions, and I think that that should have satisfied you if you were listening. Let me go over it again. The federal EEOC covers a lot of the same ground our state human rights law does. There is no reason for them to duplicate investigations if they can work together within their respective statutes to investigate a particular allegation or complaint. That is all it is talking about is to give them a right to work together."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Francis, in looking at page 4, the expansion of the definition of religion, really stretches someone's imagination. You first say what religion is under 'creed'. 'Creed' includes religion and other fundamental matters of conscience having a place in a person's life comparable to religion in the life of a religious person. It does not include political persuasion or affiliation; then you describe religion as being inclusive of all aspects of religious observance and practice, as well as belief. Now, I can't imagine where you came up with that kind of a definition. I thought 'religion' had one definition, and it is a person who subscribes to a belief in a higher being. I think the expansion here could get the commission into matters that are certainly far and beyond that which we have normally expected the commission to be involved in.

"Somebody could think up their own deal. For instance, the internal revenue right now is fighting the tremendous number of people who are forming churches. You can write off to a mail order house in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and you can become a minister. You pay five dollars; you have three people that will meet with you once a week. They subscribe money to you and then through that technique, subterfuge, you become a minister and this would give you, grant you, further privileges that the law hasn't granted you before.

"While I am on my feet, I would also like to say that on line 29, if he is sensory handicapped, you wouldn't be able to deny him a job where the sense of smell is extremely important to, not only his life, but to the process that he might be engaged in. I think that the bill goes too far in that respect.

"Lastly, on page 19, it says 'age' means anybody between the age of forty and sixty-five, and I resent very bitterly that inclusion of that word there."

Senator Francis: "Thank you, Mr. President. Senator Guess, in reply to your question, I would say with regard to your concerns about people who may be abusing the privileges we give to those who are in religion, I would say that that is probably God's punishment for our abuse of the United States Constitution in that area which says we are not supposed to have an establishment of religion as it is. I think that we have always been violating the United States Constitution when we gave special tax breaks and other breaks to religious institutions. I think we are going to have to do something about that. However, here all they are talking about is, they are trying, themselves, to interpret our law in a constitutional manner, which means we don't mandate that in order for it to be religion, you have to believe in a higher being or some other thing, that its got to be a little broader than that or else we are running afoul of our own U. S. Constitution. I think if you read the whole bill you are not going to find any place where that word 'religion' as defined in this definition section is going to give you any problems whatsoever. I think, just to the contrary, you are going to be very satisfied with it.

"With regard to 'age', again, it is a matter of how are we using it in this law. We are talking about discrimination in employment on the grounds of age, and this simply provides that, in effect, you can discriminate against people over the age of sixty-five as far as hiring them. I have some problem with that myself. I don't like it, however I have seen in this Senate floor, time after time, that people have wanted to put various mandatory retirements in, and I would say that for practical purposes we had better accept the fact that a person sixty-five or over probably isn't going to be able to challenge an employer on the grounds of discriminating against them on age basis. Probably that is retirement age. That, at least, is where it looks to me like we are at this time.

"The last thing, when you talk about mental or physical handicap, as with all of the other provisions here, you know, there is an exception for bona fide occupational qualifications, or BFOQ's as they call them, so that if there is some reason why a person has to have a sense of smell in order to perform a particular task, of course, that is going to be an allowable criterion."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Point of personal privilege to ask Senator Mardesich because he didn't know I was going to speak, to be able to speak on the measure, to withdraw his motion."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Francis a question. Senator Francis, my concern, Senator Francis, is the administrative law judge and the fact that he can be removed by the chairman if anybody expresses prejudice against him, and I don't like that section of the bill. I am not very fond of administrative law judges anyway. It doesn't spell out the qualifications. They are not elected by anybody, but they build a case against you so that when you do go before a regular court, why you are practically dead before you start. I don't like that section. I kind of agree with those people that are—you probably ought to take another look, and if the judiciary committee has gone as far as it can in cleaning this bill up, they can send it up to state government, and we will work on it for another three years."

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I am not exactly sure what the question was. The reason for changing it to administrative law judge was because it was felt by some employers that a hearing tribunal of three persons who were members of the board was much too oriented towards enforcement, and that an administrative law judge would be more fair to them. So that is the reason for this change. I think that most of these changes for those who actually work in the field are regarded as highly desirable."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, on page 3, line 30, I need a little explanation. It says, 'whether one or more natural or artificial persons'. Would you be kind enough to explain what these 'artificial persons' are?"

Senator Francis: "An artificial person is a corporation or other organization which is regarded as a person in the law."

(Senator Lewis then said without benefit of his microphone, 'is it necessary to call them an artificial person?')

Senator Francis continued: "and I think that here we are just making it very clear that we are talking about both individuals and organizations that are an entity that is called a 'person' within the law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator, I see where the commission will have the right to review the decision of the administrative judge. Does this not, in effect, give the plaintiff another cut that he does not have in the process now? Where is the balance in the process, that is what I am asking."

Senator Francis: "Senator Scott, I believe that either party can appeal the decision of an administrative law judge in this statute."

Senator Scott: "We are not speaking to the normal court appeal. I am talking to the provision in the section just below the reference to the administrative judge where a decision by him can be appealed to the commission. Does the commission hear both sides of the story?"

Senator Francis: "Would you show me what you are referring to? What section? Senator Scott, it is my position that both sides or either side could appeal. Yes."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Mardesich that Senate Bill No. 2482, as amended, be rereferred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried on a rising vote. Senate Bill No. 2482 was rereferred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 3, after "diagnostic" delete ", preventive,"

On page 5, line 1, after "legislature" insert a comma

On page 6, line 31, after "section 5" delete "(7)" and insert "(5)"

On page 13, line 24, after "through" delete "15" and insert "16"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Goltz failed and the amendments to the amendments by Senators Scott and Donohue were not adopted on a rising vote.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bausch: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Concerning the amendment, inasmuch as Thurston County is being bandied around here just a little bit, it recalls the fact that the state did purchase the Thurston County courthouse and jail for around two million dollars. It is costing ten million dollars through a bonding issue voted by the people here to replace that facility. I am concerned about in this amendment two things, first of all, is Thurston County still in, due to the eligibility, and how does that affect Thurston County?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Bausch, on page 7, the last proviso, if I read it correctly, and on the advice of staff, there was an amendment in ways and means to change that language, but at the present time if this bill passes, the way I read it, and Thurston County has a ten million dollar bond issue to build a jail, the state of Washington is going to give Thurston County ten million dollars."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Wilson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Walgren, Fleming, Ridder, Washington, Clarke, North, Talley, Rasmussen and Mardesich.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I wonder if Senator Walgren would yield to a question? Senator Walgren, my concern is that this may not be — this is a very good bill and it may not be considered if the cutoff is applied. Do you think this falls outside the provisions of the cutoff—"

Senator Walgren: "Senator Grant, that was a question that came to mind when Senator Keefe asked me about this, and I am not making the rulings, obviously, but it would seem to me that our cutoff resolution is drawn broadly enough so as to include this as being outside of the cutoff."

There being no objection, Senator Grant deferred his motion to a later time.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2453, by Senators Donohue, Clarke and Henry:
Modifying restrictions on small loan companies.

On page 6, line 21, after "~~((one))~~" strike "five thousand" and insert "two thousand five hundred"

On page 6, line 34, after "~~month))~~ strike "or, as an alternative, one and one-half percent per month on the entire unpaid balance of the principal"

On page 10, line 12, strike "sixty" and insert "forty-eight"

On page 10, line 22, after "~~((one))~~" strike "five thousand" and insert "two thousand five hundred"

On page 10, line 27, after "~~((one))~~" strike "five thousand" and insert "two thousand five hundred"

On page 11, line 11, after "~~((one))~~" strike "five thousand" and insert "two thousand five hundred"

On page 11, line 22, after "~~((one))~~" strike "five thousand" and insert "two thousand five hundred"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, everything you say I think is accurate except the section on page 10, line 12, strike 60 and insert 48. What you have done there is you have raised the amount of dollars to be loaned to the inflation factor, and I can understand that, but you have also extended the time to pay it back. If we were being accurate in just taking care of inflation we would return that back down to the twenty-four and a half months which is the present law."

Senator Woody: "Twenty-five months."

Senator Bottiger: "Well, twenty-five and a half. That way, the fifty-one dollars and fourteen cents that every bankruptcy attorney recognizes immediately would go to an increased inflation factor and people would not be in debt for these higher rates of interest for, in effect, four years, but only for the two years and one month that is the current practice."

Senator Woody: "In using the inflation factor, what I was doing, this is basically the same amendment that I attempted last year, and failed. The current amount is one thousand roughly going two and a half times that, went to twenty-five hundred. Roughly the payoff used to be twenty-five and one-half months, and if you go double that, you would hit fifty-one. I understand what you are talking about, but I used the amendments that we used last year, and they are roughly within the same area, but your comments are accurate."

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Woody, Walgren, Fleming and Bluechel:

Amend the Woody amendment of page 10, line 12, as follows:

Strike "forty-eight" and insert "twenty-five"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendments by Senators Woody, Walgren, Fleming and Bluechel were adopted.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Grant and Bottiger:

On page 10, line 8, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(8) No licensee shall execute any loan with knowledge that the borrower has an outstanding loan with any licensee operating pursuant to RCW 31.04 or RCW 31.08, unless such loan operates to discharge all such previous loans."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Point of parliamentary inquiry. We have a special order of business at three fifty-five, and it is now slightly beyond three fifty-five. Four o'clock is the cutoff date, and I would like a statement as to the status of the special order of business."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the clock on the wall is a little fast, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? What kind of inquiry do you expect this licensee to make into whether or not this borrower has other loans outstanding, or debts outstanding?"

Senator Bottiger: "First of all, the borrower has to make an application. Secondly, there is an interchange of information between the lending companies. Some of them will deny that. Some of them will candidly admit that they do know who has got outstanding loans with other small loaning agencies. You can see it if you do very much bankruptcy work. You can see that there is never more than three, and that has got to tell you something, that somehow they know that there are the other two ones out there. I am suggesting that there is an interchange because I never see more than three. If they know that there is other outstanding small loans, they simply raise the amount of their loan and pay them off so that this person has one loan and not the three."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I wonder if the Senate would proceed out of order and accept first those amendments which strike, whatever they are and whoever offers, so that we will then better be able to relate to what the discussion is, and I would make that in the form of a motion."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises the President that there are two places where the Senate should have the privilege of trying to improve the measure before striking."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Could we go then to those two portions of the law first? Otherwise the contentions of both parties are correct, if you assume some of the provisions, some of the striking provisions."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "If there aren't any objections, Senator Mardesich."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, starting on line nineteen, if after the words 'it includes all' you inserted the words, 'product liability', would that solve your problem?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Mardesich, that is why I thought that we ought to sit down and study this, where you can go and read the lawsuits. What you would say, you would start out by defining product liability, and you have got about six lines of definition, and then you say it includes all product liability using the same word over again, based on the following theories. I really, honestly don't know what it means."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that the Senate should consider the first three amendments by Senator Bottiger before considering the one pending, and the remaining amendments."

"Section 1. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year" with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week (~~with respect to~~) in which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week (~~with respect to~~) in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the expiration of (~~his~~) the individual's last preceding benefit year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the establishment of a new benefit year under the laws of another state pursuant to any agreement providing for the interstate combining of employment and wages and the interstate payment of benefits nor shall this limitation be deemed to preclude the commissioner from backdating an initial application at the request of the claimant either for the convenience of the department of employment security or for any other reason deemed by the commissioner to be good cause.

An individual's benefit year shall be extended to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

No benefit year will be established unless it is determined that the individual earned wages in (~~"employment" during his base year of not less than the "qualifying annual wage" computed for the calendar year preceding the last June 30th immediately preceding his benefit year and either had "employment" in not less than sixteen weeks of his base year in each of which he earned the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the second calendar year preceding the calendar year in which each such week ends or had~~) "employment" in not less than six hundred eighty hours of (~~his~~) the individual's base year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a benefit year cannot be established if the base year wages include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year unless the individual earned wages in "employment" during the last two quarters of the new base year of not less than six times the weekly benefit amount computed for ~~((his))~~ the individual's new benefit year.

~~((As the change contained in the third paragraph of this section relating to the weeks worked qualification would invalidate basic data upon which benefit qualification determinations must be made the satisfaction of the weeks worked requirement will require as to base year weeks ending in the second two quarters of 1972 that the individual will have earned not less than the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the calendar year 1971. Nothing in this paragraph or in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to justify or support the redetermination of any monetary determination denying the establishment of a benefit year made prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.))~~

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his or her wages at regular intervals.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.355 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the fifteenth day of June of each year an "average annual wage", an "average weekly wage", ~~((a "qualifying annual wage", a "qualifying weekly wage";))~~ and an "average annual wage for contributions purposes" shall be computed from information for the preceding calendar year including corrections thereof reported within three months after the close of that year by all employers as defined in RCW 50.04.080. The "average annual wage" is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers by the average number of workers reported for all months and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar. The "average annual wage" thus obtained shall be divided by fifty-two and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar to determine the "average weekly wage". ~~((The "qualifying annual wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average annual wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of fifty dollars, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of fifty dollars. The "qualifying weekly wage" shall be computed by multiplying the "average weekly wage" by fifteen percent and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.))~~ The "average annual wage" for contribution purposes is the quotient derived by dividing total remuneration reported by all employers subject to contributions by the average number of workers reported for all months by these same employers and if the result is not a multiple of one dollar, rounding the result to the next lower multiple of one dollar.

Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the commissioner or his or her authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports with respect to persons employed by it, which he or she deems necessary for the effective administration of this title. Each employer shall make periodic reports at such intervals as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the remuneration paid for employment to workers in its employ, the names of all such workers, and until April 1, 1978, the number of weeks for which the worker earned the "qualifying weekly wage", and beginning July 1, 1977, the hours worked by each worker and such other information as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

In the event the employing unit fails or has failed to report the number of ((weeks)) hours in a reporting period for which a worker ((earned the "qualifying weekly wage")) worked such number will be computed by the commissioner and given the same force and effect as if it had been reported by the employing unit. In computing the number of such ((weeks)) hours worked the total wages for the reporting period, as reported by the employing unit, shall be divided by the dollar amount of the ("qualifying weekly wage") state's minimum wage in effect for such reporting period and the quotient, disregarding any remainder, shall be credited to the worker: PROVIDED, ((That the total number of weeks credited to the worker for any quarterly period shall not exceed thirteen weeks: PROVIDED, FURTHER:)) That the computation so made will not be subject to appeal by the employing unit.

Sec. 4. Section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 21, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has left work voluntarily without good cause and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than his or her suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks((~~PROVIDED, That disqualification under this section shall not extend beyond the tenth calendar week following the week in which such individual left work~~)).

(2) An individual shall not be considered to have left work voluntarily without good cause when:

(a) He or she has left work to accept a bona fide job offer; or

(3) In determining whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, the individual's ability to perform the work, and such other work connected factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies. Good cause shall not be established for voluntarily leaving work because of its distance from an individual's residence where the distance was known to the individual at the time he or she accepted the employment, nor because of any other significant work factor which was generally known and present at the time he or she accepted employment unless the related circumstances have so changed as to amount to a substantial involuntary deterioration of the work factor or unless the commissioner determines that other related circumstances would work an unconscionable hardship on the individual were he or she required to continue in the employment.

(4) Subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall not apply to an individual whose marital status or domestic responsibilities cause him or her to leave employment. Such an individual shall not be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits until he or she has requalified, either by obtaining work and earning wages of not less than the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks or by reporting in person to the department during ten different calendar weeks and certifying on each occasion that he or she is ready, able, and willing to immediately accept any suitable work which may be offered, is actively seeking work pursuant to customary trade practices, and is utilizing such employment counseling and placement services as are available through the department.

Sec. 5. Section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 22, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

An individual shall be disqualified from benefits beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which he or she has been discharged or suspended for misconduct connected with his or her work and thereafter until he or she has obtained work and earned wages of not less than ((his)) the suspended weekly benefit amount in each of five calendar weeks(~~(-PROVIDED, That disqualification under this section shall not extend beyond the tenth calendar week following the week in which such individual was discharged or suspended)~~). An individual who has been discharged because of a felony of which he or she has been convicted or has admitted committing and which is connected with his or her work shall be disqualified from receiving any benefits for which base year credits are earned in any employment prior to the discharge.

Sec. 6. Section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Suitable work for an individual is employment in an occupation in keeping with the individual's prior work experience, education, or training and if the individual has no prior work experience, special education, or training for employment available in the general area, then employment which the individual would have the physical and mental ability to perform. In determining whether work is suitable for an individual ((or whether an individual has left work voluntarily without good cause)), the commissioner shall also consider the degree of risk involved to ((his)) the individual's health, safety, and morals, ((his)) the individual's physical fitness ((and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his)), the individual's length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in ((his)) the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from ((his)) the individual's residence, and such other factors as the commissioner may deem pertinent, including state and national emergencies.

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this title benefits shall be payable to any eligible individual during ((his)) the individual's benefit year in a maximum amount equal to the lesser of thirty times the weekly benefit amount (determined hereinafter) or one-third of the individual's base year wages under this title.

(2) An individual's weekly benefit amount shall be an amount equal to one twenty-fifth of ((his)) the average quarterly wages of the individual's total wages during ((that)) the two quarters of ((his)) the individual's base year in which such total wages were highest, except that if such computed amount is less than seventeen dollars, the weekly benefit amount shall be deemed to be seventeen dollars. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be determined as of each June 30th to apply to benefit years beginning in the twelve-month period immediately following such June 30th. The maximum amount payable weekly shall be ((fifty)) fifty-five percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30th: PROVIDED, That if as of any June 30th the unemployment compensation trust fund balance has improved so that the employer contribution as determined pursuant to RCW 50.24.010 is less than three percent, the maximum amount payable weekly for benefit years beginning with the first full calendar week in July next following shall be sixty percent of the "average weekly wage" for the calendar year preceding such June 30: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any weekly benefit or maximum benefit amount computed herein is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, except that if the computed amount ends in fifty cents, it shall be adjusted to the next higher multiple of one dollar.

Any individual registered at an established school in a course of study providing scholastic instruction of twelve or more hours per week, or the equivalent thereof, shall be disqualified from receiving benefits or waiting period credit for any week during the school year commencing with the first week of scholastic instruction or the week of leaving employment to return to school, whichever is the earlier, and ending with the week immediately before the first full week in which the individual is no longer registered for classes: PROVIDED, That this nonregistration will be for a period of sixty days or longer. The term "school" includes primary schools, secondary schools, and "institutions of higher education" as that phrase is defined in RCW 50.44.040.

This disqualification shall not apply to any individual who:

(1) Is in approved training within the meaning of RCW 50.20.043; or
 (2) Demonstrates to the commissioner by a preponderance of the evidence his or her actual availability for work, and in arriving at this determination the commissioner shall consider the following factors:

- (d) Past and present efforts to seek work.

Sec. 9. Section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 13, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions shall accrue and become payable by each employer (except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions) for each calendar year in which ((he)) the employer is subject to this title at the rate of two and seven-tenths percent of wages paid each employee, except for such rates as determined for qualified employers according to chapter 50.29 RCW: PROVIDED, That if, as of any June 30th, the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than three and one-half percent of total remuneration paid by all employers during the preceding calendar year and reported on or before the March 31st following such year, contributions for the following calendar year for all employers shall be payable at the rate of three percent of wages subject to tax.

In making computations under this section and RCW 50.29.010, wages paid based on services for employers making payments in lieu of contributions shall not be considered remuneration. Moneys paid from the fund, based on services performed for employers who make payments in lieu of contributions, which have not been reimbursed to the fund as of any June 30 shall be deemed an asset of the unemployment compensation fund, to the extent that such moneys exceed the amount of payments in lieu of contributions which the commissioner has previously determined to be uncollectible: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the amount attributable to employment with the state shall also include interest as provided for in RCW 50.44.020.

Contributions shall become due and be paid by each employer to the treasurer for the unemployment compensation fund in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in employment of the employer. Any deduction in violation of the provisions of this section shall be unlawful.

"Benefit year" with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week ((with respect to)) in which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week ((with respect to)) in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the expiration of ((his)) the individual's last preceding benefit year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the establishment of a new benefit year under the laws of another state pursuant to any agreement providing for the interstate combining of employment and wages and the interstate payment of benefits nor shall this limitation be deemed to preclude the commissioner from backdating an initial application at the request of the claimant either for the convenience of the department of employment security or for any other reason deemed by the commissioner to be good cause.

An individual's benefit year shall be extended to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

No benefit year will be established unless it is determined that the individual earned wages in "employment" during ~~((his))~~ the individual's base year of not less than the "qualifying annual wage" computed for the calendar year preceding the last June 30th immediately preceding ~~((his))~~ the benefit year and either had "employment" in not less than ~~((sixteen))~~ eighteen weeks of ~~((his))~~ the base year in each of which he or she earned the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the second calendar year preceding the calendar year in which each such week ends or had "employment" in not less than six hundred eighty hours of ~~((his))~~ the individual's base year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a benefit year cannot be established if the base year wages include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year unless the individual earned wages in "employment" during the last two quarters of the new base year of not less than six times the weekly benefit amount computed for ~~((his))~~ the individual's new benefit year.

~~((As the change contained in the third paragraph of this section relating to the weeks worked qualification would invalidate basic data upon which benefit qualification determinations must be made the satisfaction of the weeks worked requirement will require as to base year weeks ending in the second two quarters of 1972 that the individual will have earned not less than the "qualifying weekly wage" computed for the calendar year 1971. Nothing in this paragraph or in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to justify or support the redetermination of any monetary determination denying the establishment of a benefit year made prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act.))~~

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his or her wages at regular intervals."

Beginning on page 3, line 37 of the amendment, strike all of section 3 and insert:

"Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records, containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection and be subject to being copied by the commissioner or his or her authorized representatives at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports with respect to persons employed by it, which he or she deems necessary for the effective administration of this title. Each employer shall make periodic reports at such intervals as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the remuneration paid for employment to workers in its employ, the names of all such workers, the number of weeks for which the worker earned the "qualifying weekly wage", and beginning July 1, 1977, the hours worked by each worker and such other information as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

In the event the employing unit fails or has failed to report the number of weeks in a reporting period for which a worker earned the "qualifying weekly wage" or hours worked, such number will be computed by the commissioner and given the same force and effect as if it had been reported by the employing unit. In computing the number of such weeks the total wages for the reporting period, as reported by the employing unit, shall be divided by the dollar amount of the "qualifying weekly wage" in effect for such reporting period and the quotient, disregarding any remainder, shall be credited to the worker: PROVIDED, That the total number of weeks credited to the worker for any quarterly period shall not exceed thirteen weeks:

PROVIDED FURTHER, That in computing the number of such hours worked the total wages for the reporting period, as reported by the employing unit, shall be divided by the dollar amount of the state's minimum wage in effect for such reporting period and the quotient, disregarding any remainder, shall be credited to the worker: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the computation so made will not be subject to appeal by the employing unit."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: Would Senator Morrison yield to a question? Senator Morrison, how would these people accumulate the hours if that is all the hours that the job provides? You said that they—yes, some people would have to work longer hours, but how could they do that?"

Senator Morrison: "Well, if the qualifications test is a measurement of the attachment to the labor market, they would just have to put in more hours. Everyone would qualify under the same provision. Six hundred and eighty hours is the standard test, and it would apply to prove their attachment to the labor market and their qualification for benefits."

Senator Rasmussen: "How many of the seasonal workers would this knock out?"

Senator Morrison: "Oh, a very limited number. The hours provision was originally put in as a concession particularly at the request of the teamsters who said, 'We can't get in sixteen weeks, but we sure can get in six hundred hours.' Now labor agrees that the six hundred and eighty hour requirement is not prohibitive, and that almost anyone with an attachment to the labor market deserving unemployment benefits and protection, would be working six hundred and eighty hours. So this is not a shot at the seasonal worker."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "In further response to Senator Rasmussen, what it means is that you will have to put in if you assume thirty-five hours a week as the suggestion was made, and you will simply have to assume that you will have to put in eighteen—it will be slightly more than eighteen weeks to qualify. So, you would qualify by virtue of putting in the eighteen weeks. As a matter of fact, at thirty-five. If you lower the hours substantially, then of course, it takes more weeks of work as would be the case by way of an example, those 'non certs' who work in the schools, they would qualify by virtue of the extended time rather than by virtue of the hours. They would get their hours in, but they would get them in in the longer period of time and fall well within the nine months' school year."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Ridder yield? In the paper industry where they work different shifts, graveyard, swing and days, some weeks they get a very short work week. How would it affect them there?"

Senator Ridder: "My amendment would not really affect them, Senator Talley, because I would assume that they would work probably a full forty hour week, a total of a basis of a general forty hour week, in which case they would be amassing the hours on a regular basis. The week's requirement if they were not working the full time, which we would consider forty hours a week, if they had a shorter week that week would also apply to that. That is, under the week's requirement if they had eighteen weeks of employment which met the minimum qualifications, that is, the fifteen percent of the wage, average weekly wage."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "In further response, I think if you want to take an example that is easily understood, if you had a person that was putting in a half day, a four hour shift, they would qualify under the six hundred and eighty hours by virtue of working about thirty-three or thirty-four weeks during the course of a year, and be qualified, so even a box boy if he puts in that thirty-three or four weeks would qualify."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Ridder yield to a question? Senator Ridder, your last answer, I believe to Senator Talley, indicated they would still have to earn a certain amount to qualify a week, and yet I notice in your amendment that you leave section 2 precisely as we have it in the floor amendment before us and it strikes all references to qualifying a week because there is no longer a week used in the test. So, I think you have got some technical problems which I would like to lean on as another reason to defeat your amendment."

Senator Ridder: "Well, I have the qualifying annual wages and the qualifying weekly wage in section one."

Senator Morrison: "The problem is those are not defined anywhere except in section 2, and we have stricken that language since we are only going to deal with ours in our proposal."

Senator Ridder: "I see."

The motion by Senator Ridder failed and the amendments to the amendment by Senators Mardesich and Morrison were not adopted on a rising vote.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Morrison yield to a question? Senator Morrison, I do this for the purpose of getting in the record our intent, and I direct your attention to section 8 which is the student section. I would ask you that if a student has been working on a regular job, whether it be a night watchman or during the day, going to night school, and he is otherwise—that has been his employment and that is how he supports his family, would his showing that, that has been traditionally how he had been employed, meet the 'preponderance of the evidence' test that you have established in section 8 to show that he is, in fact, a part of the labor market and entitled to qualify?"

Senator Morrison: "Senator Bottiger, the effort under the student provision, is to come up with a rebuttable presumption that if you are taking twelve student hours, that in fact, you are unavailable for work and do not pass the test. However, we softened those provisions by saying that if the person involved can demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence their actual availability based on things such as prior work history. One other item is the past and present labor market attachment, past and present efforts to seek work. I would say under the particular question that you raised, that in fact, the commissioner would very easily find that the person should qualify for unemployment compensation benefits."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Morrison yield? Senator Morrison, with respect to the local units of government which are involved now in the unemployment compensation area for the first time, I believe, would the sources of funds necessary to pay unemployment compensation benefits back to the fund come out of current operational appropriations or revenues, or would they come out of future revenues?"

Senator Morrison: "Senator Goltz, the question actually relates to the conformity legislation which we passed this past week. Let me give you a quick answer. That is up to the unit of local government. As you recall, we adopted the amendments here. We provided the maximum amount of flexibility. They could repay them on being billed by the department of employment security. They could contribute ahead of time through a tax proposal, through the regular state fund. They could contribute to their own separate pool since we gave them the flexibility of paying in at a lower rate than other employers because basically, particularly cities and towns, have a much better record of employment than many of our private industries. So that is not included in this bill, but it is important because taxpayers now are going to be paying the cost for the abuses of our fund, and we think that this bill at least goes part way in eliminating some of those abuses."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment to the title by Senators Mardesich and Morrison was adopted:

On page 1, on line 1 of the title, after "compensation;" strike all matter down to and including "50.24.010;" on line 12 and insert:

"amending section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1973 and RCW 50.04.030; amending section 6, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.355; amending section 46, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.12.070; amending section 73, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 21, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.050; amending section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 22, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.060; amending section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 6, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.100; amending section 80, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.20.120; amending section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 13, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.010; adding a new section to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 50.24 RCW;"

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 563, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 563, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 6; excused, 1.

WHEREAS, Jack Taylor has served our citizens in the elected positions of State Land Commissioner and King County Commissioner, as well as the first director of the State Pollution Control Commission, as executive officer of the State Utilities and Transportation Commission, and since January 13, 1965, as Assistant Treasurer of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, With his retirement from state service, Jack Taylor leaves a legacy of good friends in the world of politics and government; and

WHEREAS, Jack Taylor, in addition to the creation of many lasting friendships in the Senate, has demonstrated that service "of, by and for the people" is not a lost art; and

WHEREAS, Jack Taylor intends to enjoy an active retirement and participate in the activities of organizations working on behalf of senior citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington that its appreciation be extended to the Honorable Jack Taylor for his service to the citizens of the State of Washington in both elected and appointed positions of the greatest responsibility, and that best wishes go with him for an active and productive future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to present a suitable inscribed copy of this Resolution to the Honorable Jack Taylor.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, and particularly to you, Jack Taylor, I think that the Resolution, of course, expresses the views of all the members of this body, and that is, of course, why I asked that all members be added as sponsors.

"We, of course, congratulate you on your retirement. You know that word is used very often when a person moves on to retirement, and I am not sure that that really is the best word because those of us who have known you as well as we have, known your great ability as a member of state government, knowing of your friendship, it is hard for us to congratulate you moving on away from here.

"We know that you are looking forward to retirement. We also know, Jack, that you will be back here constantly to advise all of us in the work that we do, and so on behalf of the Senate of the state of Washington, I do want to wish you and your wife well in the coming years and want to assure you of your continued welcome to this body at any time that you would care to come back, not only on your own, but hopefully at our request to give a little advice.

"Congratulations, Jack."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Jack, this was a very proud moment in our lives, and I am sure it is in yours and Jinny's. As a small token of the esteem and affection with which you are held by the members of the Senate, the members have designated the President to present to you this trophy, declaring something that we have always known, that you are a distinguished citizen of this state.

"In recognition and appreciation of the dedication, imagination, leadership and personal integrity which have through his years of public service contributed to much to the people of our state.'

"Congratulations and the very best of wishes to you and Jinny.

"It is a great pleasure to present to you the Honorable Jack Taylor."

REMARKS BY JACK TAYLOR

Mr. Taylor: "Thank you very much, Mr. President, Honorable members of the Senate and staff. This is indeed a wonderful honor, and I wish to express this opinion that friendship knows no party lines nor religious lines. I didn't think in 1935 that I would ever see the day that I would be standing here in 1977 and have this great honor bestowed upon me.

"All of you have gone through various political campaigns, you know what the problems are. You know that you have to make tough decisions, and you know when decisions are made that you are going to make someone unhappy. I have been making those decisions since 1935, and it certainly is an encouragement for the younger people to take an interest in state government. When you consider the years that I have served, and end up with so many friends after having to say 'no' to so many people.

"With that, I want to close. I know that you have a very busy schedule. You have a very, very serious session before you, and each and every one of you are to be congratulated for your dedication under very, very tough times. I have been following it, and I know that you are going to come out with the right answers for the good of the majority of the people.

"Thank you very much, and God bless."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Jack. Your remarks were beautifully made, and remarkably well taken by the members. The President, with the indulgence of the Senate, should certainly like to exercise the very pleasant privilege of introducing, rather, not the proper word, but presenting Mrs. Jinny Taylor.

"The high regard and respect for which Jack Taylor holds among the members of the state elected officials is exemplified by the presence of two of our most distinguished, the Honorable Robert O'Brien, state treasurer, and the Honorable Robert Graham, state auditor.

"This pleasant occasion must come to an end at this time because of the work schedule of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President: "I would like to compliment Jack Taylor on his excellent work, but I would also like to point out to Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Graham that I hope they get connected by wire. The Governor signed their bill yesterday that allows electronic transfer of the millions of dollars that they are both concerned with, and they both have the problem of satisfying each other that the money is going to the right place. The Governor has never met them, but she signed the bill. When you have your millions of dollars transmitting, and Bob Graham is trying to follow them, Mr. O'Brien, you have got a job on your hands.

"I urge you to get together and not sit separately. Work together."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Jinny and Jack, you leave the Senate chamber on this particular morning with the very best wishes and heartiest congratulations of every member and the President, the staff, and I am sure, everyone in the state who is fortunate enough to know you.

"The Senate photographer, Mr. Chris Palmer, would like a picture of the occasion for posterity. Would members of the committee please come to the rostrum."

The committee of honor escorted the honored guests from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-35

By Senator Bluechel;

WHEREAS, Catholic Church officials have announced the imminent closing of St. Edwards Seminary located on the northeast side of Lake Washington; and

WHEREAS, This three hundred and fifty acre site, one of the last cohesive areas of its type in the northwest, with playing fields, swimming pools, classroom buildings, dormitories and cafeterias, constitutes, with its architecture and landscaping, an esthetic beauty but rarely found, and looks down in pastoral elegance upon the surrounding terrain; and

WHEREAS, Located in the geographical area of Bothell, Kirkland and Redmond, one of the fastest population growth centers of the state, such institutional lands now provide a buffer zone for its constituent residential areas, in marked contrast to other facilities in the general area.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That a study be immediately commenced by the standing Senate Higher Education Committee to ascertain the possibility of acquiring such property for higher education purposes, whether as a facility utilized by one or more postsecondary institutions for special educational facilities, or to be retained by the state for future community college campus purposes; that pursuant to such study the Council for Postsecondary Education examine the facilities available and report back its conclusions thereon to such higher education committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate Higher Education Committee make a preliminary report hereon to the Legislature not later than January 1, 1978; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That if the House of Representatives passes a resolution similar in content to this, the standing committees on Higher Education of both houses of the Legislature shall cooperatively conduct such single study and make a joint report thereon; and

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Bluechel yield to a question? Senator Bluechel, have you checked with the archdiocese to find out what they think they might want to do with this in the future?"

Senator Bluechel: "Yes, I told them that if we had their permission, I would bring this up and do exactly what we are doing here, and they said that was fine, and they said that that may be the intent they would like to see the property used for. They don't have a definite decision on what they want to use it for, but they were very interested in the fact that we would take a look at it."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Bluechel yield? I am not familiar with the property or the location of it. I assume this is somewhere near your district."

Senator Bluechel: "This is right, relatively on the edge of the district. This is south of Bothell. It is west of Kirkland. It is on the lake. I have a map here. It has a considerable amount of lake frontage, and it goes up to the top of a hill. It is a large piece of property, three hundred and sixty-five acres."

Senator Goltz: "Do you think the people living in the neighborhood would be agreeable to the location of a correctional facility on that particular property, and if so, it may be wise to include members of the social and health services committee along with the higher education group, and maybe I should ask you whether an oil port could be located at that point."

Senator Bluechel: "I think the study resolution leaves it open for all aspects of study. The property itself lends itself towards some type of learning institution."

The motion by Senator Bluechel carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

At 2:10 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Friday, May 6, 1977.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Mr. Vernier and all of the appointments on the calendar, remaining on the calendar for today, are upon the list which were purportedly a mass request for withdrawal by the Governor, and approval by such withdrawal by the Senate.

"We feel that that is an unconstitutional and illegal act, and as to all of these, have raised the point of order. The point of order was argued; we were overruled, and it has been the agreement on each of these in that category that all of the record with respect to the first objection on both sides would be made a part of the record and be made applicable, and I would move that those objections and that portion of the record become a part of the record as to appointments number 112, 113, 114, 115, 124, 125, 127 and 129."

"Also we might say that again I would make the point for the benefit of those in the gallery that the 'no' votes that will be made on this side with respect to those appointments are not, in any way, to be attributed as an indication of disapproval on our part of the qualifications of the particular appointee. It is strictly a matter of law, and I also might state that in recognition of the fact that many parties are absent that, if as to any of these appointees that should appear, that they do not have the necessary number of votes, we would then intend to supply the necessary number from our side in order to accomplish the necessary votes and not unduly prolong the business of the Senate."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

May 6, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE STATE SENATE, THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

MR. PRESIDENT:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration of a section vetoed by the governor, Senate Bill 2325, the remainder of which has been designated Chapter 19, Laws of 1977, 1st ex. sess., together with a copy of the official veto message of the governor setting forth her objections to the section as provided by Article III, Section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed the seal of the state of Washington, at Olympia on the 6th day of May, 1977.

DUANE C. WOODS
Assistant Secretary of State.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE ON PARTIAL VETO
TO SENATE BILL NO. 2325

Office of the Governor, May 6, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section SENATE BILL NO. 2325 entitled:

"An Act Relating to cities, towns, counties, and other units of local government; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

Section 8 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Under the constitution, Article II, Sections 1(b) and 41, the use of an emergency clause does two things. First, it alters the time when a particular piece of legislation becomes effective, thereby eliminating what may be a desirable adjustment period for affected persons. Second, it excepts the legislation from the important referendum right reserved by the people. Because of these effects, the use of the clause should be restricted to those instances where the use is clearly warranted due to the urgency of the situation.

In this case, not only is the use of the clause unwarranted by the urgency of the situation, but the use also eliminates the adjustment period that would be helpful for affected units of local government. For these reasons, I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 8, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2325 is approved.

Sincerely,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 116, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger, Lewis, Bausch and Gaspard):

Permitting the lending of state and local government credit for energy conservation services and materials.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 116. The substitute resolution was substituted for the original resolution on April 21, 1977.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

Beginning on line 3, strike everything after the resolution clause and insert:

"THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to the state Constitution by adding a new section to Article VIII to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Article VIII, section . . . . Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 5 or 7 of this Article, any county, city, town, municipal corporation, or political subdivision of the state which is engaged in the generation, sale, or distribution of energy may, as authorized by the legislature, use public moneys or credit to purchase, install, sell, rent or lease materials or equipment, including, but not limited to, building insulation, storm windows and doors, heat pumps, and furnaces, for use in residential structures, for the conservation or more efficient use of energy.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Mr. President, will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, are there existing institutions that are willing to lend money for this type of improvements?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Matson, I have been noticing an ad in the paper for eight and three quarters percent interest. One of the banks is willing to do it. I also understand that not just anybody can get that loan, that if you meet certain credit requirements you can. Washington Natural Gas has not imposed that kind of tight credit requirements on their program, and I would presume that the PUD or the City Light would not either."

Senator Matson: "Senator Bottiger, one further question. Whether or not these types improvements are financed through commercial existing sources or through an enactment such as this, the consumer is going to end up to pay the bill in the end, is that not correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "I would hope that the consumer would pay the loan off. The PUD's and the light companies have some form of lien rights on the house. If you don't pay your light bill, your lights get turned off and you can't get them turned on until you do, so I would say, 'yes', they will pay."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Woody was excused.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 116 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendments to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 45, strike "and a certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards." and insert "and an accountant employed by the securities division of the department of licenses, chapter 21.20 RCW, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards."

On page 3, line 43, strike "and a certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards." and insert "and an accountant employed by the securities division of the department of licenses, chapter 21.20 RCW, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 68, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 68, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bluechel, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Matson, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Washington, Wojahn—28.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 601, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Hanna, Warnke, Hawkins, Adams, Salatino, Grier, Hansen, Heck, Gallagher, McCormick and Gaines):

Revising gambling laws on card games.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Wilson moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Wilson, Bottiger and Wanamaker:

On page 1, following line 27, insert a new paragraph as follows:

"The legislature hereby authorizes the wagering on the outcome of the roll of dice or the flipping of or matching of coins on the premises of an establishment engaged in the business of selling food or beverages for consumption on the premises to determine which of the participants will pay for certain items of food or beverages served or sold by such establishment and therein consumed. Such establishments are hereby authorized to possess dice and dice cups on their premises, but only for use in such limited wagering. Persons engaged in such limited form of wagering shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided for in this chapter."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I had a question for Senator Wilson. Senator Wilson, will you yield to a question? Will the flipping or the matching of coins on the premises, is there any limit on the amount or kinds? If I have my restaurant and I want to draw a line and say, 'We will flip for dollars out there,?'"

Senator Wilson: "No, the amendment does not permit flipping for money or for anything else except food and beverage which is consumed on the premises."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it says, 'the flipping or the matching of coins,' and that is what got me interested. You can get into pretty big coins."

Senator Wilson: "Yes, but you are not flipping coins to see who gets the coin, you are flipping coins to see who pays for the coffee."

Senator Rasmussen: "We are not low on coffee. You might even be buying the restaurant that the food is served in."

Senator Wilson: "No, it does not pertain to real estate. It pertains only to food and beverages."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Wilson yield? Would it be all right for the bartender to flip with with you to see whether he is going to pay for it or you?"

Senator Wilson: "Yes."

The motion of Senator Wilson carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, following line 27, insert a new subsection to read as follows:

"(g) Bona fide nonprofit fraternal organizations existing nation-wide shall be entitled to own and operate for the use of their members and their guests, slot machines on the premises where they conduct their usual and customary activities. They shall pay to the state of Washington a master license fee of one thousand dollars for each such slot machine and an additional ten percent of the gross revenue derived from the operation of each machine. Such machines shall be operated and maintained in accordance with rules and regulations to be promulgated by the state gambling commission. Persons owning, operating, and playing slot machines authorized hereunder, shall not be subject to the criminal or civil penalties otherwise provided in this chapter or in the Washington criminal code."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talley failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President, a moment ago Senator Talley asked a question about whether a coin could be flipped or some such activity could be done with respect to whether the house or the customer would pay for a beverage. I would like to clarify my answer by stating that nothing in this amendment is intended to overrule any regulations that the state liquor board may now have in effect."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Will you inform Senator Wilson I didn't care for his clarification?"

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 601, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator North: "Does this require a sixty percent majority?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator North."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Van Hollebeke if he would yield? Senator Van Hollebeke, this has been described as a poor man's gambling club. As I understand what you just said, it will require that each person who sits in a chair will have to pay two dollars an hour to sit there. Is that right?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "That is correct."

Senator Guess: "If a man gambles and doesn't have a job, for instance, he gambles forty hours a week. Does this mean that his use of that club is going to be three hundred and fifty-two dollars a month?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "He is going to need additional revenue if he doesn't have a job to do this. I don't think the one you are thinking of is going to be in the picture very long at two dollars an hour.

Unless he is a good card player, Senator McDermott mentioned. It does put in the statute what is now being done by the gambling commission, a dollar per half-hour fee."

Senator Guess: "Shouldn't we have put in there a discount rate if he gambles more than forty hours in any one week, shouldn't he get the rest of the month free?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I think that would be reasonable, maybe some kind of a loser's discount, too. Do you want to move it back to second reading?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen, additional clarification. The fee that is established is strictly a maximum, and what we found out in committee is that these card rooms, the card game was originally designed as a commercial stimulant. That is, no one could make a profit from actually offering the cards or facilities for playing. What has happened is that the facilities offering these card games have found that when people are playing cards seriously they don't drink, they don't take time to eat, and so forth, so they have been losing money. This just merely provides that they don't have to juggle their books when they do make a charge for people to come in and play cards. Senator Guess, I am sure that a limited number of them will charge the maximum fee allowable by the gambling commission."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator, in your amendment it makes no reference to juveniles. Would you interpret this that students in a high school could go to the local hamburger stand and play dice for their Big Mac's?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Gould, I believe that would be permitted under the wording of this amendment. May I say further however, that since time immemorial, starting probably with the arrival of Lewis and Clark, in local restaurants, at least in the small towns that I am familiar with, each morning the businessman and some clerks and other people have gathered around the largest table in the restaurant and have had their morning coffee, have obtained a cup and some biodegradable dice from the waitress and have had a game of what they call 'horse' or some variation of it to see who is going to pay for the coffee. It provides about ten minutes of very innocent entertainment. Nobody gets hurt because the total bill comes to a dollar or a dollar and a half, or so on. That is all that I have in mind with this amendment, and I think its passage will result in nothing more than that."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Would Senator Van Hollebeke yield to a question? Senator Van Hollebeke, the gambling commission now has one of its rules and regulations to permit a dollar for half an hour for a seat at a table. If this bill were not to pass, would this in your opinion cause the gambling commission to rescind that rule?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I would doubt it."

Senator Wojahn: "Thank you, you have answered my question."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 601, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 601, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27, nays, 17; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Bottiger, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Mardesich, Matson, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Wilson—27.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Lewis, McDermott, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Ridder, Scott, von Reichbauer, Washington, Wojahn—17.

Absent or not voting: Senator Fleming—1.

Excused: Senators Bausch, Cunningham, Marsh, Woody—4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 601, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional sixty percent majority, was declared lost.

MOTION

At 12:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Donohue was excused.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, it is the tenants."

Senator Rasmussen: "The people that are the tenants—"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, the people that are living there."

Senator Rasmussen: "What does it do for the people that previously owned the houses and were condemned and forced out of them?"

Senator McDermott: "I would yield to Senator Fleming, if I may, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, in answer to your question, I don't think this bill does anything different to those people than could be done without the bill. This bill is mainly concerned with those individuals that have been renting or leasing these properties from the highway department, so as to give them the first right of refusal in buying this property because they can't do it now under state law, and that is basically the only thing it deals with."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does not allow first priority to those people that had their houses condemned."

Senator Fleming: "If they don't have that ability at this point in time under the law, this would not do anything to change it, from my understanding."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Senate Bill No. 3074 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "Will Senator Talley yield to a question? Senator Talley, does this mean, then, that a company in the state of Washington who imports, say, a product from outside of the state of Washington, does this mean that that person can then turn around and sell it outside the state of Washington again and be free of that taxing situation within the state when they first import it?"

Senator Talley: "Senator Buffington, what we are talking about here is when merchandise is unloaded off a ship it is placed into a warehouse, and it is still under the ownership of whoever either owns it or who has purchased it or who intends to purchase it, or he intends to market it. Until it comes out of that case, it is considered cargo. It is cargo when it came in, been unloaded or placed in storage to be forwarded to whoever is going to buy those goods. Under this new proposal those goods in storage will be subject to a tax. They can say what they like, and they seem to have their facts, but I know for a fact that we lost a big tire contract for one simple reason because they were afraid they were going to impose a tax."

"Senator Jones, if you are smarter than I am and you know the code of the waterfront, maybe you know, I don't."

Senator Buffington: "Mr. President, if I may continue to ask my question of Senator Talley, I am concerned more about the individual—I still am not clear. Is it the person who owns whatever it is that is being shipped in does not necessarily have his business here in the state of Washington. Is that what you are saying?"

Senator Talley: "It is moving through, most of it."

Senator Buffington: "Moving through. All right, thank you very much."

Senator Talley: "It is unloaded here and forwarded."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, what is the penalty for a felony conviction? Gross misdemeanor is, what, up to two hundred and fifty dollars?"

Senator Francis: "Gross misdemeanor, I believe, is a thousand dollars and up to a year in jail. A felony is either, is prison time. I am not sure what the maximum is on it under the present Title 9A."

Senator Rasmussen: "It could be ten years and a ten thousand dollar fine?"

Senator Francis: "It could be."

Senator Rasmussen: "And it is the feeling of the judiciary committee that the penalty of a year in jail and up to a thousand dollars fine is not severe enough?"

Senator Francis: "It would probably depend on the circumstances of the individual crime. The potential penalty is not always assigned to someone. The main reason we changed it was not the penalty alone, although certainly, they are facing a larger penalty, and we hope that that will be a great deterrent to using these devices to defraud the phone company, but more than that, it was the law enforcement, that is, the ability to catch them and the ability to prosecute them that is there with a felony that prompted us to go along with this House bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Not owning a telephone company, or having no relationship with one, I would still think that this is rather using a baseball bat to hit a mosquito. With only one case that I can recall that has been of any major proportion which concerned a movie star that was in the Seattle area, I can see the telephone company has gotten to its feet, so I suspect that I am going to be mowed down by a telephone pole, but I do think that that is going to a felony on this type of an operation is rather severe, and I don't think there is too much of it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "I hate to confuse Senator Rasmussen with facts when he already has his mind made up, but the simple case is here that in the case of the so-called movie star, that he ran up a some ten or twelve thousand dollar bill. The prosecution made the mistake of filing it in a lower court. When he appealed, they could't hear it in superior court. That was the problem. There has been a number of cases, incidentally on this little jobby that was developed by three electronics students from the University of Florida, I believe, working on harmonic ringing. There is a case now in Seattle where there are three people that have been arrested, and they didn't even have a telephone in their house. It is possible to ring in on a circuit with this harmonic ringing that you hear those funny little beep tones when you are pushing the push button telephone without even using a telephone instrument, consequently bypassing the data processing equipment that records the call and how long it lasted, and so forth.

"In the case of the gentleman that—who is the namesake for one of our political writers, Mr. Cummings, that they did settle it out of court, but they couldn't take it to superior court because it had been filed in lower court first. Therefore we need the felony."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Buffington, the rules were suspended and House Bill No. 580 was returned to second reading.

Senator Buffington moved adoption of the following amendment:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Henry yield? Senator Henry, did the 'dimwit' down in Southwest Washington have any choice, or was he just following the law as we have written it?"

Senator Henry: "I think you have noticed in the service and everything else, you put a pair of stripes on a guy's arm, and he immediately becomes Napoleon. I think there is plenty of justification for him to, if he could do this, he could also do away with fires in fireplaces which, no doubt, would be the next step."

Senator Francis: "Senator, that doesn't answer my question. I just want to know, does the law, right now before we amend it, give him any authority to look the other way on that historical fireplace?"

Senator Henry: "Well, I can't answer that, but the press and everybody else down there seemed to think that it did, including the federal—this is a federal park incidentally, and the man in charge is a U. S. government employee, and was considerably upset about this. He felt there was plenty of space there for the man to use a little discretion."

It is exclusively paid for with local funds. I am wondering if we are not cross threading that particular system."

Senator Mardesich: "You may have a point. Mr. President, it may require that the volunteer fire system be excluded, and if you want to hold that measure over, we will check that out."

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2910, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger, Bailey, Rasmussen, Beck, Lewis, Hayner, Sellar and Benitz) (by Governor Ray request):

Revising statutes relating to energy facility site selection.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910. On April 20, 1977, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2910 and the substitute bill was amended at that time.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910 will not be required to be considered in order.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 4, line 15, after "pipeline" insert "of the following dimensions".

On page 4, line 19, after "pipeline" insert "of the following dimensions".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, this is not with respect to an amendment, and may be somewhat out of order, but I wish that Senator Bottiger would yield to a question. Senator Bottiger, with respect to the language which sets the pipeline larger than fourteen inches, you are saying, in effect, on page 4, yes. You are saying in effect that such a line will not have to come under the siting law, but would rather be governed by the interstate national gas pipeline regulations, is that it?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator Mardesich, that is not what I am saying. On page 4, you have a list. As a matter of fact, the first several pages are talking about those kinds of transmission facilities that must go to the siting council. If you will notice that we are saying 'a pipeline larger than fourteen inches' so if it is fourteen inches or less, and less than fifteen miles, then they don't have to go to the siting council.

"If they are larger than, or go more than fifteen miles, then they must go to the siting council, so Senator Guess's amendment of the following dimensions, 'a pipeline of the following dimensions' and then talks about both of the two subjects. They don't have to go to the siting council."

Senator Mardesich: "Would that pertain to an oil line, as well, then?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, sir. It is a natural gas, synthetic fuel or liquified petroleum gas transmission line."

Senator Mardesich: "Question. Could a company put in a line of fourteen inches and then lay down a series of lines fourteen inches or less in tandem and bypass the requirements of the siting law if they were moving, say, from Cherry Point to the Canadian border?"

Senator Bottiger: "No."

Senator Mardesich: "Tell me why not. It seems to me that is possible."

Senator Bottiger: "First of all, we are talking about natural gas, synthetic gas—O.K. Now you are saying, could we put in a natural gas pipeline—several small ones? In my opinion, the answer would be 'no.' It is for the purpose of delivering gas to a distribution facility. I don't see the problem, and I think that any interpretation that would allow them to multiple-lay lines would be clearly in violation of the intent of this thing, and I don't foresee that kind of a problem."

Senator Monohon moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 8, line 3, after "proposed" strike "port" and insert "((port)) energy"

On page 8, line 4, after "as a" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "((non-voting member to the council)) voting member to the council. For an energy facility which is proposed to be located in more than one port district, the Washington public ports association shall appoint, as a voting member, one representative member and an alternate to the council to represent all such port districts. The representative or alternate of the Washington public ports association shall exercise a proxy vote as directed by the appropriate port district at such times as the council considers the site for such port district."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Monohon failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 8, line 17, after "regulations" insert ", pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW,"

On page 9, line 13, after "certification" insert ": PROVIDED, That any on-site inspection required by the council shall be performed by other state agencies pursuant to interagency agreement: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the council shall retain authority for determining compliance relative to monitoring"

On page 9, line 32, after "dimensions" strike "of an energy facility defined in RCW 80.50.020 and insert "((defined in RCW 80.50.020)) set forth in RCW 80.50.020(7) and (17), as now or hereafter amended"

On page 10, line 4, after "dimensions" strike "of an energy facility defined in RCW 80.50.020" and insert "((of an energy facility)) set forth in RCW 80.50.020(7) and (17)"

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Bottiger, the amendment by Senator Bottiger to page 15, beginning on line 30 on the desk of the Secretary of the Senate, was withdrawn.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 15, line 30 after "chapter." insert:

"(2) In an action brought against the Council, applicant, or the certificate holder seeking a judgment for damages or equitable relief, the plaintiff shall be required to enter into a bond, in such a sum as shall be fixed by the court. In determining the amount of the bond posted, the court may consider the probable cost to the public in terms of inconvenience, delayed use of the proposed facilities, and escalation of costs of delayed construction of the facilities that may be incurred as a result of a delay subsequently found to be without good cause.

(3) In any action brought against the Council, applicant, or the certificate holder, the prevailing party shall be awarded costs and reasonable attorney's fees which arise from the action."

Renumber remaining subsections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, assuming what you say is correct, and that is if an injunction is formally asked, then there is a statute which, in substance, requires a bond, could there not be a situation however, where an injunction is not sought but the practical effect of bringing an action would inevitably delay the proceeding until such time as the action was brought to a culmination even though a formal injunction is not asked?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, there surely could. A large suit which after analysis has some merit, the bonding company might say, 'stop until you get that solved.'"

Senator Clarke: "Could I ask one other as you go along? Assuming that is true, the amendment still would leave it entirely to the discretion of the court so that if the court felt that the action, in effect, was not frivolous and had merit, then you would expect the court not to require a bond. My philosophy in connection with this is that this is aimed primarily at preventing delays through frivolous suits, and it leaves it entirely up to the discretion of the court, in substance, to decide whether the suit appears to be frivolous, and if so, to require a bond, otherwise not to require a bond."

Senator Bottiger: "My experience with what has happened in highway construction is that is exactly the occasion. The courts have set bonds from three thousand to thirty thousand, and the judge weighs the facts, and if there is merit to it he may set the bond a little lower."

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, doesn't this just apply to an action against the public entity? What about a private entity that is involved in developing?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Day's amendment says, 'in an action brought against the council, applicant or the certificate holder seeking a judgment.' The other statute that we already have on the books could—'injunction, restraining order, performance of work under a construction contract for a public contracting body amongst the factors.' Now, the council is the one that grants the certificate, and I think the existing injunction language would apply whether it is Puget Power or anybody else."

Senator Day: "Northern Tier or who?"

Senator Bottiger: "Northern Tier or anybody else."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, the thing that is in my mind is when you mention in your speech that this is just to maintain some justice relating to those people who would like a king size—valid after the construction has commenced, I can understand that argument. The other question, though, is since it is any action brought against the applicant, the council or certificate holder—that is after the certificate has been granted—the council or applicant, are you including within that assessing damages against somebody who intervenes after the whole construction is done but there has been something wrong in the operation of the facility?"

Senator Guess: "No, Senator. It has to do prior to, or during the action of trying to get the approval to start up the plant, and it doesn't have anything to do—. If the company constructs the plant in a manner that is not in accordance with the certificate that it handles, that would not apply, in my opinion."

Senator Woody: "Thank you. That would also mean that you are not in any way suggesting to change the amendment which is on lines 26 through 30 of that same page."

Senator Guess: "No, sir. This does not change that. It is just after the chapter. You add this to it."

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Francis, Talley, Goltz, Wilson, Clarke, Buffington, Grant, Rasmussen and Bluechel.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Herr was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Guess to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 32; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Buffington, Clarke, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Pullen, Sellar, Wanamaker—14.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Bluechel, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—32.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Herr, Newschwander—3.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 9, line 11, after "monitoring" strike "of" and insert "through existing state agencies"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, I am not in any way trying to throw up an unfriendly amendment. All I want to make sure is, that when the monitoring is done, that it will be done by existing state agencies. If the monitoring is done by the federal agency, then we have nothing to do with it, so that is not what I am driving at. All I want to do is to keep the facility siting council from building an empire."

Senator Böttiger: "Senator Guess, you courteously recommended an amendment which our staff went over and approved which says, 'provided that any on-site inspection required by the council shall be performed by other state agencies pursuant to interagency agreement; provided further that the council shall retain authority for determining compliance with monitoring.' I think that does it, and I see Senator Lewis nodding his head because we heard testimony that many times the applicant will do the monitoring and just submit his reports. It sounds to me like you are duplicating."

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Guess, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 27 after the period insert "In no event shall these costs exceed $60,000 per biennium."

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

After "exceed" strike "$60,000" and before "per biennium." insert "the specific appropriation for such costs"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Guess, the amendment, as amended, was withdrawn.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 12, line 6 after "determination" strike all material through "unacceptable" on line 13 and insert:

"To recommend supersession shall be based upon a finding that sites which are in compliance with applicable land use plans and zoning ordinances are unacceptable."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield? In quickly looking this over, starting from subsection 1 of this amendatory portion, going through subsection 3, and including the portion you would like to strike and the insertion, I can't make a determination as to what geographic area of this investigation would have to take place. You know, you are finding the sites which are in compliance with the applicable land use plans and zoning ordinances aren't acceptable. Would that be within the same county, and if so, where can you show me that in this act, or would they have to go on a statewide search to determine, number one, what land use plans and zoning ordinances would permit this and then make findings as to why we can't use them. Of course, it is pretty simple, you can't put them in Okanogan County, you can't get a tanker up there, but I would hope that they don't have to go through the statewide search and make these findings and determinations."

Senator Guess: "Senator, I do not believe that the council would be inclined to make a finding upon a site anywhere other than where the people that made the application are trying to get that site located, and so the council is composed of responsible appointed people. The Governor finally makes the decision, and certainly it is far easier and less technically subject to harassment or to delays if you give the council the right to recommend supersession based upon a finding that the sites which are in compliance with the applicable land use are unacceptable. So, I think that the council has good background, and I think that they know it."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Guess failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Guess moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 17, line 1 after "reporter," strike "additional staff salaries, wages and employee benefits, goods and services, travel expenses within the state,"

On page 17, line 3 strike ", and insert "that"

On page 17, line 22, beginning with "(c)", strike all of the material through "certification." on page 18, line 16.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Guess failed and the amendments were not adopted.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 20, after "environment" strike ", ecology" and insert "~~((ecology))~~" and after "wildlife, and" strike "the ecology" and insert "~~((the ecology))~~"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 35, after "provide" and before "energy" strike "abundant"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 17, after "assistant attorney general" strike the valance of the sentence and insert "~~((or a special assistant attorney general as a counsel for the environment who shall be a member of the bar of the state of Washington.))~~ as a counsel for the environment."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 12, line 5, after "upon a" strike "two-thirds" and insert "majority"

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Wilson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Bottiger, Wojahn, Grant, Guess, McDermott, Monohon, Woody and Marsh.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Mardesich, as amended by Senator Matson.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 13, line 5, after "conditions" strike "comparable to" and insert "designed to recognize the purpose of"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, before we leave second reading, would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, would you direct yourself to page 7, please? We provide on line 16 for a proposed energy facility and it relates to the county site, or counties involved or a series of counties. On line 32 where there are cities involved, we talk about an energy plant rather than an energy facility, and I am wondering in the case of a city where the transmission line is passing through rather than being the location of a plant, the city would then have a representative on the council. It is an awful fine distinction, but if you look to your definitions, your definition is of energy plant, and not energy facility that is provided up on line 16, probably an awful fine distinction, but I wonder if there was some reason for it, it was an oversight, and what the possible effect is of the difference."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Mardesich, an energy plant is defined. An energy facility is defined. I think you have picked it right on the point. If it is simply a transmission line going through a city, you wouldn't have to appoint a city council member to serve on the siting council act. If it were a plant located, like, say, an oil port at the city of Port Angeles, we felt that since they also had permits and things of that nature, that they should be on the final decision, but simply for a transmission facility, we didn't feel that we should add an additional one to the siting council as a voting member."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, that is exactly why I asked the question, so that that would be very clear, and I hope it is on the record."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield, please? Senator Bottiger, if you will turn your attention to page 17. It has to do with an amendment which we rejected but I would like to, before we pass from second reading, ask you the impact of the statement that is contained on lines 31 and 32. It says, 'Each certificate holder, within thirty days of execution of the site certification agreement, shall deposit twenty thousand dollars, or such amount as may be specified by council rule, to cover the costs . . . of this subsection.' This means that the energy, the company that holds the certificate is, without time limit, going to have to keep on deposit twenty thousand dollars. Is this the true meaning of the—?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, Senator Guess. That is not the meaning, nor is it the practice. The practice before the siting council has, under the former law which had them paying for the cost of the expert hired to write the environmental impact statement, they would deposit their twenty-five thousand dollars, and when and if that amount was used up, the siting council would so inform them. They would have an election to deposit additional money, or drop the application. The twenty thousand dollars, it is our intent, would operate exactly the same way, but if the additional cost, and we are talking about the court reporters and things, had consumed that twenty thousand dollars, they would be so notified. The industry accepts this system, and we had no objection to that form of deposit. This was a compromise worked out."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wanamaker: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, is it the intention of this bill that the siting council would be authorized and empowered to issue conditions on the construction and operation of nuclear power plants?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Wanamaker, you had better qualify that a little bit more because I really don't understand what you mean."

Senator Wanamaker: "Well, would the siting council still be empowered, or would they be empowered in any way to come out with rules and regulations on the construction and the operation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Wanamaker, no, that is all done by the federal government. We are talking about the effect on the local community, but as far as the safety of the building of a nuclear plant, no, that is all federal."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, this bill expands the powers of the siting council to include construction and operation conditions. The question is, to what extent should the siting council become involved in the application of the guidelines and the monitoring of effect to the environment and ecology once the certificate holder begins construction, and later puts the facility into operation?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, to my knowledge the Satsop and the Skagit, for sure, and possibly the ones over in Benton County, the site certification agreement is a contract between the applicant and the siting council that they will do certain things. A question existed as to whether they had the authority to enforce that agreement. This bill clarifies that and says, 'Yes, they do.' With that exception, I know of no great additional power that this bill gives the siting council."

Senator Guess: "In other words, Senator, you do not expect that the facility siting council will have to expand its staff remarkably to patrol and police the operation of the plants after they get built?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Guess, I don't believe they asked the ways and means committee for anything, and I am almost sure they didn't get anything if they did ask."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2910, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 16; excused, 3.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, the motion for reconsideration by Senator Mardesich on the passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 104 by the Senate on May 11, 1977 was ordered held for consideration today.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed House Bill No. 104 passed the Senate.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 104, by Representatives King, Berentson, Conner, Erickson, Fortson, Grier, Hansen, Knedlik, Kreidler, Moreau, North, Owen, Pearsall, Sherman, Shinpoch, Struthers, Vrooman and Walk:

Exempting volunteer firemen from the state minimum wage act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 104 was returned to second reading.

Senator Mardesich moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 30, after "section" insert "or for purposes of membership or qualification in any state, local government or publicly supported retirement system other than that provided under RCW 41.24"

On page 2, line 33, after "services" insert ": PROVIDED, That such voluntary services and any compensation therefor shall not affect or add to qualification, entitlement or benefit rights under any state, local government or publicly supported retirement system other than that provided under RCW 41.24"

On page 4, line 1, after "services" insert "or for purposes of granting, affecting or adding to any qualification, entitlement or benefit rights under any state, local government or publicly supported retirement system other than that provided under RCW 41.24"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, perhaps we can clear it up for the record. Senator Mardesich, by the adoption of these amendments do you intend to add anybody to the provisions of 41.24 who are not already under that retirement system?"

Senator Mardesich: "There is no intent to add anyone to RCW 41.24 or qualify anyone under that. In fact, with respect to them, those people who are in the volunteer firemen's benefit systems, retirement systems, is designed to protect their interests and, at the same time, to prohibit the use of compensation paid to volunteers as qualifying others in any other system for the retirement system."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question, please? I am wondering in looking at the language which we are adding, which I concur totally with your intent, would this provide that we would be denying volunteers who are paid a nominal amount of compensation from qualifying for social security which is a public supported retirement system?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't think that that would be possible because we can't prohibit anyone from being under the system, only the federals could do that."

Senator Morrison: "So that is not your intent."

Senator Mardesich: "It is not my intent, nor do I think that we could do it."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Beck, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 104, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Bluechel: "The act was last amended in 1965. Now, it was either then or before that time."

Senator Grant: "Senator Bluechel, further, would this prohibit then a second, third or fourth class city from doing any jobs in excess of five thousand dollars, such as construction of playground equipment within the city? The limit was a five thousand dollar limit? This project was six thousand dollars?"

Senator Bluechel: "Yes, this would do exactly that. This would say that when you go above the five thousand dollar limit which every other local government entity adheres to, although there are some differences in the limits, that you must—and you bid—you cannot just summarily reject all bids and do it yourself. That provision is a very unfair provision. In the first place, you would not get proper bidding. The people would suspect, the bidders would suspect that this was the reason for the bid was just to go through the motions. Most of these are not in that type of category. These types of things vary widely, whether this be purchasing or whether this be labor, but it is definitely, to answer your question, specifically yes, it would prevent exactly that."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

COMMUTATION ORDER
ANTHONY TAKAHASHI

Office of the Governor, May 12, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Forty-fifth Regular Session of the Legislature.

On the 31st day of March, 1967, Anthony Takahashi was sentenced by the Superior Court for the State of Washington, in and for the County of King, to a term of life imprisonment for the crime of Murder in the First Degree. Mr. Takahashi had been continuously confined, since April 5, 1967, within a Washington State Adult Corrections Facility in the excess of nine years where his conduct and record have been exemplary. Because of the statutory minimum sentence provided in RCW Chapter 9.95, substantial additional incarceration will be required before he will be eligible for parole pursuant to the authority of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

Petitions and letters have been received on behalf of Anthony Takahashi urging that his life sentence now be commuted so that he will be eligible for parole on the grounds that Anthony Takahashi is clearly able to assume a responsible role in society, is demonstrably rehabilitated and will not constitute a threat to other persons and will not be benefited by "further incarceration"; that Anthony Takahashi has developed, while at Monroe Reformatory, a skill as a trained water pollution control plant operator and has the opportunity for employment in this field, and the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles has recommended, as amended, to the Governor that the life sentence of Anthony Takahashi be commuted.

All information available to me with respect to Anthony Takahashi has been carefully reviewed and the recommendations of public officers who are knowledgeable of his present circumstances have been considered. I have concluded that further incarceration of Anthony Takahashi is not in the best interests of society or of himself, that he is demonstrably rehabilitated, that he will be able to fill a responsible role in the community and will not be a threat to other persons.

On March 30, 1977, a commutation order was signed to commute the life sentence of Anthony Takahashi and authorize the Washington State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles to parole Anthony Takahashi subject to the complete control, supervision, and authority of said Board, which authority would include any and all action deemed appropriate by the Board including the authority to revoke the parole and return Anthony Takahashi to imprisonment.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

(1) Requests for advisory opinions may be made by legislators, legislative employees, or members of the public. A request must be stated hypothetically unless the individual requests a specific opinion concerning his own conduct. Requests must be written, signed, and directed to the chairman of the appropriate board as specified in subsection (2) of this section. Requests shall supply such information as the board requires to enable it to issue the opinion. The identity of the person making the request shall be known only to the chairman of such appropriate board, unless such confidentiality is waived in the request.

(2) Requests shall be directed to the chairman of the joint board: PROVIDED, That all requests concerning the conduct of a particular member or employee of the legislature shall be sent to the chairman of the senate or house board as appropriate.

(3) Within thirty days of the receipt of a request, unless delay is unavoidable, a board shall either: (a) Issue a written advisory opinion, which shall not contain information which reveals the identity of any individual; or (b) notify the person requesting such opinion that the request is beyond its jurisdiction, or that there are insufficient facts upon which an opinion can be based, or that the request is frivolous, or that the request is made for the purpose of harassment.

If delay is unavoidable, the person requesting the opinion shall be notified as to the status of the request within said thirty day period and at thirty day intervals until such time as action is taken.

(4) Upon receipt, requests shall be assigned a reference number. Each board shall maintain and keep current for public inspection a status sheet which shall contain with respect to each request: Its reference number, the date received by the board, and its present status.

(5) The secretary of the senate shall make available to the public copies of the status sheets and advisory opinions issued by the senate and joint boards and the chief clerk of the house of representatives shall make available to the public copies of the status sheets and advisory opinions issued by the house of representatives and joint boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 44.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each board shall have the following powers, duties, and functions:

(1) Issue advisory opinions pursuant to section 7 of this 1977 amendatory act.

(2) To provide a continuing program of education, assistance, and information to legislators with regard to legislative ethics.

(3) To make such rules for its own functioning and exercise such powers as may be appropriate for the discharge of the responsibilities of the board not in conflict with this chapter or the joint rules of the legislature.

(4) Investigate possible unethical conduct by legislators or legislative employees of its own house. Any such investigation shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) A complaint may be filed by a legislator, legislative employee, member of the public, a board, or member of a board. Complaints must be written, signed under oath, and directed to the chairman of the appropriate board. The board shall determine if the complaint is within its jurisdiction and whether there are sufficient facts alleged which if true may support a finding of unethical conduct.

(b) If the board finds that the complaint is not within its jurisdiction, or is frivolous, or is made for the purpose of harassment, or that there are insufficient facts alleged which if true may support a finding of unethical conduct, it shall dismiss the complaint, so notify the complainant, the person charged, and the public with a copy of the complaint and the board's reasons for dismissal.

(c) If the board finds that a complaint is within its jurisdiction and there are sufficient facts alleged which if true may support a finding of unethical conduct, such board shall hold an investigative hearing and send a notice to the complainant and the person charged which shall include a copy of the complaint. The person charged shall receive at least thirty days' written notice of such hearing. The notice shall provide that the person charged shall be entitled to request the board to set an earlier hearing date, present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, be represented by counsel, and file an affidavit of prejudice within ten days of receipt of the notice as provided in subsection (4)(f) of this section.

(d) Investigative hearings shall be closed to the public unless, at least seventy-two hours prior to the hearing, the chairman receives from the person charged a written request that the hearing be open to the public.

(e) A board may designate a subcommittee composed of at least two members of the board to conduct investigative hearings. The board, or if designated thereby, any member or subcommittee of the board, may issue subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence relating to any matter under examination by the board or involved in any hearing, administer oaths or affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. In case of disobedience to a subpoena, the board may invoke the aid of any superior court of the state. Such court may, in case of refusal to obey a subpoena issued to such person, issue an order requiring such person to appear before the board, to produce documentary evidence, and/or to give evidence, and any failure to obey such order may be punished by that court as contempt. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every public official, state agency, and local governmental unit shall furnish to the board any documents, records, data, statements, or information which the board designates as being necessary for the exercise of its functions, powers or duties.

(f) Members of a board shall be disqualified in the following instances: (i) Members shall disqualify themselves in any case involving a person whom they cannot judge impartially; and (ii) the person charged may file an affidavit of prejudice against a member or members whom the person believes is unable to make an impartial judgment. Only one affidavit of prejudice may be filed in a single investigation. The member or members against whom the affidavit is filed shall be disqualified. Whenever a member of the board is disqualified, the appropriate caucus chairman shall appoint pro tem, a replacement legislator or lay member as appropriate. Such appointment shall be subject to the consent of the caucus wherein the appointment is made.

(g) At the conclusion of the investigative hearings, a statement of findings of fact shall be prepared based upon evidence presented at the hearings. A copy of this statement shall be sent to the person charged who shall have at least ten days to offer a written rebuttal to the board. The board, on the basis of the findings of fact, any written rebuttal, and applicable standards of ethical conduct shall make a preliminary report which shall be subject to review and the rendering of a decision at the final hearing. Copies of the findings of fact, preliminary report, and notice of the date for a final hearing shall be sent by registered mail to the person charged. Such person may rebut the report not later than one week prior to the final hearing date, but shall in any event have a period of not less than two weeks in which to respond.

(h) The final hearing shall be open to the public. There shall be available at the hearing copies of the board's findings of fact, preliminary report, and any written rebuttal received by the board from the person charged. The board shall, on the basis of these documents and any final statement made by the person charged, render a final decision as to whether the facts justify a finding of unethical conduct. A final decision must be agreed upon by at least six members of the board. The board shall notify the appropriate law enforcement agency directly if the board makes a finding that it has reasonable grounds to believe that a criminal violation has occurred.

(i) If the board in its final decision determines that the facts support a finding of unethical conduct, such decision shall be transmitted to the chief clerk of the house or the secretary of the senate as appropriate. Such officer shall deliver the report to his house at such time as that house is in session, for such action as that house deems appropriate.

(j) Upon receipt, complaints shall be assigned a reference number. Each board shall maintain and keep current for public inspection a status sheet which shall contain with respect to each complaint: Its reference number, the date received by the board, and its present status, including the date of any hearings scheduled. The name of the complainant and the person charged shall be entered on the status sheet following the notification provided for in subsection (4)(c) of this section.

The secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives shall make available to the public copies of the status sheets, findings of fact, written rebuttals, preliminary reports, and final decisions issued by their respective boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 44.60 RCW a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Clarke to the amendment by Senator Goltz and others:

On page 13, after line 2, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and to chapter 42.17 RCW a new section to be codified as RCW 42.17.242 to read as follows:

Every elected official and every chief executive state officer who is subject to the provisions of RCW 43.17.020 or 42.17.240, who held an office or directorship in a corporation, or held a general partnership interest or a joint venture interest or an ownership interest of ten percent or more in any corporation, shall be exempt from complying with the provisions of RCW 42.17.240(1)(g)(ii), if such official or chief executive state officer requests from the commission such exemption and proves that the furnishing of such information might substantially and materially adversely affect the competitive position of such corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, association, or other business or commercial entity in which such elected official or chief executive state officer held an office or directorship or general partnership or corporate ownership interest of ten percent or more.

After the commission grants such exemption, the elected official or chief executive state officer shall be required to disclose to the commission during his term of office the name of each corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or other business or commercial entity from which the business entity of the reporting official has received two thousand five hundred dollars or more through any contract between it and the official's state agency or the chief executive state officer. The official to whom such exemption has been granted shall also be disqualified from participating in any negotiations for or the making of any contract between such entity and his office or agency."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the question of scope and object on the Rasmussen amendment.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, Substitute Senate Bill number 2873 as amended is a very narrowly drawn bill which relates specifically to legislative ethics. The Rasmussen amendment would amend a section of the law which was passed by Referendum 36 in the last election, and while I agree that it has substantial merit, I think that what Senator Rasmussen said makes a lot of sense; I only suggest that it should go on another bill or in a bill on its own, rather than to be attached to a bill which is as narrowly drawn as this one is."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3110 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I notice on sub 13 on page 6 that the rehabilitation of the Capitol Lake by dredging the lake bottom is quoted at one million, nine hundred and seventeen thousand, and yet the initial dredging plans call for two million, two hundred and ninety-one thousand, and then for dredging for the next twenty years, a total of seven hundred and sixty three thousand. The estimated total cost for 1983 is three million, one hundred and sixty-five thousand, which exceeds that in the engineering report. Has the committee had an opportunity to look over the CH2M engineering report on this project?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, in answer to your question, the staff did look over the project information that was given to us and the project figure, and I don't have that before me right now, is increased slightly as you can see, because of inflation.

"The reason that this was included in the budget primarily is because it was a project that fit the category of reappropriations of existing projects, a continuation. Consequently, it was added into the budget."

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-37

By Senators Goltz, Jones and Sellar:

WHEREAS, The number of subjects for which state commissions might be formed is rapidly being depleted; and

WHEREAS, Broccoli is a minority vegetable which is deserving of equal representation, protection against discrimination, and full consideration of comparable worth; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has not heretofore been blessed with the presence of a broccoli queen and her court; and

WHEREAS, School lunch programs, state B & O tax policy, the variable broccoli tax, and restaurant substitutes have largely ignored the broccoli farmer and his need to prosper in spite of drought, sweat and tears; and

WHEREAS, There are still a few qualified citizens, such as the editor of the Bellingham Herald, who are not yet appointed to any commission but who would be willing and eager to serve on a broccoli commission—doing the public good, reveling in the limelight of public service, earning credits for a generous state pension system, and giving broccoli the place that it deserves on our tables and in our society;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recommend to the Governor that she consider an executive request for the creation of a Broccoli Commission for the 1978 Legislative Session; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That all pressures for an interim study in its place be resisted, inasmuch as interims have been studied for years without any scientifically validated knowledge about interims—except that, like Napoleon's Army, interims have gotten shorter as the legislative wars have taken their toll of our interimhood; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That we go to lunch where broccoli is clearly an energy source, thereby keeping this resolution alive for further consideration pursuant to the joint cutoff resolution of this legislature.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the second line of the fifth paragraph of the resolution as follows:

After "Bellingham Herald," insert "former Senator Robert R. Greive and former Representative Paul Barden,"

MOTION

Debate ensued.

The motion failed.

After the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, no property taxes collected by a school district pursuant to voter authorization under RCW 84.52.052 shall be used to increase the average compensation levels for certificated and classified employees in the district: PROVIDED, That any school district which otherwise would be unable to maintain its 1976-77 cost per full time equivalent pupil in the 1977-78 school year, may collect taxes pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 and may expend such property taxes for any purpose necessary to maintain such 1976-77 FTE cost. PROVIDED FURTHER, That any school district with a district average salary for certificated staff or classified staff below the respective statewide average salary for certificated staff or classified staff during the preceding school year, may collect taxes pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 and may expend such property taxes for the purpose of increasing such average salary levels for certificated staff or classified staff up to but not to exceed the statewide average for the preceding year.

by the superintendent of public instruction in an amount equal to such expenditure. The legislature declares that by fiscal year 1979, no taxes approved by the electors of a school district pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 shall be used to fund basic programs of education as defined in Chapter _____, Laws of 1977 (SHB 960).

The passage of this excess levy will provide additional funding for certain special programs, which the elected school board of this district believes would enhance the delivery of quality education. The failure of this levy would not affect the basic educational program of this district.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 12, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2032, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 29.24.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A "convention" for the purposes of this chapter, is an organized assemblage of ~~((at least one hundred))~~ registered voters representing an independent candidate or candidates or a new or minor political party, organization, or principle ~~((, or in lieu thereof ten registered voters from each congressional district in the state of Washington))~~. As used in this chapter, the term "election jurisdiction" shall mean the state or any political subdivision or jurisdiction of the state from which partisan officials are elected. This term shall include county commissioner districts or council districts for members of a county legislative authority, counties for county officials who are nominated and elected on a county-wide basis, legislative districts for members of the legislature, congressional districts for members of congress, and the state for president and vice president, members of the United States senate, and state officials who are elected on a state-wide basis.

Sec. 2. Section 29.24.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any new or minor political party is not entitled to participate in a state primary election but must nominate candidates for public office))~~ All nominations of candidates for partisan public office by other than a major political party shall be made in a convention held on the ~~((same day that state primary elections are held))~~ last Saturday immediately preceding the first day for filing declarations of candidacy under RCW 29.18.030.

Sec. 3. Section 29.24.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

To be valid, a ~~((minor party))~~ convention must:

(1) Be attended by at least ~~((one hundred registered voters; or in lieu thereof ten registered voters from each congressional district in the state of Washington))~~ a number of registered voters who have lived in the election jurisdiction for which nominations are to be made for at least thirty days immediately preceding the date of the convention, which number is equal to one for each ten thousand voters or portion thereof who voted in the last preceding presidential election held in that election jurisdiction or twenty-five such registered voters, whichever number is greater;

(2) Have been called by a notice of the secretary of state published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the convention is to be held at least ten days before the date of the ~~((primary election))~~ convention stating the date, hour, and place of meeting ~~((and a general statement of the principles of the organization))~~. The notice shall also include the mailing address of the person or organization sponsoring the convention, if any. The information required to be included in this notice shall be forwarded to the secretary of state not later than the thirtieth day immediately preceding the date of the convention.

Sec. 4. Section 29.24.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

A certificate evidencing nominations made at a ~~((minority party))~~ convention must:

(1) Be in writing;

(2) Contain the name of each person nominated, his residence, his business, and the office for which he is named; together with a sworn statement of each nominee giving his consent to the said nominations;

(3) Designate in not more than five words the purpose for which the convention was held or the new or minor political party, organization, or principle which the convention represents;

(4) Be verified by the oath of the presiding officer and secretary;

(5) Be signed by at least ~~((one hundred))~~ a number of the registered voters ((present at)) who live in the election jurisdiction for which the nominations are made and who attended the convention ((and who did not vote at the primary election held on that day, or in lieu thereof be signed by at least ten registered voters from each congressional district in the state of Washington present at a convention, and who did not vote at the primary election held on that day)), which number is equal to the number of registered voters who must have attended a convention for it to be valid under RCW 29.24.030 as now or hereafter amended;

(6) Show the voting addresses of all signers;

(7) Contain proof of publication of the notice of calling the convention.

Sec. 5. Section 29.24.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The signature of a ((minor party)) convention nominating certificate of a person who voted in ((the primary)) any other convention held on the day of the convention is invalid. Persons who sign convention petitions shall not be entitled to vote in the primary of any major political party held in September of the same year as the convention. Such persons shall, however, be entitled to vote an absentee ballot for any nonpartisan primaries and ballot proposition elections which may be held concurrently with such partisan primaries. The signature of a registered voter on a convention petition shall be considered by the county auditor to be an application for an absentee ballot under chapter 29.36 RCW.

Sec. 6. Section 29.24.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the receipt of the certificate of nomination of a ((minor party nominating)) convention, the secretary of state shall check from the records the required signatures thereto to ascertain if the signers are registered voters ((and whether said signers voted at the primary election held on the same day as said convention)) as of the day before the convention. If the secretary of state finds that the certificate ((is defective or)) does not comply with law he shall refuse to file the same and any declarations of candidacy of candidates nominated by such convention. Within two weeks after the last day of the filing period, as specified by RCW 29.18.030, the secretary of state shall notify the presiding officer and secretary of each convention of any signatures judged invalid, together with the reason for any such judgment. Within one week after such notification, upon request of the presiding officer or secretary of any such convention, the county auditor shall recheck the voter registration records and shall notify the secretary of state of any signatures validated upon rechecking.

Within three weeks after the last day for filing declarations of candidacy under RCW 29.18.030, the secretary of state shall provide each county auditor with a list containing the names and addresses of all registered voters who signed a convention nominating certificate and who live in the same county as the auditor, but not containing any other details which could be used to ascertain the identity of the particular convention for which any such registered voter has signed a nominating certificate. On the seventh day after filing a nominating certificate or notifying the presiding officer or secretary of a convention of any signatures judged invalid on a nominating certificate, the secretary of state shall destroy the portion of the certificate which contains the signatures, names and addresses of convention participants unless the certificate is in dispute, in which case that portion shall be retained until the dispute is resolved. Upon resolution of any such dispute, the secretary of state shall destroy that portion of the nominating certificate. In no case shall the fact that a voter participated in a particular convention be disclosed to any person other than the election official who checks the validity of signatures on nominating certificates.

Sec. 7. Section 29.24.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If the nominating certificate is valid, each candidate nominated by a ((~~minor party~~)) convention may file with the secretary of state a declaration of candidacy as nearly as possible in the form prescribed for candidates subject to primary election, and each candidate must at the time of filing such declaration pay to the secretary of state the fee prescribed by law for candidates subject to primary election. The name of a candidate nominated at a ((~~minor party~~)) convention shall not be printed upon the election ballot unless he pays the fee required by law to be paid by candidates for the same office to be nominated at a primary election.

Sec. 8. Section 29.24.080, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The certificate of nominations made by a ((~~minor party~~)) convention, and the declarations of candidacy of the individual candidates nominated may be filed with the secretary of state at any time after said convention is held, but such filing must be complete not later than the ((~~first Tuesday after the date of the September primaries~~)) last day for filing declarations of candidacy under RCW 29.18.030."

In line 1 of the title, after "to" strike the remainder of the title through and including "emergency." on line 25, and insert "nominations other than by primary; amending section 29.24.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.010; amending section 29.24.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.020; amending section 29.24.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.030; amending section 29.24.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.040; amending section 29.24.050, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.050; amending section 29.24.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.060; amending section 29.24.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.070; and amending section 29.24.080, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.24.080.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

On page 1, lines 35 and 36 of the committee amendment, strike the underscored language.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Is the fifty dollar penalty assessment, that is, Senator Francis, supposed to take care of the administration, extra administration, isn't that so? So Senator Hayner's amendment would be very beneficial as far as the budget is concerned?"

Senator Francis: "That is correct. I wouldn't say that the penalty assessment is going to take care of anything, but it would certainly help. Senator Hayner's amendment will take away the adverse fiscal impact of the bill."

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 6, line 7, after "who" insert "after thirty days' written notice"

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Goltz, Vice Chairman; Gould, Herr, Monohon, North, Van Hollebeke, Wojahn.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Talley, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Talley, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 327, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, will Senator Talley yield? Senator Talley, would this have to be a full time operator?"

Senator Talley: "No, it wouldn't. You would have to check and test the water periodically."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Talley yield? Is there a grandfather clause within this as to existing systems that would supply twenty-five customers or more from surface waters or a hundred or more customers from any water system?"

Senator Talley: "I believe it does have a grandfather clause. Senator North, do you remember? It does have? Yes. I thought it did, but I wasn't sure. Senator Woody, all we are trying to do is say that there is a qualified operator that knows how to check this machinery and test this water. I mean we are not trying to work any inconvenience, and I know that we are all afraid of state control over things, but in the case of water it is an absolute necessity that we have pure water to drink."

Senator Woody: "An additional question to either of you on this bill, what my concern is, is that sometimes these private water systems are established. One was established up at Clearview with—I don't know—quarter inch pipe, or three-eighths inch pipe, and they were blowing one inch or greater water pressure into it, and then all of a sudden they had no water, and you had to turn your shower on all day just to collect enough to wash your hands."

"What I am concerned about is whether this might possibly raise an imposition to existing water systems that were improperly placed in by developers or whomever, and I would like to know whether this would cause them any undue hardship?"

Senator Talley: "I think what it would do if it is an improper system and not functioning right and is not delivering uncontaminated water that it should be worked over. We are not trying to tell them what to do, we are just telling them that we want pure water in the system."

Senator Woody: "Is it true that I have heard—a comment behind me—that this only deals with contaminated water rather than inadequate supply systems?"

Senator Talley: "That was the intent of the bill, sir."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Woody's question, this deals with certification and regulations of, regulates the operators of the system. It has nothing to do with the installation of the system or the systems that are in. It has to do with regulation of people who operate the system. If they have over twenty-five persons—or over twenty-five services on the system, then they have to be certified. It is my understanding that the health department is going to put on a certification program so that the people who are presently operating the systems can go, in a number of areas in the state, to these programs then pass a reasonable examination, and then be certified. So, it is not going to be a burdensome thing we are told."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, Senator Day, a concern I have is, I used to live in Onalaska, a rural water district, and the water was tested periodically by the state. Samples had to be sent in at certain times, and the report back was you had to add a certain amount of chlorine or whatever. So I question why this is really needed. It seems like we have this now and it is going to set up another type of testing which we already have a lot of and probably a fee charged and in many of these rural areas you have, maybe the one person handles many things. It is the water and the sewer and a lot of different things he looks after, and it just seems maybe it is one more burden on a small town or a rural district."

Senator Day: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Odegaard, what this will do is to train these people to be sure that they know properly how to take a sample, for example. If they don't take the sample properly, it could come back that the water is contaminated when, in fact, it is not. The source of the sample, the way it is taken, what these people will be trained to do is to operate these systems, and they will go through a very short course which will teach them the rudiments, and they will take a relatively simple examination and should all be able to pass it. It shouldn't create any great hazard out there. All it will do is to assure that you have an operator that understands what he is doing with the water system."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Senator Odegaard, I don't think it is intended to put an additional burden, but it does say that the man that does operate this system, and he may do several jobs around the city, at least knows how to test this water. It isn't intended at all to make an additional burden, and I realize exactly what you are saying: Small towns can't afford any more."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Bottiger was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 327, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 11; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Walgren, Washington, Wojahn—33.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 238, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Representatives Gallagher, Sanders, Knowles and Fischer):

Revising law relating to public works contract.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Ridder, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 238 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Ridder please yield? Senator, I notice in, first in the analysis of the bill, plus in trying to read the bill very quickly here, that there is a provision that the contractor if he is in violation of filing one of these reports is prohibited from bidding on any contract covered by the provisions of this chapter for a period of one year. I am wondering whether that makes—if he were to go ahead and bid, and the bid were to be accepted by whoever the public body is issuing the call for bid, whether that would be a void contract if it were entered into? That means no good, unenforceable, for naught or voidable, and that is that the public body would be able to void the contract by going to court and saying, 'you violated the provisions of this act?'

Senator Ridder: On line 10, Senator Woody, it indicates that 'he shall not be allowed to bid.'

Senator Woody: "Well, that is a physical thing. He did. Let's assume he entered a bid. Is the bid no good at all, or is it no good only if either the department, the state through the AG, or the public body were to say, 'I am sorry, even though you are the low bidder, you violated this act and therefore we are going to consider it voidable. Was that discussed in committee?'"

Senator Ridder: "That was not discussed in committee. I would say this is discretionary according to the director, and it indicates repeated violations, as you will note. This is not something that simply having made one violation that takes effect."

Senator Woody: "My legal opinion is that it would be void and if that would be the intent of the committee that those bids, if they resulted in a contract, would be void. We might as well establish that as the legislative intent right now. That would also mean that there might be a gap. The subcontractor or contractor who went ahead with the work is doing it at his own peril, and if that is the way we want it, we ought to say it is void, period."

Senator Ridder: "OK, if that fits legislative intent—I see Senator Morrison is on his feet. I would say that it might be that he might have a more favorable bid simply because he has been in the habit of not paying the prevailing wages."

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, to Senator Woody, this was intended as a penalty, so I would presume the legislature would be indicating that if you don't play according to the rules that your bid would be void and not acceptable, even if you did the work."

ROLL CALL

SENATE BILL NO. 2522, by Senator Henry:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, would this bill pertain only to Puget Sound area ferries?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, that is the only expression that we have had in the committee at all. The only place that we need hundred car ferries is in the Puget Sound, and I don't believe that there are any other areas that the bill will apply to."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "When Puget Island builds up to that point, Senator Odegaard, I will get you a hundred car ferry. Does that answer your question?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH AND SENATOR HENRY

Senator Mardesich: "The answer is 'no' actually. There is no prohibition to a ferry anywhere where the system should decide to set one up."

Senator Henry: "That is right as far as the construction fund is concerned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator North: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, what is the purpose of the emergency clause on this?"

Senator Guess: "The emergency clause is because we are short of vessels now, and the sooner that we can get into operation with the ferry system, then the better off we are going to be. We will be able to meet the load factors that we expect. Actually, the two-tenths of a cent will not go into effect however, Senator North, until July 1 of 1978."

Senator North: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2522, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 15; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Bottiger, Buffington, Day, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Monohon, Morrison, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wojahn, Woody—25.

WHEREAS, Senator Nancy Buffington was elected to membership in this body after one of the most electrifying competitions in the Senate history; and

WHEREAS, Senator Buffington's warm personality, diligent work habits, perceptive comprehension of the intricacies of the legislative process, contagious charm and cooperative attitude have quickly established her as an effective and sensitive public servant for her constituency; and

WHEREAS, Senator Buffington has adroitly achieved a balanced blend of effectiveness in administering the dual responsibilities of mother and public servant, giving her charming family a commendable participation in and understanding of the responsibilities of public office; and

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Pro Tempore Henry appointed Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg, Senators Clarke, Morrison and McDermott as a committee of honor to escort the Honorable Senator Nancy Buffington to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I might say that while they are gathering in the back of the hall, this is the only Senator from West Seattle I ever really wanted to kiss."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BUFFINGTON

Senator Buffington: "Thank you. Thank you. I remember, oh, it was about two and a half months ago when all of the lights went out in this chamber, and I stood up at that time, and said, 'Thank you very much for your best wishes, and I would like to do the same thing today. Thank you very, very, much.'"

REMARKS BY DR. HOWARD KELLOGG

Dr. Kellogg: "I can certainly say to all of you, you have been delightful to both Nancy and I in the time that I have been down here, and it has been a real pleasure, and really nice to meet all of you. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS

Senator Lewis: "I would like to commend the couple for starting on an optimistic note, and I hope we don't disappoint them. It would certainly be a shame if we were still conducting the business we have in mind on June 11th. We now have a new target date. I hope we can make it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, in the event we don't make it, could I make a premature motion? I move that Senator Buffington be excused on June eleventh."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I think it is Saturday. Anyway, I warned her sometime ago that if she remained in politics she better keep the name that she has now because I have an awful habit of getting names mixed up, and the fact that the Doctor's name is 'Kellogg' would not prevent me from recognizing her as Senator Cornflakes. I have two announcements to make in case this clambake breaks up early. In the reception room, for those of you who have never seen one of the most beautiful parts of the state, the Columbia Gorge, is a twelve foot model of the gorge in all the relief, the river and the whole thing included. After you get through there, I would suggest you hie yourself over to 433 in the Public Lands Building where there will be a reception for our honored guests."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "—the memory of the last sixteen years that I have served here, I don't know of a more memorable or happy occasion, and I want to extend to the young people that are with you on the podium the very warmest reception to the Senate of the state of Washington and to have you put it down in your memory that this is the first time that I can say of in these many years that we have had a bride and a groom present within the chambers, and so it is this type of an occasion. It is with a great deal of warmth and love that I say to all—to Nancy, particularly, because of the way that she has matured as a legislator it has been a real interesting process to watch the transition of a person from civil life into legislative life, and I think that she has made a marvelous record in the time that she has been here. I want to wish them the very best."

The committee of honor escorted Senator Buffington and her guests from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

MOTION

At 3:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, May 18, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SIXTY-NINTH DAY

---

MORNING SESSION

---

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, May 18, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis and Rasmussen.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Scott Matheny and Lisa Busk, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, BEFORE WE TURN TO OUR TASKS, WE WOULD THANK YOU FOR ALL THE GOOD THINGS OF LIFE; FOR THE SEASONS OF THE YEAR, FOR THE SUN, THE SEA, AND THE GULLS, FOR THE BLESSINGS OF HEARTH AND HOME, FOR THE FRIENDSHIPS OF LIFE, THE CHALLENGES THAT CONFRONT US IN OUR WORK, AND FOR THE OPPORTUNITIES TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE TOTALITY OF GOOD IN OUR WORLD.

"NOW BLESS OUR LEGISLATORS TODAY. GRANT THAT THE LONG HOURS OF COMMITTEE AND CAUCUS WILL BE REWARDED BY THE KIND OF LEGISLATION THAT WILL WIN THE APPROBATION OF ALL THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Cherberg: "Honored and respected members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, this seems to be a very propitious moment for the President to request of Senator Walgren, Senator Newschwander, Senator Keefe and Senator Clarke that you please escort the newly elected Congressman of the Seventh District to the rostrum.

"Inasmuch as this is a first to the best of anyone's knowledge of a Washington State Senator being elected to Congress, it certainly seems in order that we have our very popular young Senator appear before you and explain just how success is achieved. Senator Cunningham, we are all sure that everyone joins in extending you the heartiest congratulations and the best wishes for your continued and complete success."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CUNNINGHAM

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you very much, Governor Cherberg and friends. I really never thought there would be the time when I would have an opportunity to stand up and just talk briefly with you. You have been extremely good friends. There are a few who have worked awfully hard to help me attain this goal, maybe for different reasons. I am going to be around for awhile, but I do really appreciate all the courtesies that you all have extended to me and I hope to serve, not only the Seventh District, but the entire state and especially all my colleagues here in the Senate. You all mean an awful lot to me, and these are some of the fondest memories I will ever have. I appreciate it very much. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Senator Cunningham. It is very evident that the members of the Senate and all the people present are very happy for you, your lovely wife and your wonderful children."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Thank you, Mr. President and Congressman and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. As chairman of a major committee upon which you served, and you did it very well, Jack, you were a good committee member. I could always depend on what you told me. I want to congratulate you personally, and I also want to say to the Republicans and to the Democrats that for some period of time the people have had less and less confidence in your label. They have been looking to integrity, and they have been looking for just plain pragmatism. They have been looking for objectivity. To just prove that in a district which is supposed to be quite Democratic that the people were interested in those particular qualities, not in the label that was hung upon you, and I would say that that is a great transition since I came into the Legislature when it was very important what party you belonged to.

"I still think that is important, but I want you to know that that is what those people are thinking out there, and it should be really something we should all pay attention to. They are not interested in just protecting the establishment all the time; they are not interested in just taking care of some of those little people that we used to take care of all the time. There is interest in objective answers to darn tough questions and to reestablishing the confidence that they have a right to expect.

"I am certain, Jack, that you are going to carry that type of an attitude with you to the Congress of the United States. Congratulations."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President. Jack, on behalf of the Republican Caucus and your many friends on the other side, we would like to congratulate you and wish you very well." "I would like to say that we were at a little bi-partisan dinner last night and we got the first reports in, everybody in the room cheered, and at our little bi-partisan breakfast this morning, the feelings were still there that you had faced the odds and you had won.

"I remember last January when you came and spoke to Senator Matson and myself you laid out your game plan. All I can say is at the time it seemed incredible, but you carried that game plan through, as far as I can see, to the 'T' and you won. I hope that in the years to come you will think back to your many friends on both sides of the aisle that have supported you in this tremendous race, and for Republicans, it is a tremendous boost that when the odds were against you, you did it. You came through and you scored. We thank you, and don't forget us because we are going to watch you. Do the best you can. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BLUECHEL

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President and Congressman Cunningham, when I look at you up there, and I am speaking on behalf of the freshman class back here, and we say, 'If you can do it, so can we', and so we could look over the rest of this body and think the same thing."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, Congressman Cunningham, I recall about a year ago when I met your father who is a fine Boston Irish Democrat, telling me the story of Al Smith who was one of his heroes. I am going to tell that story, Jack, because it has a message.

"Al Smith, when he was campaigning for the presidency in the '20's had to address a large farm crowd in the midwest, one of the midwestern states. When he got off the train, the train took off—and this is a story Jack's dad told me—so he had nothing to stand on to address this large crowd except for a manure spreader that happened to be in one of the fields. So he mounted the manure spreader and he began by saying, 'This is the first time I have ever addressed a crowd like this from a Republican platform.'

"Now, Jack, I hope you won't just be addressing the people of the Seventh District from a Republican platform, and I am sure you won't."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, gentlemen. Senator Cunningham has requested an opportunity to come down off cloud seven and return to his seat. Would the committee please escort our distinguished congressman to his place in the Senate."

The committee of honor escorted Senator Cunningham to his seat in the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 17, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2069, with the following amendments:

On page 1 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) A high percentage of the young men and women of the state are left idle by unemployment and denied the opportunities for career exploration and development that should accompany entry into the labor force.

(2) The talent and energy of Washington's young people are a significant resource for the enhancement of human and community services and the conservation and development of natural resources in our state of Washington.

(3) Existing programs do not adequately meet the needs of such young people for meaningful work and self-development.

(4) The program for youth service of the department of employment security offers an alternative to unemployment to its young people which challenges their abilities and commitment while extending the services of local governmental and private agencies and organizations in meeting social and environmental needs.

Now, therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to hereby establish the program for youth service as a permanent activity of the department of employment security and to hereby provide for its operation through this youth service corps act of 1977.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) There is hereby created and established the youth service corps within the employment security department which shall include the program for youth service. The commissioner shall assign thereto such supervisory and clerical personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner of the employment security department is hereby authorized to establish the program for youth service in which the services of full time enrollees from fourteen to twenty-four years of age, inclusive, will be mobilized to serve the needs of citizens and to resolve environmental problems through contracts with state and local governmental units and private nonprofit agencies. Such contracts shall include a component of regular performance evaluation leading to a work experience credential for the enrollee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The commissioner is authorized to select and enroll in the program for youth service, any person who is over fourteen years of age or who has not yet reached his or her twenty-fifth birthday, who is a resident of the state of Washington, and who is not for medical, legal, or psychological reasons incapable of a full year of service. The commissioner may prescribe such additional standards and procedures for selection of enrollees as may be necessary and in conformance with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Placements in the program for youth service shall include those assignments which provide for dealing with social and environmental problems, and conservation and development of our natural resources.

The commissioner is authorized to establish standards for the development of placements for program for youth service enrollees with state and local units of government and private nonprofit agencies and organizations, and to assign enrollees to such placements in accordance with those standards.

A subsistence living allowance and comprehensive medical insurance shall be paid by the commissioner in accordance with the standards and limitations of the funding appropriation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A "program for youth service enrollee" is defined as a person who has completed enrollment forms and entered into a program for youth service contract as approved by the director of the program for youth service and who has entered service and is receiving a subsistence living allowance from the employment security department. Prior to placement of the program for youth service enrollee, the commissioner shall secure a written agreement from the state or local government unit, or private nonprofit agency and the enrollee which specifies in detail the purpose, objectives, and activities to be performed by the enrollee. It shall include assurances that the conditions of this chapter are met as well as an agreement that neither party will request nor receive compensation of any form other than the minimal living allowance, listed benefits, and actual expenses incurred by the enrollee in line with his or her assignment. All parties shall agree that they will not discriminate in the providing of any of its services on the basis of race, creed, ethnic origin, sex, age, or political affiliation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. If the employment security department finds that there is an opportunity for the placement of youth in a training program that will, in the opinion of the director, assist in the development of skills and talents as set forth in section 1 of this act, then the director is hereby authorized to enter into any contract with any employer in the state that offers such training program or opportunities. Contracts entered into with employers other than local governmental and private nonprofit agencies shall not be exempted from the minimum wage laws of this state, but the director shall be empowered to reimburse the employer an amount not to exceed the amount that would have been paid under section 5 of this act. The director shall only be authorized to make said payments for a maximum period of one year.

The director shall report back to the legislature by January 15, 1978, the number of contracts entered into and the number of youth employed under this section and under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Program for youth service enrollees shall be eligible for the benefits under Title 51 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, relating to industrial insurance.

The employment security department shall be deemed the employer and pay all premiums, including the worker's share. The employment security department will give notice of coverage under industrial insurance of all of its program for youth service enrollees to the director of the department of labor and industries prior to the occurrence of the injury or contraction of an occupational disease by any program for youth service enrollees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The assignment of program for youth service enrollees shall not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as a reduction in hours of non-overtime work, wages, or other employment benefits.

State and local governments and private nonprofit agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay off, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of utilizing an enrollee with funds available under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of chapter 49.46 RCW, the state Minimum Wage Act, shall not apply to any program for youth service enrollee serving under a youth service contract approved pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In addition to any other power, duty, or function prescribed by law or regulation, the employment security department, through the youth service corps, shall be authorized to accept federal funds and grants and implement federal programs relating to youth services or employment programs, and is further authorized to enter into agreements respecting such funds or grants.

If any part of this chapter shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter; the rules and regulations under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The provisions of this chapter shall expire on December 31, 1981.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW."

In line 1 of the title, following "corps" strike all the material through "service;" in line 2 and insert "and the program for youth service; providing an expiration date;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goltz, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2421, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 16, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2668, with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following: "NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Mobile Home Landlord-Tenant Act".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Every duty under this chapter and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Landlord" means the owner of real property rented or held out for rent to others for the placement of two or more mobile homes, and includes the agents of a landlord.

(2) "Mobile home" means a transportable, factory-assembled dwelling unit designed to be used as and suitable for year-round occupancy and containing similar facilities for water supply, waste disposal, and electrical conveniences as for immobile housing.

(3) "Mobile home lot" means a portion of a mobile home park designated as the location of one mobile home and its accessory buildings, and intended for the exclusive use of the occupants of that mobile home.

(4) "Mobile home park" means any real property which is rented or held out for rent as the location for two or more mobile homes for dwelling purposes.

(5) "Owner" means one or more persons, jointly or severally, in whom is vested (a) all or part of the legal title to property; or (b) all or part of the beneficial ownership, and a right to present use and enjoyment of the property.

(6) "Person" means an individual, group of individuals, corporation, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(7) "Premises" means the grounds and facilities of the mobile home park held out for the common use of tenants and vacant mobile home lots, but not including rented mobile home lots or vacant lands adjacent to the mobile home park.

(8) "Reasonable attorney's fees", where authorized in this chapter, means an amount to be determined which shall reflect the following factors: The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly, the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services, the amount involved and the results obtained, and the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services.

(9) "Rental agreement" means any contract or lease which establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules, regulations, or other provisions concerning the use of a mobile home lot and the occupancy of a mobile home thereon.

(11) "Tenant" means any person, except a transient, who is entitled to occupy a mobile home on a mobile home lot pursuant to a rental agreement.

(12) "Transient" means a person who rents a mobile home lot for a period of less than one month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This chapter shall regulate and determine legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from any rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant regarding a mobile home lot. All such rental agreements shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW shall be applicable only in implementation of the provisions of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter which shall be exclusive where applicable: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of this chapter. NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each landlord shall notify his tenants in writing on or before November 1, 1977, that all rental agreements entered into thereafter for a term of six months or longer must be in writing and that a written one year rental agreement, conforming to the requirements of this chapter, is available upon request by the tenant: PROVIDED, That in the case of a mobile home park or part thereof acquired for construction of a public works project, or under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project, such one year rental agreements need not be offered by the landlord. A tenant or prospective tenant may elect to execute a rental agreement for less than a one year term. If a one year rental agreement is executed, no landlord shall allow a mobile home to be moved into a mobile home park until the written rental agreement has been signed by both the landlord and tenant and a copy provided to the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) All rental agreements executed between landlord and tenant shall contain:

(e) The name and address of the person who is the landlord and, if such person does not reside in Washington state, the name and address of a person who is authorized to act as agent of the landlord for the purpose of service of notices and process. If no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered such agent;

(2) Rental agreements between a landlord and tenant shall not contain:

(a) Any provision which permits the landlord to evict a tenant or charge a penalty fee for late payment of rent or other charges prior to five days beyond the date on which the rent or other charges are due;

(b) Any provision which permits the landlord to charge a penalty fee for late payment of rent or other charges in excess of five dollars per month or five percent of the total amount of rent or other charges due, whichever is greater;

(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the mobile home park's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;

(d) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an amount in excess of two months' rent in advance and an amount in excess of one month's rent as a security deposit;

(e) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter;

(f) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an "entrance fee" or an "exit fee";

(g) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the landlord arising under law, or to indemnify the landlord for that liability or the costs connected therewith; or

(h) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to pay the attorney's fees of the landlord, except as authorized in this chapter; and

(3) A provision in a rental agreement prohibited by subsection (2) of this section is unenforceable. If a landlord attempts to enforce any provision known by him to be prohibited, the tenant may recover actual damages sustained by him and reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Rental agreements shall be automatically renewed unless:

(a) Otherwise agreed in the original rental agreement; or

(b) The landlord gives the tenant written notice, not less than two months prior to the expiration of a rental agreement for a fixed term and not less than thirty days prior to the expiration of a month-to-month rental agreement, that:

(i) The rental agreement will be renewed only upon the tenant's acceptance of the new terms specified in the notice; or

(ii) The rental agreement will be terminated upon its expiration date for due cause as specified in the notice: PROVIDED, That due cause shall be limited to one or more of the reasons enumerated in section 14 of this act; or

(iii) The rental agreement will be terminated upon its expiration date due to a change in land use to other than a mobile home park.

(2) After receipt of a notice which conditions renewal of the rental agreement upon acceptance by the tenant of new terms, the tenant shall notify the landlord in writing if the tenant does not intend to renew the rental agreement:

(a) Not less than thirty days prior to the expiration of a rental agreement for a fixed term; or

(b) Not less than fifteen days prior to the expiration of a month-to-month rental agreement.

(3) Failure of the tenant to notify the landlord as specified in subsection (2) of this section shall result in automatic renewal of the rental agreement on a month-to-month basis, including the terms specified in the landlord's notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Rules and regulations contained in a rental agreement may be amended or supplemented by the landlord during the term of a rental agreement only:

(1) Upon six months' written notice; or

However, written regulations pertaining to recreational facilities may be reasonably amended at the landlord's discretion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the tenant to:

(1) Keep the mobile home lot in a clean and sanitary condition, and dispose of all rubbish and garbage in a sanitary manner;

(2) Not permit a nuisance or commit waste;

(3) Abide by all rules or regulations of the mobile home park as contained in the rental agreement or as amended subsequently; and

(4) Give the landlord prompt written notice of needed repairs or complaints.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the landlord to:

(1) Maintain the mobile home park to substantially comply with any applicable code, statute, ordinance, or regulation governing its maintenance or operation, which the legislative body enacting the applicable code, statute, ordinance or regulation could enforce as to the premises rented;

(2) Keep the premises reasonably clean, sanitary, and safe from defects to reduce the hazards of fire, accident, or disease;

(3) Indicate each mobile home lot in the park so as to make clear each tenant's area of responsibility;

(4) Keep the premises free of weeds or plant growth noxious and detrimental to the health of the tenants;

(5) Keep the premises free of infestation by insects, rodents, and other pests detrimental to the health of the tenants;

(6) Maintain all electrical, water, sewer, gas, or other utilities provided by the landlord in reasonably good working condition;

(7) Maintain roads within the mobile home park in reasonably good condition; and

(8) Provide adequate space for parking which does not block traffic on any road.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Improvements, except a natural lawn, purchased and installed by a tenant on a mobile home lot shall remain the property of the tenant even though affixed to or in the ground and may be removed or disposed of by the tenant at the termination of the tenancy: PROVIDED, That a tenant shall leave the mobile home lot in substantially the same or better condition than upon taking possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A landlord shall not:

(1) Prohibit meetings by tenants of a mobile home park to discuss mobile home living and affairs, conducted at reasonable times and in an orderly manner, on the premises, nor penalize any tenant for participation in such activities;

(2) Deny any tenant the right to sell such tenant's mobile home within a park or require the removal of the mobile home from the park solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:

(a) A rental agreement for a fixed term shall be assignable by the tenant to any person to whom he sells or transfers title to the mobile home, subject to the approval of the landlord after fifteen days' written notice of such intended assignment;

(b) The assignee of the rental agreement shall assume all the duties and obligations of his assignor for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement unless, by mutual agreement, a new rental agreement is entered into with the landlord; and

(c) The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the assignment of a rental agreement on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant, except that the landlord may, pursuant to a program to upgrade the quality of the mobile home park, disapprove the assignment of the rental agreement if the mobile home is less than ten feet in width, more than ten years old, or in a run-down condition;

(3) Enter any tenant's mobile home without permission of the tenant: PROVIDED, That in case of emergency or abandonment the landlord may enter the mobile home without the tenant's consent;

(4) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the mobile home park may be prohibited or restricted in the rental agreement;

(5) Terminate a rental agreement for the primary purpose of making the mobile home lot available to another person; or

(6) Tow or impound a vehicle located on the premises except after reasonable effort by the landlord to notify the owner or operator thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If the tenant substantially fails to carry out the duties imposed by section 9 or 11 of this act, the landlord may bring an action in an appropriate court, or at arbitration if so agreed, for any remedy provided under this chapter or otherwise provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A tenant may be evicted only for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules and regulations of the mobile home park as contained in the rental agreement or as subsequently amended, or of any other condition or covenant of the rental agreement, other than one for the payment of rent. The tenant shall be given a ten day written notice in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in eviction;

(2) Nonpayment of rent or additional charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days' written notice to pay rent or to vacate;

(3) Conviction of the tenant of a misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony under federal, state, or local law, the commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants, upon three days' written notice by the landlord to vacate.

(c) Reduction of services to the tenant;

(d) Increasing the obligations of the tenant; or

(e) Termination of a rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If the tenant defaults in the payment of rent and reasonably indicates by words or actions his intention not to resume tenancy, he shall be liable for the following for such abandonment: PROVIDED, That upon learning of such abandonment of the premises the landlord shall make a reasonable effort to mitigate the damages resulting from such abandonment:

(1) When the tenancy is month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the rent for the thirty days following the date the next regular rental payment would have become due.

(2) When the tenancy is for a term greater than month-to-month, the tenant shall be liable for the lesser of the following:

(a) The entire rent due for the remainder of the term; or

(b) All rent accrued during the period reasonably necessary to rerent the premises at a fair rental, plus the difference between such fair rental and the rent agreed to in the prior rental agreement.

In the event of abandonment by the tenant of a mobile home located in the landlord's mobile home park, the landlord may immediately take possession of any property of the tenant located on the mobile home lot, including the mobile home, and may store the same in a secure place.

A notice containing the name and address of landlord and the place where the property is stored must be mailed promptly by the landlord to the last known address of the tenant. After sixty days from the date of default in rent, and after prior notice of such sale is mailed to the last known address of the tenant, the landlord may sell such property and may apply any income derived therefrom against moneys due the landlord, including drayage and storage. Any excess income derived from the sale of such property shall be held by the landlord for the benefit of the tenant for a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no claim is made or action commenced by the tenant for the recovery thereof prior to the expiration of that period of time, the balance shall be the property of the landlord.

(3) In the event of foreclosure on or repossession of a tenant's mobile home, the person entitled to possession of such mobile home shall be liable for rent for the mobile home lot, at the same rate as was charged the tenant, for the month in which he became entitled to such possession and thereafter until the mobile home is removed. The landlord shall have the right to require removal of the mobile home from the mobile home park within thirty days after establishment of legal possession. In the event that the removal is not effected in the time required, the landlord may take possession of and store the mobile home in a secure place and bring an action for damages against the person entitled to possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If at any time during the tenancy the landlord fails to carry out the duties required by section 10 of this act, the tenant may, in addition to pursuit of remedies otherwise provided him by law, deliver written notice to the person designated in section 6(1)(e) of this act, which notice shall specify the mobile home park involved, the name of the owner, if known, and the nature of the defective condition. For the purposes of this chapter, a reasonable time for the landlord to commence remedial action after receipt of such notice by the tenant shall be, except where circumstances are beyond the landlord's control:

(1) Not more than twenty-four hours, where the defective condition deprives the tenant of water or heat or is imminently hazardous to life or health;

(2) Not more than forty-eight hours, where the landlord fails to provide hot water or electricity;

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, not more than seven days in the case of a repair under section 19 of this act;

(4) Not more than thirty days in all other cases.

In each instance the burden shall be on the landlord to see that remedial work under this section is completed with reasonable promptness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) If, after receipt of written notice, and expiration of the applicable period of time, as provided in section 17 of this act, the landlord fails to remedy the defective condition within a reasonable time the tenant may:

(a) Terminate the rental agreement and quit the premises upon written notice to the landlord without further obligation under the rental agreement, in which case he shall be discharged from payment of rent for any period following the quitting date, and shall be entitled to a pro rata refund of any prepaid rent, and shall receive a full and specific statement of the bases for retaining any of the deposit together with any refund due in accordance with section 24 of this act;

(b) Bring an action in an appropriate court, or at arbitration if so agreed, for any remedy provided under this chapter or otherwise provided by law; or

(c) Pursue other remedies available under this chapter.

(2) Not less than fifteen days following written notice to the landlord, a tenant may deposit into escrow the payment of rent while seeking relief for failure of the landlord to carry out the landlord's duties or obligations to the tenant as required by statute, regulation, or ordinance or as set forth in the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) If at any time during the tenancy, the landlord fails to carry out any of the duties imposed by section 10 of this act, and notice of the defect is given to the landlord pursuant to section 17 of this act, the tenant may submit to the landlord or his designated agent by certified mail or in person at least two bids to perform the repairs necessary to correct the defective condition from licensed or registered persons, or if no licensing or registration requirement applies to the type of work to be performed, from responsible persons capable of performing such repairs. Such bids may be submitted to the landlord at the same time as notice is given pursuant to section 17 of this act: PROVIDED, That the remedy provided in this section shall not be available for a landlord's failure to carry out the duties in section 10(3) of this act.

(2) If the landlord fails to commence repair of the defective condition within a reasonable time after receipt of notice from the tenant, the tenant may contract with the person submitting the lowest bid to make the repair, and upon the completion of the repair and an opportunity for inspection by the landlord or his designated agent, the tenant may deduct the cost of repair from the rent in an amount not to exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's mobile home lot in any twelve-month period: PROVIDED, That when the landlord must commence to remedy the defective condition within thirty days as provided in section 17(4) of this act, the tenant cannot contract for repairs for at least fifteen days following receipt of said bids by the landlord: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total costs of repairs deducted in any twelve-month period under this subsection shall not exceed the sum expressed in dollars representing one month's rental of the tenant's mobile home lot.

(3) If the landlord fails to carry out the duties imposed by section 10 of this act within a reasonable time, and if the cost of repair does not exceed one month's rent, including the cost of materials and labor, which shall be computed at the prevailing rate in the community for the performance of such work, and if repair of the condition need not by law be performed only by licensed or registered persons, the tenant may repair the defective condition in a workmanlike manner and upon completion of the repair and an opportunity for inspection, the tenant may deduct the cost of repair from the rent: PROVIDED, That the total costs of repairs deducted in any twelve-month period under this subsection shall not exceed one month's rent of the mobile home lot.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not:

(a) Create a relationship of employer and employee between landlord and tenant; or

(b) Create liability under the workmen's compensation act; or

(c) Constitute the tenant as an agent of the landlord for the purposes of RCW 60.04.010 and 60.04.040.

(5) Any repair work performed under the provisions of this section shall comply with the requirements imposed by any applicable code, statute, ordinance, or regulation. A landlord whose property is damaged because of repairs performed in a negligent manner may recover the actual damages in an action against the tenant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If the landlord violates any provision of sections 11 or 12 of this act, the tenant may bring an action in an appropriate court, or at arbitration if so agreed, for any remedy provided under this chapter or otherwise provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) No duty shall devolve upon the landlord to repair a defective condition, nor shall any defense or remedy be available to the tenant under this chapter, where the defective condition complained of was caused by the conduct of such tenant, his family, invitee, or other person acting under his control, or where a tenant unreasonably fails to allow the landlord access to the property for purposes of repair.

(2) The tenant shall be current in the payment of rent before exercising any of the remedies accorded him under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's civil remedies for negligent or intentional damages: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not be construed as limiting the tenant's right in an unlawful detainer proceeding to raise the defense that there is no rent due and owing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) Any written notice required by this chapter to be given to a tenant by a landlord shall be delivered to the tenant personally or mailed to the tenant's last known address.

(2) Any written notice required by this chapter to be given to a landlord by a tenant shall be delivered personally to the landlord or the agent, if any, named in the rental agreement, or mailed to the last known address of the landlord or to the last known address of the agent, if any, named in the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. All moneys paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement shall promptly be deposited by the landlord in a trust account in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or with a licensed escrow agent located in Washington. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the landlord shall be entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account deposits. The landlord shall provide the tenant with a written receipt for the deposit and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof.

If during a tenancy the status of landlord is transferred to another, any sums in the deposit trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor landlord, and the successor landlord shall promptly notify the tenant of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository. The tenant's claim to any moneys paid under this section shall be prior to that of any creditor of the landlord, even if such moneys are commingled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Within fourteen days after the termination of the rental agreement and vacation of the mobile home lot, the landlord shall give a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with the payment of any refund due the tenant under the terms and conditions of the rental agreement. No portion of any deposit shall be withheld on account of wear resulting from ordinary use of the mobile home lot.

If the landlord fails to give such statement together with any refund due the tenant within the time limits specified above such landlord shall be liable to the tenant for the amount of said deposit.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against, and the landlord shall have the right to proceed against, a tenant to recover sums exceeding the amount of the tenant's damage or security deposit for damage to the property for which the tenant is responsible together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. In any action arising out of this chapter, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Venue for any action arising under this chapter shall be in the district or superior court of the county in which the mobile home lot is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 59.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 376.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 376, by Representative Martinis:

Removing requirement that ocean fishing regulations for Washington be made jointly with Oregon and California.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 25, 1977.

HOUSE BILL NO. 376, removing requirement that ocean fishing regulations for Washington be made jointly with Oregon and California (reported by Committee on Natural Resources):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 20, after "California)" insert "PROVIDED, That if it becomes necessary to allocate or assign fishing privileges among various United States fishermen, such allocation shall be (a) fair and equitable to all such fishermen; (b) reasonably calculated to promote conservation; and (c) carried out in such manner that no particular individual, corporation, or other entity acquires an excessive share of such privileges"

Signed by: Senators Peterson, Chairman; Bausch, Beck, Newschwander, Sandison, Talley, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Peterson moved the committee amendment not be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, I am reading this committee amendment, and it says, 'PROVIDED, That if it becomes necessary to allocate or assign fishing privileges among various United States fishermen, such allocation shall be (a) fair and equitable to all such fishermen, (b) reasonably calculated to promote conservation and (c) carried out in such manner that no particular individual, corporation or other entity acquires an excessive share of such privileges.' What does that mean and what is wrong with it? In other words, why doesn't it have any, or adequate support?"

Senator Peterson: "Well, the reason being is because the various user groups in the state have at least determined with their legal beagles that this would take away their bargaining power if we put total allocation within the department of fisheries. With the adoption of the main substance of 376 we are strengthening the department's powers to allocate, but we are not giving them total allocation and this, in effect, was their fears and that is why I suggest that we delete the amendment."

Senator Francis: "Senator Peterson, one further question. If we don't adopt the amendment, then what standards do we have for the department as far as allocation? Do we have any standards at all, or are we just leaving it wide open for them?"

Senator Peterson: "No, it is not wide open. They have standards. They allocate. They have always allocated. They allocate by seasons and regs, and rules and regs which they already have."

Senator Francis: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 16, after "hooks" insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the Washington department of fisheries may adopt regulations for the waters west of the coast of the state of Washington that are consistent with the regulations adopted by the United States department of commerce for the waters three miles to two hundred miles west of the coast of the state of Washington pursuant to the National Fisheries Conservation and Management Act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, is your amendment related solely to the rules and regulations that have been adopted to the present or does this—for future rules and regulations? Should this have—?"

Senator Mardesich: "First of all, it pertains only to the off-shore areas. It says in the second line, 'adopt regulations for the waters west of the coast of the state of Washington.' It does not—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Which is beyond the three miles."

Senator Mardesich: "Right, right, and then it simply says that within that area west of the coast and a three mile limit, then the state may adopt regulations which are consistent with the federal regulations. You are aware that the federals have already taken over regulation of the off-shore fishery on the troll fishery."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator Donohue was excused.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 376, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Peterson yield to a question? Senator Peterson, for the record, this is in no way proposed to validate the Boldt or Belloni decision. Is this correct?"

Senator Peterson: "It has no reference to the Boldt or Belloni decision, but the way I read it and the testimony that you heard in committee and that I heard indicates only that it strengthens the department's authority to promote our own rules and regs off of our own coast."

Senator Rasmussen: "And further question, Senator Peterson, does in no way authorize allocation as between user groups."

Senator Peterson: "By removing the amendment we are not allocating except we are, in effect, by rules and regs but that is not considered in the allocation measure that has been before us."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is not our—"

Senator Peterson: "The allocation—"

Senator Rasmussen: "It is not our intent."

Senator Peterson: "That is not our intent. We allocate now by rules and regs, and this does not interfere with that except that it takes in the three mile limit and puts it under the same rules and regulations that will be promulgated by the department of commerce and the President's task force, but we are not allocating under this bill. It is not the intent of the legislature or the committee or this bill to have an allocation intent built into this measure."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Peterson, because there are many people in the state of Washington that think that Judge Boldt and Belloni made an unwise decision which is contrary to what the law should be."

ROLL CALL

Senator Rasmussen: "Why not? Under your amendment it would be the same thing with the—"

Senator Washington: "I think logical—well, my answer to that is, traditionally it has been felt that a jury room should be secret. We expect it to be secret. The public expects it to be secret. They see nothing sinister about it being secret, but traditionally our—and more recently our legislative meetings are open. Our committee meetings are open. Our rules committee meeting is open. Our legislature itself is open, and the only place we have closed now is the conference committee, and I think there is a great deal of difference in the traditions and in what the public expects and the way we have found that we can operate in the open through experience. We know we can operate in the open. We have done it and we can continue to do it."
