JOURNAL OF THE SENATE
STATE OF WASHINGTON
FORTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE

FIRST DAY

---

NOON SESSION

---

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Monday, January 10, 1977.

The Forty-fifth Senate of the State of Washington assembled in the State Capitol, pursuant to law, at noon. Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg, President of the Senate, called the Senate to order.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Matthew Sanglier and Marie Turk, presented the Colors. Father William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WE PAUSE TODAY AT THE OPENING OF THIS STATE SENATE IN THE YEAR OF 1977 TO ASK YOU, GOD, TO PUT US IN STEP AND IN TUNE WITH THE LEADERS WHO PIONEERED IN ESTABLISHING OUR POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS. LET US FOR THAT REASON RECALL THE WORDS OF ALEXANDER HAMILTON IN THE FEDERALIST WHEN HE WROTE: 'HAVE WE NOT ALREADY SEEN ENOUGH OF THE FOLLY AND EXTRAVAGANCE OF THOSE IDLE THEORIES WHICH HAVE AMUSED US WITH PROMISES OF AN EXEMPTION FROM THE IMPERFECTIONS, WEAKNESSES AND EVILS INCIDENT TO SOCIETY IN EVERY SHAPE? IS IT NOT TIME TO AWAKE FROM THE DECEITFUL DREAM OF A GOLDEN AGE AND TO ADOPT AS A PRACTICAL MAXIM FOR THE DIRECTION OF OUR POLITICAL CONDUCT THAT WE, AS WELL AS THE OTHER INHABITANTS OF THE GLOBE ARE YET

REMOTE FROM THE HAPPY EMPIRE OF PERFECT WISDOM — PERFECT VIRTUE.' HELP ALL OF US LORD, TO KNOW OURSELVES AND OUR WEAKNESSES, FOR IN THIS IS TRUE WISDOM AND THEREIN LIES OUR STRENGTH.

"WE ASK THY BLESSING LORD ON THE MEMBERS OF THIS SENATE. WE ASK THY BLESSING ON THOSE WHO HAVE FAITHFULLY SERVED IN THE PAST BUT WHO WILL NOT BE TAKING THEIR ACCUSTOMED SEAT TODAY. WE PRAY ESPECIALLY FOR REUBEN KNOBLAUCH WHO RETIRES AFTER THIRTY YEARS OF SERVICE IN POLITICAL OFFICE. MAY YOU GRANT HIM PEACE AND ENCOURAGEMENT. AMEN."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The President declared nominations to be open for the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Thank you, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It is indeed a personal honor and privilege for me to place in nomination for the office of President Pro Tem none other than my long time friend and our efficient President Pro Tempore for the last few years, Senator Al Henry. Al is an excellent parliamentarian and, as you know, in the later days can efficiently and with dispatch get this floor moving and in some instances curtail debate and get the bills passed up or down.

"I want to, in addition, say that one of the few things that he does is carry more weight in this particular body than I do. So it is with a great deal of personal pleasure that I give you this excellent nominee, Senator Al Henry of White Salmon, Washington."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. It gives me pleasure to second the nomination. I have had the pleasure of serving with Senator Henry for many years, and also to observe the quick gavel that he exercises, but he exercises it fairly and I am sure that he would continue to do so."

MOTION

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Walgren, the nominations were closed.

ROLL CALL

The Acting Secretary called the roll and Senator Al Henry was elected President Pro Tempore by the following vote: Yeas, 47; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—47.

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.

Excused: Senator Benitz—1.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed Senators Fleming and Matson as a committee of honor to escort Senator Henry to the rostrum.

Justice Hicks of the Washington State Supreme Court administered the oath of office to Senator Henry.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen. It is indeed an honor in behalf of the Senate and the President to congratulate you, Senator Al Henry, on your unanimous election as President Pro Tem. The vote is certainly indicative of the high regard in which you are held by everyone in the Senate and all who know you. I am especially pleased that I shall have once again the opportunity to bask in the sublime glory of your parliamentary ability, Senator Al Henry."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Governor, you lost me on that last one. However, my relationship and friendship with the Hicks family goes back some thirty-odd years to the small town of Prosser when I first got interested in politics, and had I known that Floyd was going to be here this morning I would have helped him a little bit on that oath because I notice that at the tail end each time it says, 'uphold the rules of the Washington State Senate.' It does not say anything about the Henry's Rules of Order. That is kind of dear to my heart but I will have to watch a little more carefully as long as you did not take the oath to uphold them.

"I appreciate the support on both sides of the aisle. I have attempted in the past, and I shall continue to try to recognize those people in the order in which they get on their feet to see that everybody gets a fair shot at the legislation that they are interested in that affects their districts and to try in a small way to fill the shoes of the most capable presiding officer that I have ever served with, the Honorable John Cherberg. Thank you very much."

The committee of honor escorted Senator Henry to his seat in the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The President declared the nominations to be open for the office of Vice President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SANDISON

Senator Sandison: "Mr. President, I place in nomination the name of Senator James E. Keefe of Spokane. Senator Keefe, while representing Spokane County, has really represented all of us both in the Senate and in the interest of the people of the state of Washington. He has been debonaire. He has been humorous. He has been a good friend to all of us, and he has done an excellent job as Vice President Pro Tem, and I feel he should be retained."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. It gives me pleasure to second the nomination of my long time friend, Senator Keefe.

"I knew him long before I had the privilege of sitting in this august body, and have observed his performance over these many years. Jimmy, it is a pleasure for me to second that nomination."

MOTION

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Walgren, the nominations were closed.

The members, the ladies and gentlemen present, the staff, everyone joins in extending you the heartiest congratulations for your victory and a warm welcome. We are very happy to have you back."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KEEFE

Senator Keefe: "Thank you, Mr. President, your honor, and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate.

"Thank you very much for your kindness and courtesy for reelecting me to Vice President Pro Tem. I assure you if called upon it will be in my usual fair and impartial manner, so thank you again and I hope we will have an excellent session. Thank you."

SECRETARY OF THE SENATE

The President declared the nominations to be open for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR ODEGAARD

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. It gives me great privilege to place the name of Sid Snyder in nomination to the office of Secretary of the Senate. I do not think I need to say a lot of words about Sid as we all know him well and the exemplary way he handles his duties as Secretary of the Senate, and I believe he deserves another term in that position."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It is a pleasure to second the nomination of Sid Snyder. Many of us had the privilege of first working with Sid when he was in the chief clerk's office in the House of Representatives, and we have appreciated the efficiency and the courtesy with which he has operated the Secretary of the Senate's office and the staff that he has provided that have served all of the members of this Senate on both sides of the aisle.

"There is a sign in Long Beach, a neon sign, very bright, and it says, 'Sid's Super.' As far as many of us are concerned the sign here in Olympia should say, 'Super Sid.' It is a pleasure to second the nomination of Sid Snyder."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. I also would like to second the nomination just to make sure that Sid makes it, and for those of you who are old timers around here, you will remember that Sid got his training under Si Holcomb who was Chief Clerk of the House for many, many years, and I do not think there was any more knowledgeable person as to legislative procedures than Si Holcomb. That is, until Sid, not only took what he knew, but added his own knowledge to that."

MOTION

There being no further nominations, on motion of Senator Walgren, the nominations were closed.

ROLL CALL

The roll was called and Sidney R. Snyder was unanimously elected Secretary of the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—48.

Excused: Senator Benitz—1.

We are so fortunate to have the best Secretary of the Senate that this land has ever produced. You do a grand job and anything other would be superfluous to say. How about favoring us with a few remarks."

REMARKS BY SIDNEY R. SNYDER

Mr. Snyder: "Mr. President, members of the Senate. I thank all of you for your kind words and your vote of support. I only hope that you are saying the same kind things when the session draws to a close. We think we have an excellent staff to help assist you through the session, and we are going to do everything we can to assist in getting out of here in a reasonable length of time. Thanks again."

The committee of honor escorted Sidney R. Snyder from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

SERGEANT AT ARMS

The President declared nominations to be open for the office of Sergeant at Arms of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Mr. President and fellow Senators, for those of you who have served in this body, my words will be not needed. For the newcomers to this body, I want to recommend for your approval our Sergeant at Arms, Charlie Johnson. This is the thirteenth time I have nominated him, and I have told him each time that if he did not perform well he would wind up with two broken legs. So, with your unanimous approval, I hope we will again have Charlie Johnson as our Sergeant at Arms. He will do everything he can to help each and every one of you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I would like to second the nomination of Charlie Johnson as Sergeant at Arms of the Senate.

"When I first came to the Senate I used to nominate old Charlie Gerald, and after a couple sessions of that, I found out I could not beat 'em, so I decided I would join 'em. Since I have joined 'em, he takes pretty good care of our side of the floor also. So, it is a pleasure to nominate Charlie Johnson for Sergeant at Arms."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HERR

Senator Herr: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I would just like to second the nomination of Charlie Johnson. I have served here twelve years, and to me, he has been a fine gentleman and he is very bipartisan. He tries to serve all of the members alike. He is a tremendous fellow."

REMARKS BY CHARLIE JOHNSON

Mr. Johnson: "Mr. President, Judge, Father Treacy, my good friend, Al Henry. Thank you very much. I appreciate what you did for me today after twenty years of serving in the Senate, and I will do my best for the next few years. Thank you very much."

The President: "Mr. Speaker, honored members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen: It is a rare pleasure and privilege for the President to present to you at this time His Excellency, The Honorable Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington."

GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS TO THE LEGISLATURE

Governor Evans: "Thank you.

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Legislature, and many, many friends in the audience. I see my cabinet, my staff, my family. I guess most of all, to the citizens of the State of Washington. I do not intend to present a State of the State Message this morning. But this won't be a farewell address either. The State of the State message will properly be given by Dr. Ray tomorrow. And this will be no farewell since I intend to always retain a fierce citizen's interest in the public affairs of this state and in the well-being of Washington and its citizens. I don't promise anything else either.

"As I stand before you the memories of twenty years flood back. In looking through the book this year, I find that only eleven members of the Legislature who stood there in January of 1957 still serve as members of this body. And 1957 was an easier time. A true citizen legislature met only every other year. There were relatively few federal programs and rules. We had not yet seen the trauma brought about by an incomprehensible war, by urban and campus unrest, foreign oil boycotts, and a national nightmare called Watergate.

"You face today a state far more complex than a decade ago. Intergovernmental relationships are increasingly more intricate but not necessarily better. The challenge of coping with a modern technological world will require the best of each of you just as it will require excellence from those leaders of private enterprise.

"On each of your desks this morning are three documents. If they are not, they soon should be. A report on the hopes and the desires of thousands of Washington citizens and their specific recommendations for the future as expressed through Alternatives for Washington. That summary document has volumes behind it available for the use and the guidance of those who serve in both public and private enterprise.

"The second is a brief but nonetheless important list of suggested executive request subjects which would certainly be placed before you in final bill form if I were to remain as chief executive.

"And third, a history of the past twelve years delineating some of the successes and some of the failures, but more importantly the changes which have occurred during that tumultuous, interesting, and I believe, productive time

"I do intend this morning to speak to five overriding issues, however, which I could not in good conscience ignore in this final day in office.

"Public pensions are neither as sound as some public employee groups would have you believe nor as chaotic as some watchdog groups suggest. The public employee pension system is in good financial shape and it is on target toward full funding. The teachers system is somewhat more expensive, but it is also on its way toward a reasonable full funding program. The law enforcement and firefighters' system, however, is seriously out of control. It will require during the next biennium more than 50 percent of total police and fire payrolls to fund pension requirements. When it is necessary to set more than three times as much money aside for disability pensions as for normal retirement and when upwards of three-quarters of some of our uniformed personnel in many of our communities retire on disability, there are obvious and serious loopholes. We should provide adequately for service-connected disabilities, but cannot continue the current ultra-liberal programs for our uniformed personnel.

"Tax reform still represents the major unresolved issue of this state. Recent reports have tagged Washington with the nation's most regressive tax structure. In that position we are number one, not a very enviable spot. Our neighboring state Oregon has the most progressive tax structure in the nation. The end result is that Oregon's legislature meeting this week will face a biennial budget suggested by their chief executive of increased investment, an increased quality in Oregon programs without necessary tax increases. We here in Washington will have to deal with difficult spending priorities, crippled by the knowledge that increased taxes in our current structure will fall most heavily on the poor and that citizens have shown little inclination to change the system.

"School finance is the third and compelling and overriding issue. School finance represents a ticking time bomb which may soon explode with the issuance of pending court decisions. During the last legislative session, you took extensive action to improve the management and insure better results in our public schools. Now it is important to provide long-term, consistent and dependable financing for basic education. Adequate financial support means that administrators can return to administering, teachers can return to teaching, parents and students can be involved in the learning process, rather than all spending inordinate amounts of time passing special levies.

"As we approach the centennial of Washington statehood, it is time to prepare for the remainder of this century and the beginning of the next by thoroughly reviewing the most fundamental document of our state, our Constitution. A constitutional convention need not send shudders down the spine of this legislature. The people of today have every bit the wisdom and the capabilities as had their forefathers and a better grasp of current needs and future priorities. Setting the questions of taxation completely aside, the Constitution needs overhaul to provide new strengths to the legislative branch, new streamlining to the executive branch, new management to the judicial branch, and freedom from excessive restrictions to units of local governments throughout this state. Let the citizens decide through their vote whether a convention is desirable. None of us should ever fear the people and their decision.

"And lastly, both the executive and legislative branches of government need to spend more time in oversight of laws already passed and regulations already written. We do not really need artificial sunset laws, but rather a change in emphasis which makes it just as important to review what we have done as it is to initiate new ideas and new concepts.

"Well, as we look ahead to the next few years, we can take pride in a healthy economy with expectation over the next several years of substantial new job growth. Unemployment is going to remain high as record numbers of young people enter our labor force. But more people will be working than ever before in this state's history and more importantly a higher percentage of our labor force will be at productive work.

"The Western World is now joined economically to Japan and the developing countries of Asia. We, here in Washington, are precisely halfway between the major centers of European commerce and those of the Far East. We have an outstanding opportunity to become a leader in world trade and more importantly, the center for those who study and research and manage these major foreign relationships.

"We are blessed in Washington with productive natural resources under excellent management. Our forests each year are more productive than the previous. We can and we are rebuilding a major fishery resource. And our agricultural potential in Washington is virtually limitless.

"As I now step down from public office, let me speak of those people who have done so much to bring credit to this administration.

"Thirty thousand direct state employees in public service represent a profession which I believe is a high calling and of which I am exceptionally proud. They are neither saints nor sinners, but they are every bit as productive, as concerned, and as dedicated as their counterparts in private industry. For every Watergate, there is a Lockheed; for every bribe-taker in public service, there is a bribe-payer in private enterprise; for every development of remarkable new products however privately, there is a major stride forward publicly; for every private charity, there is a public sacrifice. The public and the private sectors cannot act as armed camps—one in conflict with the other, but as cooperators for the common good.

"The press has a massive responsibility. They must be the translators and the interpreters of public policy to our private citizens. The press must not unduly build up public heroes just so they can be brought down. Much as a judge, they cannot let personal feelings color a story. I am and have been gratified by the excellence of our Washington press. You are skilled and concerned. I wince occasionally at the barbs, but then I am not always right, and neither are you.

"I share executive responsibilities with eight other elected officials. Now while I believe that's an inordinately large number, I am sure that feeling is not shared by my executive colleagues. But, I, of course, have had a close and a warm working relationship with my two Republican counterparts—the Attorney General and the Secretary of State—who I believe have done outstanding jobs. But I have equal gratitude for the kindnesses shown by my Democratic colleagues. The relationship between a Governor and a Lt. Governor has always been a difficult one in the fifty American states, even if they represent the same political party. But I have never in twelve years feared leaving the state and have always been proud to have John Cherberg represent me. I serve as a member of two boards which are chaired by other elected officials—the Board of Natural Resources under Bert Cole and the State Finance Committee led by Treasurer Bob O'Brien. They have done an excellent job in their responsibilities and I am grateful to them for much that I have learned and those shared responsibilities which have done so much for those particular areas so important to our state.

"Part of the teamwork necessary for a successful government is a close working relationship with our Congressional delegation. Partisan differences have never stood in the way of full cooperation when the interests of Washington State were at stake. They have been immensely successful in resolving the problems we have had with our federal government and we are all the better for it.

"My cabinet and the Governor's office staff have been dedicated, loyal, and exceptionally competent leaders of state government. They have responded to my idiosyncrasies and have always produced, and especially produced during crisis conditions.

"My former colleagues, those in this audience, and members of the Legislature haven't always agreed with executive positions. But while we may differ on issues, I hope I will always have the personal friendship of those of you who serve in such a difficult and challenging responsibility. And that goes for you, too, Slim.

"No one succeeds in public life without a dedicated and an understanding family. My parents and my mother-in-law are in the audience. And they, along with the rest of my family, have made this challenge worthwhile. Most of all, my wife, Nancy has served as, I think, a simply smashing First Lady. Our Christmas card this year showed pictures of our family ten years ago and today. I received no comment at all, but Nancy had many letters back saying that she didn't look older, just better. Her responsibilities with the Seattle Symphony, as a board member of Whitman College, her extensive work with retarded children, and in the fight to save and restore the mansion will make her remembered as an independent force of the past dozen years.

"Finally, to the people of the state who three times gave me the opportunity to serve as Governor. Through your support I have been given a rare privilege accorded to only sixteen men in the history of our state. Through thousands of letters, personal contacts, and more than a million handshakes and opportunities to speak to people directly, you have helped to teach, guide, and influence my actions as Governor.

"The people have now asked Dr. Ray to take on Chief Executive responsibilities. I wish you well during the next four years. You will assume direction tomorrow of a state of incredible beauty matched nowhere in these United States. A state of enormous plenty, whose varied natural resources can sustain Washingtonians for centuries to come. A state increasingly recognized nationally and internationally for its excellence and its ability. A state whose people are creative, imaginative, productive, and most of all confident of their own future. It is a state in which I was born, where I have lived my entire life, and a state I never intend to leave.

"This has been an exciting, a challenging, and a rewarding era—a privilege to serve which I shall never forget.

"Twelve years now is all history. Nothing can be changed. Nothing can be added. As years go by, memories will dim, and the impact of these years will diminish. If only one epitaph remains, I hope it will be 'He left it a better state than when he began.'"

The President directed the committee to escort Governor Evans from the House Chamber.

The President directed the committees to escort the Supreme Court Justices and the state elected state officials from the House Chamber.

THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, January 12, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Benitz, Francis, Newschwander, Pullen and Woody. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Matson and Woody were excused. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Benitz and Newschwander were excused.

The Color Guard consisting of Pages Kevin Clement and Mary Hanson presented the Colors. Father William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"LET US PLACE OURSELVES IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD AND RECALL FOR A FEW MOMENTS THE WORDS OF KENNETH KUANDA, THE POLITICAL LEADER OF HIS COUNTRY, ZAMBIA. THE WORDS ABOUT HIS NATIVE AFRICA HAVE A MESSAGE FOR ALL OF US.

"I KNOW IT IS FASHIONABLE IN AFRICA THESE DAYS FOR QUICK, CLEVER YOUNG PEOPLE TO DISMISS RELIGION AS A PRIMITIVE SUPERSTITION THEY PUT BEHIND THEM THE FIRST TIME THEY WENT TO THE CLINIC INSTEAD OF THE WITCHDOCTOR FOR RELIEF FROM THEIR ACHES AND PAINS. OR ELSE THEY JUDGE CHRISTIANITY IN IDEOLOGICAL TERMS, AS AN INSTRUMENT OF COLONIAL OPPRESSION, FONDLY IMAGINING THAT THE CHRISTIAN GOD LEFT THE COUNTRY ON THE SAME PLANE AS THE GOVERNOR FOLLOWING OUR INDEPENDENCE CELEBRATIONS. . . .

"LEAVE OUT THE RELIGIOUS ASPECTS OF AFRICAN TRADITION, ART, CUSTOM, LANGUAGE AND LAWS AND THERE IS PRECIOUS LITTLE LEFT OUT OF OUR PAST. THE AFRICANNESS WHICH HAS ITS OWN ROOTS IN THE SOIL OF OUR CONTINENT RATHER THAN THE LECTURE ROOMS OF WESTERN UNIVERSITIES IS BASICALLY A RELIGIOUS PHENOMENON. FOR ME, GOD IS MORE A PRESENCE THAN A PHILOSOPHICAL CONCEPT. I AM AWARE, EVEN IN SOLITUDE, THAT I AM NOT ALONE: THAT MY CRIES FOR HELP OR COMFORT OR STRENGTH ARE HEARD.

"REVEAL TO US LORD YOUR PRESENCE. GIVE US THE FAITH TO REVEAL OURSELVES AND OUR NEEDS TO YOU. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the fourth order of business.

"THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
(The State of Washington Seal)

This is to certify that at the General Election held in the State of Washington on the second day of November, 1976, DIXY LEE RAY received the highest number of votes cast for the office of Governor of said State of Washington and was therefore duly elected to said office as appears from the official returns of said election duly transmitted to the Secretary of State of said State and which returns were open, public and the results thereof duly declared in the presence of a majority of the members of the House of the Legislatures of said State as provided by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands this twelfth day of January A.D., 1977 at Olympia Washington.

Signed by the President of the Senate and signed by the Speaker of the House, the Honorable John Bagnariol.'

"I have the firm opinion that you would like very much to meet the members of Governor Ray's family who are present today. There are four very charming and lovely ladies that are present in the House Chamber today, and I should like very much to request of Mrs. Marion R. Reid that you please stand in order that you may be properly recognized. (Applause) Also, Mrs. Jean R. Potenziani, Mrs. Juliana C. Strong of California and Mrs. Alvista Steele of Oregon. The President should have remarked that Mrs. Reid is a citizen of the State of Washington and Mrs. Potenziani is a citizen of New Mexico and a medical doctor. Governor, when you get ready to run for President it seems you've captured the western states already. Present-elect Carter will look upon you as a potential opponent.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I believe you will agree that this is a most significant moment in the State of Washington. If it is not, it will at least do as the most significant moment until a more significant moment comes along. We are honored today to have the first woman governor of a western state elected strictly in her own right. Now this lady is a person I have been fortunate enough to know for a number of years and I'm sure that I join with millions of other citizens in the State of Washington in our respect, admiration and affection for Dixy Lee Ray. Dixy has, as I indicated earlier, come a long way and I'm sure you will agree that her achievements in the areas of science, of education and government will be unparalleled. Dixy, I'm sure that every person in the state, every person in the country, every person who knows you and every member of the Legislature, every elected state official, every member of this most august body in the land, the Supreme Court, join with me in congratulating you from the heart and wishing you the very best in the years to come. True success to you, Dixy. Now I should like very much to request of you to deliver your message."

GOVERNOR'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Governor Ray: "Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, distinguished Justices of the Court, honored officials, members of the Legislature, my fellow citizens of Washington State: A funny thing happened on the way to the office this morning. I was flipping across the radio dial when something caught my ear. The announcer was promoting the fact that his station would be carrying live the Inauguration of the Governor.

"How will the new Governor handle the problem of the budget?' 'What will be her approach to school funding'—and several more questions—followed by the usual intonation to tune-in and hear it all.

"I came here today, ladies and gentlemen, not to propose all the answers, because I do not know them, but to share with you my views on the many, many problems we face together—the chief executive, the legislature, and each citizen of this state—and to make some modest proposals, and to seek your cooperation and guidance.

"When you, in this 45th Legislature, conclude your first session, let us hope that together we have made some solid beginnings in the fields of funding our educational system, improving the quality of education, financing of state government—and learning how to control its growth, reforming one of the most regressive tax structures in the nation, stimulating the economy with resultant new job opportunities, protecting our environment while helping to meet the requirements for our energy, and, meeting the needs of the elderly, the underprivileged, the sick and the poor.

"With our honest attention to these and other pressing matters, we may find some of the answers to restoring the faith of the people in the institution of government.

"So today begins a new administration in state government. You, as representatives of all the people, are entitled to know the basic philosophy and objectives of your new Governor.

"About philosophy: I do not think that big government can handle problems better than little government—especially those local problems that loom so very large in the eyes of the individuals affected. True, the 'town hall' approach is not sophisticated enough for some of our complex problems in this fast-moving world, but it is not necessary to make small problems complex by assigning their solution to big government.

"Because I believe problems should be solved as close to the source as possible, I shall also favor funding of solutions as close to the point of expenditure as is practical with reasonable equity to those who are paying the costs.

"This means that I do not generally favor collection of taxes by upper echelons of government to be returned to local government wrapped in the pretty package called 'Revenue Sharing.' There are instances where equity to the taxpayer requires funding over a broad base, but I believe spending is best controlled when the public officials spending the money must face the taxpayer resistance occasioned by the levy of taxes to pay the cost.

"I have no illusions that this administration can vastly modify some of the state and national trends that are well established. Indeed, change in some may not be desirable. But perhaps we can 'bend' rather than 'break'—'shape' rather than 'shatter'—those programs of government that seem to have taken over our direction.

"Perhaps if we believe strongly enough in our pledges of cooperation, we will make a beginning, for example, in the field of economic development.

"We need to help create an atmosphere that will foster business confidence, thus encouraging business and economic expansion that will create jobs for residents of the state of Washington.

"More jobs mean more paychecks—people paying taxes—citizens better able to contribute to, not withdraw from, the bank account of state government.

"The human race has many values other than a warm dwelling and enough to eat. Whether these values in respect to individuals center around music, the arts and literature, sports, outdoor recreation, or whatever, all are better enjoyed if employment is secure and tomorrow is expected to be better than yesterday. Unemployment is a miserable state. It plagues far too many of our citizens. It even drives some people into running for public office.

GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION

"I use the term 'government organization' deliberately rather than the term 'disorganization,' which may be more applicable. The major departments under the Governor, about 14 in number, are, generally speaking, rather reasonable divisions of responsibility. Some do need restructuring. However, the proliferation of commissions, boards, advisory committees, and other appendages of government are far too numerous. The direct cost of their operation is not as important as the ancillary effects of their existence. It is almost impossible to track the maze of their government actions or sometimes even to understand their motivation.

"I shall not start by suggesting a new commission to study the matter. I do intend, within the administration, to undertake an evaluation of each such entity in existence, and to make appropriate recommendations.

"Controversial though it may be, I believe in those instances when a multiple member policy board or commission is deemed necessary, then it should continue, but should nevertheless be more under control by the Governor, especially over the administration of the program carried out than now exists. The remainder should be promptly phased out.

TAXATION

"Washington's tax system is regressive. This term is usually understood to mean that the tax burden on those of under-average income level or property ownership pay a higher percentage of their income in taxes than do those who are more affluent.

"The business and occupation tax is by nature regressive and, being levied on successive title passing of goods, from manufacturing to retail, compounds its inherent problems. It does have some merit in application as it reaches cooperatives, non-profit and private entrepreneurs with equality. It also has the advantage of being the only present tax with rates adjusted to the special conditions of the class of business to which it is applied.

"Washington's property taxes are not excessively high in comparison to those of many other states. What is significant is the extreme variance within the state. Most of this variation is due to overdependence on special levies for schools which vary from nothing to as much or more than all other property taxes combined.

"With this very brief comment on our tax system, I want to suggest an approach to improvement.

"People do not respond well to sudden tax changes of great magnitude unless the result is a specific, easily recognized reduction in their total, personal tax bill.

"Acceptance of what I believe is a reasonable move toward better tax equity cannot be worked out between the Governor and the Legislature alone. This is a discussion that must include all the people of the state. I am encouraged by the recent position paper representing the views of some of our largest businesses. And I hope that the conclusions reached and recommendations submitted will receive wide attention.

"I believe that your state government must operate in a climate of some austerity while this new administration determines whether our expenditure patterns developed over the last decade are truly justified. If spending is rational and controlled, chances of success with improvement in our tax system will be greater.

THE COMMON SCHOOLS

"I have been involved in education all my life. I believe in education. The only resource that we can be confident we will never run out of is the resourcefulness of the human minds educated to the ever-growing body of knowledge and its uses in solving problems.

"To discharge the state's responsibility in education, it is not enough to recite the language of the Constitution in the preamble to section nine, which reads, 'It is the paramount duty of the state to make ample provision for the education of all children residing within its borders, without distinction or preference on account of race, color, caste or sex.' A definition of 'ample' will always be written in the appropriation bill, session after session. But increasingly in recent years the decision of what is 'ample' has been transferred to the local school district voters through over-reliance on the special levy system.

"There is much merit to allowing the local school districts a voice in the level of spending in support of common school education. Without some such authority, our financing statewide is most likely to be uniformly deficient. However, allowing unlimited authority to raise money locally, no matter how difficult, is an escape mechanism far too attractive to any legislature faced with many severe demands upon the public purse.

"Dependence on special levies for support of the common schools must be reduced. Further, the burden on the taxpayer to provide the added school support over what can be supplied by the state must be equalized up to some specified level. Throughout the campaign I spoke often on this topic and generally supported the provisions of Initiative 53. I do not consider Initiative 53 to be a long-term solution to school financing. It is the first best step I see in getting on with a viable, more dependable, basis for support of the common schools. The cost of the program is within reach without a major tax overhaul, which will take time. Some additional state money over that needed to equalize special levies will be necessary for regular school apportionments and for categorical grants for special programs. With the adoption of legislation embodying these or similar provisions, I believe we will have taken a major step toward more adequate state funding.

"It is not generally my intention to comment in this address on the budget proposals of my predecessor. I am making an exception in the case of school funding because I will be recommending that the Legislature take early action on the matter of school funding in order to facilitate planning of the school districts of the state. The action of the previous Governor in purchasing advertising during the holiday season, seeking support for his budget proposals, seems to require an early answer where early action is asked on my part.

"The budget proposed by former Governor Evans with its attendant tax increase shows, on careful analysis, that our most regressive taxes—sales and B & O—will be increased beginning even before the next biennium to achieve 90 per cent funding without special levies in the second year of the biennium. A reduction in property taxes is projected, but actually no reduction is mandated until the collections due in 1979, and no relief of consequence will actually be evident until the second half taxes in that year, due to a provision that levies voted in 1978 for collection in 1979 all be paid in the first half collections. The collection of increased taxes for 25 months to support 90 per cent funding for 10 months of school during the last year of the biennium can only mean the need for even further increases in state taxes two years from now, or the raising of the ceiling on special levies over that proposed at the 1976 session.

"I am not ready to sanction an increase in the most regressive taxes in a regressive system to secure a very problematical reduction in property taxes two years later and probably, in the process, guarantee the schools uniform funding at an inadequate level.

HIGHER EDUCATION

"Support of the common schools is a primary public obligation. Participation in education beyond high school is a matter of individual choice and an investment in opportunity on the part of those attending. There are great public benefits associated with a well-educated citizenry, and these merit public support of universities and colleges—but the high costs cannot be entirely avoided by the students. A reasonable division of costs would indicate tuition rates should increase at about the rate of inflation in the costs of maintaining these high quality educational programs.

PENSIONS

"The costs of pensions for public employees has become a matter of concern to us all. In a way, the unfunded liabilities resemble those associated with raising and educating children. Had the financial consequences of their actions been fully understood by either those that conceived our pension system or our children, we might have had neither—at least not so many of them. However, now that we have pensions and children, we love them both too much to give them up or to restrict them. With respect to pensions, we probably can afford to carry some unfunded liability if we have a program that will not result in both impoverishment of today's supporters and insecurity of future benefits to those for whose benefit the liabilities are incurred.

"The new Director of the Department of Retirement Systems will be giving early and careful consideration as to how these pension fund problems can be resolved, and a special message on this important question can be expected.

ENERGY

"We have an energy office created by act of an earlier Legislature. Parts of that act were vetoed, leaving the state with an energy office so curtailed and constrained that it resembles some of the I-90 ramps meant to interchange with I-5. Apparently the vetoes were occasioned by failure to reach agreement on a suitable method under which the Legislature could exercise reasonable review, especially respecting enforced cutbacks in use and allocation procedures in times of critical shortage. Until this problem is resolved through amendment of the energy act, it is very questionable that any legal authority exists for restrictions or allocation in case of an impending or actual shortage of energy supplies.

"There will be few, if any, cases when your present Governor will stubbornly insist on having it all my way. I believe in pragmatic approaches that recognize attainable progress is better than unattainable perfection. It is my present inclination to support the establishment of a special legislative review committee on energy matters if that approach is deemed desirable to the Legislature. Such an arrangement with respect to highway matters has given the Legislature substantial influence in highway decisions for many years, without actual encroachment on executive authority or responsibility.

"In an overall energy policy the state of Washington must seek to have available to its citizens a supply of energy limited only by the balance of costs and benefits to the consumer when the costs properly reflect the real expense of production and delivery in an acceptable manner. We need to examine and to evaluate all methods of producing electricity and all sources of energy. This will take some time, but we need a balanced, diversified program.

"Some special comment is indicated with respect to petroleum.

"Our first priority is assuring that our present refineries are supplied in the most certain and environmentally safe manner. In the immediate future, and for many months, this supply must come by tanker, small or large. This means our first effort must be to assure safe movement of these supplies.

"I also share the concerns of Senator Magnuson and Transportation Secretary Brock Adams over the need to inspect, control and regulate the many 'flag of convenience' vessels now engaged in worldwide waterborne commerce. We must all work together with the Coast Guard and our Congressional delegation in raising the sensitivity of all of those responsible for the movement of any ship as to the safety features, navigational and cargo handling procedures, and sound maintenance policies.

"Tanker problems and the potential of oil spills have been exceedingly well publicized. Because this issue is viewed so emotionally, and because of the deep significance of assured petroleum supplies to our state and to our nation, I intend to make oil shipment and trans-shipment the subject of a special message in the very near future. This message will also deal with the equally important, equally necessary area of conservation of our energy supplies. Something we must be open about and begin to approach in a most practical and attainable manner.

AGRICULTURE

"There is a lot of talk about finite resources that are being rapidly depleted. In the final analysis, the most valuable of these to Washington State has to be food. Agriculture is one of the most important industries in our state and provides a very satisfactory way of life for many.

"Land is a resource that is largely non-depletable if properly used.

"Food is our greatest export, and international trade in various food products will become more valuable in the future.

"Irrigation development is not the only problem facing agriculture. Despite strong feelings, it is not as pressing as problems attendant with the modern use of fertilizers and pesticides.

"Let me emphasize that irrigation water policy should be settled in law—and that question is undeniably before this session of the Legislature.

FISHERIES

"Washington has a fish problem. That is an understatement if there ever was one. A fisheries enhancement program is in order. That alone does not resolve the problem that exists under the Boldt decision. Indian fishing rights under treaty provisions are hard to match with today's fishing processes and new techniques.

"It is my opinion that the burden of renegotiating those treaty provisions lies with the federal government. There is room for enhancing the benefits of the fishing resource to the Indians along with attendant benefits to non-treaty fishing by both Indians and non-Indians. We must find the ways to resolve the question that are amicable and fair to all.

"A special word is necessary in respect to Idaho's interest in the Columbia River fish runs. I am in favor of including Idaho in fish discussions and decision-making conferences now largely limited to Washington and Oregon. In addition, I should note that our fish problems are not entirely separable from those of British Columbia, and with the enactment of the two hundred mile zone. Our own fisheries extend far out to sea into what used to be international waters.

TRANSPORTATION

"Observation of transportation facilities in this state finds a generally good set of facilities, including a good, but not complete, system of state roads—sometimes crowded, but usually not crowded enough to discourage those inclined to drive in excess of posted speed limits. Mass transit systems are struggling with some success.

"While the gas tax is not the only source of revenue for the support of public roads and streets, it is the major one. If we decide added revenue for highway purposes is necessary, I would prefer a variable tax on gallons of gas or other comparable units.

"There has been discussion of creation of a Department of Transportation for several years. I do not view such a move as imperative at this time. I am concerned that good balance be attained between highways and other transportation facilities.

TOURISM AND RECREATION

"This administration will actively support tourism through a combined program of promotion and appropriate assistance to businesses and industries in this vital statewide segment of the economy.

"Tourism is Washington's second largest industry, representing $1.4 billion in business revenues and $159 million in state tax revenues annually. The industry employs 74,000 people throughout the state, with an annual payroll of $386 million.

"No other industry offers such potential for desirable long-term growth and stability for the state's economy. Its positive impact is statewide. It is people-oriented and can be environmentally sound.

"In this regard, Washington is the natural gateway to the Far East and Alaska. This administration will aggressively pursue every opportunity to make this the number one gateway through expansion of air travel capacity and additional airline routes.

THE ARTS

"Washington State is already an acknowledged leader among American states in taking the arts to the people. That is good, we must not rest on our laurels until every state resident has an opportunity to see and to hear productions of the finest quality. (Fooled you didn't I?) Despite our great progress thousands of Washingtonians have yet to experience the thrill of an opera, a symphony concert, a ballet performance, folk dancing and singing, a live drama and the greatest in visual and plastic arts, but there is another crucial aspect to the arts that remain virtually untapped and that is in the use of the arts—music, painting, sculptures, crafts of all kinds to help in the rehabilitation of the ailing, the handicapped, the incarcerated and in the care of the elderly and the infirm. Some experimentation and progress has been made in this field, but it represents only a modest scratching of the surface. This administration intends to place great emphasis on both of these aspects of art elements and a detailed report will soon be made to the legislature including recommendations for action.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR WOMEN AND MINORITIES

"I guess it is now established that a woman can be elected Governor in Washington State. Let me hasten to add that I believe a candidate with the same general platform and interests and programs who happened to be male or a member of any of our minorities would have won. The prejudice against women and other minorities in top positions is easing, but is far from fully overcome.

"For that reason I support making the Women's Council statutory. I also support the continuation and the enhancement of the council for our various minority groups—the Asian-Americans, the Spanish-speaking American, our American Indians, our black community and all those whose diversity of culture and background make this a richly diverse and richly rewarding area in which to live. In my incompleting search for candidates to appoint to various offices of the executive branch, I found many women and many members of minority groups of competence, all generally occupied in endeavors they chose not leave for what may well be temporary service in government. Entry back into the business or professional world is still not that easy for members of the groups I speak of.

"I shall encourage advancement of capable women and minorities in state employment, and I shall continue to search for candidates to high offices in the executive branch.

"I do not plan a quota system for state employment where I have authority or influence. I do plan to give careful consideration to candidates for employment who can contribute to a lessening of discrimination.

BUDGET

"I have expressed my philosophy and objectives in very general terms today. They will become more specific as explicit situations develop. I do not want either the members of the Legislature or the people of the state of Washington to think my positions are unalterable. I do not aspire to break any veto records set by previous Governors. I want to cooperate in solving problems and creating opportunities for the people we represent in Olympia.

"The budget will be the big item as always. I expect within a few days, possibly about the first of February, to submit a budget message to the Legislature. This does not mean that there should be any delay in hearings and consideration of our spending programs. In the meantime, I shall ask that each department under the Governor's direction be ready to provide information on expenditure requirements based on the first year of the coming biennium. I realize the benefits of being able to plan with assured financing for the full two-year period, but I do not believe it is possible now to predict accurately the costs of the second year's operation. I also hope that one year hence your new Governor will be implementing some cost saving programs. Also, I expect to make and propose some governmental organization changes that will require budget reconsideration.

"Let me conclude by reaffirming my faith in the people of this state and in their elected representatives and other officials who make up the basic institution of state government.

"We can—we must—cooperate in facing up to the pressing questions that have cried out for answers for far too long. Schools, the tax structure, employment opportunities, economic development, energy, the environment, resource utilization and many more.

"Let us work together to make government truly the tool of the people. Let government not stand in the way of personal enterprise and ambition, but rather, take the lead in lighting the path that can lead to a more profitable and meaningful life style for all segments and all age groups of our population.

"Thank you very much."

The President: "The President should like to respectfully request one more kindness of the ladies and gentlemen present today and present two pride and joys that Betty and I have, Miss Kimberly Tonkin and Master Tyler Tonkin. Will you please stand?"

Applause.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Grant, Francis, Goltz and Woody were excused. On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Benitz was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Tim Zenk and Ann Reitemeier, presented the Colors. Father William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD, CREATOR AND GIVER OF LIFE, WE ASK TODAY ON THIS OPENING WEEK OF THE LEGISLATURE FOR A HUMBLE SPIRIT AS WE LISTEN AGAIN TO THE WORDS OF A LEADING POLITICIAN, KENNETH KUANDA, PRESIDENT OF ZAMBIA. IN A LETTER TO HIS CHILDREN HE WRITES:

"MY MOTHER, WHO DIED AT THE AGE OF NINETY, WAS A HAPPY, GOOD WOMAN. HER NEEDS WERE MODEST, AND I AM AFRAID SHE FOUND HER POLITICIAN SON AS MUCH AN EMBARRASSMENT AS A SOURCE OF PRIDE. SHE NEVER REALLY UNDERSTOOD WHY PROTOCOL OR SECURITY SHOULD REQUIRE MY VISITS TO HER LITTLE HOUSE TO BE SO NOISY AND FUSSY. SHE TAUGHT ME MORE THAN I CAN EVER REPAY, AND ONE THING IN PARTICULAR — THAT A LIFE BASED ON HAVING IS LESS HAPPY THAN A LIFE BASED ON BEING OR DOING. IT IS ONE OF THE LESS WELCOME LEGACIES OF WESTERN INDULGENCE IN AFRICA THAT TOO MANY OF OUR PEOPLE HAVE LEARNED TO ELEVATE POSSESSIONS ABOVE SERVICE AND TO REGARD POSITION AS MORE SIGNIFICANT THAN USEFULNESS.

"MAY NOT ONLY THE CHILDREN OF THIS MAN BUT ALL OF US, LORD, TAKE HIS WORDS TO HEART. AMEN."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, additional sponsors were permitted on Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, I did not check it. What is the cutoff date for executive request bills? It has been in our rules for some time."

Senator Walgren: "Well, Senator Rasmussen, we have not yet adopted the rules, of course, for procedure here and that we hope will be accomplished during the first of this next week. I have not contemplated any changes with regard to executive request bills as it relates to our rules. There is no provision in this as it relates to that either. I would just say that they would be introduced in the same period of time. That is, by the fortieth day."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, the reason is I was hoping you would consider maybe a little extension on the executive request bills because we have a new team, a new transition team, and that is a little bit mixed up as yet."

Senator Walgren: "I understand that, Senator Rasmussen, but I understand that she is proceeding very rapidly down there."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

WHEREAS, Michael G. Boivin, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Washington State School Directors' Association, passed away this 12th day of January, 1977, under tragic circumstances; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the widow and children of Michael G. Boivin.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "I think this resolution speaks for itself. As you well know, last Wednesday Mike Boivin was killed instantly when he swerved to avoid a hitch hiker. I have known and worked with Mike for nine years through the School Directors' Association. Ironically, prior to that, he was a teacher in my own school district. I know that Mike was dedicated really to the attainment of excellence in education for all the children of the State of Washington, and he would be particularly happy, I suppose, with some of the results this morning in this morning's court case, but I do want to honor him at this time."

The motion by Senator Gould carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-6

By Senators Fleming and McDermott:

WHEREAS, We, the members of the Senate, congregated here to carry out the responsibilities delegated to us by the citizens of this state, reflect for a moment that almost nine years ago a man with prodigious energies and a credo of peaceful resistance was assassinated; and

WHEREAS, The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., altered the course of human events by tearing asunder the policies of racial oppression, an achievement which brought him the Nobel Peace Prize; and

WHEREAS, This man, a man who spoke against all societal practices that degraded the human personality, devoted his God-fearing life to the betterment of the quality of life for the oppressed and the poor in America; and

WHEREAS, This champion of minorities preached hope not despair, love not hate, trust not suspicion, cooperation not conflict, the dignity of the individual not the artificial superiority of a class, and in doing so dared Americans to reexamine our attitude toward our fundamental credo that "all men are created equal";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this day, we, the Senate of the State of Washington, pause in our deliberations to honor the memory of an extraordinary American, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and call to the attention of the citizens of this state his lasting contributions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to his widow and members of his family.

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Senator Fleming called me this morning and said he was unable to be here, and asked me if I would say a few words about Dr. King. I consider it a great honor to be asked.

"It is sad, but some men's fate and women's fate is to only receive the acknowledgement of their accomplishments after they die. In the nine years since Martin Luther King died many of the things he stood for have come to pass. We still, in this state and in this country, face the resolution of some of those problems. I think it is important that we today take a moment to recommit ourselves to working on these problems, and I hope that all of you with the school children of this state will take the action in this coming year to make this a state school holiday.

"His example is one that is not only for minorities, but for every member of this state. Thank you."

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the resolution was adopted.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Mr. Thomas C. Garrett and his wife, Judith.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, whereas Mr. Tom Garrett is the most active civic leader in Spokane, and has served six years as a member of the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission with dedication and zeal, he is deserving of this commendation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Lewis yield? Senator Lewis, is Mr. Garrett retiring, or is Mr. Garrett still a member of this board?"

Senator Lewis: "It is my understanding that Mr. Garrett will no longer be a member of the board."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think the resolution is very fitting. I would endorse it but I think it would be a poor practice here today to start endorsing and commending appointees that are pending before the Senate and perhaps a reappointment. That is the reason I asked the question without understanding. I withdraw my objection."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the resolution was adopted:

On line 10, after "and" insert "he"

The motion by Senator Lewis carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

Senator von Reichbauer moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-8

By Senators von Reichbauer, Sellar, Walgren, Washington and Wilson:

WHEREAS, Wilfred R. Woods has served ten distinguished years as a member of the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Woods has been chosen for two succeeding years to serve as President of the American Forestry Association; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Woods' interest and concern for outdoor recreational problems were exhibited in articles in The Wenatchee World, and by the support of that newspaper of which he is editor and publisher; and

WHEREAS, In 1972 he received the Special Service Award for Soil and Water Conservation from the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, He has willingly devoted great time and energy to serve on many boards including the Pacific Crest Trail Advisory Council, State Reclamation Association, Inland Empire Waterway Association, and the State Citizens' Committee on Highway Safety;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Mr. Wilfred R. Woods be commended as a distinguished citizen for dedicated service on behalf of the citizens of the State of Washington; and

REMARKS BY SENATOR SELLAR

Senator Sellar: "I certainly would like to speak on behalf of Mr. Wilfred Woods who has served ten years on the Parks Board. He has served as the chairman of that board. He has served with a great deal of distinction and it is with regret that he is no longer with that board, and I certainly would ask all of you to join me in giving him this well deserved honor."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Sellar yield to a question? Senator Sellar, why is Mr. Woods leaving the board?"

Senator Sellar: "Mr. Woods has resigned from the board. His term was about to expire, and among other things, including Referendum 36, he decided he would resign at this time because he had no intention of asking to be reappointed."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Sellar. I just wondered if it was because of the financial reporting that he resigned. He has done an excellent job on the board."

Senator Sellar: "I had a nice talk with Mr. Woods, and he indicated if he had had a desire to continue on that board that he certainly would have complied with the disclosure, but as his term was about to expire, he did not."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, this is one member of the Board of Parks and Recreation who I think has done an outstanding job and I hate to leave the resolution hanging like Wilfred Woods was quitting, because he wanted to avoid making out a report of his private financial holdings. Wilfred Woods is probably the outstanding member, the only one who really listens to people when people have problems. I just hate to see him leave the commission. I think there is going to be a great void and I just wish he were going to stay on, but he chose not to do so."

The motion by Senator von Reichbauer carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

At 12:30 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, The Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, January 18, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

FROM THE PILGRIMS FLEEING PERSECUTION TO REFUGEES FROM HITLER'S HOLOCAUST, WE THANK YOU, LORD, THAT MILLIONS OF PEOPLE HAVE FOUND BOTH RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL HAVEN IN THIS GREAT LAND. THE MAYFLOWER COMPACT HAD AS ITS OPENING WORDS, 'IN THE NAME OF GOD — AMEN'. ON OUR MONEY IS INSCRIBED THE WORDS, 'IN GOD WE TRUST'. SESSIONS OF CONGRESS, THE SUPREME COURT, AND THE SESSIONS OF OUR OWN STATE GOVERNMENT, ARE OPENED WITH PRAYER. OUR NEW PRESIDENT WILL TAKE HIS OATH OF OFFICE ON A BIBLE THIS VERY WEEK. FATHER IN HEAVEN, THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO BUILT AMERICA HAVE BEEN MOTIVATED AND IN TURN HAVE MOTIVATED OTHERS BY A SPIRITUAL ZEAL THAT CONTINUES TO INFLUENCE THE CHARACTER AND PURPOSE OF OUR LIFE TODAY. SO, DEAR LORD, COME AND RENEW THY SPIRIT WITHIN ALL OF US TODAY. MAKE OF US WHAT WILL BLESS AND HELP OTHERS. THIS WE SEE AS OUR HIGHEST TASK, THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST. AMEN."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 103.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

January 14, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON,

DEAR SIR:

We herewith respectfully transmit for your consideration, pursuant to Article II, Section 1, of the state constitution and RCW 29.79.200, the certification of the sufficiency of Initiative to the Legislature 59 together with a copy of the full, true and complete text of the Initiative as filed in this office on August 16, 1976.

Sincerely,
BRUCE K. CHAPMAN
Secretary of State.
DUANE C. WOODS
Assistant Secretary of State.

CERTIFICATION OF INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE 59

Pursuant to Article II, Section 1A of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 29.79.200, and WAC 90-12-010, the Office of the Secretary of State has caused the signatures submitted in support of Initiative to the Legislature 59 to be examined in the following manner:

(1) It was determined that 191,234 signatures were submitted by the sponsors thereof. A random sample of 7,602 signatures was taken from those submitted;

(2) Each sampled signature was examined to determine the following: a) if the signer was a registered voter of the state at the address indicated on the petition; b) if the signature was proper as to form; and c) if the same signature appeared more than once in the sample. We found 7,128 valid signatures, 462 signatures invalid due to not being registered or being improper in form, and 6 pairs of duplicated signatures in the sample;

(3) We calculated an allowance for the chance of error of sampling (33) by multiplying the square root of the number of invalid signatures by 1.5;

(4) We estimated the upper limit of the number of signatures on the initiative petition which were invalid (12,453) by dividing the sum of the number of invalid signatures in the sample and the allowance for the chance error of sampling by the sampling ratio;

(5) We determined the maximum allowable number of pairs of signatures on the petition (42,698) by subtracting the sum of 110% of the number of signatures required by Article II, Section 1A of the Washington State Constitution (136,083) and the estimate of the upper limit of the number of invalid signatures in the population from the number of signatures submitted;

(6) We determined the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample (67) by multiplying the square of the sampling ratio by the maximum allowable number of pairs of signatures on the initiative petition;

(7) We determined the acceptable number of pairs of signatures in the sample (47) by subtracting 2.33 times the square root of the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample from the expected number of pairs of signatures in the sample; and

(8) Since the number of pairs of signatures in the sample is less than the acceptable number of pairs of signatures in the sample, I hereby declare Initiative to the Legislature 59 to be sufficient.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Washington to be affixed this 14th day of January, A.D., 1977.

BRUCE K. CHAPMAN

Secretary of State.

DUANE C. WOODS

Assistant Secretary of State.

(Seal of the State of Washington)

Referred to Committee on Ecology.

TENTH DAY

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, January 19, 1977.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Day, Donohue, Guess and Matson. On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senators Day and Donohue were excused. On motion of Senator Jones, Senators Guess and Matson were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Peggy Holmes and Tom Pearce, presented the Colors. Reverend Glen D. Cole, pastor of the Evergreen Christian Center of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"WE DO NOT COME TO YOU TODAY, HEAVENLY FATHER, WITH WORDS OF ELOQUENCE, OR WITH GREAT RHETORIC. WE SIMPLY COME TO YOU WITH HUMBLE HEARTS, THANKFUL FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF LIVING ANOTHER DAY. WE HAVE COME TO ASK YOUR BLESSING UPON THESE WONDERFUL PEOPLE. THEY HAVE A GREAT JOB TO DO. THEY HAVE GREAT DECISIONS TO MAKE IN THESE COMING WEEKS. GRANT TO EACH OF THEM PHYSICAL, MORAL AND SPIRITUAL STRENGTH. SOMETIMES WE FEEL INADEQUATE FOR A TASK. IN OUR HEARTS WE KNOW WHAT WE CAN BE, AND OFTEN WHAT WE CAN DO, BUT WE DON'T SEEM TO BE ABLE TO LIVE UP TO IT. THAT'S WHY WE HAVE PAUSED FOR PRAYER TODAY, LORD. TOUCH THESE LIVES BY THE MYSTERY OF YOUR DIVINE GRACE. HELP THEM TO RISE TO THE TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN. FOR A DAY OF INNER PEACE, OF OUTWARD PRODUCTIVITY, FOR YOUR WISDOM AND GUIDANCE IN ALL THINGS, WE THANK YOU NOW. IN THE NAME OF HIM WHO LOVED US AND GAVE HIS LIFE FOR US WE PRAY, EVEN JESUS OUR LORD. AMEN."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to comply with the request of Governor Ray.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the newly elected Governor has requested of this body that we return to her those appointments that have been made by her predecessor, Governor Evans, but not acted upon by the Senate.

"It is our belief that an incoming Governor should have an opportunity of affecting her administration by the appointments that are made to the various boards and commissions. For this reason it is our belief that the appointments that have not been acted upon by the Senate should be returned to her so that she may select such persons as she believes are appropriate to serve in these various positions. There is, of course, considerable precedence for the action that is being taken today. We know that in 1957, Governor Rosellini made a similar request. We know that on two occasions in 1965 Governor Evans made such a request of this body, and on those occasions the request was honored by the body and the particular persons who were requested to be withdrawn were indeed withdrawn by the Governor. So there is certainly adequate precedence for the request of Governor Ray. The form of the request that she has made, of course, is in exactly the same form as it was presented to this body in those years that were mentioned previously.

"So I would urge the Senate to honor the request of the Governor and return the appointments of Governor Evans back to her so that she can make the necessary appointments for the continuation of the state government."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. I looked through this list that was just dropped on my desk, and I wonder whether the Senate has possession of this some hundred and twenty four names. I go through the list and see appointments in 1973, 1974, 1975 and 1976. I feel certain that some of those early appointments are in the possession of the committee. I feel certain that some of the latter appointments in 1976 are in the possession of the Senate, and so it has always been a matter of courtesy that when we withdraw a bill from a committee—I have heard Senator Bailey say many times that we do not do that—we have had some pretty good debates. So I would like a decision by the Chair that who has possession of these bills.

"I look at the record in 1965, and there had been a motion made on those two names that Senator Walgren alluded to, but they at that time were actually in the possession of the Secretary of the Senate through a motion and had never been read into the Senate. So I think that we have a little different ball game, and I would like a decision by the Chair that of the hundred and twenty some names, who has possession, the committee, the Senate or the Secretary of the Senate."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Newschwander, in reply to your inquiry the President finds that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 136 which was adopted by the forty-fourth legislative session provided that all bills, joint or concurrent resolutions, memorials in the hands of the Secretary of the Senate, committees or committee clerks be indefinitely postponed. The appointment messages received from Governor Evans are not covered by this particular resolution. Because of that, inasmuch as the Senate is a continuing body and this is a new legislative session, the President must assume that the appointment messages are in the possession of the Senate and are on file with the Secretary of the Senate's office."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "At this time I wish the President's Ruling upon the impropriety of the motion proposed by Senator Walgren on the following grounds:

"One, the Senate has no constitutional or statutory right or power to dispose of gubernatorial appointments which require confirmation by the Senate, other than to take a roll-call vote about each appointment separately with respect to confirmation or rejection.

"Two, that each such appointee has a constitutional and statutory right when appointed by the Governor to continue to hold office for the term appointed unless his confirmation is affirmatively rejected by a roll call vote of the Senate, or he is subject to removal upon statutory grounds.

"Three, that when the Governor makes an appointment which is subject to confirmation by the Senate, and sends such appointment to the Senate for confirmation, each Senator has a constitutional and legal right to cast an individual and separate roll call vote for the confirmation or the rejection by the Senate of such appointee."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Mardesich: "Point of order, Mr. President. The Senator reads without leave of the body, and I should request that copies of what he is reading from be submitted to the body this time"

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Replying, Mr. President, these are part of my own oral presentation. These are notes which I am using to be sure that I make my presentation in the way that I wish to make them."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I have no argument with that, Mr. President. I merely—the point of order that I raised—and request copies in league with the past rules and custom of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Responding to that, if I were reading, Mr. President, from something that had been prepared by someone else and was something other than my own notes with respect to making a presentation, I think the Senator's request would be in order, but I have yet to see a situation when a Senator on the floor does not have the right to refer to his own notes as to the type of presentation which he wants to make, and that such notes, merely because he has them, become within the scope of the point made by Senator Mardesich."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I disagree with Senator Mardesich. I would like to hear Senator Clarke's presentation. I do think however, Senator Clarke, it would be fitting if we could, when you have finished, have a transcript made of this so that we could have it before us, and it is going to be a very complicated ruling by the President, but I do agree and I think that I would like to support his right to continue."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes the remarks of Senator Bailey are well taken."

POINT OF ORDER—CONTINUED

Senator Clarke: "Thank you. I will reread number three. I am not sure at what point I was interrupted and incidentally, I will say that these various points will be immediately handed to the Secretary of the Senate so that they may be placed upon the desk of each Senator.

"Three, that when the Governor makes an appointment which is subject to confirmation by the Senate, and sends such appointment to the Senate for confirmation, each Senator has a constitutional and legal right to cast an individual and separate roll call vote for the confirmation or rejection by the Senate of such appointee.

"Four, that once the Governor has made an appointment to an office which is subject to confirmation and has sent such appointment to the Senate for confirmation, the Governor's function is completed and he has no power over such appointment unless the Senate affirmatively acts to reject such appointment, whereupon a vacancy occurs and the Governor may make a new appointment.

"That ends my point of order, and with the President's leave, I would like to present a brief argument in support of it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "While we are at ease I would simply like to call the attention of the body to Reed's Rules, No. 187, pertaining to the reading of rules, reading of papers. It says, if I might quote, 'with the leave of the Senate. Whenever an assembly has to take final action upon a paper, any member has a right to have the paper read, in order that the assembly may know what it is voting upon. But if the paper is one on which a final vote is not being taken, it is usually not read, and if any member objects, the reading must be ordered by the assembly on motion.'"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you, Senator Mardesich."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, supporting the Ruling of the Chair on Senator Clarke's reading his own material, so many times Senator Lennart, many times and many excellent speakers write their notes and write their speeches and actually read from it. There is much precedence for it, and I think it should be just clear that a person can prepare written remarks and read them."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I have no argument with that position. I merely say that if a member desires to have copies of what is being read, then the member can demand that those copies be furnished. That is the effect, the purpose of the rule."

At 11:35 a.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 11:44 a.m.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. A very brief argument in support of my point of order, the appurtenant portion of the Constitution is Article 13, Section 1, which in substance, says, 'With respect to regents, trustees or commissioners of all institutions shall be appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and upon all nominations made by the Governor the question shall be taken by ayes and nays and entered upon the Journal.' Now, one of the main reasons that I am presenting this point at this time —"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I hate to keep interrupting, but it seems to me that the point of order, that the Senator has addressed himself to four points of order, and on that he could be called to a point of order. It seems to me that we should segregate these points of order that he is attempting to raise, and consider them separately. In the very paper which we have just now had put on our desks, he raises the question,

'any of these appointments the following points of order should be made:' He, himself, asserts that they are points of order, and I wish to know which point we are debating."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: I think that the Senator's point would be well taken if they were separate points of order. However, the points all made relate to a single constitutional provision and they are in reality just in substance an elaboration of the basic single point. I think that the President's Ruling on one would necessarily be the same as on the rest of them."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes the remarks by Senator Clarke are well taken in that the four points are directed to one complete point of order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. The reason that I feel so strongly that this point should be raised, and I urge the President and the members to consider this situation, and that is that if the provision of the Constitution is not followed and the obvious purpose of the provision of the Constitution is to deny that each appointee shall separately receive the consideration of the Senate and have a roll call vote upon whether he is or is not confirmed. It is well known that once a person is appointed by the Governor and the matter is sent to the Senate for confirmation he in substance takes the office and exercises all the prerogatives of that office, and will continue to do so unless he is not confirmed by an affirmative vote of the Senate at which time and at which time only, is his term of office or qualification terminated.

"Now, if the procedure here proposed is legal, then the Senate would be placed in a position which in many constitutional instances, particularly with respect to bills where there is a prohibition against a bill covering more than one subject, the Senate is placed in a position, and many of you members will be placed in a position where there may be many people on that list, many individual people who, if they did come before the Senate, as they have a constitutional right to come before the Senate for individual confirmation or rejection, they would be confirmed by the Senate. Now, these people if this action is taken, this bulk action, are placed in a position where the Senate has no choice, no alternative, but to reject and refuse to confirm in substance some people who are very able people and who they would want to confirm simply because they are not prepared to confirm the entire slate as such. In other words, if there is one person on there that any Senator would want to reject he would have no alternative but, in substance, to reject the entire slate for that reason. The Constitution never contemplated such a thing. While there have been a few instances in the past where the Senate on one or two individuals has purported to act otherwise, never has there been anything of this wholesale nature presented, and in any event, if the Senate acted illegally upon one occasion that does not in any way make it proper for them to continue to proceed illegally.

"Now, the merits of the situation are not properly debated as a point of order. I simply urge the President and the members of the body to be aware of the type of precedent that they would be creating if they proceed in this manner. Now, if they do wish to accommodate the Governor and to return some or all of the appointments, they can do this in a perfectly legal manner by considering the appointments individually, and they can use, if they so desire as a basis for their return, the fact that they are simply giving the new Governor another opportunity in effect to designate her choice, but this should be done legally and in accordance with the Constitution. It should not be done in this wholesale manner, creating a very, very dangerous precedent which in reality would make these appointments which are intended to be nonpolitical, and on their merits, a part of what could be simply a political spoils system. The Constitution never so intended, and I frankly do not believe that the Senate wishes to put itself in that position. Thank you, Mr. President."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, speaking to the point of order, the Senate has ample precedent for dealing with more than one name. You are going to ask me why I voted against this in 1965. I voted against it because Ernie Cowell and Irving Clark were good friends of mine and it was a personal issue, but we did establish the precedent in 1965. We returned both names. You people argued that that was perfectly proper. I think the record will show that. In 1957 we did the same thing with Governor Rosellini. You were probably on the other side at that time so consistency is not anything any one of us can claim, but precedent is. It goes way back beyond that where we have, the Secretary has traced out, of previous Governors. This has been done many times. Now the reason it is so enormous this time, Mr. President, I think, is because it is bigger than it was before. We have assembled a lot of names that we never used to have to confirm, but the point is, if it is good for one or two there is no reason why it is not good for fifty or sixty. Particularly, when a Governor going out of office, the week before he goes out names several of his people, his friends, to positions that should be filled by the incoming Governor. I think those are deplorable situations. They remind me of the grade school midnight judges of John Adams except those were lifetime appointments. I hope the Senate determines these are not lifetime appointments that they are handed today.

"The other thing I wanted to say is that probably when the motion is made under Senator Clarke's point of order whether or not this is a rejection or not is an exercise in semantics I guess. When we take action, I think we probably have in effect rejected those people because they no longer can serve, and the Governor has talked to our side, is very anxious not to have a lack of a quorum in any group. Some of those lacks of quorums are because the people serving did not want to file financial disclosures and that is not our concern. That is their concern. They chose not to have a quorum on their own committees, but I urge that you rule that Senator Clarke is out of order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Thank you, Mr. President. Responding to the point of inquiry, I would like to point out that there is no constitutional or statutory prohibition on voting on more than one appointee at the same time. That is really the issue. Can you vote on more than one at the same time? I have carefully looked at the language in Article 13, Section 1, to which Senator Clarke refers, and nothing in Article 13, Section 1, prohibits voting on more than one at the same time, so I respectfully submit that the Senate will be acting on all and each appointment by voting on Senator Walgren's motion which was to comply with the request of the Governor and return all of the appointments to the Governor. Whether we act collectively or singly, that issue is not determined by the Constitution. It is not determined by any statutes. Now, Senator Clarke is a very careful lawyer. Were he able to point to a single constitutional requirement requiring a vote on each being voted on separately, he would have done so. Likewise he would have pointed to a statutory right to vote on each separately if he were able to do so, but he has not done that, so I submit then that there is precedent for voting on more than one, as Senator Bailey has indicated, at the same time and we ought to follow that precedent.

"Furthermore, I am not so sure that we actually have to go through voting under this set of circumstances. There is historical precedence in 1897, in 1905 when letters were sent from then incoming governors to the Senate in essence stating that certain nominations made by the predecessor but not acted upon should be withdrawn, and the record indicates that those nominations were withdrawn without a vote. There is no record of a vote, so there is some precedent, and so the key thing then, in this subpoint one of Senator Clarke's point of order is the word, separately, and I just simply submit that there is no constitutional or statutory basis for that and there is precedent for doing it the other way.

"His second subpoint here was that each appointee had a constitutional statutory right to hold office for the term appointed unless his confirmation is affirmatively rejected. I submit that when we vote on Senator Walgren's motion here today, and send all of them back, and have each of them back, that we will have affirmatively rejected each individual, and we will satisfy that particular point.

"The third subpoint was that when the Governor makes an appointment which is subject to confirmation, each Senator has a constitutional legal right to cast an individual and separate roll call vote on each appointee. Again, the key word is 'separate', separate roll call vote, and there is nothing in the Constitution, nothing in the statutes that gives the right to a separate vote. When we vote today on Senator Walgren's motion, we are going to be voting to return all and each, and that will satisfy the requirement in that particular.

"The final point is that once a governor has made an appointment to an office which is subject to confirmation and sent such confirmation to the Senate, he has no power over such appointment unless the Senate affirmatively acts to reject such appointment. I submit we have been requested to return this. We are affirmatively acting by Senator Walgren's motion to comply with the Governor's request. We do not have an obligation to, but we are choosing to do so on this side of the aisle, to act affirmatively. We are going to be returning these appointments to the Governor and we will then be meeting that requirement. We are acting on each although albeit collectively by voting on the motion.

"I submit again, in summary, that we satisfy each and every subpoint of Senator Clarke's point of order and that we are to proceed with the vote here and will be in good order."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, in your points of order under numbers two and three you refer to not only constitutional rights, but on the one hand statutory rights and under paragraph three, legal rights. Could you give me any statutory citations or any other citations, either from statutes or from case law relating to legal rights?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, we have had our counsel make a digest, and there are many, many statutes that relate to the appointment of various officials and their method of removal, and I will be glad to make available to you a copy of that brief."

Senator Woody: "You do not have the statutory references here now so that we might look at them before there is a vote, or case law citations?"

Senator Clarke: "Let me say first with respect to case law, I think that it has been researched pretty carefully by both sides and as far as I know there is no specific case law that deals on this particular point, and that is as to whether there is a constitutional right to be considered separately, so my other answer to that would be that I think that there are other provisions of the Constitution which relate in effect to the subject of bills, and there are cases upon that which you well know, and in substance they say that the basic reasoning for upholding the prohibition against bills covering more than one subject, and where it is stated that if a bill does cover more than one subject the entire bill is unconstitutional. The reason being that it is impossible to determine whether in effect there was a consideration of each matter separately or whether in effect the body was placed in a position where it was forced to vote against a thing they would like to enact because there was something more desirable coupled with it, or in effect vote for something that they did not like for the same reason."

Senator Woody: "Could you give me any other statutory citations on which you base your point of order?"

Senator Clarke: "I would like to comply with that by filing as part of the record the notation that our Caucus Counsel has made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, in the brief time that I have been able to look at Article 13 of the Constitution which appears to be about the only authority, the only authority on this issue, I would make several observations at the outset. Number one, clearly the language here is not self-executing, and could not under any interpretation, be self-executing. If you just use your imagination a little bit you can understand why. It is really an initial activity that the Governor must do, must send the appointment. After that, it is not the end of the Governor's function. For example, if the appointee who had not been acted upon yet were to move to Hong Kong, and not resign, not take any other action, just move to Hong Kong and say, 'I am never coming back,' do we have to go through the hearing where we will not have a witness and either affirm or reject, or can the Governor withdraw and appoint again, or do, as was suggested earlier, appoint a second person without a withdrawal upon which we could act?"

"You ask whether there is any other precedence outside the State of Washington. Well, there just was. It was today or yesterday. President Carter appointed Ted Sorensen to be head of CIA. No activity by the Senate. The same or very similar provisions that the United States Senate must handle as far as appointments are concerned. Ted Sorensen himself withdrew the appointment, said, 'I will not be an appointee for that position.' It did not take any activity on the part of the United States Senate in order to be able to consider a new appointee put up by President Carter."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I address myself first to the Sorensen example because it is the latest. I do not think there is any similarity. You cannot force a man to serve. Any person has the right to withdraw his own name from any nomination, and the failure to serve for the man who goes to Hong Kong is, of course, the cause for dismissal.

"For the point for the moment, I would like to address myself to what I consider an important point, and I am sure that it was probably merely a matter of form, the letter from the Governor. It states in the second paragraph, last sentence thereof, 'I therefore respectfully advise you that I am withdrawing all of the names.' I suspect that that is the same form that has been used by other governors in the past, Rosellini, Evans and so on. I however, wish to make it clear that I believe there is no such authority on the part of the governor to withdraw once the nomination is in the hands of the body, and state that for the record. Once that appointment is with us, the Senate is not obligated to accept the direction of another function of government, another body of government. By law we are delegated the confirmation authority by Constitution, and I merely want to make that point loud and clear. If it is our desire to comply with the Governor's request, quote, that is another thing, and I think that is the way we interpret this letter, and merely point out that when I vote that is exactly what I am doing.

"The other issue, of course, is the question of the single vote. Senator Clarke points to the Constitution as it relates to the passage of a bill. The Constitution is explicit with respect to a bill. Had the framers of that Constitution wanted that same authority, those same rules, regulations, the same requirements to apply to confirmation, they would have included confirmation within that paragraph the Constitution relating to the form, the course, the voting, the single subject required in the bill. As to the voting itself, I think that is a procedural matter. The Senate has no rules at this time. There are no rules to suspend. The majority will make the decision, and I think that internal procedural matter of how a matter is handled, other than as required by constitutional law, is one which the Senate will decide itself, and the motion as made by Senator Walgren is a decision by the body to handle these in one block, and a vote on the whole becomes a vote on every one."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEWIS

Senator Lewis: "Yes, Mr. President, I think we have some evidence as to what previous interpretations have been. I realize that we do not have rules of the Senate at this moment, but for some years we have had some rules and I would refer you to Rule 68, and if I may, Mr. President, read the last paragraph of Rule 68 from 1975. If I may read that, it says, and I am listing out of context the entire rule, but the appropriate paragraph says, 'When the committee on rules presents the report of the standing committee before the senate, the question shall be the confirmation of the name, singular, proposed, and the roll shall then be called and the yeas and nays entered upon the Journal, parentheses, Article 13, State Constitution, end of parentheses.' I think that indicates previous interpretation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I must disagree with Senator Mardesich on the authority of the executive to withdraw a nomination. I cite Heywood, Caswell, and I mean Carswell, and I have been trying to think of the name of the individual that President Ford withdrew who had been nominated by President Nixon. I think the Executive's authority on their selection would permit them to withdraw a name for consideration even after it had been submitted here, but that is not the issue here right now before us. I would suggest you consider this request as coming from the Governor and not an individual, from the office of Governor. The Governor had changed their mind. We may have changed the Governor in the meantime, but the Governor's office had changed its mind on certain nominations, and had asked the Senate to withdraw from consideration for those individuals and substitute others, and that is the issue we have right now. Would suggest that were we to adopt the interpretation Senator Clarke has put on this, the answer would be no. That once it is here we must individually vote, and I simply must disagree with that. It seems to me another factor. We have precedence. We have four of them. On two occasions the Senate did not even act. It just read it into the Journal and withdrew them. On two other occasions the Senate acted in the same manner as Senator Gordon Walgren's motion that we adhere or agree with the request of the Governor and send the nominations back. So either way we have precedence for doing it. It boils down to, I think, in respect to Governor Evans' appointments, that we might say what was sauce for the gander is now sauce for the goose."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCOTT

Senator Scott: "If I read Senator Bottiger's argument correctly, a number of wrongs should be followed by another one. We do have a precedent here, but it is one of kind, not degree. Where is the precedence for sending a hundred thirty appointees in a counter march? There isn't any and what we are doing is extending a system where a succeeding governor, if he or she be of the different party than his or her predecessor, then tries to, in effect, telescope the predecessor's authority during his or her time of office by inserting appointees to vacancies that were created during that prior term. There is nothing that any of us can do to speed or delay the vacancies. It should be the prerogative of the Governor that is in office at the time the vacancy is created to set before us appointees, nominees, to be appointed or rejected to those positions. So I think the analogy is very loose at best. There is practical matter, whether we agree or disagree on how the legalities of it come out is one thing, but as a practical matter, I count forty two prospective members of boards of trustees and serving members of boards of trustees of the community college system here. We have two other institutions, four-year institutions that will be without a majority, a working majority, a quorum. We have four two-year institutions that will be without them. Word has it, and I am sure Senator Walgren will remind the body that the Governor is going to place enough people, new people, on those boards so that they do have a working majority for legal purposes, and she will do that in very quick order, but they are likely not to be the same people, and we lose the benefit of the experience of those who have been serving, many unconfirmed, and what happens to the labor negotiations that they have been involved in, and what happens to the continuity of those institutions? Does three members on a five member community college board guarantee that they are going to be able to take action? Maybe on procedural matters, but is every one going to be together on the heavy policy matters? And those are the ones that count. What is this going to do to the quality of those institutions, are you going to be able to find twenty, thirty or forty people within the next sixty days? If you don't, isn't quality going to suffer? There has been a lot of effort expended since the passage and extension of 276 to get quality people to serve, and if the new administration can get that many people in that little time, it will be setting a new record in that respect. It has also been rumored that we are going to pass a new rule here in the Senate to, in effect, terminate the procedure that is being suggested after this particular motion is sent along its way. If the rule is a valid one, that each governor should be allowed to have his or her appointees voted up or down, why isn't it valid this morning?

"So, I think the problem we have got here is not one of the Governor's office, this governor or the last governor, it is our problem and it is our responsibility to act on these people, and if you as a majority, want to reject some of them and Governor Ray wants to send some more up, that is appropriate. But we ought to do our part, and not engage ourselves in what may be is legally questionable, certainly impractical, and certainly irresponsible."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I think that there has been some excellent debate with regard to the legal questions that are involved in returning these particular appointments, and I think that there is ample precedent as has been pointed out by Senator Marsh and others on the Democratic side of the aisle here for the return of these appointments of Governor Evans. But I think we should but this in context, under the political context of the day, and I am referring specifically to Senator Clarke's reference to the possibility that if we act favorably upon my motion, that we will be setting forth perhaps a political spoils system. I suggest that perhaps that argument might be made the other way. I do not know the exact number, but I think it is safe to say that there was a substantial number of appointments made after the election, after the election by Governor Evans sent up here to us so that the administration if you will, the Evans administration could be continued on for years into the future even though we have a new governor. Now, I do not think that is what the people of the state of Washington wanted. I do not think that is what the people of the state of Washington wanted when they elected a new governor, and I suggest that if we are going to have a responsible form of government, responsive to the people, then this motion that I have made should be acted upon favorably."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you. Responding very briefly to Senator Walgren, if the Senate should desire to do what Senator Walgren suggests, and that is for any reason, be it political or otherwise, return these appointments as nonconfirmed, there is a perfectly proper and legal way to do that, and that is simply to consider them by the body one by one and vote them up or down. So, in reality, if the Senate wants to so proceed, there is no question but what it can do that in a legal manner. Why, then, do you run into a situation or are our honored people on the other side here—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Is Senator Clarke addressing himself to his point of order, or is he engaging in general discussion about philosophy of how we ought to do things?"

REPLY BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I am responding to Senator Walgren's remarks. I have concluded. Thank you, Mr. President."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President, in ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Clarke, the President finds that precedent has been established in 1897, 1905, 1957 and 1965 that the Governor may withdraw from the Senate's consideration nominations submitted by the Governor or the Governor's predecessor in office at any time before the Senate acts thereon.

"The President believes that the motion to comply with the Governor's message is properly before the Senate but the President hastens to point out that this motion is tantamount to a motion to concur, and thus is also subject to nonconcurrence by the body. Therefore, the Senate, in its wisdom may comply with the Governor's request or reject the request of the Governor."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Walgren that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to comply with the request of Governor Ray.

Senator Bailey demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Lewis, Herr, Washington, Walgren, Ridder, Matson, Clarke and Donohue.

MOTION

Senator Lewis moved the question be divided so the members of the Senate could have an opportunity to vote on each individual appointee.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, I believe that you have in essence ruled upon that particular question when you gave your previous ruling."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I would simply respond that the President's Ruling has in substance said that it is within the power of the Senate to consider the motion, however any other parliamentary motion such as a motion to divide, is proper at this time. The Senate may decide to or not to divide. That a matter that is still properly before the body regardless of the ruling as to whether it is mandatory to divide."

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved the motion by Senator Lewis that the question be divided be laid upon the table.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Lewis was withdrawn.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "I will wait for your ruling, Mr. President, I would like to inquire of Senator Walgren with regard to a specific commission in questioning after you make your ruling on the point before you."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Lewis and other esteemed members of the Senate, the motion by Senator Walgren was to instruct the Secretary of the Senate to comply with the request of Governor Ray. The message from Governor Ray, 'Requests have been previously submitted to you for your confirmation by my predecessor, the Honorable Daniel J. Evans, a list of appointments. Exercising your discretion, you have not acted favorably upon the appointments and I have not asked for their confirmation. I therefore respectfully advise you that I am withdrawing all of their names.'

"The President believes that Senator Walgren's motion is all inclusive and cannot be divided in its present form."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, I think Senator Clark raised the question of the ability of certain boards and commissions, particularly boards of trustees and community colleges and other places to function in the absence of a quorum, a potential absence of a quorum, if we are to act on this particular motion. I should like to call to your attention on page four of the Public Employee Relations Commission and the three persons who were be appointed to that particular commission. It is three member commission. I have seen no indication that the Governor has any appointees for that commission to submit presently. I am concerned that unless that commission is functional, that unfair labor practice charges and appeals of those charges may languish, and they already have languished, because of the tremendous workload of the new commission, and I am quite concerned with regard to that particular commission, but I think there are other commissions and boards of trustees as well that should be given some consideration. I just wonder if you have any response to the overall question of the ability to function by the commissions that are stated first of all."

Senator Walgren: "Senator Grant, as you know, this is one of the concerns that I think all of us in this body have, that state government be able to continue to function, and as you have pointed out, there are some commissions, some college boards of trustees, that would be without a quorum if the Governor did not shortly send up some additional appointments. This has been discussed with the Governor and the Governor's office. We were assured that those appointments will be forthcoming prior to any need for a meeting of those particular bodies."

Senator Grant: "May I inquire further then, Senator Walgren, in the event that we did not act on the Governor's request, act favorably on her request, would it still be possible for the Governor, at a future point in time to withdraw the names if—perhaps I am misunderstanding what Governor Cherberg said too in his Ruling. I am not really clear on this. If we do not act favorably with regard to her request, are these people confirmed?"

Senator Walgren: "No, they are not confirmed. If we do not act favorably on the motion that I made, these people would be able to continue until such other times in the future."

Senator Grant: "They would continue to function?"

Senator Walgren: "That is right."

Senator Grant: "And she could, at some time in the future withdraw those people because they have not been confirmed and submit new nominees?"

Senator Walgren: "I presume so, but I am not going to try to interpret at this point a future ruling of Lieutenant Governor Cherberg."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Is the motion before the body subject to amendment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Benitz, in reply to your question, the President believes that the motion before the body is subject to amendment."

MOTION

Senator Benitz moved adoption of the following amendment:
On page 8, the second name, Socorro M. Rocha, delete from the list.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Marsh: "Point of order, Mr. President, Senator Benitz has attempted to amend something that is not a motion before this body. The motion before this body is Senator Walgren's motion that the Secretary comply with the request of the Governor and return the appointments to the Governor, not something contained in the message of the Governor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think, on the point of order, I think in effect though, you are now going back to divide the issue as a variation of this thing you determined a while ago, and I submit it is out of order that this is a division of the issue."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the remarks by Senator Bailey and Senator Marsh are well taken, Senator Benitz, and that your proposed amendment is really not a proper amendment to the motion before the body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENITZ

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, then as I understand it, this is a reversal of your Ruling a few minutes ago."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the ruling on the point raised by Senator Marsh was confirmation of the ruling given a few minutes ago."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "If I might speak just a word of personal privilege. As most of you know—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "On a point of order before he starts, I think he should be cautioned that personal privilege is only as it affects him personally and not some nominee or name appearing before us in this list."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bailey's remarks are correct, Senator Benitz."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "Thank you, I will reserve my time for a minute later."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "Yes, on the motion that is before us, as most of you know, I am a layman, not an attorney, and I feel that I am doing my best to represent my people at home, and I think that what we are doing here is really hurting government all over the state of Washington. We do not have to get specific about it, we know that many people have worked hard and almost volunteering their time and effort and services. They do not understand what the Senate is doing here. It is very nearly impossible for them to understand. I think we are doing a tremendous discredit to the citizens we try to get involved in the government of the state of Washington by passing this act, therefore I am very much opposed to the motion."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Walgren that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to comply with the request of Governor Ray to return all previous Gubernatorial Appointments made by Governor Evans still pending before the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Walgren carried by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 18; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—29.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker—18.

Excused: Senators Francis, Guess—2.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I should like to request, Mr. President, that the Secretary would reduce the points of order and the President's Rulings to writing for the body. I don't think it is necessary to extend that to the remarks of the others except it may well even be wise to do that in view of possible court action, and that would be in the record in any event."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary has advised the President that he intends to transcribe the entire proceedings, and will provide copies to the members and to the press."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

January 21, 1977.

TO: Sid Snyder — Secretary of the Senate

FROM: Senator George Clarke

RE: Statement for Senate Journal: Responding to Senator Woody's Question — "Senator Clarke, you have made reference to constitutional rights, statutes and case law relating to an appointee's rights and a governor's right to withdraw appointments. Could you supply us with cites?" (Paraphrased)

In prefacing my remarks it should be stated for the record it is my contention that the governor (past, present or future) does not have the constitutional or legal right to withdraw appointments after such appointments are presented to the Senate for confirmation or rejection. Specifically enumerated, the following points should be noted:

- (1) The Senate has no constitutional or statutory right or power to dispose of gubernatorial appointments which require confirmation by the Senate other than to take a roll call vote upon each appointment separately with respect to confirmation or rejection.
- (2) That each such appointee, through established practice, has a constitutional and statutory right when appointed by the governor to continue to hold office for the term appointed unless his confirmation is affirmatively rejected by a roll call vote of the Senate or in the event of removal upon statutory grounds.
- (3) That when the governor makes an appointment which is subject to confirmation by the Senate and sends such appointment to the Senate for confirmation, each senator has a constitutional and legal right and duty to cast an individual and separate roll call vote for the confirmation or rejection by the Senate of each such appointee.
- (4) That once a governor has made an appointment to an office which is subject to confirmation and has sent such appointment to the Senate for confirmation, the governor's function is completed and he or she has no further power over such appointment unless the Senate affirmatively acts to reject such appointment, whereupon a vacancy occurs, then the governor may make a new appointment.

Therefore, upon presentation of named appointees to the Senate for the confirmation process, the only action the Senate can constitutionally and legally take is to follow one of three alternatives — to wit: (1) Confirm, (2) Reject, or (3) Delay action, in which event the appointees function until rejection by the Senate.

The Constitution of the State of Washington, Article 13, Section 1, calls for the Senate to carry out its constitutional duty to confirm or reject the individual appointees. The constitutional provision in pertinent part reads as follows:

. . . the regents, trustees, or commissioners of all such institutions . . . shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and upon all nominations made by the governor, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, and entered upon the journal.

Further, the rules of the Senate have in the past provided for an orderly manner of handling gubernatorial appointments: Senate Rule 68, 1975-77 session reads in pertinent part as follows:

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTEES

When the Committee on Rules presents the report of the standing committee before the Senate, the question shall be the confirmation of the name proposed and the roll shall then be called and yeas and nays entered upon the journal. (Article 13, State Constitution).

This rule has been with us for decades and presupposes an orderly manner in the handling of confirmation of gubernatorial appointees. That is, that each named appointee will be voted upon individually. Also, some 120 statutes set the pattern for appointments to various boards and commissions. Nowhere will you find authorization for withdrawal of any appointment — only reference to the Senate's power of confirmation and the method of removal are addressed. As examples: RCW 14.04-.030 relating to the State Aeronautics Commission reads in pertinent part as follows:

There is hereby created the Washington State Aeronautics Commission to consist of one member from each congressional district who shall be appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate . . .

The members of the commission may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by law for the removal of other public officials for like cause.

28B.10.500 relating to regents and trustees of state universities and state colleges reads in pertinent part as follows:

No regent of state universities or trustees of state colleges shall be removed during the term of office for which appointed excepting only for misconduct or malfeasance in office and then only in the manner hereinafter provided.

82.03.020 and 82.03.040 relating to the Board of Tax Appeals read in pertinent part as follows:

82.03.020 — The Board of Tax Appeals, . . . shall consist of three members . . . appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. . .

82.03.040 — Any member of the board may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final and not subject to review by the supreme court. Removal of any member of the board by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

These are but three examples among the more than 120 such statutes which enumerate the appointment and removal power of the governor. These statutory enactments presuppose an orderly fashion in the handling of the removal of appointed officials. Article 5, Section 3 of the Washington State Constitution states:

All officers not liable to impeachment shall be subject to removal for misconduct or malfeasance in office in such manner as may be provided by law.

RCW 43.06.070 through 43.06.090 are the general statutes which set the lawful method of removal of appointed officers. These sections of law are quite explicit as to cause and method for removal.

It is abundantly clear from an examination of these prementioned statutes that the law has provided a means for removal of a person serving in appointed positions. Nowhere in law — constitutional, statutory or otherwise — does it refer to the power of a governor to withdraw the names of persons who have been previously appointed to such positions.

The State of Washington has no case law precedent regarding the ability of a governor to withdraw appointments after such appointments are presented to the Senate for confirmation. Research reveals that there are a limited number of foreign jurisdiction cases on point. The lead case is Barrett v. Duff, 114 Kan. 220, 217 Pac. 918 (1923). In this case the Kansas Supreme Court held that after an appointment had been made, neither the governor or a successor governor has any further control over the appointee until rejected by the Senate. In so doing, the court stated:

"Where the power of a governor has been exercised by the appointment to an office and the appointee has qualified and been vested with the powers and prerogatives of the office neither the governor nor the successor has any further control over the appointment unless and until the appointee has been rejected by the Senate."

Further, the court stated:

"Where the term of an office is fixed by statute, the power of removal does not exist in the executive except so far as provided by statute. . . . When the appointee to an office, the tenure which is declared by law, is commissioned by the governor, invested with the power and prerogatives of the office, neither that governor nor his successor can revoke the appointment."

In another Kansas case decided in the same year, State ex. rel. Griffith v. Matassarini, 114 Kansas 244, 217 Pac. 930 (1923) the Supreme Court held that the governor was without power to revoke appointments to the State Board of Health made during recess because they had not been acted upon by the Senate. In so doing, the court stated:

"Making appointments to the State Board of Health, it is the duty of the governor to transmit such appointments to the Senate for its action thereon, and, if such appointments are made during a recess in the Legislature, it is the duty to transmit such appointments to the Senate the first session after the appointments are made; and, where the governor reappoints and commissions the members of a board for full terms during a recess of the Senate, such appointments are not transmitted to or acted upon by the Senate between sessions, the offices do not become vacant by such an action, and the governor is without power to revoke their appointments by reason thereof."

In another Kansas case, Leek v. Theis, 214 Kansas 784, 539 P. 2nd 304 (1975) the court held the power of a governor to make a valid appointment to an office or position of membership on an agency created by the Legislature does not arise until there is a vacancy in fact. Further, the only power which the governor has to make an official appointment is that conferred upon him by specific constitutional or statutory provisions.

In citing the prior cases of Barrett v. Duff and Matassarin, the court stated:

" . . . that the appointment of the members, although not acted on by the Senate, and which have never been rejected by that body, entitles them to hold their offices until the end of their terms, or until the appointments are considered and rejected by the Senate."

The principle of allowing an appointing executive or his predecessor to recall or withdraw appointments is covered in a similar manner in the following cases: McChesney v. Sampson, 232 Kan. 395, 23 S.W. 2nd 584 (19 ); State ex. rel. Todd v. Essling, 268 Minn. 151 128 N.W. 2nd 307 (1964); State ex. rel. Johnson v. Hagemester, 161 Neb. 475, 73 N.W. 2nd 625 (19 ); State ex. rel. Reynolds v. Smith, 22 Wis. 2nd 516, 126 N.W. 2nd 215 (19 ); Thorne v. Squier, 264 Mich. 98, 249 N.W. 497 (19 ); Burke v. Schmidt, So. Dak., 191 N.W. 2nd 281 (1971); McBride v. Osborn, 59 Ariz. 321, 127 P.2nd 134 (1942). (See, also, the annotation in 89 A.L.R. at 132, 139).

The Arizona Supreme Court in McBride v. Osborne stated what I believe to be the law in a situation with which we are faced today. The court in their holding stated:

"The governor cancelled the appointment of petitioner and withdrew his name from the Senate upon the theory that he had the right to do so anytime before action by that body, while the petitioner's position is that by appointing him and submitting his name to the Senate for confirmation, the governor exhausted his power in that respect and could do nothing more concerning it unless and until it was rejected by that body. Several decisions are cited by petitioner in support of this proposition. An examination of these authorities, however, and others of the same tenor, discloses that the appointment in each case had the effect of vesting the appointee with the office, and it is clear that to have held the governor, or any other appointing power, could cancel an appointment and withdraw the name of an appointee from the consideration of the Senate, would have given the governor, or other appointing power, a right to remove from office when that right did not exist under the law, except after hearing and for cause. If appointment by the governor had had the effect of placing petitioner in the office . . . and authorizing him to perform its functions, there could be no question but that the proposition that the governor had exhausted his power in making the appointment and could not withdraw it would apply . . . (Emphasis added.)"

Members of the Senate, this is the very situation we are facing today. The named appointees on the list which is attached to the Governor's message, have been and are at this time functioning in the appointed positions. Further, many of these individuals have been serving two to four years.

As to the historical precedence cited by Senator Marsh, we, of course, must recognize past practice and the proposition for which such precedence stands. The meager record we have as to the 1897 session indicates that the three individual names were withdrawn on the same day the appointments were made. In 1905, it appears the Senate had returned the appointments to the governor before he asked to withdraw the names from further consideration. In 1957 and 1965, the examples cited were limited in their scope and presented on the final day of the legislative session, making the motivation for such inappropriate handling somewhat more understandable.

In any event, such prior actions, where patently wanting in constitutional or statutory authority, should not set the pattern for further undesirable activity. Four wrongs do not make a right.

It is clear from an examination of the Constitution, statutory enactments and the case law cited, that the act of a governor, past or present, in making an appointment to a board or commission, the subject of which calls for Senate action, is final and exhausts the power of the governor's office in that regard, unless or until the appointments are rejected by the Senate, and that therefore, the persons appointed by a governor, do in fact serve and are entitled to the office and, specifically, the power of the governor having been exercised, there is no further gubernatorial control over the respective offices unless or until the appointees have been rejected by the Senate or unless or until a cause for removal exists.

To allow a governor to withdraw the names of appointees who have been serving in appointed positions would in effect allow a governor to do by implication that which cannot be done in law. The only lawful means of removing an appointee by a governor is that proscribed by statutory enactments as dictated by Article 5, Section 3 of the Washington State Constitution.

Members of the Senate, and in particular Senator Woody, I trust that this answers your questions.

Signed by: Senator George Clarke.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "This particular bill referred to state government and I was wondering. The way I read the title here it is a pension bill, and historically the pension bills have been referred to the ways and means committee where they have been addressed during the session, and Senator Walgren has indicated that this bill will be referred to the ways and means committee at a later date if I understand that correctly, Senator Walgren."

Senator Walgren: "Yes, I yield to the question of Senator Donohue. This is correct to your question. It is my belief that these measures, and there are a number of them from time to time that obviously involve money matters, and money matters have got to go to ways and means committee for final determination, but many of these bills will also involve the substantive programs, and I think it is appropriate that the subcommittee have an opportunity of looking at that program and making recommendations, and the bill then goes to ways and means committee for the determinations that you usually make at that time, Senator Donohue."

"I might say that, historically, I am not sure, I have not checked back historically. Certainly it is true with the last couple of sessions that this is where the bills went, and I think they may have had a special committee on pensions too, but as far as any other historical precedent, I can't answer that."

Senator Donohue: "Well, Senator Walgren, is it then your intention from the remark that you made, that all pension legislation will be referred to the state government committee?"

Senator Walgren: "I think that the pension legislation that involves a substantive issue of the program as opposed to simply a money matter. If it is simply a money proposition, then it should go directly to ways and means if there is no determination that would have to be made by another committee."

Senator Donohue: "Well, are you telling me that substantive change in a pension bill will not necessarily, in some way, have a money problem, or what are you saying?"

Senator Walgren: "No, I am saying that anything that might involve a change, you could make a change if it involved an effect upon the budget, or if it affects any of the money matters of the state. That is perfectly appropriate and should be done by your committee, and any bill that is going to do that should eventually get to you."

Senator Donohue: "I would think that in this particular instance, and not having read the bill, but in this particular instance that military service credits will undoubtedly affect a funding measure, and I am concerned about—. Maybe I should check with Senator Rasmussen and see for sure that these bills that go to state government, that concern pensions, do in fact, come to the ways and means committee. I think that the precedent, and I heard you this morning, Senator, talk about precedent, and in the other discussion we had before lunch. Consequently, I think that the precedent would indicate that pension matters involving money and which, of course, involve the budget would necessarily come to the ways and means committee. So, maybe I would—."

Senator Walgren: "I thought I made that clear, Senator. If I didn't, I should, that those bills that do have money considerations even though they have some other substantive parts to be looked at by another committee, have got to go to ways and means. They will be referred to ways and means. This particular bill, and others, I would tell you that when Senator Rasmussen is through working on them, will be sent to ways and means."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I hate to get in the middle on this, but I will yield."

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I know that knowing you, that Senator Walgren cannot speak for you as the chairman of the state government committee. Consequently, I would like to hear you say one way or the other whether or not these matters pertaining to pension would be referred, after your deliberations, your considered deliberations, to the ways and means committee."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am sure that if they require an appropriation of money, significant amounts, that you would request it and that we would comply with your wishes."

Senator Donohue: "Yes, Senator, what about a bill that might be referred to your committee which involved a complete change in the pension system that involves money or new money?"

Senator Rasmussen: "That would entail a lot of work of the state government committee, and we probably would not get that done this session, if it made a complete change in the pension system."

"But we will, if there is a major fiscal impact, we will follow the procedure we have always followed with the chairman of the ways and means committee who does an excellent job, and he will be advised of it and whether or not he would like to have it in his committee. Sometimes there are minor bills, if you will remember you have said that have no major fiscal impact and ways and means committee is cluttered with bills at the present time and a lot of them are dead or dying, and you just don't want to be overburdened—."

Senator Donohue: "Some of them are dead before they are introduced, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is very true. Anyway, I assure you that we will comply with your wishes on major fiscal impact bills."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "Many of the committee chairmen, and just this morning, came to me and, not many, but two of them at least, Senator Peterson and Senator Day, relative to two bills that are on the calendar before you. One of them is Senate Bill 2235 and the other one is 2242, and they assured me without having to ask them that these bills would be referred to the ways and means committee. One of those individuals said that if I wanted to, I could have it right now. But I am concerned about a precedent that might be set now in this session that some of us who want to do something in the area of pensions will maybe not have that opportunity, and this is a concern of not just myself, but it is a concern of many legislators on this floor. So I think that the proper thing would be to, first of all, ask whether or not, Senator Walgren, that when we talk about substantive changes if you think the Senate ways and means committee then, if these bills were referred to the Senate ways and means committee, could make substantive changes in issues relative to pensions and money."

REPLY BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Obviously, Senator Donohue, any bill that involves a change that is going to have an effect upon the budget, and I think that question you directed implies that it would have that kind of an effect upon the budget or a question of funding, is going to have to be looked at in your committee and you can make those appropriate requests and changes and refer it back down to the Senate for action."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "I am not going to move at this time, but I reserve the right if, at a later date on similar matters, to make the motion that would be appropriate as it pertains to a bill such as this and the ways and means committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I did not quite complete the answer to Senator Donohue that he deserves because we do depend on Senator Donohue and his committee to run a tight budget for us, and it is my understanding after looking at the title of this bill, Senator Donohue, that this will not be an enlargement of the pension or a major change in any pension system. Now, how much merit the bill has, I don't know until we hold a hearing, but if it does have a fiscal impact you will be advised and then we can take appropriate action."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would Senator Donohue yield? As I gather it, you are not taking the position, I think perhaps you moved somewhat from your original statement. But I want to clarify it. Many times we have legislation that will have a financial impact. There is no appropriation connected with it. It is my feeling that

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I have indicated before our caucus many times, and I think you have heard me do this, that I thought that the appropriate committee should be concerned with the substantive legislation portion of it, but if it did concern money, then it must for our deliberations come to the ways and means committee. I have no objection to that, and I have indicated to Senator Day especially, and with Senator McDermott, and to Senator Sandison, where most of the money is as far as the appropriation bill is concerned, that we would work closely together, especially this session, and making a great effort to do so.

"I think maybe I got off the subject a little bit, but in response to your question I am concerned about pension bills because they have come to the ways and means committee immediately and have been referred there. In fact, I was thinking about putting in a pension bill myself, and I would hope that that bill would go to ways and means for our deliberation, and I guess we will cross that bridge when we come to it. Maybe next week or the week after."

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, I just wanted to make the comment. I think we are on this subject that when we do have a bill that does not have a financial impact written into it except as it may come about in, say, the supplemental appropriation method. Now, many times we have passed bills here on the floor which require a new activity by government. The substantive committee says, 'We want to adopt it,' and most times it has been voted on on the floor and we have adopted it, then we come before the appropriations committee for a supplemental appropriation and, at that point, the decision is made to the extent that it is going to be financed, and I think we should be able to continue with that method of operation."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Bill No. 2231 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, my only concern is that if we follow logic we would send any slight revision in teachers pensions to education, any slight revision in firemen's pension to local government, any slight revision in state pensions to state government, and all of these bills then, we end up with the leap frog that got us where we are now."

Senator Walgren: "Not if the bill has to go to the ways and means committee for a determination as to the fiscal impact, they won't go, because I am sure Senator Donohue in his judgment and the judgment of his committee is not going to let a bill like that be passed into law. I think the only thing we have is the recommendation that comes out of the substantive committee."

Senator Bottiger: "Another question, then. If the ways and means committee cannot make a substantive amendment, they can only consider the fiscal impact, isn't that how we got into this spot we are in?"

Senator Walgren: "I think if you are talking about a substantive question about a program itself, particularly one involving pensions, almost anything that is done with regard to pensions has a fiscal impact that can be addressed by the ways and means committee. You take some of these other bills that are under our consideration, that might be referred to education, might be referred to social and health services, the substantive program may or may not have a fiscal impact, and that particular program should not be changed by ways and means if it does not."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Walgren, would you yield? I was about to go along with your suggestion that the bill go to state government, but I am concerned with the points that Senator Bottiger raised that certainly if it is a pension bill, it has to be subject also to substantive amendment when it gets to the ways and means committee. If it is clear that the ways and means committee can make the necessary substantive amendments I would support the motion that it first go to state government."

Senator Walgren: "Obviously in a pension bill the fact is that the entire bill is going to involve substantive money measures, and it would appear to me that the ways and means committee would have to be able to make those kinds of substantive changes. What I suspect might come out of the state government committee would be a recommendation that this is a good program, maybe we should put it in, or it isn't a good program. It goes to the ways and means committee and the determination there is that it is going to cost substantially more money than it is worth putting it into effect, so it is not going to go any place. That would be the same thing with regard to these other bills, for instance, the social and health services facilities bond issue and the capital projects bond issue for fisheries. We send them to natural resources or to social and health services. They have a hearing, make a determination as to whether it is a good program. The bills will then have to go to ways and means committee to see how it fits in with the budget."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried. Senate Bill No. 2231 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on a rising vote.

Senator Henry: "There is a contract involved, Senator. They have to pay it."

Senator Mardesich: "Then you would have no objections to changing that to shall."

Senator Henry: "Well, the thing is, you are saying in the 1975-77 biennium and it comes out of which may be repaid.' Do we mean may be or do we mean shall be. What if they don't want to, if the language says may?"

Senator Henry: "There is a contract involved, Senator. They have to pay it."

Senator Mardesich: "Then you would have no objections to changing that to shall."

Senator Henry: "Well, the thing is, you are saying in the 1975-77 biennium and it comes out of the gas tax fund so it may be repaid in 1975-77, but if it isn't, it could slop over into the next biennium, but it will still come out of the local gas tax funds attributable to Kennewick and Pasco and those two counties."

Senator Mardesich: "There is no doubt in your mind that it is still a mandatory repayment?"

Senator Henry: "No doubt, at all."

The motion by Senator Henry carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, although this bill addresses itself to education, these are specifically educational clinics for people who have not done well in the system, and as such, need the special circumstances of some other effort at education, specifically adjudicated delinquents, students that have dropped out and in no way have made it in the educational system, and what I want to know is if the educational committee will give this a prompt hearing and we can expect it to come back to rules."

Senator McDermott: "We are going to deal with basic education first, and right after that I will be getting to bills like this, and I think this is an important bill. I think educational accountability is an issue that has to be dealt with and this is one way to look at it."

Senator Day: "Further, does that mean that no other bill of a minor situation such as this will be heard until after the big issue is resolved or heard?"

Senator McDermott: "Heard, not resolved."

Senator Day: "In other words, we can expect an early—"

Senator McDermott: "Sure, there will be hearings."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue, Odegaard and McDermott) (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Implementing constitutional amendment permitting school district levies for two-year periods.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056 on second reading. On January 21, 1977, an amendment to page 1, line 20 was moved for adoption by Senator Gould. There being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Gould, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, after "or" strike "fifty" and insert "seventy-five", and after "district" strike "two year period".

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 3, after "special" insert "or general".

On page 2, line 6, after "special" insert "or general".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, what is the current law that we passed last session as relates to certain days that school levy elections could be held? Does that include the—"

Senator Mardesich: "I would take it that if they were held on those days they would have to be declared special elections, if they fall within those days."

Senator Bailey: "What I am getting at, I guess, is at that time we limited the number of days that special levy elections could be held for schools. Was the general election one of those days that we listed?"

Senator Mardesich: "It does not necessarily follow that we have to put it here, though, for the two-year levy."

Senator Bailey, "The point I am getting at is that we struggled very much on trying to limit the number of times special levies could be voted on, and are we opening that up again, or if they are in the original law, then I think it is probably a very good idea that we adopt your amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, if I may respond. General elections were included in the list of six days that levies could be held, and if I also may respond to Senator Mardesich's concern, it does make it more clear to put the words, 'or general,' in there but school districts have up until now with the wording that is currently in the statutes had them on general election days, so I don't think it changes that practice, but it probably does make it more clear."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? Would it be then also your intention, Senator, on Line 21 of Page 2 to insert that identical language? I refer to other special elections?"

Senator Mardesich: "I noted that, but it would appear to me not to be necessary in the case of schools so I did not do it. The other districts are not, I think, would not be necessary. I don't know."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, line 7, after "once" insert "an" and after "additional" strike "taxes have" and insert "levy has"

On page 2, line 9, after "additional" strike "taxes" and insert "levies".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Mardesich, will you yield? How would that read, provided that once additional levy has been authorized—"

Senator Mardesich: "Levies, l,e,v,i,e,s have—"

Senator Washington: "Do you have more than one levy?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, it is a levy for two years. Oh, you could change it to—"

Senator Washington: "It could be, 'once an additional levy has been authorized,' I think is the way it should be."

Senator Mardesich: "That is probably better language, Mr. President."

Senator Washington: "I think it should be 'that once an additional levy has been authorized'"

Senator Mardesich: "Once an additional levy has been? Did we vote on that, Mr. President?"

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate moved to reconsider adoption of the amendments by Senator Mardesich to page 2, lines 7 and 9.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield? If this proviso is adopted, would you read this to mean that once the two year levy has been adopted that no further levies could be adopted during that period? That is clear in the bill, but what would happen to a building program or a building fund—"

Senator Washington: "That thought occurred to me, too, but wouldn't the same be true even the way it is drafted—"

Senator Mardesich: "—with respect to a building fund. That is a possibility too, but that would be true in any case."

Senator Bailey: "Senator, a building fund would be authorized—a building would be authorized, but a levy would be necessary to pay it off, and I was wondering if this is really not opening up a real bad situation unless they reword the whole section."

Senator Mardesich: "That thought occurred to me, but the the same fault would be true in the original language and he is probably right. That should be clarified."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue, Odegaard and McDermott) (by Superintendent of Public Instruction request):

Implementing constitutional amendment permitting school district levies for two-year periods.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056, as amended on January 24, 1977. On that day, Senator Mardesich proposed two amendments. On motion of Senator Walgren, the bill and amendments were ordered held for the second reading calendar on January 25, 1977.

There being no objection, the amendments by Senator Mardesich were withdrawn.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 2, line 7, after the word "additional" strike "taxes" and insert "tax levies".

On page 2, line 9, after the word "additional" strike "taxes" and insert "tax levies".

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: The language as now proposed, of course, covers the question as to whether the issue is settled. The question of levy—a levy is not in itself a tax. Once we have passed a levy, then that authorizes the allocation of a tax or the imposition of a tax, and to be sure that it was covered, they suggested that we include both words, 'tax levy,' rather than the language as I proposed it the other day, and I do believe that that covers the problem.

"Senator Bottiger raised the question, what about buildings? I raised the same question the other day as to whether or not this would preclude on Line 8, Page 2, where it refers to 'authorized for the support of a school district'. The question was raised that support include or would that exclude the imposition of another special levy for a capital construction project. There is a case, Sheldon vs. Pierce, back in 1897, that very explicitly says that the construction of a school does not fall within the definition of a current expense or a current operational expense, and on that basis they say that these words would not preclude the levy of another tax for the construction of a building."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, we should have formally had me ask the question he gave the answer to appear in the Journal, and I will just move that the Journal reflect that I asked the question."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—47.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen—1.

Excused: Senator Francis—1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Mr. President, will Senator Bottiger yield? I was just kind of concerned. You are the chairman of utilities, correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is correct."

Senator Herr: "I have a bill in there. Is your committee going to put out an agenda of the bills to be heard?"

Senator Bottiger: "We had not specifically planned to put out an agenda or order of the bills to be heard. We are dealing with them by subject matter. You have presented to us a very fine bill, Senator Herr, dealing with oil spills and barrel taxes to pay for cleaning up oil spills. We are expanding your subject matter with your leave, sir, to include other kinds of contaminative energy sources, and we want to check a proper, fair funding for that kind of cost, including some insurance. When we are ready, sir, you will be the first to know when we are going to hear the bill."

Senator Herr: "Yes, but just for a little further explanation, will you have an agenda that all of us can know when these bills will be heard? You see, Senator Day and I serve on health and social services and we have decided to let the membership know a couple of weeks in advance how your scheduling will go, and I think it is a very fair way."

Senator Bottiger: "I think I have asked the staff to look at what Senator Day is doing, and we have an agenda out on our study sessions which are Tuesday and Thursday, and we have a couple of them coming up, including a trip to Seattle, Saturday, to look at clean-up operations. If you would like to go on that, you are more than welcome."

Senator Herr: "Thank you very much, Senator."

MOTION

At 11:36 a.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, January 26, 1977.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

SEVENTEENTH DAY

FORGIVE US FOR THOSE TIMES IN WHICH OUR PREOCCUPATION WITH SELF OR OTHER MATTERS OF THE DAY HAVE CHEATED US OUT OF THESE SHORT BUT IMPORTANT MOMENTS OF RENEWAL. THANK YOU FOR THOSE WHO HAVE INVESTED THEIR CONFIDENCE AND TRUST IN OUR LEADERSHIP. EVER MINDFUL OF THE GREAT RESPONSIBILITY WE FACE, SET FREE WITHIN EACH OF US THAT UNSELFISH SPIRIT WITH WHICH TO CALL FORTH THE BEST THAT IS WITHIN EACH OF OUR COLLEAGUES. THEN, O LORD, GRANT TO US THAT SPECIAL INNER PEACE THAT COMES FROM KNOWING THAT WE NOT ONLY HAVE BEEN FAITHFUL TO OUR ELECTED TASK, BUT ALSO HAVE WORKED TOGETHER WITH YOU. AMEN."

Were there any suggestions by either OPP&FM or the state treasurer as to what regulations they were thinking about?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I would presume it would be in the type of receipt they would issue without stamping it with the treasurer's stamp."

Senator Woody: "I take it, then, there was no discussion about what rules and regulations they were thinking about, but rather eliminating the requirement of receipts, duplicate receipts, and to seal without addressing themselves to what replacement requirements there would be."

USE YOUR CREATIVE POWERS TO ATTRACT OUR ATTENTION, EVEN IF IT IS FOR ONLY A FEW FLEETING MOMENTS. THANK YOU FOR REACHING OUT TO US. THANK YOU FOR GIVING PURPOSE AND MEANING TO ALL WHO ARE UNAFRAID AND UNASHAMED TO CALL UPON YOUR NAME.

"LORD, SOMETIMES THE BURDEN OF PRIVILEGE AND RESPONSIBILITY BECOMES EXCEEDINGLY HEAVY. AFTER OTHERS HAVE SOUGHT AND COURTED US FOR POWER AND INFLUENCE, WE HAVE KNOWN THOSE TERRIBLY LONELY AND GNAWING FEELINGS, WONDERING IF ANYONE CARES ABOUT US SIMPLY BECAUSE WE ARE A PERSON, A FELLOW HUMAN BEING. WE PRAY THAT AT LEAST FOR THIS MOMENT, YOU WILL MINISTER TO US AT THE LEVEL OF OUR PERSONAL NEED. WHERE WE ARE EXPERIENCING PAIN, BRING ABOUT HEALING, WHERE IT IS HEARTACHE OR SORROW, COMFORT US; WHERE IT IS DISCOURAGEMENT OR DEFEAT, GRANT NEW VISION; WHERE IT IS LONELINESS AND SEPARATION, AFFIRM US ONCE AGAIN WITH A SENSE OF YOUR HOLY PRESENCE AND LOVE. STRENGTHEN US THAT WE MAY KNOW THE JOY OF BEING A REAL PERSON. IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. AMEN."

On page 1, line 11, after "treasurer, the" strike "state auditor" and insert "(state auditor) lieutenant governor"

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Bausch, Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Gould.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the committee amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President, I have an amendment to this same section on the desk. The amendment would strike the insurance commissioner, the attorney general, the state treasurer, the state auditor or their designees. My question is, if this amendment, this committee amendment that is presently before us, is acted upon would my motion from the floor still be in order, my amendment from the floor still be in order?

"Mr. President, I would further point out that my particular amendment is to line 10, and the committee amendment is to line 11. Would not the floor amendment take precedence and should it not be acted upon by the body before the committee amendment because it addresses line 10?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Marsh, in reply to your question, the President believes that the Senate has the right to improve the bill before the body, but in any event, your proposed amendment would be in order."

The motion carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Marsh, Jones and Woody:

On Page 1, Section 1, Line 10 after "follows:" beginning with "The" strike all material through designees on Line 11 and insert:

"((The insurance commissioner, the attorney general, the state treasurer, the state auditor, or their designees)) Four members from the public at large, appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate: PROVIDED, That the four members appointed by the governor shall have no direct or indirect interest in any public retirement system governed by the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That one of the original public at large members shall be appointed for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years. There successors shall be appointed for terms of five years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, you refer in your motion, or your amendment, to an indirect interest in a public pension, or a public pension system. Would you define for us what an indirect interest would be?"

Senator Marsh: "I think an example of an indirect interest would be that you may be a member of a stock brokerage, or you might have some other interest in the investments that the board might be considering and that would be an indirect interest. I see the direct interest as being a member of the system, and I see indirect interest as any other interest other than being a member of the system."

Senator Francis: "You would not include as having an indirect interest citizens of the state who are interested in having a sound fiscal system in this state. You would not regard that as an indirect interest?"

Senator Marsh: "No, I would not in the legal sense, Senator. I think it is quite analogous to the situation that you and I as legislators sometimes have on the floor of the Senate. You and I sometimes vote on matters relating to the legal profession, but we don't have a particular interest in that any more than any other member of the profession. So, I think it is a very analogous situation and I don't consider it an indirect interest."

Senator Francis: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Grant, Senate Bill No. 2099, as amended, together with the pending amendment by Senators Marsh, Jones and Woody, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for January 28, 1977.

"BECAUSE OF THE VERY PERSONAL NATURE OF PRAYER, I WANT TO SUGGEST SOMETHING A LITTLE DIFFERENT THIS MORNING. LIFE KNOWS SOME OF ITS GREATEST MOMENTS WHEN WE ARE INVOLVED IN GIVING THANKS. I INVITE YOU TO MEDITATE WITH ME, TO LET THE MINISTRY OF SILENCE BESTOW ITS OWN PEACE AND STRENGTH, AND THEN GIVE THANKS: FOR YOUR PARENTS WHO GAVE YOU LIFE; FOR A CHILDHOOD FRIEND WHO MADE LIFE FUN; FOR A TEACHER WHO CHALLENGED YOU TO LEARN; FOR YOUR FAMILY WHO HAS BEEN WILLING TO SACRIFICE YOUR PRESENCE SO YOU CAN BE HERE; FOR ANOTHER SENATOR WHO HAS BECOME PARTICULARLY MEANINGFUL TO YOU.

"O LORD, THANK YOU FOR THOSE WHO HAVE GIVEN A PART OF THEMSELVES TO US. FORGIVE US FOR THE MOMENTS WHEN WE HAVE BECOME SO BUSY THAT WE HAVE FORGOTTEN BOTH THEM AND YOU. BUT MORE THAN JUST FORGIVE, WE ASK THAT YOU WILL CALL FORTH THE BEST THAT IS WITHIN EACH OF US TO MEET THE CHALLENGES OF THIS DAY. AMEN."

On motion of Senator Grant, Senators McDermott, Goltz, Washington and Talley were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Joint Resolution No. 110.

There being no objection, additional sponsors were permitted on Senate Bills 2336, 2339.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2099, by Senators Rasmussen, Newschwander and Bausch (by State Treasurer request):

Authorizing state officials to designate their representatives to the public employees retirement board.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2099, as amended on January 27, 1977, together with the pending amendment by Senators Marsh, Jones and Woody, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, January 31, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 105, by Senators Bailey, Rasmussen and Clarke:

Providing for review of the operations of the state actuary.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Bailey yield to a question? Senator Bailey, I recognize that you are a member of the committee, and I am wondering under the, 'be it further resolved,' beginning on line 9 that requires the actuary to submit his procedures to the special committee for approval? Would it be your stance or your position that if the ways and means committee asked for actuarial, the actuary to respond to questions of the ways and means committee, that those questions would be legitimate questions which the committee would intend to include in its list of recommended procedures?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Mardesich, the committee would probably not bother the actuary in any way unless there is some abuse of request for his services, and actuarial services are very expensive, and it is possible if we don't have some regulatory system that someone will demand full time of the actuary at great expense, and he might not even be available for some of the major bills before ways and means. The purpose of it was, if he gets into a problem, to do that.

"We also are engaged in gathering information right now and feeding it into the computer. This will be his job, and it is going to take him the best part of a year. So, there are some procedures that he will lay out to account for the work that he is doing, and account for the help that he needs over there, and I might say on that help, that he will submit a budget to the ways and means committee just like any other department does."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 105, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Francis, Peterson—3.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 105, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 101, by Senators Sandison, Clarke, Goltz, Wilson and Bluechel:

Establishing the joint legislative committee on Washington/British Columbia cooperation.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Goltz, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 101 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Goltz yield to a question? I did not have a chance to look thoroughly at this. When is this committee to be established and when it is established is it supposed to report back to the legislature, and is there a self destruct on this committee, or is it just going to be an ongoing, joint legislative committee?"

Senator Goltz: "My assumption is that this kind of a committee would have to be reestablished each session. We are supposing in the committee's duties that they do report back to the next session of the legislature."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Goltz yield? Senator Goltz, I have seen a headline in the paper that was supposed to have come from a professor up at Western College, a very knowledgeable man, I am sure, but he probably was misquoted. I have not asked him about that, but it had a big headline, 'The Ugly Canadian.' Are you hopeful that this new commission can counteract that image that we have with Canadians, because I am sure that is not what all the American public thinks. We are real friendly with a lot of Canadians."

Senator Goltz: "Senator Rasmussen, I am glad to respond to that because I think that particular point needs to be absolutely clear. The article which you read in the paper, and the article which was being prepared by the professor at Western under the title of, 'The Ugly Canadian,' was in no way meant to be a direct reflection upon Canadians by that professor. What he was attempting to report was a phenomenon which is a problem in Whatcom County and some other areas where some of our people take exception to the wonderful retail business which the Canadians bring to Bellingham, and is, I think, in the interest of this committee to overcome, and to make our citizens realize how valuable these retail sale customers are, and all of the other good things that Canadians and Americans can share together."

So, I share completely your hope that this committee will go a long way towards improving international relations."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question, Senator Goltz. Is that book still in the process of being published, and could not the title be changed?"

Senator Goltz: "Well, that may be. I will have to talk with the professor, but it certainly is not meant to be a recipe book for how to do it."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would certainly hope that the commission would visit with the professor, and maybe educate him on what our relationship should be with the neighboring countries."

Senator Goltz: "I think he would be glad to do that, and I think he would share your feeling."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, you are acquainted with the problem that has occurred with one Canadian corporation called Home Care, Incorporated, and a mortgage company, at least a group of owners of, holders of mortgages, where about $2.8 million dollars worth of houses were purchased from elderly people, and oftentimes some very low income people here in the state of Washington. None of the purchasers are in the state of Washington, and the property is now in federal bankruptcy court. Were you aware of that?"

Senator Goltz: "I am not aware of the details. I have heard about as much about it as you have given us here today."

Senator Woody: "Would this joint legislative commission be able to discuss with the British Columbia government possible solutions toward being able to sue or not to, back and forth between the two countries, or any other resolutions of this particular problem?"

Senator Goltz: "I would assume that any subject is open for discussion. I think that we are in many ways restricted by what we can do because of federal legislation on both sides of the border, so it seems to me that we will have to be very careful that we not over exceed our constitutional restrictions as to what is a subject for firm negotiation and what is not."

Senator Woody: "In the event that you turn out to be one of the members of the group, would you at least be willing to look into whether or not your jurisdiction would be sufficient to look into that particular problem?"

Senator Goltz: "If I am a member of that committee, I would be willing to look into almost anything."

Senator Woody: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 101, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Francis, Peterson—3.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 101, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

CONFIRMATIONS OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, the appointment of Wilbur G. Hallauer as Director of the Department of Ecology was confirmed.

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, and members of the Senate, it is a real pleasure for me to make the motion that we do approve the appointment of Wilbur G. Hallauer. There are a number of us who sat on the floor when Senator Hallauer was a member of this body and some of us served with him when he was in the House. I think if there ever is someone who can help the Legislature move into the field and have some influence in the matter of issuance of rules and regulations, I think Web Hallauer is the man to help the Legislature come to that position that we would like to be in.

"I know he also feels strongly that agencies should not move beyond the intent of the Legislature, and I have the feeling that the number of regulations that will be promulgated by the department will be greatly reduced under his directorship.

"During the hearings there was a matter that Mr. Hallauer raised himself. He brought before our committee a complete disclosure. I have never seen a person so thoroughly disclose his financial holdings, his financial background, as Senator Hallauer did. He was very frank in admitting that he has pending through the Valley Evaporating Company, of which he is one of the primary owners, water discharge permits. But it is very clear that those are the decisions that will be made by the department will be routine decisions. They will not be decisions requiring his decisions. The permits have been in effect for any number of years, and when the term is over and the the new permit is issued, it is definitely established that is done on a routine basis at the regional level. So there is clearly nothing more than a technicality as far as the matter in that regard of having a conflict in interest, and the committee definitely felt very strongly on that matter.

"We were unanimous in feeling that we were very fortunate in having a man with the knowledge and background of resources and water of Senator Hallauer's knowledge, and that we are fortunate to have a man, I think, of his administrative ability heading this very important department. So I urge that we do vote in favor of his confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I am very happy to be able to second the nomination, the recommendation of the committee to the Senate, and to echo those things that Senator Washington has said, and also to say that I had the pleasure of serving with Web during that interim period of 1967 when we wrote nine or ten pieces of legislation. It took a tremendous amount of concentration. We worked diligently on it. We had many committee meetings, and we were able to bring out legislation that has been enacted and is now in force and effect in the state.

"All during the period of time that we were working I found that Web had more patience than I did. There were times when if I had been chairman of the committee, I might have cracked the whip a little bit stronger. He was patient. He knew where he was going. He knew what he wanted to do. He was very considerate in his treatment of the staff people who were appearing before us, even though sometimes they would not carry out their instructions the first time that we gave them, and at one committee meeting they would come back and the language did not sound exactly like it should have, and Web would send them back to the drawing board, and they would redo the piece of legislation, and finally when it got into the position that he wanted it and thought it should be, then we accepted that.

"As far as the revelations that Web made about his personal finances and that of his family, I was most impressed. In fact, I was most depressed by the fact that a civil servant or a person who is willing to serve the government has to lay his family fortunes out in as great a detail as Web felt constrained to do. It appears to me that that piece of legislation should be changed, and the hearing that afternoon certainly demonstrated the necessity for it. I feel that as we go down the road with Web in this department, we will gain a sense of balance that we have not had since the environmental protection act was passed, or the shorelines protection act was passed, and so I am looking forward to working with Web and I think that his appointment will be of great value to the citizens of the state of Washington."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WILSON

Senator Wilson: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to endorse the remarks of Senators Washington and Guess, and I would also like to point out that Senator Hallauer is a product of the seventh legislative district, as is Charlie Hodde, and that it is a well known fact that people from the seventh legislative district perform services for the state in a very outstanding fashion. I heartily endorse his confirmation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, fellow senators, I would like to endorse the appointment of Web Hallauer. I had the pleasure of serving with Web Hallauer. We both came to the Senate in 1957. He was an easy man to work with. He was a well informed man, and a very high caliber man. I think he is another example of the fine officials and legislators we have that come out of eastern Washington."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I, too, support the nomination of Web Hallauer from the city side. We served together in the House and the Senate. I think Governor Ray is very fortunate in getting a man of his caliber to serve. He has great concern for environmental problems, but he also has a very sensible approach, and that is what we need in this day and age when we have projects that are stopped for four and five years, only to be granted a permit finally. He is going to speed up the decision making so that if it is bad for the environment, they will know about it immediately or shortly thereafter, and if it is not too bad for the environment and necessary for the state to grow and provide jobs for our people, he will also let them know that, and the project will go ahead.

"I think that Web Hallauer will do an excellent job as director of ecology."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Members of the Senate, there was one point that I did want to raise, and I think it really bodes well for the environment that Web Hallauer not only has the support of business, industry, people who perhaps feel that we have gone too far with our environmental legislation, but in recognizing his fairness, the witness who appeared before the committee, Harry Wynkoop, who represented the Sierra Club and the Washington Environmental Council, had this statement, and I am just going to read one of the statements that he made.

"The Washington State Sierra Club and Washington Environmental Council have long thought the director of the department of ecology is a very important position,' and I think the candidate, Mr. Hallauer, is putting the department in the proper position. That is, between the two, between the environmentalists and the business organizations. Mr. Hallauer specifically stated that he was going to be, he felt, in the middle of the road. He was going to try to represent both, that he was not particularly going to be a protagonist for the environmental side of many of the arguments. Many people feel, of course, that the director should be very active and aggressive in pushing for the environmental legislation itself. Mr. Hallauer made it clear that he was going to be in the middle position, and I thought it was very refreshing to me to find that Washington Environmental Council, in particular, recognizes that it is a period of time where there has to be some adjustments. There need to perhaps to be some changes made, and we need someone with the judicial approach who does stand in the middle. I felt that you should know that he did have the support of those two organizations also before our committee."

APPOINTMENT OF WILBUR G. HALLAUER

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—46.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Francis, Peterson—3.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the appointment of Gary Strohmaier as Director of the Department of Agriculture was confirmed.

REMARKS BY SENATOR GASPARD

Senator Gaspard: "Thank you, Mr. President. I practiced all morning to say, 'Mr. President,' and it came out, 'Mr. Speaker.' I saw John Bagnariol in the wings just a few minutes ago, so maybe that changed my train of thought.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, it gives me great pleasure to recommend on behalf of the agriculture committee the confirmation of Mr. Gary Strohmaier as the state's director of agriculture.

"I have had distributed to your desks Governor Ray's message concerning Mr. Strohmaier and a biography of Mr. Strohmaier for your perusal. Very quickly, Mr. Strohmaier has been engaged in wheat and cattle ranching for most of his life. He has had some activity in representative form of government. He has worked with both Congressman McCormack and Congressman Foley's staff as a liaison to the citizens of the state of Washington and their respective districts.

"He has been involved in several associations. Just to name a few, he has been president of the Washington Association of Wheat Growers, member of the hay and grain fund committee, and he has served on the national advisory committee of wheat and field grains during the Johnson administration.

"After our hearings in the committee, and after Mr. Strohmaier's statement and questions by the committee, I think he satisfied most of our concerns dealing with agriculture. On the conflict of interest, on public disclosure, of course, his F-1 form is available. He assured us that his farming operation is a family operation, and that there will not be any conflict of interest, and if there is any conflict of interest, this body, the Legislature, will be the first to know about it. There is no conflict of interest in his associations. He said if there is, then he would resign those associations immediately.

"As his role as the director of agriculture, first he sees it as administering the laws pertaining to the department, to be an active spokesman for the industry of agriculture in the state of Washington. To formulate better understanding in relationships between the farmer and the consumer, and I think, importantly for the people on the west side, and particularly for me, not a farmer, not from the east side of the state, is that he is not going to forget the west side farming interests. We do have some over here, as many of you know.

"Most important, I think, is his pledge to the Senate agriculture committee and to the Legislature is his close cooperation and willingness to work with the Legislature in carrying out the laws as they pertain to the state of Washington and the department of agriculture. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Talley: "Senator Gaspard, I am sitting in the seat where Reuben Knoblauch always occupied, and he always felt it his duty, when you make your maiden speech, that the Senate always appreciates candy and cigars."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President, I would like to also recommend confirmation of the next secretary of agriculture and I have known Gary for many years. He has been a very hard worker in the area of agriculture. I first met him as a member of the Washington Wheat Association many, many years ago. I am sure that he will do a very fine job. His relationship with the different segments of the agriculture community are well known and I think that the choice of Gary Strohmaier is an excellent one for the secretary's position."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Thank you, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I, too, want to second the nomination of Gary Strohmaier as a youthful, energetic man who is coming into a department that is growing in every way. Agriculture is becoming a more important thing, not only to the state, but to the nation. It is number one as far as the balance of payments internationally. If any of you come over to eastern Washington, I suggest that you get off the freeway and take a look at what is occurring. We are now the number one state in the nation in the production of potatoes, as an example. We are expanding that basin area. Through new technology, they are expanding the capability of feeding a world that is having a difficult time feeding itself, and I think that we need someone such as Gary Strohmaier to lead us through the coming years where there is going to be battles on all types of policies including water distribution and the other essential things to the development of what I feel will be eventually the number one resource and the number one industry in the state of Washington.

"So it is with a great deal of pleasure that I support the confirmation of Gary Strohmaier as a man who will do an excellent job for us."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I think many of you may know that Gary Strohmaier was my opponent in my recent race for the senatorial seat in the sixteenth legislative district. It is not frequent that someone loses the race and wins the trophy, but this may be the case here."

"Gary, very adequately, fulfills the qualifications that I think Governor Ray was requiring for this position. He is a gregarious, handsome man. He is reasonable, and he is qualified for the job. I have known Gary for many years. I have worked with him, and I learned much more about him as we went about the district campaigning together or separately. I highly recommend him for this position."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENITZ

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I also wish to recommend confirmation of Gary Strohmaier as director of agriculture. First of all, the director of agriculture's importance far transcends the political party he is from. The importance of food production ranks number one with those of us who produce it, and certainly with the consumer who, after all, is our customer. Gary will have a hard act to follow. The former director of agriculture was well known in agricultural circles, and did a very good job of standing in the middle of the discussions which are pretty serious with the different elements of agriculture.

"Gary Strohmaier has assured me he will be there when the farmers have differences, and some of those differences affect very much how you live, witness the fight between the wheat farmers and the grape farmers over the use of 24D. Mr. Strohmaier has assured me he will be very much in the middle of that or any related discussion. Further, Mr. Strohmaier freely admits he knows more about wheat and cattle and some of those crops than he does about horticulture, viticulture and other important facets. But he is a very sharp young man and learns quickly, and I have the utmost respect for him, and wish him well."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen, I, too, want to second the nomination of Gary Strohmaier. I haven't known Gary as long as some of the rest of you, but I did get well acquainted with him last summer on a number of visits over to that area. I have been on his ranch, got to know his family, his practical working knowledge of agriculture. I know Gary Strohmaier has the courage of his convictions. He is a creative thinker. I know he will do much for the cause of agriculture, and it is a real pleasure to second his nomination."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I would like also as a small farmer from western Washington to echo the remarks that have already been made with regard to Gary Strohmaier. I have known Gary for quite a while, and I know Gary would serve in this position with distinction. As you know, I am primarily in pigs. The new Governor and I have some things in common. We both have goats, and I think that I certainly want to add to the recommendation with regard to Gary for this position."

APPOINTMENT OF GARY STROHMAIER

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

The Senate was called to order at 11:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Fleming, Francis, Grant, Hayner, Herr, McDermott, Pullen, Ridder and Scott. "WE JOIN OUR HEARTS IN PRAYER, ASKING FOR UNDERSTANDING AND KNOWLEDGE BEYOND OUR OWN, AND FOR GUIDANCE IN DEALING WITH PROBLEMS BEYOND THE MEASURE OF OUR BEST EFFORTS. IN THIS MOMENT MAY WE FIND THAT YOU ARE REACHING OUT TO US AS WE REACH OUT TO YOU, AND MAY WE DISCOVER THAT WHEN WE ARE WILLING TO LISTEN, THEN YOU WILL SPEAK WITHIN US. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence in the Senate Chamber of the Honorable Cecilia Nettelbrandt, Sweden's Consul General for the Western United States and appointed Senators Odegaard, Walgren, Peterson, Gould, Guess and North as a special committee to escort the honored guest to the rostrum.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, present in the Senate chamber today is an illustrious guest from Sweden, the Honorable Cecilia Nettelbrandt, who is Sweden's Consul General for the Western United States. The President should like to respectfully request that Senator Odegaard, Senator Walgren, Senator Peterson, Senator Gould—are there any other Scandinavians on the Republican side here—Senator Guess and Senator North, you are from Ballard, would you please act as a committee of honor to escort our illustrious guest to the rostrum."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President should like to respectfully introduce at this time Dave Lewis, Commanding General of the Washington Generals. Would you please step forward, General Lewis, please, and General Willis Tucker, co-founder of the Washington Generals, Marianne Lewis, Secretary of the Washington Generals, and Pat Ward, Adjutant General, of the Washington Generals.

"The newly elected members of the Senate will find certificates indicating that you have been made Washington Generals, and all members of the Senate are cordially invited to attend the annual dinner of the Washington Generals Association on February 22nd, to be held at the Nile Temple in Seattle. Directions, I believe, are enclosed with your invitations."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is with the greatest pride and pleasure that the President presents to you at this time the Honorable Cecilia Nettelbrandt, who is Sweden's Consul General for the Western United States. The Honorable Consul General assumed her position on August 1, 1976. The Consul General is in possession of one of the most fabulous records in politics in the history of Sweden.

"After taking degrees in economics and law, Mrs. Nettelbrandt was first elected to local political office, and a few years later, was elected to the Swedish Parliament, serving as the Deputy Speaker from 1971 through 1976, and left this position to become Sweden's Consul General in San Francisco.

"Mrs. Nettelbrandt's record is marked with service on the Nordic Council and as Director on the Boards of the Bank of Sweden, the Swedish Broadcasting Corporation, the insurance company Trygg-Hansa, and the Swedish Liquor Monopoly, which is certainly evidence that Mrs. Nettelbrandt could be of real service to the state of Washington, inasmuch as we face many problems in these particular areas. Mrs. Nettelbrandt, won't you please favor us with a few remarks."

REMARKS BY MRS. NETTELBRANDT

Mrs. Nettelbrandt: "Thank you very much, Honorable President and Honorable Senators here. I am really very glad. I am very pleased to have the opportunity to come here today, and when we drive this way and I saw the beautiful nature here, I understood that it is no doubt that the Scandinavians wanted to live here because the nature has so many similarities to the nature in Scandinavia, so I could thought that I was at home. I am happy that many of the Scandinavians also are here in the Senate. I have met, since I came to America, so kind and so friendly people. so, it has been only a pleasure, and I know that it is an understanding between the countries that I think will grow even more and more for years.

"When I hear how you work here in the Senate, I am thinking when I have visited some parliaments on the east side of the world behind the iron border, that it is typical that they work there and make the whole work in say, ten hours in two months, and after that the whole work is ready. When I hear how many hours you spend and compare it with our parliamentary work in Sweden, I think it is typical for our real democracy to work like this. It takes a lot of time, but it is a good system to have it like that.

"Let me finally say that I feel it like a privilege to have the opportunity to say some words here, and I am really ashamed to say that if you come to Sweden, if you had come last year when I sometimes was presiding in the Parliament, if you had come down in the Parliament, you have been taken out, and I have used the gavel to show you did something that you hadn't right to do, and if you had said something in our Parliament, you had been carried out by the waiters. I am ashamed to say that because we never let someone come in in the Parliament. It is too serious for that in the Scandinavian manner, I think.

"Even because of that, I am especially privileged to have been received in this friendly way as you have shown me. A great success, I wish you, and thank you very much for this moment."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Honorable Consul General. The President at this time should also like to respectfully present to you with great pride and pleasure the Honorable Clifford Benson, Consul of Sweden in Seattle."

REMARKS BY MR. BENSON

Mr. Benson: "Thank you, President, and it is a privilege of you honored hosts here, in a sense, to permit the new Consul General to attend this session, and particularly, as she said, to have the privilege of saying a few words and being present with you, which she said is something that probably couldn't have been done in Sweden today.

"I also express my thanks in that it is my responsibility to see that she is treated properly while she is in the Northwest, and you have made it very easy for me. Thanks, again."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Mr. Consul. Consul General, the members of the Washington State Senate have delegated the authority to the President to designate you a Washington General of the Washington Generals Association, and also as an honorary distinguished citizen of our state, and we hope you enjoy your stay in Seattle and the Evergreen state so much that you will become an ambassador of good will so with all of these credentials, that we hope you will remember the members of the Senate, the President, the staff and the Evergreen State. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator, as I understand the bill as it existed prior to this particular amendment, it would have provided in substance for the funding as to both Houses at the level set, in effect, by each House for a period of sixty days. Is that correct?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Senator Donohue."

Debate ensued.

Senator Matson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Benitz, Clarke, Goltz, Bailey, Newschwander, Lewis, Morrison, Wanamaker and Grant.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Parliamentary inquiry. I have an amendment on the desk which I probably will offer if this amendment carries. Will that be in order? It has to do with the vouchering of per diem if they proviso on in that section."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In answer to your inquiry, Senator Matson, the President believes that the two amendments would be in order."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senators Walgren, Marsh and Sandison to the committee amendment.

"PROVIDED, That all per diem payments made to members of the House of Representatives from this appropriation shall be disbursed only pursuant to a showing of actual expenditures by voucher."

On page 12, section 20, after line 23 insert:

On page 1, line 6, after "through" strike "18" and insert "19".

On page 1, line 8, strike "18" and insert "19".

On page 1, line 9, strike "18" and insert "19".

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Substitute House Bill No. 169, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, in reading through the committee ways and means amendment to House Bill 169, I do not find any reference to the human rights commission, and I do not have access to the spread sheet from the House.

"First of all, was there an appropriation in the House version of the bill?"

Senator Donohue: "Yes, Senator, there was, and may I explain this? I am sorry, I intended to do this, but it slipped my mind. The House appropriation for the human rights commission was a hundred and fourteen thousand dollars. Those dollars were to be used exclusively for new hires, Senator, and this deletion of this reflects the hiring freeze put on by Governor Ray. And we have, I am sure that Senator Fleming is very much aware of this. He was in touch with me regarding this particular situation, and we intend, of course, to consider further appropriations during the regular budget period."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, I wonder if you have had an opportunity to screen the number of cases they have to determine—or if the boards themselves have a screening process to determine those that are frivolous and those that have some substance to them. Have you looked at the case load to know whether it is justified?"

Senator Goltz: "Senator Rasmussen, I have examined the case load. In my judgment the claim that they made for increased staff and requirement is at least partially justified. I think that the long time that cases are now under investigation before they are resolved is bad public policy for industry, for the small business and for the persons involved, and I would defend to my death your right to agree with me."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would wonder if we should examine the procedures over there, and see if there is one way that we could speed them up. I agree with you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Donohue yield to another question? Along the same lines as the question by Senator Goltz, Senator Donohue, I understand the human rights commission staffing currently is lower than that that was authorized by statute for the biennium. The staffing is not as we had anticipated it currently. Can you respond to that because I am concerned too with the tremendous backlog as it has been expressed, and I think it is going to take additional staffing in order to meet that requirement."

Senator Donohue: "Senator, in response, as I remember during the analysis of this particular request, it indicated, not that they were understaffed at the present time relative to their previous appropriation, but that they were understaffed as it related to the load of work that they have before them. Consequently, they were requesting additional people, and my response further would be that this is something that will be considered in the main budget. I have talked to Senator George Fleming, one of the other people who are running for Congress, and he has been assured by me that this will be a matter that we will be considering in the major budget. But I am sure that we are talking about people that, in addition, that they want to solve their overload, and I agree they do have a problem."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 169, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 17; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Bottiger, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Marsh, McDermott, Odegard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—29.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Jones, Lewis, Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Sellar, Wanamaker—17.

Excused: Senators Hayner, Pullen, Scott—3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 169, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute House Bill No. 169, as amended by the Senate, was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2099, by Senators Rasmussen, Newschwander and Bausch (by State Treasurer request):

Authorizing state officials to designate their representatives to the public employees retirement board.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Bill No. 2099 was rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2119, by Senators Odegaard, Donohue, Bailey, Wilson, Walgren, Guess, Scott, Rasmussen, Sandison and Goltz:

Establishing a procedure for review of administrative rules by an appropriate legislative committee.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 3, after "proceedings" insert " , to the secretary of the senate, the chief clerk of the house,"

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 19, strike all the underscored material on lines 19 and 20 and insert "and may amend the rule at such hearing or any continuance thereof. Any amendment proposed after the hearing will require a refiling of the notice and hearing as provided above"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? In the event that at a hearing, a public hearing, certain matters are brought up which show that there is an emergency situation occurring which would require a substantially different amendment than originally proposed, would they have to have a refiling period of thirty days?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is covered under page 4, section 4, line 9 which provides for the emergency type hearings. I have an amendment for there too, but that is where the emergency hearing is provided for."

Senator Woody: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? I am going to ask a question, but I have to make a few remarks leading up to it. Normally, an agency that is going to adopt some proposed rules files them with the code reviser and the public notices are sent out, and a public hearing often is held with respect to the proposed rules. At the hearing various people may object to passage of the proposed rules, and explain how the rules could be improved. Normally then, the hearing is adjourned. The entity that is going to adopt the rules will get together and discuss what happened at the hearing, and decide that some of the changes were meritorious and some were not, and will amend its proposed rules in accordance with those decisions, and then adopt the rules as amended.

"I come now to the question which is, if your amendment is adopted and this set of circumstances unveiled as I have outlined it, the agency would then, I presume, have to go through the process of refileing with the code reviser, sending out notices and holding a second public hearing on the revised rules. Is that right?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think that with the amendment offered by Senator Clarke, they could merely call for a hearing. They could adjourn to a date certain later and preclude the necessity of the notice. Since all parties who would be interested probably would be at that original meeting and would get notice at that time of the adjournment to a date certain."

Senator Wilson: "So that if the agency were going to change its rules as originally proposed in the slightest, they would be required to have a second public hearing?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, they could adopt right at that meeting."

Senator Wilson: "Well, I guess I am doing this on the assumption, Senator, that often an agency has to reflect on the testimony that was given and decide which changes are valid and which are not, and unless they can make up their minds immediately at the original hearing with respect to each suggested change in the proposed rules, they would then have to hold a second hearing. Is that right?"

Senator Mardesich: "A second hearing or to a date certain adjourn. The reason for that, of course, is to preclude the possibility of an agency making very drastic changes in the proposed rules, well beyond the original scope, then solving their internal problems with a rule which nobody has had notice of."

Senator Wilson: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question. Senator Mardesich, I would just like to propose a hypothetical and see if I have a way around a problem that I envision. Suppose an agency proposed to adopt a rule requiring twenty days notice, and after discussion, decided to go for thirty days, that the notice requirement would be thirty days. Could they under subsection two adopt an emergency thirty day notice rule, and then reschedule the hearing so that they could act on the thirty as opposed to the twenty days? Do you follow me? They published a notice that they intended to adopt a rule requiring twenty days notice for bid opening or something of that nature."

Senator Mardesich: "I would think not because the rule making authority would not take precedence over the statute which on page 2, line 36, requires a thirty day notice."

Senator Bottiger: "As soon as I started that, I realized that I was going to confuse you. Suppose that the highway department proposed to adopt a rule requiring twenty days public notice before a bid opening, and at the hearing it was pointed out that most other statutes require thirty days, therefore they decided to amend their proposed rule from twenty to thirty. Could they adopt it as an emergency rule under subsection 2 on page 3, and then reschedule their hearing on the thirty day notice for bid opening?"

Senator Mardesich: "I don't know that the bidding per se would not fall under rule making, but I still don't follow you because the thirty day requirement is in the statutes, and then why would they change it?"

Senator Bottiger: "What I am looking at is a minor amendment, a discretionary, not a substantive amendment. I have used, for example, notice. It could be that, let's say, that dollar amounts. Any bid of in excess of twenty thousand dollars would require y action. At the hearing they decide to move that from twenty to thirty thousand dollars would require y action. Could they adopt that rule under the emergency section and then reschedule their hearing?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think they could do it at the meeting under the proposal suggested by Senator Clarke."

Senator Bottiger: "I would like, my purpose is to put this in the Journal that that is a way to handle an emergency situation that came up."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 9, after "rule is" insert "immediately".

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 7, after "legislature" and before the period insert "and submit its decision on the subject to the review committee involved. The committee may accept or reject the agency's position. Rejection shall preclude the implementation of the rule or rules under consideration."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, reading the language of your amendment, I am in concurrence with your view on this thing, but I would like to ask you when you say the committee may accept or reject the agency's position, do you not mean the proposal or the rules and regulations rather than their position?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, I guess that is what it means and I don't know—I suppose you can—to be quickly amended to reject the agency's proposed rules."

Senator Guess: "I would like it very clear as to what it is."

Senator Mardesich: "That is what it was intended to be."

Senator Guess: "I would like to suggest an oral amendment to that effect."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, if there is no objection from the Senate, what Senator Guess has proposed is that we change the word 'position' after the word, 'agency's' to 'agency's proposed rule or rules.'"

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich:

Amend line 5 of the amendment to page 5, line 7 after "agency's" strike "position" and insert "proposed rule or rules"

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Bill No. 2119, as amended, together with the pending amendments by Senators Mardesich and Guess, be held on the second reading calendar for February 1, 1977.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I am wondering if Senator Odegaard and Senator Donohue have a legislative fiscal note on the amount of time that it would take for us to veto all of these rules? Did we pass enough money in that supplemental budget to—?"

Senator Rasmussen: "After Senator Bottiger, I have been advised that just the passage of this by both Houses that it reduced the number of proposed rules by fifty percent at least."

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I might also say there is nothing mandatory in the bill unless there is something in Senator Mardesich's amendment that would make it mandatory that you would have to either accept or reject, and I don't read that in the amendment. There is nothing mandatory that this complete review would have to be done, and so it depends upon the time and the staff we have available as I see it."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried. Senate Bill No. 2119, as amended, together with the pending amendments by Senators Mardesich and Guess, was ordered held for the second reading calendar for February 1, 1977.

At 3:20 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Walgren moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 104 be placed on today's second reading calendar following Senate Bill No. 2080.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I just wonder as to the urgency of this measure as a consideration without being considered by one of the standing committees of the Senate. Perhaps someone could speak to that. Senator Walgren? I really question the urgency of this, Senator Walgren. I wonder why it is being placed on the second reading calendar without going through one of the standing committees."

Senator Walgren: "Well, Senator, it wasn't my intention that we handled either one of these bills at this time. My understanding is that we would hold both of these bills and, frankly, this is the request of the chairman of the local government committee. I understand it is exactly the same bill that they have had under consideration in their committee, and I would defer to either Senator Wilson or Senator Woody for further explanation of your question."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODY

Senator Woody: "I checked with Representative King while we were in caucus. The House bill deals not only with volunteer firemen, but all volunteers. For example, at DSHS there are people who volunteer to drive elderly people in for hot lunches, etc. Representative Dick King has asked that we hold everything until the two, Senator Wilson and Representative King, can discuss the two bills, and then we can take it up tomorrow if it looks like the House bill does not only what Senator Wilson's bill does, but the other matters are good too. Then we can kick it up on second reading and handle it tomorrow."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, I would suggest that the orderly process would have the bill go to local government committee rather than being held in limbo, so to speak, for a few days. I am sure Senator Wilson has a great interest in this measure, that he will give it an early hearing, and that it will receive the attention of this Senate before our final adjournment. I would think that that would be the proper procedure to follow, therefore I am inclined to vote against the motion to keep it on second reading calendar."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I just wanted to concur with Senator Grant on this. I think that it seems mighty strange to me that we are starting to circumvent the committee process, and I think that it is totally unnecessary. I don't necessarily agree that it ought to go to local government, but apparently the other one did instead of to labor, but now there is no good reason for it not to go to committee."

WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "I have been persuaded by the overwhelming argument that has been made by my colleagues here with regard to this particular measure, and I certainly have no objection to it taking the regular course of business and going to the appropriate committee, and so therefore, withdraw my motion."

Engrossed House Bill No. 104 was referred to the Committee on Local Government.

HOUSE BILL NO. 180, by Representatives Hanna, Shinpoch, Enbody, Smith, Leckenby and Winsley:

Extending long-arm statute for parties in marriage dissolution cases.
Referred to Judiciary Committee.

HOUSE BILL NO. 191, by Representatives Shinpoch, Knowles, Smith, Leckenby, Winsley and Knedlik:

Authorizing certain court proceedings in marriage dissolution cases to be expedited.

Referred to Judiciary Committee.

HOUSE BILL NO. 216, by Representatives Bauer, Berentson, Barnes, Heck, Fuller, Hanna, Dunlap, Hawkins, Greengo and Knedlik:

Allowing expenses for school district superintendent candidates who travel for employment interview.

Referred to Committee on Education.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Beck, Senate Bill No. 2029 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2029, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Matson, McDermott,

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2074, by Senators Day, Jones and Buffington:

Allowing the hospital commission to employ a staff.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, Senate Bill No. 2074 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? Not with respect to the amendments, but with respect to the last paragraph of the bill, I note that the commission would be allowed to receive payments from anyone and make arrangements as to the use of those receipts. I assume that sets up a revolving fund, does it?"

Senator Day: "Yes, and what it is related to is studies that the commission is now contemplating some of these, as a matter of fact, relative to their function and relative to the economical function of mutual services, etc. for hospitals, and so it is related to the specific function of rate setting."

Senator Mardesich: "The reason I raised the question is because we have begun to look with somewhat of a disapproving eye on the use of revolving funds and the application for federal funds and the use thereof without legislative appropriation. I know this was part of the law before, but I wonder how do we get a handle on these things, and I assume it is too late to worry about it at this moment."

Senator Day: "You are right, however I would point out this, that this commission, so far at least, has been very responsive to the Legislature and if they don't continue that, Senator, why we can make some amendments in the act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Also, Senator Day, on lines 12 and 13, where we changed the right to employ from the department of social and health services to the commission, and I understand what you are trying to do. I am wondering if, in your conversation with members of that commission, if they were not satisfied with the number of employees that they were getting from the department of social and health services, and also do they plan on expanding. It says the commission shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibility. I am concerned that they might increase their staff above that which they now have under the department of social and health services."

Senator Day: "The answer is that I had a direct conversation with the executive director, Mr. Frank Baker, and he told me that there was no change contemplated in the number of staff."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Will Senator Day yield, please? Do we understand then, just for personal clarification, can we understand that DSHS will be reduced by the number of employees that go to work for the hospital commission, there will actually be a net reduction in the number of DSHS employees?"

Senator Day: "Yes, there is a communique on the way to Senator Donohue now so that he can transplant this exact figure from DSHS budget to the budget for the commission."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2074, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—45.

MOTION

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Has the majority leader made a decision as to where liquor bills will go so we avoid these conflicts on the floor, and any reasons why they should go to one or the other? Otherwise we are going to have this going on all of the time."

Senator Walgren: "Senator Mardesich, as you know, we usually leave these decisions really up to the body rather than having a determination of the majority leader. I have never known you to vote any other way, Senator Mardesich, excepting what you want. I think that these bills this last session to have gone to the state government committee to be specific. We have had, as you well know, a specific committee on liquor control in the past, and sometimes when it appears that there are some major pieces of legislation as it relates to liquor, that it may be necessary to have such a committee. That was not the determination made by the committee on committees at this time, and I would assume that the bill should take the regular course which in the past, more recently as far as I can recall, has been to the state government committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, supporting the Chair in sending this to state government, I think it has been the custom since we abolished the liquor control committee that these bills do go to state government if they affect the state liquor control board. However, if it was a bill that maybe took liquor out of the liquor board and put it into the grocery stores or something like that which, heaven forbid, then I think we would put that under commerce."

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke failed. Senate Bill No. 2407 and Senate Bill No. 2408 were referred to the Committee on State Government.

Absent or not voting: Senator Odegaard—1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Francis, Matson, Woody—4.

MOTION

Senator Sandison moved the appointment of Merrily Knutsen as a member of the Board of Trustees, Centralia Community College, District No. 12, be confirmed.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "The point of order is that the appointment of Merrily Knutsen is not properly before the Senate for the reason that the position is held by Rene Remund, and that the purported withdrawal of that name by the Governor and the subsequent acquiescence therein by the Senate was unconstitutional, illegal and void, and for that reason the matter should not now be considered by the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I realize that the President, in order to be consistent, would have of necessity reject this point of order and I intend to make the same point with respect to the other following or remaining appointments that are presently on the calendar. The distinction between these and those that come before it is that in all instances these relate to appointments which purportedly were withdrawn both by the Governor and the Senate. The preceding ones did not, and in the event that my point of order is overruled, I would ask with the consent of the Senate and without wasting the time of the Senate that it be considered that the same point is made with respect to appointments 11, 12, 15, 16 and 17."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "First, with regard to the request of Senator Clarke that the point of order that he has raised now be made as to the rest of these gubernatorial appointments, I think that is perfectly appropriate and the record should reflect that the same objection is raised as to each one of these individuals. Speaking on the question of the point of order, I think that the Senate will recall the rather lengthy debate that we had at the time that the Governor Ray requested that many of these appointments be returned to her. It was pointed out at that time, very adequately I think, by Senator Marsh that we were indeed considering each one of these appointments individually and, of course, we had lengthy debate. I don't think there is any question but that there was consideration given by this higher body, and of course, as we have pointed out before, the precedent was well set. So, I don't believe that the remarks of Senator Clarke are well taken in this regard, but I certainly recognize his right and probably obligation to make this point for the record."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I made an error in referring to the numbers of those remaining, and those remaining are 11, 12, 32, 33 and 37, and my remarks were intended to apply to those."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARSH

Senator Marsh: "Thank you, Mr. President. Speaking to the point of order raised by Senator Clarke, I would ask that my remarks of January 21, 1977, concerning Senator Clarke's then point of inquiry relating to the rejection of former Governor Evans' appointments be, with the consent of the Senate, considered as having been reiterated on the floor here today.

"It is the position of the members of this side of the aisle who voted in favor of Senator Walgren's motion to comply with the request of Governor Ray to return all of the appointments to the Governor that we voted to reject each of the appointments. It is our position that the vote of January 21, 1977, was in accordance with the precedents of this Senate, and that the vote of January 21, 1977, was a rejection of each of the then pending appointments which had been submitted by former Governor Evans.

"It is our position that the rejection of the prior appointee named by Senator Clarke was constitutional, was legal and was valid.

"I would ask that my remarks be considered as continuing as to Senator Clarke's continuing point of order relating to GA 11, GA 12, GA 32, GA 33 and GA 37."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "That is perfectly agreeable. I would ask also that the argument made on our behalf on the preceding point also be regarded as having been a part of this particular argument. I also might state for the benefit of those on our side, that I intend to file for the record a reason for my voting 'no' on each of these appointments which will have nothing to do with the capability or acceptability of the individuals, but merely on the point of law, and anyone who wishes to join me in that written explanation is welcome to do so."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Members of the Senate, the President, in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Clarke, wishes to refer to his remarks of January twenty-first as to the inquiry from Senator Clarke. This is a matter of record in the Journal therefore the President does not feel it necessary to repeat the same remarks, but in essence the Ruling was that the Senate, in its wisdom, may comply with or reject the request of the Governor for the return of the appointments by the Governor's predecessor in office. The members of the Senate are aware that the President does not rule upon constitutional questions, therefore the President rules that the appointments are in order before the Senate."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the appointment of Merrily Knutsen as a member of the Board of Trustees of Centralia Community College, District No. 12, was confirmed.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

TO: Sid Snyder, Secretary of the Senate

FROM: Senator Clarke

RE: Statement for Senate Journal: Point of Order, February 2, 1977 — Clarification and Reasoning as to Why I Voted Nay on Various Gubernatorial Appointments.

Prefacing my remarks, it again should be stated for the record that it is my contention that the governor (past, present or future) does not have the constitutional or legal right to withdraw appointments after such appointments are presented to the Senate for confirmation or rejection. Also, the only Constitutional and legal action which the Senate may take as to such appointments is to vote on each individually by yeas or nays as to confirmation or rejection and this was not done. Therefore, gubernatorial appointments Numbers 10, 11, 12, 32, 33, and 37 are not valid appointments as these named appointees were appointed to positions which, at this time, are validly and legally held by appointments made by Governor Ray's predecessor, Daniel J. Evans.

It also should be noted for the record that gubernatorial appointments Numbers 13, 18, 20, 21 and 31, whose names were purportedly allowed to be "withdrawn" by the Senate, were later reappointed by Governor Ray. As to these appointments, there is no objection to be entered as it is my contention that the named appointments have been and still are in the possession of the Senate since appointment by Governor Evans. There are, of course, no objections to be entered regarding appointments to vacant positions or appointments to positions held at the pleasure of the Governor.

I wish to make quite clear that my objections as to the named appointments is made solely on the legal basis stated herein, and as noted in the Journal on January 21, 1977, and is not directed at the individual qualifications or character of the appointees. As to the specific appointments before us today, my contention is as follows: Gubernatorial appointment No. 10 — this position is validly and legally held by Rene Remund. Gubernatorial appointment No. 11 — this position is validly and legally held by Joseph Mentor. Gubernatorial appointment No. 12 — this position is validly and legally held by Kenneth Schmidt. Gubernatorial appointment No. 32 — this position is validly and legally held by Bruce Armstrong. Gubernatorial appointment No. 33 — this position is validly and legally held by Sandy L. Johnson. Gubernatorial appointment No. 37 — this position is validly and legally held by Robert W. Winston, Jr.

Further, I wish to make the following points in relation to this Point of Order:

(1) This Point of Order shall stand as to all appointments involving appointees appointed to positions in which the alleged vacancy occurred as a result of the purported Senate action allowing Governor Ray to withdraw such appointments;

(2) The arguments I presented as recorded in the Senate Journal, January 21, 1977, apply to the present appointments in question and all future appointments in which the alleged vacancy occurred as a result of the purported Senate action allowing Governor Ray to withdraw such appointments.

Signed by: Senator George W. Clarke.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2021, by Senators Odegaard and Talley:

Permitting free passage on the Puget Island Ferry when State Route No. 4 is closed.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 18, following subsection (4) add another subsection to read:

"(5) Whenever state route 4 between Cathlamet and Longview is closed to traffic, as mentioned in subsection (4) hereof, the State of Washington shall provide on each ferry landing a portable toilet to accommodate prospective ferry passengers."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President, would Senator Talley yield? Senator, I notice the word 'prospective.' Does that mean prospective use of the ferry or prospective use of the toilet?"

Senator Talley: "I knew I should have never yielded."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Talley yield? Does this amendment have an emergency clause on it?"

Senator Talley: "Well, I am willing to put it on, sir. Yes. Some of the letters sounded like it was an emergency, yes."

The motion by Senator Talley carried and the amendment was adopted:
 Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 13, after "Whenever" insert ", subsequent to the effective date of this act,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Well, you know, being a non attorney, Senator, would this set any kind of precedent on any other runs?"

Senator Mardesich: "Are you suggesting that we ought to put those outhouses on the other ferries, too?"

Senator Herr: "No, I am talking very seriously. You know there is a ferry terminal, you know, from my district. Would this include all—this seems to be for just one area. Is this correct?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think that it is somewhat special interest in nature in that it affects only some of the people in the Senate and those who are traveling on the ferry. I would assume that you could amend it to include those ferries in your district by addition of another section or two."

Senator Herr: "You mean I could possibly amend it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "I can assure Senator Herr that if we had any other suitable route out of the area when a slide occurred, we wouldn't have any subsidy on this ferry, and I am sure you have other routes."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 15, after "conditions" and before the comma insert "and there is no suitable, reasonably short alternate route provided"

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR ODEGAARD

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the only danger I see in this possibly—there is an alternate route. In fact, we have a bill in, Senator Talley and I, to improve that route. But it is a very rough road. It is a logging type road with use by logging trucks, and it is not really that safe, as I understand it. Senator Talley, I think, knows more about that than I do. It was in his district many years. That would be the only problem. If you mean that they would have to use that route, it is an unsafe route, and that would be my only concern."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, in response to that, Senator Mardesich, if they were right, I would say it is a suitable, alternate route; I would be very glad to go along with you in getting rid of this whole subsidy, but this alternate route is through Crown-Zellerbach timberlands and it goes around every landing that they have built for the last thirty years."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Because that possibility exists, that is why I threw the words in 'suitable' 'reasonably short', and I am sure that the highway department would be rather reluctant to—and I would assume this is in the nature of a question so that it will be in the record and become evidentiary in case there is any argument about that, and it is only intended to solve the problem where they can put a short build-around or that type of thing rather than provide that someone goes forty miles through the countryside, or twenty, or ten even, over a bad road."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? As the sponsor of this amendment, is it your intent that the words 'suitable and reasonably short alternate route' when applied to the logging road or the other route mentioned by Senator Talley if it is not in adequate condition so that it can be safely used as an alternate route, would it be your opinion that the highway department, if it selected that road in an unsuitable condition, would be negligent?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, it is."

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted:

Amend the Mardesich amendment to page 2, line 15, as follows:

On line 3 of the amendment, after "alternate" insert "state"

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Herr moved that Senate Bill No. 2021, as amended, be ordered held for the second reading calendar on February 4, 1977.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Mr. President, would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Under this concept, and I have no amendments for the bill, but it seems to me under this concept that if the mountain passes were closed because of inclement weather or slides or snowstorms, then perhaps the state highway department should pay my air fare to come to Seattle or Olympia if I have to. Does that make sense to you?"

Senator Odegaard: "In this particular instance there isn't any immediate medical care, for example, or hospital care with this slide condition. The only route would be through Astoria over the Astoria bridge which would be probably fifty-five or sixty miles from the Cathlamet-Puget Island area, and this would shorten it down to about twenty-five miles and that is the main reason for this, where in the mountain passes you still could be close for emergency medical treatment to the area you would live, I would imagine."

Senator Matson: "You are saying this is a very special situation."

Senator Odegaard: "Yes."

The motion by Senator Herr failed on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2021 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2021, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 3; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Hayner, Henry, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Excused: Senators Bluechel, Cunningham, Guess, Walgren—4.

SENATE BILL NO. 2059, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2062, by Senators Day and Jones:
Revising qualifications for health officers.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 27, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2062, revising qualifications for health officers (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 16, after "(1)" strike "Bachelor's" and insert "Master's"

On page 2, line 20, after "A" strike "graduate" and insert "doctoral"

On page 2, line 22, after "the" strike "experience"

On page 2, line 24, after "medicine and surgery" insert ", osteopathy,"

On page 2, line 24, after "state" insert "," and strike the balance of the subsection

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Goltz, Vice Chairman; Gould, McDermott, North, Ridder, Wojahn.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Day moved that the committee amendments to page 2, lines 16 and 20, be considered and adopted simultaneously.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I rise to speak against this committee amendment, unless there is at least as far as I am concerned, a stronger showing that the person should be required to have a master's in business administration, public administration, hospital administration, management, nursing and so on, and a doctoral degree having the equivalent of two years of experience as distinguished from a graduate degree. It just seems to me that with these restrictions and higher qualification requirements, we are running the cost of health care up even further than they are today, and it seems to me—I don't know too much about the function of the local health officer, but it seems to me that his function would be primarily administrative, and as such, I see no reason why he should have a master's as distinguished from a bachelor's and a doctor's as distinguished from a graduate. I would like a response as to the question, does this not tend to raise the cost and is it necessary?"

Senator Day: "Responding to Senator Mardesich's inquiry and statement, I would agree first with you, Senator, that it does raise the requirements that are in the bill. It does however, reduce the requirements that are presently in the statutes, and therefore the answer to your question about cost is that this would tend to reduce cost because the bill still will reduce the requirements from the existing statutory requirements.

"The reason for the committee's raising these was to attempt to find a common ground with the director of the board of health plus some other physicians who were there objecting to anyone having the capacity of health officer, and of course, your other statement I agree with totally. It is administrative and certainly there is available the consultation of a physician when that is indicated. However, in the interests of accomplishing something, and we have passed this, I believe, in the Senate before, and then we have lost it due to this problem. I think that this fairly well satisfies the middle ground and I would hope that you would support the committee's position so that we can accomplish this and at least give this much more latitude to local boards of health."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woody, Senate Bill No. 2062, together with the pending committee amendments, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for February 4, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2110, by Senators Woody, Talley and Sellar:
Liberalizing investments available to county clerks.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 25, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2110, liberalizing investments available to county clerks (reported by Committee on Local Government)

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Cunningham, Grant and Buffington:

On page 1, line 14, after "84.36.800" insert "or rectory, monastery, or other institution conducted for the care of the members of the clergy"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Day yield? How large are these institutions that you are exempting?"

Senator Day: "I don't think it makes any difference. The amendment specifically states that only institutions which are for the care of members of the clergy specifically, and I think that that is merely a comparable amendment on the other side of the religious fence."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Day, then what safety factors are you exempting for these people, inspection, and that type of—"

Senator Day: "Well, I am certain that their being exempt is just the same as you would be if you took care of grandpa at home, and he was a member of the family, and I think what this really does is expand that particular concept to the type of facility that houses people that have lived within such an order and would continue to until they die, and of course, just as your family is subject to really no restrictions other than general restrictions on fire and safety."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, the reason I asked the question about the size, I think that if you are eliminating fire inspection and things of that sort, size does have a lot to do with it. If you are having fifteen or twenty or thirty people confined in an area not subject to inspection for safety. But I do think that there is no more reason why ministers that are retired should burn up any quicker than people in a nursing home. It just seems like there should be some sort of a state inspection on these people, no matter what it is. Now, if there is one or two, it is a little different, but I really asked that without being facetious."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendments to the amendment by Senators Cunningham, Grant and Buffington were adopted:

Amend the amendment to page 1, line 14 as follows:

On line 3 of the amendment strike "conducted" and insert "operated"

On line 4 of the amendment before "members" strike "the"

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2119 was ordered placed on today's second reading calendar following Senate Bill No. 2062.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2062, by Senators Day and Jones:

Revising qualifications for health officers.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2062. On February 3, 1977, Senator Day moved adoption and consideration of two committee amendments to page 2, lines 16 and 20.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Before the vote is announced, Mr. President, I still would like to raise the question why the degree could be changed from bachelor to master to the doctoral from graduate. I see no necessity for it unless it is merely a matter of compromise in an effort to get it through, and I—."

Senator Day: "Mr. President, Senator Mardesich, in answer to your question, that is exactly what it is. This is an attempt to meet some of the objections of principally the department of social and health services and the health officers who now are opposing the bill because they are all physicians and they want to maintain that. What the bill does is to give more latitude to the local boards of health. We felt that it would be better to raise these requirements and get something done than to get nothing done, and so what we are hoping you will do is to go along with the compromise that the committee has seen fit to reach."

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Day yield to another question? That may be the position of the department, but I personally don't feel you need to have a doctoral degree to be an administrator, a doctoral degree in nursing or whatever, does not necessarily make you an administrator, and I wonder whether we should, as a matter of policy, make our own decisions or allow them to push us around with respect—"

Senator Day: "Well, I agree with that except, Senator, that this will also allow a master's degree and, in addition, we do want the bill to be signed and, of course, we have had those bills that weren't signed before but we are hoping that this compromise will allow us to get clear through the process, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Yes. Would Senator Day yield for a question, please? Senator Day, I have heard from several doctors, both within my own county and district and also from other areas of the state, asking me to oppose this bill. I don't know whether I feel so strongly against the bill or not, but I would like to pose a question to you to clarify for the record here what this bill does."

"As I understand the bill, in Spokane County particularly and in King County, they have had problems obtaining MD's to be the health doctor. We had the same trouble in Kitsap County, but we finally got a lady who had just returned from overseas in some kind of foreign service duty to accept the position. Our health doctor had to stay on for an extra six months so we could find a doctor that would take the job. Does this bill mandate any county to have a doctor as the county health doctor, and my second question is, does it give the local board of county health, the county health board, the authority to hire either a business administrator with a master's or PhD degree or a doctor? They still can have a doctor if the local health board wants it. Am I correct in that assumption?"

Senator Day: "The first question, does it mandate that they be a doctor, no, that is exactly what the bill does. It stops the mandate that they be a doctor, and the second question, the local board of health is given the latitude of still keeping the identical requirement that we have before the bill passed, that the person must be a physician, an MD or DO. That is the present law, but this gives the local board of health, which is your county commissioners, usually, the opportunity to have some latitude. This would not mean that technical decisions are going to be made in the area that a physician should make the judgment unless a physician makes it because the local health officer should still, would still, have to go to a consultant which they could have for this type of decision.

"In Spokane County, for example, we have 152 employees today in the county-city health department, and what they are trying to do is effect some efficiency and some economy, Senator, exactly what we are trying to do here in the Senate."

Senator Beck: "I am going to support the bill."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the committee amendments to page 2, lines 16 and 20 were adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendments to page 2, lines 22 and 24, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2062 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2119; by Senators Odegaard, Donohue, Bailey, Wilson, Walgren, Guess, Scott, Rasmussen, Sandison and Goltz:

Establishing a procedure for review of administrative rules by an appropriate legislative committee.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2119, as amended on January 31, 1977. On that day, Senator Mardesich had moved adoption of an amendment to page 5, line 7. Senator Guess had moved adoption of an amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich. The bill as amended and the pending amendments were ordered held for consideration at a later time.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendment by Senator Mardesich and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Guess were withdrawn.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, after section 2, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and to chapter 34.04 RCW a new section to read as follows: (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended, the following procedures and requirements shall apply whenever a majority of the members of any review committee shall decide that a proposed rule is not within the intent of the legislature.

(b) Immediately upon receipt of such notice, timely given, the agency affected shall file a notice with the code reviser, mail notice to all persons who have made timely requests of the agency for advance notice of rule-making proceedings, and give public notice as provided by chapter 42.30 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, that any hearing previously scheduled pursuant to RCW 34.04.025 (1)(a) as now or hereafter amended is canceled. By the same notice, or by a subsequent notice, the agency may reschedule a hearing for a later time, but not less than thirty days from mailing of said notice, nor more than sixty days following receipt of the notice from the review committee. Such notice shall include the review committee's findings and the reasons therefor, in addition to the information required to be included by RCW 34.04.025 (1)(a) as now or hereafter amended.

(c) At any hearing held pursuant to this section, the agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule, including those addressing the question of whether the proposed rule is within the statutory grant of rule-making authority to the agency. If the agency adopts the proposed rule or an amended version thereof it shall not offer it for filing with the code reviser, nor shall the code reviser accept it for filing pursuant to RCW 34.04.040 until thirty days have elapsed from the date of formal adoption of the rule by the agency. The agency shall promptly notify the review committee of its adoption of the rule.

(2) The review committee may meet within thirty days of the agency's formal adoption of the rule to consider whether the adopted rule is within the statutory grant of rule-making authority by the legislature. If both the review committees of the senate and house shall determine within that time by majority votes of their members that the adopted rule is not within the intent of the statutory grant of rule-making authority to the agency, they shall notify the agency and the code reviser of this decision, and the rule shall be of no legal force or effect, and shall not be accepted by the code reviser for filing.

(3) If no action is taken within such period, the rule may be filed pursuant to RCW 34.04.040."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question, please? Senator Mardesich, in that same number 2 down there, the second sentence reads, 'if both the review committees of the Senate and the House shall determine within that time by majority vote' etc., does this imply that the two committees would necessarily meet together to do the review?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, I don't believe it does. There is that possible implication, but I don't think it is required."

Senator Lewis: "Then my question is, if the Senate review committee, for example, were to meet twenty-nine days, just barely within the time frame, and decided to reject, would the House review committee then have to act within the next twenty-four hours or would it have another thirty days in which to act? What would be the procedure there?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would take it if both committees did not reject by the thirtieth day the rule would go into effect."

Senator Lewis: "This could result in some scheduling problems then if the first committee to review did not review it early enough within that thirty day time frame, it could be some logistics problem for the second committee to act."

Senator Mardesich: "That is true but it is incumbent upon the committee that has an interest to act."

Senator Lewis: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, following line 13, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION: Sec. 8. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 8 of the title, after "adding" strike "a new section" and insert "new sections"

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2119 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Adding a public member to the cemetery board.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Day yield to a question, Mr. President? Senator Day, you propose and they dispose, but it says on the information sheet that they shall have no economic connection. How can any lay member of the board not have an interest in the economics of funeral services? They eventually are all going to die."

Senator Day: "That is an excellent point, but what they are talking about is that members of the board shall not have an economic connection with the disposition of human remains. In other words they are in no way connected with the cemetery business or the funeral business, and a lot of people could certainly fit that qualification, Senator"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we all have a very close connection to both businesses."

Senator Day: "We hope not too close, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

SENATE BILL NO. 2048, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2123, by Senators Talley, North and Sellar:

Providing for the filling of vacancies in fire commissioner positions.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Talley, Senate Bill No. 2123 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Talley yield? My concern, Senator Talley, and perhaps you can put my concern to rest, in the event that you have three fire commissioners, one of them seems to be a very good fellow, very competent, but completely out of tune with the other two, so the other two make life miserable for him enough so that he resigns. Would not this then permit the other two persons who may not totally represent all of the district to find a friendly person to be appointed?"

Senator Talley: "I could not deny that it could cause that, but we certainly hope it won't cause that. We want our rural fire districts to work smoothly, and I think if the commissioners elect a replacement, they should not have this condition, but it could happen in isolated cases, yes."

Senator Woody: "Senator Talley, every bill has a reason for it. Could you tell us what the necessity for this one is."

Senator Talley: "Yes. There have been appointments around the state by the county commissioners of people who had no interest whatsoever in the fire commissioners' problems or anything like that, and they were straight political appointments, and that is what we are trying to get away from."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2123, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—43.

Excused: Senators Francis, Goltz, Grant, Mardesich, McDermott, Scott—6.

SENATE BILL NO. 2123, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objections, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2158, by Senators Francis, Clarke, Woody and McDermott:

Requiring promises of health care cures to be in writing to be valid.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, Senate Bill No. 2158, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, with a bill on the books like this, how is the average person going to know that he has got to get this in writing?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, as a matter of fact, Senator, I think that there will be sufficient publicity so that that would be known. That is the whole purpose of the bill in reality. I point out that it would be in relatively rare cases, really, when a doctor would purport to guarantee the result of an operation, and like any other law, if a patient does want to rely upon this as a question as to whether he should or should not have the operation, then he should get it in writing."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Guess just touched on the point that is concerning me. It seems to me there should be some way. I don't know quite how to do it just looking, that is a short bill, but I just don't believe that the average patient is going to know. He is going to have the feeling what the doctor tells him, that that is going to be it. I think, before we pass this law, we should look into the possibilities of giving some sort of notice if we are going to take this legal right away. Can either one of you respond to that?"

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, in reply to that, again we are amending a portion of the statute of fraud. There is nothing where a customer would know, for example, that the agreement by its terms is not to be performed within one year from the making thereof. If I were to go up to a person and orally enter into a contract, the performance of which would last longer than one year, that person is not going to know that it comes within the statute of fraud and is not enforceable.

"Similarly, every special promise to answer for the debt, default or misdoings of another person, that is the guarantee situation where the cosigner on a note, or a guarantor on one, must be in writing. But there is nothing, in banks for example, a big notice on the wall saying, 'Look, if you are going to cosign for somebody else, if you are going to agree to cosign, that agreement must be in writing.' Banks always have it in writing because, of course, otherwise it would not be enforceable by the bank. That is the history of the statute of fraud. There is no way to have some message in the air requiring an agreement to be in writing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Woody yield to another question? Senator Woody, my daughter is currently having her teeth straightened, and she has been having her teeth straightened for about three years, and we took her in there to make her teeth straight. If, after we are all done, we didn't get anything in writing that her teeth would be straight, but after we are all done, they are still crooked and we have paid the bill, with this bill we have nothing, no cause of action for negligence for not straightening the teeth?"

Senator Woody: "No, that is not correct. You still can sue for negligence. This is just enforcement of a contract. If you sue under a contract theory, that contract must be in writing. If you are suing under the negligence theory, or lack of informed consent, you still have that lawsuit."

Senator Bottiger: "We are not taking away—we don't know what it is going to look like when all that tin comes off, but I take it then, if they don't come out straight, the implication that we did it in order to get them straight, we don't have to have anything in writing that they would be straight?"

Senator Woody: "Not if you sue on the negligence theory or lack of informed consent."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2158, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—41.

Voting nay: Senators Ridder, Van Hollebeke, Washington—3.

Excused: Senators Francis, Goltz, Grant, McDermott, Scott—5.

SENATE BILL NO. 2158, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 26, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2171, authorizing the utilities and transportation commission to adopt rules to clearly enumerate the types of vehicles which must stop at railroad crossings (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 4, after "device" and before "gives" insert "as designated by the utilities and transportation commission pursuant to RCW 81.53.060"

On motion of Senator Beck, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2171 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Beck yield? The critical language here, of course, is 'any vehicle specified by rule or regulation of the utilities and transportation commission.' Why are we delegating this power to them? Why don't we specify ourselves?"

Senator Beck: "Well, the current statute says that the utilities and transportation commission shall have that authority. That is what the current statute reads. However, in the rules committee, Senator Mardesich, I believe it was, brought it up about we need some more repealers there. I have investigated and here is what we found in researching this:

"The state patrol, the department of highways, utilities and transportation, there appears to be no need for repealers. As of now RCW 46.61.350 as it now exists, provides that certain classes of vehicles must stop at railroad grade crossings. Subsection two provides that these requirements do not apply for specific instances, one of which is where an official traffic control device gives notice that the stopping requirement imposed by this section does not apply. The presently — this means that the mayor of any small town could go out and could attach an exempt sign to a railroad crossbuck and control traffic, which would have to stop at the crossing.

"The committee testimony indicated there are about two hundred different highway authorities who could put up these signs. What this does, it consolidates it into the utilities and transportation commission which is where it should be."

Senator Woody: "Senator Beck, what you are replying to is answered as to the second Senate committee amendment on page 2, so that it is the exclusive ability of the transportation and utilities commission to affect the traffic control devices, but what I am concerned about is on page 1, giving the commission the authority to designate any vehicle they want to have to stop at these railroad crossings. My concern is, are they going to next say that any truck carrying pea fodder, or weeds, or tractors, whatever. How am I going to know? I don't read those rules and regs every day as I drive down the road."

Senator Beck: "Senator Woody, I think this applies only to vehicles which carry passengers, and vehicles which carry passengers for hire."

Senator Woody: "Well, it doesn't say that, Senator Beck, and that was my original concern. It says, 'or any vehicle specified by rule or, of rule of the utilities and transportation commission', and that is my concern."

Senator Beck: "Well, Senator, you lawyers read an awful lot of things in bills that I don't. I don't read it that way. I think this is a good bill. The utilities commission is the one who establishes these warning signals at railroad crossings, and I think they are far more capable of establishing which crossings and which vehicles should stop than a lay person like myself or you, here, on the floor of the Senate. If you would like an amendment to that bill, we would gladly put it over or get it back on second reading. You can amend it."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2171 was ordered placed on the third reading calendar for February 9, 1977.

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President, Senator Washington, I have the same question that I raised in committee relative to line 11 and the word 'entitled'. The way I read that first section, it could mean that if a family with a young person who was entitled to enter the United States under the provisions of the treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and foreign states, if that person were allowed to enter and were entitled to enter, I raised the question that if the family is here, and the family is here for six months, and the young person decides to attend Eastern Washington State College because he was entitled under this act to come in, the way I read it he could attend four years at Eastern Washington or any college of his choice in the state tuition fee free.

"I raised that question, as you remember, in committee, and I don't think that is what you really intend, maybe some good attorney here could take a look at that. It looks to me like that is what we are really doing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, let's start out, if I may, by asking you to point out where in the bill it says that they are going to have to wait a year to be entitled to residence tuition? Perhaps you are relying on the language of saying resident the same as a resident of the state of Washington."

Senator Washington: "There is a provision — Senator Francis, I was of the impression of, and if it isn't here it should be, in the bill, a statutory reference, which provides that they must be a resident. As a matter of fact, the substitute bill and the amendment that was proposed in the committee did carry a specific provision, a specific statutory reference which actually means that they must reside here for one year. In quickly looking at it, I don't notice it."

Senator Francis: "Well, Mr. President, Senator Washington, members of the Senate, my concern is that one year provision. I think I could support the bill if they were subject to the same problem that other Americans have, and that is that once they move to the state of Washington, they still have to wait for a year before they pay the same tuition, and you may know that I went through that all the way to the United States Supreme Court with people who were admitted as part of the evidence in the case, admitted to be bona fide residents of this state, intending to live here, and so forth, but because they hadn't completed that first full year, they continued to have to pay three times as much as other residents. I would think that it would be very wrong to allow one special group to avoid that one year residency thing. I would like to abolish it across the board, but if we can't do that, let's make everybody adhere to it, and as such, I think that this bill ought to be tuned up before we move on it."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2164, by Senators Donohue, Sandison and Gaspard (by Department of Natural Resources request):

Governing disposition of crops from state owned share crop lands and modifying livestock trespass.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "If Senator Gaspard would yield for a moment, I have a question. Perhaps Senator Donohue could respond to this. Senator Donohue, I note on line 9 of the bill that this measure pertains to grain or peas. Why wouldn't it more logically read 'crops' rather than 'grain or peas'?"

Senator Donohue: "I can't definitely answer that question. I can tell you why it is necessary to change this. I would assume that the reason that it pertains to those two crop areas is that these crops on DNR land are the ones predominately grown in Eastern Washington, and they are the kind of crops that there needs to be some latitude past the so-called sixty days to allow the department of natural resources to, in essence, be sure that they are getting the most for their money. In other words, at the end of sixty days the price of wheat might go up five cents. Two days later—"

Senator Mardesich: "I have no problem with that, but I just wonder why it should not be extended to other crops which might be grown on the land by striking the words 'grain or peas' and inserting the word 'crops' in lieu thereof."

Senator Donohue: "Well, that would give them more latitude and I am sure that there would be no problem there. I would go for that."

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On line 9, strike "grain or peas" and insert "~~(grain or peas)~~ crops"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Senator Mardesich, what I would like to know is whether that broader definition would include trees."

Senator Mardesich: "It would include the crop produced from a tree, as an apple is a crop, I assume. Timber, I assume, would be a crop, cherries, whether or not it rains when they are ripe."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2164 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Gaspard would yield? Senator Gaspard, are we contributing, then, to inflation when we say 'hold the crops until the price goes up on it?'"

Senator Gaspard: "I asked that question in committee, and I was assured by all my committee members and the department of natural resources that we are talking about a small percentage. It has no impact on the market."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2164, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen,

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, I do not have the language of the amendment before me, but as I heard it, it struck me that this would allow a member of one professional group to bring charges against members of other professional groups and have the same kind of immunity. It seems to me that you have to be very careful that you are restricting the complaint between members of the same group. Would your amendment do that?"

Senator McDermott: "Well, it is a possibility, however there is nothing in the law presently which prohibits any citizen from bringing a charge before a disciplinary board. Any citizen, whether he is a member of a profession or not, can go in. This just clarifies it. If he is a member of another profession, he could still go in. There would be nothing prohibiting him on the basis of profession."

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator McDermott was adopted.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, expeditiously."

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 108, by Senators Morrison, Walgren, Donohue, Matson, Washington, Benitz and Wilson:

Establishing the weather emergency task force.

Referred to Committee on Energy and Utilities.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 108 was referred to the Committee on Energy and Utilities.

On motion of Senator Morrison, Senators Benitz and Washington were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 108.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield to a question, please? Senator Bottiger, this particular concurrent resolution deals with the establishment of a weather emergency task force in recognition of the problems that certainly are facing all the citizens of this state, particularly those of us in the areas of irrigated agriculture. Senator Walgren has just referred this particular measure to your committee. Some of us had hoped that we could consider it immediately. I would ask if, as chairman of the energy committee, there is a chance and opportunity for a very early hearing on this measure."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Morrison, you asked me about that before you asked the question. I called the staff, and we have moved the Thursday meeting next week. We have canceled what was scheduled and have scheduled this in its place."

Senator Morrison: "Thank you, Senator."

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2561, by Senators Donohue, Gaspard, Herr, Ridder, von Reichbauer, Bailey, Matson, Newschwander, Washington, Sandison, Clarke, Buffington, Hayner, Jones, Bluechel, Benitz, Odegaard, McDermott, Woody, Wojahn, Bausch, Goltz, Rasmussen, Wilson, Van Hollebeke, Guess, Gould, Morrison, Murray, Lewis, Sellar and Wanamaker:

AN ACT Relating to weather modification and control; creating new sections and providing for the expiration thereof; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2561 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2561 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I think I understood you right, but I want it in the record. This is not authorizing rainmaking, only at this time. This is a temporary deal that does not go into the future. It does not say from now on they can make rain or employ rainmakers."

Senator Donohue: "That is absolutely correct, Senator."

Senator Talley: "Fine."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, section 2 says 'notwithstanding any other provision of law, the act shall supersede' and then it goes to some RCW citations, one being 43.37.190. That RCW says, 'nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impose or accept any liability or responsibility on the part of the state, the department or any state official.' By superseding that particular section, is it your view that it would open the state to accept liability for any action that occurs, or anything that occurs, or responsibility for anything that occurs?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I have got two attorneys here that are getting ready to advise me. It was our intent in drafting the bill, and I had talked to Senator Woody and our attorney on the ways and means staff, that we do check this out, and we did not want to be liable during this period of time and so I would have to — Senator Woody, could you respond?"

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, the only statute under which anyone can sue the state of Washington is under the state tort claims act, which is in 4.92.090. There are some other statutes that were in existence even before the passage of the state tort claims act which, on the surface, indicated that it imposed some liability on the state. The courts have interpreted however, those statutes as not to waive the immunity of the state. Remember the old saying, 'The king can do no wrong.' I think it was in 1947 in England that they waived that immunity, and the only time we have waived the immunity is in the state tort claims act. I have not looked at the statute that you are talking about until wandering by your desk a minute ago, but it is one of those statutes that existed prior to the tort claims act, and yet there was no ability to sue the state before the tort claims act was passed."

Senator Grant: "Senator Woody, would you look at section 3 of this proposal? I think that that citation is effectively the tort claims act that you spoke to, 4.92.090. I would like to know whether you were aware that that was also apparently being superseded when you made your comments."

Senator Woody: "The section 3, if you will notice on line 27, has the word 'and' in there. The controlling language is the first part that says, 'notwithstanding any other provisions of the law to the contrary, and neither the state nor its agents will be liable for any injuries resulting out of the operation of this program,' and then it continues with, which I would view as unnecessary language, 'and this act shall supersede all existing statutes,' which means 4.92.090, the state tort claims act. It does supersede it in the sense that the state tort claims act would permit actions against the state for negligent damage either to property or to life, and the first language in section 3 definitely states that there is no right of action against the state, notwithstanding the state tort claims act. Section 3 is, in my view, very properly drafted. I am not sure why section 2 is there."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2561 was ordered held on today's calendar following consideration of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 2 and Gubernatorial Appointments No. 8 and No. 45.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 2.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 2, by Representatives Martinis, Moreau, Greengo, Gaines and Smith:

Petitioning for the formation of a tri-state legislative fisheries committee for Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, an amendment to page 1, line 17 on the Secretary's desk was withdrawn.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Peterson, is it clear that passage of Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution 2 gives to the joint committee therein created or to the individual members thereof no authority to enter into discussion of or pertaining or policy determinations or suggestions relating to the Washington state offshore or Puget Sound fisheries, that this Resolution pertains only to the Columbia river fisheries and further, that this Resolution in no sense leaves any implication that the state of Washington has entered into any tri-state compact or it has delegated, or that it has delegated to the joint committee or the individual members thereof, any authority to make any decisions with respect to such compact or any policy determinations with respect to the fisheries of the Columbia river and its tributaries except in an advisory capacity to this body?"

Senator Peterson: "That is true, Senator Mardesich. The language, perhaps, is a little bit broader than the intent of the measure. The intent simply is to allow the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to participate in an attempt to form some management of the Columbia river fishery. It has no broad intent to go into offshore or Puget Sound waters, and that was the intent. The language, perhaps, as drawn might be a little bit broader, but that is certainly not the intent of the measure."

Senator Mardesich: "I would only ask you to clarify. You said it has no broad intent. I would rather that you said it has no intent to go into the offshore—"

Senator Peterson: "It does have no intent to go beyond the boundaries of the Columbia river fishery, and the Oregon tributaries or the Idaho tributaries to the Columbia fishery."

On motion of Senator Peterson, Engrossed House Concurrent Resolution No. 2 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

APPOINTMENT OF RAY AARDAL

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—44.

Excused: Senators Cunningham, Day, Fleming, Francis, North—5.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2561, by Senators Donohue, Gaspard, Herr, Ridder, von Reichbauer, Bailey, Matson, Newschwander, Washington, Sandison, Clarke, Buffington, Hayner, Jones, Bluechel, Benitz, Odegaard, McDermott, Woody, Wojahn, Bausch, Goltz, Rasmussen, Wilson, Van Hollebeke, Guess, Gould, Morrison, Murray, Lewis, Sellar and Wanamaker:

Providing for emergency cloud seeding.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2561 from earlier today.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senate Bill No. 2561 was returned to second reading.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 23, after "RCW" insert a period and strike the balance of the sentence.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2561 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Odegaard, Senator McDermott was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Walgren yield to a question? I probably should ask Senator Bottiger, but I will refer the question to you and then let Senator Bottiger fix it up if he has an idea. In your opinion, now, the way that the bill is amended would the state be free to go ahead in the course of action that is suggested in the bill, in spite of the Boldt decision saying that the Indians would have some rights to the water and so forth?"

Senator Walgren: "In my humble opinion—"

Senator Rasmussen: "Just a moment. It isn't directly related to fish. What my concern is that is the bill so drafted that we may proceed without a federal injunction being issued?"

Senator Walgren: "I certainly hope that this doesn't come back to haunt me, Senator Rasmussen, but in my opinion, yes, it leaves the state free to proceed."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, in the event that there is any question in the future about the interpretation of the non-liability provisions of this act, is it your intent as the prime sponsor that the sole and exclusive interpretation would be that no one could sue for damages or injury arising out of either the state's direct action or through their agents or employees in the progress of this purpose in this act?"

Senator Donohue: "The answer is yes, Senator."

Senator Woody: "And is it also your intent that on page 1, line 16, where the reference is to contracts, that this not make either the pilots or the operators of the airplane or of the program independent contractors, but rather that they are agents of the state of Washington?"

Senator Donohue: "The answer is also yes, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, I am one hundred percent in favor of this bill and hope that it will do some good and certainly we have to try."

Senator Woody: "I agree with that."

Senator Rasmussen: "But the tenor of your questions bothered me. Let's assume that if the professor is successful in his cloud seeding operation, and let's assume that we have a tremendous precip and that there is millions of dollars damage caused to these home owners that would be in the path of this. Are you saying by your questions that these people will not have suit against the state?"

Senator Woody: "That is correct, and let me further add to that, that if this were to occur, those people would be able to file what is known as a private bill with the auditor which would then be taken up by the ways and means committee for special relief."

Senator Rasmussen: "Do we have that kind of special relief available in the general fund?"

Senator Woody: "Yes. It is brought up every biennium."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, let's ask another question. In the event that he was able to produce quantities of rain, and he washes what little snow there is off of the mountains, and the ski operators who have already been hard hit, would they then have to file a private bill?"

Senator Woody: "If they are claiming against the state of Washington or any of its agents for activity under Senate Bill 2561, that is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Mr. President, I would think that we ought to get some means of catastrophe insurance to go along with this bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Washington a question if he would yield. Senator Washington, you believe in prayer, I know, as we all do. And you can recall that last year at this time we were praying that the good Lord would stop the rain. He did stop that. Do you think this is flying in the face of our prayers that this year we are telling him we are too dry? Maybe we should start praying for rain again rather than this method."

Senator Washington: "I think we have to change our tactics from time to time."

Senator Rasmussen: It would indicate, Mr. President, when our prayers are not answered in a timely fashion that we may all be sinners."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "I can't let that go by. Senator Rasmussen, we have a problem here. We prayed that the rain would stop, and He did stop it, and now our problem is old adage that God only helps those that help themselves, and He sent the clouds and said, 'Take care of it yourself.'"

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2561, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—43.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 17, by Representative King:
Calling three joint sessions of the legislature.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, House Concurrent Resolution No. 17 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Walgren, House Concurrent Resolution No. 17 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved the appointment of Vernon L. Barnes as the Director of General Administration be confirmed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, during the course of the interrogation of Mr. Barnes, was any inquiry made with respect to the term of service he had had with the federal GSA and his current retirement position with respect to the federal government?"

Senator Rasmussen: "All he indicated on his information sheet was that he had worked with the federal government for approximately twenty-five years and was going to be retired from the federal government."

Senator Mardesich: "And he had worked in general administration."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the appointment of Vernon L. Barnes as Director of General Administration was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF VERNON L. BARNES

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Morrison, Murray, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—41.

Voting nay: Senators Cunningham, Jones, Newschwander—3.

Excused: Senators Buffington, Fleming, Grant, McDermott, Scott—5.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2024, by Senators Guess, Beck and Henry:

Establishing equipment rental funds in counties.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2024. On February 9, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 11, after "rental" and before "fund" insert "and revolving"

On page 2, line 9, after "rental" and before "fund" insert "and revolving"

On page 2, line 15, after "rental" and before "fund" insert "and revolving"

On page 2, line 19, after "rental" and before "fund" insert "and revolving"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "If Senator Wilson would yield before the measure is advanced. Senator Wilson, the question was raised with respect to this measure as to whether or not the new funds would be under the bidding requirements which the present funds now are subject to. Was that question investigated and what is the answer?"

Senator Wilson: "The answer was the four amendments that we just adopted which clearly place this fund under the same bidding requirements, namely 36.82-.130, that applied to the two funds that we are eliminating."

Senator Mardesich: "These points of the language would accomplish that?"

Senator Wilson: "Well, 36.82.130 which is not at issue in this bill, contains the bidding requirements which pertain to county equipment rental and revolving funds. We have just changed the name of the new fund we are creating to county equipment rental and revolving fund, and therefore there will be a clear application."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wilson, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2024 was advanced to third reading, the second reading the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator, in section 2, where it also authorizes the legislative body of any county to use these funds for any other office or other governmental agencies for similar purposes, what other governmental agencies are you speaking to?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, the situation would be, I would presume, that only in the instance where the cities might want in an emergency situation to rent some of the county equipment, it could be rented to the city for the emergency period and be charged to the agency using it. It might also be a mosquito district or some other district like that that would have to have equipment on a temporary basis formed as a junior taxing district would be able to use their equipment."

Senator Donohue: "It also could mean, couldn't it, that it could be a state agency of some kind?"

Senator Guess: "A state agency in some instances—"

Senator Donohue: "I was just asking why it was there. This is new language."

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir. It is for the better cooperation between all branches of government in case the necessity arose."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Guess yield? Senator Guess, Senator Donohue raised a very interesting point here, and I think it might have more value than I originally thought. Under that same section, page 2, beginning line 13, would it be possible for a county, a sheriff's office, to rent on an hourly or a weekly or a daily basis some of its equipment, including the patrol cars, to a small city which does not have funds to maintain and own new and up-to-date vehicles as their own cost."

Senator Guess: "Senator, I believe that is already available to the various agencies in the intergovernmental cooperation act, but it had not occurred to us under this situation, and that might be possible."

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Senator Guess. I think that makes the bill even better than it was before because there are a lot of small cities that we have throughout the state. I have one, little Brier, which as you know, has a new police chief about once every six months because they can't afford to either hire their law enforcement people or to keep cars on the road. Some of their old cars were so old and delapidated that they could not catch a speeder."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2024, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—44.

Voting nay: Senators Donohue, Matson—2.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Grant, Scott—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2024, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2175, by Senator Rasmussen:

Allowing beer and wine to be served in containers other than glasses or bottles.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2175. On February 10, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted. The following amendment by Senators Bluechel, Buffington, Morrison, Jones, Ridder, Gould, North, Hayner, Scott, Goltz and Guess had been moved for adoption on that day:

On page 4, line 36, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 66.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No retail liquor licensee shall provide or sell any alcoholic beverage in the spectator seating areas at sports arenas during recognized athletic events. This practice is also known as "hawking."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

At that time, a point of order was raised by Senator Walgren on the scope and object of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I believe there was a motion pending on scope and object on an amendment offered to this bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Rasmussen. Are there further remarks on the point of order presented by Senator Walgren? In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Walgren, the President finds that Senate Bill 2175's sole purpose is to simply permit the serving of beer and wine in certain types of containers. Senator Bluechel's amendment presents a new proposition that would prevent the sale of any alcoholic beverages in spectator areas at sports arenas during recognized athletic events, therefore the amendment is beyond the scope and object of Senate Bill 2175 and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

Senator Rasmussen moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2175 be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, before the bill is advanced, would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, section one provides for class A licenses, and one of the provisos beginning on line 27 is the proviso that unpasteurized beer so sold must be in an original sealed package, but not less than seven and three quarters gallons and then it provides that these licenses for such sales shall be issued to hotels, restaurants, drug stores soda fountains, dining places on boats and airplanes, to clubs and in sports arenas or race tracks. Is that some old hold-over in the law, or what is that all about? Is it something that we should take out as no longer needed or what is the situation?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Senator Mardesich, that is old law, Leroy Hittle, a member of the liquor board, said that the only unpasteurized beer now sold in the state is in kegs or on tap. Then some reference must remain in the bill to merit sale of beer by these methods, so that is old law and should remain in the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Have we amended this now so that small containers of unpasteurized beer can be sold to the public in this state? If we have not, then that would preclude Coors beer from being sold in the state of Washington, and I think we need an amendment to take care of that. That is the only beer that is fit to drink as far as I am concerned."

(No reply.)

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen Senate Bill No. 2175, as amended, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for February 15, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2156, by Senators Day, Woody, McDermott, Sellar and Francis:

Permitting certain corporations of health care professionals to act as self-insurers against liability.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 11, after "code." strike the material down through and including "two" on line 13 and insert "Two" after "or" on line 13

On page 1, line 18, after "code." insert "An association or other entity composed of two or more health care professionals licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.57, 18.71, or 18.88 RCW which join an organize as a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims brought under chapter 56, Laws of 1976, through a contributing trust fund shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Day yield? Senator Day, I haven't offered an amendment, but on line 12 it says that association which is formed by the professionals may be composed of two or more health care professionals, and I am wondering whether any consideration was given to raising that figure from two to something higher as a means of insuring financial responsibility on the part of the self-insurers. Two people might be a relatively weak—"

Senator Day: "Yes, Senator, there was consideration, and the answer to the question is that there is no law that says they have to have any type of insurance. So in reality, if two or more go together, they are certainly going to be more financially responsible than one who has no health care coverage. Of course, his own assets would then be subject to a suit, and this way there would be at least two that would be subject to suit. We accepted that as meaning that if they were going to join together for this purpose that they more than likely would be trying to provide adequate cushion to their own assets, and in so doing would make the thing responsible."

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2156 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2156, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn, Woody—45.

Voting nay: Senator Clarke—1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Grant, Scott—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2156, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senators Gould, North, Hayner and Buffington were excused.

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senators Ridder and Wojahn were excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2129, by Senators Walgren, Clarke, Rasmussen and Wilson:

Requiring a statement of purpose and other information to accompany agency rules.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2129 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2129 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2129 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: Thank you, Mr. President, would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, does this bill also require that the individual writing the rule sign it so you can go back to find out who it was that dreamed this turkey up?"

Senator Clarke: "I don't believe that it specifically requires the person who originally proposed except insofar as it does require a list of the proponents. Of course, the agency itself and the administrative head of that agency, presumptively, would have the ultimate responsibility of drafting or determining what would be in the final draft of a proposed change of rule that would be before his agency."

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Senator Clarke."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Cunningham, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2129 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for February 15, 1977.

MOTION

At 12:02 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, February 15, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2019, by Senator Rasmussen:
Changing the requirements for legal publications.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wilson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2019 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2019 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Peterson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 16, strike "best and".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Peterson failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Walgren moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 14, strike all of subsection (3). Renumber the following subsection.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Walgren yield? Senator, wouldn't it possibly be a better thing to amend this to say that the statement is complete and accurate as to the contents of the submission?"

Senator Walgren: "You mean simply strike the legal advisor doing that?"

Senator Day: "Yes."

Senator Walgren: "I think that is correct."

Senator Day: "Rather than striking the whole—"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Walgren yield to another question? Senator Walgren, in support of your motion, I am not sure that I am making a speech or asking a question, but my reaction would be if I were to be required to certify this, what I would do is not print a summary. I would print the whole thing. It would be the only safe way to handle it."

Senator Walgren: "That is right."

The motion by Senator Walgren carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Murray was excused.

On motion of Senator Wilson, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2019 was advanced to third reading, the second reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Will Senator Wilson yield? Senator Wilson, I can appreciate your concern, and I think that probably the thrust is directed towards those counties that maybe only have one circulating newspaper. I happen to have eight in mine, in Skagit County, a portion of my district, and they are all newspapers of general circulation. Now, is there anything in this bill that would prevent the local governing body, the county commissioners, from awarding—supposing that all eight newspapers bid on the contract. Is there anything in here that would keep the county commissioners from awarding the contract to the highest bidder?"

Senator Wilson: "No, there is not."

Senator Peterson: "For that reason, Senator Wilson, I am going to have to oppose this bill."

Senator Wilson: "If I might comment further, the commissioners by law are called upon to consider various factors, among them, the amount of the bid, circulation of the paper and so on, but there is no specific phrase in here that would prevent that from happening."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2019, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Cunningham, Day, Francis, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Matson, Morrison, Peterson, Pullen, Scott, Van Hollebeke—12.

Absent or not voting: Senators Buffington, Wilson—2.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Murray—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2019, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On page 1, line 24, after the period add "Any such change, relocation or reestablishment of such harbor lines shall be submitted to the Washington State Senate for ratification or rejection."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, your amendment is offered on the basis that all of the lands under the waters and rivers and the bay belong to the state and to the people of the state."

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Contrary to just purely a local zoning on a dry land area?"

Senator Mardesich: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think that your amendment has merit, and certainly the people of the whole state are interested in what they do with the harbor line because I understand there is some radical changes proposed and not directly related to marine use."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, we will also add that most of these harbor lines were established before the state became a state. They were established in territorial days. A lot of the older towns, especially on the Sound, have built out over these harbor lines, and the same way on the Columbia river. A lot of our docks and things like that are out over the harbor lines now, and they have to be straightened out and changed."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, if you could possibly share with us your rationale for just including the Washington State Senate for ratification or rejection, and not the Washington State Legislature as a whole, and if there is precedent that has been set where the Senate deals to this type of a situation other than a confirmation of the Governor's appointees."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I did have in mind the confirmation procedure. I certainly would have no objection to a change in the amendment at the top of the page rather than 'Washington State Senate', it could be changed to 'Washington State Legislature', and that would include both Houses and probably properly so."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted:

On line 4 of the amendment to line 24, strike "Senate" and insert "Legislature".

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted:

After "rejection" in the Gaspard Amendment to the Mardesich Amendment to line 24, add "at the next convened regular or extraordinary session".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, under the current law, the Legislature does have to give that permission. What would be the advantage of passing the new law with your amendment on it?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, the bill is on the floor, either pass it or reject it, and this makes it good and clear that we are restating the law without requiring further that we come in and amend the law at any time a harbor line wants to be changed. The law as it now stands requires that we change the law at any time, and all we do if my amendments were to be adopted, then the harbor line change would be suggested to us, we would study it and the matter would come before us for rejection or acceptance, much the same procedure but does not require an amendment to the law at every time."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, are you getting advice from another attorney, or what?"

Senator Mardesich: "I was listening with both ears, Senator."

Senator Herr: "It is my interpretation—I was listening to Senator Guess—but being one of the non-attorneys, I think you have certainly brought up a good point. Now, have you researched this?"

Senator Mardesich: "Obviously so, or I wouldn't have drafted the amendment."
 Senator Herr: "Well, thank you very much."

 ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 100,
 HOUSE BILL NO. 167, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2190, by Senators Rasmussen, Henry and Benitz:

Updating certain laws pertaining to veterans and veterans' affairs.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 2, after "shall be available" insert "to the extent such space is available as of January 1, 1977,"

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich:

Amend the Mardesich amendment to page 3, line 2, as follows:

On line 3 of the amendment, after "available" strike "as of January 1, 1977"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, if we simply add 'to the extent such space is available' as your amendment to Senate Bill 2190, what would be the effect of such a provision, and what is your intended effect?"

Senator Mardesich: "The intended effect is to allow the state to give those free burials in such plots as are available at the time and the state not be required to make additional purchases of land under the mandatory language in the paragraph. What this would do, then, and the intent of the bill and amendment is to restrict the burials to that space which is currently available, and that there be no requirement that the state purchase additional land to allow such burials."

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, in view of that, I would think that just the language 'to the extent such space is available' period, would be sufficient to accomplish that purpose."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was adopted.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2190 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

GOVERNOR'S ENERGY ADDRESS

Governor Ray: "Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, honored members of the Judiciary, Senators, Representatives and my fellow citizens: The fact that a serious energy problem exists both in our nation, our state and on local levels is now obvious to everyone. The situation is far from simple. With eighty percent of our electricity hydrogenerated, our problems have been compounded by an unusually dry fall and winter. Given the extraordinary situation, we must take extraordinary measures. It is the policy of this administration to take every reasonable governmental action to insure that an adequate supply of energy is available at reasonable costs.

"The programs required to implement this policy are both short-term and long-term. Short-term programs include conservation and curtailment. Long-term programs also involve conservation, but additionally they involve improved uses of our present energy and development of new sources.

"Please note at this point the distinction I make between conservation and curtailment. Good conservation means living just as comfortably but using less energy because of higher efficiency. Insulation of homes and buildings is a prime example of a good conservation measure.

"Curtailment, on the other hand, involves some hardships or sacrifice on the part of certain sectors of our population to reduce the amount of energy used and, therefore, make our available energy supply go farther while still maintaining overall public health and safety.

"In general, conservation is preferable to curtailment, since the advantages gained by conservation are relatively long term, can create jobs, slow the growth of dependence on uncertain or unpredictable energy sources (such as weather and oil exporting countries), slow the rate of increase in energy prices, lower personal energy costs, and free up energy to be used by interruptible industrial customers.

"Curtailment is only a short term solution. Too often it results in the loss of jobs—as for example, right now in the aluminum industry—while not permanently freeing up more energy for industry, much less for economic growth. But in special circumstances, like the ones we face today, curtailment is necessary.

"With reference to the situation here in the Pacific Northwest, Secretary of the Interior Cecil D. Andrus has stressed: 'This is not another energy shortage. It is definitely a water shortage. By saving hydroelectric power, we can save water, which is vitally needed for irrigation of cropland, for orchards and vineyards which produce a significant portion of this nation's fruit, for municipal and industrial use in many cities, and for the stream flow necessary to perpetuate the anadromous fishery resource.'

"Recognizing then the precise nature and extent of our problem, what sort of executive action has been taken? As of last Friday, we issued a statement calling upon the utilities to intensify their conservation programs and to institute programs to inform their customers better of conservation measures that can be taken by all individuals, by organizations, by business, and by industry. I also asked the utilities to monitor these programs, setting specific goals, to keep a current file of progress, and to report to me. We also made a general appeal for all citizens of the state to engage in conscious, deliberate, individual efforts to conserve energy and water.

"Second, we have appointed an ad hoc executive committee on water emergency. This represents a number of departments of the executive branch, including Agriculture, Fisheries, Ecology, General Administration, and Department of Social and Health Services. We will also ask for participation from Natural Resources. The committee will meet for the first time tomorrow; it has been directed to develop an overall state program for water management and water resource development to keep an accounting of the current status of water supplies. The committee will provide for liaison with various federal entities and will provide for private citizen input.

In addition, the committee's activities will be coordinated with programs in the neighboring states of Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

"Yesterday, February 15th, I was invited by Secretary of the Interior Andrus to attend a special regional governors' meeting in Denver this coming Sunday. Governors from the west, the southwest, and the midwest have been invited to discuss various federal remedies for the current drought situation. I hope to seek all possible avenues of relief available from the federal government.

"In addition, I look forward to the cooperative program of working with my fellow governors in our region. Yesterday I issued an executive order binding on all state employees. It laid out requirements based on recommendations from the Director of the Department of General Administration which will substantially reduce energy consumption in the State Capitol buildings. This is just a first step. I have also requested that similar studies be done on all of our public state institutions of higher learning, at all office buildings owned and leased by the state government, and all government buildings throughout the State of Washington so that similar conservation measures may be proposed and put into effect in them.

"For the Capitol campus alone, the savings indicated by the procedures already set in motion will amount to about five thousand dollars a month. This represents a 5.54% savings in lighting and use of electricity, and it involves a 256,955 kilowatt-hour reduction and a 6% reduction in heating, including utilization of the mechanical and ventilating equipment.

"I expect that similar savings in both heating and electrical use can be made across the state. An example of action taken by other departments in the executive branch is that of the Department of Fisheries, which continues to study the possibility of reducing fishway flows on the Columbia and Snake Rivers. This will be undertaken in joint action with similar departments in the states of Idaho and Oregon. It will also be coordinated with federal programs. We will continue to monitor programs of fisheries activities in all of these areas so as to minimize any possible effect upon the fisheries resource, while maximizing the savings of water.

"Moreover, the Department of Social and Health Services has already initiated a study examining the communities, cities, towns and localities around the state which either suffer from some imminent shortage in their potable water supplies or face shortages in the coming spring and summer.

"Additionally, we are examining the situation with respect to lighting of our interstate highways, and may ask for reductions back to the 1973 levels. I am asking the Washington State Patrol to enforce vigorously the 55 mile per hour speed limit. We are reexamining the situation concerning use of state automobiles and the motor pool and are urging carpooling under all possible circumstances. We may reinstitute the shuttle bus program which operated for a short time during the 1973 electricity emergency.

"I have asked the Adjutant General of the Washington State National Guard to survey the availability of water tank trucks that could become available to move water supplies in the case of a crisis in drought-stricken areas. He will report to me on the cost involved, the availability of such equipment, and the nature of support the Guard may be able to provide. This is one aspect of the water shortage that so far has not received much public attention. Ground water sources in some areas are receding, shallow wells are drying up, streams are at very low levels of flow, and the water resources for many cities and towns are now imperiled. We must work with cities that face water shortages.

"A report from the Department of Social and Health Services indicates that Bremerton, Sequim, Camas, Goldendale, and Long Beach are among cities facing critical water shortages for domestic, as well as commercial, use in the approaching months. Other cities will face similar problems soon if the drought is not broken. All of these activities will be coordinated by our Department of Emergency Services.

"At the same time we will continue to appeal to all citizens throughout the state to intensify their efforts in voluntary curtailment and reduction in the use of electrical energy. I must refer once again to the fact that 80% of our electrical energy comes from water sources and, therefore, all savings of electricity will have a ripple effect in saving water. It is the drought that is the basis of our current problem.

"In addition to the actions taken by the executive branch, we recognize full well our responsibility in working with the legislative branch and the many actions that are called for, both to encourage voluntary conservation measures at present and to have the authority available for possible mandatory measures later. We have requested a number of pieces of legislation. I am asking emergency powers in order to solve some of the problems that may intensify if the drought continues. We must work together and we must be able to act quickly. Included in the emergency power bill is a request to reexamine the Energy Technical Advisory Council and perhaps make it statutory so it can be available to provide technical advice and oversights on all energy measures.

"I have also requested legislation to upgrade the state's Energy Office, which has been seriously hampered by statutory and budgetary insufficiencies resulting from selective vetoes in the past. The Energy Facility Siting Evaluation Council also needs upgrading legislation. This vital body needs to have the additional statutory clarification regarding its procedures and funding methods, and these are in the legislation I have requested.

"Legislation which may become useful or necessary—not requested at the moment, but something for us both to be thinking about—will refer to areas of the state hardest hit by the drought. The most critical area is the Yakima Valley. The situation indicates that the growers, the orchards, the farmers in that area may receive no more than about six percent of their annual amount of water. This would be catastrophic, and, in fact, would result in the death of many of the trees in that important orchard area.

"The one bright spot in an otherwise rather widely dismal picture with respect to water is the Columbia River. Because of the very wet summer of 1976 and a good snowpack farther north in the Canadian Cascades, the flow of the Columbia is nearly normal at present and therefore is providing us with a reservoir from which we may be able to draw in this emergency situation.

"Most of you are well informed about various irrigation and engineering projects developed in the past and studies of the feasibility of moving water out of the Columbia and into other regions. Now we should take a critical look at some of these plans. Consider, for example, the plan proposed for the Roza irrigation district, which services a large part of the Yakima Valley. It could be put into effect quickly. Water could be moved perhaps by making use of existing pumps at the Hanford Reservation—pumps at the reactor site not now being used. We could make use of surplus pipe from the Alyeska project, which could be acquired quickly. We could lay the pipe then from the Columbia across Union Gap, and then into the Yakima area. It might be done quickly and by June. It would remove only about one percent of the Columbia River flow, and it would get water into the Yakima Valley.

"If this were to be done it would make a tremendous difference to the growers of that region and perhaps save an enormous part of our fruit industry. If water does not come, the apple, the soft fruit trees will die, and it would take seven to ten years to put those orchards back into production. The cost will be high if that project and several others proposed were to be undertaken as emergency measures to relieve the drought. The total cost could go as high as $50 million, but it would be insignificant compared to the enormous economic impact that could result from the loss of those food crops. The farmers in the region are willing to help pay a fair share of the cost through higher irrigation assessments, but they need our help. They will need long term loans and perhaps even some grants.

"I know the Legislature and the people of this state are not willing to turn their backs on the drought stricken area and the men and women who have spent a lifetime putting food on our tables. I urge the Legislature to consider these projects seriously. The engineering has already been done. They will make it possible to move water into the central part of our state for the next few months.

"Another proposal under discussion is the possibility of increasing water supplies in drought areas by cloud seeding. We will explore the possibility of such a program, but it should be recognized that seeding projects bring many uncertainties and not a few dangers. In the first place, making rain by cloud seeding or causing snow to fall in the higher elevations, is a little bit like making duck soup. First you must catch the duck. In the case of cloud seeding, you must first have the clouds. That has been a problem so far in the drought—no clouds. Furthermore, once you have clouds, they must be of the right kind and they must be seeded at the right time. It is not a simple process. The results of previous experiments cast doubts on the efficacies of the procedures. Under the very best circumstances the best that has been obtained by these methods under the most favorable circumstances is an increase of ten or fifteen percent over expected rainfall.

"Even so, such a drastic long shot emergency measure may be reasonable to undertake. I would caution that serious consideration also be given to the real problems of environmental impact. Whereas we may set aside our state requirements for environmental impact statements, we must ask whether we can similarly set aside the national requirements. We also must look into the very real possibility of liability and lawsuits. Even the discussion of cloud seeding has brought us warnings from Idaho and Montana that we might be subject to lawsuit.

"In another area, I note with satisfaction that H.B. 98 establishing heat loss standards for new construction in private dwellings, passed the House unanimously last Friday. I hope the Senate will give immediate attention to this bill and that it will soon become law. Further, I hope a way can be found to adopt similar statutory requirements or standards regarding insulation, lighting, and so on to cover commercial construction. This may require some legislative action that may be difficult to take, but if we succeed it will put us in conformity with requirements from the Federal Energy Administration and in line for assistance from federal sources.

"Generally speaking, I believe, as I am sure all of you do, that incentives are better than orders. Thus, I pledge to work with you in developing appropriate incentives for homeowners and for business and industry to increase their energy efficiency. Favorable tax treatment can sometimes make the difference in whether people invest in efficiency improving measures. We must be certain, however, that such measures as tax incentives, while beneficial to the state, do not seriously jeopardize our tax revenues and thus undermine the very programs they fund. I will leave that problem for you to resolve.

"Turning again to the question of hydroelectric generation, let us look at the possibilities of pumped storage. For years we have considered hydroelectric power as the never ending source of energy for our state. In doing so, we have overlooked the kind of savings that would result from pumped storage after the water has worked to generate electricity. It could be pumped back up into the higher elevation and reserved for future use, for generation of electricity, for irrigation, and, of course, for recreational use, too. We can no longer afford to ignore the possibilities of pumped storage. The drought and our growing reliance on thermal power plants make pumped storage a necessity. I urge that both private and public utilities move ahead on plans to provide the capability and as many locations as possible.

"Hindsight often provides great wisdom. We look now at the plan, once developed but turned down, of the Chelan County Public Utility District. If that plan were in operation today, the pumped storage that would have been available could have provided peak-period electrical generation equivalent to that generated by the Grand Coulee Dam before the third powerhouse was put into operation.

"We also note with interest that investor-owned utilities have undertaken through their own initiative, a program of assisting homeowners to insulate their private dwellings and to bill them on a monthly basis so as to reduce the necessity for large capital output. I would encourage you to examine whether the Legislature might take steps to make it possible for public utility districts to do the same thing. I realize that this type of action might require a constitutional amendment, but it is a possibility well worth examining.

"In all of these actions, the Legislature must have a continuing and ongoing interest. I understand that bipartisan support exists for the creation of a special legislative oversight committee to coordinate both House and Senate activities in dealing with the current water shortage and to provide for a more constant daily interaction between the executive and the legislative branches. I would hope that you would look favorably on the creation of such a special oversight committee. We would pledge to work closely with it.

"Let us turn now to the long term problems and take a look at the future. We must work together. We are privileged to have one of our own Senators occupying a position of such importance in the Senate of the United States as Chairman of the Energy and Natural Resources Committee. We have pledged to work closely with Senator Jackson in this regard. His new position and his vast experience in the field of energy will be well utilized by this administration, and it will be extremely helpful to all the citizens of our state.

"As we look into the future, conservation is, and must be, a continuing way of life. I encourage all citizens adopting conservation measures in excess of anything we have so far done to look upon them as permanent. We want to emphasize again such measures as weather stripping, insulation, and adopting standards of efficiency in heating and lighting for all new construction. We should encourage the research that is going on with fuel-saving appliances and seek increased efficiency in all types of structures we use in our technological society, from automobiles to household appliances. We should look to state purchasing procedures and make sure we stress the importance of finding the most energy efficient equipment.

"The state's purchasing powers are great; they can have a considerable influence on the development of better energy saving pieces of equipment by providing an assured market. We would hope that through such actions and through encouragement we would soon see the emergence of many more energy efficient machines, including, we trust, even the development of a lightweight electric car that would have a high density, long lasting storage battery.

"Conservation is essential. We must practice it, but we must hope also that curtailment, such as we face right now, will be necessary only in the short term, because we need to use energy to keep our economy strong. Energy underlies all economic activities. It is energy that makes the world go 'round. Energy turns the wheels of industry as well as the wheels of transportation. Energy is required for the growing and the processing of all foods. It is required for the manufacture and distribution of all goods. It is required in all commercial, in all civic, in all domestic activities. Energy underlies the possibility of jobs, and we must face a growing economy, a growing opportunity for jobs in this state lest we ask all of our young people to move someplace else to find employment.

"We must have a strong economy. In order to maintain it, we must use our energy resources, but we must use them wisely and well. As we face the need for increasing jobs and improving the economy, we must look to the development of additional energy sources in the future.

"Energy means fuel, as well as electricity. How do we stand in this situation in Washington State today? Let us look at our fuels. First, natural gas. We are fortunate nate. Our present situation and our outlook for the future in natural gas is good. Even though we do not have endemic sources of natural gas in this state, our natural gas companies have enough on hand and in secure storage to meet new home construction needs. There is provided a substantial summer storage capability for winter use. Our natural gas companies have firm contracts with Canadian supplies lasting until 1989.

"Because of our favorable situation with respect to natural gas, it was possible in this state—without asking citizens to lower their domestic use of natural gas and only by asking interruptible customers to shift to their alternate fuels—to provide natural gas out of storage that could be put into the pipeline and pumped east to help relieve the natural gas shortage in the eastern part of our country. Gas from this state helped to supply enough heat for about 70,000 to 80,000 homes during the worst of the cold weather last month. But favorable as our natural gas supply situation is in this state, we must not waste it.

"With regard to petroleum, we begin to look at a fuel which seems now to be embroiled not just in heat, but in emotion. While it is possible to speak rather rationally about natural gas, it is difficult to mention the word 'petroleum' without raising a considerable amount of emotion. Petroleum is the lifeblood of our economy. Our number one priority is to be assured that crude oil supplies continue to get to our refineries.

"We are fortunate in the State of Washington that since 1950 we have had refineries that have provided all citizens of our state with oil products without long transportation lines and at a reasonable and competitive cost. If we did not refine oil in our state, we would have to import all our oil products—gasoline, fuel oil, diesel, and all of the other many, many petroleum products upon which our economy is based. The transportation of refined products carries with it risks far beyond the risks of the transportation of crude oil. Moreover, the only way to bring into this state the large amounts of gasoline and refined products we would need if our refineries were not operating, would be by ship, and if there were to be an accident and a spill—remember that the spilling of refined oil would cause far more ecological damage than the spilling of crude oil. None is good, but we must look at the whole picture.

"Our number one priority must be to assure that our own state refineries continue to receive their crude oil and the refined products then reach our state residents. Most of our crude oil in recent years came by pipeline from Canada, but this supply is no longer available. Consequently, our refineries can be supplied only by ship. They have been receiving tankers since 1950. It is clear that now and in the future tanker traffic will need to increase.

"Bringing crude oil in to refineries by ship raises the question of how it can best be done. First let me say that this administration supports strongly the measures discussed recently by Senator Magnuson and Transportation Secretary Brock Adams for bringing about new rules and procedures and regulations to assure increased tanker safety. They would increase the safety measures which are built into the ships, strengthen regulations under which they operate, improve the training of the crews, improve navigation standards and the navigation aides, allow for very much better traffic controls, upgrade the Coast Guard and provide it with the resources and the appropriations for its enlarged responsibilities. If we do all of these things, it is my conviction that we can tolerate increased ship tanker traffic on our waters while minimizing the risk of accidents.

"While it is in one interest to get crude oil to our own refineries, we must also remember that Washington is not a state unto itself. Just as our citizens responded and our private companies and our government responded to sending natural gas to our states lying to the east of us, we must also seriously examine whether we have some responsibilities to the rest of the country in assisting to transship Alaskan crude oil from the west to the midwest and the east. In assuring that our own refineries receive crude oil, in trying to do everything we can to relieve the dependence of our nation on foreign sources of oil, we should bend all our energies to getting the Alaskan crude to our refineries. We should seek to make it possible for those refineries not now capable of using Alaska crude, to do so in the future. Not only is that sensible with respect to assuring an independent oil supply; it has a secondary effect that is beneficial, inasmuch as Alaska is part of the United States. It means that the movement of oil out of Alaska into this state will be covered by the Jones Act, and that means that the oil will be in American vessels built in American shipyards, flying the American flag and operating to American standards that will make it easier to be sure we control and reduce risks to the minimum. Once oil reaches our shores the question is: How do we get it to the refineries and how do we get it to the east, if that is to be an important part of our function? A number of plans have been proposed. One which has been discussed extensively would offload oil at Port Angeles, then continue to pump it into a storage area about ten miles south, thence into a pipeline which would be constructed around the entire Puget Sound going up the eastside and finally eastward across country to the Middle West.

"While there seems to be some considerable support for an offloading facility at Port Angeles, the questions with respect to the storage area and the pipeline around Puget Sound have not been publicly discussed as yet with all the attendant questions that need to be examined concerning the environmental impact of such a pipeline. Where will be the right-of-way? What happens with all of the rivers and streams the pipeline must cross? Will it be above them or underneath? In addition, the pipeline has to be heated to an average of 40° in order to carry the thick Alaskan crude and make it flow. Where do we build the pumping stations and heating stations? What about the various watersheds, particularly the extensive watershed for the potable water for Tacoma and Pierce County, Seattle and King County, that the pipeline would have to cross?

"As we look upon these things, we must recognize that important as our technology is and as important as it is to use the very best technology available, it is never perfect. In the year 1975, 76% of all oil spills came from pipelines. So we have to think very, very seriously about where pipelines go and what the environmental impact may be.

"We should also examine the economics. Construction of such an enormous pipeline around the entire Puget Sound Basin would not only be costly, but time consuming, and time is getting short. Petroleum supplies must come from Alaska and must get to refineries. If the pipeline around Puget Sound were to supply only our own refineries, the cost would be enormous, and the cost of the refined products would probably be beyond our ability to support.

"It is worthwhile to reexamine our attitudes with respect to tanker traffic; to look soberly and objectively at what can be done with vessel traffic control systems, improved tanker construction and operation, and to recall that even though we do not accept large tankers in the inland waters of Puget Sound at the present time, Canada does. Large tankers carrying oil move up Haro Strait past the San Juan Islands into refineries north of Vancouver. It is also possible, with a good vessel traffic control system, to have one-way traffic, moving tankers loaded with oil, as they are now going to Canadian refineries, northward up Haro Strait and returning if they visit our refineries at Ferndale and Cherry Point, returning in ballast with a water cargo down withthrough Rosario Strait.

"There are many things that could be examined unemotionally and looked at as to the possibilities of the much more economical means of moving the oil directly to where the refineries are. Were that to be done, the economics, as well as the environmental impact of utilizing an existing pipeline which stretches eastward from Cherry Point, may have some real attraction. The existing pipeline has brought oil from Canada to the Canadian and American refineries in our state. The oil has flowed from east to west. The pipeline is there, and with the simple expedient—yes, some cost is involved—of rebuilding the pumping stations with reversible pumps, the oil could flow in the opposite direction just as readily. The economics and the ease of utilizing an existing pipeline could make it possible to receive and transmit oil years earlier and at far less cost than any of the other alternatives now being discussed. It is quite possible—and discussions have been going on recently involving the Trans-Mountain Pipeline Company which owns the right-of-way and the pipeline—that some east/westward flow of Canadian oil might be continued and that we might add to the pipeline the eastward flow of Alaskan oil. Refineries use a blend of Canadian and Alaskan oil that would reduce the amount of refitting needed in the various refineries.

"It is a plan that merits careful examination.

"With respect to tanker traffic, we should also be conscious of the fact that the smaller tankers tend to be the older ones and the ones flying flags of convenience. When we consider tanker traffic, we ought to remember that a smaller number of larger vessels may, in fact, bring better traffic safety than a larger number of smaller vessels.

"Finally, we must never forget that every ship carries oil. World trade, commerce with the rest of the world, is one of the most important parts of our economic well-being. This state, through its ports, moves goods in world trade. All those ships carry oil. A modern cargo vessel carrying bulk cargo such as grain, loading at the Seattle or Tacoma facilities, carries as much oil in its fuel tanks as a 'supertanker' of twenty years ago. In 1950, the largest tankers afloat were the Navy tankers of World War II, and they carry just about as much oil as the modern cargo vessel carrying bulk cargo or container cargo.

"We must use our existing fossil fuel supplies to keep our economy strong while we look to diversifying and developing other fuels and other energy sources. What are our prospects there?

"We have coal in this state. The readily mineable coal is being used to fuel a thermal power plant in Centralia, which produces about 1,400 megawatts of electricity. Unfortunately, most of the other coal supplies are in the Cascades and very expensive to mine, but their very characteristics make them good candidates for the possibility of development of a new technology of underground coal gasification. This technology is in its very early stages of development, but it would be worthwhile for experimental development of some type to take place in some of those seams so we can see whether the underground conversion of coal to more readily usable and cleaner gas might be profitable.

"Already in this state and others, a certain percentage of electricity comes from nuclear power plants. I support the construction of nuclear power generation as another addition to our power source. The people of this state indicated their support of nuclear power in rejecting the initiative that was on the ballot last November by a vote of almost 2 to 1.

"We have had electrical power produced by the N reactor at Hanford for many years. This old workhorse pumps 850 megawatts of electricity into our system. The plants already under construction at Hanford will add another 2,000 megawatts. They have suffered a number of different kinds of delays, and I would hope very much that a recognition of the need for increased capacity for electric power would speed the construction of these plants. All due consideration must be given to the rules and regulations and the safety precautions which are in place and are insisted upon both nationally and in our state.

"With regard to the two other plants, at Satsop and Skagit, plans for which have been approved by the previous administration, I support their construction and trust that they will move ahead on line to begin supplying us with electricity in the next decade. If these things all move ahead, we will have 7,000 additional megawatts of electricity toward the end of the decade of the 1980's. That would be a remarkable advantage we would have over many other states.

"For those who fear nuclear power plants are not reliable, let me call attention to the proof provided in the recent cold spell in the east. The city of Chicago and surrounding areas were hard hit, as hard as any other place, but there was not one single interruption of electrical power save for one day during the entire cold spell when interruptible customers were asked—interruptible only—to cut back on electricity because the last remaining coal plant had broken its conveyor belt. All the coal for the coal-fired plants had frozen and coal supplies were hard to get.

"The Commonwealth Edison Company was unable to operate most of its coal plants, but its seven nuclear power plants (Commonwealth operates more nuclear power plants than any other utility in this country) ran full tilt during the entire cold spell, generating 50% of all the electricity used throughout the Chicago region. They did it all during 1976, too. During 1976 they produced 24 1/2 billion kilowatt hours of electricity. That amounted to money savings of $200 million to residents. Had those seven nuclear power plants been burning coal, they would have cost $200 million more in fees. Had they been burning oil, it would have cost their ratepayers $500 million more for that one year.

"Operating those seven nuclear power plants saved 13.7 million tons of coal and 43 million barrels of oil.

"I support nuclear power as a safe, dependable, additional source of electricity, and I trust that the plans already underway in this state will move ahead. We are fortunate also to have the Trojan plant nearby. Its additional generation of electricity will be of great assistance during this drought condition.

"Overall, in this state, we must recognize that we have to end for all time our nearly total dependence upon petrochemicals as fuels and hydropower as our major source of electricity. We must diversify not only our electrical supply resources but also all of our energy resources. We must not be misled into the simplistic thinking that we can stop using petroleum and use something else instead. No, we will gradually phase down the uses of petroleum, as we phase in other things.

"We must never again in this state, in our nation, in our society, have almost total dependence on any one energy supply. Hence, as a state, we must encourage diversification and, where appropriate, encourage the development of additional energy supplies wherever appropriate for whatever increment they can add.

"There is no way in which we can turn to geothermal energy to serve most of our needs. We should, however, develop geothermal energy in the eastern part of our state in the several different areas where hot water is available within drilling distance of the surface. The hot water is about 120° to 150° degrees in temperature—that's just right, not for making electricity, but for use by the food processing industry. We must learn to make use of windmills where appropriate. Windmills don't generate electricity very well, but they are awfully good at pumping water. I spoke earlier of pump storage, it could be done, since it doesn't have to be done on a continuing basis, but could be done intermittently and could be done by modern, well developed high technology windmills.

"In the Evergreen State we should look more to utilization of our plant materials. We have a forest products industry of high capability. Nevertheless, in our logging industry there are many pieces and bits of trees that go unutilized. We can make use of this material, not only as pellets for additional fuel, but we can examine it for conversion into liquid or gaseous fuels—wood alcohol, for example. We must consider that one organic resource which above all we waste more than any other: Human sewage, sludge. Unpleasant as the subject seems to be, it's a resource waiting to be used for conversion into methane gas or liquid fuels, and we should lend all of the help we can to assist communities install conversion plants to utilize sludge for energy purposes.

"Moreover, important studies are going on. The Battelle Memorial Institute in Richland is looking into the possibility of growing plants for the purpose of converting them into energy. Certain microscopic plants already finely divided could be grown as feedstock into an industrial plant that could convert the material into methane gas or methanol. These studies are all in the very early stages of development, but making use of plant materials in a variety of ways to add to our fuel and energy supplies is a way of diversifying and making use of things not now being used.

"We cannot ignore the possibilities of greater use of solar energy. As a lifelong native daughter of the Puget Sound area, I have always had my doubts about solar energy on a year round basis; however, east of the Cascades we are blessed with sunshine and there we can find many ways to assist in the development of solar heating and solar cooling. We can participate in some of the experimental activities now going on to try to improve the capability of converting the sun's rays into electrical supplies.

"No one thing is going to do the entire job, but every little bit helps and that is how we must plan. In conclusion, the shortage of 1977 is clear. It is, we hope, temporary. Since most of our electricity today is generated by falling water and most of our water comes from snow, we must take extraordinary measures now because our mountains have little snow. But looking into the future the economic impact of the current drought is almost incomprehensible. We should take every measure we can, even with extraordinary engineering projects. We should try to relieve that shortage where the drought is the worst.

"If we do not do these things and if the drought continues without relief, information compiled from our state agencies indicates that by the end of December it could cost us more than $2.5 billion in agriculture and industrial production losses. It is worth an investment to do all that is humanly within our power to relieve the drought. If we do not, more than 120,000 could lose their jobs from water-related stoppages alone.

"These are only estimates, but they are an indication of the possible impact of our present and critical situation. In the longer view we must work to improve our conservation while we improve our uses and develop new energy resources. Positive action, both short term and long term, by the executive and legislative branches of this government will be in the best interests of the people of our state and will reduce the human and financial impact of an increasingly critical situation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, before the bill is advanced, could I ask Senator Wilson a question? Senator Wilson, who is going to pay for this fiscal note process?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Bailey, there presently exists an informal process by which fiscal notes are compiled for some bills which will impact local government. This work is being done by the office of community development which is financing a position by drawing funds from here and there. Should this bill be enacted, there would be a somewhat greater workload placed on the agency and they are asking for (a) one FTE to accommodate the workload. The FTE, which consists of an analyst and a secretary, each for six months during the year. The request for the FTE is contained in the OCD's budgetary request which is presently before the ways and means committee. Even though this bill passes, ways and means may then make a decision as to whether it should allow the FTE, or whether it should allow part of it, or whether it should deny it. In any event, this process could go into effect on passage of the bill."

The motion by Senator Wilson carried.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2325 was advanced to third reading and final passage.

WE FORGET THE FIFTY-FIVE MILE PER HOUR LIMIT AND SPEED ON THE ROADS OF THIS STATE: WE LET THE TEMPERATURE GAUGE AT HOME RISE TO A COMFORTABLE SEVENTY-TWO DEGREES: WE THROW AWAY WHAT MIGHT WELL BE RECYCLED. AID US IN THESE TRANSITION YEARS TO MORE EFFICIENT USE OF ALL YOU HAVE GIVEN. ### POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to ask some member of the rules committee a question. Is Senator Bailey present? Senator Bailey, what is the reason for the rules committee recommending that Senate Bill 2463 be sent to the ways and means committee?"

Senator Bailey: "Well, Senator Rasmussen, what does that Senate bill do?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Will the secretary reread the title?"

Secretary: "Removing the state auditor from membership in the State Retirement Board."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, answering Senator Rasmussen, it was not my motion. I think it was Senator Mardesich's, but this bill is almost the same as a bill we had on the Senate floor that was almost raped on the Senate floor, and we sent it back to ways and means for consideration when we wrote the overall corrections to the PERS system. It is almost identical with the bill we sent back to ways and means and there is no need to pass an identical bill here and have the original bill in ways and means. It was going to have the same treatment, I am afraid, that it started to get the last time."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, with that explanation, Senator Bailey, I think that the rules committee acted, well, without the proper information. This bill is concerned with removing only the state auditor from the state pension system, and the information that we received in the committee is that PERISA, a federal act, is going to require the removal of the state auditor. In place of the state auditor it is indicated there would be a conflict of interest with the state auditor auditing the pension system, then sitting on the board. So, the only change is not a cost item. It has no reason to go to ways and means. It substitutes the state auditor with the Lieutenant Governor, who is a very capable person, will serve on the board very well, and our practice of shifting bills up to the ways and means committee was to scrutinize them for cost items as far as the state is concerned. There is no cost in this bill.

"I might point out further that the ways and means committee does have one bill up there which had to do with providing for designees of those members, the state treasurer and the attorney general and the auditor, who could not attend the meetings. This is an entirely different bill. It only removes the state auditor as required by federal law, and I would urge the body to keep the bill before them rather than refer it to ways and means so that they can act on it in proper fashion."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think the bill has already been referred."

President Cherberg: "Not as yet, Senator Bailey."

Senator Bailey: "At any rate, Senator Rasmussen, I am with you as far as this bill and the other one goes, but I see no harm in referring this to ways and means because it is just merely a change we will have to make. It is not controversial, but why not make it in the overall changes that the PERS system is seeking to update and correct some of the bad features of their own system. I think it can be done just as well in one bill as to trickle through five or six bills and change a word in each bill. It would be better to have it all in one bill and make that one correction at the same time."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I am still objecting, and I don't know whether it is going to do any good against the weight of the rules committee, but I am still objecting to sending an inconsequential bill to the ways and means. I am a member of the ways and means committee, along with our very able chairman, Senator Donohue. That committee is at present overloaded with work. Why send a bill that we are going to have to pass anyway up to the ways and means committee? I am protesting, and I urge that it come to a vote of the body."

Senate Bill No. 2463 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on a rising vote.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2058, by Senators Henry, Guess and Beck (by Department of Motor Vehicles request):

Prohibiting drivers schools from using DMV test routes.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 28, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2058, prohibiting drivers schools from using DMV test routes (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On line 11, after "motor" strike "operators' vehicle" and insert "vehicle operators'"

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Beck, Vice Chairman; Bluechel, Guess, Keefe, Peterson, Sellar, Talley, Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Beck, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2058 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, can you tell the Senate where these test tracks are laid out? Are they in most instances on city streets?"

Senator Beck: "In almost every case, in fact, I feel safe in saying in all cases. Somewhere around all of the state department of motor vehicles testing offices when a person goes in and applies for a license, they go out and take a ride in the car and they have a certain course that they travel on. There are some driving—these are all on city streets or county roads, publicly owned highways. These driving schools, a lot of them, have adopted a policy of starting right in at the state department of motor vehicles offices and driving right through the very same course that the operators. What they are teaching them to do is to pass a state drivers examination test, not teaching them how to drive an automobile. They do that so much that it has cluttered up the driving course and the pupil is not being taught how to drive a vehicle. They are being taught how to pass a driver's license test."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question, Senator Beck. You did say that most of these test routes are on the state, county or city streets."

Senator Beck: "Yes. For motorcycles, they take them out in parking lots when they give a motorcycle operator an examination, but for vehicles, in all cases that I know of, it is on a city street or county road."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Rasmussen, if I am reading this correctly, this is existing law and the only thing we are changing is state patrol to the department of motor vehicles. It is a 1961 statute. Is that correct, Senator Beck?"

Senator Beck: "Yes, this is a bill that has been on the statutes ever since the state patrol used to examine you for driver's license examination."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Beck yield? Senator, there is nothing in the law now that prevents other persons, penalizes them in any way for doing this. The present statute only penalizes motor vehicle training, or drivers training schools. Is that true?"

Senator Beck: "That is correct. It is the policy of the department that if a pupil wants to go to one of these driving schools to learn how to drive, they should be taught how to drive, not how to go out and follow along on a course and pass a driver's test examination."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Well, my point was that we don't disallow anybody else, but we do disallow those attending schools."

Senator Beck: "Any one that wants to can go out and drive through the course and go through the exact motions, but this gives the director of the department of motor vehicles the authority to lift the license of anyone who goes out and just teaches a child how to drive an automobile or to pass a driver's test."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2058 was ordered held on the third reading calendar for February 18, 1977.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2180, by Senators Bottiger and Benitz (by Utilities and Transportation Commission request):

Excused: Senators Buffington, Fleming, Francis, Gould, McDermott, von Reichbauer, Woody—7.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, most communities are subsidizing their bus services by a monthly charge, and would this make it compulsory on the community to subsidize the bus service of Portland in order to get service there in Vancouver?"

Senator Marsh: "No, it would not make it compulsory, but it would permit the city of Vancouver to compensate Tri-Met Bus Service of Portland for servicing Vancouver patrons."

Senator Rasmussen: "They would subsidize the bus system, then?"

Senator Marsh: "They would, or they could."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2230, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; excused, 7.

Signed by: Senators Benitz, Goltz, Guess, Odegaard, Scott.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 4, line 25.

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 25, after "at Cheney." strike the committee amendment and insert:

"While regional universities are a part of a total state program of higher education, their primary purpose shall be the provision of undergraduate instruction and graduate education through the master's degree, and not including the doctoral degree. Their educational programs and services shall be oriented primarily to the residents of the region of the state in which the institution is located.

No college shall be eligible for designation as a regional university until it has been in operation for at least twenty years and has been authorized to offer master's degree programs in more than three fields."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gould: "Would Senator Goltz yield to a question? In application of this amendment, does that exclude any of the three now Washington colleges—with the exclusion of Evergreen?"

Senator Goltz: "No, it does not exclude any of the three older state colleges. It only applies really to the other state college?"

Senator Gould: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Subject to the will of the Senate since I speak out of order, I wonder if Senator Goltz would yield to a question? I note that in the amendment to the amendment that the second sentence says, speaking of regional universities, 'Their educational programs and services shall be oriented primarily to the residents of the region of the state in which the institution is located,' and although I believe under this bill the University of Washington or WSU would not be a regional university. I may be wrong. Wouldn't this, if they were, under the definition 'regional university,' preclude the teaching of the restaurant management course at WSU if someone were to challenge it?"

Senator Goltz: "I believe, in answer to that question, Senator Mardesich, that the word 'primarily' as it was explained in the Senate higher education committee, would not preclude a special course being offered, for example, at Western Washington State College, or Western Washington University, they offer courses in marine science because of its location near the marine waters. Therefore, when we talk about primary service areas, we are not excluding the possibility of special programs in each of the regional universities."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the remaining committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 30, after line 2, insert a new section as follows:

"Sec. 51. Section 1, chapter 232, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.40-.205 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all other powers and duties given to them by law, Central Washington ((State College)) University, Eastern Washington ((State College)) University, and Western Washington ((State College)) University are hereby authorized to grant any degree through the master's degree to any student who has completed a program of study and/or research in those areas which are determined by the faculty and board of trustees of the college to be appropriate for the granting of such degree: PROVIDED, That any degree authorized under this section which has no fiscal impact shall be subject to the review and recommendation of the council for postsecondary education: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any degree permitted under this section having additional fiscal impact shall not be authorized prior to review and recommendation by the council for postsecondary education and approval of the legislature."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 47, after line 11, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. There is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that after the effective date of the 1977 amendatory act, where the names "Western Washington State College", "Central Washington State College", or "Eastern Washington State College" are used in any bill enacted by the legislature or found within the Revised Code of Washington, they shall mean "Western Washington University", "Central Washington University", and "Eastern Washington University", respectively."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following amendments to the title were considered and adopted simultaneously:

In the title, page 3, line 19, after ".200;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 1, chapter 232, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.40.205;"

On motion of Senator Hayner, the committee amendments to page 7, lines 3, 11 and 29 were adopted.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 9, line 5.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Hayner yield to a question? Senator Hayner, this is a credible change and I agree with you, with the amendment. What I wish to ask now, in any place in this bill is the homestead amount increased? There is a bill around here someplace floating that would increase from ten thousand to twenty thousand. It is my personal opinion that with the assessed value of real estate going up at the skyrocketing rate that it is, that it should be a minimum of thirty thousand homestead exemption."

Senator Hayner: "This does not actually address that. It just permits the judge to consider only as award in lieu of homestead that which is received out of probate, so in effect, it does raise it, and he can consider whether or not he wants to permit that award in lieu of homestead."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would this bill take an amendment increasing the homestead amount?"

Senator Hayner: Well, as a matter of fact, that is in a different statute as well, the homestead provision."

Senator Rasmussen: "I know there is another bill on it. That is why I was wondering if we could amend this bill to carry that homestead exemption."

Senator Hayner: "You would also have to amend the homestead statute dealing with homesteads."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, to clarify Senator Rasmussen's question, Senator, if you will look on line 9, you will see the figure, 20,000. Senator Rasmussen, you will see the 20,000 figure on line 9. The bill you are referring to is another statute on exempt property from execution, where that bill purports to raise that statute to the same 20,000 we use and set aside in lieu of homestead in the probate code."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the committee amendment to page 9, line 5 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Hayner, the remaining committee amendments were adopted.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bottiger served notice that he would, at the proper time, move for reconsideration of adoption of the committee amendment to page 9, line 14.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator Bottiger, we were going to request this bill be held over until Monday. Would you object to holding your request to repeal the amendment over? I think everyone is in the dark on this, and we could do a much better job if we had a chance to look it over and probably vote with you."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Bailey, having made the motion at this time, if the motion is made to hold the bill over, I have no objection as long as this is the first order of business."

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that Senate Bill No. 2215, as amended, together with the notice of reconsideration by Senator Bottiger on adoption of the committee amendment to page 9, line 14, be held for further consideration on February 21, 1977.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Hayner, the committee amendments to the title were considered and adopted simultaneously.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Governor.

Referred to Committee on Higher Education.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2374.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2374, by Senators Guess and Peterson (by Department of Highways request):

Standardizing low clearance signing and increasing certain weight limits.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 9, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2374, standardizing low clearance signing and increasing certain weight limits (reported by Committee on Transportation):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 6, beginning on line 35, after the period strike the remainder of the paragraph and insert "~~(When wheelbase of a group of axles is less than the wheelbase required by the above table to attain maximum single axle and tandem axle allowance, no axle shall exceed any axle in such group by more than two thousand five hundred pounds in weight. For this purpose of determining equal axle weight distribution, the front axle of a unit supplying motive power shall not be included in the axle group.)~~ The maximum load on any axle in any group of axles shall not exceed 1.2 times the load given in the above table divided by the number of axles in that group, and shall not exceed the single axle or tandem axle allowance as set forth elsewhere. For considering the number of axles in a group, the front axle of a unit supplying motive power need not be included in the axle group.

On page 7, line 24, after the period insert a new paragraph to read as follows:

"Notwithstanding anything contained herein, a vehicle or combination of vehicles in operation on January 4, 1975, may operate upon the public highways of this state, including the interstate system within the meaning of section 127 of Title 23, United States Code, with an overall gross weight upon a group of two consecutive sets of dual axles which was lawful in this state under the laws, regulations and procedures in effect in this state on January 4, 1975."

Signed by: Senators Henry, Chairman; Beck, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Guess, Peterson, Talley.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Guess, the committee amendment to page 6 was adopted. Senator Guess moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 7.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, I don't have that section 127 of title 23 United States Code. Does this authorize in any way the use of trailer chains on the Washington state highways?"

Senator Guess: "No, Senator, it does not, no more than the double bottoms that we are using. If you are talking about the triple bottoms, this does not permit the use of triple bottoms on our highways. That would have to be in an entirely different section."

Senator Rasmussen: "Does not extend the overall length?"

Senator Guess: "No, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Donohue: "Will Senator Guess yield? Senator, does this relate to part of the problem that I mentioned to you?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir, it is, Senator Donohue. This was written to take care of that situation which you brought to my attention, also to take the people off of the hook that had been using particularly a specially made trailer in the past. It now legalizes that."

Senator Donohue: "Senator Rasmussen wants me to explain what I talked to you about. It is very simply this, that on some of the truck and trailer combinations that are entering the state and leaving the state, there is a problem. We created a problem inadvertently last year or the year before as it relates to shifting loads. The trailers that are entering the state, from Oregon for instance, are allowed to weigh and then shift their load if the load is overweight and on a certain portion of the trailer, and if I am correct, Senator Guess, this will allow Washington state trucks to have that same privilege as it pertains to the fifth wheel."

Senator Guess: "This is correct, Senator, and that and the other amendment that we just adopted."

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the committee amendment to page 7 was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Guess yield? I gather that there was an excess allowance of twenty-five hundred pounds under the laws that existed before?"

Senator Guess: "Yes, sir."

Senator Mardesich: "What is the effect of the new law in terms of excesses per axle?"

Senator Guess: "One and two tenths times the load given in the table, Senator."

Senator Mardesich: "Can you tell me in terms of poundage what that might be, for instance?"

Senator Guess: "On a fifty thousand pound it would be 1.2 times that, so you would have a thousand pounds."

Senator Mardesich: "That is ten thousand."

Senator Guess: "I mean ten thousand."

Senator Mardesich: "Increases by four times the excess weight allowances? I don't know if it does or not, but I started looking at it, and I'm—"

Senator Guess: "No, sir. The maximum load on any axle, on any group of axles, shall not exceed 1.2 times the load given in the above tables divided by the number of axles. Normally, you have thirty four thousand pounds on a set of duals. This means that you have got seventeen thousand pounds on any one axle, so then you could allow 1.2 times the seventeen thousand pounds."

On motion of Senator Guess, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2374 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2374, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; absent or not voting, 5; excused, 8.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senate Bill No. 2384 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Marsh yield? Senator Marsh, what is the practice? Do they give them mail notice of the expiration as they do auto licenses?"

Senator Marsh: "That is my understanding, and this bill simply says that the renewal time will be at or before the expiration date rather than in August of each year."

Senator Rasmussen: "I understand that. I didn't know what the practice was, whether or not they are putting a deadline on them that might create a problem."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2384, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—39.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2056, and has granted said committee powers of Free Conference, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 18, 1977.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056 as amended by the House, implementing constitutional amendment permitting school district levies for two-year periods, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we cannot agree and request the powers of Free Conference in order to propose the following:

We recommend that the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056 be not adopted, and that the bill be amended as follows:

On page 2, line 9, after "no" strike all language down to and including "period" on line 10 and insert "further additional tax levies for the support of the district for that period may be authorized except for expenditures attributable to an unanticipated increase in student enrollment and for the acquisition of motor vehicles for student transportation."

Signed by: Senators Odegaard, Gould and McDermott; Representatives Sommers, Amen and Bauer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the report of the Conference Committee was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jones, Senator Scott was excused.

MOTION

At 2:32 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the Call of the President.

The President called the Senate to order at 2:55 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senator Bausch was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 18, 1977.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 18, 1977.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2056, implementing constitutional amendment permitting school district levies for two-year period, have had the same under consideration, and that the bill be amended as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by: Senators Odegaard, Gould and McDermott; Representatives Sommers, Amen and Bauer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Senators Clarke and Jones were excused.

MOTION

Senator Odegaard moved the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, the language of the amendment says, refers to quote, 'an unanticipated increase in student enrollment.' I would assume that unanticipated increase in student enrollment refers to the second year enrollment over that level budgeted for?"

Senator Odegaard: "That would be—"

Senator Mardesich: "Projected and budgeted for?"

Senator Odegaard: "Correct assumption, yes. I would think that the budgeted level, including the special levy request would have used a projected figure for the second year, probably from the SPI office, and if the enrollment level came out to be a higher level than had been projected, then they would be allowed to ask for a special levy that second year for that purpose."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOULD

Senator Gould: "Mr. President, if I may add to that, I understand the concern, but I know it was the intent of the committee that that unanticipated increase in student enrollment would refer back to the phrase that says, 'for the support of the district for that period in which it is authorized,' and it certainly was our intent that the unanticipated increase in enrollment had to be during that two-year period in which the levy was authorized."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator Odegaard yield? Senator Odegaard, I appreciate your effort to tighten up the phraseology because the proposition was told to the voters on the basis that if they passed the two-year levy, they wouldn't be bothered again. However, you mentioned the instance of where a school bus might burn down. What if the whole school burned down and the district incurred extraordinary expenses in trying to maintain its classes for, say, a period of one or two years which might be required to build a new school? Is there any provision for an instance such as that?"

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Wilson, of course, the bonding levies are totally outside of this anyway, and then if a district wanted to pass a special levy for building purposes, that is outside of this also, because that does not come under the definition of support for the school district, and you notice in this wordage, the word 'support' is used, so the capital needs would all be outside of this particular bill."

Senator Wilson: "My question referred to abnormal operating expenses that a district might incur during a period when it had to house its classes all over town or perhaps in some other community during the period that a new school is being constructed."

Senator Odegaard: "That could be a problem, Senator Wilson, and where that has happened though, I have noticed that in the state that the state school superintendent has taken from his emergency funds to handle special problems, and I would assume that he would continue to do that. We talked about those kinds of problems but felt that was beyond the intent of what the Senate desired when we originally passed the bill, that pretty soon it would be wide open, and the districts would be in asking for about anything that they might call an emergency the second year. We thought it was beyond the wishes of the people when they voted the two-year constitutional amendment, voted for it."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Odegaard carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2056 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Peterson, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2342 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Peterson yield? Senator, I am not an attorney, but I am wondering, subsection 1, would that not read better if it was, 'by willfully using false information'? Someone could inadvertently use that."

Senator Peterson: "Well, I would say that would be unnecessary and superfluous language because this only pertains to those persons that have already been convicted of a violation and they certainly know that they have lost their license."

Senator Fleming: "And by this you are saying that if they have already been convicted and they apply again with false information before the license has been reinstated, then that—it should be considered unlawful. Is that what you are saying?"

Senator Peterson: "It is unlawful to reapply. Right."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2342, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Grant, North, Scott, Woody—4.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2342, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2172.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2172, by Senators Talley, Day and Buffington:

Licensing acupuncturists.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2172. On February 18, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2172 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President, would Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, you just said that this does not broaden the practice of acupuncture."

Senator Day: "Correct."

Senator Cunningham: "It was my understanding that presently acupuncture in the state is limited to only under the direct supervision of a licensed physician."

Senator Day: "That is right."

Senator Cunningham: "And this does not continue that?"

Senator Day: "It continues that, but it also establishes some standards relative to their certification and says specifically what board shall set those standards."

Senator Cunningham: "Senator Day, as I recall the testimony on this bill in committee, the criteria for setting the acceptance was questioned by those testifying on the bill as to their being in these other countries, no consistency in licensing."

Senator Day: "That is right, and if you will note that the committee's amendment did not mandate that they accept standards from other countries. It only said that they should consider those who have been certified, and then they can make the judgment and they will set the standards. 'They' meaning the board."

Senator Cunningham: "Well, Senator Day, just to continue the question, in looking at the bill, I still do not see where it says specifically that—now these are not doctors that are going to be practicing acupuncture. These are—technically have no training at all and they are going to be able to practice this for other than just an anesthetic. I don't see where it specifies that this has to be under the direct supervision of a licensed physician."

Senator Day: "Well, of course, here again, what we did when we authorized physician's assistants, is that we authorized the medical boards, i.e., the medical board and the osteopathic board, to authorize physician's assistants to do certain things which they, the board, said they were qualified to do.

"Now, all this bill does is to mandate that they have certain standards and criteria for the authorization of acupuncturists. Now, the osteopathic board is already doing this. They are already doing this, so all this bill really does is to say that there has to be certain criteria in the process, and so I think, in so doing, that what we have done is to say to the board, 'we want you to continue what you are doing except we want to be certain there are certain qualifications in the process.'"

Debate ensued.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

Office of the Governor, February 18, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation:

Mr. Paul Roberts, appointed February 3, 1977, for a term ending September 8, 1979, succeeding Robert E. Arkell as a member of the Public Employment Relations Commission.

Sincerely,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Referred to the Committee on Labor.

MOTION

At 12:12 p.m., on motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2085.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2085, by Senators Washington, Guess and Goltz:
Designating regional universities.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2085 as amended on February 17, 1977.

MOTION

Senator Morrison moved that Senate Bill No. 2085 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Senator Donohue, I wonder if I could ask a question while I am still on the floor? Would it assist you to say leave the bill on the floor one more day so that we can point out, I think more accurately to you, that there cannot be a substantial impact. I am sure Senator Goltz would be very happy to leave the bill on the calendar until tomorrow, until we can solve this particular point, because I believe the fears that are raised that Senator Goltz, myself and others can probably convince you that this does not have a financial impact."

Senator Donohue: "I just think that it fits in very closely with the problem we have relative to tuition and fees. I am also concerned with the fees as it relates to the changes that were made in RCW 28B.15.041, the services and activities fees, as defined, which are amended in section 33 of this bill, and that is the reference to state colleges, and reflecting them as universities. But the problem that in the two statutes, chapter 46 and 130, the first extraordinary session of 1973, both define services and activities fees, and the definitions are set in section 33, is a reconstruction of both of these.

"Now, what we are concerned about, and we talked to staff about it, one of the things is what reflection will this have on bonded indebtedness today? Are we going to have to make some changes relative to our bonding provisions, and I think that it could go right along with our tuition fee bill, and maybe Senator Sandison has some remarks to make relative to this, but I think it is part of it. It is a decision we have to make as to funding, as to the bonding problem and so forth, so I would like to see it move. I think we can work on it a lot quicker if it gets up there."

Senator Washington: "Mr. President, thank you, Senator Donohue."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that the motion by Senator Morrison be amended to read 'Senate Bill No. 2085 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to report back in due time with recommendations.'

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I wonder if Senator Mardesich would yield to a question. Senator Mardesich, I would like to know whether due time would be in the range of five to ten days."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I have no specific time period in mind, nor do I know what the availability of staff is to study the problem. The intention I had in mind was that due time meant something between today and such time as it would be impossible to pass this bill. What I am saying is that I think it should come out in due time for us to act."

MOTION

Senator Washington moved that Senate Bill No. 2085 be held on the second reading calendar for February 22, 1977.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order, Mr. President. I think those motions are of equal rank."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke's remarks are well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I have a deep appreciation for the problems of ways and means, particularly this session, in holding the line on costs. However, I am also reminded of numerous bills that have come on the floor where there is a particular expertise involved that we do not all have. I wonder if you could give us some kind of an indication of when you could give us a judgment on this bill, when we might expect to have it back on the floor."

Senator Donohue: "It probably won't be this week because the ways and means is tied up every day, as all members of ways and means know, with the agencies, but I intend to address this bill at the same time we address the tuition and fee bill. Senator Sandison and I both agree that most of the members on the higher education committee, with the exception of Senator Guess and Senator Goltz, and they will be there I am sure. We will address this thing at one time, and I don't know—we have not got together yet, on exactly what day we want to have that joint meeting, but as soon as possible"

Senator Day: "Within approximately two weeks, would you say?"

Senator Donohue: "I would say approximately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, I assume that you are aware that we have a closeout resolution with regard to Senate bills?"

Senator Donohue: "I am."

Senator Walgren: "Two weeks from now would be too late to consider this bill, would it not, during this session?"

Senator Donohue: "I suppose that is right."

Senator Walgren: "Would you be willing to have the bill come out, say, Friday morning, Senator Donohue?"

Senator Donohue: "Well, Friday morning, I don't know exactly what day it is going to come out. You are a member of ways and means, Senator, and you know that we have scheduled, and you are one of those people who has insisted that we schedule ahead of time for at least five days. Now, if the body would like to have us change that criteria, then I assume that that would be up to the judgment of the body."

Senator Walgren: "Well, I appreciate that very much, Senator Donohue, and your desire to have these scheduled in advance five days even though we don't have any rules going at this present time. But you do agree that if it came out after Friday, we probably would not be able to consider this bill this session."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, in view of the fact that appropriations thinks this is an appropriations bill, what would be the Ruling of the Chair if they returned it that way?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President would have to study the bill more thoroughly, Senator Bailey, to determine the answer to your question, but the President has serious doubts that it would qualify as an appropriations measure."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I observe with some interest the statements of our majority leader and caucus chairman. Are they telling us that we will not be considering Senate bills other than appropriations during the special session? If so, I would like to know about it today, and if not, I would be very thankful."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Mardesich to the motion by Senator Morrison.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Morrison as amended by Senator Mardesich.

The motion by Senator Morrison, as amended by Senator Mardesich, carried on a rising vote. Senate Bill No. 2085 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2112.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2112, by Senators Wilson, Sellar and Henry:

Modifying civil service appointment procedures for sheriffs' offices and authorizing unclassified positions.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wilson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2112 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2112 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Wilson, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 19, after "meeting." insert the following: "Should the position or positions initially selected by the sheriff to be exempt (unclassified) pursuant to this section be under the classified civil service at the time of such selection, and should it be occupied, the position shall remain under the classified civil service until the civil servant occupying it at the time of the selection vacates that position."

On motion of Senator Wilson, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2112 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Wilson yield? Senator Wilson, during the committee meeting with regard to this measure, was there testimony from any representatives of employees within the King County police organizations?"

Senator Wilson: "No, there was not, Senator, although I might point out that this bill does not affect King County in any way. Last year, or the year before, the Legislature passed a bill providing twelve exempt positions in the King County sheriff's office, and that remains unchanged by this bill."

Senator Grant: "What about with respect to the rule of three rather than the rule of one in appointments? Will that apply to King County, or will it not? I am not as concerned with the exemptions from civil service as I am with regard to the rule of three in appointments."

Senator Wilson: "I wonder if there may be somebody else on the floor can answer that question more accurately than I, although it would be my feeling that it would apply to King County."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Thank you, Mr. President. Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, what about the situation in a large office such as King County where they need someone who not only has law enforcement experience and probably gets high grades on civil service exams, but also needs to have some administrative capabilities and maybe some loyalty to the sheriff who has been elected by the people?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Day, Senator Wilson has already responded to that. The sheriff's department within King County is an example. The number of exempt positions has already been expanded by legislation last session, and those appointments can be made on any kind of consideration. He can make those appointments based on pure political considerations or administrative considerations or whatever other considerations he desires. We are talking about entry into the department, entry level positions which also affects, not only the commission personnel, but also affects those people that are noncommissioned within those departments, the clerical people, as well. By this measure, I think you are broadening it considerably beyond what I would like to see."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, would Senator Grant yield, please? In regard to the rule of three, my understanding, I could perhaps be mistaken, that that is relatively a common rule. For instance, could you answer that, and also whether or not the rule of three is utilized in filling civil service positions in other state and local governmental operations under a merit system?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Washington, you are correct. In other agencies it is broader than within police organizations. I believe, though, that this was an initiative provision to begin with for the whole civil service system for county sheriffs throughout the state of Washington was established by initiative and it specifically a rule of one was established because of the nature of the work within law enforcement. To broaden that, now, without even having any testimony from those most directly affected, I think is improper. There are devices in personnel systems and civil service systems whether you have a rule of one or a rule of three that can be used to select. One of the devices I have seen used oftentimes is the oral examination, and the type of board that conducts that examination, and it is dependent to some extent on the weight given to that kind of examination. The system now has some protections in it that don't exist in other civil service systems, and I think that is good."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Wilson respond to a question, then, before we move? Senator Wilson, under the amendment as proposed by you and adopted, if a sheriff should come in, and if under the language on page 4, these people who are enumerated as being those which would be unclassified, in other words, under sheriff, inspector, chief criminal deputy, chief civil deputy, jail superintendent, A. A. and administrative secretary. It seems to me, you could very well have a situation where a new sheriff would move in, and he would be unable under your amendment as adopted to change any of the top personnel, and I don't know whether that is a good situation. If those six people who were the chief deputies of the former sheriff wanted to remain on, and that would be a very likely case, then the new sheriff would be unable to institute or to bring his philosophy into play if those people were antagonistic to his position. I wonder if we are doing the right thing with that situation."

Senator Wilson: "Senator Mardesich, it may take a period of time and a certain amount of attrition before county sheriffs in certain counties will be able to fully implement this act in terms of appointing their top assistants of their own choosing. It was my feeling however, in providing this greater flexibility to county sheriffs that we should not make it possible because of the passage of this bill, to give the sheriff the authority to fire a civil servant purely through passage of this bill."

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I wonder if he would respond to another question. Wouldn't we be more logical if we were to provide that those people could only be moved down in terms of position rather than fired and then give the sheriff some flexibility, and yet assure to those people who were formerly in those positions a degree of permanence of employment rather than facing a sure firing? Isn't that what we really are trying to accomplish?"

Senator Wilson: "Senator Mardesich, I imagine that would be possible. I have had in mind in the preparation of this amendment the situation faced by a deputy sheriff who has perhaps been in civil service in a department for fifteen, twenty years. It has become his career. He has entered this service and is retaining his interest in the service, partly because of the protections afforded to him by the civil service system, and I did not feel that we should abruptly terminate his position or degrade him in any fashion purely through this effort to provide a little more flexibility to the sheriff."

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Liza Del Guzzi and Robert Wiswall, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR FATHER, THERE IS A GREAT SPIRIT OF GRATITUDE WHICH WELLS UP WITHIN US WHEN THE WORLD YOU HAVE CREATED PROVIDES FOR THE NEEDS WHICH WE FEEL SO STRONGLY. SO WE HAVE THANKED YOU FOR THE SUNSHINE, AND ITS ENERGY AND WARMTH AND LIGHT. AND TODAY WE THANK YOU FOR THE RAIN. WE ARE GRATEFUL THAT YOUR RAINS FALL ALIKE ON THE JUST AND UPON THE UNJUST, FOR THERE IS A LITTLE BIT OF EACH OF US IN BOTH OF THOSE GROUPS. TODAY, OUR FATHER, WE STILL NEED RAIN, AND EVEN MORE, WE NEED TO BE FOUND ON THE SIDE OF THE JUST. WHILE YOU ARE THE SOURCE OF THE RAIN, THE PEOPLE IN THIS ROOM HAVE MUCH TO DO WITH ITS CONSERVATION, ITS DISTRIBUTION, AND WITH THE ENERGY IT SUPPLIES. #### GOVERNOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE Governor Ray: "Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Legislature:

"Today, it is my privilege to come before you and present the first fiscal message of my new administration. In developing this message, I have kept one thought foremost in my mind: We—this Legislature and this administration—you and I together, must take steps to solve some of the fiscal issues which have lingered unresolved in recent years and now press upon us with a growing sense of urgency.

"The issues are well known—school funding, tax reform, and pension reform, to name a few. It is solutions that have been elusive. But the time has come to confront these issues and to create workable solutions that do not borrow unreasonably against the future nor impose unfair burdens on our citizens. We owe the people of this state a fiscal plan that is both fair and workable.

"The 1977-79 biennium budget that I am proposing to you today totals $8.1 billion of which $5.2 billion is the General Fund portion. It represents an overall increase of 24.7 percent over the estimated expenditures for the current biennium.

"That's not the whole story. This proposal reflects the austerity era which I launched with a recent executive order and which I believe is essential for improving the financial condition of the state. It also reflects a reduction of $235.5 million from the 1977-79 budget plan proposed by former Governor Dan Evans last month.

"I will discuss the specifics of my proposed reductions in a moment, but first, I must comment on taxes.

"During the past twelve years, this state government has followed a set of fiscal policies that have required a steady stream of tax increases. The retail sales and use tax has been increased three times—in 1965, in 1967, and again in 1976. The business and occupation tax was increased in 1976. Taxes on alcoholic beverages were increased in 1965, 1969, 1971 and 1973. The public utility tax was increased in 1971. State taxes on cigarettes and tobacco now stand at 45% of the wholesale price, having been increased in 1965 and again in 1971.

"True, some of the pressure for these increases has come from a tax structure that does not generate revenues in proportion to increases in state income levels, but there has also been an unprecedented expansion of state government during the past twelve years, and state spending has increased by 261% since 1965. This is an increase far beyond that necessary to accommodate inflationary pressures. We must now bring unrestricted growth under control. We must establish new fiscal policies that will keep state spending at a level that is within our ability to pay. We must learn to say no.

"In prosperous times we must avoid the temptation to spend all of our increased tax resources for expanding government services to a level which we are later unable to sustain without tax increases. In other words, if a program cannot be justified during periods of a stable economy or recession, it should not be funded during periods of prosperity. In this administration, I will do my best to accumulate surpluses during periods of economic expansion so that we may continue the essential programs during the periods of slowdown.

"We must also come to recognize that state government cannot be responsible for all of the problems which confront local governments. In the past 12 years the state has assumed responsibility for contributing to mass transit and for funding the Law Enforcement Officers' and Firefighters' Pension Systems. While the need for these programs cannot be disputed, it is irresponsible for the state to assume these additional burdens without either developing new sources of revenue or eliminating programs of comparable expenditure. These two programs alone now cost the state millions to finance—millions we do not have. This forces us to either increase taxes or curtail services in other areas.

"I am aware of similar bills before the Legislature this session. I will not oppose them so long as they provide for specific sources of additional revenues or for reductions—with which I agree—in other programs. However, I would prefer that additional taxing powers be extended to local governments so that those who benefit and must pay can better determine expenditure priorities.

"Increases in federal funding over the last 12 years have substantially contributed to the increased services the state now offers to its citizens. Unfortunately, federal funding is often contingent upon the development of new programs which may or may not be consistent with the state's highest priorities. More important from a financial standpoint is the fact that such federal funds are too often later withdrawn, leaving the state with the obligation either to eliminate the programs or to fund them with state dollars. We all know how difficult it is to terminate a program once it is underway. It means discharging employees and often, it also means alienating large constituency groups that have become dependent on it. Consequently, this 'carrot approach' used by the federal government has led the state into funding and maintaining programs that are not necessarily consistent with our own priorities and our own funding limitations.

"It will be the policy of this administration to examine carefully all offers of federal assistance and determine before acceptance that the programs that we agree to sponsor are consistent with our own priorities. This administration will not be afraid to say no.

"Now, I want to talk about fiscal integrity.

"The fiscal policies of the prior administration not only resulted in continuous tax increases, but they have brought us dangerously close to being unable to redeem, with cash, the warrants we have issued.

"As of January 8, 1977, just four days before I assumed office, the General Fund cash deficit was $158.7 million, an increase of approximately $85 million since the same time one year ago. So far we have been able to avoid paying interest on warrants by borrowing from other state accounts which are not yet in a deficit position. This practice costs us at least five percent return on the amount borrowed. We cannot continue to rely on such borrowings from other accounts, nor can we allow the situation to grow worse. If we continue to meet our obligations in this manner, we will be forced to borrow from the banks. That would most likely cause the financial market to downgrade our financial rating resulting in higher interest rates for our bond issues. Adoption of my program will enable us to preserve our credit rating and avoid millions of dollars in increased interest charges.

"The difficulty we are experiencing in meeting our cash requirements without borrowing from other accounts has been caused mainly by accounting transactions which shifted revenue, but not cash, from future to current biennia. Accounting gimmicks like these have resulted in a General Fund deficit that now raises the possibility of the state being forced to issue registered warrants until the situation improves. This is our legacy from the last administration.

"I wish to make it known now that I do not like to use accounting gimmicks to balance the books. One of the goals of my administration will be to establish a sound fiscal basis for revenue collections, cash flow scheduling and expenditure controls that will improve the accounting integrity of our financial processes.

"Now, before turning to specific programs, I wish to comment briefly on the budget proposed by my predecessor and note some of our differences.

"The Evans' budget reflects the pattern of tax increases which characterized that administration. Specifically, the Evans' budget proposes that the state sales tax, one of the most regressive of personal taxes, be increased by one percent and that the B&O tax, one of the most regressive of all business taxes, be increased by twenty-five percent. Thus many of our citizens least able to pay were being asked to contribute an additional $650 million each biennium. While this might have been somewhat justified if the new revenues were to be used entirely for common schools, thus reducing the amount of property taxes, that was not the case. Only a little more than $200 million of the $650 million was to be used for that purpose. The remaining $450 million was required to finance program enhancements and growth in the cost of services. Unfortunately, even $650 million is not sufficient to fund the proposed service level. The true figure is closer to $700 million. Further, while the Evans' plan includes full funding for basic education only for the second year of the coming biennium, the requested tax increase covers twenty-five months. Obviously, in succeeding biennia we must fund both years and we cannot continue to do it simply by lengthening the biennial period for revenue purposes. Consequently, the Evans' budget lays the groundwork for even higher tax increases during the 1979-81 biennium in order to continue to meet our commitment to the common schools. When all of these conditions are recognized it becomes apparent that the Evans' budget proposal would commit the state to an expenditure level exceeding $1 billion in new obligations during the 1979-81 biennium. That is equivalent to more than a two percent increase in the state sales tax.

"Unlike the previous governor, I propose no increase in the state sales tax nor in the business and occupation surtax. The present level of those regressive taxes is onerous enough. Instead, I intend to balance my budget proposal through the addition of $112 million in one-time revenues, $95 million through increasing the motor vehicle excise tax, $11 million through holding the inventory tax credit at forty percent for two years, $17.5 million through certain fund transfers, and $235.5 million in expenditure reductions.

"In addition to these specific expenditure reductions, each agency of state government must be committed to further cost reductions, to be achieved through improved efficiency and effectiveness of their operations. To this end, I will designate a subgroup of my cabinet to serve as a management committee. This management committee group will consist of department heads. Theirs will be the responsibility to evaluate and make recommendations on major improvements to increase the efficiency of state government.

"This committee will also be charged with maintaining public service levels within the reduced resources proposed by this budget. My administration will not tolerate the continuous proliferation of state government which marked the previous twelve years. Note again that while state spending has increased 261% since 1965, the total number of state agencies, boards, commissions has mushroomed to well over 350, and the total number of state employees has grown to more than 56,000. It is time to define just what limits there are on the role of state government. We must challenge not only the way we do things but why we do them. I am not suggesting that this task will be easy. It will not. It will require the complete dedication of the management team and all state employees, the people who are ultimately responsible for making anything work in state government.

"It would not be totally honest to imply that these proposals will solve our problems. For now, I am recommending the use of one time revenues to fund expenditure levels which will become a continuing requirement. Therefore, we will need additional taxes for the 1979-81 biennium.

"What I propose is this: A joint legislative-executive campaign to reform our regressive tax structure before 1979. I do not propose to continue balancing the state budget at the expense of those who can least afford to pay the increased taxes. Instead, I propose to work diligently during the coming year to explain our regressive tax structure to our citizens around our state and to caution them that, unless we can bring about a tax reform which includes some kind of graduated income tax within the next two years, we will be facing tax havoc in the spiraling discrimination of our sales and B&O taxes. Already we lead the nation with the most regressive state and local tax structure. I think the time has come to face up to this issue and to develop an equitable tax reform package that can be intelligently discussed with the citizens of our state. I am convinced that people will understand the urgency of tax reform if we establish controls on spending and reverse the continuous upward spiral of government costs, and if we provide a tax reform package that truly offers the kind of tax relief that is needed; one that distributes the tax burden equitably according to one's ability to pay. I believe that we can accomplish this needed reform if we work together to bring it about. I pledge my support to such a joint effort and I encourage you to join with me in this partnership. Together we can face up to these most pressing fiscal issues and begin to resolve our funding problems that have all but paralyzed this state government in recent years.

"I turn now to specific program highlights of my proposal.

COMMON SCHOOL EDUCATION

"Funding of the common schools is the top priority of this legislative session. The Thurston County Superior Court has ruled that special school levies must be used for special purposes only and that a contemporary education program must be funded by means other than special levies no later than July 1, 1979. This, of course, clearly means that the state must promptly assume the obligation of properly and appropriately funding a program of basic education for our children.

"Even without the added impetus of this court decision, the issue of properly funding the common schools is one requiring the concerted attention of this Legislature. For too long common school financing has had to rely on an annual property tax levy. This system of financing has thwarted proper planning, diverted attention from educational programs and left the individual district's programs unacceptably vulnerable.

"The issue of ample common school financing is now squarely before us, and it is pointless to speculate as to whether it can be avoided. It cannot. This Legislature must commit itself to solving the levy problem which has plagued us for more than a decade, and to do it without sacrificing the quality of our educational programs.

"It is my objective to reduce and limit excess levies voted by the people to ten percent of total costs by the 1979-80 school year and to permit such levies to be used only for enhancement purposes, such as additional course offerings, class size reduction and other special programs. It should be clearly understood, however, that levy support must of necessity be a very real component of financing the basic education program of our common schools until that time.

"The limitation on and reduction in school levies amount to a direct tax relief for the property owner. It also requires that other tax sources be found to replace lost revenue and that the new revenue be collected and distributed at the state level.

"The budget I am proposing includes approximately $2.1 billion for common school education during the 1977-79 biennium. This level of support commits us to additional resources during the 1979-81 biennium. There can be no avenue of retreat.

"The budget I recommend provides the phase-in during the 1977-79 biennium necessary to accomplish full state funding of basic education by the first year of the following biennium. It thus conforms to the directive of the recent superior court decision. To accomplish this, I propose funding a formula essentially as proposed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction at 90% of the cost of basic education for the 1978-79 school year.

"The Thurston County Superior Court decision requires that the Legislature define 'basic education.' Once the Legislature has accomplished this, my goal will be to revise our regressive tax structure so that the state will be in a better position to increase its support of our public schools without adding the greatest part of the increased tax burden to those least able to afford it.

"I have included a salary increase for K-12 certified and classified employees equal to 5.5% the first year and an additional 2.5% each year to fund the cost of increments. Our teachers now enjoy salaries which rank them fourth in the nation and this proposal will maintain that level. The Legislature must, in turn, address the issue of locally negotiated salary levels. Without some constraints on salary levels, additional state support will not guarantee better educational programs.

"The state commitment to eliminate school district reliance on special levies for basic educational programs is, in fact, a recognition that a shifting of taxes is mandatory. The alternatives are limited. Either we adopt a constitutional amendment allowing for an income tax, or we will be forced to increase the state sales and B&O taxes substantially during the 1979-81 biennium.

STATE PENSION SYSTEMS

"I want to turn to another area of critical concern—that of our state pension systems. There have been times during the past several years when our pension systems have been used as a convenient means of balancing the state's constantly escalating budget. Such accounting manipulations have seriously jeopardized the security of members' benefits and, worse, the financial integrity of the pension systems. Moreover, certain provisions in the rules governing the systems have created glaring inequities. In some cases employees whose contributions have been minimal are able to reap windfall benefits. That this situation has been permitted to go on this long is morally irresponsible and fiscally reckless.

"As a first step toward responsible pension funding, I propose a reduction in the investment earning potential assumed in Evans' budget from 7% to 6.75%. This reduction which is prudent and proper will require the addition of $24.3 million in state contributions during the 1977-79 biennium.

"This, however, is a first step only. The Legislature must now endeavor to place our pension systems on sound financial footing and resist the temptation to underfund them which, in any case, provides only temporary relief from a financial burden. To protect the pension systems from further erosion and abuse, and at the same time solve the problem of a growing unfunded liability, I strongly urge and support pension reform. But I want to make it clear right now that pension reform means substantive reform. I will veto any pension reform measure that is only cosmetic. Responsible pension reform should consider the following factors:

1. Establishment of social security payments as the first dollar benefit in determining final pension benefits.
2. Revision of present benefit formulas so that greater equity can be achieved between lower paid employees and higher paid employees.
3. Possible inclusion of a cost-of-living factor in benefit formulas to protect the purchasing power of an individual's pension even if the initial benefit entitlement must be less.
4. Revision of the length of employment required to qualify for a pension based on the state's overall personnel policies. The fundamental question is whether we should use the pension system to encourage early retirement.
5. Provisions for employees to transfer between present or future systems.
6. Finally, protection of the current retirement systems members' benefits since we have both a moral and a legal obligation to do so.

"This Legislature—in being asked to correct pension system abuses of many years standing and also provide ample funding for basic education—has before it a monumental task. The resolution of either issue could occupy the entire session. I can appreciate that possibility; however, I am committed to both of these issues. They must be resolved. Therefore, I propose that we jointly work toward pension reform. If the legislative leadership and I cannot agree upon a comprehensive pension reform bill within the next few days, we should defer the issue and I will pledge to submit a comprehensive pension reform proposal before August 31, 1977. We can then devote our complete attention to this vital issue during the 1978 special legislative session. This added time will also allow the general public to review my proposal before the 1978 session when pension reform will surely be the first item of concern.

STATE EMPLOYEES' SALARY INCREASES

"Our state employees deserve to be fairly compensated for the work they perform, and the inequities of current state salaries must be addressed in this legislative session. In 1975 the Legislature directed that a salary survey be conducted by an outside consultant in order to provide objective data upon which to base salary increases. The survey was conducted and presented to the 1976 Legislature for its consideration. The Legislature responded by implementing one-half of the 1975 survey findings effective July 1, 1976.

"Time and inflation continue to erode all salaries including those of state employees. Therefore, I am recommending implementation of the balance of the survey findings and further changes in salaries which will raise the total compensation increase to an average of ten percent for all classified employees. Further, I am recommending a ten percent increase for higher education faculty and a six percent increase for the State Patrol.

"I am aware of the controversies which have accompanied recent salary surveys and for that reason I support those specific portions of House Bill 602 and Senate Bill 2383 which provide legislative and executive branch guidance for the conduct of salary surveys, so we might be better able to understand and work with the results of the surveys.

"In addition to salaries, one area that is of concern to all state employees is the state's contribution to medical insurance. Since the $35 a month rate was established in 1974, medical insurance premiums have increased drastically, yet the state's contribution remains unchanged.

"On the average, premiums have increased over 50% since 1974, and further increases can be expected during the next biennium. I am, therefore, requesting that the state contribution be increased to $72.50 a month effective July 1. This increased contribution will reduce the employee's share of insurance premiums and encourage increased medical and life insurance coverage.

HUMAN RESOURCES

"As you well know, I am deeply concerned that we both adequately and efficiently provide for the genuine human needs of our citizens. In light of these concerns, I have appointed a select panel to study the organization and operation of the Department of Social and Health Services.

"In the meantime, some adjustments from the prior administration's budget are in order. For example, recent workload experience in the department suggests that original workload estimates were, in some cases, too high and that appropriate budget reductions are warranted.

"First caseloads in the major income maintenance programs continue to run below previous estimates; and for the most recent months, savings have been reflected in the medical assistance program as well. Accordingly, my budget recommendations for the coming biennium reflect these caseload changes. Secondly, the cost of continuing the 'current level' of spending for most major programs is less than was originally forecast, and some additional savings will result from the freeze on hiring. Therefore, my budget for the new biennium reflects a lower allowance for current spending levels.

"Additional savings are also being made by withholding support at the present time for many program enrichments which, although perhaps desirable, have not been sufficiently substantiated for me to recommend them as priority needs. I will be better able to identify the priorities after my select panel studying the organization of the department submits its report to me in June of this year.

"In total, my recommended state General Fund budget for the Department of Social and Health Services amounts to approximately $936.4 million, an increase of $95.2 million or 11.3 percent over current estimated state general fund expenditures of $841.2 million. With the addition of anticipated federal funds the department's total budget is approximately $1.6 billion.

"Washington State offers a full range of public assistance and medical assistance benefits, ranking 15th among the fifty states in the level of income maintenance grants, and my recommendations will maintain this position.

"In the public assistance areas of income maintenance, social services and medical assistance, I am recommending vendor increases of $67.5 million and caseload standard increases of $58.2 million to cover the projected cost of inflation. An increase in state funding of $18.2 million is also needed to offset a reduction in federal matching funds for these programs. I am also recommending that child care services be expanded to permit employment of welfare recipients, and that the demonstration project on aging be continued pending legislative review. In addition, I am recommending increased enforcement to collect delinquent child support payments and third party medical recovery costs.

"In Adult Corrections, I am recommending several major items to increase our capacity to handle the growing institutional populations. These include additional staffing at the correctional institutions, additional work release facilities for 150 persons and a new honor camp.

"For the Mental Health program, I am recommending expanded inpatient services for mentally ill children, and continuation of long term treatment and program improvements in the alcoholism program. I am also proposing funding adequate institutional staffing ratios to assure accreditation.

"For Developmental Disabilities, I am recommending both client caseload and program increases for group homes and developmental disabilities centers, additional funding and staff for case services, and $3.4 million for the operation of three new residential training centers to be constructed during the coming year.

"Several other human resources programs require comment. I am recommending the transfer of both Comprehensive Health Planning and Drug Abuse Prevention Office from the Planning and Community Affairs Agency to the Department of Social and Health Services. These programs should be continued at current levels. I am also recommending inclusion in the Planning and Community Affairs Agency budget of the federally funded Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program, which amounts to $112 million. The remaining Planning and Community Affairs Agency programs should be continued at the current levels.

"The Human Rights Commission budget of $2.9 million provides the $1.1 million increase necessary to deal with a serious backlog of complaints and to reduce the processing delays which have contributed to this problem.

"For the Department of Veterans' Affairs, I am recommending continuation of the thirteen field service offices at approximately $1.2 million and continuation of institutional and administrative programs.

HIGHER EDUCATION

"The operating budget I propose for our institutions of higher education totals $1.2 billion, an increase of $137 million over estimated expenditures for the current biennium. This budget will provide for the continuation of existing programs at the current level and for a modest amount of program enrichment.

"The growth of higher education in the State of Washington during the last fifteen years has been dramatic. Enrollment grew from just under 62,000 in the fall of 1962 to more than 236,000 in the fall of 1976, an increase of 283%.

"The years following World War II also brought about major growth in our community colleges, expanding them from eight campuses in 1945, when they were supported by local funds, to twenty-seven campuses today, supported since 1967 entirely by state funds and student fees. The combined enrollment of these institutions now stands at 158,000 students.

"I think we can now expect a stabilization of enrollment, although growth will occur in selected areas, such as continuing education and the vocationally oriented programs offered by our community colleges and vocational technical institutes. At the same time it appears that we may well see a decline in enrollment in some of our liberal arts programs.

"I have asked that our enrollment projections for these institutions of higher education be reevaluated in light of the latest fall quarter enrollment. This action may result in revised projections for both the four-year schools and the community colleges.

"The costs of higher education have increased substantially in recent years. The public cannot, and should not, be expected to absorb all of this increase. The extra burden should be borne, at least in part, by those who directly receive and benefit from these services. I have, therefore, reluctantly recommended an increase in the operating fees paid by students. The fee increase that I recommend is in proportion to the cost of the educational services provided. It is the first such increase since 1971, and will generate approximately $32 million during the ensuing biennium.

"It is not my intention to bar the student with limited financial resources from our institutions of higher learning. I am also proposing, therefore, to increase the amount of financial aid available to low income students. This amount will be equivalent to an additional three percent in tuition and fee waivers. This additional support, applied directly where the need exists, will make it possible both to increase the number of students served and to improve the capacity of each college and university to meet the individual needs of its students.

"I am sure you all share my firm belief that the student of exceptional potential should be encouraged to advance his or her education. I believe that the contributions to society made by these gifted individuals far outweigh the costs of assisting in their education. I am, therefore, proposing that institutions of higher education be authorized to use one-sixth of the existing three percent fee waiver for the purpose of encouraging students of high potential, without regard to their financial resources, to seek advanced education. This should result in fee waivers to approximately 600 to 700 students annually at a cost of $380,000.

"The Legislature, in the development of its appropriations for institutions of higher education for the current biennium, proposed certain levels of support. I realize that these levels do not provide the quality of education that I would like to see available in our colleges and universities. I do believe, however, that given existing revenue constraints, these levels are realistic and reflect the funding priorities of our state as a whole. I am therefore proposing, in response to this dilemma, that approximately one-third of the additional revenue generated by my proposed fee increase be used to enhance educational programs. The remaining two-thirds is recommended to offset the added costs of inflation.

TRANSPORTATION

"To finance the proposed highway budget, the prior administration planned to issue $30 million in bonds and to obtain an additional $10 million in one-time receipts. Although I might be able to support such a plan if the need were temporary, I cannot recommend such a proposal when it is clear that the level of need expressed in the budget will be a continuing one. Historically, we have largely financed the highway systems from gas revenues, and I subscribe to this concept for a recurring level of need. Accordingly, I support the legislation which calls for a variable gas tax not to exceed twelve cents per gallon. This level of funding will allow us to preserve our investment in the highway system while stimulating the state economy and increasing employment. I also support use of the additional monies to fund the deficit in the ferry system operations for the next biennium with no increase in ferry tolls. At the same time, as chairman of the Toll Bridge Authority, I intend to take a hard look at our water transportation system and to initiate improvements in this mode of transportation. We must begin to look at some new alternatives like passenger-only ferries and to develop cost effective approaches that will enable us to maintain service at levels users can afford.

"Finally, I have reviewed the Highway Commission's proposed construction budget for the next biennium and recommend full funding. It provides for completion of the interstate system and for other needed construction at a cost of $419 million, approximately two-thirds of which will be federal money. It provides for replacement of obsolete Puget Sound ferries through construction of two 100-car vessels to be financed through a $30 million bond issue. It also provides for restoration of an adequate program of highway maintenance. The total proposal represents a 26.7% increase over the present biennium.

CAPITAL BUDGET

"For the Capital Budget I propose $237 million in reappropriations for continuation of projects currently under construction. I also recommend a moratorium on bond issues related to approximately $150 million in capital projects until I have completed my detailed assessment of the priorities of the operating programs these projects support. The taxpayer should not be burdened either with the capital cost or the indefinite upkeep of facilities whose benefit may prove marginal. I note that unused Northern State Hospital costs a quarter of a million dollars a year just to maintain. I will not authorize the construction of new facilities until I am convinced that existing ones like Northern State Hospital are prudently utilized.

"I will support any new projects that can be proved to be essential for the health or safety of persons or for compliance with existing building codes. For example, I will support expansion of maximum security facilities to relieve the overcrowding problems in our state prisons. I will further support capital projects shown to be essential for continuation of current services or for the preservation of existing structures. Renovation projects to conserve energy, improve space utilization, or provide access for the handicapped will be reviewed on an individual basis and will likely be supported.

SUMMARY

"To summarize, I am proposing a total budget of $8.1 billion without calling for increases in either the state sales tax or the business and occupation tax.

"I am assuming receipt of federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) funds estimated at $112 million—almost double those received in the current biennium. This estimate is based on announcements received on February 18 from the U.S. Department of Labor. No CETA funding was included in the prior administration's budget, an oversight which strikes me as a rather strange mixture of priorities given the desperate unemployment situation which now exists both here and across the nation.

"To balance this budget, I am calling for an overall reduction of $235.5 million below the level proposed in the Evans' budget. This includes a 'tightening up' of approximately five percent within almost all state agencies. I will provide the details of my proposals for each state agency to the Legislature in the next few days.

"My proposal assumes continuation of the temporary 0.1% increase in the sales tax and the 6.0% B&O surtax that has been in effect since June 1976.

"I also propose holding the business inventory tax reduction at 40% for two years and will propose a transfer to the General Fund the unexpended and unneeded balances from the community college bond fund and from the Treasurer's revolving fund. These actions together will provide an estimated $28.5 million in additional funds.

"I will propose legislation that will shift the collection of the state property taxes from twice a year to once a year. This one-time shift will not generate additional taxes but it will provide $112 million in additional collections within the 1977-79 biennial period.

"Finally, I am proposing an increase in the Motor Vehicle Excise Tax rate from two to three percent. This tax, one of the least regressive in our tax structure, was last changed in 1959. This proposal will generate an additional $95 million in new revenue.

"These recommendations, taken together, will result in revenues from state General Fund sources of $4,178.6 million. I have proposed expenditures from state General Fund sources of $4,157.5 million. My budget proposal, therefore, will yield a balance of $21.1 million in state funds.

"I suggest that it is prudent and sensible to leave a small reserve for unforeseen contingencies. There is, after all, the immediate uncertainty as to what the final economic effects of our present drought condition may be. There is the further possibility that adverse shifts in our economic plan could occur and cause revenues to decline while expenditures grow in order to accommodate a rising caseload in our public assistance program.

"In closing, I want to thank each of you in this Legislature for the courtesies you have shown me during these opening days of my administration. It is my wish to work closely with you in the months ahead so that, together, we can take those steps that are so desperately needed in order to develop solutions and achieve reforms that truly address the crucial fiscal issues that confront us today. Thank you."

MOTION

At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Marsh, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2175, by Senator Rasmussen:

Allowing beer and wine to be served in containers other than glasses or bottles.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2175. On February 10, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted. On February 17, 1977, Senator Day explained two amendments but were not moved for adoption at that time and the bill was held for consideration at a later time.

There being no objection, the amendments discussed by Senator Day on February 17, 1977 were withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2175 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Mr. President, will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, your point, the other day when we talked about this, was related to the operation in the state, or at least a portion of the state, of Coors' beer or Coors brewery. What is the effect now of your withdrawal of the amendment and their operation within the state?"

Senator Day: "That doesn't change the present status of their operation, Senator."

Senator Lewis: "Would you elaborate as to what their status is in this state?"

Senator Day: "This is going in the record, Senator. Do you want me to?"

Senator Lewis: "Well, I think we should have the facts."

Senator Day: "I think that there is a misconception by the board that they can draft a rule that would exempt a beer sold in containers of less than, I believe it is seven and one-half gallons, from pasteurization by a substitute process that is not pasteurization when pasteurization is written right into the statute, and I don't think they can. I think if there were something in there about a process to reduce the bacteria or control the bacterial count in the fermentation process in beer, that they then could draw a rule implementing that process, denoting it as being pasteurization or some other method such as filtration. But the statute specifically says pasteurization, and so I feel that if we are allowed to introduce bills, and I cannot find a title, that I will offer an amendment in the special session which will rectify the problem."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2175, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—45.

Absent or not voting: Senator Benitz—1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Grant, Woody—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2175, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2215.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2215, by Senators Francis, Woody and Clarke:
Revising probate laws.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 2215. On February 18, 1977, the committee amendments were adopted. A notice of reconsideration was given by Senator Bottiger on adoption of the committee amendment to page 9, line 14 at that time.

There being no objection, Senator Bottiger withdrew his notice of reconsideration.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 23, insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 11.12.050, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If, after making any will, the testator shall marry and the spouse shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such will shall be deemed revoked as to such spouse, unless provision shall have been made for such survivor by marriage settlement, or unless such survivor be provided for in the will or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision (~~(, and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of revocation shall be received)~~): PROVIDED, That the presumption of revocation may be rebutted and all evidence otherwise admissible may be offered to show the intention of the decedent that any will in effect at the time of marriage should not be revoked. A divorce, subsequent to the making of a will, shall revoke the will as to the divorced spouse."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 21 beginning on line 1 after "thereon;" strike all the material down to and including "legatee," on line 2 and insert: "~~((at the request of the personal representative or any said heir, devisee, or legatee,))~~ before the estate is closed"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Looking at this bill, I think this is kind of a minor bill. Are these amendments that Senator Rasmussen is putting on, have they been discussed in committee or what?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Herr, these amendments have not been discussed in committee. I believe that some of the amendments have not been discussed in committee. I believe that some of the amendments of Senator Rasmussen may have been discussed in caucus, and some of them, I think, are well taken and some are not. I was planning to deal with them one at a time, but no, they have not been worked in committee."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Senator Rasmussen, now these amendments you are adding on here, are these your ideas or some other group or what?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Herr, they affect your constituents, my constituents and everybody else all over the state. I think they assist the bill in making a better bill out of it, and the answer is, no, we do not represent any special interest."

Senator Herr: "Well, Mr. President, you know, I think, you know, I respect the chairman of judiciary committee, and these things are attaching, I think, adding these amendments on the floor are kind of sometimes a bad precedent."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I think Senator Herr is in error. The precedent is that we have always added amendments on the floor when we think there are places a bill may be improved. I am sorry that he didn't realize that."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, are probates handled on an hourly cost basis or are they handled on a fee basis on a probate, on the total of the—"

Senator Clarke: "That varies from firm to firm, but I think most firms handle it on an hourly basis coupled, perhaps in some instances, with the importance of the question involved as to what they would charge for their experience with respect to the hourly charge."

Senator Rasmussen: "So then, it would add no cost to the probate as far as that is concerned, but they do pay a sizeable fee and this would be included in that fee."

Senator Clarke: "Well, if your requirement would take more time and effort on the part of the lawyer and his staff, obviously it is going to increase the cost."

Senator Rasmussen: "But doesn't the lawyer have to prepare this material anyway in order to settle the estate and lay it out there for the executives to observe?"

Senator Clarke: "I think you are correct in that most of this material would have to be prepared, but the question of, in effect, giving notice to people who have not signified that they have any interest in contesting the thing. Now if there is an antagonism among the heirs so that there is likely to be a conflict of interest, this almost always shows up early in the probate proceedings, and normally, then the contesting heirs will be represented by their own counsel, and will come in and ask for a notice of all these proceedings and the notice will then be given, so the right is there, but the requirement that this be done in all estates is the situation where I think, in substance, you are adding rather than detracting from the cost."

Senator Rasmussen: "It would appear to me it would be advantageous to the judge also, his knowledge that he would have before him."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 7, on line 34, insert the following:

"Sec. 9. Section 11.52.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 7, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that no homestead has been claimed in the manner provided by law, either prior or subsequent to the death of the person whose estate is being administered, then the court, after hearing and upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration have been paid or provided for, and upon petition for that purpose, shall award and set off to the surviving spouse, if any, property of the estate, either community or separate, not exceeding the value of ((twenty)) thirty thousand dollars at the time of death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased spouse, and exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic's, laborer's or materialmen's liens upon the property so set off, and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse; provided that the court shall have no jurisdiction to make such award unless the petition therefor is filed with the clerk within six years from the date of the death of the person whose estate is being administered.

Sec. 10. Section 11.52.020, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In event a homestead has been, or shall be selected in the manner provided by law, whether the selection of such homestead results in vesting the complete or partial title in the survivor, it shall be the duty of the court, upon petition of any person interested, and upon being satisfied that the value thereof does not exceed ((twenty)) thirty thousand dollars at the time of the death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased and exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic's, laborer's, or materialmen's liens thereon, and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse, to enter a decree, upon notice as provided in RCW 11.52.014 or upon longer notice if the court so orders, setting off and awarding such homestead to the survivor, thereby vesting the title thereto in fee simple in the survivor: PROVIDED, That if there be any incompetent heirs of the decedent, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such incompetent heir who shall appear at the hearing and represent the interest of such incompetent heir."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and change internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, what would you think would be the appropriate amount to increase the homestead?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, I think that the wording of your question is kind of like, 'Have you stopped beating your wife?' I would disagree with your basic premise that it has to be increased. We did just recently double it, and I am convinced that twenty-thousand dollars is about the right amount. My reasoning is this: This kind of provision applies all across the board. It applies to situations of a young wife with very small preschool children who needs all of the funds right away, and it applies to people who don't have that situation at all, and in trying to balance that out, in creating a law that applies to everybody, I think twenty-thousand dollars is a reasonable amount."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "probate;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 11.12.050, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.12.050;"

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2215 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Francis, would you point out to me where it is going to improve the rapidity of transfer of properties and where the savings are going to occur?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Guess, I could not do that without going through the entire bill again. I did go through and it took me an hour to go through it in caucus, and I understood that Senators Hayner and Clarke went through it in the Republican caucus. If you have any questions about any of the amendments and what they would do to help, I think it might speed the process up as far as answering that, but the amendments themselves to the present law, I think each of them helps in the ways that I have indicated."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I would like to indirectly respond to Senator Guess's question. I know that he is interested in the uniform probate code. The uniform probate code was introduced here four years ago — five years ago, I guess, and at that time there was a committee, a subcommittee, set up in the House and the Senate to consider amending our probate code. We went through the uniform probate code section by section, examining what we thought were the beneficial aspects of the uniform probate code and, where possible, integrating those into our present code.

"Our code, in many respects, was far superior to the uniform probate code, and I truly believe that the provisions that were taken from the uniform probate code and integrated into it have improved it. I also think that there are things in the uniform probate code that we would not, in any way, want to have in our code.

"We did pass this in 1974. It became law, and I think many lawyers do feel that there was substantial improvement to expedite the settlement of estates and to cut down on the costs and the time involved. So I feel that those who are pushing the uniform probate code need to examine our own code to see that it is really better than the uniform probate code."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Thank you, Mr. President. Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, yesterday I asked you a question I told you I would probably ask you today. With this exemption, if a piece of property is owned specifically in joint tenancy with full right of survivorship, does that transfer before or after this exemption?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Cunningham, I would say that thanks to Senator Rasmussen, I don't believe that joint tenancy property with full right of survivorship would even be part of the estate. It is automatically fully owned by the survivor upon the event of the death of one of the joint tenants, and as such, it would not have to be transferred by this provision or any other provision of the probate code."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2215, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—45.

Voting nay: Senator von Reichbauer—1.

Excused: Senators Fleming, Grant, Woody—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2215, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2620.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2620, by Senators Benitz and Morrison: Relating to emergency use of water.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Donohue, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2620 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2620 and the second substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment by Senators Gaspard and Bottiger was adopted:

On page 3, line 4, strike all of Section 6 and substitute the following:

"Pursuant to projects related to water withdrawal permits issued under sections 3, 4, or 5 of this 1977 amendatory act, the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and all local zoning ordinances, plans and local building and construction permit ordinances are waived and inapplicable. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, projects related to water withdrawal permits issued pursuant to sections 3, 4, or

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "I wonder if Senator Bottiger would yield to a question before we advance? Senator Bottiger, on page 2, line 4, which one of the conditions which must be met with if these emergency permits are to be authorized. On line 4, the word that concerns me is the word 'essential'. It says, 'The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential'—not 'essential'—but rather, 'extreme'. 'Extreme' is the word which concerns me. Extreme minimums, and then again, if extreme minimums are the question with respect to fisheries requirements, why are they not the requirement with respect to power generation, navigation and existing water rights? Why should not the word 'extreme' either be stricken on line 4 or inserted on line 6 before the word 'power'? The same question would apply to the word 'extreme' on line 23."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Mardesich, this language was drafted by the attorney for the department of ecology at the committee's interest that we realize the importance also of the fisheries, the navigation and the power generation levels. I can't give you a flat answer why he inserted 'extreme' there and not in the other sections or the other places that you mentioned. I think it means the same thing."

Senator Mardesich: "If it does, Mr. President, then I would ask for an amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Senator Mardesich, if I might relate the setting of the levels of the water, and I have to go back to the Methow River, but they were setting the levels there for the various types of stages of flow they have. In the case of what they call extreme low water, they do set minimums for the fish, and I think that this is where this comes from that the proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential extreme minimums necessary to assure the maintenance of the fisheries requirement. This is the way they set those levels in the Methow, and I think that that language has come out of that particular type of deal. They don't want them to go and will not permit the irrigation waters to come out if it is going to damage fisheries."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH AND SENATOR GUESS

Senator Mardesich: "My question is, why do you require with respect to fisheries that there be an essential extreme minimum, but you do not require for power generation, navigation and existing water rights that there be extreme minimums."

Senator Guess: "It is during periods of extreme low flow is where that expression comes from, 'extreme minimums'."

Senator Mardesich: "Why should that not apply to the power generation, navigation and/or existing water rights?"

Senator Guess: "Fisheries is a high priority. Perhaps Senator—"

Senator Mardesich: "On the contrary, this reduces it to a lower priority."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, during that colloquy, I checked with counsel and my grammar teacher and they both advised me that if you read it, it says, 'below essential extreme minimums necessary (a) to assure the existence of the fisheries, and (b) to protect the federal . . .' on down the line, so it would be 'extreme' applies to both (a) and (b)."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Gaspard yield to a question? Senator Gaspard, your amendment strikes down all laws, ordinances and rules and regulations of any type that stand in the way of this project. Is that correct?"

Senator Gaspard: "Not quite correct. My amendment changes section 6 to make some words consistent with the rest of the bill. Section 6 already does that in the proposed substitute."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, as I read it, the permits issued under sections 3, 4 or 5—"

Senator Gaspard: "That language is already in the substitute bill that we are considering so that was not changed by my limit."

Senator Rasmussen: "Oh, then it is in the bill that there is nothing in county resolutions or city ordinances, it waives all the environmental protection."

Senator Gaspard: "This is true. I think we realize this is an emergency temporary permit, and we are giving rather broad authority to the department of ecology, and I have faith in the new director that he will carry out his discretion and good reasoning."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I have faith in the new director, but he is not going to be the person that is running that shovel over there. It is awful broad powers—we never ever have granted this type of waiving all laws and resolutions of local ordinances. I just wonder if that is wise. I haven't had time to really go into the bill; it is moving so fast. Maybe the House will take a closer look at it."

Senator Gaspard: "If I could further indicate the reason for the exempting of the local zoning and planning laws and the environmental policy act, we understand that if this project is not started sometime this next month, it is going to be too late."

Senator Rasmussen: "This also does away with all shoreline protection laws that we have on the books at the present time. People adopted it."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. We have before us, as I understand it, Senator Morrison's amendment. There are three in order, and somehow we have reverted to a debate on the bill. I raise the point of order to adopt the amendments."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary was in the process of reading the three amendments, Senator Bottiger, when Senator Mardesich asked his question. The secretary, if there are no objections, the Senate will consider the three amendments simultaneously."

On motion of Senator Morrison, the following amendments by Senators Morrison and Bottiger were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 21, strike "December 31, 1978" and insert "January 22, 1979"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, I notice that in Second Substitute Senate Bill 2620 there is an appropriation of just over $7.7 million from Referendum 27 money. It is my impression that this appropriation will virtually wipe out any future programs not already allocated for the development of water district facilities throughout the state. The question I have is why was the decision made to use these funds for this emergency purpose rather than putting all of the appropriation for the emergency into Senate Bill 2632?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Goltz, it was the sense of the committee, I believe, that the people had voted on HJR 27 bonds for public water, irrigation and municipal water systems, and that it would be our obligation to first use those funds before we went to the internal bonding capacity of the Legislature. We felt that had we gone, had we left that money on the table, in a sense, and then upped the internal bond level, HJR 52, that that would be in the same sense a breach of the faith of the people. So, it was our instructions to the several staffs that worked on this to spend 27 money first. Now, there is a difference of opinion as to whether we have spent it all. There is about twelve million dollars. We told the department of ecology if you have made a commitment to the degree that somebody is relying on that, spending their local funds, to separate that out, so there is about twelve million, while they technically have not allocated the money, have not committed it and it has not been appropriated, it is being relied on and then that is held back. That is both irrigation money and municipal water systems. This bill spends four million dollars of that unallocated fund, sets it aside on line 17 of page four, and will fund the projects that can be started by April first: Annapolis, Auburn, Bellevue, Clallam County, Clark County, East Wenatchee, Ferndale, Lacey, Medical Lake, Moses Lake, Oakville, Othello, Silverton and Tacoma will be receiving money out of this bill to get started now, and these are projects that can be handled in this biennium. The rest of the projects will wait, as Senator Donohue has said, for the capital budget. They couldn't be spent now in this biennium anyhow, and it is the decision that they wait."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DONOHUE

Senator Donohue: "Mr. President, again, in answer to Senator Goltz, I was off the floor for a moment, but it is my understanding in checking with staff, in answer to your question, that in the regular budget as it pertains to municipal water and irrigation under Referendum 27 that there is still approximately ten million dollars sitting there for appropriation, ten million."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2620 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Gaspard yield to a question? Senator Gaspard, for the purpose of the record, I am referring you to page 1, line 20, the reference to public water, surface and ground. Would that include dead storage in reservoirs and in a couple of instances, reservoir lakes?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, it would, and just to expand maybe a little bit further, sections 4 and 5 specifically make reference to the Yakima Project. That was the first intent of the bill. However, I think all those concerned with the drought situation did not want to preclude any other area from applying for these permits. In section 3 we have, is an open, the above section allows anybody to apply for the permits, and so, yes, Senator Bottiger, the answer to your question is yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Gaspard yield to a question? Senator Gaspard, on page 3, line 20, you say, 'shall provide short term easements or other appropriate property interests upon the payment of fair market value.' This is in relation to state property. Does this also relate to private properties, and is the power in this bill to take private properties without using the usual course of eminent domain?"

Senator Gaspard: "On line 20, you say?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that particular instance there relates to the departments or agencies having jurisdiction over state land. Does its powers of taking extend also to private lands?"

Senator Gaspard: "I think at the beginning of the sentence we say that all state departments or other agencies, so as I read it, I think it is just applies to state lands."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, but the overall striking down of all state laws, resolutions and ordinances has me concerned that in the haste to get this project on the way that you also have taken away private property rights. It says that you will pay the fair market value, and the only way of determining that, so of course, is through going to court and determining that. Now, unless it is intent that they use the same powers that they have under the federal highway act where they can come in and take your property and bulldoze it down, and then settle what it is worth after the evidence is gone."

Senator Gaspard: "I understand your concern, and that certainly is not the intent, nor do I read that in the language of the bill that would allow any such condemnation—"

Senator Rasmussen: "The intent is then, as I understand, there is no taking of private property without due process?"

Senator Gaspard: "That is true."

Senator Rasmussen: "I have another question. You are now proposing, by this bill, to use the reserves that lay in the various reservoirs, and in some instances you may deplete them entirely for this short period of emergency."

Senator Gaspard: "Well, it is true that we are proposing that we can use the reserves in reservoirs, but again the department of ecology has to grant the permit."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am not concerned with that phase of it. I am sure they will protect whatever fish life is in there, but my question is related to this: You are planning on using these reserves which would not normally be available. Down in section 7 you say 'nothing in this 1977 amendatory act shall authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights.' Under your water rights statute, the highest priority, of course, is always the longest in existence. Is this correct?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then you will be using these reserves, but those people with water rights would have a hundred percent right to first use of these reserves, all depending on where they were in the line of the irrigation project. They do at the present time, Senator Donohue,"

Senator Gaspard: "I don't think that is true—"

Senator Rasmussen: "But they do not have the rights to these reserves that are below the sluice gates. This is an emergency and should be distributed equally would be my opinion."

Senator Gaspard: "I think their assumption on the water rights, I don't believe that to be true, but if I could defer that question, possibly to Senator Bottiger, he could answer it more ably than I."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, as I understand it, and I haven't, I have to admit that I am not an expert on water right law, but as I understand it, the water rights are to flowing water, that if you are a riparian owner to a lake you may have withdrawal rights from the lake, but most of these reservoirs, all of them to my knowledge, are up in the mountains where nobody is irrigating around them, so there isn't, I would guess there would be little if any possibility of a water right on a reservoir lake. Now, again the department of ecology is to analyze those and if somebody objects, claiming a prior water right, they are going to have to leave them their right. They cannot constitutionally take away from them under this bill an existing water right."

POINT OF INQUIRY (CONTINUED)

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Senator Bottiger, my question was directly related to pumping emergency water, not to the people around the reservoirs, but they are going to be pumping into these streams that supply some of the irrigation channels. This emergency water which you are making available by this bill should be allocated equally, not to anybody with prior rights, but in here you give them the prior right."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, I didn't give them anything. They have it. Constitutionally it is property, and you can't take it away from them without condemning it. Now all the bill recognizes is that constitutional right of property in those water rights."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENITZ

Senator Benitz: "Members of the Senate and Senator Rasmussen, expanding a bit further, what we are talking about is the dead storage, no way to get it out, so it would only benefit fish. Those reservoirs and that water is now owned by the irrigation districts, has been. They have built and paying for the dams if they are not paid for. This emergency legislation would allow them to put a pump in, pump it up to the sluice gates, so it would be of some value to the irrigation districts on a temporary basis, and that is the only intent. That water is owned by those irrigation districts now, but not available to them until we provide some emergency legislation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a further question of Senator Benitz. Is this additional water which you are going to get be allocated on an acre foot basis equally to all people in the irrigation district or do any of them have prior rights if they happen to be on a stream that is going to connect with your irrigation channels?"

Senator Benitz: "That issue will be addressed tomorrow in Yakima by the Bureau of Reclamation and the various irrigation districts. It is a very heavy meeting. It is my understanding that Senator Jackson's office has two of his top aides there, and the Bureau of Reclamation is the agency we look to for adjudications when we run into the kind of situation we have before us now."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Benitz."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: Will Senator Benitz yield? Senator Benitz, just to clear up a couple of the points raised by Senator Rasmussen, is there anything in this bill or the companion bill that would affect existing water rights or that would affect private property rights?"

Senator Benitz: "There is nothing in this bill or in the companion bill that will affect present water rights or private property rights."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Would Senator Morrison yield to a question? Senator Morrison, on page 3, on line 20, it refers to short term easements that will be given by state agencies in order to have the pipeline, I assume, or other facilities built over the land. I want to pose a question here is if that land is leased to a user, the lessor, it is lessee, isn't it? What happens when the short term easement runs out? He is in a position at that time of being in a commanding position and literally can shut off the pipeline. Could you give me an example. What will happen?"

Senator Morrison: "Senator Bluechel, I believe that since everything in this particular bill is on a temporary basis, this easement is granted for this transmission of water across this property, and we are talking now exclusively about state lands. While this temporary easement is granted I am sure the private property owner could be approached through the regular powers of eminent domain. He could be satisfactorily reimbursed for the continued easement of that particular project, so I think the time period involved in this particular measure provides for the proper treatment of everyone whether they are private property owners where they are leasing state land, or in fact, it is public land being operated by the public."

Senator Bluechel: "What your answer says is that where this pipeline is obviously going to be permanent and not a temporary structure that during the time after it is built, through eminent domain, negotiations will be carried on with the tenants."

Senator Morrison: "That is right."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2620, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.

MOTION

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2632, by Senators Morrison and Benitz:
Relating to water distribution projects.

On page 1, line 20, strike "December 31, 1978" and insert "January 22, 1979"
Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 25, after "43.83B.050." strike "The" and insert "A grant or the"

Debate ensued.

The motion of Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2632 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question, please? Senator Bottiger, I wanted to make sure it was in the record the intent of the amendment that you offered as to the share that the grant could provide for this particular funding source."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Morrison, in the irrigation district situation, the grant money could not exceed fifteen percent. The balance of eighty-five percent in, whether it be in the loan or in the financing process, would be repayable with the same interest rate that the state is paying for the bonds that it sells."

Senator Morrison: "Thank you."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President, this bonding authority is under the provisions of HJR 52. I wanted to inquire of the Chair the percentage needed for approval of this particular measure."

Further debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Sixty percent, Senator Morrison."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Pardon the delay, Mr. President. I was looking for a gleam in their eyes and they had the gleam. Senator Donohue, on page 3, starting on line 28, the department may spend funds and so forth, combination loans and grants, and then it goes on as defined in RCW, 'to satisfy the matching requirements it is the intent that this money be used. . .', and I am thinking in the case of where somebody is supposed to match the state funds with twenty-five percent local funds.

"Is is the intent of this particular section to loan them the twenty-five percent on top of what would be the other—I understand federal law provides you may not use federal funds for matching grant as far as the state is concerned. In this case it would appear that you are going to loan the matching portion also. Is this true?"

Senator Donohue: "I think the matching portion is a, fifteen percent, is a grant. The forty percent—. Am I correct? I could be wrong. The forty percent is matching funds, and it is not any different under HJR 52 appropriations this time than it has been in the past relative to this type of construction project, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is an entirely different word. It says that they may make loans, but also to satisfy the matching requirements they may make loans. Anybody have the answer to that?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Could you give us the page and line again?"

Senator Rasmussen: "On page 3, line 30. It says you make loans and grants to satisfy the matching requirements, so in effect, if they were required to make a twenty-five percent local match, out of this you could also loan them the local twenty-five percent. Is that correct?"

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, it is the intent of this legislation to loan to the district state funds, not federal funds, for repayment and under the Referendum 27, the rule that had been used is a fifteen percent grant, and thirty-five percent loan. That would make up to the fifty percent, but that would not satisfy the situation here. So that legislation speaks to the HJR 52 providing the funds as a loan and calling them local funds for the other fifty percent because we do have to pay them back with interest."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then it is not the intent, Senator Benitz, to grant a loan for the matching portion for the local."

Senator Benitz: "Yes, it is, out of HJR 52. It is the only way we can acquire it."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2632, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Buffington, Clarke, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—46.

Voting nay: Senator Mardesich—1.

Excused: Senators Grant, Woody—.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2632, having received the constitutional sixty percent majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2317, by Senators Francis and Scott:

Increasing the period for which judgments may be revived and amending the method for revival of judgments.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of an amendment to page 1, line 8 but withdrew that motion and moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hayner and Francis:

On page 1, line 16, after "provided)" strike all matter through "act." on line 28 and insert:

"The provisions of this act are intended to be procedural and remedial and shall be retroactive to the extent necessary to prevent any judgement on which the statute of limitations has not expired as of the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act from expiring prior to time periods allowed in this act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis: "Would Senator Hayner yield, please? Senator Hayner, today when people enter into a debt, a contractual arrangement, obligate themselves, don't they normally have three days now, in a lot of instances, in which to reconsider and invalidate the contract or say, 'No, I have changed my mind, I don't want to go into this arrangement'?"

Senator Hayner: "Well, there are sometimes arrangements such as that, yes."

Senator Lewis: "Could you explain to me the philosophy of why a debt entered into, which is a little different than a criminal action or court case as to a statutory limitation, can you explain to me the philosophy of why, if I enter into a debt, I incur that debt, I get services or goods, what in the world limits me from having that obligation forever. Why shouldn't I have it forever?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I raise a point of order. The floor has been filled with questions that are not questions in the last few days. The record is getting full of philosophy and things like that, and I think that we should confine our questions to answering a simple question relating to the bill and not arguments for it or against it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "Mr. President, does that refer to both sides of the aisle, then? It seems like we are always the ones that are caught on the end of your point of order, and I have been a little bit upset over the last few days of the questions on the other side of the aisle, also"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Newschwander, I intend to raise this point of order against everyone. I got a little upset, myself."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point of order as presented by Senator Bailey is well taken."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment by Senators Hayner and Francis was adopted.

Senator Hayner moved the following amendments by Senators Hayner and Francis be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 8 after "~~((six))~~" strike "ten" and insert "twelve", and

On page 1, line 14 after "~~((six))~~" strike "ten", and insert "twelve", and

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendments by Senators Hayner and Francis were adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Marsh, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2317 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, it is too late, but I want to raise a point of order. This, again, is not the type of question you usually ask. 'Why is a bill necessary and what is the purpose of it,' and this sort of thing. It would seem that we should be having debate on the bill, for or against it, I think it is something we should stop."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bailey's remarks are well taken."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2317, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Beck, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Cunningham, Gould, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Lewis, Marsh, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Pullen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington—23.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Bausch, Bottiger, Buffington, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Grant, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Matson, McDermott, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sandison, Talley, Walgren, Wilson, Wojahn—24.

Excused: Senators Francis, Woody—2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2317, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared last.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2115, by Senators McDermott, Donohue, Buffington, Fleming and Francis:

Appropriating funds for desegregated purposes to a school district with an enrollment of 50,000 pupils.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2115 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, I take it, one, that this bill has not been to ways and means. It has been?"

Senator McDermott: "This bill was heard in a joint session by both the education committee and the ways and means. Senator Donohue and I worked together in drawing the bill and felt that we could save a hearing in the ways and means committee at this point since you are working on the budget, and that is why we had joint hearings."

Senator Bottiger: "The second question, the Seattle school board has not seen fit to close some schools through nonattendance and achieve segregation in that way? Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "This bill does not speak to any means by which they could integrate the system. The answer to your specific question, I am not aware of them having seen fit to close schools such as they did in Tacoma—you mean the McCarver kind of situation? That has not occurred."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Thank you, Mr. President, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, I have always thought that the money we put in the URRD program was money well spent. The URRD program distributes these funds to all of the children in all the states who are deprived. Just what are we going to use this million dollars for?"

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator Beck, I think a little bit of history is necessary. Dr. Moberly came to Seattle. Seattle had a levy failure. We are in the midst of, not a fat period in school funding, but a very slim period. If you go back in history, Tacoma, when they began their program in the late sixties had the times when one could pass a levy with not so much difficulty, and at this point, Seattle is down to bare bones budgets. There isn't any question to anybody who looks at it that there isn't any fat in the budget. So when you start to develop new programs like the magnet school program. That is putting special programs in schools to attract people from different parts of the city, then you have to have some additional money. There is also some money necessary in terms of training staff to deal with the problems that go with this kind of program.

"The program is not firmly developed at this point. The school district is also going to use some of this money to involve the community in producing what the community wants. They are not going to try to shove a program down a community's throat, but rather to involve them in the planning, so the money will be used in a number of these areas as they gear up for next school year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Would Senator McDermott yield? I have two brief questions, Senator McDermott, the first is, is this envisioned as a one-time appropriation or is there the likelihood of continued additional support to Seattle with respect with desegregation efforts?"

Senator McDermott: "This is envisioned as a one-time appropriation. We see it as the state's statement that desegregation is going to occur, that failure to vote for the levy won't stop desegregation efforts, that nothing is going to stop that kind of thing occurring. It is already set in motion, and the state wants to add their support, that this should occur on a voluntary basis, but we want to initiate the process rather than having it thrust upon us by someone from the outside."

Senator Wilson: "The second question pertains to the provision for a reduction in a special levy in the amount of the state help if a levy is carried. I wonder if you could discuss the rationale for that further, and particularly speaking to the question as to why the—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Again, I raise the question of whether these are questions or are we debating the bill."

Senator Wilson: "Will you please explain that provision of the bill again?"

Senator McDermott: "The provision says that if a levy passes the district shall place a priority. Senator Donohue and I had a long argument about how we could word this to say that we did not just want to give Seattle an extra million dollars to fatten up their budget. If they have more money than they need, and they adopted a resolution—"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Point of order on the questions and answers. If you are debating and explaining, I think is one thing and you don't have to put it in the record, but if you are going to put all these miscellaneous notes and questions on the bill in the record, we might as well start recording all conversations on the floor and putting that in the record, too."

POINT OF INQUIRY (CONTINUED)

Senator McDermott: "I am not quite sure how to respond to that except you don't have to put it in the record. I will just answer Senator Wilson's question. The issue is that we wanted to make it clear to the Seattle school district and their administration that we did not want this to be just a kind of bonus for them, but that it must go for this. If they had more money than they needed, by resolution that they have adopted as to their budget, then they should roll it back."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Isn't it possible for someone to answer a question and it not be put in the record? I have found several of these questions and answers to be very enlightening, and I suggest that there be some way established so that a question can be asked without having it put in the record. Maybe there is some procedure that we have to go through, but I felt that some of these questions were good and are helping us to come to a conclusion."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Washington, as you know, we have not adopted our rules here as far as the Senate is concerned. I know that you are concerned with some other rules, and I would suggest that you prepare a rule to this effect that you may present first to the caucus and then to the Senate floor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "With the leave of the Senate and out of order, I would move that questions be not entered into the record except by request of the questioner."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I don't care if my question is in the record or not, would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Senator McDermott, would any of the state appropriation go to the actual transportation program for this purpose?"

Senator McDermott: "It was our intention to give them the greatest flexibility to use this money as they saw to be appropriate. We did not want to restrict them in any way if there was some reason to provide transportation for people who wanted to voluntarily transfer. We didn't see any reason why we should exclude them from using it in what seemed to them to be the most flexible way. We didn't feel in the committee that we were knowledgeable enough about it to say, 'You must use it for magnet programs to teach French or any sort of specific.'"

Senators Talley, Sandison and Matson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2115, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 16; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senators Bausch, Bottiger, Clarke, Cunningham, Guess, Hayner, Jones, Mardesich, Newschwander, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wojahn—16.

Right now it is rather unworkable in that notice has to be given to all of the owners of the agricultural lands in the county where they are subject to the assessments, and this is being done by notice of mail, and they are changing this — the last public notice of the meeting would be published in the papers at least ten days prior to the meeting rather than giving out a written notice to every land owner."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, with the permission of Senator Bailey, I would like to ask Senator Beck a question. I like to honor him while he is here. Senator Beck, this would prevent a person from doing anything with his property for a period of two years. Is that correct?"

Senator Beck: "For a period of one year from the time the plan has been filed with the county auditor."

Senator Rasmussen: "Have you ever gone toward Seattle where the Kingdome is?"

Senator Beck: "Yes, I have been in the area."

Senator Rasmussen: "Can you recall those unended bridges that are sticking out there? Now if the highway department would come along and file a plan and say, 'This is where the highway is going to be,' and it was in a commercial, or business area, it would be prohibited, then, from doing anything with their property but that the highway department could continue to hold that property forever and prevent the individual that owns it from developing it. Is this right?"

Senator Beck: "No, Senator Rasmussen, you are bringing another entirely different subject into this bill. Those dead ends that you see in Seattle up there were built at the time there they intended to build the highway. We did not have a law here saying that the plan had to be filed with the King County auditor at the time. The people could come along and claim damages there, but now that plan has been stopped. Those highways are not even on the plan now. The highway department has to come around within a year's time from the time they file that plan and make an attempt to acquire the property, either through negotiation or by condemnation proceedings. After one year then the property owner is free to do anything that he wants to with his property."

Excused: Senators Benitz, Bottiger, Francis, Grant, Odegaard, Peterson, Talley, Woody—8.

SENATE BILL NO. 2386, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

SECOND READING

Extending the obligation of urban arterial trust funds for one more year.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Buffington, Senate Bill No. 2439 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Will Senator Buffington yield, please? Senator Buffington, if this bill is not passed, what will happen to those urban arterial funds?"

Senator Buffington: "Senator Walgren, the urban arterial board has requested cities within three counties where the urban arterial board moneys can be used, Snohomish, Pierce and King, to give out their six year plan for construction of new facilities, bridges and highways. The urban arterial board would then take those moneys and distribute them, then, to one of the projects, or more of the projects within those three counties. These monies cannot be used throughout the remainder of the state, just in those three counties."

Senator Walgren: "You left out that other little county—"

Senator Buffington: "I am so sorry, Senator."

Senator Walgren: "What will happen to the forward thrust fund if this bill does not pass, the forward thrust fund that you say would be joined with the urban arterial funds?"

Senator Buffington: "They will be distributed for projects throughout the Seattle area."

Debate ensued.

"OUR FATHER, AS WE HAVE ENTERED AGAIN THE SEASON OF LENT, WE REMEMBER THE FORTY DAYS OF JESUS' TEMPTATION IN THE WILDERNESS, AND WE REMEMBER OUR OWN TEMPTATIONS. WE ARE TEMPTED AT TIMES TO GO INTO TRAINING AND GET LOADED WITH EQUIPMENT JUST TO CLIMB A MOLEHILL. AND WE SO OFTEN START OUT QUITE UNPREPARED TO SCALE PROBLEMS AS HIGH AS MOUNT RAINIER.

"ON THIS UNUSUALLY HECTIC DAY, THE WISDOM TO KNOW THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE GARGANTUAN TASKS WHICH DEMAND OUR KEENEST INTELLECT, AND THE TRIVIA WHICH ALWAYS APPEARS BIGGER WHEN IT IS CLOSE AT HAND, LET US NOT BE TEMPTED BY THE TEMPORARY, OR ENTRAPPED BY THE TRIVIAL. BUT AS WE CELEBRATE LENT, LET IT BE WITH THE AWARENESS OF YOUR GUIDANCE, LEADING US TO GIVE OUR ATTENTION TO THOSE ISSUES WHICH WILL INFLUENCE OUR OWN LIVES, AND THOSE WE LOVE, AND ALL OUR CITIZENS, FOR THE GOOD. IN THE MASTER'S NAME. SO BE IT."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, would you tell me approximately how many contractors might be affected in the event your amendment is adopted?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would suspect only those contractors who—there are a number of contractors who would be affected if they were in default. If they were not in default, of course it would not affect them, and that is the real answer to the question. This affects only those people who go into a default position on their debts."

Senator Grant: "You have no idea of how many that might be?"

Senator Mardesich: "Well, I was shown a list down in Rules the other day when I was raising questions with respect to this measure of default situations where bonds had to be called upon, and that list was, I would guess, about twenty-five or thirty long. I assumed that would be the type of person we would be talking about, not the regular mass of contractors, the vast number. I have no idea of how many there are. It could be five or six thousand that would not be affected unless they defaulted on the job."

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment by Senators Mardesich, Peterson and Matson was adopted.

Senator Marsh moved Senate Bill No. 2184 be advanced to third reading.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Senate Bill No. 2184, as amended, was ordered held on the second reading calendar for February 28, 1977.

On page 5, line 15, after "PROVIDED," insert "That if any nominee of a minor political party for a partisan office is elected to such office, then such minor political party shall continue in existence until the expiration of the term of that office: PROVIDED FURTHER,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wilson: "Will Senator Grant yield: "This would mean the candidate would have to be elected to a federal or a statewide office. Is that correct?"

Senator Grant: "No, that is not correct."

Senator Wilson: "Would it apply to county office?"

Senator Grant: "It would apply to legislative offices, I know, and I believe, to almost any office. That is my understanding, at least."

Senator Wilson: "Then if one candidate from a minor party, oh for example, elected a county commissioner somewhere, that would keep the party alive on the ballot until his term of office expired."

Senator Grant: "That is correct."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, after line 17, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 29.18 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A minor political party wishing to designate presidential electors and nominate candidates for the positions of president and vice president of the United States shall do so at a convention conducted pursuant to the rules of that minor political party adopted pursuant to RCW 29.42.010, as now or hereafter amended. Such convention shall be held not later than two months prior to the state general election. A report of the convention, containing the following items, shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than one week following the date of the convention:

(1) The name of each person nominated, his residence, and the office to which he is nominated, together with a sworn statement of each nominee giving his consent to said nomination; and

(2) The name and residence of each person elected to the position of or designated to be a presidential elector.

The report of the convention shall be verified by the oaths of the presiding officer and secretary."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2032 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Grant yield to a question? Senator Grant, in your deliberations in the committee, was any discussion held regarding putting a perjury penalty on filing as an indigent?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Rasmussen, we did discuss filing fees generally. We did not do anything in this measure with regard to filing fees. It would be my position that filing fees do not really cover the cost—this bill doesn't address that question."

Senator Rasmussen: "But the reason I asked that question, we have lately had numerous people file as indigents, take airplane trips to Hawaii and other parts of the country, and they obviously are not indigents. In contacting the elections supervisor and the secretary of state, they advised that the only way you could prevent that or restrict it would be to have it perjury that filing under the basis that it is perjury if they file as indigents and were not."

Senator Grant: "We have not addressed that question in this bill, Senator Rasmussen."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Senator Odegaard was excused.

that this Amin is the dictator of, or any other country in which there was a dictator, and they issued a judgment, then in effect it would become legal in this state just the same as if it was passed by the superior court?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, I am glad you asked that. Foreign judgment in this case and under our statutes means the judgment of another state which is entitled to full faith and credit under the constitution of the United States. It does not apply to judgments of foreign countries."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am sure glad of that. Thank you."

In the testimony on this bill, was there any input as to what those figures would be?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I wasn't present at the hearing. I couldn't quite hear you, but I think you said the bill says this. The bill does not change that. The bill only changes the compensation."

On page 3, line 7, after "examiners" strike "shall" and insert "may"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Goltz yield to a question? Senator Goltz, I am very concerned about this bill, and before we take it off second reading I want to ask you some questions about the meaning of it. It seems to me that when we are dealing with zoning we have a chance to change the approach which has been taken by the courts in this state which to call these zoning decisions a quasi-judicial function which I don't think it is at all. I think it is a policy decision that vitally affects the habitability of every city and town and county in this state. I think it is something that can vitally affect the property values to the people who are affected by zoning and sometimes constitute the taking without compensation. It seems to me that it is such an important policy function that I am very reluctant to turn it over to a hearing examiner rather than to the legislative body of whatever city, or town or county you are talking about, and in that connection I would like to ask you, I happen to be looking at page 2, line 14, and it says, 'giving a hearing examiner the power to hear and decide applications for conditional uses, variances or any other class of applications for or pertaining to land uses.' My question is what does that mean 'any other class of applications for or pertaining to land uses'?"

Senator Goltz: "I am not exactly sure whether I am the proper person to try to answer that. Perhaps someone from the local government committee should answer the particular question. It is my impression that the legislative body however, and this may not be an answer to your question, it may have been the question I was anticipating. The legislative body does retain the final jurisdiction of the matter, and it does set the specific conditions under which the hearing examiner is to operate. Those conditions are required starting on line 20."

Senator Francis: "Thank you, Senator Goltz."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, Senate Bill No. 2421, as amended, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for February 28, 1977.

Permitting aliens to teach in the common school system.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator McDermott, Senate Bill No. 2185 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Herr: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question? Well, I was looking at this pass-out of Senator Lewis on the desk here, so if we pass this act, do we repeal this—of not taking a communist—being a member of the communist party or fascist party out of the statutes?"

Senator McDermott: "If you look at the bill, in the title it says it is repealing section 28A.67.020 and the piece of information which Senator Lewis put on your desk is correct. That is the section that is repealed. If you will look on about the seventh or eighth line, it says, 'has declared his intention of becoming a citizen,' and that is what is repealed."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "I am not sure whether I should ask of either Senator McDermott or Senator Hayner. I live in a district in which there is a very large group of recent residents. That is, they have come from many of the Pacific rim countries, and under the provisions of the law are required to be taught in bi-lingual classes. Now, many times those who are most proficient in those languages are not citizens of the United States, and I would like to know how those teachers are affected by this particular provision, if they really should be permitted to continue teaching."

Senator Hayner: "Well, Senator Ridder, they can express their intent of becoming a United States citizen and qualify under our present laws. Is that what you are asking?"

Senator Ridder: "No, that really wasn't because I would assume that some of these who have come over from the rim countries may be bi-lingual, in other words, able to teach those who have also come from those countries and yet may not intend, in fact, to become citizens and certainly we would not want to encourage them to state that if it was not, indeed, their intention any more than we would want anyone to take a loyalty oath if we really had no way of enforcing that loyalty."

Senator Hayner: "They would not be able to teach, but I think that the pressure for this has not come from those kinds of people. Actually it has come from Canadians who do not want to become American citizens and yet who have been here for five and a half or more years."

Senator Ridder: "You can't tell me how that really would affect that particular group of people, though."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Senator Ridder, before our committee we had testimony from the Office of Asian Affairs, or the Asian Affairs Commission, and there are a number of people from that area who are affected by this. This says that you don't have to declare you are going to be a citizen. You can be a resident alien, but if you go into school teaching and you teach for five and a half years after you make your initial signature, you can't begin teaching without saying that you intend to become a citizen. If, after five and a half years, you decide that is not your intention, you are out no matter how long you have been in the school system. It doesn't mean you have to leave the country. It only means that you can no longer be employed, and there will be a number of teachers who will be available for the bi-lingual program that will be excluded if this kind of legislation does not pass."

Further debate ensued.

On page 2, line 5, after "him" insert ": PROVIDED, That in no event shall a commissioner receive an amount in excess of two thousand dollars per year for all duties performed"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, I understand what Senator Cunningham is trying to do. I just happen to think of a possible problem. Sometimes in the rural areas it is hard to find people to do the maintenance work in water districts, and I understand that sometimes the water commissioners or sewer commissioners themselves will have to go out and do this work, and this is a way that they can be compensated. I was wondering if the two thousand dollar restriction which you have in this amendment, Senator Cunningham, might impose a hardship in those particular cases where those commissioners have a difficult time finding other people available to carry on maintenance kinds of problems or emergency problems."

Senator Cunningham: "Mr. President, to the best of my knowledge this should not create a hardship, but like anything it could. What we are in hopes of is that the water districts will be prudent enough that if they need adequate people for maintenance and repair that they will hire them. If they, in turn, need secretaries for the office, that they will hire them, and that the commissioners will run and be just that, commissioners, not in any instance where a commissioner is apt to be all three things. So, it is not intended to create a hardship. It could theoretically happen, and I still say that if we put a lid on the total reimbursement that a commissioner can get, it is the right idea and I think it is in keeping with the general tone of the bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Cunningham yield to a question? Senator Cunningham, I think what you have done here is you have limited the amount a man can make. I think he may have to, the commissioner may also have to run that system, get out at night and make repairs in the system, do all kinds of work and you are saying he can only make so much a year. I don't think that is what you want to do, is it?"

Senator Cunningham: "That is exactly what I want to do."

Further debate ensued.

President Cherberg: "Are you directing the question to the President, Senator Ridder?"

Senator Ridder: "Well, as a Ruling perhaps, or to Senator Van Hollebeke."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I am sure that would be not construed as restricting it to the male gender only. It is a generic 'him'."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Is the bill on third reading now? Are we discussing the merits of the bill or is it whether it should be water or sewer? Mr. President, I wanted to ask a question of Senator Van Hollebeke if he would yield. Senator Van Hollebeke, these district commissioners they are administrative and they also then can be hired and receive wages? Isn't this a conflict of interest? I think the auditor would take a long look at that and here the administrative officers are setting the wages and the amount of hours they can work."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "We have now restricted them to a maximum income of two thousand dollars per year that they can receive, so I think we are pretty safe. I don't think there is a conflict of interest either. I think their interest is with the district, and I sure wouldn't worry with a two thousand dollar maximum."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "For the record, would Senator Cunningham yield to a question? Senator Cunningham, your amendment specifically says that in no event shall a commissioner receive an amount in excess of two thousand dollars per year for all duties performed. My understanding of your explanation before was that the two thousand dollars was salary and not per diem. Is that correct?"

Senator Cunningham: "Senator Murray, that explanation dealt with the four thousand dollar amendment of Senator Odegaard's. The bill as it stands now, most districts meet but once a month. They would be drawing forty dollars a meeting, and the balance would be for any services they did render, but a total lid of two thousand dollars."

Senator Murray: "Including per diem?"

Senator Cunningham: "That would be my understanding, yes."

On motion of Senator Sellar, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2500 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Sellar yield? Senator Sellar, I wonder what the maintenance cost will be by making this a state highway. What is the cost involved?"

Senator Sellar: "The state highway has estimated that—of course initially there won't be any cost involved because of the fact that it is up to maintenance now, but they would set aside about twelve thousand dollars a year for future maintenance, so the impact would be about twelve thousand dollars."

Senator Grant: "Senator Sellar, why is it that is being considered as a separate item rather than part of the overall transportation budget? Why is this being designated under the overall transportation budget as a separate state route?"

Senator Sellar: "Well, as in the past, as with the bill we had the other day with Spokane, and the state route, it is a fairly common practice to deal with these when they are coming off the state highway system to deal with them in a separate issue, and I thought it might be a little bit easier to discuss this as a separate issue rather than part of the package, and I offered it as such."

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 10, after "personnel" and before "adopted" insert ", except volunteers,"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, before this is moved to third reading, my question is, and I am reading on page 2, starting on line 21, 'whenever a court imposes a fine or orders a bail forfeiture, a penalty for violation of law of this state or an ordinance of a city or county,' and then it goes on and provides an exception, 'except an ordinance relating to cars unlawfully left parked.' This additional assessment would be on top of what is already assessed for driver training for any moving violation with an automobile?"

Senator Woody: "I was not there in the committee hearing, but I can tell you from my own knowledge that it would be on top of those assessments. We currently have two existing assessments. This would be a third one."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is getting pretty much of a burden on—I can understand on criminal violations—where it requires additional training."

Senator Woody: "I will be around to you later to seek your signature as a sponsor on a bill which would terminate one of those first assessments."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? Senator Francis, section 2 of this bill reads, 'On and after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, compliance with standards for law enforcement personnel adopted by the commission pursuant to RCW 43.101.080 and 43.101.160 shall be requisite to the law, to the lawful exercise of arrest authority specifically or generally conferred by law.' Could you describe or enumerate what some of the standards for law enforcement personnel are intended to be?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Pullen, the standards basically relate to training. We had them before us in committee and let me just see if I have any of them here. Well, RCW 43.101.080 simply sets forth the commission's powers and duties including the adoption of these standards for the training of criminal justice personnel, and let's see if I have anything else indicating what has been adopted."

"The Washington administrative code 139-28-010 sets forth some of the basic law enforcement training requirements including requirement for interdisciplinary approach where, if appropriate, requirement for specialized in-service training and basic training. Basically, the training standards go into the number of hours they are required to have, the knowledge they are supposed to have of the law, of constitutional rights, of other aspects of the criminal justice system other than the law enforcement aspect itself."

Senator Pullen: "Could such standards also include the height and the weight of the law enforcement officer?"

Senator Francis: "The standards that are set forth here do not relate to height and weight but only to training. I don't know whether they could or not. I would say that if we felt we needed to confine the boundaries of what they could do in the area of adoption of standards, we might want to change those reference sections either during this session or at some later one so that we limit what they can do as far as the adoption of standards. Right now, they have not set any of that as a matter of law enforcement standards."

Senator Pullen: "I assume the same answer would apply to, say, the sex and ethnic background of the law enforcement officer?"

Senator Francis: "As far as I know, no attempt has been made to define standards in that area, but quite the contrary, and I don't think that it is going to be a problem."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Would Senator Francis yield to another question? Senator Francis, new section 3 sets out a new provision with regard to setting up a fund, criminal justice training account, and I just wondered whether there was testimony as to how much would go into that account from past experience if there was any information with regard to how much would be derived by the account, and if so, what would it be used for other than just general purposes?"

"I should tell you, Senator Francis, that I generally do not like to see separate accounts established of this nature, and I would like to know about how much is derived and what it would be used for."

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator Grant, I cannot answer your question specifically. The need for the source of funding was because in January 1 of next year the LEAA funding will run out, and while we have looked somewhat skeptically at some of the LEAA projects, the testimony was quite strong in support of the idea that this one was probably the most successful one, that it was very effective and needed by law enforcement agencies throughout the state to do the training."

"So, then the question is, how do we provide the funding? I can't remember the exact figures but I was satisfied myself, and I believe the other committee members were, that it would be sufficient to fund the program. That was the basis upon which we decided to go along with this was that it would provide funding for this training and I would take this opportunity to say I basically agree with Senator Woody. I think that it is certainly more important than some of the other special funds that come out of fines and forfeitures. I think this is a very legitimate one. It is related—it is even, I would say, an old Republican principle of letting the user pay."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, speaking to Senator Francis, I had received a detailed letter last week from the Lewis county prosecutor about this bill. He was in support of the bill but with some amendments, and I have sent that on to you, Senator Francis. I was wondering if you had seen the letter and had included any of those suggested amendments in this bill."

Senator Francis: "Senator Odegaard, I don't recall the letter, and we made no amendments to the bill in committee. There were none adopted."

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2418 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "I believe that the amendment is out of order in that we have adopted language and now we are trying to adopt substitute language for the identical language we adopted. If this were to continue ad infinitum, the body would never come to a conclusion. The rule number escapes me at the moment, but the proper way to have done this would have been to reconsider the vote by which Senator Mardesich's amendment was adopted and then to offer an amendment should that one be reconsidered."

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President believes this does have some effect on revenue and can be voted on at a previous—actually, the only things that are exempt are revenue and appropriation, as you know."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Is it the President's ruling that this is a measure affecting revenue and would therefore be alive at any time during the remainder of this session and the motion would live? I am asking whether the President would want me to make the motion and then move it over?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Yes."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2387, by Senators Grant and Morrison (by Department of Labor and Industries request):

Regulating mobile homes.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2387.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 10, 1977.

SENATE BILL NO. 2387, regulating mobile homes (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 3, line 8, strike "and such books, papers, records, and documents as are required by rules adopted by the director" and insert "as required to comply with the standards adopted by the secretary of housing and urban development under the National Mobile Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974"

Signed by: Senators Van Hollebeke, Chairman; Wojahn, Vice Chairman; Cunningham, Morrison.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Guess, the committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 6, strike all the matter down through line 21 and insert:

"any person who violates any of the provisions of this act or any rules or regulations adopted pursuant to this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Guess yield to a question? Senator Guess, I can understand your making the fine applicable to any violation of the law, but knowing the difficulty with the rules and regulations we have had where a person may not know he is violating the law under a rule or regulation, do you think the fine should extend that far?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, I would not have done it, but I was told by the attorney that they had to have total control over the thing. This is the same exact language with the exception of the misdemeanor versus a gross misdemeanor that is in the manufactured housing. They have had no problem in enforcing the law and the rules and regulations in the manufactured housing, and I think that this one complies. It lets us comply with the federal government where they say ten thousand dollars per fine or a million dollars total liability, and it also has the rules and regulations so I think that this is a better procedure than going the way that the federals have gone."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 15, after "inspections" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That such increases shall not become effective until approved at the following legislative session"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cunningham: "Will Senator Donohue yield to a question? I think I know what you want to do, but do you mean the next regular session or special session?"

Senator Donohue: "The next legislative session would be the next session, Senator."

Senator Cunningham: "Does that mean '77 or '78? That is what want to know."

Senator Donohue: "Maybe the words should be 'the following session.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR VAN HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Donohue, your amendment reads to the effect that these increases shall not become effective. This is talking about the institution of fees that may previously not have been in existence, and I would also suggest you might want to consider just leaving the authority to establish the fees to the Legislature rather than proceeding in the way you are, but I suggest you are going to have to reword that to accomplish your intention because you are talking about increases where it may not be an increase."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "I wonder if Senator Donohue would yield? Senator Donohue, you are not by this amendment making it not possible for the department to enforce these regulations? We don't want them dumping unsafe and understandard trailer homes in the state of Washington. We want to have as good as the rest of the states have."

Senator Donohue: "I understand that, Senator. It is not my intention to delay. I was trying to improve something that I thought was wrong, and that was that they would just have the right to go ahead and if they had overspent, it said 'offset the expenses incurred,' if they had overspent that they could just increase those fees."

Senator Talley: "Senator Donohue, I can agree with your intent, but I certainly hope we have not made it possible that the department won't go ahead and enforce these federal regulations so that we have the same high quality of trailer homes as the other states in the union."

"That is the only thing I am concerned about. Then you think that if it is wrong it will be corrected in the House? That is the only thing I am concerned about is that we don't amend it so it is not put into effect."

There being no objection, Senator Donohue withdrew his proposed amendment.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2387 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2387, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 9; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Beck, Benitz, Bottiger, Buffington, Cunningham, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Gaspard, Goltz, Gould, Grant, Henry, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, McDermott, Morrison, Murray, Newschwander, North, Odegaard, Peterson, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Wilson, Wojahn—37.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Clarke, Guess, Hayner, Herr, Jones, Lewis, Pullen, Sellar—9.

Excused: Senators Bausch, Scott, Woody—3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2387, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

WE THANK YOU FOR THE SPECIAL LEGISLATIVE FUNCTION THESE SENATORS HAVE BEEN COMMISSIONED TO FULFILL IN THIS GREAT ENTERPRISE. WE THANK YOU FOR THE DIVERSITY OF TALENT REPRESENTED HERE AND YET THE SINGLENES OF PURPOSE TO SERVE.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 178, by Representatives Monohon, Knowles, Charette and Knedlik (by Code Reviser's Office request):

RCW correction—Corrects double amendment to RCW 82.04.291.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, House Bill No. 178 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, a point of inquiry. Could I ask Senator Clarke a question?"

"Senator Clarke, who made this change?"

Senator Clarke: "This is a code reviser's bill that normally when there are in effect conflicting statutes that need to be brought in conformity and it is merely a technical change, that is handled by the code reviser's office. In this instance they found that there was a substantive change, and so that then removed it from the type of bill that they present as a code reviser change which has nothing substantive in it. So they are withdrawing that in substance as a code reviser's bill and asking, in effect, that no action be taken until it be determined whether it is desirable to make any substantive change, and that it is not one of their functions."

Senator Bailey: "Senator Clarke, was this done by someone intentionally or was this just an error trying to revise the code?"

Senator Clarke: "It is my understanding that it was done completely unintentionally. It was not realized that there was a substantive change until the code reviser's office themselves in further analysis found that there was an expiration date in '79, and that this should be taken care of at that time instead of now because if it was done now, it might be regarded as a substantive change."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, would Senator Clarke yield to a question? I had to look to see if Senator Bailey was on the floor. Senator Clarke, in reading the explanatory note on these code reviser's bills, I note that they have been amended twice. How do they handle that? Could you explain briefly how the code reviser handles it. Is it the last amendment that counts, or do they just kind of go in the middle ground and decide what they think was the legislative intent?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, it is my understanding, Senator, that if there is any question whatsoever with regard to legislative intent or which would purport to constitute a substantive change, that the code reviser does not offer such a bill. For instance, where they are correcting a double amendment there will be the same substantive amendment that appears in two different places, and they merely consolidate in one place. It is my understanding that they are very careful to screen these, and if there is any suggestion that there is a substantive change they do not present it as a code reviser bill.

"That is the reason, as I earlier explained, why 178 was sent to ways and means because on further examination the code reviser's office itself found that they did feel that there could be a substantive change, and if any member has any feeling that there is a substantive change and that is brought to their attention, I am sure there would be no objection to taking the bill back and satisfying you that there is no substantive change."

Senator Rasmussen: "I wondered when it goes to judiciary committee if they actually screen these or if they accept them as being OK."

Senator Clarke: "I cannot assure you the extent to which the judiciary staff double checks the code reviser's efforts in this regard. I will say that the code reviser has, in the past, been accurate to the extent that perhaps there is some tendency on the part of the staff not to check them too thoroughly.

"It is a strictly technical type job, but this is one of the reasons incidentally, why the code reviser is so interested itself in being certain there is no substantive change because if they do submit a bill, and it is later found that there is a substantive change, that would affect their credibility as to all future matters. Instead of having these things more or less accepted by the body as they presently are, we would have to look into them, so I would say that unless and until we find that there is an enactment where there has been a substantive change brought about by a code reviser's suggestion, we should continue with this present methodology."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 176, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; excused, 3.

MOTION

Senator Sandison moved the appointment of Sally Starke as a member of the Board of Trustees of Tacoma Community College, District No. 22 be confirmed.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order, Mr. President. Appointment number 22, as well as 25, 30, 39, 40 and 17 are within the group as to which a mass withdrawal was requested by the Governor and they were acted all at once by the Senate. With the consent of the Senate, I would like to have it agreed that the same point of order that was raised with the previous appointments be made applicable to each of those to which I have referred, that the Ruling of the Chair be also made applicable as well as the respective presentations on both sides, and the reasons that were filed by certain parties as to voting 'no'. In that connection I would again like to reemphasize that our 'no'. In that connection I would again like to reemphasize that our 'no' votes in this connection had nothing to do with the qualifications or desirability of the appointees because many of those are excellent appointees. So, with the consent of the Senate, I would ask that that be followed."

MEMORIAL PROGRAM

INVOCATION

by

Reverend Charles A. Loyer

Westminster Presbyterian Church, Olympia

"Eternal God and Father, Who hast written intimations of immortality into the poetry of the seasons and so into the hearts of men, we thank You for this memorial service which provides us with the occasion for reaching into the past and reclaiming for ourselves moments of high privilege and rich experience. With heads and hearts bared we would pay homage to the lives and works of those Legislators who once peopled these chambers, but have since gone to their everlasting rewards. Now remember those loved ones who bear the burden of bereavement, sustain and guide them as they pursue the poignant and difficult task of putting together the jigsaw puzzle of their lives without that familiar and central piece into which all others have so happily fit. Be unto them, O God, an ever present help in time of need. Amen."

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

by Representative Paul Pruitt

"The poet Scott writes: 'I sing a song of the saints of God, patient and brave and true; one was a doctor and one was a priest, one was a shepherdess on the green; they were all of them saints of God and I mean, God helping, to be one, too.'

"As you know, through the years of the history of the church the church has named certain special people that have been in the service of mankind saints. It became a part of their title so it's spelled with a capital S. I doubt there would be much enthusiasm, if any enthusiasm, either inside or outside the Legislature for us to have laws of certain people being saints; in our business there never would be. I am suggesting today in this memorial service that there were political saints. Of course, spelled with the small letter s. There are differences between the saints the church has designated and the political saints, and we would not suggest the differences, nor need to. But there are also some similarities and I would like to suggest some of those similarities.

"Among the political saints there is a certain amount of notoriety; to be in a political office there is the popularity of being out in public and being recognized, but along with that popularity and notoriety, the political saint also has a measure of humility. It is possible that humility has come about by circumstances—defeat in office, inability to achieve the ideals and goals that the candidate once had, or perhaps the humility is more innate than the character personality before joining the Legislature or working with the public. Nonetheless, whatever it is, the popularity, the notoriety, is joined with a measure of humility in the political saint. I suggest also that the political saint who we honor is one that recognized—and how does one avoid the recognition of certain privileges in office? Privileges in the privilege of election and yet at the same time I would suggest that the privileges in the political saint were never misused to the point that responsibility, either great or some moderate measure of responsibility, was also taken along with privilege. It is also a responsibility.

"Then the political saints that we are talking about also wanted to take the stance of a servant—take a servant posture in office, not a slave. There is a difference between a servant and a slave, because a slave is locked into a position and has no more individuality and does not stand on his own. But a servant, yes, is one who holds the office to the people. A political saint is one who responds to those people, who reacts to the people. A political saint is also a servant.

"I sing then, says Scott, a song of these saints. You can meet them in church or in school. You can meet them in shops or at tea. All of them are saints of God and, God—helping, I'll be one too. I suggest that in a memorial service that we do cast some halos on the political saints; that the friends gathered in honor of these persons whom we are now to name, the families, the colleagues of Legislators departed from the House and the Senate, will recognize in your own minds, will cast your own halos, recognizing those periods in life and be thankful for the periods of stress, of controversy, even periods of failure, maybe of despair, but thankful that saints learned and grew, expanded in knowledge and in understanding. You also, in casting your halos, say thanks for the times of victory, times of triumph, the times of the great contributions of the persons that we now honor.

"Let us then join in the honoring of each person in this time of memorial."

BENEDICTION

Father William Treacy
St. Michael's Parish, Olympia

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Gruger: "This is my first session in the Legislature, but it is not my first time viewing a memorial service. In 1962 I was in the gallery. It was appropriate that I be in the gallery because my mother had been a member of another Legislature and she had passed away earlier that month. I was not an invited guest, I happened to be driving up the highway, saw the Capitol and thought 'it's Washington's Birthday, but perhaps they are in session.' We arrived just in time to witness the memorial service. Later I found that my sister had been invited to the North Dakota service and had attended it. I appreciated the service that day. Now that I know how busy you all are perhaps I appreciate it even more. On behalf of the families of deceased members I would like to thank the committee, the members of the Senate, the members of the House of Representatives. Thank you."

Representative Pruitt returned the gavel to President Pro Tempore Henry.

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Thank you, Representative Pruitt, our appreciation and gratitude to you, Reverend Loyer, Father Treacy, Representative Erickson and other members of the memorial committee. The President Pro Tempore is sure that the loved ones of the dearly departed gained considerable solace and comfort from this very impressive ceremony."

On motion of Ms. Erickson, the Joint Session was dissolved.

President Pro Tempore Henry returned the gavel to the Speaker.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and the House to escort President Pro Tempore Al Henry from the House Chamber.

YOU ARE A JUST GOD WHO REQUIRES JUSTICE AND MAKES IT POSSIBLE FOR US TO EFFECT JUSTICE. WE PAUSE IN YOUR PRESENCE, ASKING YOU TO SUPPLY THESE AND ALL THE GOOD GIFTS WE NEED FOR THIS DAY'S TASK.

"FOR TASKS BEGUN BUT NOT YET DONE BECAUSE OF OUR PROCRASTINATION, WE ASK FORGIVENESS. FOR LOOKING AT THE WORLD WITH FILTERED VISION AND SEEING ONLY WHAT PLEASES, WE ASK YOUR FORGIVENESS. FOR THE TIMES WE HAVE USED PEOPLE INSTEAD OF SERVING THEM, WE ASK YOUR FORGIVENESS.

"WITH GRATEFUL HEARTS, WE ACKNOWLEDGE THE ABILITIES YOU HAVE PROVIDED THESE SENATORS TO FORMULATE JUST AND EQUITABLE LEGISLATION. WE THANK YOU FOR THE OPPORTUNITY YOU HAVE PROVIDED THESE INDIVIDUALS AND THIS BODY, COLLECTIVELY, TO SERVE — AND FOR THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE GIVEN THEM THE MANDATE TO SERVE. AND CERTAINLY, LORD, WE THANK YOU FOR THE BEAUTY OF THIS NEW DAY AND FOR THE RAIN YOU HAVE SENT DOWN FROM HEAVEN WHICH WILL NOT RETURN TO YOU WITHOUT ACCOMPLISHING ITS PURPOSE.

"PLEASE, DEAR GOD, GIVE THESE MEN AND WOMEN CLEAR HEADS, PERCEPTIVE MINDS, THE WILLINGNESS AND THE ABILITY TO FIND COMMON GROUND TO RESOLVE THE DILEMMA OF DEADLOCK, THE HUMILITY AND THE ACUMEN TO SORT OUT THE GOOD FROM THE BAD, THE NECESSARY FROM THE UNNECESSARY, TO DEVISE WAYS AND MEANS THAT WILL BRING TO BEAR THE VERY BEST OF HUMAN KNOWLEDGE IN DECISION MAKING AND PROBLEM SOLVING.

HELP THEM TO USE THESE GIFTS IN A WAY THAT WILL BE A CREDIT TO YOU AND A REAL HELP TO THOSE WHOM THEY SERVE. When they did raise them in '75 they raised the amount from five to six dollars or whatever it was, but they didn't make arrangements for that additional money to go into the driver education fund, the highway safety fund which also handles driver ed."

Senator Rasmussen: "Why are they striking five then? Have they been collecting the extra dollar illegally? On the bill it strikes five and inserts six. Would they have to make a refund then?"

Senator Henry: "No, in 1975, the fee for the driver's license was raised from five to six dollars. The law at that time said the five dollars would go into the safety fund, and so you have got to strike five and put in the six so that all six dollars go into the safety fund."

On the last line of the amendment to page 1, line 16, strike "access to".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Would you yield to a question, Senator Rasmussen? Tell me the purpose of your amendment. I thought that I had covered this in putting 'access to' which would in effect, I think, cover the intent. We are not trying to give the game commission the powers to go into private property, yours or mine or anybody else's. If we have this latitude here, I think it covers it, doesn't it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Peterson, the way your amendment reads, this would only extend to the private property owner the right to control the access to, not to control his private property. I think this is far more important. This is all-inclusive."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, under your amendment would private property owned by Simpson Timber be able to be used for hunting by employees of Simpson Timber regardless of what the state game department said? Isn't that what your amendment would do?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No. No, there is another section of law that provides that you may not have any hunting on a property if you restrict it to just even the land owner cannot hunt on his property. That is in another section of law."

Senator Francis: "Doesn't your amendment change that?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No."

Senator Francis: "Why not?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, because we are not amending that section of the law."

Senator Francis: "I think your amendment by implication may affect that section of the law."

Senator Rasmussen: "In no way, Senator Francis."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson, Engrossed House Bill No. 274 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Would Senator Peterson yield to a question? As I read this bill, it would be to really two groups, those under eighteen and those that have not purchased a license before. Wouldn't it outlaw the use of the steel trap when you say for the two pieces of criteria, 'painlessly capture or instantly kill', wouldn't that outlaw the steel trap?"

Senator Peterson: "Where do you read that? What line are you looking at?"

Senator Benitz: "Lines sixteen and seventeen."

Senator Peterson: "No, it says, 'including the use.' It does not limit that, and that is not the intent of this bill. We did not mean to—that is not the intent of the legislation. I do not believe it reads that. It says, 'The commission shall establish a program to properly train persons in safe, humane and proper trapping techniques.' including the use, but not excluding or—it is to train them, actually. The purpose of this, and I think the original intent, was that those that do trap with steel traps should know how to set those traps and how to properly set them in a manner that would be in a humane manner to the animal that they are capturing, by the statutes that we now have. This bill is supported by the Washington State Trappers Association and it is something that the game department has had a significant amount of pressure on in order to make the trapping industry as humane as possible."

Senator Wilson: "Will Senator Washington yield? Senator, are all of the provisions of this act entirely optional as far as local government is concerned?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, local government does not have to take part in the one stop procedure. They don't have to put their permits, for instance, as far as the county is concerned you would have possible permits like building permits, zoning, platting, rezoning or conditional use permits. Now if they wanted to have those put in a single hearing along with the state they could. If they don't wish to do that, they don't have to."

Senator Wilson: "Nothing is being mandated to local government?"

Senator Washington: "No."

Senator Bottiger: "Isn't it the appeal if the district refuses to release them?"

Senator Gould: "Oh, all right. I will have to back up. I have not read it recently. It may—"

Senator Gould: "Yes. Yes, you are right."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 186, by Representatives Keller, King, Kreidler, Smith, Burns, Owen and Vrooman:

Permitting public employees to participate in nonpartisan political campaigns as well as partisan campaigns.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 186. Earlier today, the committee amendments were adopted and two amendments were moved for adoption by Senator Mardesich.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Mardesich, the amendments were withdrawn.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 13, after "associations" insert "for nonpolitical purposes".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I will have to clarify this. I should like to direct a question to Senator Mardesich. Senator Mardesich, would it be your intent that with the addition of that language that voluntary contribution of any kind from an association, from a union or from any group or individual would not be legal if it were a public group? Or is it your intent that the solicitation not be on public premises of political funds?"

Senator Mardesich: "The intent is that contributions and dues not be for political purpose unless they be voluntary, and not by any other manner."

Senator Grant: "Well, I thank you, Senator Mardesich and members of the Senate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Will Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, what would that do to where there is an automatic deduction made for political purposes?"

Senator Mardesich: "I would suspect that that would be an illegal procedure under the act, an automatic deduction."

Senator Odegaard: "You mean under your amendment it would be illegal?"

Senator Mardesich: "Under the amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Senator Mardesich, do you yield to an additional question, then? I think Senator Odegaard touched on this with regard to WEA and their political contributions. Those are what is referred to commonly as a negative check off. That is, members of the association are solicited by the association as to whether or not they wish to contribute to a political fund. If they do not indicate that they— if they fail to take any action, if they fail to notify the association that they do not wish to participate in a political, in the political fund, then it is an automatic donation or deduction of their dues. That is referred to as a negative check off, and I wonder whether or not under your interpretation that would be legal."

Senator Mardesich: "I had not intended that to be covered. It seems to me that we should have something the same as we have in our federal income tax, and that requires an indication that you want the deduction, and that would indicate a voluntary contribution rather than anything that is negative in nature and simply by failure to act. I assume they would do that by some sort of a form that they have when they send out with their dues check off form, that they would require a positive indication which would truly be voluntary then."

Senator Grant: "That is not the way it is done, Senator Mardesich. If that is what your intent is, then I would like to speak against the amendment. I think that a person should have to take—"

Senator Mardesich: "That is the language, the intent I had, and I hope the understanding of the floor."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, House Bill No. 186, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 358, by Representatives Clemente, Barnes, Heck and Kreidler:

Authorizing state board of education rules to determine admission qualifications into preschool, kindergarten and the first grade.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 12, after "schools." insert "It is the general policy of the state that the entrance age for kindergarten shall be five years of age."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, will Senator McDermott yield? Senator McDermott, under your amendment, if a child were born, say, the first of November and was four on the date that school started, but was going to be five on the first of November, would this mean that even if they had passed all of the other criteria that they would not be eligible to start kindergarten?"

Senator McDermott: "On line seventeen, Senator Francis, after the amendment which we are adding it says, 'Such rules may provide for exceptions based upon the ability or the need or both of an individual student', so it will still be flexibility in the rules and regulations which the state board of education provides."

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator McDermott, if we are willing to accept some flexibility why not leave it the way it was and reject this amendment?"

Senator McDermott: "Is that your question?"

Senator Francis: "Yes, I am asking you what purpose does this amendment have? If we are not going to be holding to it, why not just leave it the way the bill was drafted before?"

Senator McDermott: "The basic point of this whole bill—I guess we have to discuss the bill, is that each district has various ages for entrance into kindergarten and first grade, and this bill is an attempt to standardize that. We want them to make a uniform rule across the state. We want to have the school districts make their decisions in light of the state board rule."

"We are saying here that we think that all children ought to start by five years of age in kindergarten and that is part of the basic education definition. The previous law was very vague. It said they could start between four and six, and consequently some people did start. Some didn't. There has been all kinds of variation all over the state, and it just has been unworkable. This is the request of the superintendent."

Senator Francis: "Well, Senator McDermott, that is not what I am asking. I am asking about this amendment and maybe you have answered as well as you can."

Debate ensued.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator McDermott:

Amend the McDermott amendment to page 1, line 12 as follows: Strike "five" and insert "earlier than four and one-half"

Further debate ensued.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 30, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representative Erickson):

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

March 3, 1977.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 30, requiring the recording of notices of water and sewer hook-up charges and requiring contracts for the sale of undeveloped lands to include any restrictions on water or sewer facilities (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, on line 4, insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, or political subdivision which has the authority to install sewers by establishing local improvement districts, which has charged and collected monthly service fees for sewers, that have been authorized and approved by the voters and have not been constructed for a period of ten or more years since the voter approval, is hereby authorized and directed to grant a credit against the future assessment to be assessed at the time of actual completion of construction of the sewers for each parcel of real property in an amount equal in dollars to the total amount of service fees charged and collected since voter approval for each such parcel, plus interest at six percent compounded annually: PROVIDED, That if such service fees and interest exceed the future assessment for construction of the sewers, such excess funds shall be used to defray future sewer service charge fees.

It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section are procedural and remedial and shall have retroactive effect."

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "facilities;" and before "and" insert "creating a new section;"

Signed by: Senators Wilson, Chairman; Bluechel, Fleming, North, Sellar, Talley.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Mr. President, would Senator Wilson yield to a question? Senator Wilson, one of the provisions you have in here on page one, lines twelve and thirteen, relates to connection charges for which reimbursement for the cost of the facilities constructed. One of the problems I have seen in my county are when a particular area has no sewers at all, but it is within a larger district in which there are sewers and heavy expenses. I am wondering whether you intend by this legislation that an area that does not have sewers can have costs for facilities assessed against their property even when they do not have, and are not to have, any sewer facilities added to their own premises."

Senator Wilson: "It is my understanding that that would not be—that is certainly not the intent of this legislation."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Well, then I will have to ask a question. Senator von Reichbauer, does the bill say that the voter's pamphlet has to have in there where the precincts will meet, and this is in the year before they meet, as I understand from your language a few minutes ago. Are they going to have to know eight months in advance where the precincts are going to meet?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Mr. President, Senator Guess, it is not required that they have this data, but quite frankly, most precinct caucuses and by county do have this information, but this is not limited to just that data. They do not have to have that at that time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I would like to speak to the same question if I may because I think this should be in the record as far as our interpretation of this. It is my interpretation that that clause on line fifteen is modified by the beginning language on line thirteen, so that you read that all in one piece. It would read, 'instructions as to how to ascertain the names of current precinct committee persons, precinct caucus chairpersons, the locations of precinct caucus meeting places and the dates of county, district and state conventions.' I think that any other interpretation would make it impossible for the secretary of state. I think that all the secretary of state is going to be required to provide there is instructions as to how to ascertain that information."

On motion of Senator Beck, House Bill No. 240, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Beck yield to a question? Senator Beck, the bill reads as doing more than what you are talking about there. The bill reads that the UTC shall adopt rules, etc. to insure that every motor vehicle you have provided by a railroad company to transport employees in the course of their employment. That means if they want to have an automobile, a minibus or anything on a public highway, now the utilities and transportation committee is going to give them rules and orders as are necessary to insure that the vehicle provided will be safe and so forth, the minimum standards for construction and mechanical equipment and all of that. I don't see the necessity for that. You told us in caucus it was a good bill."

Senator Henry: "In answer to Senator Van Hollebeke's question or inquiry, we won't call it a question, there are some six hundred thirty nine automobiles in that round number owned by the railroads that haul, not the employees, but the officers and other members around. The only thing that we are getting at here, and we think that the utility commission has the authority now to be sure that these crummies or whatever you want to call them, and that is what they call them in the woods, that haul the employees, and they are not all on the railroad tracks. Some of them down in our area they have buses that they take the employees out to, the section crews out, park alongside the road, and then they go down over the bank and work on the railroads.

"This gives the utility commission the right to set certain rules and regulations about those that we have in the logging industry, for instance, where you are not supposed to have employees riding with a bunch of loose axes and things like flying around in the back of it, so I don't think we are giving them an authority they don't already have. It was a bill that was pretty well agreed to by both sides. All the cars have been taken out by amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "In further response to Senator Van Hollebeke's inquiry, I think section one defines the motor vehicles under consideration to express just exactly what Senator Henry has described."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 240, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 6.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, House Bill No. 321 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Buffington: "Mr. President, would Senator Day yield to a question, please? Senator Day, would you please tell me, has the department really expressed exactly how much in demand that the additional language in this particular statute would enable them to continue the work that you declare they are already doing?"

Senator Day: "Yes, I think they have expressed the feeling that it is necessary that they have this legislation in view of the fact that the Wilson case which was in this particular county determined that the act of venipuncture was actually a surgical act, and therefore these technicians were precluded from drawing blood. What this bill does is allow them to do it."

Senator Buffington: "Mr. President, may I continue and ask Senator Day one more question? Senator Day, are registered nurses now employed by the public health officers?"

Senator Day: "Yes, in some instances they are, and they would not need this act because, of course, they already are authorized in the statute to perform venipuncture."

Senator Buffington: "Thank you very much, Senator Day."

Further debate ensued.

President Pro Tempore Henry announced the presence in the Senate Chamber of Cecil A. Gholson and appointed Senators Newschwander, Matson, Bailey, Walgren, Buffington and Wojahn as a committee of honor to escort Mr. Gholson to a seat on the Senate rostrum.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Marsh, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-11

By Senator Henry:

WHEREAS, Cecil A. Gholson served as a member of the House of Representatives from the 14th District in Yakima in 1939; and

WHEREAS, Cecil served his district with honor and distinction; and

WHEREAS, He always placed the needs of his constituency foremost in his mind in making legislative decisions; and

WHEREAS, After legislative service Cecil embarked on a long and successful career as a valued member of the third house; and

WHEREAS, He thoroughly understands the complexity of the problems facing this state and has unselfishly devoted himself to the solution of those problems; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his career he has been especially effective in working with the legislature; and

WHEREAS, The members of the legislature know and will remember Cecil as a trusted colleague, as an effective lobbyist of the highest integrity, and also as a personal friend to Democrat and Republican alike;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Washington does hereby commend Cecil A. Gholson for his many years of unselfish service and expresses to him appreciation for a "job well done" and does hereby bestow upon him the title of Honorary State Senator;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Cecil A. Gholson.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, thirty-seven years ago, as a neophyte in politics beating the sage brush over in Benton County in a little town called Benton City, I am sure that Max Benitz is familiar with, I bumped into a kindred soul who was also out beating the brush. He wasn't looking for votes. He was trying to make some sales, I think, for the company he represented. That was thirty-seven years ago, my friendship with 'Cec' Gholson started. He has been a member of the Legislature as was said in the resolution. He has been a friend to all of the legislators here. He epitomizes to me the type of a member of the third house that will go down in history as those who have gone before him that have never given you a bum steer. They would not lie to you. You asked him even if it was something that he happened to be on the other side, you asked him for the details of the bill that he was opposed to and what the good points were, he would tell you.

"For that reason I think it is a great honor today that we are able to have here as our guests in the back of the room, I would like to introduce his wife, Edith, his daughter, Sally and his son-in-law, Dave. Would you please stand? And a long time friend and good companion of his, Mr. Sid Edland, who is no stranger to us either.

"At this time I would ask the acting Governor of the state of Washington, the Honorable John A. Cherberg, to present our guest with the certificate."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Mr. President, and thank you, ladies and gentlemen. I would like to say that when I first arrived in Olympia that I knew the background of our esteemed 'Cec' Gholson, and upon arrival found him to be one of nature's noblemen, a legendary character in his own right and his own time. Like Abou Ben Adhem, Cec, your name will lead all the rest. I am very grateful to you, Senator, for permitting me to present this certificate in recognition to all whom these presents shall come greeting:

"Know ye, honorary Senator Cecil A. Gholson is hereby recognized with appreciation by the Washington State Senate in testimony whereof a number of Senators have hereunto set their hands down at the capitol at Olympia this eighth day of March, A.D. 1977, attested by the Secretary of the Senate, Sid Snyder.

"Cecil, heartiest congratulations and best wishes."

REMARKS BY CECIL A. GHOLSON

Mr. Gholson: "Mr. President, President Pro Tem, 'Big Al', these charming girls, two lovely ladies. Fellow members of the Senate, both the ladies and the gentlemen, and members of the third house and state employees of the Senate. You know, I have had a very, very happy and successful life during my lifetime. Part of it has been made possible, a big part, by the association that I have had over the years by some of your predecessors and these present members. I may get a little emotional over this or I may have a tear in my eye, but I hope that you will understand.

"In speaking to you about my associations since 1939 as a member of the House and later as a lobbyist, sixteen of those years with a very fine company, the Boeing Company of Seattle, whom I was very, very proud of and still am.

"I have a list of names here that is quite long, but if there is one person that I know would be happy to be here today, it would be Senator Perry Woodall. As I was standing in Governor Cherberg's office, there was a picture of Perry, and it made you feel just like he was there. It really did. There are other members of the beloved Senate that I have known for years. Another one that comes to mind, Senator Mike Gallagher. I am happy to say that during this time I did have the privilege of not only having the friendship and the loyalty of not only Republicans, but Democrats alike. I can go back to many, many people that I see here today. I worked very closely with a Senator by the name of Dewey Donohue who was the dad of Hubert, and what a wonderful person.

"I also worked very closely with a Senator by the name of Ernie Huntley who was a former Senator and past commissioner of the revenue department. His son, Elmer, who has gracefully done his share of responsible work for the state of Washington as a Senator. There are other names like Davey Cowen, Fred Redmon, and Senator John Happy. He would have been happy to see you doing the job you are doing. He really would.

"There is Harry Wall, Senator Bob Rutter, Asa Clark, Vic Zednick, Ed Flanagan and Sid Flanagan, his son who is now a distinguished member of the House. There is a gentleman that I appreciated very much when I was in the Legislature and working very close with the House, and that was a fellow by the name of Charlie Morrison, Sid's father. He was a wonderful person, Sid, and I enjoyed being with that gentleman. John Ryder, Frank Foley, Bob Timm, Bob Twigg, Jimmy Anderson, Marsh Neill, George Kupka, Ed Riley, Barney Jackson, Jerry Hanna, Jack Rogers, Bill Gissberg, Dick Marquardt, Bob French, Pat Sullivan, Web Hallauer, Harry Wall and Fred Redmon from Yakima. These men I cherish very much because any success that I had, they helped me reach that success. Without them I couldn't have done near what I accomplished, and I am so proud and honored and happy to be here today to see this outstanding gesture on your part.

"I think it is the epitome of the top. It is greater than the Congressional medal or the Hall of Fame or anything else I think that a person could have, and I really cherish it, and I will assure you that I will do everything in my power to justify this great honor that you have bestowed upon me.

"Now before I close, I would like to take this occasion to make this announcement: In honor and in memory of our son, Gib Gholson, I am establishing a Senate scholarship fund for you gentlemen here in the Senate to authorize, write in the manner in which you want it presented, and the rules and regulations by which it shall be guided from now on. I am presenting an original contribution of a thousand dollars to this scholarship fund. When I say 'I', I mean our family, my wife and my daughter.

"I would like to have this yearly award to be selected by a Senate committee to the outstanding boy or girl majoring in political science in the state of Washington, and inasmuch as Gibby was to graduate from the University of Washington, I would like to have it stated that it be a scholarship fund at the University of Washington.

"While I am on the subject of Gibby, there is a friend here today that was probably as close to him as I was. He was his godfather, and I tell you, he did so much to help this boy when he was down here and he was so proud to work with him. That is the gentleman that today presented you Senators with the beautiful rhubarb. This boy idolized this Senator, and believe me, I appreciate all the nice things that the Senator did for Gib, and I am sure that he will appreciate just as much as I do what we are attempting to do here today.

"In closing, you gentlemen and ladies and your predecessors are beautiful and I love you dearly, more dearly than spoken words can say. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Thank you, Cec. On behalf of the Senate, it gives me pleasure to accept that scholarship on behalf of your, in the name of your son. I am sure that some deserving student will benefit greatly from this. I don't know at the closing of the end of a sixty day session, and some of the problems we have had, why anybody would want to get mixed up in politics or even political science because really, I haven't found a great deal of science to it up till now. Perhaps with a little book larnin' it might help some of us out. Would the committee please come forward and escort our fellow Senator—I might say also for those of you who do not know, this is only the fourth time in the state of Washington's history that this honor has been bestowed upon anyone. The first one was to a man most of us knew by the name of Wilbur Scruby. The second one was to a very fine young man who was cut down in the prime of his life by the name of Jack Hurley, the third was to Sammy Perkins, and now to a long time friend, Mr. Gholson."

The committee of honor escorted Mr. Gholson from the Senate Chamber to the office of the Lieutenant Governor and the committee was discharged.

HOUSE BILL NO. 230, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 8, 1977.

Mr. President: The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to HOUSE BILL NO. 186, and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Grant moved the Senate recede from the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 186.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved the Senate adhere to the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 186.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, does your amendment prohibit any employees from giving for political contributions?"

Senator Mardesich: "No, in fact, it is the very opposite. It makes it clear that he can and should do so on an individual basis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Grant, would you yield to a question? Senator Grant, why do you say that the employees cannot contribute for political purposes under Senator Mardesich's amendment?"

Senator Grant: "I am not saying that the concept is improper, Senator Rasmussen. I am only saying that if it should apply to one group, it should apply to all groups, not just to labor organizations, but to employer organizations as well. It should not just be applicable in this measure."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Grant, are you going to be with us for the next sixty days?"

Senator Grant: "I rather doubt that, Senator. I imagine that the people in the seventh district have different plans for me."

MOTION

Senator Francis moved the question be divided and that the amendments to page 1, lines 8, 9 and 15 be considered separately from the amendment to page 1, line 13.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Would Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, in the context of this bill the reference is made to employees of the state or any political subdivision. Are school districts in this context considered political subdivisions of the state?"

Senator Grant: "In that this only refers to RCW 41.06 and not the RCW with regard to educational employees, I would think that it only applies to state employees that are currently members of either the Washington Federation of State Employees or the Public Employees Association. That is, those working for state, direct state agencies, direct appropriations from the state."

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Grant that the Senate recede from all Senate amendments, was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the question was divided.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, the Senate refused to recede on the Senate amendments on page 1, lines 8, 9 and 15 to House Bill No. 186.

MOTION

Senator Grant moved the Senate do recede from the Senate amendment to page 1, line 13 to House Bill No. 186.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Grant that the Senate do recede from the Senate amendment to page 1, line 13 to House Bill No. 186.

The motion by Senator Grant failed on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved the Senate do adhere to its position on the Senate amendment to page 1, line 13 to House Bill No. 186 and ask the House to concur.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Does not the motion automatically accomplish the result that Senator Francis suggests? Do you need to vote twice on the same thing?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, the President believes that the motion proposed by Senator Mardesich would be in order as there are several avenues that the Senate could pursue in this matter."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, a point of information. I am wondering if the wording of Senator Mardesich's motion is appropriate. He said we should adhere, and I read under Reed's Rules number 247 that there are five motions in the following order: to concur, to non-concur, to recede, to insist and to adhere. Are we putting ourselves in a box by adhering, and shouldn't we be moving to not concur? My question, Mr. President, is what would the effect of adhering be?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Francis, your remarks are well taken in the fact that to adhere is the strongest position that the Senate could take, although it is still possible for the bill to wind up in conference if the House does not adhere to its position."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Mardesich that the Senate adhere to its position on the Senate amendment to page 1, line 13 to House Bill No. 186 and ask the House to concur.

The motion by Senator Mardesich failed on a rising vote.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Peterson moved the Senate recede from the Senate amendment to House Bill No. 262.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Peterson yield to a question? Senator Peterson, as you looked at this amendment, where did you find that it would conflict with any statutory laws or the Constitution?"

Senator Peterson: "I did not mean to say that it would conflict. I said it is superfluous language to what exists is what I meant to say. There is nothing here that really binds anything that isn't already in the statutes. This is the information that I am getting from my staff and the reasons why the House has refused to accept our amendment."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Peterson."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Peterson that the Senate do recede from the Senate amendment to House Bill No. 262.

MOTION

SENATE RESOLUTION 1977-13

By Senators Matson and Walgren:

WHEREAS, The state organization of the Young Men's Christian Association has conducted a Youth Legislature during the past several years for which the use of the Senate and House chambers for this purpose have been granted; and

WHEREAS, These Youth Legislatures have been most successful and educational to all participating therein; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the Legislature of the State of Washington to encourage the interests of our youth in legislative matters and in the proceedings of the Legislature;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that the use of the Senate Chamber and the committee rooms be granted to the state organization of the Young Men's Christian Association for the Youth Legislature to be held in Olympia in 1977 and 1978.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Walgren: "We have commented on the special session of the Legislature and I know that is something that is uppermost in the minds of most of the membership here, and of course, of people who are not serving in the Legislature as to when the Governor might call the Legislature back into special session. Regardless of what her determinations are, I think it is well known that the Senate in years past has endeavored to set particular time periods for the orderly commencement, the orderly conclusion of any special session, and for the information of the public and, of course, for the membership here I should say that we have been involved in discussions, certainly with Senator Matson and the Republican leadership in this body, and with Representative Bagnariol and the other leadership in the House of Representatives.

"We have prepared a cutoff resolution that would, we believe, set some reasonable times and dates for the conclusion of any special session that might be called in the future. We are prepared to pass that resolution at this time. The House of Representatives, the Democratic Caucus there is considering similar cut off resolutions in their own caucuses this afternoon at one o'clock. We think that perhaps it would be premature for us to pass our resolution now. We think it is appropriate that the House have an opportunity of considering this and making a determination and advising the leadership in this house and the Governor's office as to their conclusions.

"I would simply indicate that we will have a resolution on the desks for the membership tomorrow. Our intention is in any circumstance to pass over to the House of Representatives a resolution that will set forth reasonable dates as far as the conclusion of a special session.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MATSON

Senator Matson: "Mr. President, just in responding to Senator Walgren, we are of course very delighted that the majority is working with the House in this matter, and we will be glad to aid them in any way possible to bring this thing to an orderly and final conclusion."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Senate refused to grant a Conference on House Bill No. 262. The Senate adheres to its position and requests the House concur in the Senate amendment to House Bill No. 262.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

RELATING TO MY AMENDMENT TO HB 262

It was adopted by this body on March 4, 1977. The intent of my amendment is to retain the right of private land owners to control trespass over and across their lands, and to protect their property against abuse or damage. This provision specifically relating to wildlife is covered in the game code under RCW 77.16.230. I simply want to reaffirm this individual right.

It is not the intent of my amendment to allow individuals to establish fish and wildlife seasons independent of those established by the State Game Commission which is charged with that responsibility. I recommend that the Senate refuse a request for a Conference Committee on this issue and that it be transmitted back to the House for their concurrence in the existing language.

Signed: Senator A. L. Rasmussen

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

Bailey has achieved an outstanding record as a legislator and has left to the people of the state of Washington as a permanent memorial of his devotion to the best interests of the citizens of the state many statutes which were enacted as a result of his sponsorship and of his efforts; and

WHEREAS, From and after his active military service with the naval forces of the United States of America in World War II, Senator Bailey, in addition to his private employment as a newspaper publisher and printer, increasingly devoted his life to public service; first, as county clerk for Pacific county during the years 1947 to 1951; as administrative assistant to former Congresswoman Julia Butler Hansen

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Cherberg: "Thank you, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. The President, before requesting the Secretary to read the Resolution, would like to request of two members of our staff, Mrs. Greeley and Mr. Snyder, that you please join with a committee of Senators to be made up of those members who were either Senators at the time of Senator Bailey's arrival in the Senate or were in his 1957 class, Senator Keefe, Senator Washington, Senator Talley and Senator Henry, and the Republican members are requested, Senator Matson, Senator Newschwander, Senator Clark. Would you please act as a committee of honor to escort the highly respected and capable Senator to the rostrum, and Elmo, would you join the committee?"

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Cherberg: "Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, prior to the consideration of the Resolution, the President respectfully requests Senator Sandison, Senator Rasmussen, Senator Guess and Senator Murray that you please escort Mrs. Bailey to the rostrum."

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

President Cherberg: "Would Senator Ridder and Senator Buffington please escort Mr. Mike Bailey to the rostrum?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Henry, Senate Resolution 1977-12 was unanimously adopted.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I know that we are all going to miss Senator Bailey, his wife and very fine son, but more particularly our associations have been with Senator Bailey in the caucus.

"He never, ever raised his voice, but he sure had a loud gavel. He kept things going on an even keel. I had the opportunity, of course, to serve with Bob in the House, served with him in the Senate, found his wisdom very good, and I am sure that even the Republicans will join with us, and I know they are going to have something to say because he has kept an even keel between the parties so that now, strange as it may seem, we don't fight like we used to. We agree on what is best for the people, and we work at it, and I that is largely the result of Bob Bailey's wise counsel. I have certainly enjoyed serving with him."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "Thank you, Mr. President. Bob, I can tell you that all nineteen of us on this side are really going to miss you. I don't think there are many times we got the best of you. We tried and tried for the eight years since I have been in, and I think I got up with it even once at breakfast one morning, but you told us on the floor about four years ago that you had the votes, and so we knew you had the votes.

"We respect you. We are going to miss you, and we wish you well in your new endeavor. I am sure we are going to see you around quite often, and I am waiting for the day that maybe we can walk you down the aisle again. Best wishes to you and your wife and your son."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ODEGAARD

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, after the redistricting of a few years back and I acquired part of Pacific County, it was a new area to me and Senator Bailey was a great help to me and has been ever since about half of Pacific County came into my district. One of the greatest assistances he gave to me is when I was campaigning in the Long Beach Peninsula area, Sid Snyder's area.

He said, 'You know, Gary, there is a problem you have out here, and that is your last name.' He said, 'There is a fellow active in state government who happens to be in charge of the state parks,' and he said, 'I would advise you that you do something about that.'

"I said, 'Do you think we can counteract that? That might be a way that we would lose this seat to the Republicans.'

"He said, 'Oh, I think we can do something about it.'

"So, every meeting we went to together, the first thing Bob would do is, first of all, say, 'He is not related to that other Odegaard,' and we even sent out a special letter to that effect to all of the people living in that area. That seemed to do the trick.

"I think the greatest attribute that we have seen in Senator Bailey, and especially in our caucus, is the way he can bring together a concensus at critical times especially towards the end of the session, in trying to make the very serious decisions we have to make, especially in the budget areas. He has that ability to pull us together somehow, and it is not easy, as any of you have been in our caucus have happened to observe, at times that is not the easiest thing to do. I have an idea that he will be able to do that also, we hope, with the utilities and transportation commission.

"We will miss you, Bob, but we will be close by."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. I have had the opportunity of knowing Bob for a long time, both before I became a member of the Legislature and during my service here. One of the most pleasurable experiences is to serve, as I have, on the many special committees that we have jointly been on. I have always found that he was extremely knowledgeable and reasonable. My only hope is that you fellows on the other side can find somebody that will do as good a job as he has in that particular capacity. I think you really have got a problem there."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, reaching back into memory, after my first year down here 1963, I remember Senators Marshall Neill and Perry Woodall were particularly unhappy with the way some of the scheduling was going on, and so they went to Bob and asked Bob to see if they couldn't sit down and to iron out some of the problems that had occurred. I remember sitting in a room in the Olympic Hotel and listening to Marsh and to Perry tell about the real, sincere, cooperative effort that they were working with Bob Bailey and trying to help smooth, the operation of the Senate, and I think that this was the beginning of the mode of operation that we have today where we can put out a schedule and that schedule is adhered to. You can have constituents come over and they can expect to testify before a committee on time. The operation of the Senate today bears very markedly the steady hand that Bob Bailey has exerted.

"I want to tell Bob that I will miss him and I will miss the fairness that he has exhibited and the cool head that he has had. I am not going to say that he hasn't flared once in a while because I got a sting from him once, but he came over in a little bit and said, 'I didn't mean that, Sam,' and I appreciated that. Thank you, Bob, for your service."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, we are all going to miss Bob for one reason or another. I would just like to mention a few. Obviously, the record. We are going to have to be more careful without him to remind us what we are doing. What I am going to miss most is the getting up in caucus and thinking I am persuading the whole thing, and hearing his voice saying, 'Now don't get me wrong,' or, 'I am with you, but—' and know you have about had it. That is what I am going to miss most."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORRISON

Senator Morrison: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, sometimes an adversary role builds a greater opportunity for respect than just getting along day to day, and Bob Bailey and I quite often, particularly when I was in the House, found ourselves on different sides of issues, particularly the labor issues, where the heat is usually on. And, Bob, I remember those many, many hours we spent, and from this side of the aisle and on behalf of a lot of working people in this state, that I think your position has helped significantly in these years that I have known you, thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I no longer can speak for the freshmen, but I can speak for the second row from the back, and those of us that joined the Senate two years ago, I think, will always appreciate the ease with which our caucus chairman, Bob Bailey, made it possible for us to join in the activities of this body and feel comfortable in that role. I also learned a great deal of respect for Bob Bailey as a member of the ethics board and we also learned from his experience on the ethics board that when we are waving at people we should always use all of the fingers on our hands.

"Now, we are kind of sorry in a way that Bob is going over and joining the bureaucracy, and someone once said that a bureaucrat doesn't steer the ship of state, he only adjusts the compass. I suspect that when Bob Bailey joins the bureaucracy they will know they have got someone at the wheel, so best of luck to you and Lee and your son, and we are going to miss you over here."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GRANT

Senator Grant: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would also like to join in this chorus of voices saying that we are going to miss you, Senator Bailey. I am going to miss you because it is going to be very difficult, I am afraid, to find a replacement for you on that labor committee. It is not an easy committee to serve on, and I am going to miss you on that count. I am probably going to miss you more than any other member here, too, because you are going to be around Olympia, and very likely with the ground swell that is developing that I will not be."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MURRAY

Senator Murray: "I can't top that, Mr. President and members of the Senate, but I think Senator Bruce Wilson and I are the only members of the body that are doing this, in effect, for the second time. As weekly newspaper publishers, we saw you leave our ranks a few years back, and I know that we were at a loss because of that. Now, as Senators, we are seeing you leave the Senate. I know that we will miss you and we wish you the best of luck."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

"Mr. Johnson, would you and Mr. Shabaz please escort the Honorable Gordon L. Walgren to the rostrum."

"Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is indeed a pleasure and with great pride that the President presents to you the Honorable Gordon L. Walgren."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Thank you very much. Senator Bailey, I want to assure this is not going to be a major address by any means in spite of the pomp and circumstance that attended my coming up here to the front.

"As usual, and I am glad they passed and acted upon that resolution before I arrived because, as usual, as you know, my name starting with 'W' most of the decisions are made by the time the voting is finally done, and so it is with the remarks that have been made out here on the floor. All of those good things that are most appropriate have mostly been said. I certainly join with all of those remarks

"I know that today is one in your life that is marked with a tinge of sadness, and yet with a great sense of anticipation with the challenge that is facing you with an opportunity to proceed as you have in the past with the good works for the people of the state of Washington. That, of course, is in the new position that you are about ready to assume. I think really that the fact that the Governor has seen fit to appoint you to this position is indeed the true test and the true merit of your ability and the integrity that we all know that you possess. That is a very sensitive position there, and we are very, very pleased that you saw fit to assume this job. We are, of course, as has already been said, going to miss you. I personally am going to miss you. As I have indicated in the caucus, you have been a great help to me in trying to bring about the concensus, certainly on our side, of the thirty Democratic voices that range from one side to the other side and seldom, if ever, get together. But you have, as we have already said, been the catalyst to bring us together and I want to personally thank you, and I know all the members of our caucus do also.

"On behalf of the entire Senate of the State of Washington, I want to present you with the Resolution that was read and adopted unanimously, and of course, signed by all of the members of the Senate. Ordinarily we have to move that they all be added on here, but you know, they were all here with you from the very beginning, and we want to be with you as you leave now and once again, congratulations, Bob."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "While there is this pause and all those votes are up there, I wonder if some other motion might be in order."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Senator Walgren. Bob, Lee and Mike, Betty and I have always found the greatest pleasure in knowing you, and from my standpoint I am very honored and proud to have had the opportunity to work with you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "This is going to be very short. Members of the Senate, I deeply appreciate this. I hate to go, but I am kind of glad to go too, and watch you struggle for another sixty, seventy, eighty days, whatever you decided this morning. I want to just set the record straight for Gary Grant, and that is that yesterday at the labor meeting, Senator Ridder said this would be my last meeting, and I had the temptation to say that the reason I am going over there is to get away from this committee, but I thought it might be hard to recruit another member if I said that because Ruthe does run an extremely good committee.

"Senator Murray has alluded to the fact that it was a loss to them when I left the newspaper business. That is the reason I left. It was quite a loss to me, too.

"Seriously, I have enjoyed wielding the gavel in Democratic caucus. I can do that there. You guys are pretty small, but when I get home, a gavel doesn't do much good on a guy like this. He is too big. But Mike and I and Lee appreciate this today. I am sorry. I have been very grateful to all of you, the staff, the press, the members, and I will miss you myself, but I hope to get back and lobby a little bit in the next couple of months on a new budget. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Bob, everybody joins in extending you all kind thoughts from the Senate and best wishes and Godspeed in your new opportunity.

"Would the committee please come and escort Mrs. Bailey and Tiny from the rostrum?"

"Would the Senatorial committee please come to the rostrum and escort the Honorable Bob Bailey to his desk?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I am not going to ask for equal time, but I heard a certain Senator a few minutes ago speak about a ground swell. I am sorry that he can't tell his feet from his head, but it is more like a head swell."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

Office of the Governor

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with the constitutional limitation in Article II, Section 12, the 45th Session of the Washington State Legislature will be adjourned March 10, 1977, the sixtieth day of the session. It is obvious that the sixty day limit imposed in 1889 does not allow the Legislature enough time to consider the problems our state faces in 1977.

In recognition of the unrealistic deadline the sixty day limit imposes, I intend to convene the Legislature in extraordinary session. I am confident that during this special session the members of the 45th Legislature will resolve the problems of school funding, deal with pension reform, revise our tax system, provide emergency authority to deal with energy shortage, provide authority for reorganizing state government, and fund state government.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dixy Lee Ray, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington in extraordinary session in the capitol at Olympia on the eleventh day of March, A.D., 1977, at the hour of nine o'clock a.m. for the purposes stated herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia, this tenth day of March, A.D., Nineteen Hundred and Seventy Seven.

DIXY LEE RAY, Governor of Washington.

BRUCE K. CHAPMAN, Secretary of State.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

Harley Eugene Kline was convicted on April 8, 1974, by the Washington County Circuit Court, Commonwealth of Virginia, for the crime of bigamy and was sentenced to a term of three years in the Virginia Penitentiary. On June 27, 1974, the execution of said sentence was suspended and Harley Eugene Kline was placed on probation for a period of three years under various terms and conditions set by the court. In December, 1974 he left Virginia and came to the State of Washington and has resided in this area since that time.

Harley Eugene Kline now stands charged with the crime of violation of the terms and conditions of his probation and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia has sought to extradite him from the State of Washington by requisition dated October 27, 1975, and to have him returned to Virginia to serve his sentence.

Harley Eugene Kline has resisted such extradition and has petitioned for permission to remain in this state.

After a detailed consideration of the entire background in this case, my predecessor concluded that the best interests of Harley Eugene Kline, and the States of Washington and Virginia, would be best served by allowing him to remain in this state under special parole supervision in lieu of his extradition to the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The extradition request by the Commonwealth of Virginia was directed to be held in abeyance during a three-year period. In the event it is shown to my satisfaction or any succeeding Governor at any time during the three-year period that Harley Eugene Kline has violated any of the terms and conditions of his special parole, granted on August 2, 1976, the extradition request of the Commonwealth of Virginia may thereupon be granted and a Governor's warrant of arrest issued without prior notice or hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

On the 8th day of December 1967, Augustus Wood was sentenced by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for King County, to a term of life imprisonment for the crime of Murder in the First Degree. He had served in excess of seven years at Washington State Penitentiary in Walla Walla where his conduct and record were exemplary. Because of the statutory minimum sentence provided in RCW Chapter 9.95, substantial additional incarceration would have been required before he would have been eligible for parole pursuant to the authority of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

Petitions were received on behalf of Augustus Wood urging that his life sentence be commuted so he would be eligible for parole on the grounds that he was clearly able to assume a responsible role in society, was demonstrably rehabilitated, would not constitute a threat to other persons, and would not be benefited by further incarceration. The Board of Prison Terms and Paroles had reviewed his case and recommended to my predecessor that the life sentence be commuted.

All information available with respect to Augustus Wood was carefully reviewed and the recommendations of public officers who are knowledgeable of his present circumstances had been considered. My predecessor concluded that further incarceration of Augustus Wood was not in the best interest of society or himself.

On January 10, 1977, a commutation order was signed to commute the life sentence of Augustus Wood and authorize the Washington State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles to parole Augustus Wood subject to the complete control, supervision, and authority of said Board, which authority would include any and all action deemed appropriate by the Board including the authority to revoke the parole and return Augustus Wood to imprisonment.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

Gerald Lee Albaugh was found guilty of Second Degree Burglary by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for Lewis County on April 25, 1963, and was sentenced to a term of not more than 15 years in the State Reformatory. Mr. Albaugh served 2 years at the Reformatory and was paroled on January 24, 1965. Subsequently, he violated parole and was returned to the Reformatory for a one-year period. In November 1972, Mr. Albaugh was released from parole and received a Final Discharge and Restoration of Civil Rights on March 5, 1974.

Gerald Albaugh has since maintained a record free of further arrests and for the past four years has been fully employed by the Centralia School District with an excellent work record. On October 29, 1975, he was granted a license to carry a concealed weapon by the Lewis County Sheriff's Office. His petition for a pardon is supported by numerous individuals in the community who have attested to his good character and standing, including the former Prosecuting Attorney for Lewis County who sought Mr. Albaugh's original conviction.

For these reasons, on January 10, 1977, Gerald Lee Albaugh was granted a pardon from that judgment and sentence of Second Degree Burglary entered on April 25, 1963 by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for Lewis County by my predecessor.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

Frank Carver Brooks was found guilty of Resisting Arrest by the District Court of the State of Washington for the City of Mount Vernon on June 23, 1955, and was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail. Fifty-six days of the sentence were suspended, accompanied by an order to pay costs. On February 18, 1962, Mr. Brooks was arrested for Public Intoxication and was fined $25.00 by the District Court of the State of Washington for the City of Lynnwood. There is no record of any felony convictions and Mr. Brooks has never lost his civil rights.

Since 1945, Frank Carver Brooks has been President of Frank Brooks Manufacturing Company in Bellingham, Washington. Mr. Brooks is a successful businessman and a responsible member of the community, volunteering his services to a wide variety of civic organizations. His petition for a pardon is supported by numerous individuals in his community who have attested to his good character and standing.

For these reasons, on January 10, 1977, Frank Carver Brooks was granted a pardon from that judgment and sentence of resisting arrest occurring on June 23, 1955, and the February 18, 1962 conviction of Public Intoxication, by my predecessor.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

On December 5, 1955, Robert J. O'Toole was sentenced by the United States District Court for Alaska to confinement in a federal penitentiary for a period of 15 years for the crime of murder. Article VI, Section 3 of the State Constitution, disqualifies a person convicted of a felony from voting in the State of Washington.

While the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles has the statutory authority to grant a restoration of civil rights to a person convicted of a felony under state law, it does not have such authority where a person is convicted under federal law.

I am advised that Robert J. O'Toole had conducted himself in a satisfactory and acceptable manner and had given such evidence as to justify the belief that he is trustworthy and reliable and that a restoration of his civil rights was appropriate.

On November 17, 1976, all civil rights and privileges forfeited by reason of his conviction were restored by my predecessor.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.

Office of the Governor, March 10, 1977.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE
AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon which has been granted since the adjournment of the Second Extraordinary Session of the Forty-fourth Regular Session of the Legislature.

On October 19, 1973, Bert Benjamin Ibsen was sentenced by the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington to confinement in a federal penitentiary for a period of five years for the crime of misappropriation of funds. Article IV, Section 3 of the State Constitution disqualifies a person convicted of a felony from voting in the State of Washington.

While the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles has the statutory authority to grant a restoration of civil rights to a person convicted of a felony under state law, it does not have such authority where a person is convicted under federal law. However, the Governor does have the authority to restore within this state the civil rights of a person convicted of a felony under federal law.

I am advised that Bert Benjamin Ibsen had conducted himself in a satisfactory and acceptable manner and had given such evidence as to justify the belief that he is trustworthy and reliable and that a restoration of his civil rights was appropriate.

On October 29, 1976, all civil rights and privileges forfeited by reason of his conviction were restored by my predecessor.

Respectfully submitted,
DIXY LEE RAY
Governor.
