PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fraser: "Well thank you Mr. President. I would like to just to note that today is a significant historical anniversary today. The first Monday in March, it's the day the Legislative Building first opened, eighty years ago. That day I am told the Legislators walked from the Old Capitol Building to the new capitol building so then I looked up in the journal from 1927 to see well what did they do that day. Of course they had a joint session to welcome the new building and all members of the House and Senate were present. The prayer was given by

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, MARCH 5, 2007

Reverend Hart of St. John's Episcopal Church in Olympia and of course they had a lot of people addressing the joint session. Governor Hartley, the State Auditor, the State Lands Commissioner-all on the State Capitol Committee; the Speaker, the President of the Senate, former Governor Hart, the Chief Justice, so it was a major day. There was music and singing including the UW Glee Club and the Varsity Club. Interestingly they passed a motion directing that photographs be taken and then they adjourned the joint session and went back to their respective chambers and back to business. Guess what? Call of the Senate. They worked all day and then they went into an evening session which also had a call of the Senate. So, this is an historic day. The eightieth anniversary of the day this building opened."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Honeyford: "Well, thank you Mr. President. It's also interesting to note on the opening of the grand opening of the capitol building Governor Hartley was so tight he vetoed any funds for celebration for it. And I understand that Senator McCaslin was on that walk and enjoyed it very much."
