MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 4, 2015

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed:

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1126,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1868,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1875
and the same are herewith transmitted.

BERNARD DEAN, Deputy Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5944, by Senators Hill, Rivers, Litzow, Bailey, Braun, Brown, Parlette, Hewitt and Benton

Implementing the periodic review of state spending programs.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Hill moved that the following striking amendment by Senator Hill be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1)(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every new statutory state spending program shall include an expiration date that is no more than ten years from the effective date of the spending program.

(b) A future amendment that modifies or expands a statutory state spending program does not extend the statutory state spending program beyond the period provided in this subsection unless an extension is expressly and unambiguously stated in the amendment.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, "new statutory state spending program" means a state statute that:

(a) After January 1, 2016, establishes a new state expenditure program, establishes a new state agency or department, expands a state entitlement program, or establishes a new or expanded distribution of state revenues to political subdivisions of the state or other entities; and

(b) Is projected to result in increased state expenditures in excess of one million dollars in state funds in the program's first full fiscal biennium of implementation, and is not self-supported by fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) As provided in this section, every bill enacting a new statutory state spending program must include a state spending performance statement.

(2) A state spending performance statement must state the legislative purpose for the new state spending program. In addition to identifying the general legislative purpose of the state spending, the state spending performance statement must provide additional detailed information regarding the legislative purpose of the new state spending.

(3) A state spending performance statement must specify clear, relevant, and ascertainable metrics and data requirements that allow the joint legislative audit and review committee and the legislature to measure the effectiveness of the new state spending program in achieving the purpose designated under subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The joint legislative audit and review committee must review new statutory state spending programs according to a schedule developed by the committee.

FIFTY THIRD DAY, MARCH 5, 2015

The committee must consider, but not be limited to, the following factors in the review as relevant to each particular new statutory state spending program:

(a) Public policy objectives that might provide a justification for the new statutory state spending program, including but not limited to the state spending performance statement under section 2 of this act, the legislative history, and any legislative intent;

(b) Evidence that the existence of the new statutory state spending program has contributed to the achievement of any of the public policy objectives;

(c) The extent to which continuation of the new statutory state spending program might contribute to any of the public policy objectives;

(d) The extent to which the new statutory state spending program may provide unintended benefits to an individual, organization, or industry other than those the legislature intended;

(e) The feasibility of modifying the new statutory state spending program to better achieve the intended objectives; and

(f) Fiscal impacts of the new statutory state spending program, including past impacts and expected future impacts if it is continued.

(2) For each new statutory state spending program, the committee must provide a recommendation to the fiscal committees of the legislature as to whether the new statutory state spending program should be continued without modification, modified, scheduled for sunset review at a future date, or terminated immediately. If the committee determines that the new statutory state spending program does not achieve the ascertainable metrics specified in the state spending performance statement under section 2 of this act, the committee shall recommend termination of the program. The committee may recommend accountability standards for the future review of a new statutory state spending program.

(3) If a new statutory state spending program does not include the information required under section 2 of this act, the joint legislative audit and review committee is not required to perform a review under this section, and it is legislatively presumed that it is the intent of the legislature to allow the new statutory state spending program to expire on its scheduled expiration date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act constitute a new chapter in .

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Hill to Senate Bill No. 5944.

The motion by Senator Hill carried and the striking amendment was adopted by voice vote.

This act is intended to promote electronic transactions and remove barriers that might prevent electronic transactions with governmental entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Unless specifically provided otherwise by law or agency rule, whenever the use of a written signature is authorized or required by this code with a state agency, an electronic signature may be used with the same force and effect as the use of a signature affixed by hand, as long as the electronic signature conforms to the definition in section 3 of this act and the writing conforms to section 4 of this act.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by law, each state agency may determine whether, and to what extent, the agency will send and accept electronic records and electronic signatures to and from other persons and otherwise create, generate, communicate, store, process, use, and rely upon electronic records and electronic signatures. Nothing in this act requires a state agency to send or accept electronic records or electronic signatures when a writing or signature is required by statute.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, for governmental affairs and governmental transactions with state agencies, each state agency electing to send and accept shall establish the method that must be used for electronic submissions and electronic signatures. The method and process for electronic submissions and the use of electronic signatures must be established by policy or rule and be consistent with the policies, standards, or guidance established by the chief information officer required in subsection (4) of this section.

(4)(a) The chief information officer, in coordination with state agencies, must establish standards, guidelines, or policies for the electronic submittal and receipt of electronic records and electronic signatures for governmental affairs and governmental transactions. The standards, policies, or guidelines must take into account reasonable access by and ability of persons to participate in governmental affairs or governmental transactions and be able to rely on transactions that are conducted electronically with agencies. Through the standards, policies, or guidelines, the chief information officer should encourage and promote consistency and interoperability among state agencies.

(b) In order to provide a single point of access, the chief information officer must establish a web site that maintains or links to the agency rules and policies established pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Unless specifically provided otherwise by law or rule or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, whenever the term "signature" is used in this code for governmental affairs and is authorized by agency rule or policy pursuant to section 2 of this act, the term includes an electronic signature as defined in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) "Electronic signature" means an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with a contract or other record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Unless specifically provided otherwise by law or rule or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, whenever the term "writing" is used in this code for governmental affairs and is authorized by agency rule or policy pursuant to section 2 of this act, the term means a record.

(2) "Record," as used in subsection (1) of this section, means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form, except as otherwise defined for the purpose of state agency record retention, preservation, or disclosure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Unless specifically provided otherwise by law or rule or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, whenever the term "mail" is used in this code and authorized by agency rule or policy pursuant to section 2 of this act to transmit a writing with a state agency, the term includes the use of mail delivered through an electronic system such as email or secure mail transfer if authorized by the state agency in rule.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "electronic" means relating to technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, or similar capabilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. For purposes of sections 2 through 5 of this act, "state agency" means any state board, commission, bureau, committee, department, institution, division, or tribunal in the executive branch of state government, including statewide elected offices and institutions of higher education created and supported by the state government.
