The amount provided in this subsection is also to be used to carry out additional silvicultural

EIGHTIETH DAY, MARCH 29, 2023

activities on state trust lands and to hold a series of forest policy discussions. Of the amount provided in this subsection:

(a) $70,000,000 is provided solely for a forest land purchase in a westside timber county. The forest land must be purchased within a willing county identified in coordination with the Washington association of counties. The land once purchased must be considered as part of the land bank created in RCW 79.19.020. The property must be purchased before the sale or exchange of any existing trust land is considered. Transfers must utilize the trust land transfer process.

(i) Up to 2,000 acres of the new land may be considered as replacement land for any existing structurally complex, carbon dense forest existing on state trust lands. Any state forest land considered for replacement must have agreement from the specific county beneficiary.

(ii) The remainder of the new purchased land may be used as exchange land for any encumbered state forest lands in Clallam, Jefferson, Pacific, Skamania, and Wahkiakum counties. Any exchanged land under this purpose must be designated as state forest transfer land.

(b) $10,000,000 is provided solely for the department to enhance forest stand growth on managed trust lands in western Washington, employing silviculture to increase growth and vigor of the trees, for healthy, resilient forests.

(c) $3,000,000 is provided solely for the department to contract with a facilitator for the purpose of convening a stakeholder group to collaborate on the protection of older timber stands on department of natural resources managed lands, the protection of a viable wood supply for the current timber market, and the definition of terms to be used when developing future forest policy pertaining to the storage of carbon and perpetual forests, while meeting the department's trust management responsibilities. The group should also provide recommendation for defining the management regime of the lands purchased with amounts provided by this subsection intended to increase forest sequestration above what it would otherwise be in the absence of the purchase by the department of natural resources, as well as for using consulting businesses for buying large forest parcels in a competitive marketplace, and may include contracting with researchers and universities for additional analysis. A report of the stakeholder group's recommendations must be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2024."

"(7) The office of financial management, working collaboratively with the department of enterprise services, must report to the fiscal and appropriate policy committees of the legislature with comparative analysis on the total estimated office space use savings by fiscal year for all impacted state agencies, institutions of higher education, and separately elected offices compared to the actual realized savings achieved by fiscal year. The report must be submitted each January 1st, beginning January 1, 2024, for the prior fiscal year. In addition to this high-level reporting requirement, the office must also report on each lease that was set to expire in the prior fiscal year, starting with fiscal year 2023, to provide actual detail for each lease by impacted state agency, institution of higher education, and separately elected office. The detail must include:

(a) Detail on the lease expiring to include the unique facility identification, the lease number, the address, the total square feet leased, the terms of the lease to include price per square foot, whether the lease is full service or not and what services are included in the rate, and how many workstations and offices will be available;

(b) Detail on the new lease, if applicable, to include the unique facility identification, the lease number, the address, the total square feet leased, the terms of the lease to include price per square foot, whether the lease is full service or not and what is included in the rate, and how many workstations and offices will be available;

(c) The estimated relocation costs for moving furniture and people to the new location;

(d) The estimated cost for new furniture and why existing furniture was not utilized;

(e) If tenant improvement costs are being paid for as one-time costs in the new location, what improvements are being made and at what cost;

(f) If tenant improvement costs are not being paid for as one-time costs in the new location, whether the costs for the tenant improvements are built into the new lease price per square foot and if so the estimated cost added to the base price per square foot;

(g) The triple net lease detail, if applicable, for the new space; and

(h) The net fiscal impact to the agency of the new lease and any additional one-time or ongoing new costs, compared to the lease that is expiring."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rolfes: "You know I went first so I missed a few things and also, I wasn't really sure on how this was going to go, so ... [Laughter] I wanted to also thank Senator Wilson and Senator Gildon and Senator Robinson for their work on this budget. It was really a strong team. Honestly, I did not really know Senator Wilson, really hadn't worked together until we were in the room even though we have been doing this work for three years. So, I just wanted to thank all three for the work and especially Senator Robinson because you couldn't have a better vice chair. Also, I want to, I'm not gonna read out the names of all the staff, I will save that to the end of session when they're partying but the, I do want to thank Susan Howson, who's the Committee Coordinator for Ways & Means and James Kettel, who's the lead on putting the budget together. As well as Matt Bridges from the Senate Democratic team. And I don't know if I can thank Ryan on behalf of the Senate Republicans, I will do that while I'm standing here. Ryan Moore was also really spent those hundreds of hours with us too. So, thank you Mr. President for that."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson, L.: "Thank you Mr. President. I would also like to rise to really press on the point of how much I enjoyed working with everyone in the, in the, in the whole budget arena. They are such a professional group of people and there are so many that I would be worried that I would miss somebody. I loved that they are such experts in their field. I mean there isn't a question that they can't answer and, and if they can't answer it, then they find it. It's, it's really great. I never heard them grumble and they were always right there beside us on the weekends and on the late nights as well. So, I am, expressed my opinion about working with this entire body and, and I would like to specifically say thank you to Ryan Moore. He is a, a rock here for me and again for the rest of all of you. But it's been a pleasure. Thank you."
