MOTION

On motion of Senator Pedersen, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated.

On motion of Senator Pedersen, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

TWENTY THIRD DAY, JANUARY 30, 2024

Senator Wilson, C. moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8662

By Senators C. Wilson, Kuderer, J. Wilson, Lovick, Nobles, Billig, Boehnke, Cleveland, and Wellman

WHEREAS, The National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) was founded in 1975 and has evolved during the past half-century to become the premier organization solely dedicated to serving state and territorial legislators and legislative staff; and

WHEREAS, It was created from the merger of three organizations that served or represented state legislatures and that shared the belief that legislative service is one of democracy's worthiest pursuits; and

WHEREAS, NCSL is a bipartisan organization with three objectives: To advance the effectiveness, independence, and integrity of state legislatures; to foster interstate communication and cooperation; and to ensure states a strong, cohesive voice in the federal system; and

WHEREAS, Our nation's state legislatures are America's laboratories of democracy and have continually shown that they are the bodies to tackle emerging challenges, and state legislatures are where people from very different backgrounds, representing very different communities, can come together and find common ground, and NCSL has facilitated the exchange of ideas, provided critical research and information, and encouraged a rigorous review of complex issues confronting our communities, states, and nation, and NCSL strives to strengthen the bonds between America's state legislatures and the international community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington recognize and commend the National Conference of State Legislatures for their superb leadership and their commitment to the legislative institution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate of the state of Washington is authorized and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the National Conference of State Legislatures.

2024 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Wilson, C. spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8662.

The motion by Senator Wilson, C. carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Ms. Holly South, NCSL Liaison to Washington, who was seated in the gallery.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "I would like to thank Paul Campos for pointing out that 170 years ago today the members of the first Washington State Territorial Legislature were elected."

EDITOR'S NOTE: Washington became a Territory in March, 1853. Shortly after his arrival in November of 1853, the first Territorial Governor Isaac Stevens proclaimed Olympia the temporary Territorial Capitol of Washington Territory and called for elections of Territorial representatives. Gov. Stevens' proclamation established the number of seats in each of the two houses and set the date of the election for January 30, 1854, a Monday. The census undertaken of the newly established Territory determined the population of the area to be 3,965 persons of which 1,682 were eligible voters in 1854. Partial results of election of January 30, 1854, election of members of First Washington Territorial Assembly: 9-member Council; 18 member House.

MOTION

At 12:39 p.m., on motion of Senator Pedersen, the Senate adjourned until 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, January 31, 2024.
